

THE
OF PHI KAPPA PSI FRATERNITY

Fall, 1978

From the President...

Deadlines to meet, brush fires to put out. There never seems to be an end to the immediate problems we face. This is true in our personal lives, in our chapter or alumni operations, and I know it is a fact of life at the Fraternity level.

In the last few months it has been my privilege to experience the problems and opportunities that confront the Fraternity on an almost daily basis. Most require some sort of response and all require time.

It is that last commodity, time, which is so precious and of which there is so little. It is easy and even tempting to let the events of the day dictate priorities.

How to get from the urgent to the important is a question I must deal with. For help I will be relying heavily on the officers of the Fraternity who freely donate their volunteer time to its improvement. Vice President John Donnell, Treasurer John Boyd, and Secretary Dave Hall each bring unique skills that will contribute to our overall effectiveness. Much of the work in program development falls to our appointive officers: Attorney General Paul LaPuzza, Scholarship Director Dr. Ray Hawk, Director of Fraternity Education Bill Good, Director of Alumni Associations and Clubs Bill Bowers, Director of Chapter Finance Mark Gruss, Director of Membership Randy Donant, Director of House Corporations John Ziegelmeyer, Coordinator for Area Directors Dr. Earl Friend, Historian John Kemper, Mystagogue Kent Christopher Owen, and Shield Editor Tony Whittington. Each of these men are carrying more than their share of the load and each will contribute his time, talent, and money to the continued growth and improvement of Phi Psi.

Of special note is the rechartering of the Wisconsin Gamma Chapter at Beloit College in September. An outstanding group of undergraduates and alumni have worked together for the past several years for the rebirth of a chapter of long and significant Phi Psi history. It was good to participate in that event, and to welcome back a chapter of strong tradition and great pride.

The most significant project involving the entire Fraternity's membership is the Heritage Project fund raising campaign for the Endowment Fund, the Fraternity's educational foundation. Last year the Fraternity embarked on an ambitious $550,000 three year fund raising program. The proceeds will benefit the Endowment Fund for the headquarters building, undergraduate loans and scholarships, and graduate student grants. No national fraternity or sorority has ever undertaken such an ambitious project. Already alumni and undergraduates have responded in a characteristic generous manner. Donations to date total over $180,000 as the program continues to gather momentum.

Of great importance is the need for the Fraternity to further develop grass-roots support for our chapters, alumni associations, and clubs. To be successful, Phi Psi must have a great network of volunteer support, men who are willing to donate their time and efforts for the improvement and perpetuation of our college based chapters. I should like to see this system expanded even further these next two years as more men come forth to serve as housing corporation officers, alumni association officers, area directors, and chapter advisors.

Another area of importance is our need to increase the average chapter size. If such can be achieved, we will find our chapters in a more competitive, stable position. To do so requires more pledging, better retention, greater initiation rates, and increasing the average length of a man's stay in the chapter active status.

These are but a few of what I see as the important matters that face the Fraternity at this time in our history. We will continue to deal with the urgent which face us on a daily basis, but hopefully we will be able to concentrate on the important which will affect our long term success.

I solicit your advice and welcome your help.

Robert W. Chamberlain
President

The Heartland
Grand Arch
Council
Kansas City

A Kansas City welcome greeted Phi Kappa Psi and their guests as they entered the city limits.

The outside weather was warm in Kansas City and so were the spirits of the assembled Phi Psis at the 59th Grand Arch Council at the Crown Center Hotel, August 9-13, 1978. Fraternity President J. Kenneth Potter, Ohio Wesleyan '51, welcomed the delegates to the biennial meeting by saying, "It is my privilege to address you in the knowledge that we sit here in the Heartland of the United States, that we represent the greatest fraternity in the world. As we look forward to these next few days together, to renewal of brotherhood in Phi Kappa Psi, I would like to challenge each Brother in attendance to so participate in the full program of this Grand Arch Council as to renew or re-establish or recommit yourselves to those things that make us one."

And with that simple beginning, the most important gathering of the Fraternity began its course in history. Following a day of registration, seeing old friends, or meeting new ones, the attention of the meeting turned to the Wednesday evening "A Welcome to Kansas City" in the Centennial room in the Crown Center. The decor was Western and the food and drink were appropriate for the occasion.

Thursday morning, August 10, saw the delegates getting an early start at the formal opening of the Grand Arch Council. Following President Potter's remarks, Executive Director Ralph D. (Dud) Daniel, Arizona '47, called the roll for chapters, colonies and alumni associations. Seventy-two chapters registered for the GAC out of a total of 80, making eight which failed to be represented. Twenty-two alumni associations and two colonies also answered to the roll. The opening invocation was given by the Rev. Edward E. Tate, Virginia '33.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS PREVENTS BOREDOM

In addition to the general sessions and committee meetings, many more things were planned to keep everyone busy. District Caucuses were held each night in the suites belonging to the various Archons. The purpose of the caucuses were to provide a common meeting place for district members where they could meet informally to discuss Fraternity matters and to become better acquainted.

GAC workshops were on the agenda for Friday, August 11. This year, as in Washington, D.C., there were six concurrent sessions, four of which were repeated. The titles of the workshops and their session leaders were: "Fraternity Membership—Rush" led by Randy Donant, Cal-Santa Barbara '64; "Fraternity Education" led by Harry A. Light, Florida '78, and John F. Hummel Jr., Penn State '74; "Making Each Meeting Everybody's Business" led by Gary P. Baumann, Phi Kappa Tau, Director of Fraternity Affairs, University of Arkansas; "Need Assessment and How it can Help the Chapter" led by Robert D. Turvey, Alpha Kappa, Lambda, Assistant Dean of Student Affairs, University of Kansas; "The Unused Resource" led by Timothy J. Heup, South Carolina '72; and "The Universal Bond of our Brotherhood" led by Walter Lee Sheppard Jr., Cornell '29.

Business affairs of the GAC were conducted in general sessions held throughout the meeting.

LADIES PROGRAM

While Phi Psis were in meetings throughout the day, Phi Psi Ladies were also busy with their own schedule of activities. Following a buffet breakfast on Thursday, the ladies went on a special tour of Kansas City including the Country Club Plaza, the re-built downtown district, and the Mission Hills residential area. Friday morning saw the women and guests tour the Hallmark Card facility in Kansas City. This was followed on Friday by a tour of the Harry S. Truman Library and Sports Complex. The Nelson Art Gallery was visited on Saturday morning followed by a shopping trip to the Country Club Plaza. The general co-chairmen for the ladies program were Mrs. John K. (Debbie) Boyd III and Mrs. John J. (Sarah) Ziegelmeier, Jr. The committee consisted of Mrs. Gary B. (Marcy) Angstadt, Mrs. Robert W. (Joanna) Chamberlain, Mrs. David F. (Laura) Hull Jr., and Mrs. J. Christopher (Betty Jean) Weber. The Honorary Chairman was Mrs. Winston R. (Louise) Tate.

Following the singing of "Noble Fraternity" the assembled Brothers and guests toasted the President of the United States, the Fraternity, and others. One toast of note went, "A toast on behalf of District III. I give you the head table, for without the head table, our noble leaders would be eating on the floor."

The Psi Psi Singers lead the banquet in the singing of the newest Phi Psi Sweetheart song, "Tonight We Sing" by Ralph Yehle, Missouri '20. His son, Karl Yehle, Missouri '57, led the singing of the first new sweetheart song in 42 years.

Following an address on the Ritual by Past President Winston R. (Cactus Pete) Tate, Charles (Buddy) Rogers, Kansas '23, of Hollywood, Calif., spoke to the banquet audience. President-elect Robert W. Chamberlain spoke to the group and related his thoughts on the state of the Fraternity and how he felt things would be during the next two years.

“WE CALL IT CLASS”

President J. Kenneth Potter spoke of what the past two years had meant to him and then said, “I want to talk just a little about this thing that we verbalized a lot and somewhat mistreat and misuse. We call it class.

“I hope we have class and I hope that does not mean spending money. I hope it does not mean conceit or snobbery. I hope it means faith in ourselves and security in the thing that has made us whole men, Phi Kappa Psi. To me, class is quality and programs and materials as they are affordable. It is not the lavish or ostentatious. To me, class is conservative fiscal management responsibility; it is not based or judged on the basis of spending money. Class is comfort, not luxury. Class is recognition of our personal limitations; it is not self-importance and aggrandizement. Class is maturity enough to admit problems and mistakes; it is not smoke screening and being distractive. Class is positive, a team member, and it is not negative—I am always right and you better believe it. Class is support and understanding; it is not those things that divide us. Class is constructive criticism; it is not everything else is wrong, do it my way. Class is service, not political ambition. Class is strength, not paranoia. Class is quality of men or life, not phoniness or weakness. Class is effectiveness, not power. Class is pride, not vanity. Class is reality, not with delusions of grandeur.

Class is truth and honesty, not rumor and deception. Class is ascertaining fact, not spreading gossip.

"Phi Kappa Psi is quality, my Brothers, and that's class. It is pride not fraught with vanity; it is our heritage from honest, honorable, industrious, conservative, sacrificial, professional men and programs. It is marketed in the lives of quality, men of honor, Brothers of quality and programs and materials of quality, unstained by lavishness and luxury. It is the inner feeling called brotherhood, enjoyed and practiced in private and not flaunted in public."

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Sunday morning, August 13, saw the GAC delegates gather in the Shawnee-Mission room to honor those Phi Psis who had died during the biennium. Past President W. Lyle (Casey) Jones, West Virginia '27, delivered a moving address and remembrances.

ATTENDANCE IS TOPS

The 59th GAC in Kansas City, with 420, including 70 ladies and guests, was the largest since the Centennial GAC in 1952, at Pittsburgh, when 471 were in attendance. What the GAC Did

- Re-elected Ruddick C. Lawrence, Washington '31, to a six-year term as a trustee of the Endowment Fund, Phi Kappa Psi, Inc.

- Made minor changes to the Constitution and By Laws including the raising of the pledge and initiation fee and the raising of dues for alumni associations.

Through the various committee reports, the following recommendations were made:

- That the Director of Scholarship, who should request the assistance of the Trustees of the Endowment Fund, to produce a pamphlet on scholarship to be sent to each chapter GP.

- That the Executive Council allocate funds to reprint 500 copies of the Centennial History of Phi Kappa Psi using the old plates.

- That the policy of the Executive Council should be to operate on a balanced budget.

- That the principle of the Permanent Fund not be used to defray operating expenses of the General Fund.

- That continued efforts be made to increase the size of the Permanent Fund.

- That the Executive Council continue to solicit the assistance of the Endowment Fund to help defray educational and other related expenses for which such funds may be properly used.

- That the Executive Council continue to seek ways to minimize and control all expenses chargeable to the General Fund.

- That the Executive Council develop, publish and distribute guidelines, including names and addresses of Brother

Phi Psis who are willing to assist our chapters to plan and raise capital funds.

- That recognizing pledge and active retention is a growing problem of major proportion, the Executive Council appoint a study commission to examine this question in depth and that the commission should report its findings to the Council within six months of its formation and that the Council should publish and disseminate the findings to chapters and colonies.

- That the Director of Chapter services should pursue the acquisition and dissemination of such educational materials as may be available to assist chapters and colonies in dealing with the problems of excessive use of alcohol and illegal drugs.

- That each chapter receive a bulletin listing and describing the publications available to them and at what cost. Also recommend that the Fraternity continue to use THE SHIELD for Archons and Chapter Consultants to present educational and promotional materials which are available from the Headquarters.

- That those existing publications for chapter use be completely revised.

- That the "Rush Booklet" needs revision to update its photos and copy.

- That the possibility of regionalizing the rush publications to increase demand be explored.

- That whenever a chapter is found guilty of practicing hazing in any form, or whenever chapter is believed, beyond reasonable doubt to be practicing any form of hazing, the Executive Council be empowered to: at a minimum, immediately place that chapter under the direction of a supervisory committee which would closely monitor the chapter programs until which time as it feels confident the chapter has adopted an alternate program in line with the laws, regulations, teachings and ideals of our Fraternity; and, at a maximum, the Executive Council be empowered to immediately revoke the charter of any chapter found to be hazing, and that that chapter be immediately dissolved.

■ That when appropriate, the Executive Council be given the power to demand the president or representative from a chapter accused of hazing to appear, at the chapter's expense, before the next convening of the Executive Board, Executive Council, or Grand Arch Council, to show cause why it should continue to exist under the banner of Phi Kappa Psi.

■ That as the supply of Centennial History volumes was running low, a reprinting be considered.

■ That a national level Task Force on Fraternity Education be established. The purpose of this Task Force would be to investigate and make specific recommendations on, but not be limited to:

- a. retention problems at the pledge, undergraduate, and alumni levels.
- b. attempt to identify the populations upon which our chapters will be drawing their future members so the Fraternity may adjust programming and remain competitive and contemporary,
- c. collect from our chapters those elements of the various Fraternity Education programs which achieve, in a creative and constructive way, the goals of our Fraternity. This collection would be made available to all chapters as suggested alternative to outdated programs
- d. research the desirability of establishing a standing committee on Fraternity Education at the chapter level.

That this Task Force be granted whatever authority necessary to carry out the above stated recommendations.

■ That on the district level it be considered an integral part of the duties and responsibilities of the Area Directors, Chapter Consultants, and Archons to ensure that each chapter has an active, ongoing alumni relations program and to assist in the establishment and promotion of Alumni Associations and Clubs where warranted by a sufficient number of alumni.

■ That the Fraternity vice president annually direct to each chapter a letter, emphasizing the importance of alumni relations to the chapter. This letter is to be read to the chapter at its first meeting in November and may be followed by another letter prior to Founders Day. An accompanying brochure is to be provided, briefly outlining details on how to develop alumni relations within the chapter.

■ That the Director of Development condense the information in the "Handbook on Alumni Relations" to a brochure to be posted at each chapter with the letter from the vice president, as mentioned above.

■ That the Editor of The Shield shall provide for a continuing series of articles focusing on the new ideas and currently successful programs in the area of alumni relations.

■ That the brochure "Graduate Brother—What Now?" should be mailed to alumni in the first of the Alumni Support letters on an annual basis.

■ That the Director of Development or the Director of Alumni Affairs shall immediately survey the alumni associations and clubs to evaluate their vitality and existence and to specifically recommend to the Executive Council the necessary steps to maximize the potential in this area. An updated list of active organizations would be presented in The Shield at the earliest date following the completion of the survey.

■ That the Executive Offices, in a continuing program, shall actively promote the establishment of alumni associations in cities with more than 100 resident alumni, and alumni clubs in areas with 35-100 alumni Brothers.

■ That the recommendations of the 1972 Committee on Alumni Affairs "as a great aid in encouraging alumni interest in the Fraternity-at-large, some project for the good of the Order be adopted." (Such projects as a National Phi Psi Blood Drive or in support of foundations researching heart and lung disease, leukemia, muscular dystrophy, etc.)

■ That funds be set aside in the operating budget, apart from the Heritage Fund and Alumni Support Program, to foster the development of alumni associations and clubs.

■ That the Executive Council develop a timetable for the creation of a full time staff position to handle Alumni Affairs/Relations.

■ That the Director of Scholarship write a feature article for The Shield to publicize the scholarship programs of the Fraternity and to suggest productive study aids. The article could be produced in conjunction with the announcement of the Summerfield Scholar Award. Whereas the pamphlet is directed toward chapter Scholarship Committees, The Shield article is directed to a general readership.

■ That the Fraternity undertake a realistic and practical stance while maintaining a progressive attitude towards expansion.

■ That the Fraternity adopt a policy of growth that reflects the manpower and financial resources of the Fraternity.

■ That the Fraternity establish colonies that will become strong chapters of Phi Kappa Psi within a reasonable time.

■ That the Fraternity not set quotas for colonization.

■ That the Fraternity establish colonies in close proximity to existing strong chapters, where possible.

■ That all colonies be established with the intention of becoming chapters of the Fraternity and that if, during the course of colonization, the colony, in a formal meeting, votes not to accept a charter when offered by the Fraternity, that the colony status be revoked.

■ That for use at the 1980 GAC the Fraternity acquires the National IFC Guidelines on Expansion, conduct a careful post mortum on all unsuccessful colonization attempts and make available their findings to all Area Directors, Chapter Consultants, and Archons.

■ That a list of colleges and universities be placed on the 1978-80 Accredited List.

Tonight We Sing

WORDS BY KARL J. YEHLE
MISSOURI ALPHA, '57

MUSIC BY RALPH J. YEHLE
MISSOURI ALPHA, '20

MODERATO

Before Ralph Yehle's death in 1974, the Missouri Alpha '20 Phi Psi had been working on the first of two songs to be dedicated to his granddaughters, Sarah and Kathy Yehle. His first effort, "Sarah's Song" was nearly completed at the time of his death.

His widow, Dorothy Yehle, found several versions of the song, but a complete rendition was missing. Some time later, the mystery was solved when she discovered a nearly complete manuscript in between the pages of an old family songbook.

Mrs. Yehle gave the music to her older son, Karl, Missouri '57, who put the song together and added words to create a Phi Psi song. Upon learning of the song, the coordinators of the 1978 Grand Arch Council suggested the song be introduced at the GAC banquet August 12 in Kansas City.

Thus, a living memorial in music has been dedicated to an outstanding Phi Psi and accomplished musician, Ralph Yehle. His original music for his cherished granddaughter has now become a sweetheart song for his beloved fraternity—"Sarah's Song" is now "Tonight We Sing."

At the University of Missouri, Ralph Yehle was the owner of the Quadrangle Dance Orchestra, a member of the university track team, Phi Mu Alpha, Sonfonia and Kappa, Kappa University orchestra. He also wrote the music for a Kappa Alpha Theta national song, "Theta Mine."

Brother Yehle served with distinction as a U.S. Army Military Band director for 15 years receiving several citations and playing for Presidents Roosevelt and Truman. His military dance band performed over the old Blue Network at WWL in New Orleans and toured with various celebrities and entertainers for War Bond shows during WW II. He was active in the music business in Maryville, Missouri, before his retirement in 1973.

Brother Yehle received his life membership in the Golden Council in recognition of 50 years in Phi Kappa Psi at the 1970 Founders Day banquet in Kansas City.

Karl J. Yehle, Ralph's son, is a 1959 graduate of the University of Missouri School of Journalism. During his high school and early college days, he was a dance band musician and sports writer. He is now president of Barrett-Yehle Inc., an advertising agency he co-founded in 1961. He held several offices at Missouri Alpha during his undergraduate days, including president. He is a past president of the Kansas City Alumni Association and currently serves on that association's board.

Phi Psi Woman Of The Year

By NANCY McVICAR
Citizen-Journal
Columbus, Ohio

Mrs. Christine Vogt, "Mom Vogt," as the members of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity call her, has been housemother at the rambling, pillared 'Phi Psi' house, 124 E. 14th-av, for going on a dozen years.

Since Greek houses are no longer required by the university to have housemothers, only 16 of the 41 fraternities and 17 of the 22 sororities on campus still do.

Mom Vogt is one of the active ones, and the 'Phi Psis' like having her around. The feeling is mutual.

The young men who lived in the fraternity house 12 years ago are not much different from the young men who live there today, Mom said. "They're wholesome—no, that's probably not a word young people of today identify with. They're just all-around good people."

Mrs. Vogt believes wholeheartedly in Greek membership and involvement.

"I think it's the finest non-academic medium for growth and self-fulfillment a young person can have," she said.

Mom enjoys following the progress of the new pledges. "I figure I learn about 125 new names a year," she said. "It's always interesting following them from the time they pledge till they graduate."

"Living together like this, they learn to share, to cooperate, to tolerate. They learn value systems I think are very important," she added.

Mrs. Vogt's husband, Dana, was a Phi Psi alumnus from Ohio Wesleyan University and was active in alumni activities.

On a typical day, Mom plans menus, has conferences with the cook, places food orders with the Fraternity Management Association, a sort of cooperative food warehouse for fraternity and sorority houses, and runs errands.

"It's a lot like running a small hotel," she said.

She adds special little touches like flowers on the tables and has dinner each evening with her rather large household.

Monday nights are special, with chapter members getting dressed up and having occasional exchange dinners with sorority houses. There's group singing and toasts.

"Mom" has her living quarters on the second floor of the fraternity house, adjacent to the rooms of the fraternity members. She keeps her door open during the evenings "and they do come in and visit and tell me what they're doing," she said.

"There's usually a steady stream of people in and out. I enjoy it," she said.

Does the loud music from down the hall ever get on her nerves?

"Oh, no, that's an important part of their lives, and it doesn't bother me a bit."

There are about 60 or 70 alumni who "keep up with me and send me news of their families.

"The thing that's so reassuring," she said, "is that their interest seems to deepen over the years in relation to the length of time they've been away and the farther their geographic location.

Palmer McNeal, chapter adviser to the chapter, said "Mom" provides a stabilizing influence for the fraternity members.

Mom said she just tries "to help them have a home away from home. Some of the young ones have never been away from home much."

She gives a good deal of credit to McNeal, who is a 1973 graduate of OSU and was active in Phi Psi while he was in school.

"We wouldn't be here if it weren't for him," she said. "He put a lot of effort into keeping things together in the early 70's when the whole Greek system was struggling for its very existence."

Mom still has some time for a life of her own. She's active in OSU alumnae activities and dabbles in painting "for my own amazement."

But, most of her time is devoted to the young men of Phi Kappa Psi.

"It's remarkable they tolerate a person of my age," she said, "and then to find out they like me is just lovely."

Dr. John F. Ramsey (right) chats with Dr. David Matthews, president of the University of Alabama at the dedication ceremonies for his scholarship fund.

Dr. John F. Ramsey Honored

Dr. John Fraser Ramsey, California '28, who was instrumental in the chartering of Alabama Alpha at the University of Alabama in 1964, was honored this spring by the University of Alabama's establishment of an annual scholarship in his name. The $1000.00 scholarship will be awarded each spring at Honor's Day to a member of the junior class at the University who has exhibited unusual leadership, scholarship, and devotion to the humanities. Ann L. Blalock was the first recipient of the award.

Brother Ramsey, the son of J. R. Ramsey, Kansas '03, was born in Kansas in 1917 and raised in California. He received his Ph.D. in modern European history in 1935 at the University at California at Berkeley. He came to the University of Alabama that same year as an instructor in history, becoming a full professor in 1947. He became chairman of the History Department in 1971.

Twice students at the University bestowed on him the distinguished professor award, and in 1962 he was the recipient of the Algernon Sidney Sullivan Award which annually recognizes members of the University community who have shown "excellence of character and service to humanity."

When he retired in 1977, Jasons, the senior men's honorary, honored him by inducting him into the organization for a second time—the only person ever inducted twice into Jasons during the 60-year history of the organization.

During the May 1977 graduation ceremonies, Brother Ramsey was awarded the honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree. This marked the first time a retiring professor of the University had been so honored. When the question of precedent was raised concerning the award, Dr. Richard Thigpen, then acting chief executive officer, said "There is really no problem of precedent, because there is only one John Ramsey."

Brother Ramsey has been actively involved in the betterment of Phi Kappa Psi for over 50 years. He was the major influence in the colonization of Alabama Alpha on the University campus in 1962. Indeed, the first "rush" meetings were held in his apartment. He has served as advisor to the chapter since its inception and has provided leadership and a steady influence at all times. Older Brothers recall many an occasion when Ramsey's calm and reasoned observations at weekly chapter meetings helped steer the actives through trying times.

It is impossible to enumerate all that this Brother has done and meant to Alabama Alpha and to the University; let it suffice to say that the Brothers of Alabama Alpha, both old and new, feel he epitomizes brotherhood and is the best possible emissary for Phi Kappa Psi that any chapter could hope for. Perhaps some day a Phi Psi can be honored by winning the scholarship established in his name—what a fitting way this would be to honor a Brother.

Phi Psi Luncheons

One of the distinctive features of being a Phi Psi is how the bonds of brotherhood are maintained after leaving the college campus. Often, the prime vehicle for sustaining those friendships is the Alumni Association. Listed below are the times and locations of the Fraternity's Alumni Association meetings. Check for the association nearest you and attend their next meeting. You will enjoy seeing familiar faces and will become active in "Something of Value."

TEX SCHRAMM

dallas cowboy general manager

Texas E. Schramm, Texas '40, has been the only general manager of the NFL's Dallas Cowboys since their formation in 1960. His organizational and management abilities has brought the Cowboys to the top of professional football. Schramm, and the Cowboy organization, has their offices across the freeway from Southern Methodist University in Dallas. His office was the scene of a recent interview between himself and Tony B. Whittington, editor of THE SHIELD.

WHITTINGTON: Thank you for making the time for this interview with THE SHIELD. Is Tex a nickname?

SCHRAMM: No, that's my real name. I'm a junior; it's my father's name.

WHITTINGTON: You're Californians, but I understand that you both went to the University of Texas.

SCHRAMM: Right. My father was raised in San Antonio and went to the University. He met my mother in San Antonio and then they moved to Los Angeles. I was born and raised there.

WHITTINGTON: Let's see, you had your college career interrupted by the second world war?

SCHRAMM: Yes. I was starting my third year in 1941 before I went into the military. I came back after the war and finished college.

WHITTINGTON: Was the Phi Psi house on Longview then?

SCHRAMM: Not, it was on Colorado. I went back later and all that was left were the steps that went up the sidewalk.

WHITTINGTON: Well, how did you become the president and general manager of the Dallas Cowboys?

SCHRAMM: I graduated from the University of Texas in the winter of 1947 and was working for the Austin Statesman. Then I went out to Los Angeles to join the Rams. I was with them for 10 years. During the last three years, I was their general manager. When they formed this club in 1960, I became their general manager and three or four years later, I became the general manager and president.

WHITTINGTON: When did you really believe that you were going to have a team that was capable of winning the Super Bowl?

SCHRAMM: Well, I'd been associated with success with the Los Angeles club, so I felt confident that we would be successful here. There wasn't any plan that said we were going to be successful, it was just a gradual process. I guess we really turned the corner in 1965, when we finished second in the conference after winning seven of our last eight games. Then the next year we played Green Bay at Green Bay for the championship. We had the games in 1966 and 1967; then came the splurging years in 1968 and 1969 when we were defeated by Cleveland in the playoffs. Then in 1970, we came back and won our conference and went to the Super Bowl. The next year we went back to the Super Bowl and won it. But I think the most significant thing in the consistency of our success is that we've been in 11 playoffs in 12 years. We've been to four Super Bowls and won two of them. I think that's what you get by staying with the form of consistency.

