About This Issue . . .

■ After a brief absence, Phi Kappa Psi has returned to Johns Hopkins University. The Maryland Alpha Chapter was installed on May 3, 1975 in Baltimore, Maryland. Twenty-two members were duly initiated into the Fraternity and became the Fraternity's 76th active chapter. The installation feature begins on page 1.

■ The feature on page 4 on Ohio Lambda at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, shows what a new chapter CAN achieve in a short time through hard work on the part of Brothers and local alumni. Read what this chapter has accomplished.

■ Each year at UCLA, the students sponsor a huge charity event. This past year, Phi Kappa Psi and Kappa Kappa Gamma, teamed together and presented a unique booth—"House of Horrors." You can discover what this chapter achieved in community relations on page 7.

■ Kansas Alpha at the University of Kansas will soon be celebrating its 100th birthday. The feature on page 9 tells of some of the exciting events to be presented this spring. Make your plans to attend now.

■ From time to time, many of us are asked why college students should join Greek letter organizations. Dean David Nail at Texas Tech University, himself not a fraternity member, tells on page 10 some reasons for belonging to a fraternity in our modern age.

■ FROM HERE . . . AND THERE, beginning on page 12, tells of some of the achievements and honors of Phi Psis. If your name or picture hasn't been here lately, why not let the entire membership know where you are and what you are doing. Drop us a line.

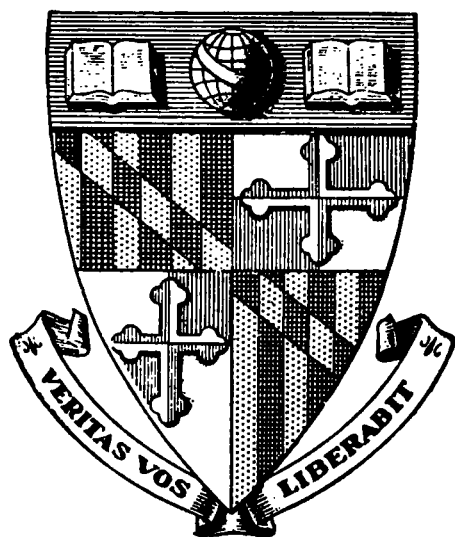

■ Would you believe that some Brothers move, and don't leave a forwarding address? Well, it happens and the list beginning on page 15 indicates members for whom we don't have current addresses. If you see someone's name on the list whom you know, please write the Fraternity's office and give us the correct address.

■ The chapter newsletters, beginning on page 18, show an increase in spirit and in membership in the chapters. Many chapters are reporting the largest pledge classes in years. Our colonies report their activities on page 40 along with news from some of our Alumni Associations.

■ A listing of our present colonies is given on page 44 along with who can be contacted if you desire to aid their cause. It is most important for our Fraternity to grow and spread throughout our nation.—Tony B. Whittington, Editor

Phi Psi Returns to Johns Hopkins

By Herbert Loveless, Johns Hopkins '75

THE University was founded in 1876, when Johns Hopkins, a Baltimore merchant, willed $7,000,000 for the establishment of a school and of a hospital. The tone of the University was set by its first president, Coilt Gilman. He modeled Hopkins after the great universities of Germany. In doing so, he established the pattern for graduate education in this country.

In 1892, the University accepted its first class of medical students. In 1917, a School of Public Health was established. In 1942, a School of Advanced International Studies was begun in Washington, D.C. At present, the medical institutions as well as the hospital are located in east Baltimore. The Division of Arts and Sciences is located on the Homewood Campus in northern Baltimore.

The fraternity system at Hopkins is as old as the University itself. The first to be chartered was Beta Theta Pi in 1876. The next was Phi Kappa Psi in 1879.

The system flourished until the years prior to

World War II when there were 19 fraternities represented on the campus. The coming of the war caused a sharp decrease in the number of fraternities. However, after the war, fraternities began to flourish once again.

The trend continued until the late sixties. Since then the number of fraternities has steadily declined. In just the past year the Kappa Alpha Order chapter has ceased operations and the Beta Theta Pi chapter gave up its house.

At present there are nine fraternities at Hopkins. They are Beta Theta Pi, Phi Gamma Delta, Delta Upsilon, Tau Epsilon Rho, Delta Phi, Sigma Nu, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Alpha Tau Omega, and Phi Kappa Psi. Approximately one quarter of the 1,500 men at Hopkins are initiated into fraternities. To date there are no sororities.

Unlike some institutions, Hopkins gives no housing support to its fraternities. Instead of being located on the campus proper, the houses are located in residential areas surrounding the campus.

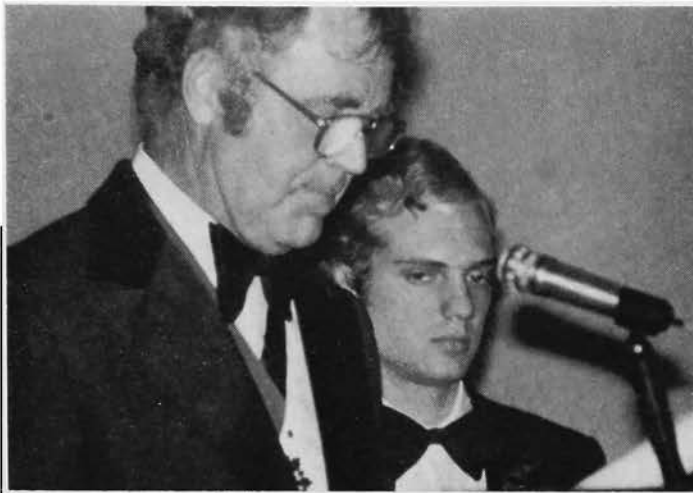

History of Maryland Alpha

Phi Kappa Psi started at Hopkins in 1878 as a graduate organization and was chartered as an undergraduate chapter in 1879. The chapter had to suspend operations in 1942 due to the diminished number of men.

In 1949, several local alumni with help from Fraternity officers managed to reestablish the chapter. Once again Phi Kappa Psi became one of the strongest fraternity chapters at Hopkins. By 1968 Maryland Alpha had 71 Brothers.

In 1969 the Executive Council took away the chapter's charter on the grounds that Maryland Alpha did not live up to the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi.

The present group was started when four people, Stuart Dickenson, Jay Berger, Sinan Serber, and Sinit Oneda decided to start a new fraternity at Hopkins. After talking to several national fraternities, the group became identified with Pi Kappa Alpha in November, 1973, with 12 members. However, in July of last year the colony asked for and received a letter of release, and approached Phi Psi. In August, 1974, the Grand Arch Council granted the group colony status.

In October, an investment company purchased the Beta Theta Pi house with the intention of leasing and/or selling it to the colony. From October on, the members worked steadily to correct over 100 housing violations as well as make the house presentable for rush.

Negotiations for the house were successfully completed in January, just in time for Hopkins' rush in February. In fact, the lighting for the party room was completed just five minutes before the start of our first rush party.

After a successful rush, the colony continued to work on the house and to institute a Fraternity education program. On May 1, Chapter Consultant Guy Minardi administered the final fraternity education test to the colony. All members passed the first time. On May 3, the colony received its charter.

Initiation and Chartering Ceremony

On May 3, 22 were initiated into Phi Kappa Psi at Johns Hopkins. At that time, Maryland Alpha received its charter and once again became an active chapter of the fraternity.

The ceremony was performed at the Second Presbyterian Church in Baltimore. In addition to the members of the Executive Board, the ceremony was performed by the Archons of Districts I and II, Alan Fleisher and Dave Melson, respectively, Executive Secretary Ralph Daniel, Assistant Executive Secretary Gary B. Angstadt, several local alumni and an induction team from Pennsylvania Eta.

The Johns Hopkins University, established in 1876, has maintained its Georgian architecture throughout its campus.

After the ceremony, the Brothers returned to the house to dedicate the Chapter Room, the Founders Room, and the Presidents Room. The Chapter Room was dedicated to Frank H. Crist, Johns Hopkins '35, for all of the help he has given to the colony. The Founders Room was dedicated to Jay Berger, Stuart Dickenson, Siniti Oneda, and Sinan Serbes. The Presidents Room was dedicated to the colony's two past presidents, Jay Berger and Harold Barr.

That evening, the banquet was held in the Great Hall of Levering Hall on the Homewood campus. After an excellent meal, the chapter received its charter, constitution, by-laws and rules, minute book and seal. The charter was received by Harold Barr (GP), the minute book by Herbert Loveless (AG), and the seal by Noe Mateo.

The chapter also received numerous gifts from many chapters and Alumni Associations. Although they are too numerous to list, the Brothers thank all those who contributed. The chapter also presented certificates of appreciation to Frank Crist, Harold Barr and Jay Berger.

The featured speaker of the evening was Kansas' favorite congressman, Larry Winn. Closing remarks were given by President Tom James and Vice President Ken Potter.

The model chapter meeting and the reading of the Ritual were held the next day. At the meeting, the chapter's new officers were installed. They are, Harvey Soldan, GP; Herbert Loveless, VGP; Phil Gilly, AG; Stu Brown, BG; Siniti Oneda, SG; Steven Guastello, Hi; Mike Ross, Phu; and Jammie Schnitzer, Hod. After the meeting, an open house was held for alumni and residents of the neighborhood.

In closing, Maryland Alpha thanks all those who have made our chartering successful.

THE SUCCESS STORY OF OHIO LAMBDA

THIS past May 6, Ohio Lambda at Miami University celebrated its third year as an active chapter. During these past three years, this chapter has experienced unparalleled growth and commendable achievements.

In 1971 when Robert Goldman, Washington & Jefferson '64, came to Miami as a graduate student, there were already 24 National Fraternities well established on campus. Since this time, Ohio Lambda has grown from 17 original Colony members to an active membership of 64 undergraduates and 46 alumni while attaining an extremely high level of accomplishment and recognition from the community and University.

This is the success story of Ohio Lambda.

Miami University

Miami University, established in Oxford, Ohio, February 17, 1809, by a legislative act, opened its doors for collegiate instruction in 1824. It is the second oldest college in Ohio. Early studies at Miami were the uniform and classical liberal Arts and Sciences. The University flourished through the years and produced many young men and women who assumed positions of leadership throughout the nation. Closed in 1873, due to changed conditions and prices after the Civil War, Miami re-opened in 1885, when resources and funds had accumulated and the State made appropriations for its support.

Since 1885, expansion of the educational services has occurred with the addition of five schools. They are the schools of Business Administration, Education, Fine Arts, Applied Science and Graduate School.

Miami's campus lies in beautiful, wooded, rolling country of southwestern Ohio. The main campus, in Oxford, covers more than 900 acres. In addition to the Oxford campus are branch campuses in Hamilton, Middletown and Luxembourg, Grand Duchy. The total enrollment exceeds 16,000 with approximately 14,000 on the main campus.

Miami has long been considered the "Mother of Fraternities" and boasts 24 other national fraternities and 19 national sororities. Included in this number are four Alpha chapters: Beta Theta Pi, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Kappa Tau, and Sigma Chi. The Greek system maintains a strong Interfraternity and Panhellenic Council which have been recognized as one of the best in the nation.

Social life at Miami, and University operations, have long been centered around the Greek community while the University provides services and, at the same time, creates an atmosphere of involvement and growth for the sororities and fraternities.

The chapter house was constructed in 1972. It consists of 10 apartments, each having a living room, dinette, kitchen, bath and two bedrooms. In addition, the house also contains a communal kitchen and dining room.

Phi Psi Comes to Miami

Realizing that he was faced with strong competition from the already existing 24 fraternities, Robert Goldman reasoned that he had to provide an alternative to the traditional fraternity concept. In early May of 1971, he contacted approximately 60 freshmen men at Miami. These men had shown an interest in the Greek system by participating in open houses and rush functions of other Miami fraternity chapters, but had chosen not to pledge. Many had actually depledged other fraternities. Following days of interviews, he pledged 17 of these men on May 13, thus creating the Ohio Lambda Colony. It was a common idea among the group to be slightly different from the typical fraternity at Miami. Their approach to fraternity life gained popularity with others who also sought personal enrichment from their college experience.

The colony members believed that "Hell Week's" hazing and general beratement of pledges was detrimental and immature. As an alternative, they introduced the concept of "Help Week" which emphasized the positive approach of this chapter. They felt that it was the responsibility of the chapter to do something FOR a pledge, not something TO him. Stressed during the first pledge program were the ideals of good scholarship, University involvement, and community service—thus the principles of the original group were imparted into their protégées. They considered a pledge as a member; a person with a voice, feelings, and ideas. The program was designed to educate a man to be an active brother, not an eternal, inferior pledge. This philosophy has become the basis upon which the chapter has developed into a strong and productive organization within the University and community.

Ohio Lambda Chartered

After only 51 weeks as a colony, this group of men, now numbering 38 were formally initiated; Ohio Lambda was installed as Phi Kappa Psi's newest chapter on May 6, 1972. The ceremony involved Past Presidents Philip Cornelius and Mark Sullivan, and Executive Secretary Ralph Daniel. The banquet which followed included many fraternity officers and University officials.

The newly installed chapter encountered many difficulties during its first year of existence. In accordance with Miami regulations requiring each fraternity to operate a chapter house, Ohio Lambda began the procedure of establishing a suitable residence for its members. The product of their endeavors was to be a different type of fraternity house which featured apartment-style living. The house was to consist of 10 units, each having the living capacity of four to five men.

At the outset, the chapter was required to post $10,000 as a retainer fee to the builder which was solicited from its members. This amount was re-paid to the members in the Fall of 1972, after procurement of a loan from the Fraternity. The house was ready for occupancy in September of 1972.

The Growth Period—38 to 115

Having settled in the house, the Brothers began planning for their first in-house formal rush. They maintained their original ideals of academics, service and involvement and emphasized these to the rushees. That winter, 22 men were pledged and subsequently initiated into the chapter. The following year, 20 new initiates were taken. Ohio Lambda had reached its desired size.

In this span of time many innovations and adaptations were initiated—some retained, others rejected. In an effort to establish itself as a recognized chapter and campus leader, mandatory attendance for all sporting and social events and a dress code were instituted, and eventually dropped after this goal was attained.

The chapter graduated her first seniors in the spring of 1974; thus the original cluster had departed, leaving their ideals and attitudes to their followers.

In 1975, 25 new initiates were taken, each pledging to uphold and defend the premises of the original 17.

Ohio Lambda Today

The ideals of the original 17 members are inherent in this chapter's philosophy and practices today. Ohio

Lambda has become a leader in the University and community. It is well represented by its members in all aspects of campus affairs: the student body President was a Phi Psi. John Burke completed two terms in office. His cabinet included Phi Psi's Dave White, Vice-President of Business Affairs and Greg Zinga, Vice-President of Communications. These Brothers have been instrumental in creating an innovative and responsive Student Government at Miami. Carl Bennett has recently completed his term as Interfraternity Council President. Under his administration, the Greek system at Miami realized its most successful operation in years. His successor is Phil Gray.

Phi Psi Tom McArthur initiated and edited The Greek Independent, an all-campus newspaper highlighting activities of all Greek organizations. Architecture major Brother Rick Daugherty serves on the University President's advisory committee on future buildings on campus. Jim Ulrich has membership on the advisory committee of the School of Applied Science while Tom Ulrich was recognized as Miami's 1975 Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

In addition, Ohio Lambda is well represented on the Miami football, wrestling, and baseball teams, the Miami University theatre, symphony, chamber orchestra, and opera theatre, and many service organizations and honorary fraternities.

Phi Psi at Miami has received recognition as a campus and community leader; the city of Oxford beautification award was presented to Ohio Lambda for its exceptional service to the community. Phi Psi assists the University with class registration by counseling students with scheduling difficulties. This service was begun as a project by the winter Pledge class of 1972. Ohio Lambda sponsored a day of activities for a children's home and contributes to the Cancer Society, Heart Fund, and Multiple Sclerosis. Weekly dinner guests have included University President Dr. Philip Shriver, Oxford Mayor Gilbert Williams, and professors from all departments of the University.

The Chapter has received much guidance from Housemother Marcetta Snell and Advisor William Mogk, N.Y. Alpha '40. Mrs. Snell has been instrumental in instituting the Ohio Lambda Parent's Club, sweetheart dinner, and other social functions. Brother Mogk was presented the outstanding Chapter Advisor award by the Interfraternity Council, recognizing him as the foremost Advisor on Miami's campus.

. . . And the Future

Much has been learned through the past four years, but much more remains. Many challenges are on the horizon—the establishment of a House Corporation, maintaining correspondence with the alumni, and prospects of relocating in a few years. The prospects of the future imply that the chapter will continue to make itself what it wants to be, not what tradition dictates it should be.

Through her constant self-evaluation and reassessment of goals, Ohio Lambda will continue to uphold the proud name of Phi Kappa Psi.

California Epsilon's Community Service "House of Horrors"

By Brad White, UCLA '75

Opening day for the UCLA Mardi Gras saw a huge crowd visiting the Phi Psi House of Horrors.

LAST spring the California Epsilon chapter of Phi Kappa Psi participated in the UCLA Mardi Gras—one of the largest student-run charity events in the country.

Every year Mardi Gras takes place in late April. The event runs for 18 hours, 6 on a Friday night and 12 on Saturday. Mardi Gras offers rides, food and entertainment; all of which is sponsored by student organizations such as fraternities, sororities and residence hall groups. All student time is donated.

The proceeds, totaling about $55,000, are for the operation of Uni-Camp, a summer camp in the San Bernadino mountains. The camp offers recreation for underprivileged children.

In past years California Epsilon and a sorority have offered their talent and participation in this charitable event. But never before had we undergone such a difficult and rewarding booth as the "House of Horrors."

It started in early February when decision time came for the 1975 Mardi Gras. Previously we had only done small booths, but this year due to a strong fall rush and a resurgence of energy within the chapter, we felt it was time to try our talent in one of the biggest booths at the event.

After consulting with the UCLA Mardi Gras committee and the UCLA alumni, it was felt that we could handle the project. Financial backing in the amount of three thousand dollars was obtained and the wheels were set in motion.

Kappa Kappa Gamma agreed to assist us in both the construction and operation of the project. Our membership of 27 brothers and the Kappa's 80 women, gave us sufficient manpower for everything that might be encompassed by our partnership in the "House of Horrors."

Our two chapters started working in late February. We worked two nights a week and on Saturdays. During these periods we built and painted 200 assorted flats for assembling the house. The work nights and days became more and more frequent as the event approached.

Both actives and alumni helped to stage the House of Horrors. Here, workers are applying scars to an actor.

Does it look real enough? Hopefully this Phi Psi has already applied his makeup.

Phi Psis and Kappas clown it up a bit during the preparation stage of the Mardi Gras. Each year fraternities and sororities team together to present the annual event.

Following the event, a time of relaxing is observed. The set is being stored to be used in next year's Mardi Gras at UCLA.

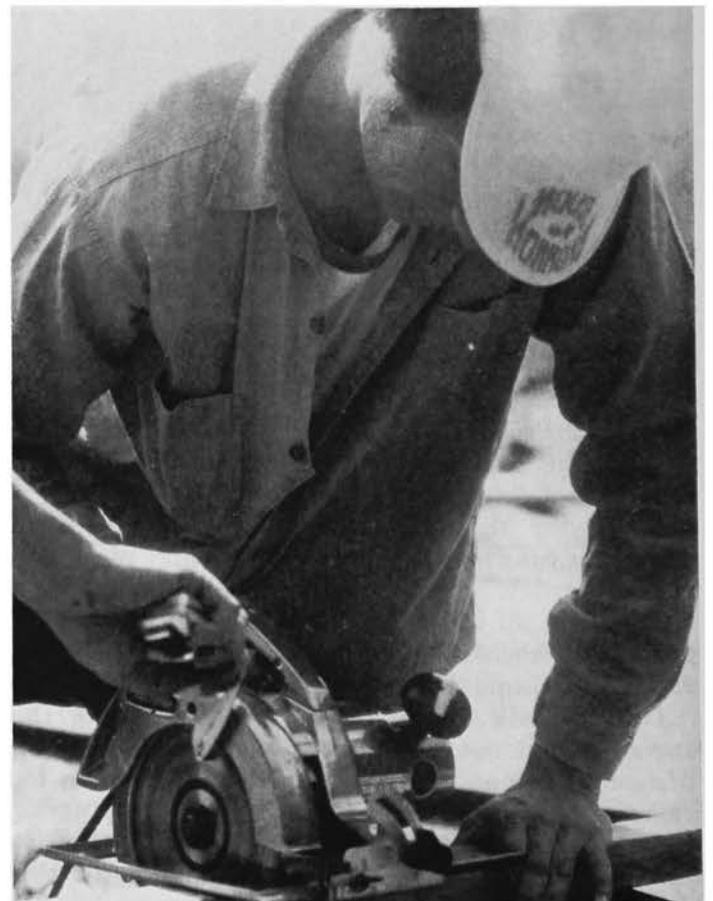

We went out on the UCLA playing field a week before opening night and it took two days to complete the construction of façade and booth. The remaining time was spent on special effects, rehearsal for actors, painting and solving miscellaneous problems.

Opening night found us ready with actors, make-up crew and spare participants. The finished booth had five rooms with at least two actors in each room, a guy and a girl. Within the rooms, the actors would be doing a specific, rehearsed act. All action revolved around the theme of an old haunted ship captain's house.

The actors totaled 16 and worked two-hour shifts before being relieved. The make-up people and those who supervised worked almost continually without stopping.

The 1975 Mardi Gras went flawlessly and when it was over on Saturday night, we were presented six awards—five first places and one second place, including the coveted Sweepstakes and Chancellor's trophies. It was the culmination of many hours of hard work for both chapters.

The booth materials are in storage at present awaiting next year's event. California Epsilon would like to thank all the alumni of UCLA who offered their time, expertise and plans which helped to make the project possible.

During the weeks before the Mardi Gras, members of the work team built and painted over 200 flats for assembly of the House of Horrors.

100 YEARS OF KANSAS ALPHA

To Be Celebrated the Weekend of April 2, 3 & 4, 1976

MARCH 9, 1876 TO MARCH 9, 1976

Planning for the most significant event in Kansas Alpha's history is well under way. With the help of all those listed below (plus others who are being contacted now) Kansas Alpha will set the mood for a 100 Year Celebration the likes of which have not been seen before, and probably won't be matched again.

The schedule of events has evolved to include the following:

Thursday evening (April 1—no kidding!)—early registration and welcoming cocktail party.

Friday (April 2)—golf and tennis tournament followed that evening with pledge class reunions (check with your pledge class Brothers and coordinate with Jack Tusher on time and place). For those not having a class reunion there will be hospitality for the Brotherhood at the House.

Saturday (April 3)—is filled with activities. The ladies will be offered an escorted trip to the fabulous Country Club Plaza area in Kansas City known for its exquisite shopping and cultural sights.

There will be a noon lunch at the Student Union for the Brothers that will spotlight 100 Years of Kansas Alpha growth. In the afternoon we are planning visits with K.U. coaches and University dignitaries and a campus tour.

That evening will feature a gala banquet with keynote speaker Charles E. (Buddy) Rogers, Kansas '23. Tom James, National Phi Kappa Psi President, will address us also. We hope that all wives will attend this banquet.

Sunday morning there will be re-dedication ceremonies, initiation, and a Chapter meeting. Indeed a full morning of re-acquainting ourselves with the meaning of Phi Kappa Psi. Next will be a recognition luncheon to honor all Phi Psis who have excelled in their fields or in dedication to Phi Kappa Psi. Wives are expected at this luncheon.

As you can see this will be a weekend to make the trek back to Kansas Alpha. A weekend of seeing Brothers you haven't seen for years. A weekend to renew your ties with Phi Kappa Psi and Kansas Alpha. A weekend of fun.

We urge you to contact any of the committee chairmen if you have suggestions or questions. All contacts should be made through the Centennial Committee Headquarters:

Hundredth Anniversary of Kansas Alpha
Kansas City, Kansas 66103

Based on advance registration deposits, attendance is currently estimated at 400 Brothers with over 100 bringing their wives. Using the Ramada Inn as our focal motel we have garnered all the rooms available in Lawrence that weekend. So, please mail in your registration deposit early if there is any chance you or you and your wife plan to attend.

Save time and energy by sending a check now for $25.00 payable to "Hundredth Anniversary" as advance registration deposit to the above Committee address. Please indicate whether your wife will attend and what nights you will need room reservations.

Further details as to cost of each event, room rates and exact time schedules will be sent directly to you. If you have not received the first two mailings made in August and September regarding the Centennial Celebration, contact the Committee with your address so you can be kept appraised of goings on as they develop. A keynote Saturday night banquet speaker should be announced shortly and more details on activities for the ladies.

Why Join A Fraternity?

By David Nail

The following article was originally presented as a speech at an Interfraternity Council introductory rush smoker at Texas Tech University on September 11, 1974. Delivered by David Nail, Assistant Dean of Students and faculty sponsor of Tech's IFC to over 400 prospective rushees; the speech is reprinted here as an answer to the old question of "Why join a fraternity?" Nail's appraisal of the reasons for joining a fraternity provide an interesting perspective as he is not a fraternity member but has worked closely with the fraternity system at Texas Tech and believes in the role of fraternities.

EDITOR

I WONDER why I am here? Well, I suppose it is because I have been requested to tell you something about the fraternity system or, moreover, why you should become a part of it. I find my assignment rather curious, for I am not what is loosely labeled a "fraternity man." I was not in a fraternity. So, you ask, why was I selected? Was it merely because I am faculty sponsor of the Interfraternity Council? I hope not, and I hope to show you why.

Being a historian by training, it might at this point be worthwhile to say a brief something about the origin and evolution of fraternities.

That takes us back 198 years. More often than not, historians agree that what we call fraternities are native to America and that the first, Phi Beta Kappa, was founded at the college of William and Mary in Virginia the same year Mr. Jefferson of that state was helping found a nation by virtue of writing the Declaration of Independence. Now, Phi Beta Kappa was a secret club of sorts. At least it borrowed some of its secrecy from the Masonic order—things like an oath, and handclasp, and rites of initiation. But it was principally constituted to be a literary society. Back then, you see, colleges were strictly academic sorts of places. Well, mainly they were. Yet being a literary society said something. It said that a group of students got together, secrecy and all, because they had something in common. That began to be called brotherhood.

Today, I doubt one Phi Beta Kappa would know another unless they walked past one another twirling their keys. So diluted has brotherhood become in that organization that one member often does not know the other, even on the same campus, or so says the fellow who was the best man in my wedding. And he is a key-carrying member of Phi Beta Kappa. Now, of course, academic excellence is the hallmark of that organization. And brotherhood took a different route.

In the 1820's other Greek-letter societies took form—Greek because that language was then part of the set and classical curriculum of study everywhere. These, too, were literary, but they soon mutated into secret student societies interested mainly in campus politics and what one historian called "formalized snobbery."

Maybe that is a bit over-done. Early fraternities did fill a social need on campuses, for college administrators, what we now might call Deans of Students, tended to shy away from the lighter sides of life. And although most of those administrators thought of fraternities as "creating artificial and false position" among their male charges, some recognized that "one object of some of the societies here is the cultivation of manners, and so far they have improved."

So by the turn of the century, fraternities, their houses, their rituals, and maybe even their snobbery were here to stay. Fraternities became more than sentiment. They became institutions. To belong to a fraternity was to have connections upon graduation. To have connections was oftentimes the key to later success. Indeed in 1909 when the National Interfraternity Council was formed, it was for alumni of fraternities, not students.

Yet this is too harsh. What was the cornerstone of the foundation of fraternities, what is now the capstone, is brotherhood. And brotherhood by any measure is growing through sharing. Which says nothing about sisterhood.

When women were first allowed on all-male campuses, they rapidly followed the lead of the all-male fraternities. Thus what we now call sororities are by their own definition officially and formally chartered as fraternities. The purpose was at first to keep other girls in their proper places and, obviously, to establish contacts with fraternity men. In fact, by the 1920's a good bit of the racoon-coat variety of campus superstition had established that at college "A" the Phi Psis traditionally favored those co-educational students, or co-eds, pledged to the Kappas; at college "B" the Delts were assigned the Chi Omegas, and so on.

Greeks had, it seems, arrived. Competition among fraternities for pledges was exceeded only by the backstabbing among sororities. The "barbs," or barbarians, or as we understand currently, independents, only laughed if they paid any attention at all. And if a fraternity might later provide appropriate connections upon graduation, why some mothers thought that a sorority might secure appropriate husbands for their daughters. It was as if all this was some sort of Great American Rite of Passage to adulthood—or so thought the Great American Quality Class.

You can understand this has been a generalization, a generalization too often held among independents. Which leads me to my point. You gentlemen do not have to belong to a fraternity to have a successful college career. Being in a fraternity does not automatically allow you to make the best grades or the best women. Membership will not manufacture for you a plastic image of what I used to know as the B.M.O.C.—the Big Man On Campus. Nor will a fraternity make of you a man by magically raising you from bungling puberty to social grace. In some cases it will not even increase your tolerance for ethyl alcohol.

What then can you expect? Why join? What will pledging a fraternity do for you? Well, like most other worthwhile endeavors it will do for you only what you put into it. But I promise if you contribute something positive, say something like friendship, you will reap a great deal more: brotherhood.

You see, gentlemen, I am a slow learner. And I have only recently realized that. I missed the opportunity to contribute a positive friendship by being in a fraternity. Also I missed the brotherhood.

"By choosing to join a fraternity you do not limit yourself, but allow yourself to be woven into a rich fabric of diversity bound together by brotherhood."

In part, I guess it was the times. Being an undergraduate in the mid-sixties was to be surrounded by a philosophy of "do-your-own-thing-ism," something I understand now to be the most conforming "ism" I have ever encountered. The Greeks were then thought the conformists; being one was not to do your own thing. Yet doing my own thing was, in and of itself, rather hollow.

As I say, I missed the stabilizing element, indeed the somewhat humanizing element of brotherhood. I made a mistake now impossible to correct. I sincerely hope you will not repeat that mistake, at least for the same reason: arrogance.

Thus, gentlemen, you find yourselves at a point where you must make a decision. And if you decide to pledge, to whom shall you pledge yourself? Only you can decide that. But remember that the concept of rush, held not only by this IFC, but by most others across the country, is rather like a two-way street. It allows both the individual chapter and the individual student a chance to evaluate and choose. Look around. Consider more than a few options. Fraternities, like college students in general, possess a great many common elements; each also has a distinct personality. Fraternities are people with individuals of varying interests, viewpoints, and experiences.

But do not take your choice lightly. In these days of snowballing events, of "Future Shock," the decision you will make in the next several weeks is one of the few rather permanent ones left to make at all. Base that decision on the important things, not the minor differences in size of lodge or number of trophies. Decide on ideals, character, and standards. Consider also academic records and service projects. Do not hesitate to ask questions.

Finally, pledging is a learning period. You will learn about your fraternity and its traditions, your pledge brothers and those in the active chapter. You will spend time working with your fraternity and in serving others on the campus and in the community. You will be expected to contribute not only energy and effort, but also money.

All this will not be easy. Pledging is not expected to be easy. Attaining things of value seldom are. But there will be no hazing. Mental and physical duress are games played by mindless infants, and serve no purpose. True, hazing was part of the old fraternity image, but it has no place in the twentieth century.

Brotherhood does. That, gentlemen, in one word, is what fraternity is all about. I trust you will consider the opportunity before you.

FROM HERE . . . AND THERE

University of Akron Rush and Relaxation

Summer has passed, and the Brothers at Ohio Iota have hit the books once again, along with rush parties.

Our latest adventure was to rally to the Akron Zip game against Central State at the Rubber Bowl. After a dominating victory over Central (34 to 8), the Brothers continued the celebrating with a party at the house.

On Saturday, October 4, activation was held for Thomas Billman, Canton; Mark Oehlberg, Northfield; and Donald Moreley, Akron. We congratulate these men and wish them the best of luck.

Marriage vows were exchanged between John Guido and Cindy Cassidy on Aug. 2, 1975.

Howard Ginaven is presently the chairman of The United Way Drive in Summit County. We at Ohio Iota extend our best wishes to Brother Ginaven in the attempt to reach the goal of $6,000,000.

With the fall season comes the interfraternity sports. The Brothers are practicing, awaiting the opening games of football, soccer, wrestling, and others.

University of Alabama All-Sports Trophy

The Brothers of Alabama Alpha are very proud of a successful spring and summer and look forward to a great fall. On April 21, two new Brothers were initiated. They are Gordon Thomas Carter, Birmingham, and William Edgar Carter Jr., Russellville.

We are also very proud of winning the All-Sports Trophy. It took a great amount of effort on the part of all the Brothers and pledges. Victory was assured with a first place finish in horseshoes. We would also like to recognize David Gunter for first place finishes in ping pong and tennis singles. Fall sports have now started. So far we have had victories in volleyball, bowling, and tennis.

New officers for fall semester are: Samuel W. Owens, GP; John W. Harris, VGP; Mark N. Moore, P; Gordon T. Carter, AG; Walter F. Magel, BG; David Rowe Gunter, SG; Robert L. Oviatt, Hod; Matthew R. Hyde, Phu; and R. Terry Holley, Hi.

Pledges for fall semester are: Victor Charles Burns, Florida; Glenn Potter Jolly, Hartselle; Kenneth Francis Latham, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Ronald Wayne Perryman, Florence; and Joseph Claude Pilleteri, Birmingham.

On October 30, our annual Halloween Party with Delta Zeta Sorority was held for the children at Partlow State School. It was fun for everyone and helped add some joy to the children's lives.

We would also like to recognize Bill Mitchell who was married in August.

Allegheny College Phi Psi 500

Pennsylvania Beta has seen new improvements in the chapter house with the addition of new furniture this year. New tables, chairs, lamps and couches now adorn the house's lobby and party room, adding immensely to the house interior's comfort and looks. Luckily, the furniture arrived in time for rush, and the Brothers have received many compliments from visiting freshmen.

We are busily preparing for this year's Phi Psi 500 which will take place in less than two weeks. Freshmen dorms are being visited and posters hung to stimulate interest in what is always a campus-wide event. As always, various girls' floors and sororities will compete in a series of tricycle races which are officiated by the Brothers. This year, however, freshmen men will be permitted to enter the races by pulling the tricycles through the mud and slime that make up the track. Brothers, too, will race in an event in which the girls pull them through the track on the tricycles. Money is being collected by each team to be considered in judging the contest which will in turn be given to the Foundation on Multiple Sclerosis.

The football team, under coach Dana Bullock, has lost one game and won one game by forfeit in the Interfraternity competition. Although it looks like a rough road ahead, the Phi Psis are a definite contender for the IFC playoffs, and are looking forward to their next game.

Rush has gotten off to a good start this year with several large parties, the last of which was the first annual "Bring Your Own Mug Party," in which freshmen were invited to bring their own drinking utensils, the best of which would win a prize. Everything from trashcans to shot glasses were seen at the bar, making a tough job for judges Wyn Morton and T. David Coates. They finally decided on an interestingly shaped mug and awarded the prize which the recipient was very proud to accept.

Arizona State University Large Pledge Class

As summer-weary Brothers began returning for the fall semester this year at ASU, they were greeted by some unexpected changes. Dave Eidson, who had been elected last spring for another term as chapter president, abdicated leaving the chapter without a leader. For a chapter counting heavily on a successful fall rush, this could have posed a serious dilemma. But the Brothers pulled together and worked hard on rush and came up with a large pledge class. Chad Krewson was soon after elected the new GP in Eidson's stead, and Ed Switaj chosen to fill the vacant VGP office.

Arizona Beta has this term the largest pledge class it has had for some time. Making up the 19 member class are: Tom Fox, Bill Graham, Tim Jones, Jon Dowling, and Mike Ross, Scottsdale; Greg DeBrosse, Scott Frische, Todd Garfield, Bailly Hom, and Jay Maupin, Phoenix; Joe Lopez, Glendale; Randy Bolen, Ashton, Ill.; Dave Wyer, Homewood Park, Ill.; Mike Dill, Salem, N.H.; Dave Loveland, Albuquerque, N.M.; Kim Goetz, Canton, Ohio; Jeff Schnorr, Indianapolis, Ind.; Randy Dollins, Independence, Mo.; and John Clawson, Salt Lake City, Utah. Assigned the task of readying this unruly pack for initiation is Doug Mott, assisted by Ed Switaj.

Taking up most of the time and talents of the Brothers this semester is the planning of the Phi Psi 500—the first one attempted by Arizona Beta in seven years—and it is proving to be quite an undertaking. Eight sororities have already promised their participation in the event, which will take place the week of October 17, and include a Queen's banquet, a dance at the Camelback Inn, sundry parties, and, of course, the infamous tri-cycle race. With the help of the sororities, local merchants, the alumni, and the inexhaustible energy of Chad Krewson and Louie Battaglia, success is inevitable.

Intramurals are getting an increased participation from the Phi Psis under the coordinating hand of Tom Shaffar, who hopes to add a few items to our trophy case. Philanthropic activities are underway, headed by Chuck Saint, and include a beer can recycling project and a telethon for a local educational television station. Then there are the usual sorority exchanges, parties, and football games to round out the activity calendar. There's plenty to keep the Brothers active down here in sunny Tempe.

Ashland College A New Mascot

The Brothers of Ohio Theta are continuing the ten-year-old tradition of a Saint Bernard Mascot. Psimon I passed away last Thanksgiving from an intestinal disorder. We purchased Psimon II before Christmas and he's presently a year old. His registered AKA name is Phi Kappa Psimon II, but we are less formal and nicknames like Psi, Big Boy or Troll are appropriate.

On September 22, 1975, five men were initiated into the Ohio Theta Chapter. They are: Joe Pfaltzgraf, Gahanna; Rick Erdlitz, Yorktown, N.Y.; Bill Waterman, Mayville, N.Y.; Kim Kerchner, McKees Rocks, Pa.; and Jay Della Villa, Pittsford, N.Y.

Formal Rush Week began here September 30, for a four-day open rush period. The house looked its very best, due to the recent pandling of our upstairs and downstairs hallways done by all of the Brothers who devoted their time.

Ohio Theta's fall officers are: Phil Laux, GP; Bob Baird, VGP; Fred Zurn, AG; Jan Jacobus, P; Don Corsetti, BG; John Fry, SG; Matt Medevic, Hod; Tim Blakenship, Phu; and Rich Steineman, Hi. A special thanks to the old officers on a fine job performed last semester. The new officers are following some big steps and will push to carry on the strong Phi Psi spirit.

Ohio Theta has a number of Brothers participating in fall sports. Phil Laux, Steve Ross, John Biviano, Jim Hasseman, John Fry, and Kim Kerchner round out the Phi Psi football players. Jim Lucas, Don Corsetti, Jim Boyd, Randy Jones, and Tim Benjamin are involved in soccer at A.C.

Ohio Theta is on top as far as intramurals on the Ashland campus, behind the hard work of John Ferguson and Steve Gaber. Chris Fehring tied for first in the Putt-Putt Contest, while strong showings in softball and the canoe race have kept the chapter on top.

Plans are being formulated for the annual Phi Psi 500, which is put on for the campus as well as the community bicycle riders. Also in store is the teaming up of the Brothers and Delta Zeta sorority for the annual "Swing-A-Thon" for the raising of donations for the Speech and Hearing Clinic of Ashland.

Ohio Theta's Psimon II

Along with fraternal leadership Ohio Theta also shows campus leadership. Jan Jacobus serves as Chairman of the Student Board of Governors, John Anthony serves as President of the Resident Hall Association, and John Ferguson as Treasurer of Student Union Board of Governors.

The Brothers enjoyed an excellent Homecoming weekend. On October 11, there was a semi-formal at the Keg and Quarter, in Cleveland. It was a great reunion for all the alumni who were present along with the Brothers. We extend sincere thanks to the alumni for their many contributions in making Phi Kappa Psi on the Ashland campus what it is today, the best and the strongest.

Auburn University Clothes Drive

Shortly before classes ended spring quarter, new officers were elected to lead our chapter through summer and fall quarters. Our new officers are: Stephen D. Burns, GP; Richard K. Reece, VGP; Ben R. Byrd, P; Jeff A. Foshee, AG; Clifford D. Whitten, BG; Michael E. Jernigan, SG; Michael L. Nash, Hod; John P. Derickson, Phu; and John M. Dozier, Hi.

Alabama Beta came through spring quarter with another fantastic clothes drive, collecting over 4,500 articles of clothing for the needy of Lee County. The articles of clothing were donated to the Community Thrift Shop, which were then sold for low amounts.

Two men were initiated into the Alabama Beta Chapter on May 22, 1975. Michael Lee Nash of Montgomery and Danny K. Wright of Talladega. With spring quarter graduation we lost four Brothers: Richard Eric Gade, '74, who is serving as Damage Control Assistant on the USS Valdez; Thomas Renner Brickman, '74, currently working as a forester with the Peace Corps in Huehuetenango, Guatemala; David Francis Bartlett, '74, also a newly commissioned ensign in the Navy, who is presently awaiting assignment; and Gera Samuel Webster, '74, a graphic designer and a commercial artist.

Fall formal rush was severely hampered by a visit from Hurricane Eloise, thus we are still facing the task of followups from summer rush. However, John Wallace McBurney, of Opelika, and Robert Van Bell, of Birmingham, have joined the ranks of Phi Kappa Psi as Associate Members of our chapter.

On Sept. 24, 1975, GP Stephen D. Burns left for New York to represent Phi Kappa Psi at the Muscular Dystrophy Association Youth Conference. He spent three days participating in workshops, and brought home many new ideas and information on service projects that may be performed to aid dystrophy-stricken children. He is presently compiling a report on his visit, which will be forwarded to the national offices. From there other chapters may obtain copies if they are interested in new ideas for community service projects. Brother Burns returned home extremely excited about the good work of the MDA, and expresses a desire that all chapters of Phi Kappa Psi may some day do a service project to help fight muscular dystrophy.

Alabama Beta expresses its sincere thanks and gratitude to Peter Sakas, Illinois Alpha, for the help and guidance he has given our chapter. His experience as a leader at his chapter at Northwestern has enabled him to supply us with numerous ideas and helpful suggestions. It is always a pleasure to share ideas with dedicated Brothers who have worked with other chapters.

Now fall quarter awaits us with new goals and more hard work. The men of Alabama Beta hope to be able to place the name of Phi Kappa Psi even higher on campus, and are in good spirits for starting the new school year.

Bowling Green State University Homecoming Highlights

October 25, will be yet another successful Homecoming, when the Phi Psis will engage in their formal event of the year. Alumni dinner, dance, and drinks at the beautiful Perrysburg Holiday Inn surely make this the highlight of the quarter. Four teas with sister sororities will also contribute to this very socially active fall quarter.

Ohio Zeta Phi Psis continue their fine scholastic efforts by remaining number one on campus. The Brothers' point average, as well as the pledges', is number one on campus.

Ohio Zeta welcomes seven more initiates: Steve Davis, New Philadelphia; Jack Eckley, VP of IFPC, Marion; Dick Kaverman, Lima; Jeff Watson, Akron; Chris Goldsmith, San Marino, Calif.; Mike Mainwold, Toledo; and Dave Shoup, Cincinnati.

Under the strong leadership of Bill Gregg and Dave Dilts, the Phi Psis will be looking forward to a strong and successful rush program.

Involvement in football, soccer, tennis, and hockey intramurals will keep Ohio Zeta physically involved in the Greek competition.

Brown University Quality Pledge Class

With the memories of a pleasant summer behind us, the brotherhood of R.I. Alpha is looking forward to a prosperous year. While this year's pledges only number nine, we feel we have a quality class. The following were pledged on Oct. 5, 1975: Jay J. Abraham, Oceanside, N.Y.; John S. Burnham, Windsor, Conn.; Kevin F. Crook, Albany, N.Y.; David W. Field, Hutchinson, Kans.; Richard J. Hayden, Buffalo, N.Y.; Stephen E. Kurtz, Framingham, Mass.; Raymond P. Martin, Merrick, N.Y.; and Gary S. Tubridy, Wantagh, N.Y.

Wedding bells rang for four Brothers this summer. George Samenuk, Dave Daucher, Chris Gallo and Mike Cassidy all took marriage vows. We wish them all the best of luck!

On the sports scene, Brown Phi Psis are active on the varsity programs. Brothers Ballentine, Andersen, Woravka, and Michalko are playing football, as well as pledges Crook and Field. Playing soccer this year are Phil Martin, and pledges Stephen Kurtz and Jay Abraham. The varsity Soccer Manager is Brother Driscoll. Brothers Abraham and Starke are the official statisticians for the team. Both Brown's football and soccer teams are contenders for the top position in the league this year.

Furthermore, pledges Hayden and Burnham are on the sailing team, and the Phi Psi intramural teams are back in action. Defending Lampher Cup champions for the fourth consecutive year, we are hoping to clinch our fifth in '76.

On the social calendar the first band party of the fall season was a tremendous success. Even Brother Preziotti had a young woman to escort!

Among those Brothers who graduated this past June, four are in medical school: John P. Keats and Edward S. Domurat at Brown, Steven Z. Lysak at University of Cincinnati, and Carl H. Critz at Hahnemann. Paul R. Farrell is at Dental school at the University of Pennsylvania, Oliver Mading is at Columbia Business School, and Barry Whittaker is a banker in Braintree, Mass.

Active Brothers on the road include Ross Z. Greenburg who is spending a semester in England, and Lex Dupont who will spend the entire year in England.

Bucknell University Flood Relief

When tropical storm Eloise caused flooding at the campus of Bucknell University on September 26, Pennsylvania Gamma quickly responded by volunteering to help families evacuate their homes and relocate in a safe area. After the flood waters receded, many Brothers offered their assistance to help the evacuated families move back to their homes and clean up the flood debris. Rusty Mansel and Mike Mitchell worked closely with National Guardsmen in directing the evacuation and restoration operations. Fortunately, our house avoided any damage by the water.

Rush began September 28, and Rush Chairmen Terrence O'Conner and John Gherlein reported that two hundred freshmen rushed our chapter the first day. Pennsylvania Gamma is pleased to announce the pledging of sophomore Dennis A. Cullen, Washington, D.C.

John McManigal, GP, was voted by the students of Bucknell to be a Bucknell Host at Homecoming on October 3. Pennsylvania Gamma held a cocktail party and dinner for its visiting alumni. Following the meal, music was provided by students of the university.

On the sports scene, Alan Jay has been made captain of the varsity tennis team. Jon Klemens, Ward Rafferty Jr., and Laurens McClure will be playing for the lacrosse team, and Tom Heinen, Gary Cummings, Chris Karabin, and Gerard Prucell are playing on the rugby team. In intramurals, Pennsylvania Gamma is off to a good start to retain possession of the Pangburn Trophy, fielding teams in soccer and handball. Intramural Chairman, Scott MacDonald, has planned an extensive intramural program in order to keep the coveted trophy in our living room again next year.

As a final note to alumni, we hope you enjoyed Homecoming, and invite you to join us again next year, as well as any time you happen to be in the area.

Butler University Housing Situation

Once again Indiana Zeta has risen above the obstacles of our lack of housing situation. After a successful summer rush program we have succeeded in obtaining nine new pledges: Val Berger, Kevin Calabro, Roger Hurlbut, Kevin Rodman, Charley Shirley, Indianapolis; Ralph Berry, Findlay, Ohio; Tom Harris, Woodburn; Shane Rummel, Evansville; and John Yuille, Old Bridge, N.J.

We continue to achieve good results in maintaining our standards and have once again won the Sigma Chi scholarship trophy for the highest GPA among the male housing units.

Our housing board is continuing the fight for housing, and the university has again allotted us the use of a wing of the dorm where 16 of our members are now residing.

The morale of our chapter is running very high, and a very true fraternal spirit is evident. We have many activities in the planning stages and are looking forward to a very successful year.

UCLA Going Strong

California Epsilon has been going strong in 1975. Our new officers are: Jerry O. Waters, GP; Tim Moore, VGP; James Wallace, AG; Andy Nemitz, BG; Dan Agulieco, P; Tom Spivaic, Phu; Joe Mansco, Hod; Dave Kay, Hi and Dan Shugart, SG. We pledged three in the spring: Bruce Fernandez, Kent Bloom, Rex Fair. These three men helped the chapter attain fourth place in intramural sports for the year.

Fall rush was very successful with 23 new pledges: William Ernest Klatte III and Steven Frederick Behrens, Newport Beach; David Torrence Gregory, Dallas Von Puhlman, Thomas G. Miller, David Richard Jarrett, and Kevin Chase Coombs, Los Angeles; Michael Philip Fee, Santa Maria; Gary Wayne Donnahue, Camarillo; James Francis McCarthy, Olympia Fields, Ill.; Martin Douglas Stowe, Leslie Bud Weeks, Torrance; Ben Badgley Grahm, Granada Hills; Lawrence Randolph Lincoln, Costa Mesa; Charles Barsam, Rancho Palos Verdes; Bradford Dean Luke Kidwell, Atascadero; Gregory Milton Brown, Rich Eugene Buch, Placentia; C. Douglas Cosman, Huntington, N.Y.; Christopher Anderson, Lawrence Monroe Sharp, San Diego; Richard James Marasco, Albany; and Raymond Eugene Cashman, San Anselmo.

With a pledge class of this size and quality it should be an easy year for us in the individual sports.

The Brothers and pledges would be pleased to have any alumnus stop by the house for lunch or dinner.

California Polytechnic State Univ. 10th Anniversary

We are looking forward to an outstanding rush this fall due to increased

Brother input. This fall's rush program is headed by co-chairmen Alan A. J. Cook and James D. Bennett. The main features of the two week rush period are a bruising roller skating fling, river run-tubing, and a suppressed desires party.

Cal Eta proudly installed our 19th National Pledge Class on June 7, 1975. Its members were: Thomas E. O'Hern, Bruce C. Holler, Rolling Hills; Gordon C. Kraatz, Palos Verdes; Bruce L. Saylor, Venice; Timothy T. Mayeda, Ontario; Robert S. Johnson, Temple City; John E. Ware, Fontana; Thomas C. Berryhill, Ceres; Paul S. Delaney, Lemoore; Gregory D. Olson, Miraleste; David J. Turnipseed, Earlimart.

The fall term officers are: Michael Hoffman, GP; Edward E. Parraz, VGP; James D. Bennett, P; Grant R. Taylor, AG; Neil E. Palt, BG; Thomas J. Crowhurst, SG; Edward C. Mueller, Hi; Harry A. Bellows III, Hod; Mathew K. Gentile, Phu; and Mark A. J. Shorba, Pledge Educator.

This year looks like a great season for sports. We are looking forward to one of our best football seasons ever, headed by Coach Duane D. English.

Homecoming is November 8, with a Cal Poly football game against Idaho State, Saturday evening. Chapter activities for Saturday include a "Gin-Fizz" breakfast in the morning, a barbecue dinner, and an ensuing party after the football game.

Cal Eta members were recognized on campus this past year. Those involved with on-campus activities include Allyn Brown as head of homecoming, John Crowhurst as Poly Royal General Superintendent, and Edward C. Mueller as I.F.C. representative to the student affairs council.

The biggest event for Cal Eta this year is the purchasing of the chapter house. Brother Michael A. Hoffman, GP, helped obtain a Fraternity loan. We made $1,850.00 from last year's annual fundraising raffle for our building fund. Scott Shaw was in charge of the raffle and did an excellent job. We now have a total of $22,796.32 in the Cal Eta Building Fund, towards the purchase of our house.

Cal Eta's 10th year anniversary is coming up on April 23. We are planning our celebration to coincide with Poly Royal. The theme for the event is "Ten Years After." We hope to own our Chapter House by this time.

Overall, it looks like Cal Eta at California Polytechnic State University will indeed have a very promising year ahead.

California State Univ., Northridge 1975: Year "It All Came Together"

For the Brothers of Cal Theta 1975 can be considered the year "it all came together."

Momentum that began with the seventh Annual Phi Psi 500 last spring and carried through our first-ever intramural basketball championship, has progressed through a summer of house improvements.

*Under the direction of Housing
Chairman Mark Morgan, numerous workdays were called to accomplish such improvements as building a barbecue pit, tiling the barroom floor, painting the interior and varnishing
the Chapter Room floor.*

Culminating a super effort by Rush Chairman Bob Haddad, assisted by John Atkisson and Randy Michel, 15 fine men are pledging Phi Kappa Psi this fall. They are: Keith Bennett and George Fee, Northridge; Greg Hamlin and John Jackowski, Sylmar; Barry Dorland and Gene Gonzalez, Simi Valley; Tom Gulick and Lee Whitney, Woodland Hills; Murray Berg and Richard Rosenman, Van Nuys; David Friedrich, Chatsworth; Scott Muravnick, Canoga Park; Richard Parmeter, Tarzana; Ron La Vine, North Hollywood; and Dan Humfreville, Lancaster. This is the largest pledge class in the last six years for Cal Theta.

Although not renowned as an Intramural football power, Cal Theta is headed for a possible playoff berth and has already produced more victories this season than in the past three years combined. The sudden turnaround can be credited to Rich Wright who has done a great job as Athletic Chairman.

Phi Psis maintain the distinction of being the only Greeks represented on the campus newspaper, The Daily Sundial, with Bob Rapport and pledge Lee Whitney serving as members of the fourth estate. Jim Perly and John Ciccirelli are again among those active in the A.S. Senate this semester.

Brother Rick Chavez has graduated and is now attending the University of Washington Dental School. We wish Rick the best of luck.

Special thanks are in order to Brother Tony Lopez. Tony is an alumnus from Cal Eta, now living in the area. He has brought new ideas and spirit into our chapter and we all appreciate his efforts.

Of course, no chapter can be successful without a strong corps of officers, committee chairmen and alumni. At Cal Theta these Brothers should be congratulated for their hard efforts already this semester. They are: Wayne Bailey, GP; Mitch Cohen, VGP; Mark Morgan, P; Bob Rapport, AG; Bob Haddad, BG; Howard Pastko, SG; Rich Wright, Hod; John Atkisson, Phu; Keith Barmasse, Hi. Tom Hansen and Randy Michel are the pledge educators.

We are pleased to announce the addition of Brother Bruce Kirk to our Housing Corporation. Bruce's enthusiasm and knowledge will benefit this young organization.

We urge all our alumni to please attend the monthly meetings of the Northridge Alumni Association. Again please feel free to drop by and visit our house, if you are in the area. Best of luck to all chapters in the months to come.

Case Western Reserve University Large Pledge Class

On September 14, Ohio Epsilon had the great pleasure of introducing its largest class of initiates in the last five years to the mysteries of Phi Kappa Psi. The 17 new members are: David N. Agin, Perry; Paul J. Arnold, Mt. Vernon; James E. Bowler, Bethel Park, Pa.; Kenneth O. Bristol, Washington, Pa.; Brian K. Gallagher, Euclid; Jeffery B. Glover, Dover-Foxcroft, Maine; Michael R. Greenlee, Urbana; Michael W. Hudson, William M. Tarlton, and James A. Kessler, Baltimore, Md.; John A. Kalenowsky, Oak Forest, Ill.; Frank W. Martin, Cumberland, Md.; Aribert T. Meder, Seven Hills; Jerry R. Newmark, East Northport, N.Y.; William J. Pollard III, Kittanning, Pa.; Rodney A. Rusnak, Wintersville; and Edward R. Schneider, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Good news seems to be running rampant this year. When the semester started, we were greeted with the news that Ohio Epsilon had placed second among fraternities on campus in academic standing last spring, only .02 points behind the leader. Athletically, this semester has also shown signs of success. Doug Gibbs took first place in intramural singles tennis competition before the cold weather set in, and after five weeks the bowling "A" team stands a strong second place. They have yet to lose to a single team, and have a chance coming up to knock off the front runners.

The officers for the fall semester are: Michael J. Deloye, GP; Steve Szilagyi, VGP; William S. Jeracki, P; Ronald J. Keller, AG; James N. Brodsky, BG; Philip J. Zivich, SG; Douglas W. Gibbs, Hod; James W. Popp, Phu; Bruce M. Rusnak, Hi; Michael T. Smitek, House Manager; and Gregory C. Mihran, Steward.

Ohio Epsilon salutes our house parents, Mike and Karen Thomas, as October marks the first anniversary of their entry into life here. They are now year-round residents of the house, due in part to the generous gifts of the House Corporation, headed by David Dieoma, Case Western Reserve '59, which enabled us to buy a water heater for use during the summer months when the University closes the house. They provided a valuable gathering place for summer get togethers of the Brothers who stayed in the Cleveland area this summer.

This fall, Ohio Epsilon was represented by two men who started for the Case Western Reserve soccer team. Jim Brodsky and Jeff Glover were vital members of a team with a fine 6-3 record. All three losses were 1-0 heartbreakers, as Case established itself as one of the very best defensive teams in the state.

Last May, as part of a growing tradition about 25 undergraduates and alumni made the third annual Memorial Day pilgrimage to Bobcaygeon, Canada, for a weekend of relaxing, fishing, and imbibing. We were all put up in the luxurious cabin accommodations of Walter Illingsworth, Case Western Reserve '69. Many thanks to Brother Illingsworth.

A more serious and long standing tradition will be celebrated this February 27, at Ohio Epsilon. We will once again host the Cleveland Alumni Association Founders Day banquet. It will feature cocktails, dinner, a guest speaker, and a large portion of fraternal togetherness. We hope to see as many Cleveland area Phi Psis as possible.

Colgate University Active Involvement

This fall, New York Epsilon has prepared for another enjoyable and productive year. The general condition of the house has been improved with interior painting, paneled hallways and a house-wide cleanup.

Filled with the enthusiasm and talents of the sophomore Brothers, New York Epsilon continued its active involvement in nearly all aspects of Colgate life. In campus affairs, Timothy Blumenthal is the IFC President, Carl Cramer and William Martimucci are representatives to the IFC, Stephen Grant is in the student senate and Lee Cuthbert is the president of the Class of '76. In varsity sports, Barry Small (captain) and Neal Brickman are on the soccer team. John Eaton and Tim Lowenstein are on the baseball team. Howard Budner, Robert Hamilton and Barry Tannen are on the basketball team.

New York Epsilon has usually been in close contention for the all-sports trophy and this year will be no different. Presently, our intramural football team is undefeated indicative of the talent and competitive spirit of the Brothers.

We are proud to have six Brothers participating in Colgate Study Groups this semester. Gerard Gilligan and Norman Ledbetter are in Washington, D.C., on the Public Policy Study Group. A London "branch" of New York Epsilon was established by Paul Friedman, Thomas Mortimer, Jeffrey Martin, and Fredrick Reich. The first two Brothers are participating in the Economic Study Group and the second pair are in the History Study Group.

The Alumni Corporation, under the leadership of Col. Whitney W. Williams '42, and Ron Joyce '66, initiated a capital fund drive to finance renovations in the house. We gratefully appreciate the support of the alumni and parents in helping to meet the needs of the Chapter.

The new officers for the semester are: Joseph Shea, GP; Edward Corr, VGP;

Dwight Mengel, AG; William Butler, BG; Barry Tannen, P; Blair Thompson, SG; Raymond Mitchell III, Hod; John Eaton, Phu; and Thomas Bona, Hi.

DWIGHT MENGEL, Correspondent

University of Colorado Open Houses

After a devastating gridiron win by the University of Colorado Buffaloes over the Missouri Tigers, Colorado Alpha hosted an open bar for all alumni and friends of the chapter. We thank all those who attended for making it such a success.

Now on to the administrative work: New pledges for this semester include Glen Jones, Steamboat Springs; Phil Hood, Hotchkiss; Phil Fields, Shawnee Mission, Kans.; Bill Emmons, Hopewell Junction, N. Y.; and T. Mark Fuller, Oakville, Ontario, Canada. Transfers to Colorado Alpha this year are Bill Mason from the University of Nebraska, and Glen Misar from Monmouth College. All in all, these seven men are taking an active part in maintaining Phi Kappa Psi as the best fraternity on campus. We welcome these men wholeheartedly to Colorado Alpha.

Mid-semester elections were recently held and new officers are: Bill Hadden, VGP; Don McLean, BG; Brad Lugar, Hod.; Art Ives, Scholarship; and Lee Walker, Activities Chairman.

Our social endeavors this semester have been quite varied. We opened the social calendar with our annual rush party. But this time, we had an entire film crew from Channel Seven News of Denver doing a documentary on the fraternity system of today. Needless to say, everyone became a Hollywood star for the evening.

Our next event included a very successful wine and cheese party with our friendly across-the-street sorority, Kappa Kappa Gamma. Although they outnumbered us three-to-one, nobody complained, (i.e., it was paradise).

Since then, we have hosted a number of open house parties entertaining alumni, and friends.

And finally, our sports reputation is once again the most ominous of the Greek system. After a gruesome intramural football schedule, Phi Kappa Psi has managed to keep our number-one spot in the fraternity league. We began our journey through the All-School Championships this week. In intramural volleyball, we have a 6-0-0 record and anticipate an easy all-school victory in it. In soccer, our 3-1-0 record carries us to the All-School Championships and we wish for equal success in it.

At this writing, our first snowfall of the season is taking place. So, I once again extend a warm invitation to Phi Psis across the nation to partake in some of the best skiing in the world here at the Rockies. Drop us a line before you come and we'll have all the accommodations taken care of by the time you arrive.

DAVID D. POWDRELL, Correspondent

Columbia University House Renovation Continues

The summer of 1975 has been a period of renovation and reorganization by New York Gamma. All the members of our chapter have cooperated in the effort to improve the personal and common living space and to seek out and attract pledges.

June, July, and August witnessed the refurbishing of our chapter room and new kitchen by the talented carpentry of Bob Sindorf, Peter Rose, and Larry Marner. We deeply appreciate their contribution and are presently enjoying the benefits of their hard work. All the Brothers and pledges have been involved in the repainting and renovation of the whole building and feel that a great deal has been accomplished.

In addition to the success we have had in improving the house and the chapter facilities, we have also directed our efforts toward providing the Brothers and the Columbia community with work space for creative and artistic endeavors, Jon Haft, and José Vasquez are responsible for the construction and furnishing of a photography studio and dark room. Further studio space and equipment for other "fine arts" forms such as painting, carpentry, and sculpture have been established.

Several of our pledges have recently been initiated. They are: Paul Carroll of New York; Tom Kavet of Albuquerque, N.M.; and José Vasquez of New York. The new slate of officers has both familiar and new faces: GP, Peter Rose; VGP, Bob Sindorf; P, Jon Haft; BG, Billy Bergman. Richard Seagraves will be acting as Pledge Educator for this fall.

We are looking forward to a productive year and to a successful rush as the fall semester gets underway. Our internal developments have strengthened New York Gamma and we plan to cash in on our improvements and investments in the form of outward expansion.

Cornell Very Good Year

We at New York Alpha are coming from a very good year with a lot of spirit for another.

This August, Phi Psi initiated 21 new Brothers. They include sophomores Victor Acquista, Jeffry Allchin, Warren Alderige, Curt Anderson, Carl Drewry, Peter Eareckson, Jonathan Feldman, Jon Handlery, David Horak, Jeffrey Hornung, Timothy Houck, Thomas Kirchmaier, Edward Knapp (senior), George Lau, Daniel Lynn, Joseph Marletta, Steven Mermey, Frank Muehleman, John Oswald, Peter Schoenberger, and David Voigt (junior).

The new officers for this semester are Raymond Lewis, GP; Bennett Pine, VGP; John Paul, P; Peter Zawko, AG; James Coffin, BG; Richard Roberts, SG; James Allchin, Hod; Hawley Wolfe, Hi; and Roger Jury, Phu.

Rush is in the capable hands of David Dunn along with his assistants Lou Minella and Jon Feldman. So far, our past successes, including winning the Cornell All Sports' Trophy have paid off in a greater interest in Phi Psi by many freshmen.

On September 28, New York Alpha held its annual Father-Son Banquet to honor our new Brothers and their fathers. Some of our most distinguished alumni also attended the festivities, including Peter Roberts '38, Frank Baldwin '22, and Ho Ballou '20. We thank these gentlemen for attending and thank all our alumni for their contributions to New York Alpha the past year. We hope to see a good crowd for homecoming Oct. 17-18.

New York Alpha hopes that this year will be filled with new projects and accomplishments that will keep up the atmosphere that we have acquired here at Cornell. Right now we think we're on the way.

PETER ZAWKO, Correspondent

Creighton University Moving Into the Future

With the fall semester barely begun, hopes for continued success seem bright, as an excellent rush has produced ten new pledges. The new men include: Roger Diercks, Little Falls, Minn.; Robert Dunley, Iowa Falls, Iowa; Randy Eccker, Denver, Colo.; Chris Geha, Overland Park, Kans.; Kevin Heckman, Adair, Iowa; David Kloster, Joseph Pane, Omaha; Michael Stamper, Weaver, Iowa; Jerome Thompson, Graettinger, Iowa; and Ed Washington, Chicago, Ill.

Under the direction of pledge trainer John Lawless our chapter enjoyed a very successful pledgship last spring, culminating in the activation of 21 new Brothers. The new actives are: Domenic Frecentese, West Des Moines, Iowa; Thomas Herr, Chatsworth, Ill.; Brian Galvin, Canton, S.D.; Jerald Barkmeier, Hampton, Iowa; Kenneth Bodnar, Fairview Park, Ohio; Kevin Christiansen, Stayton, Ore.; John Clifford, Gary Wells, Omaha; William Collins, Chicago Hts., Ill.; Gary Healy, John Long, Richard Nelson, Joliet, Ill.; Mitchell Hunter, Mark McKinzie, Overland Park, Kans.; Richard Lavery, Rock Springs, Wyo.; James McGuire, Chicago, Ill.; Mark Mackey, Elwood, Ill.; Jeffrey Modica, Freeport, Ill.; Robert Pintauro, Pelham, N.Y.; Kenneth Rech, Dellwood, Minn.; and Kelly Reiman, Butte. Activated this semester was Todd Malouf of Hastings.

As a final note to the spring semester of '75, we once again captured the All-University Trophy (for the third straight year) by winning the Intramural track meet last April.

Leaving the success of the past behind, we are moving to the present and planning for the future. Serving Nebraska Beta as the fall officers are: Michael J. Ulch, GP; Thomas O. Messersmith, VGP; James J. Goodbout, P; William T. Creighton, AG; Kirk A. McCarville, BG; Michael W. Raybould, SG; Edward J.

Ryan, Hod; Nick A. DeSantis, Phu; and William T. Whitley, Hi.

A very active social semester is in store, due to the diligent efforts of Paul Schleier and his social committee. Luau, an all day picnic, was held in September. A very relaxing day was enjoyed by all the Brothers and their dates thanks to chairman Bill Simpson and his committee.

Creighton University's blood drive is once again underway and our Mr. Ugly campaign is in full stride. The Brothers of Nebraska Beta are working hard along with our Mr. Ugly candidate, Nick DeSantis, in trying to help the Red Cross achieve its goal of 900 pints of blood.

We are off to a flying start in intramural athletics, in an attempt for our fourth straight all-university trophy, by winning our division in the softball competition. Prospects for a victorious football season also seem hopeful.

Pat Fitzpatrick and Dave Fontana, Lodge Co-chairmen, along with our house corporation have made impressive and much needed improvements upon our house. A basement bar was built and new booths were installed, making it a much more lucrative place to hold parties. Plans for the future include electrical rewiring and remodeling the front, which have been made possible only with the generous help of our alumni association.

Now, as the bond of brotherhood tightens among us, our major hope is that the successes of the past will be an inspiration for the future.

DePauw University Harvest Hop

Indiana Alpha got off to a great start this fall as Rush Chairmen Blake Turner and Steve Beardsley completed an outstanding job in constructing the 1975 pledge class. For the 9th year in a row, Indiana Alpha made quota and was one of four houses on campus to do so. We are pleased to announce the 23 men who pledged Phi Psi: Lance Barnes, Monmouth, Ill.; Jim Barrett, Lebanon; Robert Beaumont, Muncie; Jeff Bernacchi, LaPorte; Jeff Brown and John Irwin, Frankfort; Lynn Brown, David Grant and Jim Theye, Ft. Wayne; Doug Connor and Kurt Kingseed, Kokomo; Jim Cramer, Wabash; Tony Ekenga, Nigeria; Mike Fitzgerald, Barrington, Ill.; Doug Johnston, Garrett; Gary Kriebel, Western Springs, Ill.; Carl Melhope, Cincinnati, Ohio; Ward Neff, Huntington; David Poggemeier, St. Charles, Mo.; William Roess, Lima, Ohio; Stephen Smith, New Hartford, N.Y.; Timothy Swift, Okemos, Mich.; and Nicholas Tzakis, Lake Forest, Ill.

Despite unfavorable weather on the day of the fall house dance, traditionally the Harvest Hop, social chairmen Pat Ball and Don Smith managed to arrange an exciting evening for all. After a barbecue at Montgomery's farm, Phi Psis and their dates danced to the music of Harvest, a newly established group, organized by Brothers Don Smith and Dick Sammis. On another musical note, Dave Kraemer and Jim Hedges are new members of "Men of Note," and Dick Sammis and Randy Romero are still singing with the Collegians.

Old Gold Day, September 27, went well as numerous alumni returned for the weekend. In addition to the customary Homecoming activities, the Home Corporation held a meeting with the chapter officers to discuss new ideas for the coming year.

Athletics are going well at Indiana Alpha. Stan Kinsey and Doug Connor are playing varsity golf, while freshman Carl Melhope has a starting position in soccer.

Nebraska Beta's Mr. Ugly candidate Nick Desantis cringes as he is about to be launched from a cannon in an effort to raise 900 pints of blood in the Creighton Univ. blood drive.

John Kinmonth is in his fourth outstanding year of varsity tennis. The IM football season came to an abrupt ending with a 5-2 record. However, the Phi Psi tennis team is doing excellently as doubles partners Randy Oliver and Doug Hynden, along with singles player Dave Hull, have advanced to the semi-finals.

The new rush chairmen, Jeff Kennedy and Dave Kraemer, have already begun work preparing for possible prospects for next year's pledge class as several admissions weekends are coming up.

The men of Indiana Alpha sincerely thank the Alumni Association for its outstanding efforts in completing the fund drive. Also, the cooperation and interest from the Home Corporation is greatly appreciated, as we realize the importance of these two groups, and that their time and interest is vital in order to maintain a strong chapter.

Dickinson College High Spirits and Enthusiasm

Much has happened at Penn Zeta since our last letter to THE SHIELD. This past September 20, Dickinson College inaugurated Dr. Sam Banks as its 25th president. Dr. Banks is a Phi Psi from Duke and to welcome him to Dickinson, we rented a plane to fly around carrying a banner saying: "Phi Psi welcomes Brother Banks."

We have two fall pledges this year, Mark Froehlick (whose father is a Phi Psi from Gettysburg) and Jed Dunbar. Rush is going really well for us this year as fraternities in general are enjoying a resurgence of interest from the freshmen. There are 22 Brothers on campus this semester with one studying in India. Once again Phi Psis are enjoying positions of prominence in campus activities—editor-in-chief of the yearbook; news director of the radio station; chairman of the annual Public Affairs Symposium. Out of the seven members in the senior men's honorary, Raven's Claw, we have one, Cary Paine, who is also co-captain of the varsity soccer team. Chapter officers are: Neil Sparber, GP; Jim Price, VGP; Ken deGroot, BG; George Shore, P; Clay Railey, AG; Mike Herman, Hi; Jim Derrick, Hod; John Stoltz, Phu.

We dedicated our newly renovated bar-room on Friday, October 3, with many recent alumni in attendance. There were many alumni back for Homecoming this year and the weekend was quite enjoyable.

Penn Zeta is beginning to turn the corner after a couple of lean years, but spirits and enthusiasm are running high here, along with the hard work from the Brothers. We want to again make Phi Psi the Chapter on campus.

Duke University Leukemia Drive

Steve Fris, G-P, is excited about the forthcoming semester as this November 7-9, the District Council will hold its annual meeting at Duke. This means mucho work for many of the officers—Steve Krohn, VGP; Dave Kapnick, P; Bob Rice, AG; George Sanders, AP—and, in fact, the whole brotherhood. The DC will be a really strong event and we are all hoping for a large turnout of Brothers. Realizing that we are on the outer edge of District Four means that we will all work that much harder. So District IV, your North Carolina Brothers are ready—are you all?

The brotherhood has a lot of work to do in the upcoming weeks, not only for the DC, for the West Virginia Chapter's leukemia drive on October 25. Steve Krohn and Tray Dunaway have been working for almost six months, sending about 500 letters to various celebrities in sports, government, entertainment (in fact, everywhere) asking for items associated with these great people. The responses of about 200 celebrities will be raffled off on October 25. Letters have also been sent to the local merchants asking for door prizes and gift certificates so as to attract a large part of Duke's attention (and dollars). All proceeds will then be directed to the Leukemia Society of America.

On September 17, R. E. Boyd returned to Duke. This Brother was one of the people instrumental in taking this chapter from a colony to a chapter in 1934. All of you will remember that Duke was the first chapter to obtain its charter on the first vote of the GAC in 1934—and it was mainly because of Brother Boyd's undying belief in our colony. Zac Isaac, Rich Stacy, Marc Feldman, and Rob Kohl, among others, did an outstanding job of making him feel at home and traded many stories about the early history of North Carolina Alpha and Duke in general.

