CHAPTER ETERNAL

culminated in a partnership with his mentor, William McL Ferguson. In 1972, he received the honor of being appointed as a judge to the Newport News General District Court, a position that he would hold for 32 years before retiring in 2004. He continued to actively serve on the bench as a recall judge for the next 11 years. On the bench, as in every walk of life, Judge Harvell was known as a kind and honorable man. His career was distinguished by a focus on methods to aid the community through prevention and rehabilitation. Along with Judge Henry Kashouty and Dick Tyson, he pioneered the Peninsula Alcohol Safety Action Program (ASAP) and served on the board of directors for the Serenity House, both of which sought to treat and rehabilitate men and women who struggled with alcohol abuse. He served on the board of the Tidewater Automobile Association from 1978 until 2016, serving as chairman from 1993 until 1995. One of his many roles was to choose the recipients of the annually awarded J. Timmons Memorial Scholarship. Sports held a special place in Judge Harvell's heart. A lifelong fan of the Boston Red Sox, one of his happiest days came in 2004, when the Red Sox broke the "Curse of the Bambino" with their first World Series win in 86 years. ### Thomas G. Held

Ohio Eta '50

Thomas George Held passed away at 86 years of age on September 30, 2017 after a brief illness. He was preceded in death by the love of his life, Nanette G. Held (nee Foran), in 2008, who was laid to her final resting place on the date of their 55th wedding anniversary. Mr. Held is survived by his sons Michael (Stacey), and Craig (Katy), his daughter Lynette (John) Hagenbush and his grandchildren Kendall and Caroline Held, Oscar Held, and Jillian and Catherine Hagenbush. Tom was born in Toledo, OH, the son of Louis and Lucille Held. He had a sister Jean, who was one year older and died at the young age of 48. Tom attended Longfellow Grade School and DeVilbiss High School. In the fall of 1949, he enrolled at The University of Toledo with a major in Industrial Management. The major was later changed to Business Management. At the University, Tom was president of the Inter-Fraternity Council for one year and also president of his local fraternity, Sigma Beta Phi. At that time that it was merged into a national fraternity, Phi Kappa Psi. It was at the University that Tom and Nan first met. They were married on August 22, 1953 the summer after both graduated. Nan's degree was in Education. Nan was a member of the Pi Beta Phi Sorority. That fall, Tom enrolled at the University of Michigan for a one-year master's program while Nan taught at an elementary school in Ypsilanti, MI. In September of 1954, Tom graduated from the University of Michigan with honors and became employed with Westinghouse Electric. He and Nan moved to Pittsburgh, PA, where Tom entered the Company's management training program. After brief training stints in Columbus, OH and Cleveland, OH, Tom found permanent placement in the Company's Market Research Department in Pittsburgh. They lived in an apartment on the second floor of a residential home in Wilkinsburg, PA until Tom was drafted into the U.S. Navy in March of 1956. During his time in the Navy as a Personnelman 3rd Class until the time of his discharge in September of 1957, he was stationed at the Naval Training Center in Waukegan, IL. After basic training, he was assigned to the Naval Exam Center that was located on the base. The position entailed the statistical analysis of Naval advancement tests that had been administered. Nan rejoined him at that time, after staying with her parents in Toledo, OH while Tom was in basic training, and again found a position teaching in an elementary school in Waukegan. They lived in the military complex on the base. Their first child, Michael, was born in a civilian hospital in Waukegan, Illinois. Following his discharge one month later, Tom began working for an advertising agency-Needham, Louis & Brorby- in the Prudential Building in downtown Chicago. Again, he was involved in Market Research. After a second brief stay at her parent's home, Nan rejoined Tom when they acquired an apartment in Park Forest, IL. Tom commuted on the Illinois Central Railroad for the 64-mile round trip to his position in Chicago. Their second son, Craig was born in Harvey, IL. Upon becoming disenchanted with the lengthy and tedious commute, Tom began exploring other employment opportunities in the latter part of 1960. In October of that year, Tom interviewed with the Lincoln-Mercury Division of the Ford Motor Company in Dearborn, MI. At that time, Nan's brother, Richard Foran, was working at the Lincoln-Mercury Division Offices but was unaware that Tom was interviewing. They encountered each other in line at the company's cafeteria. Tom accepted Ford's employment offer and borrowed $1000 from his father for a down payment. Their move from Park Forest to Farmington, MI was into the first home of their own. It was located on Robinwood Street and was a new house, with Nan and Tom and their two sons being the first occupants. Tom's first responsibilities were with the Used Car Department of Lincoln-Mercury. This was followed by assignments in the Advertising Department and then the Marketing Plans Department. Their daughter, Lynette, was born at Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak, MI. This addition completed their family. In March of 1966, the family purchased a home on Wellington Street in Woodcreek Farms in Farmington Hills, MI and, again, they were the first owners of the home. Their stay was short-lived; however, as 6 months later, Tom was transferred to the L-M District Sales Office in Oakland, CA. They moved into a newly constructed home located in Moraga, CA at 711 Camino Ricardo in November of 1966. Tom initially worked as the Business Management Manager in the Oakland District Sales Office. His responsibility was to call on dealers and assist, as needed, in office management procedures and policies. One year later, he was promoted to the position of Market Representation Manager in the Office of the Western Region Manager, which also was located in Oakland. Again, about a year later, Tom returned to the Oakland District Office as Assistant District Manager. This position was also short-lived and, in May of 1969, Tom was called back to Dearborn as the Dealership Real Estate Manager for Lincoln-Mercury. Although the position was retitled several times, over the years the job content essentially remained the same and Tom retired from here in May, 1991. During retirement Tom played golf (Twin Beach Country Club), continued his hobby of coin collecting, pursued his interest in movies and, with Nan, expanded the breadth of their travels, both foreign and domestic. In June 2007, Nan and Tom moved to a new house they built in Grand Rapids, which is close to where their daughter Lynette and her family lives. They left their home at 28915 Oak Point Drive, Farmington Hills, MI, which they had lived in ever since returning from California, 38 years earlier. Shortly after joining Ford in 1960, Nan and Tom became members of Antioch Evangelical Lutheran Church in Farmington Hills. Their membership was put on hold during their time in California and re-established upon their return to Michigan. Not counting that 3-year hiatus, they were members of Antioch for about 44 years. Tom ran a Stewardship Campaign one year, twice served terms on the church council and ushered for the last 10-12 years of their membership. Nan served on church council, was head of the Evangelism Committee, and was a Monday "counter" for a number of years and active with the church in many other ways. Upon moving to Grand Rapids, Nan and Tom joined Trinity Lutheran Church, the church of daughter Lynette and her family.