WHITTINGTON: That's quite an accomplishment.

SCHRAMM: Yes it is, in that the team which won the Super Bowl this last year was an entirely different team that won in 1971. It's really the first team in the league that has won the Super Bowl and then came back with an entirely different team and won it again. Everyone else who has won two Super Bowls has done it with the same team back-to-back.

WHITTINGTON: What's a typical day like in the locker room as general manager? Are you involved with Tom Landry and his activities?

SCHRAMM: No, we have our responsibilities pretty well departmentalized. Coach Landry is in charge of the coaching and preparation of the team, and his staff of assistants work pretty independently. Gil Brandt is in charge of our personnel department, does scouting of college players and development of personnel. During the course of the year, Joe Bailey is our administrative vice president and he handles all of our administrative affairs and marketing. We also publish our own newspaper with a weekly circulation of over 85,000. The newspaper has 80 percent of its circulation outside the Dallas-Ft. Worth metroplex. It's in every state of the Union. But getting back to my duties, my job is basically giving all these individuals their specialties in their areas. Each department has primarily their own responsibilities and they intermingle to do what's necessary. But I guess like anyone else in a position such as I'm in as the executive officer, the job is to make sure that all departments are functioning.

WHITTINGTON: You mentioned earlier that one of the reasons why people follow the Cowboys is the success of the team. Do you think that this is going to go on forever?

SCHRAMM: Well, you know, you'd like to think that it is, and I've never believed that there's anything that prevents you from continuing to have success. I think sometimes that people are too prone to throw up their hands and say that you can't win them all. Well, in our business Miami did go out and win all their games. We've been successful in that we're 11 for 12 years in the playoffs. Of course, the longer you go, the more the odds are against you.

WHITTINGTON: How does a team like the Cowboys maintain their edge of competitiveness after you've been a winner for so long? Is it a challenge?

SCHRAMM: Well, one of the things is that you do have turnover of personnel and that helps. The team that won the Super Bowl last year was helped by a good group of rookies that came in in 1975.

WHITTINGTON: What's a game like in Texas Stadium?

SCHRAMM: Well, it's a 65,000 capacity stadium which is about in the middle range of the league. The stands are especially close to the playing field because it's a stadium which was made solely for football. Therefore, when the crowd is enthusiastic, it's quite a bit of fun.

WHITTINGTON: Are the Dallas crowds as vocal as you find in other cities?

SCHRAMM: Perhaps as not as vocal as some cities which haven't had the continuity of success we've had. You normally find less in a community where there is a long period of winning. Our crowd is more sophisticated. We've won 35 games and lost only 11 since we moved to the Stadium from the Cotton Bowl.

WHITTINGTON: The stadium has a hole in its roof which causes havoc on the television screen. When you were building the stadium, did you consider that aspect?

SCHRAMM: We thought the sun would come through the opening and be on the stands and not on the playing field. It is one of our greatest problems in televising the games. It doesn't bother the people in the stands, but it sure does make a terrible problem for the networks and I don't know if it will be resolved. They wanted to have an outdoor stadium, but keep the fans protected from the weather.

WHITTINGTON: What is the future of professional football with respect to inflation and high player salaries?

SCHRAMM: I think that professional football will continue to grow and grow. We have been able to continue to grow financially because we have been able to keep pace with inflation primarily through our television contact and the increased interest in our games. If we had to depend on ticket sales alone for income, ticket prices would probably be out of range. Because of television income, we've been able to hold ticket prices down around the entire league.

WHITTINGTON: Do you feel that television has helped your success?

SCHRAMM: Oh yes, the more you're on TV, the more you're successful. Television is one of the things contributing to our national image. If you talked with Sears Roebuck, we sell more Cowboy products in their stores nationally than any other NFL team.

WHITTINGTON: So, television helps your exposure throughout the nation?

SCHRAMM: Yes. One of our recent Monday night telecasts, with the Washington Redskins, had one of the largest viewing audiences in the history of Monday night football. We've had many big games on television. Our opening game with Baltimore was a lively one. And our Super Bowl game last year had the largest viewing audience in the history of sports. At one time or another, we have had the record with respect to ratings, for every Saturday, Sunday afternoon, Thanksgiving, Monday night, or whatever. And then, if we don't have the record, they use us more than any other team. We are on national television more than any other NFL team.

WHITTINGTON: And that, of course, helps you promote your image.

SCHRAMM: We also have a radio network of over 200 stations covering 11 states. The newspaper, the cheerleaders, all go to enhance the overall image of the Cowboys.

WHITTINGTON: Are the Cowboy cheerleaders a sanctioned organization under the parent corporation?

SCHRAMM: Yes, in fact that's why ours is quite different in that we are always run by full-time employees of the Dallas Cowboys. We do many promotions with the cheerleaders. They're going to Japan for 10 days in December and ABC is making a two-hour movie on the cheerleaders.

WHITTINGTON: What size organization do you have?

SCHRAMM: Excluding the football players, we have 40 or so employees. We do a lot of things which people don't realize. We plan every practice from training camp through the final game. We plan every game we play. We shoot over a half a million feet of our own film each year. We have two full-time people just in our film laboratory. We're deeply into computer work. Our ticket operation is now all computerized. Our coaches use all of the data gathering systems to see what our opponents are doing. We have one coach involved in nothing but quality control. We set our goals for the coming year, and this coach, as the season progresses, keeps up to date on what our success ratio is in everything. This way, we know our successes and what we're doing so we can make changes as we go along.

WHITTINGTON: You must be able to turn your data around in a hurry.

SCHRAMM: Oh yes, every week. We have one coach who specializes in that sort of thing. He studies all the other teams, takes their percentages and puts them into the computer. The coaches receive a computer printout on Monday after the game on Saturday. Everything is getting more sophisticated in almost every area and you have to do it to stay ahead of the pack. We're also computerized with respect to all of our college scouting information.

WHITTINGTON: Some people claim that football players are not very smart.

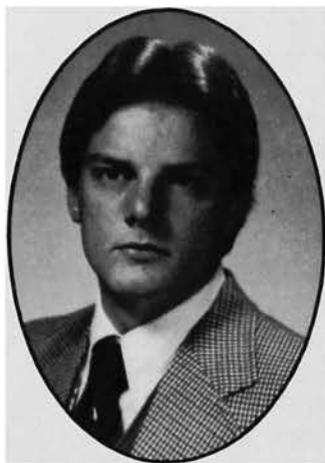

SCHRAMM: Let me say this, they are a very intelligent group. You can't play professional football and not be intelligent, as far as the Cowboys are concerned. We very rarely drop a player. We believe in drafting the type of player we want and then developing him. As a result, when we draft, we pay a very high priority on two factors—intelligence and character. Since our goal is to always be in the playoffs, the players are going to be in stress conditions and we have found that there is a very definite correlation between players and those conditions. If you are not very smart, you're going to make errors and we can't afford that. Every year, I'd say there's a minimum of six or seven players that are drafted in the first round that we have eliminated from our list simply because of those factors. If we know we have those two factors in a player, hopefully we can develop him into a top player. If you start without those attributes, then you're only going to get yourself in trouble down the line.

WHITTINGTON: You have had good luck these past couple of seasons from lack of injuries, haven't you?

SCHRAMM: We have a very extensive off-season conditioning program. We're fortunate in that 50 or so of the players we have on our squad are very active in the program and we only have four or five injuries a season. We're also fortunate that about 40 of our players live in Dallas which enables them to utilize our practice facilities and our off-season program. If you're a better athlete and in shape, then you're more likely not to get hurt.

Founders Fellowship Announced

Five Founder's Fellowships have been awarded by the Scholarship Advisory Committee of the Endowment Fund. The fellowships are made possible by a bequest of Tannye and W. Grant Schockley, Missouri '09. The fellowships, of $2,000 each, are awarded to outstanding undergraduate seniors who will be entering graduate school. This year, it is interesting to note that three of the five recipients were also named Solon E. Summerfield Scholars and that all of the winners were intimately involved with the Fraternity. They have honored the Fraternity by their past work and now, through the generosity of the Schockley's gift, the Fraternity can honor them.

THE
OF PHI KAPPA PSI FRATERNITY

Spring, 1979

Ralph "Dud" Daniel retires after 31 years of service.

From the President...

This issue of The Shield is dedicated to the man who has guided Phi Psi's growth and development for almost a quarter of the century—Ralph D. Daniel. On May 1, the Executive Board regretfully accepted his decision to retire. No one individual more represents the Fraternity than Dud to all of the undergraduates and to most of the alumni, and his leaving as our chief executive officer and Editor of The Shield is a loss all of us will feel.

Dud's professional career has been an extraordinary one. He was a founding father and charter member of Arizona Alpha. He established the Western Regional Interfraternity Conference. He has attended 16 GACs, participated in the installations of all new chapters since 1948, represented Phi Psi at 24 National Interfraternity Conferences, and served as president of the Edgewater Conference and the Fraternity Executives Association. He has been a guiding influence in the College Fraternity Editors' Association, and the Interfraternity Research and Advisory Council. Dud is listed in Who's Who in America and Who's Who in the World. Few men enjoy the wide respect he commands in the interfraternity world.

Dud began his association with the headquarters in 1948 and has seen Phi Psi through a period of extraordinary growth. During that time, 36,698 men have been initiated and 45 chapters installed.

Dud Daniel is the embodiment of the Phi Psi gentlemen. His family are his Brothers, his Fraternity his home. He has fought to maintain quality while others sought quantity. He would not yield to expediency. He counseled compromise when there was divisiveness. He upheld ideals. And through it all, his good humor was his hallmark.

The legacy of Dud Daniel is a strong Phi Psi. No one wishes the Fraternity well more than he. It is our commitment that the standards he established will continue, and that Phi Psi's place of pre-eminence in the interfraternity world will not be diminished. We wish him well as he begins his deserved retirement in his Arizona that he left 31 years ago.

Robert W. Chamberlain
President

A New Beginning-Oklahoma

On December 2, 1978, Oklahoma Alpha achieved the first major milestone in its efforts to regain the position it once maintained at the University of Oklahoma. With the Initiation of 19 new Brothers, Oklahoma Alpha was well on her way to recovery.

Despite being plagued for the past decade by drugs, apathy, absence of brotherhood, and a boarding house atmosphere, Oklahoma Alpha entered summer rush optimistic that it would right itself and pledge the men she needed to survive. But as the summer progressed, and all efforts for a successful rush were in vain, it became painfully evident that something had to be done if Phi Psi were to remain at OU. Oklahoma Alpha's representative's to the 1978 GAC in Kansas City, Mo., decided that their only alternative was to present their case at the GAC, and hope it could offer a solution. A reorganization was ordered and the last week of August found Director of Chapter Services John F. Hummel Jr. and Chapter Consultants Bryan P. Muecke and Jack P. Eckley in Norman to execute what was to be the new beginning of Phi Psi at OU.

It was a busy week before school and the results were plentiful. An alumni Supervisory Committee was established, new officers elected, goals set, and the housing corporation re-organized.

Starting with 15 members and one pledge, Oklahoma Alpha completed rush weekend with 28 pledges. Formal rush was helped by the support of District V, with Brothers and pledges from Oklahoma State, Missouri (including our District Archon Jeff Abbott) and Texas Tech. After a period of adjustment, a class of 19 willing men began their pledgeship.

All programs from alumni relations to pledge education were revamped and updated. A new "no-hazing, no-harrassment, no-kidding" program was implemented, replacing meaningless pranks with honest hard work and meaningful talk. It was truly a by-the-book model pledge education program. In the last week of pledgeship an "inspiration week," a spirit building program to prepare them for initiation, was conducted.

The initiation ceremony was attended by eight alumni, including Stanley B. Catlett, a charter member and first GP of Oklahoma Alpha. Brother Catlett presented the chapter with a sizable donation, the third such in the past few years.

The ceremony was a beautiful one, and it was especially meaningful. Past President J. Kenneth Potter delivered the final address. Four Kansas Alphans also were in attendance.

In one afternoon, Oklahoma Alpha more than doubled its brotherhood and vastly improved its financial status. With this success, it would be tempting for the men of Oklahoma Alpha to relax, but the work has only just begun. We have a target number of ten spring pledges, and for the summer, 25 plus.

The men of Oklahoma Alpha thank all those many Brothers, both undergraduate and alumni, national officers, and our many friends in District V who helped make the reorganization a success. We hope that our experiences and success can serve as a goal and guideline to other chapters wishing to improve. Oklahoma Alpha has new beginning.

New Star In the West— California Iota

On April 7, after three years as a colony, California Iota at the University of California-Davis, became the 81st active chapter of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

The installation weekend began Friday night with cocktails at a local country club. The reception provided the local Brothers the opportunity to meet and talk with the installation team from the Fraternity and visiting Brothers. The Cal Iota members were especially appreciative of the cocktail hour provided by their ladies since they had just completed the seven page Phi Psi fraternity education test.

The following morning, the installation and induction ceremony took place in the student chapel of the Newman Center at Davis. The installation team of president Robert (Sandy) Chamberlain, Executive Director Ralph (Dud) Daniel, Carl J. Stoney Jr., Michael S. Wittern, John V. Ciccarella, Area Director Guy L. Minardi, Director of Chapter Services John F. Hummel Jr., Jack P. Eckley, District VI Archon Thomas W. Oxnam, Robert L. Bleicker, and John J. Hansen, completed the ceremony with the assistance of visiting Brothers from neighboring California chapters and alumni from the Sacramento and Davis area. That same afternoon, Cal Iota Chapter held its first model chapter meeting. During the meeting the traditional values of the Fraternity were explained and shared by all the Iota Brothers.

In celebration, the baby chapter Brothers, with parents and guests, held a banquet at the Sacramento Inn. President Sandy Chamberlain and Executive Director Dud Daniel both spoke to those present with words of praise and encouragement to the 81st chapter. The charter of Cal Iota was presented by President Chamberlain and accepted by both the original colony President, Roy Hilton March, and current President, Marc A. Keel.

Afterwards, Dud Daniel presented the gifts given to the Cal Iota chapter from alumni and other chapters of Phi Kappa Psi. All of these gifts were well received and accepted with genuine gratitude. They will help instill in Cal Iota the traditional idealism and national concept of the Fraternity. A dance followed the banquet which highlighted the installation festivities.

To end the weekend, the Cal Iota chapter had a late morning brunch where everyone was able to reflect upon the events that had just taken place as a result of the hard work of all the Iota Brothers. Thanks went to John Hummel for the help he gave in tying up the loose ends during the installation preparations, and the Brothers gave special thanks to former Chapter Consultant Jack Eckley, Ohio Zeta '75, for his support and encouragement during our colony years.

California Iota's goal now, as the newest chapter, is to grow and to remain strong in the spirit and idealism the founders set out for our Fraternity. The Iota Brothers are proud and honored in becoming the 81st chapter of the great Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

History of the University of California

The University of California had its beginning in 1862 with the passage of the Morrill Act which established the Land Grant Colleges. In 1868, California Governor Henry H. Haight signed the Organic Act which provided that a complete University be established in the state of California.

In 1906, the University of California acquired 768 acres surrounding the town of Davisville for a University farm. The Farm, as UCD was originally known, was established to serve the rural population of the state, offering three years of instruction in the principles and practices of managing soils, crops, and animals. The need for such training was recognized, and plans for the farm encouraged by Sacramento Superior Court Judge Peter J. Shields, the "Father of the Davis Campus."

The demand for greater educational opportunities in the state increased rapidly and in 1922, in conjunction with J. C. Berkeley College of Agriculture, the degree of Bachelor of Science in Agriculture was granted those who completed the Davis program. A few years later, the Davis campus had its own College of Agriculture and in 1946 the School of Veterinary Medicine, still the only one in the state, was established. The most rapid expansion began in 1951 when the College of Letters and Sciences was founded and more varied degree programs became available. In 1959, Regents declared Davis a general campus of the University. The early 1960's saw the beginning of the Graduate Division and the College of Engineering, which had its foundation in agricultural engineering. The School of Law held its first classes in the fall of 1966, and the School of Medicine admitted its first students in the fall of 1968.

History of the California Iota Chapter

In the fall of 1976, eight undergraduates on the Davis campus banded together to meet a need in the University community: the creation of a fraternity with the traditional attributes of brotherhood and friendship that was flexible and would foster the values they already held as motivated young men. The vision and dedication of the eight founders led to the formal installation of the California Iota Colony on Oct. 28, 1976.

To grow and develop since that time was a difficult task, faced as the colony was with a trade-off between pledging large numbers of people, or choosing only the most outstanding. From the very beginning, the Davis Phi Psis were selective in pledging new men of demonstrated ability who held the same kind of values and ideals as the original eight men. We are proud of the chapter we have built, and the credentials of our alumni and undergraduates speak clearly about the kind of individuals that make up Cal Iota. We feel we have improved the quality of life at Davis, while at the same time, working as a group, we developed as individuals and as Brothers.

Wisconsin Gamma Returns to Beloit College

Founded in 1846, Beloit College has been educating students longer than any other college or university in Wisconsin. Fraternities have been a part of the campus scene since 1860. Phi Kappa Psi first arrived in 1881 and enjoyed nearly nine successful decades until the surrendering of the charter in 1970. Wisconsin Gamma's return to campus on Sept. 9, 1978 after two years of hard work, is part of a trend of renewed student interest in Greek letter groups currently underway at the College.

Upon the arrival of the installation team and an entourage of Illinois Deltans, the Weekend's festivities officially got underway. First on the weekend's agenda was an informal cocktail party where the undergraduate members and guests had an opportunity to become acquainted with all the guests. In attendance were such notables as Dud Daniel, Executive Director; Sandy Chamberlin, President; Ken Potter, immediate Past President; John Donnell Jr., Vice President; Wayne Wilson, former Attorney General; and John Hummel, Director of Chapter Services.

Saturday morning the brothers-to-be promptly reported to the First Congregational Church. From that point the day went as quickly as it came with such activities as the initiation, installation, formal chapter meeting, and banquet. Needless to say, it was a day of high spirits filled with toasts, presentations, gifts, and camaraderie.

It was hard to believe that an event we had worked so hard to achieve had been realized. It goes without saying that our activation would not have been possible without strong support from the Fraternity's staff, alumni, and two very special supporters—John W.

Lind and Warner E. Mills Jr.. The collective efforts of all of these individuals insured the rebirth of Wisconsin Gamma.

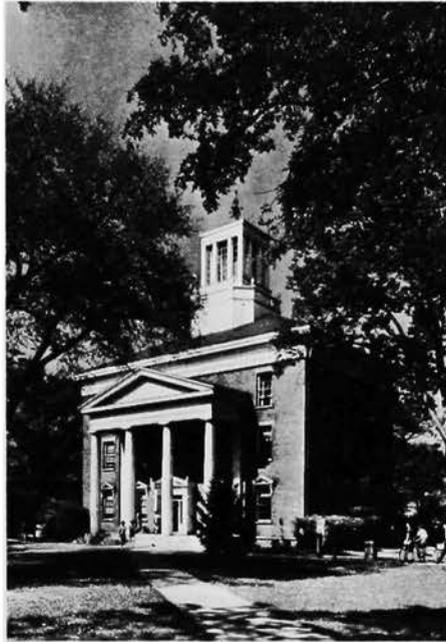

History of Beloit College

Founded by New Englanders, mostly Yale graduates, Beloit is an independent liberal arts college. It is non-sectarian and has been coeducational since 1895. The College's 65 acre wooded campus near downtown Beloit includes facilities valued at more than $40 million. Some two dozen pre-historic Indian mounds dot the main campus, including a giant effigy mound in the shape of a turtle. Distinctive campus buildings include nationally-recognized anthropology and art museums, a 225,000-volume library, new science center and observatory, new performing arts center, historic Eaton Chapel, and "Old Middle College," the oldest college building northwest of Chicago. Most Beloit students are housed in campus residence halls or fraternity houses. Athletic and recreation facilities include the college field house and natatorium on campus and a 25-acre near-campus with football stadium, playing fields, and running track, plus summer recreation land adjoining Rock River north of the campus.

Beloit's 1,000 students represent unusual geographic and socio-economic diversity. Approximately 40 per cent of the students come from the midwest, with other large concentrations from the northeast, mid-atlantic and other areas, as well as more than two dozen students from other countries. The College's 10,000 alumni are found in all 50 states and 66 other countries and territories. The present chairman of the Board of Trustees is a Phi Psi, Harry C. Moore, Northwestern '32, chairman of the Beloit Corporation. Several other Phi Psis also are members of the Board.

President R. W. (Sandy) Chamberlain presents the Chapter Charter to GP Brett Moyer, center, and former Colony President Kevin Morris, right.

Handsome, historic Middle College building erected in 1847, one year after the founding of Beloit College.

Now in her fourth year as Beloit's seventh president is Martha Peterson who has combined a career of achievements in both the education and business worlds. Miss Peterson is former chairman of the American Council on Education, former president of the National Association of Women Deans and Counselors, and former Dean at the University of Wisconsin and president of Barnard College. She is also a director of Exxon Corporation, Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., R. H. Macy Co., and other firms, and a trustee of both Notre Dame University and Chatham College.

Beloit's academic program is firmly grounded in the liberal arts and the College also offers strong pre-professional programs in medicine, law, engineering, and other areas, and a master's degree in teacher education. Among new or expanded curricular programs is an expanded economics and management department, performing arts department, and museum management program. The College offers students extensive opportunities for overseas study, participation in a "Field Term" of off-campus work or study, and cross-disciplinary programs. The student-faculty ratio currently is 11-1, and more than 80 percent of the faculty members hold the Ph.D. degree. Beloit's chapter of Phi Beta Kappa honorary scholastic fraternity is one of the oldest in the midwest. Beloit is a charter member of the Associated Colleges of the Midwest and a member of the Midwest Collegiate Athletic Conference.

History of Wisconsin Gamma

Wisconsin Gamma was founded at Beloit College in 1881 as the second fraternity on campus. It remained active for 89 years and initiated 1,014 Beloit men. In 1970 the chapter went inactive at a time when other Beloit fraternities met a similar fate. In 1977 a group of freshmen, under the guidance of Professor Warner Mills and John Lind, began the reorganization efforts. With alumni support from the Greater Rockford Alumni Association and Wisconsin Gamma Brothers, along with the cooperation of the Beloit College administration, the colony quickly became a positive force on campus. Within two years the colony progressed to a point of petitioning the Executive Council of the Fraternity for a charter. The Executive Council approved the petition and marked the beginning of another era in Phi Psi heritage at Beloit College.

The Effects of Going to College

by HOWARD R. BOWEN

Excerpted from: Investment in Learning: The Individual and Social Value of American Higher Education by Howard R. Bowen. © 1977/ Jossey-Bass, Inc., Publishers, 433 California Street, San Francisco, California 94104. Reprinted with permission of author.—Editor.

Among the least-observed results of higher education is its influence on marriage, divorce, sex roles, family planning, and childrearing.

A college education appears to have profound effects upon traditional sex roles, marital relationships, divorce, family planning, rearing of children, and other family relationships.

Curiously, the literature on the outcomes of higher education has tended to minimize or even overlook those effects.

In the many studies in which students or alumni have been asked to rank the various goals of college education, the rank order given to preparation for marriage and the family has been uniformly low. Faculty members and administrative leaders also seem to ignore the importance of college education for the family—at least judging by their rhetoric.

It could be that one of the most important outcomes of higher education is attained without the participants being aware that it is happening.

Traditional Sex Roles

College education is associated with a perceptible narrowing of traditional differences between the sexes in interests, attitudes, and behavior patterns.

A study in 1974 found that college women are less inclined than noncollege young women to demand or expect traditionally “masculine” behavior of men. A survey in 1975 of college students of both sexes reported that seniors were somewhat more favorable to women’s liberation than freshmen.

Studies directed to the entire adult population also reveal differences between college alumni and others in attitudes toward sex roles.

College-educated women are more likely to be in the labor force than other women. Moreover, college alumni are more likely than others to approve of women working and participating in public affairs.

College-educated men are somewhat more likely to share with their wives in housework, care of children, and companionship with children than are noncollege men.

Higher education is associated with a preference on the part of both men and women for role-sharing in marriage; that is, for husband and wife roles that are not strongly differentiated.

Marriage

College education affects attitudes and behavior toward marriage in seven ways.

It has a significant influence on choice of marriage partners. College-educated people are likely to marry persons of similar educational levels. For example, in one survey of high-school graduates, 70 per cent of the fathers who were college graduates were married to women who had achieved education beyond high school. Indeed, one study of alumni found that a quarter of the respondents had attended the same college as their wives or husbands.

College-educated people marry at a somewhat older age than other persons.

Some older studies have suggested that marital happiness is greater among college-educated people than among other groups. Recent surveys have conveyed the good news that previous differences in the degree of marital happiness between the two groups have been narrowed and also that both groups are experiencing greater marital happiness than had been indicated in a comparable study made in 1960.

Divorce

A comparison of the educational levels of divorced persons with those of the entire population 20 to 54 years old suggests that the divorce rate is slightly lower among college-educated people than among persons with a high-school education. For different reasons, the divorce rate is also low among those with only an elementary-school education.

Family Planning

Education has historically been inversely related to the number of children in a family. However, such radical changes in the birth rate have occurred in recent years among persons of all levels of education that generalizations from the past may not hold in the present or future.

Recent surveys of the general population have found that college-educated people favored slightly smaller families than persons with less education. All available evidence, however, suggests that there is little support for childlessness or even for families with only one child.

A 1970 survey of unwanted fertility indicated that unplanned, unwanted, and actual births are all inversely related to education.

The Rearing of Children

College education of parents is highly favorable to the careful rearing of children. It encourages the parents' expenditure of thought, time, and money on behalf of their children, with the effect of improving the children's characteristics and achievements.

College-educated parents devote more time to their children than other parents do. A 1975 study found that college-educated wives devoted about 25 per cent more time than other women to child care, and also that the husbands of college-educated women spent about 30 to 40 per cent more time in child care than other husbands.

The same study found that although college-educated women were more likely to be in the labor force than other women, they were less likely to be working when there were children of preschool or school age in the family.

College-educated parents also spend relatively more of their money in ways that foster the personal development of their children than do other parents.

