The First Century

by Kent Christopher Owen, Indiana Beta '58

Whenever anyone or anything attains the great age of one hundred years, surely this is proof positive of hardy endurance and calls for a time of rejoicing. Or, at the very least, for a round of congratulations and good wishes, depending on the general condition of the centenarian. In the present instance, one needn't hold back one bit because The Shield is in excellent health, thank you, and quite capable of enjoying its longevity.

Journalism seldom equips even its finest achievements with the staying power to survive all the ailments that are likely to afflict magazines. Perhaps a steady diet of the ephemeral—the “junk food” of news—eventually ruins whatever serves it up. Then there are the jolting, herky-jerky shifts in taste, interest, and mood that can cause a fatal upset. Some simply expire because of sheer incompetence, inertia, or inanition; others just give up in despair or disgust. And despite its limited readership and editorial concerns a fraternity magazine is vulnerable to the troubles that beset the public prints.

Hence it is no small wonder that The Shield, the fourth oldest of fraternity magazines, should have survived the infirmities of its early years to thrive so vigorously. George U. Porter, Pennsylvania Epsilon, made an earnest but frustrated effort to publish his own Phi Kappa Psi Monthly in 1875 and 1876. After Porter's tragic failure (he collapsed in despair and died at the age of 26), a literary magazine, The Phi Kappa Psi Quarterly, was put out by Joseph Stubbs, Pennsylvania Iota, under the auspices of the Grand Arch Council, but failed in 1877 after three issues, probably because it was too preciously belle-lettristic like many latterday “little magazines.”

Thereafter, the Fraternity was extremely chary of sponsoring an official magazine, and when two young professors at Penn, Edgar Fahs Smith and Otis H. Kendall, volunteered to publish a Phi Psi journal, they were permitted to do so, but entirely at their own risk. The partnership brought forth The Shield in November 1879 with the announced intention of having ten issues a year. The 8-page inaugural number led off with 32 quatrains of “Fraternity's Banqueting Hour,” which lauded the glories and pleasures of Phi Psi life with such lines as:

“These little Iuli
replenish the earth

In a way to drive Benedicts mad;
While Batchelors smile to themselves as they think

That to “multiply” meaneth to add!

They add, it may be,
to disorder and care,

Causing many a fatherly sigh;
Hereafter they'll add to this Order,
we trust,

Raising many a PHI KAPPA PSI.”

The sportive poet was the Reverend Henry Schell Lobingier, Virginia Beta, whose work cropped up in later issues.

The Shield of Phi Kappa Psi

Although another, much shorter poem was also printed in the first Shield, the editors made it clear that they were not about to feature "compositions of a merely literary character." Most of all they wanted to run monthly letters from each of the chapters, so that "intercommunication" could bring about "that unity which is essential to our truest welfare." Seven chapters, mostly from Pennsylvania, reported on their affairs in a variety of styles ranging from the elevated and inspirational to the downright chatty. Penn Iota admitted candidly: "There is one thing which needs attention, however, and which has not unfrequently called forth sarcastic remarks from our friends and that is the glorious state of dirtiness which the front steps are wont to enjoy. They surely belong to the army of the great unwashed."

Almost two columns of the newspaper-like broadsheet were devoted to an obituary that expressively mourned a young and promising brother. The "Personalia et caetera" section—sometimes called by waggish outlanders the "Pennsylvania et caetera"—contained a long list of items about who was teaching or preaching or doctoring or studying or lawyering or working where. There were also a few notes inserted as fillers that mentioned the fortunes of other fraternities, paying special attention to Delta Gamma and Kappa Alpha Theta, and observing that Beta Theta Pi had recently absorbed another fraternity: "This performance of 'swallowing' anything and everything appears to be one of Beta Theta's characteristics." On balance Brothers Smith and Kendall had managed to put out a lively, newsy, and readable first issue that was both a credit to the Fraternity and a sign of better things to come.

Throughout their tenure as editors, which lasted into the spring of 1882, the chemist and the mathematician campaigned for the revival of the southern chapters that had gone under during the War between the States. Mississippi Alphans, South Carolina Alphans, Tennesseans and Virginians from all over the region wrote to The Shield to reaffirm their loyalty to the Fraternity and to support the editors' charge: "There is a great work before us: we must regain our old home."

The chapter newsletters appeared in greater numbers from Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, New Year, Maryland, the District of Columbia, and, before long, from Kansas, Mississippi, and California. The communiqués reported the literary and oratorical honors that Phi Psis were winning everywhere, the efforts to furnish chapter halls in grand style, the jolly dinners and uplifting symposia, the missionary efforts of the popular elocutionist, Robert Burdette, to spread the Phi Psi gospel, the anti-fraternity movements at several institutions, and, of course, the sublime virtues of the fair ladies.

"Bro. McCollin will accompany Doug. mainly to take care of him and as a fellow member of the Bar (to be) debar him from a too intimate acquaintance with the Washington bars. But now my attention is diverted from this barbarous theme . . . ." That, from a correspondent who signed himself Nemo alias Nobody, is a fair sample of Phi Psi undergraduate prose circa 1880. Other letters of more than passing interest were filed from the University of Goettingen where several Phi Psis had gone to benefit from German high academic culture and from Tokyo where Brother Tosui Imadate was teaching and urging " . . . strive to enlighten the world with the influence of this Fraternity, support the world upon the tripod of Phi Kappa Psi, and let there be the ripened fruit of 'Let all mankind be brothers.'"

The early issues of The Shield were notable for the personal letters that had been exchanged by the original members of the Fraternity. The appearance of these served to recapture something of the enthusiasm and high sense of purpose that had enlivened the founders; for instance, William Letterman had cautioned Tom Campbell in 1854 about the unwisdom of using English translations of the Greek and Latin classics: "But still, my dear Tom, it would be doing those an injury who we know are to be our future brothers, for it is not the knowledge so much but the training of the mind that is needed." But most memorable of all the contributions were those of William G. Keady, Pennsylvania Alpha, whose "Old Boy's Recollections of Phi Kappa Psi" provided a richly detailed, vivid, and marvelously amusing account of what it was really like to be present at the creation: " . . . when I left college to go out into 'the wide, wide world,' Phi Kappa Psi was not left behind. It has followed me to this hour. In the most trying hour of my life, I have always found a brother not far off—so that my love for and interest in the Fraternity was not allowed to die out, or become a mere memory. The eternal principles have stood the test of real life."

Through the pages of The Shield the chapters and alumni associations as well as brothers everywhere were gaining a stronger, clearer, more coherent sense of what the Fraternity had become. C. L. Van Cleve, later The Shield's editor and the author of a history of the Fraternity, wrote to support the continuing effort of enlisting subscriptions: "A fraternity which consists of a score or more of isolated chapters with no other tie to bind them together than stated communications from the Grand Chapter is a farce, and is in violent danger of collapsed from spotted fever." Even the stately conventions of the Grand Arch Council were not enough to satisfy the eagerest of the true believers; so with the steady prompting of The Shield a goodly number of Phi Psis and their ladies gathered at Chautauqua, New York, the nation's most wholesome and edifying summer encampment. Amid the lake cruises, the picnic outings, the dances, the banquets, and the lectures and entertainments the Fraternity enlarged its dimensions of good fellowship and gave new impetus to its growing prominence on the American scene. Moreover, the glowing success of the Chautauqua reunions helped directly to transform the all-male, rather formal G.A.C. into a more relaxed, work-and-play get-together, and The Shield was largely instrumental in bringing it about.

One of the Fraternity's strongest and most distinctive traditions, the symposium, was a favorite subject of chapter reports. At Penn Eta in 1880 the banqueters polished off several courses (with the aid of the chapter mascot Bosko), then proposed "regular and promiscuous" toasts, offered "fraternal utterances and anecdotes," and finished with "song after song, until early in the morning, when just as Aurora showed her shining face above the horizon, all betook themselves, joyfully, to the arms of that most happy one of the gods, dear old Morpheus." The writer was still buoyed up by "the wonderful power of Phi Psi, which after it has once permeated the bosom of any one, clings to him through his whole life, goes with him into whatever calling he may have engaged in and leads him, eventually, to that higher place, in which the bonds of fraternal love will be drawn still tighter and the highest idea of the Fraternity be reached."

Increasingly, the chapters used The Shield to address one another on major issues that concerned them all: To what extent should literary exercises be presented in chapter meetings? The consensus was that Phi Kappa Psi was determined not to become a literary society in the fashion of a few Eastern fraternities, but at the same time the Fraternity rightly prided itself on the literary and oratorical abilities of its members and believed that they should be seriously encouraged. Some chapters felt that reports of college politics and fraternity rivalries were rather parochial and somewhat beneath the dignity of Phi Kappa Psi.

The question was hotly debated when the Phi Gamma Delta magazine accused Ohio Alpha of unseemly maneuvering and Beta Theta Pi took the same chapter to task for initiating honorary members. Not only did the Phi Psis come to the rescue of brothers in distress, but several other fraternities, namely Delta Tau Delta, Phi Delta Theta, and Alpha Tau Omega, spoke out vigorously in defense of Ohio Alpha and exposed the Phi Gams as malicious upstarts and the Betas as envious malcontents. The Shield remained mostly above the battle, content to reprint the sharp commentaries of other fraternity magazines. It did, however, endorse the proposition that the practice of taking in honorary members should cease, especially the initiations of politicians: "Then the honor is shoddy, and we are flunkies."

While the controversy wore on, a communication from Virginia Alpha asked why the editors had not seen fit to run a recent letter about the chapter and related matters by Thomas Woodrow Wilson. Whatever the later illustrious brother had to say to the whole Fraternity, and why his letter wasn't printed in a day when almost everything submitted was gratefully accepted, must remain a mystery and probably a considerable loss.

Gradually as the undergraduates and alumni offered their views on such matters as extension policy, chapter size, academic competitions, college politics, the initiation of preparatory pupils, and the conduct of the Fraternity's affairs under the Grand Chapter system, it became apparent that Phi Kappa Psi was indeed made up of a diversity of individuals and chapters. Phi Psis seemed to prize being "straight-forward and independent-minded," as Brother Edward S. Raff, Ohio Gamma, once observed. The "Old Boy" himself had noted that at Pennsylvania Alpha "We put absolutely no restraint on individuality; we had no standard to which all must conform."

Nonetheless, something approaching a consensus did emerge from the frequent exchanges within The Shield, helped along considerably by the editors. Phi Kappa Psi would be as prudent and conscientious in her choice of institutions at which to install chapters as she was in the selection of her members; that meant a deliberate, frankly conservative policy of growth, one that would nurture and sustain the existing chapters, try to regain the lost ones, and seek out or accept only the best colleges and universities as suitable sites for chapters. Likewise, chapters were ideally to be limited to about twelve excellent men, certainly no more than fifteen, so that Phi Psis could really come to know one another as brothers. Obviously, as the institutions themselves increased in enrollments, the chapters were obliged to open themselves to greater numbers of good men. But for Phi Psi the principle of "good men or none" remained constant.

Apparently, The Shield either effectively created a firm stance of resoluteness within the Fraternity at large or fairly represented a set of already-held beliefs. In any case there was remarkable unity if not unanimity on the courses of action thought best for Phi Kappa Psi. The editors were quick to speak highly of the Fraternity's legitimate accomplishments, but were also ready to oppose complacency and vain posturing: "We have a Fraternity of which to be proud; its ranks are filled with many noble, true men, and 'tis our privilege and duty to maintain the legacy handed down to us, even though it be to sacrifice personal ambitions. No brother will ever regret the time given to Fraternity work if devoted honestly and fearlessly to her interests."

Brothers Smith and Kendall served the entire Fraternity by advancing The Shield as a kind of conscience to examine the significant matters that directly affected higher education and the American fraternity movement in the late 19th century. Under succeeding editors The Shield was in the forefront of those journals that called for the establishment of formal cooperation among fraternities, an initiative that led eventually to the organization of interfraternity councils at most institutions and of the National Interfraternity Conference. Through The Shield Phi Kappa Psi was perhaps the very first fraternity to take a determined and forthright stand against hazing, thus setting a course for others to follow. It was quite prepared to poke fun in a gently ironic way at the pretenses and foibles of a few of Phi Psi's old rivals, but its own criticisms were never petty, mean-spirited, or intemperate.

Carrying out its mission as Phi Psi's chief means of "intercommunication," The Shield soon achieved an authority and a reputation that extended beyond its essentially private readership. The magazines of other fraternities praised it for its soundness, wit, and style, and frequently quoted its articles, usually noting the fairness of its opinions. It was also taken into account by the American press at large, and its editorials were often quoted in part or reprinted in whole to represent the most competent and articulate views in the field of fraternity journalism. In this way The Shield enabled Phi Kappa Psi to make a strong impression on the reading public as a responsible leader in the fraternity movement and an exemplar of the very best that fraternities stood for.

To value its place within Phi Psi, the Michigan Alpha correspondent wrote in 1881: "We take a deep interest in The Shield; have preserved, in the Chapter archives, a complete file, dating from the first number, and regard the paper as one of the most important helps toward binding together the various Chapters. It serves to inform all members, not only of the welfare of individual brothers, but provides us with what we can obtain in other way, namely, a general and constant view of the progress of the Fraternity, the purposes and every-day life of the various Chapters and the contemporary history of other Fraternities." In short The Shield must have made itself indispensable to Phi Kappa Psi.

Or so it might have seemed, if the magazine had not been forced to a halt after the seventh number of the third volume in April of 1882. For however well The Shield had served the Fraternity's needs under Smith and Kendall, the fact of the matter was that the editors were never able to persuade enough Phi Psis to subscribe so that it could become a going concern. Just as Porter and Stubbs had found out to their sad dismay, the members of the Fraternity were not yet ready to provide the necessary support for such an undertaking.

It was then left to a special committee of the Grand Arch Council in February 1883 to devise a scheme for reviving the greatly acclaimed but under-financed magazine. The G.A.C. agreed to levy a tax of one dollar per year on each active member and to ask each alumnus to subscribe at the rate of one dollar per year with the funds to be turned over to a chapter elected to edit and manage the magazine.

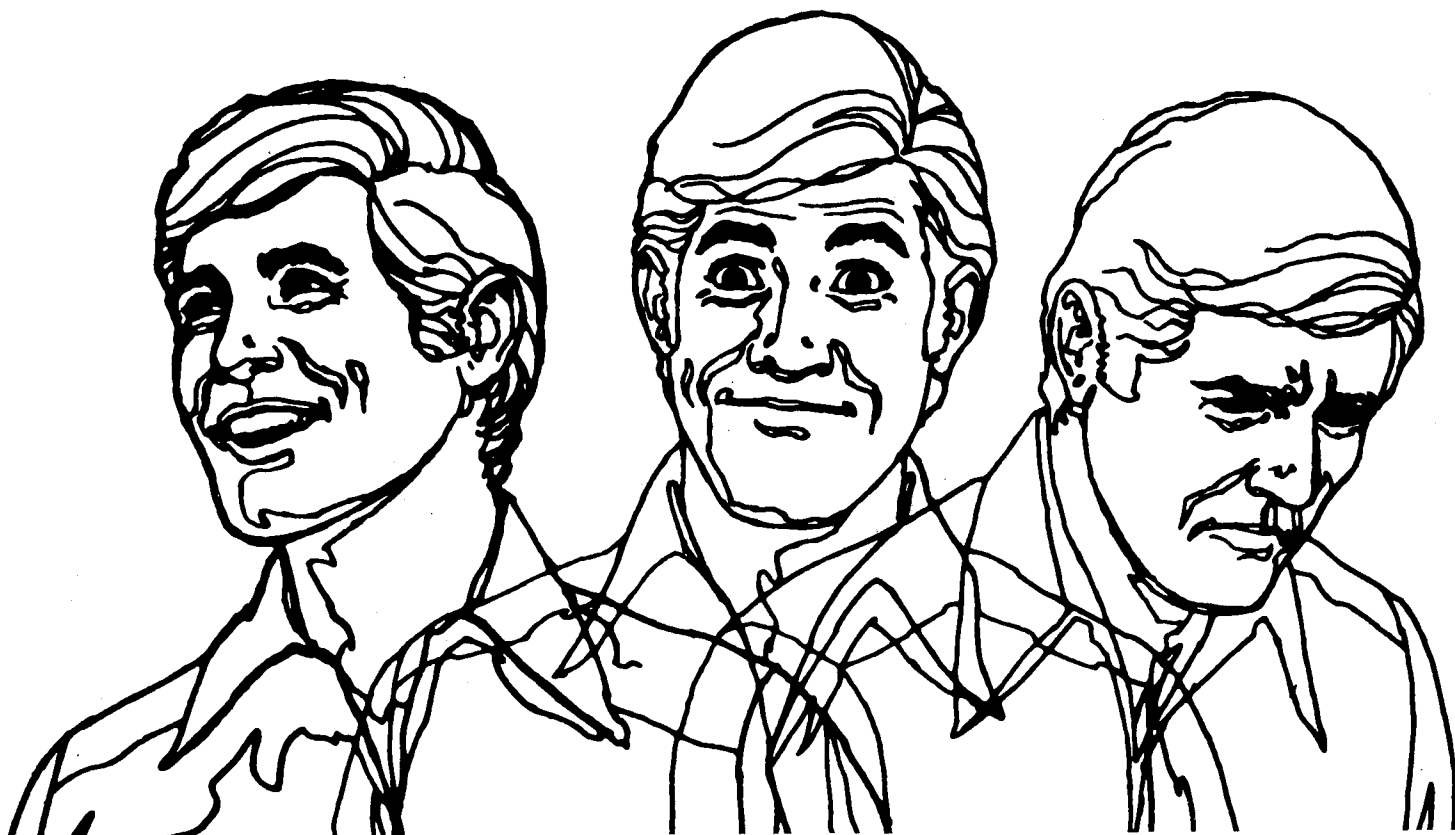

Unwieldy as this arrangement may have seemed, it was practicable enough to bring back The Shield after a lapse of one year in April 1883 with Charles L. Van Cleve, Ohio Alpha, then of Springfield, Ohio, as editor.

From then on, despite world wars, depressions, and assorted troubles and afflictions, The Shield has chronicled the life and times of the Fraternity under fourteen editors, including such great Phi Psis as George B. Lockwood, Indiana Alpha; Lloyd L. Cheney, New York Beta, and C. F. "Dab" Williams, Illinois Delta. Within the last twenty-five years J. Duncan Campbell, Pennsylvania Epsilon, served with particular distinction, as did Ralph D. "Dud" Daniel, Arizona Alpha, who, though better recognized as executive director, proved himself an able editor.

To be scrupulously fair, each decade of The Shield or, at least, the career of each editor deserves to be considered at length, for each brother has had something of value to add to the stature of the magazine and by extension to the Fraternity itself. This survey of The Shield's early years has indicated only a few of the concerns and directions that later on became more definitely pronounced. Let George B. Lockwood have the last word, at least for the time being:

"Long may our 'Shield' shine on,
above
Hearts holding all mankind in love,
Minds fixed on truth and souls that rise
To heights illumined by Heaven's own skies."

Fraternity Education Assimilation vs Tradition

by Randy Donant, Director of Fraternity Membership

Several weeks ago I was in a rather interesting conversation with a few Brothers from California Eta Chapter at Cal Poly. Our discussion centered around the Fraternity Education program, motivation of the Brothers, and the progressively elusive process called change. There was one aspect of the conversation I found to be especially profound. It was pointed out that despite the strength of this fine chapter, there was an apparent lack of confidence with many members to seek new men into the Fraternity. What they seemed to be suggesting was that there was a basic loss of faith in the Chapter's Fraternity Education program. Also, there was a voiced complaint that the program was consistently established by a few, with very little Chapter input. The program over the years had become, in my way of thinking, the product of a significantly small number of Brothers which was placing heavy stress on the pledges going through the program, causing a significant number of them to drop out due to the many demands made on them. Also, several Chapter members were finding themselves isolated from the Fraternity Education decision making process. In short, retention of member involvement coupled with the retention of quality pledges was increasingly becoming a serious realization.

What was happening to this chapter? Well, I certainly do not have all the answers, but here are some thoughts. First, like so many of our chapters, the Fraternity Education program had developed through the years and had been cast in tradition. There had rarely been any questioning of the objectives or activities of the program in specific areas such as 'what was the program trying to accomplish,' and 'how might it relate to personal enrichment and growth, a stronger chapter, or Phi Psi ideals?' More and more was added to the program . . . all in the name of innovation, but, with time, very little was dropped. As a result, demands on time, demands on privacy, and commitment to school were beginning to take their toll on not only the pledge class but the membership as well. Also as years passed, a greater defensiveness for the program was established. This created a very difficult environment for change and new ideas. If anything at all, there was a great solidification in perpetuating the program based on what THEY, the Brothers, had always done before in order to accomplish the goals and objectives which the Chapter felt each pledge must experience in order to be an outstanding Phi Psi. After all, we all had to go through it too!

Well, the Brothers of this chapter are certainly not unique among the many Greek chapters throughout the country. They are at least talking about it. They have recognized the problem as well as some of its ramifications to morale, involvement and motivation. This "chapter introspection" is the first major step, I believe, to a healthier environment of Fraternity Education in the Chapter.

Secondly, there appears to be missing an element of sound Fraternity Education development. That is, the processes of goal setting, achievement and evaluation. On an annual basis, chapters should feel very comfortable about seriously assessing their program. Obviously, anything as intense as this program finds one of its foundation blocks in the personal egos of those who have invested a great amount of time in it. What we at times don't recognize is that the egos of other Brothers, those on the periphery, are also being affected. These egos must be overcome for the good of the Chapter.

Comparison of Traditional and Membership Development Concepts/Programs*

ASSIMILATION (Membership Development)	rites of passage (Traditional Pledge Programs)
EMPHASIS IS ON THE INDIVIDUAL Each person is considered to be unique—having different values, needs, goals, talents, and skills. Each pledge is assessed individually, identifying talents and weaknesses as they relate to the Chapter as a whole.	EMPHASIS IS ON THE GROUP Attitude of “What’s good for one is good for all.” Equal/same treatment based primarily on tradition and the convenience of the Brothers.
CHAPTER UNITY IS STRESSED Pledges already have so much in common (e.g. being new to the campus and the Chapter, living out-of-house, etc.) that they will NATURALLY be attracted to one another. The REAL challenge is to integrate them into the Chapter. When a man pledges, he pledges the CHAPTER, not the pledge class, yet we seldom (if ever) put our energy into providing opportunities for MEANINGFUL interaction with the Brothers.	PLEDGE CLASS UNITY STRESSED Chapter makes a “big deal” out of the pledge class as a single unit, requiring and encouraging group pranks, projects, etc. Meetings, discussions, and goals are separate from those of the Brothers.
PLEDGES ARE DRAWN INTO “WHOLE CHAPTER” ACTIVITIES If the purpose of a pledge program is to create good Brothers, then help new members get to know what the rights, responsibilities, and realities of being a member are—e.g. serving on committees, “tailing” officers, participating in the setting of goals, and helping to achieve goals. (Lord knows you could use the help!)	PLEDGES PARTICIPATE MAINLY IN PLEDGE ACTIVITIES In traditional programs, new members are “sheltered” or “Protected” from participation in chapter decision-making, and goal setting, for fear they can’t “handle it” or that it might “scare them away.”
RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE SUCCESS OF THE PLEDGES FALLS ON EACH MEMBER Each chapter member exercises his right to vote to pledge new members and each is therefore responsible for helping throughout the assimilation process. The size of the pledge class may actually be determined by counting how many Brothers will accept this responsibility fully and follow through with it.	THE PLEDGE TRAINER IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE SUCCESS OF THE PLEDGES After rush, active members generally dust their hands of responsibility for new members, and the pledge trainer is left (alone, usually) to prepare and enculturate the new members.
THE GOAL OF PLEDGE LESSONS IS NOT SIMPLY TO MEMORIZE THE MATERIAL, BUT TO UNDERSTAND AND BE ABLE TO APPLY IT	PLEDGE LESSONS ARE CHARACTERIZED BY ROTE MEMORIZATION
DEVELOPMENT CONTINUES FOR THE DURATION OF AFFILIATION Members are aware that there are always new skills to be learned as “active Brothers” and Fraternity officers. Just because a person is initiated doesn’t give him the right to “coast” or sit back on his proverbial “laurels” while others do the work. The Chapter provides members with opportunities for growth, e.g. workshops and seminars.	GROWTH AND LEARNING END WITH INITIATION Initiation signals “you’ve finally arrived,” “made it,” and survived. Somehow, scruffily pledges miraculously turn “cool” and “acceptable” over night.
PRIME MOTIVATORS ARE PRIDE, ACCEPTANCE, UNDERSTANDING, AND THE EMERGENCE OF SELF-RESPECT AND CONFIDENCE Brothers are responsible for setting a good example for the pledges to follow. Expectations are explained and established early and regular individual pledge evaluations are used to assess progress throughout the pledge period.	PRIME MOTIVATORS ARE FEAR AND INTIMIDATION These tactics may have fairly good short term results, but wait until you “put down the whip” or turn your back!

This is one reason why models of evaluation have been created. It allows all of us in the same way to look at how we've done in order that we can improve. Once accomplished, serious goal setting and goal achievement activities can transpire within the Chapter to prepare for the future.

I have been brought up with the philosophy that we all support what we help to create. I doubt very seriously if any of us will sell ourselves out, especially if we have invested time and effort in a project or activity like a Fraternity Education program. The objective for all our chapters should be to draw in the ideas and thoughts of as many Brothers as possible in creating, updating, evaluating, and changing our program. Fraternity Education is too significant an aspect of fraternal organizations to be the pride of a few in the Chapter; it is really the essence of what we value, what we believe, and of whom we are. Fraternity Education should not be static. It should be as contemporary as we are.

Certainly if we are the Brotherhood we profess to be, then the Fraternity Education program of the Chapter must reflect all those important aspects which create this brotherly environment. Obviously, this is no easy task; but if we are to maintain high levels of involvement and motivation, the exciting challenge of achieving some form of consensus among all the Brothers is extremely important.

The Fraternity Education Workbook which all chapters should have (copies are available from the Fraternity Headquarters), provides you with the tools for goal setting and goal achievement. There are also experiences which, in a non-threatening way, provide you with the chance to clarify the values you have (about Phi Kappa Psi) with those of other Brothers in the Chapter. It is my personal belief that if time is given to seriously evaluate how our programs in Fraternity Education have done, then, by using the goal setting process, the programs and activities of the future will be reached at a higher level of success for all.

Third, we have for no other reason than neglect and the passage of time, failed to understand more fully the changing values of our peers and the needs they have to survive within a very complex world. I am sure you are all familiar with Maslow and his hierarchy of needs. This model, in pyramid form, attempts to create a hierarchy of needs ranging from the very essential, such as food, clothing, and shelter, progressing to higher levels as described in our need for self-esteem and ultimately reaching the most sophisticated needs of all, self actualization. As we develop our Fraternity Education program, it is essential that we not ignore the pervasiveness of Maslow's studies.

Throughout life we affiliate with all types of groups in order to fulfill specific needs. This is no different in fraternity. Men pledge with certain preconceived images, expectations and needs. Thus, the Fraternity Education program we've developed, not only during their pledgship, but throughout their experience in Phi Kappa Psi, becomes so crucial to the strength of our chapters. In essence, if needs and expectations are not being met, realistically, during the duration of a man's experience with the Fraternity, he will drop out or drift away.

Just recently there was developed a model—a comparison of two different outlooks towards Fraternity Education. One outlook is more traditionally oriented and is called the "Rights of Passages." The other is membership development oriented and is called "Assimilation." From the very outset, let me say that I am a strong supporter of the more contemporary outlook . . . "Assimilation."

Briefly, the traditional program finds its emphasis on groups. What is good for one is good for all. It denies the uniqueness of the pledge or of the member. Greater emphasis is placed on pledge class unity. As a result, two camps can be created in the chapter, the pledges and the Brothers and, ne'er the twain shall meet, except through the Big Brother. The pledges are never a part of the problem solving or decision making in the Chapter since it might be too difficult for them to handle or it is assumed that their ideas are not worthy. In this traditional mode the Fraternity Educator is responsible for the success of the pledges. Once the rush is over, it's his baby. Due to the time commitment of being the Fraternity Educator, most of his pledge lessons are characterized by rote memorization. All too often the prime motivator of this more traditional mode is found in fear and intimidation. Finally, once initiated, the attitude of the Chapter is . . . "you've made it!" and there is nothing more to learn. This certainly does not do much for motivation or creativity, especially for our upper classmen Brothers.

In looking at the other outcome, the membership development mode, there is greater emphasis on the individual. Each person is considered unique. Each man has different values, needs, goals, talents, and skills. Emphasis is placed on Chapter unity in contrast to pledge unity. It is rare that a man pledges a pledge class; they pledge the Chapter. Thus, in this mode, there are more activities that integrate pledges and Brothers. Pledges are drawn into the "whole chapter" activities. The underlining scene here is to provide a program that creates good active Brothers; not good professional pledges. It is so easy to lose sight of this. The responsibility for the pledge program rests with the entire Brotherhood; not just the Fraternity Educator. The goal of the pledge program is not just memorization, but rather an emphasis on understanding and application. In this mode, one's fraternal or personal development does not end upon initiation, but rather continues during one's affiliation. Finally, the prime motivators are pride, acceptance, understanding, and the emergence of self-respecting confidence. Remember the comments about Maslow? This mode recognizes our unique needs and helps us to expand our personal growth and pride. What could be better?

The chart summarizes these two outcomes.

It is hoped that your Chapter takes some time at a chapter retreat or meeting to discuss these two approaches to Fraternity Education. We cannot afford to lose sight of the changing needs of our peers. We cannot help but maintain a level of strength and pride if we but keep our sights on being relevant and contemporary. I am by no means challenging the sound tradition found in our Ritual. I am challenging YOU to question the tradition you have established throughout the years in your Fraternity Education program. I am not suggesting that fun be taken out of the chapter. I am saying that we owe it to ourselves to make the most of our undergraduate experiences. The potentials for maximizing our personal growth and enrichment can be realized in Phi Kappa Psi if we but work on it.

Six New Archons Selected for 1979-1981 Terms

Six new Archons were selected for 1979-1981 terms in elections held during last fall's District Council meetings and Woodrow Wilson Leadership School. The new representatives to the Executive Council give undergraduates six of the ten voting memberships on the Council. Phi Kappa Psi was one of the first fraternities to pioneer the undergraduate representation system of government. Archons have been voting members of the Executive Council since 1886.

In addition to being a member of the Executive Council, the Archons are the presiding officer of their District and are the custodian of the archives, records and other District properties. The Archons are in contact with the chapters and colonies in their District and make recommendations and suggestions to them and to the Executive Council as becomes necessary—all of this, and school work too!

District I

Todd M. Ryder is the Archon serving District I, and is a native of Norwalk, Connecticut. Todd was initiated into Phi Kappa Psi at the Rhode Island Beta Chapter, is a Junior Accounting major this year at the University of Rhode Island, and wants to strengthen the District wide bond during his tenure. Brother Ryder has attended two District Councils, was the Chapter's IFC representative for 1978, and won the '78 Pledge of the Year Award. Todd has served as the Chapter's Assistant Treasurer for the past two semesters.

District II

D. Randolph Drosick from West Virginia Alpha was elected Archon for District II. Randy hails from Thorpe, West Virginia, and is a Junior at West Virginia University, with a double major in Chemistry and German. Randy lists improved inter-chapter communications among his District goals. A member of several scholastic and leadership honoraries, Brother Drosick is also active in intramural athletics.

District III

Mark R. Ricketts is the only Sophomore elected to the Executive Council this year, and claims Miami University and Ohio Lambda as his college home. Brother Ricketts, a Columbus, Ohio, native is an Accounting and Finance major, an Alumni Merit Scholar, and is active in intramural athletics. Mark looks forward to serving District III best by encouraging intra-District activities and communications.

District IV

Larry L. Light, a native of Tavernier, Florida, is the new Archon for District IV. Larry has served his Florida Beta Chapter as Corresponding Secretary, Vice President, and most recently as President. Brother Light has attended two District Councils, and the 1978 Grand Arch Council. A Senior Electrical Engineering major at the university of Florida, Larry's undergraduate activities include membership in various leadership honoraries, intramural athletics and involvement with his Chapter's House Corporation. Larry is a charter member of the reorganized

Chapter, and stresses Alumni Association involvement in strengthening the District.

District V

Gerald "Jay" J. Donohue, a junior at the University of Kansas, was elected as District V's new Archon. Jay has served his Kansas Alpha Chapter two terms as Corresponding Secretary, is currently the President of the Junior class at K.U., and is very involved in several other campus activities. The Business Administration major attended the 1978 Grand Arch Council, and plans to develop improved inter-chapter communications and organization within District V.

District VI

Jack P. Eckley is the new Archon for District VI. A graduate student at the University of Southern California studying Public Administration, Jack is a recent transfer to California Delta having been initiated into the Fraternity at the Ohio Zeta Chapter at Bowling Green State University. Jack served Ohio Zeta two terms as Corresponding Secretary, chaired several committees, and was the 1978 Summerfield Winner. Brother Eckley's leadership in many activities was recognized by his receiving the B.G.S.U. President's Distinguished Service Award in 1978. Jack served as a Phi Psi Chapter Consultant during the 1978-1979 academic year prior to enrolling in graduate school this fall. Jack plans to give top priority to strengthening the Fraternity ties within the District.

Diamonds are forever, and so is the Brotherhood at Illinois Delta who recently celebrated their Seventy-fifth "Diamond" Anniversary at the University of Illinois in Champaign. The holiday weekend of September 14, 15 and 16 was highlighted by the return of alumni, appearances of Fraternity officers and university officials, as well as a gala banquet.

Business was the first priority as the undergraduate Brothers and the alumni Chapter met together for the semester's initial Board of Directors meeting. After several matters were settled, the board members had the chance to once again experience college night life with the younger Brothers on the "Chambana" strip. Meanwhile, alumni arriving later in the evening were met eagerly with tours of the house and story swapping between the past and the present. Brothers were also honored with the first appearance of Fraternity Executive Director Gary Angstadt and his lovely wife Marcy.

Saturday morning was one of early rising to prepare for the day's events, which were the results of months of planning by Whiskey Deltans, led by reunion chairmen Todd Salen and Pat O'Keefe. Hospitality chairman Mark Porst and his able committee met each alumnus at the door to issue name tags, accommodations details, and tickets to the ensuing football battle between the Fighting Illini and the Missouri Tigers.

Before the football game, Phi Psis old and young enjoyed a brotherhood party on the front porch featuring burgers, brats, dogs and beers. The opportunity to talk Fraternity with alumni and such notables as brothers Dud Daniel, Executive Director Emeritus, Gary Angstadt, Executive Director and Robert W. "Sandy" Chamberlain, Fraternity President, added to the socializing which was graced by the appearance of the lovely women of Alpha Chi Omega, with whom the Illinois Deltans share a football block.

After the game, remaining undiscouraged by the Illini's loss to Missou, Phi Psis made ready for the cocktail hour in the President's Hospitality Room at the Ramada Inn of Champaign prior to the Jubilee Banquet. Brother Mike Saladino acted as head bartender while Warren Raybould, House Corporation President, acted as host for the pre-dinner event which included guests from various fraternities and sororities on the Illinois campus.

Given prior to the Prime Rib meal was a fraternal welcome by Brother Jeff "Clyde" Patterson, the chapter's External V.G.P., who became intimate friends with the microphone by evening's end. The harmonious guitars of Brother Frank Whiting Jr. and his friend Charlie Ireland provided entertainment. Post dinner remarks from G.P. Ted Niemann was followed by a presentation of "Illinois Delta Today" by Brothers Patterson and Whiting.

Highlighting the program were three guest speakers including Stan Levy, Vice-Chancellor for Student Affairs for the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign; Warren Raybould, President of the Illinois Delta Alumni Board and Sandy Chamberlain, Phi Psi's President. Telegrams were also read from Brother David Dodds Henry, former U. of I. President, Ken Potter, former President of Phi Kappa Psi and Illinois Governor Daniel Walker, who were unable to attend but extended congratulations to the Chapter.

Awards presented during the program by the Chapter went to brother Greg Proteau, as Outstanding Alumnus, Brother Jim Acheson for his years of dedication and service as both an advisor and friend of the Chapter, and a special presentation to Dud Daniel for his work for the Fraternity and Illinois Delta as Executive Director of Phi Kappa Psi.

The program was closed with Remarks for the Good of the Order in which many alumni and undergraduate Brothers took the opportunity to add their feelings on Illinois Delta's 75th year of bonded Brotherhood. Following was an impromptu rendition of Phi Psi favorite "Amici" in a sentimental moment, as everyone left the Ramada for the "Méele at ol' 911," Illinois' beloved Chapter House.

Over one-hundred visiting alumni and wives had another chance to interact with the undergraduate Chapter and their girlfriends, dates, and our beautiful chapter Sweetheart, Kathy McGee of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Those less interested in conversation found music and dancing in the Card Room, as well as a bar in the "Mom and Dads" room in the basement, to be an inviting alternative.

The Phi Psi Weekend at the University of Illinois was climaxed by the riding of the third annual "Phi Psi 500" tricycle race on the Quad. Every sorority on the Illinois campus was represented by a competing team and throngs of supporters, to see who would leave with the coveted trophies for First Place, Best Costumes, and Most Spirited Chapter. At the end of the final heat on the sunny Sunday afternoon, Chi Omega emerged as the winner. But Phi Psis young and old couldn't help but think that there was a bigger winner of the day and of the entire weekend, that being the reaffirmation of seventy-five years of brotherhood at Illinois Delta!

Phi Psi Luncheons

Often, the prime vehicle for sustaining those friendships is the Alumni Association. Listed below are the times and locations of the Fraternity's Alumni Association meetings. ### Bigger and Better

As the fall semester draws to a close, Arizona Alpha has just initiated into the brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi nineteen well-qualified men: Robert Birmingham, Craig Diller, Patrick Duffy, and James Ehrenreich, Phoenix; Jon Boggs, Michael Dugan II, Jay Spurgeon II, and Mars Thierman, Tucson; Robert Berg, Las Vegas, Nevada; William Cammett, Penn Yan, N.Y.; John Erskine, Fountain Valley, Calif.; David Gordon, Highland Park, Ill.; Brook Hammond, Tulsa, Okla.; George Knott, Spring Valley, Ill.; Randall Krieg, Hood River, Oregon; David Morgenstein, San Francisco, Calif.; Jerrold Nicholas, Carlsbad, N.M.; Scott Shagrin, Los Angeles, Calif.; Blair Thomas, Sparta, N.J.

In addition, on December 3 the new officers elected to guide the chapter were installed. They are Keith A. Richardson, GP; Russell A. Olson, VGP; David L. Clair, AG; Timothy J. Stocker, P; Michael S. Jenkins, B. G.; Thomas M. Birmingham, SG; Steve A. Smith, Hod; Robert M. Clark, Phu; and Patrick J. Duffy III, Hi.

After an absence of several years, an Alumni Association is once again in Tucson. Organized with the help of Bob Gibson and several other prominent Tucson alumni, the Association already boasts such notables in Phi Psi as Ralph "Dud" Daniel.

Service held an important position again in Arizona Alpha's activities. This semester's projects included a picnic with underprivileged children, a park clean-up, and several blood drives.

In closing, I would like to congratulate Arkansas Alpha on their installation into Phi Kappa Psi. Phi Psi welcomes another chapter as the Fraternity grows in size and strength.

Host for District Council

The highlight of fall quarter 1979 was hosting the District IV Woodrow Wilson Leadership School and District Council at Auburn. Fraternity officers and staff attending the conference were executive director, Gary B. Angstadt; Vice President, John R. Donnell; Secretary David F. Hull and Chapter Consultant Steve Fowler. Workshops were held on Rush, Chapter Finance, and Pledge Programs. A new Archon was elected, from the Florida Beta chapter, Larry Light. French Hill, past Archon, did a fine job for District IV. Alabama Beta wishes French the best of luck in the future.

Elections were held in December. The new officers are: Billy B. Bailey, GP; William D. Gross, VGP; Michael R. McFadden, P; John W. Shores, AG; Bryan E. Oliver, BG; Eric S. Likos, PHU; Jerry C. Weed, HI; Douglas J. Hertha, HOD; and James S. Harmon, SG.

For fall quarter, we pledged Robert Clay Whitehead; Huntsville and Michael Andrew Wayne, Middletown, Ky.

Alabama Beta is looking forward to winter quarter. The big event for all alumni to mark on their calendar is our Birthday Party, Jan. 26, 1980.

Enlargement of Brotherhood

The fall semester of 1979 started off with the initiation of two new Brothers; Rick Montgomery, Deerfield, IL; and Darryl Hushaw, Miami, FL. Following this was a very strong rush program netting 17 individuals, and our fearless Fraternity Educators Jon Mason and Stuart Ginsberg are keeping them organized. These fine men include Juan Amato, Puerto Rico; Jay Byers, Ypsilanti, MI; Neil Collie, Solana Beach, CA; Charles Day, London, England; Pat Esposito, Des Plaines, IL; Jamie Hollensteiner, Barrington, IL; Mark House, Monroe, NY; Terry Jones, Greenfield, IN; Blaine Kloeckner, Eagle, MI; Ed Lowrie, Wheaton, IL; Scott Malnak, Northbrook, IL; Dan McKee, Appleton; Jim Meyer, Chagrin Falls, OH; Dave Morgan, Bethesda, MD; Guy Oberwise, Norridge, IL; Mark Underwood, Chesaning, MI; and Jeff Van Hoosear, Quincy, MI.

Our chapter has been involved in many activities this year. We sponsored our annual all-campus "Square Dance" with a live band and caller, and it turned out to be a lot of fun and exercise. Another endeavor was earning money doing all of the work for the Tenth Annual Beloit Folk and Blues Festival. We worked hard all weekend, and hope to use the money for some improvement or addition to our house. During Homecoming, an informal cocktail party was held for returning alumni after the football game. It was quite enjoyable, and we hope any Brothers will stop by for a visit anytime they are in the vicinity.

We have had a hayride in the snow and a nice fireside gathering afterwards, along with an early Christmas party were dancing was done to the sound of the big band era. The president of the college, Martha Peterson, came for dinner one evening and gave a talk about what she does outside of the college. Also various other guests have come to dinner and given informal talks to the Brothers and pledges.

We have been negotiating with the College some time now to get a lease for our house, and our alumni board has been very cooperative with this venture. Several additions to the house have just been made including carpeting the hallways. All of the doors were refinished and stained by the pledges as their pledge project.

Several of our Brothers are making a name for themselves on campus, scholastically and athletically. GP Kirk Jacobson has already been accepted to Med School and Kevin Morris was voted as our Solon E. Summerfield Scholar. Jay Sames was captain of the Cross Country team and received All-Conference Honors. All three captains of the B.C. soccer team are Brothers also; they are Jai Balkissoon, Jim Graaskamp, and MVP on the offense Ron Vlaskamp. Andy Schumacher was voted MVP on the defense and was an All-Conference recipient. Jay Sames and Mike Berolatti are resident assistants this semester, and Mike is the editor of the college newspaper. Peter Kozelka will be student teaching in California next semester and we wish him well.

Founder's Day will be held at the Beloit Wisconsin Gamma Chapter House and we are looking forward to seeing many Brothers at that time. Hopefully by then, all of our pledges will have been initiated.

1st, AGAIN, In Scholarship!

Indiana Zeta is happy to report that for the twentieth semester in a row the Chapter has again won the campus scholarship award with an all time high G.P.A. of 3.23. This is the highest average ever achieved by any housing unit in Butler's long history.

Fall Rush yielded a pledge class of eleven members: David Ashley, Michigan City; Jeffrey Draper, Roann; Jeffrey Gower, Auburn; Brian Hostetler, Indianapolis; Stephen Maenhout, N. Liberty; Kenneth Massaroni, Libertyville, Ill.; Stephen E. McKenzie, St. John; Martin St. Clair, Fulton; John Trace, Martinsville; and Mark Shane Wilson, Evansville. We welcome them as prospective members of Phi Kappa Psi.

Our alumni and Public Relations Comm. has had a busy semester, forming a Parent's Club that will assist us in our search for ways to procure a permanent house. The committee is also publishing a newsletter for the benefit of parents and alumni.

The Chapter is, of course, continuing its search for a permanent house, but received a severe blow with the Trustee's postponement of a decision on the controversial "Wabash Plan." The Chapter has not let this setback hurt us and we will continue to make every possible effort to gain a new home.

The Brothers who attended the District Council and Woodrow Wilson Leadership School would like to thank the Brothers at Purdue and the Fraternity Headquarters for an informative and enlightening time.

We would like to take this opportunity to wish all Chapters the best of luck in the new year!

Cal—Berkeley Great Achievement

This school year has been a period of great achievement for Cal Gamma. Fall was started right by our moving into a new Chapter house. The house is located in the midst of the Greek area at 2726 Channing Way. Our first week in the house ended with the initiation of 9 men from our spring pledge class. They are: Richard Renslo, Orinda; Alan Deitch, Los Angeles; Joseph Jackson, Rancho Palos Verdes; Mike Mitchell, El Segundo; Bryan Harter, Richmond; Bruce Spurlock, San Pablo; John Cammozi, Martinez; Michael Ward, Castro Valley; and Robert Creps, Calabasas.

Rush week ended with the pledging of 15 men. This is Cal Gamma's largest pledge class since our chartering in 1978. They are: John Montague, Oakland; Joseph Tabrinsky, Michael Sokolsky, Michael Torres, Rancho Palos Verdes; Chris With-Seidelin, Phil Angelini, Mill Valley; Jeffrey Flairty, Philadelphia, PA; Daniel Pellissier, Whittier; Jeffrey Schrager, Omaha, Neb; Bradley Jones, Petaluma; Don Larson, Alamo; Michael Loscavio, Walnut Creek; Michael Watson, Santa Barbara; Brandon Baum, Berkeley; and Eric Tuckness, Gilroy. Cal Gamma membership now stands at 46. This is almost double our membership from fall of 1978.

Officers to start off the 80's are: GP, Ernest Beernink; VGP, Gregg Thompson; P, Darren Jones; AG, Michael Neiman; BG, Jeffrey Polsky; SG, Miles Appel; Hod, Bryan Ramona; Phu, Bryan Harter; and Hi, Greg Sawdey.

Cal Gamma fall pledges pose for the Phi Psi photographer in the new Chapter House.

As far as activities are concerned, Cal Gamma is still right there on top. This year's community service project, cleaning up Tilden Park's peace grove, was done with Beta Theta Pi. The Third Annual Bounce-a-thon, where the Brothers bounce a basketball from the Berkeley chapter house to Stanford will be held in January. The Phi Psi 500 is planned for spring. Social events coming up are the Winter formal and a ski trip. In athletics, both our intramural football and volleyball teams made it to the playoffs. Our basketball team, which won the intramural championship last year, is ready and raring to go again this year.

Cal Gamma also had its share of individual achievement. Ernest Beernink was named this year's Summerfield Scholar. Miles Appel is one of Cal's yell leaders while Bryan Ramona is sports director for the campus radio station. Past GP, Gary Goldstein received campus wide recognition by making it big in a national magazine.

The Brothers are looking forward to Founder's Day and hope to see all of our alumni there.

This has truly been a year of great achievement, and the Brothers look forward to many more in the 1980's.

UCLA Sixteen New Pledges

We welcomed sixteen new pledges into the Chapter in early September. These pledges are: Lewis Averill, Bradley Black, Dave Byrd, Yun Sang Choun, Stephen Davis, Mark Evans, Biff Hallin, Sean Hargaden, Mike Khougaz, David Larimer, Thomas Middleton, Brian Morelan, Chris Raymond, Tony Rodman, Kurt Seelig, and Jeff Silver.

In October, the Chapter initiated the Spring Pledge Class. Those initiated were:

The Chapter teamed up with the Tri-Delts to construct a Homecoming float. This partnership proved to be successful as we won first place in the float competition and the perpetual Grand Marshals trophy. We have Pat Mayock, our Homecoming Chairman, to thank for his leadership as he got every Brother motivated in this effort.

The Chapter was active in all I.F.C. sports. Brad Livingston and Tom Middleton were the champions in the Racquetball division.

Our community service effort continues in the support of the UCLA Unicamp program. This program benefits the underprivileged children of Los Angeles. We are enlarging the booth, "The House of Horrors" from seven to over fifteen rooms.

The officers elected for Winter and Spring quarter are: GP, Bill Iliff; VGP, Mark Messersmith; AG, Michael Dutton; SG, Randy Mac Dougall; HI, Robert Miles; PHU, Ray Greenlee; HOD, David Burrowes; and P, John Striff.

The Brothers are very proud of the accomplishments of Jerry Kurland and Jeff Wallack as they are Student Body President and Vice President, respectively, at UCLA.

New York Alpha Wins Intramurals

The busy fall semester allowed N.Y. Alpha to enjoy a feeling of prominence among Cornell's 50 other fraternities.

Last spring's PHI PSI 500, directed by Ned Pride '77, was Cornell's largest and most popular. The 500 is a 1.1 mile race through "Collegetown," in which participants chug drinks for charity. Last spring's 500 raised over $7500 for the Ithaca Youth Bureau.

N.Y. Alpha's other major accomplishment of the '79 spring semester was winning the coveted intramural "All-Sports Trophy." This award is given to the fraternity that accumulates the most points in intramural competition. The last time N.Y. Alpha won the trophy was in 1975.

The fall semester started with the usual house clean-up and room improvements. N.Y. Alpha also led off Cornell's fall social year with a successful party. Social Chairman B. Charles Armstrong '78, and David Pace '78 provided N.Y. Alpha with a full social bill that kept the entire Chapter active.

N.Y. Alpha sent three representatives to the Woodrow Wilson Leadership School at Rhode Island Beta. They were Stephen Jester '79, Tom Sayer '78, and Dietmar Schott '77.

Rush, under the direction of Hank Camuso '78, has been going very well and N.Y. Alpha anticipates taking a large pledge class.

Formal rush starts January 15 and concludes January 20. President Mike Sinesi '77, House manager Chris Wagner '78, Treasurer Ed Kleppe '78, and Ken Johnson '78 have been working on starting a fund drive for house improvements. The fund drive should start early next semester.

Georgia High Hopes

Here in Athens, excitement always fills the air during the fall. This was especially the case at the Georgia Alpha chapter house. The Brothers returned almost two weeks before classes in order to do many repairs and improvements in and around the house, and to prepare for rush. Our rush program was more organized than ever, and new found enthusiasm was visible on the face of every Georgia Alphan.

This fall's rush netted us seven excellent pledges: David Osley, Clarkston; Paul Roberts, Weston, Mass.; Wayne Chambers, Springfield, Va.; Tom Malady, Doraville; Allen Driver, Warner Robbins, Wright Penn and Dan Peecher, Athens. Georgia Alpha has revealed the mysteries of Phi Kappa Psi to four new Brothers: C. Lee Mitchell, St. Simons; Lanier G. Langley, Douglasville; David G. Catlett, Smyrna; and W. H. McAbee, Jr., Pendleton, S.C.

Georgia Alphans continue to excel in all areas of campus involvement. Raymond Weathers Stephens, III was recently named to Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, Omicron Delta Kappa, Mortar Board, Sion Bass Smith Founders Fellowship (for law), and was a Senior Superlative. Charles Henry Marsh was the Student Judiciary's Chief Justice, and also a Senior Superlative. Thomas Matthew Mashburn was initiated into Phi Eta Sigma and BIFTAD, the highest honor a freshman or sophomore male may achieve at the University of Georgia. Earl Day Ehrhart was also named to Phi Eta Sigma. Ralph Merritt Sink was recently named Georgia Alpha's Solon E. Summerfield Scholar for 1979.

On November 20, Georgia Alpha celebrated its third anniversary. On November 16, a banquet was held as part of the celebration. The banquet was attended by Fraternity Vice President John Donnell, Secretary David Hull, and Executive Director Gary Angstadt. In Georgia Alpha's short three year history, many honors have come her way. Late last spring, Georgia Alpha won second place in intramurals for the 78-79 school year. Also, for the second year in a row, Phi Kappa Psi was named as one of the top five finalists for Fraternity of the Year. This prestigious award, presented by Alpha Omicron Pi sorority, is based on academics, athletics, leadership, and campus and civic involvement. The competition is between the university's thirty one fraternities.

Georgia Alpha looks forward to the coming years with hope for the future, and pride in our past. It is safe to assume that Phi Kappa Psi is here to stay in Georgia, and we look forward to initiating many more men into the Phi Psi experience.

Continued Strength

The Illinois Delta Chapter is proud to welcome 19 new initiates: Stephen Acheson, Eric Avram, Marc Carter, Robert Christiansen, Stephen Davis, James Derry, William Forster, Didier Glattard, James Gross, Chris Hallen, Robert Jaret, Andrew Larson, Joseph Leininger, Andrew Mihm, John Picchiotti, Todd Raufeisen, Samuel

Reinkensmeyer, Steven Sonnenleiter, and William Whiting. After a successful pledge-ship, the Brothers are eagerly awaiting the leadership and involvement that these men will provide.

The "Whisky Deltans" closed out 1979 with elections. Among the new officers were Mark Porst, GP; Chris Niemann, Internal VGP; Steve Nieslawski, External VGP; Mike Valentine, P; Jim Kokoris, BG; and Dave Nettleton, SG.

One of the brightest moments of the Phi Psi's fall semester was the support for Mike Jacobs as candidate for Archon at the District Council/Woodrow Wilson Leadership School at Purdue University. Although Jacobs lost in a close election, Illinois Deltans were the most numerous at the conference as we totaled 43 in attendance. Brothers Phil DeMarie, Vince Ruggiero, and Pete Bulgarelli played instrumental roles in organizing the weekend.

Illinois Deltans held various leadership positions on campus. Ted Niemann and Pete Bulgarelli are on the U-C Student Senate, Jeff Patterson, Mike Jacobs, John Munger, Dave Weslowski, and Mike Osowski are on the Interfraternity Council and, Jim Kokoris, Chip Cirillo, and Jeff Patterson are staff writers for the Daily Illini.

On campus Illinois Delta is not known as a jock house, but quite a few varsity athletes have made 911 South 4th Street their home. Brother Randy Conte is a starting pitcher for the Illini; freshman Joe Leininger plays on the tennis team; Chris Hubbard captained the water polo club and played alongside Brother Jim McNichols; Jeff Kirk runs track and Bill Forster plays defensive back for the Illinois football team.

Another highlight to the Phi Psi's semester was our World Hunger Philanthropy which featured songwriter-humanitarian Harry Chapin. Under the direction of Todd Salen and Chris Hubbard, the charity drive ran very smoothly.

Salen, Porst, and Pat O'Keefe also played a big part in September's 75th Anniversary on campus celebration (see feature article).

Our Heritage Project contribution is doing well, as we have raised $1,084, so far the most donations of any Chapter in the country. We raised the money through fund raising dinners and happy hours.

Phi Psis are also looking forward to Founders Day this February.

Indiana

Enthusiastic Fall

The Brothers of Indiana Beta started off the semester with our infamous "Arabian Nights" Dance. Each Brother was required to work at least twenty hours setting up the dance, as we all looked forward to the night of October 6th. Everyone had a great time whether dancing in the sand, or swimming in the heated pool set up especially for the dance.

The Chapter has had a very productive semester in intramurals. Our golf team won an all campus victory. Bro. Scott Davidson was also low medalist. We were crowned all fraternity football and handball champions. The pledges were also deemed champs in volleyball.

The Shield of Phi Kappa Psi

We have been fortunate in having Brothers named to many campus positions, including; Indiana University Student Foundation President Dan Cox, Student Athletic Board directors Brothers Jeff Brown and Jeff Muenier, and Student Advisor to the University's President Greg Cozad. Brother Cozad was also named as "Hoosier Pride" the mascot for the I.U. Holiday Bowl bound football team.

We are looking forward to this spring with events such as Founders Day, I.U. Sing, and Little 500. This year will be Indiana Betas 30th "Little 5" race, Phi Psi is the only housing unit on campus that can boast such a feat. Also the Brothers anticipate cheering our number one ranked Basketball team and Coach Knight to a victory in the NCAA final in Indianapolis.

Iowa The Hawks Are Back

The fall '78 rush turned out to be highly successful at Iowa Alpha thanks to Rush Chairmen Jim Miller and Brent Erwood. We pledged 20 new men in August. They are: Doug Stutesman, Davenport; Dave Wagner and Mike Barnes, Sioux City; Dave Lind and Dave Cobb, Waterloo; Steve Ollenburger, Mason City; Joel Sears, Grinnell; Mike Sealy and John Robison, Cedar Rapids; Bob Harris, Scott Winterbottom, Dan Bartlett, Mark Radosevich, Steve Flood, Greg Kline, and Andy Susanin, Des Moines; Dennis Lyons, Kenilworth, Ill.; Todd Lincoln, Omaha, Neb.; Steve Jordon, Englewood, Colo.; and Brad Borrmann, Edina, Minn.

The Iowa football team, under the guidance of our new head coach Hayden Fry, made tremendous improvements this year, and we look forward with excitement to the coming years of his leadership. This year many Chapter activities revolved around the home football games. One such activity was the Homecoming Brunch we held for our Alumni on October 20. We feel that this event was a great success and plan to continue it in the years to come. It is our hope that events such as these will lead to strengthened alumni ties.

Officers for the fall '79 semester are: Jeff Cilek, GP; Brent Erwood, VGP; Mike Richards, P; Tom Thomas, AG; Jeff Nieman, BG; Larry Long, HI; and Craig Kickbush, HOD. These officers have provided excellent leadership over the past semester. We hope next semester's officers will do as fine a job.

This past summer Iowa Alpha underwent a complete interior renovation of the house. This is something we have been looking forward to for some time. A $75,000 loan was obtained and all of the walls, plumbing, and wiring were redone. This renovation sparked many new improvements done by the Brothers to their own rooms as well as the exterior of the house.

Important events coming up at Iowa Alpha include; Christmas party on December 7, formal in February, the MD dance marathon in March, and the Phi Psi Open Golf Tournament in April.

We would like to thank our alumni at this time for their generous contributions and support in getting the house remodeled; it could never have been done without them!

Memphis State On the Rebound

Greetings and Salutations, Brothers! We at TN Zeta are happy to announce we are on the rebound from a few years of apathy and discontent. Our active membership was reduced from 30 to 8 in 3 short years, but the true spirit of Phi Psi Brotherhood has shone through. In the last few months we have begun to rebuild what was and will be a Chapter of which to be proud.

Our new spring officers are: GP, Lee Raines; VGP, Tim Gilliland; P, Harvey Reese; and AG, Mike Williams. With a lot of elbow grease and perseverance from them and the rest of the Chapter, we have assured ourselves of a charter at Memphis State for years to come.

We are very proud of our fall pledge class consisting of 9 good men. They are Robert Fiveash, Munford; Jerry Mike Dickson, Huntingdon; Kevin Shaver, John Condon, and David Shelby, Bartlett; and Alex Fedineck, John Herold, Bill Menkel, and Rusty Toone, all from Memphis.

With the combined efforts of all our Brothers and pledges, we will return to our traditional annual Phi Psi 500 during Greek Week in April. Our past three 500's have netted over $5,000 for Le Bonheur Children's Hospital in Memphis, and we hope to match that amount this year. Any suggestions or helpful advice on 500's would be greatly appreciated.

We once again proudly announce our Founder's Day Celebration on the weekend of February 16 and 17. A Welcome Alumni Party will be held Saturday, the 16th, following the Memphis State basketball game at 8:00 p.m. Sunday, the 17th, a cocktail party at 5:30 p.m. will be followed by a smorgasboard banquet at 7:00 p.m. All functions will be at the Chapter House, and anyone in the area is invited to attend. RSVP to the Chapter House by February 5th.