Ricky Vinegar, who has returned to Duke after two semesters elsewhere, has been elected Speaker of the Associated Students of Duke University and will therefore be taking an active part in the student leadership at Duke.

In the middle of September, a couple of Brothers and pledges from the University of South Carolina visited us for the USC-Duke football game. We all had a good time and were impressed by the chauvinism of South Carolina's new chapter. Keep up the good work men!

Our brotherhood of 52 (we added one transfer from Ohio Wesleyan, Terry Levering) is also looking forward to a Halloween mixer, several more rush parties, and cookouts; all in all, a very active semester.

Eastern New Mexico University New Brothers

New Mexico Alpha enriched its brotherhood September 13 with the addition of seven new Brothers. They are Charles Fry, Albuquerque, also the best pledge; Bill Magel, Chicago, Ill.; Derek Podobas, Warsaw, Poland; Thom Chapman, Clovis; John Fryar, Grants; Bobby Moore and John Carroll, Thoreau.

We lost half our chapter membership due to graduation last spring, put on a strong rush this fall, and landed 11 gentlemen. Pledge Educators Les Pierce and Chuck Abbott will school the following pledges on the traditions and ideals of the fraternity. They are: Gary Halaburton, Grant Holcomb, and John Steinlicht, Thoreau; Dave Gombart of Lovington; Mike Gomez, Will Martinez, Espanola; Steve Grover, Farmington; Stan Ruether of Clovis; Steve Margolies, Englishtown, N.J.

New fall officers are as follows: James Dyke, GP; James Thompson, VGP; Les Pierce, AG; Chuck Abbott, BG; Bill Magel, SG; Chuck Fry, Hod; Ed Cummings, Phu; Mike Crump, Hi; Brad Marsh, P.

In intramurals, the Phi Psis currently rank number one in tennis with Steve Grover playing singles and Sam Ricketts and Les Pierce playing doubles. The flag football team is 2-0 and tied for first place. Seven pledges and eight Brothers anchor down the team. Brothers and pledges playing varsity sports are Ed Cummings, quarterback of the number two ranked Eastern Greyhounds and Matt Simon as the middle linebacker. Bill Magel, high jump; Derek Podobas, 400 yard dash; Mike Gomez, javelin, hold spots on the number one track team in the nation. Brad Marsh is the leading linkster on the golf team and Les Pierce, Sam Ricketts, and Steve Margolies are part of the baseball team.

The treasurer reports finances stable while building up a substantial savings account. New house improvements include the remodeling of both the upstairs and downstairs bathrooms, and the reformation of the garage into a pool room and pinball room. It also contains a new bar.

Social highlights this fall include a casino party on November 15, Little Bro-Big Bro party December 4, and a retreat to the Sandia mountains in Albuquerque, with the date pending.

We have to congratulate Brother Tom Lindsay, now attending the University of New Mexico, and assisting in the beginning of New Mexico Beta Colony. He is the residing president of sixteen Brothers pledged in only two semesters.

Franklin and Marshall College Size More Than Doubles

Pennsylvania Eta's rush and pledge program conducted last spring finished successfully when six men were initiated on April 25. These newest additions more than double the chapter size, bringing to 11 the number of Brothers.

The newest Penn Etais are Edmund Fanning, Oradell, N.J.; Hallett German, Brewster, N.Y.; Robert Henry, Wilton, Conn.; Harry Jacobowitz, Pittsburgh; Donald Sylvester, New City, N.Y.; and Jonathan Zechman, Williamsport.

In elections for new officers held shortly after initiation, the following men were chosen: Robert Henry, GP; Thomas Shindel, VGP; Donald Sylvester, P-Social Chairman; Harry Jacobowitz, AG-BG; David Stephan, SG; Edmund Fanning, Hod; Richard Finley, Phu; Jonathan Zechman, Hi-Rush Chairman; and Hallett German, Alumni Relations Chairman.

The Brothers of Penn Eta were happy to witness last May's installation of the Maryland Alpha Chapter at Johns Hopkins University. This event particularly touched those of us who have experienced the years of rebuilding needed to bring Penn Eta to where it is today.

During the summer, the chapter house here was bought by F and M wrestling coach Stanley Zeamer. Unlike the previous owner, Coach Zeamer lives in the house. The Brothers are confident that they will have a good working relationship with Zeamer.

Returning from summer vacation we found that the chapter's ancient color TV set was out of order, and we have replaced it with a more reliable one. Penn Eta considers the purchase of the new set an investment for rushing.

The Brothers are proud of their celebrity alumnus, Roy Scheider '54. Having won an Oscar for his performance in "The French Connection," Scheider has recently been starring in the top-grossing movie, "Jaws."

The Brothers are also proud that another Penn Eta alumnus, the late Henry J. Marshall '15, was honored when the college dedicated an entrance gateway in his memory. A long-time trustee, Marshall was known as "Mr. Franklin and Marshall." John L. Atlee '19, an honorary trustee of the college, gave a speech at the ceremony.

Nevertheless, despite this grim news, the fraternity system should be greatly aided by the Interfraternity Council's new advisor, Assistant Dean John Smeaton, who has already demonstrated his enthusiasm and willingness to help.

University of Illinois New Beginnings

The fall semester at Illinois Delta once again began with an initiation for some and the beginning of a semester of pledgship for others. Those initiated on August 25 were Dave Smith, Jeff Roggensack, Bob Twickler, Tom Nealon, Tom Kap-pelman, Wain Smith, Tim Koshnick and Mark Sauer. We were honored by the presence of our Alumni Board President Frank Skorski, '67.

We are pleased to welcome an outstanding pledge class for this fall. They are led by President Paul Presney and include Dan Kepner, Doug Rowe, John Hoffman, Bob Antec, Jim Hensold, Doug Williams, Dean Lindroth, Fred McDowell, Bob Castillo, Mike Hinze and Scott Swanson. Doug Williams and Dean Lindroth are joining their Brothers at Phi Psi, while Jim Hensold is following his father, William, Illinois Delta Class of '49.

On September 6, we held our second annual Samoa Party. The highlight of the Hawaiian festival was the presentation of the "Phi Kappa Psi Player of the Year Award" for 1975. The award is defined by Jon Groesbeck (chapter morale chairman who conceived the award) as

"going to the Brother who has excelled over the past year in the many arts of courting and sporting." Rob Halliday won the award, succeeding 1974 winner Bob Dudley. Many girls on campus will testify that several Brothers are already actively seeking the coveted award for 1976.

Phi Psis are also off to a strong start in fall IMs. The football team goes into the final game of the regular season unbeaten. Chris Clifford quarterbacks the team and throws equally well to long, lanky ends Brad Young and Tom Halloran or to stockily built, deceptively slow Paul Nelson. The unscored upon defense is anchored by safeties Chris Perry and Jim Neckopulos. The house soccer team is also assured of a playoff spot with the continued leadership of goalie Greg Barrick and forward Rich Nieman.

We at Illinois Delta are looking forward to another outstanding year, and thank all of our Alumni for their continued support. Special thanks to Warren Olson, the winner of our "Outstanding Alumnus Award" for 1975.

Indiana University Arabian Knights

As those people currently calling the dormitory lounges their "rooms" can tell you, there has been a great increase in the enrollment at Indiana University this fall. As a result, Indiana Beta is enjoying a fine selection of rushees who are looking into the greek system. With the fall pledge class just filled, we now have our sights set on a rather large spring pledge class, as we will have an extraordinarily large number of graduating seniors.

September 20, 1975, was the big day for the 13 members of the spring pledge class, as they were welcomed into the brotherhood on a gorgeous fall morning. Those initiated were A. J. Anderson, Huntington; Joe Rinchak, Gary; Jack Israel, St. Louis; Evan Bayh, Terre Haute; Greg Himes, Sharon, Pa.; Greg Reed, Marion; Tony Shaw, Anderson; Gary Gross, Indianapolis; Tom Mitro, Merrillville; Al Madden, Booneville; Jim Hooper, Evansville; and Dean Myers, Jeffersonville. Members of their governing board were Dave Lambert '73, pledge trainer; Bob Lindsey '73, disciplinarian; and Dave Ziegner '73, educator. Gary Angstadt, assistant executive secretary and former Indiana Betan, was the speaker and guest of honor at the initiation banquet.

The bi-annual Arabian Knights Dance was held on October 4. Construction for the festive occasion has been going on for nearly a month, with Bob Pell '74 as the dance chairman. Hailed by a nationally famous magazine as one of the top ten college dances in the nation, Arabian Knights includes such things as a pool made of railroad ties, a live llama for picture taking, a complete face-lift for the house which is decorated as an Arabian temple, and a feast in the true ancient style.

Campus involvement has always been a tradition at Indiana Beta and this year is no exception. Of the four major campus organizations, two of them have Phi Psis as their presidents. Brian Hawks '73 of Pittsburg, Ohio is this year's Student Foundation president. David Schlemmer '73 of Greensburg, Indiana, holds the top office on the Student Athletic Board. Mark Kraner '73, and Craig Taelman '73, team with Brother Hawks as Foundation Steering Committeemen.

With academics placed as the ultimate priority in our pledge program, it's no accident that the Phi Psis are continually ranked near the top of the fraternity academic list at Indiana. However, Jim Bowles '73, of Indianapolis has gone beyond all academic bounds, as he has recently been given the honor of a Rhodes Scholar nomination. Jim has a double major in English and Spanish and he is ranked first in both of these departments. He spent his junior year as a student at the Indiana University-Madrid, Spain, campus where he further acquainted himself with the language. Bill Mutz '73, of Columbus was the recipient of the honorable Blue Key award.

Indiana University of Pennsylvania New Front Porch

With Homecoming at Pennsylvania Nu scheduled for October 18, the Brothers have been working hard making preparations. The chapter house was in need of a new front porch, and founding Brother, Ken Almes, has arranged for it. Porch construction will hopefully be completed for the Homecoming weekend.

The annual Homecoming formal is going to take place this year at the Eagles Club of Indiana. There will be the usual dinner with dancing afterwards. Hopefully, a large number of alumni will be able to make it.

Other preparations include our float for the parade on Saturday morning. John Kavka, as well as other Brothers, along with the sisters of Alpha Sigma Tau sorority have been steadily working on it. The theme for this year's float is cartoon characters.

In addition to Homecoming plans, the chapter has been working hard at fall intramurals. Phi Kappa Psi proved itself tops of all fraternities in cross country. Eric Yocum proved his finesse by breaking a current intramural record and bringing us to a 4th place among the university teams. Currently, we are 5-1 in football and have made the play-offs. In archery, we were undefeated. Last but not least, we are 4-0 with our two co-ed volleyball teams.

Rush chairman Don Houchins is also working hard at rush. Don has been organizing a pizza and beer party to go along with Monday night football for the rushees. Along with the social committee, Don has also planned a dorm mixer, a sorority mixer, as well as our happy hours, with rush in mind. The end of rush is drawing to a close with the formal scheduled for October 4.

University of Iowa Social Activities Continue

The fall semester at the University of Iowa has started with an exceptional amount of activity.

Rush chairman Todd Lindaman and assistant Lee Hook have put together an exceptional pledge class during their spring and summer rush. Various rush parties were held during the summer, some at the Iowa Alpha house and others at the summer hideaway of J. B. Turner, Iowa '28, in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. We express our sincere appreciation to Brother Turner for his hospitality.

Social activities as usual continue with an even bigger and more vigorous pace. A few of the most outstanding have been formal cocktail parties, held here at the chapter, post-football parties, dances, and exchanges of the highest caliber on campus. Future activities planned are hayrides, dances, and special emphasis on Homecoming, October 25. This grand event will be climaxed by a party held at the Carousel Inn, Coralville, 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. A warm welcome is extended to all alumni attending events of that weekend.

Members of the chapter once again are very active in the varsity sports scene here. Mark Phillips and Doug Reichardt are showing active participation in Iowa football. Rick Zussman and Jim Houghton head up the Iowa tennis team as co-captains. Other lettermen include Dave Noble of the swim team, and Doug Peckum on the Hawk's baseball team.

With recent elections in the chapter, leadership positions stand as follows: GP John Schlie, VGP Charles Taylor, P William Erickson, AG Dennis Hart, BG Lee Hook, and Rush Chairman Todd Lindaman.

Improvements to the chapter, with the best of thanks to our alumni, are the combination screen and storm windows which have added to the good looks of the chapter house. As always, we are deeply indebted to our Mothers Club, this time for the new curtains in our downstairs dining room.

Also recently, through a cooperation effort by the members of the chapter, we have been able to redecorate our dining area. Currently, we are attempting to raise money for a furniture fund.

As our school year here at Iowa moves forward, the men of Iowa Alpha progressively and positively move on. The spirit in the past has been great and continues building and strengthening traditions centered around Iowa Alpha and those of all Phi Kappa Psi.

DENNIS HART, Correspondent

Iowa State University New Outlook

Excitement runs high at Iowa Beta as school is getting underway. We are very pleased with our house improvements and our fine pledge class. We are also honored to have a new sorority move into a house across the street. Zeta Tau Alpha moved in and we had a "Welcome to Lynn Avenue" party with them which fired up both our chapters.

After a very successful summer rush program and rush week, we pledged a total of 28 young men. They are: Ted Batchelder, Omaha, Neb.; Joe Bohlke, Dyersville; Gary Biederman, St. Ansgar; Steve Calhoon, Marshalltown; Dave Daulton, Ames; Charles DeKovic, Greg Foell, Brent Harl, Ames; Robert Hankins, Russell Kempton, Bettendorf; Ken Hartsock, Fairfax; Sam Hoffman, Muscatine; Jeff Lorenzen, Davenport; James Martin, La-Grange, Ill.; Chris Nelson, Peoria, Ill.; Charles Parks, Cedar Rapids; Paul Petersen, Kieth Kirchner, James Urban, Omaha, Neb.; Mark Raisbeck, Leawood, Kans.; William Reed, Rochelle, Ill.; Steve Ruddick, Marshalltown; Richard Siberell, Dwight Becker, Des Moines; Jeff Stearns, Cedar Rapids; Brian Sumner, Okaboji; Ned Tyler, Afton; and Steve Webster, Stillman Valley, Ill.

Summer remodeling on the main floor gave a new look to our house. With these improvements, we greatly enhanced the look of our physical plant.

"For the great joy of serving others." With this sentiment, Iowa Beta, along with the Pi Beta Phi Sorority, is doing a service project in conjunction with Homecoming at Iowa State. We will be going to a home for emotionally disturbed children and preparing the place for the winter months. This will include putting away summer equipment, painting, cleaning, and raking leaves.

On the social scene, we are having our traditional woodsies, Friday afternoon clubs with sororities, and house parties. We are also trying our New Orleans party for the first time. The lucky winning couple will spend an expense paid weekend in New Orleans in October. We are also doing our annual Homecoming lawn display with Alpha Xi Delta Sorority.

Phi Psis on campus include Gordon Meyer as president of the Ski Club; Jerry Soper as a member of Alpha Zeta Agricultural Honorary; Mark Anton as a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron professional club; Bruce Hamous as Technical Director for Varieties, a student run amateur show; and Ernie Lunsford as Co-Chairperson of Parents' Weekend for Iowa State University. The Engineering College holds a large delegation in the Phi Psi house. We have 17 Brothers in engineering clubs and honoraries. These clubs are designed for men who take a serious interest in the field of engineering.

The Johns Hopkins University 85 Years of Operation

This fall marks the launching of an impressive year-long celebration of the 100th year of operation for The Johns Hopkins University. Originally opened in late 1875, in downtown Baltimore upon the bequest by Johns Hopkins, a prominent Baltimore merchant, it was the first institution specifically designed for scientific research. A short time later, the now renowned hospital was established in eastern Baltimore. In 1912, the campus was moved to its present pastoral setting on the former uptown estate of Charles Carroll, signer of the Declaration of Independence and one of the founders of Maryland.

In ceremonies opening the 100th year on Sept. 10, 1975, Governor Marvin Mandel presented a proclamation officially designating 1975-76 as "the centennial year" in Maryland. A series of symposia, concerts, affairs, and special events at all of the Hopkins institutions will commemorate the centennial, climaxing with the 100th Founding Day convocation on February 22, 1976. The theme of the centennial pervades every student and university activity.

This fall also brings with it the start of the 85th year of operations for the Maryland Alpha Chapter on this campus, after our establishment in May. We are at present putting the finishing touches on our house and organization. In the planning stages is a reception for the area residents, to let them know that we are not just another fraternity. The job of getting up back out in front of our fellow fraternities falls to: Harvey Soldan, GP; Herbert Loveless, VGP; Richard Nomady, P; Philip Gilly, AG; Stuart Brown, BG; Siniti Oneda, SG; David Roth, Hod; Michael Ross, Phu; and Steven Guastello, Hi.

Despite all the fraternity and academic demands, many Brothers devote time to campus activities. Harvey Soldan is co-chairman of the Centennial Committee, organizing student activities to celebrate the centennial; Philip Gilly is assistant editor of the yearbook; Noe Mateo is a representative to the Board of Intramural Athletics; Scott Lauter, Harvey Soldan, and Philip Gilly perform in the concert band; and come spring, Richard Normady will seed number one on the varsity tennis team, while Stuart Dickinson anchors varsity track.

Best wishes from all of us in the new Maryland Alpha to all of you in the newer Montana Alpha Chapter.

PHILIP A. GILLY, Correspondent

University of Kansas New Pledges

Kansas Alpha's 1975-76 school year began on a positive note with the initiation of six new Brothers into the ranks of the country's second largest Phi Psi Chapter. The new initiates are: Louis Osborn, Wichita; Dave Williams, Doug Pennington, Chanute; Rick Harman, Shawnee Mission; Tom Fields, Jim Nugent, Kansas City. With a total membership now of 1485 initiates, we hope to reach the 1500 club by our centennial anniversary early next year.

Thanks to the efforts of Dave Barber, Kevin Parks, Randy Westfall, and Louis Osborn, we pledged 24 men: Wes Fielder, Matt Foerschler, Mike Gunter, Randy Manis, Dave McGuire, Dan Katz, Ralph Munyan, Jim Orr, Mike Rohrig, Keith Schottman, Doug Schulte, Jeff Steimer, Kansas City area; Colin Squires, Glenn Nyberg, Jeff Layman, Tracy Wettig, Wichita; Dale Breiner, Jeff Williams, Chanute; Frank Davenport, Arlington Heights, Ill.; Steve Hamous, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Steve Salanski, St. Joseph, Mo.; Rick Stern, Kirkwood, Mo.; Rick Johnson, Hinsdale, Ill.; Kevin White, Hutchinson.

Scholastically, we have had a fine spring semester. Our GPA was just under 3.0, and was well above the K.U. all-men average and fraternity average. This year should be even better, as we have 46 Brothers returning from last year, including 14 seniors. This is the largest group of seniors we have had in the house in several years.

In athletics, our intramural football team has been injected with new team spirit and determination, and is having its best season in three years. In interscholastic sports, pledge Jeff Williams is on a full scholarship with the K.U. Track team, and is a highly regarded pole vaulting prospect.

We have had our annual Yell-In and Shipwreck parties, both of which were very successful. We commend social chairman George Kerdolff for his cost cutting efforts, while at the same time keeping the quality of the parties at the same high level as in previous years. Among coming activities, we are planning a rush party for November 15, and a Dad's weekend for the Kansas-Missouri football game on November 22.

The Brothers at Kansas Alpha became deeply involved in the K.U. Blood Drive this year. Not only did many Brothers do valuable volunteer work, but we also donated more pints of blood than any other fraternity. We also pledged more money to the Cystic Fibrosis Bike-a-Thon than any other fraternity.

Various improvements on the chapter house include a brand new pool table and a remodeling of the chapter room. In order to prepare for the Kansas Alpha centennial celebration, we are currently planning a "House Improvement Week," whereby each Brother or group of Brothers tries to make one physical improvement on the chapter house.

We are sorry to report the illness of John E. Sevier '48. He has not responded as well as hoped from brain surgery in 1974. We would like to express our concern and sympathy, and pass this information on to the other Brothers.

Officers this fall are: Rick Lind, GP; Win Wilhelmsen, VGP; Greg Hupp, P; Tom Cadden, AG; Scott Nearing, BG; Tom Allen, Phu; Mike Chambers, Hi; Dave Barber, Rush Chairman; George Kerdolff, Social Chairman; and Kevin Parks, Scholarship Chairman.

Rush is in full swing again, and we would appreciate names of any potential rushees to be sent to Dave Barber. We also remind all of our alumni that the Kansas Alpha Centennial Celebration will be held April 1-4, 1976. We sincerely hope you are able to attend.

Kent State University Busy Fall Quarter

Ohio Kappa is now in the midst of plans for several outstanding events throughout fall quarter.

As is everyone's problem, our primary concentration this fall will be in the area of rush. As of this writing, we already have two pledges and we are currently in the midst of an all-out Interfraternity Council organized rush effort.

Our new pledges are Paul Weinstein from Eastlake, and Tom Benner of Medina. Paul is a sophomore, majoring in criminal justice and is a member of the varsity soccer team at Kent State. Tom is also a sophomore, majoring in Industrial Arts. He was a member of the Kent State junior varsity basketball team last year, but a slipped disc has seemed to put him out of competition for now. Nevertheless, Tom, at 6 feet 5, will be a welcome addition to our intramural basketball team next winter.

Along with pledge Paul, Brothers Gary Hawk and Harry Jacob are also on the soccer team. Harry is a starting fullback, while Gary is his backup. Marvin Stearns is the manager of the soccer team.

Last year our football team made the playoffs for the first time in Phi Psi Ohio Kappa history as we battled our way to a 2-2 record. Included in that was a 13-12 upset victory over Alpha Phi Alpha who went on to become the fraternity champs. We were the only team to beat them last season.

Our newly-named officers for this coming year are R. C. Miller, GP; Harry Jacob, VGP; Ed Beacon, P; Ron Seuffert, AG; and Marvin Stearns, BG. Congrats, men.

Senior Ron Seuffert is starting his second quarter as sports editor of the Daily Kent Stater. In addition, Ron holds the position of Director of Public Relations for IFC.

On the alumni front, Brother Carmen Naso has just started law school at Cleveland State University. Felix Gomez graduated last spring and is teaching Spanish at a technical college near Toledo.

Everyone at the house is making plans for our annual big Homecoming bash. It will be a purple passion party following the Kent State-Central Michigan football contest.

That's about all on the Kent State

Lafayette College House Repairs

The Lafayette Phi Psi house has benefited from many improvements and repairs since our last newsletter. We returned to a house whose roof had been re-shingled over the summer.

This is the first new roof the house has had since it was built in 1913. Outside we have a new barbeque grill built by pledges in the late spring of 1975, in our spacious pool room we have re-upholstered chairs, and at this time our sofas are also being re-done. Our "newest" room is our fourth floor bar, which is actually of the prohibition era, which was cleaned out, repaired, and rejuvenated in the Pledge Project of 1975. These improvements helped to keep our house in the condition for which it is noted.

We are proud to have been chosen to be the site of the 1975 District I District Council Meeting and Educational Leadership Conference on October 25-26. The chapter is busily making preparations for our guests and planning activities for the weekend.

We are sorry to report that Corresponding Secretary, Jay Malamut, has been temporarily hospitalized with an eye injury, but is making a very good recovery and should be back in school soon.

Phi Psi's IM football team has been hindered by several cancelled games due to monsoon-like rains. Aside from that, the remainder of the season looks less than promising. With a record of 0-2 behind us, we will be facing our future opponents without three of our key players who are recovering from injuries received at the hands of our first opponents.

New officers for 1975 are as follows: Stuart Whitefield, GP; James Erlich, VGP; Jay Malamut, AG; Steven Greenbaum, BG; Robert Preston, P; Glenn Ott, SG; Doug Hintz, Phu; David Dibbell, Hod; and David Keeble, Hi.

Louisiana State University Strong Rush Gets Results

The pledging of 17 future Phi Psis climaxed a strong summer and fall rush program by the Brothers of La. Alpha. Summer parties were held in New Orleans and at the house on the Baton Rouge campus. Formal rush was held at LSU, August 21-25, and we express our thanks to Chapter Consultants Bob Wolter and Carter Noonan for their help. Our fall pledges are: Henry Orphys, David Collins, Greg Bassil, and Louis Webre, Metaire; Henry Bishop, Tallulah; Weldon Crawford, Sal Cusanza, Bruce Boudier, Leo Donelon, Bob Druhan, Drew Hosli, and Pat O'Neill, New Orleans;

Mark DiLuzio, Gretna; Robert Matulef, Des Moines, Ia.; Keith Stafford, Jennings; Jon Warren, Columbus, Ga.; and Steve Williamson, Covington.

On September 8, the six members of our spring pledge class were initiated. They include: Gene Gambel, Mike McKim, John Brimer, Charles Palmer, Mark Magbee, and Reggie Newsome. S. J. McKim, Penn. Beta '32, was present for the ceremony. He became the first father to see his son initiated into Louisiana Alpha.

Officers for the fall semester include Bill Coon, GP; Scott Welch, VGP; Mike McKim, AG; Jay Scheyd, BG; Dean Flanner, P; Paul Bouchereau, SG; Rick Brian, Phu; Matt Bargas, Hod; and John Burnitt, Hi. We are also proud to have Jack Clegg '74, as the Interfraternity Council publicity director.

By the end of September we had put on two successful pledge exchanges, a TGIF, and a football party. We will have a party after each home football game throughout the season. Any Brother in the area is urged to attend the parties.

Mankato State University Pledges Visit

Upon returning to Mankato State University this fall all of the Brothers were pleased with the results of summer rush. Although not many rushees were able to visit Mankato during the summer, many of them came to the house their first night at college to see us and talk about Phi Kappa Psi. A number of men were interested and after exploring fraternity life further, eight of them pledged.

Those pledged to the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi are: Daniel Burns and Mark Holmes, Minneapolis; David Breckmen and Kevin Mullarky, St. Paul; David Kramer, Bloomington; Peter Johnson, Braham; William Quant, Albert Lea; Perry Brinkman, Kleme, Iowa.

Another highlight this fall was a visit by 25 pledges from Iowa Beta. At the time of their visit, school was several days away and we were busy cleaning and fixing our house. These men pitched right in and helped us with the work until it was completed. The Brothers of Minnesota Gamma congratulate the Brothers of Iowa Beta on a truly fine group of pledges. We will look forward to meeting them again when we can call them Brothers.

Upon return this fall, we also elected two new officers. Paul King was chosen GP; and David Burns was chosen VGP. Also serving are William Dubbs, AG; Jeff Young, BG; James Van Valkenburg, P; David Burns, SG; James Van Valkenburg, Hod; Robert Engquist, Phu; and William Dubbs, Hi.

Homecoming this year was held at the Elk's Club in Mankato. The largest turnout in our history made it a social event not soon to be forgotten. The weekend began on Friday, October 10, with a social hour at the house. Many of the returning Brothers had a chance for the first time to meet our new pledges. Saturday began early with a house corporation meeting headed by Dave Ross. Afterwards, a light breakfast was served so that all the Brothers could regroup and go to the game together. The game began promptly at 1:30 against Western Illinois, which is considered a power house in our area. It was then the surprise of the weekend happened. Mankato State, which had yet to chalk-up a victory, upset unbeaten Illinois for a classic Homecoming game.

Earlier in the week, the chapter elected and honored one of its Alumni who it felt had given so much of his time, energy, and advice to the chapter, and who also has lived up to the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi. The man chosen for this honor was our Faculty Advisor, Dr. Neil B. Ballard. We offer our congratulations to Doc as well as our thanks for all that he has given to our chapter and the Fraternity.

Also attending the Homecoming dinner was Carl H. Bennett, our Chapter Consultant. Our thanks to Carl for the time he gave and his inspiration.

Minnesota Gamma's Solon E. Summerfield Scholar was chosen recently. James Van Valkenburg, our P. Brother Van Valkenburg has consistently worked not only for the chapter but also for academic excellence. He has done a job he can be proud of.

We invite any of the Phi Psis passing through Mankato to stop in and visit our house. Once again, thank all the Brothers that attended our Homecoming celebration. We hope to see you at Initiation!

Memphis State University Plans Phi Psi 500

Oliver, Bing Seid Jr., Steve Stagoski, John Shully, James Norvell, and Monty Buss, all from Memphis. We wish them the best of luck. As a house project during their pledgship they are going to put down a vinyl floor in the chapter room. As a community project they will collect funds for the Easter Seal Association.

We have added two new Brothers during the summer months. They are Jay Butler from Huntingdon and Mike Spacek from Memphis.

Our new officers are: Mike Triolo, GP; Mark Marshall, VGP; Henry Smith, P; Wes Shelby, AG; Phil Ruleman, BG; Mike Spacek, SG; George Mullins, Hod; Brian Weisfeld, Phu; and Mike Dew, Hi.

In the planning is the first Phi Psi "500" here at Memphis State. Since this is the first time we have tried this project, we would appreciate any help from the alumni in our area who know anything about "500's." We would also appreciate any advice from any of the other chapters.

Recently on an excursion into Alabama, several of the Brothers stopped by Auburn University for the Auburn-Memphis State game. The hospitality shown was in keeping with true Southern hospitality. During that visit many ideas and views concerning the Fraternity were exchanged. We are sure that all of those present benefited from the discussion.

Miami University Hosts District III Council

The Brothers of Ohio Lambda were pleased to host the District III Council October 25 and 26. The opportunity afforded us an excellent chance to make friendships with Brothers across the region. Tom Curti did an excellent job of organizing the events of the weekend.

The chapter continues to be extremely active in many university organizations. Phi Psi is well represented on the Interfraternity Council by President Phil Gray, public relations committee members Steve Hines (chairman), John Demler, Tom Malone, and athletic committee chairman John Fenstermacher. Jeff King is working on the Miami University Student Foundation steering committee, acting as alumni relations chairman. Jim Ulrich remains a member of the university's Applied Science Advisory Board, while Rick Daugherty continues on the President's Architecture Advisory Board. Serving as business manager for Dimensions Magazine, a liberal arts publication, is Glenn Holbert.

The Miami wrestling team includes Brothers Craig Butler, and Bill and Jim Ulrich. Strong showings have also been made by the chapter's intramural teams.

Representing Phi Kappa Psi on the national level as chapter consultants are two Miami graduates, Carl Bennett and John Burke. Assistant Executive Secretary Gary Angstadt and Chapter Advisor William Mogk attended the opening session of the Miami IFC advisors meeting, discussing the upcoming changeover from quarters to semesters and its effect on rush.

The chapter had the pleasure of hosting Alain Thiry of Belgium, a member of the "Up With People" cast, who performed here on October 3.

The housing corporation has been incorporated under the organization of Attorney Joseph B. DeVennish, an Ohio Delta alumnus.

Socially, the chapter has enjoyed an eventful fall. Homecoming, Miami vs. Ohio U., was October 18. The chapter paired with Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority in making a float with the theme "America on Parade." David Crosby and Graham Nash provided the entertainment for the evening at Millett Assembly Hall. Parents' weekend, November 1, was successful with over 50 parents attending both the Miami-Toledo football game and the Bob Hope show.

Michigan State University Homecoming Festivities

Back at Michigan State University for fall term, classes have begun and Michigan Beta's activities are once again getting underway. We start the year with 20 Brothers, including 7 initiated last spring. (Geoff Hansen, Frank Barry, Greenville; Pat Patton, Farmington; Bruce Mays, Redford; Bill Borgerding, Wayne; Bill Salisbury, Midland; and Tom Nelson, Birmingham.)

Things are going very well. We have just finished remodeling the second floor mezzanine and we are putting the finishing touches on the basement. The house is really shaping up.

Rush is making all our lives hectic. Our rush chairman, Dave White, has done a great job. Over the summer he contacted more than 500 entering MSU freshmen by mail. On September 23, the chapter had a barbeque for over 50 rushees. Now, in the middle of Rush Week, things are going well and we expect a good-sized pledge class. Rush party is October 4, and we all look forward to it.

Ed Haughn has returned from student teaching in the Netherlands and he wishes to thank the Trustees of the Endowment Fund for helping to make possible his very rewarding experience there.

In athletics, Michigan Beta is proud to announce that two Brothers, Rick Berman and Larry Leach, are competing on MSU's varsity wrestling team. In intramural football, Ed Haughn and Joe Dixon are organizing the team for another season.

Homecoming is October 25 when MSU meets the University of Illinois. Festivities include a pre-game buffet, the game, and a party afterwards. Letters have been mailed to the alumni and we hope many will attend what should prove to be an excellent event in our fall calendar. We look forward to seeing the alumni and their families and friends.

Good luck to our Brothers across the country. Please drop in and see us if you're in our area.

University of Minnesota Successful Rush

Participating in the University's most successful fall rush in 7 years, Minnesota Beta has been greatly strengthened by the addition of 17 pledges. They are: Craig Chambers and Kerry Close, Rochester; Glenn Nordehn, Jeff Anderson, Kurt Halva, David Williamson and J. Wesly Blake, St. Paul; Richard Sorensen, New Brighton; Michael Chutich, Anoka; Ronald Klinge, St. Louis Park; Lou Kuhlman, Byron; Paul Dressen, Belle Plaine; Dale Dissmeyer and Jonathan Aanested, Edina; Jim Hagstrom, Stillwater; Robert Koepcke, Onalaska, Wis.; and Erik Anders Jonsson, Umea, Sweden.

With our numbers sufficiently increased we are now ready for full participation in campus and Greek activities. For Homecoming, October 18, we are paired with Alpha Omicron Pi, co-winners of last year's Greek Week festivities. The day of Homecoming will be full of activities for Brothers old and new. And for the first time in three years the Phi Psi house will be decorated for the celebration.

In intramural sports Minnesota Beta will field two football teams this year, one in the major league division and one in the minors. Our first games will be played October 10 and both teams are looking forward to winning seasons.

Since Tom Murphy, former cook at the Phi Psi UCLA Chapter, moved to Minneapolis he has vastly improved our diets and has been a great help to our rush program.

University of Mississippi Chapter Growth

The new year has brought many changes to Mississippi Alpha. The chapter's rapid growth rate has brought with it a much improved financial situation. At the present time we have about 60 men eating in the house. We have also filled the house for the fall semester. The chapter is also proud to announce the addition of our new Housemother, Mrs. Annell Maddox. Mrs. Maddox is from Water Valley, a small town very close to the Oxford campus. She has already won the hearts of all the Phi Psis at Ole Miss.

The Phi Psi football team is quickly re-establishing itself as a fraternity-league power. After an opening loss to the next-door neighbors, Sigma Pi, we made some adjustments and disposed of Phi Kappa Theta, 46-0. Quarterback Lynn Loden and fullback Jim Pittman share the scoring lead with 21 points each. In addition to playing football for the chapter, Brother Loden is fighting hard for a spot on the Ole Miss varsity baseball team in fall drills.

Several Brothers hold campus positions for the fall semester. These include: Mike Greer, Varsity Cheerleader; Gary Wilborn, Moot Court Board, and Campus Senator; Greylin Keen, Ole Miss Marching Band; Jay Johnson, Ole Miss Marching Band; Rush Hicks, Ole Miss Drum Corps. Ken McAlpin returns to the Committee of 100, as does Sherrod McCall and David McCullough.

The chapter anxiously awaits Homecoming, October 11. We are expecting a large alumni turnout, including several charter members of this chapter. We hope to have some extra activities for them, including a Friday night barbeque, and a buffet before the game on Saturday.

The chapter has had communication with the house corporation recently. The house situation has reached a point where something must be done. The yearly major repairs are making it difficult, if not impossible to meet financial obligations to the Fraternity. The house is very old and is developing some serious structural problems. House Corporation President Fred Bourn has asked us to have the house appraised for present market value. At this writing it seems that this problem will have to be dealt with locally. If there are any Brothers who can help or offer suggestions, please write. We need help with this matter—we are anxious to meet all obligations and maintain a strong chapter at Ole Miss.

We extend congratulations to the new chapters installed last spring. Mississippi Alpha will be glad to have you visit us soon.

University of Missouri Dad's Weekend

Missouri Alpha started the year strong in intramurals with a second place finish in golf. Our team broke the old I.M. record of 306 by shooting a 304 but lost to the Delta Tau Delta Fraternity by one stroke. We are looking forward to the other sports to come.

Three pledges were initiated August 21. They are: Art Schopp, Greg Garland, and Ron Brandau, all from St. Louis.

Our first Dad's weekend was September 6. With a good turnout we played the fathers in a softball game that afternoon (we lost 18-9). We finished the day with a casino night. This is scheduled to be a yearly event. Hopefully, the Brothers and pledges will win the softball game next year.

Fall semester officers are: Chris Elliott, GP; Jack Morrissey, VGP; Mark Rider, AG; Greg Abbott, P; Mike Warakowski, BG; Dave Klobucar, SG; Sam Ferranto, Hod; Kirby Kassen, Phu; and Mark Archibald, Hi.

Special recognition goes to Dave Manco, who is a member of the Missouri Student Association Senate, also to pledges Jeff McHenry, recipient of a Missouri Curator's scholarship, Rick Bien, recipient of the Roy A. Roberts, Kansas City Star, and the Hearst Foundation Senate Youth Program scholarships, and Rick Richolson, a member of the university orchestra.

Phi Psi 500 came early this year at Miz-zou. On September 20, the Pi Beta Phi Sorority took 1st in the costume contest and captured the tricycle championship. Later that night at the dance at our house an overflow crowd saw the crowning of Marilyn Terschluse, Zeta Tau Alpha, as our queen for 1975-76.

This fall we are inviting one or two alumni for a formal dinner once every two weeks. Our first alumnus was Carl Niewohner '46 on September 24. Carl played a major role in getting the house repaired from a fire last October. We enjoyed having Carl and hope to have more alumni over.

Plans for the remainder of the semester include Parents' Weekend, October 11; Homecoming project with Alpha Epsilon Phi Sorority, October 25; Halloween party for pre-school children, October 31, and Christmas Formal for early in December.

Monmouth College Highest Grade Point Average

New Jersey Beta is again looking forward to another excellent year. Scholastically, last semester we had the highest grade point average of any of the fraternities or sororities on campus.

Athletically, our football team should be in contention the whole season. Captains Joe Miller and Joe Cook are looking forward to a rewarding season. In softball we were undefeated going into the final championship game which we lost to an independent team 8-6. Against other fraternities we were 4-0. Outstanding players were Captain Billy McLaughlin, Joe Keip, Joe Miller, and Tony Mancini. Social Chairmen Tom Baldanza and Art Klehm are also looking forward to a busy year. They have planned three open parties in a row. The two we had so far were a great success.

The newly formed alumni association sponsored a fishing trip off the Jersey shore for both undergraduates and alumni. Over 100 fish were caught and everyone who went really had a good time.

House Chairmen John Chiappone and

Jeff Durkin are also having an active semester. Our meeting room has been repainted and new wood paneling added there and in the lobby. In the future, there are also plans for re-carpeting the entire house.

University of Montana Baby Chapter Doing Well

The baby chapter of Phi Kappa Psi, Montana Alpha, has been active in the realization of the need for growth. This summer the Brothers have had to build beds, tear out walls, and make 817 Gerald into a place where new pledges and returning Brothers could find a source of oneness.

The most important expansion now for Montana Alpha is in the discovery of alumni around the state. Of course, since there has never been a chapter in this area, the list of alumni is small. However, the Brothers of Montana Alpha are well aware that it will be hard, if not impossible, to grow and fulfill the goals of Phi Kappa Psi without first having the many resources that alumni can offer.

With these resources, and with the present pledges and Brothers, Montana Alpha is eagerly moving toward fully becoming aware of the strengthening and fulfilling qualities that are indeed present in being included as a chapter of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

BART TUMA, Correspondent

University of Nebraska Strength and Vitality

Intense intramural participation is being experienced by all Brothers. Football leads the slate as both the active (5-1), and pledge (4-2) teams are tied for the lead in each of their conferences. Bill Erickson, Mike Herman, and Mike Flynn made good showings in the all fraternity tennis tournament, with Greg Pazderka reaching the semi-finals in the tourney. A fine water polo team has been assembled and looks forward to posting victories this year. Everyone is looking ahead to the start of the basketball season hoping to match last year's impressive results.

John Hess and Kevin VanRenan are again team members of the University of Nebraska crew.

House improvements include an entirely new coat of paint on the outside of the house to complement the recent improvements within the house.

Alumni relations remain a primary element in maintaining the position we have achieved within our chapter and about the campus. They are instrumental in financial, as well as social activities. Due to a tireless, and truly fine job by our social chairman, Larry Milliken, we have had a full slate of activities since the beginning of school, including FAC's, functions, group parties with other sororities and fraternities.

Upcoming parties include an alumni get together on Homecoming Saturday, after the game with Kansas. Several other fraternities will participate in the event. October 31, Halloween night, will find the Phi Psis turning into ghosts and goblins for the annual Phi Psi masquerade party. No year would be complete at Phi Psi without the annual "Shipwreck" party set for the first week in December. This party always heads the agenda on the party schedule at Nebraska Alpha.

Combining a fine group of Brothers, with a vigorous and outgoing attitude, the 1975-76 year appears to be well on its way to benefitting all Brothers involved with our chapter, and further advancing the Phi Psi name.

Northwestern University Always a Contender

Fall rush went very well at Illinois Alpha through the leadership of rush chairman, Steve Morgan. Under the direction of pledge educator, Mike McIntyre, eighteen pledges are training for their initiation which will take place this winter. The fall pledge class includes Thomas M. Becker, Morton Grove; John W. Bowers, Fort Wayne, Ind.; David R. Brown, Kettering, Ohio; Michael H. Cathey, Goldwater, Mich.; Edward J. Crane, Garden City, N.Y.; Paul J. Foszcz, George B. Good, Chicago; Mark T. Galbraith, Palatine; Mark J. Goddard, Cincinnati, Ohio; John P. Horan, Willoughby, Ohio; William J. Kearney, Westchester; Steven D. Levin, Glencoe; Thomas C. Marino, Westchester; Gerald V. Metzler, Maple Glen, Pa.; James L. Pearson, Western Springs; Coe D. Rost, Homewood; Eric F. Shulte, Morton Grove; and Richard S. Synder, Western Springs.

Always a contender for the championship, Phi Psi will enter two teams in intramural football this fall, led by captains Forest Didier and Charlie Crappotta. Standouts on this year's squad include Mike McIntyre, Paul Jadin and Craig Moeller.

Phi Psi is well represented on the varsity cross-country team. The team is led by captain Gary Les with actives Scott Williams and Jim Brown, and pledges Tom Marino, Tom Becker, and Gerry Metzler. Lettering as a freshman, Mike Alex returns to the N.U. golf team. Pledge Will Kearney is a member of the varsity track team.

With a strong pledge class and an exciting social calendar, Illinois Alpha looks forward to a rewarding and prosperous year.

Ohio State University Fall Quarter Means Football

The return to school meant we could again enjoy the comradeship of our Brothers. The in-house membership this fall is only 24, but we feel this number will increase next quarter.

This past summer was the best one we have ever had for rush. Through the hard work of Brothers McNeil, Rudder, Spencer, Hale, and Spriggs, Ohio Delta has 15 pledges that will go through this quarter. They are: Tom McClain and Jamie Fjord, Cincinnati; Alan Sutton, Bedford; Andy Norris, New York City; Jerry Gilliland, Wayne; Mike Detzel, Avon Lake; Mark Perlmutter, Corneys Point, N.J.; Blair Tavenner, Laurens, S.C.; Bill Boger, Steve Black, Matt Brown, Jeff Williams, Nick Farber, Chris Hostettler, and Dave Nichols, Columbus.

As usual, the Ohio State football team is again contending for the national championship. Four of our members visited the Phi Psi chapter at Michigan State and we thank them for their hospitality. We only hope they will visit us next year when the "other team up north" comes to Columbus. Brothers from Penn State came here for the game September 20. Next year we hope to visit them when the Bucks play at Penn State.

Home football games give our alumni a chance to stop for our football lunch at the house. The Brothers get up early on those days to move their cars out of the parking lot. This enables our alumni free parking for the game—something that is hard to come by! Everyone is invited to stop in—you never know, you could win the weekly booze raffle.

We have two TG's lines up for this quarter. The Thetas come over on October 10, and the Phi Mus visit us on November 22.

A welcome back party will be held this Saturday, October 11. With Halloween being on a Friday this year, we decided we couldn't pass up the chance to have a good ole costume party that night. Everybody will bring their two favorite records and we'll boogie to those goodies.

School is over by Thanksgiving this year which means one of the best times of the year, Christmas, we'll miss. To capture this time of the year, Delta will have a "Mock Christmas" party. It will be a formal affair at the house. Mom Vogt is arranging for a standing rib roast buffet dinner, complete with wine. After the dinner we'll decorate the tree and drink Mom's hot buttered rum. The Boss Grover, a local hit DJ will bring his collection of records and everyone can get into the Christmas spirit.

Miles Rudder is our new vice president who will handle rush. Anyone who knows of any Phi Psi material attending Ohio State please write Miles at 124 E. 14th Ave., Columbus, Ohio 43201.

Every Phi Psi at Ohio State is ready for a tremendous quarter. Stop by anytime and relive some of the great times you had at Ohio Delta. There is nothing like reliving the past to help you get through the future.

Ohio Wesleyan University Positive Attitude

Ohio Alpha heads into fall with a positive attitude.

Stan Bradley, Rush Chairman, has done an excellent job so far, interesting a strong core of freshmen in the house. The Brothers under Stan's leadership are hoping for the biggest pledge class on the hill.

Members of Ohio Alpha are active on Ohio Wesleyan's campus. Tom Jolly and Bud Hoffman are working on the University's student-run newspaper, the Transcript. Bud is the Advertising Manager, while Tom, who is in his third year on the paper, is University Governance Editor and a member of the Journalism Departmental Board.

Four of the 15 members of Wesleyan's Council on Student Affairs, the student governing committee are Ohio Alphans. Kevin Van Wart is Chairman of the council and Lindy Lindberg, Rick Parsons, and Rod Rahe are members.

Drew Clark is on the cross country team and wrestler Jeff Foerester, swimmer Pete Harnois, basketballer Gary (Dr. K) Klienman and sprinter Ed Brandt are training for the winter season.

The Ohio conference's leading football chain gang are all Ohio Alphans led by veterans Tom Jolly and Rob Lynch, plus Rick Parsons and Lindy Lindberg. They never miss a first down!

Other Brothers on departmental boards are Mike Thompson and Joe Costabile, Chemistry; Kevin Van Wart, Dick Pera, Matt Buckley, History; Bob Gordon, Economics; Mike Davis, German.

Also Marc Engelsman is Program Chairman for the University radio station, WSLN, and Drew Clark and Matt Buckley both helped out with orientation.

In Intramurals we have a strong but young football team. We won our first game against SAE on a touchdown spurt by Mike Thompson and an Ed Brandt pass-reception. "This victory was our first on the way to reclaiming the IM crown," football coach Klienbanks was reported to have said.

We are positive in attitude this fall and are planning on a good year.

University of Oklahoma New House Addition

Three new Brothers were initiated this summer at Oklahoma Alpha. They were: Ahmet Say, Tulsa; Jay Jones, Wichita Falls, Texas; and Dick Wise, Okmulgee.

The officers for the fall semester are: Ed Kurtz, GP; Mike Donohoe, VGP; John Wright, AG; Brent Parker, BG; Robert Hutton, P; Victor Owens, SG;

James Volinic, Phu; Paul Dorsey, Hi; David Slief, Hod.

We are all excited to welcome a new Housemother this semester, Betty Carruthers. Mom Carruthers adds that extra touch to our functions when she joins in with us.

Also, new this semester is a cook, Mary Salazar. A great addition to the house, her home cooked meals have gone over enthusiastically with everyone.

A great deal of hard work went into landscaping the front yard of the house during work week. The Greek letters, Phi Kappa Psi, were built into the inner circle of the drive in red and green rock adding a distinctive touch to the appearance of the house.

A very big occasion on our campus is football Saturdays. Many alumni and their guests are welcomed before and after the game to relax and enjoy memories of their days at the University. Game days also allow active members, pledges, and alumni to become better acquainted.

Oklahoma Alpha has been actively involved in intramural softball, tennis, golf, and football.

Several functions with sororities have been held, and a costume Halloween party is scheduled for October 25.

Oklahoma State University 500 Tricycle Race

Fall finds Oklahoma Beta in the midst of a host of activities. At the head of the list is the annual tricycle race, the "Phi Psi 500." An enthusiastic crowd of about 2,000 students attended last year, and this year's coordinators, Dan Chavez and Tom Roach expect an even larger crowd and a more successful 500. A full weekend of activity is planned, including a dance, a queen contest, a parade, and the race itself.

Along with the 500, we have a full list of functions (to which all Oklahoma alumni are invited) planned for fall semester. Included are the "Bar Room Brawl," which will be a hay ride this year, on November 8, and a joint Christmas party with Oklahoma Alpha at a date to be announced. A chile con queso party was held with the Alpha Chi Omegas, and dinner exchanges with the Kappa Delta, Pi Beta Phi, and Kappa Kappa Gamma sororities are planned.

A spirited group of pledges gave the Brothers the closest game (11-8) in the history of the "Blood Bowl," which annually pits the pledges against the members in tackle football. Twelve new pledges, the product of summer rush, made a good showing. The new pledges

Our chapter has remained active in fall intramural sports, with a 3-2 record in football, and planned participation in volleyball, bowling, table tennis, basketball, and swimming.

After five years of outstanding service, Dr. Neil Hackett has resigned as faculty advisor for our chapter. Gary Watters, a '67 Oklahoma Beta alumnus and former chapter GP, was elected to succeed Neil. Gary is presently an instructor of history at Oklahoma State.

University of Oregon Return of Phi Psi

We at Oregon Alpha are proud to announce the return of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity to its home on the University of Oregon campus. It's taken us three long years to achieve our goal, but through hard work and the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi, we once again have a home. Since retaking possession of the Phi Psi house on June 16, 729 E. 11th has been a beehive of activity. New paint has appeared everywhere. Most every sign of its past inhabitants have disappeared as the house has once again re-acquired the truly Phi Psi touch and flavor.

Several undergraduates have lived in the house this summer doing restoration work. Besides being painted inside, the exterior received a new coat of white. Additionally, the roof has been repaired and accent bushes replaced to enhance the overall appearance. The two membership skins (which have been signed by all members since 1923) are hanging in the den again. New couches, chairs, carpeting, draperies, stove, mixer, mattresses, dishes, silverware, dining tables and chairs, and other items were purchased and ready for fall rush. Due to our most generous alumni, to whom we are greatly indebted, we were able to make the deadline with much more than the essentials.

We feel that the 14 young men who were pledged on September 28, will be a great benefit to our chapter now and for years to come. They are: Michael A. Budd and John H. Henderson, Eugene; Bradley C. Johnson and Mitchell J. Logen, Salem; William R. Clark, Waldport; Matthew J. Kies and Dwight A. Worthington, Portland; David J. Singrey, Pendleton; Robert J. Stires, Arcadia, Calif.; Jeffrey C. Danielson, Woodland, Calif.; David W. Ashton and John S. Byers, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mark C. Guenther, North Olmstead, Ohio; Curtis N. Kamasugi, Wahiawa, Hawaii.

The newest member to the house is a young fellow who traveled all the way from Los Angeles, Calif. While being a little agitated after his long journey, this "Baron" of 729 E. 11th has settled into the active life of Phi Psi quite well. Though he is only two years old, he manages to tip the scales at 170 pounds. This is not too difficult to understand when considering that "Baron" is a Saint Bernard dog, not a pledge. Loved by all, this affectionate animal is a welcome addition to the return of tradition at the Oregon Alpha Chapter.

On May 19, elections for fall chapter officers were held. Those elected are: Steven B. Merge, GP; Michael J. D. Rordan II, VGP; Stephen K. Beard, P; Randall H. Ohlendorf, AG; Richard W. Ullman, BG; Patrick D. Laskowski, SG; Lawrence K. Wallin, Hod; R. Lawrence Ullman, Phu; and Stephen W. Harris, Hi. These offices will be held until the beginning of winter term, with the exception of P, who will hold his office through spring term.

There have been so many people who have been involved in the effort to reorganize Oregon Alpha, get the house back in shape, and acquire new furnishings, that all we can say is a big thank you to all. Through the perseverance and determination of a select few three years ago, once again Oregon Alpha Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi has a group of proud individuals dedicated to the ideals and precepts laid down by our illustrious founders. To everyone involved with PROJECT FULL HOUSE, our fraternal thanks.

Oregon State University Promising Future

The rebuilding effort at Oregon State is well underway with the addition of two very enthusiastic and extremely dedicated pledges. They are Ty Higgs, Salt Lake City, Utah, and Russ Logerwell from Sandy. They realize there will be a lot of hard work involved in the coming year and have accepted it as a challenge. On June 12, 1975, Donald E. Wilson, Pleasant Hill, was duly initiated by Oregon Beta. Don is Oregon Beta's 378th initiate since the chapter's founding in 1948.

Elections for new officers were held in June and October. Although the number of chapter offices is longer than our list of members and pledges, we felt it a necessity to assign every position. New officers and committee chairmen are: Dale K. Atkinson '74, GP; William R. Cady '74, P; Donald E. Wilson '75, AG, BG; Kenneth A. Shwartz '74, Rush Chairman, Pledge Educator, Intrafraternity representative; Ty Higgs and Donald E. Wilson '75, Social Chairmen; Steven Stevens '75, Athletic Chairman; and Russell Logerwell, Scholarship Chairman.

For Homecoming we are sponsoring the first annual "Oregon Beta Pool Tournament and Barbecue." Every alumnus will get a chance to play his favorite undergraduate. The winner of the tournament will be crowned the "shark" of Oregon Beta. The undergraduates feel this will be a great time to promote alumni involvement and should prove to be a definite plus towards our rebuilding efforts.

The District Six Council and Educational Leadership Conference held in Los Angeles over the weekend of October 11-12, at the California Epsilon chapter house proved to be a very rewarding time for delegate Ken Shwartz and pledges Ty Higgs and Russ Logerwell. Problems of different chapters were brought to light and utilizing the experience of all present, possible solutions were suggested. We from Oregon Beta especially benefited from the conference workshops as we can now anticipate many of these problems and hopefully have the answers to them when they arise.

Pennsylvania State University Unity and Involvement

Fall term is an active one at Penn State, and the Penn Lambdians hope to be as proud of this term as we are of last spring's.

Last spring saw a record $2,350 donated to the Centre County Day Care program making the Phi Psi 500 a tremendous success. With Delta Delta Delta sorority, the Phi Psis finished second place overall in Spring Week. In intramurals, we placed fifth overall. But more importantly, our academic status surged to twelfth among the 48 fraternities at Penn State, with Doug Hartzell receiving the Newman Die Badge.

Eight newly initiated Brothers join the chapter this fall: Robert Buly, William Donley, Scott McQuiston, New Castle; Frank Pugliese, Williamsport; Donald Miller, Columbia; Thomas Twardzik, Mountain Top; Todd Currie, Allentown, and Anthony Paluka, North Huntingdon.

James Helms Myers and Thomas Jeffrey Zembrak, both of Greensburg, were pledged to the high ideals of Phi Kappa Psi this fall and are becoming actively involved in house activities.

Chapter leadership will be provided this fall by John Eagan, GP; Tom Apple, VGP; Bob Riegel, P; John Mierley, AG; John Hummel, BG; Kevin Farquhar, SG; Bill Kelley, Hi; Richard Barancho, Hod; and Bruce Sykes, Phu.

Rush is going well, according to Rush Chairman Bill Kelley. He has had two successful rush parties and anticipates about ten acceptees for winter term to replace our graduating seniors.

Once again, Phi Psi continues to be active in campus organizations with three members on the executive board of the Interfraternity Council—John Eagan as administrative vice president, Gene Riechers as academic chairman and Tom Conroy as community action chairman. Ron Demay served as executive chairman for the IFC Board of Control during the summer term with many Phi Psis securing positions on the Board.

Dave Farrand recently has been elected the Mid-Atlantic Regional Representative to the National Student Recreation and Park Society. John Eagan also serves as president of Parmi Nous, a senior honorary society, while Bob Riegel is secretary of Tau Beta Pi, an honorary society for engineers.

Fall term is a socially active one, with theme parties, socials and post-game cocktail parties. The first social of the term, a cookout with Delta Delta Delta sorority, was a tremendous success. Brothers are already looking forward to upcoming socials with Chi Omega and Pi Beta Phi sororities, as well as the Fall Fling and Homecoming. The Homecoming tailgate party will probably rank among the largest ever at Penn State.

Always a contender for the Intramural Crown, Phi Psis continually rally for athletic competition. This year, with intramurals just getting underway, our swimming and bowling teams are set to win individual championships with strong showings in tennis, basketball, wrestling and soccer sure to come.

Homecoming is in full swing with the brotherhood displaying a strong, unified effort. The Brothers of Penn Lambda encourage all alumni to return to the lodge whenever near the State College area. To all Brothers who returned for Homecoming '75, we appreciate your tremendous support and hope it was as enjoyable for you as it was for us.

Purdue University Starting Again

Since our recolonization last spring there have been few dull moments for the men of Indiana Delta. We became active Phi Psis on October 10, but were well into the responsibilities of a full-fledged chapter long before initiation.

During several work weekends this past summer and continuing through the first week before classes, the entire house was cleaned and improved. Virtually every wall inside the house has been painted, along with all the outside trim. In addition to this work, numerous repairs were made throughout the house. Most of this was possible through the generosity of our Housing Association, which is deeply appreciated.

New officers for the fall semester were elected September 14. They are: GP J. Keith Zimmerman, Gary; VGP Scott Haag, Evansville; AG Gary Reuter, Popcorn; BG Patrick O'Toole, Elkhart; P Mike Muncy (one of two actives returning from last year); Hod Kevin Moore, Indianapolis; SG Ed Allen, Evansville; Phu Mike Eltzroth, Wabash; Hi Ford Schiclar, Chicago, Ill.

In addition to the above officers, the following men are new initiates, making a total of 23 new Brothers: Randy Bulter, Highland Park, Ill.; Kevin Burkett, Gregory Cook, Larry Dusing, Keith Rice, Rushville; Richard Churbock, Muncie; Steve Taylor, LaFontaine; Mike Haney, West Lafayette; Kevin Holloway, Evansville; Bill Humphries, Somerset; Steve Kennedy, Danville; Mark Lawson, Noblesville; Alan Leewood, Cary Marston, Bridgewater, N.J.; and Dave Sukolics, Elkhart.

Fall rush is coming along well. We have several prospective pledges visiting the house regularly and are hoping for an excellent fall pledge class. Social activities are only in the beginning, but also look promising.

Although we are starting near the bottom in the Greek system here at Purdue, we are striving to better the current image of Phi Kappa Psi on this campus. We thank Paul Buck, our chapter advisor and an alumnus of Oklahoma Beta, who also served as our pledge educator. His advice and tolerance have been invaluable.

GARY REUTER, Correspondent

University of Rhode Island Greek Week Success

Social life at RI Beta last semester was highlighted by our Spring Weekend. The entire brotherhood enjoyed themselves immensely. Diane D'Arezzo of Delta Zeta was elected Phi Psi's Sweetheart. In the annual Alumni-undergraduate softball game, the Alumni squeaked by the Undergrads 24-8.

Phi Psi figured prominently during Greek Week. We took Greek Sing with a tear-jerking rendition of "Turn Around Look at Me" arranged by Jim Cavaretta. Bernie Harlow won best conductor. Bill Hayes (now a colonizer at Oregon with Ken Schwartz) took the beer chug and a hard-hitting Glen Severson won the softball hitting contest. The big trio of Joe Roach, Pat Rossoni, and Steve "Big Mac" Macchioni won the tug of war.

After many close contests, new officers for the fall semester were elected. These are: Gary Petterson, GP; Bob Millard, VGP; Hal Zick, P; Allan Chiulli, AG; Steve Eustis, BG; Dave Cadorette, SG; Steve Macchioni, Hi; Dave Lever, Hod; Dave Goding, Phu; and Mike Ricci, Pledgemaster.

This year's rush program, hoping to duplicate last year's extremely successful rush, is being run by Chuck Cavaretta. The whole chapter house is enthused with the prospects of a good rush.

Hal Zick and Bill Schult have been elected co-chairmen of this year's Bounce-a-thon for Cancer. Already they are hard at work.

Early this semester Phi Psi sponsored a backyard Block Party which was attended by an estimated 2,000 people. A good time was had by all who attended. Social chairmen Estes Benson and Charles Scimecca have been busy planning socials. Several midnight socials have made RI Beta the social talk of the URI campus. Expectations are running high with Homecoming just around the corner.

On the athletic scene, Nick "The Hammer" Capezza and Walt Augustyn are playing important roles on the Varsity football team. Paul Seddon, Dave Disano and John Goding are playing for the Rugby Club. Paul "The Mole" Barry is rowing around with the Crew Club.

Best wishes to Oregon colonizers Bill Hayes and Ken Schwartz from all their RI Beta Brothers.

Rider College Varsity Athletics

Initiation was the first big event this semester, and we congratulate our 10 new Brothers: Dave Newman, George Demos, Dave Lerman, Brian Pulchanski, Jim Snyder, Tom Kearney, Mike Tolman, Bob Boderman, Marc Benowich, and Rich Bowling.

The officers this year are Steve D'onofrio, GP; Bob Florio, VGP; Ron Loder, AG; Bill Erdman, SG; Mark Grossman, P; Mike Di'silvio, Hi; Steve Ginter, Phu; Paul Stramberg, Rush; Danny Morris, Steward; Terry Leach, Ritual; Mike Ayars, Chaplain; Jim Meager, Social; Don Classon and Joe Shay, Co-Alumni Chairmen; Clyde Clossen, Scholarship; and Gary Higley, Athletic Chairman.

Bid Day for Rider fraternities was October 13, and the Phi Psis collected 11 new pledges: Steve Silver, Sam Green, Jim Ball, Randy Percoco, Lenny Schwartz, Mark Creager, Jay Antonelli, Dan Rucki, Steve Stevens, Gary Simmons, and Leon Reid.

This semester, 5 Phi Psis are bringing recognition to our chapter for their participation in varsity athletics at Rider. Steve Ginter, Brian Pulchanski, and John Timko, team co-captains, are noted for their play this year on Rider's soccer team; Clyde Clossen, who is holder of state championship of 50 meter freestyle, second in state 100 meter freestyle for swimming, and Don Glasson on Rider's cross country team. Also this semester, intramural sports were dominated by the Phi Psis. The B league paddleball team, led by the expert play of Danny Morris and Joe Coccione has turned a perfect 11-0 record. A league tennis at the time of this writing is also undefeated, thanks to a great team effort by George Demos, team coach, and once again Danny Morris, Ron Loder, and Mike Ayars. Our A league football team is keeping its eyes on the cellar as they slip to a 0-5 record. The golf team led by Warren Nichols, Mike Tolman, and Lou Harbrecht is leading the way with a 7-0 record.

Honors to Gary Higley who was selected to AFC Allstars.

Last weekend, October 17-19, was Homecoming weekend, and many alumni returned to their alma mater. All the undergraduate Brothers were glad to see them as we had parties and one catered luncheon in their honor.

Our service project this year will be to assist our local community police force on Halloween night against any vandalism and mischief, and also to aid and supervise youngsters who are out trick or treating.

RON LODER, Correspondent

The University of South Carolina Community Service

The South Carolina Phi Psis are looking forward to this fall semester, the second full semester in our new lounge. Several Brothers put in a lot of hard work this past summer finishing the bar room and putting down carpeting to nearly complete the work on our new home.

Fall rush went very well for us this year and we are very proud of our new pledges. They are: Bob Benson, Parkersburg, W.Va.; Doug Cornforth, Sidney, N.Y.; Mike Fletcher, Greenville; Conner Harrison, Columbia; Bert LaBoone, Robert Robinson, Easley; Chris Tofalli, Long Island, N.Y. Bill Schill is again doing a fine job as pledge educator.

Saturday, October 11, is going to be a big day in Columbia! It will be Homecoming Day—the Gamecocks vs. the University of Virginia. Every night of the week will be in preparation for the big day. The Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority is working with us to build a float for the Homecoming Parade on Saturday morning. The game will be followed by a dance given by IFC for all fraternities. Go Gamecocks!!!

Along with the fun, there is also some work to be done. The last two weekends in October have been set aside for a special project. We are painting a home for autistic children here in Columbia. Also, among service projects, we are in the preliminary stages of helping to start a basketball team at Columbia's Epworth Children's Home. The Phi Psis will serve as referees.

We congratulate Greg Anderson on the fine job he is doing coaching our intramural football team. We've gotten off to a slow start, but we are improving! Let's go Phi Kappa Psi!

JOHN KORNEGAY, Correspondent

University of Southern California Tennis Power

As the warm summer days pass quickly, and the numerous July and August rush parties become a memory, the Brothers at Cal Delta finish staggering through the formal two weeks of parties, announce the success that is so much a part of USC. We are proud of the pledging of 22 men who will most certainly become fine Brothers of this chapter.

We welcome our new pledges to the Greek way of life, and bestow upon them our every confidence that they will excel to greater heights and become the future leaders of District VI.

In alphabetical order, our new pledges are: Bill Badham, Craig Benson, Gary Cassel, Tom Cecil, Howard Chuchian, Gennaro Cigliano, Carter Dunlap, Mark Foster, Loring Jacobs, Jeff Kingsley, Andy Lucessi, Alfred (Rocky) McCandless, Bill McCuen, Dan Mulvihill, Greg Nick, Gary Poltash, Dave Prickett, Marc Reeder, Ron Reid, Buddy Richely, Craig Uhl, and Craig Watkins.

The house has taken on a new appearance after our major refurbishment during the summer. New floor design, wall paneling, furniture, and room additions, along with a frontal renovation, have given our house new life, blended with more pride than ever before.

The District VI—ELC/DC was a great success this year, thanks to our crosstown Brothers at Cal Epsilon. The hospitality and organization of the entire affair weekend was by far one of the finest.

We congratulate our new Archon for District VI, John Ciccarella of Cal Theta. We have great confidence in him as a leader, and feel certain that he will bring our District closer together in the true Fraternity spirit.

In the IFSP Tennis Tourney, held the following weekend, Peter Bach, along with pledges Bill Badham and Greg Benson, breezed into the semi-finals with seemingly effortless victories. Thus, the team tennis title was awarded to Cal Delta after its long residence in the SAE house. Pointwise, Phi Psi now leads the race for the Iron Man trophy. The objective now for athletic chairman Anthony Cigliano is to lead the race and never look back.

Tennis is the power behind our chapter this year, with Mike Newberry and pledge Andy Lucessi, both on the starting varsity team. Newly acquired pledges Greg Nick and Dave Prickett (numbers 1 and 2 at Pasadena City College) both ineligible for the first semester, will reunite for IFSP Doubles in the spring.

Phi Psi is a main workforce in and around the USC urban environment. Squires and Knights, two school service organizations are beginning their respective rush for members. The Daily Trojan newspaper has its hands full with the numerous Phi Psi members who continue to write fascinating articles for its publication. KSCR radio, a local AM station, employs Casey Mangin for its news broadcasts. Row Judicial, the governing body of the Greek system, is fortunate to have Bob Schneider as chairman.

All in all, it looks like another standout year for Phi Kappa Psi here at USC.

Univ. of Southwestern Louisiana Largest Pledge Class

The Phi Psis opened the new fall this year with the biggest and most enthusiastic rush in our chapter's history. Our pledge class was three times the size of the largest pledge class to date and activity at our chapter house never ceases. The 1975 fall pledges are: Carl Anderson, Thomas Sarradet, Franklin; Ted Anderson, Hammond; Kerry Aucoin, Centerville; Gordon Badeaux, Port Barre; Barney Barnett, Irving, Texas; Andy Bienvenu, Jacques Lasseign, St. Martinville; Paul Bowie, River Ridge; Kenneth Campbell, Mark Jackson, Alexandria; John Foti, St. Martinville; James Hodges, Portland, Maine; Jim Juneau, Birmingham, Alabama; Tom Kozy, Westfield, Ohio; Jerry Norwood, Zachary; Don Prosser, Westminster, Calif.; Brent Sonnier, Sulphur; Fred Woods, Kenner; Phillip Broussard, Frank Hebert, Calvin Humble, Dan Johnson, Jimmy Maraist, Paul Miller, Keith Roberts, Carl Royer, Lafayette. This pledge class is indicative of the close cooperation and combined effort of our chapter.

We are looking forward to a great semester with such activities as the Greaser's Party, the Spaghetti Supper (sponsored by the pledge class), several live band parties, and a two-bus excursion to Ruston on October 11, to attend a football game between our old rival Louisiana Tech and our own college team. With these and other activities, such as Homecoming and intramural sports, we feel sure that the semester will prove both enjoyable and rewarding.

MARK WILLIAMS, Correspondent

Southwest Texas State University Fall Report

Our fall officers are: Robert Ferguson, GP; Kenneth Lind, VGP; Paul Wilford, AG; Mark Lehman, BG; Tony Benich, P; James Cutler, SG; James Thopson, Hod; Gary L. Zila, Phu; and Rob Tyler, Hi. We have received nine pledges this fall and they are: Randy Burr, Victoria; Doug Miller, New Brannfels; Danny Lavv, Rockport; Paul J. Brandal, El Campo; John Hermansen, Yoakum; Kim Clements, Bellville; Bruce Bump, San Antonio; Ralph Sanders, Houston; and Gary Caldwell, El Paso.

October 1 through 4, our chapter, along with five other fraternities and sororities, took part in a campus wide cerebral palsy campaign. Stations were set up all over campus where donations were collected for this worth-while organization. Over $500.00 was collected during this short period of time.

October 3 was all-campus fall carnival in which our chapter participated, and did very well. We had a "Toss your ball" booth set up, and if you were lucky you could win a large stuffed animal of your choice. The entire night was a lot of fun and very successful, thanks to the efforts of Steve Hughes who took charge.

Homecoming is October 25, and we are expecting another record crowd. Activities kick off Saturday morning with a banquet at 10:30 a.m. at Hills Restaurant. Alumni, undergraduates, pledges, special guests, and parents are all invited to attend the banquet, and the game afterward. Our special guest speaker will be Tom James, President of our Fraternity. There will be a band party Saturday night for pledges and Brothers only. If you plan to come to any of the upcoming events, please get your reservations in as early as possible to Brother Gary L. Zila.

Our campus enrollment was a record this fall with a top tally of 13,300 students. Fall enrollment has grown constantly every year.

PAUL WILFORD, Correspondent

Syracuse University Much to Report

The spring semester proved productive for all Phi Psis as we had an excellent social calendar along with some fine scholastic achievements. We are proud to report that two Brothers were initiated into scholastic honoraries. Robert H. Sennet (TV-Radio), Alpha Epsilon Rho, and Harold P. Rapp (Engineering), Alpha Pi Mu. To all those interested, Brother Dick Schellens has finally graduated.

Election of officers took place on April 20. The results are as follows: David L. Webb, GP; Donald Scott Liebert, VGP; David L. Houlihan, P; Christopher W. Rahe, AG (elected Sept. 11); Joseph E. Alloway, BG; Robert S. Yamulla, SG; John E. Hess Jr., Hod; Charles E. Stoll, Phu; and Robert C. Cook, Hi. The new Rush Chairmen are Scott Roberts and Jeff Bonnem; Auxiliary Chairman is Joseph Alloway; Pledge Trainer, Richard Bayersdorfer; Social Chairmen are Jeff Lind and Pete Menkes; and our IFC Representative is John Simmons.

The spring pledge class were initiated on April 20. Our new Brothers are: John P. Simmons, Muncie, Ind.; Robert S. Yamulla, Sugarloaf, Pa.; John E. Hess Jr., Salisbury, Md.; Christopher S. Sanders, Dewitt, N.Y.; Mark R. Johnson, Amherst, N.H.; Peter S. Willcox, Bethesda, Md.; and Charles E. Stoll, Farmingdale, N.Y.

Enough of the past. The Brothers of New York Beta are once again exceptionally psyched for the fall semester. We have just concluded an excellent rush program, with 17 men accepting bids as pledges. Our new pledges are as follows: Terrence C. Chermak, Jamaica; Andrew W. Chalanick, Auburn; Andrew A. Burns, A.P.O., N.Y., N.Y.; Brian D. Brown, Quincy, Mass.; Richard F. Hare, Schenectady; Kevin T. Faule, Buffalo; Robert M. Harris, Summit, N.J.; Paul J. Jasienski, Kenmore; Howard G. Levy, Queens; Kenneth M. Malloy, Stamford, Conn.; Richard E. Selikoff, Yonkers; Bob Schickler, Huntington, L.O.; and Larry Silvi.

Last year we finished an impressive but rather disappointing third place in the fraternity division of the Syracuse University intramural program. This year the Brothers are psyched, and prepared to excel in this area of activities. Softball, golf, tennis, and horseshoes have begun, and the Phi Psis are strong contenders in each sport. Clem Murray is having a fine season tending goal for the Syracuse lacrosse team. The team has compiled a 2-0 record, and Clem had an impressive shutout against Dickinson College with 14 saves.