For example, college graduates spend a substantially higher proportion of their incomes for education (not all of it for children) than do persons of less education, and this holds at every income level. They also spend more for books, magazines, and other reading materials.

An abundance of evidence based on major national studies with huge samples indicates a very strong and positive relationship between the education of parents and the measured intelligence, academic achievement, and extracurricular participation of children in school or college. The education of parents is strongly and positively correlated with children's attendance at nursery school and at college.

A study in 1972 found that the education of parents was a better predictor of college attendance than parental income.

The conclusion is almost certain that one of the most important outcomes of higher education is the favorable effect of parents' education on the intelligence and the achievement of children.

That effect, moreover, may be transmitted through many generations—though probably with declining impact on each successive generation. Indeed, this intergenerational effect may be the most important single consequence of higher education.

When higher education adds to the ability and motivation of parents, it enhances the life chances—the opportunities for economic success and personal happiness—of their children and, through them, influences the life changes of succeeding generations. The effect of education is thus multiplied as it is transmitted over the generations.

The intergenerational consequences of higher education may also be considered in reverse.

In most studies of educational outcomes, much attention is given to distinguishing the effects of the current generation's education from the effects of their socio-economic background. But when socio-economic background is seen as partly the effect of education received in the past by parents, grandparents, and even more distant ancestors, then some part of socio-economic background must be ascribed to education.

When socio-economic background is not properly taken into account, the error is not necessarily overstating the effect of education, but rather failing to distinguish between education that occurred earlier and education that occurred later.

Any estimate of outcomes that is limited to a single generation is bound to understate the total impact.

Other Family Relationships

The evidence is scant, but it is probable that the experiences of young people in college affect the opinions, attitudes, and behavior of their parents, other members of their families, and indeed of their friends and associates as well.

It is sometimes asserted that college education alienates sons and daughters from their parents. A 1975 study casts doubt on this matter. It is found that attitudes of college students toward their parents were overwhelmingly favorable and did not change over the four years of college.

Consumer Behavior

We tend to view economic efficiency and progress in terms of the amount of goods and services produced. We often overlook the possibility of achieving our goals more fully through greater efficiency in consumption—better values and better allocation of expenditures in achieving those values.

Data from a government study in 1966 show that college-educated people, as compared with other people of equal income, spend a considerably smaller percentage of their income on food, tobacco, alcoholic beverages, and automotive and other transportation.

College-educated people also spend less on clothing and personal care, although they spend about the same percentage of their income on medical care and recreation. They spend a considerably larger percentage on housing, reading and education.

The evidence strongly suggests that higher education tends to orient the values of consumers toward the home, intellectual and cultural interests, and the nurture of children.

College-educated people save more than others, relative to incomes, and that saving tends to be more largely directed toward the advancement and welfare of children than toward emergencies and provisions for old age.

They seem to be more sophisticated in their investment and financial behavior than less-educated people.

College-education probably helps people to deal with legal red tape and bureaucracies, to assert their rights, and to thread their way through complicated procedures, although there is little evidence on these matters.

Leisure

College-educated people receive greater satisfaction from their work, work longer hours, and are inclined to retire later. Thus, they have less nonworking time than other people.

Simple Procedures Can Mean Savings in Chapter Utility Bills

Presently, utility bills comprise a major portion of chapter house operating budgets. With energy prices predicted to double in the next 10 years, energy conservation may be one of the most important hidden variables in the fraternity's ability to continue to offer a financially sound and attractive operation to present and future college fraternity men.

The costs invariably fall upon the undergraduate members, and those costs are high. Sigma Chis collectively pay more than $1,000,000 annually in utility bills.

A strict energy conservation program could theoretically save as much as 40-45 per cent of this cost. However, it is probably more realistic to estimate that individual chapters will save a minimum of 15-20 per cent, equivalent to several hundred to several thousand dollars each year. The impact on Sigma Chi nationally would be to produce a collective savings of $15,000 to $200,000.

The starting point is to understand the amount of each individual energy source being used, and the corresponding costs. Keep an updated running record of the chapter's utility bills, showing both the units used and the total dollars expended, to focus attention on the major energy use equipment and to measure successive performance, month to month and year to year.

Energy savings are generally achieved either through operating existing equipment differently or through changing or "retrofitting" the existing equipment to give different energy use characteristics.

Whereas operational changes have no direct expense, retrofit actions usually involve a capital expenditure. Retrofit investments are extremely important today because almost all chapter houses were designed before energy prices rose, and equipment was generally selected without consideration of energy consumption.

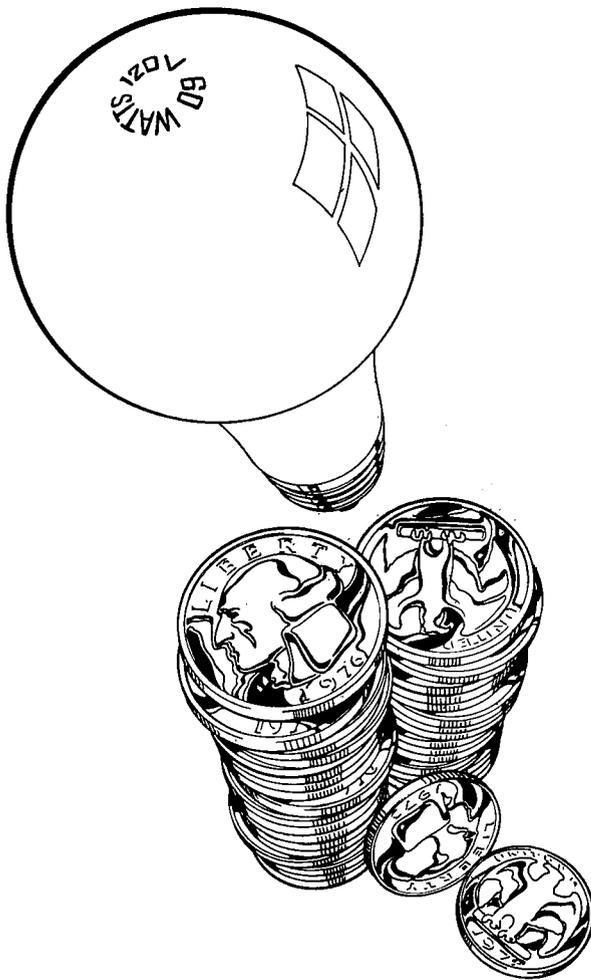

The single most important energy conservation item is chapter attitude about energy use. There are high costs involved in leaving lights, radios, fans, heaters, air conditioners, showers and other equipment operating when not absolutely necessary. Attention given to this factor alone can save hundreds of dollars each year.

With heating equipment: Shorten seasonal use. Don't turn the heat on until actually necessary; turn off as soon as weather permits.

Add caulking and weather stripping. Make sure windows and door frames are tightly caulked.

Set thermostats at 68 degrees. Each degree above that increases heating bills by several percentage points. Put covers over thermostats to keep settings from being changed.

Relocate thermostats away from cool areas. If a thermostat is located in an entrance foyer or near doors or open windows, the cool air will cause the heat to run when it is not needed.

Check attic insulation. Attic insulation is generally inadequate, and in some cases may be non-existent.

Close fireplace dampers. The updraft from a fireplace chimney can vent the air volume of several rooms in less than an hour, even when the fireplace is not in use.

Close off unoccupied areas. Enough heat will be picked up from adjacent areas to provide protection from low temperatures.

Check boiler controls. This service is offered free by many local utilities.

Check steam traps. Have a qualified contractor see that they are working properly.

With cooling equipment: Regulate use of window air conditioning units. Keep bedroom window units under 6,000 BTUs. Make sure all units are thermostatically controlled so they do not run continuously. Charge additional monthly rent to those rooms with window units. The local electric company can estimate the proper assessment.

Set thermostat at 78 degrees. Each degree below 78 increases cooling costs by five per cent.

Change air filters. If the house has any forced air central fan units, filters should be changed regularly.

With hot water equipment: (20 per cent of utility cost) Lower hot water temperature to 120 degrees (unless the kitchen dishwasher is not equipped with a pre-heater). For each 10 degrees the water temperature is reduced, more than six per cent of water heating costs are saved.

Insulate holding tank. Be sure hot water holding tank, and adjoining pipes, are insulated.

Install shower flow restrictors. They have the potential of reducing shower water use by more than 50 per cent. Be aware that higher floors may need flow restrictors with slightly larger volumes.

Repair water leaks. Small continuous leaks are surprisingly costly. A 1/8 inch diameter stream of water amounts to 120,000 gallons per month. One drop per second wastes as much as 60 gallons per week.

With lighting equipment: (20 per cent of utility cost) Reduce wattage. Many light bulbs are candidates for replacement with lower wattage bulbs, especially for exit and fire lights, and in non-activity areas such as halls and stairways. Replacing a 100-watt bulb with a 40-watt bulb reduces energy use by 60 per cent.

Use energy-conserving fluorescent lamps. Most major lighting manufacturers now sell energy conserving fluorescent lamps that can be substituted for existing 40 watt and 80 watt fluorescent lamps, offering savings of 15-20 per cent.

Remove lamps or fixtures. Many areas equipped with fluorescent lighting are overly lit. See if a portion of the individual lamps or entire fixtures can be removed.

Install time clocks on outside lighting. A time clock can be used to control decorative spotlights.

With kitchen equipment: Shut off exhaust fans when the stove is not in use. A large electric motor is the equivalent in energy use to many light bulbs.

Improve efficiency of refrigerators. Defrost frequently. Clean dust off the condenser tubing, or plates, on the back of the cabinet.

Eliminate excessive use of ovens. Turn ovens off slightly before meals are cooked, not after they are served. Let the latent heat keep late meals warm.

Minimize dishwasher use. Run only when fully loaded.

Some other suggested ideas: Remove washing machines. If the use of washing machines is conveniently available outside the chapter house, consider removing the machines altogether. Free machines encourage use with less than full loads. Even pay machines require the chapter to cover the costs of both the wash water and the energy to heat the water. Let someone else pay that bill.

Set back thermostats when house is vacant. Set back to the maximum extent possible that will allow protection from freeze damage. Turn off domestic water heater.

Turn off bathroom exhaust fans. They not only use a lot of electricity but quickly empty a room of tempered air.

University of Arizona Expansion

It is almost the end of another school year at Arizona Alpha, and the brotherhood is preparing for final exams. Ranked fourth in scholarship among the 17 fraternities on campus, hard studying is a commonplace site in the house.

The initiation of seven new Brothers brings our total membership to over 55, the largest ever. The new Brothers are: Brian Foulk, and Mike Sedor, Tuscon; Russell Olson, Anthony, N.M.; Ray Spaulding, and Greg Munoz, Phoenix; Tim Stocker, Cleveland, Ohio, and Greg Prizant, Chicago, Ill.

Leadership has changed hands once again, as new GP Peter Mock succeeds Lou Hoffman, a graduating senior and former officer for five semesters. All of the former officers have done an outstanding job this previous year, and all of the new officers are anxious to serve the chapter next semester. The death of Dave Hotopp, our membership chairman, in April weighs heavy on our hearts, and we will all miss him greatly, but we press on as he would wish.

Well, once again the Phi Psi's booth for Spring Fling, a fund raising carnival, was Minsky's, and once again the Phi Psis came away with the awards. In a co-op venture with Alpha Delta Pi sorority, Minsky's (a burlesque booth of dancing and comedy) won the awards for Best Booth, Best Show, Best Facade, President's Award, and Grand Marshall's Award.

Service, as always, played a key role at Arizona Alpha this past semester. Projects included a day picnic with the underprivileged children of Tucson, and several blood drives.

Athletically, Phi Psi placed third overall in intramurals this last semester. Our main events included football, soccer, basketball, water polo, racquetball, and wrestling.

As the end of the semester draws near, the brotherhood looks forward to next fall. Our immediate goals include a 30 man pledge class, a new cook, and even better social functions. Phi Kappa Psi is fast becoming the most recognized fraternity at the University of Arizona, but, of course, the Brothers already know who's number one.

Arizona State University Talk About Your Busy Spring

The fall '78 rush turned out to be highly successful, thanks to Rush Chairman Greg Nord. We initiated nine new Brothers: Robert J. Spexarth I, Freehold, N. J.; Mike Mongelli, Carson City, Nev.; Rich Geiger and Carl Geringer, Scottsdale; Harmon C. Anderson III, Hinsdale, Ill.; Dave Chorost, Phoenix; Tony Spinelli, Tucson; Thomas Hoffman, Cleveland, Ohio; and Dave Wilson, Kokomo, Ind. This super pledge class contributed Astroturf for the sun deck as a pledge gift.

Arizona Phi Psi alumni and undergraduates with wives and dates attended Founders Day activities in large numbers at the downtown Arizona Club in Phoenix on February 10. Above, the Fraternity's President, Robert (Sandy) Chamberlain, Arizona State '62, and his wife, Joanna, chat with Franklin Kemp, Iowa '26, and John Soller, Illinois '29. Kemp and Soller now reside in Sun City, Ariz.

Honors for most senior Phi Psi in attendance at the Arizona Alumni Association's Founders Day banquet went to Dr. Leo Brady, Johns Hopkins '09, who has been a Phi Psi for 70 years. Dr. Brady lives in Scottsdale, Ariz.

At the end of the fall semester, the chapter lost two fine men—John Abell to graduation and Brad Hunt who transferred. We wish them all happiness.

As the spring semester came in so did the terms of top-notch officers. Commended on their performance are: GP Greg Nord; VGP Chuck Williams; AG Ken Benjamin; P Dan Klein, BG Mike Cerise; SG Gary Aguilar; H Dave Loveland; P Lee Walters; H Lenny Drucker. Due to the hard work of Rush Chairman Lee Walters, we succeeded in pledging and initiating six. Steve O'Brien and Terry Teebken, Redondo Beach Calif.; John Cummerford, Phoenix; Brian Weinberger, Philadelphia, Pa; Peter Bennet, Oyster Bay, N.Y.; Ken Walbridge, Kalamazoo, Mich. Their gifts to the house were new Greek letters for the front of the house and a new house mascot, Amici.

The chapter accomplishments for the spring were: first place in scholarship, 2.82 GPA; second place in Greek Games; 5-2 record in both leagues of intramural basketball. Also, due to the persuasiveness of Greg Nord, the chapter raised $750 by helping the Tempe Diablos during their Casino Capers.

Individual recognition goes Randy Wilkins, who became a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi for outstanding scholastic achievements. Sandy Chamberlain, one of the colonizers of Arizona Beta and now President of

Phi Kappa Psi, admitted to the ASU Greek Alumni Hall of Fame. And, also, Ken Benjamin was chosen the "Man of the Year" by the Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority.

Under miscellaneous, the winner of the first annual easter egg hunt was Peter Bennett. Also, best party goes to Brother Loveland's "Eat the Worm" party. Robert Spexarth and Chuck Williams represented the chapter in the recent Miller 2 on 2 basketball competition. Also, special thanks to alumni Kim Goetz and Pat May for their help and guidance throughout the year.

At the recent spring formal at the Hyatt Regency, Steve LaBar announced his engagement to Linda Rhodes. Our best wishes and happiness to them. Also, awards were given to: outstanding fall Active-Steve LaBar; outstanding spring active-Greg Nord, outstanding fall pledge-Tom Hoffman, outstanding spring pledge-John Cummerford; and outstanding senior-Dave Loveland.

The recent elections for officers for the fall of '79 are: GP Lee Walters, VGP Tom Hofman; AG Robert Spexarth; BG Steve O'Brien; P Dan Klein; Hi John Cummerford; Hod Carl Geringer; Phu Lenny Drucker; and SG Gary Aguilar. With the spring commencement, the chapter will lose Dave Loveland to graduation, and then on to Dallas; Chuck Williams to the University of Texas at Austin; Ken Benjamin to Southeastern Massachusetts University; and Randy Wilkins to law school at Georgetown. May their bonds of brotherhood never weaken and may they be successful in their future endeavors.

Allegheny College Staying Alive

Our winter term pledge class activated in April and continues to show the same enthusiasm that distinguished them from the pledge classes of recent years. Four of these freshmen will head committees for the remainder of this term.

We have been well represented in intramural sports as there has been active support in badminton and swimming. However, our best performance is in softball where we have won two of our first three games. Besides our participation in the intramural sports program, two of our Brothers, Haffely and Willoughby, started on the newly formed Allegheny Varsity volleyball team.

Brothers Allen and Allman represented the chapter in the dance marathon for Multiple Sclerosis during the Allegheny Greek weekend. Chuck T. R. McGough stepped in at the last minute for a sick Brother to perform his Unknown Comic routine in the Greek Talent show, also an activity of the Greek Weekend.

Our spring Polynesian party is planned for the weekend of May 26. The chapter will look forward to seeing alumni return for this event. These alumni will not only see many of the improvements that took place this year, but they will also be pleased to learn that the college has promised to provide many long awaited improvements over the summer. Among the jobs to be done will be the installation of a new carpet.

The redecoration of the chapter house is timely because we are also celebrating our 125th anniversary next year. A special committee is already making arrangements for the celebration. Again, we will look forward to seeing alumni at this event.

Auburn University Five Initiates

Alabama Beta has five new Brothers, initiated Feb. 28, 1979: Lewis Shelton Woodson, William Gregory Waldrup, Bryan Edward Oliver, Richard Warren Ash, and Douglas John Hertha. Also, we have a new associate member, Kevin D. Hodges.

We started the quarter, socially, with our Birthday Party. It was a coat and tie event and most enjoyable.

Alabama Beta ventured into the old west on the night of February 1. We had a western social with Alpha Chi Omega. The house was decorated with hay and the lovely Alpha Chi's.

The Brothers apologize to the Birmingham Alumni Association for not being able to make Founders Day due to the bad weather. We are looking forward the next year's celebration.

We sent five Brothers to the ELC/DC at South Carolina Alpha. The delegates were Mike Jernigan and Marty Byrd. The others included Scott Harmon, Lewis Woodson, and Doug Hertha. They brought back many good ideas that the chapter can use.

We always enjoy seeing our alumni. This quarter we had visits from Lee Nash, Barney Burns, Sam Webster, Jeff Foshee, and Danny Wright.

Alabama Beta is looking forward to a great quarter this spring. We have had a rush seminar and plan three rush parties this quarter.

Beloit College Eleven Initiated

The initiation of 11 new Brothers marked the beginning of the winter/spring 1979 semester for Wisconsin Gamma. These included Mike Berolatti, New Rochelle, NY; Mark Misiorowski, Oak Lawn, Ill; Mike Schwartz, Longmeadow, Mass.; Keith Fetzner, Madison Heights, Mich.; Stuart Ginsberg, Hazel Crest, Ill.; Peter Kozelka, Williamstown, Mass.; Andy Schumacher, Dixon, Ill.; Paul Schwarzweller, Okemos, Mich.; Marcus Smith, Rockville, Md.; Tom Sklenar, Delavan, Wis.; and Bert Sussler, New London, Conn. These fine men helped replace the gaps made by the absence of Kevin Morris and Jamie Kelly, who were on the Washington, D.C., seminar, Rick Montgomery who is still exploring Europe after finishing the London seminar, and Al DaGue, who is taking a break after being here from last year straight through the summer and fall semesters. Daryl Hushaw, Miami, Fla.; Steve Snow, Wilmette, Ill.; and Al George, Amherst, Mass.; also added to our numbers after small rush program this semester.

Several activities added excitement to the long, dreary Wisconsin winter. Classics Professor Dr. Art Robson joined us for our special Valentine's Day dinner. Again, we worked with the Student Activities office in organizing and running the Campus Casino night. Later on, we had an up-and-coming rock band, White Lie, play at an all campus party. Both of these events were fine successes. And for ourselves, a spring picnic at a local park, complete with grilled hamburgers, brats, softball, soccer, and frisbee, took our minds off upcoming final exams during a sunny Sunday afternoon.

Several Brothers are establishing themselves as prominent students on the Beloit campus. Andy Schumacher was given the "Most Improved Player" award for the Varsity soccer team and Kirk Jacobson was given the "Most Valuable Performer" award for the indoor season of the Varsity track and field team at the Beloit College winter sports banquet. Also, Mike Berolatti was recently elected to be the editor of the Round Table, America's second oldest college newspaper, for the upcoming fall semester. Mike, along with Jay Sames, also will be filling positions as resident assistants in a couple of the dormitories next year. Hopefully, it will be a great way to get new students better acquainted with us. And Tom Sklenar had several of his poems published in Avatar, the college's literary magazine.

As this semester comes to a close, we look forward to a great summer.

Bowling Green State University Pledges Take Scholarship Honors

Ohio Zeta had a disappointing spring rush, but what we lacked in numbers we picked up in quality. We took three pledges: Brian Koenig and Larry Williams, Fremont; Craig Hilliker, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Our six winter quarter pledges were activated in April. They are: Chris Geib and Jeff Swint, Fremont; Chip Camiscione, Findlay; Mike Bennett, Montpelier; Stan Lawson, Lakewood; and Boyd Long, Bucyrus.

Congratulations to the new officers elected in April, and also to the old officers for their hard work. The new officers are: Scott Younger, GP; Jeff White, VGP; Chris Berner, P; Todd Milner, AG; Jeff Dodds, BG; Dave Brown, SG; Jeff Raker, Hod; Byron Willford, Phu; and Keith Reinke, Hi. We also elected Scott Morrison as Pledge Trainer and Mark Seidel as Assistant Pledge Trainer.

We were honored to receive the Interfraternity Council's award for highest grade point average of all fraternities for our spring and fall '78 and winter '79 pledge classes. Congratulations to these now active Brothers for this outstanding academic effort.

Ohio Zeta sponsored the Miss BG SU Scholarship Pageant in April for the fourth consecutive year. Sue Mulholland, a member of the Alpha Zeta Delta sorority, was crowned Miss BGSU and will now go on to compete in the Miss Ohio Pageant. We are the only fraternity in the state that sponsors a scholarship pageant.

All of us are anxiously looking forward to our annual Bathtub Race on Peregrine Pond in June, which the Delta Gamma sorority is co-sponsoring with us again this year. The Bathrub Race is the last Greek event of the school year, and we can't think of a better way to end it!

Bucknell University Expanded Brotherhood

With the warm weather comes the anticipation of House Party weekend, which brings many of our alumni back to Penn Gamma, and is highlighted by the ever popular Phi Psi 500 and other enjoyable traditions.

But, by far the most important event this semester is activation, where we plan to initiate 27 fine pledges. The ceremony will take place on Wednesday, May 9, marking the beginning of House Party.

Excellence in the academic field is certainly evidenced by Penn Gamma as the chapter placed third in GPA standing among the fraternities at Bucknell. A graduating class of high academic excellence in general, will be moving on to positions in such places as the Harvard School of Architecture, Berkley School of Business, IBM Corp., Kodak Corp., and the Mobil Oil Corp., to name a few.

Although Founders Day was marred by snowy weather, the spirit was not dampened for those Brothers and guests who attended. The new Athletic Director at Bucknell, Dr. Bruce Corrie, was the guest speaker. Special thanks go David Bardaglio, our houseman, for the house was immaculate.

Spring intramural competition is, as always, tight, but Penn Gamma is working toward attainment of the Pangburn trophy as we swept first place in the track and field competition, and we are one game out of first place in the softball standings.

University of California-Berkeley Looking Forward To Spring

Our winter quarter is almost over and everybody is getting ready for finals. It will not go unforgotten by the Brothers. It all started one Saturday morning in January when we started our 2nd annual Bounce-a-thon. We left the steps of Cal Gamma at 9:00 a.m. and travelled the 50 mile distance, dribbling a basketball the whole way, to Hoover Tower on the Stanford campus in 5 hours. This fund raiser was a great success due to the hard work of Mike Neiman and Mark Callan in organizing the event.

Our Founders Day activity was held at the University Club in San Francisco and was attended by all the Brothers. We congratulate Guy Minardi, Rhode Island, on being elected president of the Northern California Alumni Association.

Among other honors, our GP, Robert Bleicher, was selected to participate in the Cal in the Capitol program. He will be spending his summer in Washington, D.C., working on Capitol Hill.

Among athletic achievements, Blake Yeaman took 4th place in Pac-10 wrestling and Gregg Thompson took 4th place in California in sabre fencing. All the Brothers are proud of these two men. The chapter intramural basketball team is in the semifinals of the playoffs and looking strong. We're all hoping they continue to win.

The two big social events of the quarter were our winter formal and a ski trip. The formal was held at the Hyatt on Union Square in San Francisco and was a most enjoyable evening. Besides the fact that there were 30 of us packed into one condominium, the ski trip was a lot of fun for everyone who went. The skiing in the Lake Tahoe area was excellent that weekend and many of the first time skiers were hooked by the sport.

With great pleasure, we announce the pledging of two outstanding men: Rick Rensol and Allan Dietch. With spring rush just around the corner, we look forward to pledging many more.

James T Williams, Correspondent

University of California- Los Angeles Victory!

Since almost a year has past, so much has happened here. On Jan. 13, 1979, 14 new Brothers were initiated into the ever expanding circle. The new initiates are: Raymond Greenlee, Newhall; Peter Reikes, Riverside; Albro Lundy, Palos Verdes; Bradley Sherman, Northridge; John Dewey, Santa Cruz; Philip Schneider, Mountain View; Mark Robinson and Edward (Terry) Eidson, Hayward; Mark Millsstein, San Raphael; Jack Noe, Chatsworth; William Iloff, Sacramento; William Steel, San Pedro; Blair Clark, Saratoga; and John Duke Fenady, Hancock Park. These new Brothers have already made many contributions to our chapter.

To continue a tradition, we only recently pulled the best of the lot of the spring rushees, netting 12 outstanding pledges: David Burrowes, San Diego; Mark Deneen, Arcadia; Micael Dutton, Los Altos; Jay Fenzke, Santa Monica; John Gallogly, Yorba Linda; Terry Haggerty, Lakewood; Jeffrey Lewis, San Bernardino; Jeff Mamet, Manhattan Beach; Jeffrey Mayem, New York, N.Y.; Robert Mosbaugh, Mission Viego; and James Silverstein; Los Angeles. Their presence brings our membership to a solid 77. The Brothers will be looking forward to seeing all of these pledges initiated come the second week of October. Also added this year to our chapter roll were two transfer Brothers, Nick Alston, Colorado, and Breck Middleton, Wittenberg.