To our illustrious Brothers and friends at TN Epsilon, concerning their Spring Ordeal: We will bring our usual contingent of highly sociable Brothers and pledges to Knoxville to revel in the festivities and abscond with as many 'Last Lap' t-shirts as possible.

Congratulations are in order for: Wes Shelby '74, Forest Prods. Tech.; Henry Smith '74, Accounting; Steve Stagoski '75, Geology; and Gerald Chow '77, Bus. Mgmt., who all graduated in December. Congrats also go to Phil Ruleman '74, and David Hooper '75, who are both doing well in Law School; and Mike Dew '71, who completed Dental School and is now working for the government practicing dentistry in Eufaula, Oklahoma. Many thanks and congratulations go to 'Bama Beta at Auburn for an excellent District Council held there in November, and to Larry Light from Fla. Beta on being elected District IV Archon. Special congratulations go to Arkansas Alpha at U. of A. on becoming the first Arkansas chapter and the 82nd active chapter, as of December.

From the efforts of a majority of our Chapter our coffers are once again well lined. Over $1000 was raised cutting and selling firewood. The money is being used to finance our Spring Rush effort, which promises to surpass last fall's.

Our latest house improvements include a new roof over the chapter room, conversion of a bedroom into a game room, and new cabinets in the kitchen. Also, we owe our lives to Robert Fiveash, who delivered us heat by repairing our cracked boiler in November.

Our door is always open to anyone passing through. Please stop by the House for some southern hospitality.

Mike Williams, Correspondent

Miami (Ohio) Home at Last!

The fall semester at Miami has kept all of the Ohio Lambda Brothers busy as we moved into our new house while renovating it. After a summer of major repairs, the first couple months of school were spent turning the Hinkle Estate into our new home. The Brothers came down a couple weeks early to work on the house, and since then it has become one of Miami's most unique fraternity houses, consisting of both a house and adjoining apartments. The Chapter, under the outstanding leadership of President Don Durbin, has enjoyed the challenge and excitement of the new location.

Three of our neighboring fraternities, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Alpha Tau Omega, and Sigma Alpha Mu, each invited us to their homes for a welcoming dinner and get-together. These fraternities helped us a great deal in making us feel more at home in our new fraternity row.

Along with the excitement of a new home, this fall also found us excited about the initiation of five outstanding men into our chapter. They are: Mark Dunlap, Cincinnati; Bret Koplow, Novelty; Chris Schorr, Lancaster; and Jeff Stone, and George Timmons, Columbus. These men were under the fine guidance of Fraternity Educators Pat Clark and Nick Yaksich. We are all confident that they will be quite an addition to our Chapter.

Elections for semester positions were held and the following were chosen: John Watkins, Hi; Mark Foster, Hod; and Jim Mains, Phu. Already these Brothers have begun working hard at fulfilling their obligations.

Through two long nights and rainy weather, we kept the Phi Psi spirit going as we held our annual 50 Hour Tennis Marathon for the American Cancer Society in September. The successful weekend was headed by Brother Andy Hasselbring and was sponsored through the help of Coca-Cola.

In October our hard work in preparation for Greek Week and our constant enthusiasm throughout the games earned us the Alpha Phi Sportsmanship Award for the competition. We've also just learned that our Chapter has moved up to the 3rd highest in scholarship ranking among fraternities here at the "Mother of Fraternities."

Homecoming held its usual excitement as we spent the week preparing our float with the sisters of Alpha Chi Omega. The float, commemorating Miami's NCAA tournament victory over Marquette two years ago, was under the excellent supervision of Brothers Will Voegel and Ken Saunders. Brother Greg Clements, representing the Chapter, was elected to Homecoming court, and the highlight of the weekend was renewing good times with our alumni.

Congratulations are in order for Brother Al Kmiecik who just took over the title of Mr. Miami 1980. Al's talent of juggling helped him win the competition.

In other honors, Brothers Mike Murray, Andy Hasselbring, Dave Lewis, and Mark Ricketts were selected as members of the Miami University Student Foundation, while Brother Barry Goldstein received the Patterson Prize Math Award for the top freshman Math Student of 1978-79. Barry was also selected to the Kodak Scholar Program.

We are proud to announce that District III's new archon is Ohio Lambda's own Mark Ricketts. We are all certain that Mark will do an excellent job in his new position.

A number of Brothers have been athletic standouts here at the University. Among them are Jeff Stone, place kicker for the varsity football team; Steve Frederick and Terry Murphy, varsity soccer teammates, and Terry was named most improved player; John Ulrich, varsity wrestling; Dirk Armstrong, varsity cross country; Bruce Short, President of the hockey club; Andy Kratt, lacrosse club; and John Toth, gymnastics club. Chip Weiant, President of the University's Sailing Club, has led his team to a top-twenty ranking in the NCAA. Steve Frederick and Bob Bachtel did an outstanding job of winning the fraternity handball tournament.

Socially, our Chapter has been somewhat handicapped due to the finances of our new house. Still under the direction of social chairmen Tim Patton and Mike Murray, we managed to have our main party, the 1st Annual Dance of the Arabian Knights, and later in the semester another date party with an "Around the World" theme. We've also had a construction party with the Alpha Chi Omega's, a western party with the Delta Gamma's, a mock St. Patrick's Day party with the Alpha Phi's, and a Pajama party with the Kappa Alpha Theta's.

Most recently we formally displayed our home during an open house which was attended by University Administration, Faculty, Student Government Officers, Students, and both old and new neighbors. The Open House was under the direction of Brother Andy Hasselbring, Public Relations Co-Chairman.

Finally we would again like to thank the Phi Psi Fraternity, our alumni, and our parents for all of their generosity and constant support in helping us to fulfill our dream of permanent housing. Through our hard work and sacrifice it is reassuring to realize the thoughtfulness of those who are our supporters.

Gregory E. Clements, Correspondent

Michigan State 25th Highlights Fall Term

On November 10th, Michigan Beta celebrated its twenty-fifth year at Michigan State University. The festivities began that morning with a pre-game party at the house and then proceeded to Spartan Stadium where the Spartans ran all over the Golden Gophers of Minnesota. After the game, a semi-formal dinner dance was held at the Albert Pick in East Lansing, where Alumni and friends from all parts of the country met and reminisced about old times. We were fortunate to have Bob George, Michigan Beta's first president and current president of our Corporation Board, and Cotton Thompson, member of the Corporation Board for 25 years and its first president, who with others, gave a history of Phi Kappa Psi at Michigan State.

The Phi Psis would like to thank all those who attended and especially Gerry Grossi and Ed Dudgeon, whose time and effort helped make this the success that it was.

Other social activities this term included a Homecoming float building party with Delta Gamma, a trip to the Ohio Delta Chapter at Ohio State, and a Christmas party with the ladies who are friends of the Chapter.

Michigan Beta was also active athletically. Our football team finished with a respectable record and our bowling team finished with a 26-3 record and captured the small house fraternity league championship. Next term we are looking forward to both basketball and volleyball, which should each have formidable teams.

Fall term ended on a good note when we welcomed four new Brothers into Phi Kappa Psi: Dave Tworek, Mt. Clemons; Ron Kellerman, Centereach, N.Y.; Michael Martin, Oxford; and Clark Kraemer, Port Huron. All were very active in Chapter activities while pledges, and are sure to be valuable assets as Brothers.

Missouri Prosperous Semester

Missouri Alpha enjoyed one of its most prosperous and eventful fall semesters ever. Foremost was the August 25th initiation of seven outstanding Brothers.

The mysteries of the Fraternity were revealed to: David Case, Pleasant Hill; Mitch Stern, Chesterfield; Craig Trautman, Creve Coeur; John Vannoy, St. Louis; Kyle Chadwick, Independence; Gary Pender, Kansas City and John Bogosian, Granite City, Ill., boosting Missouri Alpha's Initiation Roll to 1133.

In addition to an exemplary initiation class, Missouri Alpha is extremely proud of its twenty-six new pledges. Comprising one of our Chapter's largest pledge classes ever are: Ted Barr, Miami; Scott Stephenson, Barrington, Ill.; Dwight Canning, Jamey Underhill, Scott Debandt, Dave Applegate and Jim Verhoff, St. Louis; Rick Hahn, Houston, Texas; Bill Krauss, Madison, Wis.; Randy Reiners, Chesterfield; Jeff Darr, Kirksville; David Bromley, Buckner; Keith Dobbins, Chesterfield; Tim Mankus, Oakville; Corey J. Hinrichs, Marshall; Jeff Beason and Rober Wendall, Pleasant Hill; Howard Eugene Coleman, Chicago, Ill.; Tim Richerson, Kirksville; Matt Hulsey, Iron-ton; Michael McHenry, Independence; Kevin Powell, Harrisonville; Scott Wade, St. Joseph; Michael Len Ward, Gladstone; Bill Toney, Alton, Ill.; Kevin Mallon, Wash- ington.

Brother Tom Humphrey grabbed all-campus medalist honors in pacing Missouri Alpha's pinfall bowling team to the intramural crown. Also, Tom had the distinction of earning the Chapter's Most Improved Grades Award with a near-perfect 3.93 grade point.

On campus, Missouri Alpha is well represented by Norm Finbloom, Inter Fraternity Council treasurer and Terry Nichols, a member of Mizzou's Student Foundation Executive Board.

Our Chapter was placed into the campus limelight when senior Buddy Gillespie was crowned Homecoming King. After becoming a finalist, Buddy was selected King in a campus-wide election.

Pledge Jamey Underhill earned a berth on Mizzou's varsity baseball team and is looking forward to his first season this spring.

Our annual Phi Psi 500, which was held September 28th, was a spectacular success. Of the 14 sororities competing, Zeta Tau Alpha won the tricycle competition. At the "500" party, nearly 600 people watched as Mary McManey of Kappa Kappa Gamma was crowned queen.

At Christmas Formal, we selected an outstanding and devoted friend of the Fraternity, Kathy Michaels, as our Sweetheart.

Our outgoing Chapter president, Jeff Abbott, a past Archon of District V and Solon E. Sommerfield Award recipient, was succeeded as G.P. by junior Terry Nichols. Other officers for the spring semester include Greg Thompson, VGP; Kevin Copeland, P; Bill Nachtsheim, AG; Jeff Bruens, BG; John Bowman, SG; John Abbott, Hod; John Vannoy, Phu; and Joe Hoover, Hi.

Although the Chapter House is filled to its 64-man capacity, we are eagerly anticipating our spring and summer rush which we hope will muster a stronger than ever fall pledge class. Rush chairmen Mark Kessell and Mitch Stern welcome the names of any prospective rushees.

Brother Buddy Gillespie, Missouri '77, flashes a Phi Psi smile as he is crowned Homecoming King in halftime ceremonies at the University of Missouri.

Renovations to our old-wing to refurbish water damage from last winter are now complete, and our new living room furniture has provided a much-needed facelift to the Chapter House.

All indications point to a prosperous as well as significant semester as this spring marks the 100 year anniversary of our Chapter house, the pride of all Missouri Alphans.

Monmouth Rebirth

The Greek system is showing a strong comeback. Six years ago, after the tragic accident involving the death of a pledge, most fraternities were uprooted. Now as wounds begin to heal, students and staff alike are recognizing the benefits of fraternal organizations to both their members and the college. The three-fraternity Greek system has more than doubled its membership in the past two years.

New Jersey Beta Chapter is no exception. We are proud to announce the initiation of ten new brothers: Marc Palfy, David Chase, Brian Flynn, Edward Kivior, Howard Wishnia, Robert Lesser, Daniel Petryshyn, Frank Dallessio, Jeffery DeGrandis and Kenneth Engel. We are also looking forward to the pledging of another ten men this year.

We won the IFC trophy for intramural football for the second consecutive year, and are looking forward to receiving the Deans Award for sports for the second year in a row also. Number one in social events as well, we packed the house for our "Strike Party" to commemorate the two week strike which began the semester here. We also raised $130 for the Long Branch Invest-in-a-Cop fund, at a recent Fog Party. The fund raises money for bulletproof vests for the policemen in the city of Long Branch. Our Khomeini Party also packed the house during the last week of classes.

Needing repairs, our chapter house is showing its age. Built in 1876, the former Monmouth Manor served as an elaborate hotel at the flourishing Jersey shore. Now, over a century later, much effort is being taken to preserve this Victorian masterpiece. Heading the undergraduate refurbishing is our house committee, spearheaded by Ed Kivior and Jeff DeGrandis. We've also hired a contractor to help repair the house.

Our alumni are planning the birth of the New Jersey Beta Alumni Association. Recent alumni John Palladino and Gary Palazone, (both former district one archons) are working hard for its establishment. They promise much support for renovations in the near future.

The Brotherhood would like to thank Rhode Island Beta for their hospitality at the recent ELC-DC of district one. Twelve brothers made the 500 mile road trip. Send our regards to SDT, and Mugsy—"keep a low profile!"

Oklahoma State "500" Highlights

The twelfth annual Phi Psi "500" was a great success this year. The event drew over 2,000 people, and activities included a week long spirit contest and several fund raising activities for sororities. This year over seven hundred dollars were raised for the American Cancer Society. The 500 week, which is the largest Greek sponsored activity on campus, included a party on Saturday night, with a parade and finally the race on Sunday.

The Fall semester also has been a success with the pledging of eight new men: A. J. Bisson, David Draper, and Mark King from Okla. City; pledges from Tulsa include Mitch Maurer, Kevin Muschinske, John Heffly, John Kiska, and Gerard Stege. Besides keeping busy with their many activities, they are also busy with the books. They have one of the highest G.P.A.s of any class in years.

Sports has kept the entire Chapter busy this past semester. Having participated in football again this year and rating high in volleyball, we are looking forward to a big season in basketball with many returning starters.

Congratulations to our newly elected officers for the Spring Semester. They are: James Wiederholt, G.P.; Jeff Kembel, V.G.P.; Rick Schmigle, B.G.; Jamie Delaney, Hod; John Steen, Phu; and David Pitts, Hi. Also an additional congratulations are due Jamie Mack Delaney on his initiation this fall semester. Already he has proven to be a big asset to the Chapter.

We would also like to express a special thanks to our brothers at Kansas Alpha for hosting us during the KU-OSU football game. We had a great time at the party and were very impressed with your hospitality.

Normally when the Oklahoma Sooners meet the Tigers from Missouri on a football field, the screams can be heard for miles! But these two Phi Psis slip the old time friendly grip and swap cheerleading tips during the O.U.-Mizzou Game. #### Purdue Everything is Better

This fall Indiana Delta was honored to host the District III WWLS/DC which proved to be beneficial in both education and brotherhood. The great congregation of 150 Phi Psis certainly engraved an imperishable image that Purdue won't soon forget.

Phi Psis help the trikes through the Mud Pit at Oklahoma Beta's "500." The event drew crowds of over two thousand this year.

We have high hopes for our new fall pledges who were formally pledged on October 15. We believe these men are eager and willing to become good Phi Psis: John Bardwell, Greenwich, N.Y.; Ron Hinton, Haubstadt; Mike Hoch, Columbus; McKinney Jones, Rushville; John Leekley, Wilmette, IL., and Bryan Winslow, Salem.

During Homecoming weekend returning alumni witnessed a special occasion, the dedication of the Wayne "Dusty" Rhodes Memorial Library. A moving speech by John Fredrick and the presence of Dusty's family added significance to the ceremony.

We continued our Christmas tradition with the annual Winter Formal and the party for underprivileged children. Thanks to Santa Claus and his wonderful gifts, the kids had a great time.

With our new officers: Bill Vonachen, GP; Larry Wood, VGP; Gregg Curry, P; and Tom Kieffer, Rush Chairman, plans are made for a strong rush, a spring retreat, and other outstanding activities to carry on the CAF tradition.

Rhode Island 42-Man Pledge Class

The dedication and hard work exemplified by John A. Mase, GP, and Neal C. Fitzpatrick, VGP, has inspired the R.I. Beta Chapter to band closer together in our continuous effort to follow the ideals of the Fraternity. As a result, the increased participation and pride within the brotherhood has made the fall semester an extremely successful one.

Once again, the year opened with the annual Phi Psi Block Party, held Sept. 27, organized by Stephen Murphy and Bill Kenyon. A crowd of 5,000 was on hand with proceeds from the event going towards house improvements.

R.I. Beta was honored to host the District I Woodrow Wilson Leadership School October 12-14. A series of workshops were held to improve relations and insure the smooth running of all chapters. Special guests, Fraternity President Robert W. Chamberlain Jr., Executive Director Gary B. Angstadt and Chapter Consultant Lou Hoffman took part in the activities. At the conference, Rhode Island's Todd Ryder was elected Archon for the District.

Fall rush was a memorable one as 42 new pledges, largest number in the school's history, were pledged. Rush Chairmen Peter Boggs and John Martin performed exceptionally well in this capacity. New pledges include: John Peterson, Joe Adams, George Mihalides, Chris Conti, Dave Merrill, Barrington; Donald Coin, Dave Kehoe, Larry Keefe, Paul Silverstein, Rich Brown, South Kingstown; Don Hourahan, Ed Cunha, East Providence; Jim Vellino, Bob Vincent, Marty Carey, Brian Smith, Bill Guglietta, Providence; Steve Froncillo, Bristol; Steve DiMuccio, Steve Falcone, Cranston; Gary Harrison, Johnston; Jim Galluscio, West-erly; Henry Kinch, Pawtucket; Tom Valenti, Smithfield. From Conn., Jim Cabral, Stratford; Walter Nester, West Hartford; Curt Rapp, Richfield; Chris Peterson, Brian Beni, New London; John Goodwin, South Windsor; Tom Gaipa, Stamford; Mike Durkin, Tony Johnson, Joe Genyard, Jim Miller, Mike Miller, Plattsburg, NY; Tom Rooney, Brian Bresnahan, Andover, MA; Dan Catlin, Brunswick, ME; Jim McKeever, Chicago, IL; Steve Lee, Panama Canal Zone; Steve DiSanto, Bonn, West Germany.

Led by Fraternity Educator Steve Cancelleri, three new Brothers were initiated Dec. 8. Congratulations to Mark Princevalle, Garrett Mahoney and Rick Baldwin.

Homecoming Day presented by Social Chairmen Vinny Prattico and Rich Pelzer was very successful. Highlight of the festivities was a dance held at the Viking Hotel in Newport.

House improvements this semester include a new living room rug, piano, and bar accessories. The outside wood of the house is to be stained this spring.

The intramural football team led by the explosive "Cosmic Connection" of Pete Larson passing to Mark Wawer (the league's leading scorer) and the brilliant defensive play of Mike and Rob Douglas finished first in the conference with an unbeaten record.

Rider College Varied Activities

The fall semester of 1979 saw the Brothers of New Jersey Alpha actively involved in campus and community affairs. Brothers Kevin Mullaney and Gregory Lazicky have been elected Intrafraternity Vice-President and Treasurer, respectively, two vital positions demanding many responsibilities. Also, Gary Fisch, Raymond Cantor, and Wolfgang Hul participated in the National Model United Nations this semester, while Ronald Quirk, president of the Rider Newman Catholic Society, was inducted into Omicron Delta Kappa National Leadership Honor Society. Finally, John LeGoff was elected president of the Campus History Club, and also president of Phi Alpha Theta History Honor Society.

As far as academic achievement is concerned, New Jersey Alpha proudly announces that Robert J. Dunn, Jr. and Edward Pieslak have been selected to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. This honor requires top academic excellence combined with campus involvement. Bob Dunn was also the recipient of the scholarship award given to the outstanding Brother in the Fraternity, and Ed Pieslak became a fraternity senator in student government.

New Jersey Alpha also demonstrated a show of present and future strength by recruiting the largest pledge class on the entire campus—16 men. The Chapter's pledges were actively involved in a Penny Auction for the benefit of Deborah Heart and Lung Hospital, a community service project.

Again, New Jersey Alpha Brothers played a vital role in the success of the Rider Varsity Soccer Team. Robert J. Dunn, William A. Payne, John H. Carmignani, James Canning, Peter T. Kepes and John J. Gallagher all contributed to Rider's E.C.A.C. soccer berth this fall!

After a successful fall rush program, fourteen young men are undergoing pledgship at Cal Delta. They are: Tom Lamb, San Marino; Jim Reilly, Mission Viejo; Steve Harber, Garden Grove; Scott Davidson, Mike Oechsel, David Choi and Michael Olch, Los Angeles; David Bell, Laguna; Peter Hirsch, Torrance; Chris Wilson, Studio City; Victor Faessel, La Jolla; Louie La Haye, Newport Beach; Kevin Casey, Kentfield; and John Ackerman, Redondo Beach.

Cal Delta has experienced an excellent fall semester that saw the Brothers involved in numerous activities. Athletics are in full swing and so far Cal Delta has reached the playoffs in football and volleyball, as well as sweeping the bowling competition. Once again Phi Psi is in the running for the Iron Man Trophy, awarded to the fraternity that excels in athletics.

Social Chairman Jon "Larry" Swedlund was responsible for an eventful social calendar that included the Initiation Party for our new initiates and a Wild Western Party at the home of Maynerd Neff. The event of the semester was a Luau exchange with the Thetas, held at the grand estate of Greg Bert in Brentwood.

The Brothers joined together again this year to participate in USC's second annual walk-jogathon fund raiser. Half of the money earned goes to the Fraternity, and we hope to surpass last year's first place total of $880. We thank those alumni who donated; all proceeds will go towards our fund to repair our deteriorating house plumbing.

Cal Delta has benefited greatly from a good group of officers this year. Led by hard working President Mark Foster, this group has maintained Phi Psi's strong tradition on the USC campus. Other officers include Charles Black Jr., VGP; John De Marco, Executive Vice President; and Brent Enright, Treasurer-House Manager.

A special thanks are in order to our alumni who set a record this past year by being the first to ever donate over $5,000 to the Fraternity's alumni support program. Cal Delta is extremely proud of its generous alumni.

This spring Cal Delta's active membership will be a strong 65; in addition, we plan to take approximately 10 new pledges. Cal Delta will kick off the new year at the Rose Bowl game, and then looks forward to a busy spring semester. Highlights will include the Phi Psi 500, always the hit of Greek Week, and a chance to defend our Songfest title at the Greek Theater.

Look for word of Founder's Day activities in early February . . . also, any recommendations concerning upcoming rushees would be more than appreciated.

The Brothers of Cal Beta have enjoyed an extremely active Autumn Quarter under the leadership of our current Officers: Enrico Hernandez, GP; William Shirley VGP; Kenneth Koontz, P; Brian Smiley, AG and BG; and Scott Fraser, Rush Chairman. To kick off the year the Brothers participated in an exchange with the Stanford Alpha Chi Omega Chapter. This was followed by a retreat to the Santa Cruz beach house of one of our Brothers.

The long awaited initiation of our 1000th Brother took place on November 3rd. In attendance were Fraternity President, Sandy Chamberlain, Area Director Guy Mirandi, as well as Alumni Charles St. Goar, '09 William Shattuck, '27 and Lewis J. Wood, '29. Our 1000th initiate was Thomas Girlich of Daly City. Along with Tom, six other Brothers were initiated. They were: Edward Scott Fraser of San Jose, Douglas Gardner of Rockford, Ill., Elliott Porter of Cincinnati, Ohio, James Rice of Riverside, Brian Smiley of Diablo, and Jeffrey Wright of San Leandro.

The celebration began with the initiation itself, followed by dinner and dancing until the wee hours.

Despite the outcome of the Stanford-University of California Big Game, the Annual Big Game Luncheon and after Game Reception with Cal Gamma were both successful. The gathering of Alumni and Undergraduates reaffirmed that the Brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi continues beyond the college years.

Currently the Brothers of Cal Beta are preparing for a promising Winter Quarter. We are gearing up for our Winter informal Rush as well as for our Founders Day Celebration and our Winter Ski Retreat.

Texas Tech Renewal: Traditions and Dreams

The brothers of the Texas Beta Chapter are in a period of hopeful transition . . . as the 1970's give way to a new decade, the chapter will close one decisive period of its history and usher in a new era of renewed traditions and creative vigor.

In the past three years, the chapter has been restructured and renewed, emphasizing the re-establishment of hallowed and proven traditions. Concurrently, the chapter has undertaken projects which are designed to develop the unique brand of creative vigor which propelled Texas Beta to excellence in the 1950's and 1960's.

An important part of this development has been the re-establishment of the Housing Corporation. Brian Carr, Tim Stephens, Mike Chappell and Roger Settler have spearheaded the effort to renew Texas Beta's relations with its alumni, with the Housing Corporation being the first step in this process. Board members have been elected to serve until Founder's Day, including: Mike Chappell, J. D. Kinnison, Steve Lackey, Wally Larkin, H. A. Sessions, Jr., Tim Stephens and Lantz Tarleton.

Founders Day 1980 will feature the election of new board members for the Housing Corporation, and new officers for the Alumni Assoc.

Spring 1980 Officers for Texas Beta are: Lantz Tarleton, GP; Harold Arnett, VGP; Roger Settler, AG; Steve McNanghton, BG; Steve Lackey, P; Brian Barkley, SG; Brian Morris, Phu; Steve Yandell, Hi, Doug McCartney, Hod; and Alan Cunningham, Pledge Trainer.

Brothers Harold Arnett and Brian Barkley, Fall 1979 Pledge Trainer and Pledge Educator respectively, have conducted an outstanding pledge program, with a new emphasis on tradition and scholarship. Pledges and their big brothers are: Ed Taylor-Erian Carr; Barkley Nutter-Alan Cunningham; Danny Martindale-Steve McNanghton; Wendell Peacock-Randy Park; Matt Harrell-Roger Settler; Ron Yorston-Lantz Tarleton; and Mike Steinberg-Steve Yandell.

The Scholarship program at Texas Beta is one of the best, with the Chapter winning the Interfraternity Scholarship Award for three of the past four semesters. The Award is given to the Chapter with the highest grade point average among fraternity chapters at Texas Tech University, and Texas Beta consistently scores in the neighborhood of 2.8 on a 4.0 scale.

On the intramural front . . . Pledge Mike Steinberg won his division in intramural swimming, a truly remarkable feat. Texas Beta teamed up with the beautiful ladies of Gamma Phi Beta to form a division-winning co-rec football team. In the title game, Randy Park and Steve Yandell connected to score the winning touchdown with no time left on the clock. Texas Beta salutes these two Brothers for their gridiron brilliance.

Recent initiates of Texas Beta include: Brian Barkley, Rick Blethroade, Tim Holmes, Brent S. King, Steve McNanghton, Brian Morris, Steve Purser, and Wayne Williams for January of 1979; in addition for September of 1979, new initiates include: Alan Cunningham, Barry Hendricks, Douglas McCartney, Stephen T. Park and Steve Yandell.

Many Phi Psis from Texas Beta are prominent in local community affairs, in Lubbock and throughout the nation. Brother Joe Stanley has been named as acting chairman of the Lubbock County Hospital District. Brother Charles Roberts has been appointed administrator of the Health Sciences Center Hospital, while Brother Alan Henry holds down a seat on the Lubbock City Council, and Brother Jim Ratliff serves as chairman of the Planning and Zoning Commission. Brother Raymond S. Tapp was recently named to the Board of Directors of the Lubbock University-City Club. Texas Beta salutes these Brothers for their outstanding contribution to the community, and their excellent representation of the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi.

The Brothers of Texas Beta wish each Chapter in the Fraternity a very Merry Christmas, and a happy new decade of the 1980's. May each Phi Psi re-dedicate himself to the ideals and dreams which have made Phi Kappa Psi unique. This Centennial edition is a superlative overview of the depth and brilliance of Phi Psi's vision, that of a Brotherhood of gentlemen united in their desire to improve the world in which we live. May this dream, the dream of Letterman and Moore, dwell with us all into the next century! Amici usque adaras.

Toledo As Active As Always

With the start of a new year the Brothers of Ohio Eta were left with 36 Brothers, and now must rebuild. To help in the hard work, Rick Clegg was chosen Rush Chairman, and by the end of open rush, had delivered 16 fine pledges. All from Ohio, they are: Mark Bohnsack, and Thomas Carson, Toledo; Philip Cleminson, Ottawa Hills; Brian Coughlin, Payne; Kenneth Czeriakowski, John Gilbert, John Hanudel, Jeffrey Lawrence, Paul Hanudel, Steven Hartsel, Thomas Van Wormer, Daniel Heath, and Robert Huddleston, Toledo; Sung-Chul Kim, Sylvania; Todd Noethen, Maumee; and Wesley Schaub, North Canton. We are looking for these new men to help revitalize our Chapter. Many of these pledges are already active on campus: Mark is a Varsity Lacrosse player Phil runs Varsity Cross Country and Track; Brian is a Dorm Senator; Ken is a feature writer for THE COLLEGIAN, our campus newspaper; Paul is a Varsity Football player; and Bob plays Varsity Rugby.

Homecoming featured our first place football team on national television, and provided for a spirited time. Ohio Eta again played a large part in its organization with Past GP John Manore serving as publicity chairman. His greatest task was designing the logo and letterhead to be sent to all alumni of the university! The Phi Psis built our float with the Dancing Rockettes, the school's precision dance team, and our nominee for Homecoming Queen, Diana Puccetti, took top honors!

With Homecoming at an end, elections were upon us. The Brothers elected Karl Wm. Swonger, Jr., GP; Dhuey M. Cronk, VGP; Richard A. Clegg, P; Daniel R. Morrison, AG; Donald J. Kirkham, BG; James S. McKeen, SG; Jeffrey P. Nawrocki, HOD; Douglas P. Allen, PHU; and Jay R. Kent, HI. Through these new officers we hope to continue the fine leadership we obtained from our former officers: John J. Manore, GP; Scott K. Williams, VGP; Kenneth K. Kirkpatrick, P; Richard A. Clegg, AG; Dhuey M. Cronk, BG; Michael C. Smith, HOD; Robert Hotujac, PHU; and Jay R. Kent, HI.

Our congratulations go out to those who graduated; Dennis Acuna, Mark Phillips and Brad Shaw. Special congratulations to Clifford Latta, for being accepted into the United States Air Force Academy. We wish our past VGP all the best. Nicholas Daudelin is ranked first in the Mid-American Conference in swimming. His best events include the 50 and 100 yard freestyle, in which Nick holds Conference and National records. WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN COLLEGES has three more Ohio Etans to include: Ronald Helfrich, Jack Keith Toothaker and Mark Tappen. Phi Kappa Psi at the University of Toledo is coming on strong in Student Government. With the Brothers supporting Mark Tappen for Vice-President of SG, Mark won by the widest of margins. His running mate for President, Dan Heath, also won. Dan has since pledged Phi Kappa Psi! Other government positions held by Brothers include Michael S. Smith, President of the College Of Business, John Manore, President of the College Of Education, and Dan Morrison, Scott Williams, and Jim McKeen Student Senators from their various colleges. Also, six Brothers hold SG committee chairmanships.

This past summer the Toledo Branch of the University YMCA held their largest Freshman Camp program ever. Being chosen as counselors is quite an honor and Phi Psis had another large representation. John Manore, Keith Toothaker, Ron Helfrich, Kevin Kwiatowski, and Dan Morrison all counseled. Kevin Kwiatowski was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the "Y", the largest student organization on campus.

Community involvement is important to a chapter not located directly on campus. Ohio Eta and Chi Omega Sorority finished a project of cleaning, painting, and repair work at the Connecting Point in Toledo, a temporary home for runaway teenagers. Also Rick Clegg was selected as a Big Brother of Northwestern Ohio.

The Brothers would like to congratulate our Housing Corporation Chairman Dave White, an alumnus of Ohio Lambda, on his passing of the Ohio State Bar Exam.

The Brothers of Ohio Eta continue to be proud of their status at the University of Toledo and of the achievements of all undergraduate and alumni Brothers, showing the quality of men selected.

This past summer, many Brothers visited other chapters and were made very welcome. We would like to prove we, too, are as hospitable. So come and visit! And good luck to all, Brothers.

Phi Psi 500 Successful

Tennessee Delta, under the leadership of G.P. Dave Meaden, has enjoyed a prosperous fall semester. Certainly the highlight of the year thus far has been the first annual Phi Psi 500. This meticulously-planned project was the premier event during Vanderbilt's Greek Week. Over fifty mens and womens tricycle teams participated before 1200 spectators on October 5th. The Phi Deltas emerged victorious in the men's division, while the Kappas triumphed in the women's sector. That evening, a veritable mob attended the Phi Psi street dance featuring Cruise Control. Most importantly, the intense efforts of the Brothers raised $800 for the American Diabetes Association. Special thanks are due Joe Estes and E. Breck Jones (co-chairmen), Neal Neuenschwander, John Dille, Allen Schreiber, Rob Ayerst, Brett Combs, and Charlie Davison for this successful event.

Phi Psi has enjoyed another strong fall athletically. The football team finished 4-2, good enough for a third place tie in the M division. Coach and Quarterback Jim Camp led the White and Green attack, aided expertly by all-I.M. performers Todd Stewart (guard), Dave Meaden (linebacker), and Jim Stone (punter/defensive end). John McGowan also performed brilliantly at wide receiver. The soccer squad, under the dual tutelage of Peter Hicks and Brett Barrett, possesses a 5-2 record and is headed for the playoffs. The coaches pace the offensive attack, while fullbacks Bob Johns and Kent White and goalie Jim Decker supply the defense. In addition, the tennis squad finished second in the annual intramural tournament and the volleyball team made the quarterfinals in its tourney.

Fall rush, under the guidance of Peter Hicks and Jeff Kinney, netted four outstanding pledges. Congratulations to: Curtis Sutro, New Canaan, Conn.; Bill Leech, Franklin; Jeff Kirk, Paris; and Dean Lindsey, New Orleans, La. They were initiated on October 28th.

Phi Psi is well represented in various campus organizations. G.P. Dave Meaden is also president of the Economics/Business Administration Association. Jeff Horner serves as president of the Men's Intramural Board. Rich Frohlich chairs Impact's Press Committee. Byrd Bonner performs in the musical group Original Cast. Ted Mankin and Phil Northrup are on the Vandy Concerts Committee. Gary Steier serves on the Appellate Review Board. Finally Jeff Kirk and Dave Love are charter members of the Vanderbilt FRA (Future Rangers of America).

Chapter officers this fall are as follows: G.P., Dave Meaden; V.G.P., Edd Karam; P., Gary Steier; A.G., Jeff Horner; Fraternity Educator, Charlie Marsh; House Manager, Will R.K. Hurst; B.G., Joe Estes; Hi, Byrd Bonner; Phu, Byron Kennedy; and Hod, Jim Decker. This group, accompanied by countless others within the Chapter, has led Tennessee Delta to great heights this term. Next semester looks even better, with a great spring rush expected and a super social calendar lined up. Good luck to all.

Social activities included an Octoberfest, Halloween costume party, a nut and bolt party, a Christmas dinner, and a rush reception in the Student Center. Virginia Zeta presented its annual G'reek Christmas Service under the direction of chaplain Tad Wicker.

West Virginia All Goes Well

December was a busy month for the Brothers of West Virginia Alpha. Our many activities included the election of new officers, a serenade, a tree-trimming party, a Christmas chapel service, an ice skating party, and of course the popular Christmas formal. These good times, along with the exciting news that Donald Nehlen, an assistant coach at the University of Michigan, had been named the head football coach of the Mountaineers, were enough to break up the monotony of studying for class finals.

Earlier in the fall, on September 8th, eight new men from the 1979 spring pledge class were initiated into the Fraternity. These new Brothers include: Paul Ludwig, Ripley; Joe Reckard, St. Marys; Dave Strait, Irwin, PA; Tom Jenkins, South Charleston; Dave Sayre, Parkersburg; Jim Ventarini, Tarentum, PA; George Plava, Masetown, PA; and Bob Cortez, Pittsburgh. These young men have already stepped in to assume positions of leadership and responsibility in the Chapter.

The sixteen members of our 1979 fall pledge class are all working hard in anticipation of their Founder's Day initiation in February. Fraternity Educator Arch Reed has charge over the following brothers-to-be: Jeff Heddoeus, Tom Morse, and Bill Homza, Allison Park, PA; Jim Hamer, Kenova; Rich Dohn, Wexford, PA; Grover Wallace, Greenriver, WYO; Greg Valant, Bob Taylor, and Rich O'Donnell, Pittsburgh; Phil Compton, Clarksburg; Bruce Mazurek, Fairmont; Steve Talbott, Elkins; Christ McPherson and Jim Ritchie, Morgantown; and Brian Steinberg of Huntington. We at West Virginia Alpha are confident that these pledges will continue to take an active part in the Fraternity after their initiation into brotherhood.

Our new officers for the spring semester were elected at our December 4th chapter meeting. Those elected were Jeff Hohman, GP; Jim Muscaro, VGP; Matt Herrick, BG; Zack Mendleson, HOD; Mike Fiery, PHU; and Jim Ventarini, HI. The following officers retain their positions for the remainder of the academic year: Cam Siegrist, P; Paul Hornor, AG; John Ragan, SG; and Zack Mendleson, SG. Earlier this year Randy Drosick was elected Archon for District II. Together, these chapter leaders are busy preparing for the many activities upcoming in the near future. Undoubtedly the most important of these events are the Founder's Day celebration to be held on February 23rd, and our annual Leukemia Radiothon which is held in conjunction with several area businesses in April.

We are hoping to make these and all our other activities this spring semester as enjoyable and rewarding as they have been in the past.

Chicago

The best event sponsored by the Chicago Alumni Association has usually been the Founder's Day banquet. It would be safe to say that our 1980 banquet will be equally attractive. The banquet is scheduled for February 22nd at the Union League Club of Chicago through the courtesy of Vice President Bob Halliday, Illinois. The club is centrally located at 65 West Jackson Boulevard, convenient to trains and parking and has been most suitable. Why not reserve that date right now and contact the guys that you would like to see. This is the place to see them.

Since last year's banquet, the 18th Annual Closed Invitational Golf Tournament was held at Itasca Country Club. Herb Jones, Illinois, defended his championship vigorously but succumbed to Tom McCausland, Beloit, our new champion. Low Net winner Dick Bailey, Purdue, took home the Whiting Trophy.

Our first Low Gross trophy, donated by Ken MacIntyre, Washington & Lee, has been retired. There was no more room for additional names of winners. It will be on permanent display in the Chicago Alumni Association trophy case in our Fraternity Headquarters in Indianapolis. As you remember, this has been our project for the last two years and we have paid over $1800.00 on our pledge. If you wish to see your name permanently recorded there, get your tax-deductible pledge in to our treasurer. Just imagine being part of this colorful display during the G.A.C. next August.

If you were initiated before 1930, you are eligible for the Golden Council. Nominations are being received by your Secretary, so call him if you qualify. Likewise, if you were initiated before 1955, you may qualify for membership in the Silver Council. Call your Secretary at 726-1300.

1980 dues are now payable to our Treasurer, Thomas Whiting, 2245 Drury Lane, Northfield, Illinois. Send your check for $3.00 as soon as you are able.

District of Columbia

Planning is underway for the 1980 Founders Day Dinner. We are changing our formal this year from a stag affair to a dinner-dance with the ladies. Sandy Chamberlain, the Fraternity President, has promised to be with us and we expect a large turn-out. The site will be the Army & Navy Club at Farragut Square and I Streets, N.W., Washington, D.C., and the date will be Saturday, February 23rd. Further details will be mailed to all local alumni when address labels are received from Headquarters. Late arrivals should contact Dave Bryant (703) 573-7018 or Jack Murphy (202) 224-2235.

Orlando Alumni Club Yes, Virginia . . .

Phi Psis are alive and well (and busy) in Central Florida. Gene Cawood, Ohio Wesleyan, practices law and is playing again in local golf tournaments. Jim Lormann, Florida, is busy with his real estate office, and has recently served as Mayor of Longwood and as president of the Seminole County Board of Realtors. Paul Porter, Iowa State, is with an engineering firm in Sanford. He is the current president of the Rotary Club of Lake Mary. Tom Sells, Bucknell, owns and operates a sporting goods store in Winter Park. He is active in the Meridian Club, which sponsors the Tangerine Basketball Classic and the Winter Park Run. Gary Sowers, Dickinson, practices optometry in Orlando. He is active in and very enthusiastic about The Navigators, a missionary movement that helps spread the Christian word on a one-to-one basis. Your correspondent, Errol Greene, Florida State, is completing a year as 1979 president of the Orlando-Winter Park Board of Realtors. He is looking forward to putting a great deal more time into his real estate practice in 1980, as well as into writing articles for THE SHIELD.

If you have any pieces of information, or if you wish to be included in future get-togethers, please contact Errol Greene, PO Box 4011, Lake Mary, Florida, 32746.

Portland

Following a slow start in September, the association members are once again meeting on a monthly basis. These meeting places are announced via postcard mailings to all Phi Psi alumni (regardless of chapter affiliation) in the Portland area. Our congratulations go out to the University of Oregon football team which finished the season with a 6-5 record, establishing the first winning season since 1971. The success of the football team created more attendance at the home games and more alumni had an opportunity to visit the Oregon Chapter house. Both Oregon and Oregon State chapters continued to pledge outstanding men, which the association follows with interest in the "Orange Peel" and "Duck Tales" Chapter Newsletter publications.

Founders Day will be held in Corvallis, Oregon February 16th and will be hosted by Oregon Beta. All alumni are anxiously awaiting the announcement of more details concerning the activities planned and an opportunity to visit with those Brothers, as Founders Day provides the stimulus for a reunion.

Rhode Island

Our social year began on Feb. 23, 1979 with our annual meeting. Officers elected are: President, Paul Ingraham; Vice-President, Steve Carter; Treasurer, Don Brien; Social Chairman, Tom Dacey and Bob Millard; and Secretary, John Spagnolo. Total membership for the year was reported at 150.

Several events were scheduled in conjunction with the undergraduate chapter. Some of these were the Alumni-Undergrad volleyball challenge in April, Alumni Senior Night in May, and the Alumni-Undergrad softball game in September. And, for the first time, the Alumni Association helped sponsor Homecoming on October 6, and made it the most successful Alumni event of the year and one of the most memorable Homecomings in recent history.

Rounding out the social calendar for the year was a new event, the Baseball All-Star Game get-together in July (at a popular local bar), the Annual Pop-Top Open Golf Tournament, and a mid-summer back-yard cook-out at Brother Tom Dacey's residence.

One final event is scheduled for January 27, 1980, a trip to Boston to "Medieval Manor," an eating and drinking establishment offering a floor show while you dine in an atmosphere of medieval times. Finally, our annual meeting will be on February 22, 1980.

John J. Spagnolo, Correspondent

St. Louis

The St. Louis Alumni Association has had an active 1979 and is looking forward to a better 1980. Again we are planning an exciting calendar of events.

To recap 1979, our Association held five events: February-Founder's Day, May-Casino Night, July-St. Louis Cardinal Baseball game, September-chartered bus to the Illinois-Missouri football game, and December-Christmas Party at the Plantation Dinner Theater to see the "Amazing Kreskin."

In 1980 we will be seeking to find more Phi Psis in the area to join in the fun. The key again this year will be INVOLVEMENT. We know everyone can't attend all the events, but we ask you set aside time for one or two for the upcoming year.

The year begins with our Founder's Day Dinner to be held on Friday February 22nd at the Victoria Station Restaurant in West St. Louis County. Please send all reservations to: James Naylor, 864 LaBonne Parkway, Manchester, Missouri 63011 or telephone 314/225-6499.

If you are new to the area or have some new ideas for events, please join us for a great 1980.

James Naylor, Correspondent

South Carolina

The South Carolina Alumni Association is always looking for Brothers in the state to join us and enjoy our active Phi Psi social calendar. A full schedule of formal and informal activities is always available. Please contact any member for additional information.

A highlight of the Summer was the wedding of Tommy Dail and Mimi Williams. The Association took an active roll in the Bachelor's party and the post-wedding celebration. Another highlight of the Summer was a surprise visit from Ed Tate at the Annual Phi Psi Phish Phry. Ed was returning from a banking course at UVA to his hometown of Atlanta when he stopped by.

Although attendance was down, Homecoming '79 was an exciting weekend. The Alumni Banquet was held on Friday Night at the Lion's Head Restaurant. A variety of activities with the Chapter along with an exciting football game made for an enjoyable weekend.

One reason for the low attendance at Homecoming is that success is moving our members away from Columbia. Tim Heup has just moved to Texas to join the Personnel Department of Mobil Oil. Rick Funk has also moved to Texas to serve as the Advisor to the Fraternities at Texas Christian University. Stan Steele is currently doing missionary work in Egypt. He will be returning in the spring to take part in the wedding of his brother, David who is a past GP and is working for Steak and Ale in a management position. Tom Pieluszcak is now an officer in the Navy stationed in Florida. David Woodcock, who flew in from San Diego to attend Founders' Day '79, will not be with us this year since the Navy gave him a "two year free trip" to the Philippines.

There is more to the Association than Homecoming during the Fall. Monthly Happy Hours are held on the last Thursday of every month. Many joint activities are held with the Chapter. Following the Clemson game, a party was held for all Phi Psis. This took place at the home of Willis Bethea. Willis also hosted the Christmas Party where the beer was supplied by Mike Lyons.

Winter activities are now in the planning stages. A Stag Party will be held at Connor Harrison's apartment on January 18th to celebrate the lack of Phi Psi weddings. On Super Bowl Sunday, the Association held an emergency meeting to watch the game and enjoy the New Year.

This year the Association has set a new goal. It is our hope that the Alumni of S.C. Alpha and the Alumni living in this state will join together and offer support to Phi Kappa Psi by giving to the Alumni Support Program of the Fraternity. Please consider giving $25 or $50 before March 1, 1980, so that your name will appear in the SHIELD.

J. Smith Harrison, Jr., Correspondent

From Here... And There

1900-1939

JOHN DAVID MONTGOMERY, Kansas '22, sold The Brazil Herald after 33 years of ownership. He reluctantly bought the newspaper as a favor to the Truman Administration to keep it out of the hands of anti-Americans. Brother Montgomery's philanthropy proved good business, too, since the daily sold for the equivalent of $1 million, payable in cruzeiros in Brazil, compared to the original price of $40,000.

JOSEPH McVICKER HUNT Ph.D., Nebraska '26, Emeritus Professor of Psychology at the University of Illinois, and past president of the American Psychological Association, is the APF's recipient of the 1979 Gold Medal Award, presented at the 87th Annual Convention in New York in September. Dr. Hunt is recognized as "a scientist and theoretician who has markedly influenced our conceptions of infancy and early development," as so stated by the awards committee.

JUDGE FLOYD R. GIBSON, Missouri '28, a federal court judge since 1961 and chief judge of the Eighth Circuit U.S. Court of Appeals since 1974, retired from the court on December 21. Brother Gibson started his career in politics, then was appointed to the U.S. District Court for Western District of Missouri in 1961, by the late President John F. Kennedy. With his retirement, he will move to the status of senior judge and will continue to hear some cases in other judicial circuits around the country.

DEAN D. NESMITH, Kansas '33, was honored in September by his alma mater upon the completion of his 42nd year as trainer for the Jayhawks football team. Brother Nesmith played tackle for KU in 1933-35 and pro ball for the New York Yankees in 1936. And what does he tell nervous parents inquiring as to the potential hazards of playing college football—"he might get run over by a car when he crosses the street, too!"

MICHIGAN ALPHA COLONY

From the President

We are continually confronted by the complexities in life whether the IRS, securing a commercial bank loan or federal student aid, enrolling in a university course or renewing a driver's license. Even the simplest pleasures like visiting a national park now require a reservation. Everywhere you turn, there are lines to be formed, identification to be produced, or forms to be completed in triplicate.

Less we become too complacent, this can happen to fraternity life. Universities, colleges and IFCs require our chapters to submit forms ad infinitum, the Fraternity office wants everything in triplicate—yesterday, the chapter invents another set of forms for each committee chairman to fill out, the housing corporation must have everyone sign a lease agreement to reside in the house, and the IRS and the state corporation commission have their own alphabet of complexities—the 990s, W-2's, W-3's, 1120's etc.

It's no wonder that officers at all levels are beset with the frustrations of deadlines and are slowly drowning in a sea of paperwork. The battle of the bureaucrat is over. Administrivia has won. And if you don't think so, just check any chapter's bulging files.

Some paperwork is necessary but usually more so for the "submittee" than the "submitor." Therein rests our problem. Who are running our chapters and alumni associations? Certainly not the elected officers who are accountable to our membership. Rather, it is that small army of paper collectors who determine priorities, programs and penalties.

The Fraternity was designed to be a simple institution. The Ritual is brief, beautiful and straightforward. The Constitution is short and uncomplicated.

A chapter or alumni association is nothing more complicated than a voluntary association of equal but diverse men who through affinity of one with another affirm shared ideals and values. It is friendship and sentiment. The Ritual expresses it and the Constitution established the framework.

Our primary responsibility is to program for that purpose. The Fraternity continually utilizes different approaches: The Grand Arch Council, regional meetings, seminars, workshops, this magazine, pamphlets, newsletters, brochures, and manuals. All are techniques that are employed.

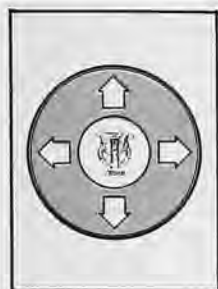

The successful chapters and alumni associations are doing the same. Because our membership is ever expanding through the induction of new members, the process of self renewal is an ongoing one. Retreats, newsletters and workshops are excellent vehicles and need to be constantly re-employed.

An officer must not let himself become bogged down in the administration of his organization to the point where it becomes the purpose of the group. Attention to detail and deadlines is not a sin. But it is when this serves as a substitute for purpose.

Phi Psi is an organization of people. Our success is gauged by the quality of chapter life in our 84 chapters and colonies and in our 86 alumni associations and clubs. As those who are responsible for leadership successfully distinguish between that which hinders group process and that which enhances it, so will the Fraternity prosper.

Robert W. Chamberlain
President

Indianapolis

The new home of the Fraternity's Headquarters, Indianapolis presents a fascinating city for the casual visitor, the conventioneer, the vacationing family, and the permanent resident. With its unique blend of historical pride and progressive determination, the city fulfills the entertainment fantasies of people with widely varying tastes. Downtown (in Indianapolis it's called the "Mile Square" in honor of the original city limits projected by Washington, D.C., architect Alexander Ralston who designed the city in 1821), Indianapolis combines a heritage exemplified by historical restorations with the majestic chrome and glass creations of a strong contemporary inner city.

It is here that magnificent old buildings house the Christ Church Cathedral, the Scottish Rite Cathedral, and the homes of President Benjamin Harrison, James Whitcomb Riley, DePauw '83, and Meredith Nicholson. Here, too, sits the original City Market, restored and face-lifted into the 20th Century so vendors of exotic and ethnic foods, farm fresh vegetables and imported gifts and crafts can hawk their goods to the modern shopper.

From the clean air to the city zoo, Indianapolis presents a city to please and delight the most discerning visitor.

And it offers all with homespun hospitality and warmth that has become synonymous with the Hoosier capitol. Indianapolis is very proud to present . . . Indianapolis!

Hyatt Regency

The convention center for the 1980 Grand Arch Council is the fantastic Hyatt Regency Indianapolis, a spectacular new hotel that captures all the vitality and historic charm of one of America's most famous state capitols. GAC participants will step into the world's largest atrium, alive with greenery, sparkling glass skylights, and the bustling excitement of a major metropolitan hotel. It's a veritable greenhouse of shops, stores and services. Glass-walled elevators glide upward to the revolving restaurant on the roof. Everywhere you turn there is lightness and soaring space.

Part of the special convenience of the Hyatt Regency Indianapolis is in its multiplicity of dining spots, ranging from chic Harrisons, to the familiar golden arches of McDonalds—and all under one enormous roof!

GENERAL INFORMATION

Delegates

Each Chapter should immediately elect three Grand Arch Council delegates—two undergraduates and an alumnus. Alumni Associations in good standing* are entitled to three GAC delegates.

Chapter Advisors, Area Directors

Every Chapter should induce its Phi Psi Chapter Advisor and Area Director to attend the GAC and should contribute to his travel expense if possible. This investment will lead to valuable dividends in the way of counsel, advice and guidance.

Credentials

Delegates should present the original credentials form at the convention registration desk at the Hyatt Regency when you arrive.

Attendance at Council Sessions

At least one delegate from each Chapter and Alumni Association entitled to representation must attend each session of the GAC. The fine for missing a roll call is $10. Each delegate has one vote. According to the Fraternity's By-Laws, Chapters and Alumni Associations shall not instruct their delegates to vote in any specific way upon any matter. Every undergraduate, alumnus, pledge, or Colony member, whether an accredited delegate or not, is cordially invited and sincerely urged to attend the 1980 GAC. All members are welcome to come to each session and are given the privileges of the floor.

*An Alumni Association must have paid $50 to the Fraternity Headquarters for each of the two years immediately preceding the GAC to be eligible to vote. The payment, due May 1 of each year, includes $35 for the general expenses of the Fraternity and $15 for the Endowment Fund.

Convention

Delegate Expense

An allowance is provided each Chapter and Colony to help cover the travel expenses of delegates. The Fraternity does not reimburse expenses of Alumni Association delegates.

This allowance may be distributed among the delegates in any manner prescribed by the Chapter or Colony. Allowances will be paid at the designated hour the last day of the GAC.

Chapter and Colony Records

Delegates should bring the Chapter's or Colony's most recent financial statement or audit. No additional books or records are necessary unless specifically directed by the Executive Council.

Hotel Reservations and Rates

Special rates (European Plan) will apply during the GAC. Singles, $42, doubles $50, triples, $56 and quads $60. Suites are available. Reservations should be made directly with the hotel:

Hyatt Regency Indianapolis
155 West Washington Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46204
Phone: 317/632-1234

Registration Fee

Undergraduate fees are $60, alumni $75, and ladies and guests $75. The registration fee includes the cost of the opening breakfast, awards luncheon, GAC banquet and other events. All fees increase $15 if not mailed and paid prior to July 1, 1980. Please preregister.

Fines

Any Chapter failing to register and attend the 1980 GAC will be fined $500.

Arrival and Departure

The first function of the GAC begins at 8:00 P.M. Wednesday, August 6, with adjournment as close to noon as possible on Sunday, August 10. You should plan your arrival and departure accordingly.

Honors and Awards

Outstanding scholarship, leadership, publications, and other awards will be recognized at the GAC awards luncheon, Friday, August 8. Please be certain your Chapter has submitted copies of its newsletter and rush booklet to the Fraternity Headquarters so they may be included in the competition. There are various other GAC nomination and application forms deserving Chapter attention mailed throughout the Spring.

Standing with the Fraternity

It will be embarrassing to both the officers of the Fraternity and individual Chapter delegates if the GAC is told of any debt owed the Fraternity. When the Fraternity's fiscal year ends May 31, the books will be audited for submission to the Grand Arch Council.

Chapter officers are requested to determine the exact financial position of their Chapters with the Fraternity, and to make arrangements to pay any outstanding debts before May 6. Any charges billed after that date should be paid at once. Any Chapter whose account with the Fraternity is in arrears 90 days or more will not be entitled to vote upon any matter coming before the GAC. Each Chapter, however, must be represented at the GAC.

Each GP should read this information to his Chapter or Colony when the delegates are elected.

Ladies and Guests Program

An especially interesting program has been designed for the Phi Psi ladies and guests. Shopping in Scenic Nashville, Indiana, visiting the world's largest Childrens' Museum, and touring several area historic homes and landmarks await the 1980 GAC participant. The highlight of the convention will be a tour of the Fraternity Headquarters, Heritage Hall.

Other Indianapolis Activities

During the 1980 GAC, Indianapolis offers a variety of other entertainment opportunities. The United States Open Clay Courts Tennis Championship runs August 4-10, with standouts such as Jimmy Connors in action. Market Square Arena has scheduled James Taylor for Friday evening, August 8. Arkansas Alpha, triumphant after its installation ceremony.

Phi Psi In Razorback Country!

by Ahmad Mohazab, Arkansas '79

The dawn of December 8, 1979 broke over the campus of the University of Arkansas, and the cold morning air was filled with the electrified aura of excitement. For that morning, the University was to witness the chartering of its newest fraternity chapter, and Phi Psi was to witness its first conquest in Arkansas. It was to be a glorious day for our Fraternity and our campus, and it seemed like Mother Nature herself had finally broken out of her shell of clouds to celebrate with us.

Chartering weekend officially began with an informal cocktail party Friday night, giving the Brothers-to-be a chance to get acquainted with the installation team and distinguished guests present. The cocktail party was a pleasant sequel to the grueling Phi Psi test we had just taken.

The Trinity Methodist Church was the scene for the next stage in our induction into the Fraternity. The undergraduate members, installation team, and distinguished Phi Psi alumni gathered there Saturday morning to participate in the initiation Ritual. We are justifiably proud to say that the "Big Four" of the Executive Council were all present for our installation: president Robert "Sandy" Chamberlain, vice-president John R. Donnell Jr., treasurer John K. Boyd III, and Secretary David F. Hull Jr., a distinction we are proud to have been bestowed upon us. Also present were such notables as Executive Director Gary B. Angstadt, Attorney General Paul LaPuzza, Chapter Consultants Lou Hoffman and Steve Fowler, District V Archon Gerald "Jay" Donahue, former District IV Archon J. French Hill, former Chapter Consultants Harry Light and Bryan Mueke, Chapter Advisor David J. Evans, and a number of distinguished alumni.

Following the initiation ceremony and a brunch prepared by friends of the Chapter, Arkansas Alpha held its first model Chapter meeting, during which our eyes were opened to the Fraternity's traditions and ideals. To celebrate our installation, a banquet followed at Fayetteville's sky-high Bassette's Mountain Inn, with such distinguished guests as the university's Vice Presidents Vorsanger, Martin, and Womack. President Chamberlain spoke highly of our phenomenal growth into an active Chapter, and presented us with words of advice, which were duly noted and appreciated. The charter was then presented by president Chamberlain and accepted by then-current GP Kendall Faulk, past GP Bruce Lawrence, and newly elected GP Michael Chastain. Gifts were then presented to us from alumni, other Phi Psi chapters, and the Phi Mu sorority, itself the newest sorority on campus. Those gifts shall forever hold their rightful place of honor among Arkansas Alpha's possessions. Following the banquet and culminating the weekend activities was an all-campus dance, giving the new Brothers a chance to experience their newly established bond, the bond of genuine Brotherhood afforded us by our involvement in Phi Kappa Psi.

History of Arkansas Alpha

Arkansas Alpha started as a concept early in 1978 when the University of Arkansas felt a need for a new group with new ideals and a new concept of Brotherhood. As a reality, the Colony was established in October, 1978 by the backbreaking efforts of two great men, Chapter Consultants Bryan Mueke and Harry Light, who sat through more than 200 interviews to form a group with a high sense of motivation, a group able to surmount any barrier in its way to chartering. Arkansas Alpha's phenomenal rise as a Colony, and our fierce determination to receive our charter in a year are a tribute to the efforts of these two men. In the Chapter's one year of existence, it has attained the 4th highest grade point average among fraternal groups campuswide twice, and its members have actively participated in such areas of campus government as the Associated Student Government, Student Senate, Interfraternity Council, Freshman Fraternity Council, Campus Judiciary Board, and the Associated Government of Architecture. The Chapter also won the University's Scholars Bowl in 1979 and has participated in numerous charitable activities for Diabetes, the March of Dimes, and needy families and handicapped children of the area. On a lighter note, the University's Mr. Greek Physique is a Phi Psi.

We see our charter, not as a peak we have reached, put as a plateau on the way to that peak. The University of Arkansas has entered a new era, one in which Phi Kappa Psi is sure to play a major role.