All in all, New York Beta has remained a strong and active chapter on the Syracuse University campus.

CHRISTOPHER W. RAHE, Correspondent

University of Tennessee New Advisor

Fall quarter rush week functions were slightly hindered by a rainy spell which reduced the number of rushees visiting fraternities over the campus. But in spite of bad weather, Tennessee Epsilon has gained four men as pledges thus far. They are: Billy Higgins, and Tommy Griffin, Memphis; Ronnie Vaughn, Kingsport; and Monte Mortrud, Chattanooga.

We welcome as our new graduate student advisor Al Donaldson, South Carolina '73, who transferred to the University of Tennessee this quarter and is doing graduate studies in wild-life management. Brother Donaldson has contributed greatly to our chapter's organization and morale, and we feel honored to have him associated with our chapter.

Our intramural football team has started off with rousing victories in the first two games of the season. With the coaching leadership of Bill Rutledge, and the crushing defensive line that has made Phi Psi famous in our league in intramurals, our powerful grid squad should provide our opponents with some stiff competition for the championship games this season.

Following our last football victory, the actives, pledges, and rushees gathered in the "mystic gardens" for a very successful cookout and party to celebrate the win and welcome our new pledges to the chapter. Highlighting the party was the selection of two chapter sweethearts: Miss Cheryl Tyrer, and Miss Jamie Creson, both of Memphis.

Chapter officers for fall quarter are: John Rae, G.P.; Philip Joe, P; Bill Graves, AG; Lee Raines, BG; Bob Couch, house manager; and Ken Bogart, social chairman.

BILL GRAVES, Correspondent

University of Texas New Housemother

Texas Alpha started off the year with the formal initiation of four spring pledges on Sept. 11, 1975. The list included Mark William Davis, San Antonio; Ronald Karl Kieschnik, Houston; Bryan Patrick Muecke, Texas City; and John Harold Spangle, La Marque.

Following summer activities with parties in Austin, Houston, and Dallas, rush brought Texas Alpha 14 pledges: Roger Wade Beam, Russell Cody Pruitt, Vernon; Richard Witten Catlin, Royce Evan Ovaline, Houston; Tim Hill Chaney, Austin; Winston Dumont Grant, Fort Worth; Robert McDonnell Gray, Port Arthur; John Michael Langford, New Braunfels; Doren Charles Martin, Cary, N.C.; Nathaniel Scott Norman, Springfield, Va.; Otis David Phillips, Dallas; Loyd Lorraine Segler, Dallas; and James Gregory Wilson, Odessa.

Three new officers, David Temple, Phu; Bryan Muecke, Hi; and Mark Davis, Hod, were added to the slate of other officers for the fall elected last spring including John Adams, GP; Dan Wilkerson,

The SHIELD OF PHI KAPPA PSI

VGP; Bruce Robinett, AG; Steve Moller, P; and Dale Womack, BG.

Getting involved with the football spirit, Texas Alpha held buffets before home games and parties after the games such as the western party on September 27, with the Brothers from Texas Tech.

Sorority matches thus far have been a "suppressed desires" costume party with the Delta Zetas and matches with the Alpha Phis and the Gamma Phi Betas.

The highpoint of the football season will be the Texas-Oklahoma University football game, played in Dallas on October 10, followed by a party afterwards at the Sheraton Hotel.

BRUCE ROBINETT, Correspondent

Texas Tech University Historic House

The fall rush program of Texas Beta brought 14 pledges. These men, along with our new 18 initiates are providing Phi Psi at Texas Tech with the "gentlemen" image.

Our goals this semester are to regain the academic lead among fraternities and to participate to the fullest extent in all intramural and other activities.

Our pledgship program, directed by Russ Dobbs, will emphasize academics strongly in order to achieve our goal. The semi-annual pledge retreat has been scheduled for November 7, where Brothers and pledges will meet with the Texas Gamma Chapter of Southwest Texas State University. This gathering for the weekend will be held at the New Braunfels Wurstfest.

Our pledges for this semester are: Brad Camp, Mike Forrester, Stuart Grove, Lloyd Harper, Jeff Howell, Tom Klein, Chuck Lokey, Wayne Marr, Robert Oughton, Chuck Rhame, Dwayne Roberts, David Salmon, Steve Westbrook and David Wyatt.

Texas Beta's annual food drive is scheduled for December 6, and is held in conjunction with the Lubbock Salvation Army's request for donations of food to be distributed to needy families in the area. This service project brings goodwill between our chapter and the Lubbock populace as well as the Texas Tech student community.

Our lodge may be officially declared a historical home by the Lubbock Historical Society. When our lease runs out in two years the house may be made into a museum. We are in the process of gaining finances for a new lodge at Tech's Greek Circle through contributions from Brothers and alumni and fund raising projects.

A U.S. stock car, named "Texas Beta," owned by Russ Dobbs' father, is a holder of a national track record in its division.

LENNART AHLBERG, Correspondent

The University of Toledo A Bright Future

With the beginning of a new school year, the men of Ohio Eta are left with 15 active members. Fortunately these are all very young and capable Brothers. The Brothers have elected Mike Cassidy, GP; Jim Shortridge, VGP; Tim Zale, AG; Rick Gerken, P; George Haig, BG; Randy Gensler, Phu; Larry Brach, Hod; Larry Pickett, SG. We hope they will show good leadership and build our chapter at the University of Toledo into a great one.

Last spring Larry Brach and Dave Strossen captured the Tennis Hardware. The chapter also added another trophy to our case with a crowd pleasing third place finish in the Annual Songfest with the theme from "Shaving Cream."

Our Rush Program looks excellent thus far for "Fall '75." Phi Kappa Psi at the University of Toledo hopes to take a large pledge class in the true tradition of quality.

Ohio Eta looks as though it is building, and building fast—not only into a better chapter, but a great one. Phi Kappa Psi will live ever, die never.

TIMOTHY J. ZALE, Correspondent

Valparaiso University Strong With Football

The Brothers of Indiana Epsilon are proud to announce the admittance of seven new members. They are: Tom Seisser, John Townsend, Elton Johnson, Brian and Kevin Allodi, George Georno, and Dan Kristianson. We are encouraged about the new members' enthusiasm and believe that they are very capable of keeping the Phi Kappa Psi tradition alive here at Valparaiso.

As is the case every year the football team has a large contingency of members from the Indiana Epsilon Chapter. There are 14 members on the football team this year. They are: Bill Ganek, Keith Gilliland, Ralph Steinbeck, Jim Edie, Mike Russert, Dave Gracely, George Georno, Kevin and Brian Allodi, Rick Baxter, Greg Giles, Mike Lightbourn, Mike Piffner, and Pat Wanta. The team's record so far this year is 2-1. They defeated DePauw 13th in the nation for small colleges, by the score of 38-17. We are also proud to report that Bill Ganek, Ralph Steinbeck, and Mike Piffner are the Captains of this year's team.

The chapter elected new house officers at the close of last year. They are: Ken Richards, GP; Kevin Allodi, VGP; John Meyer, P; Rod Usher, AG; Elton Johnson, BG; John Rettew, Rush; Greg Giles, Pledge Educator; Chris Mack, Hi; Earl Taylor, Hod; and Tom Weilgos, Phu. We are excited about the jobs these Brothers have done so far this year and we know they will continue to do well the rest of the year.

Vanderbilt University Bank Note Retired

In order to bring the news of Tennessee Delta up to date, we are pleased to recognize the previously unreported initiates of March 23, 1975: Bradley Hamann Burke and William Donald Stuart Jr., Memphis; Gregory Bryan Duncan, Great Falls, Mont.; Russell Edmund Fannon, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Robert Burwell Fulton IV, Kenneth Square, Pa.; Gregory Alston Googer, Atlanta, Ga.; Robert Edgar Harrison, Crossville; Richard Bennett Hensler, Toledo, Ohio; Gregory Thurston Isley, Liberty, Mo.; James Elton Kropp, St. Louis, Mo.; Rick Waede Maycumber, Dallas, Tex.; Robert Wayne McLaughlin, North Caldwell, N.J.; Arthur Joseph Olender, Opa-Lolka, Fla.; Charles William Parkinson Jr., St. Petersburg, Fla.; Edward George Riley III, Quincy, Mass.; Malcolm Franklin Smith II, Beckley, W.Va.; Douglas Arant Stockham, Birmingham, Ala.; James Murray Wallace, Gideon, Mo.; Kenneth Dale Wayne, Flowery Branch, Ga.

At the last regular meeting of the spring semester, the following Brothers were elected officers of Tennessee Delta for the fall semester: Frank Leslie Benham III, GP; David Whitaker Hughes, VGP; Robert Joseph Homm, AG; John Sherman Shaw III, SG; Robert Douglas James, BG; Earle Plain Martin III, Phu; Edward George Riley III, Hod; Michael Eugene Crowe, Hi; Donald J. Davis, HM.

One significant event toward which Tennessee Delta has looked forward for years, took place this summer. On July 1, 1975, the bank note on the chapter house was retired. This culminated years of diligent work by the alumni association and the active chapter in raising funds. Money in excess of that needed was raised and the surplus has been applied to refurbishing the house and making needed repairs. Tennessee Delta is proud of the strong and dedicated alumni without whose help this debt could not have been retired at this date. A special event has been planned for Vanderbilt's Homecoming, November 3. Traditionally, a time when many alumni return, the chapter will hold a "note burning" as a final tribute to the hard work of many Brothers over the years.

For the first time in several years, Phi Psi seems destined to dominate the ever-popular intramural program. The football team is poised for a play-off berth, while the soccer team, which last year made the play-offs, returns all of its starters for what is certain to be a fine season. Several of the newly initiated sophomores figure prominently in the success of both teams. Senior coaches Bill Webb, Randy Harris, and Ray Herod deserve special credit for their dedication and leadership throughout their four years, and especially this year, in the molding of the football team.

In ceremonies held Sunday, Oct. 5, 1975, the following men were pledged to

Wabash College Good Financial Status

With the return of 47 Brothers from various summer activities, Indiana Gamma entered the fall semester with the kind of enthusiasm that keeps a chapter strong. In fact, we are one of only two fraternities on campus not in debt this year.

This year's Fall rush program, under the direction of chairman Doug Lyday, went well for Indiana Gamma. The freshmen pledge class consists of 17 young men. They are: Eric Brandt, Bloomington, Ill.; Sean Butler, Highland; Jon Charles Greaves, Tulsa, Okla.; James Brandon Griffis, Richmond; Jay William Ponder, Dale Robert Heim, Indianapolis; William Brian Kerrigan, Connerville; Jacob Bant Van Kretschmar, Attica; William Scott McBride, Clinton; Mark Douglas Mikesell, South Bend; Robert Hugh Mikesell, Richmond; Gene Neyhart, Gary; Michael Floyd O'Quin, Sparta, Ohio; Nathaniel Dean Pendleton, Philadelphia, Pa.; Deane Popma, Aurora; Stephen Wayne Weiland, Hammond; Bryan Jay Williams, Evansville.

In an attempt to improve relations with the community, the pledges cleaned up a local park one Saturday morning and were later treated to lunch by the city's recreation department. Other social activities this Fall have included a banquet honoring those faculty members who have helped Indiana Gamma over the years and a "Jeff-Duo" dance with Phi Gamma Delta.

In sports, the intramural football team is currently tied for third place while several of the Brothers finished a respectable fifth in golf competition. On the intercollegiate level, the Phi Psis are represented by freshman Mike O'Quin and sophomore Rick Kunc, varsity football; freshman Rob Mikesell, cross country; and sophomore Chris Beebe, soccer.

Finally, the Brothers would like to invite all alumni and friends, during Homecoming, October 18, to see the new furniture and the completion of the Edward H. Knight Memorial Chapter Room and the formal television room.

University of Washington Fall Activities

Washington Alpha again started the school year strongly. We added 20 new pledges to our chapter with more expected after publication. This brings our number to 55, a very respectable size at the University of Washington. The new pledges are: Chris Albertson, Steve Cowman, Seattle; Keene Crews, Brian Goppert, Don Taylor, Scott Weyer, Marty Wyckoff, Tacoma; Doug Griert, Snohomish; Roger Hayes, Oak Harbor; Dale Hackney, Blair Cunningham, Bellevue; Gene Hoxie, Des Moines; Scott Lane, Snohomish; Terry Sacks, Mike Allieri, John Sullivan, Dave Strack, Greg Taylor, Pete Zink, Seattle; Joe Straight, Des Moines.

We have enjoyed the company of two Brothers for the past week. Barry Satz, Ohio Epsilon, is here on his way to Alaska as a part of a tour of the United States. Rick Chavez from California Theta has been accepted in the school of dentistry here and is living with us until he finds a place of his own.

New chapter officers were elected during the last meeting of spring quarter. They are: Jim Lockett, GP; Dennis Schreckendgust, VGP; Terry Bjorke, P; David Reeves, AG; Kelly Crisler, Hi; Dennis Yamamoto, Hod; Mark Eakins, Phu; Don Griert, BG; Don Casad, SG; Rob Shelton and Kevin Austin, Co-rush chairmen; and Mark Blanchard is co-pledge trainer with Rex Nequette.

Fall activities are numerous and will be directed toward adjusting freshmen to the chapter and its functions. Like last year, pledges will run all sorority exchanges. We have found this arouses interest and involves the pledge in social functions early in their Phi Psi career. In addition to exchanges, dances and the Christmas Party, we will hold our annual Fire Party in recognition of the burning of the chapter house in 1928. In athletics, Phi Psi will field two teams in the competition football league. One will consist of active members in the chapter, the other of alumni. Hopefully we will face each other in the finals.

As always, we hope to see more Brothers from across the nation to share chapter news and traditions.

Washington and Jefferson College Homecoming Dedication

The 1975 graduation at Washington and Jefferson College saw 13 members of the Pennsylvania Alpha Chapter receive their diplomas. With all of the extracurricular activities that our Brothers were involved in, we were very pleased to have placed fourth academically with a 3.17 average for the 1974-75 academic year.

Washington and Jefferson College varsity football found 18 members of our Fraternity on their roster. Senior linebacker, John Giordani, '73, was elected captain of this year's squad. This makes the fourth consecutive Phi Psi that has been elected captain. Pictured with the team is trainer Jack Rea Jr.—a friend of the chapter.

The Brothers are very happy to announce that Dr. Charles Ream has accepted the position of Faculty Advisor. Dr. Ream is the chairman of the Education Department at W & J and former head football coach.

Homecoming was celebrated Saturday, September 27, 1975, and with it came alumni and the dedication of our Alumni Plaque. The Brothers of the Pennsylvania Alpha Chapter honored the following alumni for their generous contributions: John F. Wiley '16; William A. Sarris '75; Melvin B. Bassi '47; William H. Greer '12; and Horatio J. Petrocelli '62. We would like to extend our deepest appreciation to all of the alumni who have contributed to our fund.

Phi Kappa Psi was represented in the Homecoming competition by Kathy Anderson. Vance Richmond '75 escorted Miss Anderson to the Homecoming Dance Friday evening. The Phi Psis also placed third in the Fraternity decoration competition.

On the Intramural sports scene the Phi Psi Animals are ready for another competitive year. Last year we were defeated in the championship game but this year we are out to take it all. Our Intramural tennis team consists of Richard Pinelli, '75; John Bucholtz, '75; and Nick Karazsia, '75. To this date the team is undefeated in three matches.

On September 22, 1975, John Noble, '75, was elected as the Rush Chairman for the 1975-76 year.

Washington and Lee University Busy Fall

As we undertake a new academic year, the Phi Psis find themselves in the midst of a rewarding rush. Rush chairmen Maynard McCorkle and Paul Maloney are working feverishly this year. It looks as though this year's pledge class will equal the banner year we had last year. In this year's pledge class should be the 1,000th initiate of Virginia Beta. We are all looking forward to this momentous occasion. Many alumni are expected to attend this year's initiation.

Last spring Phi Kappa Psi held an alumni reunion weekend. Many past Phi Psi graduates of Washington and Lee returned to campus to see the new house and take part in a festive weekend.

Fall is a busy time here at the "Psi Lodge." Many Brothers are participants in fall intercollegiate sports. Paul Thomson is captain of a fine Washington and Lee cross-country team. Jeff Barr is our representative on varsity soccer. The gridiron finds quite a few Brothers on the team: Rocky Joiner, Warren Wolfe, Steve DiBiagio, Sal Abbruzzese, Bob Szczecinski, Ted Hissey, Ed Johnson, Bill Frear, and Bob Williams.

Intramurals are again led by Phi Psi teams. The football team is undefeated and expects to ride to the championship on Mickey Knapp's arm. Golf and tennis are expected to do equally as well. Jeff Barr, who coordinated intramurals for Phi Psi, is working hard to make us number 1 on campus.

The Phi Psis expect to continue this enthusiasm into the rest of the year, again being leaders on campus.

Westminster College College Bowl Champions

The Brothers of Missouri Beta Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi are proud to announce their 1975 Fall pledge class. These men are: Eric Bartholdt, David Draz, David Jenkins, Leavenworth, Kan.; Steve Benowitz, Rochester, N.Y.; John Conrades, Chip Schane, St. Louis; Steve Dale, St. Joseph; Mark Edwards, Arlington, Va.; Robert Kaucher, Belleville, Ill.; Matt Kranz, Lincoln Park, Mich.; Tom Maher, Chickasha, Okla.; Norman Robinson, Dyer, Tenn.; Tim Shortridge, Chesterfield; Bill Westfall, Lake Forest, Ill.; Thad Wharton, Oklahoma City, Okla.

In the area of academics, the chapter will defend the College Bowl Championship, which we won during the spring parents' weekend, 1975. Returning members of that team are Brothers Mike Schaefer, Dan Sonis and Tom Graham.

The chapter regrets to announce the death of faculty advisor, Dr. Henry Clay Niles. He held the position since the inception of our chapter and worked continually for our betterment.

This is a year of renovation for Missouri Beta. The Brothers have been busy painting and making necessary repairs in preparation for upcoming events. We would like at this time, to extend an invitation to all alumni to stop in for a visit when they are in the vicinity.

West Virginia University To Host DC/ELC

West Virginia Alpha recently initiated 12 pledges under the leadership of Hod Kim Craig. Those initiated include William J. Blankmann, Parkersburg; Patrick M. Parsons, Mark L. Starcher, Wesley D. Ruben, Ripley; David M. Ziegler, Charleston; Bruce P. Caveney, Wheeling; Louis P. Bartoletti, Jr., Ebensburg, Pa.; Stephen W. Roderick, Upper St. Clair, Pa.; Robert D. Sites, Franklin; Paul F. Nichols, Charles A. Haslebacher, Clarksburg; and Richard E. Jones, Laurel, Md.

The Interfraternity Council conducted a successful and well-organized rush this semester. Among those serving on the council are Ed Riley as vice president and Kevin Zech as treasurer.

The success of West Virginia University's Homecoming was due greatly to the efforts of Mike Hopkins as chairman of the homecoming committee. The chapter thanks those alumni who attended Homecoming in hopes that they enjoyed the festivities.

Elected to the Student Administration Board of Directors were Bob Bird and Junior Taylor.

Recently initiated into Fi Batar Capper, WVU's mock honorary that instills spirit in WVU athletics were Jeff Tennant, Chip LaCava, Roy Setzer, and Kim Craig. The Fi Batar pledges for this fall are Bill Appleby, Tim Whalen, and Dave Ziegler.

Newly elected to serve West Virginia

Alpha was Stephen W. Roderick, AG.

This semester, West Virginia Alpha will be hosting the Educational Leadership Conference. Conference chairman is Wayne Hall and conference director is Dave Horton, '69.

A position which represents WVU is becoming an institution for Phi Psis. Phi Psi Junior R. Taylor, Jr. currently reigns as Mountaineer following Phi Psi and former Mountaineer Stu Wolpert's graduation.

West Virginia Alpha, with the assistance from sororities on campus and donations from individuals and organizations, has accumulated an impressive balance for the Phi Kappa Psi Leukemia Fund. The committee currently is working on plans for further fund raising activities. The chapter appreciates those other chapters that have assisted us in the fight against Leukemia which has touched this house with the illness of Brother Shingleton.

As a result of outstanding academic performance and participation in various University organizations, the following members of this chapter were named to University honorary societies: Samuel D. Morris was named to Sphinx, an honorary for seniors; and Eugene A. Tuckwiller and Phillip R. Stevens were named to Helvetia, an honorary for sophomores.

In Intramurals, Phi Kappa Psi is working towards an unprecedented fourth straight fraternity championship. So far the Phi Psis have won "A" division football and are tied for first in the "B" division. The golf team came in second place and the Phi Psis look strong in track, cross country, and soccer, all coming up shortly.

As the result of a successful rush by Rush Chairman Doug Hall, Phi Kappa Psi accepted 32 pledges for the fall semester. These include Harold A. Bonner, Fred E. Fitzhugh, Richard W. Gallagher, John C. Wilson, Rory L. Galloway, and James T. Wiley, Morgantown; William S. Cummings, Patrick D. Whalen, Charles R. Forren, Timothy J. Lannan, Jeffery R. Stevens, Bridgeport; Brian E. Hall, Jeffery C. Carmichael, Robert F. Minehart, Jr., Henry C. Wymer, Richard L. Wolfe, Clarksburg; Geoffrey L. Hill, Winchester, Va.; Edward F. Peet, Frederick, Md.; Jay C. Koch, Sterling, Va.; Greg L. Lehman, Kingwood; John E. Morris, New Martinsville; Alan M. Selip, Weirton; James M. Waldek, George B. Warner, Scott R. Wilcher, Charleston; Steven W. Dantzic, Keyser; Rodney L. Hannah, Valley Head; Frank M. Morrison, Marlinton; Robert J. Visotcky, Garfield, N.J.; Grant A. Zech, Parkersburg; David T. Jackson, Chester; and Gregory S. Veach, Petersburg.

As always, West Virginia Alpha extends a hearty invitation to all Brothers—whether they desire a bed, a meal, or simply the warmth of true Brotherhood.

Colonies

University of Arizona Arizona Alpha Returns Home

Since our last correspondence, many things have taken place here in Tucson, both good and bad.

When the colony Brothers returned to school from summer vacation, we found that there was a big conflict of opinion and power that split the colony into two groups. After many arguments between the brotherhood, our colony advisor, Don Gooder, was contacted. Don and the Fraternity's Treasurer, Sandy Chamberlain met with both sides and as it worked out, 12 of our members decided to resign from the colony. It was a great loss but left the rest of us closer and more determined to get the colony off the ground.

We also have some good news. While the split was taking place, the few of us who are presently active in the colony held a formal rush in one of the lounges in the Student Union. At this time we pledged six great men. In the few weeks we've known them, we have found them to be a real asset to Arizona Alpha.

Right after rush, something very exciting happened. The colony moved into a house. The local chapter of Alpha Kappa Lambda did not fill its house, so we reached an agreement with them to rent six of their rooms for Phi Kappa Psi. The most interesting thing about this arrangement is that the present Alpha Kappa Lambda house was built for Phi Kappa Psi in 1962, just a short time before the chapter was forced to disband due to "social indiscretions." (See chapter history section of the Fraternity Manual.)

Upcoming for the colony is another rush party to be held in the Student Union. Hopefully, we will be able to pledge ten men and double our size. We are hoping to receive our charter by the end of spring, 1976. We also hope to have our own house by that time.

MICHAEL MOLING, Correspondent

University of Georgia Fulfilling Requirements

Building a strong, unified, dedicated brotherhood is the major goal of the Georgia Alpha Colony this fall.

Of the 10 requirements each colony must fulfill before it becomes a chapter, Georgia Alpha has achieved five. To date, we have approved chapter and faculty advisors; a legal alumni corporation; approval by the University administration and by the Interfraternity Council (we're voting members of the IFC); attended an ELC-DC; and we have an actively functioning Alumni Association in Atlanta.

However, we still must acquire at least 30 active members; adequate and competitive housing; a sound financial position; a colony grade point average equal to or above the University All Men's Average; and we must build a fine campus reputation and a strong internal organization. Clearly, the hardest goals are yet to be achieved.

With the help of Chapter Consultant Carter Noonan, we hope to use the first weeks of October to begin building the strong, unified brotherhood essential to the achievement of our remaining five goals and thus, of a charter from Phi Kappa Psi.

University of Florida Going Again

Florida Beta of Phi Kappa Psi officially became a colony at the University of Florida, Sunday, Oct. 5, 1975, when 15 men were initiated at the University Methodist Church Chapel. The new members are: Mark Brown, William Darden, St. Petersburg; Karl Kern, Riversdale, N.J.; Randy Argabrite, Tim O'Brien, Leonard Del Gardo, Miami; William Flynn, Boca Raton; Garry Matlow, Merritt Island; Mark Hamilton, Melbourne; Tom Martin, Jacksonville; Harry Light, Isla Morada; John O'Brien, Lakeland; Charles Weniger, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Steve Tavaloro, Winterhaven; Dave Schlotzhauer, Corning, N.Y.; and John Kurtis, New York City.

Following the ceremony, a dinner was held at the Gainesville Sweden House. Guests at the banquet included: Dr. Tom Goodale, Dean for Student Services; Bob Burrell, Assistant Dean for Student Services and Advisor to Greeks; Bruce O'Donoghue, President of the Southeastern Interfraternity Conference and Administrative Vice President of UF's Interfraternity Council; and Don Emerson, President of UF's Interfraternity Council. Alumni guests included: Bob Cooke, Tennessee Delta; Jerry Steinberg, Tennessee Delta; and Lloyd Chesney, Florida Beta.

In his address, Dean Bob Burrell urged the new Brothers to strive to be different. He said that the University's 29 fraternities had stagnated and that he wanted UF's thirtieth fraternity, Phi Kappa Psi, to set an example for the rest of the Greek community.

At their first chapter meeting, the Brothers set two goals. The first was to accomplish all of the required goals to be chartered on May 8, 1976. The second was to set a membership goal of 40 members for the May 8 date. The chapter also named Jerry Steinberg as its chapter advisor.

We all owe Chapter Consultants Bob Wolter and Carter Noonan our deepest appreciation for their help in setting up the colony.

University of New Mexico Acquires a New House

The Mexico Beta Colony has begun its second year on campus by acquiring a house. Our house has been partially furnished by alumni and parents' donations. Our current membership stands at 10, however, we will be participating in second semester formal rush with hopes of greatly enlarging our membership.

The Mexico Beta has participated in two exchanges, one with Kappa Alpha Theta, and the other with Pi Kappa Alpha, Phi Mu and Pi Beta Phi. We are also participating in a haunted house being produced by KRKE radio. We plan to become involved in intramurals during the second semester and to expand our social program.

DAVID LILLIE, Correspondent

Northern Arizona University New Spirit

The aspens are turning a golden yellow, days become shorter and colder and we anxiously await the first snow.

This fall semester we have taken four new enthusiastic pledges. They are: Mark Coor, Portsmouth, Va.; Ken Dunn, Kansas City, Kans.; Mike Guida, Glendale, Ariz.; Mark Kempf, Tucson, Ariz. We are also happy to announce the initiation of Jack Alvarez, San Diego, Calif. Our elections on September 1, produced these new officers: Mark Malinski, GP; Phil Strawther, VGP; Steve Wanderman, BG; Jack Alvarez, P; Gordon Davis, AG, SG. On September 19 we awarded Charles Stahl and Bob Hudson their twenty-five year and ten-year pins, respectively.

On October 11 and 12 six of our members will represent the Arizona Gamma Colony at the ELC-DC in Los Angeles.

On September 20, at the homecoming football game we unveiled our standard to the crowd. We must admit it was the best standard there. We would like to thank Brother Jack Alvarez for doing a remarkable job on this. He worked hard into the morning hours to present it to us on the September 19 ceremonies.

Alumni Associations and Clubs

Chicago Alumni Association

An interesting part of the Chicago Alumni Association's activities is the Annual Closed Invitational Golf Outing and Tournament. Although the low gross winner, golf champion of the Association, does not win a green jacket as in the Master's Tournament, he is awarded the privilege of selecting the time and place of the defense of his title. This year for the 15th annual tournament, Dave Coolidge, Northwestern, chose his home course, Sunset Ridge Country Club. We had an outstanding outing with six foursomes competing, every spot filled and many chapters represented. Illinois Alpha retained the championship, as Sid Richardson shot a 75 to take home the Settergren Low Gross Trophy.

The Whiting Low Net Trophy was returned to Frank Whiting Jr., Illinois Delta, who has occasionally won it before. Second low net was won by Jack Kaufman, Illinois Alpha, while the second low gross winner was Gordon Dale, Illinois Alpha. The longest drive in the fairway was hit by Jack Stevens of Illinois Delta, and the ball closest to the pin after everyone had shot was owned by Fred Goss, Illinois Delta. Prizes were awarded in each foursome for the best score (with no duplications). Jim Delaney, Illinois Alpha; Tom McCausland, Wisconsin Gamma; Kent Yowell, Colorado Alpha; Doug Asad, Illinois Alpha; Warren Olson, Illinois Delta; and Tom Price, Indiana Delta; took home those prizes. Jim Humphrey, Ohio Epsilon, won High Gross and everyone was invited to The Chalet for a dinner afterwards. Jim Good Jr., Illinois Alpha, and Jim Good III, Nebraska Alpha, made a fine father and son team. Ron Woodbury, Illinois Alpha, was one of the gracious hosts and interestingly enough, eight different chapters were represented at the outing. Illinois Alpha had 10, followed by Illinois Delta with 7 and Indiana Delta with 2. Two pairs of brothers, Jack and Dan Kaufman, Illinois Alpha; and Frank Whiting, Illinois Delta and Tom Whiting, Indiana Delta, took part. Clarence Davis, Illinois Beta, was there as were Mendel Hart, Herb Jones, Bob Holliday and Bill Driscoll, all of Illinois Delta.

Our next meeting will be to celebrate Founders Day, February 19, 1976. That will be a Thursday night and the banquet will be spiced with Golden Council and Silver Council Awards, reports from your officers, news from the national office, reports from the nearby undergraduate chapters and the election of officers. The main event however, will be spending a couple of hours with some of the guys you know. They want to see you—you want to see them. This will be the time and the place. So put Founders Day aside, invite your buddies and join us. It will be a grand evening.

FRANK S. WHITING JR., Correspondent

Kansas City Alumni Association

The Kansas City Alumni Association has planned another fun and festive fall and winter program. Kicking off the season will be a mini-migration to the MUKU Football game, Nov. 22, 1975, in Lawrence, Kans. Because the Association has an abundance of alumni from Missouri and Kansas, this should prove to be an interesting venture.

Next in line will be our Christmas Stag. The tentative date is Friday, December 12, 1975, with the place to be announced at a later date. We urge all Phi Psis in the area to attend this festive Christmas gathering.

Capping off the winter activities will be our Founders Day Banquet which has been scheduled for February 20, 1976. Undergraduates and alumni both will learn about the location and price in a winter mailing.

We have had notable recognition for several alumni. J. Craig Ruby, Missouri '76, who is a former Missouri basketball great, as a player and a coach; and basketball coach at the University of Illinois, was recently named to the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame. Also, Ralph Miller, Kansas, who was a standout athlete for Kansas University in football and basketball in the 1940's, was formally inducted into the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame, September 27, 1975. Brother Miller is now coaching basketball at Oregon State University. Congratulations to both men for outstanding contributions.

We are sorrowed at the death of Brother Benjamin F. Seward of Leawood, Kans. Ben was initiated into Missouri Alpha in 1911, and later graduated from there with a chemical engineering degree. Throughout the years, Ben has been extremely active in all phases of Phi Psi. I particularly remember the terrific rush parties and rush help that he supplied year after year. He was retired from the Burger-Baird Engraving Co. where he had served as president for 43 years. Ben was also a large contributor to various Kansas City civic projects. He will definitely be missed by all.

TOM WEHRLE, Correspondent

Omaha Alumni Association

All eyes have been on the rush success of our area chapters. Nebraska, Iowa State, and Creighton have all taken healthy-sized pledge classes which pleases us greatly. Each chapter has also assured us that the quality of the pledges is in the "old tradition." So, again, we're happy to see stalwart chapters.

Creighton's Phi Psis have graciously offered the Association the use of their house for our Annual Post-Thanksgiving Day cocktail party to be held on November 28, 1975. All alumni, actives, and pledges in Omaha that day, feel welcome to party with friends and femmes from 8:00 o'clock until we break up at 3122 Cass Street. We have never gone over 200 at this party. Let's do it this year!

Ted Foster, as President, will graciously preside as official welcomer; Tom Hoarty, vice president, will be in charge of hors d'oeuvres and the invitations, Bud Rohr will extract the open-bar costs while I will probably play at bartender for a good part of the evening. As president of Creighton's Phi Psi House Association, John Crane will be busy emptying ash trays, etc., while others on the Board such as Jim Gerner and Paul LaPuzza will be busy recruiting clean up crews! Actually this has always been a fine, congenial gathering where we catch up on all the news of our Brothers' lives.

If you're new to the area—please join us and contribute your presence to our group. We don't beg for money here—we promise!

Future activities will be the traditional Founders Day Banquet in February, followed by our Golf Stag and Date Beer Party in the summer months. We hope area alumni will support our activities.

T. J. URBAN, Correspondent

Northridge Alumni Association

June 3, 1975, marked the birth of the Northridge Alumni Association. The Association is holding evening cocktail and dinner meetings the first Tuesday of each month, at Howard Johnson's Restaurant in Northridge from 7:30 p.m.-9:30 p.m.

Charter members include Brothers Gary Stover, Ron Stover, Phil Bonsteel, John Ciccarelli, Jim Perley, Bruce Kirk, Ric Rabis, Tom Parker and Tony Lopez. Membership has already expanded to over 30 interested alumni.

The Association's goals include helping to build up relations with all Alumni Brothers in the San Fernando Valley area, as well as supporting the efforts of California Theta in their bid for purchasing a permanent chapter house in the near future.

Those alumni interested in becoming a member of the Northridge Alumni Association are urged to please contact either Gary Stover, 10872 Kester Ave., Mission Hills, Calif. 91345, (213) 365-5345, or John Ciccarelli, 19106 Devonshire St., Northridge, Calif. 91324, (213) 363-9966.

GARRETT STOVER and

JOHN CICCARELLI, Correspondents

Rockford Alumni Association

In spite of what may have been thought among the Brothers, the Rockford Alumni Association did not wash away in the spring flood. Very quietly and with great care, preparations are being made to celebrate Founders Day in Rockford. February 19 is a Thursday in 1976, and we feel that a banquet on that evening will be most appropriate.

A highlight of the banquet will be the awarding of the Golden and Silver Council of Phi Kappa Psi memberships. These consist of certificates, membership cards and lapel pins in appropriate gold and silver. Members in the Fraternity in good standing for over 50 years are eligible for the Golden Council. Members in good standing for 25 years qualify for the Silver Council. Count it up and let your secretary know so that proper arrangements can be made.

There will be other items of interest, but the main event will be spending a couple of hours with some of the guys you know. They want to see you—you want to see them. Founders Day is the time and the place, so plan on it. Invite your buddies and join us. It will be a fine evening.

CARL H. BENNETT

CARL H. BENNETT, Miami University '72, joined the staff of the Executive Offices in September, 1975. As a Miami University undergraduate, Carl pursued a double major in History and English.

Carl is a charter member of the Ohio Lambda Chapter and served as its President during his Sophomore and Junior years and as Pledge Educator his Senior year. Greek Affairs consumed much of Carl's time at Miami—he was a member of the IFC four years, the last two years as Vice-President and President.

Co-curricular campus activities dominated Carl's college career. He founded the Miami La Crosse Club and served on various campus committees including the Executive Council of Student Government, the Student Foundation, and the Student Affairs Council. As a Senior, Carl was named to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

JOHN A. BURKE

JOHN A. BURKE, Miami University '72, officially joined the Executive Staff in September, 1975. John received his B.A. in political science with a minor in business, and is a member of our Ohio Lambda Chapter.

During his undergraduate years, John was extremely active in campus leadership, having been elected Student Body President for an unprecedented two terms. He also served on Student Senate, Executive Council, Student Affairs and University Councils, the Board of Regents and Governor's Student Advisory Boards, and numerous other committees.

Besides being pianist for Miami's 600 voice choir, he also received national awards for his marksmanship on Miami's rifle team and was a member of the Marine ROTC unit.

In the Fraternity he served as steward, alternate representative to the IFC and was on the finance committee.

COLONY UPDATE

As 1975 nears completion, Phi Kappa Psi looks proudly at its colonies. During the past year two colonies—Maryland Alpha and Montana Alpha—have become chapters. Today, there are six colonies at universities across our nation. These starting groups were developed by the field staff, and local alumni. They need the support and backing of anyone who can be of assistance. Local alumni interested in joining in the efforts of these colonies, may contact the colony president at the below address:

FOUNDERS
FRATERNITY

The Founders after their college days. This reproduction of William H. Letterman, who became a medical doctor, and Charles P. T. Moore, a state supreme court justice, is from an etching by F. A. Wright of Philadelphia, and appeared as the frontispiece in the first fifty-year History of Phi Kappa Psi, 1852-1902, by Charles Liggett Van Cleve, Ohio Wesleyan 1879, and put to paper by the Franklin Printing Co., Philadelphia, in 1902. The decorative use of the Badge is contrary to current tradition, but our forebears can be forgiven in this instance, as can the Editor for the sake of this historic footnote.

About This Issue . . .

■ Once again Phi Kappa Psi has moved West. This time to install a chapter at the University of Montana. The feature which begins this issue is about the men and installation ceremonies at Missoula. As we understand, you will be hearing much from this young chapter in days to come.

■ The Financial Highlights for the fiscal years of 1974 and 1975 are presented on page 52. As shown in the Annual Report, Phi Kappa Psi operated for the second consecutive year with undergraduate membership income representing only 40 percent of the budget. The balance, 60 percent, came from interest from investments and alumni contributions.

■ The Spotlight Feature beginning on page 53 presents the world of Ray Garra. The story tells how this Phi Psi has put the world of work and pleasure into one bag in the form of World Sports Marketing.

■ Every two years, District Council meetings are held throughout the country to elect new Archons. These Phi Psi undergraduates are voting members of the Executive Council and are vital to the overall operation of the Fraternity. Meet these new Archons on pages 56 and 57.

■ More Lost Brothers are listed beginning on page 58. The response from the membership on locating lost Brothers from the last issue was tremendous. We apologize for those listed who were not really lost and thank them for letting us know.

■ Chapter newsletters begin on page 64 and tell of the many activities of the fall semester. One area we note in this issue is the growing number of community projects in which the chapters are participating. The reports from the colonies begin on page 86 and are followed by alumni newsletters.

■ The death of Dr. Detlev Bronk, Swarthmore '15, is reported on page 89. This loyal Phi Psi and respected man in science, died last November. The story tells of his nature and events which shaped him into fame.

■ The Great Bicentennial Grand Arch Council is in the final planning stages. It promises to be one of the finest GAC ever. Start making your plans today to be in Washington, D.C.—Tony B. Whittington, Editor

Installation of Montana Alpha

Montana Alpha Becomes Newest Phi Psi Chapter

By Bart D. Tuma, Montana '75

THE University of Montana. A relatively small university of 8,000 students located in the southwest portion of one of the most sparsely populated states in the Union.

The University of Montana. A university located 600 miles from the closest university that holds a Phi Psi chapter, 1,500 miles away from the core of District VI.

The University of Montana. A group of Montanians as far back as 1914, petitioned the Grand Arch Council of Phi Kappa Psi to obtain a charter.

Six times that group petitioned Phi Kappa Psi: in 1914, 1918, 1920, 1922, 1923, and finally, what they believed was their last attempt to have a chapter at Montana, they petitioned in 1924, only again to be refused.

"It was a bond of pride; a pride that did not demand individual superiority, but one that met and accepted a challenge."

They petitioned again and again, even when "the result was a disaster" because of their denial. But still they tried to become a chapter of Phi Kappa Psi because they felt a chapter should be in Missoula, and they knew why.

On Saturday, May 31, 1975, through the result of a separate effort, the group's dream of 1914 became a reality. The Montana Alpha chapter received its charter and was installed with the badge of Phi Kappa Psi.

The colony itself was very young, being organized only in October of 1974. However, during the period of eight months, they were able to organize from a group of 24 individuals into a solid band of 24 Brothers. During this time they were able to solidify Fraternity education, form a house corporation, purchase a house of which they were very proud and learn the hardships of the time and hard work that go into forming a working organization.

They were able to accomplish this as a group because they believed a chapter should be formed at Missoula, and they knew why.

The Phi Psi house for Montana Alpha is a stately manor with white pillars on Gerald Avenue.

The University of Montana Science Complex was dedicated in 1971. The four-story facility houses a major portion of the School of Forestry and other science departments.

The Common Bond

The evening before the official installation, the colony had the honor of being addressed by Walter Lee Sheppard Jr. Brother Sheppard commented on what the group had been, and indeed, what might be in store for them. A discussion followed and there was expression of the common bond of this group. It was a bond of pride; a pride that did not demand individual superiority, but one that met and accepted a challenge. This pride did not seek exclusiveness, but sought the common bond. It was one not held by miles nor separated by a scarcity of population.

This is why a chapter was formed at the University of Montana and why the badge of Phi Kappa Psi was sought.

Initiation and Chartering Ceremony

On May 31, 1975, 24 were initiated into Phi Kappa Psi at the University of Montana. At the same time, Montana Alpha received its charter and became an active chapter of the Fraternity.

The ceremony was performed at the Church of the Holy Spirit in Missoula. With members of the Executive Council taking part, the initiation was performed by the Archons of District II and VI, Dave Melson and Jerry Mowery, respectively, Executive Secretary Ralph D. Daniel, Assistant Executive Secretary Gary B. Angstadt and several local alumni.

Following the ceremony, the Brothers returned to the house on Gerald Avenue to dedicate their Chapter Room.

The banquet was held that evening at the Village Inn. Following the excellent meal, the chapter received its charter, constitution, by-laws and rules, minute book and seal. The charter was received by Jerry Sprunger (GP), the minute book by Jay Ecklund (AG) and the seal by Mike Hruska.

The chapter received several gifts from many chapters and alumni associations throughout the nation. Although they are too numerous to list, the Brothers express their gratitude to those who contributed.

Closing remarks were given by Fraternity President Tom James and Vice President J. Kenneth Potter.

The next day saw the model chapter meeting and the reading of the Ritual. At the meeting, the chapter's new officers were also installed. Following this, an open house was conducted for alumni and residents of the community.

Montana Alpha wishes to express its thanks to all who made our chartering a success.

FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

PRESENTED here are the financial highlights of the Fraternity's operations for the fiscal years ended May 31, 1974 and 1975. An earlier issue of THE SHIELD reviewed the statistical record of the Fraternity, and provided the usual overview and commentary on the state of Phi Kappa Psi and the fraternity system. The fiscal year of the Fraternity, ending as it does, makes it necessary to offer this report separately. This, then, is a supplement to the annual report.

The Fraternity, for the second year in a row, operated with undergraduate membership income representing only 40 per cent of the budget, the balance of operating revenue, 60 per cent, coming from interest from investments and alumni contributions. Net assets approached $2,000,000 in 1975, compared to $1,766,000 a year ago. The gain from operations for 1974 was $58,000, with 1975 showing a $15,000 loss, which included Grand Arch Council costs, a major budget item. For the two-year period, 1974 and 1975, a gain of $43,000 was recorded. The surplus for the 1973 fiscal year was $26,000, and for 1972, $59,000, or $85,000 for the 1972-73 biennium. No Federal tax liability was incurred in 1975.

The Endowment Fund of Phi Kappa Psi, the Fraternity's educational foundation, increased its total assets from $230,000 to $261,000 during the year, a gain of $31,000. Student loans at the same time increased from $36,000 to $48,000. Revenue in excess of expenses was $31,000. Disbursements, including Summerfield Awards, grants, and losses on uncollected loans, was $17,000, compared to $18,000 a year ago.

From the World of Sports to the World of Beauty

SOMEWHERE out West, there's a firm called World Sports Marketing. Some say it's close to being Shangri-la, for it's a mixture of working with sports, sports promotion and beauty pageants. But President of World Sports Marketing, Ray Garra, UCLA '54, tells us that his firm is located in Newport Beach, Calif., and while his job has its rewards, it is not quite Shangri-la. Well, not yet.

In the Spring of 1975, the Los Angeles Times published an article on World Sports Marketing and its President, remarking upon the unique services to the national sports world of this organization. Ray Garra is a UCLA graduate and did a three-year stint with the U.S. Coast Guard. His business career began in the printing industry, which led to his involvement in graphic arts and then consulting. Lately, he combined his business know-how and love of sports into a very successful business venture—World Sports Marketing. The firm not only deals in advertising and public relations for such concerns as the World Football League, North American Soccer League, World Team Tennis, World Hockey Association, and International Volleyball Association, but also presents a complete package to its clients, including designing logos and uniforms to presenting them with new marketing programs.

As well as its national accounts, World Sports Marketing also handles individual promotions, such as the Marina City Offshore Classic, Larry Mahan Rodeo, and the International Forum Horse Show. As a part of many of these individual sports promotions, beauty contests are managed, contributing to the overall publicity impact of the event.

In expanding his business, Garra observed that pro sports have generally become show biz. "I don't think there's even a fine line anymore between pro sports and entertainment," says Garra. He continues, "Did you see the Riggs-King tennis thing? Did you see how they wheeled her out there on the float? That wasn't a sports event, it was a super-promoted show biz event."

Garra became involved with pro sports through event programs. "I was working for Children's Publishers Corp. of San Francisco a couple of years ago. They were printing the Giants' and Raiders' game programs then, but I really wasn't too involved with that end of it.

"Then World Team Tennis came along and asked Children's Publishers to help them out at a time when the company was looking for ways to diversify."

Today, World Sports Marketing puts together the programs for WTT's 16 teams. This includes selling national ads, creating the graphics and writing editorial copy. Garra says that his firm sold $150,000 worth of advertising and printed up a half-million programs during their first season.

Garra's next sports client was the famous World Football League. World Sports Marketing designed all the WFL uniforms, each team's logos and put together all their programs and publications.

The WFL, of course, has some unpaid bills.

Next, came the World Hockey Association to be followed by the North American Soccer League and the International Volleyball Association.

Somehow the world of sports merged with the world of beauty and World Sports Marketing picked up a new client, the Miss American Teen-Ager Pageant. In the summer of 1975, Garra was asked by the national franchise to produce the Miss California Teen-Ager Pageant on 30 days notice.

The California State Pageant came off in fine style and Garra found his attention turning with enthusiasm to the marketing of beauty pageants. A new company was formed to give this project proper attention and in September of 1975, Garra became President of Miss California Teen-Ager, Inc., while still maintaining his position with World Sports Marketing. The two businesses now share the same facility.

The style in which World Sports Marketing achieved precedence in the sports world was applied to the pageant business and Miss California Teen-Ager underwent some significant changes. First, the American Cancer Society was designated as principal beneficiary of the pageant. Then California's Exchange Clubs joined in to support the pageant and provide state-wide screening facilities. The latest innovation and an unprecedented dimension to a teenage pageant was the announcement of an international goodwill tour for the California titleholder.

Needless to say, Garra's influence on beauty pageantry is not being limited to the state of California. Nevada and Hawaii at the time of this writing are being offered to his care. His firm represents the National Pageant in solicitation of sponsors and acts as a general advisor on expansion plans. In keeping with this activity on a national level, Garra's firm has also drawn up plans for a series of pageant and contestant alumni publications.

The advent of pageantry has not diminished the progress of the basic World Sports Marketing operation. A current project of no small dimension is fundraising and sponsorship solicitation for the U.S. Ski Team. Also a new market that will be added to WSM's promotion schedule this year is the mini-cycle world. Starting with Cyclorama '76 in the Spring, WSM will evidence itself nationally by assisting in the development of the existing National Mini-Cycle Association.

Sports and beauty. Both are exciting; both provide a necessary release. Ray Garra's in the middle of both. Even Nick the Greek couldn't come up with better odds.

The Great Bicentennial

GRAND ARCH COUNCIL

Washington, D.C.—1976

WASHINGTON, D.C. is a city where the best things are free. After all, you and every other American owns a big chunk of the city. Thus, you can expect free admission to your federal properties. Another important thing that will be free Aug. 11-15, will be the experiences and memories gained from attending the 58th biennial Grand Arch Council of Phi Kappa Psi. The site of the Council will be the Marriott Twin-Bridges Hotel in Arlington, Virginia. Hotel reservation forms and advance registration information will be offered in the Spring issue of THE SHIELD.

Washington, D.C.

Washington's early history was merely a chronicle of its Presidents. The city itself was muddy or dusty, depending upon the season, and was the object of savage jokes. There were few houses, still fewer buildings, and the residents' lives centered on the few saloons.

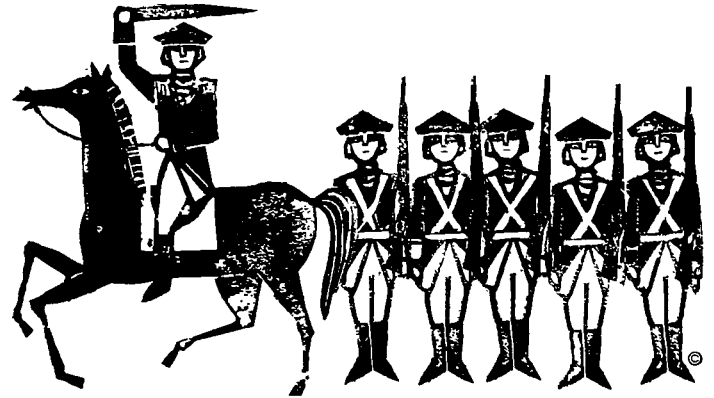

Not too many people visited Washington prior to the Civil War. In fact, ambassadors who lived in Washington drew hardship pay. But in late May of 1865, more than 100,000 people flocked to the city to witness the Grand Review of the Union Army.

Following this, a strange thing happened. The visitors went home and told their friends and relatives that Washington wasn't such a bad place after all. And tourists started coming to see their capital city.

Washington underwent great periods of expansion during the First and Second World Wars. New federal agencies, new buildings and many thousands of new civil servants appeared almost overnight. This increase in population generated a great deal of private business, too.

Now, in the seventies, the Federal City is a thriving metropolis of 850,000 persons with another 2.5 million suburbanites living in Maryland and Virginia.

Because of Washington's continuous growth, more and more tourists and conventions come into the city each year. In 1973, over 19 million visitors passed through the city, reinforcing its reputation as one of the most popular cities in the United States. This Bicentennial year should see even more numbers of visitors to the nation's Capital.

Places to Visit

Since Washington is, above all, the seat of Federal Government, every visitor should make it a point to journey over to the U.S. Capitol and take the free guided tour of its interior. From the Capitol, a visitor has only short walks to six other major attractions; the Senate and House Office Buildings and the Library of Congress.

The White House, or given its formal name, the Executive Mansion, is of late 18th century design. Ironically, every President but George Washington, for whom the city was named, has lived there. The cornerstone of the mansion was laid in 1792 and the structure was completed in 1800, one year after George Washington died. When the building was burned by British troops in 1814, during the War of 1812, white paint was applied to cover fire damage and the White House got its common name.

The most obvious landmark in the District of Columbia is the 555-foot Washington Monument, located on the Mall, halfway between and in alignment with the Capitol and Lincoln Memorial.

The Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials, both of which stand out majestically against the city skyline, are two other local points of visitor interest.

Washington is many different things to many people, but it is the perfect host with great hotels, restaurants and shops.

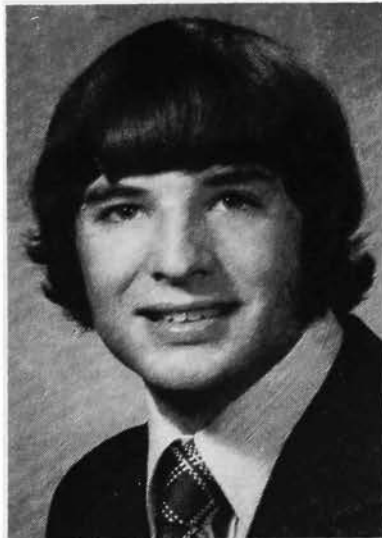

Whatever a visitor wants to do or see, he can do it or see it in Washington. So make plans now to attend the 1976 Grand Arch Council. There is no better place to observe the Bicentennial than in our nation's capital. Chapters and alumni associations will soon be receiving a complete list of activities as well as delegate credential forms. Let's all meet at the Great Bicentennial GAC.

JOHN C. PALLADINO, Monmouth '74, is Archon for District I. A native of Hazlet, New Jersey, Brother Palladino is an accounting major. He is a past Treasurer of New Jersey Beta and currently is their President.

NEW ARCHONS DISTRICT COUNCIL

SIX new Archons were selected for two-year terms in elections held during last fall's District Council meetings. The new representatives to the Executive Council give undergraduates the majority of the voting membership on the Council. Phi Kappa Psi was one of the first fraternities to pioneer the undergraduate representation system. The Archons have been voting members since 1886.

DOUGLAS K. SCHETZEL, West Virginia '75, is the new Archon for District II. Brother Schetzel's hometown is Clarksburg, West Va. He is a chemical engineering major and has served his chapter in the past as chairman of the Scholarship Committee.

ROBERT WARREN DUDLEY, Illinois '74, is the District III Archon. Brother Dudley has been Recording Secretary, Vice President and Rush Chairman for his chapter. In addition he has served as IFC public relations chairman. His hometown is Hinsdale, Ill. and his major is chemical engineering.

ELECTED AT IL MEETINGS

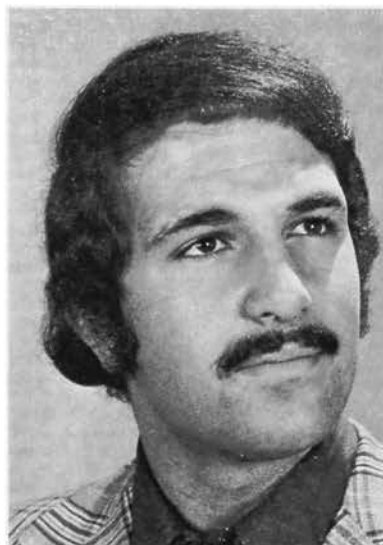

In addition to being a member of the Executive Council, the Archons are the presiding officers of the Districts and are the custodians of the archives, records, and other district properties. The Archons perform their duties by keeping constantly informed of the condition of all chapters under their jurisdiction and by making recommendations and suggestions to them or to the Executive Council as becomes necessary.

RICHARD F. NELSON, Creighton '75, is the Archon for District V. Brother Nelson's major is psychology and he is a native of Joliet, Ill. In his chapter, he has served as a member of the Governing Board and chairman of the Alumni Relations committee.

THOMAS L. KESLER, Mississippi '74, is the newly elected Archon from District IV. A native of Oxford, Miss., Brother Kesler is majoring in English and political science. He has been active in his work for Mississippi Alpha and some of his offices include Messenger, Corresponding Secretary, Vice President, Rush Chairman, Pledge Educator and IFC representative.

JOHN VINCENT CICCARELLI, California State-Northridge '72, has been elected Archon of District VI. Brother Ciccarelli is doing graduate work in business, and his hometown is Northridge. He has served his chapter in the office of Pledge Educator, Messenger, Recording Secretary, Vice President and two semesters as President. He is a member of Blue Key and holds a B.A. in history. Brother Ciccarelli is a co-founder of the Northridge Alumni Association.

Brothers—Where Are You?

This is the second and last installment of "Lost Brothers." Response from the last issue's list was tremendous and we thank all those who wrote in. With today's society being more mobile than in the past, it is sometimes difficult for us to keep up with you. To those of you whose names appeared on the list and were not really lost, we apologize and thank you for letting us know. If you know the location of any of the Brothers below, please contact the Fraternity Executive Offices, 1940 East 6th St., Cleveland, Ohio 44114. (Use the form on the back cover).

BYRON W. CAIN JR., Vanderbilt '70, has received his M.B.A. from the University of Texas Graduate Business School where he majored in marketing and management. He is presently working for Dresser Industries in their marketing and communications department. He is living in Dallas.

BR. PHILLIP LUCERO, Eastern New Mexico '70, is teaching at Saint Paul's High School in Covington, Louisiana.

ERIC W. WIEDENMANN, Miami '70, is a recent graduate from the Northwestern University graduate school of Management, receiving an MBA. He is currently employed as an operations analyst for A-T-O, a diversified manufacturing concern in Willoughby, Ohio.

LT. RICHARD E. LODGE II, Indiana '71, has been certified as a deputy missile combat crew commander at Grand Forks AFB, N.D.

Ronald A. Grimes

RONALD A. GRIMES, UCLA '72, has been appointed director of marketing for Ektelon, a manufacturer of racquet sports equipment. In his new position, he will be responsible for a marketing and sales of the company's product line. As an undergraduate, Brother Grimes was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and graduated magna cum laude.

ARMANDO ACOSTA, USC '74, has been selected associate feature editor for the Daily Trojan, USC's student newspaper. Brother Acosta is a sophomore in the School of Journalism and has been the social chairman for California Delta.

MICHAEL GROOM, Creighton '74, has been appointed to the Alpha Sigma Nu National Jesuit Honor Society. Brother Groom, a junior in arts, is active as a member of the Creighton University Student Board of Governors and the executive committee of the College of Arts and Sciences.

KEVIN H. TEESDALE, Pennsylvania State '74, a junior majoring in religious studies, received the 1975 John Henry Frizzell Award from Penn State. The annual award is made to an outstanding undergraduate enrolled in liberal arts by the state Lambda Educational Foundation of Phi Kappa Psi.

University of Akron Reflections and Celebration

Fall quarter has passed with an enjoyable Christmas break, and we at Ohio Iota are back to begin a new quarter.

During this past quarter Phi Kappa Psi took first place in scholarship with an overall average of 2.718. We also had three Brothers who made the Deans List. In the way of sports, the Brothers finished third in our division in fraternity flag football. We also had one Brother, Mark Oehlberg, on the all-fraternity basketball team.

On Saturday, January 10, our circle of friendship was widened as activation ceremonies were held for Daniel Paul Sumser of Canton. We extend a hearty welcome to Dan and we feel that he will be a great asset to the chapter.

We extend an open invitation to any Brother who is in the Akron area to stop by the house and meet the Brothers.

University of Alabama Homecoming Success

Alabama Alpha started spring semester with the pledging of four men. They are: John Hicks and Phil Whiteman, Atlanta; Brad Mitchell and Rex Mitchell, Hartselle.

New officers for spring semester are David R. Gunter, GP; Robert W. Pirtle, VGP; Mark N. Moore, P; Gordon T. Carter, AG; Robert L. Oviatt, BG; Gerald D. Creel, SG; William E. Carter Jr., Phu; R. Terry Holley, Hod; Harold G. Galemore, Hi.

Homecoming was a big success this year. Besides a great football victory, we had an excellent band party. On January 31, we had our annual Red-neck Party. As usual, many interesting and unusual costumes were seen. We were very happy to see our alumni at both of these parties. Everyone seemed to have a great time.

Congratulations go to Chris Larson who was recently appointed director of public relations for radio and television at The University of Alabama. We are very happy to have him back with us in Tuscaloosa. We also congratulate Sam Owens who was married in December.

Allegheny College Display Case

The Brothers of Penn Beta opened second term with formal rush activities including a party, spaghetti dinner, and entertainment. We were rewarded with an excellent pledge class containing Ted Armistead of Ringwood, N.J.; Tim Kiefer of Bethesda, Md.; John Zulick of Matamoras, Pa.; Steve Hornburg of Olean, N.Y.; Lance Carver of Fayetteville, N.C.; Thomas Thomas of Pittsburgh, Pa.; George Weaver of W. Va.; Joe Callahan of Stoughton, Mass.; Ned Dexter of Setauket, N.Y.; and Steve Sager of Brookline, Mass.

We are presently in the process of purchasing a display case for the chapter so that various documents relating to the earliest beginnings of Phi Kappa Psi might be viewed. Included will be only recently discovered letters concerning Thomas Cochran Campbell and his early toils with the Fraternity. We extend thanks to our Housing Corporation for purchasing the display case and having the documents properly preserved.

As Founders Day approaches we are in the process of setting up a formal luncheon at the nearby David Mead Inn on February 21. Not only will the meeting honor our founders, but we will undergo a reorganization of our Housing corporation, electing new members to fill acquired vacancies. Over 850 invitations are being sent to Pennsylvania Beta alumni, and we are hoping to see many Brothers attend.

We are also preparing for our annual Pledge Formal to be held on February 14. Social Directors John Petraglia and Bob Lamont have much work to do in purchasing food, beverages, and hiring a band for one of our largest parties of the term.

In sports, the basketball team under Head Coach Rory Morgan, is presently preparing for the season which begins this week. In spite of the tough competition and extended season, we are a definite contender for the playoffs.

Chapter President J. D. Bolan and Committee Chairman Dale Brown were recently awarded with four-year scholarships from the AFROTC command here, and past Chapter President E. David Millard was awarded the Solon E. Summerfield Award.

Arizona State University The "500" Is Back

Success is the key word for the Brothers at Arizona State University. With the success and excellent public relations from our recently instituted Phi Psi "500," the Brothers of Arizona Beta hope to push the Fraternity to a more prominent niche on the Arizona State campus.

After a six year absence from Arizona State, the Phi Psi "500" was put back on the social calendar under the skillful direction of Chad Krewson. The "500" earned front page coverage in the Arizona Republic, and a spot on local as well as national newscasts.

The Phi Psi "500" this year included a banquet, queen contest, prerace party, the race itself, and concluded with an Awards Ball. Along with generous publicity, the "500" enjoyed excellent participation from the campus sororities and received kudos from alumni and the other fraternities at Arizona State.

Top honors of the Phi Psi "500" were taken by the spirited Kappa Kappa Gammas, with second and third places being taken by Alpha Phi and Pi Beta Phi, respectively. The maiden 1975 Phi Psi "500" was deemed a success by all and it is hoped for an even bigger and better "500" for 1976.

The Brothers at Arizona Beta hope that our recent success will help pave a way through a less than desirable economic forecast for 1976. We will enter the year with a handful of pledges retained from the fall, 1975 semester. They are: Ralph Agnew, Todd Garfield, Baily Hom, Bill Graham, Jay Maupin, and Mike Ross.

This spring "The Mad Hatter Haberdashery," a Greek block party, and The Roman Toga Party, two functions which were both well received from last year, have been planned.

Our Founders Day is planned for February 21, at the Arizona Club in Phoenix. Arizona Beta chapter, the Arizona Gamma and Alpha colonies from Northern Arizona University and the University of Arizona, respectively, and all alumni are invited to attend. It promises to be a great time with a presentation of our recent Phi Psi "500." It is hoped that this, the usual exchanges, and Phi Psi nights will entice enough pledges into the house to fill up the remaining empty beds.

bent Chad Krewson re-elected GP; newly initiated Randy Bolen, VGP; Dave Loveland, AG; Jon Dowling, BG; Joe Lopez, P; Jim Duncan, SG; Randy Dollins, Hod; Tom Fox, Phu; and Mike Dill, Hi.

With the exception of Brothers Krewson and Duncan, all officers were initiated in December of 1975, as were Kim Goetz, John Clawson, Dave Wyer, Tim Jones, and Jeff Schnorr.

Ashland College A Party for the Retarded Children

Ohio Theta held its annual Christmas party for the retarded children of the Dale Roy School in Ashland. The children played games and prizes were awarded to the winners. Following the games an appearance was made by Santa Claus who presented each child with a toy. It turned out to be a night to remember for all of those in attendance. Later on that evening the Brothers exchanged gifts with each other.

We are starting to formulate plans for Founders Day. This year marks the bicentennial of our country's independence and it also marks a decade of existence of our Fraternity at its present location. So we are planning plenty of activities to commemorate our tenth anniversary. Soon we will be sending out letters to notify our alumni of the upcoming events of Founders Day.

Shortly before classes ended first semester, new officers were elected to lead our chapter through our upcoming spring semester. Our new officers are: Philip Laux, GP; Robert Baird, VGP; Steve Gaber, AG; James Lull, P; John Ferguson, BG; John Fry, Phu; Jay Dart, Hod; Don Corsetti, SG; and Ray Geiger, Hi. Also elected to positions were: Wade Jones, songleader; Bill Marsh and Jerry Whetstone, House Presidents; and Bob Brown, steward.

Jan Jacobus was this year's recipient of the Solon E. Summerfield award. Jan is a senior from Randolph, New Jersey. The chapter is proud to recognize Jan for his scholastic performance, contributions to the campus, and serving the chapter.

Ohio Theta has a number of Brothers participating in winter and spring sports. Matt Medevic represents us in swimming; Mark and Chris Fehring in track; Jim Haseman, Tom Sabula, Scott McGill, and Jesse Irwin in wrestling; Bob Brown, John Ferguson, Dave Kleck, Dennis Fitzmorris, and Ron Babkoff in baseball; Karl Gericke and Don Corsetti in tennis; and Rick Steinman in basketball.

The Phi Psis make up the added punch of our lacrosse team here at A.C. Those participating are: Mark Rice, Wade Jones, John Biviano, Jim Clark, John Tierney, Jon Anthony, Dan Mercier, Bill Searles, and Kevin McKiernan.

As a final note to alumni, remember Founders Day and please feel free to drop by the house anytime you are in the area.

Auburn University Service Projects

Fall quarter rush at Alabama Beta was highlighted with the addition to our associate member list of the following men: Huey Jackson Davis, Vestavia Hills; Thomas Raymond Yoli, Montgomery. It should be noted that John W. McBurney was recently initiated into the Alabama Gamma chapter of Alpha Epsilon Delta, a premedical honorary society.

On November 12, 1975, the initiation of John Steven Kilpatrick, Chiefland, Fla., and Gordon Allen Lowrey, St. Petersburg, Fla., was held. We welcome these new Brothers into the chapter and the brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi.

At the end of fall quarter, elections were held to select new officers to lead the chapter through the next year. Our new officers are: Stephen D. Burns, GP; Richard K. Reece, VGP; Jeff A. Foshee, P; Michael L. Nash, AG; Gordon A. Lowrey, BG; Steven C. Gammage, SG; John S. Kilpatrick, Hod; Roger D. Spear, Phu; Orlando S. Moron, Hi.

On the alumni front, it is a pleasure to report that James Stanley Stinson '74, one of the founders of our chapter, was honored with the Rookie of the Month Award from his employer for the month of October. Brother Stinson '74, and Brother John Harold Klingelhoefter '74, are the most recent from our chapter to walk the aisle. We wish them well.

Service has always been important with Alabama Beta, and fall quarter was no exception. Topping the list of our service projects was the renovation of a halfway house and the selling of tickets for the Friends of Lee County Jail.

The end of fall quarter brought Doug Jones and Chuck Gorrill from California Eta visiting us in their camping van. We appreciate their help and valuable suggestions.

With graduation we lost Clifford Daniel Whitten and John Harold Klingelhoefter. We would like to thank them for their contributions to the chapter. Also, we are glad to welcome back Steven C. Gammage, Charles E. White, and Curtis D. Lucy to Alabama Beta after a period of absence.

All in all, Alabama Beta expects a good winter and wishes the same for all Phi Psi chapters.

Bowling Green State University New Rush Program

As Ohio Zeta enters 1976, we are finalizing plans for a Founders Day celebration to be held February 20, 21, and 22. This year marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the chapter at Bowling Green. Already planned are a chapter meeting with the alumni, an alumni evening buffet as well as a farewell brunch, and several parties.

Under the leadership of Rush Chairmen Ken Peters and Rick Schnacke, we had one of our most successful rushes ever. An entirely new rush program has proved quite effective, as 11 men have pledged Ohio Zeta for winter quarter. They are: Jeff Anderson, Tim Kime, North Olmsted; Mike Curran, New Middletown; Mark Davis, Urbana; Andy Powell, Byron Willford, Findlay; Bruce Rowan, Chagrin Falls; David Smercina, Solon; John Snyder, Defiance; George Garry Welch, Mayfield Heights; Bruce Whitmyre, Bay Village.

Rob Arkwright, Jim Hurlburt, and Gary Schnacke have completely rewritten the pledge program by placing more emphasis on the constructive virtues of pledging. They were also unanimously elected as pledge trainers for winter quarter.

Fall elections found Bill Gregg elected GP; David Dilts, VGP; Joe Leonard, P; Jack Eckley, AG; Dick Kaverman, BG; John Ulrich, SG; Dave Shoup, HD; Jeff Watson, PHU; and Steve Davis, HI. Fall quarter also saw the initiation of Greg Steyer and Dave Roberts into Delta Sigma Pi, the business honorary. Ohio Zeta's winner of the Solon E. Summerfield award this year goes to former GP Rob Arkwright.

Ohio Zeta welcomes three more initiates. They are: Joseph R. Chaney, Middletown; Gary A. Schnacke, Brecksville; and Laird Evans Smith Jr., Youngstown.

Once again, Ohio Zeta has the highest men's grade point average at Bowling Green. We are well above not only the other fraternities, but also way above the all men's average.

However, all is not academic at Ohio Zeta. Socially, winter quarter is almost booked full. Activities range from sorority teas and warmup parties to a pajama party. February 14 has been set for our annual winter formal to be held at the Quality Inn near Perrysburg, Ohio.

Trying to become more involved in the Bowling Green community, we sponsored families at Thanksgiving and Christmas by providing them with a traditional holiday dinner. Also in the way of community involvement, we have set up a scholarship fund to be awarded to a Bowling Green High School senior. Along with the high schools' guidance counselors, we will select the most deserving male student who plans to attend BGSU.

Ohio Zeta has also taken over the sponsorship of the Miss BGSU Pageant. It is a preliminary pageant for the Miss Ohio and Miss America pageants. The pageant will be held on May 1, with the week before set for final rehearsals and preliminary judging. This is the first year that we have sponsored this event and we hope to make it an annual project. Brothers are already out selling ads and making necessary arrangements for the only contest of its kind in all of Northwestern Ohio. Pledge Mark Davis has been named Executive Director, with Jack Eckley serving as Assistant Director.

With our stronger role in the community and campus and our excellent winter rush, the future of Ohio Zeta appears exceedingly bright.

Brown University Winners Are Harvard and Homecoming

November of 1975 brought nine new Brothers to Rhode Island Alpha. The new initiates are: Jay J. Abraham, Ocean-side, N.Y.; John S. Burnham, Windsor, Conn.; Kevin F. Crook, Albany, N.Y.; David W. Field, Hutchinson, Kans.; Richard J. Hayden, Buffalo, N.Y.; Stephen E. Kurtz, Framingham, Mass.; Raymond P. Martin, Merrick, N.Y.; and Gary S. Tubridy, Wantagh, N.Y. Initiation was followed by the traditional celebration at the Ground Round restaurant.

Homecoming was the big event for Brown Phi Psis, as much excitement was generated on campus. The football game was for the Ivy League title and our "rival," Harvard, was the opponent. Although Brown suffered an embarrassing loss on ABC television, Phi Psis cheered up at the crowded post-game cocktail party at the house.

The traditional paddle presentation ceremony was witnessed by Brothers, dates and many returning alumni. A successful band party culminated the festivities, as many drowned away their sorrows over the Harvard loss.

On December 13, the annual Christmas party was held. William Barbeosch was this year's "Claus" and he conducted a "smooth" Christmas. The lounge was fully decorated in the Christmas spirit and a fire blazed as a rather "blazed" Claus presented the gifts. Brother Barbeosch deserves admiration for being the first Claus in years to walk away from the party unaided!

Athletically, R.I. Alphans are once again involved in winter sports. Brothers P. Martin, R. Martin, R. Hayden and J. Burnham are all on the J.V. Hockey team. Phi Psis can also be found on the intramural basketball court as well as in the intramural hockey competition.

Elections were held this past December and the following are now in office: Jeffrey Starke, GP; Steve McCormick, VGP; John Woravka, P; Hal Tovin, AG; George Samenuk, BG; Bill Barbeosch, SG; and Thomas Conboy (in his second term), HI.

Current events at R.I. Alpha concern the ever popular local-national issue. In an effort to answer questions and solve some problems, Executive Secretary Ralph D. Daniel flew to Providence. It was an enlightening time as a formal meeting and dinner discussion made clear what the national organization had to offer. While the question has not been resolved as of this writing, we have incorporated R.I. Alpha and are contemplating taking a loan from national. We urge any Brothers across the country and any alumni who are interested, to present their views concerning the advantages or disadvantages of being a national fraternity. This next semester will indeed be a crucial one for the Brown Chapter.

In an effort to bring alumni back to the Phi Psi House in Wriston quad, R.I. Alpha has begun an alumni newsletter. Hopefully it will stir up alumni interest in the house. Editors Bill Barbeosch and Barry Waters will provide two more newsletters this year in addition to the recent edition.

Rush Chairman this year is Philip "Soupy" Martin. Rush began on January 28, with the beginning of second semester. Prospects look good and there are sure to be tough decisions ahead.

Congratulations to Jeff Starke on his acceptance to medical school and Todd Abraham on his acceptance to graduate school in chemistry. We hope to have others to congratulate in the next issue.