If luck is running in our direction, and success generates more success, the on going winning year may produce some triumphant candidates in student government and Interfraternity Council elections. Two Phi Psis won the highest offices in UCLA's student government. Jerry Kurland was elected student body president and his big brother, Jeff Wallack, was elected administrative student body vice-president. These two will soon begin "putting it all together" for the 30,000 undergraduates at UCLA. Along the same lines, Dan Cislo was elected chief justice of IFC and Peter Reikes as a member of the judicial board of IFC. Also Dave Case was named to head Greek Week at UCLA in 1980!

In chapter elections, the following were named for the winter/spring term: James R. Rosen, GP; Ben Graham, VGP; Paul V. Lostkutoff, P; Howard R. Weisenfeld, AG; Craig F. Harrison, BG; Chris Anderson, SG; Steven C. Bishop, Hod; Mark M. Messersmith, Phu; and Robert J. Raphael, Hi.

The social life at Cal. Epsilon has been a busy one. We organized a "Toga" party with the Pi Beta Phis, a movie night with the Alpha Delta Pis, and numerous exchanges with such sorities as Chi Omega, Alpha Phi, Delta Gamma, and Kappa Kappa Gamma. According to tradition, Phi Psi has just finished another successful season with the Kappa's as our partners in putting up the "House of Horrors" booth for one of the largest student run fairs, "UCLA's Mardi Gras," which is a fund raiser for UNI-CAMP (an underprivileged childrens' summer camp). Also, we just held our spring formal at the Beverly Hills Hotel, and with our last bit of strength are looking forward to the final party of the year, "Viva Zapata."

The Phi Psi "Green Wave" sports teams have compiled an outstanding year so far, placing third overall out of 28 fraternities. Included is the Phi Psi basketball team which took an overwhelming first place in the school intramural championships, beating Sigma Alpha Epsilon in the finals and Beta Theta Pi in the consolation game. With so many young brothers in the chapter the future of Phi Psi sports teams looks promising.

Our alumni relations committee is headed by Steve Bellomy. We are looking forward to having more involvement with the alumni brothers. If any alumnus has changed his address, please give us your new one. If you're in the area, please stop by and see your old chapter house. We think you will be pleasantly surprised.

Howard R. Weisenfeld, Correspondent

University of California- Northridge Looking Ahead

California Theta heads into summer now, with a semester behind it that was filled with positive events. Here is the first article-report of a chapter that has high hopes for the future:

Our pledge program, headed by Brian McCann, has given us three capable men. President of our 22nd pledge class is Richard Fong, with Shawn Blaney, and Brian Shiraka. Their initiation will give Cal Theta a membership of 201. We see the number 200 as a landmark achievement symbolizing our chapter's positive attitude.

I personally look forward to the moment when I can call each of these three "Brother."

Phi Psi at Northridge has made it into the basketball playoffs. Athletic chairman Mike Mollet has led his team over the other fraternities represented here.

GP Jeff Ross is on the Dean's list again. The president has, as always, set an example for the Brothers to follow.

In the area of service, the Phi Psi 500 has to be No. 1. Seth Cinamon, 500 chairman, with exhaustive assistance from Ross and Roy Bronder, pulled off one of the best. We raised several hundred dollars for our Easter' Seals charity.

But this particular 500 meant even more. It brought together Greeks on our commuter campus.

New officers for fall, 1979: GP Roy

Bronder; VGP John Soukup; P Ken Kottenbach; AG Bill Null; BG Seth Cinamon; SG John Tostado. Hod Mike Mollet; Phu Steve Sherwood; and Hi Jeff Ross.

The special event for some of us had to be the chartering of Phi Psi's newest chapter at the University of California, Davis. Our six representatives drove from Los Angeles and took part in the ceremony. We also had the honor of once again meeting and speaking with our national president, R. W. Chamberlain.

We wish our Brothers of Cal Iota good luck, and hope to visit them again soon.

Our long-range goals include, among others, a new house and a membership of 50 to 60. Our housing corporation is helping us with the house, and we see our fall rush as a productive one. We are already working on it.

I thank and give recognition to John Ciccarelli for his help in the past few months. It is because of Brothers such as he that we have been able to get a clear sighting on the future, through his remarks on the past. We feel very good about our aggressive new program.

Columbia University Rites of Spring

At New York Gamma, with the rites of spring, came five new initiates, all artistically bound in the Columbia community. The initiates include two freshmen, David Schwarz, musician/singer, and Ken Petricig, concerned with the poetic-arts; Brian Doherty, a junior, poet; Pete Scaglione, an aspiring architect; and Chris Roethke, stage-designing artist.

Steve Housepian recently kicked off his new rock and roll band in grand fashion. Many of the songs were composed in collaboration with our own Mark Copper.

All of the Brothers made Dean's list and we're happy to say we finished number one in intramurals, in an extra-innings effort beating Delta Phi 21-2, in an 11th inning rally.

University of Colorado New Beginning

Finals week House is pretty quiet, too quiet . . . something's gotta give. Like sparks igniting that burst into laughter and goodbyes- "See you September first," "Have a good one, Brother."

A few people stay to watch over the place. It's a long summer ahead can't wait to get back.

A NEW BEGINNING for Colorado Alpha is underway. On the wake of a super revitalization of the Denver Alumni Association, spearheaded by Dave Castro, Creighton, and Biff Bauldry and Tom Brunn, both of Colorado Alpha.

This semester was marked by a swelling of the ranks, with nine men pledged making a total of 21 present and perspective members at Colorado Alpha.

Newly elected officers include: Scott Albrecht, GP, Eric Otte, VGP, Chris Lloyd, P, Mark Manzo, BG, Mike Carney, Hod, and Bill Whelan, Hi.

Social life is always on the move here, with events like Alphred E. Packerd Day, C. U. Daze, Greek Week, Songfest, Theta exchange, DG exchange (Snow tubing), all were great fun. Green River raft trip after finals, and how could we forget spring break in sunny Mazatlan! Next fall includes: football via Fairbanks, soccer, volleyball, and basketball intramurals, and a lot of great times. In the neighborhood? Drop by Colorado Alpha, 1131 University Ave.

Creighton University $7,000 for Muscular Dystrophy

This past semester has been a busy one, indeed. Our pledge class dominated it as 54 were initiated into our brotherhood. To date, this has been the largest in the history of our chapter, and this will bring our active list to 90 members next fall.

In chapter activities, we once again reign as champions as we won the All-University championship. It was a battle to the finish with another fraternity, but it was evident that our loyalty, devotion, and dedication brought us out ahead. We also won the Miller Drive . . . again.

In the scholastic field, many of our alumni are going on to professional school. Accepted to medical school are Curtis Mock, Jim Hougas, and Keith Monroe. Prospective dentists are Jim Simpson, Steve Ludford, Rick Gianini, and Jim Landon. Finally, our future lawyers include Luke Seifert, Stephen Bruckner, Jim LaFave, and Patrick Hall.

Our community service events were dominated by "Disco for Dystrophy."

We co-sponsored a dance fund raiser for Muscular Dystrophy which raised approximately $7,000.

Our social calendar was highlighted with the function of the year . . . formal! Our pledges helped set the tone of the night as they bartended and waited at the pre-party festivities. Our Phi Psi of the year was Michael Atkinson and sweetheart was Jeannie Nelson, fiance of Dan Nelson.

In leadership roles in the chapter, Lee Graves was elected GP. The other officers are: VGP Jim Messersmith, P David Cimpl, AG Curtis Wong, BG Kevin Gould, SG Mark Mollner, Hod John Pintauro, Phu Kevin Casey, and Hi Dan Myers. Also elected were Kevin Fitzmaurice as lodge chairman and Richard Doyle as social chairman. Selected as RA's are Kevin Garnett, Steven Paul, Brian Hardin, David Cimpl, and repeater Richard Doyle. Also Jim Bruckner was elected to the position of Arts Representative on next year's Board of Governors, and Erik Renaud was selected as the new Student Security Supervisor.

In events regarding our lodge, we are considering purchasing a new one, but if it does not work, we'll definitely follow with a major renovation project on the present lodge in the fall.

DePauw University Pledges Win Academic Trophy

Having already initiated a fine pledge class of 23, Indiana Alpha is proud to announce the addition of a new pledge, Duart DaSilvera. The freshmen members of our newly initiated class recently earned the Freshmen Academic trophy for the highest G.P.A. among the fraternities on the DePauw campus. Heading the list of exceptional grade points last semester include a 4.0 earned by Tom Dugan and two 3.75 marks earned by Mark Conklin and Brad Fuson.

Phi Psis at DePauw have had a fun and busy last couple weeks. The annual Little 500, on April 21, was a big success as our four riders placed fifth of 15 teams, after a mishap near the three quarters mark of the race. The following weekend we enjoyed entertaining our Moms for "Mother's Weekend."

As the end of the school year nears, we take time to acknowledge Indiana Alpha's exceptional graduating senior class, and to wish them all the best of luck in future endeavors.

DuCharme, Carlisle; Douglas R. Ewertson, Berkeley Heights, N.J.; Stuart B. Fisher, Haddonfield, N.J.; Andrew L. Klinghoffer, Bala Cynwyd; Steven J. Lowry, Mechanicsburg; David C. Shuessler, Rockville, Md; Scott D. Silverwood, Timonium, Md; David L. Smith, Bethlehem; Edwin L. Stock, Middleburg; Duane M. P. Takahashi, Wayne, N.J.; Robert F. Tarantolo, West Long Branch, N.J.; Joseph A. Wisniewski, Pt. Pleasant Beach, N.J.; and Charles A. Woerner, Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. These Brothers, while pledging under Pledgemaster Rich Cohn, showed the energy and enthusiasm required to keep the chapter one of the strongest on campus.

Jeff Hudson and Scott McFarland attended the North Eastern Interfraternity Conference at MIT, March 9-11. They participated in seminars led by fraternity professionals and advisors on topics of interest to IFCs and fraternities on all campuses. Brother McFarland was also elected treasurer of the Dickenson IFC for the coming year.

Chapter officers elected this Spring were: Michael Supinka, GP; Joe Morris, VGP; Bucky Clarke, AG; Chip Powell, BG; and Scott Eckenrode, P.

The Second Annual Symposium was held May 26, at the chapter house. The Symposium was created as an attempt to stimulate interest of undergraduates and alumni in the history of Penn Zeta. It was a great success. At the Symposium, Danny Sunderland was chosen the first recipient of the George Shuman Award, a prize which is to be presented annually to the senior Brother who best exemplifies the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi.

Other news includes the long awaited construction of a brick barbecue grill on the front patio. It promises to be a great addition to rush and other social gatherings.

Duke University Fun in the Sun

A mass migration to Myrtle Beach,

Robert Fishman points to a bidder as auctioneer Jed Schutz calls for a higher bid during North Carolina Alpha's annual Celebrity Auction. This year's effort raised over $5,000 for Children's Cancer research at Duke Medical Center.

S.C., marked the end of an eventful year for North Carolina Alpha. Our officers for the spring semester included: David Lutken, GP; T. R. Hainline, VGP; Mark Steinman, P; Warner McNeilly, AP; Ed Posnak, AG; Jed Schutz, BG; Steve Jarboe, SG; Tom Lohman, Hod; Atis Zikmanis, Hi; and David Parker, Phu. Under their able leadership, we enjoyed a semester of successful pledging, social, and charitable activities.

Thanks to Rush Chairmen Ken Petronis and Charlie Bobrinsky, and Pledge Educators Steve Ash and Barry Widera, 14 were initiated in April: Joe de Compiegne, Midland, Texas; Pete Groth, Gallipolis, Ohio; Bill Hase, St. Petersburg Beach, Fla.; Bill Haynes, Millers Creek, N.C.; Forrest Howse, Memphis, Tenn.; Hal Lewis, Miami, Fla.; Ken Lohmann, West Lafayette, Ind.; Dave Mahanes, Nashville, Tenn.; Frank Needham, Dallas, Texas; Dick Patterson, Glendora, Calif.; Mark Scheitlin, Philadelphia, Pa.; Doug Stanford, New Orleans, La.; Don Taylor, Goldsboro, and Kurt Uphoff, Winston-Salem. Our current pledge class consists of Todd Baumgartner, Town and Country, Mo.

This year's pledge formal, featuring football Coach Wilson as guest speaker, was held at the Ranch House in Chapel Hill. Other successful parties included the Valentine's Day party, the Meredith College Mixer, the Faculty Mixer, and the annual Rites of Spring.

N.C. Alpha lost a true friend this year with the November death of Dean James T. Cleland, Amherst '39. Dean Emeritus of the Duke Chapel, Cleland was one of the most respected figures at Duke. It was also with regret that we learned of the December passing of Glenn L. Hooper Jr., Duke '48. A lawyer and civic leader from Jacksonville, N.C. Hooper was also a charter member of the Iron Dukes.

Our fourth annual Celebrity Auction, under the organizational expertise of chairman Jed Schutz, was held on October 6. Autographed items from such celebrities as John Travolta, Gene Roddenberry, and Mister Rogers helped us raise over $5,000 for children's cancer research at Duke Medical Center. Hundreds of letters have already been sent to celebrities in preparation for next year's auction.

N.C. Alpha contributed its share of campus leaders this year. Fred Olness was president of the marching band, Scott Poelker was the battalion executive officer of the NROTC, Bob Watral was the captain of the cheerleading squad, and Tom McLaurin was photo editor of the yearbook. We were also proud to have three Brothers elected to Phi Beta Kappa: David Boyd, Scott Poelker, and Paul Johnson. Other award recipients included Warner McNeilly, Chancellor's Medal; and Rufus Beaty, Beola Baldwin Award. We also extend special congratulations to the 16 Brothers who graduated on May 6, and wish them all successful futures.

To our Brothers around the country, North Carolina Alpha sends sincere wishes for a great summer and productive fall semester.

Eastern New Mexico University 10th Year

New Mexico Alpha began its tenth year with a completely remodeled house. Most of the work was done by our own Brothers and we are justifiably proud of how well it looks. This was the largest project of its kind attempted by our chapter.

This spring semester has been busy as well as productive for us. Several events took place at the house which were enjoyed not only by us but by the whole campus as well.

Our 2nd annual Casino Night was held early in the semester as a money making project for the chapter. Several games of fun and chance, as well as music was provided for the entertainment of all who attended. Casino Night was a huge success for us and was enjoyed by those attending from the University.

March 31, saw the 1st Annual Phi Psi Phandango to raise money for Portales Special Olympics. Our chapter, with the help of many of the local merchants, provided an afternoon of good food, good drink, and good music for an estimated crowd of 300. Events such as egg throwing, boat races, and pie eating were held during the afternoon, with the highlight of the day being a wet T-shirt contest. Five young ladies competed, with Lisa Evans of Portales winning the $50 first prize. That evening a party and a dance was held the likes of which has seldom been seen at Eastern. For our effort in raising money to send a deserving child to the National Special Olympics in New York, our chapter was awarded a certificate of appreciation by the Portales Special Olympics.

The 127th Anniversary of our Fraternity was celebrated in February with a semi-formal gathering at the house. Bacchanalia was held in April, and it was marked by the usual crowd of people in togas.

May 5, Craig Rivera of Raton, and Earl Stewart of Melrose, were initiated. They are a fine addition to our Fraternity, and we sincerely congratulate them.

University of Florida First in Scholarship

Florida Beta is having a great quarter. Starting with a retreat, we've been working together to make ourselves bigger and better. After almost two years on campus we now have 20 Brothers and four pledges.

Mike Gulley was initiated this quarter. Our spring rush brought three pledges: Josh Overt, Jeff Spitzer, and John Adams. All hard workers for the chapter.

The best news of the year has got to be that Florida Beta, new as we are, holds both the President's Cup for over-all intramurals and the scholastic banner for the highest cumulative fraternity GPA. Athletics have been good, too. We took third in golf, second in tennis, and, for the second time in a row, a first-place trophy for bowling.

We have completed the election of new officers: Jay Schuppener, GP; Doug Young, VGP; and Mark Elzey, BG. Congratulations to our past GP James Goirdano, who did an excellent job.

Our most recent big event was the annual "Phi Psi 500." This year, it was a great success under the chairmanship of Dave Mayer. We had more than 200 show up for our kick-off party and managed to raise $300.00 for a local diabetic camp.

In fall quarter next year, Larry Light will be returning to us after working a temporary position in North Carolina. He will be joined by John Lofgren who will continue his pledgship once he returns. Also here to help the chapter is Steve Beard from Oregon Alpha who is with the University of Florida.

Our chapter house is looking better and better. House Manager Kerry Gates worked with other Brothers to build a platform for a TV viewing section of the social wing, Brother Gulley has donated furniture for the house, and our walls are now being plastered. The plastering is being done by a friend of the chapter for materials cost only. With the house looking better and more members coming in, all the Brothers of Florida Beta are happy with the way things are rolling for us.

Franklin and Marshall College Still 25 Miles From TMI

Despite an unexpected vacation early this spring, brought about by the incident at Three Mile Island, our chapter had a normal spring with activities such as a pool tournament. During the week off, three of our Brothers remained diligently on campus to monitor the radiation, and to follow some leisure time pursuits.

Early this May, elections were held. Greg French is our new GP; Skip Soulier, VGP; George Cooke, P; Nick Knisely, Rush Chairman; Tim Messer, BG; and Alan Sutter AG.

All of our senior Brothers are graduating with honors this June. Brother Solomon received the Theodore Alexander Saulnier Award in chemistry and was inducted into Phi Beta Kappa. Brother Calhoun was also inducted into Phi Beta Kappa and received the John Noss Award for philosophy. Brother Oncley was inducted into Sigma Pi Sigma, an honorary physics society. Brother Burd was named a Kirshner scholar in physics. In addition, Mark Burd is getting married at the end of June.

In the coming semester, we are planning an intensified rush in order to strengthen the ranks of our chapter. We are asking for help from our alumni to help with recommendations.

University of Georgia Spring Fever

Warmth and sunshine have once again accompanied the entrance of another spring quarter here. Spring quarter is a literal heyday for Greeks at Georgia, and Phi Psi has been no exception. We have found ourselves participating in virtually every Greek event on campus, from Greek Week to our own now fast-approaching "Phi Psi 500." This year's "500," May 25-26, will feature a 5000 meter road race that will benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association. Also included in the weekend will be the traditional band parties.

Georgia Alpha was once again honored to be chosen as one of the top five finalists in the annual Fraternity of the Year competition. The coveted award is presented by Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority to the fraternity that excels in areas of civic involvement and campus leadership. This is the second year in a row that Phi Psi has been named in the top five.

Georgia Alpha is proud to announce the pledging of David Gibson Catlett, from Atlanta. David has made his presence known in the chapter, and we expect many good things from him in the future.

Phi Psi continues to strive in its efforts to win the intramural sports trophy for the first time in its three-year history. At this writing, we are running a close second behind Sigma Phi Epsilon, and the battle is probably going to come down to the wire. Victories in sports such as horseshoes and archery could win the trophy for Georgia Alpha.

Once again, the chapter was chosen to be included on the Athens-Clarke County Heritage Foundation Candlelight tour of homes. The tour was very successful and we received several compliments from our guests. We have had, in addition, offers to help in our search for a permanent chapter house, probably to begin sometime next fall. Steve Stephens and Matt Mashburn have recently made noteworthy scholastic achievements. Steve, in addition to being named our Solon E. Summerfield Scholar, was recently tapped into Omicron Delta Kappa and Mortar Board, the highest honor a junior or senior can receive. Matt, a freshman, was recently named to Phi Eta Sigma.

Spring has left us with a new sense of purpose for the Fraternity. Informal chapter meetings have resulted in the setting of new goals and re-evaluation of chapter ideals, putting us in a whole new position as far as considerations for next year go. Georgia Alpha has the potential to be the best fraternity on campus, and an attitude of manifest destiny is now taking hold. We believe in Phi Kappa Psi, and now, so does the rest of the populace at the University of Georgia.

Gettysburg College Miller Hall Interior Renovation Completed

The beginning of May marked the culmination of another successful pledge program, as 11 freshman and two sophomores were initiated into the chapter. They are: James Blodgett, Worcester, Mass.; David Brown, Wayne; Richard Chambers, Strasburg; Harlan Daubert, Fredericksburg; Richard Goldfarb, Pussaic, N.J.; Carl Gullbrand, Framingham, Mass.; Mark Hartzell, Carlisle; Andrew Katz, Bay Shore, N.Y.; Paul Kelly, Edison, N.J.; Richard Kunkle Jr., Mechanicsburg; Paul Quigley, Dansville, N.Y.; Andrew Sheridan, Chester, N.J.; and Gregg Siefert, Greenwich, Conn.

Pennsylvania Epsilon is proud to announce that the restoration of the interior of Miller Hall has been completed. All that remains to complete the restoration project is the work to be done on the exterior, which includes the replacing of the entire wood frame on the outside due to waterlogging and rotting of the wood. The gutter and downspout system will also be replaced to further protect the exterior work. The roof, which was worked on several years ago, is in satisfactory condition and needs no additional work.

Ned Brownley '53, who did an excellent job restoring the interior, has begun making plans to begin the exterior work over the summer. With the contributions already received and additional pledges to be received over the next several years we will have enough money to complete the restoration by 1980.

April 20-22, saw the return of alumni to celebrate the 124th Anniversary of the founding of the chapter. The weekend was highlighted by a formal dinner on Saturday night at the Liberty Tavern, which featured guest speaker G. Kent Yowell, Colorado, a Trustee of the Fraternity's Permanent Fund.

Alumni support continues to grow and is rapidly approaching the level that it should be. Penn Epsilon's 125th Anniversary is less than a year away and plans have already begun to make it a great celebration. It is scheduled for April 18-20.

For the tenth time in as many years, Indiana Zeta at Butler University marched off with the 1979 Scholastic Achievement Award of the Sigma Chi Foundation. Past GPs Ralph Berry, second from right, and Charlie Shirley, far right, accept the award and trophy from Sigma Chi representatives at football half-time ceremonies.

Indiana Zeta Monopolizes Grades

For the tenth time in ten years, Butler University Phi Psis and Sigma Chis took the field during half-time of the first home football game. No, it wasn't the beginning of a competition; it was the culmination; and as always the empty-handed Phi Psis who took the field, marched off with the Sigma Chi Foundation Scholastic Achievement Award.

Ever since Indiana Zeta Colony was formed in 1969 to the present chapter, the members have always maintained the highest men's academic record on campus. The Phi Psis are proud of their record, and it is nothing to overlook! Since colonization and the subsequent chartering in 1971, the members have held the highest record, every semester, with no exceptions.

This year marks the tenth anniversary of Indiana Zeta, and the celebration will be big! The alumni of this young chapter are proud of the undergrads for maintaining the high standards set in the very beginning. Last semester, the Phi Psi's of Butler broke the all-time high men's academic Grade-point Average with a 3.25. In fact, for the last several semesters, they have been number one on campus; not just among the men!

Indiana Zeta is not just a study chapter either. They have a reputation for socializing which makes them the rivals of all other fraternities. In all-campus events, nothing compares to the "Phi Psi 500," an all-campus mini-bike race.

There is no doubt that "PHI PSI" commands a great deal of respect at Butler University, as well it should. The chapter is constantly setting goals for itself, and meeting them. They are now involved in a drive for permanent housing, and with support of the alumni and the fraternity will achieve it. The next ten years promise even more exciting news for the men of Indiana Zeta, and at the least, you haven't heard the last of them.

Indiana University of Pennsylvania End of an Era

On May 20, the end of an era will come for Penn Nu when 13 Brothers return to the ranks of alumni. They are: Terry Appolonia, Scott Derrington, Mike Higgins, Chester Jack, Kenneth Jones, Charles Kalish, Mark Krysevig, Paul Kunowski, Bill McCrory, David Rothrock, Randall Tony, Brian Walsh, and Rick Zielinski. These men contributed generously to the chapter's growth and will be greatly missed.

A contingency of young blood will remain, though, as 43 Brothers return in the fall. They will be led by: David Hiller, GP; John Orr, VGP; Brian Coologhan, P; Timothy Michael, AG; Mike Hertrich, BG; Wally Patterson, SG; Bernd Susemihl; Hod and Asst. P; Mark Westcoat, Phu; and Dan Deacon, Hi.

Proudly wearing his Phi Psi cap, Penn Nu's Daniel (Deke) Deacon, receives championship first place honors in the NCAA National swimming competitions in the 200-yard backstroke. He also captured third place in the 100-yard backstroke, giving him All American status for the third year in a row.

In intramurals, Penn Mu is fighting for top finish among fraternities overall. After finishing first in badminton and coed bowling, and third in volleyball and swimming, the race is close and will go down to the last week.

Penn Nu is proud of Daniel Deacon. "Deke" captured first place in the 200-yard backstroke at Nationals and a third in the 100-yard backstroke giving him All American status for the third year in a row.

The Phi Psi 500 will be held on May 13. Under Dennis Kistler's leadership and with the help of the Phi Mu sorority, Penn Nu will try to top last year's mark of $1100.00 raised for charity.

Five were initiated on April 27: Donald Miller, Maurice Small, Joseph Soltis, Mark Trageser, and Matthew Yanushefski.

And finally, we were pleased to have had former Chapter Consultant Harry Light visit our chapter to witness and share in the tight bond of brotherhood here. We hope that other Brothers will feel free to come by and enjoy the same.

University of Iowa Nile Kinnick Fund Raiser

The spring of 1979 had an excellent start at Iowa Alpha with initiation of our 19 pledges on January 25; Kurt Knutson, Carl Sherry, Jeff Nieman, Dave Hanson, Scott Donner, Greg Erwood, Carl Davis, Scott O'Niell, Larry Long, Scott Waychoff, Ross Dickenson, Mike Doan, Chris Porter, Gary Renneke, John Davis, Greg Harscher, Tom Thomas, Scott Rugtiv, and Scott Severaid.

New officers were elected at the beginning of the semester. They include: Jeff Cilek, GP; Jim Bartlett, VGP; Mike Richards, P; Phil Armstrong, AG; and Jeff Nieman, BG. These new officers should provide excellent leadership for the chapter in the coming year.

Some of the year's major social events are scheduled for the spring, including our annual formal at the Roosevelt Royale Hotel in Cedar Rapids. Also on the social calendar is the Spring Fling at Iowa Beta alumnus Bill Bywater's summer cabin on the Iowa River.