History of the University of Arkansas

"There was nothing to start from but a farmhouse and one hundred and sixty acres of land, a hillside surpassingly beautiful indeed, a location the finest in the state, but the soil alone to build upon."

In this manner the second president of the University of Arkansas described the founding of the University in Fayetteville 104 years ago. And what a century it has been for the University and the State of Arkansas. That small farmhouse has long departed from the scene, but the "surpassingly beautiful hillside" still enhances the beauty of the main campus of the University of Arkansas. Moreover, the contributions the University has made to the educational and economic development of Arkansas are known to every citizen of the state.

Legislation creating the University was passed by the Arkansas General Assembly on March 27, 1871. The establishment of the University resulted also from a federal contribution under the provisions of the Land-Grant Act passed by Congress. The federal government donated land which was sold under the provisions of the Act, and, with this action, the University became one of the great Land-Grant institutions that pioneered public higher education on a large scale in this country.

In 1912, the University was divided into its first colleges. The original schools were the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Engineering, and the College of Agriculture. The growth of the University since that time, and the broadening of its curriculum, is seen in the fact that on the Fayetteville campus alone the institution now has six colleges and the graduate and law schools. More than that, the University now is divided into six major campuses, the Fayetteville campus, the University of Arkansas at Little Rock, the Medical Center, the Technology Campus, the University of Arkansas at Monticello, and the newest addition, the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff.

Current enrollment at the University is upward of twenty thousand students at all six campuses. It is, and always has been coeducational, in keeping with its tradition of education for all.

The history of the University of Arkansas is one of achievement. This is reflected in rapidly growing enrollment, the caliber of the faculty, the accomplishments of the students, and the results of research and public service programs.

Landmark of the University of Arkansas.

The First Century Part II

by Kent Christopher Owen, Indiana Beta '58

In late twentieth-century America there may be more magazines than readers, what with the plethora of periodicals coming at us on all sides. Seemingly, every conceivable special-interest group, occupation, and corporate entity must publish something vaguely resembling a journal—or perish in the attempt. In the bosky groves of academic scholarship and research the number at last count was shooting past 85,000 separate publications. In all a dizzying maelstrom of paper and ink.

No one can say for sure whether anyone actually reads even one of the magazines in its entirety—perhaps not even the editors themselves who are, after all, frightfully busy scribbling and cutting and pasting away. But during the less frenzied years of the late nineteenth- and early twentieth- centuries, American readers had the undistracted leisure and the willingness to browse at length through the mass-circulation magazines that brought them entertainment, information, and inspiration. McClure's, Leslie's, Collier's, The Saturday Evening Post, The Atlantic, Harper's, The Woman's Home Companion, Godey's Ladies' Book, and even the naughty Police Gazette attracted legions of rabid readers, whose conception of the great world beyond their front stoops and back porches was materially shaped by such weekly or monthly fare.

Apart from trade journals and religious organs intended to reach limited set of readers (although several church-sponsored publications, especially the Methodists' and the Baptists', did achieve big circulations), there were not many essentially private magazines that managed to survive their first issues. Hence, The Shield of Phi Kappa Psi established itself as a splendid exception. But vigorous as it was at the start in 1879, scarcely anyone would have supposed that one hundred years later The Shield would still be going strong. Ironically, the magazines of the old-line Eastern fraternities that prided themselves on literary traditions—Psi Upsilon, Alpha Delta Phi, Zeta Psi, and Chi Psi, among others—had a devil of a time staying in print.

The Fraternity in the early 1880s adopted the practice of electing an "editing chapter" to take charge of the Shield. This expedient granted an honorable discharge to Edgar Fahs Smith and Otis H. Kendall, who needed to devote more attention to their own academic responsibilities at the University of Pennsylvania. (In addition to his teaching duties in chemistry, Smith directed Penn's science laboratories and sometime later became provost of the institution, the chief administrative officer.) Fortunately, their successor was Charles L. Van Cleve, an Ohio schoolmaster and later superintendent of the Toledo system, who standardized the basic departments of the magazine, straightened out its financial and printing arrangements, and widened its coverage of Phi Psi news and opinion far beyond the pleasant purlieus of Pennsylvania and the Middle Atlantic states.

Although Van Cleve was not a professional journalist, he gave The Shield a crisp, fairly fetching appearance and initiated such features as a critical review of college annuals. Noting that "only three members of the faculty at Madison University [now Colgate] made any pretense of attending the [chapel] exercises at which students are compelled to present themselves," he inquired sharply, "Why should faculties wonder that college boys are disrespectful in their treatment of time-honored college customs when they offer such astonishing evidences of their inconsistencies?"

Long before consumerists began to rate institutions of higher learning in guidebooks, Van Cleve had his own view of collegiate conditions: "Several satiric illustrations appear apropos of the lying of the catalogue about military band, gym, bath-room, study of the human form, etc. In the last great day I wondered what punishment will be considered adequate for the men who have concocted the misrepresentations and falsifications which annually appear in college catalogues?" At least in this matter The Shield may be the forerunner of the Columbia Journalism Review and the great-grand sire of Ralph Nader.

After Ohio Alpha had served out its two-year stint as the editing chapter, Kansas Alpha took its turn with Edward C. Little, a rising young attorney and Republican politician, as the official editor from 1885 to 1887. Little quickly put The Shield in the thick of Phi Psi politics by his editorial advocacy of changing the Fraternity's form of government from the grand chapter to an executive council. Although the principal architect of the proposal was William Clayton Wilson of Pennsylvania Beta, whose cogent arguments carried the day at the momentous G.A.C. of 1886, Little did much of the necessary groundwork in his regular editorials. In sturdy, forceful prose he advanced the cause of more stable, responsible, and efficient government, stressing the need to involve alumni brothers more thoroughly in the affairs of the Fraternity. Under Little's leadership The Shield proved itself a constructive force in the reforming of Phi Kappa Psi.

One such reform put an end to the editing chapter arrangement and empowered the Executive Council to appoint the editor of The Shield. E.C. Little was eager to get on with his own career, knowing he had already made his great contribution to the Fraternity. So the editorship was returned in good order to C.L. Van Cleve, who readily picked up where he had left off two years earlier. This time around he served from 1887 until 1894, providing the obvious advantages of a settled continuity and stylistic consistency to the magazine.

As one may gather from the previous samples of Van Cleve's writing, the educator-editor was clearly no practitioner of the gobbledygook and bafflegab style that festoons the work of presentday educationists. His options, especially on the affairs of other fraternities, were no less pungent and pointed. Commenting on an article in the Delta Kappa Epsilon Quarterly, the tone of which he had found patronizing, he wrote, "When will we hear the end of this everlasting arrangement of so-called Eastern-fraternity men? If the membership of the 'favorite' and other so-called Eastern societies know what a fraternity organization is for, if the vaunted 'Greek spirit' of which the Quarterly loftily discoursed some years since, has aroused a spark of life in the hearts of those who worship at the shrine of brotherhood east of the Alleghenies, may we not suggest with propriety that the energies of the Quarterly and its able editor be devoted to obliterating the foolishness of this North, East, South and West, of which we hear too much now in the organs of political parties, and which we ought not to be compelled to confront in the pages of the journals of societies devoted to the lofty principles of universal brotherhood?"

What had stuck in Van Cleve's craw was no small matter of undergrad snobbery. The sectional rivalries had broken out across the American continent set not only North against South during the Civil War, but also West against East during the expansive 1870s, lasting in many ways until the onset of the First World War. Because of the differences in origins and "spheres and influence," it was inevitable that fraternities would be drawn into the fracas. Those that had their strongholds in New England and upstate New York were inclined to lord it over the Greeks-come-lately from the sticks out West (meaning usually anywhere past Philadelphia). Moreover, they were widely thought to be snooty, uppity, and highfalutinly aristocratic: in short downright undemocratic and even un-American.

Contrariwise, the bold men of the West (namely, the Phi Gams, Phi Delts, Betas, Delta Taus, and Sigma Chis as well as their Southern allies, the SAEs, Sigma Nus, ATOs, Kappa Sig, and Chi Phis) presumed to exemplify all that was manly, vigorous, wholesome, and truly American—although both parties to the dispute had their doubts about which side the Betas were really on. In the main Phi Kappa Psi was aligned in sympathy with the Western insurgents, especially because of the "lifting" of Wisconsin Alpha and New York Alpha by the Psi Us.

The immediate effect of the quarrels was on the Fraternity's extension policy, which, apparently from the night of February 19, 1852, was ever after to be described as "conservative." To counteract what was becoming a cross between isolationism and "no-growth," Van Cleve presented a statement by the redoubtable W.C. Wilson: "To adopt a policy of extension with a system suited to non-extension [i.e., the unit rule] would appear to be rank nonsense . . . The entire fraternity desires to extend, yet we cannot agree as to where to extend . . . This has been called conservatism; to me it looks like imbecility. A conservative vote must be an intelligent vote; yet I am constrained to believe that the mass of our fraternity vote upon petitions for charter is substantial ignorance of their merits and without the means, time or inclination to investigate them. A conservative vote must be unprejudiced, yet prejudice is frequently an important factor in determining the vote of a chapter. A conservative vote should represent a cool discreet judgment based upon all the circumstances of the case and in line with a well-defined policy." Wilson's position was that the Executive Council should have the power to grant charters instead of the G.A.C.—a solution the Fraternity eventually adopted with a conciliatory, half-way compromise.

Beginning in the mid-1880s, The Shield agreed to accept advertisements for such genteel items as Horsford's Acid Phosphate, Merriam-Webster dictionaries, cigarettes and pipe tobacco, photographic instruments, Everett Pianos, shelf-help instruction manuals on speed-reading and memory improvement, and even D.L. Dowd's Health Exerciser for Brain Workers and Sedentary People. A few employment agencies tried to recruit Phi Psis through the pages of the magazines for whatever teaching or commercial positions they had to fill; would-be business agents were instructed to furnish their own horses.

With the Fraternity well along in its fourth decade the personal notes gave evidence of the standing and prosperity the "old boys" had generally earned. Although there were still plenty of wedding and birth announcements, accounts of earnest young lawyers who were hanging out their shingles for the first time and of young physicians who were just starting out in practice, notes on the advancements of young merchants, railroad officials, military and naval officers, and items on the brilliant accomplishments of young ministers, professors, diplomats, and engineers as well as of farmers, planters, ranchers, and country gentlemen—all heartening news about the rising generations—still there were more and more accounts of judges, bishops, college presidents, ambassadors, governors, cabinet officers, and of distinguished scholars, corporate executives, and industrialists. No longer was the Fraternity in the main composed only of promising young men whose lives were mostly before them and whose fortunes were still to be made. Phi Kappa Psi had indeed grown up with the late nineteenth century, and the young Phi Psis of yesteryear were now the leaders of their communities and professions, men of substance and influence in the world at large.

Just as Little and Wilson had realized that the creation of the Executive Council would bring about greater involvement of alumni brothers in the regular affairs of the Fraternity, so did C.L. Van Cleve understand that alumni associations established throughout the country were crucial to the truly national character and sustained purpose of Phi Kappa Psi. Never one to hold back when the mood was on him, he exclaimed, "Of what priceless value may we not make our alumni associations! How our hearts burn within us as we greet the "old boys," who have not allowed themselves to grow old, and how their kindling enthusiasm warms our souls into new life. How honorable a thing it must seem to a young man in the flush of his college career to belong to an organization which the gray heads delight to toast. No one can rightly estimate the power of the reflex influence upon the chapters emanating from a strong, vitalizing alumni association."

First Century

To that end The Shield published in 1889 some helpful information from the Phi Psis of Cincinnati: "Miss Belle Burham, Freeman Avenue, will not be found lacking in favoring and aiding social interests of the Alumni Association."

In comparison with the magazines of other major fraternities, The Shield has consistently from the very first issue devoted columns almost entirely to the affairs of Phi Kappa Psi. That would not be particularly remarkable if it were only common practice. What sets The Shield apart, however, is that it practically pioneered the chapter newsletter, not as an occasional department of the magazine but as a regular feature issue in, issue out. Alumni association newsletters, personal notes, official communications and reports from the Fraternity's officers and governing bodies, the regular articles on special events, chapter installations, outstanding achievements, and prominent Phi Psis make up the standard reading matter of The Shield then as now. Relatively little material of general interest is included, except for a few articles and items of broader significance to the fraternity community as a whole.

It was this singular characteristic (perhaps not so singular now as it once was) that prompted The Anchor of Delta Gamma to observe in the 1890s: "No fraternity journal that has come to our notice seems to have such an all-absorbing, exclusive fraternity spirit as The Shield of Phi Kappa Psi. Not that it is narrow or unjust to other fraternities; but it is evidently published for Phi Kappa Psi, and Phi Kappa Psi news it brings . . ." The DG comment was not altogether unimpeachable, for it more than hints that The Shield was rather too self-regarding. All the same it gets at something of the Fraternity's own nature that The Shield has reflected over the years: namely, that Phi Kappa Psi as an essentially private, voluntary society has conducted its affairs with a certain reserve, acknowledging its kinship with other fraternities but determined to set its own course to go its own way. Such an independence of spirit makes for plain speaking and plain dealing, and hence it comes as no surprise that The Shield should have as one of its strongest traditions the forthright expression of strong convictions.

One might note in passing a few of the Phi Psis who embodied that belief as they gathered at the 1890 meeting of the American Historical Association; among those who presented papers were William P. Trent, Virginia Alpha, then professor of history at the University of the South, founder of The Sewanee Review, and later professor of English at Columbia; Frederick Jackson Turner, Wisconsin Alpha, then professor of history at Wisconsin and later at Harvard, author of the classic work, "The Significance of the Frontier in American History;" and Woodrow Wilson, Virginia Alpha and Maryland Alpha, then professor of history at Wesleyan and later . . . (incidentally, Wilson and Turner were members of Maryland Alpha while they were both graduate students at Johns Hopkins and remained close friends throughout the rest of their lives). That news item, without of course the later developments, was what Virginia Alpha had to report in one fairly ordinary chapter letter.

In 1894 C. L. Van Cleve concluded his industrious, often combative editorship and handed over The Shield to George Frederick Rush, Michigan Alpha and Illinois Beta, who quickly set out to make the magazine more visually appealing. Rush introduced photographs, wood cuts, and a fair number of cartoons, all printed on glossy stock. He enlivened the style of the magazine with a robust energy that seemed to bespeak Chicago through and through: "That 'sowing one's wild oats' was a condition precedent to becoming a great man, I accepted as a truth which society sanctimoniously and constantly pretended to crush to earth, but which as constantly rose again. So I would sow my wild oats in a quiet, gentle manly way, but with thoroughness and sufficiency, so as to have a claim on greatness." The young lawyer exercised his playful prose on many of the Fraternity's leading members, indicating a special partiality for the growing number of Phi Psis in public life.

If Van Cleve's Shield had proceeded with a kind of dignified poise and self-assurance interrupted by spells of righteous indignation, Rush's Shield was exuberant, mirthful, wide-ranging in curiosity, and consistently if erratically interesting. Rush was clearly intrigued by the diversity of personalities that populated the Fraternity, and he did his level best to portray his brothers as an extraordinarily colorful and accomplished set of gentlemen and scholars.

It was Rush who instituted the annual review of college football teams, a feature of The Shield until the late 1950s when the Fraternity evidently swore off pigskin. His editorship injected a quality of enthusiasm that came perilously close to sheer breeziness, but his "human interest" approach to fraternity journalism marked a welcome change of direction from the somewhat impersonal style that had been customary. Rush may have overreached himself, however, when he devoted seven pages complete with a photo and four cuts to an epic obituary of Michigan Alpha's bulldog mascot, Tammany.

It was also Rush who initiated the use of humorous fillers—jokes, quips, cracks, and assorted one-liners—a practice that would soon become common in the college newspapers and magazines of succeeding decades. "The Chicago 'Evening Journal' is authority for the statement that at the University of Michigan there is a fraternity which admits both men and women to membership. When a female member of this new fraternity wishes to delicately reject the wooing of a male member, she says, No, George, I cannot be your wife; but I'll always be a brother to you."

After two years of a good romp with The Shield G.F. Rush relinquished the editorship to William C. Gretzinger, Penn Gamma, then the registrar of Bucknell. Rush went back to lawyering, but continued to serve the Fraternity in several capacities, presumably in high spirits. The more matter-of-fact Gretzinger diligently enlarged the subscription lists to round up almost every available Phi Psi, and campaigned successfully for the celebration of Founders Day, which until his time was a rather haphazard affair.

Gretzinger in turn gave way to Frank Chapin Bray, Penn Beta, and editor of The Literary Digest and The Shield's first professional editor. Thus by the turn of the century, The Shield had come of age at 21 with the very best of prospects—the eternal principles of the Noble Fraternity.

Tenth Anniversary Pennsylvania Nu

by Timothy L. Michael, Pa. Nu '78

On the weekend of February 8-9, 1980, the Tenth Anniversary of Phi Kappa Psi at Indiana University of Pennsylvania was celebrated by the PA Nu Chapter.

The celebration began on Friday evening with a reception at the Chapter home hosted by the undergraduates. The evening also marked the arrival of Phi Kappa Psi President Robert "Sandy" Chamberlain in Indiana. After the reception, all the Brothers headed "uptown" for some "real reminiscing" about Phi Psi experiences!

A meeting of the House Corporation on Saturday afternoon, led by its president, Dave Haddad, preceded a buffet lunch held in the Alumni room of the Chapter house. This informal occasion led to a great deal of friendly discussion among the undergraduates and alumni which continued as the Brothers and guests walked onto campus to the Memorial Fieldhouse Natatorium to watch two PA Nu men compete. Bo Hoch and NCAA Division II 200 yard backstroke National Champion Dave Deason swam as the I.U.P. swimteam was victorious over a competitive team from Edinboro State College.

The weekend's activities were highlighted by a banquet held at the Holiday Inn of Indiana on Saturday evening. Chapter guests for the evening included Phi Psi President Chamberlain, Indiana University of Pennsylvania President John Warthen, I.U.P. Interfraternity Council advisor Dr. Terrell Martin, PA Nu Chapter advisor Bert Smith, and District II Archon Randy Drosick. Following a hearty welcome from Tenth Anniversary General Chairman Tim Michael and an invocation by Chapter Chaplain Dave Deacon, a buffet-style meal was served to over 140 undergraduates, alumni, and guests.

Introduction of guests and remarks followed dinner. Dr. Martin, IFC advisor, spoke of the significance of PA Nu winning the Dean's Cup for the second consecutive year, saying "It means being quality and being creative." The Dean's Cup is awarded annually to the outstanding fraternal organization at I.U.P. which provides leadership in campus academics, athletics, and community service activities.

District II Archon Randy Drosick, West Virginia, spoke on the importance of "new blood to supply motivation," referring to the undergraduates, but at the same time noting the significance of the large alumni turnout.

"Once a Phi Psi, always a Phi Psi," said Drosick.

Chapter advisor Bert Smith, Nebraska '39, was next introduced and met with a rousing cheer and standing ovation. Smith, affectionately known as "Uncle Bert," has served in the position of Chapter advisor since PA Nu was founded as the local fraternity Tau Rho Delta in 1967. In remembering back over the past, Smith said the decision of Tau Rho Delta to affiliate with Phi Kappa Psi in 1969 was "the best decision that could have been made."

Following Smith, attention turned to a slide show prepared by Tim Perkey and Tim Michael entitled "The Birth of Phi Psi Tradition at I.U.P." The presentation covered over 100 moments of Chapter history.

Fraternity President Sandy Chamberlain spoke to the gathering about the accomplishments of the Chapter and the parts others played in those achievements. He especially acknowledged Smith's dedication when he stated, "No Chapter can get along without a Mr. Smith."

Chapter presentations were an important part of the evening. Michael Higgins, a recent alumnus, was given the fraternity Recognition pin for his performance as an All-American in NCAA Division II Cross Country in Fall, 1979. A ten-year Council pin was given to Ken "Kenchy" Almes, a founding member of the parent Tau Rho Delta Fraternity and charter member of PA Nu, who has given the Chapter a guiding hand since its inception. Mr. Smith was also awarded a ten-year Council pin for his efforts and dedication to PA Nu.

Chapter President Mark Zacher concluded the awards segment with the presentation of a Fraternity ring to Bert Smith as a special Chapter gift, and a Recognition pin to Tim Michael for his efforts in organizing the Tenth Anniversary Celebration.

Following closing remarks by Michael, the undergraduate and alumni Brothers gathered for a group photograph and an impromptu version of "Amici." The evening concluded with a program of dance music put together by Don Miller.

On the whole, the weekend celebration of PA Nu's Tenth Anniversary was extremely successful. Not only was there time for reflection, but great expectations were planted in the Chapter for many more successful years to come. President Chamberlain commented, "It's friendship that brought you here, and sentiment that keeps you together." If anything, the weekend strengthened the bonds of an already strong and flourishing Brotherhood of PA Nu of Phi Kappa Psi.

125th Anniversary

A busy and successful winter term is drawing to a close at Allegheny. The new decade began with 23 excellent men pledging Penn Beta. Under the guidance of John Richardson and Phil McGough, they will soon join us as Brothers. It is worth mentioning that the pledges have been very industrious and innovative. On a recent Sunday afternoon six of them collected $150 for the Heart Fund. This was just one of the many constructive pledge projects of this term. The pledges are, Mike Fryling, Russ Spanard, Cliff Berek, Bruce Baron, Mike Caster, George Darrel, Mike Darrel, Craig George, Ted Gore, Lee Higgins, Jeff Hollerman, Dave Kuhn, Brian Lasher, Vince Lanese, Steve Morgan, Bob Nord, Mike

Ochs, Mike Slotsky, Dan Walczyk, and Dave Miller.

Elections were held at the beginning of January. Our new officers are Mark Hollenbeck, GP; Mike Hill, VGP; Dave Allman, P; Bob Purvis, AG; Tom Fox, BG; Tim Connaro, SG; Bob Michelini, Phu; Ron Willoughby, Hi; and Brit Hyd, Hod. The entire Brotherhood is preparing for the chapter's 125th anniversary. Penn Beta is the longest continuously operating Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi. Many events are being planned for alumni and friends the weekend of May 16th and we look forward to seeing and talking with many alumni.

The Chapter was shocked by the untimely death of alumnus Francis Allen. Fran was killed in an auto accident February 9th. He was an outstanding member of our Alumni Corporation Board of Directors, and will be sorely missed by us all.

In spite of such a loss the men of Penn Beta are looking forward to a productive and enjoyable spring term.

At the Christmas Formal at the Pima Inn Resort, the following awards were presented: Outstanding Active, Lee Walters; Ugly Active, Terry Teebken; Sweetheart, Linda Rhodes; Outstanding Pledges, Mike Klepper and Brent Oesterblad and a special recognition award to the departing pledge Joseph Carter who we will all miss.

The first annual Phi Kappa Psi Calendar was completed and 2,500 copies printed. It contains pictures of 12 lovely sorority girls and also ads from Alumni such as, Bob Brunswick, Gary Davidson, Jack Whiteman, Bob Beckmann, Bob Bohannon, Les Ksieski, Pat May, Ken Bacher and William Swanson. To these and other alumni who helped us out, thank you. Also, special thanks to Chairman Steve O'Brien and ad salesmen, Carl Geringer, Brent Oesterblad, Greg Nord, Tom Hoffman, Ken Walbridge and Terry Teebken. Without the help of all Brothers, the calendar would be only a dream.

As the Spring Semester rolled in so did new prospective Brothers. In a combined effort, Rush Chairmen Mike Klepper and Ken Walbridge succeeded in pledging; Kurt Johnson, Mesa; Kenneth V. Bates, Bristol, England; Mike Shriver, Phoenix; Charles Mitchel, Tempe; Kurt Havens, Marblehead, Ma.; Otto Timmons, New Cavaan, Conn.; Rick Battles, Cal.

stopping by the house. Jeff Bray, Kim Goetz, Barry and Scott Ebert, Larry Feliz, Bob Beckmann, Chris Obrock and Jim Duncan. Also, we would like to invite all Brothers to stop by sometime and see "your" house.

May the bonds of brotherhood grow ever stronger.

Athletic Leadership

Spring has come to 642 Broad St. and once again it has brought a new pledge class. The 16 men pinned to Ohio Theta were: Scott Hiemstra, Mark Franklin, Frank Fraas, Matt Jacobs, Doug Murray, Ben Bissman, John Dorsey, Rick Sorkow, Frank Vito, Eric Monchecourt, Tom Miller, Clyde Pence, Kevin Casey, John Heffernan, Joe Bettura, and Larry Schuman. These soon-to-be Phi Psis are under the expert leadership of pledgemasters Brian Garverick, Dave Arter, and Earl Linder, and pledge educators Keith Connors and Jim Baker.

We are proud to announce our new officers. Leading Ohio Theta into the 80's will be GP Jeff Mills; VGP Dan Sexton; AG Keith Connors; P Chuck Forthofer; BG Cy McCormick; SG Kim Lance; Phu Wayne Carroll; Hi Dave Dorsey; and HOD Tony Brown.

Phi Psi involvement in athletics at A.C. is awesome as usual. This semester  $\Phi\Psi$ 's will captain the baseball, lacrosse, and tennis teams. Brother Wayne Strah captains Ashland's always powerful baseball squad, while All-Midwest performer Frank Mancini will captain the Eagle lacrosse men, and Chuck Forthofer is leading the tennis team. They will get plenty of help from the Brotherhood and our pledges. Joining brother Strah on the diamond will be Brothers Jim Baker and Rick Nasca, and pledges Joe Bettura, Kevin Casey, and Frank Vito. Crossing sticks with Brother Mancini will be Brothers Kevin Rose and Mark Wyland and pledge Rick Sorkow.

Over the winter Dave Dorsey won his weight class in the Heartland Conference Wrestling Tournament. And Brian Garverick, the co-captain of the football team, was the recipient of the True Grit Award for leadership on the gridiron. Brother Wayne Carroll was also named the most improved gridder in '79.

Phi Psis at Ashland have been active in the classroom, too. Kevin Cottle, our former GP, is the Solon E. Summerfield scholar for this year. He also leads the list of last semester's scholarship award winners that includes: Cottle, Dave Arter, Gary Crandall, Tom Johnston, and Dan Sexton.

Ohio Theta's newest Brother is quickly warming up to his new home. He's Psimon III our new mascot. The amiable St. Bernard arrived on the A. C. about a year ago, replacing Psimon II who passed on.

And last, but not least, we would like to congratulate Brothers Jim Baker and Brian Garverick on their engagements. Both are planning summer weddings.

Scholarship

Spring is on us down here in War Eagle country, and our scholarship endeavors have put us once again in the top five fraternities on campus—number three to be exact, and it will improve over this next quarter. Winter quarter was a good one for Phi Psi down here. We picked up three new Associate Members; Gary William Storie, Chuck William Watson, and Mark William Armstrong. Also we initiated two new Brothers, Kevin Dean Hodges and Michael Andrew Wayne, numbers 68 and 69 respectively. Our old Brothers did well also; Jerry Weed was inducted into Eta Kappa Nu, National Engineering Honorary and into Sigma Pi Sigma, National Physics Honorary. David Gross has been elected to the Vice-Presidency of IEEE, Auburn Chapter. We celebrated our sixth birthday on the Auburn Campus with an improved basketball record.

The list includes Larry Williams, Steve Curliss, Mike Henry, Tim Messmore, Bill Pappas, Scott Sachs, Reinier Mueller, Dan Hoffman, Jeff Rowley, Doug Williams and John Warton. Fowling an invitation only winter rush, the Chapter hopes to initiate eight more new Brothers this spring. This list includes, Jerry Wiseman, Greg Moyer, Dirk Smith, Greg Brown, Scott Ebersole, Brian Young, Brad Hanson and Ray Farley.

In addition Ohio Zeta is proud to announce the championship victory of our 79-80 intramural hockey team. This was the first Phi Psi Intramural championship in seventeen years here at Bowling Green.

The first Phi Psi Intramural Championship at Bowling Green in seventeen years was achieved by the Ohio Zeta hockey team.

As always we look forward to the coming of spring which includes several Phi Psi events, the first of these being our own Phi Psi sponsored Miss B.G.S.U. Scholarship Pageant, which is the only campus wide activity sponsored by Greeks. Also, the annual Phi Psi, Delta Gamma Bathtub Race is this Spring. The Phi Psi Dawn dance, which is the longest standing social activity on campus, promises to be a success.

Pledged 25

It has been quite a year for the Pennsylvania Gamma Chapter. We have strengthened our ranks with a strong pledge class, thanks to rush chairmen Mike Loughead and Bill Grennon. The program ended November 14 with the pledging of 25 men. These pledges include Chris Branch, Olean, NY; John Costa, Stroudsburg; Oscar Crews Jr., Upper Montclair, NJ; George Cusick, Abington; Paul Devlin, Lawrenceville, NJ; Bill Fisher, Philadelphia; Mike Frählich, Rockville Center, NY; Andy Fraser, Wilton, CT; Doug Hitchner, Ocean, NJ; John Lewis, Mendham, NJ; Dave Lipsitz, Great Neck, NY; Glenn Mattheiss, New Providence, NJ; John Morgan, Pepper Pike, OH; John Robertson, Summit, NJ; Eric Schmitt, Pgh; Walter "Rink" Smith, Abington; Eric Simpson, Ft. Washington; Phil Stouffer; Elizabethtown; Corey Temple, East Brunswick; George "the Greek" Tsougarakis, West Allenhurst, NJ; Ed Wannamaker, Charlotte, NC; Steve Whitaker, White Bear, MN; Doug Witherow, West Chester; Ed Wostbrock, Midland Park, NJ; Mike Yorio, Painted Post, NY. Pledge trainers Steve Sweet and Jeff Karlovec have their work cut out for them, but they are doing a fine job so far. The Brotherhood is looking forward to Shipwreck and Pledge Ride.

After an intense campaign, Jim Kingman of Simsbury, CT, triumphed in the chapter elections. The rest of the officer's positions will be held by Bruce Chuchill, VGP; Blake Wilson, BG; Steve Sweet, P; and Proctor Grayson, AG. Pennsylvania Gamma presented the Summerfield Award to David Bardaglio, who is also the revered holder of our Hoover Award.

Current standings after one semester puts Penn Gamma in the lead for the Pangburn Trophy. With our best events still to come and Rick Shand at the helm, it looks as if the Pangburn will return to its proper home.

On the social scene, Penn Gamma has had great success with theme parties such as Confederate Night, Communist Party, Around the World, and (of course) Roman Orgy. We are looking forward to House Party Weekend and, as usual, we invite our alumni to pay us a visit.

Our corporation meeting at Founder's Day was a great success. Thanks to house man Scott Dahlgren, who impressed Ten Thousand dollars out of them for the Chapter house.

It is with great sorrow that I must inform you of the untimely death of Steven "Duffy" Dyer, '78, due to a hang gliding accident. Also, Harold Densberger, our cook for many years, passed away after battling cancer for quite some time.

Proctor Grayson, Correspondent

Butler Housing in our Future

Once again the members of Indiana Zeta have proven their scholastic leadership on campus by earning highest grade honors for the twenty-first semester in a row. In addition to this honor, twenty-two of our thirty-nine members were named to the Dean's List. Also Brothers William Hollenberg, Todd Harris, Jeff Draper, and Martin St. Clair were inducted into Phi Eta Sigma: Brothers David Newman and Robert Hollenberg joined Kappa Delta Pi, and Dave was named a Kappa Delta Pi scholarship winner; Ray Volpe was elected president of Sphinx; Robert Hollenberg was named our Summerfield Scholar.

Our Spring Schedule is busy with our Third Annual "500" heading the list. This year we have decided to co-sponsor the event with the Student Assembly to insure a greater non-greek participation. Highlights of the event will be a queen contest and an all-campus dance.

Our long dreamed of goal of finding permanent housing is becoming a reality as the House Corporation has begun contacting local builders.

We are looking forward to welcoming all of the members of Phi Kappa Psi to the forthcoming GAC which will be held in our hometown of Indianapolis.

California On the Move

Cal Gamma's new decade was started off right with the pledging of four new men. They are: Rich Stanaro, Craig Mikkelsen, Doug Lusk, and Mick Hellman.

Chapter activities have been fantastic as always. This year's Bounce-A-Thon was a great success. Even the rain did not dampen our enthusiasm as we made it to Cal Beta in only four hours. There was a fantastic turnout for Founder's Day where everyone enjoyed a delicious Mexican dinner and dancing afterwards. The Winter Formal was a good time for all. Congratulations go to social chairman Gary Goldstein for his efforts. Upcoming spring events include the Phi Psi 500, the Luau, and many exchanges.

Congratulations also go to Richard Renslo of Orinda; Rick was honored by making Phi Beta Kappa. He plans to go to medical school this fall and has recently been accepted to Harvard. The Brothers also wish the best of luck to other graduating seniors: Ernest Beernink, Robert Bleicher, Michael Neiman, John Gomes, Glenn Corn, Frank Dietderich, Leo Cosentini, Robert Jackson, and Gregg Thompson.

Another honor was recently received by Joe Tabrisky who will be representing Cal as a yell leader this year.

An obstacle at the moment to Cal Gamma's forward trek is the loss of our Chapter house. Our house was bought out from under us by another fraternity because we did not have the finances to purchase it. Cal Gamma membership presently stands at 50 men. We are presently looking for a new house. Any help from anyone would be greatly appreciated. Please contact our House Corporation President Carl Stoney.

We will gratefully accept any recommendations of rushees.

Michael P. Neiman, Correspondent

California, Davis Growing

With the coming of Spring Cal Iota looks forward to an exciting Spring with six new Brothers in Phi Kappa Psi; Mike Rebattaro, Millbrae; Jon Armstrong, LaCanada; Mark Howe, Santa Barbara; Paul Engh, La Jolla; Gary Spina, Danville; and Mark Skreden, Nevada City.

As we complete our first full year as a Chapter we are proud of our informal rush and the subsequent Pledging of three fine men; Josh Charlat, Menlo Park; David Lasry, Palo Alto; Lowell Staveland, Davis. Already active in Chapter activities, these men are a welcome addition.

The social highlight of the Winter quarter was our first Alumni Formal Dinner-Dance at the Mark Hopkins in San Francisco. A fine night of Brotherhood was enjoyed by our alumni, brothers and pledges.

Officers were elected in March and include the following; Berj Moosekian, GP; Paul Engh, VGP; Donald Sajor, AG; Barry Johnson, BG; Al Thurlow, P; and John Caire, PHU. With this new slate of officers and much enthusiasm, Cal Iota is looking to a year of growth.

Bryan R. Anthony, Correspondent

U.C.L.A. Cal Ep meets Carter

The heavy rains in Los Angeles this Winter 1980 quarter has brought its share of problems to our house. Twice, the rains have caused our drainage system to back up. The result has been flooding in the downstairs living quarters. With the quick response by the Brothers the problem was solved by bailing the water out.

In the middle of the Winter quarter we initiated our Fall 79 Pledge class. The new initiates are: Lewis Averill, Mark Evens, Jeffery Silver, of Los Angeles; Brad Black, Brian Morelan of San Diego; Sean Hargaden, Thomas Middleton of Lakewood; Dave Byrd, San Clemente; Stephen Davis, Connecticut; Biff Hallin, Seattle, Washington; Mike Khouguz, Woodland Hills; Dave Larimer, Costa Mesa; Christopher Raymond, Newport Beach; Tony Rodman, Boulder Creek; Kurt Seelig, Torrance; Yun Sang Choun, Pacific Palisades.

Brother Jerry Kurland, the UCLA campus president, was invited to Washington D.C. to talk to President Carter. This was Carter's new program to get the opinions from college students around the country on the major issues. A topic of discussion was the reinstatement of registration for the draft. During the three day visit, there were other question and answer sessions with other top officials of Carter's cabinet. The Brothers are proud of Brother Jerry in representing Phi Kappa Psi and UCLA.

The Spring 1980 quarter is fast approaching. That means that the Brothers are preparing to put in an all out effort into Mardi Gras. Mardi Gras is UCLA's community service contribution to the needy children in the Los Angeles area. This year again we are participating with a haunted house called "The House of Horrors."

Michael C. Dutton, Correspondent

Cal Poly Going Strong

For starters, we have initiated four pledge classes since the fall of 1978, 28 New brothers in all! From the 25th National Pledge Class we initiated John Woods, James Collins, and George Schuler. The 26th National Pledge Class consisted of James Tracy, Teofilo Zeolla, Bill Sutterfield, Lane Curtis, James Field, Daniel Gilfry, and Karl Kostelic. These men were followed by the small, but impressive 27th National Pledge Class; Kevin Rimbault, Kirk Davidson, Edward Freitas, and Bradley Sher. The fall of 1979 opened with an impressive rush led by Bill Sutterfield which resulted in 14 new Brothers who had the honor of Fraternity President Sandy Chamberlain's attendance at their installation banquet. The newest brothers are Blake Bender, Chris Laramore, Douglas Morrisey, John Hansen, Thomas Durant Jr., Edward Kitchen, Mark Gilfry, William Spence, Jeffery Marrs, David Bui, Joel Justin, John Swanstrom, Kevin Fox, and Todd Hendrickson. We have also welcomed a transfer from Cal Gamma, Stanley Pang.

The house at 1439 Phillips has undergone so many changes in the last two years, we're not sure the last owners would recognize it. The latest project, a pond like the one at Garden Street, has just been completed. We are truly proud of how much we have accomplished in just two short years.

Our new officers have a large act to follow after past G.P.'s Mitch Lindner's cabinet, but Mike Long's officers have already proven their ability.

As usual the men from Cal Eta have been quite active in school affairs. We have already been involved in Homecoming, and we are playing a big role in Poly Royal with three men on the Executive Council, including the superintendent, Ken Pedersen. In addition, we are sponsoring a 5 and 10 km run to be held on April 20, all proceeds of which will go to benefit the Special Olympics.

This spring promises to be a good one for Cal Eta. We have 16 new pledges to keep us busy, in addition to everything else we have planned . . . We only hope there's enough time for it all—Have a good spring.

Kevin Rimbault, Correspondent

Cal. State Northridge Phi Psi Rocks CSUN!!

Our spring began strong with the initiation of the Alpha Psi pledge class. Bill Bulaich #202, Bob Baird #203 and Bob Melford #203, are the newest additions to the membership rolls at Cal. Theta. While these are three outstanding young men, the Chapter felt that there were too few of them. So under the direction of John Tostado, spring rush chairman, Cal. Theta proudly installed the Alpha Omega pledge class. With the dual themes of "Phi Psi Rocks CSUN" and "Phi—Psi, House of the 80s!" we put forth a total chapter effort and collected the best group of pledges on Campus. In the words of GP John Soukup, "This spring's rush was an outstanding example of a concerted Brothers, alumni and chapter friends effort, all united, and striving in one direction." The Alpha Omegas are Scott Braden, Mike Epler, David Friedman, Juan Jauregui, Robert Livernois, Harry Luchtan, Glenn Marks, and Paul Nicholzen. As Pledge Educator Ron Goldberg put it, "A fine group of men, who we at CSUN will be proud to call Brother, as we already call them friends."

Spring at Cal. Theta means other things besides membership. Of course the new group of officers and chairman take over and get going in their jobs. VGP Steve Sherwood feels that an outstanding group of chairmen have been picked and will do a great job. The annual running at CSUN of the Phi Psi "500" has been set for March 28. The "500" returns to the PHI PSI house instead of campus this year. "500" chairman Richard Fong tells me that "all other Greek organizations are up for the "500" and we intend to put on a good show." And the social highlight of the term, Spring Formal, has been planned and set for April 26. The planning was done by recent alumnus Gary Captial. In closing remember—PHI PSI! House of the 80s!

Ron Goldberg, Correspondent

Case Western Reserve New Initiates

The Spring Semester began with the initiation of twelve pledges—David Joseph Casciato, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Jaechang Cho, Brookpark; John Theodore Ciolek, Jr., Cleveland; Todd Elliott Crumbaker, St. Clairsville; James Mosser Csonka, Leechburg, Pa.; Douglas Henry Esposito, Norwalk, Conn.; David Joseph Gondek, Brecksville; Klaus-Marcus Peters, Sheffield Lake; Michael Anthony Ramier, Lorain; John Frederick Schindler, Jr., Chagrin Falls; and Felix Wei-Lian Sung, Waynesboro, Pa. Their Pledge Party was on March 29.

Our First Annual Wales Tales was March 22. April 12 is the Alumni Party, April 16-19 is Greek Week competition, and on April 25-26 our social calendar draws to a close with Formal Weekend which includes dinner, a play, and canoeing.

The Phi Psis are doing well this year in sports having won the campus championship in tennis and free throw shooting. Brother Monte Nagy won the individual free throw title.

Brother Ed Schneider was chosen Outstanding Senior, Brother Sandy Rich won the Solon E. Summerfield Award, and Housefather Scott Bakos was voted the Outstanding Alumnus. Brother Bernie McCafferty and Pledge Ciolek have formed a rock band as has Brother Jeff Lexa. Brother Mike Wahl plays in a Jazz band.

We recently formed a new committee, the Service Committee, in order to be of more help to the community. As our first project, we have volunteered our services to one of the local hospitals. We are trying to set up a Big Brother program for fatherless boys.

Best of luck to Ralph "Dud" Daniels in all his future endeavors.

Craig R. Hudson, Correspondent

Colgate High Gear

Things have been moving into high gear for the spring semester at New York Epsilon. A vigorous rush has paid off and promises to deliver fifteen to twenty high quality pledges.

Colgate Phi Psi continues to be involved in community affairs. The annual Christmas party for the area's underprivileged children was a success for the second year in a row. Thirty children, who would have otherwise been overlooked, received gifts and were visited by Santa Clause.

It has been a year of accomplishment for individual members of Phi Psi as well. Brother Bob Koski was chosen as the fourth best debater at the McGill debating tournament and has been nominated to run for Student Association President at Colgate. Tom Beecher was elected by the student body senate to the school's Academic Affairs Board.

Ken Torres has done an excellent job in his first semester as house manager. Work on the house has been enthusiastic all semester, climaxing with the renovation of our game room—which now includes the finest football table in central New York.

Because of this renewed enthusiasm, the 1980's look bright for the New York Epsilon chapter of Phi Psi.

Colorado "Exxxcellent" News

Greetings from Boulder and all the boys at Colorado Alpha. Well, it's that time of year again. Spring is definitely upon us, and the bro's are celebrating the re-opening of Sun Decks 1 and 2 by oiling up and "logging in." Rush, spearheaded by Scott "Goody" Goodwin, has brought us six new pledges; Tom Eliot, Brad Stern, Alex Toccoli, Doug Anderson, Steve Sell, and Greg Caspers. According to Mark Manzo, our current G.P.: "These men show a keen interest in the Fraternity, and will prove to be assets to Phi Kappa Psi!"

On the social scene Randy Diner has organized several successful socializers—including our recent Mad Hatter Blow-Out (featuring "Van the Man and the Kool-Aide Kids")—and among other events slated for future months Ras Mark "Hollywood" Henderson is organizing a "Back to Jamaica Rastafarian Bash."

But the biggest news here is sports! Last semester's intramural soccer championship (Reid McDonald & Co. went undefeated) was a hard act to follow, but right now we are in the midst of doing the same thing in basketball! So far our record stands at five wins, no losses, and if Eric "Bigfoot" Otte and friends can keep the momentum going there's nothing that can stop us. Former coach, Tom Hogle says the prospects of winning another championship look "EXXX-CELLENT!!". Well, that's about all for now . . .

Columbia Talent

Although the Brothers of NY Gamma represent the last stronghold of dedication to the pursuit of artistic and scholastic excellence to be found here on Morningside Heights, we are facing some of the most serious challenges to the tranquility of our chapter that we ever have. These upcoming months are certain to be a critical test of our spirit and loyalty, skill and ability to raise money.

Daily life at 529 w. 113th street proceeds on two levels. There is the excitement which comes from living with such talented people and amidst the concentrated and diverse creative activities with which the Brothers are engaged, but there is also the hard reality of our Chapter house—a fine old townhouse, purchased as our home on May the 19th, 1919—which is crying out for many needed repairs. We are now doing as much of the work as we can but there are some areas that we will need help to accomplish.

We are in the process of organizing a mailing to our alumni in which we will be forced to ask for contributions to fix up our building. We can only hope that our position is understood, and that the response will be generous.

The Chapter itself has never been healthier or more active. Our new officers; Ken Patrisic—GP; David Schwartz—VGP; Chris Ruhnke—AG; and Miroslav Mandic, P, have spearheaded our drive to attract new pledges and to organize fund raising events, such as concerts by our resident musicians, poetry readings by our poets, and film events. Our most exciting project right now is producing a piece of theater in which everyone is participating and everyone's talents are combined. The result is likely to be rather farther off-Broadway than most off-Broadway shows are. We wish all of our Brothers a successful Spring!

Cornell New Members

Under the direction of Rush Chairman Hank Camuso, '78, N.Y. Alpha did well in rush this year. After an extensive informal rush (which lasted from Sept. 23rd until Dec. 10th) and an intense formal rush (Jan. 15th through Jan. 20th), the Brothers of Cornell could congratulate themselves on a job well done. The Chapter took its largest class in over 5 years; a total of 24 pledges who are as follows: Hans Bauer, Cheshire, CN; Oliver Campbell, Soph., Dryden, N.Y.; James Gast, Jr., Winchester, MA; Steve Hammer, Summit, N.J.; Thomas Healy, Madison, CN; Scott Heiser, Cincinnati, OH; John Hiele, Wyomissing, PA; David Ketchum, Pepper Pike, OH; James Latshaw, Soph., Nashua, NH; David Mazgaj, Andrew Schrauth, Hamburg, NY; Christopher Metz, Soph., Synder, N.Y.; Charles Micklovzena, Omaha, NB; Brandon Moss, Steven Neuberg, Eric Reichenbach, and Paul Tomiczek, Pittsburgh, PA; Julio Rodriguez, Union City, N.J.; Eric Smith, Corinna, ME; Steven Spokane, Saratoga Springs, NY; James Talcott, Litchfield, CN; Christopher Thomas, Factoryville, PA; and David Winterling, Davis, California. Fraternity Educator Doug Kirk, '79, has an excellent program designed that should effectively acclimate the pledges while being fun and challenging at the same time.

New York Alpha is also planning a fund drive for the latter part of March. This is directed at offsetting the costs of certain extensive repairs that the house is in need of, including roof repair, furniture replacement, new carpeting and a new dishwasher. These costs are expected to be $35,000, but are considered necessary if Phi Psi is to remain one of Cornell's most prominent fraternities. (Anyone with questions regarding the drive should contact the fund drive Chairman, Ken Johnson, '78.

The "Phi Psi 500" plans are proceeding well under the direction of Sr. James Sullivan and is scheduled for April 26th.

The chapter is ahead of its All Sports Trophy winning pace of last year, and with a little luck could be the first Cornell Fraternity in 23 years to win back-to-back All-Sports titles.

Finally, new officers elected in December include G.P. Ed Kleppe, and V.G.P. Hank Camuso.

Creighton Surpassing 500

The future of Nebraska Beta looks very prosperous and bright as we embark on the new decade. With the active participation and enthusiasm of our 52 new initiates from spring '79, we strove for the highest ideals and goals. Our numerous and diverse activities allowed everyone to get involved.

Our fall rush resulted with the initiation of 2 fine men who withstood and endured the odds of 90 Brothers to 2 pledges. They are Gregory Mikuls, Red Oak, IA and Micahel Shanahan, Park Ridge, IL. We also initiated Leonard Palaschak on Jan. 27, 1980, a holdover from the previous class.

Spring rush, under the direction of Thomas Kelly Ryan, netted 39 excellent men. They are currently under the guidance of Dan Nelson, our pledgemaster. Considering that our current chapter enrollment stands at 491, we are certain to break 500 at the end of Spring! The continued growth and strength that we are experiencing will surely maintain and perpetuate our stature.

The officers serving this semester are David Cimpl, GP; Dan Nelson, VGP; Curtis Wong, AG; Jim Comstock, BG; Mark Mollner, SG; Joseph Coleman, P; Thomas Kirsch, Hod; Gene Greco, Phu and Brian Hardin, Hi.

Community service is again a strong tradition at Nebraska Beta. Chairman Steve Paul had us serving spaghetti at the Sons of Italy Hall to the elderly. We're also soliciting blood donors for the spring blood drive. A major project is Dancing for Dystrophy, held on March 22, a marathon, fundraising dance for Muscular Dystrophy which traditionally raises $6-7,000 dollars.

In the realm of social events, Mark Hughes and George Hucal planned our first annual Beach Party! While it was 10 below and snow covered the ground, we basked in the warmth of our heaters. Our basement was also dotted with sand castles as we used our ingenuity to make a beach. It was almost like the beaches of Maui. We plan on using the sand to landscape the backyard.

Formal is scheduled for April 12th and it will definitely be a formal affair. Alumni are encouraged to contact Lee Graves in Omaha for more information or reservations.

Our Founders Day celebration was held Feb. 15 at the Venice Inn. It was a perfect example of Brotherhood as many alumni and undergraduates got together to "shoot the bull." We were also honored to have Kent Christopher Owen, Fraternity Mystagogue, as our guest speaker.

In sports we are currently 2nd in the race for the All-University Crown, close behind the Devils II. It's going to be another close finish as volleyball and soccer are coming up. Basketball has just ended and we placed 3rd in our division, performing exceptionally well in the post-season tournament.

In academics, congratulations are extended to Kevin Gould, Jim Bruckner and Thomas Kirsch who have been accepted to medical school. Jim Bruckner and Brian Hardin have also been selected to Alpha Sigma Nu, a Jesuit Honor Society.

Two Brothers left us at Christmas. They are R. Michael Stanley who has graduated and returned home and Louie Glavin who has transferred to the University of Iowa. They will be missed!

We're anxiously awaiting the arrival of the new furniture that we recently purchased for the House. It will definitely enhance the atmosphere there and increase the respect that it deserves. A patio is also being constructed behind the kitchen. Our dream of restoring our House into a beautiful one is slowly becoming a reality.

DePauw New Initiates

On February 9, 1980 the Indiana Alpha chapter welcomed eighteen newly initiated members into Phi Kappa Psi: Frank Roberts, Erik Hafkey, David Schrier, Mark Bretsch, Dean Cobble, Thomas Kotoske, Jeff Fetters, Giles Locke, Daniel Fox, Daniel McCurdy, Brian Hoover, Robert Brown, David Zoellick, Peter Pogue, Derek Keys, Samuel Seward, and Pablo Restrepo.

Indiana Alpha has been involved in several activities recently; The Founders Day Banquet, preparation for the Little "500" bicycle race, and several other chapter activities.

Two of our outstanding seniors, Gray Tweedy and Blair Rieth, achieved the scholastic honor of Phi Beta Kappa.

Herbert Hoover was elected as our new president and James Gilmore as our new Vice-President.

Duke New Wave of pledges

With the hopeful graduation of over one half of our members this year, the Brothers of North Carolina Alpha tackled the difficult task of upholding Phi Psi's number and integrity on campus. Rush chairmen Charles Bobrinskoy and Richard Patterson keyed an intense rush program that brought 27 zealous pledges: Bryan Anderson, La Grange, Ill.; Bob Beckler, Atlanta, Ga.; Don Burdick, Durham, Tom Carruthers, Greensboro, Chris Davis, Indianapolis, Ind.; Mark Devlin, Philadelphia, Pa; Phil Fresen, Wilmette, Ill.; Rusty Fritz, Clark, N.J.; David Gibson, Bellbrook, Ohio; Rich Green, Flossmoor, Ill.; Brian Hernandez, Washington, D.C.; Tim Hutchins, Longmeadow, Md; Scott Jacobs, Charleston, S.C.; Kevan Kerby, Bremerton, Wash.; Wally Mensinger, W. Caldwell, N.J.; Steve Meyers, Bethesda, Md; Paul Pickard, Roanoke, Va.; Keith Pruitt, Annandale, Va; Bob Satloff, Providence, R.I.; Andy Schwab, Dix Hills, N.Y.; Phil Sherman, Wilmington, De.; Rob Slade, Moorestown, N.J.; Scott Spencer, Tampa Fla.; Bob Stevenson, Paradise Valley, Az.; Paul Stillwell, Trenton N.J.; Alan Talpalar, Bethesda, Md.; and Wayne Wright, Warminster, Pa.

These pledges are educted by two well organized Fraternity Educators, Pete Groth and Jeff Thompson. Pledging is a time of growth and learning as pledges have weekly formal meetings and daily interaction with the Brothers.

Congratulations to Paul Johnson and Rick Gaskins who recently were admitted to Harvard Medical school and Harvard Law, respectively. In addition, many law schools have contacted Richard Patterson concerning his applications.

The Chapter has made a good showing in intramural athletics all year. Of special note are the water polo team and the battling Keglers.

Work has begun on next year's Annual Celebrity auction for cancer research. Many valuable signed articles have been donated already.

The Pledge Formal is set for March 22 in near-by Chapel Hill at Parker's. Also, plans have been finalized for the annual Spring migration to Myrtle Beach, S.C., where the sun never sets but nobody notices.

Eastern New Mexico Holding Our Own

The Brothers of Phi Kappa Psi at New Mexico Alpha initiated Andrew Hoffman, Daniel McDonald and Michael Porter into the Brotherhood on December 8, 1979. Social activities this semester have included Casino Night and Cherry Night to celebrate Washington's Birthday. On April 12th, we are planning another "Phandango" to raise money with part of the proceeds going to the Special Olympics.

Florida Continued Growth

The Brothers of Florida Beta started the Winter quarter with the initiation of Chris Carey and Dave Hines into the Phi Psi Brotherhood. We had a successful rush this term and currently have nine outstanding pledges: Joseph Clark, Mike Fitzgerald, Jerry Fredette, Phil Jacobson, Chris Maholm, Thomas Northrup, Joe Russo, Robert Thomas, and Glenn Winograd.

We also elected officers for the Winter and Spring quarters. They are: Hubert Alonso, GP; Jeff Spitzer, VGP; Steve Birchett, P; James Matthews, AG; John Adams, BG; Dan Davies, Hod.; Don Reid, SG; Mark Elzey, Hi.; and James Wood, Phu.

The Winter has been a busy and productive time for Florida Beta. We are proud to announce the initiation of the Jefferson Bowl on the University of Florida campus.

Phi Psi defeated Fiji in a hard-fought battle, 15-14, for the initial championship. We are also very proud of Larry Light, the new District IV Archon. He has led our Chapter in many ways, and we know he will make a great Archon.

Our Founders Day celebration this year was combined with a Parents Weekend. Many of the parents had never seen our house or met any of the other Brothers, so it was quite an event. The parents were very impressed by the strong feelings of Brotherhood and togetherness among the brothers of Florida Beta.

Homecoming was also a big time for us in the Winter. During Homecoming Week, Phi Psi teamed up with several sororities for various activities such as a soap-box derby and a dunking booth. In addition, our Chapter of thirty men provided a dinner one night for over 120 sorority women.

The Brothers of Florida Beta are looking toward Spring with great expectations. Our upcoming activities will be helped along by our alumnus from Oregon Alpha, Steve Beard, who has decided he prefers our Florida sunshine. We will be holding our "Phi Psi 500" in early April and have already received a great deal of favorable response from the community.

This year's "500" looks to be the best Florida Beta has had yet.

Georgia Continued Achievements

At the beginning of winter quarter the Georgia Alpha chapter of Phi Kappa Psi revealed the Fraternity's mysteries to four new Brothers; David Wayne Chambers, Springfield, Va.; John Allen Driver, Warner Robbins, and Lucious Wright Penn, Athens. We also pledged Sydney Scott Peacocke during winter rush.

The Chapter's recent achievements include first place in intramural sports for the president's league. Delta Tau Delta and Phi Kappa Tau were second and third respectively. Brothers from Georgia Alpha recently attended a Founder's Day banquet with the Atlanta Alumni Association. We also enjoyed a traditionally fun social with the Delta Gamma Sorority.

Individual achievements include those of Brother Raymond Weathers Stephens III, who recently graduated magna cum laude with a degree in political science. Brother Thomas Matthew Mashburn, a member of the University of Georgia Defender Advocate Society, was recently elected the first Defender Advocate of the Month. Brother Earl Day "Butch" Ehrhart was initiated into Pi Sigma Alpha political science honorary society, and was elected head delegate for the University of Georgia Model United Nations class held in New York City April 1-6. Brother Lanier Grady Langley was initiated into DiGamma Kappa and Sigma Delta Chi, journalism honorary societies.

We at Georgia Alpha are looking forward with great anticipation to spring rush. Our new chapter advisor, Bob Wolters (Iowa Beta '71), is helping with the organization of our spring rush program. "Wally" was formerly advisor to the University of Georgia Interfraternity Council and is now a stock broker for Merrill Lynch in Athens.

Gettysburg Prepares for 125th Anniversary

This spring will see the arrival of the long awaited 125th Anniversary of Penn. Epsilon. Preparation for the three day celebration, scheduled for April 18-20, were begun during the spring of last year. It will be a grand affair, no doubt the most important single event of the Chapter this year. Co-chairmen of this event are seniors Stan Applegate and Stephen Napp. Both of these Brothers have put in a large amount of time and effort in a successful celebration.

Representing the Fraternity will be vice president John R. Donnell, Jr. Our expectations of a large alumni turnout has been encouraged by an overwhelming response to our invitations. Local prominent Phi Psi alumni have been invited, along with the president of the college, Charles Glassick.

Another aspect of historical importance in our Chapter is the completion of the restoration of Miller Hall. Miller Hall, built in 1882, is the oldest college fraternity house in continuous use, on its original site, in existence. Alumni Brother Donald Weiser and Brother Stephen Napp worked hard at philanthropic activities to gain the funds necessary to totally restore Miller Hall. Presently, they are working towards the Centennial celebration of Miller Hall in 1982, which includes a rededication.

This year was also one of growth and change inside the Chapter. Our present forty-nine Brothers have been expanded with twenty-four outstanding pledges, bringing our total number to seventy-three. This was the result of an excellent rush program headed by Jeff Cuddeback. The month of January was filled with parties and "smokers." Pledging is well under way, under the guidance of pledge trainer John Kendig.

Illinois Great Year

Illinois Delta is proud to welcome an exceptionally strong spring pledge class to 911 South 4th Street. By the beginning of March there were 11 in the class including Kevin Bontemps, John Chiodo, Jim Downes, Henry French, Joe Green, Randy Harmer, Joe Hudgins, Paul Kilgallon, Dave Pasquanelli, Mike Regli and Dale Todd.

Founders Day was a big success up in Chicago, and business ran equally well at the alumni board meeting. Mark Porst, Mike Valentine and Chris Niemann were among the dozen or so Brothers in attendance.

External vice president Steve Nieslawski has done an excellent job organizing such events as a faculty banquet held at the house and a good neighborhood policy in which officers from nearby fraternities have come over for dinner.

Social chairman Bill Corry has avoided the miseries of the new 21 year old drinking laws by offering the Brothers a wide assortment of entertaining exchanges. These additional parties provide a social outlet to replace the bars since they are much more restricted than in years past.

John Munger and Chris Hubbard put a lot of hard work into organizing the First Annual Phi Kappa Psi Water Polo Tournament, an event which the Phi Psis' christened with a second place finish.

Brothers at Illinois Delta continue to hold leadership positions on campus. Marc Crescenzo and Dan Tynan are secretaries for Alpha Epsilon Delta, an honorary society for pre-meds. Kevin Bontemps, whose father and uncle are Phi Psis, plays guard for the Illinois basketball team which advanced to the National Invitation Tournament. Dale Todd is a member of the Illini gymnastics team. Chris Hallén, a sophomore, is a disc jockey for WPGU rock radio station. Jim Kokoris is active in the campaign committee for presidential candidate John Anderson. Steve Sonnenleiter, who has a partial art scholarship, is currently preparing a portfolio to be shown at a display in Rockford. Dave Wesolowski plays for the University band. Mike Jacobs and Ryk Holden are organizers of the Engineering Open House. Fourteen Phi Psis are on the Interfraternity Council.