Bucknell University Cohesiveness and Strength

In a typically Murfian manner, Rush Chairman Terrence O'Connor and John

Gherlein amassed a fine group of outstanding individuals to be initiated in May. The 24 men who formally pledged their honor on November 16, are William Biggar, Frank Carr and William Collins, Cleveland, Ohio; Robert Carter, Ira Newman, Mark Schiowitz and Gary Sheinbaum, Scarsdale, N.Y.; Wayne Carter, Hartford, Conn.; Robert Chimento, Audubon, N.J.; Peter Dorsey and Mark Elliott, Hamden, Conn.; Douglas Fay, Media, Pa.; Craig Fravel, Towson, Md.; Peter Hellberg, Chalfont, Pa.; Patrick McSween, East Brunswick, N.J.; John Miller and Doug Stock, Berwyn, Pa.; Robert Miller and Scott Tennant, Summit, N.J.; Joel Smith, Ithaca, N.Y.; Richard Thompson, Penfield, N.Y.; Henry White III, Mendham, N.J.; and Stephen Vittorinni, Katonah, N.Y.

Officers for the 1976 academic year were elected in November. The development of a meaningful unity and brotherhood was once again evident throughout these revealing meetings. The officers are Terrence O'Connor, GP; Larry Crossett, VGP; William Palazzi, P; Ward Rafferty, AG; and the eloquent Charles Brogan III, BG.

The upcoming year looks to be one of much pride and cohesiveness as the new pledge class exemplifies unity in itself and with the enthusiastic brotherhood.

Phi Psi men have continued their long-standing tradition of community involvement and interaction. Will Harbison and Jay Woodhull volunteered to assist in a local Cancer Fund Drive. Their help was greatly appreciated. Cornshucking, however, was the rage with Harold Mitchell placing first in a field of professional competitors. Unfortunately, Harold didn't know the rules and thought he could take home all he shucked. Resultantly, he was disqualified. We eagerly look to see him enter the competition next year, however.

Intramurally, Phi Psi has relentlessly maintained its berth as one of the top three contenders for possession of the highly revered Pangburn Trophy. In a surprising yet sound victory, John Klemens and Vic Menghetti teamed for a first place in the famous Twiddles Handball Tournament. The combined efforts of Smith Kalita, Tim McKinney, Jack Zenga, Kevin Hessler, and Ward Rafferty brought Pennsylvania Gamma a stupefying fourth place in the stiff swimming competition. This was no doubt a record. As exams loomed over the horizon, the house volleyball team battled its way through the semi-finals and placed a hard-earned second. On the intercollegiate front, Tom Heinen, Gary Cummings, Chris Karabin, and Spudly Hungwell played for the talented and respected Bucknell Rugby team.

Homecoming, Halloween, and Christmas formal effectively highlighted this Fall's battery of social events. One social guest, Carl A. Quamouse, commented on the fine food and unsurpassed entertainment. An open invitation exists to all alumni and friends.

Butler University Highest Grades

The men of Indiana Zeta would like to welcome all of the newly initiated Brothers of Phi Kappa Psi, including three of our own: David Bushman, Vincennes; Carl Levinson, Indianapolis, and Jeffery Fehn, Evansville, Indiana were initiated on November 22, 1975. Following the ceremony, we all went to the Marriott Hotel in Indianapolis where we held our annual fall dance. The closing of the semester also found David W. Buck the recipient of the Solon E. Summerfield award.

The beginning of the second semester at Butler brought more good news as the men of Zeta achieved, for the thirteenth consecutive semester, the highest grade point average among all the male housing units on campus. We also received a two-hundred dollar award from the University for collecting the largest sum in their annual fund raising telethon.

The Zeta housing corporation has been working diligently in our behalf to secure permanent housing, and we thank them for all of their time and effort. They have formulated several plans, and although our proposal to move a structure to the lot we recently purchased was turned down by the board of trustees of the University, we are planning to start our fund drive in the near future.

The morale of Zeta is higher than ever, and with the prospect of starting some tangible work on our house, everyone is looking forward to a better than ever Zeta.

UCLA Report of Activities

Winter quarter began at UCLA with the initiation of our large fall pledge class. The new Brothers include: Chris Anderson, Charles Barsam, Gregory Brown, Rick Buck, Kevin Coombs, Doug Cosman, Gary Donahoo, Ben Graham, David Gregory, David Jarrett, Brad Kidwell, William Klatte, Larry Lincoln, Richard Marasco, James McCarty, Thomas Miller, Larry Sharp, Martin Stowe, and Les Weeks.

This large 19-member pledge class has been one of our strongest and most productive in recent times. We fully expect them to be a vital part of the house. Their initiation was the climax of an enjoyable and successful fall quarter at Cal Ep, which brought many changes and accomplishments.

The $40,000.00 loan acquired by the House Corp. made possible some badly-needed repairs to the house. New showers, a kitchen, carpeting, and a new roof made the house a better place to live, while surely attracting pledges and prospective members.

Academically, Phi Psis continue to distinguish themselves in the classroom and maintain high scholastic averages. The end of the fall quarter saw the house GPA at 3.1 which is above most of the other fraternities and UCLA men's average. Several Brothers made the Dean's List for another quarter and achieved 4.0 GPA's.

In Intramurals we finished fourth out of 18 fraternities and took the volleyball league championship again. Our football team and cross-country team also competed very well, winning important points toward the I.M. trophy. Winter and spring quarters are expected to be even more successful and we hope to field good teams in waterpolo, basketball, and retain our softball title.

The District VI ELC-DC was held the weekend of October 12, at our chapter house. It proved to be a productive venture, and included workshops, discussion groups, a banquet, and a party with delegates representing chapters from Arizona to Washington in attendance.

Officer elections for winter and spring quarters were held in November and once again fine leadership is to be found at Cal Ep. Tim Moore, a senior history major from Cupertino, was elected to the office of GP. He has been an important part of the house since his pledge quarter and has served as P, VGP, and as head of several committees. Mike Sajbel, a senior, motion picture production major, from Appleton, Wisconsin, was elected to VGP. He was our fine pledge-educator this last quarter and has also been an important part of the house during his time here. Mike is the son of Robert J. Sajbel, Iowa State '48, and is maintaining a 3.8 GPA in the prestigious UCLA Film School. Other officers include Nestor Barrero, AG; Dan Aguilera, P; Phil Kramer, BG; Kent Bloom, SG; Bruce Fernandez, Hod; Rex Fehr, Phu; and Dave Kay, Hi.

Alumni relations are looking better now after having to start from scratch. All Cal Ep alumni have been sent letters informing them about the new style, spirit, and goals of the house, and a good response is expected. As an indication of things to come, a successful pre-game picnic was held before the Oregon State football game at the L.A. Coliseum. The good turnout of Alumni and their wives and children was encouraging and more events are being planned for the future.

With the beginning of winter quarter, Cal Ep is once again looking forward to a good term. Important activities coming up include; winter rush, more alumni events, Founders Day ceremonies, and the famous UCLA Mardi-Gras which we do with the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. That particular event was covered in the last SHIELD. With those things to look forward to, Cal Ep's accomplishments and successes should continue in '76.

California Polytechnic State Univ. Progress in '76

With the ending of fall quarter 1975, we at California Eta are drawing near to the installation of our twentieth National Pledge Class. The proud members of the fall class are: Thomas Campbell Baxter, La Habra; Frank Hamilton Dugan, Palos Verdes; J. Dorian McKelvy, Atherton; Roland O. Lee, Sanger; Devitte Royce Charles, Gardena; Bruce David Broidy, San Francisco; William Jeffrey Hogg, Redondo Beach; Kenneth James Pederson, Kenneth James Ruppert, Ontario; Stephen McLee Guidotti, Salinas; Gerald Mendelovitz, Alhambra. The tentative date for installation is February 7, at the Shore Cliff Inn, Pismo Beach.

The new term officers are: Edward E. A. Parraz, GP; Alan A. J. Cook, VGP; Richard R. Garza, P; Grant R. Taylor, AG; John W. Miyawaki, BG; Thomas J. Crowhurst, SG; Donald D. Valliere, Hi; Robert J. Vojtek, Hod; Gregory D. Olson, Phu; and John C. James, Pledge Educator. Spring rush will be headed by Donald D. Shrum and Scott D. Shaw.

The Brothers of Cal Eta had a big set-back with the loss of our chapter house at 1303 Garden St.! We are now in the process of trying to secure a short term lease with the new owners so that adequate time can be spent in planning the direction we hope to go. It looks like our sights will be set toward buying a lot and building a permanent home for Cal Eta. Any help from our Brothers will be appreciated!

On April 23, we will proudly celebrate our tenth anniversary. More than 100 Alumni are expected, among whom will be our Founding Brothers. The theme of "Ten Years After" will coincide with Cal Poly's annual extravaganza Poly Royale.

We are currently planning another undefeated season of basketball, headed by coaches Mark A. J. Shorba and Donald D. Valliere. Hopefully this team will gain our third IFC championship in a row. Our first game of the season brought us an overwhelming victory of 51-18 over our opponents.

The Brothers of Cal Eta are looking forward to the convening of the next GAC in August. We are tentatively planning to have 18 representatives present; we would like to extend a challenge to all chapters to better our number in attendance at the 58th GAC, see you all in Washington, D.C.

California State Univ., Northridge Ciccarella Elected District VI Archon

The highlight of the fall semester of the Brothers of Cal Theta, uniquely took place in the dining room of the nearby chapter house of Cal Epsilon (UCLA), as John Ciccarella was elected District VI Archon to conclude the 1975 ELC/DC October 12.

With the 1976 GAC rapidly approaching, we realize the importance of fine leadership, and knowing all that Brother Ciccarella has done for Cal Theta, we can expect this enthusiasm to continue throughout the ever-growing District VI.

We extend our thanks to the Brothers of Cal Ep for their hospitality, as a good time was had by all Cal Thetans, and we are looking forward to seeing all the Brothers of District VI in the near future.

Although our CSUN football team lost its homecoming game, the Phi Psis made a spirited showing, finishing second in the float competition. Our sincere thanks go to John Atkisson for the use of his car, and Mark Morgan and Dave Deick who spearheaded the successful homecoming campaign. This would not have been such a success, however, without the never-ending effort of all the Brothers.

In intramurals, Cal Theta made the football playoffs and made a respectable showing in soccer. Now as the spring semester approaches we are anxiously awaiting basketball season, when we defend our fraternity division championship.

We are pleased to have initiated 11 new Brothers into our Fraternity. They are: George Fee, Northridge; Greg Hamlin, Sylmar; Tom Gulick and Lee Whitney, Woodland Hills; Murray Berg and Rich Rosenman, Van Nuys; Dave Friedrich, Chatsworth; Scott Muravnick, Canoga Park; Rich Parmeter, Tarzana; Ron La Vine, North Hollywood; and Dan Humfreville, Lancaster. Brother Humfreville is a third generation Phi Psi, as his grandfather was a member of Kansas Alpha, while his father is an alumnus of Cal Delta.

Elections were recently held for our spring semester officers. They are: Mark Morgan, GP; John Atkisson, VGP; Mitch Cohen, P; Bob Rapport, AG; Dave Deick, BG; Rich Bergman, SG; Jay Babchuk, Hod; Rich Wright, Phu; Mike Lev, Hi. Mitch Cohen is the pledge educator.

As we make final preparations for our spring rush, we once again are depending on Rush Chairman Bob Haddad to come up with another large pledge class, as he has done so often in the past. The spring semester also means that Founders Day will soon be here. This year we will not only be taking part in the Southern California Alumni Association celebration, but we will be active in a celebration hosted by our own Northridge Alumni Association.

We will be holding our Phi Psi 500 during April and extend an open invitation to all Phi Psi chapters to visit at that time. More details and results of the 500 will be available in the next issue of THE SHIELD.

We extend our best wishes to all the Brothers, for a successful 1976, looking forward to getting together in Washington, D.C. in August for GAC.

Colgate University New Idea in Fund Raising

This winter N.Y. Epsilon is occupied with our rush and a reorganization of Chapter management and programs. We are implementing reforms to increase efficiency in Chapter governance, planning a new pledge education program and improving alumni relations. Our success will depend upon the enthusiasm of the Brothers, including the spring officers: John A. Ball III, '73, GP; David N. Christensen, '75, VGP; James A. Peyser, '75, AG; Carl Cramer, '73, P; and Raymond W. Mitchell III, '74, BG.

Highlights of the fall semester include a well attended Homecoming Weekend in October. We entertained a large crowd of alumni, parents and friends with a cocktail party and buffet. In December, we had our traditional Christmas party for local school children.

Alumni-Chapter relations were strengthened by a phone-a-thon held on December 11. The Alumni Corporation, under the leadership of Col. Whitney W. Williams, '42, and Ronald Joyce, '66, organized the effort to canvas our alumni nationwide to finance house renovations. We gratefully appreciate the efforts of the participating alumni, undergraduates, and the generous support in meeting the needs of the chapter.

N.Y. Epsilon congratulates Howard S. Helfman, '73, for his election to Phi Beta Kappa, Dwight E. Mengel, '74, for being chosen the Solon E. Summerfield scholar, and Mr. Michael P. Albarelli Sr., enscribed on our parent honor roll, in appreciation of his generosity to the chapter.

As always, we enjoy meeting our national Brothers, so come to visit us at Colgate University throughout the year.

University of Colorado Helen Eberharter Retires

Everyone, bar none, in the Boulder house has been active in making this an exciting and rewarding year. Although the goals and standards are set high, we are achieving them.

The new administration for this year will surely prove to be one of the best ever. Newly elected officers are: Don Mclean, GP; Dave Renke, VGP; Richard Walker, P; Glen Mizar, BG; Jim Badham, SG; Chris Fuller, Hod; Dave Renke, Phu; and Craig Kelly, Hi.

We anticipate a good rush this year and foresee no problem in bringing in more quality Phi Psis. But, of course, together with the help of those attractive CU co-eds, how can we lose?

This year one of the biggest strong points of the house has been athletics. We just couldn't lose. Although hampered by injuries, the intramural football team proved itself worthy of the number-one spot at CU. In Folsom stadium, Jim Badham directed the team to a decisive victory to take the number one crown. The volleyball team fared just as well, as it shook off opponents right and left, leaving the Phi Psis at the top. The soccer team having been much improved, made it to the all-school intramural playoffs. It was eliminated there ending a successful season.

Our cook, the outspoken and gifted Helen Eberharter, retired this year after her many years of faithful and unselfish service. Words cannot express our gratitude to this unique lady.

Although the Boulder house is already inviting, it promises to be much more. Refinancing plans are underway and there is much to be done. The basement will be converted to a rec-room which will certainly enhance the atmosphere.

The Brothers here in Boulder would certainly welcome any of you skiers coming through. Keep us in mind!

Cornell University Successful Fall Semester

The Brothers of New York Alpha enjoyed a fall term that brought success in practically every endeavor, and we are hoping that 1976 will bring more of the same. In the social department, the fine work of co-chairmen Hammon Buck and Henry Morganbesser meant large turn-outs and good times for all at both Fall Weekend and Homecoming. The social program also included a costume party that was the talk of the campus, as well as the infamous Senior Banquet, where the seniors toasted and roasted their undergraduate Brothers! Dave Voigt, a junior, will be taking over Hammon's duties this spring.

In rush, the Brothers are busily preparing for the crucial formal rush period. All the Brothers are extremely enthusiastic about the freshmen who are rushing Phi Psi this year, and we are confident that, under the direction of indefatigable rush chairman Dave Dunn, this year's formal rush will be another fruitful one. Eagerly waiting in the wings is Pledge-master Hammon Buck and his two assistants, Warren Alderige and Jon Feldman.

Several Phi Psis have been active in university-related activities. Sophomores Jon Feldman and John Oswald join Bennett Pine as representatives to Cornell's Finance Committee. Andy Heller, Phi Psi's representative to the Interfraternity Council, helped in the planning of Cornell's recent IFC party. Open to all fraternity and sorority members and their dates, the party featured prominent sportswriter Dick Schaap, a Penthouse "Pet," and free refreshments, courtesy of Puerto Rican Rum. IFC officials hope to make the party, which was a smashing success, an annual event.

Elections for spring term officers were held just before Christmas vacation. Serving New York Alpha this spring will be: Steven Smith, GP; Robert Merkle, VGP; Frank Muehleman, P; Daniel Lynn, AG; James Allchin, BG; Peter Eareckson, SG; Jeffrey Allchin, Hi; Joseph Marletta, Hod; and Raymond Lewis, Phu. Outgoing GP Ray Lewis, as well as all of the Brothers, thank the Brothers of Pa. Theta for the hospitality displayed during the Eastern Leadership Conference held at Lafayette last October. We at Cornell enjoy meeting our Brothers from other chapters, and have benefited a great deal from the exchange of ideas that takes place at the ELC and similar meetings.

Looking to the future, New York Alpha is again planning a Phi Psi 500 for this spring. Larry Kummer will be the chief organizer of this year's race, and already much interest is being displayed, both inside and outside the chapter. Pete Eareckson, our newly elected historian, is tackling the formidable task of updating the chapter's alumni records. However, with the enthusiasm at its presently feverish pitch, these activities, and others, will enjoy the success which blessed us this fall.

Creighton University Hosting a DC/ELC

We at Nebraska Beta were very honored to host the DC/ELC last semester here in Omaha. As a result of the hard work by everyone, particularly President Mike Ulch, a well planned program greeted the representatives of District V, and smooth execution insured a successful conference. The spirit of Brotherhood and camaraderie pervaded throughout the weekend and added to the enjoyment shared by all. We also congratulate our own Rich Nelson on being elected district archon.

Last November we initiated six new members into our chapter. The new men are: Roger Diercks, Little Falls, Minn.; Chris Geha, Overland Park, Kans.; Kevin Heckman, Adair, Iowa; Joseph Pane, Omaha; Michael Stamper, Weaver, Iowa; and Jerome Thompson, Graettinger, Iowa. Our congratulations to Tom Messersmith for his fine work as pledge trainer, and our thanks to the members of our alumni association who attended the activation ceremonies.

Shortly after initiation Nebraska Beta elected its spring slate of officers. The new officers are: Patrick J. Fitzpatrick, GP; Charles W. McKenny, VGP; Jeff Modica, P; Russell E. Endo, BG; James K. Beck, Phu; Charles G. Roggenstein Jr., Hi; and Mark L. Mackey, Hod.

Also serving this semester are John Clifford as lodge chairman and Kirk McCarville and Bill Whitley as social co-chairmen, who along with Nick DeSantis are already laying the groundwork for our big spring formal to be held in April.

Bill Collins and his committee are hard at work planning this semester's rush activities in order to present the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi to Creighton's undergraduate community and attract new members. Included on the agenda are two parties where prospective members can mingle with the Brothers informally, and two smokers where they can get to know about our chapter.

Nebraska Beta once again for the second consecutive year had two of its members, Michael E. Groom and William T. Creighton, selected to the Alpha Sigma Nu National Jesuit Honor Society for scholarship, leadership, and loyalty to the Creighton community.

Spearheading a drive to improve alumni relations by reviving our old newsletter, "The Phi Psightings," Mike Owens plans to have the first issue printed by late spring.

With intramural basketball right around the corner, we are hoping for a more successful season than in football, where we lost a close playoff game in a sudden death overtime. But win or lose, good sportsmanship is our primary aim.

DePauw University Campus Activities

With the semester beginning in February, many Phi Psis have already returned to DePauw from various activities during winter term adventures. These diverse adventures included marine biology in the Bahamas, medical, dental, and law observation, accounting, banking, broadcasting and social work. Most of the projects were throughout this part of the country; however, on campus projects included mechanics, opera productions, independent reading and broadcasting. Eleven Phi Psis spent winter term studying in Greece and Germany this semester.

Initiation for 20 pledges will be held on Sunday, February 8, followed by chapter elections. The night preceding the ritual, however, the pledges will be hard at work during the traditional 24-hour housework duties. House managers Doug Hynden and Robert Krebs will coordinate the pledges in the renovation of Indiana Alpha.

The "Little 500" bike team is now in its planning stage as veterans John Brinker, Merc Morris and Spike Kennedy scout for a fourth rider to complete the bike team. Blake Turner, chairman of this year's "Steering Committee," is already organizing the race, which is sponsored by the Union Building of DePauw. The Phi Psi pedalers will be ready for a tough race at the campus-wide event in May.

Although Doug McFarlan and Tom Morris have just retired as sports editors of "The DePauw" and WGRC radio, they are still involved with writing and broadcasting at DePauw. Sophomores Doug Hynden and Mike Fitzgerald, and rookies Steve Smith, Jeff Bernacchi and Gary Kriebel are training hard to bring another winning season for the swim team of DePauw. Freshman Tim Swift captured the IM wrestling title in his weight division, as four other Phi Psis including Dave Grant, Pat Ball, Dave Kraemer and Jim Kleinschmidt advanced to the finals. After the amazing show, the Phi Psi jocks advanced to first place in IM competition.

Although Indiana Alpha has many activities on campus, academics is still strong with 25 Phi Psis making the Dean's list. The freshmen class did well during their first semester with a good chance for the highest average on campus.

Dickinson College Exciting Spring Looms Ahead

We have just returned from a month of Christmas vacation and are looking forward to an exciting spring, with sixteen pledges. Fraternities in general are showing a marked resurgence into the Dickinson social scene as close to 70 percent of this year's freshmen are pledging at the 10 various fraternities here on campus. Three Brothers are presently studying at the Pushkin Institute in Moscow and they will return to Dickinson in early February. They are Neil Sparber, Michael Herman, and Michael Sivy. The officers for the second semester are: Neil Sparber, GP; Cary Paine, VGP; Clay Bailey, AG; George Shore, P; Ken Earll, BG; Mark Froehlich, Hod; Jim Melsen, Hi; Michael Sivy, Phu. We are looking forward to a great spring and anticipate a good '76 in general for Penn. Zeta. Best wishes for a happy and prosperous 1976 to all Phi Psi alumni and Penn. Zeta alumni especially.

Duke University Celebrity Auction

North Carolina Alpha hosted the ELC-DC for District IV on November 8 and 9. Due to the hard work of all the Duke Brothers, Steve Fris in particular, it was indeed a success. The boisterous spirit of several visiting Brothers brought a new perspective on the Duke experience.

Our Homecoming showed an increasing amount of alumni participation. The weekend was highlighted by our victory over the Clemson Tigers. Special thanks to Larry Peterson (Duke '60) and his family for their enthusiastic help throughout the weekend. The visiting alumni included: Dr. Robert Rankin, '34; Brad Baker, '51 and wife; W. B. Fleming, '60 and wife; Roger Pond, '66 and wife; Chick Beninati, '66 and wife; Charlie Daul, '66 and wife; Rick Lundholm, '66 and wife; George Williams, '66 and wife; Mac Phillips, '69 and wife; John Nicholson, '69 and wife; Chaz Umberger, '70 and wife; Don Black, '71 and Linda Levine; Dave Patton, '71; Don Etheridge, '71 and Dalby Chandler; Mike Ives, '71 and Lisa West; Jim Boote, O. Eta, '71 and Sharon Baker; Mark Peacock, '72 and wife; Jim O'Donnell, '72 and Marie Hannigan.

The Executive Director of the Leukemia Society of America receives a check from North Carolina's Tray Dunaway following their celebrity auction.

Our celebrity auction for the Leukemia Society of America, with the hard work of the Brothers and financial support of the Duke community, netted over two-thousand dollars. Project coordinator Tray Dunaway believes that next fall's auction for cancer research through the Duke Children's Hospital will be even more successful.

Brother Ricky Vinegar, Speaker of the House of Associated Students of Duke University, was awarded N.C. Alpha's 1976 Solon Summerfield Award.

The formal rush party was an unqualified success. By the end of the formal weekend, we had shaken up twelve prospective Brothers. It seems this pledge class will be very strong.

New officers were elected at the end of the fall term. They were Zac Isaac, GP; Tray Dunaway, VGP; Skip Heyman, BG; Frank Becker, Phu; Bill Frank, Hod, and Mark Anderson, Hi. Because Bob Rice, our last AG, has taken a leave of absence, John Frothingham was elected as AG. Brother Dave Kapnick and Brother Rob Kohl will continue to serve as P and SG, respectively. Brother Isaac is looking forward to this semester and plans to continue N.C. Alpha's forward momentum.

Eastern New Mexico University House Improvements

Conversion of a garage into a game room and internal modeling of the chapter house is the major undertaking of New Mexico Alpha. The game room is to be utilized for next spring's rush, while remodeling of the house is being made for better living quarters.

New officers for the spring term are: Charles Fry, GP; Charles Abbott, VGP; James Thompson, AG; James Dyke, BG; Rob Morper, P; Les Pierce, Phu; Kermit Shumard, Hod, and Bradley Marsh, Hi.

Steven F. Grover was duly initiated into the Fraternity on December 6. He is a junior from Farmington.

Athletically, the Phi Psis are contributing their best efforts to date. The green and red took third place in intramural football, captured the field goal kicking contest, and recently won the free-throw shooting contest. Currently, the volleyball team is in the University championship after winning the fraternity league for the first time. Members of the team are Sam Ricketts, Les Pierce, Terry Hahn, Steve Margolies, Ed Cummings, and Derek Podabas.

Brothers competing in varsity sports are: Brad Marsh, golf; Ed Cummings and Matt Simon, football; Derek Podabas and Bill Megel, track.

James Dyke has been elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. Dave Hill and Alan Hill are members of the city police force, while Fred Shumpert is on the University security staff. Steve Grover has been selected as treasurer of the Inter-Fraternity Council.

A pajama Christmas party will be held on December 13, weekend before final exams, and will culminate the social activities for the fall.

A committee headed by Rob Morper is working eagerly toward rush plans and activities for the spring rush, which will start January 8, with IFC sponsoring a formal rush week.

The Rho pledge class kidnapped three Brothers and spent the weekend in Lubbock, Texas, with the pledges of Texas Tech.

Franklin and Marshall College Alumni Honored

This year's Homecoming Weekend, October 3-4, was a good one for Pennsylvania Eta alumni. At the well-attended Phi Psi cocktail party, alumni had the opportunity to witness the results of spring's successful rush. It was also the occasion for the installation of the F and M Sports Hall of Fame, commemorating many of the college's athletic greats.

Among those inducted into the Hall of Fame was W. Austin Bishop, '24, a wrestler who lost only one match in a four-year collegiate career. Just as impressive were the records of the many Phi Psi gridiron stars: T. Omer Cannon, '32, Wilbur B. Lehman, '24, Ralph A. Mattioli, '46, John M. Quick, '46, J. William Witherspoon, '12, and Samuel H. Yohn, '23. These Penn Etans had been previously inducted when the Hall of Fame was restricted to F and M football players.

More recently, our chapter's Alumni Relations Chairman, Hallett German, has been busy reviewing and updating alumni records. He reports some success in locating "lost Brothers" listed in the Fall 1975 issue of THE SHIELD. Incidentally, we would be most appreciative if alumni would please notify us when they change address.

We are pleased to announce our latest pledge, John Calhoun, Wexford, Pa. We will seek additional members this spring semester, repeating last spring's successful methods.

While most officers have been continued in office, elections for the spring semester brought the following changes: Richard Oestrike, GP; Harry Jacobowitz, SG; Richard Finley, Hi; and Hallett German and Richard Oestrike, IFC Representatives. Richard Finley was also elected Pledge Educator last November. Furthermore, the spring rush will be the responsibility of a three-member committee, chaired by Donald Sylvester.

Finally, one of our Brothers, Edmund Fanning, has been chosen to serve on the IFC Judiciary Board, as Penn Eta continues to be active in campus affairs.

University of Illinois Fall Highlights

Highlighting the activities of the semester at Illinois was a Christmas party held for a group of mentally retarded children from the Champaign-Urbana area. The festivities included decorating the house Christmas tree, eating lots of goodies, singing carols, and a special visit from Rich "Santa" Niemann. Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority helped put the party together and the results were both successful and rewarding for us all.

The fall pledge dance was comical (to say the least) as well as being the high point of the second half semester social calendar. "Phi-Psi Funnies—Strip Your Comic" saw the house filled with several Lil' Abners, Daisey Mays, Dennis the Menaces, and Charlie Browns. Dads' Day gave the Phi Psi fathers and sons a chance to get together and have some good, man to man fun (Better not tell the Moms!).

Homecoming saw the Phi Psis working busily on their Homecoming Deck with Pi Beta Phi Sorority. The deck, entitled "The Spirits Alive in '75," under the direction of Jeff Huard, with help from Rich Niemann, Matt Marshall and Mark (nut and bolts) Signorelli even included a working model of the "Spirit of Seventy-Five" airplane. The Alumni Reunion coincided with Homecoming this year and provided added enthusiasm to the weekend activities. Rich Niemann was in charge of the events for the reunion and did an outstanding job. Warren Olson '44 received the "Alumnus of the Year" award.

In intramural activities, Phi Psis were flexing their muscles and giving a good show. The football team, led by outstanding performances from defensive backs Chris Perry and Jim Neckopulos, made the playoffs and advanced toward a championship before being upset by Pi Kappa Alpha. The house soccer team, led by forward Rick Niemann and goalie

Greg Barrick reached the semi-finals before bowing out. In basketball, the Phi Psi made a strong showing in "A" league competition, posting a 3-1 record. High hopes for a successful winter season rest on the hot shooting of Tom "H" Halloran and freshman John Hoffman.

The officers for the new term include: Rich Niemann, GP; Chris Perry, VGP; Mark Sauer, P; Jim Neckopulos, AG; Bob Sneider, BG; and Doug Smith and Brad Young, Rush Chairmen.

The second semester was ushered in with the initiation of Dave Brown, Jim Hensold (son of Bill, Illinois Delta), Joe Halliday (son of Robert, brother of Bob, both of Illinois Delta), Mike Hinze, John Hoffman, Dean Lindroth (brother of Brian, Illinois Delta), Fred McDowell, Phil Meisinger, Tony Pera, Paul Presney (nephew of John Murphy, Illinois Alpha), Doug Rowe, Scott Swanson, and Doug Williams.

The Brothers at Illinois Delta thank the recent graduates, Bruce Morrison, Bob Devezinski and Mike Wells, for their many contributions and memories and wish them luck in the future.

Indiana University Thirteen to Be Initiated

New officers were elected at Indiana Beta prior to the end of the first semester, as Jeff Kessler began his term as chapter president. Jeff is a senior from Kokomo and is majoring in psychology. He sees his career future as being in the field of personal communications, while the Peace Corps holds a possibility for the near future. The other newly elected officers are: David Rau, BG; Doug Pond, SG; Barr White, Hod; Jeff Mapes, Phu; Brad Lindemann, Hi. The offices of P and AG will be retained until the next elections.

The 13 members of the 1975-76 Fall Pledge Class are anxiously awaiting their upcoming initiation, which according to pledge trainer Tim Tuerff, should be sometime in February. These men-to-be of Phi Kappa Psi are: Mark Broady, Bruce Glidden, Brazil; Brian Clarke, Jim Stevens, Jeff Frank, Columbus; Bill Mohr, Fred Osborn, Kokomo; Stuart Kelly, Marion; Kurt Kahlo, Indianapolis; Spencer Knotts, Elwood; John Siebert, Jasper; Jon Spafford, Bloomington, and Tom Seger, Jasper. When asked what were the highlights of their pledgeship, they continually responded that the work on the Arabian Knights Dance and the pledge-sponsored Christmas Dance were both great times for Brotherly fellowship. One of the members-to-be remarked that the amazing thing about pledgeship is that it brings you closer to your pledge Brothers than to friends you've known all your life. Brother Tuerff, along with disciplinarian Bill Mutz, and educator Wes Umemura, have done an outstanding job of instilling the ideals of our fraternity into these young men.

Alumni relations have been a strong point in the Kessler administration, as he feels the Fraternity is a life-long association that will not end with graduation. In December the house sponsored its first open house by inviting alumni, faculty, and presidents of the Greek houses on campus to come over and meet the Phi Psi Brotherhood. We also had the honor of having two distinguished guests to dinner in December—Goethe Link and Steel Gilmore. Brother Link is the oldest living Indiana Betan and is a retired surgeon who has the distinction of performing the first thyroid transplant in Indiana. Brother Gilmore is the founder of the Indiana University School of Journalism, which now ranks as one of the best in the country. We also have plans for a get-together honoring senior housing board members in the near future.

I.U. Sing is coming up in February and coordination chairman Doug Pond, '75, promises a unique and talented show. Last year we placed fourth in the annual campus competition, while this year we are teamed with the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority who won the event last year. The title of the production is Alice in I.U. Land, while the theme revolves around a frantic college co-ed who can't get her term paper typed and is rescued by a team of mystical elves with a magical typewriter. When Mr. Smudge appears on the scene to try and foil the efforts of the elves the action becomes intense. Of course, Mr. Smudge is erased from the picture and the elves triumph in the end.

Intramurally, it has been a rough year for the Indiana Betans. We seem to be on our way to our most dismal finish in many years, with only a few bright spots to save face. Howard May, '74, grappled his way to an all-campus wrestling championship, while the swim team splashed its way to a respectable fourth place finish. Basketball is yet to start and the outlook for that is pretty good, but indeed there is much room for improvement in the intramural program.

Spring rush has already begun and with a graduating class of 23 seniors, the spring pledge class will be quite large. Therefore, we would welcome recommendations on any young men our alumni feel could contribute to the betterment of the Brotherhood.

BRADLEY L. LINDEMANN, Correspondent

Indiana University of Pennsylvania Important Semester Ahead

After a long Christmas break the Brothers are ready to take on an important semester for Pa. Nu. Rush is our most vital issue this term due to a number of Brothers graduating this May. Newly initiated Brother, Ross "Doc" Butch, was elected rush chairman and has outlined a hopefully successful rush program.

Last semester's pledge class was formally initiated on the 18th of November. The new Brothers are: David A. Alfera, New Castle; Ross W. Butch, Vandergrift; William R. Debrason, Irwin; Kevin Liszewski, Paramus; and Richard J. Peltz, Warren. The Brothers are a welcome and hard working addition to the fraternity.

Election of officers was held on November 9, and the results are as follows: Dave Haddad, GP; Raymond Gump, VGP; Tim Groves, P; Glen Grimm, Asst. P; Denny Puko, BG; Randy Miller, SG; Jeff Getkin, Hod; Mike John, Phu; and P. J. Dippolito, Hi. This semester's pledge educator will be Mike John.

Phi Psi have come on strong in intramurals thus far. Currently on a point scale we are ranked 3rd out of all competing university teams and 2nd among fraternities. Activities chairman Tim Groves has hopes for continued success this semester.

Congratulations are in order for Ray Gump, who was the recipient of the Solon E. Summerfield award. Also, Oscar "Ozzie" Weller won the coveted Uncle award. The Uncle award is given to the Brother who has done the most to promote Brotherhood and leadership to the undergraduates.

Bill Debrason has been busy planning a Phi Psi 500 for later in the semester. The money raised will be donated to the Pittsburgh Leukemia Society.

We wish all of you a good semester and a Happy New Year.

University of Iowa Activities Planned for Spring

With memories of a successful fall semester, the men at Iowa Alpha are looking forward to the social and academic activities planned for this spring semester.

Members welcomed into Phi Kappa Psi include from Des Moines, Bob Dorweiler, Dave Harvey, Brad Winterbottom, Jim Glaser, Scott Kelley, Brian Keough, Steve Rosenberg, Eric Randolph, Mike Newland, and John Kunkle. Others are Craig Baker, Tom Hurney, Spirit Lake; Joe Schemmel, Monticello; Kevin Elliot, Ankeny; and Jim Mainlander, Anita.

In addition to activation earlier this semester, the Winter Formal is scheduled for January 24, 7:00 p.m., at the Cedar Rapids Country Club, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. There will be a dinner followed by a dance.

We would like to announce the selection of Dave Smith as our Solon Summerfield Award recipient. Dave has helped the chapter in many ways with his leadership in the past and we are happy to present him with this award.

In the varsity sports scene, Phi Kappa Psi men again are showing strong participation. Mark Phillips will complete his years at Iowa as a two time letterman on the Hawkeye football squad. Rick Zuss-man and Jim Houghton lead the Iowa tennis team as co-captains. Other Iowa lettermen included Dave Noble of the Iowa swim team, and Eric Randolph on the Hawks gymnastics team.

We thank Mr. Bywater who is leaving as our house advisor. It was with the great efforts put forth by Mr. Bywater that a most successful pledge retreat was conducted, assisted by chapter consultant, Mr. Carl Bennett. A sincere welcome is extended to Mr. Lynn Rowett who will succeed the position.

With cooperative efforts by the members of the chapter during activation week, many improvements were made within the house. Redecorating of the television room, and repainting of many walls on the upper floors were completed.

After recent elections the new officers for the year include Rick Zussman, GP; Lee Hook, VGP; Charles Taylor, P; Brad Boeke, AG; and Kevin Elliot, BG.

As always the men of Iowa Alpha express our thanks to all the alumni for their help and support. We welcome any of you to visit Iowa Alpha and share with us your fraternal ideas and views.

Iowa State University Joins the 1000 Club

On December 13, 1975, Iowa Beta initiated our 1000th member into Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity. This event comes after 63 years of Phi Psi on the Iowa State campus. On hand to help us celebrate #1000 were Dud Daniel, Dr. Theodore Urban, Rich Nelson—Archon for District V, alumni from all past years, and the undergraduate Brothers of the Chapter house. Iowa Beta badge number 1000 belongs to new initiate Martin Joseph Bohlke.

Executive Secretary Ralph D. Daniel congratulates Martin J. Bohlke, the 1000th member of Iowa Beta.

The rest of the new initiates are: William S. Reed, Rochelle, Ill.; Dwight H. Becker, Des Moines; Paul M. Peterson, Keith R. Kirchner, James J. Urban, Omaha, Neb.; Gary L. Biederman, St. Ansgar; Stephen G. Calhoun, Marshalltown; J. Brent Harl, David K. Daulton, Ames; Mark H. Raisbeck, Leawood, Kans.; Jeffrey W. Stearns, Cedar Rapids; and Christopher P. Nelson, Peoria, Ill.

Iowa Beta, along with the Alpha Xi Delta Sorority, won first place in the Homecoming Lawn Display Contest this fall. We won with our rendition of "Cy Tells No Lies." Also that weekend, we won the spirit award at our Homecoming football game. So, Homecoming weekend at Iowa Beta passed very successfully.

The highlight of the winter quarter social scene was our annual winter formal. It was held this year at Eddie Websters in Des Moines. Dining on filet mignon and champagne and dancing to the music of the Fourth Estate, this year's formal was one of our most enjoyable and was very well attended with approximately 75 couples there. Also winter quarter we enjoyed many Friday Afternoon Clubs, ice skating, and tobogganing parties with sororities.

Sportswise, we are very busy with intramural activities. This quarter we have three basketball teams, and teams in volleyball, swimming, bowling, hockey, and indoor track. We are hoping that the bowling team, which made it to the All-University roll-offs last quarter, and the swimming team, which was one of the top finishers in fall competition, will repeat and this time bring home the first-place trophy.

Johns Hopkins University Renovation Continues

Maryland Alpha has started Phase II of its multifaceted renovation and redecorating program, which has included thus far new walls, plaster and paint for the second and third floor bathrooms and kitchen, new fire doors, and door frames. We are pleased to report that the housing inspectors have given us a clean bill of health, clearing us of all 110 code violations.

A party for alumni, neighbors, and parents was held on Parents Weekend in November, featuring a buffet of exotic delights, and having a successful turnout. Our thanks go to Mr. and Mrs. Lauder for homey touches to the chapter rooms which included wall hangings, braided rugs, and geraniums.

Two Brothers, Sinan Serbes and Noe Mateo have graduated in the course of the year. Sinan is presently attending medical school in Turkey; Noe has moved back to New York and will be attending medical school next fall. We have one new pledge, a transfer student from Rutgers who has been boarding with us at the Mars Hotel.

Meanwhile Lisa Warren, the Phi Psi Lady has kept spirits up, pitching in with paintbrush and rolling pin, and designing cabinets to be built in empty rooms by Brothers Ross and Dickenson, our master carpenters in residence.

STEPHEN GUASTELLE, Correspondent

University of Kansas Chapter Centennial—April 1-4

With the election of new officers at Kansas Alpha, the house is now in the hands of our competent junior class. The officers elected this winter are: Win Wilhelmssen, GP; Tom Scott, VGP; Kevin Parks, P; Rob Munyan, AG; Scott Nearing, BG; Steve Maier, Phu; Louis Osborn and Jim Parker, Rush Chairmen; and Tom Cadden, Scholarship Chairman.

We have high hopes for our new rush program. Both our Kansas City, and Western Kansas rush chairmen, Jim Parker and Louis Osborn, respectively, were elected to serve for a full year, as compared to formerly elected rush chairmen being elected for half year terms. This new procedure hopefully will give them the opportunity to become more involved and more influential with rushees. Names and information about potential rushees will be appreciated, and should be sent to these two Brothers.

Kevin Parks is off to a quick start as our new treasurer. He and Don Wilson handled the finances of our Christmas party with finesse by cutting costs, yet retaining the excellence that makes the annual "Christmas buffet" so outstanding.

Kansas Alpha has chalked up a number of individual achievements this semester. We are proud to announce the initiation of Nick Link and Bobby Meyer. We also congratulate Brother Meyer upon his recent election to corresponding secretary of District V. The University of Kansas has awarded two of our members, Brother Mike Chambers, and pledge Jim Orr, the Summerfield scholarship for scholastic excellence. Brother Chambers was also awarded the Solon Summerfield award from Kansas Alpha for displaying his leadership qualities as well as having an outstanding academic record. We wish to express our thanks to Brother Rick Lind for doing a fine job as chapter president in 1975.

In closing, we would like to remind all of our alumni of the Centennial celebration, April 1-4, 1976. This, being our 100th year, of course, is a special year for us. We hope many of you will return to the house which has given all of us unforgettable years of friendship and pride, and—Brothers—we have a lot to be proud of!

Kent State University Winter Activities Boom

Ohio Kappa is booming with excitement as we head into winter quarter. Hopefully, we've started the quarter off on the right foot by announcing the activation of two new Brothers. They are Paul Weinstein of Cleveland Heights and Tom Benner from Medina. Paul is a criminal justice major while Tom is busily studying in the area of Industrial Arts.

Right now we are in the middle of an all-out rush effort as all Brothers realize that we must become bigger to grow stronger. Rush chairmen Harry Jacob and Jim Moore are busy with that all-important task.

Due to a lack of personnel, we were unable to participate in the Intramural football program during the fall. But, we have put together a patchwork basketball team. We are in the same league as perennial powerhouses Alpha Phi Alpha, Phi Beta Sigma, Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sigma Chi. So the season should be quite a challenge.

Ron Seuffert, who holds the offices of social chairman, housing manager, athletic chairman and corresponding secretary, is this year's recipient of the Solon E. Summerfield award. Marvin Stearns is trying to follow in the footsteps of his big brother Ron and is currently working on the campus newspaper, the Daily Kent Stater. Ron just completed a two-quarter stint as sports editor of the Stater.

In the world of comedy, Jaime Klein stopped over to say hello over the Christmas holidays. Jaime is trying hard to crack the entertainment business and all of our well wishes go with him. In the meantime however, we understand he's giving the Phi Psis over at UCLA all they can handle.

We wish all the other chapters out there the best of luck in everything. And by the way Ashland, when are you going to visit us again?

RON SEUFFERT, Correspondent

Lafayette College Successful District Meeting

The Brothers of Pennsylvania Theta were honored to host the District I Council Meeting over the weekend of October 25-26. After weeks of preparation by the Brothers, particularly Stu Whitefield, the conference director, the day finally arrived. Phi Psi Chapters New Jersey Alpha, New Jersey Beta, Maryland Alpha, New York Alpha, New York Beta, Rhode Island Alpha, and Rhode Island Beta were represented. We were also honored to have with us a number of distinguished guests including Sandy Chamberlain, treasurer of the Fraternity; Dale McKnight and Ho Ballou, area directors; and Guy Minardi, chapter consultant. Various workshops were organized in such subjects as: rush and membership, chapter finance, public and alumni relations, The Fraternity, and Fraternity education and ritual. The workshops were a success, with many ideas being exchanged and analyzed among the different chapters. That afternoon, a cocktail party was held at the house, followed by a band party later at night. In the morning, the District Council Meeting was held, the highlight of which was the election of John Palladino of New Jersey Beta as new Archon of District I. The meeting closed with the singing of "Amici" and the agreement that the chapters in our district must maintain closer ties. Overall, the meeting was a success, and very enjoyable.

The latter half of this semester has been an active one for social events too. Highlights of our social schedule have included a Halloween costume party, and a Christmas party at which we entertained a group of underprivileged children from the neighborhood.

In IM's we are faring much better than in the first half of the semester. Doug Hintz and Tom Hartnett led our basketball team to a 4-1 finish and a playoff berth. Larry Raiss captured first place in racquetball singles, and teamed with Dave Keeble to take a third place in doubles. Our bowling team, led by Gary Neifeld and Larry Raiss, is entering the playoffs with an impressive record. Also, Dick Galbally, a senior linebacker on the varsity football squad, was named most valuable player of the 1975 Lafayette College football team.

scholastically out of eighteen fraternities on campus.

New officers for second semester are: Thomas Scheuren, GP; Douglas Hintz, VGP; David Dibbell, P; Glenn Ott, SG; Daniel Glickenhau, AG; Richard Bruce, BG; Steven Greenbaum, Phu; Stuart Whitefield, Hod; David Keeble, Hi.

Mankato State University Ski Trip to Colorado

The Brothers at Mankato State University were increased by eight at the end of the fall quarter. The new members who were welcomed into the brotherhood are Daniel Burns and Mark Holmes, Minneapolis; David Breckman and Kevin Mullarky, St. Paul; David Kramer, Bloomington; Peter Johnson, Braham; William Quant, Albert Lea; and Perry Brinkman, Klemme, Iowa. A party was held at our house afterwards and an excellent time was had by all.

Elections were held at the start of winter quarter. The new officers are Paul King, GP; William Dubbs, VGP; James Van Valkenburg, P; Kevin Mullarky, AG; David Burns, BG; Perry Brinkman, SG; Daniel Burns, Hod; Robert Bolls, Phu; and David Kramer, Hi. We expect a fine job from our able new officers.

The intramurals this winter have started off slowly, but are picking up. Jim Van Valkenburg is leading our hockey team to victory, and Donnie Hill is doing the same for our basketball team. To stay in condition for our athletic endeavors, the Brothers at Minnesota Gamma play hard-fought broomball games in the back yard of the house after dinner.

with eight Brothers it was a great experience.

Those who stayed at home attended the first annual Christmas party at Neil Johnson's house. The party was fantastic!

Memphis State University Phi Psi 500 Approved

The Brothers of Tennessee Zeta are proud to announce that with the initiation of the fall pledge class, we have reached the 100 initiated mark. The new initiates are Jim Covington, David Hooper, Bing Seid, John Sholly, Albert Chow, Jim Norvell, and Steve Stagoski, all from Memphis. We are also boasting of a 20-man active chapter, the largest it has been in several years, and plan to continue to grow.

The Memphis State administration has approved of the Phi Psi 500, which allows us to hold it on campus. All funds received are going to Le-bonheur Children's Hospital for a playroom in the mental health unit.

In Intramural sports, the chapter is not doing too well, but on the individual side of sports Mark Marshall won third place in All Greek-All University wrestling. This was an excellent effort, considering that it was Mark's first time to wrestle in competition.

Two chapter members are graduating from MSU. They are Mike Dew and Steve Thompson, both with a Bachelor of Science.

The house continues to be improved. The new tile floor was finished just in time for Parents Night. Also we have a new marble floor in the front entrance hallway.

In conclusion we wish that everyone has a very prosperous New Year and invite both actives and alumni to stop by and visit.

Miami University Successful Rush

ington; Brad Osborne, Indianapolis, Ind.; Jeff Sloan, Sylvania; Kevin Wermer, Van Wert; and Dave Yovich, Warren.

Garry Scanlon was initiated into Phi Kappa Psi on January 9, during the chapter's annual winter retreat at Camp America. The retreat also gave the Brothers a much needed opportunity to discuss rush and several other topics.

Phi Psi intramural basketball teams are currently enjoying winning seasons, with the "A" team still in championship contention.

Academically, Steve Hines, Keith Miracle, Jerry Rosenberg, and Bill Ulrich all achieved perfect 4.0 averages during the fall quarter. Rosenberg was also accepted to medical school at the Medical College of Ohio in Toledo. Dan Conway was initiated into Phi Beta Kappa.

The chapter was pleased to see several alumni at its rush parties, and would like to encourage them to stop in whenever they are nearby.

Michigan State University Alumni Newsletter

Michigan Beta is proud to announce that four new men have joined our Brotherhood. Mike Jansky, Neptune, N.J.; Mark Johnson, Bay City; Kevin Riley, Marshall; and Bob Therasse, Birmingham are now Phi Psis. Congratulations!

On February 17, the Brothers of Michigan Beta went to the Sheraton Inn in Pontiac for a banquet at which we and many of our Brothers in Michigan celebrated Founders Day. We would like to thank the Detroit Alumni Association for sponsoring an event that we all greatly enjoyed.

We have remodeled our third floor with a new paint job, new carpeting, and a plastered ceiling. We have really worked together to make our home at school even better.

Our fall term went especially well for us in the sports department. A strong football team, led by Ed Haughn, won the championship in the Greek system. The bowling team came in second place, narrowly missing the number-one spot. Our basketball team is now in training.

We are preparing an alumni newsletter so that Michigan Beta can get in better touch with our graduated Brothers. Mark Mox is the editor for the upcoming issue. If you have any ideas, suggestions, comments, if you want to tell your Brothers what you are up to, or want to find out what someone else is doing, drop us a line. We're a strong house on the move, but we need alumni support to be at our best.

Rush proceeded very well. We had many interested people through the house and things look bright for winter term. Our rush chairman is Geoff Hansen. If you know anyone at M.S.U. who might make a good Phi Psi, please get in touch with Geoff.

Please drop in if you're in the area.

University of Minnesota Initiation

Initiation highlighted the quarter at Minnesota Beta as 15 Brothers were added to the lists of Phi Kappa Psi. They are: Craig Chambers, Kerry Close, Glenn Nordehn, Jeff Anderson, Kurt Halva, J. Wesley Blake, Richard Sorensen, Ronald Klinge, Lou Kouhlman, Paul Dressen, Dale Dissmeyer, Jonathan Aanestad and Jim Hagstom. We are proud to have these new Brothers in our fraternity.

A skating rink, though small, was constructed on the Chapter's front lawn this quarter. It has been the source of both good times and a few bruises. But it is the one and only year for the rink since the lawn will be relandscaped this summer.

Our living room will be looking much better with the arrival of new furniture in early February. This is one of the last in a series of renovations that began over a year ago.

Minnesota Beta would like to congratulate President Jay Story and Rush Chairman Charles Darrell upon receiving the annual Greek Week "Senior Recognition Award." The honor is bestowed upon seniors who have been leaders in both the Greek system and their school.

Campus Carnival is the next Greek event on our calendar. Paired with Alpha Phi sorority, we will compete with other Greeks in an extravaganza with the purpose of raising money for charity. The event will occur in early spring and any alumni who have helpful hints are urged to contact us.

Since this is my last article I would like to thank the members of my Chapter and the national office for making possible one of the most rewarding experiences of my college life.

University of Mississippi House Corporation Re-Organized

We at Mississippi Alpha are looking forward to a busy spring. Currently, we have 32 actives on roll, and will add 13 at the January 24 initiation. These new initiates are: Ricky Tyler Adair, Senatobia; John Hale Freeland, Hal Lynn Greer, Oxford; Stephen John Horlock, Biloxi; Stephen Jackson, Michael Kearney Spears, Memphis, TN; James Tucker Knight and James Archie Pittman Jr., Jackson; Thomas Wayne Moffett, Pascagoula; Robert William Schnitzus, St. Louis, Mo.; William Edward Williams Jr., Olive Branch; John Allen Winograd, Whitefish Bay, Wis.; and Jay Michael Johnson, McComb. Following initiation ceremonies, the annual alumni banquet will be held at the Holiday Inn.

Mississippi Alpha was pleased at the outcome of the November DC. Archon Berry Brown (Texas Alpha) appointed Lynn Loden to the honor of district treasurer. Tom Kesler was elected Archon at the expiration of Berry Brown's term. Brother Loden appreciates receiving this honor, and Tom Kesler is looking forward to serving our district.

Plans for our spring social events are nearing completion. Our spring formal is to be held the first week of March in Memphis. Also the annual Red-Blue week in April looks to be a big event. We hope to see many alumni at these parties.

Through increased correspondence, our alumni program is growing stronger. It is great to have our alumni visit us and participate in these social functions. The alumni especially enjoy these events and we are looking forward to greater participation in the future.

Mississippi Alpha is re-organizing the House Corporation and we hope to strengthen our financial position. We are looking forward to seeing our alumni, friends, and Brothers from other chapters this spring.

EDDIE AUNE, Correspondent

University of Missouri Parents' Weekend

Missouri Alpha proudly congratulates their alumnus, Craig Ruby '16, for his induction last November into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame. Craig was an outstanding basketball player and coach at the University of Missouri. He shall be recognized at the Kansas City Founders Day celebration in February.

On October 11, we enjoyed a very successful Parent's Weekend as we watched the Tigers clobber the Oklahoma State football team. That night we held a party for our parents at the Broadway Motor Inn Victory Room. At that time the chapter and housing corporation recognized Greg Abbott with a plaque for his dedicated work to the chapter. Greg has been our treasurer for the last two years and is the main reason for our present financial stability.

For Homecoming we joined with the Alpha Epsilon Phi sorority to do a service project. By selling balloons and candy apples during Homecoming festivities, we raised $250 for the Judavine Center for autistic children. On October 31, we held a Halloween Haunted House party for children from the Head Start program.

Our last big social event of the semester was our Christmas formal on December 6.

Linda Muhs was crowned Missouri Alpha's 1975 Sweetheart.

We are proud to announce the initiation of 12 new Brothers into the Fraternity on January 11. They are: Rick Bien, John Horton, Roy Kline, Jeff McHenry, Phil Ohlms, Duane Smith, Rick Richolson, Phil Royston, Dan Springman, Tom Fitzgerald, Ken Jackson and Bill Tracy.

New officers for this semester are: Mark Picker, GP; Greg Abbott, VGP; Mark Rider, AG; Doug Coombs, BG; Dave Klobucar, SG; Dave Manco, P; Sam Ferranto, Hi; Jef Akers, Hod; Blake Parrish, Phu and Shane Bird, Mystagogue. Mike McGovern is our new chapter advisor. Mike is a charter member of Louisiana Beta and former chapter vice-president. He is manager of Swift Meats in Columbia.

Other events on this semester's agenda are: our first Mom's weekend; our annual Toga party; a spring formal weekend with our Jeff Duo counterparts, the Fijis; and our third annual Chapter Day in late April.

With a fantastic semester behind us we at Missouri Alpha are looking forward to an even better one in '76. Also at this time we send our warmest congratulations and best wishes to our Brothers at Kansas Alpha who are celebrating their 100th year at K.U.

Monmouth College House Improvements

New officers for the spring of 1976 are as follows: John Palladino, GP; Art Klehm, VGP; Jeff Durkin, AG; Wayne Francis, BG; Frank Montagna, P; Barry Horowitz, SG; Jeff Luthman, Hi; and Nelson Mateo, Phu. Congratulations and good luck to these men in the upcoming semester. Special recognition also goes to President John Palladino who was recently elected Archon for District I, and to Kenny Chapnick who was elected first vice-president of the IFC.

On November 24, our fall pledge class members were inducted into the chapter. They are as follows: Nelson Mateo; Jeff Friedson, Ron Edison, Dean Blechman, David VanWhy, Tom McLaughlin and Glenn Stout.

In intramural football we had a disappointing 6-3 record for fourth place. Art Klehm, Richard Contardi, Joe Miller and Joe Cook were standout players this year. In intramural basketball we are expecting a first place finish led by captains Joe Miller and James Hanneman, with the backcourt play of Ron Edison. In bowling Phi Psi took first place with four out of the highest five averages going to Phi Psis. The bowling team this year consisted of Kenny Chapnick, Joe Cook, Joe Miller, John Palladino and Dave VanWhy. Monmouth College Varsity Soccer was led by the outstanding play of Dave VanWhy, Glenn Stout and John Chappone (also elected team captain for the 1976 season).

Public Relations chairman Kenny Chapnick had a busy semester with our annual Christmas visit to the children's ward at Monmouth Medical Center and our Kidney Donor Drive. Both events were successful and Ron Edison played an excellent Santa Claus.

Our chapter house is looking better than ever with the new addition of tile to the meeting room floor. The entire roof was also tarred and resurfaced due to extensive leakage. In the upcoming semester, house chairman John Chappone and Jeff Durkin's projects are getting heat into the bar and the completion of the painting of our new front porch.

University of Nebraska Scholastic Achievement

Stepping forward into the second semester of the 1975-76 school term, Nebraska Alpha has in prospect a variety of activities and goals. Elected December 8, 1975, were eight officers to serve one semester terms: Dan Roberts, GP; Mike Dahlheim, VGP; Steve Brave, P; John Hess, AG; Scott Hess, BG; Tom Forst, SG; Art McDaniel, Phu; Pat Longo, Hi.

The cumulative house average the first semester was an encouraging 2.8; the pledges scored an impressive 3.0 overall grade point average. Nebraska Alpha will initiate 16 pledges into the chapter the second week of February. Congratulations are extended to all new Brothers of the chapter. Brothers John Hess, Dave Regier, and pledge Keith Bigsby represented the chapter at the District Five Educational Leadership Conference, held November 8-9 in Omaha. A considerable amount of knowledge was attained by those attending the conference.

Football results were impressive. All three teams entered in the competition reached the playoffs. The "A"-team demonstrated its winning caliber, by marking an impressive over-all record, and reaching the semi-finals in all-fraternity competition. Attempting to match last year's impressive results in basketball, Phi Psi is again off to a good start.

Looking ahead to the second semester, we plan to send a sizeable delegation to Omaha for the annual Founders Day Banquet February 19, to be held with the Nebraska Betans of Creighton University. The annual "Phi Psi Formal" has been tentatively set for April 7. This year Nebraska Alpha will initiate an event which has become very important with other chapters around the country—the "Phi Psi 500." This event remains in the planning stage, however, as it is to take place the last week of March. A variety of functions with groups around the campus are planned for the second semester. The entire chapter is looking forward to a semester filled with academic achievements and social activities.

Northwestern University Fireside Reception

Initiated this winter at Illinois Alpha were 13 men of whom we are very proud. The new initiates are Thomas M. Becker, Eric T. Schulte, Morton Grove; John W. Bowers, Fort Wayne, Ind.; David R. Brown, Kettering, Ohio; Edward J. Crane, Garden City, N.Y.; Mark T. Gallaraith, Palantine; George B. Good, Chicago; Mark T. Goddard, Cincinnati, Ohio; John P. Horan, Willoughby, Ohio; William J. Kearney, Westchester; James L. Pearson, Richard S. Snyder, Western Springs; Coe D. Rost, Homewood. After intense and traditional pledge training directed by Mike McIntyre and Mark Hill, they are well prepared for their responsibilities in the Fraternity.

Intramural sports move indoors as teams participate in bowling, soccer, basketball and floor hockey. Team captains are Steve Morgan, Dave Brown, Mark Hill, and Steve Sulzer, respectively. The rosters are full and the hopes are high. The house boasts five varsity track members, senior Gary Les, juniors Jim Brown and Scott Williams, and freshmen Tom Becker and Will Kearney. Freshman Dave Brown represents Phi Psi on the varsity baseball team.

Recently, Illinois Alpha housed a reception for Assistant Secretary of State, Rufus Smith. This was one in a series of firesides brought about through the efforts of house faculty advisor R. Barry Farrell, a prominent member of Northwestern's Political Science department.

Phi Psis took to the slopes for the annual winter ski party which was one of many exciting social events of the winter quarter. Phi Psis in the area are urged to stop in and meet the Brothers.

Ohio State University Busy In Columbus

While the shock of Ohio State's loss in the Rose Bowl was wearing off, Ohio Delta welcomed 13 new initiates. They are: Jamie Fjord, Cincinnati; Alan Sutton, Belford; Andy Norris, New York City; Jerry Gilliland, Wayne; Mike Detzel, Avon Lake; Blair Tavenner, Laurens, S.C.; Bill Boger, Steve Black, Matt Brown, Jeff Williams, Nick Farber, Chriss Hostettler, and Dave Nichols, Columbus.

A few of the Brothers will be "on the road" this quarter travelling with the varsity athletic teams. Craig Taylor, captain, and Greg Romano will try to help the Battling Bucks reach the elusive Big Ten Basketball title while Dennis Eichenger and Andy Norris travel with the Volleyball team and Jim Innocenzi will travel with the swim team.

In intramurals this quarter, our number one team is again favored to win the overall basketball crown. As of this point they stand 3-0 and have beaten two of the top contenders. It appears that they should have no problems repeating as champions.

Ohio Delta also seems to have a leg up on the competition in bowling as they have defeated the top seated team and are still undefeated. Besides these two teams we also have Brothers participating in water polo, volleyball and for the first time, wrestling.

The Brothers have also been established as the pre-meet favorite for the Delta Gamma Sorority "Swim-a-Thon."

Winter quarter rush is well underway and it promises to be an even better quarter than last quarter. Miles Rudder's work as rush chairman is just now showing some results of the hard work he has put in and with some help from the Brothers this pledge class will again be the cream of the crop.

Ohio Wesleyan University Active In Sports

Ohio Alpha begins winter term with a most enthusiastic and large pledge class of 28. The new pledges are: John Reginald, Cuyahoga Falls; Paul Jackson, Cleveland; Steve Gardner, Tom Hoffman, Upper Arlington; Eric Baker, Bucyrus; Tom Blinn, Cincinnati; Jim Brown, Lima; Steve Poe, Shaker Heights; Don Miller, Cleveland Heights; Loren Hosack, Lexington; Ed Thompson, Penlynn, Pa.; Don Kohler, Lancaster, Pa.; Mike Rissell, Greenville, Pa.; Fred Knight, Devon, Pa.; Bruce Firehock, Flushing, N.Y.; Bob Fishman, Great Neck, N.Y.; Mitch Cohn, Roslyn, N.Y.; Ken Neill, Norwich, N.Y.; Dave Wilson, Scarsdale, N.Y.; Joe Angel, Potomac, Md.; Rich Blee, Bethesda, Md.; Jim Giarrusso, Montclair, N.J.; John Mencke, Summit, N.J.; Peter Van Munching, Darien, Conn.; Tom Godsey, Edwardsburg, Mich.; Mike Stone, Evanston, Ill.; Ken Loud, Bristol, Tenn.; and Mike Willman, Los Angeles, Calif.

Marc Engelsman, Pledge Paul Jackson, and Matt Schoengood are active members of the Wesleyan Players. The three will be appearing in an Ohio Wesleyan Theatre Department Production of "Othello."

The Ohio Wesleyan Soccer Team recently finished third in the NCAA College Division III Championships. Phi Psis Jay Francis, Steve Allen, and Pledge Steve Gardner are members of the team. This winter Peter Harnois will be on the Ohio Wesleyan Swim Team and Jeff Foerester will be wrestling for his fourth consecutive year. Jeff is also the captain of this year's varsity squad.

In the world of academics, many are active in various organizations and committees. Phi Psis who are members of departmental boards include: Fred Nelligan and Dan Ferber, geology; Matt Buckley and Dick Pera, history; Jeff Foerester, zoology; and Mike Thompson, zoology and chemistry. Mike Thompson is also an undergraduate fellow and a hall fellow in the chemistry department. Scott Brown was recently inducted into the Phi Society, which is an under-class affiliate of Phi Beta Kappa. Joe Costabile is a member of both the University Calendar Committee and the Resource Priorities Committee. Rob Hickson is president of the Ohio Wesleyan Pre-Law Club, Henry Watras has been named Chairman of the Ohio Wesleyan Television Arts Society, and Dan Wartonick will represent Ohio Wesleyan University at a mock Security Council meeting at Duquesne University. And once again the Phi Psis of Ohio Wesleyan are NUMBER ONE in cumulative grade point average of the fraternities located on the Ohio Wesleyan fraternity hill.

University of Oklahoma "500" Activities Planned

Oklahoma Alpha finished up the fall semester with our annual Christmas Party, held for the second consecutive year with Oklahoma Beta. Everyone had a really smashing time. We also held a Christmas Party for underprivileged kids, where we had Santa Claus flown in by helicopter. This was a truly spectacular sight for all 50 kids present.

We head into the spring semester with two new Brothers. They are Karl Baldischwiler and Jeff Ward. Jeff and Karl are offensive tackles on the National Champion Oklahoma Sooner Football Team. Thus far, they have been a great asset to the house both in rush and in many of the house activities. Soon to join Jeff and Karl as new initiates are the members of our fall pledge class who will be initiated on January 25, 1976. We certainly look forward to welcoming them into the chapter.

Activities planned for this spring include our 57th Annual Founders

It's a good thing that all are Brothers, for 5'10" doesn't seem too tall for the guy between Phi Psi members of the Oklahoma Sooner football team.

Day Ball planned for February 21. We also plan to have Oklahoma Alpha's Phi Psi "500" tricycle race, which promises to be a big success.

In connection with the "500" activities, will be a fund raising drive to help stamp out diabetes. We're hoping to have Roger Staubach, Dallas Cowboy quarterback and head of the Diabetes Fund Raising Program, present at the function.

A rush program has already been planned for the spring and summer. The head rush chairmen are Mark Talley for spring, and Tony Say and David Slief for summer. Rush parties are being tentatively planned to reach our goals for a big pledge class in the future.

We thank all of our alumni and the parents of all the chapter members for the help they gave us this past summer and fall.

Our membership is still growing and we look forward to having a full house again in the very near future.

Oklahoma State University Spring Semester Begins

Our chapter has remained active, hosting a Halloween party in our house for mentally handicapped children from the Hearthstone Nursing Home in Stillwater. We also have entered the annual Spring Sing contest sponsored by the University, in which living groups on campus sing in competition for a trophy. Oklahoma

An overflow crowd of almost 3,000 watched the Delta Zetas win at Oklahoma State's Phi Psi 500.

Beta has also remained active in intramural sports, placing fifth in swimming, reaching third place with both "A" and "B" volleyball teams in their respective divisions, and reaching the quarterfinals of the racquetball competition on the strength of a Jim Austin and Gary Waters doubles combination. The Phi Psi basketball team will be one of the favorites to win all-university honors.

We thank the Brothers of Oklahoma Alpha for hosting the Christmas party for both chapters, and extend our sympathy to any alumni who missed a great party. We would also like to welcome John Wilson, Oklahoma City Freshman and our newest pledge, and congratulate John Wride, the recipient of a scholarship from the Western Oklahoma Chapter of the National Electric Contractors Association for outstanding scholarship in his major.

STEVE PETERSON, Correspondent

University of Oregon New Members

Oregon Alpha is proud to welcome 13 new initiates into the chapter, bringing the total of initiated Brothers since our reorganization to more than 40. These are: John Henderson, Dwight Worthington, Mike Budd, Curtis Kamisugi, John Byers, Dave Ashton, Bob Stires, Mark Guenther, Bill Clark and Jeff Danielson.

We have also just installed our new officers, headed by Bob Hastings, GP; Tom Phelan, VGP; Steve Beard, P; James Whitty, BG; Bruce Teasley, AG; Steve Swift, SG; Lee Kersh, Hod; Ray Byers, Phu; and Bill Ruckman, Hi.

In athletics, the bowlers making several clutch performances, and never yielding to pressure, won the league championship. The two football teams, although very solid, both fell in the playoffs: the first team in the first round, and the second team in the semifinals. The volleyball teams did respectably, with the A-team going into the playoffs. All points tallied at the end of fall term show the Oregon Alphans in third place in intramural standings.

Socially we had a very active term as we managed to function with all of the twelve sororities on the Oregon campus, at least once. With (what should be considered one of the best house dances on record)—2002 A Housedance Oddity! Also, a costume halloween date function. The IID had everything from space garbage collectors to the featured time tunnel and the computer bar.

Despite all the activity, academics still were stressed enough for everyone to pass even the toughest classes respectably.

Again none of this would have been possible without the financial and moral support and guidance of our alumni. To those Brothers we say thanks and remember it's still your chapter, too.

BRUCE TEASLEY, Correspondent

Oregon State University Additional Followers

Informal rush for fall term found Daniel Jean Sause, Concord, Calif., and William Michael Weeks, Coos Bay, Ore., readily anxious to participate in the rebuilding effort at Oregon Beta. Their help will be very much appreciated as we attempt to make the '75-'76 school year a dynamite year for rush.

Homecoming '75 was one of the hottest events Oregon Beta will host this year. Homecoming was entitled the first annual "Oregon Beta Pool Tournament and Barbeque." It was a chance for alumni to get together with the undergraduates, participate in a little competition and get to know each other. Everyone had a good time and is looking forward to the second annual "Oregon Beta Pool Tournament and Barbeque."

Hopeful plans for moving back into the chapter house in the fall '76, are becoming closer to a reality. If the present tenants of the Oregon Beta chapter house do not terminate their lease by fall, they will move out by winter '77, when their lease officially ends.

At the present time Oregon Beta has eight very enthusiastic members and pledges, all of whom have expressed a strong desire to see Oregon Beta of Phi Kappa Psi a strong influence on campus again. With this kind of core to form a foundation, how can we miss!

Pennsylvania State University Continued Strength and Pride

The stable position of Penn Lambda is due largely to our emphasis on a strong selective rush program. Rush chairman Pete Carney has a good outlook and fine program for winter term. He anticipates about six acceptees to replace our graduating seniors, keeping the house at full capacity.

Since last correspondence we have initiated two fine men: James Helms Myers and Thomas Jeffrey Zebrak, both of Greensburg, Pa. Their involvement will certainly prove to be an asset to the lodge.

Although failing to make the playoffs in intramural football for the first time in many years, Phi Psi still expects to finish in the top five overall. Despite losing anchorman Jim Gump to Penn State's varsity bowling team, we continue to lead the league with a record of (24-0). The basketball team, also undefeated, has surged to the league lead after six games. Both teams, confident in championship victories, along with excellent personnel in swimming, wrestling, and racquetball, should increase our ranking during winter term. Hustle and desire have been the keys to success as Penn Lambda rolls on in intramural competition.

Scholarship has remained important to the Brotherhood as we strive for excellence in all aspects of fraternal living. Bob Riegel was awarded this term's Newman Die badge for his 3.75 grade point average. In addition, Tom Kraemer was honored with the Solon E. Summerfield Award.

Terry Scott was recently elected chairman for the eighth annual Phi Psi "500" to be held April 24. Plans to make this the best ever are well underway.

Campus involvement continues as Penn Lambda provides leadership in both Spring Week and the IFC Dance Marathon. Tom Kraemer will serve as overall Spring Week chairman with Bruce Sykes as billboard chairman. Kevin O'Leary, Scott Harman and Don Miller secured positions on the overall committee. For the IFC Dance Marathon, Gene Riechers was appointed Program Chairman.

We'd like to thank all alumni for their support, whether it be serving on corporation, re-establishing the foundation board or returning to the lodge whenever in the State College area. We hope the recently distributed directories aid in communication and help to further unify and involve the Brotherhood.

The general feeling of Penn Lambda is one of great pride as the house continues to be recognized on campus, as well as by its members, for the organization it is . . . a true Brotherhood of men founded for the great joy of serving others.

Purdue University Tremendous Alumni Support

This past fall semester has been our first semester living together since becoming Brothers October 10, and since our recolonization last spring. The spirit of Brotherhood is fresh and high, and we know that it will continue to grow during our spring semester at Purdue University.

Alumni support has been tremendous during the fall as we continued to improve upon the house. A special thanks goes out to John P. Fredrick, '34, and to other members of his class who have enabled us to replace many damaged and badly needed doors in our house. Homecoming was a special event for many of our alumni, and it was especially rewarding for us. A large number of alumni returned to meet the new members and see firsthand the efforts which we have put into rebuilding our chapter and house.

Officers for the spring semester were elected December 1. They are: Mike Muncy, GP; Larry Dusing, VGP; Alan Leewood, P; Scott Haag, AG; Keith Rice, BG; Rick Churbock, SG; Mike Eltzroth, Phu; Randy Buller, Hod; Dave Sukolics, Hi.

As of January our number of pledges totaled 9. They are: Harry L. Davis, III, Chagrin Falls, O.; Bert H. Fell, Jr., Bloomington; Terrence J. Flynn, Gary; Eugene H. Fountain, Griffith; John A. Hillaert, Mishawaka; Steven A. Keck, Mt. Vernon; Vernon E. Petty, Battle Creek, Mich.; William F. Spencer, Kirkwood, Mo.; Kent R. Copeland, Anderson. We shall continue our rush program this spring as we continue to build up our numbers from the present 26 Brothers to the house capacity of about 50.

Social activities this fall have been highlighted by our theme parties. These included a casino party and a "back forties" dance which proved to be very popular with the Brothers and ladies who participated.