and fishing. After the passing of his beloved wife in 2005, Doug found new love and life when he married Janet Alfonso in 2009. Doug loved history, he loved to read and he loved to travel, making wonderful visits to all corners of the United States and several trips to Europe as well. He also spent many wonderful winters as a snowbird, living life to the fullest with friends in Fort Myers Beach, Florida. Doug was a life-long outdoorsman and sports enthusiast. In his youth, he spent countless hours honing his golf skills — sometimes playing 36 holes or more in a single day. As an adult, he played golf several times a week and recorded not one, but two holes-in-one. Doug was also a passionate hunter and fisherman who was devoted to caring for the environment. Duck and turkey hunting trips and untold hours standing hip deep in trout streams were matched by time spent restoring riverbanks and teaching veterans and at-risk teens how to fly fish.

Doug was predeceased by his parents and his first wife. He is survived by his wife, Janet; his son and daughter-in-law, Chris and Maribel Wadsworth; and three grandsons — Ryan, Adam and Sean Wadsworth; also stepson, Joe Alfonso and his wife Tasha; and stepdaughter, Angela Alfonso and her husband, Matt. He is also survived by his brother and sister-in-law, Lawrence and Joanne Weinreich as well as nieces Tamyra Riniker, Sonya Weinreich, LeAnn Nave and Lindsay Weinreich. Doug was kind and generous to a fault, always seeing the best in people and treating them thusly. To meet Doug was to instantly be his friend. And his circle of friends was large — from lifelong friendships dating back to his childhood in Dixon to new friendships made in his retirement years. He treasured you all.