Illinois Deltans are eagerly awaiting the 4.0 banquet and the Grand Arch Council to be held this summer. Also on the upcoming schedule are Mom's Day and The Atius-Sachem sing.

Congratulations are in order for Bill Whitling for his initiation and to brother Jeff Kirk and his fiancé, Lisa Quiram for their engagement!

Indiana Active Winter

We the Brothers of Indiana Beta started the spring semester by initiating 21 new Brothers; David Hoover, Gregory Gilles, Mark Richards, Andrew Barker, Derek Anastasia, Steven Zirkelbach, Thomas Pence, Eric Knoll, Sheldon Zeiger, Joseph Gehris, Dino Sarpa, Fred Cunningham, William Conn, Jeffery Brisben, Bradley Beaman, Jeff Wampler, Robert Claycomb, Charles Huston, Keith Micklow, Mark Gaston, and John Coleman. This brings our total number of initiated Brothers to 1954.

We have taken on an additional fourteen pledges; John Tuerff, Tony Ave, Lafayette; Mark Siebert, Jasper; Tom McKaig, Marion; Jeff Echelberger, Carmel; John Moos, Crown Point; Mark Albertson, Indianapolis; Jeff Hemmeger, Kokomo; Guthrie Carr, Brian Hicks, and Russ Jackson from West Lafayette; Jack Hayes, Champaign, IL; Bob Kock, Kirkwood, MO; and Steve Smith, Rockville Centre, NY.

Congratulations are in order to Brothers Scott Everrode and Todd Overton for being chosen directors for the Indiana University Student Athletic board.

This spring and summer have many treats in store for us, one being the annual Little "500," on April 26th. It looks as though our team will be very competitive this year. The GAC will be held fifty miles away in Indianapolis, August 6-10, so we will see you then!

Indiana, Penn. Steppin' out in the Spring

The Spring semester, 1980, has been a busy time for the Brothers of PA Nu. We celebrated our Tenth Anniversary on February 8-9 with a weekend of activities.

After a competitive rush period, our program, under the direction of Rush Chairman Rob Markwell netted us five excellent pledges: Harry Aston and Edward Pudlowski, Wilmerding; Thomas Newman, Reading; Mark Shelhamer, Pottsville; and Donald Thomas, Whitehall. These men are now under the watchful eye of pledge educators Ben Susemihl and Steve Krise.

House remodeling was a big project for our Brothers this semester. Under the direction of House Managers Dan Krauss and Dan Mack, our Chapter room was painted, paneled, and has new light fixtures and carpet.

The Chapter combined with the I.U.P. Residence Hall Association to sponsor a 24-hour Dancathon to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association. After several months of hard work by Chairman Steve Krise, $1600 was raised with a promise of much more next year.

The Fifth Annual Phi Psi 500 will be held this year on April 20 with the help of Phi Mu Sorority benefiting the Leukemia Society of America. An all-star competition designed by Gary Sheftick will be the all-day activity.

PA Nu is very proud of three of our recent alumni. Good luck to Dan Gagich, presently with Mellon Bank, Matt Kleinosky at Pittsburgh Plate Glass, and Michael Higgins with Kodak in Rochester, NY.

Congratulations to our Chapter President Mark Zacher on being accepted at Gettysburg Theological Seminary for graduate studies in the fall.

With some of our better sports coming up in this Spring's intramural program on campus, the Chapter hopes to finish strong this year in athletics.

With high hopes for the successful end of this Spring semester, best wishes from Pennsylvania Nu.

Iowa First in Scholarship

Second semester, 1980, had an excellent start here at Iowa Alpha as we initiated 19 pledges on January 25; Doug Stutesman, Dave Wagner, Mike Barnes, Dave Lind, Dave Cobb, Joel Sears, Mike Sealy, John Robison, Bob Harris, Scott Winterbottom, Dan Bartlett, Mark Radosevich, Steve Flood, Greg Kline, Andy Susanin, Dennis Lyons, Todd Lincoln, Steve Jordon and Brad Borrman. This year's initiation was especially memorable for Stutesman, Barnes, Sealy, Bartlett, and Flood—all of them had close relatives, also Phi Psis, who were invited to join in the initiation ceremony. This is a program we hope to continue in the future.

Elections of new officers also took place at the beginning of the semester. They include;

Mike Richards, GP; Chris Porter, VGP; Jeff Niemann, P; Mike Doan, AG; Joel Sears, BG; Gary Renneke, HI; and Dave Hansen, HOD. We are all looking forward to some strong leadership by this group.

In January Iowa Alpha was proclaimed number one in scholarship (highest GPA) among the 19 fraternities on campus. Both the Brothers and the pledges joined forces to bring the Chapter to the top of the list. We hope to do as well or better this spring.

The Chapter retained its title in the Second Annual Delta Gamma Anchor Splash, a swimming meet with all of the Greek houses on campus participating. Several Brothers combined to make a very strong showing by winning 4 of the 5 swimming events while Kurt Knutson added to the point totals by making a fine performance in the "Mr. Anchor Splash" competition. We are looking forward to next year's event.

The Third Annual Phi Psi Open Golf Tournament is in the planning stages for late spring at Finkbine Field Golf Course. Last year's tournament proved to be a big success with over 100 from the U. of I. fraternities participating. The low score last year was Brother Scott Waychoff, who will be defending his title this year. All proceeds will go to the Nile Kinnick Scholarship Fund for athletes on the University of Iowa campus. Kinnick was Iowa's only Heisman Trophy winner and an outstanding member of Iowa Alpha.

A few of the other major activities planned for the spring include the Muscular Dystrophy Dance Marathon and the annual Spring Bash at Iowa Beta alumnus Bill Bywater's summer cabin on the Iowa River.

We would like to take this opportunity to recognize a few of the Brothers who have worked hard at the University and will be entering professional schools next fall; Jim Bartlett and Tim Kinney, Medical School; Larry Long and Bob Smith, School of Dentistry and Charlie Jensen and Brent Erwood, Law School. All of these men have provided great leadership, and their contributions around the Chapter will be missed.

Also our congratulations go to Brother Jim Miller and his beautiful fiancée, Gamma Phi Cindy Sweem. Their marriage is to take place on August 9 in Des Moines. We extend to Jim and Cindy our sincere wishes for a happy and joyous future together.

This year's rush chairmen, Ross Dickinson and Elliott Smith, are working hard to make spring and summer rush a success. A high school rush party is being scheduled for April along with numerous summer activities. Any alumni who have recommendations please send them to the Chapter in care of one of the rush chairmen.

We would like to remind our alumni of an Alumni Relations Day that is being scheduled for early next fall during the football season. We will keep in touch with all of you about this event and other news of interest.

The Men of Iowa Alpha wish everyone a good spring and summer.

Mike Doan, Correspondent

Iowa State Veishea

The coming of Spring at Iowa State means Veishea. This year's festivities will take place May 1-3. Iowa Beta once again has high hopes of finishing at the top of the competition. With the help of Sigma Kappa sorority, we should have a great time and a prize-winning float.

For everyone concerned with Iowa Beta, we're still all here, and would like to apologize for not having a letter in the last issue of THE SHIELD. The major activity of Winter quarter was initiation. We are very proud of our nineteen new Brothers: Steven B. Jamison, Ankeny; Scott M. Pheifer, Barrington, Ill.; Scott A. Deetz, Cedar Rapids; Steven L. Meyer, Cleghorn; Erik L. Bataille, Stanhope; Douglas A. Hull, Burns H. Davison, Barney F. Fie, Des Moines; Scott W. Higgins, Sioux City; Craig A. Marr, Muscatine; Thomas B. Fischer, Vinton; Mark E. Hahn, Keota; Lee C. Batchelder, Omaha, Ne.; Scott D. Reichert, Edina, Mn.; John W. Bennett, Wayzata, Mn.; Robert R. Maakestad, and Kevin O. Roberts, Northbrook, Ill.; Allan L. Zahringer, Rock Island, Ill.; Thomas J. Nedved, Pocahontas.

We also have three new pledges for Spring; Kirk Stone, Des Moines; Scott Wiggins, Ames; Mark Wilson, Forest City.

The Chapter is searching for a new piano for the livingroom. We feel it would be a great addition to Iowa Beta.

Brother Bob Mohr was recently elected to the office of vice-president of the Interfraternity Council. Accomplishments such as this continue to uphold the good name of Phi Kappa Psi at Iowa State.

Scott W. Higgins, Correspondent

Johns Hopkins Here to Stay

The Brothers of Maryland Alpha extend a hearty greeting to all their fellow brethren across the country. Early this year we were honored by a visit from the pledge group of Penn Lambda. They drank us under the table, but basically we all had a real good time. We hope that more Brothers will stop by if in Baltimore; we offer Southern Hospitality even though most of the Brothers are New Yorkers.

Last fall, Maryland Alpha celebrated its Centennial with a formal gala event which focused attention on a major fund drive aimed at raising money to buy the House. Owing to the generous contributions of our Alumni and the hard work of the Brothers who vended at the World Series, the money has been raised. Unfortunately, the actual purchase has not been achieved and is tied up in litigation. Our lawyer assures us that we have a strong case, though, so the possibility of being a houseless Chapter is virtually nil. The way we figure it, Maryland Alpha is here to stay.

That belief is only confirmed by this year's pledge class. The twelve brothers-to-be bring with them a freshness and sense of brotherhood that will be sorely needed when this year's seniors leave the Phi Psi nest and embark on new lives. The initiation of the pledges into the Phi Psi community will insure a strong future. The seniors feel much like proud parents as they leave Hopkins and Maryland Alpha.

Indeed, they are happy to be Phi Psis.

Sun Chen, Correspondent

Kansas Busy Year

We at Kansas Alpha are very proud to announce the initiation of 18 men into the mysteries of Phi Kappa Psi; Scott Brown and Mark Gunter, Prairie Village; Tim Cadden, Glenview, Ill.; Greg Crooker, Fairway; Kip Harkness, Leoti; Carl Frenkel, Ellis Rainey, Steve Miller, John Patterson and Mark Dunn, Overland Park; Kevin Mebust, Lake Quivera; Greg Sims, Andy Flynn, Leawood; Tom Wingate, Wichita; Clay Roark, Kansas City; Bill Meyer, Bonner Springs; Russ Munyan, Mission Hills; and Chris Eldridge, Buehler.

This semester we are led by a group of ambitious officers; Jon Blongewicz, GP; Rick Stanley, VGP; Jay Miller, P; Scott Kenefake, AG; Greg Pottorff, BG; Tim Burke, SG; Sam Stuckey, Phu; Mike Foster, Hod; Robert Coleman, Hi.

Our two rush chairmen, Mark Faber and Phil Reinkemeyer are doing a great job in working for the fall semester. Recently, two successful rush parties were held in Wichita and Hutchinson and 38 rushees attended a party at the Chapter house on March 1st. Two more parties are planned this semester on the weekends of April 12 and May 23.

Social Chairman Kyle Eldred has kept us busy with parties and functions. On February 23, we held our initiation party. Ten Brothers and pledges from Oklahoma Alpha helped us celebrate. Our Spring Formal will be held March 29 at the Granada Royale Hotel in Kansas City, MO. Final plans are being made for our annual Phi Psi "500!" The "500" promises to be one of the biggest events on campus and is being run by Brothers Dave Dyer and John Knightly. It will be May 3, with a party afterwards. Fathers Weekend rounds out the semesters social activities on April 19.

Our intramural basketball team made the playoff again this year, but was defeated in the quarterfinals by the Delta Upsilon in overtime by 1 point. This nearly matches the performance of our football team that took third place in the Greek league.

Kansas Alpha is proud to announce that Brothers Mick Dick and Mark Steiner have been accepted to the KU law school. Also Brother Chris Link has been accepted to KU Medical School. Other recent honors for Kansas Alpha include Brother Robert Coleman's election as Inter-fraternity Council vice president in charge of membership. Brother Tim Cadden was selected as honor pledge of the fall class and Jay Miller will return next fall for another year as a member of the Kansas Jayhawks yell-leading squad.

Kansas Alpha also looks for the return of Brother Tom Hollinshead who is studying in Germany this semester.

We would also like to again congratulate Brother Jay Donohue on his selection as Archon of District V.

Lafayette "Thanks" to Alumni

With the beginning of a new semester, Penn Theta looks optimistically to the warm weather of Spring. Our diverse and multi-talented Brotherhood continues to keep Phi Psi as one of the strongest Chapters at Lafayette. Due to a great job by Rush Chairmen Kevin Shea, T. J. Holden and Steve Wilson, we have fourteen pledges that will soon join our Brotherhood. They are: Greg Gallo, Ned Harvey, Joe Hawk, Doug Reichley, Mike Sutka, John Walko, Jeff Dutt, Tito Fernandez, Steve Buschel, Cole Brundage, Joe Berte, Steve Berg, Jim Castagnetta, and Marc Dahling.

We sincerely thank all alumni for their help in redecorating the downstairs Blue and Brown Rooms and the Dining Room. We were pleased by the large turnout at our Cherry Alley Homecoming celebration, and extend an invitation for them to visit the "Old Gray Barn" anytime.

In intercollegiate athletics, we have Wes Crouse on varsity wrestling, Ned Harvey on the swim team, Joe Hawk playing J. V. hoops, and Dave Page, Ed Opatkiewicz, Johnny Walko, Ken Trout, Mike Prevoznak and Bob Bartnett playing varsity football. On the intramural level, Phi Psi is keeping up our usual high standards, and for the Spring season, soccer, softball, and ping-pong look especially strong.

We are proud to announce Bruce Buckle as our Summerfield Scholar. Bruce is a senior Economics major from Montoursville, Pa., who has provided us with inspiration through his optimistic good will and leadership.

Great Strides In Fall

With winter quarter coming to an end, the Brothers of Minnesota Gamma would like to welcome our five new Brothers: Tom Gibson and Jeff Oelfke, Minneapolis; Ron Carlson, Edina; Greg Hanson, Columbia Heights; and Jeff Rienert, Lino Lakes. These five men were initiated December 1.

It was great to see some of the alumni come down for the celebration. The Minnesota Gamma tradition was kept alive once again by another successful garbage can celebration.

New officers were elected during the first week of December. They include: Doug Dahlke, GP; Dean Fulmer, VGP; Andy Richardson, P; Thomas Enzler, AG; Steve Dubbs, BG; Perry Brinkman, SG; Leon Krug, HOD; Dave Nelson, PHU; and Wade Wallen, HI. Congratulations to all the officers.

Details on pp. 40-43

Through enormous fund raisers and alumni contributions we managed to raise about $700 for carpeting and painting of a great portion of the house. It took a great deal of dedication and hard work by the Brothers to get this job done. It actually served two purposes in that the house looks better now than it has in a long time, and we now look to each other more as Brothers after working so hard and close with each other. Special thanks goes to Doug Dahlke who put in many long hours laying the new carpet and installing a new ceiling in the kitchen.

Wedding bells were ringing constantly this last summer as we lost five recent alumni to the ranks of the newly married. Congratulations and best wishes go out to Pete Johnson, Bill Dubbs, Dave Burns, Dan Burns, Jim Vanvalkenberg and their new brides as they begin their lives together and start raising more Phi Psi's.

Enthusiasm and Brotherly participation in the Chapter are higher now than they have been in quite a while; it shows in the initiation of five new Brothers and also in the work that's being done in setting up a good rush program for the start of Spring quarter.

The Brothers would like to congratulate Mark Holmes on graduating from Mankato State University. He was a great asset to the Chapter and we dearly miss him, but he is doing very well in his new job at Honeywell working in their computer programming department.

On March 1 the Brothers of Minnesota Gamma held the Winter Formal at the new Holiday Inn Downtown. The Celebration was a great success, and we would like to thank all the alumni who made it down for the occasion. Plans are already in the making for Founders Day. We don't have any definite times yet but our alumni can count on our contacting them shortly with all of the details.

Campus consolidation is now complete with the move of the administration to upper campus this past September. The old lower campus was sold to local businessmen who have converted it into office buildings and the like.

Memphis State Southern Fun

Howdy! Tennessee Zeta is doing even better than I told you in my last letter. We've acquired some new pledges and initiated some old ones, but now we also make it to classes.

We had a fantastic Founder's Day this year. The festivities took place at a local brewery. Guests dined on some Down South barbecue, and a good time was had by all.

TZ's 2nd Annual *SPRING TOGA* turned out better than anybody had hoped for.

Initiated in February were Robert Fiveash, Munford; Jerrymike Dickson, Huntingdon; Alex Fedinec, Poland; and Kevin Shaver, U.S.C.G. Soon to be initiated are Peter Craig, Boxtown; John Condon, Bartlett; John Herold, Peoria; Joe Williams, El Paso; and Chris Speaker, Hernando. We are muchas proud of these gentlemen.

Presidential Congratulations go to Brother Tim "Spandex" Gilliland on capturing his 3rd DISCO KING title at 2001 in April.

It's time to hit the beaches with frisbees and flops and beauties and buds, but there will always be someone at our house to show you around if you should be passing through.

Best wishes, Brothers!

Miami Settling In!

Second semester at Miami has kept all the Ohio Lambda Brothers as busy as the first, having to make adjustments here and there around the house to really make it our home. Many adjustments will surely follow, but we are finally settled and ready to dig in here at Miami.

Our winter rush this year was quite a new experience for us, having moved from 205 E. Vine. Instead of being off the beaten path, we were right in the mainstream of traffic hosting over 700 men the first two nights of rush! As the two-week ordeal came to a close, we knew that we had come out of it with flying colors as we took twenty-five outstanding men. They are: Vic Baerman, Chagrin Falls; Jerry Beigal, Sidney; Tim Brophy, N. Canton; Bryan Chaka, Mentor; Chris Collier, South Bend, Ind.; Chris Conlin, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Peter Darin, Birmingham, Mich.; Doug Dibble, Sylvania; Joe Didato and Tim Rose, Cleveland; Dave Dornbirer, Columbia, Md.; Tom Gridley, Endicott, N.Y.; Fred Howard and Paul Odioso, Cincinnati; Mark Hughes, Blacklick; Mike Kelly, Massapequa, N.Y.;

Jeff Kosse, Louisville, Ky.; Shawn Mac Ritchie and Pat Kenney, Toledo; Chris Oechsel, Western Springs, Ill.; Tamir Rankow, Lusaka, Zambia; Jeff Ricchetti, Westlake; Greg Rigali, Wheaton, Ill.; Jim Wilcox, Fairport, N.Y.; Jeff Windhal, Rocky River. This pledge class promises to be a hardworking group with a lot of diversity to add to our ever-increasing campus popularity.

This semester saw our hockey team finish with an undefeated record as we tied the top-ranked Beta team in our last game. We are pitted against our neighbors, the Tekes, for the first game of the tournament. Our basketball team coached by Pat Clark finished its season with a respectable 4-1 record. For the last couple of months several Phi Psis have been religiously training for the 20/20 bike race. Phi Psis have a tradition of having more teams competing in the event than any other fraternity on campus. Our Phi Psi "A" team is always among the favorites. This year proves to be no different with "A" team consisting of Don Durbin, Cary Armstrong, Steve Frederick and Dirk Armstrong riding for a third and last time for a long sought after first place trophy. Other Phi Psis riding in the event are: Barry Goldstein, Ben Sutton, Al Kmiecik, Terry Murphy, Brad Gair, and Chris Oechsel.

Despite the confusion of our move and the renovation, we moved up from third to second in scholastic rankings among fraternities here at the "Mother of Fraternities."

As second semester started, we found ourselves with a bit more time for picking up our social pace. Our "Jefferson Duo" fly-me party held along with the Fijis was a super time for the second year in a row. We have also had a party with the Chi O's, a "Gator" party with the Thetas, and a "Wrong" party with the Alpha Xi Deltas, Miami's newest sorority. We will be having parties with the Tri-Delts, and the DZ's. We are planning our formal at the Netherland Hilton Hotel Friday, March 28, an elaborate affair to which alumni are invited. The pledges took the Brothers by surprise March 1, as they began kidnapping for a well-planned walkout. Everyone had a great time and we all extend our thanks to the Brothers of Indiana Beta for being especially good hosts to us!

After a long year of hard work and determination, Don Durbin turned the presidential controls over to Tim Patrick after our February elections. Not enough can be said of the job Don has done for Ohio Lambda as he steered us into our new palace. Don has truly been the epitome of a president! Working with Tim, who has served as rush chairman in the past, will be: Chip Weiant, VGP; Andy Kratt, P; Kevin Parker, AG; Mike Murray, BG; Ben Sutton, SG; Barry Goldstein, Hod; John Ulrich, Phu; Tim Patton, Hi. The former officers, Bill Lawrence, Al Schinagle, Greg Clements, John Watkins, and Mark Foster deserve our thanks for a job well-done.

Ohio Lambda continued its tradition of campus leadership as Jim Maines was elected executive secretary of interfraternity council. Pledge Jeff Ricchetti was victorious in his bid for vice-president of residence life during the recent A.S.G. elections.

Several Brothers have had some very important goals materialize for them. Bill Lawrence has to this point been accepted to at least four law schools and is in the process of deciding where he wants to go. Paul Turgeon and Jeff Nudleman have both been accepted to medical school joining the five medical students that graduated from Ohio Lambda last year. Mark Stewart and Jeff Link were both accepted to dental school this past winter. The past winter has been an important one for Brother Link, for not only did he get accepted to dental school, but on March 8, he and his fiancée, Kristi Wolfersheim became Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Link when they were married at the Sesqui-centennial Chapel on campus. All of us wish Jeff and Kristi the best as they start a new

As the semester comes to a close, no Phi Psi in Oxford can help but stand in awe looking at that big 'ole house we call home now, with its majestic columns and huge balconies, and be amazed at where we have come in such a short time, and to be filled with excitement at where we are going in the future. Brothers, Phi Psi is here to stay at Miami!

Michigan State Active Winter Term

Because the Chapter has been so busy, winter term came and left quickly.

The term is nearly over now, and the Brothers of Michigan Beta are vigorously studying for finals. Fraternity grade point averages for fall quarter were recently released and showed that the Phi Psis had placed third out of 26 fraternities. Our goal for winter has been to at least maintain the third position and hopefully move up.

The Chapter has also been active socially. Due to the excellent planning of the social committee several sorority exchange dinners and a number of parties were held. Currently we are preparing for Greek Sing. This year we will be participating with the Tri-Delts. Many hours of work have already gone into the show and we are hoping for a first place finish.

We have also been getting ready for spring rush. Our rush program is well on its way to being a success thanks to co-rush chairmen Steven Ezop and Michael Plum. So far several meetings have been held to make plans for parties, discuss rush procedures and to get the names of prospective rushees.

Probably the highlight of this term occurred on February 28 when we visited the Detroit University Club to celebrate Founder's Day. At this time it was formally announced that the Michigan Alpha Chapter at the University of Michigan was re-established as a colony. Everyone here at Michigan Beta would once again like to congratulate the combined effort of the fraternity, The Detroit Alumni Association, and the eleven new pledges of Michigan Alpha in their achievement.

New officers have recently been elected and will remain in office for the rest of the year. They are: Nickolaus Tallarico, GP; Eric Foss, VGP; Edward Mitchell, AG; John Saunders, P; Clark Kremer, BG; Ron Kellerman, SG; John Stoll, Hi; Thomas Drainville, Hod.

Minnesota Nineteen Initiates

Minnesota Beta proudly announces the initiation of 19 on January 5: William Hollway, Daniel Boulay, Michael LeJeune, Michael Schoeder, Jerry Nelson, Peter Archbold, Jon Benson, Edina; John Gabos, Milwaukee, Wis.; Mark Woodford, Mankato; Hugh Kennedy, Omaha, Neb.; Thomas Markert, Centuria, Wis.; Kevin Hutchens, Minneapolis; Todd Hilgenkamp, George Crawford, Mike Gollinvaux, Wayzata; Jeffrey Coburn, Prior lake; Eric

Soe, Rochester; John Bristol, Andrew Goldfarb, St. Louis Park.

Beta's Founders Day was held at the Minneapolis Athletic Club, February 22, with such distinguished Phi Psis attending as past president J. Kenneth Potter and past attorney general Wayne W. Wilson. The members of the Minnesota Beta House Corporation were voted alumni of the year. They are: Arthur Heiam, K. C. Poehler, Dave Knodell, William Derrick, and Ted Anderson.

Through the House Corporation's efforts, the Chapter house has a brand new kitchen now in use. These Brothers deserve many thanks.

The Phi Psi name is being well represented on the University of Minnesota campus. Presently, we are number 1 in intramural sports among academic fraternities. We placed third in the homecoming festivities this year and we are anticipating more success in our all Greek sponsored Campus Carnival to raise money for youth projects. John Barber and Peter Bennett were very involved in the management of the $42,000 U. of M. Dance-a-Thon. Rick Soreson and Kurt Halva are members of the Order of Omega, with others awaiting their applications. Tim Slayton, Kurt Halva, and Rick Soreson are members of Omicron Delta Kappa. Brother Soreson is presently awaiting his application to Phi Beta Kappa. Nine members participated in the Freshman Camp orientation programs as counselors. This year we have fifteen applying. Brother Kurt Halva is a member of the Campus Carnival Executive Committee.

Elections were held in January, and the officers elected were Peter Bennett, GP; Jeffrey Young, VGP; John Barber, AG; Timothy Tapper, BG; Kevin Smith, P; Tom Hamre, SG; Tom Markert, Hod; Dean Thompson, Phu; and Mike Gollinvaux, Hi. Also, our steward, Kevin Hutchens, has been doing an excellent job managing our new kitchen.

We will begin spring quarter with six new pledges: Rich Hanton, Woodbury; Brad Boisen, Rochester; Brad Steinhof, St. Paul; Dave Nussbaum, Minneapolis; Mark Reiten, Minnetonka; David Hoy, Wayzata. With regular work-days around the house, scholarship regulations and incentives, and an over-all excited attitude, the sixty members of Minnesota Beta are having an active year, sharing the Brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi.

Mississippi In like a Lion

March, here in Mississippi, brought with her snow, ice, and freezing rain. 1980 has seen Mississippi Alpha come in strong with high goals, hard work, and 27 new initiates.

These new members include Kelly Anne, Dean Benton, Nick Bragorgos, John Branson, Joe Brunner, Curtis Clark, Clay Dockery, John Dodd, Gregg Elston, Lantz Foster, Alan Greer, Russ Hegwood, Jack Hill, Geoff Iles, Andrew Mangialardi, Al Mann, Tommy McMillin, Danny Miller, Deforest Parks, Mike Parr, Mike Smith, Scott Stevens, Steve Turnipseed, Tim

Walsh, Barry West, Joe White, and Barry Williams.

These 27 men, along with the 90 other Brothers and pledges, have worked hard this semester to fulfill the goals we set last year.

The most important goal undertaken is the renovation of and addition to our house. This has been in the planning stages for about 2 years, since the reorganization of our House Corporation. At Homecoming '79 we kicked off a statewide fund raising drive which was followed up in January with a personal visit to each alumnus—that we were able to contact—by three man groups of undergraduate members. This proved to be very successful. At present we are working to secure a loan, while opening the project up for bids by local contractors. All is going well, the overriding factor at this point is the economy.

Another goal we set for ourselves last November, was to get Brother Mike Sullivan elected as student body vice-president. Mike mentioned his intention to run and asked for our support. Brother Bard Mallow took the job of campaign manager and the ball started to roll. We all worked hard from mid February on, but none worked harder than Mike. The end result; March 6, Mike Sullivan was elected ASB vice-president.

Mississippi Alpha has also been active in intramurals. We are division champions in basketball this semester. We also proved ourselves a force to be reckoned with on the soccer field going undefeated and winning the over all championship.

The officers for this semester are GP, Eric Donahue; VGP, James McDaniels; P, Robert Shaw; VP, Bill Ward; AG, Richard Googler; BG, Walter Ketchings; Hod, Dennis Gaddy; Hi, Mike Iape; Phu, Richard Wadsworth; SG, Jim Rodgers.

Mississippi Alpha has had a good year so far but none of it could have been done without hard work and the help of our alumni. We would like to take this opportunity to thank our alumni for their generous contributions towards the House Corporation. We had a dream that is becoming a reality.

Richard B. Coogler, Correspondent

Missouri Improvement

Missouri Alpha's spring semester was packed with fun and achievement as the Brothers participated in social activities and intramural sports while improving academically.

Most significant was the January 12th initiation of one of Missouri Alpha's largest classes. The twenty-three outstanding men are: Ted Barr, Miami; Scott Stephenson, Barrington, Ill.; Dwight Canning, Jamey Underhill, Scott Debandt, and Dave Applegate, St. Louis; Rick Hahn, Houston, Texas; Bill Krauss, Madison, Wis.; Randy Reiners and Keith Dobbins, Chesterfield; Tim Mankus, Oakville; Jeff Darr and Tim Richerson, Kirksville; David Bromley, Buckner; Corey J. Hinrichs, Marshall; Roger Wendall, Pleasant Hill; Howard Coleman, Chicago, Ill.; Matt Hulsey, Ironton; Michael McHenry, Independence; Kevin Powell, Harrisonville; Scott Wade, St.

Joseph; Michael Len Ward, Gladstone; and Kevin Mallon, Washington.

Our spring pledge class is comprised of: Jim Verhoff and Ken Jacobs, St Louis; Jeff Beason, Pleasant Hill; and Jay Barton, Marshall. Although the new pledge class is small it is making up for its size with a great amount of spirit and enthusiasm.

Missouri Alpha was very strong in intramural sports. In swimming, Keith Dobbins shattered the previous intramural record by winning the 50 yard backstroke. Keith also grabbed second place in the 100 yard freestyle. In addition, our basketball team fought to a third place finish. Of the thirty-one fraternities competing in intramurals, we are in sixth place in the overall standings.

Academically Missouri Alpha has also improved. An accumulative grade point average of 2.65 for the fall semester placed us among the top ten fraternities. Most importantly we edged out Kansas Alpha in our annual competition for the highest grade point. This was announced Feb. 22 at the Founders Day Celebration at which we also claimed first place in the song competition.

In social activities, Missouri Alpha celebrated the first day of pledging with the annual "Cabaret" party on March 15. This year's party was especially well planned and was a huge success.

Another big event was Mom's weekend which was held March 8th and 9th. The weekend was highlighted by a trip with our mothers to Harpo's, a local bar, following Mizzou's thrashing of Notre Dame in basketball.

Other social activities included Greek Fling, in which the Phi Psi's paired up with the women of Zeta Tau Alpha, and Spring Formal, which was held aboard the "Queenie Baby," a two-level showboat. This year we had a record attendance at formal with 52 couples.

This summer Missouri Alpha is looking forward to Columbia Weekend July 12th and 13th, and the weddings of six Phi Psi's. Taking their vows will be: Lyn Gooch, Rick Payne, Mark Kienzle, Rick Bien, Jeff Travers, and Kevin Mallon.

Monmouth Strong Leadership

New Jersey Beta continues to rebound, and by the end of the semester we will be the largest chapter at Monmouth College. This is quite an achievement, for two years ago, Phi Psi at Monmouth was having problems.

Good publicity, good parties and hard working Brothers have keyed our success. On Valentines Day we held what is being called the greatest party in Monmouth College history. The party featuring two bands and the largest Valentine card in the world attracted the largest crowd ever to any function at Monmouth College. Estimates range from 800-1200 people. The party was arranged to raise money for several student leaders who paid out of their own pockets for a lawyer during the faculty strike, and could not be reimbursed through student funds. We are proud to say that we raised all the money they needed.

We also sponsored a dance marathon at the house for the Easter Seals Society. Final figures are not in yet on the amount raised in the ten hour marathon, but it is a considerable sum. It is these sort of events that have more and more prospective pledges asking about Phi Psi.

Active in all facets of the school, Ken Holland has a popular show on the college radio station WMCX. Charles O'Gorman is the head resident in one of the dormitories and also captain of the soccer team. David Chase is the News editor of the school newspaper, The Outlook, Pat Browne is a student govt. representative, Howard Wishnia is president of the IFC, and Mitch Stillman is treasurer of IFC. Chase and O'Gorman have also had major roles in college theatrical productions. O'Gorman by the way made Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Our house is undergoing some major renovations as we prepare for the summer months here on the Jersey Shore. We have expanded several rooms and are providing extra doors for easy access to the hallways. We also plan some improvements for our parking lot in back of the house.

It is the dedication and strong leadership of the Chapter which has helped turn it around in the past two years, and we hope to stay on top.

Larson as housemother. Ellen is currently employed in the accounting department of a local hotel, and she is also providing valuable time to the functioning of the Chapter.

In awards presentations, Chuck Wagner was presented with the third annual Earl Cline award. Scott Milliken was honored with the Chapter's Solon E. Summerfield award. The Tim Martin Memorial Scholarship, so named after our brother who died in an automobile accident last summer, was given to Tom Ostergard. The outstanding Brother for the school year was awarded to Dan Guenther who was the Chapter treasurer at the time.

Phi Psis, as usual, were involved in many campus activities. Mike Rasmussen was elected to the seven man Judicial Board, the governing body of fraternities. Brother Milliken captured the Nebraska State Intercollegiate Debate championship.

In the athletic arena, Mike Lanning was again a starter for the UNL soccer team. Our intramural volleyball team won the All-University championship going undefeated throughout the season. Bill Cook, a defensive tackle, is a member of the varsity football squad, and Ken Drwal is again competing for the UNL track squad in the javelin.

Northwestern Reaching For The Stars

Winter brought its normal frigid impediments to the shores of Lake Michigan, however the inclement weather was overshadowed by the initiation of 15 new men into Illinois Alpha. While January 20, 1980 may have been Super Sunday for Pittsburgh Steeler Fans, to the Brothers it meant the initiation ceremony and the revelation of the mysteries of the Fraternity to these distinguished gentlemen. They are: Doug Banister, Worthington Heights, Oh.; Tim Joranko, Albion, Mich.; Steve Stark, Fort Dodge, Iowa; Jim Highland, Glen Ellyn; Curt Anderson, Pittsburgh; Kip Perry, Cincinnati; Dale Raar, Birmingham, Mich.; Paul Huckelberry, Calumet City; Phil Donaldson, Ohio; Bob McMurray, Brookfield, Wis.; Kent Newcomb, Alton; John Schachtel, Maplewood, N.J.; Neal DeYoung, Long Island, N.Y.; Doug Blake, Mt. Prospect; and Mark Kirby, East Stroudsburg, Pa. The Brothers were glad to see another big step toward the 1500 Club—these new Brothers put us fifty short of the distinction.

Subsequent to initiation was the election of new officers and here are the position alterations: Mike Hitchcock, GP; Steve Marrer, VGP; Jim Highland, BG; Mike Ray, AG; Paul Huckelberry, HOD; John Schachtel, PHU; and Doug Banister, HI. Immediately following elections, Chapter work on various projects commenced. Spring rush (under the direction of Rob Glesener, Mike Feikes, and Rick Shedd) has yielded two fine pledges; Bill Meyer, Edina, Minn. and Blake Lynch. We eagerly await Spring and Summer Rush in anticipation of a superb class next fall.

While the Wildcats continued their cellar door antics, Illinois Alpha has been much more successful. In both IM football and hockey we were rated in the top five. The bowling team managed a playoff berth and the basketball team had a winning record. On the varsity level, one of the more successful NU teams foresees strong support on the diamond from four Phi Psi newcomers: Brothers Tim Joranko, Mark Kirby, Doug Blake, and Kent Newcomb. Further strength comes from spring pledge Blake Lynch.

Further congratulations are in store for other Brothers; Mike Hitchcock and Richy Jadin, Mortar Board; Mike Pierce, Phi Eta Sigma; and Mike McCormick, Steve Marrer, Jeff Leon, Rob Glesener, Alpha Lambda Delta. Many Brothers have been accepted to numerous graduate schools; Pete Kindrachuk, business school; Hugh Walborn, business school; Pete Lund, dental school; Chris McEwen, medical school; Steve Marrer, law school. Mike McCormick will be studying at the University of Munich next year. Brother Jeff Calhoun took a year off to travel with The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas, a musical play.

The highlight of Spring Quarter will be our "Reach For The Stars" philanthropic extravaganza for multiple sclerosis. For two years, Illinois Alphas have held a competition along the lines of "Almost Anything Goes" and "Superstars." Its heralding on campus, resulted in MS asking us to co-sponsor its major Midwest youth fund raising project for this year. In coordination with various campus student organizations, the MS officials and the Brothers, under the leadership of Brother Scott Olsen, have begun a large scale campaign and project. We encourage the support of alumni in any possible way. We also are intending to invite and accommodate teams from other Phi Psi Chapters around the nation. The sudden prominence of "Reach For The Stars" has guaranteed the Brothers a promising and exciting Spring Quarter. Other long anticipated events for the Spring include: Heaven and Hell Party, spring formal, May Sing, spring IM's, the spring weather, the beach, the parties, and, of course, graduation.

A stag party will be held Friday; initiation, a luncheon and campus tour Saturday afternoon; and a dinner and dance that night. An all Greek block party will be held May 10 and all Brothers are invited. We hope to see all of you this May.

Ohio Wesleyan Greetings brothers!

As the Winter term winds down, the Chapter is beginning to get psyched for Spring break and the heightened activity of Spring term.

This past winter a number of Brothers heartily participated in swimming and wrestling on the interscholastic level. Also, the Chapter successfully competed in the intramural sports program. First, the European handball team won the championship. Second, the hoops team was division runner-up.

Earlier this term Ohio Alpha participated in a Greek Symposium, consisting of fraternity, sorority, faculty and national Greek representatives. The objective was and is to maintain an admirable image of the Greek system both in the community and in the school.

We are pleased to announce that the Ohio Alphan will be out this spring. The newsletter is to keep the alumni informed about current fraternal, scholastic, athletic, and social events.

This coming spring we see a number of fine traditional events. First, during May 2-4 the Canon Banquet Weekend will take place. After a Friday evening party, Saturday morning the Brothers will compete in the second annual Pop Top Golf Tournament, then in the early evening cocktails will be served, followed by the banquet itself—the highlight of the weekend—bringing old and new spirits together. (Rumor has it past Fraternity President Ken Potter, our present Chapter Advisor will be present!)

The next weekend is Monnett Weekend and a Housing Corporation meeting will be held. Then on May 24 the annual Phi Psi "500" will always bring a definite "good" time. We do cordially, and Fraternally invite any Chapters to attend.

The academic year comes to a close with Commencement on June 15 after which our fine and strong Senior class will aspire towards new horizons.

Without further adieu—we hope to see your representatives at the GAC, August 6-10 in Indianapolis.

Carson Reider, Correspondent

Oklahoma Progress

The key word at Oklahoma Alpha is Progress. Within the past two years the Brotherhood has more than tripled. This progress is displayed in two areas; new initiates and pledges.

The newest members of our secular body are; Gerald Chernicky, Kenneth Detell (Pledge class President and winner of the outstanding Scholar Award with a perfect 4.0), John Egleston, James Hoffman, Mark Pontious and Mark Singer.

Under the leadership of GP and Rush Chairman Gary Smith, we have eight men wishing to be members of Phi Psi; Richard Beal (a six time legacy of Phi Psi), Mark Davis, Kevin Foreman (a member of the University track & field team), Terry Earls, Edward Giddens, Murray Schwartz, Alan Schroeder and John Wilkins.

A transition of leadership finds new spring officers; GP-Gary Smith; VGP-Pat Knight; P-Todd Waldeck; AG-Thomas A. Ratcliff; BG-Robert Estes; SG-Mitch Farrell; HOD-David Dubiel; and PHU-Mike Eckhart. The summer Rush Chairmen are Gary Smith and Timothy Sheehan.

The great strides Oklahoma Alpha has achieved could not have been made without Alumni support, particularly STANLEY CATLETT, Oklahoma '20, and STANLEY HOPPER, Oklahoma '47. Brother Catlett made a most generous financial contribution that enabled us to implement structural repairs and cosmetic improvements including a new ceiling, carpeting and new furniture. Brother Hopper was invaluable in implementing and coordinating these improvements.

Athletically both the Brothers and pledges have been very active. Pledge Daniels and Schwartz participated in the intramural wrestling competition taking second and third, respectively, in their weight classes. The entire Chapter, braving the unpredictable Oklahoma weather, has had spring softball practice to ready ourselves for another successful season.

The Sooner Phi Psi's have been very busy socially this year. We held a Christmas Party for underprivileged children with the Alpha Chi Omega Sorority. Founders Day was, as always, spectacular, and held special meaning for all with the past Fraternity President, TOM JAMES, as guest speaker. The Brothers look forward to our annual P.J. party which is given to us by our friends of the Chapter, and the highlight of the season is a MASH Party, our spring rush party, held jointly with our brothers from Kansas Alpha.

This year marks the Sixtieth Anniversary of Oklahoma Alpha, with a celebration to be held at the original installation site, the Skirvin Hotel on October 18, 1980. We have experienced sixty years of achievement, turbulence, and progress, all meant to foster the individual's potential and the Brotherhood of his fellow man.

Thomas A. Ratcliff, Correspondent

Oklahoma State Full of Activities

The spring semester started off with the initiation of five Brothers; A. J. Bisson, David Draper, Mark King, OKC. Gerald Stege, Kevin Muschinski, Tulsa. Our newly initiated Brothers have already proven to be a big asset to the Chapter.

The semester's activities start off with Spring Sing in which we are participating with the women of Chi Omega Sorority. This year's theme is "Fruit." We are looking forward to participating in the campus wide activity.

Summer rush has already taken full force with Spring and Summer Rush Chairman Scott French. He has already sent out letters to prospective rushees and has already planned two Spring Rush parties scheduled for March 29 and April 19. We cordially invite Alumni to both parties. (any name of rushees are also appreciated)

A special thanks to our Brothers at Oklahoma Alpha for allowing us to stay over one weekend for our own Brotherhood weekend.

Congratulations to Brother Rick Schmigle who is to be married May 24.

David A. Chavez, Correspondent

Oregon Productive Winter

Oregon Alpha highlighted a productive winter term by putting on an all-Greek boxing tournament, with half the proceeds going to the Oregon Multiple Sclerosis Society and the other half to improvements in the house.

Organized by George Glass, the Chapter put in six weeks of preparation in order to make the boxing "smoker" a success. The tournament was held Friday, Feb. 22, at the Eugene National Guard Armory and every fraternity except one on campus was represented in the three divisions: light, middle and heavyweight.

Two Phi Psi's garnered first place with Matt Presjak winning the middleweight division and Scott Robertson the lightweight. Among the judges on hand for the tournament was alumnus Robert Glass, Oregon '53 who is a member of the Eugene Boxing Commission.

In addition to the tournament, elections held late fall term resulted in the following new officers; Fred Poust, GP; Nick Khoury, VGP; Andy Davies, P; Mark Walker, House manager; Jay Altenhofen, BG; Blase Burkhart, SG; Dave Sargent, PHU; Tom Louris, HI; and Tom Ballantyne, HOD.

Oregon State Active and Improving

As Spring '79 came to a close we had pledged 3 outstanding men who captured number one in grades on campus for a pledge class. Rush continued on throughout the summer and through Rush Chairman Bill Irwin's fine effort, Rush Week ended with Oregon Beta picking up 17 new pledges. A hardworking, unified class, the pledges went right to the task of Fraternity Education and Chapter involvement.

Six representatives made the trip down to the District VI ELC-DC conference at Cal-Epsilon (UCLA) this year. They were Russ Logerwell, Cliff Ezell, Matt Bunch, Steve Kaufman, Steve Daggett, and Tim McLaughlin. We have benefited much from their experience and we would like to extend our thanks to Cal Epsilon for their hospitality.

Fall term ended with members and pledges alike looking hard towards vacation time. But, upon returning for the advent of Winter term, we learned that we had placed 3rd in grades (out of 27) on campus—our highest finish ever! We fully intend to stay in the top ten in future terms.

January 12, 1980 saw Oregon Beta initiate 20 outstanding men into her ranks. They are, ranking in badge number from 424-443: Steve Kaufman, Bob Zochert, Steve Daggett, Eric Rathe, Tim McLaughlin, and Russ Cross, Portland; Dave Anderson and Matt Knox, Junction City; Mike Love, Beaverton; Jerry Vonderharr, Papillion, Neb.; Mark Kraft, Canby; Don VandeBergh, Forest Grove; Doug Bratz, Richmond Beach, Wash.; Ray Peters, Cornelius; Scott Hufstader, Brian Barton, Dave Schmidt, Eugene; John Siddall, Lake Oswego; and Bob Beavin, Corvallis.

Founder's Day was celebrated in Corvallis on February 16, 1980, with the OSU and U of O undergraduates and alumni attending. Brother Byron Schriever, Oregon Beta House Corporation President, was master of ceremonies at this grand gathering of Phi Psis. This year's banquet was held at Toa Yuen restaurant with over 130 Phi Psis and guests in attendance. Annual awards were given and Oregon Beta recipients were as follows: Russ Logerwell—The Edward T. Sturgeon Memorial Award for the outstanding senior; Michael Weeks '76—Alumnus of the Year; and Serge Alexandre and Dick Duncombe each receiving a $250 Don McNeil Scholarship Award. It was a time for reunion, Brotherhood, and business. We would like to thank all those who attended for doing so.

Our fourth annual Phi Psi Dribble for charity was a continued success. On February 23, along with the Alpha Phi sorority, we dribbled to Portland (100 miles) raising $1300 for the Oregon Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. A pizza party and dance was held after the Dribble at the Portland home of four Phi Psi brothers.

This chapter expresses congratulations to Russ Logerwell for his continued effort in putting together the award winning Orange Peel. For the second year in a row, the Orange Peel has won the New York Alumni Association Award for the best alumni newsletter of any Phi Psi chapter.

Our intramural teams are having a good year. Having moved up a league this year, we went to the semifinals in football, second in basketball, and third in volleyball. We are eagerly awaiting for warm weather and outdoor intramurals to start.

As Spring term is just around the corner we are moving into high gear with our rush efforts. We have one new pledge, Rod Christison, of Beaverton, moving in Spring term and we hope to pledge a few more before Summer break. Have a good spring!

Penn State

Outstanding Chapter Award

The many accomplishments of Penn Lambda were recognized earlier this year when it was selected as the outstanding fraternity at Penn State. Penn Lambda received the Omega Epsilon Award, given annually to the fraternity which best exemplifies scholarship, leadership, and participation in campus activities. The award is particularly outstanding, when you consider that Penn State has one of the country's largest fraternity systems, thriving with 50 fine chapters.

Phi Psi has continued its prominence on campus again this year. Brad Scovill was the starting tight end on our Liberty Bowl football team, while Bob Moore and Joe Shulman were members of the cheerleading squad. Dave Dixon was recently selected as Administrative Vice-President of the Interfraternity Council and Rob Schmidt is editor of the Greek Times Newspaper.

The annual IFC Dance Marathon was the most successful ever, raising over $86,000 for the benefit of cancer-stricken children at the Hershey Medical Center. Paul Martin and his partner from Chi Omega, Dianne Fleming, danced the entire 48 hours, as the Phi Psi/Chi-O duo finished in second place with more than $10,000 pledged.

As winter term came to a close, 10 new Brothers were initiated into the Fraternity; they are Charlie Dent, Allentown; Rich Evans, Oxon Hill, Md.; Gary Hitechew, Gerry Mattys, Mark McSteen and Pat Naughton, Pittsburgh; Clark Murphy, King of Prussia; Ed Plachter, Wyomissing; John Rommel, Malvern; and Mark Stillwagon, New Kensington.

Under the guidance of new V.G.P. Clayton Wells, eight men were pledged to the Fraternity early spring term. They are Barth Getto, Jeanette; Bill Kesack, North Wales; Rob Meves, Horsham; Phil Quatrini, Sayre; Randy Repcheck, Upper St. Clair; Bret Seitz, Allentown; Tim Sommer and Tom Thompson, Upper St. Clair.

Purdue

Checkered Flag Time

The Phi Psis of Purdue did not let the cold winter of Indiana stagnate Chapter activities. Not only did we attend Founders Day in Indianapolis, but we had a special workshop with Chapter Consultant Lou Hoffman. We were also proud to help Brother Marvin Maddox's campaign for student body representative.

Thanks to the diligent efforts by our rush committee, led by Tom Kieffer and Lee Burneson, we welcomed seventeen new pledges into the Chapter during February. They are Bradley G. Allen, Covington; James R. Boucher, Joliet, Ill.; Brett W. Buck, Fort Branch; Robert N. Canty, Elmhurst, Ill.; Andrew Cook, Cupertino, Calif.; Steve Decker, Greencastle; Daniel W. Fisher, Fulton, N.Y.; James H. Johnson, Woodbridge, Va.; Bradley N. McKean, Anderson; Bernard Paul, Evansville; Brian Pearson, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Robert T. Riley, Granger; Thomas Roush, South Bend; Pat Settle, Crown Point; Marvin Short, Covington, Ky.; David S. Sterling, Skaneateles, N.Y.; and Michael Struble, Saline, Mich.

Also in February, our Chapter initiated perhaps the most unique little sister class in our history. Our housemother, Lou Vianco, held a tea for all fraternity and sorority housemothers at Purdue—we were proud to make them "honorary little sisters!"

When Spring comes to campus, we start thinking about Grand Prix. Alumnus "Crazy" Greg Newell sponsored our new cart, "The Button Special," and helped us host a fire-up party. Upcoming events such as Grand Prix, Gala Week, and Homecoming are excellent excuses for alumni to get involved with chapter functions.

Rhode Island

Successful Spring Start

The 9th Annual "Bounce-a-Thon" held Feb. 13 kicked off the start of a successful Spring Semester for R.I. Beta. Brothers and pledges bounced basketballs along the 35-mile route from Kingston to Providence, collecting donations for the American Cancer Society along the way. Gov. J. Joseph Garrahy, Warwick Mayor Joseph Walsh and Cranston Mayor Edward DiPrete awarded proclamations declaring Feb. 13 "Phi Psi Bounce-a-Thon Day" throughout the state of Rhode Island. Behind the extraordinary organization and promotion of Vinny Practico, with the help of Mark Lombardo, $3,000 in donations were collected, bringing our 9-year total to $20,000. Special thanks go out to our sponsors, Narragansett Brewery and WPRO-FM Radio Station.

Spring Weekend will be held April 25-27 for all Brothers, pledges, and alumni. The activities begin Friday night with a formal dance at the Cranston Colonial Hilton, music provided by "Omega." On Saturday an afternoon deckparty will be held at the house followed by a cruise aboard the S.S. Southland around Narragansett Bay. In the evening a "Ground Round Night" will be taking place at the Chapter. On Sunday a picnic at Stedman's Field in Kingston will conclude the festivities organized by Social Chairmen Scott Masterson and Vinny Practico.

Tony Horton won the first annual "Mr. URI" contest on Feb. 26, defeating ten other contestants in areas of formal wear, gym short competition, and talent. Individually, he won the talent aspect with a mind-boggling mime act. Among prizes of personal radio and TV appearances, Tony also won a foosball table for the Chapter house.

Brothers John Mase and Peter Schult have been accepted to law school, as will Mark Lombardo plans to enter medical school in the Fall.

On the athletic scene, Tom Healy, pro prospect and All-American candidate, is looking forward to another outstanding season on the varsity baseball team. This big first baseman led the Yankee Conference in hitting last year and has already agreed to play for Chatham of the prestigious Cape Cod Summer League. Meanwhile, John Douglas has qualified for the Boston Marathon with a third place finish in the Lowell, MA Marathon with a time of 2:35.12. Johnson & Wales Athletic Club will sponsor John in the 26-mile race, to be held April 21.

Rider Campus Leaders

Our Chapter is looking forward to strong leadership from the newly elected officers. Greg Lazicky-Pres.; Bob Dunn-Vice Pres.; Dave Torrey-Treas.; Bob Schotz-Rec. Sec.; and John Hubben-Corr. Sec.

Keeping with tradition, our intramural program will be as strong as ever. We will be defending our championship crowns in both A and B softball leagues with all but one returning player. We have purchased team shirts and hope to have them for bid day. A raffle will be held to pay for them.

Congratulations are in order for Mike Algor and Geri Andreottis, who danced for 29 straight hours in a marathon for Multiple Sclerosis. In addition to winning first prize (two televisions), Mike and Geri raised over one thousand dollars for MS. The total collected was just over two thousand dollars. Mike was supported throughout the 29 hours by all the Brothers.

We are extremely proud to announce the nomination of Robert Dunn and Edward Pieslak into "Who's Who Among American University and College Students." In addition, Brothers John LeGoff, Kevin Mullaney, Bob Bik, Sean Looney (4.0), Bill Kolatac and Don Petroski, all achieved high honors by being recognized on the Dean's list. Good job!

With the initiation of the most recent pledge class our Chapter can look forward to a strong future. Many of the new Brothers are getting involved in its activities. The newly initiated Brothers are Matt Bradley-Pres. of the class; Tim Bradley-Vice Pres.; Mike Bennett-Sgt.-at-Arms; John Hubben-Treas.; and Mike Bisaha, Andy Brody, Ray Dobbins, Mike Falzone, Kelly Ford, Mike Gensinger, Bill Kolatac, Bob Prisco, Don Petroski, Peter Toft and Mark Zaifman.

Looking into the semester, we are working on an Inish down at Atlantic City and possibly seeing Don Rickles for the second time. Coming up this week is DR which has attracted a good number of pledges this semester. Greek week will be starting early in April and Phi Psi, teamed up with Delta Phi Epsilon, will be looking for a victory.

Phi Psi will have a strong voice in IFC this year. Kevin Mullaney is Vice President, Greg Lazicky is Treasurer and our IFC reps are Pete Ciszek and Tim Bradley.

The entire Chapter would like to sincerely thank Cindy Hedden, our Sweetheart, for the assistance she's been to us this year.

On a final note, due to the tragic loss of our Brother, Ralph Matera last year in a plane crash, our lounge has been dedicated to him. In memory of Ralph, the Chapter is renovating the lounge by purchasing new furniture and a foosball table.

South Carolina Good Year

The South Carolina Alpha Phi Psi's have enjoyed an eventful Spring semester thus far.

As usual, our Spring Rush was geared toward quality rather than quantity. This is evident in the character of our new pledges, John Steinberger and Thomas Schader. John is a Sophomore Journalism major from Morristown, N.J. while Tim is a Junior transfer from the University of Minnesota who is studying Biology.

Among the more interesting Rush functions were a "Black Hole" party, and a smoker at the home of chapter alumnus Connor Harrison.

The new semester has included a number of interesting social activities. One of the more novel ones was a pajama party in the lounge which just happened to coincide with a rare Carolina snowstorm. The annual Founder's Day celebration provided another rewarding activity. The attendance of a number of alumni added to the joy of the occasion.

The South Carolina Phi Psi's are making their presence felt within the University and the Columbia community. Brothers Bo Stuckey, Tomy Gigioli and Greg Lasley recently represented the Chapter in an interfraternity boxing tournament. The Chapter also plans to aid in the state Special Olympics in April.

Plans for the rest of the semester include a St. Patrick's Day party, featuring green beer, a beach party and a "brain bomb" before final exams. The chapter's numerous baseball fans are anxious to satisfy their habit with a road trip to Atlanta to catch the Braves in action for a three-game series. Previous road trips to Greenville, Charleston and Charlotte, N.C., have added a touch of life to the semester.

The Chapter extends its greetings to the Phi Psi's through the country and welcomes them to visit anytime they're in the area.

Southern California Building Momentum

Spring has arrived in L.A., and the Phi Psi house is bursting with activity. We began the semester by initiating our 14 pledges from the fall, and celebrating with a lavish party at the estate of recent alumnus Brent Enright. Spring rush followed, and we obtained four outstanding pledges. Their names, for those of you who are taking notes, are Mark Yusin, Andrew Morrow, Mark Neff, and David Leisen. Among our officers for the spring are Bob Preston, GP; Rich Jenkins, VGP; and John DeMarco, Pledge Trainer.

Our social calendar has been a great success, highlighted by our annual Roman orgy with the wild and woolly Pi Beta Phis. Scheduled for the near future are the Phi Psi "500" sorority tricycle race, our spring weekender in Mexico, and a ski excursion with the Delta Gammas.

On the sports scene, we are gathering momentum in our bid for the IFC all-sports trophy. We recently captured the team skiing championship, led by the spectacular performance of Paul Faessel. We also were victorious in racquetball, and look forward to the softball season with great expectations.

On March 6th, Brother Joe Williams was flown to Tuscaloosa, Alabama to represent Phi Psi and U.S.C. in the national collegiate beer-chugging championship. You can see his winning performance April 20th on NBC's new show, "Sunday Games."

Before closing, this correspondent wishes to extend a special greeting to the Brothers at the University of Pennsylvania, especially John Leone, Steve Seagrave-Daly, George Blees, and Scott Miner.

Cal Delta wishes all Brothers a prosperous spring semester, and we hope to see many of you at the GAC. A good time will be had by all!

Southwest Texas State Hard Work Pays Off!

Spirits here at Texas Gamma are at an all time high. Springtime in San Marcos always tends to raise spirits in general, but with the addition of six new initiates, and thirteen new pledges Phi Psi at SWT has never been stronger in membership or enthusiasm. The Brotherhood proudly welcomes these six new Brothers: Tab Blackston, Arlington; Drew Bourgeois, Houston; Bill Burns, Plano; Ben Franklin, Senora; Roel Galvan, Harlingen; and Joe O'Connell, Austin.

Rush Chairman, George Childress and GP Danny McClung are to be commended on their vigorous efforts toward a great rush which produced thirteen pledges. They are: Ryland Brem, Bob Burns, David Fontenot, Stephen Grace, John Haecker, Jay Hart, Russell Mitchell, Karl Means, Greg Pyle, Richard Santos, Robert Santos, Scott Siegal, and Lee Wilcox. Congratulations to Brothers Childress and McClung and the best of luck to our largest spring pledge class ever.

Of no less success than our Spring rush was our 1st Annual Phi Psi Invitational Basketball Tournament held February 8-9. This sixteen team, double elimination tournament included fraternity teams from colleges all over Texas as well as independent teams. Following the tournament was the 1st Annual Phi Psi Fandango All-College Party held at the Hays County Civic Center. The party and tournament were an overwhelming success especially considering that an undertaking such as this rarely earns a profit in its first year. As a result this looks to be our major annual fund raiser in the future. Again recognition must go to Danny McClung as well as Brothers Tony Henson and Jarrel Blanchard, who were integral in the planning and success of this project.

Founder's Day '80 came off beautifully as a good time was had by all who attended the February 16 weekend event. Our theme of "Wild West Texas" was thoroughly appropriate for an unseasonably sunny day for a barbeque at the house followed by a country western dance.

All things considered, we are looking forward to very eventful Spring and Summer terms. And if the past is any clue to what to expect in the future, Texas Gamma knows better than to stop working hard while we're ahead!

Southwestern Louisiana Good Year

The 1979 fall semester has been an active one for Louisiana Beta. The semester began with the pledging of twenty-two gentlemen: Michael Annis, Rene Bergeron, Craig Brodie, Larry Hardwin, Keith Kelly, George Lamperez, Pierre McBride, Robert McKeithen, James David Moore, Steve Raggio, Ken Rourke, Matthew Salmon, Theron Worley, Don Atkins, Carl Johnson, Andrew Navard, Raymond Noel, Ray Latiolais, Orlindo Dos Santos, Chirs Delcambre, Nelson Dos Santos, and Charles Doty.