The chapter was proud to receive a share of the Alpha Phi Omega service organization blood drive "bleeder trophy." The trophy is given to the housing unit on campus with the highest percentage of students donating blood. We were proud to have 100% participation to earn our share.

In closing, the undergraduate members of Indiana Delta Chapter wish to extend a special welcome to all alumni who would wish to return to our house. We are anxious to meet those who lived here before us, and we are eager to show them the new developing potential now present in our chapter.

University of Rhode Island Successful Fall

We at R.I. Beta have just finished an exciting fall semester and are anxiously awaiting the beginning of the spring semester.

Looking back at last semester, we all feel that Homecoming was indeed a highlight. About 100 alumni and friends joined the Brothers for a really festive time. The homecoming display was created by Bob Stott and Dave "Leonardo da Vinci" Cadorette. Social Chairman Estes Benson deserves a pat on the back for his excellent arrangements.

Also, our fall rush was again very successful. We owe a tip of the hat to Rush Chairman Chuck Cavaretta for his excellent program. The results showed when we took 25 pledges, second highest among 16 fraternities. These bright young men are: Joe Burghardt, Stony Point, N.Y.; Jim Cunha, Rumford; Jim Curran, Carl "Meat" Di Santo, Roland Galvanin, Jay Cannon, Wayne Brockway, and Bob "Mouse" Ferri, Providence; Richard Hubli, Stamford, Conn.; Paul Barry, Bill Englund, Northboro, Mass.; Angele Mazarella, Bristol; Brian Smith, Bow, N.H.; Mike Maguire, Kevin Flynn, Warwick; Einar Gudjohnson, Linden Wold, N.Y.; Gary LeBel, North Smithfield; Stephen Verkade, New London, Conn.; Steve France, Barrington; Steven Colangelo, Hope; Tom Keeley, Newport; John Cri-bari, Scituate; Pete Davis, Orchard Park, N.Y.; Dave Dubinsky, Scarsdale, N.Y.; Alan Cloutier, North Kingston.

We were also proud to initiate Jamie Gilman, Milford, Mass., and Neil Kaufmann, Cranston, this semester.

Sincere thanks go to our Brothers at R.I. Alpha of Brown University for their hospitality on our visits to their house.

New officers for the coming semester include: Social Chairmen John Goding and Joe "Steps" Capaldi. These two are already at work planning our Tenth Anniversary Party and our spring weekend. Dave Cadorette is the steward for the spring, while Walt "No-Nonsense" Augustyn stalks the corridors as house manager. Allan Chiulli is chairman for spring rush and Richard Mollicone is the treasurer.

Nick Capezza and Steven Macchioni have big plans for the Bar Committee. These two should make Friday nights lively at Kingston this spring.

With the prospects of a large, enthusiastic pledge class, several close officers' races and the excitement of being back to school, we at R.I. Beta are looking forward to the coming semester.

Rider College Outstanding Athletes

New Jersey Alpha would like to congratulate two outstanding Phi Psis whose performance in intercollegiate athletics was nothing less than superb. Brother John Timko, a standout for Rider's Soccer team, helped hurl the team to recognition as a powerhouse in the ECC. John was voted by his team and coaches as the MVP for the 1975 season. His other accomplishments are being named to the all Pa., N.J., Del. Soccer team and to the all ECC team. John also served the team as co-captain and his presence will be missed next year as he will graduate in Spring 1976. Clyde Clossen, another Phi Psi standout led Rider's swimmers to an 8-3 season. Clyde is holder of numerous records such as a school record in the 50 yd. freestyle, N.J. state championship meet record in the 400 free relay and swam on the 400 medley relay team that was undefeated during the dual meet season. Clyde also is co-captain of this year's swim team and will compete in the East Coast Conference Championship Feb. 26-28.

Ten new initiates will be installed this spring: Steve Silver, Jim Ball, Marc Creager, Sam Green, Lenny Schwartz, Randy Percocco, Steve Stevens, Dan Rucki, Jay Antonelli and Gary Simmons.

Joe Coccione, chaplain; Dan Morris, steward; Clyde Clossen, assistant steward; Dave Ginfuda, co-social; Terry Leach, co-social; Bob Boderman, co-rush chairman, Mike Kloss, co-rush chairman.

The Brothers unanimously voted to accept John Miland as a social brother from Chi Psi. Congratulations, John.

The University of South Carolina Hard Work Ahead

The Brothers at S.C. Alpha are really going to have to work hard this semester! We need a large pledge class to take the place of the seniors we will lose at graduation. Our new officers seem to be ready to put us to the grinding wheel. They are: Bob Knudsen, GP; Willis Bethea Jr., VGP; Bill Schill, P; John Kornegay, AG; Rick Funk, BG; Tip Robinson, SG; Bert LaBoone, Hod; Gary Matson, Phu; Phil Harkey, Hi. We are expecting much from these new officers.

Congratulations to our new initiates: Bob Benson, Parkersburg, W.Va.; Doug Cornforth, Sidney, N.Y.; Mike Fletcher, Greenville; Conner Harrison, Columbia; Bert LaBoone, Tip Robinson, Easley; and Chris Tofalli, Long Island, N.Y. Also, congratulations are due to Rick Funk for the fine job he did on Tigerburn. It was a great success, with a turnout of about 4,000 people. Thank you Brother Funk.

Tommy Dail also deserves recognition. He was awarded the Solon E. Summerfield Award for the second straight year.

University of Southern California Spring Semester Begins

As the fall semester ends, finals begin. The Fraternity settles down to a quiet roar of fellowship. Those with pressing finals anguish over the lost hours and numerous chapters that they must now complete. No Brother has missed a class for three weeks.

Coffee is made available around the clock, while the television is silenced by the numerous typewriters composing last minute term papers well into the night. Simple meals are prepared, dining is informal. Chapter meeting is held, but it is brief.

Once finals are completed, the chapter disbands for a few days, in order to allow Brothers some time to gather thoughts and ideas about themselves and the new term that is to begin.

Not everything here at USC is as dismal as finals. In fact, spirit is stronger than ever in many different ways. First of all, our fall pledge class was initiated on Jan. 10, 1976, and we welcome our new Brothers into the Greek way of life. Alphabetically they are: Bill Badham, Craig Benson, Gary Cassel, Tom Cecil, Howard Chuchian, Gennaro Cigliano, Carter Dunlap, Mark Foster, Loring Jacobs, Jeff Kingsley, Andy Luchessi, Alfred McCandless, Bill McCuen, Dan Mulvihill, Greg Nick, Gary Poltash, Dave Prickett, Marc Reeder, Ron Reid, Craig Uhl and Craig Watkins. Much credit should go to the two pledge-trainers, Anthony Cigliano and Mike Pryor for doing a commendable job with this group of men.

Our Founders Day celebration dinner was held on Friday, Feb. 20 at Taix restaurant in Hollywood. Many famous Cal Delta alumni were present, and it was another popular success. We were joined by our two neighboring chapters at UCLA and Northridge, for an evening of great food, good drinks and close friends.

Casey Mangin is the 1976 Summerfield Scholarship award winner for this year, while he was also named to the honor roll of Phi Beta Kappa. He will now wear the key along with the mighty shield.

Our new officers were elected before the semester break. Bob Sterns is the new GP, while Anthony Cigliano will repeat as VGP. Armando Acosta is the new BG, and will have to brush-up on his spelling skills. Gordon Chuchian is Sgt. of Arms, Rocky McCandless is the Phu.

Sports is perhaps the largest motivator of spirit this year, and our current fourth place standing (compared to 12th last year) puts us well within reach of the Iron Man trophy. Basketball is set to begin, with a few of the stronger point winning sports to follow (Tennis Doubles, Ping Pong, Softball). With the organization of many sports from within the chapter, the unity is unsurpassed by any other house on campus.

University of Southwestern Louisiana Successful Fall

The Phi Psis enjoyed a fulfilling fall semester this year. Victories in intramural sports and scholastic honors highlighted our term throughout. We received the first place award in the annual Homecoming Pep Rally and third place awards in Homecoming Decorations and "Yell Like Hell." Two of the Brothers, Rick Robert and Kermit Rogers, had the honor of receiving The Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities award for the 1975 year. The Solon E. Summerfield Scholarship Award was bestowed upon Robert Bender for the 1975-1976 academic year.

We are especially pleased with our fall pledges' performance over the semester.

The fall 1975 pledge class for California Delta at Southern California pose for their formal portrait.

Over a period of three short months they have been transformed from thirty-one strangers to a close-knit, spirited group showing great enthusiasm toward their chapter in numerous events. The Greaser's Party, an event planned by the pledges, was an outstanding success and proved to be one of the most enjoyable functions of the semester.

On November 17, elections of new chapter officers were held. The chapter officers for the 1976 spring semester are as follows: Kermit Rogers, GP; Kirk Boudreaux, VGP; Robert Bender, P; Mark Williams, AG; Mike Fouquier, BG; Jim Hodges, BG; Mike Larue, Hi; Scott Alleman, Phu; and Daryl Abadie, Hod. Steve Dewoody was elected the Pledge Educator.

The spring semester promises us many more activities.

Southwest Texas State University Outstanding Awards

Our new slate of officers for the upcoming spring semester are as follows: Gary L. Zila, GP; Donnie Camp, VGP; David Truly, BG; Paul D. Wilford, AG; Steve Hughes, P; Jim Bode, Hod; Robert Whitfil, Hi; and Frank J. Corolla, Phu.

Our chapter is very proud of its turnout for the ELC last month with six Brothers attending this year's conference. The Brothers who attended this year are as follows: Steve Hughes, Don Holt, Frank Corolla, Michael Ward, Robert Ferguson, and Terry Scoggins. They brought back many new and bright ideas for our chapter for the present and future.

This semester brought about many outstanding awards for several of our Brothers. Gary L. Zila received the Outstanding Active award for this last semester, while Steve Hughes received the outstanding leadership recognition from our chapter for the school presentation. David Williams' high GPA linked with his outstanding leadership and work for the Fraternity earned him the Solon Summerfield Award.

Our chapter is becoming well represented on campus now with the election of Brother Don Holt as the new Inter-

Fraternity Council President for the upcoming spring semester.

On February 21, Texas Gamma will hold its annual Founders Day with our guest speaker this year being C. J. Berkman who is the number one badge holder of our chapter. C. J. will be celebrating his tenth anniversary with our chapter and Phi Kappa Psi.

Syracuse University Dance Marathon

New York Beta continued in its prosperous ways throughout the fall semester of 1975. Under the direction of Activities Chairman Wayne White, the Brothers placed major concentration on a campus-wide Halloween Party to raise money for UNICEF. After four weeks of continual advertising, ticket sales, and intense effort, Syracuse Phi Psis threw a super party with a live band from Long Island for over 1,700 costumed students. After the expenses were paid, we donated over $700 to UNICEF. Two other social events of charitable purposes took place in the fall. In early September we held a car wash to raise money for Community Kitchen, and in December we held our annual Christmas party for underprivileged children. All Brothers were involved, and enjoyed the spirit of giving to others.

After an excellent pledge-training program conducted by Rich Bayersdorfer, on November 22, 1975, we initiated ten Brothers: Rich Selikoff, New York; Jonathan Eddy, Rich Hare, Schenectady; Rob Harris, Summit, New Jersey; Paul Jasien-ski, Kenmore; Andrew Chalanick, Auburn; Ken Malloy, Stamford, Conn.; John Drayton, Paoli, Pa.; Laurence Silvi, Morrisville, Pa.; and Kevin Fayle, Buffalo.

The new officers elected for the spring term are: Dave King, GP; Roger Basha, VGP; Dave Houlihan, P; Chris Rahe, AG; Mike Imobersteg, BG; Bob Yamulla, SG; Craig Cook, Hi; Bill Chalanick, Phu; Kevin Fayle, Hod; Chris Rahe, Pledge Trainer; Wayne White and John Hess, Rush Co-chairmen; Joe Alloway and Wuf Liebert, Social Co-chairmen; and Dave Webb, IFC Representative.

Dave Webb has been chosen as coordinator of the 1976 Dance Marathon which will be sponsored by the Greek organizations, Panhellenic Association and the Interfraternity Council. The Dance Marathon was previously sponsored by the Delta Tau Delta fraternity, but they have given up their sponsorship to the two Greek organizations. Many Brothers have joined committees to help the Dance Marathon to be as successful as it has been in the past.

All are psyched for the coming semester, and New York Beta will remain a strong house on the Syracuse Campus.

University of Tennessee Major Plans

Winter quarter began with an unusual span of fair weather here at Tennessee Epsilon and there was an air of good spirits and anticipation for the coming term. First on the agenda was the election of chapter officers, which resulted in the installment of Phillip Joe as GP; Ken Bogart, VGP; Bill Graves, P; Chris Wilkinson, AG; Tom Griffin, BG; John Rae, House Manager; Mark Connell, Social Chairman; and Ronnie Vaughn, Intramural Chairman. Surviving the rigors of a dynamic hell week, we are pleased to announce the initiation of Tom Griffin, Memphis, Tenn. and Joel Alley, Alcoa, Tenn. These two men have brought a strong sense of continuity and drive into our small chapter.

Major plans for this winter call mainly for a concerted effort to refinish the bottom floor of the house to provide a more comfortable climate for parties and an increased living space. Reorganizing, planning, and just getting our ship together is the central focus for this quarter. Hopefully, by spring we will have the necessary organization and tools for a more successful rush program.

On the sporting side of life, our intramural basketball team has great hopes of eliminating the competition this season (with two victories already under our belt, we have gained a good impetus). Displaying the same determination and ignorance of fear shown on the court, the Phi Psis battled the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity in a lengthy, impromptu snowball fight. The combat raged across Melrose Ave., inevitably proving Phi Psi superior in both strategy and endurance. Casualties—two windows and many frozen digits.

Activities this quarter so far have included a lip-smacking rum daquiri party with a fantastic list of flavors. With a snapping cedar wood fire and a full moon in the background, good music, good food, and excellent company all combined to make it a truly memorable occasion. A more unusual pastime that many of the Brothers have become interested in is nocturnal spelunking.

The height of this craziness evolved in a mud party deep in the lower reaches of one of the larger and more extensive caves. Approximately 25 pledges, actives and dates turned out for the event and, surprisingly enough, approximately 25 pledges, actives and dates made it back. It would have made many an old alumnus smile listening to the strong and embulant "high, high, high" echoing back from the crystal stalactites.

All here are looking forward to celebrating Founders Day with the customary formal feedbag. Any Brothers traveling in the area are more than welcome to drop in.

University of Texas Initiate 11

Texas Alpha highlighted its winter social scene with their annual Christmas formal held December 6. The band's name was "Ecstasy," which also reflected the mood of the party.

In the intramural department, Bryan Muecke was put on the top ten managers list for 1975.

New officers elected for the spring semester include: GP, Dan McGurk Wilkerson; VGP, David John Temple; P, Frank Lewis Holaday; BG, Mark Stephen Ohls; and social chairman, Donnell Michael Rhody.

Christmas vacation was ended a little early this year for Texas Alpha as their pledges began their "hell week" Jan. 10. Their work week came to a climax the night of Jan. 15, as they were initiated into this chapter of Phi Kappa Psi. The new Brothers are: Roger Wade Beam, Winston Dumont Grant, Robert McDonnell Gray, Doren Charles Martin, Nathaniel Scott Norman, Royce Evan Oualine, Otis David Phillips, Russell Cody Pruitt, Loyd Loraine Segler, Walter Lee Tippin, and James Gregory Wilson.

Texas Tech University Outstanding Fall Semester

Texas Beta has completed an exceptionally outstanding fall semester, having successfully combined creative social programming, high academic achievements, a popular intramural program, and profitable service projects for the campus and community. We may proudly report that four Brothers had a 4.0 GPA for the fall semester: John Galbraith, Jack Hayslip, Robert McPherson, and Charles Smith. This last semester our academic activities included productive study halls with Alpha Delta Pi and a challenge to the fraternity which previously had the highest chapter GPA.

Our chapter was also widely involved in campus projects. Together with Sigma Kappa, we produced a winning float and were in second place for the Homecoming activities on November 7. Having completed this project, we were involved in such beneficial programs as the Muscular Dystrophy Dance-a-thon and a Christmas Food Drive. Phi Psis impressively had the most participants in the Dance-a-thon with eight couples entered, and were second among all Greek organizations in the amount of money raised, contributing substantially to the $15,000 total. We also successfully co-ordinated the Food Drive December 6, on behalf of the Salvation Army which netted over five thousand pounds of food for the underprivileged. Moreover, the name of Phi Kappa Psi was once again popularly placed before the campus and community when we decided to help the area Camp Fire Girls by unloading cases of candy during their candy sale.

All semester our chapter was leading all campus organizations in participation in intramurals. We did well in most sports and proved strongest in swimming and bowling. Next semester the chapter plans to be strong contenders in all sports.

Chapter elections were held on December 8. The officers for the spring semester are John Young, GP; Paul Jay, VGP; John Hunter, P; Charles Smith, AG; Mike O'Brien, BG; Russell Dobbs, Pledge Trainer; Steve Yates, SG; Ray Billings, Phu; David Underwood, Hi; and John Galbraith, Hod. The priorities for next semester have been set forth and the chapter is expecting another productive term. Initiation is scheduled for January 19. Tentatively, those to be initiated are Mike Foerster, Slaton; Chuck Lokey, David Salmon, Steve Westbrook, Lubbock; Dwayne Roberts, Hobbs, New Mexico.

February 19, our chapter will have J. Kenneth Potter, Vice President, here to help us with our Founders Day Ceremonies. Our alumni are putting in much of their time on this project and for this we are greatly appreciative. Other events scheduled for this semester are a ski retreat on February 27, 28, and 29 to Purgatory, Colorado, and Sing Song competition in March with Kappa Alpha Theta in which we will be trying to keep the Sweepstakes trophy from last year!

The University of Toledo Year of Rebuilding

Hit hard by graduation, the Brothers of Ohio Eta had to begin rebuilding. With plenty of hard work, Phi Kappa Psi has gained 12 new quality members. The newly initiated Brothers are: Dennis Christopher Acuna, Robert Michael Beck, Kevin Michael Corrigan, Robert Dale Fountain, Gary Martin Garvin, Ronald William Helfrich, Michael David Mears, Ronnie Michael Portaro, Matthew James Szymanski, Mark Timothy Tappen, and least and also last Richard Herbert Williams. We have high hopes and much confidence in these men to carry out the quality of our chapter at the University of Toledo.

In sports Ohio Eta finished one game ahead of a 500 season in football, but the Phi Psis were in the thick of things all along. With the beginning of basketball, the Phi Psis have a strong team which should be in the battle for the honors. Representing the University of Toledo swim team, Bob Beck set a new mark in the 200-yard backstroke, the 200-yard individual medley, and the 400-yard medley relay.

On a more serious note, elections rolled around at Ohio Eta once again and the Brothers chose Paul Stressen, VGP; Bruce Scott, BG; Orbit McGill, Hod; Randy Gensler, Phu; and Larry Pickett, SG.

The Brothers congratulate Chuck

"Woody" Laterza, because of his unusual ability and leadership, not his good looks for a change; he was given the Solon E. Summerfield Award by the Brothers of Ohio Eta.

The Brothers also congratulate Bruce Scott for his unselfish support of the University of Toledo as a hot dog vendor.

Valparaiso University Winning Basketball Team

At the close of the fall semester of 1975, the Brothers here at Indiana Epsilon elected new officials for the spring semester. They are: Brian Allodi, GP; Steve Lett, VGP; Chris Jordan, P; Rod Usher, AG; Dan Kristensen, BG; John Rettew, Rush; Mike Olivieri, Pledge Educator; Chris Mack, Hi; Earl Taylor, Hod; and Tom Weilgos, Phu.

As of Jan. 13, the Phi Psi intramural basketball team was leading their league with a 4-0 record. Having already defeated three of the four toughest teams, the squad is looking forward to an undefeated record. Players returning from last year's squad are Jim Edie, Dave Graceley, Mike Russert, and Rod Usher. Newcomers Keith Gilliland, Elton Johnston and John Townsend have strengthened the team immensely.

With spring pledging fast approaching, we have been very busy rushing freshmen. We are expecting a large turnout for our preference dinner and we are hoping for a good pledge class.

Vanderbilt University Busy in All Aspects

Tennessee Delta chapter of Phi Kappa Psi in ceremonies held Nov. 16, 1975, has initiated: Joseph Paul Higham, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Ira Augustus Hunt III, McLean, Va.; Terry Galen Palmberg, Arlington Heights, Ill.; Richard Eugene Shubert Jr., Memphis; John Forbes Thomas, Chapel Hill, N.C.

During the last regular meeting of the fall semester, the following Brothers were elected to offices for the spring semester: GP, Paul Nicholson Horne; VGP, David Whitaker Hughes; P, Earle Plain Martin III; PE, William Raymond Herod; HM, Robert Wayne McLaughlin; BG, Robert Frank Rumble; Hod, James Elton Kropp; Phu, Edward George Riley; Hi, Thomas A. S. Wyeth; Asst. P, Richard Bennett Hensler; Asst. VGP, Malcolm Franklin Smith II; IM Rep., John Sherman Shaw III and Richard Bennett Hensler; IFC Rep., Gregory Bryan Duncan; SG, Thomas McKean Derr.

The fall semester was a very active one in all aspects of fraternal concern. The IM program showed renewed interest, while Brothers' involvement in campus activities was at an all-time high. Within the Fraternity—constitutional reform and strong leadership by the Governing committee were indicative of the spirit which pervades the chapter.

With the beginning of the spring semester, two seniors graduated after the fall semester, Brent Edward Bertke and Oliver Abel IV. They will be sorely missed by the chapter. We were also saddened to learn of sophomore Rick Maycumber's transfer to SMU, although we wish these Brothers the best of luck in their future endeavors.

We are pleased to announce the election of Stewart C. Crisler by the active chapter as the Solon E. Summerfield Award winner for 1975-76. "Stu" is a Business Administration-Accounting major from Memphis, Tenn. and was a former treasurer of Tennessee Delta. Our congratulations go out to him.

Looking forward to the coming months, Phi Psi will field very competitive teams in IM basketball and softball. As always, spring break is already anticipated as many Brothers plan trips together. And of course the social highlights include Founders Day and the spring formal. The Brotherhood is charged with the spirit of the just-completed rush and is looking forward to pledge education. Undoubtedly, this spirit holds in store a very productive spring semester.

University of Virginia New Members

Virginia Alpha initiated 11 new Brothers on September 14. They are Thomas Everarde Calk, Atlanta, Ga.; Edwin Martin Caravati, Richmond; Frank Lynn Garrett Jr., Richard Harvey Sugg, John Webster Paul, Alexandria; Stephen Esson Ham, Fair Haven, N.J.; Greg Stephen Hooe, Fredericksburg; Yoshikado Koyama, Vienna; James Joseph Mitchell Jr., Deal, N.J.; Scott Shoaf Rainey, Lynchburg; and Theodore Robert Welti, Leesburg, Va.

House officers this fall were Jim Moloney, GP; John Milford, VGP; Tom Watkins, P; Steve Middleton, Social Chairman; Reese Owens, Rush Chairman; Larry Mullen, BG; Jay Stone, Goat Mother; Fred Finney and Jay Stone, Kitchen Managers; Russell Marsh, Hi; Steve Ratliff, Phu; and Bob Galt, Hod.

This fall we resumed publication of our alumni newsletter, "The Missing Link," which hadn't appeared in, perhaps, fifteen years. On November 8, the house had a cocktail party for the alumni, and parents of the members after the East Carolina University game on homecoming weekend. The party was an unqualified success as some of the Brothers present were returning to the house for the first time in a decade or two.

Due to the generosity of old Brothers, we were able to cover the costs of publication of the newsletter and a large portion of the expense of the cocktail party. We will continue publication in the future, and hopefully, we will be able to develop greater rapport with our alumni.

Matt Bacharach is making a run on his third consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference championship in the 150 pound wrestling class this winter. Tom Watkins and Nick Trotter played for the Virginia Rugby Club this fall, and this spring Scott Rainey will pitch for the Virginia baseball team. Our intramural teams have enjoyed mixed and modest success.

The Brothers express their thanks for the hospitality shown them on road trips to Vanderbilt, South Carolina, and Washington and Lee. Along the same vein of thought, we would like to know the whereabouts of our roving chapter consultant, Bob Wolter. He slipped out of our reception for him so discreetly that we didn't notice his absence. Is the man well?

With the permission of the University department of Buildings and Grounds, we have put our pledge class to work on the large area in front of our house known as Mad Bowl. For our mid-winter weekend, we intend to create a reenactment of the Johnstown Flood which obliterated several towns in Pennsylvania shortly before the turn of the century. Participants must provide their own means of flotation and intoxication. The party is being held at night, but we hope to get some good shots of the action when we pull the plug on the bowl. It is approximately three hundred feet long by two hundred feet wide, by fifteen feet in depth. The water is presently one foot deep and rising at a predicted rate of two feet per diem. Splash-over is predicted for midnight on Saturday, Jan. 31.

Wabash College Christmas Party

The fall semester has been a hectic one for Indiana Gamma and with finals to close it out we wait with anticipation toward the spring semester.

The new officers elected for the spring semester are: Dan Broughton, GP; Ray Klajajic, VGP; Steve Hahn, BG; Pat Hale, Hod; Chris Beebe, Phu; Ben Hoff, Hi.

In intercollegiate sports, freshmen Mike O'Quin and Rob Mikesell lettered in varsity football and cross country, respectively. Rick Kunc gained his numerals in varsity football and Chris Beebe was named to the all-conference team in soccer. On the intramural level, the Brothers and pledges combined forces to obtain second place in the campus bridge tournament, while placing fifth in football and sixth in volleyball.

The semester ended with a Christmas party and dinner for about 20 underprivileged boys and girls from town. With the help of several of the faculty members and college president Seymour entertaining the kids with his magic tricks, it turned out to be a fun time topped off by a visit from Santa, pledge Mike O'Quin, who had gifts for all the kids. Also, a number of the Brothers and pledges went caroling at two local nursing homes.

Finally, congratulations to Mike Ayala, who has been accepted to medical school in Guadalajara, Mexico, and Wes Rowe, who was recently married.

University of Washington Symbol of Washington Brotherhood Returns

November 15 marked the return of the Washington Alpha scholarship chair. After 25 years of being stolen, misplaced, mistreated, and abused, it has found its final resting place. Forever the chair will stay at Washington Alpha. This chair was initially given to the chapter in District VI, which maintained the highest scholastic average for the year. This practice was followed until 1952, when the cost of transportation of the chair from chapter to chapter became prohibitive.

Since that time, other chapters have seen fit to believe erroneously that they had a claim to our chair. Most recently, Oregon Alpha, having their chapter house occupied by another fraternity, were invited to our chapter to stay during a football contest between our two schools. In return for our gesture of brotherhood, our chair returned to Eugene. Since that time, the chair has visited California Eta but was returned to Oregon Alpha this summer. After repeated demands for return of our property, which were neglected, we felt it was necessary to take matters into our own hands. For this reason, last fall quarter two Brothers and three pledges returned to Oregon to claim our chair.

From that time until now, the Brothers and alumni have contributed over $150.00 to repair the damage done to the chair. At the present time the chair is in full repair but for the scroll which adorned the left back panel of the chair. Oregon Alpha has refused to send our scroll in a futile attempt to maintain claim to our chair.

On a more normal informational side, we have three new pledges to recognize; Fred Kimborowicz and Brent Smith from Seattle, and Dave Bolson whose hometown is Bellevue.

On January 19, Washington Alpha initiated 10 pledges into the mysteries of Phi Kappa Psi. They were: Marty Wyckoff, Joe Straight, Brian Geppert, Scott Lane, David Strack, Doug Greiert, Peter Zink, Keene Crews, Greg Taylor and Gilbert Salvador.

In summation, we have managed over fall quarter to instill in our new freshmen a feeling of brotherhood and responsibility toward the Fraternity. We look forward to visits from other chapters across the country and as always appreciate names of prospective pledges to our chapter.

Washington and Jefferson College Initiate 17 Men

John Merris Noble, Dubois; Richard James Pinelli, Johnstown; Raymond John Roccon, Washington; Gary Arthur Silverman, Youngstown, Ohio; Barry Edward Troyan, Johnstown; Thomas John Weir, Wexford.

Gerald Henry Cerrone has just completed pledging and help week for the fall semester. This is the first time one person has successfully completed a program of this type. Congratulations are in order to Gerry, Pledge Master Blane Volovich '74, and Help Week Chairman Vance Richmond. With the addition of Gerry this brings our Chapter total to 48.

In Intercollegiate Athletics, the Washington and Jefferson wrestling team is being represented by eight Brothers. They are: Bob Dashbach '75, 118 pound All-American; Angelo Morascyzk '74, 134 lb.; Larry Parker '75, 142 lb.; Gerry Cerrone, 158 lb.; John Noble '75, 177 lb.; Ted Cuneo, 190 lb.; Jim Manion '75, 190 lb.; and Mark Scinico at heavyweight. Tom Drakely '74, is participating on the Washington and Jefferson basketball squad.

The Brothers of the Mother Chapter are now planning for one of our best rush efforts ever. During the month of January our program will include: A ski trip to Seven Springs, several ice skating parties, three band parties, and an excursion to Wild, Wonderful, Wheeling, West Virginia. Our "Rush Week" program will include a Beef 'n Beer party and Steeler highlight films with commentary by John Kolb, Jim Clack, and Steve Furness of the World Champion Pittsburgh Steelers. The Brothers are eagerly looking forward to another successful rush.

Lee P. Johns '73 has been awarded the Solon E. Summerfield Scholarship Award. Lee has been the BG for the past three years and participated on the W. & J. varsity football squad for the past four seasons. Lee plans to attend Medical School in the fall.

During the months of January and February, all alumni and Brothers are welcome to attend our Rush Functions.

Washington and Lee University 1000th Initiate

Once again, the Virginia Beta Phi Psis have succeeded in accomplishing another strong fall rush. Now, pledge training is progressing well under the able direction of Paul Larkin and Sal Abbruzzese as our chapter surpasses the 1000th initiate mark in February.

New pledges are Mike Bamat, Kane, Pa.; Jeff Beneville, West Nyack, N.Y.; Lowell Buckner, Beaumont, Tex.; Paul Daugherty, Andy Fitzgerald, Bruce Howard, Potomac, Md.; Mike Gallagher, Augusta, Ga.; John Gula, Manhasset, N.Y.; Henry Hairston, Chatham; Steve Jones, Dundalk, Md.; Randy Kunkel, Baltimore, Md.; Bob Marvin, Rhinebeck, N.Y.; Vic Mitchell, North Haven, Conn.; Bob Rogers, Columbus, N.J.; Rob Smith, Elmira, N.Y.; and Mike Wenke, Glenolden, Pa.

The basketball season is underway at Washington and Lee. The Generals are led by Bob Forlenza, Mickey Knapp, Pat Dennis and Mike Wenke. Kim Crytzer, captain of the wrestling team, is thus far undefeated in competition this season.

The newly elected officers for the semester are Steve DiBiagio, GP; Mickey Knapp, VGP; John Buckthal, P; John Kingston, BG; and Kevin Rhoads, Social Chairman.

Our chapter has maintained a social life unmatched on the Washington and Lee campus with several combo and grain parties. During Homecoming Weekend, among the visiting alumni were Bob Frost, John Wolfe and Norm Garbisch, who spirited the grads with wild exuberance. The fall program culminated in our annual formal Christmas party during which Santa Claus, champagne and merriment mixed well.

We anticipate an eventful year—athletically, socially and academically, and look forward to welcoming old friends for the second annual alumni weekend taking place May 7 and 8.

West Virginia University The Future Is Now

With feelings of accomplishment and prosperity from the past semester, the Brothers of West Virginia Alpha approach the coming term with resolute optimism. Under the leadership of Robert Bird, GP; Timothy Miller, VGP; Charles Linaburg, AG; Timothy Whalen, BG; Wayne Hall, P; Eugene Tuckwiller III, Hi; John Brizzi, Phu; and John Barron, Hod, we hope to perpetuate the ideals of the Fraternity.

Twenty-two men joined the realm of Phi Kappa Psi on February 21, 1976. Those initiated were: Jeffery Stevens, Patrick Whalen, Bridgeport; Michael Waldeck, Scott Wilcher, Charleston; Jeff Carmichael, Brian Hall, Robert Minehart Jr., Clay Wymer, Clarksburg; Frank Morrison, Frank; Ed Peet, Frederick, Md.; Robert Visotcky, Garfield, N.J.; Alan Bonner, Fredrick Fitzhugh, Richard Gallagher, Rory Galloway, George Warner Jr. Thomas Wiley, John Wilson Jr., Morgantown; John Morris, New Martinsville; Grant Zech, Parkersburg; Gregory Veach, Petersburg; and Rodney Hannah, Valley Head.

In the intramural department, Phi Kappa Psi began the semester 75 points ahead of last year's point total at this same time, as we make a strong bid for an unprecedented fourth consecutive intramural championship.

Several Brothers deserve mention for both on-campus and fraternal contributions. George "Buffy" Warner has been accepted into WVU's College of Law. Robert Bird is now a member of Mountain, a ranking men's honorary. In scholastic honoraries, the following Brothers contribute to membership: Phil Stevens, Mike Waldeck, Helvetia (sophomore honorary); Eugene Tuckwiller III, Order of the Grail (junior honorary); and Charles Guy and David Morris, Sphinx (senior honorary). Hoping to work for student betterment through the political system of student government are Michael Hopkins, candidate for student body president, and Richard Pill and Junior Taylor, candidates for Athletic Council. Douglas Schetzel, Archon for the district, attended the Executive Council in Denver. He returned with much praise for those involved in the Council and much knowledge to help better the Fraternity.

Rush week was climaxed January 25, when 22 young men took the ceremonial run up the hill. Rush Chairman Ed Riley did an excellent job, the result of which are the following pledges: James Burns, Bricktown, N.J.; Dave Faris, Bridgeport; Jeffery Wendell, Cameron; Steve Cook, Jeff Furr, Mike Goff, Stephen Harper, Charleston; Rick Dexter, Cleveland, Ohio; Jeffery George, Elizabeth; John Giamalis, Glastonbury, Conn.; Richard Roberts, Greenwood, Ind.; Greg Lehman, Kingwood; Tim Cool, Morgantown; Michael Aldish, Muncy, Pa.; Craig Krummrich, New Martinsville; Dean Schwartz, Steven Wilson, Parkersburg; Robert Spears Jr., Point Pleasant; Glenn Galko, Chuck Haller, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Daniel Schwalm, Rebuck, Pa.; and Joseph Constante, Smithtown.

Since the death of Brother Carroll Boyd Shingleton III, '75, contributions to the Leukemia Society of America have been urged and appreciated. Future contributions may be mailed to: Phi Kappa Psi Leukemia Fund, c/o West Virginia Alpha, 780 Spruce Street, Morgantown, W. Va. 26505.

As always, West Virginia Alpha extends an invitation to all Brothers—whether they desire a bed, a meal, or simply the warmth of true Brotherhood.

Wittenberg University New Brothers—New Officers

With the conclusion of the fall pledge program, the Brothers of Ohio Beta have initiated three new men (only sophomores may pledge fall term). They are Carl Philip Berwaldt, Painesville; David Carlton Mabry, Lexington, Ky.; Thomas Raymond Williams, Rochester, N.Y.

Fall term also proved to be rewarding in the area of athletics. The intramural football team captured, for an unprecedented 15th year in a row, the All-Campus Football trophy.

Participating in varsity athletics were: Mike Drenan, who started at defensive tackle for the NCAA Division III National Football champions, the Wittenberg Tigers. Scott Wolfanger, Don Beck and Keith "Yogi" Brown were all vital mainstays of the soccer team with Scott receiving most valuable player, best defensive player, All-Ohio Conference, and Honorable-mention all state awards. Don received the most improved player award. Mike Clohossey was a member of the Cross-Country team. Participating in winter sports are Bob Schmidt and Dave Rudov on the swim team.

With financial help from the mothers club, the house recreation and TV room has been completed and was named the "Chapter Room." Other major house improvements include a fire prevention system in the kitchen.

Rush chairman Gene Simone and his committee have been working diligently for many weeks getting ready for winter term rush and they are confident that Ohio Beta will once again have a fine selection of pledges.

Ohio Beta extends a warm welcome to Ken Benne, our new chapter advisor who replaces the retired Dr. Robert Remsberg after many years of faithful service to Ohio Beta.

University of Arizona Looking Up

Thanks to a recent visit by Chapter Consultant Carter Noonan, things are really moving here at Arizona Alpha. Carter gave us the idea of "dorm-storming"—that is, talking to men in the dorms before the actual rush week starts. He also introduced a new concept in pledge education. We have now incorporated his modular system of education into our pledge program.

Last November we activated six members. They are: Michael Belcher, Valley Springs, Cal.; Robert Hopper, Cerritos, Cal.; Stanley Kiebus, Jersey City, N.J.; Craig Lefferts, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Terry Lorenz, Denver, Colo.; and Dean Yee of Topeka, Kan. We also had elections that month and our new officers are: Richard Christ, GP; David Sonborne, VGP; Michael Molina, AG; Michael Belcher, BG; Dean Yee, P.

Nine of our members attended the ELC-DC at UCLA, where we all learned much about the Fraternity and its operations.

At this time we hold a title at U of A that we hope to retain for a long time and for which we hope to be famous. That is the title of having the highest grade point average of all fraternities on campus. Our scholarship committee is very pleased, to say the least.

Last semester we played intramural football (1-4), basketball (2-4), and badminton (fourth at U of A). Although we did not do too well in these sports, our director of athletics, Stan Kiebus, is very optimistic about the sports this semester, which include softball, tennis and golf.

We have many events planned for spring semester, including Founders Day Ceremonies, service projects, social functions, continuous rushing, possibly our own house, the planning of a Phi Psi 500, so the semester should prove to be a very fruitful and rewarding one.

We are still working hard toward the goal of chartering and we're all becoming more and more excited as that day approaches. We hope to see many of the Brothers at the GAC in Washington, D.C. this August.

MICHAEL MOLINA, Correspondent

University of Georgia Academics and Community Service

Georgia Alpha is proud to say it is well on the road toward accomplishing the requirements of chartering. The colony has shocked the campus its first quarter here this year by jumping to the top of the fraternities in grade point averages. Our 3.184 average fulfilled the requirement of meeting the men's overall grade average. Colonization is looking up with 11 active members and more promising pledges. We have an all out open rush scheduled for January in hopes of extending our numbers to 25 by the end of the month.

Our colony is offering an alternative to the Greek system on campus. We emphasize academics and community service, which we believe to be the best way to keep Phi Psi ahead of the other fraternities on campus. The colony wants high standards established for the Fraternity in order to maintain the Phi Psi tradition.

During December the Alumni Association and the colony had a Christmas party. The party was held at the home of an alumnus. During the course of the party the alumni and Brothers became better acquainted and a stronger working relationship was established. We hope our relationship will continue to strengthen through more joint activities. Our colony is proud of the assistance given by its Alumni Association.

Beginning winter quarter, the colony is planning several activities. We are competing in basketball intramurals. Our first rush party will be held in January. Hopefully the party will enable us to become better acquainted with the rushees. Also coming up is a meeting with our Alumni Association.

The Brothers are working hard for our chartering requirements, and our goal is set for April 25. We sincerely wish to thank Carter Noonan and Bob Wolter, Chapter Consultants; Jim Summers, IFC President; Bruce Bailey, Alumni Advisor; and all the talented people that have helped Georgia Alpha Colony organize a strong united brotherhood.

CHIP BAILEY, Correspondent

University of Florida Go for Chartering

Florida Beta Colony is pleased to report the initiation of its first pledge class. Our pledges are: Jay Gould, Hopewell, Va.; Doug Young, Sarasota; Joe Maseda, Tampa; John Leighton, Burlington, N.C.; and Richard Wayne, Belleair Beach.

The colony moved closer to our goal date for chartering, May 8, with the establishment of an alumni house corporation and the selection of a faculty advisor. Alumni corporation members are Robert Cook, Tennessee Delta, and Tim Brodeur, Phillip Werndli, Jefferson C. Salter, Brad Williams, Lloyd Chesney, and Richard Green of the original Florida Beta Chapter. Our faculty advisor is Dr. Stuart Schwartz.

The colony elected officers October 13, 1975. These officers, who will serve until chartering, are Harry Light, GP; Randal Argabrite, P; Garry Matlow, AG-BG; Karl Kern, Rush Chairman; Steve Favalaro, Activities Chairman; Charlie Weniger, Alumni Relations Chairman; and Tim O'Brien, Fraternity Educator.

Colony Brothers served as ushers at the John Marshall Bar Association skits and as waiters at the Florida Blue Key leadership fraternity banquet during Florida's homecoming in October.

We attended a colony retreat January 10-11 in Welaka, Fla. The retreat included workshops on rush, short- and long-range planning, and bylaws. The sessions were very productive and members came away with a stronger brotherhood and increased enthusiasm. Guest speakers were Robert Burrell, dean for student services, and two men from Kappa Sigma Fraternity. They related Kappa Sigma's experiences in re-establishing a chapter at the University of Florida.

The colony Brothers have decided to establish a minimum grade point average requirement of 2.7 on a scale of 4.0. The Brothers feel that stressing scholarship is the best way to make Phi Kappa Psi a permanent and important establishment on the Florida campus.

GARRY R. MATLOW, Correspondent

University of New Mexico Looking Forward

The New Mexico Beta Colony has completed the fall '75 semester with all Brothers in high spirits and looking forward eagerly to spring '76 formal rush. Our rush chairman is working hard on rush tactics in hope of greatly enlarging membership.

We finished the '75 fall semester by participating in a formal dance with Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity and with Phi Mu and Alpha Delta Pi sororities. The dance was a great success and provided a welcome source of relaxation for all Brothers attending.

The colony has just completed elections for spring semester and new officers are: Jeff McCampbell, GP; Jeff Erickson, P; Dave Lillie, AG; and John Gold, BG. Outgoing officers Brother Duncan Flora, president, and Brother Bruce Ross, treasurer, are to be congratulated for serving admirably in their positions for the last three semesters.

Brother Skip Dobson, social committee chairman, is currently working on plans for an alumni party to be held near the end of February.

We have recently begun volunteer work programs aimed at helping with city wide distribution of material for the Albuquerque Arts Council and also helping the staff of Zimmerman Library reduce their backlog of uncatalogued books.

Virginia Poly Institute Newest Colony

Greetings from the Virginia Zeta Colony! Our colony got its kickoff on Sunday, October 19 with the initiation of 15 members. Initiated were: Zane Scott, Arthur Turner, Phil Hulsey, Kenneth Roller, Mark Scott, Rick Hartman, Greg Fulton, Bob Rector, Bob Wagner, Ken Huber, Tom Johnson, Dennis (Pokey) Pence, Bill Reedy, Alan Livingstone, and Bob Kaste. Many thanks to Dave Ostroth, Guy

Minardi, and Bob Wolter.

Since that initiation the colony has been busy. Zane Scott was appointed to serve as co-ordinator until elections could be held. Five standing committees were organized and they began their work. On November 6, elections were held and the following slate of colony officers was elected: Arthur Turner, President; Dennis Pence, Vice-President; Ken Roller, Treasurer; and Zane Scott, Secretary.

Colony activities have included: placing third with our entry in the Ugly Man on Campus fund drive, a successful social with Phi Mu sorority, attendance by Mark Scott, Alan Livingstone and Phil Hulsey at the ELC/DC held at West Virginia University, and participation in the Virginia Tech Bloodmobile. The colony is presently considering the proposed Colony Constitution drafted by Ken Huber. Arthur Turner has been representing the colony at all IFC meetings. The Brothers are holding an informal rush dinner on January 16, and plan to initiate five to ten more members within the next month. Dennis Pence is responsible for the design and production of our stationery and will be coming out with a color print this week. The colony has established a dues system and we will seek formal IFC recognition with the adoption of our constitution. Each new week brings progress as the colony grows stronger and stronger.

Alumni Associations and Clubs

Atlanta Alumni Association

The Atlanta Alumni Association closed out 1975 with the holiday celebration of our first annual Christmas Party. Bud Russell, Ala. Alpha '65, was kind enough to allow us the use of his townhouse, and vast amounts of eggnog, champagne punch and food were consumed during the course of the evening. Many new faces showed up to join in the brotherhood and social activities, including a contingent of Brothers from the Georgia Alpha Colony.

The Association is very pleased with the progress being made by the Georgia Alpha Colony. Following a complete reorganization this past October, the colony members have made great strides in working towards their goal of a Fall '76 chartering date. We will continue to help the colony out in any way we can, and plans call for several joint functions to be held during the upcoming months.

A Georgia Alumni Directory listing the names and addresses of all Georgia Phi Psis was recently published by the Association. If you have recently moved to Georgia, or have failed to receive your copy by now, then please contact us. We are sure that you will find this directory both interesting and informative.

A monthly Phi Psi Luncheon has been rejuvenated for all those alumni living in the metro Atlanta area. It is held on the first Friday of the month at the Fairfield Inn located in the Marriott Hotel in downtown Atlanta. There is a reserved section set aside for Phi Psi, and the luncheon begins at 12:00 noon. Free parking is available from the Marriott. Our thanks especially to Brother Dick Stormont, N.Y. Alpha '55, who is general manager of the hotel and has been a great help in setting up the arrangements for our monthly luncheon.

TIMOTHY J. HEUP, Correspondent

Chicago Alumni Association

Still only $2.00. Dues for the 1976 year of activity for the Chicagoland Alumni Association are now payable and are still only $2.00. This will be the Centennial Year for our nation and your Association will be sending delegates to the Grand Arch Council to be held in Washington, D.C. Notices for Founders Day and the annual Golf Outing will be more expensive but we can stay solvent with your help. Send your dues now to your Treasurer, Thomas Whiting, American Mart Corporation, 666 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60611.

Two of the fine programs that your Association is able to support with your help are the Golden Council and Silver Council of Phi Kappa Psi. These groups are steadily growing. All Brothers in good standing who have been initiated members for 50 years or more are eligible for the Golden Council. Those members initiated for 25 years or more are eligible for the Silver Council. The Chicagoland Alumni Association makes these awards on behalf of the National Fraternity. Let your secretary know when you qualify.

Last summer, Don Buske, Illinois Delta, very quietly pulled up stakes, sold his home in Kenilworth and slipped away to Grand Rapids, Michigan. We missed you Don, but we didn't know where you had gone.

Just in time for the new year, the firm of Wauterlek and Brown announced the promotion of Benjamin Waldie Jr. to Assistant Vice President. Ben is an Illinois Delta Brother.

All of us can be proud of the winning Phi Psi team at the Westmoreland Country Club Interfraternity Golf Tourney on October 5. This contest was organized over 13 years ago by Merrill "Boze" Pritchard and has been played annually ever since. The original group of Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Chi and Beta Theta Pi have expanded until in 1975, there were 19 fraternities represented. The Phi Psi team of Tom Price, Indiana Delta; Lee Hatch, Illinois Alpha; Al Symonds, Va. Beta; Doug Cook, Illinois Alpha, and Fred Goss, Illinois Delta, won the Best Ball contest with 13½ points out of a possible 14. Beta was second and Phi Gam was third. Well done men, we'll expect you at the 1976 Closed Invitational.

Founders Day was celebrated by a banquet held at the Golden Autumn restaurant, 416 Mannheim Road in Bellwood, close to O'Hare field. Association members gathered to hear reports from undergraduate members of the chapters at Illinois, Northwestern and Valparaiso, make Silver and Gold Council awards, elect officers and hear news from the National Office.

FRANK S. WHITING JR., Correspondent

Detroit Alumni Association

The Detroit Alumni Association finished off a successful 1975 by holding its traditional Christmas Cocktail Party. Again this year, the get-together took place at Hyatt Eby's and, as always, there was a packed house.

Earlier in the year, the Association's Board of Governors were invited by Quentin Sickels to enjoy a taste of the good life. We spent an enjoyable afternoon sailing his 41 ft. yacht, Ericson, around Lake St. Clair and capped off the day with dinner at the Bay View Yacht Club.

The Association, in a unique colonizing venture, is sending Bob Riess to establish a Saudi Arabian chapter. Giffels & Associates, Bob's employer, has generously agreed to underwrite the venture. Good luck, Bob.

Plans are progressing for our Founders Day banquet. This year it will be held at a new location—the Pontiac-Bloomfield Sheraton Motor Inn. The new officers for 1976, which will be announced at the banquet are: Bob Colter, Indiana Delta, President; Jack Klein, Michigan Alpha, Vice President; John Rexford, Michigan Alpha, Treasurer; Ken Wright, Michigan Alpha, Secretary.

The monthly luncheons have attracted a new regular attending member—Bob Wilkinson, Indiana Delta, who has recently moved into town. The luncheons are held on the first Wednesday of the month at the University Club. Join us if you can.

JACK KLEIN, Correspondent

Findlay Alumni Association

On Thursday, December 11, 1975, the Findlay Alumni Association had a Christmas dinner party. In attendance were 30 alumni, wives and undergraduates. The chapters represented by alumni were: Ohio Alpha, Ohio Delta, Ohio Epsilon, Ohio Zeta, Ohio Eta, Pennsylvania Beta, Indiana Alpha, and Tennessee Delta. The undergraduates were from Ohio Zeta and Pennsylvania Beta.

Brother Walter Mueller, President, was in charge of the meeting. In addition to the good food and fellowship, we were entertained by a local group of musicians who played excellent "Blue-grass" music.

The planning committee consisted of the President, Secretary, and Brother

Charlie Brown. A Founders Day dinner and celebration was announced for February. We hope to see more Findlay area alumni at that time.

HILLIS B. SCHIEBER, Correspondent

Kansas City Alumni Association

The Kansas City Alumni Association's fall and winter calendar of activities has been packed with numerous events. The mini-migration to the Kansas University Campus for the annual MU-KU football game was a terrific success. A bus was rented and approximately 44 Phi Psi alumni and friends traveled the one hour trip in good spirits. We ate lunch at the Phi Psi chapter house in Lawrence and attended the game which was won by K.U.

Our next activity was the annual Christman Stag held high above Kansas City, Kansas in the Terrace Club. About 50 Brothers braved the bitterly cold day to attend the cocktail party and join in wishing everyone a Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year.

To start the New Year off, we will have the traditional Founders Day Banquet on Feb. 20, at the Plaza III Restaurant on the famous Country Club Plaza. We have lowered the price of the meal to undergraduates and are expecting a rousing turnout for the banquet. Competition is fierce between the three chapters in the area for the singing contest, which will precede our keynote speaker, Congressman Bill Randall, an outstanding legislator and Phi Psi.

A new slate of officers for the year will also be elected at this time. In reflection of that fact, I would like to take the time to thank our President for the 1975 year, Tracy Leonard, for an outstanding job. He has sacrificed a lot of personal time to insure a strong year for the Kansas City Alumni Chapter. Good job, Tracy.

TOM WEHRLE, Correspondent

Northridge Alumni Association

The Northridge Alumni Association is currently hard at work building a strong organization for all interested Brothers in the San Fernando Valley. Our goal during this past year has been one of increasing membership and helping to support the California Theta chapter with their activities. The spring semester will include the Association's first Founders Day observance.

The Northridge Alumni Association conducts regular monthly meetings at the Howard Johnson Restaurant in Northridge on the first Tuesday evening of each month at 7:30 p.m. We hope that any interested Alumni will attend and take part in the fellowship.

JOHN CICCARELLI and GARRETT STOVER, Correspondents

Omaha Alumni Association

If nothing else can be said, we can bring moisture when we schedule a Phi Psi alumni party in the Omaha-area! Our traditional Friday after Thanksgiving party was run this year by Vice-President Tom Hoarty following a snow storm. About 50 people bellied up to the bar at the Nebraska Beta Lodge and enjoyed cocktails and snacks from eight-thirty until after one. This year the party was particularly enlivened by the arrival of a fine contingent of Iowa State undergraduates and alumni who entertained us with song and story. The usual stalwarts crowded around the bar for a very pleasant evening.

Earlier in the month our association represented by Paul LaPuzza, Urban Rohr, Michael Sheridan, S.J., Neil Cahill, S.J. and Ted Urban helped host the District V E.L.C. at the Creighton campus. We were proud to cast a vote for Richard Nelson as he became the first Creighton man to become an Archon. We also enjoyed hosting Ken Potter, Phil Davidson, Bob Blake and Carl Bennett as Section leaders at this conference. It's nice to have National Officers visit us in the hinterlands!

I wish to profoundly thank the Creighton chapter for the lovely plaque given to me at their initiation and tenth anniversary banquet. I was deeply moved and couldn't express my thanks adequately that night.

TED URBAN, Correspondent

Rockford Alumni Association

Since this is the Bicentennial year for the whole U.S.A., it stands to reason that this year's GAC in Washington, D.C. will be a fine experience. Our alumni association should be represented so plan to make it at the end of August. Let your secretary know so that he can provide you with the official credentials. Make your own reservations as outlined in THE SHIELD and join the other Phi Psis there.

For those who missed the Founders Day Banquet, it was a fun time. We reported news of an attempt to establish a new chapter at the University of Wisconsin and made some Silver Council awards. The Silver Council is composed of those Brothers in good standing who have been initiated for at least 25 years. If you will count back to the time when you were initiated, you could be surprised.

One of the things that you can do as an alumnus to help the undergraduates is to locate good rush prospects for our chapters. Whenever you hear of a good prospect, send his name, address and telephone number to the chapter at the school in which he is enrolling. Or, call your secretary at 397-6600 and give him the same information. We can get it to the right place.

NELSON SMITH, Correspondent

Southern California Alumni Association

The Southern California Alumni Association is continuing to hold its monthly luncheons on the last Thursday of the month at Taix Restaurant, 1911 West Sunset Boulevard, Los Angeles, Calif. All of those who attend the luncheons enjoy the opportunity to see old friends and meet new ones. Any alumni in the area are encouraged to attend whenever possible.

The Alumni Association's Founders Day celebration will be held Friday evening, February 20, 1976. This dinner will also be held at Taix, as are our monthly luncheons. The social hour will begin at 6:00 p.m. with dinner served at 7:00 p.m. We are looking forward to a fine turnout and urge all of you in the area to attend.

Officers for the upcoming year will be elected at our Founders Day celebration. The outgoing officers are: Mark Gibello, President; Rick Lyman, Vice-President; Gary Stover, Vice-President; Mike Matthias, Secretary; Dick Lashley, Treasurer.

MICHAEL R. MATTHIAS, Correspondent

St. Louis Alumni Association

The St. Louis Alumni Association has had a full winter schedule. A most notable event occurred on Dec. 5, when Tom James, National President, Ralph D. Daniel, Executive Secretary, and former National President Phil Cornelius came to town for a National Interfraternity Conference meeting. A luncheon was held in their honor at the Missouri Athletic Club, where we had an excellent turnout and a very pleasant afternoon. A hearty thanks to Sam Greenland, Michigan Alpha '31, for all his efforts in organizing the affair.

Our annual Christmas party on Dec. 30, was an especially festive occasion. Undergraduates home for the holidays and alumni alike had no trouble getting into the Christmas "spirits."

The Breckenridge Inn on Frontenac will be the sight of our Founders Day banquet on Friday, Feb. 13. We expect an interesting evening, highlighted by superlative efforts by the Missouri Alpha and Missouri Beta "choirs" and a speaker.

In the past few months, we have witnessed a veritable epidemic of Phi Psi marriages in the St. Louis area, including John Chulick, Joe Cardetti, Joe Greco, Rand Hale, Jethro Engel, Bill Poteet (in absentia), and Tom Evans. Congratulations to all, and who wants to bet against Gumper being next?

We urge everyone to attend our Happy Hours which will again be regularly scheduled every month, beginning in March. If you are not on our permanent mailing list and would like to be, call Steve Scheidker at 247-5451 (office) or 822-4374 (home). We'd love to have you join us because—we promise a good time for all!

Detlev Bronk Dies at 78

DR. DETLEV WULF BRONK, Swarthmore '15, described as one of the most sought after and influential men in science, died Nov. 17, 1975, at New York Hospital, N.Y. He was 78. Brother Bronk is best remembered as president emeritus of Rockefeller University and the former president of Johns Hopkins University, the National Academy of Sciences, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Brother Bronk lived a routine that would exhaust the average man. To have several speaking engagements a day, be an administrator of a university, find time for his own research and biophysics, read two books per week, as well as many other activities, he conducted a busy 18-hour day. A very organized person, he allotted time for each project or meeting, and was able to create a relaxed, unhurried atmosphere around him.

A native of New York, Brother Bronk was the son of a Baptist minister and a descendant of a famous old New York family—the Broncks, for which one of New York City's five boroughs, the Bronx is named. His studies at Swarthmore were interrupted by World War I, during which he was a flying instructor in naval aviation at Pensacola, Fla. Returning to Swarthmore he resumed his engineering studies and took a job as assistant power engineer with the Philadelphia Electric Co. Later as an industrial engineer with a food company, he decided to take up studies in physics at the University of Pennsylvania. Transferring to the University of Michigan, he continued with physics while taking up biology, earning his doctor's degree in both subjects. With the idea of combining the two subjects into one, "biophysics," he and Dr. Selig Hecht of Columbia University launched the new term on its way in 1927. In 1928, Brother Bronk became a full professor of physiology and biophysics and dean of men at Swarthmore. Some years later he was made head of the Institute of Neurology at the University of Pennsylvania.

At Pennsylvania, Dr. Bronk enjoyed dramatizing his talks at medical conferences with unconventional methods. He is remembered for playing without warning a recording of the sounds of the nervous system sending impulses to the brain. Amplified loud enough, the nervous system sounds very much like machine-gun fire.

Accepting the presidency of Johns Hopkins University in 1950, he made it understood that he would continue to do scientific research. A firm believer in justice and academic freedom, Brother Bronk once resisted an effort by Senator Joseph McCarthy to have Johns Hopkins dismiss one of his subordinates, a former State Department advisor on Far Eastern affairs. "I am not against investigations," he remarked, and "if national security is involved, I feel anyone, even my own father and mother, should be investigated." But he could not tolerate "trial by innuendo and guilt by association," so the gentleman remained on the Johns Hopkins staff.

Dr. Bronk is remembered for having developed the Hopkins Plan, a program designed to erase long-standing barriers between undergraduate and graduate study, enabling students to progress at their own rate and at whatever level their capabilities dictated.

In 1953, he was named president of the Rockefeller Institute. During his tenure the medical research institute gradually progressed to a flourishing scientific graduate school, becoming The Rockefeller University in 1965. Turning over the presidency to a physicist, Dr. Frederick Seitz, Dr. Bronk began devoting his time to writing articles for scientific publications in 1968.

As an advisor to Presidents Truman, Eisenhower, and Kennedy, Brother Bronk was deeply concerned with our complacency, especially in the area of science. After the Soviet Union launched their Sputnik I, man's first space satellite, he warned President Eisenhower and the American people that we could not preserve our heritage of freedom unless we encouraged and defended our creative spirit. "Shorter work weeks and longer coffee breaks" were not the answer, he commented.

Brother Bronk was called upon an untold number of times a year to deliver speeches on a great variety of subjects.

Commenting once about the many non-scientific talks he gave, he said, "Usually I compose my speeches on the way to deliver them. Or sometimes they give me a little time to think them up after I have arrived."

In addition to his leadership of the National Academy of Sciences and the American Association for the Advancement of Science, he was a member of scientific societies in 12 countries and was a trustee of six universities. He held 60 honorary degrees from colleges and universities and was honored by the Order of the British Empire, the Medal of the International Benjamin Franklin Society, and the Presidential Medal of Freedom as well as many others.

He was a well-rounded individual, adept at sailing his two-masted auxiliary schooner with his sons, and just as competent at mountain climbing in the Swiss, Italian, and French Alps. He had a great love for his summer home at Woods Hole, Mass., where he and his three sons spent many hours building stone walls and walks, making the place their "family roots."

Brother Bronk is survived by his widow, the former Helen Alexander Ramsey; three sons, Dr. John Everton Ramsey, a professor of biochemistry in Britain, Adrian Mitchell, Pennsylvania '57, an English teacher at Loomis Academy, Windsor, Conn., and Mitchell Herbert, head of the science department of Milton Academy in Massachusetts; and four grandchildren.

Dr. Detlev Wulf Bronk had possession of a superior scientific mind, the logic of which he applied to his every encounter. He once expressed his theories about society and its ability to withstand outer as well as inner pressures by saying, in a lecture, "The future welfare of democratic cultures will rest upon translation of science into all realms of thought and culture." He believed that to survive, this country must maintain great military power and at the same time preserve its traditional liberties. Only by maintaining a vital interest in our nation's affairs could we keep such a delicate balance. "We have a tryst with destiny!"

About This Issue . . .

■ A chapter centennial anniversary comes only once and the members of Kansas Alpha were ready for the occasion. The centennial feature begins on page 97 and tells of some of the events and people who made the celebration a success.

■ In a related story, the article on page 100 tells of many of the alumni accomplishments of the Kansas University chapter. It inspires the reader to see the fine achievements of Kansas Alphans.

■ After some rocky days, members of Oregon Alpha announce to the world that they are once again a viable chapter. Read what this chapter did in order to regain a solid status. This feature begins on page 101.

■ To many, Spring means baseball. In the case of one Phi Psi, baseball is a year long job. This month we feature Emil J. (Buzzie) Bavasi, president of the San Diego Padres. Brother Bavasi is not the only Phi Psi in major league baseball. Others include: Ford Frick, former commissioner of baseball; Charles S. Feeney, president of the National League; and Fred Haney, general manager of the California Angels. The Buzzie Bavasi Spotlight Feature begins on page 104.

■ The 1976 Solon E. Summerfield Scholar Award winners are presented to the Fraternity membership on pages 105-107. This year, 75 awards were presented to outstanding Phi Psis.

■ The Great Bicentennial Grand Arch Council will soon be upon us. The feature beginning on page 108 presents highlights of the GAC and the preliminary agenda. Let's all make plans to attend the 58th GAC.

■ From Here . . . And There is presented in this issue on pages 111-112. If you have recently changed jobs, earned a promotion or honor, let us know and share it with all Phi Psis.

■ The first Edward H. Knight Award of Merit was presented to Philip M. Cornelius, Indiana '25, at the 57th GAC in New Orleans. The story on page 113 reminds chapters and alumni associations that nominations are being accepted now for the Award to be given at the Washington, GAC.

■ The usual newsletters from chapters, colonies and alumni associations begin on page 114.

■ A new feature beginning with this issue is found on the inside back cover. Called Bits N' Pieces, its goal is to bring together news items of interest to Phi Psis.—Tony B. Whittington, Editor

Kansas Alpha Centennial Celebration

By Randy Westfall, Kansas '74
Rob Munyan, Kansas '75

It was an event that will not soon be forgotten. Kansas Alpha's Centennial Celebration was a four-day, April 1-4, fling featuring everything from golf and tennis tournaments to historical displays and initiation ceremonies.

Under the guiding hand of Brother John K. Boyd, Kansas '59, the undergraduate forces put together a program designed to give the visiting alumni a glimpse of the past, present, and future of Kansas Alpha.

Golf and tennis highlighted Friday afternoon, April 2, action as Jim Elliott, Kansas '53, overcame the gusty Kansas winds to post a title-winning 75 while John Fotopoulos, Kansas '52, and Robert "Moon" Mullen, Kansas '47, teamed up to bring home the tennis doubles crown. Mike Gunter, Prairie Village freshman, captured the "closest to the pin" award.

Most of the alumni and undergraduate participants of the Kansas Alpha Centennial Celebration gather in front of the chapter house and pose for the Phi Psi photographer.

Charles "Buddy" Rogers, '23, spoke at the Saturday evening banquet. "America's Boyfriend" reminisced about his days in the chapter and his first big Hollywood picture called "Wings."

The Saturday luncheon saw the performance of the Junior-Active song routine during the Historical Review presentation.

After the action subsided the partying began. A cocktail party preceded a buffet dinner reception at the Elks Club in honor of the members of the Golden Council.

Saturday activities began with a pre-luncheon social hour at the chapter house followed by the Historical Review Luncheon with guest speaker Fraternity President Tom James. Mike Sears, Kansas City, Mo. senior, organized a slide program depicting Phi Psi's one-hundred year span at Kansas. Kevin Parks, Wichita sophomore, led the freshmen pledges in entertaining song and dance.

Having a few hours to call their own, many of the alumni returned to the house to view the elaborate displays, while others embarked on a tour of the beautiful campus. Kansas, like other universities across the nation, has experienced rapid growth during the past few years.

Evening activities began at five with more than 350 alumni, undergraduates, wives and guests having cocktails at the chapter house then attending the Centennial Banquet at the Kansas Union. Keynote speaker was Charles "Buddy" Rogers, Kansas '23, the small town youth turned Hollywood star. Known to many as "America's boyfriend," Brother Rogers was an inspiration to young and old alike. He reminisced about his days on Mount Oread, his first big picture called "Wings," and the brotherhood of Phi Psi, then capped it off with a tune familiar to many Brothers, the "Phi Psi Rag," written by George W. "Dumpy" Bowles, Kansas '08.

Other distinguished guests included University Chancellor Archie R. Dykes; National Executive Secretary

Ralph "Dud" Daniel, Arizona '47; United States Congressman Larry Winn Jr., Kansas '38; Dolph C. Simmons Sr., Kansas '22, editor of the Lawrence Daily Journal-World; and Walter Lee Sheppard Jr., Cornell '29, Mystagogue.

Sunday's Alumni Recognition Luncheon was preceded by initiation ceremonies conducted by Brother Sheppard. Harold B. Evans Sr., Kansas '09, and Michael J. Rohrig, Kansas '76, were reinitiated, symbolizing the passing of the torch from our oldest alumnus in attendance to our newest initiate. Rohrig's badge number is 1500.

The noon meal was distinguished by many outstanding men as well. Representing the University was Dean of Men Donald K. Alderson; representing the Interfraternity Council was Advisor Bob Turvey, Assistant Dean of Men. Phi Psi is the third oldest Greek letter organization on the University of Kansas campus, with both the Betas and Pi Phis established in 1873. Kansas Alpha has always held a prominent position among fraternities at Kansas, and with such alumni as Forrest C. "Phog" Allen and Solon E. Summerfield, to name just two, it is easy to see why.

Mrs. Priscilla "Mom" Johnson, in her seventh, and unfortunately, final year, was presented with a needle-point of the Phi Kappa Psi crest by the Kansas City Alumni Association for her devotion and hard work for the house. K.C.A.A. also awarded Brother Boyd with a beautiful silver bowl in commemoration of his dedication to the chapter and Fraternity, and his painstaking work in organizing the Centennial celebration.

Centennial Celebration Chairman John Boyd presented the Phi Psi Coat of Arms in needlepoint to the KU Housemother Priscilla Johnson.

The huge welcome banner on the front of the house welcomed some 300 Kansas Alphans to the Celebration.

Other dignitaries who were present during the weekend were former national presidents Louis D. Corson II, West Virginia Alpha; Phillip Cornelius, Indiana Beta; Win "Cactus Pete" Tate, Kansas Alpha; and present SWGP Tom James, Texas Alpha. Walter Lee Sheppard, current mystagogue, is also a former national president and is an initiate of New York Alpha.

Another individual who deserves much credit is the chapter historian, Mike Sears, who did a tremendous job researching and preparing the historical aspect of Kansas Alpha's first one-hundred years. Brother Sears was given a two volume set of the Phi Kappa Psi Centennial History, 1852-1952, in appreciation of his work by Brother Boyd on behalf of the Centennial Committee.

The final event before the termination of the celebration was the locking of arms and the singing of Amici. The events that occurred during the weekend and the friendship portrayed reaffirm the first and last lines of the song. The strong bond formed in old Phi Psi is indeed one that will never be broken. It is the sincere desire of the chapter as it embarks on its second century that it always be found unwavering and true.

May our next hundred years be as good as the first.

Kansas Alpha Recognition

By John K. Boyd, Kansas '59

KANSAS ALPHA has always been proud of the accomplishments of her Brothers, and our Sunday luncheon April 4, was specifically set aside to honor these accomplishments.

We have been particularly proud of those of us who have contributed to the betterment of university life and to education of its students. On the university campus we have four buildings named after Kansas Alpha Phi Psis. One of Kansas Alpha's founders has the Architectural Engineering building named after him: Frank O. Marvin ('76) Hall. William A. Snow ('87) Hall houses the Life Sciences. The Solon E. Summerfield ('99) Building houses the School of Business.

Solon E. Summerfield also created the National Scholarship Fund for incoming freshmen and in 1952, on the 100th Anniversary of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity, the current Phi Psi undergraduate scholarship award was created. This award has, until this year, consisted of a $100 award to a scholar selected by the undergraduates of each of our Chapters. This year the award has been augmented by an overall winner in the amount of $1,000 and runner-up awards of $500 and $300.

Of course at Kansas Alpha it would be impossible to skip over the "Dean of College Basketball," the late Forrest C. "Phog" Allen, '05. The University of Kansas Field House is properly named after Brother Allen.

"Phog" was also the first of three generations of Kansas Alpha Phi Psi Brothers including eight Allen Brothers. Besides his older brother Harry B. "Pete" Allen, '02, "Phog's" two sons, Dr. Robert E. Allen, '38 and John M. "Mit" Allen, '33, are Kansas Alphans. Dr. Bob's sons: Robert Jr., '65, John, '70, and Mark, '71, are all Kansas Alphans. And, "Mit" Allen's son, Milton P. Allen Jr. is also a Phi Psi "Allen."

The oldest Kansas Alpha Phi Psi returning to the weekend celebration was Harold D. Evans Sr., '09, the beginning of three generations and five Kansas Alpha Brothers. Harold Sr. has a brother Russel E. Evans, '17, and two sons, Harold D. Evans Jr., '37, and William A. Evans, '42, followed by William A. Evans, '69.

The oldest of all three generation Phi Psis began in 1894 with the initiation of Fred M. Harris Sr., followed by his son Fred M. Harris Jr., '34, and grandson Fred M. Harris III, '59.

The latest three-generation family to begin includes five Kansas Alpha Brothers beginning with E. Lawrence Winn Sr. ('15) and progressing thru E. Larry Winn Jr., '38 (current U.S. Congressman), and three grandsons: E. Larry Winn III, '62, Robert E. Winn, '63, and Douglas S. Winn, '65. We are especially proud of these families.

There have been many other Phi Psis who have given of their time to help assure the continuance of Phi Kappa Psi's high ideals. Edward C. Little, '78, began this chain of dedication by performing as Editor of THE SHIELD for 1885-86-87. Francis H. Robertson, '96, served as editor of the Phi Psi song book for the years of 1904 and 1924. He and George "Dumpy" Bowles, '08 contributed a dozen scores and lyrics to those books including "Phi Psis We Are The Men," "For We Are Phi Psis," "Stein Song," and "Phi Kappa Psi Triumphant" by Brother Robertson; and by Brother Bowles "The Phi Psi Rag." Brother Bowles also created the K.U. fight song still in use today: "For I'm A Jay, Jay, Jayhawk."

Two past national presidents also honor our rolls including the late Charles E. Strickland, '11, who began his Phi Psi career as Director of Alumni Associations from 1934 to 1938. In 1936, he was elected VGP and in 1938, SWGP. Brother Strickland also received special recognition for his efforts to create the lifetime membership program which is now part of our regular initiation fee.

Brother Winston R. "Cactus Pete" Tate, '18, is considered one of our most dedicated Brothers. Brother Tate began his service with Phi Psi at the national level as Director of Fraternity Education in 1934, and continued in this capacity thru 1946. During this tenure he published the "Phi Psi Manual" editions of 1936 and 1938. He also published "Duties of Chapter Officers and Committees." In 1938, he was unanimously elected Treasurer and served until 1946, when he was elected President of Phi Kappa Psi. Brother Tate also served in various capacities in the Kansas City Alumni Association where he became a leading contributor to THE SHIELD under the pseudonym of "Cactus Pete." Brother Tate continues to serve as President of the Order of the S.C. of which he became a Charter Member in 1938. Brother Tate has attended 19 GACs thru 1974.

There are many other Kansas Alpha Phi Psis who have and continue to distinguish themselves in their own fields and in their communities. We are all proud of our associations and indeed feel a special honor to be members during the 100 years of Kansas Alpha history.

Oregon Alpha Is Back

By Mike Garvey, Oregon '65

Mission accomplished. When all the work on the restoration of the chapter house was completed and equipment and materials stored, members of Oregon Alpha were indeed proud of the Oregon Alpha Phi Psi house.