The Second Annual Phi Psi Open golf tournament will be held at Finkbine Field Golf Course in mid-April. We are hoping for another big success this year with participants from all of the Iowa fraternities and sororities. All proceeds from the event will go to the Nile Kinnick fund in honor of Iowa's only Heisman Trophy winner and one of Iowa Alpha's most outstanding Brothers.

The Phi Psis handily won the First Annual Delta Gamma Anchor Splash, a swimming meet with all of the Greek houses on campus participating. Phi Psi Eric Randolph was crowned "Mr. Anchor Splash" for the weekends festivities.

Our spring and summer rush programs are in full swing under the guidance of Rush Chairmen Brent Erwood and Jim Miller. They have a high school rush party scheduled for the first week in April which should attract many fine high school seniors from the area. Any alumni who have recommendations to send please do so immediately in care of one of the rush chairmen.

The Men of Iowa Alpha wish everyone a good spring and summer.

Phil Armstrong, Correspondent

Iowa State University Promising New Plans

As spring is upon us, Iowa Beta begins the quarter with six new pledges: Steve Myers, Cherokee; Steve Jamenson, Ankeny; Scott Deets, Cedar Rapids; Scott Pfeiffer and Jeff Nickolson, Clear Lake; and John Quan, Wheaton, Ill. These men are already showing a great interest in the chapter.

A new group of ambitious officers has been elected: Mike Studor, GP; George Allbee, VGP; Gaylon Teslaa, AG; Doug Debolt BG; Charles Hager, SG; Ted Bauer, Hod; Mike Borst, Phu; and Jim Lennie, Hi.

Iowa State's Veisha celebration provided the chapter with another exciting challenge as we began to build our float. With the help of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, we finished third out of nine in the small float division. The excitement, challenge and friends, make Veisha a time of year to which everyone looks forward.

Newly elected corporation board and chapter officers have already met with promising new plans. The next newsletter will be the result of a collaborative effort between the chapter and corporation board. Ideas for remodeling the kitchen and other areas of the house have also made for a continued bright future for Iowa Beta.

University of Kansas Graduation Farewell

Summer is upon us and this spring semester has once again proven to be successful for the men of Kansas Alpha. The Alphahawks recently held our annual version of the Phi Psi 500. Thirteen sororities participated in a tricycle riding, egg smashing, pit swimming, apple bobbing, and whatever else relay, while the fraternities joined in in a pie eating contest. The day was most fun for all.

In the way of sports, the Alphahawk's "A" team reached the finals this year in intramural men's basketball and Mark Steiner continued to be a power hitter for the Kansas Men's Golf Team. Currently, along with present player Dee Munger, we have two freshmen attempting to join the Jayhawk football team. They are Bob Bennett and Kyle Eldred.

We are also excited about next year's version of Rock Chalk Revue. Our partners for this year are the ladies from next door, the Pi Beta Phis.

Spring is also the time of graduation and for some the time for acceptance into graduate school. Steve Salanski will be entering medical school next fall and Jeff Roper will enter law school. Ralph Munyan has been accepted to the agriculture business program for next fall also. Finally, Jay Donohue was elected to the presidency of the junior class at Kansas University for the 1979-'80 school year.

We close this letter by thanking our many alumni for the beautiful front hall table in memory of R. J. Atkinson '41.

Mankato State University Chapter Celebrates 10th Anniversary

On May 10, 1979, Minnesota Gamma celebrated the 10th year as a Mark Gruss, Mankato '69, Director of Chapter Finance, holding trophy, was recipient of his Chapter's award as the Most Outstanding Alumnus of the year at a May banquet marking Minnesota Gamma's tenth anniversary.

chapter of Phi Kappa Psi. Since its installation, Minnesota Gamma has experienced many problems that could only be resolved by banding together as Brothers. Minnesota Gamma continues to promote strong fraternal brotherhood, on and off campus.

A brief history follows. In the fall of 1967, the Interfraternity Council made plans for the formation of another social fraternity on campus. On December 7, 1967, 33 men gathered and officially started a local fraternity known as Phi Kappa. During April of 1968, a formal petition for colonization was sent to Phi Kappa Psi. On May 30, 1968, Phi Kappa was formally installed as Minnesota Gamma Colony by Philip H. Davidson III, then assistant to the Executive Secretary, with members of Minnesota Beta assisting him. Throughout the summer the members of Minnesota Gamma Colony spent their weekends in Mankato working on their newly acquired house. In August, seven members of the colony attended the ELC and GAC and came back fall quarter filled with ideas and Phi Psi spirit. That fall, Minnesota Gamma accepted 12 pledges. With winter quarter Minnesota Gamma gained 14 pledges. The pledge scholarship trophy for fall quarter was won by the colony. Peter McEwen, Mankato '69, was elected president of the IFC.

Good news came during January, that Minnesota Gamma Colony had been granted a chapter charter and would be installed in May of 1969. The high standards of leadership and scholarship maintained by the Brothers, Minnesota Gamma continued, and it became the 76th Phi Psi chapter on May 10, 1969.

Phi Kappa had started with 33 members and on May 10, when Minnesota Gamma Colony became Minnesota Gamma Chapter, 42 men composed the chapter, including only eight of the original 33. Minnesota Gamma had come a long way in a year and a half, but it still had a long way to go. During the winter of 1970, a devastating fire claimed the house at 209 Lincoln Street, most of the furnishings were a total loss. After the fire Minnesota Gamma was without a house, morale was at a low point.

In the spring, remodeling started, the brothers had survived a tragic time, but also they had discovered just how great a bond brotherhood really is.

Minnesota Gamma managed to maintain a strong and viable membership until the early 1970's when the era of student unrest caused a disastrous drop in the Greek membership rolls. Early in 1973, the future looked very uncertain. The Chapter then purchased a new house, which is our present location at 227 Lincoln Street. It was a bold move to make for a small group, but added more permanence to the chapter.

During the spring of 1975, Mankato State College attained University status; the campus was renamed Mankato State University. With the University status also came plans for consolidation of the upper and lower campuses. All the buildings on the lower campus have been sold, and the new buildings on upper campus will be occupied in the fall of 1979. In keeping with the tradition of leadership, the Brothers of Minnesota Gamma are planning a five year renovation of the house, so that it will be at top market value when we move to the hill. The refurbishing of the house has kindled new enthusiasm. We are also planning a 40 plus membership before we move to the upper campus.

On hand for the celebration were many of our charter members. In his speech, our first president, Dr. James LeBeau, stated that, "We did something that very few people get a chance to do, we started a fraternity." In the brief ten years of our chapter, look how far we've come. Look how far we can go.

Miami University A New Home

The closing of another school year left all of us at Ohio Lambda excited about the purchase of the Hinkle Estate for our new home. Located on lot No. 1 in Oxford, this beautiful house is rich in history. It was a former University president's home and a local fraternity house before it became the home of the Hinkle family, the father of which was "Hink" of the "Hink and Dink" minstrel team from the WLW, Cincinnati, radio show. The Brothers have been busy with fund raising projects and details concerning the purchase and we are extremely appreciative of the support we received from Phi Psi headquarters, alumni, and parents.

April 21, was an important day for us as we had the honor of initiating 28 outstanding men. They are: Dirk Armstrong, Toledo; Thomas Bath and Douglas Stewart, Washington Court House; Robert Bennett, Poland; Mark Cieciora, Indianapolis, Ind.; Roger Clark, Papillion, Neb.; Robert Douglass, Potomac, Md.; Scott Edson, Arlington, Texas; Mark Foster, Philip Holdrieth, Mark Ricketts, Peter Snouffer, and John Watkins, Columbus; S. Bradley Gair, Mentor; Scott Gipson and William Voegele, Allison Park, Pa.; Barry Goldstein, Akron; James Greiner, Willoughby Hills; Kevin Hake, Belleville, Ill.; Stephen Kassebaum, Dix Hills, N.Y.; Alan Kmiecik and Benjamin Sutton, Aurora; Andrew Kratt, Sidney; David Lewis and William Putnam, Cincinnati; R. Bee Miller, Lancaster; Richard Slovenec, Euclid; and John Toth, Worthington.

This pledge class finished first in the 1st Annual Alpha Phi Iccle Antics competition for fraternity pledge classes. After three months of a positive pledge program, these men reassured our belief that they will be a big benefit to Phi Psi and proud bearers of the badge.

Our tradition of fine pledge classes is being continued by our five outstanding spring pledges: Mark Ellis, Milwaukee; Bret Koplow, Novelty; Christopher Schorr, Lancaster; Jeffrey Stone and George Timmons, Columbus.

After two years of devoted leadership, Steven Conlin handed down the presidential gavel to Donald Durbin after our February elections. In the last three months Don has done an excellent job of leading our chapter and in helping us maintain our reputation as one of Miami's finest fraternities. Other newly elected officers are; William Lawrence, VGP; Jay Tredwell, P; Allan Schinagle, BG; Gregory Clements, AG; Jeffrey Nudelman, SG; Michael Murray, Hod; Timothy Patton, Phu; and William Weiant, Hi.

Our Phi Psi swimming team finished with an impressive second place in the Delta Gamma Anchor Splash competition. Chuck Schubert was 3rd runner-up in the beauty pageant preceding the competition.

A number of Brothers have received honors. Dave Barklow was elected vice president of the student body in charge of campus activities council; Craig Cieciora, Larry Wallin, and Jim Hermler were inducted into Phi Beta Kappa; Stu Abernathy was elected vice president of American Marketing Association; Paul Turgeon became a member of Mortor Board; and Derek Lenington and Steve Frederick were elected secretary and judicial board members, respectively of Interfraternity council.

Our thoughts are with a number of Brothers as they begin their medical schooling this fall: Craig Cieciora, Indiana; Charles Schubert, Cincinnati;

Lawrence Wallin, Rugh; James Her-miller, Ohio State; and Jeffrey Sloan,
Ohio State, dentistry.

Finally, we wish all of our Ohio Lambda seniors the best of luck as they enter a new and exciting part of their lives.

Michigan State University Marks 25th Anniversary

The Brothers at Michigan Beta, as well as the entire student population, continue to enjoy the prestige that our
Spartan basketball team has given us.
By bringing home the NCAA championship, the team gave the town of East Lansing a reason to take to the streets. And that it did as parties erupted on almost every corner.

Our victory in Utah kicked off what we hope will be one of our most productive terms. We hope to activate six promising pledges: Mike Plum; Steve Ezop; Gary Peare; Bill Howard; Steve Middel; and Nick Tallarico. These men have already become involved in many of our activities and are awaiting initiation.

This coming fall, our chapter celebrates its 25th anniversary. The festivities will begin Homecoming day and continue throughout the year. On behalf of the chapter, I invite all of those interested to the Homecoming party. To obtain details, simply contact this chapter.

As usual, the Michigan winter has taken its toll on our house. However, with the help of our corporation board,
we will be making major repairs
throughout the spring and summer.
The Brothers have already undertaken the resodded the front yard in an effort to get the house in shape for our 25th.

Scholastically, the Brothers have continued to maintain their high rankings. This past winter, Greg Merchun was accepted to the University of Michigan's Medical School; and Gordon Van Wieren was chosen as one of the top 25 seniors at Michigan State. The entire chapter feels a great sense of pride in their accomplishments.

On June 9, several of the Brothers will be graduating. While the remaining members will miss these men, those of us who will be leaving have the satisfaction of knowing that we have done our best to instill a sense of pride and dedication among the younger Brothers. At times, it wasn't easy, but we never lost that sense of brotherhood and loyalty that the Fraternity represents. To all of those Brothers who are remaining in school, the graduates of Michigan Beta wish you the best of luck and nothing but success.

To our fellow graduates throughout the country, we hope that you will continue to represent the ideals of our Fraternity and achieve whatever goals you have chosen.

University of Minnesota Active Year

Minnesota Beta is proud to announce the initiation of 12 on January
20: John Barber, John Page, Randall
Quale, St. Paul; Kevin Smith, Blake
Omlie, Jon Wiens, Peter Bennett, Wayzata; Brian Hansen, Timothy Tap-per, Minnetonka; Glen Sandager, Stillwater; Andrew Ward, Minneapolis; and Juan Noceda, Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

Once again, we were blessed with typical Minnesota weather, namely 58 consecutive days below freezing.
Despite the cold, we had an active winter. Besides our winter party, which was held at Scotties in Minneapolis, we had a number of excellent exchanges.
Perhaps the warmest event of our frigid quarter was our 4th annual Round-up party, which has become well known throughout the Twin Cities.

We have also had a successful year in intramural sports. Presently, we are in third place out of the 26 fraternities on campus. Our football team, led by quarterback Jeff East, finished tied for third. The basketball team also placed third, paced by Nate Morris, who averaged over 15 points a game. Our softball team, led by Randy Quale and Pete Bennett, unfortunately lost by one run in the championship game. With our strong finish in wrestling and bowling, there is still a chance to capture the overall fraternity sports championship.

Beta's Founders Day was held at the Minneapolis Athletic Club, March 2, and a post party was held at the chapter house. Alumni and undergraduates joined to form a makeshift band, and their music kept the party at a high pitch throughout the night. It was a successful Founders Day, and topping it off, Rick Hosking, Art Heiam, and K.
C. Poehler, were voted Minnesota
Beta's alumni of the year.

Elections were held in late January, and the officers elected were: John Kannenberg, GP; Charles Swanson,
VGP; Randy Quale, AG; Pete Bennett,
BG; Glen Sandager, P; Rick Sorenson,
SG; John Barber, Hod; Dean
Thompson, Phu; and Nathan Morris,
Hi.

The highlight of our year was Campus Carnival, April 19-21. The Greeks from the U of M raised $27,000 for the American Lung Association. We were paired with Delta Gamma for Carni, and we placed fifth overall. Although we didn't finish in the top three as we had in recent years, we still had a terrific time, and raised a lot of money for a great cause.

Although there is less than a month left before summer break, we are busier than ever. May 26, we will initiate eight into the brotherhood. They are: Thomas Brown, Thomas Hansen, Jeff Ridley, Tad Serbin, Edina; Richard
Koek, St. Paul; Cass Michaletz, Mankato; Michael Blood, Eden Prairie; and Dennis Dassow, Sheboygan, Wis.
Also, our spring party, is scheduled for May 26. It has been an active year for Minnesota Beta.

University of Nebraska Anticipation

Officer elections were held April 23 for the coming fall semester: Chuck Wagner, GP; Tim Meyers, VGP; Dan Guenther, P; Edward McClymont, AG; Michael Rasmussen, BG; Matthew Ford, SG; Jeffrey Kriha, Phu; Mitchell Hansen, Hi; Scott Milliken and John Sinovich, pledge educators; Clark Rasmussen, alumni relations; Mark Roxburgh, social; Rob Sherwood, philanthropy; and Bill Lovgren, house and grounds.

We are in the process of summer rushing under the guidance of Rush Chairman Bill Goa and his committee of nine. Excellent organization within the committee has fueled the chapter and we have high expectations.

The chapter has acquired new houseparents in Mark and Linda Williams. Mark is a graduate law student and Linda is currently teaching school. The committee to find new houseparents, chaired by Dave Mitchell, did a fine job, and we are pleased of their selection.

Scott Brittenham is finishing a year as student senator, and Tonn Ostergard has spent the last semester on the publications board, and will serve on the student advisory board next fall. Chuck Wagner served a semester as chairman of the committee on facilities and services. Jim Dennell has lived in London, England, the past five months on a work-study program in the school of architecture. Bill Lovgren, the 1979 pledge of the year, was recently initiated into Gamma Lambda and Mu Phi Alpha Symphonia, professional music societies.

Athletically, David Pape and Wayne Reinwald boxed in the Sigma Chi Greek fight night held April 13. The event raised $2,000 for charity. Ken Drwal recently qualified for the NCAA track meet in the javelin, with a throw of 240 feet, fourth best ever at Nebraska. The team of Mike Lanning and Tonn Ostergard advanced all the way to the semifinals of the intramural tennis doubles championships before bowling out.

As we prepare for the coming school year, there is anticipation of an excellent year to come.

Oklahoma State University Big Plans For Summer Rush

Oklahoma Beta has plans for a big summer rush program. Concentrating on Tulsa, Oklahoma City, and surrounding areas, two summer rush chairmen were elected: Jim Wiederholt, Tulsa, and Donald Theiry, Oklahoma City.

Last year's Phi Psi 500 was a great success and plans are now being made for next year, which is scheduled for October 21. It will include spirit contests and fund raising activities.

The Annual Founders Day formal held in Oklahoma City was a great success. We thank our Brothers from Oklahoma Alpha for inviting us to the party.

The year was filled with many activities including intramural sports, in which the chapter ranked high; a service project of painting the benches at Theta Pond.

Newly elected officers for the fall semester are: Mark A. Jones, GP; Joseph K. Nogle, VGP; Jeffrey W. Kendall, BG; Jeffrey C. Stewart, P; David A. Chavez, AG; Bill Snider, Phu; Kent Appleman, SG; David W. Potts, Hi; John S. Steen, Hod; Alan F. Staples, IFC Representative.

Pennsylvania State University $21,000 Raised for Retarded

As another school year comes to a close, we congratulate the graduating seniors and wish them the best of luck in the future. We also congratulate the seven newly initiated Brothers: Mark Melio, Levittown; Doug Laderer, Upper St. Clair; Paul Martin, Castle Shannon; Mike Hall and Rob Schmidt, State College; Brad Scovill, Wyomissing; John DeSanti, New Castle.

Fall term will see the start of Phi Psi careers for three new pledges: John Macramara, Springfield; Rob Dougherty, Wilkes Barre; and Tom McGonigle, Allentown. They will be led by pledge trainer Skip Steeb.

Spring term, as always, was the most successful term of the year for Penn Lambda. It started with the selection of Joe Shulman and Bob Moore to the Penn State cheerleading squad. The "Below Average White Brothers" Phi Psi band, under the direction of Jim Ballard, took first place in the Alpha Chi Omega Greek Sing and played for the IFC dance marathon. April brought good weather and the 11th annual Phi Psi 500. This year's race, organized by chairman Matt Rhodes, drew over 1,900 runners for the 1.1 mile course. Twenty-one thousand dollars was raised for the Pennsylvania Association for Retarded Citizens, of which $14,000 was donated after expenses. The 500 was the most popular event on campus this year, and the most successful as well. We were also glad to see many alumni return and enjoy the weekend.

The following weekend we competed in the annual Spring Week competition, paired with Alpha Chi Omega sorority. We placed third in the overall competition and had a great time working with the Alpha Chis.

Spring term concluded with an outstanding honor. We received the Omega Epsilon award for the outstanding fraternity chapter at Penn State. The award is based on scholarship, leadership, and activities.

We are getting our alumni fund drive under way this coming fall. All alumni of Penn Lambda will be contacted. We are also looking forward to hosting the District II Educational Leadership Conference here in the fall.

Penn Lambda hopes to continue the recent trend of growth and success.

Purdue University Boilermaking

The past semester at Indiana Delta was one of our finest ever as we stayed busy both on and off campus trying to improve on our CAF reputation.

It started in January with 11 new pledges. They are: Rex Flenar, Laketon, Ohio; Joe Schwieterman, Mara Stein, Ohio; Nick Glowicki, Munster; Brent Hendrickson, Greenfield; Mike Pelligra, Marcellus, N.Y.; Bill Schilling, Ft. Wayne; Tim Leonard, Cincinnati, Ohio; Brad Mochel, Wakarusa; Don Scheurich, Monticello; Jim Fox, Lafayette; and Dwight Schelato, Catskill, N.Y.

The football team ended the 1978 year with a fine Peach Bowl victory and the basketball team was Big 10 co-champ. We at Indiana Delta were caught up in this enthusiasm and strove harder to establish our own winning atmosphere. Out of 42 fraternities on campus, we finished ninth in scholastics and third in Division Two Intramurals. Probably the most exciting day of the semester was the Grand Prix go-cart race as we led the race all day in front of 17,000 spectators only to get passed on the highly controversial last lap. It was our best finish ever in the Grand Prix race.

We also accomplished one of the most successful philanthropic projects ever undertaken by a fraternity at Purdue. To promote school spirit for the Purdue-Indiana basketball game on March 1, 35 Brothers dribbled a basketball the 120-mile distance between Bloomington and West Lafayette. Money was pledged by persons all over the state for this event after an extensive advertising campaign. We raised $2,500 and the check was presented at halftime of the ballgame. The presentation was carried by a statewide television network.

We are in the process of building the Dusty Rhodes Memorial Library in our old chapter room. We plan on having it done by Homecoming this fall with a special presentation for the returning alumni.

University of Rhode Island Accomplishments

The '79 spring semester proved to be a successful one: On February 13, we held our annual Phi Psi Bounce-a-Thon, this year called the Phi Psi "Bounce for Life." The Bounce-a-Thon is a fund raiser for the American Cancer Society. Those in the chapter who participate, bounce basketballs from the Student Union on campus to the Providence Civic Center, stopping at stores along the way to collect contributions. The committee consisted of Jeff Ingram and chairman Paul McBride II, and raised $1,160.00, and included donations from Mayor Cianci of Providence and other city and state officials.

This semester was an extremely successful rush led by Johnny Douglas and Bob Campbell, their second semester as rush chairmen, and a total of 26 were pledged, 24 fall pledges and 2 spring pledges. Pledgemaster Dean Naylor led the following through pledgship: Frank Zannini, Larry Bernhart, Peter Boggs, Joseph Conley, Michael Douglas, Robert Douglas, Larry Fitzgerald, Harold Horvat, Peter Laprade, Daniel Mahoney, Scott Masterson, Richard Pelzer, Mike Pfliffer, Chris Topping, Erik Viens, Mark Wawer, Dean Wilson, Dave Griffin, Robert Bernard, Mike Slattery, Joseph Natale, Joe Hart, Robert Richardson, and Thomas Berndt. The two spring pledges were Mark Princeavalle and Rick Baldwin.

Initiation was held April 7, at the Rhode Island Beta house with 17 being inducted. Seven Brothers-elect will be initiated next semester.

This semester ended with an excellent spring weekend. The activities started Friday, April 27, with a dance at the Quidnessett Country Club in North Kingston. On Saturday, April 28, an afternoon deck party was held at the house, followed by a "Ground Round" night with music by "The Last Run." Dean Naylor organized the "Ground Round" night, including hiring the band, of which his brother was a member. The band was received with the kind of enthusiasm that showed the spirit of brotherhood at Rhode Island Beta. On Sunday, April 29, the annual Spring Weekend Picnic was held at Stedmans Field in Kingston. Hamburgers and hot dogs were served, baseball was played along with lacrosse and frisbee. Swimming was provided courtesy of Social Chairman Chip Slattery and President Jon Bailey, who randomly threw people into the lake. Everyone had a terrific time, and we congratulate Chip Slattery and Eugene Santurri, our two social chairmen, and Dean Naylor, for their work. It proved to be a memorable Spring Weekend.

The house improvements this semester consisted of the upholstering of our lounge furniture. This summer, the deck on the house is going to be stained, and the house exterior will be stained next year.

This semester, Steve Verkade acquired an assistanceship at Purdue and also received the Rhode Island Nurserymens Association award for scholastic excellence. He received the highest cumulative average in his major. We wish him and all the other seniors all success in their careers: Jonathan W. Bailey, Estes A. Benson, James J. Cunha, Carl G. DiSanto, William R. Englund, Jeremiah H. Cannon Jr., Roland P. Galavin, Richard H. Hubli, Angelo J. Mazzarella Jr., Robert Nelson, Peter V. Nichols, Thomas D. Oliver, John R. Partington Jr., John C. H. Prince, John K. Ryan, Louis A. Souza, Steven D. Verkade, Henry A. Zinno.

Rider College Sports Successes

The spring semester of 1979 saw the Brothers of New Jersey Alpha win four major intramural championships. With high motivation and hard team work, Phi Psi captured both A and B league crowns with leadership provided by seniors Mark Steinbeck, Rich Zimmerman, Randy Petrino, and Jay Antonelli. The volleyball team, led by talented Gary Ginter, went undefeated to lay claim to the campus championship, while the football team the previous semester prevailed in a thriller the final day of the season against arch rival Phi Sig. Our new trophies are proudly displayed in our trophy case. With excellent talent returning next semester, future successes are expected.

Our chapter is once again a dominant force on the Rider soccer team, with 6 of the 11 starters, including Captain Rich Zimmerman, Bobby Dunn, Jim Canning, Pete Kepis, Bill Payne, and Mike Algor. Other active players include Joel Baker, Pete Chizek, and John LeGoff.

Keeping with the soccer tradition, the Brothers attended an NASL soccer game on May 5, between the New York Cosmos and the Philadelphia Fury. A tremendous tailgate party preceded the game with plenty of food and kegs on hand.

This past semester, Mike Morton served as president of the Student Government Association, and Ed Pieslak served as senator for SGA. Bob Shots served on the Community Affairs Committee of Inter-fraternity Council.

Ed Pieslak organized a Run for Fun 7.2 mile marathon, which resulted in a generous contribution being forwarded to Deborah Heart Hospital, Brown Mills, N.J.

University of Southern California Songfest Winners

California proudly announces the members of its spring pledge class: Dominic Giosue Accetta, San Pedro; Kurt Evan English, Encino; Maynard Layne Neff, Fullerton; Daniel Kevin Pryor, Indio; Bruce Leonard Dowell, La Canada; and Stephen Daniel Hori, Pasadena.

On Feb. 9, 1979, fourteen fine young men were initiated: Cameron Childs, Chris Yeckich, Nick Bozic, Jeff Hildreth, Warren Chow, John Gormley, Bill Kramb, Todd Brown, Gregg Staar, Dan Duckworth, Eric Smith, Steve Jonas, Paul Faessel, and Gary Phillips.

Officers for the fall 1979 semester are: Mark Foster, GP; Chuck Black, VGP; Alfred Thurlow, AG; Bruce Beech, BG; Brent B. Enright, P; Steve Jonas, SG; Paul Faessel, Hod; Dan Duckworth, Phu; and Richard Bianchini, Hi. Jon-Larry Sweedlund is the social chairman.