The spring, 1980, officers are David L. Bergeron, GP; Joseph B. Wolf, VGP; John C. Jones, P; Gustave O. Lamperez, AG; Francis P. Clark, SG; Durwood L. Keller, Hod; James E. Slatten, Phu; Steven R. Murphy, Hi. Phi Psi also has two Brothers serving as officers in the Interfraternity Council. Thomas A. Smith holds the office of Treasurer, for which he will serve his third consecutive term. Gustave O. Lamperez holds the office of Secretary.

During the '79 Homecoming, Phi Psi captured a third place in the pep rally competition, and a fourth place in the Sweepstakes.

Louisiana Beta also had a very successful year academically. The Chapter average of 2.818 was the highest fraternity average for the 1979 Spring semester. The fall 1979 average was 2.605 which was once again the highest average.

Brothers John T. Scopes, Thomas L. Hays, and James E. Slatten were nominated to "Who's Who Among University and College Students." Patrick J. Mangan was accepted into Phi Gamma Mu Honor Society.

The 1980 spring semester has proven to be an active one for La. Beta. The initiation of sixteen new Brothers started off the semester. The return of some of our old pledges and induction of several new ones brought our total to six pledges for the spring semester. We are looking forward to our many events of Spring. The annual Las Vegas Night for the benefit of St. Jude's Children's Hospital will be held on March 14th. The Spring Formal will be held on March 29, followed by a crawfish boil the next day.

Gustave O. Lamperez, III, Correspondent

Stanford University Continued Progress

Spring is a happy time in California, bringing with it sunshine, Rush season, and, hopefully for California Beta, official University Recognition. Part of an administration evaluation of campus fraternities, Cal Beta hopes to satisfy University requirements by the first week of April, the official kick-off of three weeks of campus-wide Rush. The recognition will allow us to use University facilities and grounds for free, which is especially important to our group, since we don't have an official Fraternity house.

Aside from several banquets and a lot of fun, the most notable achievement of our group this year has been strength. After a newly-initiated pledge class last fall, our membership level stands at a small but intensely-dedicated 19. The strong Fraternal ties which have grown up within the group have forever shed the insecurities and doubts that the Chapter would not survive, which is a recurring nightmare for rather young developing groups such as ours. Friendship both characterizes and is the essence of our Chapter, which cannot rely on a fraternity house or Chapter traditions to tie us together.

After Rush, we are tentatively planning to look into several projects, such as the acquisition of a small off-campus house for meetings and recreation, and a drive to contact and reacquire our Chapter with its alumni from before the early 70's decline of the Chapter. Also of special importance this Spring is Doug Gardner's, our token premed, Mcat's.

Syracuse University Farewell to Seniors

Spring at New York Beta brings much more than a change in the weather. This semester includes many important activities such as, the Ninth Annual Casino Night, the commencement of a Contingency Fund, and the possibility of a Phi Psi 500.

In charge of the various activities are: Dave Finkelstein, John Colby, and Bob Ficks, Casino; Joe Ryan, Contingency Fund; and Sam Strober, Phi Psi 500.

The Casino Night, our single largest activity of the year, is designed to raise money for Muscular Dystrophy. Last year we raised over $1,200 for the benefit of M.D. We hope to have as fine a showing this year as we have had in the past eight.

Our 1980 Founder's Day saw Mike Maynard as the recipient of the Award. Congratulations Mike!

The featured speaker was Alfred Popkess, an initiate to Ohio Alpha in 1963. We gratefully appreciate his participation in this event.

In addition to our 8 new Brothers from fall semester, we have 8 strong spring semester pledges. They are: Mark Boshuach, Mike Maurice, Dave Wanzor, John Steinkraus, Paul Rossi, John Isaacs, Paul Kenworthy, and Harry Mains. These 16 fine men will offset the loss of these 15 graduating seniors: John Colby, Mitch Owen, Don Thresh, Mike Maynard, Joe Ryan, Chris Chiodo, Steve Fischer, Sam Strober, Steve Ardelli, Paul Krupa, Mike Roe, Matt Peoples, Rich David, Dave Rupp, and Dan Blattner. We will be sorry to see them go. Good luck to them.

Tennessee Spring has Arrived

This quarter at UT is almost over and again the Phi Psi at Tenn. Epsilon are departing for warmer weather. After a long and arduous haul through the rigors of academia, this Phi Psi Chapter is heading for Florida. Other Bro's headed in the same direction are urged to sport their jerseys, especially when passing through Panama City or Key West.

This winter has not been an easy one, but neither has it been a dull one, here in Knoxville. We initiated five men at the beginning of the quarter; Duncan Winter, NY; Mike Prater, TN; Steven Evans, PA; Robert Berterton, MS; and Joseph Sfameni, NJ. With these new additions we expect to go far. Our membership is now at its highest point in 8 years and we are expecting a good number of spring pledges.

Some of the social events held this quarter were the annual scavenger hunt (grand prize, a golden steering wheel), a Valentines Day party and our annual mountain retreat and of course Founders Day.

Spring quarter is a time in which the college student finds it very hard to study. Especially with Spring fever in the air.

Our thanks go to GP Jeff Bittner for his hospitality shown to one of our favorite people. We anticipate the arrival of our Brothers from the city of brotherly love the 29th of March. That will be just in time for our spring rush and we hope that we can show y'all a little southern hospitality.

Of course, with the spring comes the spring Orge (pronounced ORJ) in mid May. We invite all Phi Psi's to attend as this year is bound to be even bigger and better than last year's. Our Brothers from Tenn Zeta have already made plans to attend and we hope more of you will do the same.

After the Spring our new officers will be attending the GAC in August. We hope to see some familiar faces there as well as those we have not met yet. Until then, High High Phi Kappa Psi, live ever die, never Phi Kappa Psi!

Texas 75th Anniversary

We've had a busy but exciting year thus far at Texas Alpha. Some highlights include our 75th Anniversary and Mortgage Burning Ceremonies, first place in Singsong and the Penthouse Car Wash, and winning teams in volleyball, football, bullriding, and basketball. Socially we boasted several mixers, a World War II party, Beat OU party in Dallas, Christmas Formal, 60's revival, and a St. Valentine's Day Massacre party at Founder's Day.

Spring started with the initiation of 16 men. They are: George Hallock Cramer, William Thomas Stokes III and William David Rowlett, Dallas; John Kemmerer Ivey, Aledo; Barry Wayne Jones, Detroit, Mich.; David Lawrence Kessler, Arlington Heights, Ill.; Milton Richard McManigle III, Odesa; Robert Wayne Mushmucke, Steven Mark Snell, David Neal Roberts and David Matthew Sheehan, Houston; Thomas Carl Pennington and Douglas Allan Throckmorton, Austin; Doug Ray Putney, Lynnfield, Mass.; Darrell Randall Simpson, Irving; and Mark Whitfield Tollison, College Station. We then pledged 10 new men; Steven Craig Burrus, Irving; Jon Philip Carlson and Grant Anthony Specia, San Antonio; Wade William Goodwyn, Dunham, N.C.; Kevin Andreas Jacobson and John Reese Rothgeb Jr., Austin; Steve Hoke Kight, Houston; Mark Daniel Leyendecker, Laredo; Samuel Matthew Stuth, Greenville; Robert Edwin York, Corsicana. And with this new set of men we had a new set of officers; Scott Fossum, GP; Bill Cheney, VGP; Kyle Quast, AAG; Jay Thompson, BG; Rick Siegel, SG; Ken Sandoval, P; Duane Campbell, Robert Meyer, and Bennett Roberts, Rush Captains; Doug Throckmorton, PHU; Doug Putney, HOD; and Buddy Cramer, HI.

March 25-29 was our Round-Up Celebration at UT including the carnival, parade, dance marathon, etc., and the week was concluded with a Country/Western party, Friday and a Lake party and Semi-Formal, Saturday.

Toledo Inspirational Founders' Day

February 19th came and left, bringing a revitalized spirit of Brotherhood. The Toledo Alumni Association gave a beautiful dinner, and the undergraduate Chapter had cocktails and entertainment for all afterward. Brother Kent Christopher Owen, Fraternity Mytagogue, was our speaker, and what an eloquent speaker he proved to be! His inspiring message incorporated every brothers' feelings into one perfectly stated address. Our thanks again, Brother. The undergraduate Chapter named Dave White as Alumnus of the Year. This was a unique honor as Dave is a graduate of Miami University, and the Ohio Lambda Chapter!

We would like to announce our newest Brothers; Mark J. Bohnsack, Thomas F. Carson, Brian J. Coughlin, Kenneth D. Czerniakowski, John J. Hanudel, Paul J. Hanudel, Steven W. Hartsel, Daniel G. Heath, Todd A. Noethen, Wesley W. Schaub, and Thomas J. Van Wormer. We welcome them to our Chapter.

Sports have been going well, both Varsity and Intramurals. Nick Daudelin won the Mid-American Conference 50 yard freestyle swimming championship with a new MAC record time. Phi Psis took All-Fraternity and All-Campus Swimming and Diving this year. Members of the championship team include John Manore, Dan Heath, Dave Tulis, Phil Cleminson, Sung Kim, Mark Bohnsack, and John Hanudel. Dave Tulis deserves special commendation for organizing and coaching our team. Our bowlers took second place for Winter Quarter, and the future looks good for a first place finish next fall.

Winter Quarter always brings announcements of student positions for the following year, and this year Phi Psis are as active as always. Dan Morrison was named as a Freshman Advisor for next year. The University Y named its Freshman Camp Counselors for this summer, and along with Kevin Kwiatowski as a director, Phi Psis Jay Kent, Dan Morrison, Tim Samples, Michael C. Smith, Jeff Stahl, and Bill Swonger are named to the roster.

Every Winter the Student Government of the University of Toledo holds a carnival in which organizations sponsor booths to raise money. This year Brother Michael S. Smith was named by Phi Psi and Alpha Chi Omega Sorority as its nominee for Bachelor of the Year, a male version of Homecoming Queen, which is announced at Winter Carnival.

A special word of congratulations is extended to Mark Tappen for being tapped into Blue Key Honor Society and Pepper's Honor Society (UT's version of Mortar Board).

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities has four more Ohio Etans; Daniel G. Heath, Michael S. Smith, Mark T. Tappen, and Scott C. Williams.

On behalf of the Ohio Eta Chapter I would like to extend our sincere congratulations to

Valparaiso Growing with Quality

Spring is in the air here at Valparaiso as Indiana Epsilon finds itself pledging 29 new men. January 25, '80 marked the joyful day of commitment for the following pledges: Tim Andrews, Marengo, IL; Andy Banks, St. John; Mark Betley, Wilmington, DE; Marty Brandt, Arlington Hts., IL; Leon Debolt, Varna, IL; Neil De Yong, St. Louis, MO; Don Ditmars, Grosse Pointe, MI; Peter Eckart, Lansing, MI; Carter Elenz, Michigan City; Mark Getbehead, Rome, NY; Roger Goodrich, N. Tonawanda, NY; Dave Gross, Landing, NJ; Doug Jacques, Joliet, IL; Craig Korzinek, Clinton; Neal Mortenson, Dubuque, IA; John Morton, Teaneck, NJ; Jim Moseley, Milwaukee, WI; Bret Reetz, Downers Grove, IL; Todd Romanski, Wisconsin Rapids, WI; Al Rose, Glenview, IL; Fred Rose, Racine, WI; Lance Ryskamp, Highland; Pete Schoedel, St. Louis, MO; Mark Schnorr, Altoona, WI; Don Simkovich, Springfield, OH; Tim Strege, St. Louis, MO; Charlie Trevor, Moline, IL; Mark Woods, Neenah, WI; and Mark Yaeger, Des Plaines, IL. Enjoying the hard work of Pledge Trainer Chris Pitman, these young men are earning the respect of our Chapter.

We are very proud of the progress we have made here at Valparaiso over the past two years. In 1978 because of the irresponsibility on the part of then the members of Indiana Epsilon both financially and otherwise morally, Phi Kappa Psi (national) as well as Valparaiso University administration had no recourse but to step in and reorganize Indiana Epsilon. There were less than 20 members at that time, and since then we have grown to 48 Brothers strong and hope to have over 75 men in our Brotherhood by the end of this year.

We are also proud of our scholastic achievements. In total Grade Point Average we failed to place in the top five among the fraternities in spring semester '79. In the fall semester '79 however, we finished second on campus in G.P.A.

Virginia Continuing Progress

After a successful fall rush, which yielded 15 fine men, Va. Alpha feels very optimistic about the future. This year's rush was the most productive of the last four. The new pledges are: John Alexander, Mark Alliston, Thomas Boone, Brad Felker, Greg Gagnon, Chris Kelly, Thomas Kenney, Daniel Laplace, Michael Meany, Peter Mester, Ronald Parsons, Chris Rodgers, John Schoeneweis, Douglas Waugh, and Robert Wold.

Phi Psis at the University of Virginia continue to excel as campus leaders as Brother Skelly is actively involved as Vice-Chairman of the University Union, Brother McCarty serves as an Inter-Fraternity Council judge, Brother Clurman follows Woodrow Wilson's footsteps as a member of the Jefferson Society, Brother Culp continues to star in several feature plays, and Brother Robertson serves on the student newspaper, the U Va. Daily.

Although an official list has yet to be released, the Chapter is sure to rank high in academic standing. Several Brothers received Intermediate Honors, awarding their excellence for the first two years of undergraduate study, and many graduating members continued their education in various graduate schools.

Athletically, the men at Va. Alpha have made significant contributions. Brother Collins ranks number three on the state's number one collegiate golf squad, and Brother Moran and Goat Mester participated in Junior Varsity basketball last fall. Presently, our intramural basketball team is engaged in playoff activity seeking an unprecedented second straight year as the best fraternity team on campus.

Financially, after a decade of uncertainty, the Chapter seems well on its way to realizing security after alumni support was enhanced by a 125th Anniversary celebration in November. A special thanks goes out to Morris Everett, John Roberts, Dick Ong, and Fraternity Vice-President John Donnell. Without this cast of witty and entertaining Phi Psis, I'm sure the weekend would have been just less than spectacular. The Anniversary celebration was coordinated by Rush Chairman Thom McCleod.

Visits this semester by alumni Brothers Hooe, Canfield, Egan, Reynolds, Ratliff, Graham, Neely, and Cook were appreciated and we would like to encourage any alumnus to drop by 159 Madison Lane and visit in the future.

Scott Robertson, Correspondent

Virginia Tech Successful Rush

The Chapter enjoyed many social events Winter quarter, including a blue grass party, a south of the border party, and a Saint Valentine's day massacre party. Our rush chairman, Chip Batton, involved the Chapter in an intensive rush program yielding seven fine pledges. New pledges are: Tom Ferguson, Chip Herriott, Drew Groszer, Bill White, Bob Quinn, Terry Idol, and Randy Haswell. These gentlemen are expected to join the Brotherhood April 1.

Wabash Initiation at Heritage Hall

The February 23 initiation of 19 new Brothers at the Fraternity Headquarters highlighted the early months of the spring semester for Indiana Gamma. Following the ceremony, over 40 Brothers stayed for the Indianapolis Alumni Association's annual Founder's Day dinner. The Chapter's contingent was the largest there, and successfully defended its song contest crown.

On the Wabash College campus, Phi Psis continue to provide strong leadership for many student organizations. Jim Cooper is managing editor of the student newspaper, THE BACHELOR. Four Brothers are members of the Student Senate: Gregg Balis, Joe Fistrovich, Thomas P. Dakich, and John Clymer who is also student body Vice President.

Bruce Cook is chairman of the Wabash Liberal Society. Frank Zabarte is part of the Pre-Law Society executive council. Doug Haywood is an officer of Circle K. Brian Dickson is chairman of the Philosophy Workshop. Tom Dakich sits on the Board of Publications.

New Brother Jeff Hord placed fourth in the first round of the NCAA Div. III wrestling tournament. Other Phi Psi wrestlers are Pete Schiavone and Chip Lang. Brother Steve Wade was the varsity wrestling manager. The Wabash varsity basketball team finished the regular season 20-4, advancing to the NCAA Div. III tourney. The Little Giants featured great depth, including junior varsity standout, Phi Psi Craig Yoder.

Chapter officers for the spring semester are: Doug Coplen, GP; Jim Hart, VGP; John Clymer, AG; Doug Fraser, BG; Doug Haywood, P; Jesse Rodriguez, Hi; Tim Grimm, Hod; Larry Adams, Phu; Terry Grimm, SG. Jim Cooper is Rush Chairman.

BACHELOR cartoonist Larry Adams recently won acclaim from Allan Saunders, author of the syndicated Steve Roper and Mary Worth comic strips. Thanks to the efforts of our Parents Club, the Chapter has new dishes and silverware.

The Chapter is making plans for assisting with the GAC in August. Reports indicate an exciting agenda is planned; this GAC has the markings of perhaps the best one ever. The men of Indiana Gamma look forward to meeting many of our Brothers in Phi Kappa Psi this summer in the "Crossroads of America."

Washington Enthusiasm

Washington Alpha is gearing up for an enthusiastic spring quarter. Sixteen Brothers were initiated during Winter quarter 1980: Dale Linder, Mark Crisler, Nick Erickson, Jim Schnelz, Vern Sandell, Jim Stampalia, Jim McDonough, Daren Braget, Indy King, Dan Hunter, Frank Hnatovic, Dave McCourt, John Welch, Bill Clark, Greg Olson, and Kurt LaForest, 1199, the end of the "1100 Club" at Washington Alpha.

The Founder's Day Dinner on February 21 was very successful, with a turnout of 120 people, including alumni from as far back as 1923.

Looking forward to May, Phi Psis at the University of Washington are sponsoring the first annual All-Greek Thumper contest. In addition, we are participating in the traditional Greek Week activities which Phi Psi placed 4th last year, winning two of the most prestigious events, the 10-man pyramid and the tug-of-war. We hope to do even better this Spring.

Foremost, we are looking forward to a good Spring and Summer rush program, under the leadership of Rush Chairmen Mark Crisler and Steve Fawthrop.

Daniel Crayne, Correspondent

Washington and Jefferson No True Stories

Spring Semester 1980 at Pennsylvania Alpha promises to be the height of the 1979-1980 school year. Following another successful rush, the mother chapter has taken 16 Pledges under the guidance of Pledge Trainer Eddie McCracken. The Pledges, who already show signs of becoming valuable Brothers in the future, are David Beveridge, Tim Bracken, Barry Cuneo, Ken Jaynes, Wally Scheller, Chris Dunn, Rich Finoli, John Glusica, John Kelly, Chris King, Tommy Krahe, Dave Krivus, Jeff Mills, Tim Morrell, Mike Sisk, and Brad Warden.

On Founder's Day, 13 neophytes were initiated into the Fraternity. This group, from which one-half of the new officers came, consisted of John Barry, Bob Benner, John Bucciarielli, Dan Crain, Glenn Cummings, Mark DallaBetta, Bill Dymond, Mike George, Bill Krahe, Lance Mondock, Domenic Papalia, Bill Pierdominici, and Ed Welty.

The new officers, elected on February 26, were Pete Matgouranis, GP; Bill Dymond, VGP; Bob Benner, AG; Dave Herchko, BG; Jim Jones, P; John Kincaid, SG; Ed Welty, Hod; Mark DallaBetta, Phu; and Eric Lundgren, Hi. John Bucciarielli was also elected Social Chairman for the next year. Brother Melvin Bassi, '47, was selected as the new Chapter Advisor.

Several Brothers attended the Pittsburgh Area Alumni Banquet at the Press Club and were pleasantly surprised by a visit from Fraternity President Robert W. Chamberlain. Everyone enjoyed the informal visit he paid to the House and to the site of the Fraternity's founding in Canonsburg.

On top of winning Intramurals and the newly created Greek Sing, the Chapter is busily preparing for upcoming Carnival Weekend on April 11-12. Prom will be held May 2, and as always, the Chapter would be delighted to see Alumni back at W&J for these occasions.

Washington & Lee Year of Action

Greetings from Virginia Beta. The first three months of the new year were action packed for the Brothers, especially during Fancy Dress and Initiation.

Thanks to the hard work of social chairmen Bruce Sammis and Nils Herdelin, this year's traditional Fancy Dress celebration was better than ever. Highlights of the four-day weekend included the second annual Hall Crawl, a steak and "beverage" lunch and the Sat. night party, which featured an excellent band.

Va. Beta initiated 15 well-qualified and carefully screened men into the Brotherhood in March, thanks in part to pledge educators Ken Jaffe and Tripp Brower. They are: Paul Ritter, Mike Lewers, Herman Pierson, Chip Knudson, Ken Robinson, Dave Stevens, Mark Yerke, Jon Kelafant, Ken Manganiello, Steve Corbeille, Sparky Anderson, Don Kellerman, George West, Jody Harris and Tom Gentner.

Brothers Jay Blumberg and Jay Hemby were co-chairmen of the Second Annual Muscular Dystrophy Dance Marathon held at W&L in January. Andy Gottschalk, Dave Meyers, Jim Parker, Ben Muskin, Tripp Brower, Rich Allen, Scott Caddell, Duke Cancelmo and Nils Herdelin also helped plan the tremendously successful event, which raised more than $24,000.

Several Brothers continued their scholastic excellence last semester. Steve Hallowell, Bill Matthai, Brian Noonan, Willy Mackie, Chip Nunely, Marty Piccoli, Rich Bird and Andy Gottschalk did particularly well.

Brother Marty Piccoli was also the recipient of the Summerfield Scholarship for Va. Beta.

Va. Beta continued to dominate in athletics as Brothers Paul Hendry and Rich Bird were named as co-captains of the varsity track team. Jeff Brown is also a member of the team.

Two Brothers made the nationally ranked W&L lacrosse team. Art Caltrider and Marc Ottinger are expected to help the Generals win the national championship.

Brother Steve Everett is on the golf team and Chip Childs, Tripp Brower and Jody Harris are members of the baseball squad.

Play-by-play of football, basketball and lacrosse games over the college FM radio station is done by Brothers Doug Hassinger and Cope Moyers.

President Bill Hutton has done a superb job in a short time making Phi Kappa Psi the strongest fraternity on campus. Other newly elected officers include Chip Nunely, VGP; Craig Burns, P; Cope Moyers, AG; Brian Noonan, BG; Ben Muskin, SG; Brad Scholtz, HOD; Bill Chesbrough, PHU; Jeff Brown and Doug Hassinger, HI.

Virginia Beta extends an invitation to all Brothers around the country to stop by when you're in the area. Aloha, and have a good summer.

W. Cope Moyers, Correspondent

West Virginia Keeping Busy

Greetings from the Brothers of West Virginia Alpha. We again welcome the opportunity to share with other Phi Psis some of our activities and accomplishments of the past few months. We would also like to congratulate at this time Gary Angstadt and the Executive Council for the truly inspiring 100th anniversary issue of The Shield. They have put together a Fraternity magazine of which we can all be proud.

Our 1980 Founder's Day celebration was held on Feb. 22 at the Ramada Inn in Morgantown. George Daugherty, '51 was our principal speaker, and we had a good alumni turnout. Past National President Louis D. Corson, '34 was also in attendance and together we welcomed sixteen pledges from the 1979 fall pledge class into the Brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi. These new initiates included Jeffery K. Heddaeus, Thomas A. Morse, and William W. Homza, Allison Park, PA; James P. Hamer, Kenova; Philip A. Compton, Clarksburg; Brian D. Steinberg, Huntington; Richard A. Dohn, Robert H. Taylor, Gregory M. Valant, and Richard J. O'Donnell, Pittsburgh; Grover C. Wallace, Greenriver, Wyo.; Steven B. Talbott, Elkins; Bruce E. Mazurek, Fairmont; Terrance J. Mahoney, Summit, N.J.; James E. Ritchie and Christopher D. McPherson of Morgantown. These young men have already stepped in to assume positions of leadership and responsibility in the Chapter.

The sixteen members of our 1980 spring pledge class are all working hard in anticipation of their initiation later this summer. Fraternity Educator Zack Mendelson has charge over the following Brothers-to-be: Anthony and David Finamore, Fairmont; William O. Smallwood, Morgantown; Gino M. Gallo, Clarksburg; Nicholas D. Lash, West Mifflin, PA; Joseph C. Healy,

Timonium, Md.; Darrell K. Boggess, Ravenswood; John K. Bowyer, Green Bank; Thomas J. Wagner, St. Mary's; David Turovac, Munhall, PA; Timothy E. McGinnis, Beverly, N.J.; Theodore N. Pauls, Bethany; Chris S. Gillette, Weirton; Hugh R. O'Donnell, Annandale, Va.; Brian P. Brawdy and Michael J. Sullivan, Milton. We are confident that these pledges will continue to take an active part in the Fraternity after their initiation into Brotherhood.

Now that spring is upon us once again, the Brothers of West Virginia Alpha are busily making preparations for our fourth annual Leukemia Radioathon. The radioathon was initiated in the spring of 1977 in memory of Brother C. B. Shingleton who, in 1975, died of leukemia at the age of twenty. To date, we have raised approximately $40,000 for leukemia research and are hoping to make this another banner year. This year's Radioathon will be held March 15 and 16 in conjunction with several area businesses. This fund-raiser is our single biggest and most important civic service project of the year. We are hoping to make it as successful this year as it has been in the past.

As always, intramurals continue to occupy much of our time as we fight to win the all-campus intramural cup again. We are also devoting a lot of thought and preparation to Parent's Day and the Spring Formal, both of which are upcoming in April. These popular functions, along with the unpredictable experiences of everyday Fraternity life, should keep us jumping as the spring semester winds down and we look forward to summer break.

Michigan A New Colony

After an eight year absence, Phi Kappa Psi has returned to the University of Michigan with the reformation of the Michigan Alpha Colony. With the help of the alumni, and the entire Phi Psi staff, a strong foundation has been laid on which to rebuild the quality and tradition that had existed here for nearly a century.

On Feb. 27, we were initiated into the Colony by Lou Hoffman, Fraternity Chapter Consultant, and Pat Patten, Michigan State. The initiates and their respective offices are as follow: Joe Peterson, GP, from St. Joseph; John Hubbard, VGP; Birmingham; Jim Dixon, AG, Bloomfield Hills; Mike Mead, P, Birmingham; Brian Hartley, rush chairman, Farmington Hills; Joe Arno, Fraternity Education, Birmingham; Troy Dehne, intramurals, West Bloomfield; Dan Munzel, South Lyons; and Herb Roth, Farmington Hills.

All the initiates received a warm reception the next night, Feb. 28, at the Detroit Founders Day Dinner. The dinner was held at the University Club. The evening provided a good opportunity for us to meet and talk with the alumni and the members of Michigan Alpha and Beta. A good time was had by all.

At the present time our goal is to fulfill the requirements needed to receive our Charter. Other activities that are planned for the near future include parties with Ohio Eta and Michigan Beta.

The reestablishment of Phi Psi tradition on the Michigan campus is off to a strong start, and we urge all to watch for news of the growing Michigan Alpha Colony.

New Mexico Still working

The coming of Spring heralded a fresh new start for New Mexico Beta Colony, as we began the semester with new officers, a minor facelift for the house, and several other improvements. In addition, four new men were initiated to our rolls: Roy Dennis, Bob Cain, Brett Truscowsky, and Bill Wilson. Roy, along with Brothers David Otero and Mike Garcia, is a member of the U.N.M. Cheerleading squad, and Bob is the president of the Trailblazers, a hard working booster organization. The Trailblazers' fifty member roster also includes Members Alan May, Stephen Anderson, Pat Gilliland, Jeff Romero, Roy Dennis, Bruce Anderson, and Marc McNeely. Brother Gilliland was also elected to the board of the U.N.M. branch of the Public Interest Research Group and to Who's Who Among American College Students.

We have just held elections for our 1980 officers, and they are Stephen Anderson, GP; Jeff Romero, VGP; Alan May, P; Roy Dennis, BG & Hi; Marc McNeely, AG; Tim Gill, SG; Bruce Anderson, Hod; and Leo Boudreau, Phu.

After a short visit by Chapter Consultant Steve Fowler, we started in on rush with a new program which he helped us design. Immediately after Steve left we celebrated Founder's Day. Our dinner party included Alumni Jerry Gibner, Robert E. Jordan, Joe P. Walters, Chuck Abbott, Tom Dietz, and Mark Lamborn.

Our plans for the near future include a corned beef and cabbage dinner for Saint Patrick's Day and an exchange with Tri-Delta Sorority on April Fool's Day. Of course as always our primary activity will be rush, so that we might soon be able to join you all as full Brothers in the Fraternity.

Arizona

Founder's Day 1980 was celebrated in Phoenix on Saturday, February 23, at the Arizona Club Downtown atop the First National Bank Building. Brothers and wives or dates were able to gaze down on the traffic tie ups caused by the flooding of our normally dry Salt River. We all were comfortably housed for a delicious dinner and a memorable program. Dud Daniel remembered the Phoenix of his youth and shared many memories of Phi Kappa Psi. We thank you, Dud, for traveling to be with us for the first Founder's Day since your retirement.

Robert W. (Sandy) Chamberlain, Phi Psi's President, reminded us of our heritage and our Brotherhood obligations in our Fraternity. The Alumni Association presented Sandy with a plaque thanking him for all his service to Phi Kappa Psi at the local and the national level.

Letters have been mailed to all Arizona Betans inviting participation in the Alumni Association. The Chapter at Arizona State is in good health, and we solicit your help in maintaining the Chapter. The Alumni Association officers are Don Nordlund, Wabash, President; Craig Tribken, Vice President; Sandy Chamberlain, Secretary; and Jim Duncan, Treasurer. The latter are all Arizona Beta alumni. These officers also serve on the Housing Corporation with the chapter President and Treasurer.

We hope to see many of you at our annual summer swim and barbeque. Details will be mailed to all Association members. The date is usually in late June, and if you don't hear from us, please call Don Nordlund at 946-8026. Adios, amigos.

Don Nordlund, Correspondent

Arkansas

Our officers for 1980 are: Ray Widmer, President; Jim Kubicek, Vice President; Jim Elliott, Secretary; Jack Thomas, Treasurer.

Plans for a summer rush party in Little Rock to facilitate Arkansas Alpha are in progress. The search for more suitable Chapter housing for Arkansas Alpha continues. When a good prospect is developed, a full scale financial appeal will be initiated.

Ray Widmer, Correspondent

Buffalo

The 31st annual Founder's Day dinner was held on February 22, at the Three Coins' Restaurant. It was a super time: excellent food and spirits, distinctive company, artistic speeches, and entertainment of good taste (another unique experience) were provided. A sincere thanks goes out, again, to Brothers Sansone and Cassano for the grand merriment. Also, Brother Tom Gavigan did a terrific job as GP that evening.

The officers elected were: Pres. Tom Cassano, V. Pres. Rex Sietz, Treas. J. Sansone, Cor. Sec. J. R. Rich, Rec. Sec. Dan Vecchio, Chap. John Pond, Mess. Greg Sommer, Sag-at-Arms Art Helfenstein, and Songmaster George Zilliox.

Prizes went to: Brother Wes Brown (Brother who came the farthest—New Britain, Pa.), Walt Willoughby (most mature Brother in attendance), and Sam Pecoraro (least experienced Brother in attendance).

Other interesting notes: Brother Bob Schmidt is 10 yrs. with a Hooker (Corp.), Brother Bob Greene is happily married with a 5-year old daughter, best wishes go out to Brother Longo and his new eating and drinking establishment (Peter's Pub), and the Brothers are planning a trip to Aruba (June 21 to 29th)—contact Gary or Rex at 716-896-7573.

The Brothers of New York Eta went to Las Vegas (4th annual trip) early this month—unlike the economy, “It was fruitful but unprofitable!”

A special thanks from the Brothers of Buffalo Eta goes out to Brother Dave Scruggs for the fine hospitality he showed to us in West Palm Beach, Fla., this winter.

A special thanks goes out to founding Brother James P. Rich.

We missed ya—Brother Jim Fell in Washington, D.C.

If any Brothers move into our District please contact Brother John Sansone or myself for any assistance.

That's the way it is, March 7, 1980, in sunny Buffalo, New York. High! High! High!

Chicago

More than 80 Brothers gathered at the Union League Club of Chicago on February 22, to celebrate Founder's Day. Through the courtesy of VP Bob Halliday, we were able to use the Crystal Room which gave us ample space to mingle and eat. Treasurer John Boyd was our keynote speaker, sharing with us the growth of our Fraternity and the plans to move slowly but surely. He encouraged all to attend and take part in the G.A.C. this summer in Indianapolis. John helped install Nate Whiteside, Dartmouth, in the Golden Council. Undergraduates from Northwestern, Illinois, Valparaiso and Beloit shared with us what was occurring on their respective campuses. Harry Krause, Illinois, Dave Zoellner, Mississippi and Dick Day, Ohio Wesleyan were all inducted into the Silver Council. VP Joe Quilici announced that with the evenings' inductions, the Chicago Alumni Association had installed 20 brothers into the Golden Council and 75 into the Silver Council. Treasurer Tom Whiting reported that the Association was in the black and that 1980 dues of $3.00 are now payable; Send to him at 2245 Drury Lane, Northfield, IL.

Getting your dues in to him will ensure that you are notified of the Annual Closed Invitational Golf Outing to be held this summer. 1979 Champion Tom McCausland, Beloit, will be deciding when and where to defend his title.

The 1980 Grand Arch Council will be held in August in Indianapolis and your Association will be represented. Should you wish to be an alumni delegate, please call the Secretary at 726-1300. We are entitled to 3 delegates.

Visiting the National Headquarters during the G.A.C. will afford a grand opportunity to see the second floor display case that was our Heritage Project donation. It is finished and we are collecting items that should be displayed there. Our Association made a 3-year pledge of $2000.00. This is the last year of our pledge and we have sent in over $1800. All donations to this project are tax-deductible and donor's names will be displayed in the case. If you wish to be among them, make out a check to the Endowment Fund and send it to Secretary Frank Whiting, Jr. 208 S. LaSalle St. Chicago, IL 60604.

Elected as officers for the year 1980-81 were the following: Joseph Quilici—Pres., Paul Coulis—1st VP, Pat Kirby—4th VP, Jim Novak—2nd VP, Jim Humphrey—5th VP, Robert Halliday—3d VP, Kent Yowell—Chaplain, Thomas Whiting—Treas., Frank Skorski—6th VP, Frank Whiting Jr.—Sec.

If you hear of a good rush prospect, please get the information to the Chapter at the school where the boy is enrolling. This is a valuable way that alumni can help.

Frank S. Whiting, Jr., Correspondent

Detroit

The Detroit Alumni Association kicked off the New Year with its annual celebration of the Founder's Day Banquet on Thursday, February 28th. The festivity took place at the University Club, marking a nostalgic return after a three year absence.

Detroit Alumni Association members were joined in the celebration by Brother Lou Hoffman, Chapter Consultant; the Brothers of the Michigan State Chapter; and our “Special” guests for the evening included the recently initiated members from the Michigan Alpha Colony at the University of Michigan.

Festivities highlighting the evening included the presentation of a 25th year pin to Brother Ron Eschenburg, Michigan; the presence of Brother Lou Hoffman, Chapter Consultant, addressing the members on the status of the Fraternity and the Michigan Alpha Colonization; the renewal of the annual songfest; and the election of the Detroit Alumni Association Officers which are as follows: President, Robert Riess, Duke; Vice President, Kenneth Wright, Michigan; Treasurer, Jack Klein, Michigan; and Secretary, Jef Farland, Michigan State.

An enjoyable evening was had by all!!

The Michigan Alpha Colony has become a reality! Through dedication and many hours of research and the help of a group of alumni from various Phi Psi chapters, the Fraternity has been successful in establishing a Phi Psi Colony at the University of Michigan. On Wednesday, February 27, 1980, the colonization became a reality and has become the first step toward regaining the charter of Phi Kappa Psi at Ann Arbor. Our congratulations to those members of the Colony and good luck in future Phi Psi endeavors.

The Detroit Alumni Association is currently planning its annual Golf Outing and “steak fry,” along with many other social events for 1980. We welcome Phi Psi's from all chapters and if you are not currently active we invite you to come and join us. To become a member or for further information, please contact Robert Riess, 355-4600 or Jef Farland, 474-6115.

Jef Farland, Correspondent

Indianapolis Preparing for the G.A.C.

With the 1980 Grand Arch Council to be held in our City in just a few short months, the Indianapolis Alumni Association is working to make the 1980 GAC a memorable one. For more than a year, Stuart W. Rhodes, Indiana '69, and Dr. Robert W. Mouser, Wabash '49, co-chairmen of the GAC, have been meeting and planning our welcome for the Fraternity to Indianapolis. Philip M. Cornelius, Indiana '25, past President of Phi Kappa Psi, is the honorary chairman.

On November 21, 1979, we held our annual Thanksgiving Eve Banquet at the Murat Shrine Club in Indianapolis. Undergraduates from Indiana Gamma were our special guests for the evening.

On Wednesday, December 5, 1979, the Indianapolis Alumni Association re-instituted a tradition of monthly luncheons. The luncheons are held at the Downtown Hilton Hotel in the County Oven restaurant at 12:00 noon on the first Wednesday of each month. No advance reservations are necessary.

The 1980 Founders' Day Banquet for Indiana was held on February 23, 1980 in the Grand Ballroom of the Atkinson Hotel in downtown Indianapolis. One Hundred and Twenty undergraduates representing all six chapters in Indiana were present: Indiana Gamma won the singing competition among the chapters for the second straight year. Kent E. Agness, Indiana '69, was re-elected as President of the Indianapolis Alumni Association and Robert A. Fanning, Indiana '70, and Brad S. Osborne, Miami '76, were elected Vice President and Secretary-Treasurer, respectively.

You won't want to miss the 1980 G.A.C., August 6-10, so we'll see you then!

Kent Agness, Correspondent

Kansas City

We held our annual Founders Day Banquet at the Alameda Plaza Hotel on Friday, February 15th.

Despite the blowing snow outside, we had a large crowd of both alumni and undergraduates. Charles C. Allis, Missouri '32 was deservedly awarded “Man of the Year.” The new officers for 1980 are; President—Mark Rider, Vice President—Dave Fields, Treasurer—John Ziegelmeyer, Secretary—Joel Cansler.

We are planning an active social calendar again this year and welcome any Brothers moving into our area to join us.

Joel E. Cansler, Correspondent

Michiana

The Michiana Phi Psi Club celebrated Founder's Day with a select gathering attending a social hour and supper at the Morris Park Country Club February 21. Ten Brothers braving Northern Indiana's elements were in attendance reminiscing, singing, and telling the lies all alumni are accustomed to doing. Outgoing President, Brother William Fox, Indiana '40 conducted the business meeting, calling on Louis S. LaPierre III, Michigan '46 for a report of the nominating committee. Brother Lou reported that Richard C. Emmons, Indiana '33 and A. Roland Obenchain, Indiana '34 comprised his committee. Nominations were made, closed, and a unanimous ballot was cast for the election of Bruce J. Bondurant, DePauw '62 as President with Craig Taelman, Indiana '73 serving as Secretary/Treasurer. Brother Fox continues as corresponding Secretary. A report of the Treasurer revealed sad news, and an emergency assessment was made of the Brothers in attendance who had neglected to wear their pins. This had a slight, but positive effect on the treasury. Brother LaPierre announced a special award for Theodore A. Blake, Pennsylvania '20 representing the longest continuous attendance at the Club's Tuesday Noon luncheon in the Loft Restaurant in downtown South Bend. Brother Fox (without his wife's knowledge) offered the facilities of the Fox Pause summer home on Beaver Island for the week end of July 11th. Transportation arrangements are being made. Whether a chartered plane will be able to take all of the Brothers north to this area is doubtful. Brother Bill Lee, DePauw '62, Brother Robert E. Dunbar, Indiana '53, and Brother John Templin, Wabash '58 added much to the evening's merriment by their attendance.

William Fox, Correspondent

Northern California

The annual Big Game Lunch was an overwhelming success. Over 100 alumni and undergraduates attended this traditional lunch, which is held on the Friday before the Cal-Stanford football game each year. For those who missed it last year, mark it on your calendar for November 21, 1980. We had a fantastic turnout from both the Cal and Stanford chapters. It is great to see both chapters are doing well. We would like to extend an invitation to the undergraduates and alumni of the University of California, Davis chapter to attend the Big Game Lunch next year and future Founders Day celebrations. We were fortunate to have Robert (Sandy) Chamberlain, Fraternity President, as our special guest at the Big Game Lunch and we hope that he will be able to return next year. The program was highlighted by the humor and wit of Guy Minardi, the traditional axe yells from the undergraduates, and some great Phi Psi songs from the illustrious alumni. Any Phi Psi in the San Francisco area who would like to attend the future activities of the Northern California Alumni Association, please contact me. The alumni lunch, which is held on the first Friday of the month in San Francisco will be relocated soon, since the Leopard Cafe closed in December 1979. We will announce the new location for the alumni lunch as soon as possible. The Founders Day celebration was held on Valentines Day at the Maya Azteca Restaurant in Oakland this year. We had a great turnout and it was nice to see the Phi Psi ladies attend Founders Day. Unfortunately, Dud Daniel, our guest of honor, could not attend the celebration. Dud, we missed you and we hope you can attend next year. We had a fine, traditional Mexican dinner and then we topped off the evening with dancing to the tunes of that famous disc-jockey, Guy ("Salt Shaker") Minardi. It was great to see some "newcomers" at the Founders Day and we hope that next year's celebration will be equally enjoyable. We will be having our annual softball game versus the undergraduates at Cal-Berkeley in May. After the double header sweep last year by the alumni, we are confident of another victory this year. If you are interested in playing this year, please contact me for all the details. HIGH! HIGH! HIGH!

Omaha

Our Association had a most successful celebration of Founder's Day on February 15. Ninety brothers from a multitude of chapters rose for many a toast and enjoyed Kent Christopher Owen's stirring address concerning our Fraternity. John Crane, Penn State, who received the Theodore Urban Alumni Award from Creighton's Undergraduates, nominated the following Brothers for officer positions in our Association. Gene Conley, Nebraska; Mark Weber, Creighton; Ted Urban, Northwestern, and Bud Rohr, Creighton, were elected as President, Vice-president, Secretary and Treasurer. The following were elected as counselors: past-president Jerry Ortman, Paul LaPuzza (The Fraternity's Attorney-General), John Seminara, D.D.S., Jim Gerner, D.D.S., Sam Amato, Jeff Modica, John Wieland (all of Creighton), Ted Foster, Iowa, and Dallas Focht, III, Iowa State.

Excellent reports from Nebraska Alpha and Nebraska Beta were received; Alpha reporting the recent initiation of a fine group of men and a very successful ELC on their campus. Creighton reported great success on the I.M. field and a large excellent pledge class for the Spring semester. John Crane received his award at this time. It was a warm Fraternal evening and a fitting end to Jerry Ortman's term as a hardworking president (He was a great M.C., too).

The response to the Nebraska Beta's furniture drive has met only limited success. With the pieces set to arrive by the middle of March, the Beta House Board is worried that perhaps they stuck their collective necks out too far for improvements to the Lodge. If you can spare a contribution, Creighton alumni, send a check to U. E. Rohr, 1216 No. 95th Ave., Omaha, NE 68114. This Chapter has a great deal of pride in their successes, please help this once a year plea!

The Omaha Alumni Association will try to keep in touch with the Brothers in this area, and the new officers will plan an affair for the summer and a new type of gathering in the Fall. It has been decided to drop the party after Thanksgiving for a more popular time. We hope all will support us and their Chapters. We see a surge of strength in this vicinity that is gratifying, and we must now maintain this position. Support our activities and keep us strong in the area. Thank you K. C. Owen again for an inspiring and enjoyable speech!

Orlando

GOOD NEWS—in addition to having a publication that is very well prepared by our staff, we have one that people read. Thanks to THE SHIELD, this correspondent is now in touch with two more Phi Psis. They are Jack Campbell, Ohio State, and Jeff McVeigh, Mississippi. Jack is with a stock brokerage firm in Orlando and specializes in the bond market. His father, two uncles and a cousin are also Phi Psis. Jeff is with a banking corporation whose offices are in Winter Park.

It was very disheartening to have known Ralph Gee, Ohio State, for ten years, to find out only after his death that he was a Phi Psi. Perhaps increased activity in our Central Florida area will help to avoid this in the future.

Please don't hesitate to contact me at your earliest opportunity if you're here or if you expect to be in the area. It is my hope that we have some sort of get-together during the summer months.

Pittsburgh

"The best Founders Day in years." "I was proud to be there." These comments were typical as Pittsburgh area Phi Psis gathered to celebrate the Fraternity's 128th year. It was a special night for several reasons.

We were indeed fortunate that Fraternity president Sandy Chamberlain could join us, and his remarks set the tone for the evening. There are problems, of course, but all in all "it's a good time to be a Phi Psi." The Fraternity is strong, with continuing growth in initiations, new Chapters, and donations.

Undergraduates add a great deal to any Founders Day celebration, and we had with us Brothers from the chapters at Washington & Jefferson, and Indiana University of Pennsylvania. These are both quality Chapters, with outstanding records in scholarship, intramurals, and social and charitable activities. Sandy took this opportunity to visit the Mother Chapter and was last seen headed towards Washington, Pa. with a group of enthusiastic undergraduates.

But the best part of any Phi Psi gathering comes when we can renew those bonds of Brotherhood that mean so much to us. Bob Lafferty and Barry Leonard hadn't seen each other since graduation. Sandy Chamberlain hadn't expected to see Rick Macek, an outstanding young Phi Psi who was instrumental in rebuilding Sandy's home chapter of Arizona Beta in the early 1970's. The old—John Duff Davis—exchanging memories with the young—Howard Welsh.

As the meeting concluded with the singing of Amici, there was no doubt in anyone's mind that "They built better than they knew."

Portland

Portland Alumni Association activities have been limited since my last report due primarily to an apparent lack of interest on behalf of the alumni in and around the Portland area. It becomes increasingly difficult to schedule after-work get-togethers at establishments which require a minimal attendance of 15 Brothers only to have 6-8 alumni and undergraduates involved. It is my hope that this attitude is only seasonal and that an April function will be fully supported by the large number of alumni in Portland.

Our congratulations go out to Oregon Beta who had, earlier this year, initiated the largest pledge class since their chartering (21). The word out of Corvallis and Eugene is that both houses are almost at capacity and that is certainly good news financially.

A significant turnaround has occurred at Oregon Alpha concerning outstanding house bills and the reduction of debt in this area, and the Brothers should be congratulated on their efforts. Last but not least, all alumni should be proud of their continued generosity in terms of record contributions towards the local Chapters and associated Chapter publications. One very influential factor in the development and maintenance of strong chapters at the University of Oregon and Oregon State University is the financial support of their alumni. Thank you.

San Diego

On January 15, 1980 several Brothers gathered for a dinner at the University Club to establish a San Diego Alumni group and to celebrate the 128th Founders Day of the Fraternity, the first one of the year.

Upon short notice under the leadership of Phil Merrill, California '36, 15 Brothers attended an inspiring evening. After a cocktail hour, Rev. Joseph S. Young, Kansas '36 gave the invocation. During dinner each Brother introduced himself, told what Phi Psi has meant to him, about his career, what brought him to the San Diego area and his interest in establishing a Fraternity relationship among the alumni here.

The Kansas Chapter led in attendance with four. We were honored to have Harold Evans Sr. '09, Harold Evans Jr. '37, Joe Young '36 and Bill Hines '37. Three were from Ohio Wesleyan, Bob Elliott '35, Harry Evans '36, and Bob Ginaven '58. University of Southern California was represented by Ron Elkin '64 and Richard Sparks '65. Other Chapters were represented by Vernon Bellman, Washington '21; Howard Kerr, Vanderbilt '26; Philip Merrill, California '36; Robert Mason, Purdue '42; H. Bailey Gallison, Missouri '43; and Bruce Sheetz, Indiana '65.

A committee was formed consisting of Ron Elkin, Chairman with Gallison, Ginaven, Harry Evans and Sheetz to further plan the organization, contacts, mailings and gatherings. Any Brothers in the San Diego area who would like to participate please contact me at 13642 Nogales Drive, Del Mar, Calif. 92014. Tel: 481-8407.

Best wishes for a great decade in Phi Kappa Psi.

South Carolina

Once again, the Brothers of the South Carolina Alumni Association joined S.C. Alpha to celebrate Founders Day. The weekend activities started Friday Night at Seawall's at the Fairgrounds. Registration took place during the cocktail hour. A buffet dinner then followed.

John Benson addressed the gathering on the topic of the "Tangible vs. Intangible Brother." During his moving presentation, Brother Benson stressed the difference between being a member of the Fraternity and being a Phi Psi.

Two special awards were made to Alumni Brothers by the Chapter. The James W. Scott Outstanding Alumnus Award was presented to Connor Harrison in recognition for his service as Alumni Advisor. The "Woody" Award, named for David Woodcock who flew in from San Diego to attend the 1979 Founders Day, was presented to Rick Funk. Brother Funk came from Dallas to take part in the weekend.

Following the dinner, a party was held featuring "Elise the Disco Queen" from Charlotte, N.C. All of the Brothers and Phi Psi Ladies were welmed by her light show.

On Saturday morning, the Association was the guest of Tommy and Mimi Dail for a Bloody Mary Breakfast complete with ham biscuits, doughnut holes, and other assorted items. Following the breakfast, the Association's Annual Business Meeting was held. Willis Bethea and A. C. Flora were reelected to the positions of President and Treasurer respectively. Phil Harkey advanced to the office of Vice-President, while Connor Harrison was elected as Secretary. Smith Harrison was elected as Correspondent to THE SHIELD.

On Saturday afternoon, the Housing Corporation held its Winter Meeting. The corporation adjourned for the nationally televised S.C. vs. Notre Dame Basketball Game. Following the loss, a party was held at the Phi Psi House.

Don't forget that 1980 dues are now payable to the Treasurer. Monthly Happy Hours and other activities are always taking place, so join up now!

St. Louis

The St. Louis Alumni Association kicked off 1980 with the Founder's Day celebration at the Victoria Station Restaurant. After consuming a great prime rib dinner, the Brothers were treated to hearing our guest speaker, Roy Klager. Mr. Klager is the agent in charge of the Federal Bureau of Investigation here in St. Louis. After a short speech he answered questions about the FBI and their role in recent national events.

Other business covered at Founder's Day was the report of the Mo. Alpha Chapter delivered by Greg Thompson, VGP, a discussion of the past year's events, and the election of new officers. The new officers are: James Naylor, President; Rick Curtis, Vice President; and Steve O'Rourke, Secretary/Treasurer. In the St. Louis tradition Steve Scheidker was re-appointed the KEEPER OF THE TAPS.

We in the St. Louis Alumni Assoc. are looking forward to another active year with all the Brothers. On tap is a summer rush party, Cardinal baseball game, a fall party, the annual Christmas Party and Founder's Day '81.

The calendar of events will be mailed in April. If you do not receive one of these "treasures" please call or write to: Jim Naylor, 864 LaBonne Parkway, Manchester, Missouri 63011, 314/255-6599. We encourage all Phi Psi's in the area to come out and have fun with the Brothers in St. Louis.

One historical note of interest from the St. Louis Alumni Association: At our recent Xmas party we attended the dinner show of the "Amazing Kreskin." Much to our surprise, through the power of suggestion, his prime "guinea pig" from the audience was our own Rick Curtis. At one point in the show Rick could not even remember his own name. Knowing this our concerned Brotherhood thought we should keep an eye on the "forgetful-one" so we elected him Vice President this year. (If he remembers!) Hi . . . Hi . . . Hi from St. Louis!

James Naylor, Correspondent

Central Texas

Central Texas alumni have been meeting on the first Wednesday of each month, and our numbers are regularly increasing. Scholz Garten is where we meet for fellowship, refreshments and Tacos.

The Association has been rather active with a June picnic at Salt Lick Bar-B-Q Camp; a July Rush Party at Brother Doug Danforth's ranch on Austin Lake; other rush parties and activities during the Summer and Fall; and in December, Col. Robert and Jean Pugh were hosts to the Brothers and their wives for a lovely Christmas party in their beautiful new home in the Lost Creek area of Austin, Texas.

Texas Alpha hosted the Founders Day Banquet, Saturday, February 16th at the Chapter House. A cocktail party preceded a fine dinner, and Brother Peter Baldwin's message was an inspiration to the undergraduate Brothers and alumni.

After a Chapter meeting, the Association held its monthly meeting and elected the following officers for 1980: Pres., Rhett Stone; Vice-Pres., John Meadows; Sec'y., Charles Harris; Treas., Robert Pugh.

The Central Texas Alumni Association is made up of brothers who enjoy each other's fellowship, and invite all Phi Psis to join them.

1900—1939

BYRON T. SHUTZ, Kansas '18, has established an annual award at his University, designed to stimulate distinguished teaching in the field of economics and business, specifically class work that examines the American economic system. Recipients to be selected from the faculty of the business school and the economics, political science, and related departments at the University of Kansas. The Kansas City resident's support of civic and charitable organizations has included holding offices with the American Red Cross, the Kansas City Philharmonic, and the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce. In 1963 his alma mater bestowed upon him her highest award, the Distinguished Service Citation. Byron C. Shutz, Kansas '46, is his son.

WILLIAM W. YOUNGSON JR., Allegheny '28, of Lake Oswego, Oregon, is busy setting records in Masonry. By early 1979, Brother Youngson had been a member of four different Masonic bodies for 50 years each. In 1928, he was raised to the degree of Master Mason in Friendship Lodge No. 160, and became a Scottish Rite Mason one month later. A month after that, Past Potentate Youngson joined the Al Kader Temple, and three months later was admitted to York Rite, Tancred Commandry No. 23. Thus he joined all four bodies within five months. Brother Youngson's father, William W., Allegheny 1888, and grandfather were both prominent in Masonic work.

Dartmouth College has recently announced the establishment of the "Drew Dudley Memorial Fund," named in honor of HERMAN ANDREW DUDLEY, Dartmouth '30. The Fund, assisted by Brother Dudley's family (including Robert W. Dudley, Wisconsin '32), was created to provide a wide range of materials related to the arts of drama, film, and dance for the Hopkins Center on campus. Those interested in assisting with the Memorial may contact Mr. Peter Smith, Director of Hopkins Center, Dartmouth College, Hanover, N.H. 03755.

JUSTICE CASWELL J. CREBS, U.C.L.A. '31, of Robinson, Illinois shares the following story: "On July 14, 1979, my wife and I were waiting in line at Los Angeles to board a cruise ship for a vacation in Alaska. The line was moving slowly so I introduced myself to the couple in line behind us. He turned out to be Harry Miller, also a charter member of California Epsilon, 1931. We hadn't met since '31. Harry recently retired from General Dynamics and I retired in 1976 from the Illinois Supreme Court." Brother Miller resides in San Juan Capistrano, California.

HARRY D. WELLER JR., Franklin & Marshall '31, has been named vice president of procurement and material planning for White Consolidated Industries, Inc., Cleveland Ohio. He was formerly President of their Hupp Inc. Division.

ROBERT M. RYBOLT, Ohio Wesleyan '32, received the Award of Merit for "sustained and meritorious voluntary service to the community of Canton Ohio." Brother Rybolt is a member of the Stark County Bar Association's executive committee. He has served as the chairman of the Board of Trustees of his alma mater since 1976.

JOHN T. CONNOR, Syracuse '33, chairman of Allied Chemical Corporation, long noted for his personal and corporate patronage of the arts, supported his position recently in syndicated columnist George Will's article "Business Support for the Arts Boosts Enhancement of Life." Brother Connor stated that "the ultimate justification for the enormous intellectual and physical effort devoted to increasing the nation's wealth is to make possible the enhancement of life . . . We need the arts to keep our society both affluent and humane, to keep in balance the competitive drive and sense of community. We rely on the arts to preserve and celebrate the human scale within the world of the quantitative . . . Without the arts, our society would lose its morale, its source of invention and diversity, its sense of community and its potential for growth." Brother Connor resides in Morristown, N.J.

DR. JACK W. OSWALD, DePauw '35, President of the Pennsylvania State University, was elected a director of General Utilities Corp., Parsippany, New Jersey.

RICHARD T. BAKER, Ohio State '36, retired managing partner, worldwide, of the accounting firm of Ernst & Ernst, Cleveland, was elected to the board of directors of General Electric Co., effective December 1, 1979. Later that month, he assumed a similar position as a director of the International Paper Co., N.Y. Brother Baker is active in many other professional, civic and charitable organizations, and is a member of the board of the United Way of America. Recipient of the Phi Kappa Psi Distinguished Alumnus Award in 1978, Dick has been ever loyal to his Chapter, his alma mater, and the Fraternity. A substantial gift from Ernst & Ernst (now Ernst & Whinney) has established a professorship in accounting at Ohio State to honor Brother Baker, who was president of his senior class and was a star forward on Ohio State's Big 10 championship basketball team in 1939, which went on to play in the finals of the NCAA championship. Dick is one of the Fraternity's most generous benefactors.

FRED B. ZOLL, Pennsylvania '36, vice president of Libbey-Owens-Ford Company and manager of the company's Washington, D.C. office, retired March 1, 1979, after 39 years with the company. Brother Zoll served the Fraternity as Archon of District II from 1938 to 1940.

WILLIAM W. GEDDES, Swarthmore '38, of Greenville, Delaware, has moved up to chairman of the board of Wilmington Trust, the largest bank in Delaware. As a trust company, the bank ranks 17th nationally in terms of market value of trust assets.

DR. CHARLES H. GRIFFIN, Texas '39, became the first holder of the O'Brien Chair of Public Accounting at Ohio University. Brother Griffin was associated with that university's department of accounting and quantitative methods while on leave from the University of Texas for the 1980 spring semester.

1940—1949

The 250 seat performance hall in Bowling Green State University's new musical arts center has been named Bryan Recital Hall in honor of ASAHEL G. BRYAN, Ohio Wesleyan '40, and his wife Dorothy. The hall was named to recognize the Bryans' support of music and the arts at Bowling Green, including a major gift to the new Center. He is a former member and president of the university's Board of Trustees. Mr. Bryan (honorary doctorate from Hangyang Univ., Seoul, Korea) is chairman and chief executive officer of the Mid American National Bank & Trust Co. in Bowling Green, Ohio. Currently he is a member of the Board of Trustees at the Medical College of Ohio in Toledo.

WILLIAM WORTH WARE, Indiana '46, director of advertising and public relations for Aqua-Chem, Inc. of Milwaukee, has successfully met all requirements of the Business/Professional Advertising Association's Professional Certification Program and was recently designated a Certified Business Communicator. Brother Ware is among the first group of professionals to receive this honored distinction, which places CBC after his name.

JOHN GANO, Texas '47, just can't take a joke! At a recent class and Chapter reunion, one of the Brothers showed him a roster which listed John Gano as deceased. Brother Gano wrote us: "This is very unsettling. Do you think I could be resuscitated? Will I need a physical exam? How about a doctor's certificate?" The answer to his questions are: 1. if you like; 2. No; and 3. not necessary. We've placed John Gano back on the rolls. Someone from somewhere at sometime reported Brother Gano as having expired September 9, 1969. A Houston attorney, John is now, officially, back among the living in Phi Kappa Psi.

JOSEPH W. ORTLIEB, Bucknell '49, president of Philadelphia's smallest brewery, is bucking the market trend toward lighter beers, and is developing heavier, darker brews. The Henry F. Ortlieb Brewing Co. offers a stout aromatic beer, call Sean O'Shaughnessy Stout, and McSorley's Ale, a slightly tart brew with a little more alcoholic kick than regular beer. Why name a beer Sean O'Shaughnessy? The name was picked out of the Philadelphia telephone directory by the daughter of an employee, and every O'Shaughnessy in the book will receive a complimentary case! His malt liquor, Coqui, derives its name from the Spanish word meaning the sound a frog bellows. The 110-year-old Ortlieb company moved up to 15th place in the 43-brewery American market. Brother Ortlieb jokes: "Better tell those guys in St. Louis with the horses to watch out!"