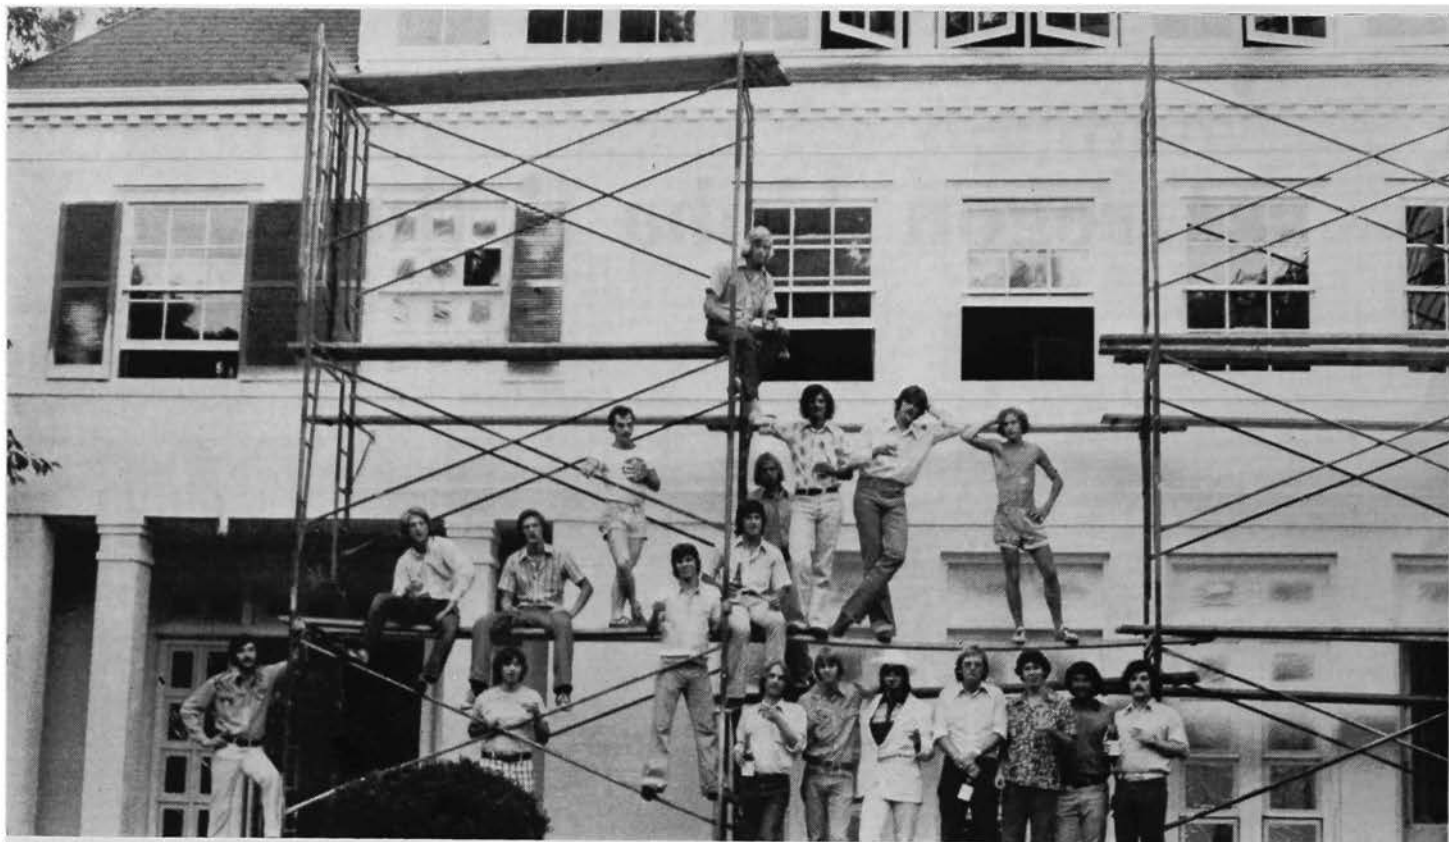

OREGON Alpha Chapter is back! It's alive! It's active. It's strong!

That describes today's situation at the University of Oregon chapter. Not so long ago the picture was one of despair and loss. The chapter's comeback is a story of dedication and hard work by many Brothers.

During the early 70s, Oregon Alpha suffered from internal problems and the anti-fraternity wave which swept the country. Though it had reported the largest active membership of any Phi Psi chapter in 1969, with 90 active members, by September, 1971, it had none. It joined ten other Oregon fraternities which died during this period. The chapter died despite efforts by alumni, including a large infusion of money, rush help, and other assistance.

With no members living in the house and no income, the chapter's house corporation faced bank foreclosure. To save the chapter house and property, the corporation auctioned all the chapter's furnishings and sold an adjacent piece of property to satisfy mortgage payments. At about the same time the corporation leased the chapter house to the Beta Theta Pi corporation for three years, ending in June, 1975. All of these actions saved the chapter house property, which few of the other ten fraternities were able to do. We had land, building, and dedicated, loyal alumni, but no undergraduate Brothers to continue the chapter's long-standing, strong tradition at Oregon.

A letter in February, 1973, from Ed Meserve, Oregon '32, began the process toward acquiring an active chapter's most important element—undergraduate members. His letter, telling of some freshmen at Oregon who had indicated to him interest in helping to restart the Phi Psi chapter, was relayed to Fraternity Treasurer Bob Danielson, Oregon '61, and Fraternity Secretary Hal Dick, Bowling Green '55. Danielson and

This isn't exactly how the professional painters do it, but for members of Oregon Alpha, it was the completion of a long, hard job of painting and repairing the chapter house.

Dick met with these freshmen and decided that they had the qualities needed for a reestablishment effort. In late March, Steve Merge, Steve Wick, Bill Ruckman, and Mark Sweeney were pledged. Being the first fraternity to attempt a comeback at Oregon, these pledges found interested individuals, but no one wanted to pledge. They ended the school year with just three, as Mark transferred to Stanford.

During fall formal rush, 1973-74, no pledges were taken. By this time the three pledges had moved from the dorm to an apartment, and Mike Garvey, Oregon '65, had become advisor and pledge educator. Though the group had weekly rush parties in the apartment and a few alumni showed up to help, it was mid-November before any success was achieved. Then, within two weeks eight men were pledged. These 11 were initiated at a joint Oregon Alpha-Oregon Beta initiation at Founders Day, 1974.

For the next year and a half, though operating without a house, the chapter grew. As it grew, one of its constant goals was becoming strong enough to get back into the Phi Psi house.

Meanwhile the chapter, through Bob Danielson, began an alumni communications program. The program's goals were to keep the alumni informed, involve them in the re-establishment effort, acquire some financial assistance for rush and other programs, and build a permanent bond of fraternalism between undergraduates and alumni. Alumni were asked to become active partners in the rebuilding of their chapter. It brought home the true meaning of "a Phi Psi for life." To date, the alumni have contributed nearly $8,500 toward this program, but most importantly, it has brought the Brothers, young and old, closer together.

Simultaneously, the corporation began requesting financial help through its "PROJECT FULL HOUSE" to refurbish the house for when it would again be occupied by Brothers. This "Project," which started in October, 1974, brought in over $10,500 in gifts and pledges. This along with $5,000 borrowed from the national Fraternity, was used during the summer of 1975, to completely refurbish the house. Several undergraduates stayed at the house during the summer, completely repainting and repairing it, inside and out. Many Oregon alumni, including Jim Dotten, '66, Gary Bartel, '63, Mike Kuratli, '63, Ron Erickson, '61, Bill Bloodworth, '41, Mike Gerot, '65, Mike Garvey, and Bob Danielson, spent many hours buying furnishings and helping during weekend work parties. Of course, many others were involved in the success of this "Project," including Maurice Warnock, '23, who offered a $1,000 challenge to other alumni, which was matched two for one. In all, nearly 400 Phi Psis responded with gifts from $1 to $1,250. Without this help, the chapter would now be living in an unfurnished, unpainted, unrepaired house. Now, Oregon Alpha, once thought to be dead and buried, is alive and well in Eugene, Oregon.

Today there are 45 active Phi Psis at the University of Oregon and 800 alumni who have seen what Brotherhood and fraternal cooperation can accomplish. Working side by side they have rebuilt our strong band at the University of Oregon.

Buzzie Bavasi Leads San Diego Padres

THE San Diego Padres have known only one president since the club's inception back in 1969 and that is long-time baseball executive Emil J. (Buzzie) Bavasi, DePauw '19.

Brother Bavasi joined the Padres from the Los Angeles Dodgers organization when the National League added San Diego to the Western Division in its expansion move in 1969. Prior to taking over the reins of the Padres, Bavasi had served with the Dodgers since 1939.

A 1938 graduate of DePauw University in Indiana, he joined the old Brooklyn Dodgers in 1939, as part of the office staff. A year later he was given his first chance at administrative work and was named as the business manager of the Dodgers farm club in Americus, Georgia. He remained in the South for several years as he moved on to become business manager at Valdosta, Georgia (1941-42) and then Durham, North Carolina in 1943.

Following the 1943 campaign, he was drafted into the United States Army and remained in the service until 1947, when he rejoined the Dodgers organization as the General Manager at Nashua, New Hampshire.

From there it was just a short hop to Montreal as General Manager of the International League, the Dodgers top farm club, where he stayed from 1948-50. His efforts at Montreal won him the "Executive-of-the-Year" award in 1948, and helped gain a promotion to General Manager and Vice President of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1951.

He then moved with the club when the franchise shifted to Los Angeles in 1958, and his work in 1959 (when the Dodgers took the World Series from the Chicago White Sox), earned him the "Executive-of-the-Year Award" for the second time.

With the Dodgers from 1951-68, he saw the club win eight National League pennants, tie for first place on two occasions (losing play-offs to the Giants both times) and win four World Series in 1955, 1959, 1963 and 1965.

With a little luck, according to the Associated Press, the San Diego Padres might have more to celebrate this year than just the Bicentennial. Some experts are picking the Padres for third place in the National League West. This would be up from their fourth place finish last year.

On paper, at least, the Padres aren't nearly strong enough to challenge either Los Angeles or Cincinnati for the two top spots in the division. But on paper, who is?

If San Diego, again according to the experts, can get better performances out of their pitching staff and hitters, the Padres have a chance to beat out San Francisco, Atlanta and Houston for third place.

Buzzie Bavasi is married to the former Elizabeth Evit Rice with children, Peter (33 and presently General Manager of the Padres), Christopher (29), Robert (22) and Billy (18).

A member of many organizations outside the realm of baseball, his most notable positions are: Director, WINCORP (the Western Harness Racing Association); Director, Boys Town of the Desert; Director, National Athletic Institute; and a Knight of the Holy Sepulchre.

In San Diego and around the Bavasi household, when it's springtime, the talk's of baseball and baseball and baseball.

Summerfield Scholars

OUTSTANDING SCHOLAR-LEADERS in 75 Phi Psi chapters have been named 1976 Solon E. Summerfield Scholars. The honor includes a $100 grant and an official certificate.

The Endowment Fund of Phi Kappa Psi has presented the awards every year since 1960 from the income of a sizable trust fund bequeathed to the Fraternity by the late Solon E. Summerfield, Kansas '99.

58th Grand Arch Council

The Great Bicentennial GAC!

PHI KAPPA PSI's 58th biennial Grand Arch Council will be held at the Twin Bridges Marriott Hotel, Washington, D.C., Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, August 11-15, 1976. Registration will begin at 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, August 11, with the opening event at 8:00 p.m. that evening—an informal Phi Psi get-together for all Phi Psis, their ladies, and special guests. The GAC will adjourn at about noon on Sunday, August 15. Between the opening and adjournment there will be a jam-packed program of fun and business designed for the enjoyment of all in attendance. The nation's capital will be especially exciting this bicentennial year!

Delegates

Each chapter should immediately elect three Grand Arch Council delegates—two undergraduates and an alumnus. Alumni associations in good standing* are entitled to three GAC delegates.

Chapter Advisors, Area Directors

Every chapter should induce its Phi Psi Chapter Advisor and Area Director to attend the GAC and should contribute to his travel expense if possible. This investment will lead to valuable dividends in the way of counsel, advice, and guidance. An allowance of $25.00 is provided by the Fraternity for each Advisor and Area Director in attendance to assist in the cost.

* An alumni association must have paid $40 to the Executive Secretary for each of the two years immediately preceding the GAC or DC to be eligible to vote at either council. The payment, due May 1 of each year, includes $25 for general expenses of the Fraternity and $15 for the Endowment Fund.

Credentials

Attendance at Council Sessions

At least one delegate from each chapter and alumni association entitled to representation must attend each session of the GAC. The fine for missing a roll call is $5. Each delegate has one vote. No chapter or alumni association shall instruct its delegates to vote in any specified way upon any matter. Every undergraduate, alumnus, pledge, or colony member, whether an accredited delegate or not, is cordially invited and sincerely urged to attend the 1976 GAC. All members are welcome to each session and are given the privileges of the floor.

Delegates Expense

An allowance is provided each chapter and colony to help cover the travel expenses of delegates. The Fraternity does not pay the expenses of alumni association delegates.

The travel allowance is indicated on the enclosed form. This allowance may be distributed among the delegates in any manner prescribed by the chapter or colony. Allowances will be paid at a designated hour the last day of the GAC.

Chapter Records

Chapter delegates should bring the chapter's most recent financial statement or audit. No additional books or records are necessary unless specifically directed by the Executive Council.

Reservations and Rates at the Hotel

Special rates (European plan) will apply during the GAC. Singles $32, Doubles or Twins $36, Triples $39, Quads $40. Suites are available at $80. Reservations should be made directly with the hotel.

Registration Fee

Undergraduates and alumni will register at the Twin Bridges Marriott Hotel when they arrive. The fee for members is $60 and $45 for ladies and guests. The registration fee includes the cost of the Awards Luncheon, GAC Banquet, and other events. The fee is reduced to $50 for members and $40 for ladies and guests who preregister by July 30.

Fines

Any chapter failing to register for the GAC will be fined $250.

Arrival and Departure

The first session of the GAC begins at 8:00 p.m., Wednesday, August 11, with adjournment as close to noon as possible on Sunday, August 15, so you should plan your arrival and departure accordingly.

Honors and Awards

Outstanding scholarship and publications will be recognized at the GAC awards luncheon, Friday, August 13. Be sure your chapter or alumni association has submitted copies of its newsletter and rush booklet to the Executive Secretary so that they may be included in the competition sponsored by the New York Alumni Association.

Standing With the Fraternity

It will be most embarrassing to both the officers of the Fraternity and individual chapter delegates if the GAC is told of any debt owed the Fraternity. When the Fraternity's fiscal year ends May 31, the books will be audited for submission to the Grand Arch Council.

Chapter officers are requested to determine the exact financial position of their chapters with the Fraternity, and to make arrangements to pay any outstanding debts before May 10. Any charges billed after that date should be paid at once.

Any chapter whose account with the Fraternity is in arrears 90 days will not be entitled to vote upon any matter coming before the GAC. Each chapter, however, must be represented at the GAC.

Each GP should read this information to his chapter when the delegates are elected.

FROM HERE . . . AND THERE

Ruddick C. Lawrence

RUDDICK C. LAWRENCE, Washington '31, vice president of Continental Oil Company (Conoco), has been elected president of the U.S.-Arab Chamber of Commerce. Brother Lawrence is a trustee of the Endowment Fund of the Fraternity. He has served as a trustee of Sarah Lawrence College for 12 years and was chairman of its board from 1964-1969.

Brother Lawrence has long been a force in the advancement of U.S.-Arab commerce and mutual understanding. In 1973, in recognition of his contributions, King Hussein decorated him with the Star of Jordan, and in 1974 the government of Lebanon conferred upon him the rank of Knight of the Order of the Cedars of Lebanon.

JOE S. MOORE, Texas '33, has been named a deputy commissioner of insurance, supervising the property/casualty sections of the Texas State Board of Insurance. He joined the Board after 15 years of private law practice, principally in the field of insurance.

STEPHEN AILES, West Virginia '34, has been appointed by President Ford to serve on a committee, called the Oversight Board, which will monitor the performance of the U.S. intelligence operations.

GEORGE SHUMAN JR., Dickinson '35, vice president and member of the board of trustees of Dickinson College, has announced his retirement from both positions effective June 30. He will continue with the school as a development officer, reporting directly to the president. As a Dickinson undergraduate he played varsity football, basketball and baseball, was sports editor of the college yearbook and served as president of the student senate. Brother Shuman also holds an honorary doctor of laws degree from Lycoming College.

George Shuman Jr.

GEORGE L. CONNOR JR., Syracuse '40, an executive with Sears, Roebuck and Co., has accepted the position of president of the West Side Association of Commerce in the City of New York. One of the goals of the businessmen's organization is to help make New York City a better city for commerce.

1941-1950

E. LEE NORTH, Washington & Jefferson '42, has been appointed to the Proposal Operations staff at Grumman Aerospace. He recently completed a human-interest history of West Virginia and wrote earlier works dealing with the history of football at Washington & Jefferson and a novel of Poland and Russia during World War II.

Edward G. Murphy

EDWARD G. MURPHY, Indiana '43, has been appointed regional vice president of New York Life Insurance Company's North Central Region headquarters in Chicago. He was formerly superintendent of agencies in the company's New York City home office. He and his wife Norma have five children.

HOWARD WALLIN, Illinois '43, chairman of Fox Valley District, Ill., Boy Scouts of America, recently received the Charles P. Burton Award for outstanding service. The Fox Valley District is one of several in the Two Rivers Council in Illinois.

Raymond W. Daum

RAYMOND W. DAUM, Amherst '46, has received the Doctor of Education degree from Teachers College, Columbia University. Brother Daum's special field of study was communications-educational technology. He is presently employed with the Trustees Office at Columbia in New York City.

E. A. Conley

E. A. CONLEY, Nebraska '47, formerly executive vice president of Guarantee Mutual Life Company, was named president last February. Brother Conley joined Guarantee in 1972, and in 1974 was named executive vice president. He is on the board of trustees for the Nebraska Wesleyan University, Bishop Clarkson Memorial Hospital and Nebraska Methodist Hospital, and is chairman of the advisory of the University of Nebraska at Omaha College of Business.

1951-1960

THE REV. WILLIAM A. BOSBY-SHELL, Swarthmore '52, has accepted the position of Director of the Episcopal Counseling Center in Tampa, Fla. Brother Bosbyshell has been associate director of the Center since 1970.

GEORGE E. BITNER, Ohio Wesleyan '58, has opened his own law office in Falls Church, Va. He formerly was with the law firm of Kinney, Smith and Bitner.

CLIFFORD E. BERINSKY, Case Western Reserve '68, is an associate in the law firm of Lafayette and Levitz with offices in Brockton and Stoughton, Mass. He received his Juris Doctor degree Cum Laude from the New England School of Law. Brother Bernisky is a member of the Massachusetts Bar.

GARY D. DAVIDSON, Arizona State '68, is one of four founders of a brokerage and investment firm specializing in real estate. The firm's offices are in Phoenix.

JUD SCOTT, California at SB '68, has graduated cum laude from the University of Santa Clara School of Law and has joined the law firm of Feldman, Waldman and Kline in San Francisco. Brother Scott received the Student Bar Association Community Service awards for 1974 and 1975, and was runner-up for outstanding graduate.

GEORGE RICHARD FLETCHER JR., Virginia '69, has been hired as the Director for Agriculture and Rural Development Programs with Partners of the Americas. His office is in Washington, D.C.

BARRY DON BROOKS, Texas Tech '69, graduates this May from the Southwestern Medical School in Dallas, Texas. He will intern at Parkland Hospital in Dallas in internal medicine.

DAVID BAILEY, Ohio State '62, has been appointed Clinton County (Ohio) Commissioner by the Clinton County Republican Central Committee to fill an unexpired term until January, 1977. Brother Bailey, a realtor, is secretary-treasurer of the Bailey-Murphy Company, Wilmington, Ohio.

ROBERT B. STONE, West Virginia '62, has been appointed president of the Morgantown West Virginia Branch of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. A Morgantown attorney, he has served two terms in the House of Delegates.

WALTER B. HUFFMAN, Texas Tech '64, has been named the editor-in-chief of the Texas Tech Law School 1976-77 Law Review. Brother Huffman is a captain in the U.S. Army attending law school.

DR. PAUL D. SEABROOK JR., Vanderbilt '64, has finished two years in the U.S. Navy as chief of anesthesiology department at U.S. Naval Hospital, Beaufort, South Carolina. He has now entered private practice with the Charlotte Anesthesia Group, P.A. at Mercy Hospital in Charlotte.

DOUGLAS W. WAPLES, DePauw '64, is currently working with Chevron in La Habra, Calif. as a geochemist. He received a Ph.D. in chemistry from Stanford University and studied in Chile on a Fulbright Fellowship. He is married to the former Sue Keehn.

GUERDON W. ARCHER JR., Texas '68, is employed by the Mustang Tractor Co., a sales outlet for Caterpillar in Houston, Texas. He married the former Loretta Ring on March 20.

Michael J. Telich

MICHAEL J. TELICH, Ashland '71, is a special analyst for financial and systems for the Marathon Pipeline Company. He received his MBA from the Ohio State University Graduate School of Administrative Science in December, 1975. In addition to his masters degree, he was an inductee into Beta Gamma Sigma, a national business honor society.

ROBERT B. BIRD, West Virginia '73, has been appointed to the Morgantown, W.Va. Planning Commission. Brother Bird, a senior at West Virginia University, is majoring in marketing and plans to attend law school.

Very Important (and Individual) Person

The Fraternity membership records have now been converted to computer—part of the Fraternity's effort to improve communications . . . and YOUR help is needed to finish the job. Please check your mailing label on the back cover and then make the corrections and return it to HQ for verification. Also include your 1976 contribution to the alumni support program if you have not already done so.

Endowment Fund Notice

Notice is hereby given that the biennial meeting of the Endowment Fund of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity will be held on Friday, August 13, 1976, during the 58th Grand Arch Council at the Marriott, Twin Bridges Hotel, Washington, D.C., for the purpose of electing a Trustee and transacting business as required by the Articles of Incorporation of the Endowment Fund.—Ruddick C. Lawrence, Secretary-Treasurer.

Announcing . . . The Edward H. Knight Award of Merit

New Award Honors Phi Psi's Alumni Leaders

FROM its founding in 1852, Phi Kappa Psi has encouraged the qualities of leadership, sacrifice, and loyalty to the Fraternity and its members. A new award for Alumni which will be presented for only the second time at the 1976 Grand Arch Council in Washington offers each Chapter and Alumni Association the chance to recognize our Fraternity's outstanding alumnus.

The EDWARD H. KNIGHT AWARD will honor an alumnus who:

- has rendered invaluable, unselfish, and meritorious service to Phi Kappa Psi or to one of its Chapters or Alumni Associations in the past two years; and who
- is not an elected or appointed officer of the national Fraternity.

The first Knight Award recipient was Philip M. Cornelius, Indiana '25 and former President of Phi Kappa Psi. Brother Cornelius received the honor at the 1974 GAC in New Orleans.

Edward H. Knight, Indiana Gamma '93, set a number of records in his long career as a Phi Psi. Initiated when the Fraternity's membership numbered only a few thousand, he lived to see Phi Kappa Psi grow nationwide and include 45,000 living members. Eddie served as an Archon and in several national offices, but he was proudest of his role in re-establishing Indiana Gamma in 1948. He picked a group of young men on the Wabash College campus, inspired them to want to join Phi Kappa Psi, and worked with them to renovate a chapter house, establish a reputation for leadership on the campus, and persuade the 1948 GAC to award a new charter to Indiana Gamma. Incidentally, that GAC was only the most memorable of many he attended—from 1894 to 1970, Eddie Knight never missed one of the 39 Fraternity conventions. It is not surprising that he was one of the co-founders of the Order of SC.

Following his death in 1974, the undergraduate and alumni members of Indiana Gamma established the Knight Award in "Brotherly love, sincere humility and deep gratitude." Nomination forms for the 1976 Knight Award have been mailed to all Chapters and Alumni Associations. Nominations should be returned to the Fraternity Headquarters, 1940 East 6th St., Cleveland, Ohio 44114, no later than June 15.

University of Akron Celebration and Participation

Spring is on its way once again at Ohio Iota. The Brothers are beginning to get things rolling for Greek Week and Songfest which will be held in May.

On Saturday, February 28, we celebrated the 124th anniversary of the founding of Phi Kappa Psi. We began festivities with a cocktail hour at the home of George Crisp and his lovely wife. Then it was on to the Mark for dinner and the program. We thank all who attended and helped to make Founders Day-1976 a big success. We also extend thanks to Brother Crisp and his wife for the cocktail hour and the chance to socialize with our Brothers. We thank Vice Pres. J. Kenneth Potter for taking time out of his busy schedule to speak at the banquet. Brother Ron Shreffler also helped out extensively in getting such a fine response from the alumni.

Prior to the chapter meeting of February 8, 1976, the pledging ceremony was held for David Bryan of Fairlawn. We welcome Dave and hope that his experience with Phi Kappa Psi will be as exciting and rewarding as it is for us.

During the weekend of March 4 and 5, the Brothers will be joining the rest of the Greek system in a 30 hour Dance Marathon. During these 30 hours a great many activities will be taking place, including a carnival and dancing. Proceeds from the 30 hours will be going toward the heart fund.

We extend an open invitation to all Brothers who find themselves in the Akron area, to stop by and see what exactly makes us glad to be here, and proud that we are Phi Psis.

DENNIS GOELLNER, Correspondent

University of Alabama Tops in Sports

Rush is top in the minds of all the Brothers of Alabama Alpha. Plans have now been finalized for our spring rush, April 9, 10, and 11. We are looking forward to meeting a lot of rushees and are hoping for a large fall pledge class.

Founders Day was celebrated February 22, with a banquet at the Guest House in Birmingham. Buddy Russell was our guest speaker and Andy Dillon received the award for outstanding alumnus of the year. We all appreciate the great amount of work he has done for our chapter. As always, Founders Day was a great success.

Sports are also going well for us. We have finished near the top in just about every sport.

March 20 found us again at the Guest House in Birmingham. This time we were there for our formal. We were especially pleased at the number of alumni who attended.

We extend our congratulations to Jack Harris who was recently appointed Chapter Consultant for the Fraternity.

GORDON T. CARTER, Correspondent

Allegheny College January Thaw

Penn Beta opened second term with the election of new chapter officers. The newly elected officials are: Rory Morgan, GP; Robert Lamont, VGP; Dana Carr Bullock and Tom Kartovicky, Phu; Michael Young, Hod; and Dale Brown, BG. Jack Hoey was elected to the position of Assistant P, to assume the position of P third term.

In sports, Head Coach Rory Morgan guided the basketball team through a series of crushing defeats resulting in a 2 and 12 season. The Phi Psis were more impressive in billiards, however, defeating all but one fraternity to capture second place in the inter-fraternity contest. Out of the intramural competition, second term saw the addition of two Phi Psis to the college lacrosse team. Pledge George Weaver is also trying out for the varsity tennis team while pledge Ted Armistead is trying out for a position on the varsity baseball team.

Valentine's Day this year was marked by a very successful Pledge Formal. Under the leadership of Social Chairman John Petraglia an excellent band, fine food, and delicious beverages were assembled, resulting in a good time for Brothers, pledges, and dates. Entertainment was also presented by the pledges as they recited original poems about various members of the Brotherhood.

Founders Day was celebrated through a formal dinner with both active Brothers and alumni in attendance at the nearby David Mead Inn. After the dinner, a reorganizational meeting of the Housing Corporation was conducted, in which by-laws were changed and new officials elected to serve on the Board of Directors.

On the lighter side, the "January Thaw" brought the Phi Psi duffers with their clubs out of hibernation and onto a make-shift golf course improvised around the house, obviously warming up for the second annual Polynesian Open to take place in May. From the looks of things, several practice rounds may be in order.

In this bicentennial year, the Brothers are planning several field trips including a visit to the New Jersey coast, amiably termed "Penn. Beta East," and the now traditional assault on Louisville for the 102nd running of the Kentucky Derby.

MICHAEL R. YOUNG, Correspondent

Ashland College A Quality Pledge Class

January 26, 1976, ten men were initiated into the Ohio Theta Chapter. They are: David Kleck, Ridgeville; John Madden, Maplewood, NJ; Christopher Fehring, Hillsboro; Marc Fehring, Hillsboro; William Gaydos, Florham Park, NJ; Allan Shoemake, Florham Park, NJ; Dennis Fitzmaurice, Stroudsburg, PA; William Searles, Toledo; Ronald Babkoff, Hudson; and Jesse Irwin, Pittsford, NJ.

Culminating a super job by Rush Chairman Fred Zurn, Pledge Trainer Jan Jacobus and his assistants Robert Knight and Russel Schmidt, 17 fine men pledged Phi Kappa Psi this spring. They are: Tom Loss, Jim Lay, Toledo; Scott Winchester, Geneva; Chuck Vickowski, Philadelphia, PA; Don Cattle, John Caruso and Greg Lawida, Buffalo, NY; Dave Mercier, Bill Hansen, Mt. Clemens, MI; Kevin Sheehe, Canfield; Mark Stevens, Worthington; Bruce Sanderson, Mentor; Mike Arnold, Delevan, NY; Scott Hanna, Willoughby; Kevin Paramore, Ashland; and Mike Graham, Zanesville.

Along with fraternal and academic obligations our Brothers are involved in many student affairs. John Ferguson is vice-chairman and treasurer of Student Union Board of Governors. Also working with John at S.U.B.G. is Pat Crahan on Film Committee, Jim Clark as Recreation Governor and Bill Kahn as Publicity Governor. Pat Crahan is also president of the Inter-Fraternity Council and vice-president of the senior class.

In athletics, our intramural program here at Ohio Theta has been going well. We placed second in basketball and made a strong showing in football. We took first place in paddleball and one-on-one basketball behind the strong determination of Pat Crahan and Joe Pfalzgraf, respectively. Due to our softball and bowling teams, we have been out in front of the pack this year.

This year held promise for Ohio Theta athletes. Steve Ross was named Outstanding Offensive Back for his outstanding performance here at A.C. In basketball Rich Steineman had an outstanding season performance. He was many times the leading scorer and rebounder throughout the season.

We thank all the alumni who came to make our Founders Day such a success. We hope to have more of these functions to get alumni back to the house. We invite all alumni to drop by the house anytime you are in the area.

We spent the weekend of April 23 and 24 at Shawnee State Park in Portsmouth. It was a great reunion for the alumni present and a great time for the actives. We extend sincere thanks to the alumni for their many contributions in making Phi Kappa Psi on the Ashland campus what it is.

STEVE R. GABER, Correspondent

Auburn University Planning New House

Scholastically, Alabama Beta finished fall quarter with a ranking of third out of 27 fraternities. Over half of the fraternity had a GPA better than 2.0 out of 3.0.

As always the spirit of service reigned supreme with the Brothers working two weekends at the Community Thrift Shop. In addition to giving the gift of life at Auburn University's Annual Blood Drive, Alabama Beta manned the recovery stations for those who had given blood.

On January 25, 1976, we initiated Robert Van Bell, Birmingham, Ala. Also, winter quarter Peter Michael Hofmann, Huntsville, Ala., joined the ranks as an associate member.

The Solon E. Summerfield award winner of Alabama Beta was Richard Kent Reece. Furthermore, Michael Lee Nash was recently initiated into Phi Eta Sigma, freshman honor society.

Under the leadership of John Steven Kilpatrick as sport's chairman, the chapter has excelled in bowling and racquet ball.

In preparation for a strong spring and summer rush, we repainted the inside of the house. We are redecorating our entry way with the theme of rush to obtain a new house. We will have a model of our proposed new house for everybody to see. We also make a strong plea to alumni for information on potential rushees who will attend Auburn University.

MICHAEL LEE NASH, Correspondent

Bowling Green State University Spring Events

Continuing the tradition of high scholarship, Ohio Zeta once again found itself at the top of the scholastic rolls leading the all-men's average by an even wider margin than last quarter. This marks the fourth consecutive quarter that the Bowling Green Phi Psis have had this honor.

Ohio Zeta is also on the top of the social calendar as we have four sorority teas and two sorority warm-ups planned. Also, we have a date and drink party planned for later in the quarter. May 22 will be the date of the annual Dawn Dance. The event is held each spring quarter and is a semi-formal affair. Other events planned for spring quarter include a brotherhood trip to the season opener of the Cleveland Indians and the annual parents-day weekend.

Spring sports are getting into high gear and Ohio Zeta should field strong teams in golf and tennis, as well as softball and co-ed softball. There are also several Greek events which we will participate in during the quarter.

Most notable among the Greek events is the Phi Kappa Psi-Chi Omega bathtub race. This event held annually will be on June 5. There will be a fraternity division and a sorority division. Last year the event attracted over 20 fraternities and sororities despite the damp weather.

For the first time, Phi Psi will produce and present the 1976 Miss BGSU Scholarship Pageant. This pageant is a feeder pageant for Miss Ohio and Miss America. There are 15 BGSU co-eds vying for the title. They will compete in private interviews, swim suit, talent, and on stage personality. Events occurring in conjunction with the pageant are a dinner for all the judges and the Brothers, a coronation ball to be held in the Holiday Inn in Bowling Green, a week of rehearsals, and of course the pageant on May 1 in the BGSU Union's Grand Ballroom. Judging the contest will be five accredited state pageant judges. The director for the pageant is Mark Davis. Various committees under him are also headed by other Brothers.

Overall, spring quarter promises to be a very active one, but one which promises to be a very rewarding one also for the Ohio Zeta chapter.

Brown University Academic Honors

March 12, Rhode Island Alpha completed the most successful rush period in many years—26 bids were returned, signifying the completion of the six week rush period. The Brothers are very happy with what we feel is a "high quality" pledge class. The festivities of the weekend were culminated with the traditional Monte Carlo, in which the lounge is cleared and a casino is set up.

Once again the Phi Psi intramural basketball team made the playoffs after sustaining the injuries of Tom Conboy and Steve Ramsey, each of whom broke legs this season. The intramural hockey team did not have quite the success of the basketball team.

On the academic scene, three Brothers, Todd Abraham, Steve Ramsey and Jeff Starke, received the Sigma Xi award for scientific excellence. Jerry Presiotti and Joe Pappitto were welcomed to Tau Beta Pi, an engineering honorary fraternity. Tom Conboy is president of the Brown Key Society, Hal Tovin and Barry Waters are co-presidents of the Bruin Club, and John Burnham is the newly selected commodore of the Yacht Club. Hal Tovin is running for the Undergraduate Council.

Brothers Bruce Damiani, Gary Tumbri, Jay Abraham and Dave Field are on the varsity baseball team; Ross Greenburg, Tony Fiorillo and Steve McCormick are playing rugby; Raul Sanchez-Elia is on the varsity tennis team; Rick Hayden, Joe Pappitto, John Burnham and Dave Wilbur will be sailing again for the varsity this spring; and Steve Kurtz is running track.

Jeffrey Starke was admitted to medical school this spring and Bill Barbeosch and Tom Goldberg received acceptances from law school.

Bucknell University Unity and Respect

Amidst intense academic pressure, and a veritable epidemic of the flu, the Brothers of Pennsylvania Gamma have continued to radiate a consciousness of unity and the development of a close brotherhood. The essence of this attitude is the utterance "respect," he who gives it shall receive it.

Founders Day '76, held February 16, was, as customary, an interesting and highly enjoyable time for all. The board has graciously offered to assist the chapter in the planned renovation and refurbishment of the games room furniture. Guy Schlesinger '66, an attorney-at-law, was announced as the new chapter advisor.

The "Roman Orgy" party upheld its long standing tradition of excellence and peerless consumption of gusto. Social Chairman Jeff Walsh kept a wary and watchful eye over the night's proceedings from atop his throne.

With winter upon us, we have made improvements on the interior of the house. The Bar has been fully panelled with barn wood, while the remaining wall space was painted. New curtains were made for the windows of the room. The proposed bar for the pool room remains in the tedious planning stage.

Phi Psis have continued to be active in community services with Dave Dempsey and Henry Mansel assisting mentally retarded children from Selinsgrove State Hospital in developing their athletic skills.

Intercollegiately, the men of Pennsylvania Gamma have earned recognition and commendation for their fine athletic performances. In the East Coast Conference swimming championships, John Gherlein, varsity swimming golden diver, placed first in both the one and three meter diving. Gary Bonosorte, an avid runner, competed for Bucknell on the two mile relay team in the NCAA's, held in Detroit. The team placed third, and for its performance was awarded All-American status. Rugby players Gerard Purcell, Tom Heinen, Gary Cummings, Chris Karabin, and Terrence O'Connor have contributed to the high quality and dignity of the Bucknell team. Ward Rafferty and Chip Brogan are members of the lacrosse team, and Allan Jay is captain of the varsity tennis squad.

In his second year as program director for WVBU-FM radio station, Terry Ginn has exhibited superlative guidance in transforming the music to a level of greater "progressiveness." His enthusiasm has spread throughout the house as five Brothers are DJs.

Phi Psi welcomes all Brothers and friends any time. Take it easy—we look forward to seeing you all in May at The Houseparty.

Butler University Highest Grades

Indiana Zeta started the second semester strong by initiating seven new Brothers: James V. Berger, Kevin P. Calabro, Roger W. Hurlbut Jr., and Charles O. Shirley, Indianapolis; M. Shane Rummel, Evansville; Ralph J. Berry, Findlay, Ohio; Thomas M. Harris, Woodburn. These new initiates are extremely enthusiastic and hard working as is evident by their 3.018 pledge class GPA, which was the highest average among pledge classes on campus.

As a chapter, we again achieved the highest grade point average among the male housing units on campus, stretching our record to 13 consecutive semesters.

While we are on scholarship, we would like to congratulate David W. Buck for being selected as our Summerfield scholar.

Our social life has not been neglected at all this semester. We are now paired with the Alpha Chi Omega sorority and are busy preparing our act for Spring Sing. We also have socials planned with the Kappa Kappa Gamma and Pi Beta Phi sororities, and have set April 24 as the date for our annual trip to King's Island, an amusement park just outside Cincinnati.

Officers elected for this semester are: James Coleman, GP; Douglas Pollack, VGP; Paul Anderson, AG; Jeffrey Fehn, P; John Zietlow, BG; Robert Daly, SG; David Bushman, Phu; Joe Lykins, Hod; and James Kerr, Hi.

We at Indiana Zeta are very excited as progress on our housing situation continues very favorably. A plan has been settled on, and the fund raising is scheduled to begin in mid-March. Of course, any donations would be greatly appreciated. If you would like any further information about our fund drive write us at: Butler University, Box 9, Indianapolis, IN 46208.

Our rush has taken its typical mid-year plunge for the worse, but we have three fine pledges in Kevin Gueldenhaar, Pontiac, Ill.; Kevin Tully, Vienna, Va.; and Louis William Kelly Sieben, Dover, N.J. We also have several prospective pledges who are at present deciding which of their options to take.

With our dreams of a house turning to reality, one can see the morale running very high at Zeta. We have a lot of work to do in the very near future, but there is a true fraternal spirit evident here, and Indiana Zeta is growing stronger.

UCLA Continuing Fine Traditions

The Winter Quarter at Cal Ep began with a full week of diverse rush activities including kegger softball, a hypnotist, various exchanges and happy hours. The week culminated with the pledging of four fine men: Bill Moylan, Sophomore; Dallas von Pohlmann, Junior; Vic Ramirez, Junior; and Clark Dubreuil, Junior.

Socially, the chapter has had a fun quarter. Not long after the hectic rush week we had a successful exchange with the Chi Omega Sorority which included an activity unfamiliar to most Southern California Brothers: ice skating. A regional exchange was held at USC with many area chapters participating.

In a continuing effort to revive old traditions we reinstated the annual Phi Psi Pajamarino. All Brothers and their dates wore evening attire, and along with the Cal Ep recipe for "killer punch," the evening was a total success. All alumni may be assured that this fine tradition will continue.

Athletically, the Chapter is still one of the top groups on campus with good showings in basketball and rugby. Tom Spivack placed first in intramural racquetball, beating many other fine men.

Scholastically, the chapter is maintaining a GPA well above the all University Men's GPA. In addition, Mike Sajbel and Bruce Fernandez are up for Phi Beta Kappa, with Brother Fernandez being recently accepted to medical school. Past chapter president Jerry Waters was this year's recipient of the Solon E. Summerfield Award.

Cal Ep participated in Founders Day with the other fine Phi Psi Chapters in the area. In attendance at the dinner were Brother Ken Potter, Vice President of the Fraternity, John Ciccarelli, District VI Archon, and many other distinguished alumni from the Los Angeles area. We are continually updating our list of alumni and invite all Cal Ep Brothers to drop us a line.

Recent major improvements on the house have included new draperies throughout, new carpeting in several rooms, and new cabinetry in several places.

Many undergraduate Brothers from across the country have been dropping in from time to time to experience Cal Ep hospitality. Among them are Roger Deuring, Indiana Beta; Greg Kempton, Iowa Beta, and Jaime Klein, Ohio Beta. In Brother Klein's case, the weather and the surroundings got to him, so he stayed. All Brothers who are traveling in the area should give us notice if possible if they plan on dropping in. All are welcome.

Our future plans include a pledge-active party, a Mardi Gras kick-off celebration with the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, and our infamous Viva Zapata party. Currently our back yard is being used for the preparation of our booth, the House of Horrors, for Mardi Gras April 23, 24 & 25. With our calendar full, we are anticipating a most exciting spring quarter.

NESTOR BARRERO, Correspondent

California Polytechnic State Univ. Poly Royal

We kicked off spring this year with a very successful rush program led by co-chairman Donald D. Shrum and Scott D. Shaw. The main features of the two week rush period were: A beach party, bike hike, and a sorority exchange. Cal Eta's 21st pledge class members include: Guy Chadwick, Aiea, Hawaii; Craig William Elferdink, Temple City; Donald Robert Foge and David Robert Long, San Luis Obispo; William Patrick Frederickson, San Marino; Mark Adolph Golden, Paicines; Randall Neil Gordon, Alamo; Robert Ivan Helt, San Diego; John Daniel Pietro, Fresno; Barton Edward Stabler, San Gabriel; Randolph John Zorkocy, Arcadia.

February 7, 1976, will long be full of memories for Cal Eta. On this day we proudly initiated our 20th pledge class. The new Brothers are: Roland O. Lee, Sanger; Devitt Royce Charles, Gardena; Frank Hamilton Dugan, Palos Verdes; Kenneth James Pedersen, Kenneth James Ruppert, Ontario; Bruce David Broidy, San Francisco; Jeff Hogg, Redondo Beach; Gerald Mendelovitz, Alhambra; Stephen McLee Guidotti, Salinas; J. Dorian McKelvy, Atherton; and Thomas Campbell Baxter, La Hembra. We at Cal Eta are very proud of our new members, and look forward to growing with them.

The new officers for this quarter are: Edward E. Parraz, GP; Alan A. J. Cook, VGP; Rick R. Garza, P; Grant R. Taylor, AG; John W. Miyawaki, BG; Thomas J. Crowhurst, SG; Donald Valliere, Hi; Robert J. Vojtek, Hod; Gregory D. Olson, Phu; and John C. James, our Pledge Educator.

In December, we at Cal Eta were saddened to learn of the loss of our Chapter House. Our main goal for the rest of this year is the purchasing of a new Chapter House and a successful Ten Year Anniversary to coincide with Poly Royal. Our housing corporation and our new house committee are hard at work on the location and purchasing of a new house. With everyone's concern and hard work, we should have a new chapter house before June.

Cal Eta's 10th Year Anniversary is being celebrated along with Poly Royal this year on the weekend of April 23 and the festivities planned for the weekend are: Fri., April 23, an "Open House" to welcome back founding Brothers, alumni, and friends; Sat. April 24, beginning with a "Gin Fizz" breakfast and ending with a "Poly Royal-10th Anniversary Banquet" and dance.

We are in the midst of planning our second annual Easter egg hunt to be held at Laguna Lake. With the leadership of Brother Mike Butala, we expect the event to be very successful. Last year we colored over 3,000 eggs and hid them for 300 kids under the age of ten.

We just finished up our basketball season undefeated for the third straight year. Our team was led by the excellent coaching of Mark Shorba and Donald Valliere. We are looking forward to a very promising baseball season.

Our annual building fund sweepstakes is coming up soon and our goal is to raise $3,000 for our new house.

We look forward to a successful spring quarter and the purchasing of a new chapter house.

GRANT R. TAYLOR, Correspondent

California State University, Northridge Vice President Visits

The highlight of the spring semester for the Brothers of Cal Theta included our participation in two Founders Day commemorations with the Northridge and Southern California Alumni Associations. The latter included Brothers from Cal Delta (U.S.C.), Cal Epsilon (U.C.L.A.) and Cal Eta (Cal Poly, S.L.O.), as well as guest speaker, Vice Pres. J. Kenneth Potter.

Brother Potter later joined District VI Archon John Ciccarelli and the Brothers of Cal Theta and Cal Eta for an open house at the chapter house of the Cal State Northridge chapter.

As usual this is an action-packed year of solidification for Cal Theta, which saw our active membership double in size. We are now 40 men strong.

Although this spring's pledge class is the smallest in the past two years if measured by size, the quality appears to be right on par with the larger, successful classes of recent years. The new pledges include: Dave Berman, Northridge; John Leighty and Rudy Moreno, Carpinteria; and Paul Newnham, Lancaster.

Rapidly approaching is our eighth annual "Phi Psi 500," and this year the proceeds will be donated to the Easter Seals Foundation to aid handicapped children. The week of events begins April 5, with the infamous tricycle race taking place at 3:00 P.M., April 9, at the Cal Theta chapter house. It will be followed by a "Super-500 Exchange" that evening in final celebration of the week's events. An open invitation is extended to all who wish to join us in the fun.

The Brothers also joined Cal Delta, Cal Epsilon and Cal Eta for a regional exchange of the California chapters in District VI, last Feb. 27. We thank the Brothers of Cal Delta for their hospitality in hosting the party.

Looking forward to seeing you all at the Phi Psi 500, or anytime you wish to drop by our house. Remember, you're always welcome at Cal Theta.

Colgate University 1976 Initiates

As a result of a strong rush effort, particularly by Co-Rush Chairmen Thomas McInerney and Howard Helfman, and by Edward Corr, New York Epsilon has pledged a class of great quality this Spring. The consensus in the chapter is that this class of 34 pledges will prove to be as good or better than any of the last few years.

The high achievement of seniors Howard Helfman and Barry Small should be duly noted here. Helfman attained Phi Beta Kappa status this January, distinguishing himself as one of the finest scholars on campus. Helfman plans to attend medical school this coming fall. Small achieved distinction in the field of sport. The All-American soccer player was drafted by the Dallas Tornados of the North American Soccer League, and has left school to attend rookie camp. All the Brothers wish Howard and Barry the best of luck for the future.

University of Colorado House Renovation

To date, we have seen a rather busy as well as a productive semester at Colorado Alpha. The house now has taken on an acceptable appearance of which any chapter would be proud. At the time of this reading, the heads should be fit even for those of royal blood.

Three persons who deserve credit for helping the house ascend from the poverty level are: Don McLean, Glenn Jones and Jim Badham. They helped organize the painting, the staining and the recovery of the basement.

The house is due for refinancing too, so there are more improvements on the way.

Socially, we are doing well. We had a good showing of alumni for Founders Day dinner. And we have had fine success with our rush parties and have some good prospective pledges. A wine and cheese party was held with the Kappas.

Our new initiates for this year are: Phil Fields, M. K. Walker, Glenn Jones and Ralf Richards. We congratulate these fine young men and welcome them as Brothers of Phi Kappa Psi.

In sports, Phi Psi took first place in an interfraternity ski slalom. Individually, Don McLean came in first, Mark Fuller took second and Jim Badham came in fourth place, icing the team victory. The basketball team, with Phil Fields at center and Lee Walker at guard, has had great success so far this season. Coming up next is softball, and hopes seem to ride on the pitching arm of Phil Hood.

WILLIAM C. MASON, Correspondent

Columbia University Fort of Dedication

In the midst of New York City's economic crush, Phi Kappa Psi remains a fort of dedication to self-help and productivity.

New York Gamma has mobilized its human resources and entered into the brownstone renovation business. More as an act of self-preservation than a concerted business effort, we have continued to repair and refurbish our chapter house on 113th Street. Our ambitious new house manager, Tom Kavett, has joined GP Peter Rose and VGP Bob Sindorfin providing the house with new bathroom facilities. Jonathan Haft and several new pledges, Xavier Huguet of Barcelona, Spain, and John Carlin, East Orange, N.J., and Marc Lipscher of Larchmont, have joined Tom in extending our basement darkroom facilities. All the Brothers worked on these projects when the schedule permitted and the cooperative effort has resulted not only in a more comfortable lifestyle, but has brought a strength and unity to New York Gamma that is unparalleled in our recent history. Throughout the building, and especially in the new chapter room and kitchen, we have displayed the fruits of our individual creative endeavours. Paintings, photographs, one sculpture and homemade furniture produced in the basement studio that we set up during the summer, provide the house with practical as well as purely aesthetic pleasures.

Life at New York Gamma is not all work. During the holidays, we had a couple of great parties. At Thanksgiving, Peter Rose organized an enormous feast inviting everybody to bring a dish of their own. Nearly 40 people arrived bearing food and drink to share with each other. The chapter lived off of the leftovers for a week. Our annual New Year's Eve party brought together a dozen or more musicians from the Phi Psi circle of artists. The continuous energy from this band kept the dancers going well into the new year.

The progress New York Gamma has made towards becoming a valuable asset to Phi Kappa Psi's nationwide family is not only reflected in our productivity within the chapter house, but extends into the Columbia community and beyond. Peter Rose has been furthering his considerable theatrical talents this spring as a star actor of The Potatoe Players, an acting company invaluable to Columbia because of their dedication to producing the work of student playwrights. Jose Vasquez has served the community by showing a series of classic films on and off campus. VGP Bob Sindorf has secured a showing of his sculpture in one of Manhattan's exclusive Madison Avenue galleries.

A visit from our chapter consultant, Guy Minardi, was a source of inspiration to the chapter. His suggestions especially in the area of alumni relations were the basis of plans to seek greater alumni support for New York Gamma.

We congratulate Peter Rose as this year's recipient of the Summerfield Award.

As warm weather thaws the Columbia campus, New York Gamma is making plans to face rival touch-football teams. Many of the Brothers will remain at the house during the summer to continue the improvements and make plans for attending the Bicentennial GAC.

Cornell University Active Spring Foreseen

For New York Alpha, spring promises to be a busy time of year. Pledging, of course, is the spring's primary activity, and pledgemaster Hammon Buck foresees no problems in putting together a program that is both exciting and enriching for Brothers and pledges alike. This has already been evidenced by the pledges' hockey victory over the Brothers in the annual Frankel Cup competition, where Brothers and pledges compete in a number of different sports. Despite this minor setback, the Brothers remain confident that the pledges will be defeated in the long run, as has every pledge class in the history of the Frankel Cup.

Pledging New York Alpha this spring are: John Benjamin Jr., Highland Park, IL; Richard Bobrow, Scarsdale; Walker Bowman, St. Charles, IL; Christopher Conner, Mechanicsburg, PA; Martin Dymek and John Tillapaugh, Ithaca; Robert Eisenbrown, Shaker Heights, OH; Edward Fitzpatrick, Hyde Park, MA; John Griffin, Baldwin; Thomas Higgins III, Glastonbury, CT; Joseph Hoover, Rimersburg, PA; Roger Houck, Easton, PA; Henry Hughes, Lancaster, PA; Timothy Miller, Virginia Beach, VA; Michael Murphy, Oneonta; Jack Petti, East Rochester; Francis Puppato, Rochester; Gregory Raschdorf, Elmont; Frederick Read, Milwaukee, WI; John Ryan, Gregory Strub, Basking Ridge, NJ; John Skudin, Freeport; Scott Smith, Brooklyn; Lee Spielman, Huntingdon Valley, PA; and Randall Wong, Westwood, MA.

An active social program naturally goes well with the return of warmer weather, and social chairmen Henry Morganbesser and David Voigt have come up with a program that redefines the word "active." Phi Psi's annual "Purple Passion" party will be held on March 20, to be followed by Parents' Weekend (April 23-25), and Spring Weekend (May 7-9). Last but not least will be the Phi Psi 500 party following the race on May 1. Speaking of the 500, Larry Kummer promises that this year's race will be bigger and better than last year's. "We also hope to greatly increase the size of our donation to charity," adds Larry, who together with the rest of the 500 committee is in the final stages of choosing a charity, and ironing out the bugs in the race itself. Larry, by the way, has been a very busy fellow lately. He recently initiated plans for a Phi Psi Internship Program, through which Brothers and alumni can work together to find internships or summer jobs for NY Alphans. Any interested alumni are encouraged to contact Larry at the chapter house.

New York Alpha is proud to announce its selection for the Solon E. Summerfield Award: Harold Gulbransen. Harold, a former treasurer and president of the chapter, has been a consistent source of leadership for the Brothers in the last three years. An avid bicyclist, Harold has been a member of the heavyweight crew team in each of his four years at Cornell, and he is organizing this year's annual Coaches' Dinner.

In intramurals, Phi Psi is battling back from its disappointing fall season, but chances for a repeat of last year's all-sports-championship look slim. Strong finishes in both bowling and track should help our overall standing, and, of course, anything can happen—especially with the entire spring slate of sports yet to be played. This year's athletically oriented pledge class should also help us to improve our position.

DANIEL LYNN, Correspondent

Creighton University Broadening Our Horizons

An outstanding rush, directed by Bill Collins, resulted in a phenomenal pledge class of 42 new men. Nebraska Beta's new pledges include: Raymond Annis, Joliet, Ill.; Michael Atkinson, San Francisco, Ca.; Thomas Bolt, Belleville, Ill.; Carl Borakko, Richard Donnelly, Randall Castegnaro, Rockford, Ill.; Richard Bordwell, Duane Nielson, Allen Shimon, Pocahontas, Ia.; Steven Bruckner, Lincoln; Carlos Bujosa, Houston, Tx.; Thomas Calabro, Brian Choyeske, Thomas Kirsch, Omaha; Brian Driscoll, Hauppauge, N.Y.; Stephen Dudek, Robert Powers, Milwaukee, Wi.; Brad Frantzen, Aurora, Ill.; Paul Garner, Prairie Village, Ks.; Tom Gass, Boise, Id.; Richard Giannini, Albuquerque, N.M.; John Gilbert, James Landon, Peoria, Ill.; Frank Grilli, E. We are confident that pledge educator Charles McKenny and his committee will mold these fine prospects into true Phi Psis.

In athletics, captain Mark Gentile led the Phi Psi I's basketball squad to a 53-51 upset victory over our biggest rivals. The win virtually assures our undefeated hoopsters of the Fraternity division title, and clears the way for an attempt at the all-university basketball championship. With the strong showing of our team, we are now in the lead in an effort to capture our fourth straight All-University intramural athletic trophy. Wrestling, Ping Pong, Swimming, Golf, Track and Field are the only events remaining on the intramural calendar.

The Phi Kappa Psi formal, our biggest and best social event of the year, is planned for late March, and we are hoping to get as many alumni to attend as possible. Many long hours of careful planning and hard work have already been put in by the Formal committee, but judging from past experiences, the results are well worth the investment.

Mike Groom has completed all of the editorial and mechanical details of relaunching our alumni newsletter, the "Phi Psightings," and the first issue is being printed up now.

Academically our chapter is near the top of the list for the highest fraternity grade point average with a 3.1. Also congratulations are in order for Theodore Wentzel, who was selected as our Solon E. Summerfield award recipient this year.

Founders Day this year was perhaps our most successful. The traditional dinner was held at the Venice Inn with representatives from our chapter, Nebraska Alpha and Omaha area alumni in attendance.

To date this semester Mark McKinzie and his fund-raising committee have held a car wash with profitable results, and are planning a number of other selling schemes to help ease the burden placed upon our budget.

Charles Roggenstein and Robert Pin-tauro have been elected by our chapter to represent Nebraska Beta at the GAC this August in Washington.

DePauw University Busy Spring

After participating in DePauw's winter term program during the month of January, the men of Indiana Alpha are back on campus and well into the second semester. Among the topics studied were: examination of a coral reef community in the Bahamas, learning the workings of the Chicago Board of Trade, and observation in several community hospitals.

After working on the house the night prior to initiation, 22 men were entered in the Chapter Rolls on 7 February. Initiated were: Lance Barnes, Monmouth, Ill.; Jim Barrett, Lebanon; Bob Beaumont, Muncie; Jeff Bernacchi, La Porte; Jeff Brown, John Irwin, Frankfort; Lynn Brown, Dave Grant, Jim Theye, Fort Wayne; Bruce Cannon, Decatur, Ill.; Doug Conner, Kurt Kingseed, Kokomo; Jim Cramer, Wabash; Tony Ekenga, Nigeria; Mike Fitzgerald, Barrington, Ill.; Doug Johnston, Garrett; Gary Kriebel, Western Springs, Ill.; Carl Mehlhope, Cincinnati, O.; Ward Neff, W. Lafayette; Dave Poggemeier, St. Charles, Mo.; Will Roess, Lima, O.; and Tim Swift, Okemos, Mich. During that evening's initiation banquet John Irwin was named Pledge-of-the-Year. The following evening chapter officers were elected for the upcoming year. They are: Blake Turner, GP; Peter Prowitt, VGP; Ward Neff, AG; Robert Krebs, P; Doug Johnston, BG; Kurt Kingseed, SG; Doug Conner, Hod; Dave Grant, Phu; and John Irwin, Hi.

Senior Tom Morris has been named this year's Summerfield Scholar. A Radio and Television Communications major, Tom is also secretary-treasurer of Gold Key. Also on Gold Key are Stan Kinsey and Tim Pearson, serving as president. Sophomore Randy Romero was recently named president of Campus Board, and Randy Oliver was elected to Student Senate.

Rush Chairman Jeff Kennedy is already hard at work in formulating next year's pledge class, with one fine spring pledge secured in Gerry Roth from La Porte. Jeff would welcome any recommendations concerning young men considering DePauw.

A delegation from Indiana Alpha participated in State Day ceremonies in Indianapolis February 21, and found it a rewarding and stimulating experience.

All things considered, this has been a superb year for Phi Psi at DePauw. With enthusiasm and dedication, and the continued interest of alumni and friends, next year promises to be even better.

Dickinson College House Renovations

If one were to visit Penn. Zeta this spring, you would find one very proud and confident Fraternity chapter. After a long and hard rush program, we are now pledging 16 freshmen, the largest number of freshmen pledging any fraternity on this campus this spring. The pledges, Keith Adams, Rick Balmer, Scott Creekpaum, Mark Loughlin, John MacDonald, Dan Sunderland, Fred Woerner, Chris Winner, Mark Shubert, Steve Schmidt, Peter Vogel, Ed Traub, John

Ott (pledge class president), Jim DuCharme, Jon Kontoleon, and Irwin Minsky have kidnapped several Brothers on two different occasions and have been very enthusiastic in the other aspects of the pledging program. We are having Spring Pledge formals on the first weekend of April and are asking the alumni to come back and celebrate this weekend with us.

Our recreation room is just about finished being renovated and we are awaiting for the furniture. It has been the model for other renovations in other houses and we are thankful to our alumni for helping to make this possible.

Our intramural teams are doing well in softball, soccer, bowling, squash, tennis, and golf. Brothers are also excelling in academics (Steve Joseph, '76, was elected into Phi Beta Kappa this spring) and extracurricular activities as the editor in chief of the yearbook, the sports editor, and the production manager of the radio station on campus are all Phi Psis.

We are happy to report that the Penn. Zeta chapter is doing well and looking forward to a nice, long summer break.

CLAY RAILEY, Correspondent

Duke University Windom Visits

Spring term started early this year for North Carolina Alpha with warm weather urging everyone to put aside their books and enjoy the outdoors. The one intramural softball team and three volleyball teams are out in full force and expect to wrap up a good season, all scoring above 500.

Our fourteen new pledges are Dave Bailey, Winston-Salem; Jim Baxter, Worcester, Mass.; Dave Boyd, Kenilworth, Ill.; Rob Fishman, Hewlett, N.Y.; Tyler Heerwagen, Indianapolis, Ind.; Eddy Kay, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Rich Mason, Wallingford, Pa.; George Miller, Birmingham, Ala.; Roger Morgan, Deerfield, Ill.; Scott Poelker, Seabrook, Md.; Bill Sliwa, Lincolnwood, Ill.; Bob Watral, Suffern, N.Y.; Dave Wertz, Baltimore, Md.; and Dave Zilch, Lakeland, Fla.

Three Brothers elected officers to the Duke University Marching Band were John Watt, president, Jim Whitaker, vice-president and Floyd Rowley, social chairman.

We had the pleasure of entertaining, or really being entertained by, the well renowned William Windom, who performed "Windom plays Turber" at Duke. Windom dropped by the section and was "smashed" by Jim Whitaker in a game of Beer Pong.

All in all, this semester has been a good one. With six weeks to go in the semester, the Fraternity is anxiously looking toward the annual farewell blast at Myrtle Beach following finals. For North Carolina Alpha, more good times are definitely in sight.

Eastern New Mexico University Alumni Mailing List

With the first quarter of the Bicentennial year almost completed, New Mexico Alpha is still in the same location and holding its own. In case you have tried to phone us lately for one reason or another, and received a recording informing you the number is no longer in service, we've had a pay phone installed. Our new number is 356-8919.

At the present time, New Mexico Alpha has 16 dues paying Brothers, and six pledges. Seven persons are living in the house. There are seven Brothers returning next fall, and most of the pledges, so it should prove to be an interesting year.

We are currently trying to establish addresses of all alumni, but seem to be having little luck, as people seem to move and not keep in touch. If you would like to be on the alumni relations list, please let us know you're still alive, and where you're living. We will, in turn, let you know where persons you might know are living, and what they are doing.

One of the Brothers, Fred Shum-pert is currently running for the County Sheriff's position. The Roosevelt primaries are in June, and Shum-pert is very enthusiastic about the campaign.

The traditional Bacchanalia was held on March 6, and as in the past, was an overwhelming success. We toasted to virtually everyone and everything possible, with the also traditional Spu juice, very potent as many Brothers may or may not remember.

We are currently the fraternity and all campus volleyball, and water basketball champions, while in Greek Week, Phi Psis managed to finish in fourth place. With softball season up-and-coming, the team looks energetic.

We are trying to establish a rush for next semester. If you have any ideas, please tell us about them by letter or phone. Any and all ideas would be greatly appreciated.

Franklin and Marshall College Continuing Efforts

Penn Eta is in the final stages of this year's spring rush, traditionally our most successful rushing season. This year our prospects look especially promising. As of March 10, we are able to announce the pledging of freshman Mark D. Burd, Trenton, N.J. In addition, a number of prospectives are very interested in pledging.

While our energies have been concentrated on rushing, the Brothers paused to initiate last fall's pledge, freshman John C. Calhoun, Wexford, Pa.

On another front, we are currently cooperating with several Lancaster area alumni and the Fraternity headquarters to reactivate the now dormant Lancaster Alumni Association. There are a great number of Phi Psi alumni in the area and we hope that soon an active Lancaster alumni group will become a reality.

Some of our Brothers who have risen to positions of influence on campus have retired or will do so this spring. These include Dave Stephan, former co-editor-in-chief of the college newspaper, and Rick Oestrike, president of the F and M Geological Society.

Meanwhile, other Penn Etans continue to be active. Ed Fanning is currently serving his second consecutive term on the Interfraternity Council Judiciary Board, while Harry Jacobowitz was appointed copy editor of the college newspaper.

The Interfraternity Council plans a spring weekend this April 24, featuring the Spring Games, a series of contests sponsored by each of the fraternities. Creative Phi Psi Brothers and pledges will be at work setting up the obstacle course.

In other fraternity news, the local chapter of Zeta Beta Tau suffered a setback this spring when it failed to get a house it had hoped for. Nevertheless, ZBT continues to try, thanks to strong support from its alumni.

Finally, F and M plans to open its long-awaited College Center later this spring. The College Center will serve as a hub for campus activities.

Gettysburg College 120th Anniversary

Alumni involvement has become the theme of the spring semester at Pennsylvania Epsilon. The chapter is involved in an effort to give alumni a greater opportunity to become active once again. The Brothers have planned a celebration in honor of the chapter's 120th anniversary in which the keynote will be "Lifetime Fraternal Commitment."

The Pledge Education Committee is pleased to announce the 1976 pledge class: Jeff Bartolina, Cranbury, N.J.; Jack Howard, Bloomfield, N.J.; Ray Laudo, Eastchester, N.Y.; Tim Murphy, Glen Ridge, N.J.; Dan Priga, Reading; Tom Tillet, Martinsburg; Dale Yingst, Middletown; Jeff Barber, Aliquippa; Steve Sheaffer, Norwalk, Conn.; and Matt McManness, Tyler, Texas.

On April 10, the Brothers celebrated the traditional Sweetheart's Weekend. The house was decorated in the appropriate atmosphere by the pledges and a full weekend of activities were planned. The weekend was highlighted by a dinner-dance and the entire time period was judged a great success.

The chapter has also remembered its commitment to the campus by continuing its involvement and work within the College Union Board, remaining active in the Student Senate, the school newspaper, the college choir and various athletic teams—both intercollegiate and intramural.

With spring, one turns to softball and the Phi Psi softball teams will be trying once again to enter the playoffs and continue their dominance of the diamonds. Both softball teams are presently undefeated.

Officers for the remainder of this term are: Robert Barth, GP; Chris Mihot, VGP; Wilton J. Gates III, P; Steve Shrader, AG; Richard Edwards, BG; David Czuba, SG; John Knob, Hod; James Baker, Phu; and John Hanna, Hi.

University of Illinois Busy Spring

The spring semester once again found Illinois Delta busily at work. The list of activities included: the Atius-Sachem Sing, Moms' Weekend, rush, initiation, intramurals, and spring formal.

Each year, on Moms' weekend, the Atius and Sachem honorary societies sponsor a variety-talent show competition. This year, the men of Illinois Delta paired with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and performed a medley of songs from the thirties, highlighted by dancing in the style of Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers. Jeff Huard, Wain Smith, and Paul Presney coordinated a fine effort.

In addition to the Atius-Sachem Sing, several other activities were scheduled for Moms' weekend. Rick Ceechi was in charge of the events which included a welcoming brunch, a "getting together" at one of the famous Champaign bars, and dinner at the Town and Country Restaurant. Following the Atius-Sachem Sing, a party for the Phi Psi and Theta moms was held at the chapter house. The weekend provided both moms and their sons with many fun-filled memories.

Informal Rush Chairman, Brad Young did a fine job this spring bringing 15 new pledges into the Phi Psi fold. The new pledges include: Mike Osowski, Pat Koelher, Chicago; Bob Lietz, Staunton; Kris Bachtell, Park Forest; Gerry Mitchell, Harvey; Peter Bowden, Arlington Heights; Pat O'Keefe, Oak Park; Rob Relfsnyder, Terre Haute, Ind.; Kurt Hoff, Calumet City; Mike Corry, Oak Park; Luke Lohmeyer, Woodstock; Dan Veva, Joliet; John Kurgan, Dave Herrmann, Glenview.

Congratulations to our midterm initiates: Bob Antee, Olympia Fields; Bob Castillo, Villa Park; Todd Clausen, Park Forest; Rick Sigerich, Chicago.

In intramurals, Phi Psis continued to make a strong showing. The "A" basketball team, paced by Tom "H" Halloran, made the playoffs, as did the "B" and "C" league teams. In swimming, Bob Dudley set a new intramural record and Chris Hildebrand captured first place in diving to lead the Cardinal Red and Hunter Green to a third place finish in the meet. Illinois Deltans were also proud of Illini swimmers Ed Woodbury and Chris Williams who qualified for both the Big Ten and NCAA finals.

Spring Formal was held in the luxurious settings of Century Twenty-One Hotel in Champaign. The evening began with a fabulous dinner and continued with music and dancing well into the night. It was an evening for all the Phi Psis and their dates to cherish and remember.

Looking ahead to the end of the spring semester, Illinois Delta is preparing for formal rush. Rush Chairman, Doug Smith, has prepared well for the big weekend and we are confident of a strong rush.

In closing, the Brothers of Illinois Delta would like to wish all of its graduating seniors the best of luck in all their future endeavors. Their efforts during the past four years are very much appreciated and have made for many happy memories. We hope that all the chapters have a safe trip to the GAC.

Indiana University House Improvements

The spring semester at Indiana Beta is once again abundant with campus and fraternity activities, ranging from chapter elections and house improvements to participation in I.U. Sing and the gala Indiana University Little 500 bicycle race. The initial highlight of this semester, however, was initiation day for the 15 members of the fall pledge class.

February 6, 1976, was the big day for these new initiates: Jim Stevens, Brian Clarke, and Jeffrey Frank, Columbus; Mark Broady and Bruce Glidden, Brazil; Fred G. Osborn and William Mohr, Kokomo; Stuart Kelly, Marion; Jon Spafford, Bloomington; Thomas Seger and John Siebert, Jasper; H. Spencer Knotts, Elwood; Kurt Kahlo, Indianapolis; John A. Scudder III, Ft. Wayne; and Michael Brennan, South Bend. Wayne Wilson, Attorney General for the Fraternity, was the speaker and guest of honor at the initiation banquet. Outstanding pledge honors went to John Siebert, who follows his two older brothers and his father in receiving this prestigious award.

To complement the newly initiated fall class, we currently have ten members in this year's spring pledge class: Mark Wetzel, Lafayette; Scott Gilreath, Van Stone, Scott Marsh, and Glenn Seger, Evansville; Craig Anderson, Marion; Dan Stockdale, Indianapolis; Jay Covington, Evanston, Ill.; and Paul Schneider, Chicago, Ill. We have hopes of pledging a few more young men in the spring class and taking a large fall pledge class, as we will be having an extraordinarily large number of graduating seniors (23).

March 10, election of new officers was held. Those elected are: David Rau, GP; J. R. Sarpa and Roddy G. Stutsman, Co-VGPs; and Lyle Robinson, BG. The other present officers of the house are Peter Wyall, P; Jim Stevens, AG; Doug Pond, SG; Barr White, Hod; Dean Myers, Phu; and Brad Lindemann, Hi. These offices will be held until November, 1976, with the exceptions of the P, SG, and AG, who will hold their offices until February of 1977.

An honors banquet was held on March 13 by the undergraduate members for those distinguished alumni who have been exceptional in their dedication to the Fraternity and to the chapter. During the banquet, special recognition was given to Charles S. Buschmann '14, Phillip M. Cornelius '25, Willis Hickam '13, John E. Stempel '20, Edward C. Von Tress '17, and Burdell W. Baker '20 (unable to attend). Plaques were awarded these outstanding Betans.

A vast amount of time and effort has been spent this past year on making house improvements. Gracious donations from our Mother's Club as well as chapter funds have enabled us to repaint and wallpaper our formal hallway, construct new benches and purchase new draperies for this area, place an attractive brick tile in certain areas of the hallway, as well as repaint and wallpaper the women's powder room.

On campus, Phi Psi recently teamed with the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority to earn a third place in I.U. Sing for the second straight year. Under the direction of song leader Doug Pond, an imaginative script entitled "Alice in I.U. Land" was composed. Several weeks of hard practice combined with excellent choreography and humorous lyrics earned yet another high finish for Phi Psi in this annual campus event.

The campus event of the year, however, is the Little 500 bike race. Phi Psi is ranked first in overall standings over the race's twenty-six year history. With the return of three veteran riders from last year's fourth-place finishing team, hopes are high for maintaining this first place ranking with an unprecedented seventh win.

Our tradition of campus involvement was also upheld this spring by the appointment of two Brothers to a major campus organization. Bob Lindsey '74, of Bloomington, Ind. is this year's Student Athletic Board president. Brad Griffith '75, of Lafayette, Ind. will team with Brother Lindsey as a Student Athletic Board Steering Committeeman.

Intramurally we are on the upswing after a poor showing at the start of the year. We placed three of our four basketball teams in the playoffs, our top ping-pong team advanced far in the intramural tournament, and our pool team won its division and is doing well in tournament play.

Always placing an emphasis on academics, Indiana Beta is once again rated among the top fraternities on campus. The chapter was ranked fourth among the 33 fraternities at I.U., while the recently initiated fall class was ranked second among all the pledge classes. Earning membership to the Phi Eta Sigma honorary fraternity from this class are freshmen Jim Stevens, Mark Broady, Fred G. Osborn, and William Mohr.

Indiana University of Pennsylvania Spring Newsletter

Phi Psi 500 is coming to the Indiana community on March 28, 1976. Through the efforts of the Phi Psi brotherhood and a local department store owner, the 500 will wrap up Leukemia Week in Indiana, to which the proceeds of the project will go. Bill Debrason has engineered the event, which promises to be a worthwhile community relations project.

Ross "Doc" Butch is pleased with the results of rush this semester. It culminated with a wine and cheese formal held at the chapter house. The setting was typical of an Italian restaurant, with the red and white checkered tablecloths, candles, and a hired violinist. The following day, Terry Appolonia, Monongahela; Timothy Case, Lewistown; David Franz, Avonmore; Michael Higgins, Harrisburg; Charles Kalish, Beaver Falls; and Barry Melnkovic, Windber pledged Phi Kappa Psi. These pledges are a welcome addition to our chapter.

On the intramural scene, Pa. Nu has ranked second among the university fraternities. Don Houchins won first place in the intramural wrestling tournament held this semester. Hopefully, the bowling team will be successful also in the finals scheduled for this week.

With the Phi Psi 500, open rush continuing into the semester, and spring sports to look forward to, the Brothers are looking ahead to an active semester.