"Songfest" is a musical production held annually at the Greek Theatre in Los Angeles in which various living groups at USC compose, produce, and perform a six minute comical-musical sketch. This year, Phi Kappa Psi was awarded first prize in the small group division with our number, "The Buffoon Platoon." Based on an idea by Tom Burrows '48, and under the direction of Dave Haddad, "The Buffoon Platoon" shows the problems the sergeant encounters while trying to rehearse the general's favorite song for his upcoming birthday. Unfortunately, all the sergeant has to work with is a group of misfits. After teasing the sergeant by singing various inappropriate songs, and under the threat of permanent latrine duty, the group breaks into a show-stopping rendition of "The Wiffenpoof Song" bringing the sergeant to tears of joy. Performing in the show were Mark Foster, Jeff Phillips, Bill Kramb, Gary Phillips, Steve Jonas, Eric Prouty, Dave Haddad, Eric Smith, John De Marco, and Mark B. Phillips, pianist. Also performing were Rene Jacobs, Keeley Stephan, and Donna Casella, who are Alpha Phis here.

All the Brothers participated in USC's "Walk-Jog-a-thon" earlier this year in order to raise funds to build a new track and field stadium. To date, over $10,000 in pledges have been collected and construction is to be completed next fall.

Rush chairmen for the next fall are John De Marco, Cameron Childs, and Tom Bowden. For the last three years the chapter has been steadily growing and we hope to increase our membership next fall by a greater number than ever before. Recommendations are appreciated as early as possible since rush is a summer-long activity. They may be sent to John De Marco, 642 West 28th Street, Los Angeles, Calif. 90007.

Stanford University On The Farm

The Brothers of California Beta have had an active winter and spring quarter. A ski trip in early January to Lake Tahoe proved to a fun time for all, and our Founders Day celebration in February also was successful.

March saw the pledging of Douglas Gardner, Rockford, Ill, and the initiation of our fall pledges, Jim Curry; Red Bluff, and Bill Shirley, Torrance.

When we returned from our spring vacation after winter quarter, we began formal rush. As a result of our efforts, we pledged seven fine, outstanding men. They are: Tom Girlich, Daly City; Scott Fraser, San Jose; Elliot Porter, Cincinnati, Ohio; Jim Rice, Riverside; Larry Waggener, Green River Way, Wyo.; and Jeff Wright, San Leandro. One of these men will be Cal Betas 1,000th initiate and plans for a gala celebration are underway for that event. Cal Beta's undergraduate membership now totals 24.

To honor our new pledges, we had a banquet in Sausalito that was followed by dancing in San Francisco. At that banquet, we welcomed our new chapter advisor, Gerry Norman, Case Western Reserve '70. Cal Beta is proud to have Gerry as our new advisor (who is a local CBS weatherman.) Two weeks later, the 2nd Annual Cal Beta-Cal Gamma Luau was held at the Cal Gamma chapter house in Berkeley.

We salute and bid farewell to our former chapter advisor, Jerry Wood, Stanford '29, and thank him for all his time, effort, and pecuniary sustenance, and also farewell to Dud Daniel as he leaves his position as Executive Director.

With commencement '79 approaching, Carlos Hernandez '78, and Mark Reinecke '78, our two colonizers, will be leaving us. Cal Beta thanks them for re-establishing our chapter and wishes them the best of luck in their future endeavors.

And lastly, we congratulate California Iota, University of California at Davis, on its installation as a chapter and welcome all its members to Phi Kappa Psi.

The Brothers of California Beta are looking forward to a much needed summer vacation. Have a good Summer!

Syracuse University On the Rebound

Since losing 15 members to graduation last May, New York Beta has made a strong effort to bolster its membership. Happily, this push for members has been a success. Ten neophytes were initiated at the end of the fall, 1978, term, and this spring's rush netted us nine great pledges.

New York Beta's resurgence can be seen in other ways, too. The chapter, under GP Rich Selikoff, built a name for itself during the fall by holding two huge parties that drew, respectively, 3,500 and 2,500 persons. In April, New York Beta had two more of its highly popular casino nights for charity, and had the help of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

University Chancellor Melvin Eggers was the keynote speaker at the chapter's Founders Cup dinner in February. D. Scott Liebert, who graduated in January, won the cup. Another recent graduate, Bob Thompson, was named the Solon E. Summerfield Award winner in December.

Local New York Beta alumni have begun to take a greater interest in chapter affairs, we are glad to report. Monthly alumni dinners are held at the house now, and alumni are helping the chapter treasurer to draw up a budget.

The ten new Brothers are: Scott Brickner, Buffalo; Pete Cushley, Brooklyn; Mark Kornilowicz, Albany; Nelson Tears, Walkill; Mark Alexander, South Gardiner, Maine; Dave Finkelstein, West Norwalk, Conn.; Jim Grace, Manchester, N.H.; Mike Nedder, West Boylston, Mass.; Dave Rupp, Warren Township, N.J.; and Brian Selling, Acton, Mass.

Finally, this spring's pledges are: Mike Korn, Paul Krupa, Stan Levy, Rich Levine, Nick Minale, Mike Mojo, Mike Roe, Rick Searight, and Pete Silverstein. Pledge Educator Steve Ardelli will no doubt make their pledge period a rewarding experience for them.

Clearly, things are looking up for New York Beta as winter again draws to a close at Syracuse.

University of Tennessee Wild and Crazy

We look forward to next year with confidence as most everything at Tennessee Epsilon is looking up.

After a wild and crazy fall quarter we initiated five fine men: Robert Weidermeir, Urbana, Ohio; Felix Raymond Dowsley, Humbolt; Robert Bartley Turner, Ashville, N.C.; Anthony Burzese, Chattanooga; and Robert Thomas McNeal, Fairfax, Va.

We have been stressing academics, our grade point average rose to more than a respectable level this quarter.

Elections were held in late April with the following results: Ronald Guy Portewig, GP; Robert Wiedemeier, VGP; Colin M. Cease, AG; Felix Raymond Dowsley, BG; Anthony Burzese, P; Andrew McElory, social chairman, Bing Seid, rush chairman; and Robert McNeal, sports director.

Our Founders Day party was a success for the second year in a row, as some of our more dedicated alumni arrived from far and wide and danced the night away. We thank them for coming and invite them to visit anytime this summer as the house will be open and full. We also thank our most dedicated alumnus, Joe Swann, for his continuous support of the chapter.

Our social activities this quarter included a most successful pajama party organized by John C. Walker. And, of course, our famous Spring Orge, the eighth such event.

We are looking forward to a happy and eventful summer and a most successful fall rush. Our IFC has been working hard on improving the past rush program and have done much to improve Greek relations here.

Once again, we invite all alumni and traveling Phi Psis to drop by the house.

Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University Growing

Last year, Virginia Zeta ended on a good note with the initiation of three outstanding Brothers: Dave Crumpler, Doug Wagner, and Jerry Kane. We started the new year equally well, initiating three more gentlemen: Dave Wagner, André Pavlov, and Chip Batton.

Winter quarter was especially productive for us. Under the guiding hand of Bob Wendt, rush chairman, Virginia Zeta pledged and initiated our largest pledge class to date, the Kappa pledge class: Walter Brown, Kevin Ledzian, Don Piché, Bart Beck, Pete Cloutier, Jerry Crim, Barney Roger, Jim Ferguson, Dwight Bowen, Zinn Morton, and Harris Wright. Currently, Virginia Zeta has four fine pledges: Dennis Miller, Jim Schuh, Dave Schuh, and Tad Wicker. Initiation for these four spirited gentlemen is currently slated for late May.

Another high point for Virginia Zeta was welcoming Dan Oakley into our chapter. Brother Oakley is a transfer from Penn Beta Chapter.

Spring quarter elections brought in new leadership: Tom Jayne, GP; Don Piché, VGP; Dave Wagner, P; Keith Gay, AG; Jerry Kane, BG; Pete Cloutier, SG; Doug Wagner, Hi; André Pavlov, Hod; and Chip Batton, rush chairman.

Virginia Zeta's big service project this year was our First Annual Dribble-A-Thon. With the assistance of ZTA sorority, "The Bounce That Counts" was a success. Together, we dribbled a basketball from Cassell Coliseum in Blacksburg to the Roanoke Civic Center for the Virginia vs. Virginia Tech basketball game. Pledges per mile and donations were taken, with all funds going toward The United Way, The National Association for Retarded Citizens, and the Christiansburg Community Center. Virginia Zeta intends to make this project bigger and better every year.

A point of interest is that Virginia Zeta has two pairs of twins as undergraduates: Bob Wendt, Rick Wendt, Doug Wagner, and Dave Wagner.

Phi Kappa Psi at Virginia Zeta is GROWING!!

Valparaiso University Summer Work Weekends

The end of another year is here. It was highlighted by the initiation of 21 fine gentlemen into our brotherhood. Under the guidance of Pledge Educator Mark Masepohl the following were inducted: Douglas Bellings, Thomas Bolgert, Jerome Brandt, Ric Bucher, Kenneth Eklow, Daniel Frischbutter, Jerry Huener, Kevin Kurth, James Messerschmidt, Marc Miller, John Moore, Stephen Oien, Christopher Pitman, Gregory Plano, Ronald Rapp, Timothy Ressimeyer, John Schroeder, Joseph Stucker, Joseph Tesmond and Kurt Zechman.

New officers for the Fall of 1979 are: Steve Misch, GP; Mark Masepohl, VGP; Glenn Kraft, P; Ric Bucher, AG; and Chris Tower, BG.

The year in intramurals was not successful in the win column but provided an opportunity to work together as a chapter and have some fun. The chapter participated in football, basketball, softball, coed volleyball, and table tennis, among other sports. Chances for greater success next year appear good.

One of the service projects for this spring was undertaken by our previous pledges. They worked at an area nursing home, cleaning the grounds and doing maintenance work around the building. Our chapter also took part in a project involving all Greeks on campus. Two hundred dollars taken in during an all-Greek dance was donated to a family who had been burned out of their house earlier in the year.

Two work weekends are planned for this summer, one each in July and August. Slight house repairs and painting will be stressed at these meetings. Landscaping our yard will be a major effort next fall when everyone returns to school.

Vanderbilt University $1,500 Raised for Hospital

Tennessee Delta, under the able leadership of GP and District IV Archon French Hill, enjoyed a successful and enjoyable spring term. Nineteen new initiates were welcomed into the chapter in mid-March, upping the chapter roster to 95 members. Our social schedule was filled with exciting activities, including our spring formal held in Memphis aboard the famous Memphis Showboat. The Original Drifters provided the musical entertainment. The service committee lead by co-chairmen Jim Camp and Dave Meaden, grossed approximately $1,500 for the Vanderbilt Childrens' Hospital in the second annual Phi Psi Celebrity Auction.

Our intramural program improved significantly over previous years as we finished with 930 points, good enough for a fourth place finish in the sweepstakes. The Tennessee Delta basketball team compiled an 8-2 record and earned a playoff spot. Jim Camp's hardwood crew was led by 5'11" guard Jeff Horner and 6'3" forward Dave Meaden, both of whom made first team All-I.M. The softball crew, under the tutelage of shortstop Jeff Horner, compiled a 9-2 slate and placed third out of 20 teams in the IM double-elimination tournament.

Catcher Jim Stone and firstbaseman Walt Kunau earned All-IM honors. The wrestling squad, with sophomore Edd Karam at the helm, placed second in the annual wrestling tourney. Jeff Smith won the 187-pound class for the third straight year, while Ted Mankin and Jim Stone placed second in the 197-pound and heavyweight classes, respectively.

In addition to fraternity activities, many Phi Psis participate actively in campus organizations. GP-elect Dave Meaden is president of the Economics/Business Administration Association. Byrd Bonner sings in Vanderbilt's Broadway-type musical group, The Original Cast. John Dille is on the executive board of Impact, the student symposium. Jeff Horner participates in Impact, is an Honor Council advisor, and is president-elect of the University intramural board. John Martin spent the year in France on the Vanderbilt-in-France program. Charlie Marsh acted in the Vanderbilt University Theatre production As You Like It. John McGowan is treasurer of the Ec/BA Association. Neal Neuenschwander and Rob Pollock both are active in Impact. Rick Tubb, the outgoing IFC president, was chairman of the press committee for Impact. Gordon Wright was initiated into the Phi Beta Kappa academic honorary and is headed for Stanford Law School.

Prospects for next year look even better under the leadership of GP-elect Dave Meaden. Other new officers include VGP Edd Karam, P Steve Harris, AG Jeff Horner, BG Joe Estes, Phu Byron Kennedy, Hod Jim Decker, Hi Byrd Bonner, Fraternity Educator Charlie Marsh, and House Manager Will Hurst.

The social calendar is full, with four band parties slated. Fall rush, under the guidance of Peter Hicks and Jeff Kinney, looks good, and for the first time Tennessee Delta is staging a Phi Psi 500. Co-coordinators Joe Estes and Breck Jones invite all chapters to trek to Nashville on October 5, and partake in the festivities, which will include a street dance. We wish all chapters a good year.

Jeffrey J. Horner, Correspondent

Wabash College Honors and Recognition

The initiation of five highlighted a busy spring semester for the men of Indiana Gamma, as they continued to provide key leadership for the entire campus.

Jim Biebel, Jesse Rodriguez, Greg Peckham, Larry Adams, and Mike Yeakey were initiated, adding new depth and variety of interests to the membership.

Phi Psis were well represented at the annual campus awards banquet in April. GP Brian Dinges won the coveted Dean Stephens Award for outstanding leadership by a member of the junior class. In addition, Greg Heumann won the Underwood Award in chemistry, Sean Butler the top speakers bureau award, Brad Baber a prize in freshman writing, Steve Weiland a Delta Phi Alpha book prize, Bryan Williams a John Mills Fellowship; and several other awards were also taken by Phi Psis.

Jim Griffis and Bryan Williams both became members of Phi Beta Kappa. Bryan graduated Summa Cum Laude, Jim and Steve Weiland graduated Magna Cum Laude, and Eric Brandt, Sean Butler, and Dale Heim graduated Cum Laude.

Jim (Woody) Cooper deserved special recognition for winning the oldest continuous collegiate public speaking competition in the US. Jim took first place in the Baldwin Oratorical contest. Two other Brothers placed in the top five.

Phi Psis held key leadership posts in the student senate, Pre-Law Society, Liberal Society, Circle K, Glee Club, Parliamentary Union, campus radio station, and newspaper. Mark McGrady worked hard all semester as editor of the Wabash yearbook, aided by Phi Psi co-editors and others.

The Wabash baseball team owes much of its success to Brian Dinges, Kent Yoder, Scott Marschand, and Dave Paul. The track team got help from Doug Fraser, Dave Soper, Mike Yeakey, Jeff Downing, Rob Mikesell and Chuck White.

Seven rush parties are planned for the summer, and the chapter expects a full house, including another outstanding pledge class, when school resumes August 24.

University of Washington Charlie Fatch Speaks

Founders Day in Seattle truly showed the spirit of the Phi Kappa Psi brotherhood. Charlie Fatch, a Washington Alpha alumnus, was the featured guest speaker.

Founders Day was not the only item on the agenda for winter. A full social (and academic!) schedule was on hand. A highlight was a trip to a Seattle Sonics game, a reward for raising several hundred dollars for the Children's Orthopedic Hospital in Seattle.

Co-rush chairmen Gary Bosworth and Leland Wight have rush underway. Two new pledges will be at 2120 N.E. 47th for spring, Eric Kownacki, Seattle and Silven Maher, Mercer Island.

Spring events will include happenings ranging from an undergraduate-alumni picnic to the annual University Greek week. Spring looks to be busy, exciting, and rewarding for Washington Alpha.

Washington & Jefferson College Moving Forward

Once again, rush at Pennsylvania Alpha was successful. We began the spring term with 28 pledges: Mike Burcik, Paul Cessar, Curt Cook, Dan Crain, Ernest Deleon, Clay Hardon, Bill Krahe, Steve Markantone, Dominic Papalia, Mike Thomas, and Ted Zierden, Pittsburgh; Bill Dymond, Bob Geary, and Max Regula, Latrobe; Vince Glusica and Pete Soon, Uniontown; Joh Barry, Marietta, Ohio; Norm Casagrande, Export; Mark Dellabeta, Jennette; Pete Henry, Bradford; Mike Jentis, Livingston, N.J.; Tom Morrell, Washington; Mike Patrick, Connellsville; Scott Petric, Downingtown; Eugene Petrilla, Windbar; Paul Schofield, Center; Mark Weber, East Liverpool, Ohio; and Ed Welty, West Elizabeth. Daniel Glusica was chosen as Pledge Educator.

On February 22, 13 neophytes were initiated: Bernie Bursik, Pittsburgh; Robert Canny, Yarmouthport, Mass; Dan Doyle, Pittsburgh; Tim Grimm, Mt. Pleasant; Dave Herchko, Dunbar; Dave Jones, Belle Vernon; James Jones, Turtle Creek; John Kinkaid, Sistersville, W.Va; Paul Lomeo, McKeesport; Eric Lundgren, Dubois; Pete Matgouranis, Churchill; Craig Pelini, East Liverpool, Ohio; and Frand Yoho, Clarion.

Athletics have always played a major role here and there is not a sport untouched by a Phi Psi. Wrestler Jesse Caravaggio became an All American at the NCAA Division III championships in California for the weight class of 190 lbs. In track and field, Mike Barbour won the shot putt competition at the Presidents Athletic Conferences championships. He will now travel to Ohio for national competition. In intramural contests, the chapter ran away with victories in the wrestling and swimming competition.

Pennsylvania Alpha is also involved with the many duties of student government. Glenn Cummings is the newly elected president of student government. Larry Hunt, Jim Davis, and Peter Matgouranis were elected to the judicial board. Several other Brothers hold elected student offices. They are: Mike Clawges and Paul Lomeo, recruitment and admissions; Max Regula, athletic policy; Craig Pelini, student affairs; Kevin Gmitter, intellectual life & resources; and Dan Doyle, publications. One third of elected officers are Phi Psis.

In other elections on campus the Letterman's Club elected Dan Doyle, president, and Tim Grimm, treasurer. Mike George is chairman of the Outing Club.

The spring term was fruitful for Penn Alpha, once again the supreme leader of the Greek system at W & J.

Washington and Lee University

Once more the Brothers of Virginia Beta are on top of things—athletically, scholastically, and socially. The initiation of 18 new Brothers from a variety of states highlighted the cold but not so dreary grey months. The new Brothers were able to revel with the old at W&L's gala week—Fancy Dress, the collegiate social event of the year! Prior to juking to the mellow sounds of Lester Lanin & Co., all participated in the "House Crawl"—a unique cocktail experience.

Not all was college "hijinx" as Virginia Beta shot up three notches last semester in the fraternal GPA standings—a high that we all expect to maintain.

Never the ones to leave all their fight in the classroom, the Brothers proved equally competent on the athletic front. Art Caltrider and Marc Ottinger are both playing for the nationally ranked Lacrosse "Generals." In baseball, pitcher Chip Childs enjoyed a fine season, as did Rocky Hassinger, Mike Fogarty, Trip Brower, and Mark Torres. In track and field, captains-elect Rich Bird and Paul Hendry, Chip Nunley, Jeff Brown, Bill Chesborough, and Jim Parker give Phi Psi more than

Colony

University of Arkansas Movin' Along

Well, summer's here with another busy semester behind us, and five more fine men added to our colony.

The spring semester was a busy one. A luncheon for the alumni association gave us a chance to meet a lot of new faces. A car wash enabled us to raise enough money for a band for our spring formal, which turned out to be a big success. We participated in the Pike Fest which was given to raise money for a certain charity. We also participated in Greek Week this semester. We had a good showing by taking first in the Scholar Bowl and fourth place overall for the entire Greek Week.

Our new Brothers are: Timothy Wayne Scott, Benton; Paul Lee Colwell and William Harrison Blocker, Hot Springs; Timothy Lane Hogue, Piggott; and Micheal Stewart Huffman, Dallas, Texas.

Elections were held for next year's officers: President Kendall Faulk; Vice President Terry Emmons; Corresponding Secretary Ahmad Mohazab; Treasurer Scott James; Guide Bob Sherman; Sargent at Arms Greg Greeson; and Recording Secretary Keith Jones.

Summer rush parties have been planned to bring some fine rushies for next fall.

The fall semester looks really full of high hopes that our charter will be achieved.

Atlanta Alumni Association

Phi Psis in Atlanta began the year with the celebration of the annual Founders Day banquet. Highlight of the evening was the presentation of Golden Council Awards to William H. Martin, Penn State '29, and Marshall G. Lamison, Allegheny '26. In addition, Brother Lamison had the distinct honor of presenting a Silver Council Award to his son, Marshall (Pete) Lamison, Ohio Wesleyan '54. During the banquet, the following were elected officers for the coming year: Richard A. Daley, Vanderbilt '59, President; Robert Beal, West Virginia '49, Vice a representative showing. Willie Mackie is next year's fencing team captain, and Doug Dorsey is the next captain of the soccer team. Captain Andy Fitzgerald led the golf team to the nationals this year with the help of Steve (Dagwood) Everett and Bruce Sammis.

Intramurals are still strong as the chapter vies for the number one spot.

Virginia Beta found a new way to find social fulfillment by virtually running the first annual W&L Muscular Dystrophy Danceathon—a refreshing alternative to the “keg” party of neighboring houses. The spirit of all involved was best seen through the hard work and dedication of co-chairmen Jay Blumberg and Jay Hemby—both of Virginia Beta.

New officers are: GP Dave Meyers, VGP Duke Cancelmo, AG Paul Hendry, BG Craig Burns, P William H. Matthai Jr., Hod John Hendler, social chairmen Dork Dorsey and Bill Towler, Phu Mark (Fritz) Klaus, and SG Ev Everett.

Representing Phi Psi at various levels of student government are: executive committee representatives Jay Blumberg and Jim Wenke; Marc Ottinger of the University Council; Bill Towler, entertainment chairman of the student activity board; Doug Dorsey, Publicity Chairman; and Dave Meyers, S.A.B. member at large. All of the above take office next fall.

We hope that Virginia Betas everywhere will stop in next fall to check on the chapter and to have a little fun.

West Virginia University New Era

Under the leadership of the spring semester's officers: Mike Ludwig, GP; Jim Burkhardt, VGP; Brad Rogers, AG; Abraham Key III, BG; John Weaver, P; Mike Myers, Hi; Dean Schwartz, Hod; and Lee Pyles, Phu, the chapter has maintained its excellent standing on this campus. Through these officers, we have brought changes to our pledge program and emphasized alumni relations in our chapter affairs.

On Feb. 17, 1979, 24 were initiated: Steven Bair, Rowayton, Conn.; Ronald Barth, Paul Horner III, and Timothy Thompson, Clarksburg; William Barkley, Paul Cherico, and John Rupert, Clairion, Pa.; William Bivens III, Pensacola, Fla.; Paul Blankman and Michael Worley, Parkersburg; John Crist, Upper Sinclair, Pa.; Richard DeCarlo, Thomas Gocke III, and John Secreto, Morgantown; Michael Fiery, Hanover, Pa.; Steven Gissy and Vincent Nowell, Parkersburg; Matthew Herrick, New Martinsville; Zackery Mendelson, Belair, Ohio; Richard Mundrane, Bricktown, N.J.; Timothy Muscaro, Weirton; John Ragan, Rockville, Md.; Bradley Williams, Salem; and Walter Young, Charleston.

The chapter is planning its third annual Leukemia Radiothon, sponsored in memory of Carrol Boyd Shingleton III '75, who died of leukemia in 1975. Contributions received from the previous radiothons total over $25,000. However, this is a long way from our goal of $100,000. This year's radiothon will be April 6-8. Anyone that wishes to donate can make their checks payable to Phi Kappa Psi Leukemia Fund, and mail to West Virginia Alpha.

At the 1978 GAC, our chapter won the first place prize of $1,000 for the best civic project by a Phi Psi chapter. The presentation of our civic project—the Leukemia Radiothon—was done by Scott Morris '77 and Tom Gilkeson '77. It was written by Charles Haslebacher '75—director of the radiothon. This semester we have asked our alumni for funds to match our $1,000 prize money so that we might make some needed improvements to the house. To this date we have received $425. We hope to reach $1,000 by the end of the semester.

The chapter, under the leadership of Rory Galloway, organized one of the most successful rushes in recent years. We had a 100 percent acceptance of bids and have 12 excellent pledges. They are: David Strait, Erwin, Pa.; James Ventorini, Tarentum, Pa.; Joseph Record, St. Marys; Thomas Jenkins, Charleston; Angel Perez, San Juan, P.R.; David Sayre, Parkersburg; Larry Whittenmore, York, Pa.; Jeff Fedor, Princeton, N.J.; Raymond Corley, Morgantown; Paul Ludwig, Ripley; George Plava, Masontown, Pa.; Robert Cortez, Pittsburgh, Pa.

We are in a tight race to win the intramural championship for the seventh straight year.

In the fall of 1978, Jeff Clay Carmichael '76 died from injuries received in an automobile accident. In his memory, the Brothers have instituted an intramural award—the Jeff Clay Carmichael Memorial Award. It will be given to the senior most active in intramurals. This year's co-winners are Mike Ludwig and Mike Aldish.

The Brothers invite all chapters to our home to join us in the bonds of brotherhood.

Bradley S. Rogers, Correspondent

"High, High, High" to all Phi Psis throughout these United States, from the "Miami of the North."

Congratulations to the new officers of our Alumni Association.

Our Founders Day Celebration was another gala affair. Good foods, fine spirits, great Brotherhood, and super entertainment (thanks Brother Sansone) were the highlights of the evening. It was a pleasure to see New York Eta chartering Brother, James P. Rich '50, in attendance.

The Brothers that went to Puerto Rico this spring reported they had a super time.

Congratulations to Dave Dubiel, Williamsville, on becoming a Phi Psi at the University of Oklahoma (Oklahoma Alpha).

All the Brothers here in "Snow City" are looking forward to the summer and seeing the sun for the seventh time this year! There's a "Sunfest"—at the Lake—planned for July and it should be glorious.

A long time ago on July 25, our 17th Annual Closed Invitational Golf Tournament was held at Turnberry Country Club. Our defending champion, Dave Coolidge, Northwestern, must be congratulated for his selection. Low gross winner of the Settergren Trophy was Herb Jones, Illinois, with an 86. Low net winner of the Whiting Bowl was Kent Yowell, Colorado.

At the GAC in Kansas City, the Association was represented by Greg Knapp and Frank Whiting Jr., Illinois. You can feel proud that Phi Psi exists today as it existed when you were an undergraduate. It affords your son a place where he can relate with you to some of the ideas that have proven to be sound.