THEODORE T. TEEGARDEN, Indiana '49, has been promoted at D'Arcy-MacManus & Masius Advertising to executive vice-president. In his new role at the Bloomfield Hills, Michigan firm, Brother Teegarden will continue as management supervisor on the General Motors Parts Division and The Budd Company accounts. He and his wife Nancy, and their three children make their home in Birmingham, Michigan.

The Hanover, Pennsylvania native is coordinating the 125th Anniversary activities of Penn Epsilon, celebrated April 19, 1980. He was also instrumental in the effort and fund raising involved in restoring the Chapter's famous meeting building, Miller Hall, the oldest facility built by and for any fraternity, in continuous use by undergraduates, on its original site. The annual meeting of the Maryland Genealogical Society featured past Fraternity President, Walter Lee Sheppard Jr., Cornell '29, as the speaker.

Centennial Celebration Ohio Delta Chapter 100 Years at Ohio State! May 16 & 17, 1980

The Ohio Delta Chapter becomes a centenarian this year, celebrating its birth at the Ohio Mechanical and Agricultural College on May 15, 1880. Although the second Chapter founded at Ohio State, Ohio Delta has enjoyed an uninterrupted life and thus has more years of experience than any other fraternity chapter on campus. Thanks to an enthusiastic and unceasing interest in the Columbus, Ohio institution, Ohio Alpha brought about the beginning of Ohio Delta by boldly initiating seven men nearly a year prior to receiving the Chapter Charter. History tells us, by the way, that these seven men all had the opportunity to join Phi Gamma Delta, and were given a week to decide as to whether they would join or not. Therefore, thanks to the somewhat controversial but ever determined Ohio Alpha, the Ohio Delta Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi became our 42nd Chapter.

So a celebration is in order! Centennial chairman Norman M. Spain, Ohio State '33, reports that a mailing went out to all Ohio Delta alumni last month which included a Registration Form to be completed and returned as soon as possible. The "pre-registration" system is necessary to provide suitable facilities for participants. Certainly all Phi Psis in the Columbus area are encouraged to join in the fun, regardless of their chapter affiliation. Most activities will be at the Chapter house, 124 East 14th Ave. The schedule of events follows.

Introduction

This annual report reflects the high water marks Phi Psi reached during the membership year in review, March 1, 1979—February 29, 1980, in terms of average chapter size. The financial highlights offered reflect the end of fiscal year, May 31, 1980. The Alumni Support program, following the membership year, is reported as ending February 29, 1980.

This 128th rendering of the annual report year finds the Fraternity healthy and vibrant, and in an exceptionally strong financial position! Even though undergraduate initiation figures are down slightly, accompanied therefore by less undergraduate income, the budget is balanced thanks in large part to ever increasing alumni financial support.

Can we realistically continue to count on year after year of increased alumni support? We would like to think so but plan differently. If Phi Psi is to expand her horizons, and keep her traditional campus strongholds, we need to experience both increases in alumni involvement and growth within our chapters and numbers of chapters. The Fraternity truly is at the Crossroads of her destiny.

Membership

Membership

ALL TIME RECORD! The year under review broke an all time record of average chapter size, with 52.2 undergraduate members per chapter. This figure does not include pledges, which averaged 19.3 men per chapter. And although the total number of initiates dropped from last year, improved retention brought the Fraternity to another record breaking year of 4,284 Brothers, 1,582 pledges and 1,199 new initiates in the 82 Chapters. The Phi Psi banner is firmly planted for the first time ever at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, with the installation of Arkansas Alpha on December 8, 1979. Forty one new Brothers made up the chartering group at Arkansas.

Colonies

The Fraternity had a total of six colonies operating in the year under review. As reported above, the Arkansas Alpha Colony was chartered on December 8, 1979. Very late in the report year, on February 27, 1980, the Fraternity established the Michigan Alpha Colony at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, where work has now begun to regain the Michigan Alpha Chapter. This outstanding Chapter was one of the Fraternity's strongest for 96 years, initiating 1,096 men from 1876 to 1972.

The remaining Phi Psi colonies continued gradual decline during the report year, so at the Executive Council meeting January 12, 1980, by unanimous action, official Fraternity recognition was withdrawn from the Louisiana Gamma Colony at Tulane University, New Orleans; the Wisconsin Alpha Colony at the University of Wisconsin, Madison; and the Wyoming Alpha Colony, at the University of Wyoming,

September 1980

Laramie. In addition, the New Mexico Beta Colony at the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, was given until April 30, 1980 to meet all chartering goals. (This Colony did not meet the goals, so recognition has been withdrawn).

No Loss of Chapters

During the year under review, no chapter charters were revoked or suspended.

Numbers in Chapters

Nebraska Beta at Creighton University for the second year in a row, with 153 members, led all other chapters in undergraduate strength at February 29, 1980. Illinois Delta at the University of Illinois, and West Virginia Alpha at West Virginia University tied for second place with 110 members each. The Ole Miss Chapter, Mississippi Alpha, reported 105 members this year, and the Ohio Lambda Chapter at Miami University, with 100 members, was the only other Chapter reporting 100 or more Brothers. The Ohio Alpha Chapter at Ohio Wesleyan listed 97 Brothers on the rolls this year, and both Tennessee Delta at Vanderbilt University and Indiana Beta at Indiana University reported 95 members. No Chapters reported membership statistics in the 80s.

Ten chapters reported membership in the 70s: Indiana Epsilon, Valparaiso (78); Nebraska Alpha, Nebraska (77); Kansas Alpha, Kansas (75); Indiana Gamma, Wabash (74); North Carolina Alpha, Duke (74); Indiana Delta, Purdue (72); Virginia Beta, Washington and Lee (71); Iowa Alpha, Iowa (71); Oregon Alpha, Oregon (70); and Missouri Alpha, Missouri (70).

Fourteen chapters recorded 60 to 69 members: California Epsilon, UCLA (69); Indiana Alpha, DePauw (69); Ohio Delta, Ohio State (67); Minnesota Beta, Minnesota (64); California Eta, Cal Poly (64); Washington Alpha, Washington (64); Texas Alpha, Texas (63); California Delta, USC (62); Pennsylvania Epsilon, Gettysburg (62); Pennsylvania Nu, Indiana of Pennsylvania (62); Pennsylvania Zeta, Dickinson (61); New York Beta, Syracuse (60); Arizona Alpha, Arizona (60); and Iowa Beta, Iowa State (60).

There were 11 chapters reporting 50 to 59 members, and 15 chapters had 40 to 49 Brothers recorded. Four chapters reported less than ten members. Please see page 90 for complete statistics on the membership of each chapter and colony.

District III Has Largest Chapters

For the second year in a row, District III's 15 chapters had the largest average size with 64.66 men per District I's 12 chapters reported an average of 49.50 men, and the 13 chapters in District VI average 47.92 men per chapter. District IV recorded a 39.35 average in 14 chapters, a sizable increase from 33.5 last year.

1500 Club

The Indiana Beta Chapter at Indiana University and the Kansas Alpha Chapter at the University of Kansas welcomed a new member to the exclusive 1500 Club, open only to those chapters claiming 1,500 or more initiates. Ohio Alpha became the third member of the Club, claiming 1,501 initiates as of this report year. Indiana Beta, with 1,930 initiates, will soon be eligible for the 2000 Club, of which it will be a founding member. Kansas Alpha joined the 1500 Club in 1976, and now records 1,579 Brothers. Indiana Beta was founded in 1869, Kansas Alpha in 1876, and Ohio Alpha in 1861.

1000 Club

The California Beta Chapter joined the 1000 Club this past year, reporting nine new initiates, for a total of 1,005 men who have joined Phi Kappa Psi at Stanford University since the Chapter's founding in 1891. The 1000 Club's membership includes 33 active chapters and the new Michigan Alpha Colony, all of which have initiated 1,000 to 1,499 members.

Initiates

As reported above, the chapters initiated or transferred 1,199 men during the 1979-1980 period, down 10 from last year. The Nebraska Beta Chapter at Creighton University recorded the largest number of initiates with 56, followed by the new Arkansas Alpha Chapter with 41. New Jersey Alpha at Rider College reported 36 initiates, and Ohio Lambda, California Epsilon and Illinois Delta all recorded 33 new members on their rolls. Indiana Beta initiated 31 this year, followed by Missouri Alpha with 30.

Housing

The total value of the 48 houses owned by chapters' local house corporations of the Fraternity (including land valued at approximately $1,227,290) totalled $11,475,735, a 14.7% increase over last year. Mortgages have been reduced to approximately $1,300,000.

Of the 82 chapters, at February 29, 1980, 48 own houses, 15 occupy houses owned by the college or university, 15 rent houses privately, two are provided dormitory sections, and two occupy lodges.

Pledges

This year, the Fraternity's 82 chapters pledged a total of 1,582 men, compared to 1,419 a year ago, up 11.5%. Two years ago, pledges totalled 1,378, and the year before that, 1,414. Fraternity law provides that pledgeship terminates: 1) upon initiation into the Fraternity, or 2) upon expiration of two semesters or three quarters grade reporting periods from date of pledging.

Fraternity Headquarters

Following a rather hectic year of moving the Fraternity Headquarters, Phi Psi's new Indianapolis home at 510 Lockerbie Street continues to provide an outstanding facility from which to operate. Since opening the doors in June, 1978, Heritage Hall has welcomed over 2,800 Phi Psis and friends from across the country. The Hall was especially popular during the 1980 GAC held in Indianapolis, August 6-10.

Chapter Visits

During the 1979-1980 academic year, the Fraternity's two Chapter Consultants conducted 97 visits to chapters and colonies. In addition, the Colony at the University of Michigan was organized. There were 36 other chapter visits made by Fraternity officers, not counting the numerous personal visits made by the Area Directors.

September 1980

Staff Appointments

When any business changes its location, turn over in personnel is unavoidable. The Fraternity was no different in this regard, but now all six office and both Chapter Consultant positions are manned.

Chapter consultant Louis M. Hoffman, Arizona '77, will continue his work advising chapters this fall, and has recently taken on additional responsibilities as Assistant Editor of THE SHIELD. Steven R. Fowler, Arizona '77, completed his Chapter Consultant duties in May, 1980, having joined Phi Psi's traveling team August 22, 1979. We thank Steve for his hard work during the 1979-1980 school year. To replace Consultant Fowler, Donald H. Durbin, Jr., Miami '78, reported for duty June 16, 1980. Kent Owen, Indiana '58, began his work as Director of the Endowment Fund September 16, 1979.

Meetings

Six District Council meetings highlighted Phi Psi activities during the year in review. Nearly 500 undergraduates participated in the District Councils literally from coast-to-coast, from Rhode Island Beta in District I to California Epsilon in District VI. Taking advantage of such outstanding undergraduate participation, the Fraternity combined the Council meetings with workshops designed to help our young Brothers run the chapters and colonies more efficiently, and thus enjoy a more fulfilling Phi Psi experience. The workshop portion of the weekends were entitled for the first time, the Woodrow Wilson Leadership School. We give a special thanks once again to all six host chapters, who expended great amounts of time and energy in preparing for the meetings:

District	Date, 1979	Host Chapter
I	Oct. 12-14	Rhode Island Beta
II	Oct. 5-7	Pennsylvania Lambda
III	Oct. 19-12	Indiana Delta
IV	Nov. 16-18	Alabama Beta
V	Oct. 19-21	Nebraska Alpha
VI	Nov. 9-11	California Epsilon

The main function of the District Council is of course the election of the District Archon, presiding officer of his District, who also serves as a full voting member of the ten man Executive Council. These Brothers must be undergraduates when elected, and serve until the fall of 1981 as long as they maintain residency in their District. Last fall's Councils elected Todd M. Ryder, Rhode Island '78, Archon for District I; D. Randolph Drosick, West Virginia '78, Archon for District II; Mark R. Ricketts, Miami '79, Archon for District III; Larry L. Light, Florida '77, is the new Archon for District IV; Gerald "Jay" J. Donahue, Kansas '78, is the District V Archon; and Jack P. Eckley, U.S.C. '79 (Bowling Green '75) was elected Archon for District VI.

The Executive Board of the Fraternity, composed of the four senior officers of the Executive Council—the President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary, met officially once during this year in review, on June 30, 1979 at the Fraternity's Headquarters in Indianapolis.

The Executive Council, composed of four alumnus Executive Board members and six undergraduate Archons, serves as the chief governing body of the Fraternity between meetings of the Grand Arch Council. The EC had two meetings, both at Phi Psi's Indianapolis Headquarters, on March 17-19, 1979, and January 12, 1980.

Financial Highlights

The 1979-1980 General Fund Budget displayed in last year's Annual Report was an ambitious one. The good news is that the Fraternity operated on a balanced budget, and even surpassed some of the financial goals set for the year in review. The figures offered are taken from our audited statements, and represent the end of fiscal year, May 31, 1980. Dollar amounts shown are rounded for ease of display. Copies of the audited reports are available at a cost of $3 (to help defray copy & postage expense) to any Phi Psi, through the Fraternity Headquarters.

The Fraternity's financial success this year can be attributed to savings in Headquarters staff reductions, increased undergraduate revenue, increased alumni support, and a continuation of alternative income production such as sales of sportswear, jewelry, life insurance and so forth. It is anticipated that general fund revenues will continue to grow in this direction.

1979 Alumni Support Program

Good News

Phi Kappa Psi owes much to her generous alumni! And the 1979 Alumni Support program documents the fact by reporting good news on two fronts—both the total dollar figure and the numbers of contributors are up over last year's program. The support program in review, which ran from March 1, 1979 through February 29, 1980, records 4,935 Brothers contributing $122,192.46, for an average gift of $24.76. The '79 program bettered last year's by $7,041.05, continuing a seven year streak of breaking the record set by previous programs. The 1980 Alumni Support program currently underway ends February 28, 1981.

The Fraternity has asked for voluntary alumni contributions for 29 years. And for most years, alumni response has been steadily increasing. The overall grand total of contributions received through the support program stands at $1,132,663.24.

Alumni Support Vital

The Fraternity's finances operate to minimize the expenses borne by our undergraduate Brothers. For even though most of Phi Psi's resources are plowed back into services rendered to chapters and colonies, the undergraduates fund less than half of the Fraternity's operating budget. This is in large part thanks to the high level of alumni participation in making dollar gifts to the Fraternity. In the fiscal year ending May 31, 1980, the Alumni support program provided a full 32% of our funds! Alumni Support money sustains such ongoing programs as Chapter Consultant work with the chapters, Fraternity publications, and undergraduate seminars such as the Woodrow Wilson Leadership School.

Honor Roll of Contributors

Each year, the names of those who participated in the preceding year's Support Program are published in THE SHIELD. The current 1980 Program is still open for contributions, until February 28, 1981, and all alumni and undergraduates are invited to participate. Those desiring to give may forward their contributions to the Fraternity Headquarters in Indianapolis. Give now to insure that your name will be included in the 1980 Honor Roll of Contributors in next year's annual report.

The new record set by the 1979 Alumni Support Program was due to more Phi Psis joining in this important task of maintaining Phi Kappa Psi, 311 more than last year. This resulted in a slightly lower average gift, down to $24.76 from $24.90 the previous year.

Founders Fellowships

Endowment Fund

Founders Fellows

Five distinguished graduates of the class of 1980 have been chosen on the basis of excellence in scholarship and leadership to receive the Founders Fellowships for professional or graduate study. The fellowships are made possible annually through a bequest to the Endowment Fund of the Fraternity by the late Tannye and W. Grant Schockley, Missouri '09. This year's recipients, each of whom is given $2,000, were selected from an unusually strong field of applicants by the Endowment Fund's scholarship committee during a weekend meeting in Atlanta in early May. Chaired by Theodore J. Urban, Illinois Alpha, of Creighton University, the committee includes Louis D. Corson, West Virginia Alpha; N. Ray Hawk, Oregon Alpha, of the University of Oregon; and David F. Hull, Jr., Louisiana Alpha and secretary of the Fraternity, of the Louisiana State University. The trustees of the Endowment Fund subsequently confirmed the recommendations of the committee and authorized the grants, which were officially presented at the G.A.C. awards luncheon in Indianapolis on August 8. The trustees are Robert R. Elliott, Ohio Alpha, retiring member and chairman; Ruddick C. Lawrence, Washington Alpha, and Philip M. Cornelius, Indiana Beta.

The W. Grant Shockley Prize (engineering)

To James Edwin Burkhardt, West Virginia '77, for advanced study in industrial engineering or a related field. Bro. Burkhardt has decided to delay graduate work for the present to enter private industry in the Northeast. He was elected to Tau Beta Pi, Phi Kappa Phi, and Sphinx as well as to several other academic and service honoraries. Selected as the outstanding Greek man by the I.F.C., he served as chairman of Greek Week, took the lead in organizing several all-university fundraising and service projects, and served West Virginia Alpha as V.G.P., governing committee chairman, and chaplain. His parents are Dr. and Mrs. Edward Martin Burkhardt of Huntington, West Virginia.

Honorable Mention

To recognize the superior accomplishments of the 1980 Founders Fellowships competitors, the scholarship committee decided to confer the distinction of "honorable mention" on ten other brothers. They are: Richard Bevan, Colgate; Daniel Broughton, Wabash; Glenn Cummings, Washington and Jefferson; Brian Dickson, Wabash; Kirk Jacobson, Beloit; Mark Lombardo, University of Rhode Island; John Mase, University of Rhode Island; William Matthai, Washington and Lee; Richard Renslo, University of California at Berkeley; and Mark Rodan, Ohio Wesleyan.

The Sion Bass Smith Prize (law)

To Jeffrey John Horner, Vanderbilt '77, for the study of law at the University of Virginia. Bro. Horner graduated summa cum laude in the history honors program and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. An accomplished athlete and entertainer, he was president of the men's intramural board, an honor council adviser, a leader in other all-campus organizations and honoraries, and the G.P. of Tennessee Delta. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Horner of Hanover, Indiana.

The C. F. "Dab" Williams Prize (open)

To Robert Paul Johnson, Duke '78, for the study of medicine and public health at Harvard University. Bro. Johnson, a National Merit Scholar and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, carried out advanced research in neurobiology, undertook a field study in Africa on health care in developing countries, and logged more than 350 hours as a hospital volunteer. He also served as V.G.P. of North Carolina Alpha, played varsity soccer, and involved himself in other social and service organizations. His parents are the Reverend and Mrs. Robert L. Johnson of Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

The William Henry Letterman Prize (health sciences)

To Robert Victor Trask, Ohio Wesleyan '77, for the study of medicine at the University of Michigan. A chemistry major, Bro. Trask stood first in his college class and won admission to several academic and leadership honoraries including Phi Beta Kappa and Omicron Delta Kappa. In addition to winning many academic honors, working in campus service programs, and carrying out advanced research projects, he served as G.P. of Ohio Alpha. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard K. Trask of Holland, Michigan.

The Charles Page Thomas Moore Prize (business administration)

To Blair Anderson Rieth, Jr., DePauw '77, for graduate study toward a masters degree in business administration at the Amos Tuck School of Dartmouth College. An economics major, Bro. Rieth is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Gold Key, and Mortar Board as well as of several other academic honoraries. He served as G.P. of Indiana Alpha and exerted leadership in a wide range of religious, institutional, and service projects. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Blair A. Rieth of Goshen, Indiana.

1980 Summerfield Scholars

Among the several duties of the Endowment Fund's scholarship committee was the selection of the Outstanding Solon E. Summerfield Scholar for 1980 and the first and second runners-up. Choosing from a full field of 84 candidates, the four committee members recommended the following brothers to the trustees, who readily confirmed their proposals.

The Outstanding Summerfield Award of $2,000 went to Bro. Gerald A. Kurland, UCLA '77, a graduate in political science who has enrolled in the Boulton Hall School of Law at the University of California at Berkeley. An honor student and a member of Blue Key, Bro. Kurland served as president of the UCLA student body and as chairman of the board of directors of the Associated Students of UCLA. The recipient of major scholarships, he was also a finalist in the Rhodes Scholarship competition as well as California Epsilon's rush chairman. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kurland of North Hollywood, California.

The first runner-up award of $1,000 was made to Bro. Brian Keith Dinges, Wabash '77, a graduate in political science who is working toward a masters degree at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management. An honor student, Bro. Dinges played four years of varsity baseball, was president of the Interfraternity Council, served as a student senator, participated in the Christian Fellowship, and was G.P. of Indiana Gamma. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. James J. Dinges of Schererville, Indiana. His wife Patricia is a registered nurse, a graduate of the Purdue University School of Nursing.

The second runner-up award of $500 was made to Bro. James David Bruckner, Creighton '77, an honor graduate in mathematics. He served on the Creighton student board of governors and the student life and policy committee, and as Nebraska Beta's I.F.C. representative and alumni relations chairman. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Bruckner of Lincoln, Nebraska.

The following 1980 Summerfield Scholars are not pictured: Paul A. Bresson, Akron; Frederic M. Lahey, Columbia; George E. Cooke, Franklin and Marshall; Frank Dallessio, Monmouth; Scott K. Williams, Toledo; John T. Cottle, Ashland; John C. Burns, Washington and Jefferson; David E. Eaton, Oregon; and Edward A. Freitas, California, Poly; Ambrose J. Gurtiza, Washington; Mark A. Lombardo, Rhode Island; Michael P. Sinesi, Cornell; Richard A. Rate Jr., Gettysburg; Martin L. Piccoli, Washington and Lee; Richard J. Sorensen, Minnesota.

Honorable Mention-Outstanding Summerfield

In addition, the scholarship committee recommended that in light of the high quality of candidates for the awards, the following brothers should be accorded "honorable mention": Michael Hitchcock, Northwestern; Thomas Jayne, Virginia Polytechnic; Mark Jones, Oklahoma State; Robert Kobayashi, University of Southern California; and James Slatten III, Louisiana State.

The 1980 Grand Arch Council brought together men initiated 84 years apart! But the shared ideals of Phi Kappa Psi bridged the gap time constructed, as Fraternity fun and fellowship were everywhere in evidence at the Indianapolis meeting August 6-10, 1980, shown here in a variety of Phi Psi faces. (Reprints of these and all GAC photos may be purchased directly from the photographer, Ed Kurtz, Oklahoma '75, of Richard Faust Photography, Norman, OK, 73070; phone 405/364-0367.)

Minnesota Beta Phi Psi Brotherhood Rekindled

by Todd A. Hilgenkamp, Minnesota '80

Editor's Note: The success story recounted here did not just happen but rather was the result of hard work by Fraternity staff, local alumni and enthusiastic undergraduates. We are very pleased with the fact that 18 similar rebuilding efforts have been undertaken across the country over the past 6 years, which stretches Phi Psi's resources to the very limit.

You can help us do even more! The Fraternity's program of alumni financial support produced 32% of our income last fiscal year . . . with additional funding, we could have more good news to share with you like that of Minnesota Beta. Please consider contributing $25, or any amount to the Alumni Support Program, Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity, 510 Lockerbie St., Indianapolis, In 46202.

Your help is important, and is appreciated!

As we all embark on another decade of furthering the Brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi, Minnesota Beta is very proud to announce that she is back and growing with 60 members after some very lean years. After being on the brink of disappearing from the campus just six years ago, Minnesota Beta has reclaimed the leadership role in Minnesota's Greek System that she had held for much of her 92 years on campus.

In 1974, after some very sparse years, Minnesota Beta reached the lowest ebb in her history on campus. With its few members either graduating or leaving school, she was left with no active members. It was from this point that Minnesota Beta has rebuilt herself.

In the fall of 1974, seemingly out of nowhere, John Timothy, a Minnesota medical student from Indiana Alpha, appeared on the scene. He initially served as landlord to the diverse group of students, most of them foreign, who resided at the chapter house. Also at about this same time, our lifesaving national became aware of our plight and sent Mike Wittern and Gary Angstadt (then Chapter Consultants) to search for ambitious men who might be interested in starting up Phi Psi on campus again. They contacted several men, but only two responded with a firm commitment. These two men then stirred up enthusiasm among several fellow dorm residents who desired a more meaningful living situation. With a lot of help, advice, guidance, and most importantly, inspiration from Brothers Timothy, Angstadt, and Wittern, the idea of restarting Phi Psi on campus took hold and the reconstruction began.

Starting with a loan from our supportive national and several determined young men, work was begun to restore the Chapter house. Floors, walls and ceilings were rebuilt, materials and appliances were bought and a great deal of the house was painted.

Improvements on the house have continued during the summer and fall of 1980 with the addition of new carpeting and rebuilding of the front pillars. Thanks to generous contributions from alumni, a new kitchen was installed last winter and the house is now in very good condition.

The Chapter has experienced steady growth over the last five years and is presently the fourth largest on campus. A successful rush program this past fall led by Jeff Coburn, Rush Chairman, brought in 23 good men for the pledge class of 1980. The pledges are: Karl Keel, Dave Hunt, Ted Eibs, Rich Phillips, Prior Lake; James Cope, Owatonna; Michael Sherwood, Paul Mason, Rogers Donnelly, St. Paul; Patrick Williams, Spicer; Stewart

Rallis, Scott Harness, Stephan Wahl, James Horovitz, Michael Sims, William Sharpe, James Eaton, Edina; Henry Cousineau III, Wayzata; Michael Harrer, Bloomington; Steve Hintzke, Franklin, Wis.; David Campbell, Santa Cruz, Calif.; David Nussbaum, Minneapolis; Masoud Kazemzadeh, Abadan, Iran; and Joey Blauert, Sedona, Az. This group of men make up the largest pledge class the chapter has had in the last five years. We are confident that these new pledges will contribute to the quality and character of the chapter.

Minnesota Beta has enjoyed success in several activities at the University. During spring quarter 1980, the chapter took first place in Campus Carnival which is a big annual charity fund raiser held every spring. Homecoming was also extremely successful this year, and we were awarded first place for our entry. Intramurals has been another area in which the Chapter has excelled. In 1979 and 1980, Minnesota Beta took second and fourth place respectively, out of 26 fraternities. This fall has been rewarding thus far with the two Chapter football teams placing first and third in their IFC division.

1980 Phi Psi at the Crossroads! Grand Arch Council

John R. Donnell Jr., Case Western Reserve '59, was elected president by unanimous action Saturday, August 9. John's grandfather, father and brother all are members of his Phi Psi family as well. Raised in Ohio, John now resides in Atlanta, Georgia, with his wife Marcia.

On Sunday, August 10, 1980, the strains of "Noble Fraternity" could still be heard reverberating throughout the halls of the Indianapolis Hyatt Regency. The Fraternity's biennial meeting had just been gavelled to a close, having given the opportunity for nearly 500 undergraduates, alumni and guests to enjoy three and one half days of Phi Psi fellowship. The experience was indeed a positive one for all involved.

The GAC began Wednesday evening, August 6 with Alumni Association sponsored hospitality suites. The A.A.s from Atlanta, Indianapolis, and West Virginia were primary sponsors of the three gathering spots, with alumni groups from South Carolina, Northern California, Southern California, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Nebraska, Findlay, and Columbus assisting. The business of the convention began at 9:15 the next day, after an opening breakfast which saluted Phi Psi's past presidents, and members of the Heritage Project Founders Order. Only six Chapters failed to respond to the roll call throughout the GAC, with 27 Alumni Associations joining in the deliberations. Many people remarked at this opening function and throughout the convention that the dress and decorum of the Brothers in attendance were exemplary.

Grand Arch Council Officers

Attorney General Paul J. LaPuzza, Creighton '66, administered the oath of office to the permanent officers of the Grand Arch Council. The officers were: SWGP, Robert W. Chamberlain, Arizona State '62; SWVGP, John R. Donnell, Jr., Case Western Reserve '59; SWP, John K. Boyd III, Kansas '59; SWAG, David F. Hull, Jr., Louisiana State '66; and SWHods, Todd M. Ryder, Rhode Island '78; D. Randolph Drosick, West Virginia '78; Mark R. Ricketts, Miami '79; Larry L. Light, Florida '77; Gerald J. Donohue, Jr., Kansas '78; Jack P. Eckley, Southern California '79.

Committee Chairmen

The GAC Committee Chairmen were announced at the Thursday morning general session. President Chamberlain stressed the extreme importance of committee work and urged that reports be due to the general floor beginning Friday morning if possible. The 1980 Committee Chairmen

Edward H. Knight, Wabash '93, became a legend for having attended 39 GACs, every one from 1894 through 1972. An Award that bears his name is presented each convention to that Brother who has attended the greatest number of the biennial meetings, and in 1980, that gentleman was Walter Lee Sheppard Jr., Cornell '29, past president, for his 25th GAC.

The GAC awards table reflects the accomplishments of the Fraternity during the past two years.

Mrs. Cecelia Cornelius, wife of past president Philip M. Cornelius, Indiana '25, received the Ladies Silver Bowl, acknowledging her support of the Fraternity and to Phil as he served all offices except Secretary, and currently is a trustee of the Endowment Fund. Brother Cornelius was Honorary Chairman of the GAC.

Those attending a GAC for the first time are often surprised to see felt banners adorning the meeting Hall, representing the Chapters and Alumni Associations. And so tradition dictates that new chapters receive their banner when first their name is called at roll. California Iota, the University of California at Davis (pictured here), and Arkansas Alpha at the University of Arkansas both received their banners, symbolic of charters issued earlier in the biennium. If there is an even prouder moment than this, it comes when a Chapter is rechartered . . . the well worn pennant of Wisconsin Gamma, originally chartered in 1881, was returned to the Beloit College Chapter, rechartered in 1978.

A new award this year, naming the Outstanding Area Director, was given to Richard E. Ong, Oregon State '55, right, for his work with the three Virginia Chapters. Coordinator for Area Directors Dr. Earl W. Friend Jr., Washington & Jefferson '60, made the presentation.

Selected from a field of 22 nominees, Dr. Robert W. Mouser, Wabash '49, left, was declared winner in the competition for the Edward H. Knight Award of Merit. The award, presented here by Richard O. Regnier, Wabash '48, acknowledges service provided to the Fraternity during the biennium.

Robert V. Trask, Ohio Wesleyan '77, left, is congratulated by fellow Ohio Alphan, Endowment Fund Chairman Robert R. Elliott, '35, as Brother Trask receives the William Henry Lettermann Prize as part of the Founder Fellowships Program. The $2000 grant, part of $13,500 awarded by the Endowment Fund that day, will in Bob's case be applied towards medical school at the University of Michigan.

Busy Schedule of Events

The social calendar for all attendants of the 1980 GAC was a busy one. In addition to the general sessions and committee meetings throughout, district caucuses were held Thursday and Friday evenings for the purpose of providing a common meeting place for district members where they could informally discuss Fraternity matters and become better acquainted.

Once again at this convention, GAC workshops were on the agenda for Friday morning, August 8. There were eight different workshops, with four of them presented twice. Titles of the workshops and their session leaders were: "Ritual Review," Kent C. Owen, Indiana '58; "Life of the Party," Frank J. Maez, Lambda Chi Alpha; "Sign on the Dotted Line," Randy Donant, California-Santa Barbara '64 and Bryan P. Muecke, Texas '75; "Basis of Brotherhood," John D. Watt III, Duke '75 and Richard J. Christ, Arizona '77; "Our Greatest Natural Resource," Robert W. Blake, Indiana '48; "Chapter Operations and the Law," John J. Ziegelmeier, Jr., Kansas '70 and Harry A. Light, Florida '77; "Chapter Leadership and Administration," Louis M. Hoffman, Arizona '77 and Donald H. Durbin, Jr., Miami '78; and "Chapter Finance," John Burke, Miami '72.

Ladies Program

The GAC ladies program provided a variety of entertainment opportunities for those who cared to participate. On Thursday morning, the highlight of the convention was a tour of nearby scenic Brown County, which allowed the group to tour a quaint community of shops featuring hand crafted gifts, antiques, and interesting eateries. On Friday morning the ladies toured the world's largest Children's Museum and, after attending the GAC Awards Luncheon, toured what many locals consider to be the most beautiful building in Indianapolis, the Scottish Rite Cathedral. Saturday morning provided time to visit the restored home of President Benjamin Harrison and Morris-Butler museum of high Victorian art. The general co-chairmen of the ladies program were Mrs. Robert W. (Pat) Mouser and Mrs. Gary B. (Marcy) Angstadt. The committee consisted of Mrs. H. Roll (Linda) McLaughlin, and Carol J. Klima.

Phi Psi Biennial Awards Luncheon

The Fraternity's Awards Luncheon was held on Friday in the Grand Ballroom of the Indianapolis Hyatt Regency. Vice President John R. Donnell, Jr. presided over the assembled Brothers as various presentations were made. A list of awards follows. We were pleased to have with us Indiana's senior Senator, Birch Bayh, whose son Evan, Indiana '75, introduced his ATQ father at the luncheon. Evan also participated in the GAC opening breakfast. Senator Bayh's talk drove home the importance of participation in all levels of government, and was very well received.

New Executive Board Elected

Saturday afternoon, the new executive officers of the Fraternity for the next two years were elected as follows: John R. Donnell, Jr., Case Western Reserve '59, President; John K. Boyd III, Kansas '59, Vice President; Bryan P. Muecke, Texas '75, Secretary; and John A. Burke, Miami '72, Treasurer. These four officers join the six Archons composing the Executive Council.

GAC Banquet

Symposiarch Tom James, Texas '48, opened the formal banquet at 8:00 p.m. on Saturday, August 9. Nearly 420 Brothers and guests enjoyed an electrifying evening of fun and Fraternity. President-elect John R. Donnell, Jr. spoke to the group and shared his thoughts on goals for the biennium and remarked at the strong show of friendship and fellowship in evidence throughout the convention. A viewing of the Phi Psi movie ended the evening at 11:00 p.m.

Order of the S.C.

The 30th biennial meeting and initiation of the Order of the S.C. was held on Friday evening, August 8, on the top floor of the nearby Columbia Club. The six new members are: William D. Black, Indiana '45; Oliver J. Neibel, Jr., Arizona '47; George H. Kincaid, West Virginia '54; Robert W. Chamberlain, Arizona State '62 (Washington '60); David F. Hull, Jr., Louisiana State '66; and Bruce F. Dearborn, Oklahoma State '67 (Washington '65).

The Order of S.C. is unique in the world of fraternities and was founded at the 1920 GAC in Minneapolis by three members. Eligibility for membership in the Order includes attendance of at least seven GACs. None of the 17 charter members survive today. To date 181 Phi Psis have been inducted. Of that number, 63 are living.

1980 Host Committee

Dr. Robert W. Mouser, Wabash '49, and Stuart W. Rhodes, Indiana '69, were general co-chairmen of the 1980 Grand Arch Council committee. They were assisted by Kent E. Agness, Indiana '69, Leroy W. Fehrenkamp, Valparaiso '65, and Gary B. Angstadt, Indiana '70. The honorary chairman of the GAC was Philip M. Cornelius, Indiana '25.

President's Report

President Robert W. Chamberlain spoke of the progress made by Phi Kappa Psi, stating: "Following the 1970 GAC, the SHIELD reported that it was one of tense moments and frank discussion. And, those who were in Philadelphia do remember that GAC. That year over 450 colleges and universities were effected by strikes and closings. Violence occurred on many campuses. The foundation of Phi Psi and all fraternities were shaken. Peace and harmony did not prevail. Three chapters were suspended from the Fraternity in that one year alone. And, by 1973 the average chapter size had dropped to 35 members from a high of 49 members in 1968. All the traditional indicators of Phi Psi stability were down . . . I am pleased to report to you that as the decade of the 1970's closes, Phi Kappa Psi is in the strongest position ever. Today, we have 83 chapters and colonies, 86 alumni associations and clubs, and 71,000 members. Pledging and initiation figures are up. The average chapter size has increased to 52.2 members. Three new chapters have been added to the rolls these last two years: Wisconsin Gamma, Beloit; California Iota, Cal Davis; and Arkansas Alpha, at the University of Arkansas. The new headquarters has been completed and is operational. The Task Force on Fraternity Education has completed its work . . . the growing resources, and sound leadership of the Endowment Fund have made it possible to provide unprecedented financial support for undergraduates. And, the network of volunteers that has been assembled to assist the Fraternity at every level continues to work. We enter the 80's on reasonably solid ground."

January 1981

The Fraternity's Headquarters, Heritage Hall, hosted nearly 200 Phi Psis and guests at the August 8 evening GAC reception honoring outgoing president Robert W. Chamberlain, Arizona State '62.

Phi Psi has traditionally steered clear of "Best Chapter" awards, choosing instead to acknowledge improvement. Thus the Oxford (Ohio) Alumni Association Most Improved Chapter Award was born. The 1980 winners, whose membership increased by 69 men in two years, was Indiana Epsilon at Valparaiso University, shown here receiving their plaque from Association member John A. Burke, right.

"The challenges of the 80's are truly opportunities. The Fraternity through the years has proven itself to be adaptable to change and to have met the challenges of wars and campus disruption, and economic depressions. As we look to the 1980's we do so with 128 years of experience. To my fellow officers and the Fraternity staff, I extend this sincere thanks for their selfless efforts on behalf of Phi Psi, and to Dud Daniel, Mr. Phi Psi, goes a special note of appreciation for his 31 years of inspired Fraternity leadership. Our's is a great Fraternity that has long served an important purpose, Brotherhood. The need today is as important as ever."

Memorial Service

Sunday morning, August 10, delegates in convention were led in an inspirational memorial service by Webb M. Mize, Mississippi '30. Brother Mize quoted John McCrey whose poem written in Flandersfield after the first World War was as follows: "In Phi Psi's field, the roses grow beneath the crosses row on row, that mark our place while from the sky we watch the crowded days go by unseen by Brothers here below. We are the dead, short days ago we lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow, loved and were loved, and now we lie in Phi Psi's field. Take up our challenge here below, to you from failing hands we throw the lamp. Be yours to hold it high. If you break faith with us who die, we shall not sleep though roses grow, and blow in Flandersfield." Webb concluded; "In ancient Greece when a young man was introduced to citizenship there was quite a ceremony, and the prospective citizen was made to take an oath to serve the state, and one of the provisions of the oath was; 'And I promise that I will leave my city state better than I found it.' The best that we can do today as the best current of memorial to those who have gone before is to say, that 'I now and as far as I can will leave my Fraternity better than I found it'."

GAC Attendance

The 60th GAC in Indianapolis, with 446 participants, including 83 ladies and guests, was the largest since the Centennial GAC in 1952, at Pittsburgh, when 471 were in attendance. The 59th GAC in Kansas City saw 420 present for the meetings. The 61st Grand Arch Council will be held in Atlanta, August 11-15, 1982 at the Omni International Hotel.

Expressing suitable modesty, but nonetheless we feel very pleased, Executive Director Emeritus Ralph D. Daniel, left, presents for the first time the Award for Excellence in Chapter Management named in his honor. There were two winners this first award year, Pennsylvania Epsilon, pictured with Dud, and Pennsylvania Nu.

The Phi Psi photographer captured two very special ladies whose work, though miles apart, is similar and dear to "their boys." Mrs. Melba Snow, left, received special recognition for her work as housemother to Oklahoma Alpha, and Mrs. Christine Vogt was likewise honored at the 1978 GAC for her contributions to Ohio Delta.

"In appreciation of 18 years of devoted service to the Endowment Fund of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity" reads the plaque presented to Robert R. Elliott, Ohio Wesleyan '35, left, by Endowment Fund trustee Ruddick C. Lawrence, Washington '31, as Bob retires from Phi Psi's educational foundation.

President Chamberlain here receives a needle point Coat-of-arms from then vice president Donnell as a token of appreciation from the Fraternity. The gift was worked by Mrs. Ruby Harris, mother of John W. Harris V, Alabama '71, past Chapter Consultant. (Editor's note: the needlepoint kits are available through the Fraternity Headquarters.)

Dr. Theodore J. Urban, Northwestern '46, far right, presented the Fraternity's most prestigious award for scholarship to the Indiana Zeta delegation, host for the 1980 GAC, in recognition of 21 consecutive semesters ranking #1 among fraternities at Butler University.

John K. Boyd III, Kansas '59, left, gave the Ralph R. Haney Award for Financial Excellence to the Brothers of Ohio Zeta. John, from Kansas City, was elected Vice-president the next day.

- 7) That above changes be included in the "Campus Prospectus" form, for general use.

- That the Fraternity consider obtaining a computer that will allow maintenance of chapters' financial records.

- That the Executive Council be authorized to move swiftly and firmly against hazing, but that the Council be given the flexibility to determine the appropriate measures to be taken according to the facts and circumstances of each case.

- Several specific recommendations on individual chapter problems were recommended.

- That Chapter programs of Fraternity Education incorporate current concepts and literature on the responsible use of alcohol, encourage abstinence of controlled substances, and further encourage like action in campus-wide organized rush efforts across the land.

- That Fraternity priorities should include promoting undergraduate/alumnus interaction, running on a balanced budget, maintaining the highest quality of Chapter standards above expansion, and increasing intra-fraternity communications.

- The Statement of Fraternity Education is offered as a separate page in this SHIELD, as is the Hazing Edict. Both the Edict and the Statement were unanimously endorsed by the 1980 Grand Arch Council.

An Edict Of The Executive Council of Phi Kappa Psi

The fraternity experience is shaped largely, often decisively by pledgship. Throughout the initial period of fraternity education, the pledge learns what is expected to him as a prospective member and what the fraternity can mean to his life. Pledgship should prepare him to accept the responsibilities of membership, to develop his best potentialities, and to meet the demands of academic life. These aims require a commitment from the chapter to do everything within its power to support those persons who pledge themselves to earn the privilege of initiation. At the very least the chapter is responsible for safe-guarding the health, safety, and well-being of its pledges.

Phi Kappa Psi has traditionally encouraged thoughtfully planned, sensibly administered pledgship programs that reflect the humane values essential to the Fraternity's existence. Although these programs vary from chapter to chapter and from generation to generation, each must be a sound and effective means of bringing the greatest possible benefit to the individual pledge. However much a given program may be different in its form, scope, emphasis, or intensity, it must be consistent with the principles of the Fraternity and the ideals of a civilized society.

In light of these convictions, Phi Kappa Psi refuses to tolerate hazing—the physical or mental abuse inflicted on pledges. Whatever form it takes—humiliating pranks, stunts, or attire; “road trips,” “snipe hunts,” and other hazardous, antisocial, or unlawful activities; deprivation of sleep and food; personal servitude; harassment at “line-ups” and work sessions; punitive calisthenics; paddling or any other action intended to degrade or intimidate a person—hazing subverts and corrupts the true experience of fraternity. In its more extreme forms hazing risks human lives, brutalizes everyone involved, and jeopardizes the very existence of the chapter and, moreover, of the entire Fraternity.

Hazing is a recurrent blight that can attack any chapter whenever a few persons attempt to substitute force for reason, and expediency for understanding. Such persons seem to believe that arbitrarily subjecting pledges to a series of ordeals will make them fit to become brothers; that fear will somehow make them disciplined and mature. Even though such methods may seem efficient in the short run, there can finally be no justification whatsoever for hazing, for it destroys the values of kindness, generosity, and compassion that the Fraternity's teaching of brotherly love affirms.

Accordingly, the Executive Council of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity directs all members, chapters, and alumni organizations to oppose hazing and to stop it immediately wherever it may now exist. Any member who engages in hazing risks expulsion from the Fraternity, and any chapter that practices or condones hazing risks suspension or revocation of its charter. Chapter officers, alumni advisers, and directors of house corporation boards should be alert to take firm action against hazing. Further, the Executive Council holds the house corporation board of each chapter particularly responsible for making sure that hazing is prohibited.

The moral integrity of Phi Kappa Psi is inseparable from the conduct of its members. It is not enough for the Fraternity to celebrate the dignity of man in its teachings; each member must accept as a personal obligation the upholding of basic human rights. As men of honor and good will, the members of Phi Kappa Psi cannot allow the Fraternity to be debased by so mean a practice as hazing. Both decency and honor require that the principles of the Fraternity be borne out in the actions of its chapters.

The Phi Kappa Psi Statement On Fraternity Education

(Adopted at the 1980 Grand Arch Council)

Pledgeship, freely offered by a Fraternity Chapter and freely accepted by an individual, is the period of education, training, and service that prepares one for initiation into a fraternity. Initiation into full membership and Brotherhood is a privilege, not a right, conferred on a pledge by the members of a private, voluntary society.

The pledge is expected to prove himself worthy of the privilege by demonstrating academic competence, good character, knowledge of the Chapter and the Fraternity, and loyalty to the Fraternity and its members. He is expected to fulfill whatever requirements may be asked of him, provided that these are legal, ethical, and moral.

It must be understood that no pledge is automatically entitled to be initiated. He must prove himself personally acceptable to the members of his Fraternity Chapter. If a pledge is found unsuitable for whatever reason, the Fraternity Chapter should either ask him to resign or cancel his pledgeship as soon as incompatibility becomes evident. In that event the separation of a pledge from the Fraternity Chapter should be carried out humanely and discreetly. The pledge should always bear in mind that his conduct reflects not only on himself and his Fraternity, but on his college and the Fraternity movement at large.

1. The pledge shall be assured that his Fraternity Chapter will conscientiously foster and safeguard his health, safety, and well-being.
2. The pledge shall be enabled to pursue his academic studies and educational interests through the help and support of his Fraternity Chapter.
3. The pledge shall be properly housed, fed, and provided with adequate facilities for study, if he lives in a house operated by his Fraternity Chapter.
4. The pledge shall be free to associate with whomever he chooses, provided that such associations do not bring disrepute to the Fraternity.
5. The pledge shall be prepared for initiation into his Fraternity throughout the course of a period of education, training, and service as conducted by his Fraternity Chapter. He will be eligible for initiation upon the satisfactory completion of the stated requirements.
6. The pledge shall not be subjected and cannot consent to being hazed; that is, any physical, mental, or emotional indignity or objectionable activity that might be required under the threat of dismissal from the pledge class, whether implicit or explicit.
7. The pledge shall not be required to perform any duty or take part in any activity that violates any law, ordinance, or university regulation, or is contrary to the dictates of his own conscience.

8. The pledge shall be entitled to inform the officers of his Fraternity Chapter, officers of the House Corporation, alumni and faculty advisors, officers of the national Fraternity, or responsible persons, of any action or practice that he believes illegal or immoral; no penalty or reprisal of any kind shall be taken against him if the report is made in good faith.
9. The pledge shall enjoy the full rights and privileges as well as the obligations and responsibilities of any other student at the university.
10. The pledge shall be entitled to a satisfactory explanation and adequate arrangements for resettlement in the event that his Fraternity Chapter decides to dismiss him.

Virginia Beta Mortgage Burning Fund

Highlights 125th Year

Early in 1855 a few Phi Psis from Va. Alpha at the University of Virginia crossed the Blue Ridge Mountains and travelled up the Shenandoah Valley to Lexington and established Va. Beta at little Washington College. It was the first fraternity there and 125 years later it's the leading Chapter at Washington & Lee with a new house built 10 years ago and more undergraduate members than at any time in 125 years.

Va. Beta's original Charter, dated February 19, 1855, hand lettered by Thomas Cochran Campbell, now under protection in the archives in Indianapolis, is the oldest original  $\Phi K \Psi$  Charter in existence and was signed by representatives of Pa. Alpha and Va. Alpha.

It has been suggested that the President of Washington College in the 1850's, Dr. George Junkin, may have adopted his anti-fraternity bias as a result of Va. Beta's "annual symposium" in 1857 which was held in the Lexington House Hotel and apparently was a pretty wild party. In any event, Dr. Junkin later was forced to leave Lexington because of his pro-Union sympathies and Va. Beta survived.

The entire Chapter and most alumni fought in the Civil War with nine members killed and many wounded. Notwithstanding that tragedy and only an average of 2.4 initiated between 1870 and 1887, somehow Va. Beta hung in there. 1888-89 marks the beginning of real success for Va. Beta for in those two years Hale Houston and John W. Davis were initiated. Hale Houston became a professor at W&L and helped the Chapter greatly for the next 50 years and it was he who influenced John W. Davis to pledge in 1889. John W. Davis went on to become one of Phi Psi's most important and devoted alumni, Democratic nominee for President of the United States in 1924 and world famous public servant and corporate lawyer. He was in Lexington on and off for about 10 years as student and professor, and undoubtedly his influence was important in attracting the many students who pledged Va. Beta from 1890 to 1900 who later became outstanding alumni, several nationally known.

Va. Beta has been at the same location at 301 East Washington Street for about 55 years. Originally, an old Victorian mansion was rented from W&L, then purchased and remodeled in 1938 at a total cost of $25,000. After World War II plans were made for a 15-year fund raising campaign to build a completely new house in 1965. Construction was delayed until 1968 by which time $115,000 had been accumulated and with $60,000 borrowed from W&L at 4% interest, contracts were let to design and build a $175,000 house. At today's prices it would cost $400,000. It was designed by a leading Virginia architect, Marcellus Wright of Richmond, a Phi Psi (Pa. Iota '25).

Va. Betans have worked hard over the years to make the Chapter successful. It hasn't just happened. W&L is still a small school and there have been perhaps too many fraternities on campus which has meant intense competition for members and relatively small undergraduate membership.

Currently the House Corporation Board of Directors meets twice a year at the Chapter House with Chapter Officers and reviews all Chapter operations carefully. Every effort is being made to continue the Chapter's successful operations to its second century mark.

All Va. Beta alumni are now being asked to contribute to a MORTGAGE BURNING FUND which will pay off the remaining $35,000 owed W&L and make Va. Beta independent of all economic upheavals, declining college population or other problems. VA. BETA ALUMNI—PLEASE SEND YOUR CONTRIBUTION NOW. Contact the Chapter for details on the 125th anniversary celebration: 703/463-2003

Alabama "New" Chapter

After a short absence, Phi Kappa Psi has proudly returned to the University of Alabama with the revitalization of the Alabama Alpha Chapter. The Chapter was revitalized through the help of Chapter Consultants Lou Hoffman and Don Durbin, who sat through over 100 interviews to form a group of 22 enthusiastic gentlemen.

An informal cocktail party was held on October 18, 1980 at the University Club, giving the Brothers-to-be a chance to meet each other and also to talk with Alumni and learn more about Phi Psi.

We are then a Chapter of pledges, with officers as follows: Earl Stafford, GP, from Jasper; Chris Hill, VGP, Birmingham; Jerry L. Pulliam, AG, Chickasaw; Ed Mundy, BG, Oxford; Jack Rooks, P, Pisgah; Alan King, SG, Pell City; Tim Magnusson, Hod, Ardmore and Doug Canada, Phu, Haleyville. The remaining membership is: Bobby Gains, Huntsville; Clint Chalkey, Jackson; Johnny Harvison, Cullman; Todd Krout, and Max Ray, Birmingham; Bob Quarles, Decatur; Alan Sanderson, Hamilton; Terry Sides, Jasper; Bob Sittason and Jerry Templeton, Hartselle; Eric West, Huntsville; Larry Edwards, Miami, Fla.; Alan James, Jackson, Miss.; and Greg Jones, Little Rock, Ark.

We are very active in campus leadership and activities. Our GP Earl Stafford is an Off Campus Student Gov't. Senator, Chris Hill, VGP, is a student dorm representative governmental director of Palmer Hall, and is also a member of the Freshman Forum. Max Ray is the Student Union Programs Director, and Alan King and Jerry Pulliam are members of the University of Alabama's "Million Dollar Band." Bob Quarles is our Summerfield Scholar nominee.

We have had 3 social events since the rebuilding took place: a Halloween Costume House Swap with Sigma Gamma Sorority, a Country/Western House Swap with Alpha Delta Pi Sorority, and a cocktail party held after our Homecoming game at Alumnus Jay Massingill's home.

The Alabama Alpha Chapter is presently organizing, for it's community service project, the Tuscaloosa branch of "Big Brothers," through which the members spend time with young fatherless children and serve not only as "Big Brothers" but as friends also.

A retreat is also being planned at Brother Fred Clay's lake house. The purpose of the retreat is to bring the pledges closer together, and to learn about Fraternity Education.

We are looking forward to soon joining you as full Brothers in the Fraternity. Roll Tide!

Jerry L. Pulliam, Correspondent

Allegheny Building

Fall term is traditionally known as rush term at Pa. Beta. This year we have had the full range of traditional parties and activities; most notable among these were the gold fish "pigdown" and a Sunday outing to Buffalo for a football game. The term is winding down and we are regrouping and preparing for the short formal rush in January.

Homecoming this fall saw more alumni coming back than in other years. The brotherhood would like to think that the newsletter we are sending out again had some influence. We have had some alumni response but would like to hear more for our next publication in February.

The Phi Psi "500" went off well this year, and we raised more money than in the recent past. A special feature to this year's event was the inclusion of a Greek team to help improve interfraternal relations. This "500" was marked by a particularly high incidence of old eggs and Karo syrup. Fortunately the day was fine and a good time had by all.

Scholarship has been a particularly active committee as it implemented more programs which will encourage strong performance. Phi Psi's do better than non-Greeks but we need to improve our standing among the other fraternities.

Housing is of particular concern to us at Pa. Beta. The improvements done to the house last fall are holding up well and we will do no more than painting this year. The college has donated a few trees and the improved appearance and condition of the house is helping rush.

Founders day will be celebrated on February 20th with as many Phi Psi's as we can collect. Please join us at the chapter house after dinner.

Brinton L. Hyde, Correspondent

Arizona Housing Change

With winter fast approaching, the men of Arizona Alpha are in the process of relocating to a permanent home for Phi Psi at the University of Arizona. After the initial transition problems, we are still holding strong.

This semester we initiated Brothers Mark Hill Taylor from Litchfield Park, Francis Leo Bidleman from Tempe, Richard Alan Whitford from Boulder, Colorado, and George William Switzer from Wilcox.

During the semester's course, the Chapter strived to maintain its high scholastic achievement, its sense of strong community service, and its hearty unity.

Individual brothers' achievements include: Pat Duffy's election to the president of Sophos, the sophomore men's honorary, and his subsequent initiation of several new programs to that organization's agenda. Brother Jim Engle's selection to one of the three finalists for Outstanding Greek man. And Brother Francis Bidleman's fine work as treasurer.

We would also like to commend Br. Jim Ehrenreich's accomplishments as Greek Week and social chairman for the Chapter.

Arizona Alpha also owes much to Brothers Dud Daniel, Bob Gibson, Don Gooder, Dave Grant, Dave Sanborn, and Jay Spurgeon, who as alumni provided the Chapter a steady hand during its housing transition.

We look forward to reuniting with several Brothers at our reunion celebrating the 33 years of Arizona Alpha, which will take place November 15, 1980 at the Double Tree Inn.

We also look forward to our Founder's Day Celebration Saturday, February 21st, which, with luck, will take place at our new home.

Mark H. Taylor, Chapter Correspondent

Arizona State Coming Up!

Greetings from the valley of the sun in Tempe, Ariz.! The men of Arizona Beta are looking forward to another terrific semester of outstanding accomplishments.

In May of 1980 we initiated four pledges into the Chapter—Ken Bates, Bristol, England; Curt Havens, Marblehead, Mass.; Mike Shriver, Phoenix; and Otto Timmons, New Canaan, Conn.

Our officers leading us into an exciting fall semester were Brian Weinberger, GP; Brent Oesterblad, VGP; Robert Carrillo, AG; Dave Riley, P; Rick Napolitano, BG; Harmon Anderson, SG; Chuck Tapert, Hod; Mark Abramson, Phu; and Mike Klepper, Hi.

At the closing ceremonies of Greek Week last spring semester, it seemed that Phi Kappa Psi was always on top. Our Greek Sing and Greek Games teams each captured a third place trophy, but it was the scholarship award that was most impressive. Not only was the chapter awarded the scholarship trophy for the Chapter with the highest grade point average, but our pledge class also received a trophy for the highest grade point average!

Athletics at the Chapter have excelled, especially in basketball, volley ball, and football. Four members of the Chapter were invited to play on the ASU Fraternity All-Star Team. Representing Phi Psi were brothers Darren Gray, Rick Napolitano, Howard Scheuner, and Bob "Stilts" Spexarth.

Brother Greg Nord has been accepted in the Order of Omega, a Greek honorary organization; Brother Lenny Drucker was accepted into Eta Kappa Nu, an engineering honorary fraternity; and Brother Robert Carrillo was accepted into Alpha Lambda Delta, a sophomore scholastic fraternity.

Some other fine achievements include the acceptance of Brother John Cummerford to Colombia University Law School and the acceptance of Brother Brad Hunt to the law school at Puget Sound.

Last spring semester ended with a bang thanks to our annual Phi Psi "500," under the direction of Brother Weinberger. After the traditional tricycle relay between the sororities and the cycling relay between the fraternities, the evening was capped off with our Phi Psi "500" Party which drew in over 1500 people from all over the Phoenix area.

Fall of '80 brought some new faces to Arizona Beta. Johnnie Diaz, Cary Glickstein, Curt Grandia, Randy Gregg, Lance Johnson, Tom Hunts, Bill Mamola, Kevin Russ, and Steve Schulman have all accepted bids to pledge Phi Kappa Psi. We would also like to acknowledge a Phi Psi transfer from Nebraska Beta, John Edmondson. We hope he will bring many new ideas and traditions from his fine chapter at Creighton to share with us.

Our Founders Day Celebration this year will be a Bar-B-Que to be held here at the house. All interested alumni are asked to contact the Alumni Association for details.

We would like to thank our alumni, under the direction of Don Nordlund for their advice and contributions throughout the year.

Wishing everyone a super year, this is Arizona Beta signing off.

Robert E. Carrillo, Correspondent

Arkansas Past and Future

With the first anniversary of the Arkansas Alpha Chapter coming up December 8th, things are finally looking up for our Chapter. Even though we lost many members with graduation, we more than made up the loss with the addition of our seven spring initiates: Paul Colwell, Jeff Penson, Brian Campbell, Ken Harper, Kenneth Voise, Thomas Sulephen, and Michael Reynolds. We also achieved our largest pledge class this year with twenty-one men.

Membership was not the only area in which we did well. We have had some really great parties including a Boxer Short Function with Phi Mu Sorority, a Country and Western Hoe-down with the Kappa Kappa Gamma's, the 2nd Annual Halloween Bash with Delta Gamma, a Punk Rocker Party with Zeta Tau Alpha, and lastly this semester, a Favorite T-shirt party featuring wine and cheese, with Delta Delta Delta Sorority.

Life is not all party here though; we have had several community projects to fill the spaces in our calendar. Some of the projects include: restoration of a building for the Arkansas Women's Center with the help of the Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority; a Chinese Auction for the March of Dimes; The Sorority President Kidnap to get needed can goods for the poor; and finishing off the semester, was the 3rd annual Richardson Center Halloween Carnival for handicapped children, done with the help of the Delta Delta Delta Sorority.

Currently we are putting together another great homecoming float. We are planning on winning first place for the second year in a row. Spring rush is moving right along with many new pledges expected. Also on the future agenda is our first major campus-wide party called the "Phi Psi Fall Festival" in which beer, bands, and barbecue will be featured.

As can be seen from the information in this newsletter, the men of Arkansas Alpha are trying to make ourselves known on the campus of the University of Arkansas and this time next year, we will be right in the thick of things here in Razorback Country.

Ashland Philanthropy and Athletics

The Brothers of Ohio Theta are getting back on track at Ashland College. Our first step in the right direction was the addition of six super pledges for the fall of '80. The men pinned to Ohio Theta after upperclassmen rush were: Tom Cowles, Bay Village; Rob DiDonato, Pittsburgh, PA; Jay Billy, Twinsburg; Tom Spatafora, Huntington, NY; Payam Raouf, Ashland; and Sam Miranda, Pasadena, CA. These soon-to-be-Phi Psis are under the expert leadership of pledge masters Jeff Schumacher, Tom Johnston, and Chris Brickner.