Iowa State University Busy Spring Planned

Rush is our main focus now as we look forward to spring quarter. Spring at Iowa Beta gives us two very good weekends for rush. The first of these is our Greek Week, beginning the second weekend in April. This gives us our first opportunity for a concentrated rush effort toward the visiting high school seniors. It is designed for three major purposes: (1) to give the high school students a chance to see the university; (2) to give them an idea of what Greek life is about; and (3) to give us a very good base for future members of our house.

The second opportunity for rushing high school seniors is at our Veishea in May. This celebration is unique to Iowa State University. It is our own spring celebration with parties, dances, concerts, parades, open houses, and many other things. A thing that is strictly unique to Iowa Beta is the annual Phi Psi All Greek Veishea Party. Last year's party was a very large success and we are expanding it this year to include all the Greek houses on campus. We will again have a band in front of the house for dancing and a beer truck in back for refreshments.

At Veishea we will again enter a float in the parade. Working with the Gamma Phi Beta sorority, we are decorating a large division motorized float. We have high hopes of winning!

Spring looks very busy for us, but with the able leadership of our officers, we should do very well. Officers for the remainder of the school year are: GP, Jay Blyth; VGP, Steve Heideman; AG, Ernie Lunsford; BG, Paul Peterson; P, Jim Colville; AP, Jim Lanphere; SG, Doug Fuller; Hod, Steve Calhoun; Phu, Gary Biederman; Hi, Dave Anderson; and Pledge Educator, Bill Reed.

ERNEST D. LUNSFORD, Correspondent

Johns Hopkins University Graduate School Placement

As the school year progresses, we are receiving notices of graduate and professional school placement for next year for some of our graduating Brothers. Stu Dickenson, our pole-vaulter-in-residence, will be attending the Johns Hopkins graduate department of physics; Herb Lovelless, our current GP, will be going to the Maryland Medical School; Harold Barr, to NYU business school; and Mike Ross, to either Ohio State or Illinois in chemistry.

Brother Schnitzer is now fully recovered after having swallowed 10 cc of salmonella culture in his research lab. He comments, "It was disgusting!"

In other frontiers, Mamoud Mustafa has been acclaimed Rathskeller Disco King. Harvey Soldan is now head of freshman advising for Johns Hopkins.

University of Kansas Founders Day

The spring semester of the 1976 school year is an exciting one for Kansas Alpha as we celebrate our centennial year. February 15 we initiated 13 new men into Phi Kappa Psi, bringing us, appropriately, to 1500 members and making us the second Phi Psi chapter to enter the 1500 club. Our new Brothers are: Michael Gunter, Douglas Shulte, Keith Schottman, David McGuire, Michael Rorig, James Orr, Kansas City; Steven Salanski, St. Joseph, Mo.; Frank Davenport, Arlington Heights, Ill.; Steve Hamous, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Kevin White, Hutchinson; and Rick Stern, St. Louis, Mo. We also pledged two men this semester—Robert Atkinson, Fort Riley; and James Muelberger, Kansas City.

Founders Day, held February 20 in Kansas City, was quite a success. Guest speakers were Congressmen Larry Winn and William Randal, from Kansas Alpha and Missouri Alpha, respectively. Missouri Alpha generously presented us with an engraved gavel in recognition of our Centennial Anniversary. With Kevin Parks directing our freshman choir in the song contest, we made a strong comeback against former champions, Missouri Alpha, and stole the first place trophy. Unfortunately, Missouri Beta was not with us this year.

Upon returning to school in January, we were pleased with our academic performance during the previous semester. We report 32 of 59 men achieving a 3.00 or better grade point average, including three men with a 4.00 average.

Other individuals achieved positions in the student government in the elections in late February. Jim Parker, Kansas City junior, was elected to represent the Business School as a student senator, and he was also elected to the Recruiting Committee for the Business School. Ralph Munyan, Kansas City freshman, was elected to Vice President of the Sophomore Class at the University.

Don Wilson has been keeping us occupied with wine, women, and song by planning a social function every two weeks. We have also made two exciting additions to our social calendar. The first, a Soul Party was an extraordinary happening, and occurred February 27. Costumes were abundant and very original, and the party was a great success. We are also looking forward to April 9, when we have our first Midnight Pajama Party. Our final party before exams will be the infamous Phi Psi 500 which is also to be a rush party.

The rush program, headed by Jim Parker and Louis Osborn, rush chairmen for Kansas City and Western Kansas, respectively, is busily underway. We have a party planned for March 27, and on March 5 there will be a Hutchinson Alumni Party.

In preparation for the centennial celebration, we are making numerous improvements on our house. With many of the Brothers donating their time, our diligent Mothers Club has raised $1500 through donations and is supplying new carpet and drapes for the second and third floors. New light fixtures are being added and the house exterior is being painted.

This is a very special year for us, not only because of our Centennial Anniversary, but also because this is the final year that our housemother, Mrs. Priscilla Johnson, will be with us. Mom has been with us for eight years; we wish her happiness, and we will miss her.

ROBERT B. MUNYAN, Correspondent

Kent State University Justice Prevails

Don't believe it when someone says there is no justice in this world. A brand new addition to Ohio Kappa is "Justice," a still-growing 40-pound puppy. He is only a mutt, but a lovable one. The Brothers guess he is part German shepherd, St. Bernard, collie and terrier.

Our intramural basketball team had a very rough time on the old wooden floor of Memorial Gym this season. Four out of four games, Ohio Kappa went down to disastrous defeats. Even Paul Weinstein's defensive skills, Gary Hawk's ferocious rebounding, and Ron Seuffert's 12 points per game average were not enough to win any games.

Brother Ed Beacon recently returned from a trip to the Midwest. Ed, of course, is a KSU pilot. Upon returning he treated the Brothers to some fine stories and some suds that cannot be found here in Ohio.

Marvin Stearns is a recent addition to the ranks of the Daily Kent Stater sports department. Marvin will probably be covering the Athletic Department office during spring quarter.

Greg Eppich and Ron are heading south for spring break. They will undoubtedly be combing the beaches of Hollywood and Fort Lauderdale, Fla., looking for the sun and other things.

Plans are underway for a super-big spring quarter rush program. Other than that, not much happening. Have fun, and have a safe summer.

RON SEUFFERT, Correspondent

Lafayette College Strong Pledge Class

We are proud to announce the pledging of 19 freshmen, our largest pledge class in 5 years. They are: Mark Bolstein, Scotch Plains, N.J.; William Braun, Staten Island, N.Y.; David Burke, Cape May Court House, N.J.; Frederick Chapman, Neptune, N.J.; Rees Doughty, Tinton Falls, N.J.; Robert Feinstein, Oreland; Scott Fitzpatrick, Port Washington, N.Y.; Joseph Gallaher, Rockville, Md.; Thomas Hartnett, Westfield, N.J.; Michael Henrici, Lawrenceville, N.J.; Kevin Kerlin, Yardville, N.J.; Chuck Lindsay, Short Hills, N.J.; James Manaskie, Bellmore, N.Y.; Michael McDonough, Baldwin, N.Y.; Daniel Newcomer, South Amboy, N.J.; James Peshek, Morrisville; Christopher Sevi, Lebanon, N.J.; Edward Volz, Princeton, N.J.; and Mitchell Werther, Bala-Cynwyd, N.J. Not only do we have a large number of pledges, but many of them are involved in varsity sports. Kevin Kerlin and Mike McDonough play j.v. lacrosse, Chris Sevi is on the football squad, Ed Volz fences for the varsity team, Rees Doughty plays soccer, and Jim Manaskie is starting center on the freshman basketball team.

Scholastically, we moved from sixth to first in the fraternity division with a 3.07 cumulative. This is a remarkable achievement for our chapter considering the following: all college average: 2.82, all male average: 2.75, all fraternity average: 2.75, and all social dorm average: 2.98.

Our entire brotherhood is proud to report the naming of Stuart Whitefield as our Summerfield Scholar. Stu has done much for our chapter over the last few years. He has held numerous Chapter offices and was one of the main organizers of the District Council Meeting held here in October which was such a success.

DANIEL GLICKENHAUS, Correspondent

Mankato State College Improvements to House

We were pleased to welcome two new Brothers into the bonds of Phi Kappa Psi on March 6: Richard Carlson, Edina, and Steven Lubbert, Riceville, Iowa. After initiation dinner at the Century Club, a party was held at the chapter house. We thank the alumni who attended initiation, especially Mark Gruss, for the show he put on.

Founders Day, held at the Rodeway Inn in Bloomington, was a huge success. It was good to get together with the Brothers of Minnesota Beta. All of us thank Treasurer of the Fraternity Sandy Chamberlain, for speaking at our dinner, and Mark Gruss, for his fine job of organizing the evening.

We were glad to have chapter consultant, Carl Bennett, join us for a few days. Carl's help ranged from advising our president in the future organization of our chapter, to spending an afternoon painting the third floor of our chapter house. I hope his suggestions turn out as good as his painting.

This winter, the Brothers have been busy working on improvements for the chapter house. We painted the third floor, the third floor bathroom, built bookshelves for the living room, and with the special donations by the alumni, raised over $300 for a fund which will be used to purchase new carpet.

Charity Carnival will be held the weekend of May 1. We will be participating with the Gamma Phi Beta Sorority. Last year the Charity Carnival raised several thousand dollars for charity. We hope to better the amount this year by combining our efforts with the Gamma Phis.

We at MSU look forward to a prosperous spring. Hope to see all of you at GAC.

KEVIN MULLARKY, Correspondent

Memphis State University Founders Day

The Brothers and alumni in the Memphis State area celebrated Founders Day at a Memphis restaurant. Forty-four Brothers joined together to celebrate the founding of Phi Kappa Psi. Glenn Tanner was the guest host and spoke on "Phi Kappa Psi—What Now After Fifty Years." Brother Tanner spoke upon the trials and tribulations that Phi Psi has gone through since he was initiated and what he sees in the future.

Plans for the first annual Phi Psi 500 here at MSU in April are rolling right along. All of the Brothers are looking forward to this project with great interest.

During rush this year we pledged four men. They are Allen Lee, David Phillips, Mike Henry, and Bill Oliver, all from Memphis. They are very enthusiastic about Phi Psi and we wish them luck in their pledgeship.

This year Mike Triolo was awarded the Summerfield Award due to his excellent services to Phi Psi.

Again we wish to extend an invitation to all Brothers in this area to stop by the house and see the improvements that we have made and hear our plans for the future.

Miami University New Leadership

As winter changes to spring, so changes the leadership of our house and the many student organizations of Miami University.

Our recently elected officers are Bill Lewis, GP; Steve Hines, VGP; Mark Eberly, P; Cliff Moore, AG; Rick Daugherty, BG; Jim Schack, SG; Bill Ulrich, Phu; Garry Scanlon, Hi; and Greg Zinga, Hod.

Our chapter is always actively involved in other campus functions and activities. Tom Malone is presently running for Executive Vice-President of Associated Student Government; Tom Sauer is in the race for Vice-President of Academic Affairs; Tony Elsass is in the election for Vice-President of Business Affairs. We are strongly represented in Miami University Student Foundation with Bill Lewis, Rick Daugherty, Dave McClimon, Jim McFarland, Mark Grenell and Jim Hermiller as members.

Out social activities have kept us busy during the winter months. We were very fortunate to have Ken Potter speak at our Founders Day dinner. His visits are always welcome at Ohio Lambda. The "Fly Me to Disneyworld" party was an overall success with Rick Wallis winning a trip to Florida for the weekend of Feb. 28. Also our "Big Brother Hunt" was a great deal of enjoyment for the pledges and actives alike.

Our basketball prowess was evident on the court this quarter. Led by Jeff King, Chuck Bath, and smooth Greg Grimme we won our division and finished third in the fraternity league. Also Dave Drake, Bill Ulrich, and Jim Ulrich, who served as captain, wrestled for Miami this year.

Our participation in the Miami University Escort Service, sponsored by the Associated Women's Society, has been a rewarding endeavor. Not only have we kept safety at a maximum level on our campus, but the service we have rendered to the community and university has been beneficial to us as well.

Another tradition at Miami may have been started by John Fenstemacher and Brad Osborne this winter. Through their efforts and organization, the Fraternity All-Star Basketball Game with teams from Miami and the University of Cincinnati competing was played. The game, won by Miami with Jerry Rosenberg and Marv Mark leading the way, was instrumental in establishing a closer brotherhood between the Greek system of both schools. We all had a great time doing it.

Michigan State University Chapter Growth

Michigan Beta at Michigan State University is proud to announce the initiation of ten enthusiastic men from our winter pledge class. They are: Michael Hinske, Clawson; Neal Davis, Stow, Ohio; Keith Cardinal, Secaucus, N.J.; Daniel Kelly, Ann Arbor; Alan Sekol, Sterling Heights; Gordon Van Wieren, Jr., Marshall; David Berry, Pleasant Ridge; Michael O'Connor, Marshall, William Vogtmann, Portage; and Roger McCombs, Farmington Hills. Our new Brothers are already making great contributions to our chapter.

Our new officers, elected February 16, are: David White, GP; Geoffrey Hansen, VGP; Bruce Mays, BG; Kevin Riley, SG; Michael Jansky, Phu; William Borgerding, Hod; and Robert Therasse, Hi. Rush chairmen for spring term are Geoffrey Hansen and Michael Jansky.

Due to the growth of the chapter, we are looking into renting a house or block of apartments near our present house. With many of the Brothers living together nearby, we can remain a very tight-knit chapter with increasing numbers.

Events for spring term include a Theatre Night, a retreat, picnics with sororities, and a gala term party. Greek Week is coming up and the Phi Psis at MSU will enter all the events possible, especially the Lambda Chi Alpha "500" and the Greek Sing. Our softball team is due for another strong season, and with Joe Dixon leading our track team, we should make an excellent showing in intramural sports.

Our two graduating seniors are Mark Mox and Rick Berman. Mark is the recipient of the Solon E. Summerfield award, was twice GP, and also served as P, SG, and House Manager. He is receiving an education degree in Industrial and Graphic Arts. Rick is a business major. He is a past VGP, chairman of Finance Committee, winner of the chapter's Jim Bryant Award, and a varsity wrestler. We wish both men the best of luck.

By this time, our alumni should have received our revived newsletter. Please send us your comments, ideas, suggestions, or your whereabouts and latest doings. We hope you like it and want us to continue it.

Please follow the example of our Brothers at Toledo University and drop in to see us. We always enjoy the visits of our Brothers, so if you're in the area let us hear from you.

THOMAS D. NELSON, Correspondent

University of Minnesota Successful Founders Day

Minnesota Beta had a very successful Founders Day this year. Along with Brother Sandy Chamberlain we were glad to get to know some of our alumni. We are happy to see so much support from them.

This year's Summerfield award winner was Bill Johnson. Bill is our newly elected GP but will be our house manager for the remainder of the year. Other newly elected officers are Craig Chambers, VGP;

Glenn Nordehn, AG; Mike Kohlrusch, P; Ron Klinge, BG; Paul Dressen, SG; Jeff Anderson, Hod; Wesley Blake, Phu; and Bobby LeGarde, Hi.

This quarter we will be participating in Campus Carni. In the past this event has raised a considerable amount of money for charity. We are paired with Alpha Phi for this event. We plan on spending much time and effort on this and are looking forward to working with them.

Participation in intramural sports has been tremendous. We have had much fun and success as a result with our basketball team winning its division.

This spring we hope to have an excellent rush. We look forward to many new pledges as a result of our "Spring Weekend" activities. We have one new pledge, Dixon Dahlberg, Edina, Minn.

GLENN NORDEHN, Correspondent

Mississippi Alpha Good Start for Bicentennial Year

Mississippi Alpha greeted this Bicentennial year with the initiation of 14 new Brothers into the ranks of Phi Kappa Psi. Initiation ceremonies were held on January 24, and were capped off with our annual Alumni-Initiation Banquet. We were honored to have Walter Murphey, '33, a former member of the Mississippi Legislature, as our main speaker. Mississippi Alpha was further honored with the presence of Taylor H. McElroy, '30, a former associate justice of the Mississippi Supreme Court. Our model pledge was Hale Freeman of Oxford, Miss., and our scholastic pledge was Bob Schnitzus of St. Louis, Mo., with a 3.80 GPA. Mike Cayson was our 1976 recipient of the Solon E. Summerfield Scholar Award. Overall, our pledge class ranked fourth among Ole Miss's 18 fraternities in scholarship.

Chapter involvement in campus affairs is still of overriding importance to Mississippi Alpha. This year, many of our members are involved in several important college organizations including Phi Eta Sigma, Omicron Delta Kappa, Delta Sigma Pi, Committee of 100, Committee of 82, the Financiers Club, the Ole Miss Concert and Marching Band, and the Associated Student Body's Election Commission. Mississippi Alpha is also preparing to reenter the political arena this semester with the reelection bid of Mike Greer for Ole Miss Cheerleader. In all, this will be a very active year for us, both individually and collectively as a chapter.

Our officers this semester include Billy Robertson, GP; Tom Kesler, VGP; Lynn Loden, P; Eddie Aune, Asst. P; Harvey Hudspeth, AG; Al Johnson, BG; Lawrence Perkins, SG; Mark MacArthy, Hod; Les Kerr, Hi; and Mac McKinney, Phu. In addition, Tom Branyan and Mike Greer will be our rush co-chairmen next fall.

University of Missouri Chapter Day Planned

Missouri Alpha sends a special thank-you to the St. Louis Alumni Association and the Kansas City Alumni Association for two fantastic Founders Day banquets held February 13 and 20 in those two cities. We congratulate Brothers Tom Wehrle '66 and Rick Houcek '70 of Missouri Alpha for their recent elections as president and vice-president of the Kansas City Alumni Association. Also a special note of recognition to Brother Steve Scheidker '70, president of the St. Louis Alumni Association, who along with the other St. Louis Alumni have built their group up to one of the strongest alumni associations in Phi Psi.

We gave our first rush weekend on February 6 and 7, with a turnout of 25 outstanding individuals. Our next rush weekend is March 26 and 27, Cabaret Night, and we anticipate another successful weekend. We encourage all Alumni to send in any rush recommendations to our rush chairmen at the house.

Congratulations go to Greg Abbott and our finance committee for a job well done these past two years. Missouri Alpha finished in the first runner-up position for the Ralph Haney Financial Excellence Award.

Our third annual Chapter Day is planned for April 24, Missouri's Black & Gold game. We have some great things planned for this Chapter Day and encourage all alumni to "Come to Back to Phi Psi" at 809 S. Providence, Columbia, Missouri. More information about Chapter Day will be in the mail shortly.

Chapter Consultant Carl Bennett visited us February 11 and 12. We expect a return visit from Carl late in March for a proposed Chapter retreat.

Other plans for this semester include: our annual Roman Toga Party, March 20; Moms' weekend, April 3; an Easter egg hunt for Head Start children in April and our Spring Formal, April 24.

In scholarship Rick Bien and John Horton received the top scholastic awards from the Missouri Alpha Endowment Fund with grade averages of 4.0 and 3.5. Roy Kline and Jeff McHenry also received special mention for their grade averages of 3.3 and 3.2. Dave Hellwig and Greg Abbott were initiated into Pi Omicron Sigma, honorary fraternity of the Interfraternity Council for leadership achievements. Also Greg was our chapter's recipient of the Solon E. Summerfield Award.

As of right now everybody is practicing hard for Greek Sing competition. We are paired with Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority again this year and we are all working hard to better our second-place finish of last year.

With 46 Brothers and 7 pledges in the house this semester, our total stands at 53 strong. This is the best we have had in the past three years. We are all working hard for another good semester.

Monmouth College Active Semester

March 1, nine pledges were initiated. They are: Robert Patten, Charlie De-Phillips, Paul Albano, Bernard Devlin, Donnie Purton, Andy Grossman, Bruce Meyer, Paul Giannone, and Gary Pallazone. Congratulations to rush chairman, Rick Contardi, for an excellent rush program. Pledgemaster John Chiappone, activities chairman Joe Miller, and the pledges will have an active semester.

The basketball team had a disappointing 7-7 record for fifth place. The bright spot of the season was taking a second-place finish among the fraternities at Monmouth. Captains Joe Miller, Jim Henneman, and Tony Melinichi all had excellent games this season. In softball, we return from a 15-1 season last year, and with the loss of only two starters, we should do as well this year.

We celebrated Founders Day with the traditional jackets and ties on campus, and a party afterwards. Social Chairmen, Art Klehm and Tom Baldanza have set the date for our spring weekend party April 19, at Squire's Pub in Eatontown. We also had our first open party of the semester, which was crowded as well as profitable, with more than 300 people attending.

University of Montana Spring Semester

Winter quarter has been extremely successful for the chapter. Our first formal function ever was held in January and was a complete success. This coming quarter (Spring) we are planning to have a Phi Psi 500, and a outside function in the mountains.

We are also extremely happy and proud with the new pledges we initiated this winter. They are: Scott Alexander, Dean Mansfield, Tim Ohman, Charles Virag, Steve Huntington and John Morton.

This spring should be another successful quarter for us and we are looking forward to it.

University of Nebraska Strong Initiation Showing

Activation ceremonies were held February 7, 1976. We initiated 16 men, then attended the annual Initiation Banquet at a local restaurant. Our special guests were Ted Urban and Dick Shuggrue of the Omaha Alumni Association. Dick was the guest speaker at the banquet. Jim Dennell was awarded the Outstanding Pledge distinction, and Rick Gilmore was cited as being the Outstanding Active by the Alumni Association of Nebraska Alpha. The week prior to activation ceremonies, "Help Week" activities were held. Projects within the house were carried out by the pledges, including a new coat of paint for the kitchen and the dining room.

Nebraska Alpha is making a strong showing in intramural competition. Leading off, the A-team in basketball is once again participating in play-off competition. The B and C teams also fielded above average records, although they did not make the play-offs. Greg Pazderka, and Dave Pott-hoff survived stiff competition in the All-University Paddle-ball Tournament, to achieve runners up status in the tourney. Leading the way for the house in the University Indoor Track meet, Ron Nelson captured victories in two events, allowing a third place finish in the meet. Terry Shield and Jim Finocchiaro represent the house on the University Baseball Team. John Hess once again is rowing for the Nebraska Crew. Overall, Nebraska Alpha is presently in a close fourth place among 26 fraternities at the university.

The Phi Psi Trivia Bowl team, led by captain John Minnick, captured the fraternity championship in the event, and

Northwestern University Social Calendar

Alumni from Phi Psi chapters throughout the country gathered for the annual Chicago-Area Alumni Founders Day dinner. Undergraduate representatives from Illinois Alpha were George Good and Gary Lillian. The event was well attended and in celebrating Phi Psis glorious past, gave proof of her present strength and vitality.

A perennial power in intramural sports, Illinois Alpha successfully defended its title as indoor track champions. Contributing to the victory were Dave Brown, Mark Goddard, Forrest Didier, Bob Brehm and Mike McIntyre. This spring the Chapter will field teams in men's and coed volleyball and softball. The men's volleyball team returns five starters from last year's team which won the league championship, whereas the softball team will be favored to repeat as overall champions. The ultimate goal is the intramural sweepstakes championship. Victories in these sports will establish the group as a prime contender.

Variety characterizes the spring social calendar. The Phi Psi wardrobe will range from ponchos to togas to tuxedos as the Brothers prepare for the Tequilla Party, the Roman Orgy and the Spring Formal. The social chairmen hope that such an active social calendar will help alleviate the outbreak of spring fever which is expected to reach epidemic proportions this season.

Northwestern will institute its first annual Greek Week this spring under the direction of Brother Mike Alex. Fraternities on campus will sponsor such events as trike races and beer chugs. Illinois Alpha plans to sponsor a tug-of-war.

The spring rush effort will be headed by Jeff Joseph. Informal rush efforts resulted in the pledging of Paul Foszcz, Chicago, Ill. Organized rush is expected to yield several more pledges.

Officers for this spring include Steve Morgan, GP; Mike McIntyre, VGP; Dreux Dwyer, AG; Kurt Nelson, P; Mark

Mailliard, BG; Dale Feldman, SG; Dave Brown, Hod; George Good, Phu; and Ed Crane, Hi. Congratulations to Summerfield award winner Mark Hill.

Looking forward to an enjoyable and successful spring, the men of Illinois Alpha wish the same for all the Brothers of Phi Kappa Psi.

Ohio Wesleyan University Annual "Skip-Out"

To kick off winter term, Ohio Alpha pledges had their annual "skip-out." Actives were captured during the day and hidden in pledges' rooms. Before sunset we started the trek to Indiana University and the Indiana Beta Chapter. All of the actives and pledges enjoyed the change of scenery and had a great time. Once again we thank the Brothers of Indiana University for their hospitality!

Saturday, Feb. 28, was the 1976 Pledge Formal and the theme of the dance was Outer Space and the Future. Some Brothers were attired in costumes. Congratulations to Bob Ogle who won first prize for his truly original costume.

In academics: Matt Schoengood and Marc Engelsman were initiated into Theta Alpha Phi, a national theatre honorary. Tom Jolly will continue as Editor in Chief of the Head News and hopes to get out some new issues soon.

Jeff Foerster finished this year's wrestling season at 18-0 and went on to win the Ohio Conference 167 lb. Wrestling Championship. For his accomplishments, Jeff was named Athlete of the Term by the Ohio Wesleyan University Newspaper. Jeff will be hanging up his wrestling tights for a career in medicine.

On the topic of wrestling, Mike Davis won the 126 lb. Intramural Wrestling Championship and Joe Costabile finished second in the very tough 134 lb. weight class. Congratulations Mike and Joe!

The Phi Psi Intramural Basketball Team finished the season at 3-2.

This spring Ohio Alpha is hoping to retain the Intramural Softball Crown. At present we stand in second place overall for the Ohio Wesleyan University Intramural Trophy.

Pete Harnois and Bruce Firehock competed for OWU at the Ohio Conference Swim Championship at Oberlin College, March 5 and 6. Pete set four Ohio Wesleyan records in the freestyle division, using the backstroke.

Congratulations to Joe Costabile, the Ohio Alpha recipient of the Summerfield Award. Welcome to Don Haley of Cincinnati, Ohio, our newest pledge.

We now look forward to spring term and more exciting events such as the Phi Psi 500. Without a doubt, our 1976 Pledge Class has to be one of the finest ever and is a strong class in quantity, but more importantly—quality. With 30 pledges strong, Ohio Alpha hopes to continue serving as one of Ohio Wesleyan's and Phi Kappa Psi's strongest fraternities as we approach another term.

University of Oklahoma Spring Rush

Oklahoma Alpha is in the midst of a successful spring. We initiated eight new members: Dale DeBerry, Carlos Elwell, David Kondos, Murat Ilter, Greg Baker, Tom Greiner, Kevin Graber, and Steve Houlder. They should be a great addition to our chapter.

Spring rush is into its third month and we are proud to announce that our chapter has the most pledges on campus. Future planning for rush involves our second annual Surfs-Up party on March 19 and 20. It consists of a stag party Friday night and a dance Saturday. Rushees, Brothers and pledges will attend. Summer rush is being planned with many parties. We hope to cover a large part of Oklahoma and possibly surrounding states.

The Summerfield award winner for this year representing Oklahoma Alpha is Mark Talley. Mark, besides having an outstanding academic career, has held an active part in the chapter.

Our chapter is participating in basketball, swimming, softball, and wrestling intramurals and hopes to finish first in all of them. Leading our wrestling team is 280 lb. Jeff Ward. Jeff won the heavy-weight championship by pinning all of his opponents.

We thank our Mothers club and Fathers club for their contributions. In addition, we thank our alumni for their hard work and ask for their continuing support.

John Austin pumps in two points as Wyatt Morgan goes in for the possible rebound at Oklahoma State University.

Oklahoma State University It's Spring

Spring is the time that the sap begins to flow; or run, as in the case of the annual "Streaker's Night" on the strip in Stillwater. The men of Oklahoma Beta have, however, resisted the many temptations of spring to rank second on campus scholastically, as well as remain active in many campus activities. Here is what's happening:

The Phi Psi roundballers, after winning their division, were eliminated in the first round of intramural playoffs by Sigma Nu (59-60). The game was a seesaw battle sparked by several controversial calls, one of which took a game-winning basket away from the Phi Psis in the final seconds of play. However, the season was a successful one, and we look forward to next year, when the entire starting line-up returns. Softball season is approaching, and coach John Austin expects to field a good team.

Founders Day was celebrated by a banquet held in the student union, followed by a party at our house. Guest speaker at the banquet was Justice Don Barnes, a Phi Psi alumnus from Oklahoma Alpha, presently serving on the state Supreme Court. The spring formal will be held in Tulsa on April 3. Don't forget that all alumni are welcome to all parties.

The chapter donated an afternoon to the heart fund as we, along with Alpha Delta Pi sorority collected donations, door-to-door. The pledge class was also honored for donating the most units of blood in the Greek division of the annual Red Cross blood drive on the campus.

"The Time Machine: A Woman Through the Century" is the theme of our entry in the annual Spring Sing contest, to be held on the weekend of April 24. Steve Sharp, a '72 alumnus of our chapter will conduct us and our co-entrants, Drummond Residence Hall, in the vocal music contest. A tight rehearsal schedule and several parties are planned as we prepare for the competition.

The entire group participated in a mini-retreat held in Stillwater. Some of the activities were: attending a show, an even versus odd badge number game, and a night on the strip. There were also some more serious aspects of the sneak, such as a rush workshop for the Brothers and a Fraternity Manual study session.

Recent honors earned by Brothers and pledges include: John Austin, Phi Eta Sigma (honorary scholastic fraternity); Ray Chavez, Top Ten among education majors; David Lanham, Delta Sigma Pi (honorary business fraternity).

Oklahoma Beta has five new pledges for this semester. They include: Kevin Corbett, Barry Traverse, Oklahoma City; Duane Higgins, David Hunt, Tulsa.

University of Oregon Senior Boogie

Winter has been another good term at Oregon Alpha.

This term's house dance was held at Sunriver Resort near Bend, Oregon. We also gave the second annual senior boogie at the Phi Psi house. This is a community event by which senior citizens date university students on a blind date basis. The night includes dancing, games, and refreshments.

Rush has been solid this term. We have pledged four good people who are all capable of carrying on the traditions of the Fraternity. They are: Cecil Jarner, Portland; Mike Falk, Coos Bay; Mitch Logan, Salem; and Ed Goldberg, San Diego, Calif.

This year's Founders Day was held at the chapter house with alumni Brothers attending. We convey a sincere welcome home to those Brothers. The evening was capped by watching the UofO Basketball team win 65-45 over UCLA on television, with three of Oregon Alpha's charter members—Brothers Meador, Porter and McCraw. To them and the rest of the Brothers, a big hello and thanks for bringing Phi Psi back to Oregon.

BRUCE TEASLEY, Correspondent

Oregon State University Positive Attitude

We at Oregon Beta are entering the spring term with a very positive attitude. We are growing steadily and are now in the process of locating a larger temporary house for the coming term.

On Feb. 19, we initiated four new members into our ranks. Our new Brothers are: Russ Logerwell, Sandy, OR; Ty Higgs, Salt Lake City, UT; Dan Sause, Concord, CA; and Mike Weeks, Coos Bay, OR. This is the largest class to be initiated at Beta in three years, and we hope to double this in the coming term.

On Founders Day, the first Oregon Beta "Alumnus of the Year" award went to Dr. John Seal '50. Brother Seal has given us support from the very start, and we are grateful for all he has done for us. Also, a plaque donated by the pledge class was presented commemorating our original founders, the Orange Club of 1919, and the rebuilding effort of 1975.

This year Founders Day was held at Oregon Alpha in Eugene. It was a tremendous success, with everyone having an enjoyable day. Our congratulations to the Brothers at the University of Oregon for a very well organized and delightful champagne dinner.

New officers elected on March 3 are: Ty Higgs '76, VGP; Mike Weeks '76, AG; Ken Shartz '75, SG; Dan Sause, '76, Phu; and Russ Logerwell '76, Hod.

We are anticipating moving into our chapter house soon, and we expect to be a strong and active chapter on the campus of Oregon State very soon.

Pennsylvania State University Recognition Through Involvement

Pennsylvania Lambda begins spring term with four fine pledges: Gerard Jason Kozak, Duquesne; John Joseph Repcheck Jr., Upper Saint Clair; Howard Dickinson Welsh, Wexford; Daniel Henry Wolfe, Buffalo, N.Y. These well-rounded men display the leadership qualities Phi Kappa Psi demands.

Scott McQuiston, our new rush chairman, is anxious for spring term to get underway. His programs and enthusiasm are sure to keep the lodge at full capacity.

We wish John Hummel much success as he spends spring term studying in Europe.

Six newly initiated Brothers join the chapter this spring: Michael Clifford Conti, Doylestown; Paul Blair Weagraff, Export; Elliot M. Smith, Allen Wilson Dreibelbis, State College; Gregg Alan Zaffaroni, Pittsburgh; Edward John Barreiro, Bethlehem. Extremely active in house activities as well as campus involvement, these men are sure to prove a valuable asset.

Academically the chapter did very well with many Brothers achieving Dean's List status, exemplifying the upward trend in academics at the lodge. The recently appointed Academic Chairman, Gregg Zaffaroni, sees continued strength in this area.

Chapter leadership will be provided this spring by: Charles Brown, GP; Anthony Paluka, VGP; Scott Harman, P; John Mierley, AG; William Donley, BG; Kevin Farquhar, SG; James Myers, Hi; Frank Pugliese, Hod; and Donald Miller, Phu.

Phi Psi maintains a strong influence in the Interfraternity Council, with Tom Conroy serving as President and Gene Riechers as Secretary-Treasurer. Both won decisive victories in the recent IFC elections.

Penn Lambdans are also involved in various campus activities. Brother Weagraff and pledge Repcheck sing with the Penn State Glee Club, Ed Barreiro plays varsity soccer, and Al Dreibelbis pitches for Penn State's baseball team. Recognition also goes to Jim Gump and Steve Gaunay for their first place showing, attributed to much practice and dedication, in Greek Week's pinochle tournament.

Spring term is a socially active one offering much variety. Mother's Day, Spring Week, socials with Pi Beta Phi and Alpha Sigma Alpha, the Formal, and of course the Phi Psi "500" comprise the social calendar. Social Chairman Jim Gump has a bright outlook for continued success at all upcoming social events.

This year's Phi Psi "500" promises to be the largest ever. Chairman Terry Scott is coordinating plans well. April 24 marks the date for Penn State's number one spring attraction.

The Brothers of Pennsylvania Lambda thank Brother John Henry Frizzell for all his inspiration and the motivation he instills every day in each of us. His immeasurable influence is surely worthy of recognition as he depicts "the great joy of serving others" like no person we've ever known.

Recognition through involvement on campus, strength through unity in the chapter and pride through service to others summarizes the condition of Pennsylvania Lambda as we look toward another fine term.

Purdue University 75th Anniversary

Purdue University is firing up for Grand-Prix, and the Brothers of Indiana Delta provide no exception. The annual go-cart race is being held on April 24 this year, and the Brothers are now racing to see who will get to drive our cart this year. We look forward to placing high in this race, as we have purchased a new engine and clutch for our go-cart. The whole week of Grand-Prix is always one of many festivities.

Academically, we have climbed to twelfth out of the 40 fraternities presently on campus. But don't believe that all we do is study. Rush parties, trade dinners, and social functions again this spring provide us with the chance to relax and meet many new people.

Spring rush is presently under the supervision of Mike Haney. His job is a big one as we continue to build our numbers since Indiana Delta's recolonization just one year ago.

We feel strong in intramurals again this spring. In basketball, our first loss eliminated us from the tournament after compiling a seven and nothing record. Steve Kennedy continues working out with the Purdue crew as all wait for warmer weather and water.

On February 28, our fall pledge class of eight were initiated. These new Brothers are: Harry Davis, Chagrin Falls, OH; Gene Fontaine, Griffith; Chip Fell, Bloomington; Kent Copeland, Anderson; Terry Flynn, Gary; Steve Keck, Mount Vernon; Vernon Petty, Battle Creek; and Bill Spencer, Kirkwood.

On April 10 we will celebrate our chapter's 75th anniversary at Purdue University. A large banquet and celebration is now being planned with invitations having been extended to all our alumni and friends. They have been 75 good years at Purdue, and we and those after us will see many more years just as successful at creating men true to the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

University of Rhode Island Tenth Anniversary

A banner semester for the Brothers of Rhode Island Beta was headed by the tenth anniversary of our chartering. In characteristic Phi Psi style we rang in the second decade with a party second to none, and the Alumni were here in force.

Needless to say, a "good time was had by all."

For the record, our first ten years saw 292 men initiated, a new chapter house built, and a 1000-mile cruise-athon, as we call them, to the re-installation of South Carolina Alpha at Columbia, S.C.

Current events at Rhody include our fourth Bounce-A-Thon for cancer. Each year for the last four the Brothers have dribbled basketballs from the URI campus to the Providence Civic Center to raise money for the research and control of the disease. Unlike past years we were unable to dribble to the URI game versus arch rival Providence College, a game which URI won. We were instead forced to hold the affair the day of the URI-St. John's game in Providence, a day the Redmen emerged the better ballplayers.

The hoop loss notwithstanding, Bill Schult and Hal Zick, the much-harried coordinators of the Bounce-A-Thon, reported the bottom line on our day's work was $1,600.

As is the custom at RI Beta, the sophomores have taken their turn in the elections, and we can look forward to strong leadership in the future. Officers include: Bob Stott, GP; Steve Carter, VGP; Bruce Tavares, AG; Rick Mollicone, P; Tom Leach, Asst. P; Dave Gorgone, BG; Bruce Millard, SG; Bob Peterssen, Hod; Pat Rossoni, Phu; Rick Gladney, Hi.

Also on the governing board in addition to the VGP, are housemanager Walt Augustyn, steward Dave Cadorette, pledgemaster Dave DiSano, and rush chairman Al Chiuli.

On leave from our pledge class this semester is Pete Davis of Orchard Park, N.Y.

Varsity football has not done us wrong this year. On the Ram team from Phi Psi are Nick Capezza, Estes Benson, Walt Augustyn, Steve Maccioni, Rick Mollicone, and Glen Severson.

Rugby, a club sport at URI, has representing RI Beta: Bill Hayes, Dave DiSano, Paul Seddon, and John Goding.

Steve Eustis is on the track team, Dave Cadorette and Dave DiSano are on the fencing team, and lastly, Paul Barry is on the crew team.

Social chairman Joe Capaldi and John Goding have completed their plans for the Phi Psi 500, parts of which will be held in Newport. Greek Week is always a thriller after RI Beta wins the opening event. Greek Sing will keep our boys on their toes later in the spring. Our university championship tug-of-war team will be back and breathing fire.

Always, we at Rhode Island Beta are happy to have any Brothers from 'cross country stop by and stay for a while. If you can, give us time to get ready by writing to us at Four Fraternity Circle, Kingston, R.I. 02891. We think you'll find the hospitality fine.

The Brothers of Penn Theta received us well during the district ELC, and we thank them. We attended in force, and everyone who went is ready to go almost anywhere for the next one.

As a final note, we'd like to thank an alumnus Brother for his help, both for his advice and guidance on this newsletter, and for helping us preserve with his photographs our lives at URI. A special thanks to Brother Rick Booth, RI Beta '72. And thanks to his sponsor, The Utter Company, publishers of The Sun.

BRUCE TAVARES, Correspondent

Rider College Look Ahead

Many house improvements are underway this semester. Steve Ginter saw to it that our stairwells received a much needed coat of paint. Our sauna is back in working condition after a long delay and our pool room was connected to an adjoining room for added space. Bid day this semester was extended to a one-week grace period where prospective pledges could accept bids. Under this new system we netted 15 pledges.

Seven seniors graduate this semester: Roger D'Alissio, Steve D'Onofrio, Jim Meagher, Daniel Brett Morris, Warren Nichols, Joe Shay and John Timko.

The chapter looks toward the future as we estimate a full house of 48 Brothers for the first time in many years.

RONALD K. LODER, Correspondent

University of Southern California District Exchange

Phi Psi at USC remains a potent force throughout the school year as well as into the summer months. The Brothers here continue to surpass all other chapters on campus, both athletically as well as socially, as continuing excellence has always been a part of District VI.

Our alumni and cross-town Brothers from UCLA and Northridge were on hand again to make Founders Day another fantastic evening, thanks to a splendid dinner at TAIX restaurant. February 19 is a day that passes much too quickly to fully savor such enjoyment and brotherhood.

The first annual District VI exchange took place a few weeks ago. Chapters from as far north as San Luis Obispo, joined their southernmost Brothers for an evening of activities. The party was instrumental in bringing all the chapters closer together for the first time in many years. Needless to say, our District chapters will set the mood at this year's GAC, so watch out.

USC began a new type of spring rush this year. Numerous young men came by during the first week, and were given tours of the chapter house. They were also able to sample the fine food and meet the actives on a personal basis. We have six new pledges for the spring semester. They are: Jackson May, Bob Olander, Rick Savage, Andy Villisich, Wayne Walley, and Dave Whippo. We are certain that they will become fine Brothers.

Our party themes have encompassed such ideas as, Ladies of the Evening, Western, and Disco Scene. Greek life at USC may tend to become a bit dull at times, but the Phi Psis have a way of ending that.

The Phi Psi 500 is upon us once again, and the Brothers are continually adding new ideas to the competition. The young women from Kappa Alpha Theta were the runaway winners in last year's competition.

Sports has taken the limelight once again. Athletic director Anthony Cigliano and his staff of sandbaggers have once again forged their way through the first part of the Iron Man contest, and find themselves in fourth place going into the final weeks of competition.

Basketball was the first of the second semester big sports. The Phi Psis met the SAEs in a do-or-die contest, defeating them in a last second heartstopper, thus knocking them out of the tourney and the all sports trophy race. Play-offs are approaching soon as a mystified student body watches our progress, week after week.

Ping pong, tennis doubles, and golf are to follow soon, and the much coveted trophy seems to be closer as each day passes. Even next year's sports look promising, especially in swimming, as the Phi Psis are diligently trying to get Mark Spitz, Indiana (now attending dental school here) eligible for the next all fraternity meet.

Our alumni have been dropping by the house lately, and we have planned a casino night to bring them all together at once. The idea for one of these affairs is to raise money for the chapter, but with our high rolling alumni, this is never an easy task.

John Hamilton and Brian Kennedy dropped by the house recently and reflected upon their college days, as well as giving the officers of the chapter some valuable insights into the pledge program. Their comments, as well as those of all other alumni, are greatly appreciated.

Alpha Kappa Psi, a nationwide professional business fraternity, has elected Gary Cassel and Doug Laidlaw president and VP, respectively.

The chapter has organized the first annual Father-Son barbeque to be held at the home of Frank Occhipinti in April. Hopefully the fathers will be able to organize a club that will be as successful as our mothers club this past year.

As the days begin to draw shorter and shorter, fond memories remind us of what a great year this has been for all concerned. The good times seem to get better and better, but that's what Phi Psi is all about.

JACK HUBER, Correspondent

University of Southwestern Louisiana New Members

Our chapter opened its 1976 spring semester with a full roster of activities. With the large functions such as the 1976 Phi Psi 500 and the Spring Formal drawing near, we will have our work cut out for us. Weekend parties and sorority socials dot the calendar throughout the semester and promise a great deal of enjoyment. The Mardi Gras holidays have just ended and, combined with our annual crawfish boil, provided plenty of excitement for our chapter. This time of the year has always been a special time for the Phi Psis here in southern Louisiana, this year especially because of our country's Bicentennial Year.

The officers for the 1976 spring semester are: Kermit Rogers, GP; Kirk Boudreaux, VGP; Robert Bender, P; Mark Williams, AG; Michael Fouquier, BG; Michael Larue, Hi; Daryl Abadie, Hod; Jim Hodges, SG; and Scott Alleman, Phu; Steve DeWoody will be the Pledge Educator.

The chapter initiated 20 new members this semester and they are: Jacques Lasseigne, Carl Anderson, Ted Anderson, Barney Barnett, Andy Biennu, Gordon Badeaux, Kenneth Campbell, John Foti, Frank Hebert, Jim Hodges, Calvin Humble, Mark Jackson, Dan Johnson, James Juneau, Jimmy Maraist, Jerry Norwood, Keith Roberts, Tom Sarradet, Brent Sonnier, and Fred Woods.

With more than two months left in the semester, we have still more activity planned and are sure it will be rewarding as well as enjoyable. With our chapter increasing rapidly each semester, our closeness increases also. We are growing into an ever-present force on campus and are being favorably recognized by many, both on and off campus. There is a phrase describing our chapter here at USL, "... not just another fraternity, but a force on campus!"

Southwest Texas State University Mexico Trip

This semester we are very pleased to say we have seven pledges. They are: Robert Dube, Katy; Richard Battle, Austin; Bradford Farmer, Houston; Robert Finster, Lake Jackson; Thomas Gardner, Austin; Andrew Roberts, and John Muslewhite, Houston.

This year's Founders Day was a great success with a very good turnout of alumni. Our special congratulations to Brother Jay Hays who received the outstanding Alumnus Award from our chapter.

February 27, the Fraternity and its pledges took a trip to Mexico. We stayed at a Brother's house in Laredo, where we shopped, then went to some of the finer night clubs. We all had a grand time and the pledges and the Brothers got to know each other better. Everyone came back with many fine memories.

This spring the Fraternity is losing eight fine Brothers to graduation. Most of these Brothers have given the Fraternity three or four of their best years of college. We are very proud of them and

Syracuse University Critical Rush

Returning from Christmas vacation, the Brothers of New York Beta turned their efforts towards spring rush. Rush for New York Beta will be extremely critical from now on for two reasons. First, due to a recent ruling by the Syracuse University administration, no freshmen will be allowed to move into a Greek house until they are sophomores, and second, approximately one-half of the Brothers living in the house will graduate in the spring of 1977. Thus a large and strong pledge class was needed. Thanks to the superb effort of Wayne White and the help of John Hess, a pledge class of sixteen capable men were selected. The new pledges are: Jeff Zanni, Reading, Mass.; Robert Thompson, Clarence Center, New York; Joseph Kearney, Dick Driscoll, Dewitt, New York; Gary Heflich, Guilderland, New York; Tim Kurz, Yardley, Pa.; Bill Kalista, Moodus, Conn.; Bob Imobersteg, Clinton, New York; Herchel Gornbein, Niagara Falls, New York; Holt McChord, New Canaan, Conn.; Walter Longo, Pelham Manor, New York; Mike Duchene, Peekskill, New York; Wayne Caputo, Bloomfield, New Jersey; Greg Wooster, Hamburg, New York; Paul Podolsky, Woodmere, New York; and Andy Herbst, Madison, Conn.

The Founders Day Banquet was held at the Drumlins Restaurant in Syracuse. Thirty Brothers, 16 pledges, and five alumni attended and enjoyed a fine meal. Fran Walters, newly appointed District Attorney in Syracuse, delivered a fine speech. New York Beta is concerned about its alumni relations, and it is hoped and expressed by all Brothers living in the house that a better chapter-alumni communications is created.

Congratulations to Wayne White who was given the Summerfield Award, and Rich Bayersdorfer who was awarded the Founders Day Cup.

Our cook, Mary Curtis, who put in many years of hard work and some fine cooking, retired this spring, and all the Brothers will miss her devoted services. Our new cook's name is Helen, and she has already cooked us some excellent meals. We are still waiting for the steak and lobster dinner along with the Chateau Latour 1955.

Intramurals and house activities are strong and many. We are preparing for a Casino Party on March 27, 1976, with the proceeds going to MD. Dave Webb is working hard on the dance marathon. Mark Winkelman and a Little Sister will dance for our house. The Brothers are getting into shape for the intramural track meet. We have won the track meet trophy for the past two years and hope to make it three. With our past activities and the strong leadership we are in strong running for the Tolley Cup.

With many social activities planned during the semester, a fine group of pledges, and excellent Brother participation, Phi Kappa Psi will remain strong on the Syracuse Campus.

University of Tennessee Alumni Rapport

Spring is under way here in Big Orange Country. The chapter is buzzing with the usual high level of energy associated with blue skies and half clad coeds. This is probably a phenomena campuses all over the country can identify. Much has happened since the last communication. The Founders Day Dinner went off very well, although there was a disappointing show on the part of the alumni. Barbecued bird was the highlight of the menu, with mounds of potato salad to fill in the empty spaces. It was a good turnout and I'm sure ole Willy Letterman and Charlie Moore would liked to have made it.

We have begun to focus our efforts on establishing a good rapport with our alumni. Getting the ball rolling with a newsletter, we hope to have more of the old Brothers dropping by. Good alumni support is essential for a growing chapter and we hope that an interesting and informative newsletter will stimulate a little response. Rush is just getting under way, starting with the annual IFCsponsored street dance. It was held on new Fraternity Blvd., and it is the opinion of this old Fraternity Row man that the atmosphere is a bit more congenial on our small corner. We are planning a fine rush program, however, and hope for productive results.

Help Week begins in several days for three spirited young men: Billy Higgins and Dirk Walker, Memphis; and yours truly, of the Bluff City. Looking at it from the prospective of a quasi-ignorant pledge, the prospect is genuinely thrilling. We'll be initiated by the end of the week, I feel certain.

Tracking on to the intramurals, the chapter is psyched up for the silver. Softball, tennis, and raquetball are destined to be pushovers. Team jerseys and a crate of chewing tobacco virtually guarantee our ascent to the top of our softball league, and, possibly, beyond. Raquetball has become a daily affair here and it will take an awesome skill indeed to topple our momentum. Tennis is probably the safest bet of all. With Mark ("Hammerhand") Connell and the lightning-like agility of our GP, Phillip Joe, our eminence on the court is positively assured.

Congratulations are in order for our Solon E. Summerfield Award recipient, John Rae. Having completed his undergraduate work as an art major, John is planning to attend grad school in Florida. His responsible and hard-working attitude has been a necessary source of leadership in the chapter. Yes, we'll all be sorry to see John hitching off into the sunset, but it will be great to welcome him back as an alumnus.

The University of Texas Spring Report

Texas Alpha began the spring semester with new officers. They are: GP, Dan McGurk Wilkerson; VGP, David John Temple; P, Frank Lewis Holaday; AG, Doren Charles Martin; BG, Mark Stephen Ohls; SG, Russell Cody Pruitt; Hod, Roger Wade Beam; Phu, Nathaniel Scott Norman; Rush Chairman, Bryan Patrick Muecke; Social Chairman, Donnell Michael Rhody.

On February 21, 1976, Texas Alpha celebrated Founders Day. It began with a reception attended by many alumni. Among them were the Texas Educational Foundation Board, with newly elected president Mike McKinney. Following the reception was a banquet, where a speech was given by Brother William B. Ruggles, Texas '09. Annual awards were then given away. The farthest traveled alumnus was Jim Malarnee, from Tulsa, Oklahoma. The oldest alumnus was William B. Ruggles, who celebrated his 85th birthday on March 7. The Reggie Grob Award—for the active who displays scholarship, character, and loyalty to the Fraternity—was given to Frank Lewis Holaday. The George Eliot Award—for the active who displays honor, character, and love for the Fraternity and University—was given to Donald Ray Evans. The Ben Stinnett Award, the best pledge, was given to both Russell Cody Pruitt and Doren Charles Martin. The Solon E. Summerfield Award was given to Marion Flynt Chancellor.

Texas Alpha had a very good spring rush, pledging six men. They are: Robert DeLee Bones, Leslie Kevin Smith, Austin; Herbert Timothy Frazier, San Antonio; Eric Martin Hopson, Garland; Glenn Hunter Jones, Dallas; Stacy Day Long, Winters.

A very notable honor was given to a Brother and a pledge of Texas Alpha. Brother Russell Cody Pruitt and Pledge Robert DeLee Bones were both asked to join Phi Eta Sigma, a freshman honorary fraternity.

Phi Psi dominance in intramural sports is not expected, however a serious and devoted effort is being given by Bryan P. Muecke (Intramural Chairman) to regain the long awaited respect that Texas Alpha deserves.

The annual University of Texas Round-Up celebration will be held from April 2-10. Texas Alpha will be very active in all phases. We plan to have a booth and will also enter a float, in conjunction with the Pi Beta Phi sorority. There will be several parties throughout the week, in which rushing for the fall will be our main objective.

Texas Alpha appreciates any contribution to rush, whether it be a suggestion for better and more effective rushing, or names of any prospective men who are planning to attend the University of Texas. Please send information to: Bryan P. Muecke, 2401 Longview Street, Austin, Texas 78705.

Texas Tech University Wins University Sing

Texas Beta has just completed an outstanding rush, successfully incorporating both new and imaginative dance and mixer themes along with the chapter traditions into our rush calendar. We are pleased to announce the Spring '76 pledges of Texas Beta Chapter: Kenneth Larkin, San Antonio; Roy Braswell, Pampa; Donnie Duncan, Neil Hammill, Randy Selly, James Hayward, Dallas; Mike Gibson, Craig Noonan, Roy Lewis, Charles Bumpass, Houston; Jim Vernon, Fort Worth; Robert Buckley, Burkburnett; Terry Davidson, Duncanville, Okla.; M. C. Carrington, Marshall; Kirk Calahan, Tim Lawrence, Richardson.

Our chapter has just returned from its annual ski retreat at Purgatory, Colo. The retreat was attended by Brothers, pledges and alumni. Brotherhood, as always, was very strong and the retreat proved to be most enjoyable. We are very proud of a group of Brothers and pledges, who on their return trip to Lubbock rescued a crippled woman from a burning car. As they were returning late one night, they saw a large fire off to one side of the road. They spotted a car ablaze in a field and immediately stopped to see if they could be of any service. As a few of them moved closer they saw a man trying to drag a woman out of the car, but because of her large size and crippled condition, was not successful. Through the efforts of the men the woman was carried to safety.

This year's Founders Day proved to be very special to the Texas Beta Chapter as we were fortunate to have Kenneth Potter as guest. The evening was highlighted by a banquet for the chapter and its alumni. This banquet was sponsored by the alumni, to whom we are most grateful.

April 10 we again won the annual University Sing Song. This year, we teamed with Kappa Alpha Theta and presented "Pippin." Sing Song however, is only one of the many events which were scheduled for this semester. On April 3 the Spring Formal was held. Also, another retreat has been planned for April 24, this one to Mexico. Many Brothers are planning to attend along with all of the pledges. Also on the calendar for the spring is the Big-Little Brother Olympics, and a couple of Big-Little Brother retreats.

To better the communication between Greek organizations at Tech, an all Greek Newspaper is now in the works, with the first edition scheduled for April 15. The newspaper will have news of intramurals, special events, and newsletters from all chapters, along with a monthly calendar. Texas Beta is fortunate enough to have two editors on the staff.

Valparaiso University Good News

We are happy to report that Indiana Epsilon at Valparaiso has accepted 13 pledges for our annual spring rush program. Their names are: Tom Thomas, Steve Morgal, Rich Wuthrich, Norm Geuder, Keith Reinke, Russ Mangus, Ralph Paglia, Tim Flagg, Jim Francks, Scott Prochaska, Elvin Harms, John Hunter, and Bob Cotton. We are also expecting another pledge class this spring of about five freshmen.

Other good news comes from our intramural basketball team. This year the team took first place with a perfect 11-0 record. Team members are: Keith Gilliland, Jim Edie, Mike Russert, Dave Gracely, Rod Usher, Jon Townsend, Elton Johnson, and George Georno. We have high hopes for next year as only one member of this year's team is graduating. There are also some good prospects from the pledge class.

The Brothers here voted recently on the recipient of the Summerfield award. By a virtually unanimous decision Thomas Wielgos was elected the winner. For the second year in a row Tom has been head of meal planning. Besides his diligent work in this area, Brother Wielgos serves as an example for us all.

Vanderbilt University Spring Report

The following men were initiated into the Tennessee Delta chapter of Phi Kappa Psi March 14, 1976: Thomas Owen Bagley Jr., Fayetteville; Robert Elliot Beard, Jackson, Miss.; Adrian Hunter Bogitsh, Nashville; Scott Brady Danson, Jacksonville, Fla.; Wade Allen Detamore, Cartersville, Ga.; Robert Greg Goblen, Rogers, Ark.; Robert Baxter Gordon, Lynchburg, Va.; Paul Christopher Hashim, Rockville, Md.; John Martin Henshaw, David Edward LeRiche, Tulsa, Okla.; James French Hill, Little Rock, Ark.; William Allen Landon, New Canaan, Conn.; Mark Edwin Major, Clarks-ville; Samuel Addison Marable IV, James Richard Tubb, Dallas, Tex.; David Stanley Wachta McClary, Etowah; Rudolph Frank August Moeller Jr., Louisville, Ky.; Marc Thompson Shafer, Hartford, Conn.; Jeffrey Wilton Smith, Gordon Braxton Wright, St. Louis, Mo.; Cosby Allen Stone, Crossville; James Alvord Stone, Ocala, Fla.; Mark Jay Strickler, New Orleans, La.; Sidney Phelan Wright, Rome, Ga.

Activities of Founders Weekend, held Feb. 20-22, included a combo party on Friday night and the annual pledge casino party on Saturday. The casino party is completely planned and run by the pledges as a money raising endeavor for the pledge project—usually some gift of time and effort made in improving the chapter house.

The Founders Day banquet held Sunday was marked by a good turnout of alumni and honored guests. A group of more than one hundred, including Brothers of the active chapter, alumni and their wives, pledges and special guest Brother Sandy Chamberlain Jr., Fraternity Treasurer, were entertained at the chapter house. Besides an excellent meal, the gathering served to acquaint alumni and active chapter, and provide a forum for business of interest to both. In this last regard, I am pleased to report the formation of the Tennessee Delta House Corporation and election of officers to that body. The by-laws of the corporation governing its actions were also ratified by the initiated Brothers present. The major consequence of these actions is the formation of a Board of Directors consisting of six men—the GP and P of the active chapter, the President of the Nashville Alumni Association, Mr. Thomas DeWitt, and three at-large members. Elected to the at-large positions were: Mr. James Stewart, for a three year position; Mr. Lawrence Brown, for a two year position; Mr. Richard Raney, for a one year position. Our congratulations go out to these men as well as our pledge of cooperation.

Also it was reported that a scholarship fund had been established and named the R. D. Kuhn Scholarship Fund, in honor of Brother Kuhn, Vanderbilt '21. Information regarding this fund should be addressed to the Treasurer of the House Corporation of Tennessee Delta.

We are pleased to report the continuing success of Phi Psi in the intramural program. Basketball found Phi Psi sporting a rather small but fast team with excellent outside shooting. The overall record of 6-4 is not indicative of the team achievement and chapter support in the sport. A sport in which Phi Psi annually does well is softball. This spring should be no exception as interest is greater than in years past.

All Vanderbilt and Tennessee Delta alumni be on the lookout for the alumni newsletter, The Deltan, in the coming months. Responses and suggestions after the fall issue were excellent and I hope every alumnus will write concerning any item of interest for upcoming issues.

As this is the last SHIELD report I will have the opportunity to author, I would like to thank the editors of THE SHIELD for their help as well as the countless Brothers at Tennessee Delta who have provided ideas and time in the preparation of these reports.

University of Virginia New Pledges

The fall semester brought us 16 new pledges. They are: Steven W. Blaine, Vienna; Raymond J. Boland Jr., Alexandria; Scott A. Claybrook, William B. Crafton, Robert S. Holt, Nashville, Tenn.; John T. Cook, Lynchburg; Michael F. Egan, Thomas J. Egan Jr., Chevy Chase, Md.; James W. Freeman, Mclean;

Robert H. Graham, Sterling; Christian K. Latimer, Vienna; Michael C. Neely, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Robert F. Nelson, Fairfax; Robert E. Offerdinger, Bethesda, Md.; Mark W. Pitts, Fredricksburg; Andrew J. Parker, Olney, Md.

The pledges made their presence known on Founders Day with a gala celebration at the chapter house. The Brothers celebrated Founders Day in the dining room with a salute to out-going president, James B. Maloney, and newly elected president, John M. Milford.

Other new officers are Andrew T. Canfield, VGP; Thomas R. Watkins III, P; Yoshikado Koyama, AG; Russell A. Marsh, BG; Scott S. Rainey, Hod; James B. Maloney, Phu; James J. Mitchell Jr., Hi.

In other chapter news, another edition of the Virginia Alpha Alumni Newsletter, "The Missing Link," will be published sometime later this semester. Thomas R. Watkins III will be going to England this spring with the University Rugby Club to play some rugby matches. The Summerfield Award was awarded this year to James W. Stone Jr.

Wabash College Initiation

Upon returning from Christmas break, we discovered that during our absence the water pipes had frozen and burst, on two separate days, causing water damage to the chapter room and the Great Hall. But with the help of the college, the house is once again in top order.

Initiation ceremonies were held for 14 members of the fall pledge class on February 29. We originally had set initiation for Sunday, February 9, but gave the pledges the impression a mini-ELC was to be held on that date. Apparently, the freshmen discovered our secret because they staged a walkout Friday afternoon (in order to get out of painting the halls that weekend), leaving word that they would be back Saturday night in time for the festivities Sunday.

However, the Brothers, with our far superior minds, decided to cancel their initiation to a later date, but to give the freshmen the impression their scheme had worked. When they were awakened at seven o'clock Sunday morning the pledges were greeted with paint and brushes and spent the entire day painting the halls.

The new Brothers are: Eric Brandt, Bloomington, Ill.; Sean Butler, Highland; Jim Griffis, Rob Mikesell, Richmond; Dale Heim, Jay Ponder, Indianapolis; Scott McBride, Rosedale; Mark Mikesell, South Bend; Mike O'Quin, Centerburg, Ohio; Nat Pendleton, Philadelphia, Pa.; Deane Popma, Aurora; Jacob Van Kretschmar, Attica; Steve Weiland, Hammond; and Bryan Williams, Evansville. Eric Brandt was elected best pledge.

Roy Lee Howell is the recipient of this year's Solon E. Summerfield Scholarship.

Roy is a senior chemistry major and will be attending graduate school next year. Congratulations also go to senior Mike Ayala, accepted into medical school in Mexico; senior Chuck Tramel, accepted into law school; and senior Bill Zajdel with a full scholarship to a graduate school in chemistry next year.

The Wabash Phi Psis are making a good showing in intercollegiate sports. Pat Hale and Bill Ashby have lettered in wrestling. Meanwhile, John Downing, Chris Beebe, and Rob Mikesell are competing on the varsity track team. On the intramural level, sophomore Andy Murduck took first in the table tennis tournament to give us a second place finish overall. We are currently third in bowling and have a possible first place finish in pocket billiards.

The Founders Day Banquet was held at the Athenaeum House in Indianapolis this year. Both alumni and actives were represented at the dinner.

Plans for next year's rush have begun under new rush chairman, John Downing. We encourage our alumni to send us the names of students interested in attending Wabash.

Washington and Jefferson College Social Scene

Pennsylvania Alpha is proud to announce that 14 outstanding young men have pledged Phi Psi this spring. The pledges are: Louis Aquino, Pittsburgh; Thomas Bovalina, Burgettstown; Charles Coxson III, Jamestown, N.Y.; Charles Harry, Jefferson; Daniel Glusica, Uniontown; Jeffrey Lauff, Bulger; Daniel Manion, Bethel Park; Michael Mastic, South Park; Gary McEwen, North Versailles; Harold Merritt, Albion; Charles Parsons, Beaver Falls; Mark Sam, Windber; Robert Silverman, New Castle; and Mark Steffine, Aliquippa. Pledge Advisor is Paul Longo, while Blaine Volovich is pledge trainer.

February 19 is a date dear to all Phi Psis. This year was no exception as Albert Cuneo, Mark Scinico, George Steffine and Mr. Henry Heck on this day were formally initiated into the mysteries of Phi Kappa Psi. Special congratulations are in order for Brother Heck of Natrona Heights, Class of 1934, who returned to be formally initiated after a long absence from collegiate life. After the ceremony, Brother Heck talked informally with the Brothers about "the old days of Phi Psi." After talking with him, we realized that Phi Psi has been an outstanding chapter here throughout the years. On February 20, Ernest Ricci, Thomas Shula, Steve Heinrich, Raymond Roccon and Jim Manion attended Founders Day festivities at Pittsburgh's University Club.

New officers have been elected to serve for the upcoming year. They are: Jeffrey Wentz, GP; Richard Pinelli, VGP; Nick Certo, P; Mark Scinico, BG; John Bucholtz, AG; Fred Funeo, Phu; Anthony Casino, Hi; Scholarship Chairman, Nick Karaszia.

We are very involved on the social scene here at W & J. Recently we staged the bi-annual "Phi Psi Jam" in which Brothers dress up like famous entertainers to perform for the campus. At this year's jam, cameo appearances were made by Elton John, Kool and the Gang, Haley and the Comets, K.C. and the Sunshine Band, and the Beach Boys. This spring's Military Ball, sponsored by the Department of Military Science, has several Phi Psis contributing to its annual success. Phi Psi ROTC Cadets include Tom Brown, John Bucholtz, Richard Pinelli, Jim Manion, Fred Cuneo, Jim Johnson, Vance Richmond and Mark Scinico.

Athletics take a back seat only to academics here at W & J. This spring promises to be an outstanding one in terms of both varsity and intramural competition. Representing Phi Psi on the track squad will be Mark Sirney, Gary Silverman, Rick Klimchock, Nick Certo, Thomas Shula and John Noble. On the baseball diamond Richard Pinelli and George Steffine promise W & J outstanding talent. Duncan Ryder, an all-PAC selection in tennis should have no trouble repeating those honors this season. Although wrestling is not a spring sport, the Brothers of Pa. Alpha are proud of our contribution to Varsity Wrestling. After posting a winning regular season record, the W & J matmen placed third in the President's Athletic Conference Wrestling Tournament. Winning individual honors were Brothers Robert Daschbach, second at 118; Angelo Morascyzk, second at 126; Larry Parker, fourth at 150; John Noble, fourth at 177; Fred Cuneo, second at 190. Other members of the wrestling squad include Brothers James Manion, Richard Raucci and Gerry Cerone. Contributing to the W & J Golf Team's successes are Brothers Jim Johnson and Nick Karaszia.

On the Intramural scene the spring is traditionally Phi Psi. Our intramural basketball squad captured the runner-up position after the play-offs were concluded. The Intramural Wrestling Squad and the Intramural Track Team are defending champions in their respective sports, while both return a healthy percentage of Brothers to compete again this season.

Finally, preparations are being made for the Brothers of Pennsylvania Alpha to be represented at the Grand Arch Council meetings this summer.

JOHN BUCHOLTZ, Correspondent

Washington and Lee University 1000th Initiate

January 31, Virginia Beta initiated 14 outstanding pledges. Our new Brothers are: Robert Clarkson, Robert Marvin, Rhinebeck, N.Y.; Gerald Maatman, Wilmette, Ill.; Henry Hairston, Chatham; Paul Daugherty, Potomac, Md.; Lowell Buckner, Beaumont, Tex.; Stephen Jones, Baltimore, Md.; John Gula, Manhasset, N.Y.; Robert Rogers, Columbus, N.J.; J. Andrew Fitzgerald, Potomac, Md.; Robert Smith, Elmira, N.Y.; David Leunig, Louisville, Ky.; Thomas Morville, Newton, N.J.; Michael Wenke, Glenolden, Pa.; and Victor Mitchell, New Haven, Conn., our chapter's 1000th initiate.

The 1000th initiate of Virginia Beta, Vic Mitchell, stands flanked by Alumnus J. J. Smith and GP Steve DiBiagio.

After a strong showing in fall and winter athletics, the W&L Phi Psis are surging toward the intramural championship. In intercollegiate athletics, Jim Crytzer will be taking part in the NCAA wrestling tournament in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Gerry Maatman, Vic Mitchell, and Andy Fitzgerald are representing Washington and Lee on the golf links. Mike Falcone, Bob Carpentier, Maynard McCorkle, Steve Marzo, Bob Szczecinski, Mike Rhoads, Ted Hissey, John Gula and Rob McMichael all wear the blue and white for the Generals baseball squad.

Virginia Beta Phi Psis have excelled in the classroom as well as the playing fields. The chapter was once again near the top on campus as many Brothers achieved Dean's List and Honor Roll status.

The spring term will be celebrated at the "Psi Lodge" with numerous parties at which flowing grain, tapped kegs, excellent food and generally good times will abound.

Virginia Beta continues to progress academically, spiritually, socially, and athletically, looking to the future with great anticipation.

West Virginia University Chapter Presented Plaque

As a result of our fund raising activities and financial contributions to the Leukemia Society of America, a plaque was recently presented to West Virginia Alpha by the organization. Our interests in this field of medical research were born out of the loss of Brother Carroll Boyd Shingleton III, '75, to this disease. The plaque reads as follows:

In appreciation to the Brothers of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity—in grateful acknowledgement and appreciation of your efforts to raise funds for research into the cause and cure of leukemia—Leukemia Society of America, Inc., Western Pennsylvania Chapter 1975.

Five years ago we instituted a Parents Day into the calendar of social events for the second semester. The intent behind this special day was not only to acquaint the parents of both actives and pledges with the present members of the chapter, but also and most importantly to attempt to give these parents some understanding of the nature of a fraternity. The response of the parents this year, as in the past four years, was extremely gratifying.

An Easter service, arranged by Tony Tuckwiller, Hi, was held in the Memorial Chapel and was well attended by several sororities as well as all the Brothers.

Our annual Spring Formal was recently held with a good turnout on hand. It was the culmination of a finely organized, second-semester social calendar by social chairman Rick Ott.

Greek Week was recently celebrated and provided a successful, fun-filled five days for the Phi Psis and our Greek team partners Pi Beta Phi Sorority and Sigma Nu Fraternity.

With recent first place fraternity division titles in water polo and foul throw, Phi Kappa Psi has taken a commanding lead in the race for an unprecedented fourth straight intramural championship. Our stronger sports of wrestling, track, and softball will help insure our present dominance in intramurals. Softball is currently in full swing with the following starting line-up: pitcher Dave Pill, catcher Jeff Tennant, first baseman Clay Wymer, second baseman Bob Myers, shortstop Dean Schwartz, third baseman Tom Hinzeman, and outfielders Frank LaVechia, Roger Cutright, Bill Wymer, and D. B. Teter.

Wayne W. Hall was the recipient of the Harlan Selby Award. Wayne was selected for the award on the basis of his leadership to the Fraternity. Currently, Wayne is serving as treasurer. Wayne has been accepted to graduate school at Wake Forest to acquire his Masters of Business Administration degree.

Charles Guy, John Davis and West Virginia Alpha's Solon E. Summerfield scholar Samuel David Morris were recently accepted to the West Virginia University School of Medicine. John Brizzi has been accepted to the International School of Law, Washington, D.C.

Student Government elections resulted in Richard Pill and Junior Taylor being voted in strongly to the Athletic Council.

As always, West Virginia Alpha extends a hearty invitation to all Brothers—whether they desire a bed, a meal, or simply the warmth of true brotherhood.

Wittenberg University New Members

Founders Day was celebrated by an informal gathering and cocktail party at the house, followed by a banquet at Yannucci's Restaurant. Alumni saw new furniture in the side lounge, along with a new coat of paint throughout the house.

New officers were recently elected. They are: Mike D. Drenan, GP; Richard B. Bittner, VGP; Richard J. Keller, AG; Mike A. Clohossey, BG; Gary Dickert-hoof, P; Robert B. McGonigle, Phu; John M. Donohue, Hod; and Kurt St. Clair, Hi.

New members from our winter pledge class totaled eight. They are as follows: John H. Balinger, Basking Ridge, N.J.; Douglas W. Beckman, Westfield, N.Y.; Andrew A. Brandt, Rochester, N.Y.; Christopher D. Brown, Centerville; Gary L. Crist, Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Harold B. Kendall, Athens; Breck L. Middleton, Stow; and Robert T. Mitchel, North Canton. This brings in a total of 11 new members this year, with hope of gaining a spring pledge class also.

Colonies

University of Arizona One Year Old

As of March 12, 1976, Arizona Alpha Colony of Phi Kappa Psi has been on the Arizona campus for exactly one year. In this short time, we have met almost all the requirements for receiving our charter. Hopefully, we will complete the rest of the necessary goals soon.

Just recently, Arizona Alpha went to Phoenix for Founders Day ceremonies, where we showed a slide presentation. In Phoenix we were received well by everyone, including Ken Potter, Ralph Daniel and the Arizona Beta Chapter. Plans are already in the making to hold next year's ceremonies here in Tucson.

Chapter Consultant Guy Minardi was just here helping us set up a new rush program for pledging six more men by April 15, 1976. Also coming up is the UofA Greek Week and Spring Fling, the all campus benefit carnival. We will also be participating in the City of Tucson Carnival for the Handicapped and the Associated Students Voter Registration Drive. We are also finalizing plans for monthly luncheons for Tucson alumni.

Our pledges have more than half completed their pledge program and probably will be activated in late April. We are still looking for our own house but the temporary arrangements are working out quite well until we find one. We are having a pledge-active picnic in late March, with the pledges finding dates for the actives. This should be a good time for all.