Our project for 1978 and 1979 was a display case built in our national headquarters, Heritage Hall. We pledged $2,000 to the Heritage Project and have already paid over $1,700. The case is finished and one section is set aside for Chicago Alumni Association artifacts. Here is the place to preserve those pictures, trophies, scrapbooks, and other items that are meaningful.

Founders Day was fun. Our banquet at the Union League Club was graced by the presence of our Fraternity President, "Sandy" Chamberlain. He awarded Gold Council pins and shared a few minutes with us about our Fraternity. A new Gold Council member, Jim Good Jr., Northwestern, gave us the guidelines for the Heritage Project "Sawbuck Club." He put this club together and gave us his check in the proper amount—$10.00 multiplied by the number of years initiated. Reports from the undergraduate chapters at Illinois, Beloit, Northwestern, and Valparaiso, a meeting of the Illinois Beta corporation, an award for the longest distance traveled, and the election of officers for 1979 completed the evening. Our president for 1979 is Wayne Woltman, Illinois. Treasurer is Tom Whiting, Purdue, Chaplain is Kent Yowell, Colorado, and the first through the seventh vice presidents are: Joe Quilici, Illinois; Paul Coulis, Indiana; Jack Novak, Northwestern; Bob Halliday, Illinois, Jim Humphrey, Case/Western Reserve, Pat Kirby, Minnesota, and Frank Skorski, Illinois.

Our next meeting—probably in July at the 18th Annual Golf Tournament. Send your $2.00 dues to Thomas Whiting, 666 Lake Shore Dr., Chicago, Ill. This will ensure that your official notices reach you.

ODE, WITH ACCRUED INTEREST, TO PHI KAPPA PSI

or

A PARODY ON A PSALM OF LIFE
Long after Longfellow

Life is real, life is earnest,
And commencement's not it's end;
"Here thou art, and here remainest,"
Was not spoken of you men.

Art is long and Time is fleeting,
Be our wits then sharpened well,
And not like muffled drums be beating
Shout instead a PHI PSI yell!

Brave in all life's fiercest battles,
Close encounters in your life,
PHI PSI's Shield shall never rattle,
Be a leader in the strife!

Lives of PHI PSI's all remind us,
We can make our lives sublime,
And Departing, leave behind us,
Thought-prints on the sands of time.

Thought-prints that perhaps another
PHI PSI, downcast in the rain,
Some forlorn, forsaken Brother,
When he sees, shall cheer again.

High, High, High for PHI KAPPA PSI!

District of Columbia Alumni Association

After a week's postponement because of the area's record snowfall, the annual Founders Day dinner was held at the Ft. Myers Officers' Club on Feb. 28, 1979. The small turnout was rewarded with a most enjoyable evening including visiting with two undergraduates of Virginia Alpha. Songs were sung and plans were made for more active help to coordinate with the chapters which are nearby. These include the chapters at the University of Virginia, Washington and Lee, VPI, and Johns Hopkins.

Officers and board members elected for the coming year are: Jack Murphy, Arizona, President; George Bittner, Ohio Wesleyan, Vice President; David Bryant, Texas, Secretary-Treasurer; and Ross Herman, Indiana, Michael Gartlan, Virginia, and David Fenstermaker, Indiana, board members.

The second in the Association's revived series of luncheons was held on Thursday, April 19, at the Capitol Hill Club. Those who attended were rewarded with the usual excellent buffet and fine, convivial fellowship.

The Association has joined the National Capitol Interfraternity Forum and is active in its program. The next event is a reception on the "Hill" in the Cannon Office Building Caucus Room for Greeks who are newly elected members of the current Congress.

Despite the effects of a 13 inch snowfall the previous day, the New York Alumni Association held its Founders Day Banquet on February 20, at the Lion's Rock Restaurant. We are indebted to Bill Recht, Cornell, for making space available at his Lion's Rock. A goodly number of Brothers were in attendance despite many cancellations due to poor traveling conditions.

We were especially pleased to see Mark Lucas, Duke, Pete Chapman, Gettysburg, and Dave Hague, originally West Virginia Alpha and later our colonizer at Florida Beta.

After the banquet, it was decided that a reorganization meeting should be held in the spring to bring more Brothers into the group. A decision was also made that in order to get future mailings out, a request for "Give Dollars" dues will be sent to all New York area Phi Psis. Checks should be made out to the Association and sent to Ernest H. Garbe, 101 West 12th Street, New York, N.Y. 10011.

Your Association is in the process of revamping its mailing list and all new arrivals in the area are requested to send their addresses to Secretary

Ernest H. Garbe at the address shown above or call him during business hours at 212-940-6485.

A welcome back to New York Past President Mark Sullivan (Ill. Alpha) who has a fine new position in the city. He was a victim of the snowfall and was marooned in Boston for the day.

Northern California Alumni Association

The association has an active schedule of events for this year. With the enthusiasm provided by Guy Minardi, Rhode Island Beta, we plan to have many social activities in the Northern California area. We had 40 Phi and guests attend the San Francisco Giants-New York Mets baseball game on May 5. We hope to schedule another baseball game later on in the season, so read the alumni newsletter for the date. We also plan to have a volleyball and a softball game with the undergraduates. Naturally, the experience and talent of the alumni will be too much for the undergraduates to overcome! We plan a golf tournament and a day at the horse races later this summer. Alumni interested in joining in on the fun, please contact Guy Minardi or me: Dennis Jones—620 Contra Costa Blvd. #210, Pleasant Hill, Calif. 94523 (415-798-2970); Guy Minardi, 444 Chollo Ct. #21; Pleasant Hill, Calif. 94523 (415-689-1804).

Omaha Alumni Association

Much progress has been made for Phi Psi in this area since our last newsletter. Both the Summerfield Scholars from Nebraska Alpha and Beta have been nominated for the Outstanding Summerfield Scholar Award! It is a tribute to the quality of men in the local chapter to have this happen.

Our Founders Day Banquet was a large, fun and fraternal gathering. Dave Batchelder, Iowa State, presided over about a hundred Brothers. The Speaker, Coach Buda from UNO, didn't actually extol our virtues or our ideals, but he did keep us laughing. John Crane, Penn State, nominated the following officers: Jerry Ortman, Creighton, for president, Gene Conley, Nebraska, for vice president, Urban Rohr, Creighton, for treasurer, Ted Urban, Northwestern, Dr. Jim Gerner, Tom Hoarty, Sam Amato, Mark Weber, Creighton, Dr. Richard Shugrue, Nebraska, and Dallas Foucht, III, Iowa State, for the Board. All were elected unanimously by acclamation. Nebraska Alpha showed great films of their "500," Nebraska Beta gave a short talk about their fall season, and presented Attorney General Paul LaPuzza, Creighton, with the T. J. Urban Award for the most active alumnus for the chapter.

Items: Sam Amato was the speaker, Paul LaPuzza and John Crane with their spouses represented our Association at Creighton's spring formal. Jeff Modica, Creighton, joined the house board and promised to give positive recommendations to us for improvements. Ted Urban and Neil Cahill, S. J. attended the spring initiation for Nebraska Beta. It was a great and enthusiastic party since 55 were initiated! The Association was proud that Nebraska Beta would share its baldrics with Colorado so that that rejuvenated bunch could conduct a fine initiation (that's good fraternal cooperation). Dr. John Edney, Creighton, co-authored a paper on Breast Cancer Genetics. Mike Atkinson started selling Buicks, so if you need your personality improved

Remember to recommend rushees for fall rush. Help your alumni association by participating in our activities. Aid your Fraternity by becoming involved with the chapter nearest you and insist that they maintain our traditional ideals and by doing so, remain strong.

Our summer plans will include our regular golf stag followed by a date picnic. This is open to alumni, undergraduates, pledges, and rushees. Particulars will be sent to all in the area on our mailing list. There will be the usual champagne winners. In the fall, we will probably return again to "Amatos" for our cocktail party after Thanksgiving. We hope to have a good year and it will be, if you all participate and help.

Pittsburgh Alumni Association

The Pittsburgh Alumni Association held its annual Founders Day celebration on Friday, February 16, at the Press Club in downtown Pittsburgh. A total of 39 Brothers were present, including nine undergraduates and 30 alumni.

Following a delicious banquet, the association held a brief business meeting. The Treasurer's report revealed that we are still solvent, but our assets are gradually dwindling, primarily because fewer dues contributions have been received during the past couple of years. Each Brother in attendance was asked to introduce himself, giving chapter name and year of initiation.

The Shield of Phi Kappa Psi

Forrest Stout, Kansas '19, was our most "senior" member. The Pennsylvania Nu chapter had by far the strongest representation, with 23 Brothers in attendance.

Undergraduate representatives from Pennsylvania Alpha and Pennsylvania Nu gave brief status reports on their chapter activities. The Alpha chapter remains quite strong with a current membership of 82, and the brotherhood was busy preparing for their Parents' Day Banquet. Pennsylvania Nu is also in good shape, with a total of 49 Brothers. Current activities include a second place in the Greek Sing competition, house renovations, and planning for the Phi Psi 500 in May.

The current slate of officers was re-elected; not so much because they had done a great job, but rather, there was a distinct shortage of willing candidates. The officers are: President Bill Bates, Franklin & Marshall; Vice President Ray McCormick, Penn State; Secretary Jim Snediker, Case Western Reserve; Treasurer Bob Dyer, Indiana of Pennsylvania. President Bates then closed the meeting, reminding the group of our monthly luncheons on the first Thursday and our annual picnic in July.

Our speaker for the evening was Thomas W. Pomeroy Jr., Lafayette '26, retired Justice of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court. In 1970, he addressed the GAC meeting in Philadelphia. His remarks to us concerned the recent changes that have taken place in the Pennsylvania Judicial System and their possible impact on our personal and professional lives. He also related several of the more unusual cases that had come before the Court. All in all, a most informative and entertaining talk.

The meeting was adjourned with the singing of Noble Fraternity.

Portland Alumni Association

The Portland Alumni Association is continuing to hold monthly get-togethers at various locations close to downtown Portland on the third Wednesday of each month. They are being scheduled for 5:30 p.m. and last as long as the Brothers want to visit.

Our annual function at the Blitz-Weinhard Brewery was not as much of a success as in years past. Only a few Brothers and their wives and dates attended the function which raised some doubt as to the necessity of rescheduling the facility for next year.

It has been very rewarding to see so many new faces at our monthly get-togethers, Brothers who have not kept in touch with the Fraternity over the years and are now finding the time to enjoy the brotherhood they once experienced. We hope to see more interest from the alumni in the Portland area as these meetings are continued following the summer months. The association continues to follow the progress of both Oregon and Oregon State University chapters which appeared to be very prosperous at our annual Founders Day celebration last February. The fraternity spirit has certainly regained its momentum at these universities which is extremely rewarding to those alumni who helped in the rebuilding effort.

Rocky Mountain Alumni Association

Founders Day 1979 was observed jointly by the Rocky Mountain Alumni Association and the Colorado Alpha Chapter. The observance was held at Rolling Hills Country Club in Golden, and the celebration gave everyone an opportunity to renew old friendships and to make new ones, as several new arrivals to the Denver area were in attendance. A talk by Rick Crist, Arizona '77, and a slide show by the Colorado Alpha undergraduates completed the formal portion of the event.

A regular schedule for alumni "get-togethers" is presently in the works as well as a larger-scale function this summer. We encourage all alumni in the Denver area to join our group and participate in our upcoming activities.

St. Louis Alumni Association

We are looking for Brothers in the St. Louis area to come out and enjoy an active 1979 social calendar. After a successful Casino Night party in May, the events scheduled are: a June Rush/Picnic, a July Cardinal Baseball game, a September bus trip to the Illinois-Missouri football game, a fall hayride, a Christmas party at a local dinner theater, and Founders Day on Friday, February 22.

In the past, our attendance for events has been less than we had hoped. This year we have worked hard to make the schedule of events exciting and fun. A mailing was sent in early May to all area Phi Psis detailing our plans for the year in a social calendar. If you have just moved to the area or for some reason did not receive your calendar, please contact one of the officers.

Founders Day was held at the Chase Park Plaza Hotel. John Boyd, our national treasurer, was the guest speaker. Elections for new officers were held. The new officers are . . . Jim Naylor, President, Steve O'Rourke, Vice President, and Greg Abbott, Treasurer. Greg has since been transferred to a new location and we wish him the best.

The St. Louis Alumni Association also thanks John Chulick for his outstanding service as President for the past two years.

We have undertaken a job in expanding our events this year. The word for success is INVOLVEMENT!!! We hope to get more of the 350 plus St. Louis Phi Psis active in the Association. If you are an area Brother or an undergraduate home for the summer, contact us and get involved. We're having fun and you can be part of it.

South Carolina Alumni Association

The South Carolina Alumni Association is on the move with activity this year. At the Annual Founders Day Banquet, a new slate of officers was selected. The association leadership is Willis Bethea, President; Smith Harrison, Vice President; A. C. Flora, Treasurer; and Phil Harkey, Secretary. Connor Harrison was appointed editor of the Alumni Newsletter.

The officers are planning a full calendar of events for 1979-80. In addition to the monthly happy hours, a variety of activities will be held. On May 26, we will be the guests of Phil Harkey and his new bride, Karen, for a spring cookout. A patio party will be held at the home of A. C. Flora, June 15. In August, there will be another famous weekend in Lancaster for a fish fry at Willis Bethea's pond. For details on these and other events, contact any officer of the association.

In recognition of the efforts of the alumni as a group, SC Alpha awarded its James W. Scott, Cornell '45, Outstanding Alumnus Award to the South Carolina Alumni Association. This award is given each year by the chapter at Founders Day. It is named in honor of Jim Scott, the first alumni advisor to the chapter at USC.

A special highlight of Founders Day was the visit of David A. Woodcock, South Carolina '72, for the weekend. After graduation in 1975, Dave became an officer in the Navy and has been unable to return to Columbia. In order to join in the celebration, Dave flew in from San Diego.

Don't forget Homecoming '79. It will be the best Phi Psi weekend ever.

From the Archives...

Virginia Beta's historic charter was presented to the Fraternity archives on November 13, 1976, during the installation of Virginia Zeta Chapter at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. The presentation was made by Robert A. Carpentier, Washington and Lee '74, then GP, on behalf of his chapter.

The charter is dated February 19, 1855, three years to the day after the founding of the Fraternity, hand lettered in color by Thomas Cochran Campbell, on four sheets of foolscap paper glued together to make a document about eight inches wide and thirty inches long. It is the oldest charter extant.

The idea of giving the Virginia Beta charter to the Fraternity for safekeeping sprang from the chapter's 1977 graduating class which believed the charter should be permanently housed at the Fraternity headquarters as part of Phi Kappa Psi's heritage, and where it could be best kept safe and secure. The chapter approved the proposal, to the grateful thanks of the Fraternity. A duplicate of the charter, true in size and color, was prepared, framed, and presented to Virginia Beta for display in the chapter house.

When placing the charter with the Fraternity, Virginia Beta indicated the charter represented the "glorious past of Phi Kappa Psi and its untold future; as a beacon shines bright in the night, so does the Virginia Beta charter, guiding men of the future into the brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi. The charter, indeed, represents the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi set forth by our founders."

In their use of discretionary, nonworking time, they tend to be less addicted to television than others and more selective in the programs they watch. They are more inclined to read, engage in adult education, attend cultural events, and participate in the arts.

They are more likely to take part in community and civic affairs, and they are more likely to take vacations.

Despite the long historical association of education and sports, we have found little specific information about the effects of physical education on character, on lifelong interest and participation in physical activities, on physical fitness, or on general well-being.

Health

Education exerts a positive influence on health. The casual connections are not wholly understood.

Education may affect the use of health services, and it may be conducive to a way of life favorable to good health. Whatever the causal connections, educated people are, on the average, more healthy than other people.

Educated people visit physicians and dentists more frequently than others, even when compared with others of equal income.

The older people who are the majority of the less-educated population are presumably subject to more illness than the better-educated young, yet they utilize health services less.

Limited evidence suggests that education is to some extent correlated with ways of life that are believed to be healthful. A survey in 1973 suggested that quality of diet may be positively related to education. The smoking of tobacco may be somewhat less prevalent among educated persons than among others.

Disability and Mortality

Many studies show that persons of more education suffer less disability or enjoy better health than those of less education.

Relatively more of those persons who attended college report that they are in excellent health—and fewer that they are in poor health—than those who did not attend.

A study in 1975 found that education had a "positive and statistically significant effect on current health" and that the evidence favored "a casual relationship that runs from schooling to current health."

The same study concluded that a "one-year increase in schooling lowers the probability of death by four-tenths of a percentage point."

Other investigators have found that education is perhaps the most important correlate of good health. Some have suggested that to reduce mortality, investment in general education would be more effective than investment in improved medical care.

Dr. George Shuman Jr., Dickinson '35, Vice President Emeritus of his college, has served Penn Zeta 40 years and is currently Chapter Advisor and Secretary-Treasurer, Pennsylvania Zeta Alumni Association.

Penn Zeta Symposium Marks 120 Years

By John A. Macdonald,
Dickinson '78

On March 19, 1979, Pennsylvania Zeta marked the 120th anniversary of her founding. The Chapter has been in continuous existence since Brothers Chamberlain and Campbell came from the University at Lewisburg (now Bucknell) and Pennsylvania College (now Gettysburg) to start a new fraternal organization at Dickinson College. Celebration of the event took place at Symposium on May 19, 1979. A special tribute was given to Brother George Shuman Jr., Vice President Emeritus of Dickinson College, who has given more than 40 years of service to Pennsylvania Zeta. At a recent meeting of the alumni association, the alumni voted to establish the Dr. George Shuman Jr. Fund and the Dr. George Shuman Jr. Award. The Award will be given to that undergraduate who has done exceptional service for the chapter. The fund was created from the various scholarship and prize monies the alumni association has reserved for the undergraduate members.

This year, Pennsylvania Zeta enjoys the privilege of being the largest and strongest fraternal organization at Dickinson. This would not have been possible had it not been for the vision of the active members over the last four years and the guidance of Rush Chairmen Bob Koehler, Mark Loughlin, Jim Derrick, and Mark Packel. Their rush programs provided strong interaction between the Brotherhood and the incoming freshmen.

When Brothers Chamberlain and Campbell arrived on campus, they began recruiting members for the second secret, fraternal organization at Dickinson. They operated in spite of the dual opposition of an anti-fraternity administration and the only then-existing fraternity on campus, Phi Kappa Sigma. That year, 20 Dickinsonians were initiated into Phi Kappa Psi, providing a strong foundation for perpetuation. Due to the rapid growth of Penn Zeta, the administration withdrew its opposition the following year and Penn Zeta was allowed to openly function on campus. Now that the two fraternities could operate overtly, competition for members became fierce. Phi Kappa Sigma, in an effort to destroy its sole rival, placed a Phi Kap brother, Charles G. Jackson, in Penn Zeta. Jackson was instructed to obtain the secrets of the Society and publicly disclose them. The plan backfired, for Jackson soon came to prefer the Penn Zetans, rather than his own Phi Kap brothers. When he was elected GP, he felt honor-bound to disclose his true affiliation and asked that he might remain in Phi Kappa Psi after withdrawing his affiliation with Phi Kap. Following fierce debate at the chapter meeting, Jackson was expelled on principle.

Two years later, the Civil War broke out and 16 Penn Zetans served in the Union army and navy and six with the Confederacy. One Zetan, Brother George Baylor, distinguished himself by fighting under General Stonewall Jackson and Mosby's Raiders. The only fatality during the War was Brother Isaac C. Sullivan, a charter member who, while a colonel in the Confederacy, was killed in action near Atlanta, Ga. in 1865.

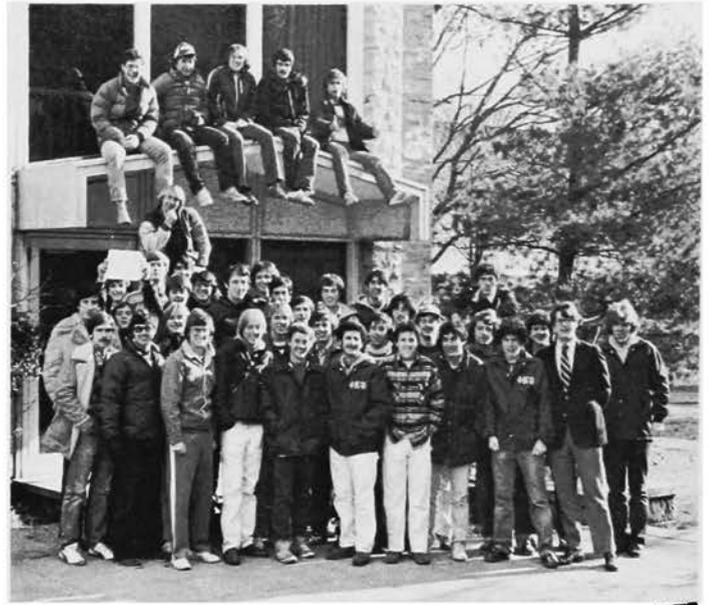

In spite of the War, the chapter remained active and had sizable pledge classes for each year of conflict. This allowed for even greater growth after the war was over, putting the chapter on firm footing again.

In 1868, Penn Zeta was responsible for the founding of DC Alpha at Columbian University (now George Washington). That same year, the Grand Arch Council was held in Cincinnati, Ohio, and Penn Zeta entered the national scene by becoming Grand Chapter for the term of 1868 to 1871.

Soon after Penn Zeta became Grand Chapter, a serious problem arose concerning national fraternity policy. The question was whether a member of Phi Psi could transfer to a college with no local chapter and still maintain his membership in the Fraternity. This problem was even more vexing in light of the fact that Fraternity co-founder, Charles P. T. Moore had transferred from Jefferson College to Union College and there had become a member of Delta Phi. In spite of this, Penn Zeta ruled that a Phi Psi could not join any other society of similar character and still retain his membership in Phi Kappa Psi. This policy was initially ill-received, but succeeding Grand Chapters and GACs reaffirmed Penn Zeta's ruling. In addition to this unpopular move, Penn Zeta was forced to impose a headtax of one dollar per member. This action was vital to the survival of the Fraternity, for the national treasury had been completely depleted during the Civil War. In 1871, Penn Zeta was made Grand Chapter for Penn Zeta celebrated its Centennial May 7, 1959. That milestone was brought to mind during the 120th Anniversary Symposium March 19, by this photo of the head table personalities at the 100th anniversary banquet. an unprecedented second term at the GAC held in Wheeling, W. Va. During the five and a half years that Penn Zeta served as Grand Chapter, 12 new chapters were formed in 11 different states.

The following three decades were filled with an unprecedented height in academic achievement, as Penn Zeta annually received close to half the academic prizes awarded by Dickinson.

During this time of growth and achievement, Penn Zeta did not have a permanent chapter house for living as well as meeting purposes. In 1904, the residence at 228 W. High Street, Carlisle, was donated to the chapter by Abram Bosler. In 1911, Brother Bosler further aided the Brotherhood by contributing funds to improve the interior of the chapter house. With the acquisition and successive remodeling, membership increased to more than 20 Brothers until the start of World War I.

When the United States entered the War, 21 of 25 Brothers joined the services. In spite of this drastic reduction in membership, the Brotherhood, as it had done during the Civil War, continued to initiate new Phi Psis.

In between the two World Wars, the chapter prospered to such an extent that by 1925, expansion and renovation of the chapter house was needed. A new dining room was constructed and the house received a new facade. When World War II arrived, however, the chapter was forced to sublease the house and discontinue its dining hall. Once the War was over, Penn Zeta was once again able to regain its position on campus.

In 1959, the Chapter celebrated its 100th Anniversary of continuous operation at Dickinson. In November of that year, a Centennial Ball was held at the Allenberry-on-the-Yellow Breeches, a local restaurant. The Address was given by Robert R. Elliott, then national President of Phi Kappa Psi. Other remarks were made by J. Duncan Campbell, Editor of The Shield, and John Henry Frizzell, Mystagogue of Phi Kappa Psi.

In 1963, after extensive meetings with the administration of the College, the alumni associations of the various fraternities, and the fraternities themselves, it was decided that new chapter houses would be built by the College. In 1964, Penn Zeta left its residence of 60 years and moved into the new chapter house on the Dickinson campus. With the move, one era in the history of Penn Zeta came to an end and a new one began. Two years later, 228 W. High Street was torn down by the College.

Once the chapter moved into the new chapter house, the personality of fraternity life changed, for all ten fraternities of the College lived in the same part of the campus in identical buildings. In spite of this change, Penn Zeta continued to prosper, initiating sizable pledge classes into the Brotherhood. Towards the end of the 1960's and the beginning of the 1970's, Penn Zeta went through the same reduction in membership that was the national trend. In 1974, only seven were in the pledge class that spring and only eight were initiated into Phi Psi from the pledge class of 1975. The following year, however, under the rush chairmanship of Bob Koehler, the trend was reversed and the pledge class doubled in size.

Penn Zeta now finds itself very involved in the College community. Many Brothers are on the varsity soccer team, the swimming team, the tennis team, and the lacrosse team. The current president of the Student Senate is George Joseph. Academic achievement on the part of many Penn Zetans is being recognized by the College. Penn Zeta was recently the co-sponsor of a blood drive that netted more than 100 donors.

With the coming new year and new pledge class, Penn Zeta can only hope to perpetuate the ideals and standards that were set by Brothers William H. Letterman and Charles P. T. Moore at Jefferson College in Canonsburg, Pa., 127 years ago. It is our hope that even in the face of possible decline in membership, the spirit of Phi Kappa Psi will still live on, uniting us all in one Brotherhood.

The President's Message

The Absurdities of Fraternities

The frivolous and social aspects of fraternity life never have been emphasized more than they are now or to such a wide audience. The film "Animal House" and its subsequent movie and television spin-offs attest to the commercial success of exploiting one aspect of campus fraternity life. Our only danger is if we begin to believe it ourselves. When we do, we become our own worst enemies.

An important aspect of Fraternity is the pleasure of being among friends. Bernard Berenson talks of the arts as being "life enhancing." The same is true in a well run fraternity chapter or alumni association. It is only when one aspect of that experience begins to dominate the others that trouble begins.

The purpose of Phi Psi is not social. The Fraternity is a voluntary association of equal but diverse men who through affinity of one with another affirm shared ideals and values. Yet, absurdities abound.