Our social chairman, Benny Bissman has kept us well entertained. Several classic "Bissman Blowouts" have highlighted our autumn semester. Other social successes have included our all-campus Halloween party, bi-weekly "Thursday Night Clubs," and our annual Mystletoe Mystery party.

Phi Psi philanthropy on the hilltop continues to shine. The Brothers held a Halloween Happening for Ashland's Head Start children. We also conducted a canned food drive for Thanksgiving to benefit the needy. And rounding out the semester's activity was our Christmas Party for all the special kids from the Dale-Roy School.

This year's Heartland Conference football champs were led by Brothers Wayne Carroll and Bob Schneider, both four year lettermen. "The Master of Disaster" and "Boom-Boom" spearheaded the leagues most awesome defense from their strong safety and defensive end positions, respectively.

Other Eagle gridders sporting the Phi Psi Pride were: tailback and kick return specialist Jeff Schumacher; fullback Tad Rose (who led the team in yards per carry); and the defensive tackle tandem of Mark Franklin and Doug Murray.

Other Phi Psi fall athletes were soccer stars Dan Sexton and Sam Miranda along with grapplers, Tom Johnston, Danny Sexton, John Heffernan, Scott Hiemstra, and Jay Billy.

Chuck Forthofer is Ohio Theta's Solon E. Summerfield winner this fall. Chuck is completing a four year degree in only three and a half to get a B.S. in marketing and Management. "Hoover" is also our Chapter treasurer and has played number one singles for three years, and was also the captain of the Eagle tennis team.

And finally, The Brothers of Ohio Theta send our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of brother Don Corsetti who passed away recently.

Auburn Successful Rush

Fall quarter began on a good note this year as it brought eight associate members into the Chapter. These fine men include from Alabama John Evans, Russellville; John Farris, Phoenix City; Tony Barber, Pell City; Chip Clark, Phoenix City; and from Florida Robert Makofske, Cocoa Beach; Stan Henderson, Keith Bolen, and Cliff Cheney, from Pensacola. These men have all been active in the Chapter's spirit committee. They built and carried an outstanding float in the Wreck Tech Parade and will be carrying the Phi Mu Sorority's float in the Burn The Bulldogs Parade. The associate members have been very active in the Chapter's intramural sports program also.

We are once again participating in football and volleyball without the aid of practice. However, our attitudes remain positive at the beginning of every game and the Alabama Beta tradition is being preserved; we all have a good time.

Although our sports program has not developed any awesome teams, our scholarship program has continued to be strong. Last winter quarter the Chapter won the scholarship trophy for the highest grade-point average on campus. Spring quarter, we fell to only third place. We hope that this year will bring the Brothers of Al. Beta equally high grades. Individual honors went to Doug Hertha, initiated into Beta Alpha Psi, accounting honorary, and Beta Gamma Sigma, business honorary; Dale Geeslin, initiated into Beta Alpha Psi; Robert Bell, initiated into Omega Chi Epsilon, chemical engineering honorary and Tau Beta Pi, engineering honorary; and Jerry Weed, initiated into Tau Beta Pi. David Gross was elected President of IEEE. Doug Hertha was elected Summerfield Scholar for 1981.

Scholarship has never prevented the members from having a good party though. More notable among parties this quarter was the Halloween party. By the time it ended the inside of the house looked like a garbage dump and the outside was sporting a new decoration of toilet paper presented by the little sisters. Another enjoyable party was Homecoming. Several alumni found time to join us for that party including Mike Jernigan, Sam Webster, Dwight New, John Dozier, Pete Hofmann, Eric Likos, Lee Nash, Barney Burns, and Bryan Oliver. Next quarter, the weekend we hope our alumni will plan to visit is January 23, 24, and 25. We will be celebrating the Chapter's birthday and will also conduct initiation ceremonies.

This quarter we had the pleasure of initiating Dale Keith Geeslin, Steven Allen Willoughby, and Joe William Baughan.

Beloit 100 Years of Growth

This fall term marked the beginning of a new century for Wisconsin Gamma at Beloit. From our start in 1881, to our few years of inactivity in the early '70's, to our subsequent "rebirth" in 1977, we at Wisconsin Gamma are here to uphold one of Beloit's finest traditions. Homecoming on Oct. 11 marked the official kickoff party with the creation of a special 8' tall birthday cake. The show of support from our alumni couldn't have been better; this support will help keep our tradition alive and as strong as ever.

Socially, there is much in the planning stage for our Chapter. Aside from the usual amount of all-campus functions and activities that we sponsor, there is our big project, the Centennial. The proposed schedule of events for our year-long party is as follows:

- 1) Dec. '80—alumni census mailing
- 2) Jan. to July '81—compilation of the Centennial issue of The Drover with our chapter history, an alumni directory, and general news.
- 3) Nov. '81—Banquet at Beloit's Holiday Inn.
- 4) Year long open house for all and any of our Brothers.

Along with our celebrating we also took time out to do some rushing. With the firm guidance of Stuart Ginsberg, our Rush Chairman and Pledge Educator, we formed a group of 16 men waiting to join our ranks, they are: Dirk Damrau, Random Lake, WI; John Stone, Sterling, IL; David Bizzaro, South Bend, IN; Lincoln German, Fairfax, VA; Douglas Weiss, Glastonbury, CT; Stephen Creden, Niles, MI; Joseph Coyne, Flint, MI; Gregg Powell, Palatine, IL; Ajay Menon, Naperville, IL; Holman Pettibone III, Glenbrook, NV; Gary Diamond, Bethesda, MD; Kenneth Matheis, Jr., Drayton Plains, MI; John Szczepanski, Portage, MI; Philip Jones, Worthington, MA; and Courtney Ellis, Arlington, VA. Of note in this pledge class is Holman Pettibone. Even with the pressures of being a 3 time Beta Theta Pi legacy at Beloit, he opted to pledge Phi Psi breaking with a long standing family tradition.

To help spark some interfraternity relations, we held a joint party with the Beta Theta Pi's down the block. With the 50 or so men in attendance an amazing quantity of libations were consumed in a 5 hour stretch. The night was considered a success by Social Chairman Keith Fetzer. Another such party is planned with another Chapter, our relations with the neighbors have never been better.

Scholastically, Phi Psi holds one of the highest G.P.A.'s on campus among the greek houses. Our G.P. Marcus Smith says we owe this honor in great part to our new class of initiates. (A subtle hint for the older members to shape up maybe!)

On the athletic side, we also have a lot on the ball. Bob Symonds and Terry Jones helped boost the cross country team to a 3rd place finish in Conference. Charles Day, Jim Graaskamp, Ron Vlaskamp, Peter Kozelka and Jai Balkissoon aided the soccer team (along with several pledges) to an overall winning season. Tom Sklenar and pledge Holman Pettibone will help the swim team dominate the pools and Pat Esposito along with several pledges will make the hockey team a powerhouse this season.

We appreciate the support shown to us in the past and strive to ever uphold the good name of Phi Kappa Psi here in Wisconsin. With the amount of support our alumni have shown us already we can only anticipate an even brighter future at Beloit.

Bowling Green Awards and more Awards!

As the 80-81 school year begins, the Ohio Zeta Chapter proudly boasts last year's achievements along with this year's accomplishments. In the area of membership we are happy to welcome eight new Brothers along with ten new pledges. Our new Brothers include Scott Ebersole, Perrysburg; Ray Farley, Middleburg Heights; Steve Fuller and Greg Kinder, Bowling Green; John Bonko, Elyria; Steve Dean, Columbus; Bill Costlow, Taiwan; and Bob Gorr, Findlay. Included in this Fall's pledge class is Jim Fritz, Perrysburg; Brian Boucher, Fremont; Steve Dintzer, Akron; Jim Dartt, Perrysburg; Steve Stotz and Matt Shanahan, Fremont; Dave Ribit and Eric Greissler, Marion; Dave Fisher, Perrysburg; and Vassilios Liarakos, Athens, Greece.

On May 2, 1980, our Chapter again sponsored the Miss Bowling Green State University Scholarship Pageant. Just as last year, the pageant was a huge success. For the most part, a five man crew consisting of Mark Davis, Pageant Advisor; Andy Smith, Pageant Producer; Dave Brown, Pageant Director; Jeff Raker, Associate Producer; and Keith Reinke, Associate Director, spent a lot of time making the show bigger and better. Then at the end of the evening, Miss Dawn Meadows, a Phi Mu, was selected as Miss Bowling Green State University and went on to the Miss Ohio Scholarship Pageant held in Mansfield.

In the area of Scholarship the Chapter again did very well placing first among all the fraternities. Several Brothers did great jobs getting 4.0's, and special recognition is due to David Brussee who was awarded Trustee Scholarships for both the 79-80 and 80-81 years. The Trustee Scholarship is a full fee waiver awarded due to outstanding academic achievement. Along with Dave's individual awards, the Chapter itself received many awards. The first award was the "Clayton G. Kohl Fraternity Scholarship Award" given by the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity for highest active grade point average. The second award was "The Dean's Scholarship Award" given by Mr. Wayne Colvin, Fraternity Advisor, for highest accumulative grade point average. The final scholastic award was the "Outstanding Achievement in Scholarship" awarded by the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity for highest grade point average among campus fraternities.

In addition to the scholastic awards the Chapter received three additional awards for efforts made during 79-80. The first award was the "Outstanding Membership Development Program" given by the Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity for a pledge program that is a truly meaningful pre-initiation experience. The second award was "The Ralph R. Haney Award" for excellence in financial management given by the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity. Along with the above mentioned awards, the Chapter also received honorable mention for "Most Improved Chapter" given by the Oxford Alumni Association of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

On a more physical note, the Chapter athletics are also in very good shape with the tennis and football teams making it to the playoffs this year. The tennis team consisting of Scott Sachs and Jeff White went 4-0 for the season. The football team also went undefeated throughout the season, but unfortunately lost the playoff game 21-14. Jeff White again was a major factor throwing 8 touchdown passes to star receivers Mark Seidel and Jeff Swint. Jeff White also organized the I.F.C. all-star football game that both Seidel and Swint participated in. Now that the playoffs are over the Chapter will try to defend the hockey championship won last year.

This year's Homecoming also proved to be a smashing success; the festivities were planned by Keith Reinke who deserves a great deal of credit. To start off, the Phi Psi's and the Chi Omega's put together the winning float. After Bowling Green defeated Kent State in the football game, Brothers and about 40 alumni met at the house for a Greek dinner prepared by Bill Pappas.

Along with homecoming, Parents Day went exceptionally good. This year's event was due to the magnificent efforts of Greg Moyer. After the football game, the house was filled with parents of both Brothers and friends of the Chapter for a potluck dinner. A great time was had by everyone meeting parents and boasting of their mothers' great dishes.

In conclusion a note of congratulations is given to Chris Geib, this years recipient of the "Solon E. Summerfield Award." Congratulations Chris!

Largest Pledge Class Ever

Indiana Zeta is pleased to report the largest pledge class in its history—twenty-one men. They are: Robert Bailey, Plainfield, Ct.; Peter T. Brady, Indianapolis; John L. Brand, New Haven; J. Anthony Bushnell, Evansville; John Harrell, Indianapolis; Casey Hayes, Indianapolis; Stuart Jerris, N.Y., N.Y.; Robert Kelly, Indianapolis; Roger Malcom, Olney, Il.; Paul G. Martin, Elk Grove Vil., Ill.; Darren T. Matthias, Indianapolis; Gary W. McPherson, Indianapolis; Charles Oei, Indianapolis; Kevin O'Shaughnessy, Pekin, Ill.; Jeff Pappas, Cincinnati, Oh.; Bruce A. Phillips, Sunbury, Oh.; Jeff Stoner, Libertyville, Oh.; Brian R. Strautman, Aurora; James Sweeney, Cincinnati, Oh.; Darryl Wells, Bellbrook, Oh.

Phi Psi's had a very busy Fall at Butler, gaining not only a large pledge class, the over-all Homecoming Trophy, a strong I.M. basketball finish, and the first Phi Psi football team in many years, as well.

For the eleventh year in a row the Indiana Zeta chapter had the highest G.P.A. of all male housing units. During this time we have never had a study table or any other form of mandatory study.

As any one who has had contact with our Chapter knows, we have been looking for a permanent home since our founding on this campus. Two Brothers have worked especially hard on this project; Mark Elliot and David Grimshaw. Due to their persistence it looks as though the Chapter will soon have a new home. Butler has approved (tentatively) a loan to the Chapter so that we may begin construction.

California New Home

During the summer of 1979, California Gamma was in what could easily be termed "dire straits." The house we were leasing for the 1979-80 school year was bought by another party, and forty Phi Psis left for summer vacation knowing that there was a chance that we would not be together come fall quarter. Through the heroic efforts of President Keith Chrestionson and alumni Terry Horne and Carl Stoney, we found and secured a great house in the heart of the greek system.

With our new house and a revitalized spirit the Phi Psis of California Gamma were ready to role into fall quarter full force. Things started out with a bang as we initiated seven men the week before classes resumed. The seven new Brothers welcomed into Phi Kappa Psi are: Rich Stanaro, Saratoga; Doug Lusk, Sunnyvale; Mick Hellman, Wayland, Mass.; Eric Mackey, Piedmont; Bob Gerstenberger, and Jim Parsiano, Castro Valley; and Peter Salgado, Haiti. Having just become members, these men played a vital role in our fall rush program, after which we found ourselves with five new pledges. Dave Shevick, Todd Hirsch, Jon Rosso, Jim Orr, and Sean Collins are hard workers who have proved to be very valuable assets to the house.

At this point in time we at California Gamma are anxiously awaiting the Cal-Stanford Big Game luncheon in San Francisco. It is an event everyone enjoys no matter how the football teams are doing. The Brothers especially enjoy this day because it affords us the opportunity to meet and talk with our alumni. With much improved social and other programs, and increased alumni contact, we at California Gamma are eagerly awaiting the months to come.

California, Davis Building for the 1980's

The seventeen remaining Cal Iota Brothers returned from their summer vacations full of energy and eager to establish a successful rush program.

Brothers John Caire and Mark Skreden, who had visited Cal Epsilon during their rush week, came back with new ideas for a strong rush. These ideas, in conjunction with the fine efforts of Rush Chairman Tony Perkins, contributed to attaining the largest pledge class on campus. The rush functions included everything from a 500 person dance to an intimate poolside brunch.

Our ten enthusiastic pledges are: Joshua Charlat, Menlo Park; Jean-Paul Kozicki, Jackson; Mickael Begovich, Penryn; Steven Garrett, La Jolla; Gregory Franco, Santa Barbara; and Charles Greer, Storm Jenkins, San Francisco; Barry Schaeffer, Fremont; Bernard Flandez and Alan Flandez, Vallejo.

John Caire received the Solon E. Summerfield Award for scholarship and leadership. Congratulations to John for his outstanding academic efforts.

The social life has continued since rush with a wine tasting exchange and Phi Psi Lady rush party.

For the future, the Brothers are looking forward to the annual ski trip/retreat in Lake Tahoe where the pledges are initiated.

California, Los Angeles 50 Years at U.C.L.A.

Winter rains will bother none of the Phi Psis at UCLA, for this Founder's Day marks the fiftieth anniversary of the chartering of California Epsilon. In this relatively short span, Cal Ep has initiated almost 1000 Brothers and now more than ever represents a guiding force in many areas of campus life. We look forward to the next fifty years with great enthusiasm.

We started the year off with a retreat to Palm Springs for the Brothers and the spring pledge class at which we prepared for rush, traded stories about the summer, and generally had a great time. The weekend before rush we proudly initiated the 15 gentlemen of our spring pledge class. The new initiates are: Andrew and Raymond Center, Torrance; Robert Chamberlain, Hawthorne; Kevin Clarke, Los Angeles; Michael Di Roma, Los Angeles; Kip Long, Malibu; Paul and Peter Pellizzon, West Covina; Michael Prestridge, Lancaster; Thomas Reinecke, Placerville; Eric Sand, Whittier; Randall Schnack, Honolulu, Hawaii; John Shepherd, Glen Ellyn, Illinois; Christopher Williams, Santa Barbara; and John Woodhead, Riverside.

A hard-working rush week was rewarded with eleven pledges: Eric Bernd, San Diego; Don Bohay, Fountain Valley; George Brenseke, Thousand Oaks; Vincent Cameron, Gardena; Scott Delaplane, Beverly Hills; Joseph Huhn, Coronado; Robert Morse, La Jolla; Laird Perkins, Rolling Hills; Robert Wallan, San Dimas; Kevin Wardrop, Torrance; and John Wasley, Orinda.

The strength of our athletic program has continued despite the graduation of many fine athletes. We have equaled or improved our record in every sport so far this year in our quest to surpass our second place finish in intramurals last year. Homecoming was a time of great fun and hard work, and resulted in a second place finish for our float with Kappa Kappa Gamma, and first runner-up in the banner competition.

To report on a few of our recent graduates, brother Jerry Kurland, former UCLA undergraduate president and last year's national Solon E. Summerfield award winner, is now attending Boalt Hall Law School at U.C. Berkeley. Former GP Bill Iliif and Brother Ray Hoyt are both attending UCLA Dental School. We wish them all well.

Founder's Day this year will include the initiation of this fall's pledge class in honor of Cal Ep's 50th anniversary. Scheduled for the weekend of January 31st, it promises to be an exciting time for Brothers, alumni, and the new initiates as well. All Brothers are warmly invited and welcome to join us in this celebration.

The 29th "National" initiation class of Cal Poly pose for the photographer the morning of their installation.

Cal Poly Active on Campus

Greetings from Cal Poly. Since our last correspondence we initiated our 300th Brother, and installed a pledge class of 14. The secrets of Phi Kappa Psi were made known on June 7, 1980 to the men of Cal Eta's 29th National. These men are: Charles Kenneth Hall II, Byron Quentin Lilly, Mark Damian Braun, James Christopher McCann, Bryan Steven Corcoran, Christopher Eric Seymour, Bruce Thomas Birt and Scott Allan Harris. The installation banquet was blessed by Cal Eta's #1 John Macy.

The 30th National Pledge Class installed as pledges on October 8, 1980, consists of: George Jeffrey Adam, Richard Martin Byrd, Andrew Thomas Gentile, Christopher John Gentile, Daniel Joseph Hayes, John Charles Hess, Jack Raymond Holke, David Roy Lemieux Jr., Charles Robert McCallum, Patrick Martin McNeerney, Paul Eugene Niday, Fredrik Gustof Nicholas Rooth, Mark Franklin Swimmer, and David Louis Weiland.

As usual, the Phi Psis at Cal Poly are quite involved. Cal Poly's Greek Men of the Year, for '79-'80, are Cal Eta's Ken Pedersen and Ed Freitas. Spring also saw the reinstitution of the annual Easter Egg Hunt, and the birth of the run for charity, the Royal Run.

The '80-'81 school year has us active all over campus. The executive board of Cal Poly's annual open house has four Brothers sitting on it. Two Brothers are on the Associated Student Senate. Seven Brothers are involved in Poly's orientation program, including the executive board's treasurer. Finally, four Phi Psis are charter members of a new business club on campus.

GP Devitte Charles has a fine cabinet. The officers are: Jim Tracy, VGP; Lane Curtis P; Douglas Morrissey, AG; Stan Pang BG; Bill Spence, SG; Tom Durant, Hi; Kevin Fox, Hod; Blake Bender, Phu; and Brad Sher, Pledge Educator.

Finally, when watching the new movie, Personal Best, say hello to your Brothers at Cal Poly.

Cal State, Northridge New Beginnings

Even as the learned and aged alumni bespoke the truth, Calvin, the all seeing wonder being, was unable to keep his dark prophecy from occurring. The old lady in Bakersfield died and the humble acreage of Cal Theta was sold and we were forced to vacate our happy home of many years. But being truly Brothers, we had to close out the house with a truly deluxe event, "THE END" party. Invitations were sent to all Phi Psis who ever pledged our Chapter. And so on July 26 the strangest collection of beings, since the Alpha Tau Pledge active, gathered for one last time. We will all truly miss 19106 Devonshire.

Earlier in the spring then pledges Scott Braden, Dave Friedman and Robert Livernois traveled to Arizona Beta to help them celebrate that Chapter's Phi Psi "500." While in Arizona they learned many things about our Fraternity, and enjoyed a dinner and casual conversation with then Fraternity president, Sandy Chamberlain.

In Arizona they learned of the love and respect each Phi Psi holds for another. Pledge Educator Ron Goldberg expressed it; "... we really thank Arizona Beta for showing our pledges a grand Phi Psi Chapter, and much more thanks for showing them the grip." With the summer of course came the GAC, with Brothers from the sunny realm of Cal Theta proudly once again winning the "man-mile award." GP John Soukup called the GAC, "... the best time of his Phi Psi experience" and urged our younger brothers to attend whenever possible.

Just before leaving for the GAC our Chapter settled down in our new Chapter house, just seconds from campus and mere yards from the campus police station. In our new Chapter house we renewed our desire for becoming the number one fraternity on CSUN. So for a pledge to be named later and an undisclosed amount of beer, we received transfer Scott Chambers from the Cal Epsilon Chapter. Scott has already made a deep impression on us and is now famous for his saying, "piece of cake."

Rush went off very well in the fall. Twenty-five men accepted the offer of Brotherhood in our fraternity. A new era began as the Beta Alpha pledge class was installed.

Our crowning event of the fall has been Homecoming. With the Zeta Tau Alpha sorority we won the first place award for our joint effort in the float building. All our efforts currently are being directed toward our Las Vegas Night fund-raising event. This always popular event will be held on Nov. 22 and we are looking forward to a successful night of fun.

Case Western Reserve Progress

The evening of October 23, 1980 saw nine initiates welcomed into active Brotherhood at Ohio Epsilon Chapter. The class of '80 consists of: Howard James Aube, Alpena, Mich; Jaechang Cho, Strongsville; John Theodore Ciolek Jr, Cleveland; Todd Elliot Crumbaker, Saint Clairsville; James Mosser Csonka, Leechburg, Pa; David Joseph Gondek, Brecksville; Klaus-Markus Peters, Sheffield Lake; James Frank Rozsits, Chesterland; and John Fredrick Schindler Jr, Chagrin Falls. Ohio Epsilon is truly gratified to count these men as Brothers and expects much of them in the years ahead.

Ohio Epsilon also expects much of our chapter officers for the fall term, and rightly so: Mike Wahl, GP; Rich Mihran, VGP; Monte Nagy, P; Jerry Drda, AG; Mike Kertes, BG; Jeff Riskin, SG; Bob Antenucci, Hod; Joe Kang, Phu; Barry Fuhrmann, Hi—and our committee chairmen—provide the dynamic leadership needed for success and continual progress.

Contributing to our Chapter from a new position is Sandy Rich, Ohio Epsilon '77, who became House Corporation President early this semester. So far under Sandy's guidance the Chapter has purchased a two-keg cooler. Major improvements to the rec room, living room, and bar are currently in design. We look forward to productive collaboration with Sandy and the House Corporation.

Phi Psis continue to make themselves known on the CWRU campus in a variety of media. Bob Antenucci is serving ably as President of the Junior Class of Case Institute of Technology. Dave Gondek appears on the university radio station (WRUW), as does Mike Wahl, who hosts a weekly jazz program. The foursome of Eric Bright, Todd Crumbaker, Bernie McCafferty, and Monte Nagy won the intramural golf championship, while intramural tennis saw Bob Antenucci place first in both singles and mixed doubles competition. The intramural volleyball team is also undefeated heading into post-season play.

Notable campus occurrences include the establishment of a colony of Alpha Psi Sorority; this increased the number of sororities at CWRU by 50%. Dr. David Ragone, formerly of Michigan State, was inaugurated President of the University November 15. (We had the privilege of his presence at dinner November 10; a most unique honor was President Ragone's tapping of the first beer from our new cooler!)

This semester marked the second anniversary of two popular Ohio Epsilon social events; the Second Annual Wine and Cheese Party featured live jazz and provided a relaxed atmosphere for rush. The Second Annual Wales Tales Competition assembled alumni and undergraduates for an evening of artful articulation. Our first Casino Night was held to benefit the Leukemia Society.

Bernie McCafferty, Marc Pinotti, and Solon E. Summerfield Scholar Andy Steurer attended the '80 GAC and reported (with a "Hi! Hi! Hi!") to the Brothers at Ohio Alpha that they had "a hell of a time."

McCafferty and company gained from the GAC and shared with us an appreciation of Brotherhood beyond the confines of a single Chapter.

Ohio Epsilon's Founders' Day Dinner will be held Saturday, February 21, in the midst of our 75th Anniversary Celebration. "The more the merrier" will never be truer; Brothers, please do not hesitate to contact the Chapter if you'd like to help us celebrate!

Jerry Drda, Correspondent

Colgate Active Brotherhood

This new semester involves a great amount of enthusiasm and participation in the activities of the New York Epsilon Chapter. Last spring, we initiated seventeen pledges under the guidance of pledgmaster Tom Beecher '80. These new brothers, who come from such faraway countries as Canada and Brazil, are diligently maintaining the excellence of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

The Brothers are involved in a great amount of activities involving all facets of university life. Sports are well represented with Brothers on the Varsity soccer, basketball, wrestling, and baseball teams. Notable positions on campus include photography editor for the Colgate News, accountant for the Colgate Travel Agency, and assistant manager for the Colgate Orchestra. Other activities are well represented with Brothers involved with the Debate Club, the Jazz Band, the Harlequin, the Record Co-op, and the Student Pub. These campus activities show that the energy and spirit of our Brotherhood extends beyond the Fraternity.

These numerous activities do not detract from our education as New York Epsilon continues to maintain academic excellence. Joe Berlinger, '83, Tom Iosso, '82 and Bob Dedio, '81 all maintain GPA's over 3.7. Of special mention is Brother Dedio, who was the recipient of the award given to the pre-medical concentrator with the best overall academic record.

Our Fall officers are using their experience and enthusiasm to lead the Chapter. Bill Gunner, '81, is using his extensive knowledge from past positions as Treasurer and Corresponding Secretary to further the goals of New York Epsilon. Don Walker, '82, our summer President, is doing an excellent job as Treasurer. Ken Torres, '82 doubles as Recording Secretary and IFC Representative while Bob Navarino, '83, Vice-President, and Jon Shames, '83, Corresponding Secretary, compensate for their lack of experience with their fervent participation. Our house is well guarded as our new Phu is 6'10" Chuck Garey, who doubles as the starting Varsity center on the basketball team.

Our homecoming was a big success with many alumni coming to our party or just dropping in to say hello. Most of them were impressed with our new renovations. Under the careful supervision of House Manager Joe Berlinger, '83, the whole house was re-decorated and painted. At present, plans are underway for a Christmas party for underprivileged children and our first annual "Five Days of Phi Psi" to be held in January.

Colorado

Greetings from Boulder. Probably the biggest news here at Colorado Alpha is our pledge class. Eleven new men will be joining the ranks this December: Kevin Krause, Alex Sommers, Ken Dulin, Mark Evans, Mike Hudecheck, John Gillespie, Robert Lefond, Steve Morris, Dave Iseri, Marshall Mayer, & Jordan Cavanaugh.

Besides working on the pledge class, we have also started a new alumni program for better relations. So far the response has been pretty good, but we still need greater support. We encourage all alumni NOT TO FORGET FOUNDERS DAY ON FEB. 19. Dinner and drinks are planned, and everybody is invited to attend!!!

In other news:

—Mr. Sperz hopes that rocks are found on Titan.

—Rasta Van sends rats Grant & Henney thru a mystery maze.

—Mazi declares war on Iraq.

—Mel makes an investment: "I think she needs more oil."

—Dr. Dover loses a tomato.

—SALT talks to consider fish emulsion next session.

—A CLUE IS FOUND!!!

Well that's about all for now

Have you taken a good look at your life insurance lately?

You might do a double take. If you bought your life insurance some time ago—even last year—it's no longer worth what it appears at first glance.

It's because of this persistent pest called inflation. You know how much it gnaws away at your food budget, your housing expenses, and your transportation costs. But, did you know how it eats up your life insurance policy benefits? Going by the Consumer Price Index, a $30,000 policy purchased in 1970 is not even worth half that today.

Now, take a good look at the group term life insurance plan sponsored by Phi Kappa Psi. It offers supplemental coverage (in $10,000 amounts, up to $100,000) to eligible fraternity brothers under age 60. By building up your protection in sensible, inexpensive amounts ($10,000 coverage costs under $25 a year for a brother age 34, for example), you can meet inflation eye to eye. And win.

So take a good look at your life insurance protection. Then look to us to protect you.

Cornell Looking good!

The Fall semester has been a busy one for New York Alpha as the Brothers set about their various athletic and academic pursuits (not usually in that order) and tackle the task of how best to spend the money raised during last Spring's successful fund drive.

Through the concerted efforts of the current brotherhood and the generous contributions of numerous Alumni, a total of about $20,000 dollars was raised. In a close vote, the Brothers decided against having a giant celebration road-trip to Bermuda, opting instead for various much-needed house improvements including new dining and living room furniture, new carpeting and extensive roof repairs. These improvements, along with several other house improvement projects planned for the near future, should make living through an Ithaca winter a more comfortable proposition for many years to come, as well as improving the appearance of the house substantially.

Phi Psi athletes continue to play a central role in Cornell athletics, both on varsity and intramural levels. On the varsity side of things, Phi Psi boasts two managers, (Mark Goldberg, Basketball and Ken "Fudge" Sargent, Football) and a Captain, (Mike Grogan, Track). Alex Hodge, who graduated last year, is now coaching the Water Polo team. A host of other Brothers are also competing in the following sports: Football, Swimming, Crew, Lightweight Crew, Cross-Country, Hockey, Fencing and Sailing.

Phi Psi's intramural competition has gotten off to an excellent start under the guidance of Intramural Chairman Hank Camuso. So far this year, Phi Psi has won two University championships, the first in Cross-Country and the second in Golf, and is in second place in the "All Sports Trophy" race at the midpoint of the semester. This is particularly impressive in view of the fact that there are 48 other houses vying for the title, but Phi Psi isn't pausing to rest on its laurels as we continue to work hard preparing for the upcoming hockey and basketball seasons.

The Chapter's rush activities are proceeding smoothly under the expert guidance of Rush Chairman Doug Kirk, and the Brothers have been kept well entertained by the Chapter's two active Social Chairmen, Mike Feit and Tom Porta, who have come up with an astonishing variety of parties, date nights and other social activities. In addition to these planned events, there have been more than the usual number of spontaneous visits to/visitors from other Chapters around the country including New York Epsilon, Pennsylvania Lambda, Tennessee Delta, and Indiana Beta.

While the Brothers aren't busy studying, playing sports, rushing, or taking road trips, some of them find time to do other things . . . such as becoming members of honorary societies. Our congratulations to Mike Grogan and GP Ron Rejda, New York Alpha's latest additions to Cornell's Sphinx Head Society.

In closing, we would like to extend our best wishes to our Brothers nationwide, and remind them that all donations for our Bermuda road trip are gladly accepted and should be sent to

Duncan Scott, Correspondent

Creighton Continued Strength

This fall's rush netted a successful return for Nebraska Beta as we pledged three fine men. They are Peter Zarse of Kansas City, MO; Mark Genovesi of Brooklyn, NY and John Cancroft of Northport, NY. If all goes well, the mysteries of the fraternity will be revealed to them on, or near, November 21, 1980.

Our GAC delegates returned from Indiana with some good news for the Chapter. For the second year in a row Nebraska Beta leads the fraternity in undergraduate membership. At the rate we're growing, our charter members will live to see us hit the 1000 mark!

Another distinction has been bestowed upon us as a result of the GAC; a distinction matched only by the brothers of Kansas Alpha. We presently have two Brothers on the Executive Council, the most recent addition being Rev. John P. Schlegel, S.J., who accepted a position as Chaplain to the Fraternity. He joins Attorney General Paul LaPuzza and former District V Archon Rich Nelson as the third Brother from this chapter to serve on the council.

On the local front, the officers for this semester are Jim Simpson, GP; Steve Paul, VGP; Tim Byrne, AG; Kevin Fitzmaurice, BG; Joe Coleman, P; T. Kelly Ryan, SG; Jim Urban, HOD; Pat Cahill, PHU; and Pete Turek, HI. Our Rush chairman for next semester is John Donlevy. If you know of anyone you would like to recommend for membership please be sure to contact us by writing to the lodge.

Unfortunately, all has not been going as good as it may sound. Earlier in this semester, we lost one of our brothers to cancer. Brother Dave Bomkamp will be missed by all whose life he touched. More than half the Chapter traveled to Cedar Rapids for the funeral. A memorial service was celebrated on campus by our advisors, Rev. Neil Cahill, S.J. and Rev. Dick Hauser, S.J., and the president of the university Rev. Matthew E. Creighton, S.J. It was truly a magnificent service with representatives from all of the greek organizations on campus in attendance.

Scholastically, Nebraska Beta is still high above the 3.0 mark as a Chapter and continues to have Brothers involved in academic concerns. Brothers Paul Miller and John Baccala have recently been installed as charter members of Alpha Beta Chi, the newly formed Association of Business Communicators. There are also seven Brothers who serve as resident advisors in the dormitories and a number of Brothers who are representatives to the Student Board of Governors, the Arts Senate and the various legislative bodies in the dormitory system.

Hopefully, next semester will be as prosperous as this one has been!

DePauw Social Fall

Fall has come again to Phi Psi at DePauw

University. The Brothers would like to recognize and welcome thirteen new Pledges: Rob Britigan, Andy Burns, Tom Gibson, Paul Geyer, Jack Letts, Pat Moody, Tom Noonan, Dave Reidy, Joe Rohs, Kurt Voigt, Mike Wallace, Steve Walters, and Jeff Westhoven. The Pledges are under the guidance of Greg Gibson and Brad Fuson—the two Junior Pledge Trainers.

Old Gold Day, Dads Day, and Monon Bell weekend were all successful events this Fall. The Brothers of Phi Psi are eagerly awaiting the initiation of the new Pledge class, Little "500," and an active social calendar in the Spring of 1981.

Dickinson Back-Aching Effort

The Brothers of Pennsylvania Zeta would like to offer a bona fide greeting to all of their fellow Phi Psis. Despite a shortened rush period mandated by the faculty and a decreasing number of incoming freshmen males, we are still enjoying a successful rush program this fall. Our rug hockey game, a traditional rush function here, was again a major bone-breaking, back-aching, and face-scraping success. A good time was had by all freshmen as well as the Brothers who are still recovering from bruised bodies. Rush Chairman Steve Lowry continues to work hard as several bids have been given and we can expect another impressive pledge class. We are not going to let a curtailed rush period and a shortage of freshmen affect the future of our Chapter!

In an effort to see more of our alumni return on homecoming weekend, the 25th of October, we have decided to have our fourth annual symposium the same weekend. We all look forward to seeing our returning alumni.

Last spring, we initiated 18 new brothers. Of these 18, three took after their older brothers in joining Phi Psi. The new initiated are: Gregory M. Alman, Harrisburg, PA; Charles D. Atkinson, State College, PA; Hugh H. Braithwaite, Bala Cynwyd, PA; Peter L. Clarke, New Brunswick, NJ; D. Edward Cangialosi, Emerson, NJ; Christian S. Daghir, Downingtown, PA; Eric M. Dull, Bogota, Colombia; David J. Ellis, Bethesda, MD; David K. Garrett, Wayne, PA; David L. Harnish, Mechanicsburg, PA; Robert C. Hudson, Hershey, PA; David A. Krueger, Hewlett Harbor, NY; Jeffrey S. Linsen, West Chester, PA; James E. Pennington, Jr., New Providence, PA; Kenneth D. Rigby, Mechanicsburg, PA; Douglas L. Soder, Camp Hill, PA; Robert M. Stern, Vineland, NJ; and Glenn W. Zeiders, III, West Chester, PA. These men are sure to retain the reputation of Phi Kappa Psi that Dickinson College expects.

The officers who were elected to govern the house this year are: Bob Harrop, GP; John Newcomer, VGP; Scott Silverwood, AG; Rich Biletta, P; Jay Grossman, BG; Rob Hudson, SG; A.C. Pecker, HOD; Bob Stern, PHU; and Andy Klinghoffer, HI. Of equal importance are Bill Schoener and Chip Woerner who are the social chairmen and Duane Takahashi, House Manager. Congratulations to all of you!

Our increased effort in working with the community of Carlisle and contributions to charity have been recognized by the administration of Dickinson College. Our second Tennessee Farm Night complete with a live bluegrass band and live farm animals was one foot stompin' good time, and we managed to collect a commendable contribution that night which was donated to the United Way. Earlier that same day, many of the Brothers voluntarily spent the afternoon assisting in a bike-a-thon held in Carlisle to benefit the Children's Cancer Fund of the St. Jude's Children's Hospital. Rick Leonard, Bob Harrop, and Hugh Coxe rode in the bike-a-thon.

With deep sorrow, I must inform you of the sudden death of Brother Harry W. Gill, III, '73, that occurred on the 10th of July, 1980. Many of the alumni remember Harry as an energetic and amiable friend.

Please feel free to stop in and pay us a visit during the academic year. Penn Zeta wishes all Chapters and Colonies every success for a shipshape year.

Duke Good Fun With Friends

The Brothers of North Carolina Alpha have enjoyed a highly successful fall term. Thus far, we've escaped the scrutiny of Chancellor Pye's retrenchment committee and continued at our normal frenzied pace.

Although somewhat hampered by unseasonable weather, our annual Celebrity Auction was once again a resounding success. Under the direction of Peter Groth and Lenny Lewis, the Auction raised over $2000 to benefit children's cancer research at Duke.

With twenty-seven new Brothers carrying on rush for the first time, the semester-long rush period has posed a dual challenge: getting to know the rushees, and acclimating the new Brothers to the system. The transition has been accomplished with little drama. Our rush schedule has again been highlighted by a series of innovative theme parties, including an Insane Asylum party and yet another edition of the infamous Red Light District affair.

Homecoming 1980, held in conjunction with Lambda Lambda Lambda week, produced the largest turnout of alumni in recent years. The Banquet featured a speech by assistant basketball coach Bobby Dwyer, who revived our sagging hopes for the Blue Devils. John McCall announced his intention to abandon the sybaritic life of the legal profession and enter a monastery. In other alumni news, Ed Posnak has opened an exterminator service near Three Mile Island, Pennsylvania.

The officers serving in the fall semester are: Tim Simpson, GP; Wayne McNeilly, VGP; Steve Parman, AG; Steve Meyers, BG; Kurt Uphoff, P; John Tyson, SG; Dave Mahanes, Hod; Paul Pickard, Hi; and Robert Satloff, Phu.

The leadership of Tim Simpson has been exceptionally inspiring; even the local gendarmes have warmed to his considerable charms.

It is with high hopes indeed that we look forward to the fun (and occasional torture) of the spring semester in Durham.

Steve Parman, Correspondent

Eastern New Mexico Optimistic

New Mexico Alpha began this fall semester with the pledging of two very fine young men from California. Samuel Alpha Wheeler III of Eureka, and Douglas Jay Swanson of Los Angeles have made us proud of them as pledges with their enthusiasm and spirit, and we are looking forward to their initiation at the end of the semester.

Our fantastic brothers from Texas Beta in Lubbock made their semesterly road trip to our chapter to visit with us and to help in rush. With the increase in numbers and the all-out Fraternalistic spirit they provided, along with the attendance and help of the Zetas, Chi-Os, and ADPis we were able to line up ten prospective pledges. We hope to have a majority of these men pledge for the spring semester.

The night of October 31 was our annual Halloween Party, attended by a variety of grand and terrible living and dead creatures. Other upcoming annual events we are planning include Preferential, in honor of our pledges, and the combination end-of-finals, going home, and Christmas celebration. In the spring we will be celebrating Founders Day with dinner and dancing, and we would like to take this opportunity to invite all of our alumni to join us if at all possible.

Officers elected for this semester are as follows: GP, Ray Burgess; VGP, Daniel McDonald; P, Ron Darling; AG, Gary Oty; BG, Mickey Porter; SG, Andy Hoffman; Hod, Al Hill; Phu, Al Hill; Hi, Daniel McDonald.

In closing, all of the Brothers here at New Mexico Alpha wish to express their deep appreciation and gratitude to our alumni for working to help us through our time of need. In particular, we wish to thank Robert Keller, U.C.L.A. '45, Dr. Jack Secor, Eastern Mexico '69, and Al Hill, Eastern New Mexico, '72, for their work and determination which easily goes beyond the call of duty for alumni.

Florida Proud of Growth

Florida Beta is proud to announce the initiation of four outstanding men into the Phi Psi Brotherhood: Bruce Field, Jerry Fredette, Andy Houtz, and Bob Thomas. These new Brothers have been an inspiration to the whole Chapter by the spirit they've shown in working on Fraternity projects.

The Brothers of Florida Beta began the fall quarter in fantastic style with eight dedicated pledges: Dave Branch, Scott Clinton, Wes Dunn, Ed Field, Tom Harris, Scott Morgan, Joe Nordmann, and Bill Rubin.

We had quite a successful Homecoming this year with the return of many alumni. They were very pleased at the continuous progress Florida Beta has made over the last few years.

Several activities are still planned for the remainder of this fall quarter. The Brothers and pledges are looking forward to an upcoming social with the Alpha Xi Delta sorority, along with two more service projects and an end of the year Christmas celebration.

The Brothers are very proud of the growth Florida Beta has experienced since its return to the University of Florida campus in 1975. We look forward to 1981 as our most successful year yet.

James L. Matthews, Correspondent

Franklin and Marshall Renewed Alumni Support

This fall Pennsylvania Eta has been very busy. We've had a number of very successful parties and programs. Our party themes, such as "Heaven or Hell," or "The October Revolution," were very popular on campus, as was the band "No Dues" which we featured at our Freshman Mixer. Brother Lew Bryson played Saxophone in the band.

Six new Brothers were initiated early this semester from our spring pledge class. They are Paul Cunningham, Scott Fasnacht, John Franzese, Nick Hopkins, and Larry Tighe. They bring our brotherhood to 23.

Our officers for this term are: Alan Sutter, GP; Dave Nalle, VGP & AG; Skip Soulier, P; David Abernethy, BG; Scott Russell, Hi; Tom Curtin, Hod; Rich Gessner, Phu; Jim McMahon, SG; and Lew Bryson, Rush Chairman. The Brothers are very active in campus activities. We count among us officers in almost every major organization and the presidents of four.

Last week we accepted four new pledges for the fall. They are Scott Christern, Jeff Dunham, Bill Farrand, and Bob Gryce. As usual we are looking forward to a strong Spring rush yielding a large pledge class.

Rick Gessner and John Brown have done a marvelous job of reinvigorating our alumni. This has been connected to our project of looking into getting a new house, under the direction of Eric Noll. Their efforts peaked in a large homecoming celebration and the beginning of a new alumni corporation. They are planning another get-together for alumni this spring.

Alan Sutter and Keving Sullivan, who attended the GAC this summer, have been helping update our Ritual procedures. They have also brought in some new ideas on rush and chapter organization. They ran a very successful workshop on rushing techniques for the Brotherhood with the help of our Rush Chairman Lew Bryson.

We are through mid-terms here at F&M and approaching our exams. We are all working hard on strengthening our Chapter, and hope that alumni Brothers will keep in touch this year.

Dave Nalle, Correspondent

Georgia Progress with Quality

The days here at Georgia Alpha are filled with enthusiasm and promise as we welcome 5 first-class new pledges. They are: Will Bosbyshell, Clearwater, Fla; David Gilbertson, and Chap Drayton, Atlanta; Chris Van Sickle, Chicago; and Phillip Milam, Sandy Springs, S.C. These men are already involved in Chapter activities and have already shown themselves to be an asset to Georgia Alpha. Our new pledges are under the care of Fraternity Educator chairman Phil Curran.

We are looking forward with great anticipation to our fifth anniversary banquet which will be held on November 21 at the Sheraton Inn here in Athens. The featured speaker will be our national president, John Donnell, Jr. A post-banquet party will take place at the House afterwards. The banquet will definitely be one of the main highlights of Fall Quarter.

Elections are just around the corner here and all of the Brothers are taking a great deal of interest in this year's nominees. The Chapter has done well and flourished under the current leadership of G.P. Jeff Smith. Jeff will be graduating at the end of the quarter, as will our B.G., Lanny Langley.

Brother Merritt Sink has announced his plans for marriage to Miss Anne Tyler, a sister of Alpha Chi Omega sorority and a three-time member of the UGA homecoming court. The couple plan to marry in early December.

Homecoming 1980 was a smashing success for the Phi Psis as we finished in the top five for the 2nd year in a row.

Presently, the Housing Corporation is making plans to do several thousand dollars in repairs to the Chapter house. These repairs should further enhance our rush program.

Best wishes to all the Chapters and Colonies from Georgia Alpha and everyone is invited to stop by at any time. One final note from Bulldog country: How Bout Them Dawgs?!

Scott Peacocke, Correspondent

Gettysburg Excellence in Chapter Management

Pennsylvania Epsilon has been very honored and lucky to be the recipient of awards, both nationally and locally. We received (with some astonishment) the Ralph D. Daniel Award for Excellence in Management at the GAC this past August. The Chapter is proud of this award and hopes to live up to its expectations. We also received the 1980 GAC Award for Outstanding Achievement for our House Corporation, due only to our tremendous alumni support. Locally, last semester the chapter was recognized at the IFC banquet for having the highest GPA on campus, and the most improved. At this point in time we find ourselves in first place for the All Sports trophy, and also for the Major Sports award, with only bowling, and basketball left to play. We also won the Delta Gamma "Anchor Splash" this year. This is a contest composed of different swimming events (humorous and serious) with fraternities competing against one another. The money raised by the event goes to the Pennsylvania Association for the Blind.

Elections were held this past semester for alumni corporation president and treasurer. Steven Shrader '75 and Richard Edwards '75 were elected president and treasurer respectively. They replace Jack Ziegler '49 and Ramsey Jones '34. Both of these alumni

Brothers served the Chapter for many years and our brotherhood will always be grateful for their work. The brotherhood would like to note the passing on of alumni brothers, Edward Adler '18, Charles Rebeck '24, and Victor Emmanuel '15. Their lives have been, and always will be an inspiration to each of us. As a sign of our gratitude to alumni Brother Donald Weiser '21, the brotherhood commemorated him by naming our house Weiser Hall, and dedicated a plaque in his honor which is displayed on the front of the house. Brother Weiser was also honored nationally as runner up Alumnus of the Year.

Illinois A Great Fall Semester

Phi Psis at Illinois Delta are riding high on 'the wave' of success. Fall is always a busy semester at Illinois and especially at Phi Psi, but somehow we've been able to excel socially, academically, athletically, and as a brotherhood.

It all started New Student Week with the initiation of ten great Brothers; Joe Hudgins, Murphysboro; Paul Kilgallon, Chicago; Mike Regli, Crete; Randy Harmer, Chicago; Dale Todd, Morton Grove; Henry French, Elmhurst; Kevin Bontemps, Morton; David Pasquinelli, Flossmoor; Jim Downes, Champaign; and Joe Green, Morton. Under the guidance of pledge trainer Tim Walters, these Brothers learned what it means to be a Phi Psi, and they have proved it, so far, with their energy and hard work in the Chapter.

Socially things have been more phenomenal than usual. The island paradise in Champaign during Labor Day weekend, known as the Give Me Samoa Party, was as usual, the envy of campus and a great time. Social Chairman Tom Connolly has kept us keg-natized with exchanges. Tri-Delts, Delta Gammas, Kappa Alpha Thetas, and Alpha Chi Omegas have kept us entertained this semester. John Munger, External Vice President, made this fall's Phi Psi '500' a menagerie of fun for the 23 sororities who entered.

A good, strong fall formal rush and informal rush program have left us with an amazing class of 20. David Baecklandt, Chicago; Ted Breckenfelder, Elmhurst; Tom Broeren, Champaign; Andy Corcoran, Hinsdale; Dean Dalesandro, Addison; Bill Hamrick, Champaign; Mike Hanratty, Champaign; Bob Kane, Palantine; Jeff Keck, O'Fallon; Dan Kelley, Glenview; Jeff Kenyon, Villa Park; Brian Kernan and Mark Picchiotti, Park Ridge; Jack O'Donnell, Glenview; Paul Raymond, Barrington; Joe Ruggiero, Evergreen Park; Pete Satrun, Fairmont; Bill Schuler, Olympia Fields; Larry Smith, Quincy; and Brian Wexler, Skokie. This is a great pledge class and our expectations for them as brothers is equally as great.

Half way through the semester the chapter roll was moved up to 1292. On October 16th we proudly initiated John Chiodo, Chicago and Kerry Crain, Chicago Heights. We're proud to have these two in the brotherhood.

Homecoming 1980 will be remembered by all the brothers of Illinois Delta as a rekindling and building of friendships, as a time for awards and honors, and a good 'old fashioned'/'new wave' fun time. Alumni Jim Acheson and Harlan Burgess staged the Class of '55's twenty-fifth reunion. The undergraduate Brothers were most impressed with this super class, and we all had a great time. The weekend was highlighted by the combined alumni and honors banquet. The purpose was to show-off the alumni to the undergrads and visa-versa. For the record, it was a tie.

Awarded were Warren Raybould ('68), Alumnus of the Year; Mike Jacobs, Solon E. Summerfield Award recipient; and Steve Nieslawski, honored with the Stephen Acheson Memorial Award. This new award is given to the Brother who best exemplifies the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi, in his every day life, and incorporates this with involvement and scholarship. Awards were also given for the chapter scholastic achievers.

The Brothers have also been a powerhouse to be dealt with in intramurals. We captured a 2nd place finish in the prestigious Dooley's tournament. We compiled a 5-0 season record in Fraternity Blue division football. In softball we obtained a 5th place finish in the Alpha Epsilon Pi tournament, out of 16 teams competing. In water polo and wrestling we are currently in the playoffs. And next semester promises to be even better.

The Chapter is currently very strong and seems to be getting better all the time, so come by and see us.

Indiana

"Hi-Bazoo" to Return

On Sept. 20, Indiana Beta had the pleasure of initiating its nineteen hundred and sixty fifth Brother—these new Brothers include: Russ Jackson, Jeff Echelberger, Guthrie Carr, Mark Albertson, Brian Hicks, John Tuerff, Steve Smith, Bob Koch, Jack Hayes, Jeff Hemmeger, and Mark Siebert. Mark has been preceded by his father and three brothers, making him the fifth Indiana Betan in his family.

There has been and will be many changes this year; Kent Owen has been elected chapter advisor for the school year. The House Corporation has a new president, Kent Agness; the entire outside of the house will be resided and painted this year. Many more items will be included in the new issue of the "Hi-Bazoo" that should be printed in January.

On Nov. 30 the Chapter will host its first annual Career Day. Leaders in business and other professionals will be speaking and advising the Brothers in their various fields. As mentioned earlier more specific information will be reported in the upcoming "Hi-Bazoo."

Indiana, Pennsylvania

Ever Striving

The Fall Semester here in Indiana, Pa. has been a very good for Penn. Nu. With the help of our Alumni the semester began with the addition of a much needed new roof, saffit and fascia for our Chapter house.

Our good fortune continued with the Homecoming celebration. Among the day's activities were the parade in which we along with the Alpha Sigma Tau Sorority won third place, the election of Brother Donald Thomas as IUP's first homecoming King, and most importantly, the winning of the Deans Cup by our Chapter for the unprecedented third consecutive year on our Campus. The Dean's Cup is awarded to the Fraternity which in the last academic year has best displayed excellence in scholarship, campus activities and community service. With eleven fraternities submitting applications we excelled with service projects such as a Dancethon, collections for local charities, and our annual Phi Psi "500," the third highest grade point average, and the awards we received at the GAC in Indianapolis.

The semester continued with the addition of fifteen initiates under the direction of Pledge Trainer, Dan Mack. They are Michael Bova, Erie; John E. Boy, Ellwood City; Rodney Bullman, Franklin; James Candelmo, Allentown; William Garvin, East McKeesport; Robert Kasperski, Cabot; George Kostik, Pittsburgh; Jeff Regula, Latrobe; Edward Rombach Jr., Saltsburg; Randy Pollick, Clearfield; Gary Pugliano, Pittsburgh; Scott Schricker, E. Allegheny; Daniel Stroup, Erie; Jeff Thomas, Reeders; and Jeff Wallitisch, Allentown. The addition of these fine men has added greatly to an already good semester.

We at Penn Nu are looking forward to next semester with new officers Dan Mack, GP; Wally Patterson, VGP; Mark Trageser, BG; Tim Perkey, Hi; Don Thomas, Phu; Bob Marchesani, Hod; and Ernie Soter, Asst. P. Under the leadership of these officers we are sure this coming semester will be better than the last.

Iowa

#1 in Scholarship

Iowa Alpha started off its 95th year at the University of Iowa with the pledging of fifteen men. This fall's pledge class includes: Randy Ross, Sioux City; Bryan Harlan, Green Bay, Wis.; John Falb, West Union; Kurt Osmundson, Rock Island, Ill.; Bart Halverson, Grinnell; Troy Blodgett, Mason City; Steve Olson, Tom Foley, and Dick Keough, Iowa City; Mike Soener, Des Moines; Paul Hibbs and Mark Melbostad, West Des Moines; Gary Johnson, Waterloo; and Steve Fleagle, DeWitt. Rush chairmen Ross Dickinson and Elliot Smith had a very successful fall and should be commended for their effort.

Our fall began with the election of chapter officers in early September. This fall semester we will be under the leadership of Michael Richards, GP; Michael Doan, VGP; Jeffrey Niemann, P; Daniel P. Bartlett, AG; David Lind, BG; and Gregory Kline, SG.

Summer remodeling has made a significant improvement in the basement of our chapter house. Andrew Hansen, Greg Harscher, and Scott Giles spent a good deal of time this past summer paneling and carpeting our T.V. room. In addition, they installed a new ceiling and built an attractive bar to serve the remodeled room. Their hard work was greatly appreciated and they were lauded for their fine efforts.

Our social calendar has thus far been one of the best ever and much thanks goes to Social Chairmen Steve Flood and Steve Jordan, both of whom have worked hard in setting up all our parties. Hopefully they will continue to plan many great parties for us into the new semester.

The Interfraternity Council recognized a significant accomplishment of our Chapter this fall by awarding us with a plaque for having the highest grade point average among all the fraternities on campus. We received this award for the 1979-80 school year and in doing so, ended a five year domination by the Sigma Pi's. We will be striving very hard to retain this honor and are confident that our efforts will be rewarded.

The Chapter is also very proud to see six recent graduates enrolled in professional schools at the University of Iowa. These include James Bartlett and Timothy Kenney, Medical School; Brent Erwood and Charles Jensen, Law School; and Larry Long and Bob Smith, Dental School. Their success is highly regarded and serves as a fine example for all our Chapter.

On the intramural scene, Phi Psi is once again on top. Our intramural participation has improved tremendously over last year and the resulting enthusiasm has pushed us into the lead in fraternity standings. Much of this success can be attributed to our ever dominant swim team which again won the fraternity championship. Also, Dave Eckland and Steve Flood placed 1-2 in fraternity racquetball competition while the flag football team made it to the final four, only to be eliminated by the eventual champions.

Significant contributions to varsity athletic teams are being made by two of our undergraduate members. Mark Radosevich is a pitcher on the baseball team, and Dave Cobb participates in the long jump for the track team.

Brad Stutesman is in the process of organizing an Alumni Newsletter which will be mailed out in February. Any information you wish to include is welcomed and greatly appreciated.

We at Iowa Alpha are looking forward to a very fine year and extend our best wishes to all Phi Psi Chapters across the nation.

Daniel P. Bartlett, Correspondent

Iowa State

Onward and Upward

Once again Iowa Beta, situated in the sprawling metropolis of Ames, Iowa, endures another school year. During Work Week '80, two worthy men, Mark Wilson of Forest City and Scott Wiggins of Ames, were initiated into Phi Kappa Psi. Following work week, fall rush, under the direction of Rush Chairman Randy Maakestad, provided us with 20 pledges: Brad Benson, Omaha; Kevin Bussard, Des Moines; Bob DeGowin, Iowa City; Steve Frank, Dubuque; Rob Hermsmeier, Freeport, Ill.; Marty Hoffer, Iowa City; Dave Ingwersen, DeWitt; Wade Johnson, West Des Moines; Mike Kelley, Urbandale; Rick Larsen, Cedar Rapids; John Lesh, Arlington Heights, Ill.; Miles Moore, Omaha; Tyler Nagle, Iowa City; Ron Pelton, Clarendon Hills, Ill.; Kim Peters, Omaha; Steve Rogers, Clarendon Hills, Ill.; Mark Scherer, Rock Island, Ill.; Jeff Smart, Des Moines; Doug Stearns, Cedar Rapids; Kevin Thornton, Bartonville, Ill.

Iowa Beta's officers for 1980 are; GP, Mark Kilmer; VGP, Dave Reed; BG, Doug Hull; P, Tom Fischer; AG, Craig Marr; Hod, Tom Nedved; Phu, Mark Hahn; and HI, Scott Reichert.

Phi Psi is becoming a dominant name on the ISU campus. Several individuals hold campus positions, the most important of them are held by these three brothers; Mark Kilmer is the President of the Fraternity Buyers Association as well as Greek Week Advisor for 1981; Mike Gilhooly is an Interfraternity Council (IFC) Court Justice and the Traffic and Transportation Director for the Government of the Student Body. Bob Mohr is the vice-president of IFC and the Business Manager for the Iowa Engineer, an Iowa State publication.

Two large projects were completed at the house this last year. In the Spring of last year, our swimming pool underwent a major overhaul which included a new concrete bottom. Unfortunately, the pool was not ready for the unseasonably hot Spring. The other project that took place this summer was the expansion of the dining room. The wall to the chapter room was partially knocked out and the room was redone. This could not of been possible without the help of Lon Friesth, Our "Alumnus of the Year" recipient.

John W. Bennett, Correspondent

Johns Hopkins Progress

With the graduation of 21 Brothers and the initiation of 12 last May, Maryland Alpha's roll dropped to 42. Our loss in quantity is easily balanced by the quality of our new Brothers, though. We are proud to welcome to our ranks, if somewhat belatedly: Lee Beckwith, Sioux City, Iowa; Peter Berman, Media, Pa.; Dale Fike and Rich Gibbs, Riverside, Calif.; Amir Halevy, Houston, Texas; C. Darryl Jones, Portsmouth, Va.; Mark Lahner, Madison, Conn.; Daniel Lee, Bloomfield, N.J.; Stephan Pavlos, Timonium, Md.; Ashvin Ragoowansi, Beaver, Pa.; Joel Weber, Lawrenceville, N.J.; and Conrad Wong, Rockville, Md.

While on the subject of belated news, it is worth mentioning our five Phi Beta Kappas of last year, who have all gone on to either medical or graduate studies: Charlie Abrams '77, John Culleton '78, Mike Dale '78, Barry Michelson '77, and Larry Rothenberg '77. In addition, we are proud to announce our new officers: Brian Powers, GP; Danny Schwartz, VGP; Kevin Murphy, P; Ernie Breitingner, AG; Brian Hall, BG; Phil Newell, SG; Jeff Heidelberg, Hod; Mark Lahner, Phu; and Joel Weber, Hi.

In terms of activities, the fall semester has been productive. We managed to raise a good deal of money towards house improvements by selling beer and soda at local baseball and football games; part of this money will go towards paying off loans accrued in the initial acquisition of the house in 1975. Our participation in Marathon Football in November helped raise funds for Santa Claus Anonymous, a charity for needy children. Additionally, plans are currently under way for our very first Phi Psi "500," which is slated for sometime in April. Proceeds will go to a local fund for handicapped children.