We have just completed our by-laws and internal operations are very strong. The spirit of the group is tremendous and more progress is occurring as each day passes. Our goal for chartering is October, 1976, and we hope to see many of the brothers at this momentous occasion, as well as the GAC in Washington, D.C.

MICHAEL MOLINA, Correspondent

University of Florida New Members

Florida Beta Colony celebrated Founders Day on Saturday, Feb. 21, with the initiation of five new brothers and a banquet at the University of Florida Gold Club. The new brothers are John Leighton, Burlington, N.C.; Jay Gould, Hopewell, Va.; Richard Wayne, Belleair Beach; Doug Young, Sarasota; and Joe Maseda, Tampa.

Honored at the Founders Day banquet were Karl Kern, outstanding brother; Richard Wayne, outstanding pledge; and Tracy Stafford of the original Florida Beta Chapter, outstanding alumnus. Several members of the original chapter were in attendance at the banquet. Alumni from the South Florida Alumni Club have invited colony brothers to their belated Founders Day banquet in Ft. Lauderdale on March 27.

Members of the Pennsylvania Iota colony at University of Pennsylvania and the colony initiation team pause in their schedule last March 7 for their portrait.

Our alumni house corporation also had its first meeting February 21. Members approved and amended their bylaws and articles of incorporation and chose Robert Cook, Tennessee Delta, as interim president.

Florida Beta Colony now has three new pledges. They are: Steve Calef, Hollywood, Kevin Farrell, Northboro, Mass.; and Rex Gomez, St. Petersburg.

Colony brothers are working hard to publicize the return of Phi Psi to the Florida campus. We participated in intramural basketball and achieved a 3-3 record.

Leonard Delgado earned $310 to help fight cystic fibrosis by participating in an ice cream eating contest sponsored by Delta Phi Epsilon Sorority. Brother Delgado ate one hundred scoops of vanilla ice cream to finish sixth in the contest.

Florida Beta also won a keg of beer at Dub's (a Gainesville club) for having the highest percentage of members in attendance March 3, of any of UF's 30 fraternities.

Our congratulations to Harry Light for being chosen Summerfield Scholar for 1976.

As far as future plans go, the colony is looking forward to our first Phi Psi 500 on April 11. The proceeds are to be donated to the university library. In addition, we are looking forward to our chartering, possibly on May 8.

University of Georgia Rush Is Central

Continually striving, the membership of Georgia Alpha Colony now numbers 18 men. The first pledge class was initiated on February 29. This initiation brought the number of brothers to 17, with one pledge.

Randy Grimsley, a junior in Business from Griffin, Ga., is a pledge and will be initiated next quarter.

One bid remains outstanding, with several more to be extended soon.

Rush—a major concern as usual—continues, although approaching winter quarter examinations make the job much harder. Recommendations of potential rushees have been solicited from many of the sororities on the University of Georgia campus.

Because of its utmost importance, rushing has become central to all Colony functions. Social activities, intramural games, and certain Colony meetings serve to familiarize rushees with the brothers. Rush functions have included biweekly parties and a trip to Atlanta to see the Ringling Brothers-Barnum and Bailey Circus.

Recently attended functions by the brothers in February include a lasagne and wine dinner at the home of Colony Alumni Advisor Bruce Bailey and his wife Betty. Assistant Executive Secretary Gary Angstadt, in Atlanta on Fraternity business, traveled to Athens with Chapter Consultant Bob Wolter, and they joined the brothers for dinner at the Baileys'.

The brothers joined Atlanta Alumni Association members in commemoration of Founders Day at a banquet held in the Nantucket Tavern of the Lenox Rode-way Inn. The meeting was highlighted by a speech given by Fraternity President Tom James.

The brothers are building a good name on campus through service projects and participation in intramurals. Service projects have included assisting in the Special Olympics for Athens-area physically and mentally handicapped, participation in the campus-wide Red Cross blood drive, and helping Alpha Gamma Delta sorority refurbish the rose garden at their historic Athens house. Basketball and softball have served to further identify Phi Kappa Psi through intramurals.

The Colony's newsletter, named "The Upstart," was born during Winter Quarter, and was mailed to alumni throughout the state.

The men of Georgia Alpha are looking forward to Chartering Day this spring. We solicit recommendations from all Phi Psis, of young men attending—or considering attending—the University of Georgia, who might be interested in building a Fraternity. Alumni seeking to recommend young men are asked to contact us.

University of New Mexico Acquire New House

On January 31, the N.M. Beta Colony moved into our new six-bedroom, two-story house. The move from our old house was necessary because of bad plumbing, poor electrical circuits, and an overall lack of space. We have plans for relandscaping and refinishing the exterior this summer. Along with the house we have adopted the resident cat, called appropriately enough, "Cat."

We won the fraternity "B" league in intramural basketball with a 7-1 record and will be playing in a tournament beginning March 9.

Our best two skiers, Skip Dobson and Jeff Erickson, will be competing in the giant slalom in intramural skiing March 11.

Chapter Consultant Guy Minardi made a visit to our colony February 25 through February 29. We had a very successful house-warming party during his stay.

On February 28, we participated in an exchange with Phi Mu, Pikes, and Alpha Delta Pi.

During April's Greek Week we are sponsoring a Phi Psi 500 marathon race. There will be a party afterward.

University of Pennsylvania Successful Return

We, the brothers of the Pennsylvania Iota Colony of Phi Kappa Psi, would like to introduce ourselves to all the Brothers of Phi Kappa Psi: Brian Penttila, Lake Worth, Fla.; Peter Friedman, Riverdale, N.Y.; Robert Baker, Oceanside, N.Y.; Robert Orleanski, Cranford, N.J.; Jeffrey Evans, Harrisburg; Richard League, Jacksonville, Fla.; William Ziegler, East Lansdowne; Edward Rivas, Garden City, N.Y.; Clemson Smith, Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico; Gerald Eysaman, Zephyrills, Fla.; Sanford Ross, Verona, N.J.; George Blees, New Canaan, Conn.; Donald Barber, Hyattsville, Md.; Anthony Deban, Brighton, Mass.; Arthur Levine, Woodmere, N.Y.; David Schlecker, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Richard Goldberg, Skokie, Ill.; David Simms, Media; Kevin Madara, Levittown.

We are hard at work looking for more members so that we may become a chapter in October, 1976, and we urge all alumni to inform us of any potential members for our colony. We are happy to announce the selection of our advisor, Carl Sheppard, Pennsylvania '68. The house committee headed by Joe O'Neill, Pennsylvania '50, is hard at work obtaining a house for us. We are looking forward for a long and prosperous life on the University of Pennsylvania campus.

Alumni Associations and Clubs

Atlanta Alumni Association

The Association was proud to have Tom James, President of the Fraternity, as its Founders Day speaker. He updated us and revitalized our interest in the Fraternity as a whole.

At Founders Day, February 20, new officers were elected to serve until next year: Timothy J. Heup, S.C. Alpha, President; Elgin MacConnell, Pa. Beta, Vice President; Bud Russell, Ala. Alpha, Treasurer; Edward E. Tate Jr., S.C. Alpha, Secretary. Also elected were members of the association governing board. They are: H. Dyar Burttram, Ala. Alpha; George Limbacher Jr., Miss. Alpha; Richard E. Reiter, Ind. Ep.; Donald F. Stair, Ohio Alpha.

The building process continues on the establishment of a chapter in Georgia. With the help of several of the alumni in Atlanta and Athens, the Colony members have made a strong thrust toward having themselves ready to petition the National Office for a Charter. (See the Georgia Alpha Colony Newsletter).

Monthly luncheons have been renewed! We meet on the first Friday of each month, 12:00 Noon, in the Fairfield Inn at the Marriott Hotel. Nothing fancy is planned. We just get together to have lunch and maybe a martini or two. How about it? Join the rest of us.

Plans are in the works to possibly have a Phi Psi Golf Tournament or maybe a softball game-picnic combination. Each member's thoughts on these and other possibilities are always welcome. Of course, plans are already underway for the annual pool party at John Bair's some time in early June. Hope to see you there!

Chicago Alumni Association

Activity of the Chicagoland Alumni Association has slowed since the Founders Day banquet and will continue at a low ebb until we near the Annual Closed Invitational Golf Outing. About all that can be done during this period is to forward rushing prospects to the chapters so that they can get a good start on next fall's rush. There seems to be increasing interest in fraternities among the high school boys across the nation and you can help with your recommendations. We have sent six forward already.

More than 60 Brothers gathered to celebrate Founders Day on February 19. A fine roast beef dinner was planned and executed by our first vice president, Jim Humphrey, Case-Western Reserve. Tom Price, Purdue, was awarded membership in the Golden Council and about 20 Brothers were admitted to the Silver Council. Our chapters at Valparaiso, Illinois, and Northwestern reported from the campus and officers for 1976-77 were elected: President, Fred Goss, Illinois; 1st VP, Jim Humphrey, Case Western Reserve; 2nd VP, Wayne Woltman, Illinois; Treasurer, Tom Whiting, Purdue; 3rd VP, Pat Kirby, Minnesota; 4th VP, Joseph Quilici, Illinois; Secretary, Frank Whiting, Illinois; Chaplain, Kent Yowell, Colorado; 5th VP, Robert Halliday, Illinois.

Dues for 1976 ($2.00) are now payable to your Treasurer, Thomas Whiting, 666 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Ill. 60611. The best way to receive every notice is to be a current dues payer.

Findlay Alumni Association

A small but select group of Alumni gathered together in Findlay for lunch Thursday, February 19, to help the Findlay Alumni Association celebrate Founders Day. Brother Dan Flowers, from Houston, Texas, attended. There was no planned program, but an informal meeting was held in order to remind us of our Fraternity and the Association's gain from this fine organization.

The same officers will continue to serve for another year. A message from our President, Walter Mueller, stated that he hopes to have more frequent meetings during 1976. We hope that any alumnus in the Findlay area (outside of Findlay) will get in touch with the Secretary so that he can be invited to our next meeting.

Indianapolis Alumni Association

Sixty-two Phi Psis attended the Indianapolis Alumni Association Founders Day Banquet, held this year at the Athenaeum Turners Club, Indianapolis, Ind. Alumni from every Indiana Chapter and undergraduates from Indiana Alpha, Beta, Gamma, Delta, and Zeta attended. A nominating committee, chaired by Brother Steve Bushman, presented the following slate of nominees for office: Rex Hume, president; John Whineberger, vice-president; Stan Wachel, secretary-treasurer. The slate was elected by consensus since no further nominations were offered from the floor.

Among the distinguished guests present at the banquet were Brother Robert Chamberlain Jr., Fraternity Treasurer, along with Brothers Cornelius, Vonnegut, Blake, Black, and Colonel Rhodes. Brother Hume mentioned that the next GAC will be held in Washington, D.C. this summer and that all alumni and undergraduates are invited. Indiana Delta will be celebrating its 75th anniversary this year and a banquet will be held on April 10, 1976, and all Brothers are cordially invited to attend.

Following the speech by Brother Chamberlain, brief reports of each chapter were presented by the respective presidents. In general, all the chapters are doing well socially, collegiately, and most of all, scholastically.

The annual song contest was held next with Indiana Gamma taking away the honors. Brothers Chris Anderson was awarded the annual Blake, Buschmann, Burkhart Award presented annually by the Indiana Zeta Chapter. Closing remarks for the good of the Fraternity followed and then all the Brothers joined in a rousing chorus of Amici to end the festivities.

Michiana Alumni Club

The Michiana Phi Kappa Psi Association met Wednesday, February 25, at the Morris Park Country Club to celebrate Founders Day. Due to commitments of the Club as well as individual members, it was not possible to meet on the exact date of Founders Day. However, 13 Brothers did congregate for an enjoyable evening of reminiscing, renewing friendships, singing of fraternity songs, and general all around good fellowship. Those attending were Bob Lee, Bill Lee, Bruce BonDurant, Al Nelson, Hal Burton, W. H. Bruner, James Pankow, Ted Blake, Richard Holdeman, Richard Emmons, Bob Dunbar, Harry Gates, Phil Loncar, and Bill Fox.

Plans were discussed concerning the summer outing for which a firm date will be chosen and announcements made in the future.

Officers were elected for the coming year and they are Bruce BonDurant, president; Bob Lee, secretary; Al Nelson, treasurer; and William Fox, corresponding secretary.

Northridge Alumni Association

The Northridge Alumni Association will celebrate its first anniversary on June 1. Membership has been increasing and it is our hope to encourage many of the Brothers in the San Fernando Valley to join us in our monthly gatherings. This summer we are planning the annual alumni softball game with the undergraduates of California Theta. The Northridge Alumni Association is proud to announce that it is also planning to represent the Fraternity at the upcoming GAC. We wish to thank Vice President Ken Potter for his inspirational words at the Founders Day observance in Los Angeles. It was very much appreciated by the undergraduates and alumni in attendance.

Omaha Alumni Association

On February 20, the largest group in recent Omaha Phi Psi history gathered at the Venice Inn to celebrate the founding of our Fraternity. About 100 Phi Psis enjoyed the bar, the wine, the steak and the fellowship. It was a great spirited gathering and all the alumni were quite heartened by the positive reports given by the undergraduates from the Iowa State, Nebraska U., and Creighton U. chapters. It was great to hear how healthy and well managed we seem to be in each respective chapter. It was pleasing and refreshing that each chapter had chosen some alumni present in the hall to be thanked for their great contribution to each of these chapters. Iowa State thanked Jack and Don Evans plus Ray Kincaid for their help. The largest group of all from Nebraska University publicly thanked Adrian Fila, while the Creighton representative expressed pleasure with the aid tended to them by Paul LaPuzza and Bud Rohr. In such an atmosphere many a story was told about how great we were "in the old days" matched by "well, look at how fine we are now"! Good news sure loosens a group up! Some serious business was accomplished during a business meeting. John Crane (Penn State), perpetual chairman of the nominating committee, introduced this year's slate: Tom Hoarty (Creighton) for president; Dick Shugrue (Nebraska), vice-president; Bud Rohr (Creighton), treasurer; and Ted Urban (Northwestern), secretary. These were elected by acclamation with our very efficient past president, Ted Foster (Iowa), leading the cheers.

Before the main speaker, Archon Rich Nelson (Creighton) spoke a few words and encouraged inter-chapter rivalry (sports-wise) in the district. National Officer Phil Davidson (Arizona), as our speaker, gave a historically oriented talk concerning our Fraternity's growth and named many of the great Brothers who contributed to it. This was well received and was followed by the announcement by Tom Hoarty that our next Association gathering would be held during the early summer. It would be our Annual Golf Stag followed in the evening by a date (or stag) beer party-wienie roast at Ted Urban's home in Omaha. A surprise trophy, prizes and fellowship were promised for this gathering. We'll try to get word to all whose addresses we have.

With the singing of "Amici" the group left the banquet table and many returned to the bar for further conversations.

See you in Washington for the G.A.C.—many plan to be there for this meeting!

Oxford Alumni Association

A spanking new Alumni Association has been born to the Fraternity—its name is Oxford. Both Oxford and parents are doing well.

Young Oxford's growth rate has been mind-boggling: he has doubled in size since birth and there is no end in sight. Diapers and bottles have been discarded, and our Phi Psi toddler is walking, talking and looking forward to meeting his granddaddy in Washington, D.C. in August.

Why, he even plans to honor the most improved chapter at the GAC. To help Oxford pick this chapter to be honored, the Executive Staff has graciously agreed to make five nominations. Oxford's "Most Improved Chapter" award will be given at this and all subsequent Grand Arch Councils. Oxford suggests to each chapter who feels that they might be so honored to have a truck standing by in Washington, D.C. as it will be a prodigious trophy commensurate with the chapter's achievements.

The Brothers of our area are convening at the Ohio Lambda house on Saturday, May 22, to choose young Oxford's guardians for next year. Exciting plans are already underway for Oxford's first year.

Oxford is planning on seeing all his Dayton, Hamilton, Middletown and Cincinnati Brothers this year, but in the meantime, he would be tickled to hear from all the scenic S.W. Ohio Brothers.

CARL H. BENNETT, Correspondent

Pittsburgh Alumni Association

The Pittsburgh Alumni Association held the annual Founders Day banquet on Feb. 20 at the University Club with a total of 39 Brothers attending.

A Golden Council certificate was presented to Forrest Stout, Kansas Alpha '19, who, along with Jim Crookston, Pennsylvania Lambda '19, represented the loyal 50-year members of the Fraternity. Silver Council members included Cureton, Boregerding, Gilmore, Hazlett, McMurray and Stuart.

The new slate of officers elected are: President, Bill Bates, Pennsylvania Nu; Vice President, Barry Leonard, Pennsylvania Lambda; Secretary, Jim Snediker, Ohio Epsilon; and Treasurer, Bob Bwyer, Pennsylvania Nu.

Bill Hazlett gave a brief rundown on the state of the Fraternity and a plug for attending the 1976 Grand Arch Council to be held in Washington, D.C., August 11-15 at the Marriott, Twin Bridges.

Representatives of the chapters present gave the latest on the well being of their chapters. They were optimistic stories. Surprisingly it seems that Pennsylvania Alpha was put on probation for being too successful in their pledging last semester.

Bill Poundstone, West Virginia '46, addressed the group. He is a member of the Dept. of Commerce Project Independence panel in addition to his duties as Executive Vice President of the Consolidation Coal Co. He began work in the coal business during summers between college terms and began full time after graduation. His job now has to do with all new mine development, mining research, exploration, engineering and planning.

His very thoughtful talk examined the energy problem and the unwise roadblocks being put in the way of orderly and economic solutions to the situation. It does appear that the coal industry is willing to help us through. The courses to follow are clear in the minds of the experts and they may be carried out successfully if started soon.

The meeting was closed with Ray Roccon leading in AMICI.

D.C. Alumni Association

The D.C. Alumni Association celebrated Founders Day February 19 with a dinner at the Army and Navy Club. With the flu bug going around we were fortunate to have the 19 who did attend. We were especially pleased to have Dr. Gordon S. Letterman, Mo. Alpha '38, the co-founder's grandson, with us for the evening.

New officers elected for the coming year were: President, John F. Murphy, Ariz. Alpha '48; Vice President, George E. Bitner, Ohio Alpha '58; and Secretary-Treasurer, David T. Bryant, Texas Alpha '43. The members of the Board of Governors are Franklin Alan, Ind. Delta '59; George W. Shanks, Ind. Beta '64; and George R. Herrman, Ind. Beta '34.

District of Columbia Alumni Association is preparing to perform as a host Alumni Association for the Great Bicentennial Grand Arch Council to be held in Washington, D.C., August 11-15.

PHI PSI Luncheons

One of the distinctive features of being a Phi Psi is how the bonds of brotherhood are maintained after leaving the college campus. Often, the prime vehicle for sustaining those friendships is the Alumni Association. Listed below are the times and locations of the Fraternity's Alumni Association meetings. Check for the association nearest you and attend their next meeting. You will enjoy seeing familiar faces and will be getting active in "Something of Value."

Bits N' Pieces

John W. Harris Jr.

JOHN W. HARRIS JR., University of Alabama '71, became part of the Executive Staff in February, 1976. Jack received a B.S. in physical education with emphasis in both athletic coaching and sports medicine. His minor was social science. While an undergraduate at Alabama Alpha, Jack served as chaplain, sergeant-at-arms, recording secretary, and vice-president. He also served as chairman of the Rush, Social, Sports, and Governing and Grievance Committees. He represented Phi Psi in the Interfraternity Council for four years and was Chief Justice of the IFC for the last two years. Jack is an avid golfer and worked with the golf coach the past year as a student assistant in the recreation department of the University.

Memphis State's Phi Psi 500 a huge success

Tennessee Zeta chapter at Memphis State University sponsored their first Phi Psi 500 this spring and tied the event to a fund-raising event which netted over $2,800 for the Le Bonheur Children's Hospital in Memphis. Six MSU sororities participated in the "500" tricycle race, which was run on April 10. The overall winner, Delta Gamma, received a six-foot tall trophy, given for the amount of money raised and their first-place in the race. The $2,800 gift will be used by Le Bonheur to purchase equipment for a special health recreation facility.

National fraternity installs at Baylor

The first chapter of a national fraternity was established at Baylor University in Waco, Texas in November when Sigma Tau Epsilon, a local men's club, became a chapter of Kappa Alpha Order. Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority has also installed a chapter. Baylor has about 8,600 students.

What is a chapter consultant?

The position of Chapter Consultant is open to any Brother who has recently graduated and can meet special leadership qualifications. It is a position of responsibility and requires an understanding of sound chapter operations, an interest in meeting and working with people, and a desire to help better the Phi Kappa Psi fraternal experience in colleges and universities across the United States.

The work is demanding, exciting and challenging, but also rewarding. He travels thousands of miles a year and meets hundreds of people. If there are those in your chapter who are interested, they should seek more information by writing:

University of Washington receives gift for all-weather track

A gift of $166,400 from Superior Court Judge Cornelius C. Chavelle, Washington '36, and Mrs. Chavelle was given to the University of Washington late last year. The gift will be used to resurface the University track and field complex. The new surface will enable the University of Washington to host major track meets. The Chavelles specified that the complex is to be available to the entire university community, including faculty, staff and students for use in training and jogging. It will be named the "Chavelle Track and Field Complex" in memory of Judge Chavelle's parents and brother.

Greeks raise $82,000 for muscular dystrophy

The January, 1976, issue of National Youth Newsletter, published by the Muscular Dystrophy Association, Inc., lists 21 fund-raising events conducted for the organization by Greek letter organizations. The total amount contributed was in excess of $82,000.

Phi Kappa Psi wins scholarship trophy at DePauw University

Outstanding Summerfield Scholar program announced

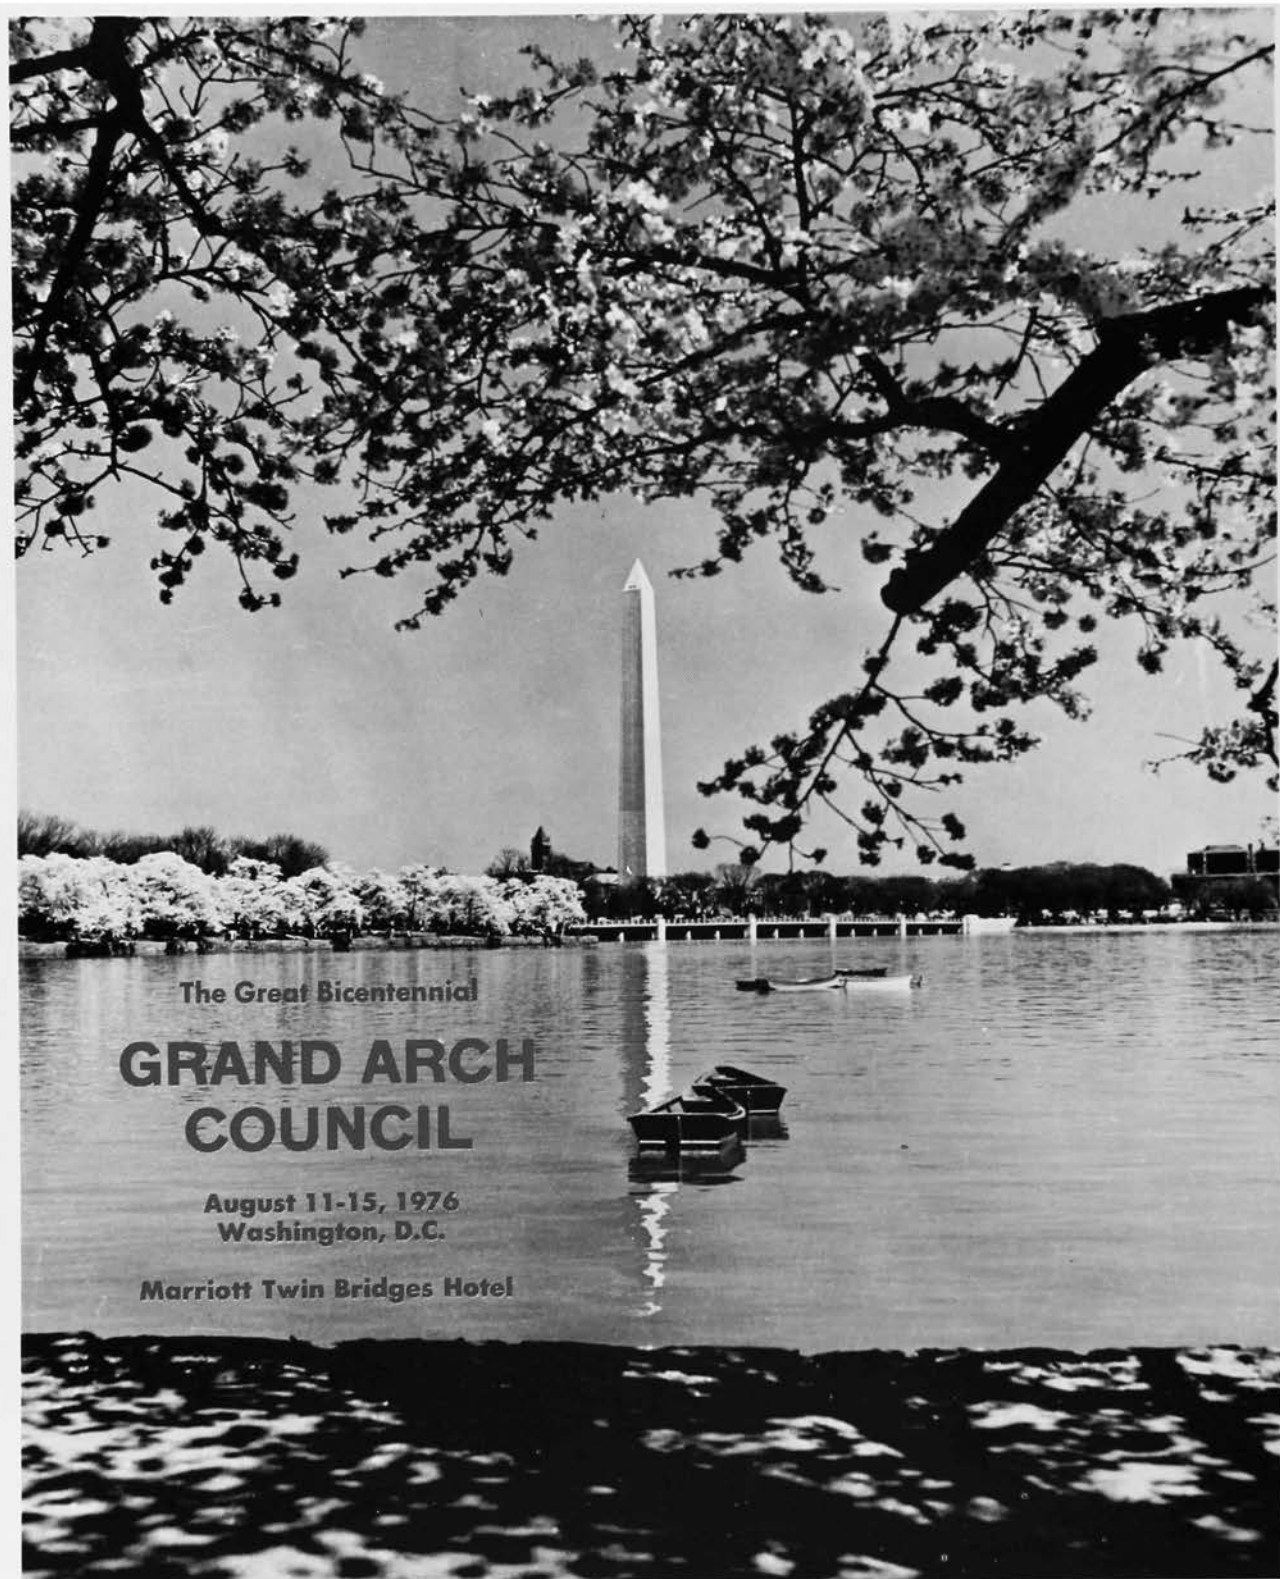

The Solon E. Summerfield Scholar Awards program is being expanded by the creation of three Outstanding Solon E. Summerfield Scholars. Each year a committee appointed by the Trustees of the Endowment Fund will select three outstanding Fraternity members from the recipients of the Summerfield program. The awards will be $1000, $500 and $300, respectively. The awards will be without restrictions or conditions with respect to the recipients' use of the awards.

The availability of the Outstanding Summerfield Awards will be made known each year through announcements which will be mailed to chapters or colonies and published in THE SHIELD. The names of the recipients will also be published in THE SHIELD, and announcements sent to newspapers in a recipient's hometown.

Recipients will be selected based on their scholarship, qualities of leadership and community and university service.

Prediction is for 5 per cent fewer jobs

A recent survey indicates 5 per cent fewer college graduates will be hired than were employed last June, according to the College Placement Council. Based on responses from 630 employers, the forecast is for 2 per cent increase in hiring in engineering and business, a 19 per cent drop in "sciences, math, other technical" and a 12 per cent decrease for "other non-technical" which category is composed largely of the humanities and social science majors. The demand for MBA graduates is expected to be up 5 per cent. A year ago the projection was that hiring would be down 4 per cent. Business conditions deteriorated and the year actually was off 18 per cent from the year earlier, according to the survey.

■ The Annual Report presented in this issue is the 124th report so presented. It speaks of the 200th anniversary of the American College fraternity system in the same year of our nation's bicentennial. As one reviews this report, he can do so with pride. Pride in the fraternity tradition and in Phi Kappa Psi. The Annual Report begins on page 145.

■ The Alumni Support Program is reviewed on pages 156-157. For the third consecutive year, the alumni support has gone over the $50,000 mark. This year's total was $82,512.04. The Honor Roll of Contributors follows on pages 158-163.

■ Mil Batten, Ohio State '29, has been named chairman of the New York Stock Exchange following a long career with the J. C. Penney Company. This feature appears on page 164.

■ "The Life and Hard Times of James Thurber" is a book review of Burton Bernstein's Thurber. Written by Kent C. Owen, Indiana '58, the review pulls no punches and makes very interesting reading about one of our famous Brothers. Read this review beginning on page 165.

■ An interesting story appears on page 169. It seems that one person pledging Phi Psi during the Depression was not initiated due to the hard times. He did finish college and law school and this past year finally was initiated into the Fraternity. John N. Booth, Missouri '76, welcome to Phi Psi.

■ The usual features From Here . . . And There and In Chapter Eternal appear in this issue on pages 167 and 170, respectively. These are followed by Phi Psi Luncheons and Chapter Rush Chairmen.

■ Bits N' Pieces appears for this second time to fill in gaps where a short paragraph may be too short or a full feature story may be too long. Hopefully, Bits N' Pieces is just the right length.—Tony B. Whittington, Editor

Annual Report 1976

Annual Report

1776-1976 200 Years A Proud Heritage

By Ralph D. Daniel, Arizona '47
Executive Secretary

PHI KAPPA PSI will mark its 125th anniversary in 1977, and the American college fraternity system celebrates its bicentennial with the Nation this year. It is an American institution as old as the country itself, and the fraternity chapter as it exists on the college campus is a reflection of our American society. This reflection has changed—Phi Kappa Psi has changed—during the nation's history, just as society has changed.

As we review the year just past, we can take pride in our fraternity history. The Greeks have a great tradition. The concept of fraternity—of brotherhood—is as old as man himself. Phi Beta Kappa was the first fraternity, founded at William and Mary on December 5, 1776, and it, like all fraternities, had a background of high idealism, a strong tie of friendship and comradeship, and an urge for sharing its values through nationwide expansion.

Kappa Alpha Society founded in 1825 at Union College, Schenectady, N.Y., was the first to function as we know fraternities now, followed by Sigma Phi (1827), and Delta Phi (1827), and all are in continuous existence today and constitute the Union Triad. Beta Theta Pi, founded at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, in 1839, joined by Phi Delta Theta (1848), and Sigma Chi (1855), constitute the Miami Triad, with Phi Gamma Delta (1848) and Phi Kappa Psi (1852) representing the Jeff Duo, having sprung to life at old Jefferson College in Canonsburg, Pa., another cradle of fraternities. There were other Greek-letter groups founded at Union before 1855—Psi Upsilon in 1833, Chi Psi in 1841, Theta Delta Chi, 1847, with Alpha Delta Phi at Hamilton College in 1832. Delta Upsilon claims its founding in 1834 at Williams College, with Delta Kappa Epsilon and Alpha Sigma Phi at Yale in 1844 and 1845, respectively. There followed Delta Psi, 1847, at Columbia, Zeta Psi, 1847, at New York University, Phi Kappa Sigma, 1850, at the University of Pennsylvania, and Chi Phi at Princeton in 1854.

Fraternities in 1905

Fifty years after the founding of the last of the Miami Triad in 1855, there were 31 general fraternities. Those fraternities had 970 active chapters and 379 inactive—a total of 1,349. Phi Kappa Psi had 42 active chapters and 21 inactive. The total number of members in all fraternities was just under 180,000. There were 658 chapter houses of which 290 were owned and 368 rented. There were, in Phi Kappa Psi, 1,119 undergraduate members, 364 initiates, and a total membership of 9,895 in 1905.

Fraternities Today

The American college fraternity system today has over 4,550 active chapters of 58 national and international fraternities on over 615 campuses in the United States and Canada, with more than 2,675,000 living members. Add to that the statistics of sororities—over 2,300 chapters and 1,600,000 members—and the Greeks are truly a significant force in our society. The college fraternity rightfully celebrates its achievements with the Nation's bicentennial of freedom, and enters its third century as healthy as ever, and with promise to remain a significant part of America and higher education.

1975-1976 In Review

The annual report is here presented for the 124th time, 76 years since the turn of the century, embracing the usual and required statistical and general information, based on the annual reports of chapter AGs covering the period March 1, 1975, to February 29, 1976, as are most of the figures in this report. This "statistical year" is at variance with the academic and fiscal years, but has served the purposes for data gathering since 1853 when the first annual report was prepared by Pennsylvania Alpha, then Grand Chapter of the Fraternity.

MEMBERSHIP

One thousand one hundred forty-one (1,141) initiates were added to the growing list of members of Phi Kappa Psi during the past year. This total compares to 1,154 a year ago, a decline of 13. The year of 1967 was the highest ever recorded at 1,511 initiates.

Two Chapters Installed

Maryland Alpha at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, inactive from June 13, 1969, was rechartered on April 3, 1975, returning an old chapter founded in 1879 to the active list. Also chartered was Montana Alpha at the University of Montana, Missoula, on May 31, 1975, giving the Fraternity its strong, first foothold in the Big Sky Country.

Colonies

At February 28, there were six colonies in operation, working towards meeting the requirements for receiving chapter charters. These were Arizona Alpha at the University of Arizona, Tucson; Arizona Gamma at Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff; Florida Beta at the University of Florida, Gainesville; Georgia Alpha at the University of Georgia, Athens; New Mexico Alpha at the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque; and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and University, Blacksburg. Since the close of the reporting period, three additional colonies have been organized, California Gamma at the University of California, Berkeley, Pennsylvania Iota at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, and Wisconsin Alpha at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, all formerly strong chapters. One colony, Arizona Gamma at Northern Arizona University, unfortunately has been discontinued for lack of progress.

No chapters were closed during the last year. Warning flags still fly for some chapters, but continued improvement generally is noted all along the line, particularly those chapters reported as making good progress in the annual review of a year ago. Missouri Beta at Westminster College is in difficulty and a determination of its future is now being studied. Louisiana Alpha at Louisiana State University is undergoing reorganization at this time, as will California Beta at Stanford this fall.

Pledges

This year the Fraternity's 76 chapters at Feb. 29, 1976, pledged a total of 1,528, compared to 1,415 a year ago. This represents an increase of 113. Two years ago, pledges totaled 1,433. More than 80 percent of the pledges were initiated, following a trend in the past years due to late reporting of pledges by the chapters, with early depledgings not accounted for. Fraternity law provides that pledgship terminates 1) upon initiation into the Fraternity, or 2) upon expiration of two semesters or three quarter final grade reporting periods from date of pledging.

Kansas Alpha Joins 1500 Club

Kansas Alpha at the University of Kansas, celebrating its centennial this year, joined the 1500 Club open only to chapters claiming 1500 or more members, becoming the second chapter to gain membership in this exclusive club. Indiana Beta at Indiana University had been the sole 1500 Clubber since 1966. Kansas Alpha moved from 1,479 to an even 1,500, with the initiation of Michael J. Rohrig on Feb. 15, 1976. Indiana Beta's consecutive roll went from 1,800 to 1,828 during the year under review. Other chapters pushing for membership in the 1500 Club are Pennsylvania Beta at Allegheny College—1,433; New York Epsilon at Colgate—1,433; and Ohio Alpha at Ohio Wesleyan—1,406, with Illinois Alpha at Northwestern University and New York Alpha at Cornell approaching 1,400 members, recording 1,388 and 1,375, respectively.

Iowa Beta Joins 1000 Club

Iowa Beta Chapter at Iowa State University joined the 1000 Club, now consisting of 33 chapters. Martin Joseph Bohlke became Iowa Beta's 1,000th initiate on Dec. 13, 1975, bringing the total initiates of Iowa Beta to 1,009.

Those chapters close to 1000 Club membership are: Virginia Beta at Washington and Lee—992, the same as a year ago; Oregon Alpha at the University of Oregon—930; and California Beta at Stanford—979, the same as a year ago.

District III Has Largest Chapters

District III, comprising 13 chapters, reported the largest total undergraduate membership, with 656, and recorded the largest average undergraduate membership with 50.5 members per chapter, up from 45.5 last year. This represents the eleventh straight year that District III has led all others in total membership, but displaces District I, with 12 chapters, which had the largest average undergraduate membership a year ago, dropping from 46.7 to 45.0.

Districts V, II, and VI, followed the leaders with average undergraduate membership of 41.3, 39.9, and 38.2, respectively. District IV, with 12 chapters, reported the smallest average undergraduate strength of 29.8, up from 28.8 last year.

For the fourth year in a row, average chapter membership for all chapters has increased from 35.4, to 38.1, to 39.4, to 40.8 for the current year.

The SHIELD OF PHI KAPPA PSI

Initiates

The 76 chapters reported 1,141 initiates and transfers during the 1975-1976 period. This is down only 13 from a year ago when initiates and transfers totaled 1,154. West Virginia Alpha at West Virginia University reported 54 initiates to lead all other chapters. Pennsylvania Gamma at Bucknell was first last year with 53, but recorded only one initiate for 1975-76. New York Epsilon at Colgate was second in total number of initiates for the year, with 43. Two chapters, Indiana Alpha at DePauw and Nebraska Alpha at Nebraska, reported 37 and 33 initiates, respectively. Twenty-one chapters reported between 20-29 initiates. These were Oregon Alpha (20), Pennsylvania Alpha (21), New York Alpha (22), Ohio Beta (22), Ohio Delta (22), California Eta (22), Indiana Delta (23), Maryland Alpha (23), Montana Alpha (23), California Delta (23), Tennessee Delta (24), Rhode Island Beta (25), Ohio Lambda (25), Louisiana Beta (26), Texas Beta (26), California Epsilon (27), Indiana Beta (28), Nebraska Beta (28), and Illinois Delta (29). The number of initiates and transfers and undergraduates for all chapters are listed in detail in the membership table accompanying this report.

Numbers in Chapters

New York Epsilon at Colgate University with 105 members leads all other chapters in undergraduate strength at Feb. 29, 1976. Indiana Beta at Indiana University, with 98, was second, followed by West Virginia Alpha, West Virginia University, with 96, Nebraska Alpha, Nebraska, with 92, and Illinois Delta, Illinois, with 91.

Others in order of undergraduate strength are Indiana Alpha at DePauw, 72, New York Alpha at Cornell, 72, Ohio Delta at Ohio State, 70, Pennsylvania Gamma at Bucknell, 70, California Eta at California Poly, 70, Kansas Alpha at Kansas, 69, Tennessee Delta at Vanderbilt, 67, Indiana Gamma, Wabash, 63, and Texas Beta at Texas Tech, 62. Nine chapters reported between 50-59 undergraduate members, 13 between 40-49, 8 between 30-39, 14 between 20-29, and 13 between 10-19. Only five recorded less than ten undergraduate members compared to three a year ago.

20 Largest Fraternities

Phi Kappa Psi since her founding in 1852 has initiated 67,691 men through the spring of 1976, on which the figures for the 20 largest American college fraternities are based. This continues to rank her 18th among the largest in total numbers of initiates. This rank has remained constant since 1969 when the Fraternity went from 17th to 18th as a result of the merger or the amalgamation of Zeta Beta Tau with several other national fraternities which brought it to the list for the first time in ninth place. There have been no current statistics for Zeta Beta Tau since 1971. Sigma Alpha Epsilon, with headquarters in Evanston, Ill., and founded in 1856, remains the largest with 164,436 initiates. Phi Sigma Kappa, founded in 1873, with headquarters in Drexel Hill, Pa., ranks 20th with 54,700 initiates.

Tau Kappa Epsilon is the largest fraternity in numbers of active chapters with 312. Lambda Chi Alpha follows with 202. Sigma Phi Epsilon, with 199 chapters, is third, succeeding Sigma Alpha Epsilon, with 185, which is now fourth. Phi Kappa Psi, with 76, has the smallest number of chapters among the 20 largest fraternities.

Among the 20 largest fraternities alone, there have been 777 new chapters installed in the last ten years, 345 in five years, and 1,425 during a 25 year period. Phi Kappa Psi has installed 22 chapters during the decade, six in the last five years, and two in the 1975-76 period. The Fraternity has lost no chapters during the last year and has eight colonies as identified elsewhere in this report.

HOUSING

The total value of the 48 houses owned by chapter house corporations of the Fraternity (including land valued at $1,706,120) totaled $8,084,624, compared to $8,561,000 a year ago, a decrease of $476,376. Mortgages totaled $1,308,715, a decrease over the $1,848,000 indebtedness reported in 1974-75.

Of the 76 chapters 48 own houses, 15 occupy houses owned by the college or university, eight rent homes privately, three are provided dormitory sections (Rhode Island Alpha at Brown, North Carolina Alpha at Duke, and South Carolina Alpha at South Carolina) by the universities. Two chapters (Nebraska Beta at Creighton and Texas Beta of Texas Tech) occupy lodges.

Type of Housing—February 29, 1976

Owned by Phi Psi Corporations	48
Rented from Colleges or Universities	15
Rented Privately	8

Beds for 2,622

Phi Psi chapters provided 2,622 bed spaces for students. Chapter owned or privately rented housing accounted for 1,849 beds, and 773 bed spaces are provided by colleges and universities in houses or dormitories restricted to fraternities. The total number of bed spaces increased by 135 over last year, mostly accounted for through housing acquired by Maryland Alpha and Montana Alpha, and the new dormitory section occupied by South Carolina Alpha. There is also a trend towards better utilization of existing space in houses as the demand for rooms increases with the rising rents of apartments and dormitories.

EXECUTIVE OFFICES

The changing nature and activities of the Fraternity is reflected in the increasing variety and volume of work carried out by the Executive Offices—"The Bureau of Standards"—in Cleveland, Ohio. The varying changes in the collegiate scene, along with the continued new developments in operations and techniques, require the Executive Offices to keep in step with the times.

The Executive Office staff consists of the Executive Secretary Ralph D. Daniel, Arizona '47, who coordinates and unifies the various services of the office; the Assistant Executive Secretary Gary B. Angstadt, Indiana '70, who assists in the everyday operations of the offices along with having responsibility for the recruitment, training, and scheduling of chapter consultants, and with matters of new chapter development; and a staff of five chapter consultants; and one part-time and three full-time secretaries.

Staff Appointments

During the year, the Executive Secretary announced the appointment Sept. 15, 1975, of Carl H. Bennett, Miami '72, New Springfield, Ohio and John A. Burke, Miami '72, Medina, Ohio and of John W. Harris Jr., Alabama '71, Russellville, Ala., on Feb. 10, 1976, to the staff as Chapter Consultants. In addition, Thomas E. Kraemer III, Penn State '72, of Newtown Square, Pa., was named a Chapter Consultant effective June 16, 1976.

Continuing his outstanding service to the Fraternity as a Chapter Consultant is Guy L. Minardi, Rhode Island '72, of Fair Lawn, N.J., who has served since July 8, 1974. Two other veteran riders of the Red and Green have completed their tours of duty and have the grateful thanks of the Fraternity for their work. J. Carter Noonan II, Texas Tech '73, of Houston, Texas, who joined the staff Jan. 1, 1975, left Jan. 1, 1976, to return to his native state, and Robert A. Wolter, Iowa State '71, of Marshalltown, Iowa, who had served since July 8, 1974, completed his two-year assignment and resigned from the staff June 8, 1976.

The Chapter Consultant program is one of the general Fraternity's most important and necessary services. These highly trained and intelligent young Phi Psis provide services and disseminate information to the Fraternity's many chapters, alumni associations, and clubs, and work in the area of new chapter development. The Chapter Consultant is an important communications and public relations source providing continuity between the Executive Offices, Executive Council, and the chapters and alumni groups.

Chapter Visits

During the 1975-76 academic year, the Fraternity's chapter consultants conducted 125 visits to chapters and colonies of Phi Kappa Psi. Some of these included extended visits in cases of chapters with special problems. In addition, five colonies were organized, two chapters restructured, and many visits made to colleges and universities with respect to new chapter development.

Fraternity President Tom James and Executive Secretary Ralph D. Daniel hold replicas of the St. Louis Arch, signifying their honorary membership in the St. Louis Alumni Association. Shown presenting the replicas are Phil Cornelius, Steve Scheidker and Sam Greenland.

ACADEMIC HONORS

We again pay honor to those undergraduates who have excelled in scholarship and leadership during the year. They have brought honor and distinction to themselves, their chapters, and their Fraternity. We salute each of them, for Phi Kappa Psi seeks for every collegiate member intellectual maturity and respect for scholastic achievement. In addition to those listed below, memberships were reported in numerous national honor and recognition societies which are not included. Many other members were listed in ranking local honor societies.

Phi Eta Sigma (Freshman Scholarship—Men)

Michael L. Nash, Auburn; David M. Grant, Douglas P. Conner, Lynn J. Brown, Verne L. Barnes, Michael P. Fitzgerald, Timothy W. Smith, DePauw; James C. Stevens, Mark R. Broady, William H. Mohr, Fred G. Osborne Jr., Stuart G. Kelly, Indiana University; William F. Spencer, Purdue; Charles O. Shirley, Thomas M. Harris, Butler; Robert W. Schnitzius, Mississippi; David C. Smercina, Bowling Green; Russell C. Pruitt, Robert D. Bones, Texas; Robert P. Forlenza, Michael E. Falcone, Washington & Lee.

Omicron Delta Kappa (Leadership—Men)

Robert L. Arkwright, Bowling Green; Charles E. Smith, Robert H. McPherson, Texas Tech.

Pi Tau Sigma (Mechanical Engineering—Men and Women)

Scott A. Haag, Purdue.

Eta Sigma Phi (Classics)

Charles W. Tramel, Wabash.

Alpha Epsilon Delta (Premedical—Men and Women)

John W. McBurney, Auburn; Kevin S. Moore, Purdue; Charles E. Smith, Texas Tech.

Phi Kappa Phi (Scholarship—Men and Women)

Alan L. Hinderliter, Illinois; Kurt B. Huebner, Robert H. Peters, David W. Buck, Butler; Jacque Lasseign, Southwest Louisiana; Steven L. Gillman, Kenneth D. Kleinman, Bennett D. Pine, Charles M. Zacharchuk, Cornell.

Phi Beta Kappa

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities

Kermit Rogers, Rick Roberts, Southwest Louisiana; Steve Ross, John Telich, John Jacobs, Ashland; Robert H. McPherson, Texas Tech.

Tau Beta Pi (Engineering—Men)

James M. Allchin, Robert J. Merkle Jr., John L. Weisenstein, Cornell; Michael J. Deloye, Phillip J. Zivich, Case Western Reserve; Steven C. Ramsey, Joseph F. Popitto, Gerald R. Preziotti, Brown.

Alpha Phi Omega

Harold D. Johnson, Wabash; Gerald M. LeGard, Minnesota.

Omicron Delta Epsilon (Economics)

Phillip Vogel, Theodore Munsell, Michael Davis, Robert Gordon, Peter Kaestle, Ohio Wesleyan.

Theta Alpha Phi (Dramatics)

Marc Engelsman, Matthew G. Schoengood, Ohio Wesleyan.

Phi Lambda Upsilon (Chemistry)

Alan L. Hinderliter, Illinois.

Sigma Xi (Scientific Research—Men and Women)

Jeffrey R. Starke, Todd K. Abraham, Steven C. Ramsey, Brown.

Phi Alpha Theta (History—Men and Women)

Bob Kopp, Ashland; Mark E. Blohm, Oklahoma State.

Kappa Delta Pi (Education—Men and Women)

Steve Ross, Ashland.

HOUSEMOTHERS/ RESIDENT ADVISORS

Nineteen chapters are served by Housemothers or Resident Advisors; the latter category we include for the first time since this trend is growing. The list of Housemothers who graciously served Phi Psi chapters is less than half of what it was in 1968 when 32 were reported.

MEETINGS

District Councils/Educational Leadership Conferences

Six regional District Councils and Educational Leadership Conferences were held during the last year in each of the Districts with good attendance following a pattern set in recent regional conclaves. The purposes of these conferences were to act upon the business of the District, elect Archons, and to participate in seminars or workshops on chapter management, programming, and leadership. Archons elected were: District I, John C. Palladino, Monmouth '74; District II, Douglas K. Schetzel, West Virginia '75; District III, Robert W. Dudley, Illinois '74; District IV, Thomas L. Kesler, Mississippi '74; District V, Richard F. Nelson, Creighton '75; and District VI, John V. Ciccarella, California State-Northridge '72.

1976 Grand Arch Council

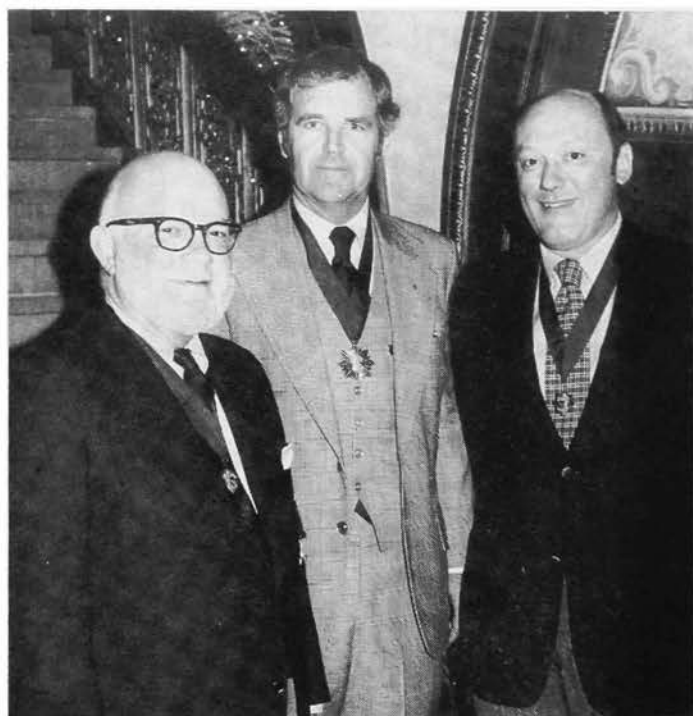

The 58th Grand Arch Council will meet at Washington, D.C., in the Marriott Twin Bridges Hotel, August 11-15, 1976 with President Tom James, Texas '48, presiding. A long agenda has been prepared, and an interesting and entertaining program arranged for members, wives, and guests. Conferences or workshops on membership, fraternity education, finance, alumni and public relations, ritual and chapter administration are included in the four-day GAC. There will be a conference for Area Directors all day Wednesday, August 11, as well as special sessions for colony members. The Honorary Chairman of the Great Bicentennial GAC is Dr. Gordon S. Letterman, Missouri '38, and General Co-Chairmen are J. Christopher Weber, Penn State '70, and Neil W. Sanders, Bowling Green '61.

The Executive Board

The Executive Board is composed of the four senior officers of the Fraternity—the President, Vice President, Treasurer, and the Secretary. The EB convenes upon call of the President to expedite the business of the Fraternity, especially those matters dealing with financial affairs. Two meetings of the Executive Board were held during the year, these were on June 27, 1975, at the Alameda Plaza Hotel, Kansas City, Mo., and January 11, 1976, at the Brown Palace Hotel, Denver, Colo.

The Executive Council

The Executive Council, composed of four alumni and six undergraduate officers (Archons) elected for two-year terms, serves as the chief governing body of the Fraternity between meetings of the Grand Arch Council. The EC held the following meetings in the year under review: June 28-29, 1975, at the Alameda Plaza Hotel, Kansas City, Mo.; and January 10-11, 1976 at the Brown Palace Hotel, Denver, Colo.

The Denver Midwinter Meeting of the Executive Council was attended by Past President Louis D. Corson, President Tom James and Past President Mark D. Sullivan.

1975 Alumni Support Program

Alumni Increase Support Of Annual Giving Program

Record Breaking Year

AT the risk of sounding like a broken record, the Fraternity Headquarters announces that another all-time high was reached during the 1975 Alumni Support Program. The 1975 total of $82,512.04 was contributed by Phi Psi alumni and undergraduates. This marks the third consecutive year the program has gone over the $50,000 mark. Surpassing last year's total by $8,907.84, this brings the grand total since 1952 to $691,636.68. That's record-breaking.

In the days of rising costs, the Fraternity holds no exemption from the cost spiral. The Alumni Support Program supplements the income derived from pledge and initiation fees, the Permanent Fund income and other investment income for the day-to-day operation of the Fraternity. Alumni support dollars are used to increase and improve the services for chapters, colonies, alumni associations and clubs. The Program also sustains continuing efforts like the Educational Leadership Conferences, the development of new chapters and the various Fraternity publications.

Broadening Base

Throughout the history of the Alumni Support Program the base of giving, or the number of contributors, has increased. Each year has usually seen a gradual increase in the number of Phi Psis participating in the Program. The year 1975 was no exception as 4,640 contributors sent in their assistance to Phi Kappa Psi. As the base continues to expand, the larger amount of dollar assistance will be even more helpful to the Fraternity.

Honor Roll of Contributing Members

Each year, THE SHIELD prints the names of those who participated in the past year's Support Program. The 1976 Program is still open for contributions from alumni and undergraduates. Those desiring to give may forward their checks to the Fraternity Headquarters in Cleveland. Give now so that YOUR name will be included in next year's Honor Roll.

Alumni Support Program Summary

Listed below are some of the pertinent data relative to the 1975 Program. Again, the large number of contributors and the increase of average contributions helped make the Program so successful.

Mil Batten Named Chief of New York Stock Exchange

Mil Batten

WHERE do you go after you've been chairman of J. C. Penney? Well, in the case of William M. (Mil) Batten, Ohio State '29, it's the chairmanship of Wall Street's New York Stock Exchange. On May 19, Brother Batten assumed the command of the exchange at a critical time in the exchange's 184-year history as Congress and the SEC continue their restructuring of the securities industry. Many believe the central issue is whether or not the NYSE gets swallowed up in a computerized national stock market system or remains as the national centerpiece of the industry.

Born in Reedy, W. Va., Mil Batten attended The Ohio State University and was president of the student body and his chapter, Ohio Delta. He was also a member of Beta Gamma Sigma, Bucket and Dipper, and Sphinx. He was graduated in 1932 with a B.S. in economics. He did graduate work during 1932 at the University of Chicago.

He married Kathryn Clark of Gettysburg, Ohio, in 1935 and the couple have two children—a son, David, and a daughter, Jane. Today, the Battens live in Mill Neck, Long Island, New York.

Mil Batten began with the J. C. Penney Company, Inc. as an extra salesman in 1926 and as a regular salesman in 1928 in Parkersburg, W. Va. He joined the company on a full-time basis in 1935 as salesman, section manager and then assistant manager in Lansing, Mich. During the period 1940-42, he served as training director in the personnel office at J. C. Penney's central office and following three years military service, he returned to the central office to serve as Eastern Zone personnel representative during 1945-51. He was named assistant to the president of J. C. Penney Co. in 1951, elected vice president in 1953, named to the board of directors in 1955, elected president and chief executive officer in 1958, and chairman of the board, 1964. He retired as chairman in October, 1974.

While with the Penney organization, he was known to be a stiff competitor, while being a smooth and persuasive diplomat. In the highly competitive world of retailing, he brought Penney from its long traditional dry-goods firm to a department store chain. It was Batten that pushed Penney into the catalog business in direct competition with Sears, Roebuck & Co.

Batten first joined the NYSE as one of its ten "public" (or non-Wall Street) directors in 1972. Before being named chairman, he led a Big Board study that recommended reforms in the ways stocks are allocated to specialists. In the face of a potentially touchy political issue, he produced what many experts regarded as a workable solution.

Even before officially taking over the job of James J. Needham as the chief executive of the exchange, Batten, who was 67 in early June, was hard at work preparing himself for the new job. He normally arrives at Wall Street at 8 a.m. and often leaves as late as 7 p.m. Since being named to the new post, he has met with scores of brokers, legislators, industry officials and staff members to get first-hand reports on proposals, problems and programs.

Many Wall Streeters feel that Batten was chosen to replace Needham because of his stature in the corporate community. And besides his marketing success at J. C. Penney, he has a reputation as a cool, analytical thinker, one who can translate thoughts into action judiciously.

"He has the ability to look ahead and establish objectives, and measure performance toward those objectives," said Donald V. Seibert, current J. C. Penney chairman in a recent interview with The Wall Street Journal. "He won't emphasize the bottom line today at the expense of tomorrow."

Batten was an early advocate of the concept of competition among exchange specialists, or brokers who are supposed to try to minimize price fluctuations. In early May, the exchange endorsed this principle.

Other activities in which Mil Batten participates include directorships in J. C. Penney, American Telephone and Telegraph, Boeing Company and Texas Instruments, Inc. He is a trustee for the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars (Washington, D.C.), National Urban League, and the Committee for Economic Development. He was president of The Economic Club of New York, 1967-68.

The Life and Hard Times of James Thurber

By Kent Christopher Owen
Indiana '58

Editor's Note: Kent C. Owen took time from his busy schedule in Bloomington to prepare this book review on Brother James Thurber. He has taught courses on Thurber and other American humorists at Indiana University in addition to his own writings.

HE was probably the greatest American humorist since Mark Twain, if you disallow such claimants as Robert Benchley, Ring Lardner, and George Ade. His comic drawings made men, women, and dogs materialize in antic shapes that revealed the surreal dimensions of modern life. The New Yorker, perhaps the country's best magazine, owes much of its success to his work. There is a way of regarding the human condition that is uniquely identified with James Thurber, 1894-1961, Ohio State '16.

It's a shame we can't leave it at that. The greatness of his achievement is beyond question, no matter what the latest canvass of the professoriate may show. You could look it up, as he wrote once. No, it isn't his work that's hard to figure, it's his life. The present source of the quandary is Burton Bernstein's Thurber (Dodd, Mead; 532 pp.; $15), which was supposed to be the authorized biography, but was disowned by the widow, Helen Thurber, upon its completion. I can see why.

The James Thurber who emerges from Mr. Bernstein's diligent research and trenchant perceptions is at once wittily entertaining, companionable, kindly, generous, reflective—clearly the ironical humanist one expects him to have been—but also through much of his later life a desperate man, tormented by sickness, blindness, booze, and, at the very end, madness. Although the book is by no means a despicable hatchet job, one soon gains the impression that Mr. Bernstein gradually lost patience with Thurber because of his often exasperating behavior; the consequence is that the biographer eventually lost his sympathy for his subject. Admittedly, according to the author's sources, Thurber was frequently a most trying man, particularly in his very last years when he made his friends suffer almost as much as he himself must have. Although Mr. Bernstein's account of the "truth" about Thurber is hard to take for anyone who hopes to admire the man as well as the work, the book, perhaps in spite of itself, reveals much of significance about the man's will to survive. How Thurber withstood his afflictions at all deserves to be considered, for it must help to explain the substance of his character.

Thurber was, of course, initiated into Phi Kappa Psi by Ohio Delta through the intercession of Elliott Nugent, his lifelong friend and co-author of "The Male Animal." Nugent, who has recounted his own life in Events Leading Up to the Comedy, sensed in the gawky, aimless, one-eyed townie something other fraternities had failed to recognize. Nugent and Jack Pierce shepherded Thurber into Phi Psi, and the loner at last found himself among men who appreciated his wit and gentle nature, who accepted him for what he was and for what he would become. It may have been the making of James Thurber, and he never forgot.

The very fact that a man of significance is a member of a fraternity does not necessarily imply a casual relationship between that experience and his later achievements. And yet . . . Like others who have made a difficult passage from the painful uncertainties of adolescence to the exactions of manhood, Thurber needed the understanding and support of friends. Because he found them in Phi Psi at a time when he most needed them, it would lessen our knowledge of him to ignore or undervalue the Fraternity's influence on his development.

Mr. Bernstein seems to regard the whole thing as a less than mild form of retardation. He is civil enough to avoid making any direct claim that the Fraternity stunted Thurber's growth as a man or writer, but the phenomenon is obliquely viewed as just another example of benighted Midwestern provincialism. (Incidentally, the author is not likely to be offered the key to the City of Columbus or an honorary doctorate by Ohio State on the basis of his characterizations of them. Generosity toward all things Midwestern is not one of his more conspicuous virtues. Indeed, Mr. Bernstein seldom misses an opportunity to be slighting and snide, but he is not, by that token, necessarily untruthful.)

His attitude toward Thurber's declared affection for Phi Psi is pretty snotty, although Thurber does get carried away in his letters to Elliott Nugent, usually in a breezy campus manner that soon becomes cloying. (These just might be some of Thurber's parodies, but I can't detect the irony.) This early epistolary style stands in sharp contrast to the astringently funny and supple letters he was to write in later life. But the length of the letters doesn't change much at all; Thurber seems to have been an untiring exponent of the old-fashioned ten-pager. Nonetheless, his enthusiasms and loyalties are convincingly expressed, and, despite some embarrassingly silly passages (maybe boyish is the right word), a compelling sense of the artist as a young man comes through in bursts of energy and sincerity.

I think that Mr. Bernstein misses something crucial about Thurber and Phi Psi: that the Fraternity, in accepting James Thurber as a man and a brother, enabled him to form friendships that strengthened his confidence in himself and his art, enriched his life beyond measure, and supported him through his troubled college years and, indeed, for as long as he lived. It is surely no coincidence that Nugent and Dr. Virgil "Duke" Damon (who delivered Thurber's daughter Rosemary) were first his brothers at Ohio Delta and then his friends until the end, enduring both the bright good times and the bad. It's also worth noting that the principal influence on his literary education was Joseph Villiers Denney, dean of Ohio State's College of Arts and Sciences, inspiring teacher and scholar of Shakespeare, and defender of intellectual freedom. Denney, the model for the humane Dean Damon in "The Male Animal" was a Phi Psi, one whose luminous character Thurber described in The Thurber Album, contrasting him with a popular English professor who was effusively fraternal and speciously literary.

Thurber was blessed with many real friends over the course of his life, men and women alike. (It appears that the prototype of the Thurber woman, that overbearing, emasculating virago, was his first wife, an Ohio State beauty and campus leader. That she was a Kappa is not, alas, an extenuating circumstance.) His letters to them, which the author quotes extensively, show Thurber as a considerate and compassionate man, eager to bring them good cheer and consolation. These acts of kindness are at odds with the sorry scenes that he made all too often. Burton Bernstein is not the only chronicler of his mischief, for Brendan Gill in the recently published Here at The New Yorker also reports what he calls Thurber's "wanton malice." Neither writer cares much for the practical jokes that Thurber played with genius and compulsion.

What, then, is one to make of Thurber's Jekyll and Hyde behavior? There were rumors of a brain tumor, there was even some talk of congenital insanity, but no sound evidence exists to support either supposition. He endured a series of eye operations, five in one year, eventually losing all sight. A severe toxic thyroid condition weakened him and interrupted his work, friends and associates died, his drinking got worse and worse. As his health deteriorated, his temper became nastier, breaking out in spasms of ranting and raving, after which he would become abjectly apologetic. Perhaps Thurber refused to resign himself to darkness, striking out at everything and everyone that came his way until his rage and anguish subsided. It may have been that his nature demanded excessively fierce resistance to the demons that beset him, whatever the cost in reason and civility. That he hurt those about him, there is no doubt; that he struggled to save his dignity and his spirit however perversely, there is some reason to think.

Now that you know the worst the author has to say about Thurber, it may come as something of a relief to hear E. B. White, his long-time colleague at The New Yorker, say "When he was well and sober, there was never a kinder, nicer friend." Which may be the most humane way to put it.

Thurber had written E. B. White in 1958, "To paraphrase and extend a thought of George Meredith's: My heart is not made of the stuff that breaks, my mind of the stuff that cheapens, my soul of the stuff that is on sale to the devil." It is a bold defiance of the fates and a proud statement of integrity, and it accords with what he wrote to Peter DeVries in 1961: "My only solution is a high heart and a brave spirit, however hard these flags may be to flaunt in the stormy weather of today." As his writing began to reflect the maelstrom of his inner and outer life, he struggled valiantly to keep from going under. In the foreword to Lances and Lanterns, the last book published during his lifetime, he wrote, ". . . let's not look back in anger, or forward in fear, but around in awareness." But even then he told Elliott Nugent, "I can't hide any more behind the mask of comedy that I've used all my life. People are not funny; they are vicious and horrible—and so is life!" It is reported that his last words were "God bless . . . God damn."

If Burton Bernstein's book fails to treat Thurber with as much charity as I believe he deserves, it does at the very least present a scrupulously detailed account of his life and circumstances. Its prose is workaday, at times even flat and banal. Yet the book is valuable because it organizes effectively the essential facts and materials about Thurber in a chronology that may form the basis for the work of other interpreters. Fortunately, the whole work is exceptionally well-paced, which is a consideration of some importance in a book of more than 500 pages. One must also be grateful that Mr. Bernstein is a veteran staff writer for The New Yorker and not a callow academic careerist who has thrust his dissertation upon us. The difference is not so much a matter of scholarship as it is one of literacy.

The place of James Thurber in both American letters and the Fraternity is remarkable, not only for the universality and excellence of his achievement, but for the gallantry of his life. To know Thurber as intimately and starkly as his biographer presents him to us is to place ourselves under the obligation of charity for his shortcomings, compassion for his suffering, and affirmation of his life and work. The boogie men, big and small, that scare the bejabbers out of us are less terrible because Thurber has lambasted them with laughter. The ordeal of becoming human is less awesome because Thurber has tempered it with irony. Thurber took to heart the counsel of his great master, Henry James, in his favorite novel, The Ambassadors, "Live, live all you can." Thus it is that comedy and tragedy become one in his work, and that work remains inextinguishable, an enduring celebration of the gift of life.

Missouri Alpha Initiates John N. Booth

Mark Rider, Missouri '74

In 1932, John N. Booth was a pledge of Phi Kappa Psi at the University of Missouri at Columbia. Due to the hard financial situation of the era, he was not able to pay his initiation fee, thus was unable to be initiated. Forty-four years later on April 24, 1976, John N. Booth, president of the alumni association for the University, was initiated into the mysteries of Phi Kappa Psi.

In January 1976 upon the recommendation of several Phi Psi alumni, the Executive Council meeting in Denver voted unanimously for Booth to be considered for initiation by Missouri Alpha. The chapter in a confidential ballot voted their approval for his initiation.

The initiation was the main event of the 1976 Chapter Day at Missouri Alpha. At a noon luncheon following the ceremony, Booth received a standing ovation from the guests and said, "My words can't tell you the depth of my appreciation of this honor."

The speakers at the luncheon praised Booth and the local chapter. Steve Roszell, director of alumni activities of the University said, "Last year the alumni of this university contributed over $3.5 million. But they also gave a lot of time and effort. I don't know if I can choose which is most valuable. John Booth is an excellent example of this spirit and effort received by this University from its alumni . . . this chapter should be proud."

Ken Potter, Fraternity vice president, was present at the ceremonies and said, "This chapter has made history today. The Fraternity has opened its arms to a man who pledged Phi Psi, he rightly deserved. Now this chapter has welcomed this man back into the fold."

Booth grew up in Columbia and received his Juris Doctor degree from Missouri's School of Law in 1937. He moved to Oklahoma City and was employed by the Federal Housing Administration until 1951, when he resigned as chief underwriter to become vice president of the Oklahoma Mortgage Co.

He is presently employed there as senior vice president and director of the company. He serves as a member of the Board of Governors of the Mortgage Bankers' Association of America and vice president of the Economic Club of Oklahoma. He is also a member of the Jefferson Club of the University of Missouri and past president of the Oklahoma City Metropolitan Board of Realtors.

Alumni George Marquis, Missouri '34 and Mark Gibson, Missouri '32 discuss past times following the initiation ceremony.

PHI PSI Luncheons

One of the distinctive features of being a Phi Psi is how the bonds of brotherhood are maintained after leaving the college campus. Often, the prime vehicle for sustaining those friendships is the Alumni Association. Listed below are the times and locations of the Fraternity's Alumni Association meetings. Check for the association nearest you and attend their next meeting. You will enjoy seeing familiar faces and will be getting active in "Something of Value."

Charles A. Myers named Distinguished Alumnus

Dr. Charles A. Myers, Penn State '33, Sloan Fellows professor of management, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, was honored in June at The Pennsylvania State University as a Distinguished Alumnus of the University. The award is given to alumni whose personal life, professional and community service exemplify the objectives of Penn State. The medalion was presented by another Phi Psi, Dr. John W. Oswald, DePauw '35, president of the University.

Frederic M. Hadley gives Gift to Wabash College

With gifts totaling more than 1.5 million, the Frederic M. Hadley, Wabash '24, and Mary Jane Schillinger Hadley Fund was established in May at Wabash College. The endowment fund provides for the Hadley Institute of American Origins, Hadley Honor Scholars and the Jane and Frederic M. Hadley Chair of History at Wabash. A retired vice president of Wabash and Eli Lilly & Co., Brother Hadley died June 9, in Indianapolis.

Hazeltine badge is donated to Fraternity collection

The family of Joseph Newhall Hazeltine, Dartmouth '07, has given his pearl-lined Phi Psi badge to the Fraternity's archives in Cleveland. This badge joins other famous badges on display in the office suite of our executive headquarters.

Phi Psis are key performers for USC varsity tennis

Two members for the USC varsity tennis team, Andy Lucchesi, USC '76, and Mike Newberry, USC '75, were key performers in NCAA finals held in Corpus Christi, Texas which USC won. Together, they accounted for five points, playing in the 64 draw tournament. UCLA was slated to win, but USC forced them for the team title and a tie. The two from Calif. Delta had key victories in their dual match with UCLA earlier this year. They played second doubles together, and won the deciding point in the crosstown matchup to end the Bruins consecutive 36 match win streak.

Cost of education to go up 32 per cent over the next decade

The cost of a year's college education has increased 42 per cent in the last ten years and will go up an additional 32 per cent in the coming decade, reports the National Center for Education Statistics. To eliminate the distortion of inflation, amounts were adjusted to prices in 1974-75. The current average cost of a year's education is $3,070, up in ten years from $2,167 and expected to go to $4,052 in ten years. For public institutions, the average for ten years ago was $1,936, is currently $2,796 and is expected to be $3,705 in 1984-85. For private schools, the statistics are $2,593 for ten years ago, $3,954 in 1974 and $5,427 in ten years. NCES sees a peak in enrollment in 1981 at 10.2 million students.

The Chronicle includes comment about increase in fraternity membership

A series of articles entitled "The Student Mood, 1976" which started in the April 26 edition of THE CHRONICLE OF HIGHER EDUCATION has this to say about fraternities:

"Membership in fraternities and sororities, which dropped off during the 1960's, is increasing again. Campuses where the Greek-letter societies are making a comeback include one time centers of student activism as Berkeley, Columbia, Cornell and Wisconsin."

NIC statistics show the lowest membership was in 1971-72 when the average chapter size dropped to 34 (from a high of 49 in 1965). There has been a gradual and consistent increase since the spring of 1972 until today the average chapter size is 44. Interestingly every year since 1945—including the period when chapter membership dropped—there have been more active chapters than there were the year before.

Penn State Phi Psi 500 tabbed the best ever

According to local accounts, the April running of the Penn State's Phi Psi 500 was the biggest, fastest and most charitable of all Phi Psi 500 races ever run.

Biggest because as many as 6,000 fans lined the streets of State College to watch.

Fastest because new course records were set in three divisions, including an amazing record time of five minutes and 13 seconds over the 1.2 mile course.

And most charitable because over $5,700 was raised for the Centre County Day Care center.

Having a good time seems to be the top priority of the event. The Phi Psi 500 has become an annual spectacle during its eight years of existence. Many of the competitors come with not winning in mind, but to have a good time.

Dear Bros. in P. V.

Your invitation to attend a banquet of the dear old Phi Psi Fraternity banquet and reunion was forwarded to me from Anderson.

I take pleasure in accepting your fraternal invitation, and hasten to let you know it.

Wishing that the attendance may be all you could de-sir, and we shall have a jolly good time, I am

Yours fraternally,