Rush should be man to man whereby one individual establishes friendship with another and invites him to join in the fraternity experience. Yet, we see chapters and interfraternity councils turn rush into an expensive, time consuming, party oriented chapter enterprise.

Fraternity education should be to teach men the Fraternity's purpose, history, traditions, and how to run a chapter. Yet, we hear of groups who degrade and humiliate the men they call friends through physical or mental harassment.

The chapter house should be a home for men who call themselves brothers; well maintained, clean, orderly and run with pride. Yet, we see houses that are motel-restaurant pit stops for adolescents who are between high school and gainful employment.

Scholarship and the development of a man's intellectual potential is central to the Fraternity. Yet, we learn of men who fail and of brothers who did nothing to help.

Financial integrity is central to one's relations with his brothers and to a chapter's place within its community. Yet we hear of men and chapters who fail to discharge debts promptly.

Phi Psi is a life time commitment. Yet, we know of alumni who shun their responsibility by failing to be the adult model young men need, or to repay the Fraternity for the opportunities it afforded them.

The Fraternity organization is the sum total of our many chapters, colonies, alumni associations and clubs, yet, some characterize the Fraternity as "They, The National," and "We, the Chapter."

Don't let the trappings of Fraternity and chapter life become its purpose. If one were to look for any one cause of inherent weakness in our system, it is just that: a failure to remember why the Fraternity exists.

Congruency should be our hallmark. The degree to which we diminish the distance between the practice and the ideal, is the degree to which we achieve Fraternity.

Introduction

At the risk of borrowing unabashedly from last year's Annual Report, your new Executive Director offers the following . . .

"Dud" Daniel Retires

This annual report, the 127th so rendered, marks yet another milestone in the history of Phi Kappa Psi. After 31 years of devoted service, Ralph D. Daniel, Arizona '47, has retired from full time Fraternity work, and left the "Bureau of Standards" to enjoy his native Arizona. Known throughout the interfraternity world as Mr. Phi Psi, "Dud" Daniel leaves his position having been only the second man in Fraternity history to serve as the full-time chief administrative officer. The first such man conducted Fraternity business from the Cleveland Headquarters beginning in January, 1930, and that was the late C. F. (Dab) Williams, Illinois '06. Those who have worked closely with Dud will miss his good nature at the Headquarters, but look forward to continued contact as he assumes his duties as the Executive Director Emeritus.

"Realistic Fiscal Management"

The key phrase for the current year under review, February 28, 1978 to February 28, 1979, is "Realistic Fiscal Management." Ravaged by inflation, moderate undergraduate revenue and increasingly expensive convention costs, the Phi Psi budget has undergone extensive restructuring, starting with cutbacks in Fraternity staff. Viewed as temporary measures, both in-office and field staff numbers have been decreased, with priority given to first re-staffing the Chapter Consultant program when finances allow. The Fraternity continues to look upon the Chapter Consultant program as one of its prime services to the undergraduate chapters and colonies. Two Chapter Consultants are visiting the various undergraduate groups this fall, and will be working with alumni advisors especially.

Membership

Real Growth Continues

The year under review broke a ten year record of average chapter size, with 48.2 undergraduates per chapter. And although the total number of initiates dropped from last year, improved retention brought the Fraternity to an all time record of 3,907 total undergraduates in the 81 chapters. The Wisconsin Gamma Chapter at Beloit College was reactivated on September 9, 1978, returning Phi Kappa Psi to that campus, having previously enjoyed nearly nine successful decades, from 1881 to 1970. On April 7, 1979, the Phi Psi banner was planted for the first time at the University of California, Davis, with the installation of the California Iota Chapter.

One thousand two hundred and nine new initiates, including transfers, were added to Phi Psi's growing roll during the past year, compared to 1,330 a year ago.

Colonies

There are five colonies in operation at this time, working toward meeting the requirements for receiving chapter charters. These are Arkansas Alpha at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville; New Mexico Beta at the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque; Louisiana Gamma at Tulane University in New Orleans; Wisconsin Alpha at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, chartered in 1875 and the charter surrendered in 1939; and Wyoming Alpha at the University of Wyoming in Laramie. Official Fraternity recognition was withdrawn this past year from the Pennsylvania Kappa Colony at Swarthmore College, where the Phi Kappa Psi Chapter on that campus enjoyed existence from 1889 to 1963.

Two Chapters Inactive

The 1978 GAC suspended the charter of Rhode Island Alpha Chapter at Brown University, and revoked the Ohio Kappa Chapter Charter at Kent State University. The Phi Psi experience first came to Brown with the installation of Rhode Island Alpha in 1902, where 1,028 men were initiated over the years. The Ohio Kappa Chapter was installed in 1971, and placed 34 men on its rolls.

Number in Chapters

Nebraska Beta at Creighton University, with 133 members, led all other chapters in undergraduate strength at February 28, 1979. West Virginia Alpha at West Virginia University slipped into second place, with 106 members, having tied Nebraska Beta for first place last year when both chapters listed 140 undergraduates on their rolls. Indiana Beta at Indiana University recorded 95 members, and Kansas Alpha at the University of Kansas 92. Seven chapters reported membership in the 80s: Pennsylvania Gamma, Bucknell (89); Mississippi Alpha, Ole Miss (88); Oregon Alpha, Oregon (86); Tennessee Delta, Vanderbilt (85); Ohio Alpha, Ohio Wesleyan (85); the Mother Chapter, Pennsylvania Alpha, Washington and Jefferson (80); and Ohio Delta, Ohio State (80).

Seven chapters claimed 70 to 79 undergraduate members: Rhode Island Beta, Rhode Island (77); California Epsilon, U.C.L.A. (74); New York Alpha, Cornell (71); Indiana Alpha, DePauw (71); New York Epsilon, Colgate (70); Indiana Gamma, Wabash (70); and Indiana Delta, Purdue (70).

Fourteen chapters reported 50 to 59 members, and eight chapters had 40 to 49 undergraduates recorded. Three chapters reported less than ten members. Please see page 87 for complete statistics on the membership of each chapter and colony.

District III Has Largest Chapters

District III, comprising 14 chapters, took the lead from District II this year in terms of average chapter size, registering 55.2 undergraduates per chapter. District II with 15 chapters, however, was second with 53.3 members, and first of all Districts with a total of 800 undergraduates. District V, with 13 chapters, had the third highest average chapter size of 53.1, and third highest total of 690. District I's 12 chapters reported the next highest average chapter size of 48.8 men, and District VI followed, recording 45.4 men per chapter from their 13 chapters, totalling 590 undergraduates. District IV had the lowest average size with 33.5 down from 34.9 last year. The District's 14 chapters totalled 469 men.

1500 Club

The Indiana Beta Chapter at Indiana University and Kansas Alpha Chapter at the University of Kansas are still the only two members of the exclusive 1500 Club, open only to those chapters claiming 1,500 or more initiates. Indiana Beta, with 1,899 initiates, a member since 1966, will soon be eligible for the 2000 Club, of which it will be a founding member. Kansas Alpha joined the 1500 Club in 1976, and now claims 1,552 members. New York Epsilon Chapter at Colgate, with 1,485 members, and Ohio Alpha at Ohio Wesleyan with 1,484 should be eligible in 1980. Indiana Beta was founded in 1869, Kansas Alpha in 1876, New York Epsilon in 1887, and Ohio Alpha in 1861.

1000 Club

The Oregon Alpha Chapter joined the 1000 Club this past year, reporting 44 new initiates, for a total of 1,001 men who have joined Phi Kappa Psi at the University of Oregon since the Chapter's founding in 1923. The 1000 Club's membership includes 33 active chapters, all of which have initiated 1,000 to 1,499 members.

Initiates

As reported above, the chapters initiated or transferred 1,209 men during the 1978-79 period. The Ohio Lambda Chapter at Miami University (Ohio) recorded the largest number of initiates with 55, followed by Oregon Alpha with 44. Virginia Beta at Washington & Lee reported 36 initiates, Arizona Alpha, Arizona, 33, and the new California Iota, University of California, Davis, chartered with 30 new Phi Psis.

Pledges

This year, the Fraternity's 81 chapters pledged a total of 1,419, compared to 1,378 a year ago, up 41. Two years ago, pledges totalled 1,414, and the year before that 1,528. Fraternity law provides that pledge-ship terminates 1) upon initiation into the Fraternity, or 2) upon expiration of two semesters or three quarters final grade reporting periods from date of pledging.

Housing

The total value of the 47 houses owned by chapter house corporations of the Fraternity (including land valued at approximately $1,070,000) totalled $10,005,000, a 15% increase over last year. Mortgages have reduced to approximately $1,250,000.

Of the 81 chapters, at February 28, 1979, 47 own houses, 15 occupy houses owned by the college or university, 15 rent houses privately, two are provided dormitory sections, and two chapters occupy lodges.

Colonies

Of the five colonies, in the year under review, none are housed by corporations, one rents privately, and the other four are not housed as yet.

Fraternity Headquarters

Fraternity Headquarters

Phi Psi's new headquarters, Heritage Hall, has proved to be an outstanding facility for operating the Fraternity on a day-to-day basis, and has also attracted many welcomed visitors. Shortly after opening the doors in June, 1978, Heritage Hall hosted nearly 1,800 visitors in one afternoon of an annual neighborhood tour. The new Fraternity Headquarters has welcomed over 2,400 Phi Psis and friends from near and far, alumni and undergraduates, all of whom leave Heritage Hall with a better appreciation for Phi Kappa Psi.

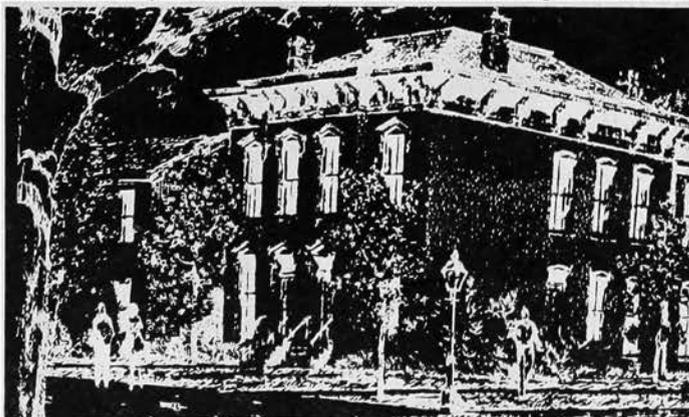

The fixed costs of a Fraternity-owned Headquarters will enable Phi Psi, in time, to place financial resources directly into the Chapter and Alumni Services areas. Fraternity leadership expects Heritage Hall to serve as a hedge against future inflationary operational costs. The Indianapolis area, with its 16 other fraternity and sorority headquarters, enables Phi Psi to enjoy an especially favorable climate of interfraternity cooperation.

Opportunity in 1980

All delegates, participants and their ladies attending the 1980 Phi Psi Heritage Grand Arch Council in Indianapolis, August 6-10, will have a special opportunity to visit Heritage Hall on a candle light tour. Visitors will be treated to true Victorian hospitality, in keeping with Heritage Hall's authentic decor of the era of the Fraternity's founding. You'll not want to miss this historic view of Phi Psi's glorious record!

Staff Appointments

Following explicitly the dictates of the 1978 Grand Arch Council, Fraternity leadership adopted budget balancing measures, which included reducing general fund expenses, to accurately reflect Phi Psi's cash position. As a result, appointments were terminated in January, 1979 of Chapter Consultants John D. Watt III, Duke '75, Jack P. Eckley, Bowling Green '75, Bryan P. Muecke, Texas '75 and Harry A. Light, Florida '77. Harry had been on Phi Psi's traveling staff since September of 1977. Consultants Watt, Eckley and Muecke reported for duty in June, 1978. These men leave Phi Psi's employ confident in the knowledge that their work was exemplary, and knowing that only a temporary financial crunch brought about their early severance.

As reported above, Ralph "Dud" Daniel retired as Phi Psi's Executive Director, effective August 1, 1979. He now has assumed the position of Executive Director Emeritus, the first Brother to be so honored. On June 30, 1979, your Executive Council appointed Gary B. Angstadt, Indiana '70, Executive Director, having served the Fraternity for 5-1/2 years as Field Secretary, Assistant Executive Director, and Director of Development.

On July 1, 1979, Director of Chapter Services John F. Hummel, Jr. Penn State '74, resigned his position to pursue a graduate degree. John first joined the Phi Psi Staff in July, 1977, as a Chapter Consultant. Effective June 1, 1978, John assumed the responsibilities of Director of Chapter Services. John's hard work, too, will be missed at the Bureau.

Two new field men have joined the Headquarters team and are traveling Phi Psi's broad domain this fall as Chapter Consultants. Louis M. Hoffman, Arizona '77, reported to Heritage Hall for staff training on July 16, 1979, and began his field work August 28. Steven R. Fowler, Arizona '77, joined the Headquarters's staff August 22, 1979, and commenced Consultant duties September 26. The work of the Chapter Consultant is one of the general Fraternity's most necessary services. This 1979-1980 academic year, the Consultants will be working primarily with Chapter Advisors, House Corporation Presidents, Faculty Advisors and Area Directors, and will assist these various alumni advisors in their work with the chapters and colonies.

Chapter Visits

During the 1978-79 academic year, the Fraternity's five Chapter Consultants conducted 123 visits to chapters and colonies. In addition, the Colony at the University of Arkansas was organized, and several visits were made to colleges and universities with respect to new chapter development. A few chapters requiring special attention received as many as three visits, as did most colonies.

Housemothers

Housemothers/Resident Advisors

We reported a year ago that 19 chapters were served by Housemothers or Resident Advisors, and in 1978-1979 there were again 19. Ten years ago, 37 Phi Psi chapters enjoyed the benefits of a Housemother. Below are listed the 19 Housemothers and Resident Advisors as most recently reported, including three Tutors-in-Residence participants who receive financial assistance from the Fraternity's Endowment Fund, in a program where tuition scholarship grants are made to qualified graduate students. Those interested in the program are urged to write:

Meetings

In the year under review, The Great Heartland Grand Arch Council met in Kansas City, MO, at the Crown Center Hotel, August 9-13, 1978, with President J. Kenneth Potter presiding. Please refer to the Fall, 1978 SHIELD for further details.

District Educational Leadership Conferences were held at South Carolina Alpha, February 2-4, 1979, for District IV, and at California Theta, October 27-29, 1978, for District VI.

This fall, the Chapters and Alumni Associations will be electing new Archons, who will serve through the fall of 1981. The District Council/Woodrow Wilson Leadership Schools are planned as follows:

District	Date	Conference Campus
I	Oct. 12-14	Rhode Island
II	Oct. 5-7	Penn State

The Executive Board of the Fraternity, composed of the four senior officers—the President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary, met officially once during the year under review, on May 27, 1978, in Chicago, IL.

The Executive Council, composed of four alumnus Executive Board members and six undergraduates (Archons), serves as the chief governing body of the Fraternity between meetings of the Grand Arch Council. The EC held four meetings in the report year; one in Chicago, May 26-27, 1978; one preceding the '78 GAC in Kansas City, MO, on August 9; one immediately following the GAC on August 13; and another Chicago meeting on October 6-7, 1978.

The Budget

Time for Belt Tightening

The budget of Phi Kappa Psi is not immune to the effects of inflation. Who could have guessed in 1962 that the price of gold would increase by over 1100% by 1979! That of course directly increases the cost of the still 10 karat Phi Psi Badge. The Fraternity has always been proud of our single most important alumni communication, THE SHIELD, but with paper costs rising 20-25% annually, postage increases totalling more than 400% since 1971, and other printing costs likewise skyrocketing, THE SHIELD, too must reflect a realistic budget. Fraternity General Fund costs have been adjusted in all areas, and the 1979-80 fiscal year budget total of $396,000 is outlined in the graphs that follow.

Budget cutting is not the only answer. Fraternity leadership continues to explore methods of increasing revenue. The individual costs of becoming a Phi Psi, pledge and initiation fees, have increased 65% since 1964, to the current total of $170 per man. The privileges of initiation include receiving the official Phi Psi Badge, membership card and certificate, and a life time subscription to THE SHIELD. Entering into areas previously considered non-Fraternal, such as sales of sportswear, sponsoring group insurance programs and the like, General Fund revenues will continue to grow in this direction.

Phi Psi On the Move

Phi Psi is very much on the move. The undergraduate chapters continue to develop, and the alumni support giving program sets a new record each year. With the ongoing hard work of Phi Psi's loyal undergraduates, and the necessary growth in alumni gifts of time and money, 1979-1980 will be a banner year for Phi Kappa Psi!

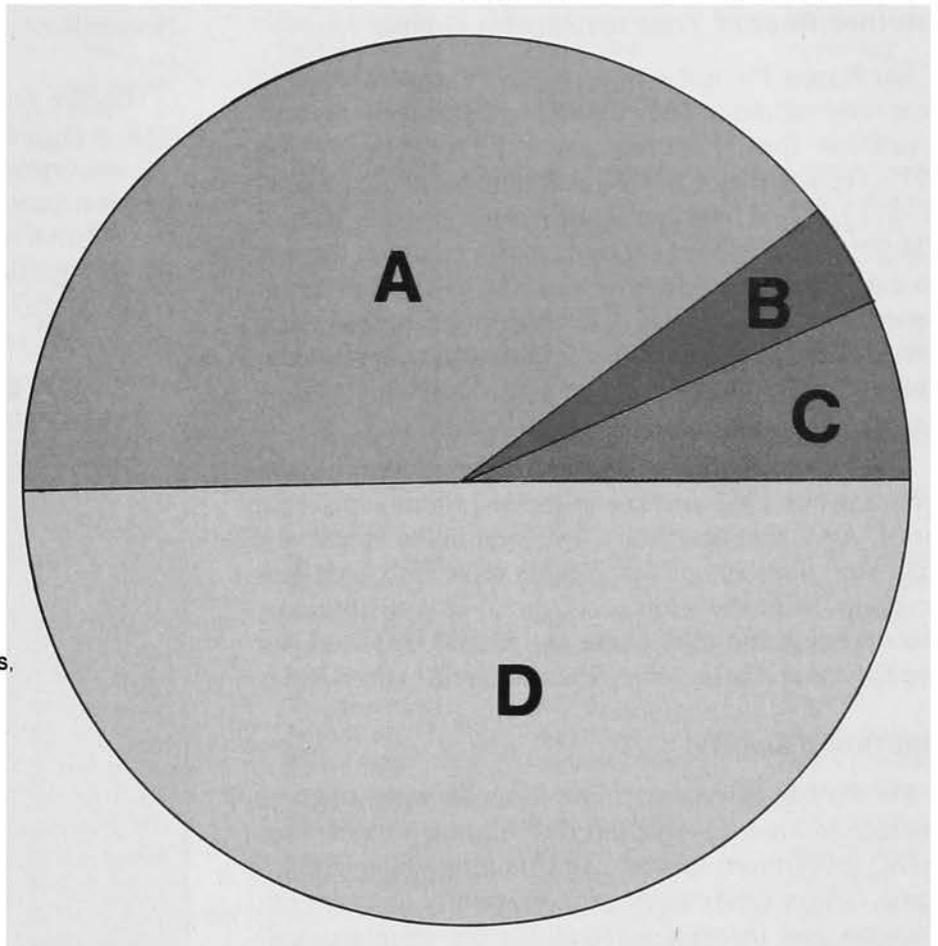

Income

A INITIATION FEES: One time charge, $140 per man—38%

B CONFERENCE FEES: $250 per chapter per year—5%

C PLEDGE FEES: One time charge, $30 per man—8%

1978 Alumni Support Program

Another Record Year for Alumni Giving

Phi Kappa Psi has grown to expect much from her generous alumni. The support program in review, which ran from February 28, 1978 to February 28, 1979, reports that 4,624 loyal Brothers donated a total of $115,151.41, for an outstanding average gift of $24.90! This is indeed a proud record, of which there is no equal in the interfraternity world. The '78 program bettered last year's by $2,536.67, continuing a six year streak of breaking the record set by previous programs. The 1979 Alumni Support program currently underway ends February 28, 1980.

The Fraternity first asked for voluntary alumni contributions in 1952 and has requested them every year since. And, for most years, the total dollar figure and increased numbers of participants grow with each new program. With the addition of the 1978 contributions, the overall grand total broke the $1,000,000 mark for the first time. Gifts since 1952 stand at $1,010,470.78.

Operating Capital

Phi Psi has three sources of revenue with which to operate on a day-to-day basis: the Alumni Support Program, investment income, and undergraduate fee income. These funds enable the Fraternity to maintain, improve and increase services for the chapters, colonies, and alumni associations and clubs. Alumni Support funds also sustain the ongoing programs such as the development of new chapters, Fraternity publications, and meetings such as the Woodrow Wilson Leadership School.

Honor Roll of Contributing Members

Each year, the names of those who participated in the past year's Support Program are published in THE SHIELD. The current 1979 Program is still open for contributions, until February 28, 1980, and all alumni and undergraduates are invited to participate. Those desiring to give may forward their contributions to the Fraternity Headquarters in Indianapolis. Give now to insure that your name will be included in the 1979

Honor Roll of contributors in next year's annual report.

The new record set by the 1978 Alumni Support Program was due to increased levels of giving by alumni and undergraduates, as we had 281 fewer participants than last year. Listed below are some of the pertinent data relative to the Alumni Support Program. We note that, for the first time ever, one chapter's alumni (California Delta) donated more than $5,000—our congratulations to this outstanding group!

Founders Fellowships

The Founders Fellowships are awarded by the Fraternity's Endowment Fund, to honor Tannye and W. Grant Shockley, Missouri '09, whose bequest makes the $2000 grants possible to Phi Psis entering graduate school, as Brother Shockley once said, "In the pursuit of excellence." This year's recipients all were actively involved with their chapters. They have honored Phi Kappa Psi by their accomplishments and now, the Fraternity can honor them.

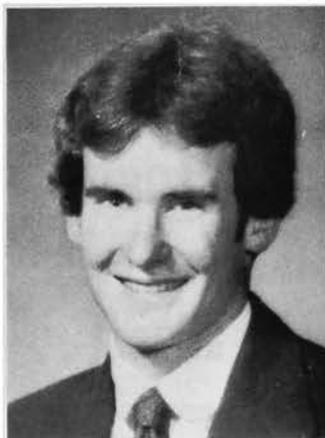

The Charles P. T. Moore Award (Business Administration)

To Richard H. Hubli, Rhode Island '76, of Stamford, Connecticut for graduate study in business at the University of Rhode Island. He received his bachelor of science degree in industrial engineering, earning membership in Tau Beta Pi. Within Rhode Island Beta he served as Hi., house manager, and member at large on the board of the alumni house corporation. On campus he was elected to Mortar Board and organized a visitation program for secondary school students in Rhode Island.

The William H. Letterman Award (Health Sciences)

To James Craig Stevens, Indiana University '76, of Columbus, Indiana, for professional study at the Indiana University School of Medicine. Elected to Phi Beta Kappa as a junior, he served Indiana Beta as G.P., V.G.P., and A.G. and as the chairman of several committees. Within the university he was twice selected as Interfraternity Outstanding Scholar and held positions of leadership in the Student Athletic Board, the Tennis Club, the Campus Crusade, and Arete.

The Dab Williams Award (Open)

To James Brandon Griffis, Wabash '76, of Richmond, Indiana, for graduate study in philosophy at the State University of New York at Buffalo.

A magna cum laude graduate of Wabash and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Brother Griffis served as G.P. and rush chairman of Indiana Gamma.

The Endowment Fund of Phi Kappa Psi has presented the award every year since 1960 from the income of a sizable trust bequeathed to the Fraternity by the late Solon E. Summerfield, Kansas '99. The 1979 Scholars are presented on this and the following two pages. Photographs were not available for Mark A. Matsil, Columbia; Gary A. Palazzone, Monmouth; William W. Vogelsang, Ohio State; Timothy G. Martin, Nebraska and Joseph L. Schemmel, Iowa. Steven S. Lympny, Virginia Tech '76, now of Acton, Massachusetts, was designated first runner-up and given a prize of $1,000. A magna cum laude graduate in electrical engineering, he served as G.P. of Virginia Zeta and helped to establish its house corporation. At Virginia Tech he was actively involved in several charity drives and in the leadership of organizations.

Second runner-up was Stephen C. Salanski, Kansas '76, of St. Joseph, Missouri, who is now enrolled in the medical school at the University of Missouri—Columbia. He was G.P. of Kansas Alpha as well as I.F.C. representative and a delegate to the 1978 GAC. His award was $500.

This year the Scholarship Selection Committee consisted of Brothers Louis D. Corson, N. Ray Hawk, David F. Hull, Jr., and Theodore J. Urban, who acted as Chairman. More than 80 Summerfield Scholars from each of the Fraternity's Chapters and Colonies were eligible for the three awards.

Special Announcement—Meet Phi Psi's New Director

President Robert W. Chamberlain announced the Executive Council's appointment of Mr. Gary B. Angstadt as the Fraternity's Executive Director and

Editor of THE SHIELD, effective August 1, 1979. He has replaced Dud Daniel, who retired on that date after 31 years of service to the Fraternity, and who was conferred the title "Executive Director Emeritus."

During the months of May and June a Committee chaired by Vice President John R. Donnell, Jr. and composed of Endowment Fund Trustee Rud Lawrence, Director of Fraternity Education Bill Good and District IV Archon French Hill, received and reviewed recommendations and applications for the position. The Committee's review was submitted to the Executive Council in late June.

Brother Angstadt has worked for the Fraternity since 1974, as a Chapter Consultant, Assistant Executive Director and most recently as Director of Development. A graduate of Indiana University, he was initiated into the Fraternity in 1970 at Indiana Beta and served as the Chapter's President. He has attended five GACs, served as a member of the Fraternity's Quarter Century Commission and is active in the Fraternity Executives Association. He and his wife Marcy, Pi Beta Phi, and son Joshua live in Indianapolis.

President Chamberlain said: "Gary brings to the Executive Director position a number of years of experience, a wide involvement in Fraternity affairs, and enthusiasm for Phi Psi. We look forward to an easy transition, and working with him to further improve the services and programs provided by the Fraternity Headquarters for our chapters, colonies and alumni."

He was also special assistant to the Chapter President, a member of the five standing committees, house manager, and undergraduate delegate to the 1978 GAC. Steve participated in four consecutive Western Regional Interfraternity Conferences.