Our social calendar of late has been stimulating, to say the least, thanks to the dedicated efforts of Social Chairman John Dudek and his committee. The first open party and the subsequent Halloween Party came off without a hitch. Also, we have combined efforts with the two newly-installed colonies of the Phi Mu and Alpha Phi Sororities, the first at Hopkins in its history, and those joint parties have also worked out well. The high point of the year will no doubt be Rush, and we're planning accordingly. It begins during the first week of February, and will include our immensely popular Beach Party, a recent Maryland Alpha tradition. Speaking of traditions, our long-standing Chapter sport of Killer Ping-Pong appears to be giving way to the more mundane pastime of Killer Pinball, thanks to our recently-acquired set of machines. So it goes.

The semester has been productive for the Chapter in other ways as well. After careful deliberation under the conscientious leadership of Brian Hall and his committee, we succeeded in ratifying a new Constitution, which was put into effect in the past month. In intramural sports, our record has been outstanding. Despite the loss of our most brilliant athletes in May, we managed to show our teeth in soccer, cross-country, and tennis, flinging us into second place. We look forward with evil glee to the upcoming basket-ball and softball seasons.

Many of our Brothers are involved and productive in areas outside the Chapter. The President of The Blue Key Society on campus is Charlie Anderson, '78; Gregg Hawes, '78 and Dale Fike, '80 are the Special Tours and Tours Chairmen, respectively. Ernie Breitingner, '78 has been working with diligence as Student Council Social Director, and Amir Halevy, '80, the Sophomore Class Representative, has just finished drafting the new University Judicial Code. Two of the Brothers are not even in Baltimore this year, having apparently thought better of it: Noel Kirnon, '78 is studying International Relations in Bologna, Italy, and Conrad Wong, '80 is spending the year in England, engaged in similar occupations. We hope they miss us, and wish them a speedy return to Baltimore.

Negotiations for the purchase of our house are unfortunately still tied up in legal proceedings, which will hopefully be cleared up by spring. At least the house hasn't been taken from us yet, and the prospects look good for settlement in our favor. To be brief, it's been a decent semester, and we look forward to even more excitement as the next one rolls around.

Ernie Breitingner, Correspondent

Kansas The Alpha Review

After a restful summer, the Brothers of Kansas Alpha returned to Lawrence happy to be back and eager to start the school year. The chapter officers this fall are: GP, Jon Blogewicz; VGP, Jay Donohue; P, Steve Steimer; AG, Scott Kenefake; BG, Bill Doering; SG, Tim Burke; Hi, David Dyer; Phu, Bob Bennett; and Hod, David Gillenwater.

On August 16, four men were initiated into the mysteries of Phi Kappa Psi: Bill Doering, Mission Hills; Corey Smith, Overland Park; Dan Simons, Lawrence; and Mark Howard Prairie Village.

Our Rush Chairmen, Mark Faber and Phil Reinkemeyer, did an outstanding job in forming a class of 26 pledges: Jeff Adair, Topeka; Phil Andre, Overland Park; David Ball, Kansas City; Don Barker, Attica; Keith Cutler, Papillion, Neb.; Derek Davenport, Wichita; Mike Doering, Mission Hills; Bill Farrar, Lenexa; Herb Feilds, Kansas City; Doug Frigon, Dodge City; Brent Gallup, Kansas City; Pat Green, Wichita; Stacey Harding, Wellington; Doug Huber, Paola; Brook Neinstedt, Kansas City; Jeff O'Neill, Mission Hills; Bob Paden, Overland Park; Mike Patterson, Lenexa; Jon Petree, Overland Park; Jim Pope, Olathe; Mark Rainey, Overland Park; Matt Rester, Overland Park; David Shapiro, Clayton Mo.; Tracey Smith, Kansas City; Brad Stanley, Kansas City, and Matt Warman, North Kansas City.

This year's intramural football team was a great success because we were division champs with a record of 4 wins and one loss. Unfortunately, we lost to Phi Delta Theta in the playoffs. Also, this year's intramural basketball team is looking strong with the addition of some new players from the pledge class.

Under the direction of Dante Gliniecki, the Brothers are preparing for the 1981 Rock Chalk Revue with the women of Alpha Gamma Delta. Hopefully, our script will be one of the four chosen from sixteen for the annual fraternity/sorority revue in March.

On October 19, the Brothers, with the help of the women of Gamma Phi Beta sorority, sponsored the third annual Jayhawk Jog. Co-directors Steve Miller and John Patterson did a great job to make the 6.2 mile run a success.

Also, newly elected Rush Chairmen Kyle Eldred and Ellis Rainey held a highly successful rush party on November 8. Kyle and Ellis entertained 42 rushees to a pig roast and party with our Little Sisters.

Social Chairman Mark Gunter has kept us busy with many functions and parties. On September 21, we held our Yell-In party and on October 29, we held our semi-annual Oktoberfest party. Also, on December 6, we will have our annual Christmas Buffet.

We congratulate brother Jon Blogewicz on his selection as Kansas Alpha's Summerfeild Scholar and we support Bart Coleman in his bid for Student Body President. Also, Brother Jay Miller returned this year as a member of the K.U. Spirit Squad and Brother Jay Donohue still holds the office of District V Archon.

We look forward to the Founders Day banquet to be held with the Kansas City Alumni Association and the Brothers of Missouri Alpha. We are also looking forward to holding this years ELC/DC here in Lawrence next semester.

Finally, we would like to thank Brother Paul Brooker for donating two new tables and chairs for the T.V. room. We thank Brother Brooker and all the alumni for their support in our efforts to repair the house.

Lafayette Most Pledges

Greetings from the Brothers of Penn Theta. This fall improvements continue on the Old Gray Barn. We wish to thank alumni for the new kitchen floor. Brothers Brundage, Cicetti, Weiss, Pierce and Crouse did a beautiful job painting the kitchen.

As of this writing, Phi Psi has 14 pledges, more than any other Chapter on campus—and more should be coming! Rush Chairmen Cole Brundage, Steve Berg and Steve Buschel are doing an outstanding job. Social Chairmen Mark Kellett and T. J. Holden have made Phi Psi parties "the place to be" at Lafayette.

We've also seen some intense competition for the Volkman award this semester. Rumor has it that Brothers Stretch, Magoo, and Dutt are among the leading contenders.

I.M.'s started off weakly, but Phi Psi's traditional strong sports are yet to come. Volleyball under Dave Wilson, Ed Opatkiewicz and Tom Clark is undefeated and should go to the finals. Raquetballers Monty Service and Tito Fernandez are also undefeated. Basketball, Softball, Soccer, and Darts all look strong.

Our congratulations go to Mike Harrington, our Summerfield Award winner. Not bad for a history major!

The Brothers of Penn Theta take this opportunity to repeat our invitation to alumni to come back and visit the Old Gray Barn.

Louisiana State Growth

Growth has been the byword of Louisiana Alpha since it's last report in the SHIELD. Within a year's time Chapter size has nearly tripled.

This semester, nine new pledges were welcomed into the LSU chapter of Phi Psi. They are; Lance Udhe III (elected pledge president), Scott Lane, Scott Thomas, Randall Little, and Chris Randazzo all of New Orleans; Joseph Dinapolis, Chalmette; Charles Suter, Bellvue, NB; Steve Richardson, Gulfport, MS; and Scott Blanchard, Chalmette.

Also, on September 14, 4 men were initiated into Phi Kappa Psi. They were; Matt Dell and Joe Quartararo of New Orleans, Keith Matulich, Gretna; and David Smith, Metarie.

Our Chapter held elections recently, and the results were; GP, Keith Lapyuade; VGP, Charles Salvaggio; and P, Joe Quartararo. We also participated in a football marathon for the Muscular Dystrophy Association sponsored by LSU. The game was played on a rain-soaked evening as the Brothers, led by the running of Doug Beckman and the passing of Mike Bell, easily defeated the pledge class by a score of 18-0.

At the time of this writing, the outlook for getting the Chapter house back for spring is promising. It still remains the major goal of our chapter as our membership nears 30. Hopefully, by the next report, I will be able to say that the Phi Psis are back in their house and that we are continuing to prosper and grow.

Miami Good Fall

Moving in this semester was a bit easier for the Brothers of Ohio Lambda. The Brothers were able to spend more time on their rooms instead of the necessities of getting the house in liveable condition. This paid off as many of the rooms have really shaped up. As soon as we got back we turned our attention to the second annual "Dance of the Arabian Knights" The party turned out to be a great success for the second year. Highlights of the part were a Belly Dancer (and I do mean Belly Dancer), a magician, the country ribs and of course the good-looking maidens of our harem. The house was decorated as an Arabian Palace and brought interested stares from everyone passing by.

After "Arab," next on the agenda was "Greek Week." Things went much better for us this year as we had plenty of time to prepare. We performed respectably in every event placing fifth overall. The high point of the competition was the celebrated "Puddle Pull" event where a well-practiced Phi Psi team finished a strong third defeating our rival neighbors.

Homecoming this year saw another Phi Psi tradition here continue as Derek Lenington was elected to the Homecoming King court following Greg Clements '80, Chuck Shubert '79, and King Gregg Grimme '78. We built a great float with the help of the Kappas; unfortunately the judges didn't know it! We were very pleased with a large turn out of Ohio Lambda alumni. It was great to see the men that created this Chapter here at Miami as we try to keep their goals and ideals in mind.

We've been able to make several substantial improvements on the house this semester. The front of the house is boasting a new coat of paint. The old green carpet has been replaced by thick gold carpet. The carpet in the foyer was taken out and the wood underneath was sanded and finished. We still plan to remodel the living room before rush '81. This will include removing old wallpaper and hopefully acquiring new furniture.

On the social scene, besides 'Arab' we've had a "Lock-in" party with the Thetas, an "Election" party with the Tri-Delts and a "Dating Game" party with the DZs. We had a great "Camp Out" party with the Delta Gammas involving a cook-out in the country complete with beer, burgers, a pond, canoes, bonfire and lots of good-looking DGs! We are looking forward to a second semester of parties every bit as good as first semester's.

We are proud to announce Ohio Lambda's newest Brother, Mitch King, who was initiated November 14. Mitch is from Upper Arlington, Ohio. A pre-med major, Mitch has maintained a 3.8 grade point. He is also a former Miami wrestler.

Our hats are off to Brother Scott Gibson who carried on yet another Phi Psi tradition here at Miami winning the second annual Mr. Miami contest with a combination of singing and joke-telling. Turning over the title from last year was Ohio Lambda's Al Kmiecik.

Congratulations to Tom Nagy who was selected to be master of ceremonies at the annual Miss Miami Pageant which will held February 27-29.

This year Phi Psis had the opportunity to watch one of their Brothers play football for Miami. Jeff Stone, Miami's first string kicker, was in the middle of good season when a muscle injury sidelined him requiring surgery. Wait till next year!

The 1980 Pledge Class of Kansas Alpha.

Michigan State Rocking Along

Michigan Beta started the term off with a well organized Rush. Rush Chairman Dave Tworek did a fine job which resulted in the pledging of four men: Paul Highfield, Oscoda; Al Swartzmiller, Chesaning; Glenn Baccus, Oregon; Ron Gendrich, Illinois. These men will be valuable assets to the Chapter's future. Rush also gave us a chance to use our new patio. We thank those Brothers who worked on it this summer.

This term's officers are Edward Sadilek Jr., GP; Jonathan C. Moran, VGP; Edward Mitchell, P; Michael D. Martin, AG; Edward G. Mooney, BG; Steph Swartzbek, SG; Eric Foss, Hod; Michael D. Rankin, Phu; and Nick Tallarico, Hi. This summer Jonathan C. Moran and Stephen F. Ezop represented Michigan Beta at the GAC in Indianapolis. They met many Brothers from throughout the country at this important event.

This term marks the twentieth year that our cook, Mrs. Ora Obleton, has been with us. We would like to thank her for her year's of faithful service. She has put many a pound on the Phi Psis at Michigan Beta!

In sports, while our football team has had its difficulties, the bowling team is doing very well. Hopefully we will repeat last year's first place finish. Besides being active athletically, the Phi Psis have maintained a respectable academic standing by placing fifth among the twenty-five fraternities.

This year's homecoming festivities were marked by the return of the homecoming parade. Our addition to the parade was a float, built with the help of the Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority. Although our entry was far from a first place finish, the project can be considered a success because of the friendships and good times that emerged.

We would also like to thank our more than generous House Corporation board for all the house improvements they have financed throughout the year.

We are now looking forward to our Founders Day celebration. This year it will be held on the eighteenth of February at the University Club in Detroit. We urge all alumni in the area to attend; it should be a very enjoyable time.

Mississippi 50th Anniversary

A successful fall term is coming to a close at the University of Mississippi. We took an excellent pledge class of 24.

I began at homecoming with our 50th anniversary since our last chartering (we were first chartered in 1857). We celebrated by having a steer roast and progressive country band on Friday night followed by a brunch for parents and alumni and after the game, a champagne social; then closing the day with a campus-wide party. We also had the privilege of hosting two 50 year alumni—Alvin Klotz and Bill Barrett. Fraternity President, John R. Donnell Jr. also joined us in the festivities.

The Mississippi Alpha Chapter closed the semester with an 85 mile run to Memphis Tennessee, as a benefit for St. Jude Children's Hospital. This was a joint pledge project with the Phi Delta Theta pledge class. Between the two fraternities, we raised over $10,000.00. We are proud of our pledge class for co-hosting such a fine project, under the guidance of Brother Nick Bragorgos.

On the athletic side, the Mississippi Alpha Chapter doesn't fall short in any event. With the football season behind us we are now moving into basketball looking toward a successful season.

We are in the process of renovating and adding on the house. This is a change that everyone is looking forward to in anticipation. It is to be started in early spring of '81.

We began the new decade with a bang and are looking forward to a successful future.

Missouri Expansion

Brothers of Missouri Alpha returned before the start of the fall semester to witness the initiation of three new Brothers on August 23: Jeff Beason, Pleasant Hill; Ken Jacobs, St. Louis; and Jim Verhoff, Kirkwood.

In addition to initiation, we put the finishing touches on our recently acquired annex, which has allowed us to take another large fall pledge class consisting of 25 men. They are: Bob Adelman, Scott Gilmore, Steve Maass, Mike Mann, and Tim Staelens, St. Louis; Gregg Archambault, Arcadia; Tom Brown, Grandview; Karl Dickhaus, Columbia; Scott Diener, Arcadia, Calif.; Mike Ellenberger, Festus; Greg Grifflie, Independence; Ted Huff, St. Charles; Kevin Kohler, Richard Nixon, and Tim Rogers, Pleasant Hill; Mark McDonald Marshall; Clayton Mowry, Raytown; Ken Newman, Heidelberg, West Germany; Bill Osthoff, Kansas City; Rick Reiners, Chesterfield; Joe Salva, Sugar Creek; Mike Sawicki, Boulder, Col.; John Tootle, Overland Park, Kans.; and Howard Wolfgang, Independence.

Phi Psi "500" was held September 19, with Kappa Delta claiming the overall winner trophy by placing first in the skit and queen competitions.

In an effort to bridge Greek-Independent relations, Mo. Alpha participated with a dormitory floor in Homecoming. In addition to a float and banner, Scott Debandt and Scott Emmons chaired our Homecoming Pride Project as we raised money for the Woodhaven Learning Center.

On campus, Jamey Underhiss returned to the thirteenth-ranked baseball team and Roger Wendel has been working out with Norm Stewart's basketball squad. Politically, Kevin Copeland is serving as the College Republican treasurer.

Officers last fall were: Terry Nichols, GP; John Abbott, VGP; Bill Nachtsheim, P; Ted Barr, AG; Scott Stephenson, BG; John Bowman, SG; Randy Reiners, Hod; Bill Krauss, Phu; Dwight Canning, Hi; Bill Richerson, Pledge Trainer. Rush chairmen, Jeff Bruens, Kansas City, and John Bowman, St. Louis, encourage alumni to send names of prospective rushees for the fall semester.

In intramural competition, we once again look forward to a strong spring semester to propel us into the top ten. Last year we finished seventh out of 32 fraternities.

Stephen O'Rourke, Missouri '74, was awarded the Ben Brown Outstanding Alumni Award at Chapter Day activities last April.

Monmouth Rebuilding

New Jersey Beta faced the toughest challenge of its brotherhood this year. The house we lived in for so long was lost through heavy public and school pressure. Our one hundred and twelve year old house had many structural problems. No Brothers seemed to mind, but unfortunately the city of Long Branch did. We were faced with the problems of raising $30,000 for the rehabilitation of our entire house or vacate it. For a time we were confused and seemingly had no where to turn to. Through positive action of all the Brothers we became one strong unit again and rallied behind our pledge of loyalty to the fraternity.

This fall we are proud to announce our new look on campus. We have two smaller houses closely located right on the Jersey shore. We are the closest and most highly admired Chapter on campus.

Members of our Chapter are prominent campus leaders. Pat Browne a pledge of last year is the Student Government President, and Craig Glickstein and Howard Wishnia are SGA senators. Several other members of our Chapter are prominent in campus clubs. Brian Flynn and Mitch Stillman are seniors members of the accounting club. Ed Kivior, Bob Lesser, Marc Palfy and Ken Engel are all members of the College Center Council.

This semester, we have five very psyched pledges, who will themselves be an asset to our Chapter.

Our Chapter is well on its way to a productive future at Monmouth College. In the past, we have funded through our parties money for police vests, muscular dystrophy, cancer research, and a fund to reimburse student government of past debts.

We welcome all Brothers to come to our Chapter and exchange ideas on Fraternal matters. Hope to see you soon.

Nebraska Promising New Year

The Brothers of Nebraska Alpha returned to school to take part in the initiation of four new members: Rich Bene, Omaha; Neil Williamson, Hampton; Dave Goos, Omaha; Jim Eilers, Nebraska City. We're glad to have these new Brothers join the Nebraska Alpha tradition, which now numbers over 1325 strong.

Officers elected for this fall semester are: GP, Clark Rasmussen; VGP, Morgan McCain Polk; AG, Kevin Hopp; P, Kirk Hovendick; BG, Jeff Kohrs; Phu, David Mitchell; SG, Tim Euteneuer; and Hi, Mitchell Hansen. Edward McClymont and Michael Rasmussen are Pledge Educators.

Nebraska's homecoming this year was again a great success. We worked with Pi Beta Phi sorority in constructing our homecoming display, receiving and honorable mention for our efforts.

Our house has undergone many repairs over this past summer and during this school year. Thanks to our Alumni Association, we now have a new underground sprinkler system. A great deal of work has gone into putting bricks down next to the street, helping to beautify the south side of the house.

Our third annual Phi Psi 500 was held on Oct. 5; this year it was recognized as one of the top sorority pledge activities. We had a large amount of campus involvement, helping to make it a great overall success.

Our social calendar is full this semester with our annual Shipwreck party highlighting the planned activities. We just had our Halloween party, which helped to show the creativity of our members in the decoration of their costumes.

Nebraska Alpha is also involved with many activities on and around campus. Michael Rasmussen is chairman of this year's judicial board. Tonn Ostergard is again on Publications board and is this year on the Student Advisory board. Scott Milliken is the captain of the University's speech and debate team. Mark Fessler is this year's treasurer for the University's Accounting Association.

We are looking forward to a happy and fruitful year, and wish all concerned a happy new year.

Northwestern Strong and Active

Northwestern's beautiful campus is usually at its best when wearing its fall colors, and this year is no exception. In addition to gorgeous weather, this fall has brought an outstanding pledge class to the Illinois Alpha Chapter. Thanks to the efforts of rush chairmen Rob Glesener and Rick Shedd, Phi Psi's fall, 1980 pledge class consists of the following seventeen men: Paul F. Burtis, Glen Ellyn; John L. Enquist, Marshall, Minn.; Thomas R. Errath, London, Ontario; Robert F. Goldrich, Harrison, NY; Chris D. Helfer, East Lansing, Mich.; James M. Kolbe, Muskegon, Mich.; Blake T. Lynch, Joliet; Mark W. McArthur and William J. Meyer, Edina, Minn.; Lawrence

S. Michel, Highland Park; Paul G. Nordstrom, Wheaton; Thomas S. O'Neill, Champaign; Thomas H. Peckham, Bloomington, Minn.; Robert G. Rosenbaum, Cleveland Heights, Ohio; Mark D. Steele, Shawnee Mission, Kans.; Paul E. Tichy and John H. Trautwein, Jr., Barrington.

This fall Phi Psi was honored by Northwestern's Interfraternity Council, receiving its oldest and highest award, the Service Bowl. Phi Psi's many philanthropic efforts included Superstars for M.S., which netted $7200 for the Multiple Sclerosis Society. Plans have been in the works since this summer to make next year's bigger and better.

Several Brothers have received high individual honors recently. Spring, 1980 saw prestigious Deru and Mortar Board honors go to senior Ricky Jadin. Senior Chris Shaner is the 1980 International Harvester Scholarship winner. This scholarship is awarded annually to the school's outstanding engineering student. GP Doug Moffitt was a finalist in NU's Homecoming King competition. Selection was based on consistent campus involvement and leadership. Bob McMurray was one of two campus ROTC's to receive an Outstanding Midshipman Award in spring, 1980.

October, 1980 saw the election of junior Rob Glesener as president of Northwestern's Interfraternity Council. IFC president is the highest leadership position in the fraternity system and one of the most important student positions in the University.

Within the chapter, Mark Lillie was awarded this year's Solon E. Summerfield Award. Last year's winner, Mike Hitchcock, '77, received an honorable mention in the national Summerfield competition. Dave Goddard and Paul Huckelberry were the Illinois Alphans attending last summer's GAC in Indianapolis.

Phi Psi is well represented in athletics again this year: Varsity baseball players include sophomores Doug Blake, Tim Joranko, and Mark Kirby, as well as freshmen Paul Tichy and John Trautwein; playing defense for the hockey team is freshman Mark McArthur; junior Jim Morris is captain of the la crosse team; freshmen Chris Helfer and Mark Steele have both earned spots on the varsity reserve tennis team; and sophomore Doug Banister and freshman John Enquist swim for the Wildcat swim team.

In the performing arts, senior Jim Lillie portrayed Reverend James Morel in George Bernard Shaw's Candida, a campus production which was the premier performance at the new Speech and Interpretation Center's main theater.

Some recent alumni have quickly achieved distinction. Jon Newcombe, '76, was named to the Northwestern Law School's Law Review for his outstanding work during the '79-'80 school year. Ed Crane, '76, is presently News Director for WBBM-FM in Chicago.

Phi Psi's social calendar has included exchanges, TGIF's, the homecoming dinner-dance, and was highlighted by the fall formal held November 7 at the Sheraton in Northbrook.

As usual Phi Psi's have been very active in intramurals. Brothers Mike Pierce and Neal DeYoung, and pledge Paul Burtis participated in the IM wrestling meet, taking first, third, and second in their respective weight classes. Fall quarter also saw two football teams competing and an indoor soccer team. As of this writing, the first team is ranked fourth in the university, and is headed into the playoffs.

Illinois Alpha looks forward to the rest of the year, and to a continued strengthening of our Chapter and our Brotherhood.

Ohio State Successful Spring and Fall quarters

Ohio Delta welcomes two former Ohio Thetas—Greg Cyrus McCormick and David Kessler—but says farewell to fall graduating seniors Roy Grove, Mitch Grant, Mike Aukerman, Chris Vlahos, and Dwain Burgess, and Jeff Mazer.

As Ohio Wesleyan progresses into the Division III NCAA playoffs in soccer, Brother John Gower, '80, has the distinction of being the third highest goal scorer on the varsity squad.

Last August Brothers Jeffrey Eisnaugle '80 and Jeffrey Jex attended the GAC in Indianapolis. Brother Eisnaugle has since been elected Alumni Chairman. Ohio Alpha alumni should be hearing from him in the very near future.

On an academic note, Brother James Callahan, '78, has been hired as an assistant to the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees to compile a computer program to analyze the values of the University's Endowment Fund. Both he and Brother Douglas Brown, '78, will receive honors from the department of Economics in the spring of 1981.

Beginning in January, we will resume our tradition of having a guest speaker to the house at Monday evening dinners. We would be most honored to have any alumnus attend. If anyone is interested in visiting, please do not hesitate to get in contact with myself or any officer.

Oklahoma Alpha Proud

Fall 1980 marks the 60th year of Phi Kappa Psi on the University of Oklahoma campus and we are Alpha Proud to be here!! We had a very fine dinner and reception for our alumni on October 23. Stanley Catlett, Oklahoma '20, and James Wise, Oklahoma '54, were very helpful with their financial gifts and the mortgage on 720 Elm will no longer exist by January, 1981. We would like to take a moment to thank these two fine gentlemen for their support. Brother Catlett was also "reinitiated" as #1000 "bump" in an inspirational ceremony that evening.

We are certainly Alpha Proud, but we are awfully strong, too. Our Spring 1980 pledge class was initiated after a summer-long vacation from pledge house duties on September 6. The new initiates are Brothers Richard Beal, Atlanta, Ga.; John Wilkins, Peoria, Ill.; Terry Earls, Hollis; Alan Schroeder, Mark Davis, Kevin Foreman, Oklahoma City; and Edward Giddens, St. Louis, Mo. Our Fall 1980 pledge class is composed of twenty-two active and vital men who will someday become assets to Phi Psi.

Socially, Phi Psis at OU have been extremely active. Brother Giddens and his date won the Phi Kappa Sigma Sorority-A-Go-Go. The Phi Psi "500" had full sorority support this year: Alpha Gamma Delta took 1st place, Sigma Sigma Sigma took 2nd, and Delta Delta Delta, 3rd place. Over $3000 was raised for the American Diabetes Association. Our first three functions were with the top sororities on campus: the Delta Delta Deltas, the Chi Omegas (a western function), and the Kappa Kappa Gammas (The Champagne Jam). In December, we had a great function with the Pi Beta Phis. The annual Halloween party was interesting, to say the least. Brothers Joe Troncoso, David Aitken, and Mark Singer and their dates each received awards for their costumes. November 14 and 15 saw the second annual Buffalo Bill's Wild West Homecoming Party (the 14th consisted of a hay ride; the 15th a western stomp with a live band). December was Christmas time and we philanthropy-minded Phi Psis at Oklahoma University held a party for underprivileged children in the Norman area with the help of the Pi Beta Phis.

Oklahoma Alpha took many awards at the 1980 Grand Arch Council. Our house-mother, Melba Snow, was awarded Outstanding Phi Psi Housemother, and OK-Alpha was runner-up in the Most Improved Chapter category. Brother Tim Kincaid was awarded the Edgar Fahs Smith award for outstanding Shield correspondence (OK-Alpha alumnus Slade Hanson won this honor in 1978).

Mark Singer, Correspondent

Oklahoma State Up and Coming!

Oklahoma Beta returns this year with a totally redecorated house. Much thought, hardwork, and skill were involved in our remodeling. Thousands of dollars and many man hours were contributed in order to accomplish our goal. We owe a great deal to our fantastic Parent's Club and especially Dad Kembel. Thanks to everyone that made it possible!

Along with a new house we have elected new officers: James R. Wiederholt, GP; Scott W. French, VGP; Kent R. Appleman, P; David B. Draper, AG; Allen Staples, BG; A. J. Bisson, SG; Art McGowen, Phu; Jeff Stewart, Hi; and Kevin Muschinske, Hod.

We have a strong pledge class this year of whom we have great expectations. Pledges include: Ted Coatney, Mike Meredith, Steve Montee, Ryan Moore, and Steve Ray, all of Tulsa; Danny Bellamy and Don Wheeler of Okla. City; Eddie Kyle and Joe Hopkins of Vinita; Ronnie Smith from Big Cabin; William Burdett of Checotah; and Tim Laughlin of Collinsville. This year the pledge getting top badge will have the distinction of being Badge #200, or "Bicentennial Badge" as we call it.

Many activities have filled our fall semester this year. The Phi Psi 500 was held on October 5 and it continues to be the biggest Greek sponsored event at Okla. State University. Sororities and women's living halls participated in the annual week long event that invades Stillwater every fall. The week consists of an all week Spirit contest, which was won by Alpha Delta Pi sorority, a Drink-a-thon Fundraiser on Wednesday, the famous "500" Party Saturday night, and finally the big race on Sunday Afternoon. This year the winning team that managed to survive the mud pit, cave, shaving cream, tires, and whatever else we could think of, was the women of Bennett Hall. This year's 500 netted well over $1,000 for the Cerebral Palsy Foundation.

The Bloodbowl, the annual rivalry between the members and pledges, saw the members triumphant once again, 62-0. Never in the history of Oklahoma Beta have the Brothers lost.

In intramurals, Phi Psi made A-team football playoffs beating Beta Theta Pi to take 4th place of 26 fraternities. We are looking forward to a great basketball and softball season.

Once again, Phi Kappa Psi rates as one of the best scholastic fraternities at O.S.U. We are consistently ranked in the top 5 on campus.

We are now making plans for the Annual Founders Day Celebration, Parents Weekend and Alumni Weekend, all to take place this spring. We would also like to invite everyone to come and see us here at Oklahoma Beta!

Oregon Alpha was the big winner at the Interfraternity Council Awards Banquet, capturing five individual awards and one of three house awards presented.

Mark Vidulich, '76, received the Sorenson Award, presented to the one individual who has contributed the most to the Greek system, IFC, University, and his individual Chapter.

Eaton, Vidulich and George Glass, '79, received the Certificate of merit given to individuals who have contributed to the Greek system, IFC, University and their individual Chapters.

The Chapter won the IFC Scholarship Award, given to the Chapter on campus with the highest grade point average for the year.

Mark Hallquist, former GP, was recently named as Interfraternity Council President.

Over the past year Oregon Alpha has been heavily involved in public services. This past Halloween, the Chapter put on a haunted house for the local YMCA youth group. This winter, the chapter will sponsor the 2nd annual Phi Kappa Psi Smoker for Multiple Sclerosis, which is a boxing tournament between the fraternities on campus. Last year, Oregon Alpha took both weight classes it entered.

of Phi Psis entered the men's competition and sang their way to first place. The group's repertoire consisted of three songs, Swanee, The Whiffenpoof Song, and Summertime. It certainly was the weekend highlight!

On into Summer. Oregon Beta was well represented at the GAC in Indianapolis during August. Undergraduates Russ Logerwell and Tim McLaughlin and alumni Dick Ong '55-149, and Gary Muphy '67-296 were also present. Oregon Beta won Honorable Mention-Most Improved Chapter, and, most notably, our newsletter the "Orange Peel" won the NYAA award for best Fraternity newsletter. This was the second year in a row and the third time in four years. Also, congratulations are in order for Dick Ong. He received the Outstanding Area Director award for his work with Virginia Alpha, Beta, and Zeta. We are already looking forward to seeing everyone in Atlanta in 1982!

This past summer was no picnic for Bro Mike Love. Our hardworking Rush Chairman spent last spring and summer channeling all of his energy towards a successful Rush program. His efforts did not go unrewarded as we pledged 19 outstanding men at the end of Formal Rush Week. Already hard at work developing a sense of pride and Brotherhood, the new pledges are as follows: Andy Rux, Hillsboro; Dave Prater, Gresham; Gary Change, Beaverton; Paul Jones, and Mike Skrip, Klamath Falls; Vernon Smith, North Bend; Brad Wilcox and Eric Heath, The Dalles; Bernie Hopwood, Canby; Mitch West, Arlington; Sean Dryden, Woodburn; Mike Whitmarsh, Pete Eisen and Greg Edens, Lake Oswego; Walt Collins, Calabasas, CA.; Steve Long, Portland; Scott Roberts, Tigard; and Phil Allen, Los Angeles, CA. We are continuing to grow and this group of men will play an important part in Oregon Beta's future direction. Congratulations Mike Love!

While continually striving for the betterment of our Chapter, as a whole and as individuals, we have reached another one of our goals. We were in the top 5 in grades for the scholastic year Sept. '79 to May '80. Out of 27 Chapters on campus, we finished 3rd Fall, 3rd Winter, and 4th Spring Term. We have no intentions of relinquishing our position, and if we buckle down, Number One is within our reach.

Homecoming 1980 is the highlight of an active Fall Term social calendar. Homecoming is November 15. We are expecting a large turnout, especially since it will be Civil War weekend with OSU taking on the U of O. A dinner and house activities are planned for after the game. It will be a grand gathering of Phi Psis indeed!

New officers were elected as spring term 1980 came to an end. They are as follows: Steve Tedesco, GP; Ray Peters, VGP; Dave Schmidt, P; Dave Anderson, AG; Matt Knox, BG; Steve Kaufman, SG; Dave Boone, Hod; Scott Hufstader, Phu; and Dan Briscoe, Hi.

We welcome our new Resident Advisor, Roger Morris. Roger hails from Dallas, Or. and is a second year graduate student working in the field of higher educational services.

Any and all Phi Psis in the area please stop by and check things out. There are a lot of new faces around and we have done some remodeling. Have a great school year!

Penn State $25,000 for Charity

As the Brothers of Pennsylvania Lambda return for another school year, we welcome back seven new initiates. They are: Tim Sommer, Tom Thompson, Randy Repcheck, Pittsburgh; Phil Quatrini, Sayre; Barth Getto, Jeannette; Bill Kesack, North Wales; and Rob Meves, Horsham. They are a group of outstanding men and will be valuable members to the Phi Psi Brotherhood. Also, we have two pledges for the fall term. They are: Dean Donnellon, Ogego, NY; Dan Mackley, Mechanisburg. Last spring's rush was conducted by John DeSanti.

Spring term was a very busy and rewarding one for the Penn Lambdians. The annual spring event, the Phi Psi "500," was held and raised a net amount of $14,000. This, together with our second place finish in the Interfraternity Council Dance Marathon, raised our total philanthropic efforts to $25,000 for the 1979-80 school year. Once again, the Phi Psi "500" was blessed with beautiful weather. Penn State's basketball coach Dick Harter was the official starter of this year's race. There were 1,450 runners, as an estimated 25,000 students, faculty and residents of State College lined the 1.1 mile course to cheer. The week before the race was filled with sorority chugging contests and sororities competing for the coveted spirit award.

Undergraduate delegates Dave Dixon and Paul Martin represented the Chapter at this summer's GAC. In addition to bringing back many happy memories of good times and good friends, the pair also brought back to Penn Lambda the Community Service Award. All the Brothers are very honored to receive this award and would like to take this opportunity to thank the selection committee.

In May, elections for the leadership of the Chapter were held. Clayton Wells was elected GP; Dick Wood, VGP; Gary Hitechew, AG; John Rommel, BG; Rich Evans, SG; Mark Melio, Hod; and Brad Scovill, Phu.

As in the past, Phi Psi men are always among the leaders in many campus activities. In the Interfraternity Council Dave Dixon is the Administrative vice-president and Rob Schmidt is in charge of Public Relations. Also, Paul Martin was named a Senior Reporter on the school paper The Daily Collegian, an award winning daily with a circulation of 21,000. Leading the Penn State football team this year is Brad Scovill. Brad, a tight end who walked on the team his freshman year, is a three year starter. Cheering Brad and the football team on the sidelines are two outstanding cheerleaders, Captain Bob Moore and Joe Shulman. This year also promises to be an excellent one for intramural sports, as the Chapter strives for the overall intramural championship.

As Autumn is upon us, we have a wide range of activities planned. The Homecoming game is with Syracuse this year, and we invite all alumni to join us in a Homecoming bash. The traditional football tailgates, post game cocktail party, combines and socials are a big part of our social life here at the Lodge. We cordially invite all other Phi Psi's to join us and see Penn State first hand!

Purdue New Things Happening

New seems to be the most descriptive word of the fall semester activities here at Purdue. It began with the initiation of sixteen new Brothers from the spring pledge class on September 26. They are already heavily involved in Chapter activities. They are: Bradley G. Allen, Covington; James R. Boucher, Joliet, Ill.; Brett W. Buck, Fort Branch; Robert N. Canty, Elmhurst Ill.; Steve Decker, Greencastle; Daniel W. Fisher, Fulton, N.Y.; James H. Johnson, Woodbridge, Va.; Bradley McKean, Anderson; Brian Pearson, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Todd Riley, Bloomfield Hills, Mich.; Thomas Roush, South Bend; Pat Settle, Crown Point; Marvin Short, Covington, Ky.; David S. Sterling, Skaneateles, N.Y.; Michael Struble, Saline, Mich.; John Bardwell, Greenwich, N.Y.; and McKinney Jones, Rushville.

Due to the outstanding efforts of Rush Chairman Bill Schilling and his committee, we have sixteen new pledges this fall. We feel that they will also be a great asset to our Chapter. They are: Grant Besing, Elberfeld; Pete Connolly, Flossmoor, Ill.; Dave Dewitt, Highland, N.Y.; Jeff Fisher, Lafayette; Ron Foster, Fort Wayne; Tom Golightly, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Chris Harmon, Fort Branch; Paul Jackson, Fort Wayne; Rob Johnson, Anderson; Kurt Menner, Jasper; Greg Parker, Monticello; Buddy Phillips, Fort Wayne; Bill Sheley, Columbus, Ohio; Doug Skidmore, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mark Turk, Indianapolis; and Kevin Vasconi, Anderson.

The night before national elections, we elected our own new officers. The ballots cast resulted in the following: Gregory J. Stuart, GP; James R. Smart, VGP; Thomas C. Roush, P; R. Todd Riley, AG; Michael Hoch, BG; Robert N. Canty, SG; James H. Johnson, HI; Brad McKean, HOD; and McKinney Jones, PHU. It is easy to see that we have a lot of new blood at Indiana Delta.

After placing second in intramurals the past two years, we are currently in first place and hope to stay there. The extra efforts of Athletic Chairman Bryan Winslow and all the participants have paid off well.

Homecoming brought many alumni back to our Chapter. Some had not seen the house for years and were excited about the changes in evidence. We urge any of our alumni to drop in any time. In September, one of our most notable alumni, Ivan C. (Ike) Uland and his wife, donated a new Kimball grand piano for the Great Hall. It is impossible to express our degree of gratitude for this gift, but we wish to express our thanks!

Our plans for the holidays are in full swing. We will be holding a party for underprivileged children as well as our Winter Formal. The committees for these events are putting their time in to making them a success.

In closing, the Brothers of Indiana Delta would like to wish all Phi Psi's Happy Holidays and best wishes for a prosperous year.

Rhode Island Progress, Pledges, and Pigskin

R. I. Beta welcomed the forty new Brothers and Brothers-elect of the Fall '79 class to the chapter house. This year's activities started the very first day of classes with our fifth annual "Welcome Back To School Block Party." Open to the whole campus community, the party attracted a large crowd and radio coverage by local station WPJB-FM.

Bloody-Marys and Hot Dogs were awaiting the Phi Psi alumni when they returned to R.I. for Homecoming Day. A crowd of over a hundred met and reminisced at the pre-game tailgate party. After the game all Brothers gathered in Newport, R.I., for a formal social at the Viking Hotel.

Elections were held and the new positions are as follows: Neal Fitzpatrick, GP; Vin Pratico, VGP; Bill Guglietta, AG; Jim Velino, BG; Larry Bernhardt, SG; George Milhalidies, HOD; Tony Johnson, PHU; Dean Wilson, HI; Rich Brown and Tom Healy, social chairmen.

R.I. Beta pledged 28 new men in the fall semester. They are: Steve Brehio, Lincoln; Jim Chapman, Storres, Ct; Tony Carlucci, Franklin, Mass; Mark Carnavale, Joe Casimero, and Mike Caveretta, Warwick; Mark Dennen, Norwalk, Ct.; Gary Gumowitz, Great Neck, N.Y.; Robert Hayes, N.Prov.; Terry Hermans, Rutland, Vt.; Martin Herring, Richfield, Ct.; Mike Kinch, Pawtucket; Dave Laska, Branford, Ct.; Anthony Marseglia, Westerly; Richard Martin, Cranston; Andy Miller; Paul Nasser, Manchester, Mass.; Tom Niles, Elmira, N.Y.; Emile Poisson, Manville; Norb Schulz, Pawt; Bill Sheek, Westerly; Steve Solazzo, White Plains, N.Y.; John Turchetta, Warwick; John Volano, Branford, Ct.; Scott Whatmaugh, Pawt; and Bruce Wilcox, Coventry.

R.I. Beta was well represented at the W.W.L.S. held at N.Y. Beta. The two delegates were Jim Velino and Bill Guglietta, but five more Brothers came along to show the Phi Psi spirit. We would like to thank our gracious hosts for providing an educational and fulfilled weekend in Syracuse.

On the subject of house improvements, we would like to extend our appreciation to Tom Leach '79 for adding a second glass case for our beer can collection. This fine piece of craftsmanship will be the talk of the town for our chapter house. Also, bids are being taken on new rugs for the house. For the first time, two Brothers were chosen as house managers. Scott Masterson and Paul Silverstein have the job of keeping R.I. Beta in top shape.

As the leaves begin to fall, one can hear the Brothers warming up for another intramural football season. But this was not to be just another season. The Phi Psi A team led by a power packed defense pounded their way into the playoffs. Mike Douglas, Mark Princeville, Mark Wawer, Bill Guglietta, and Rob Douglas led the defense that allowed only 52 pts. in nine games. Once in the playoffs, the offense took over and led the team to the semi-finals. Steve Froncillo and Tom Gaipa quarterbacked the team. Catching the passes were Dick Stott and Frank "General" Lee. Dave Griffin and Harold Horvat provided the blocking needed for victory. The semi-finals was the farthest any Phi Psi football team has gone here at R.I. Coach John Leahy guided the team to third place out of 43 teams.

On the varsity fields, Mike Miller, Jim Miller, Tony Johnson, and Richard Pelzer strive for victory each week for the football Rams. Pete Boggs and pledge Jim Chapman are members of our Nationally sixth ranked soccer team.

We welcome all Brothers to stop in and see what R.I. Beta is all about.

Rider Progress

New Jersey Alpha is moving forward into the eighties. Our Fall Rush was the most successful in years. The new pledges are Tom Comer—Pres. of the class; Billy Ireland—Vice Pres.; Rich Black and Larry Starkman—Sgt.-at-Arms; Paul Ettlinger—Treas.; Roger Bassett, Dewey Carlson, Tyrone Conshue, Chuck Ewell, Bob Moffett, Gary Pappas, Tom Patullo, Gary Simko, Bob Simon, Kenny Wenk, and Lou Wisnowskix. Rush Chairmen Steve Saxton and Tim Bradley should be commended for their fine work.

The Chapter has received an excellent job from our Chapter Officers: Greg Lazicky—Pres.; Pete Cizek—Vice Pres.; Mike Falzone—Treas.; Bob Schotz—Rec. Sec.; and Andy Brody—Corr. Sec.

We are proud to announce the appointment of two new Chapter Advisors, Robert Dunn, '80, and Billy Hernandez, '79. In addition, Pete Manetas, Sports Information Director, Rider College, is our new Faculty Advisor.

Congratulations are in order to Greg Lazicky as winner of the Summerfield Award for outstanding leadership and scholarship. Pledge Paul Ettlinger and Brother Sean Looney were voted into Omicron Delta Kappa, the national honor fraternity. Also, Bill Dooner had the highest G.P.A. in the house with a 4.0. Good job men!

In intramurals, the "A" league softball team won the crown for the second consecutive year. Ivan Prefer and Carl Oberst led the outstanding effort. The team has now won twenty consecutive games over the last two seasons.

Last spring's Greek Week was full of fun and excitement. Our chapter combined with the Delta Phi Epsilon sorority to win the overall competition. We captured first in seven of the fourteen events. This semester's FUBAR got a big turnout as Pete Kepes and Jim Canning shared top honors with Pledge Tom Patullo and Alumnus Ron Wagner.

Looking down the road, our annual bus trip to Atlantic City has been scheduled for later in the semester. For next semester we are planning as a service project a campus Beer Chug contest, with all proceeds going to Multiple Sclerosis.

South Carolina On The Move

Greetings from S.C. Alpha. The Chapter has survived yet another semester's rush, with the sleepless nights, long meetings, and constant rushing paying off with the pledging of eight sharp men. They are: George Littlejohn, N. Augusta; Lewis Johnson, Simpsonville; Tom Meilinger, Mauldin; Ken Stearns, Wilmette, Ill.; Alvin Lee, Camden; Jody Dekle, Florence; Bruce Smith, State College, PA; and Steve Wallace, W. Hartford, CT. We are happy to have these men in our group and are looking forward to their initiation. These new Brothers will help offset the loss of Brothers Tom Payne, '79., and David Pearson, '76, who will graduate in December. We wish the best to them!

The social scene at the house is coming along nicely, with a slate of theme parties with the USC sororities. September saw the lounge transformed into a jungle, complete with vines, snakes, tiki gods and natives, as the Brothers, along with the Sisters of Delta Zeta sorority, had the First Annual "Jungle Party." Our Second Annual "Red Light District Party" kicked off October with a bang. Pi Beta Phi sorority, along with the Brothers from North Carolina Alpha, made the event better than expected, as the lounge rocked.

The big event for SC Alpha in the fall is the annual "Tigerburn" before the Clemson Game. Each year the Brothers build a huge paper tiger, load it on a truck, and with its 150-ft. tail in tow, march off to a Pep Rally at the Capitol Building with about 5000 students on hand. Then it's down to the Intramural Field, where the tiger is set aflame. This is the biggest pep rally at the USC campus and this year's should prove to be better than ever.

Come February, SC Alpha will join the other Chapters in honoring our founders, Letterman and Moore. This year, our Founders Day celebration will be on Saturday, Feb. 21. As of this printing date, the details have not been worked out, so if you wish to attend, please drop us a line and we'll get the information to you. This invitation to Founders Day is mainly directed to the Phi Psis who are not from SC Alpha, yet wish to once again be a part of our beloved Fraternity's proudest day.

That's about it from SC Alpha for now. As usual, any Phi Psis in the area are invited to drop by the lounge, and meet with the Brothers. Also, alumni of SC Alpha will get the Founders Day information in the monthly newsletter, and if you are not getting the newsletter, please drop us a line at Box 85118, Columbia, S.C. 29225, and we will get you on the mailing list.

Southern California Reorganized

The Cal Delta Chapter at USC has started off another successful year.

Many thanks are in order to our Fall rush chairmen, Bill Kramb and Don Stevens, for their hard work in making it a successful Fall rush. We are proud to announce that we have pledged 24 men into Phi Psi.

Our Chapter welcomes Marc Neff, Andy Morrow and Mark Yusin as new members of Phi Kappa Psi. Their initiation was topped off by a great party held at the Neff's house.

Members of the South Carolina Alumni Association pose with their Phi Psi Ladies prior to the Homecoming Football Game.

Under the organization of our fearless leader, President David Cordova, Phi Psi at USC has been working hard to reorganize and make the Chapter more productive. With the help of President Cordova's cabinet: VGP, Kurt English; AG, David Bell; BG, Steven Hori; P, Tom Bowden; SG, Dominic Accetta; HOD, and Jim Reilly, the Chapter has greatly improved. President Cordova has set up sub-committees to better help our reorganization. Every Brother is required to participate on one of the eight committees. The committees have been set up to help the load of handling a job by just one person. The committees also get every member involved in the betterment of the Chapter.

USC has just celebrated its 100th Birthday. The University set up a week long celebration in Alumni Park. Among the highlights of the week were a pre-game parade and a 100 foot birthday cake. The celebration was topped off with a cocktail party at the house after USC's victory over Arizona.

Southwest Texas State Successful Rush

This fall has been quite an active one for us here at Texas Gamma. We began the semester with fourteen new initiates: Jay Hart, Karl Means, Ryland Brem, Robert Escobedo, Russell Mitchell, and John Haecker, San Antonio; Robert Santos and Richard Santos, Larado; Dennis Hamilton, Copperas Cove; Steve Grace, Houston; Dennis Fewell, La Marque; Lee Wilcox, Freeport; Scott Siegel, Dallas; and Greg Pyle, Round Rock.

We were very successful during fall rush in acquiring fifteen sharp pledges: Greg Flinn, Alan Barron, Micheal Toomey, Steve Schoelman, Larry Head, and David Terrell, Houston; Randall Jenkinson and Lee Kainer, San Antonio; Robert Slavic and John Slavic, Fort Worth; Joe Dunn, Aspermont; Doug Peterman, Dallas; James Skinner, Humble; Bret Montgomery, Missouri City; and Jim Ellis, Galveston. This should assure us of an all time high Chapter membership next semester.

Our house took on a whole new look this semester with the remodeling of the entire downstairs area. With the help of Brother Bill Taylor, we were also able to add two new showers to the house.

This semester we organized our first Parents Weekend, to allow our families to look over the fraternity as well as the S.W.T. campus. With the efforts of Brother Jot Hodges the event was a huge success.

We were also very proud of the good turnout for Homecoming activities. Brother Steve Edwards organized an exciting weekend as we cheered S.W.T. on to victory over then unbeaten San Angelo State.

A number of our Brothers are currently involved on and off campus. Brother Danny McClung was elected local president of the national greek honor society, the Order of Omega, as well as being selected head cheerleader. Equally as impressive is Brother Russell Mitchell's campaign for a seat on the city council in San Antonio.

We are looking forward to an even more successful spring semester with plans now being made for Founders Day as well as for our second annual Phi Psi Fandango all campus party and basketball tournament.

Joe O'Connell, Correspondent

Southwestern Louisiana New House

The fall semester started with a series of events. First, the Chapter purchased a new house. The house is in a good location next to campus and belongs completely to us. Second, the fall rush was excellent. Our Chapter, picked up ten pledges. The pledges are: Troy Broussard, President; Mark Mangan, Vice-President; Jay Gremillion, Treasurer; Steve Sarraudet, Secretary; and Greg Boudreaux, Leon Centeno, Scott Gordon, Pat Smith, Kurk Rogers, and Bill Metcalf.

The pledges have been instrumental in helping to keep our new house in great condition. Homecoming 1980 for our Chapter produced many good times and happy spirits. The theme that we chose was "Give The Dogs a Bone." Our house decorations and floats were based on this theme.

Intramurals for La. Beta have proved to be quite fun and continued hard work, and practice may one day lead to a championship team. The socials of the fall have all been most successful. The themes have ranged from a hat social to a punk rock social.

The Chapter has been honored with the achievements of one alumnus, Jim Slatten. A graduate of 1980, Jim is presently attending graduate school and has been nominated to the Rhodes Scholarship. Both the campus of USL and the Chapter are extremely proud of this fine Brother.

We expect a great Spring and look forward to the semester ahead of us.

Stanford The "Mobile" Fraternity Lives On!

This Fall, Cal Beta begins a new era of resurgence, possible only through the official recognition which the University has given to our group. After careful negotiation and evaluation, Cal Beta has once again gained the recognition which it lost in the early 70's. With official recognition by University administrators, the Brothers of Cal Beta are now able to use on-campus facilities for meetings and other Phi Psi functions.

Along with University recognition came a fantastic Spring pledge class of seven. Since Spring, they have now been initiated into the Brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi. Our new Brothers are: Andrew Beal, Edina, Minnesota; Andrew Johanos, Honolulu, Hawaii; Craig Henry, Hamden, Connecticut; Mahesh Mankani, Honolulu, Hawaii; Curt Winn, Sunnyvale; Jeffrey Kirkpatrick, Longview, Washington; and Harry Johnson, Los Angeles. After the initiation, a celebration was held at the Holiday Inn in Palo Alto for the Chapter, alumni, and dates. The new Brothers look forward to the Annual Phi Psi Big Game Luncheon, held in San Francisco with the Cal Gamma Chapter before the Big Game football contest between Stanford and Cal-Berkeley.

Tentative plans have been made for a ski retreat weekend and the Phi Psi "500," to be held at the end of March. Informal Rush in the Winter will also keep the Brothers busy.

Cal Beta has accomplished a lot in the last few months. Brother Jim Rice was elected Phi Beta Kappa and Brothers Ken Kesslin, Jeff Wright, Tom Girlich, Jeff Kirkpatrick, and Jim Curry were all selected as Resident Assistants (R.A.'s) for the year. And of course, a strong, working relationship with the University has been established. However, the main accomplishment of the last few months has been the unity and dedication of the Chapter which has been maintained under what many would consider to be adverse conditions.

Syracuse Carrier Dome Opens

As New York Beta Brothers are returning to the snows and cold weather characteristic of a Syracuse second semester, we are looking forward to continuing the accomplishments that have been gaining momentum since the fall.

In October, New York Beta was pleased to host the District I Woodrow Wilson Leadership School (formerly ELC). Brothers from Colgate, University of Pennsylvania, University of Rhode Island, Rider College, and Johns Hopkins attended workshops ranging from Ritual to Social to alumni relations. Brother Taylor Obold, an alumnus from Ohio Alpha who lives in Syracuse, helped conduct the alumni relations workshop. The WWLS program was coordinated by Brother Charles Bantis.

The first weekend in November marked New York Beta and SU's biggest Homecoming in years, due in part to the opening of the 50,000+ seat Carrier Dome stadium. Over 150 New York Beta alumni attended the Chapter's festivities, which included a pregame Sour Hour at our Chapter House and a dinner following the Syracuse Pitt game at the University Club. Over $800 was raised for our newly established Chapter House Contingency Fund (see our Alumni Association report for more information on the Contingency Fund). The undergraduates thank all the returning alumni for making the weekend a success.

While the opening of the Dome brought SU much publicity, the Brothers of N.Y. Beta constructed a miniature scale model of the Dome on our front lawn. The brainchild of Brother Dave Finkelstein, our Dome was made of plywood, with a parachute blown up by two box fans serving as the roof.

The Phi Psi Dome received coverage from all three local network affiliates, and it was mentioned in an article the New York Daily News did on the Carrier Dome.

New York Beta is also increasing in numbers, with 13 pledges last semester: Charles Dobrow, Chip Holmes, Bill Kotelly, Joe Chesky, Bill Yorston, Bryan Leonard, Jim Diaz, Rich Goren, Rich Wald, Chris Moore, Bill Bornstein, Henry Tabenfield, and Doug Corrigan.

We also received a transfer Brother from Michigan Beta, Howard Saslow.

Brothers from the New York Beta Chapter celebrate a close softball victory over ZBT.

The Phi Psi dome, constructed on the lawn of the New York Beta Chapter, received coverage on three network affiliates and was mentioned in an article in the New York Daily News. It was constructed for the opening of the Carrier Dome.

This semester's rush chairmen, John Steinkraus and Paul Coleman, are looking forward to another productive rush.

In addition to the weekly parties we have had with sororities and other friends of the Chapter, N.Y. Beta sponsored two campus wide parties last semester. In September, many students attended our annual band porch party. We also sponsored our yearly Drumlins Halloween Party, organized this year by Brothers Bantis, Dave Wanzor and Bob Ficks.

New York Beta is looking forward to another successful semester!

Tennessee Successful Fall

Another Fall Quarter has descended upon Tennessee Epsilon and we are greeting it with hard work, disciplined study, and high hopes for the coming year. We have new officers, new pledges and a wide variety of social and community activities to look forward to.

We started off the year with a successful fall rush and eight new pledges. They are all fine young men who, when initiated, should prove to be vital assets to our Chapter and Phi Kappa Psi as a whole.

The most outstanding of our achievements this quarter was our contribution to the University's United Way drive. We donated one of the highest amounts on campus to this worthy cause.

The winner of the prestigious Solon E. Summerfield Award was A. Anthony Burzese, 79. Throughout the year Brother Burzese has displayed enthusiasm, scholarship, and has made countless contributions to our Chapter. We take this time to salute and congratulate him.

We are presently planning our Founders' Day celebration which will be held Saturday, February 21st. We extend invitations to come and celebrate in the Phi Psi tradition.

For the future, all our Brothers nationwide are encouraged to stop and visit if they are ever in the area. Until then, best wishes to all from Tennessee Epsilon!

Duncan Winter, Corresponding Secretary

Texas First Again

Texas Alpha continues its proud tradition on the UT campus. After a successful 75th year, we took our first step toward our centennial with the pledging of 35 outstanding men. We expect them to add much to our brotherhood.

The Spring semester left us all in high spirits as Phi Psi finished strongly. Two more trophies graced our expanding case as we finished first in the SAE "Tug-n-Suds" all-campus tug-o-war competition and first in the annual UT Blood Drive that we co-sponsored with the Kappa's and APO. The semester ended appropriately with the initiation of the Spring pledge class. They are: Robert E. York, Corsicana; Steven Craig Burrus, Irving; Jon Phillip Carlson, San Antonio; Wade William Goodwyn, Durham, N.C.; Kevin Andreas Jacobson, Austin; Steven Hoke Kight, Houston; Mark Daniel Leyendecker, Laredo; John Reese Rothgeb, Austin; and Grant Anthony Specia, San Antonio. The traditional pledge project came in the form of new ceiling tiles for the game room.

The new semester started where the old one left off. Texas Alpha welcomed back and initiated Richard Wayne Carpenter of Houston. After a hectic and highly successful rush week, the Chapter prepared for another active semester.

Socially, Phi Kappa Psi ranks with the best. So far, we have had mixers with the ADPi's, AChiO's, AEPhi's and KD's, a chapter that recently re-chartered at UT. We also participated with the KD's in the OU

Pep Rally, resulting in a third place finish. Parties have included our annual Halloween and World War II extravaganzas. Still to come are the Tri-Delt mixer and Christmas formal.

Texas Alpha is no slouch when it comes to athletics. We have fielded teams in football, volleyball, tennis, and have entered individuals in other specialized sports.

Philanthropies are receiving more emphasis this year. So far, the Chapter has taken the children of the local state school to a special carnival and other events are planned, such as sponsoring the Blood Drive again.

Our alumni have been active and we expect a large number of them for the Alumni/Active Tennis Tournament scheduled for November 22. The annual Dad's Day celebration and buffet was the largest in recent memory. Plans are already under way for our annual Founder's Day celebration, slated for February 21 at the house.

The Chapter has been active in many areas and the awards we have received are indicative of our diversified talents. Brothers finished second in the first annual Moosehead Calling Contest with an array of creative sounds. On the serious side, Texas Alpha took home the first place trophy in Sing Song for the second straight year against an expanded field with the theme "A Salute to Enchanting Mexico."

All this has been accomplished under the leadership of our fine officers. They are: Bill Cheney, GP; Gil Eastland, VGP; Ken Sandoval, P; Dave Sheehan, BG; Mark Snell, SG; John Carlson, Phu; Robert York, Hod; Mark Leyendecker, Hi.

Brothers deserving special mention are Doug Throckmorton, editor of the Greek Monthly, and Scott Fossum: Ex-president, Summerfield Scholar for 1980-81, and a December graduate. Two other Brothers have a different distinction—marriage. Darrell Carpenter weds Marcie Robinette, an ACHiO, in January, and Joe Anderson will marry Sydney Tippitt, A ChiO and daughter of Bert Tippitt, Texas Alpha '50, in June. We wish them well.

We've been fortunate to have out-of-state Brothers visit the house on their way through Austin. Any Brother or alumnus wishing to stop by is always welcome.

Charles S. Williams, Jr., Correspondent

Texas Tech Mean Green Outlook

Texas Beta would like to welcome all Phi Psi's back to school for Fall 80 and the upcoming Spring semester of 1981. With the Fall semester, events and activities like Homecoming, football mixers, soccer, and roadtrips are anticipated. Texas Beta Chapter also acknowledges its participation in service projects. Even with this busy schedule we managed to haul in ten new pledges.

Rush started with a bang as Gamma Phi Beta sorority helped with their lovely assistance during our 50's mixer. Other parties included Country and Western night that included two (count 'em) hayrides, an outside Lonestar bar, hay bales and a water tank for the Brothers to water their horses. Another theme party and a football after-game party were also thrown this semester. The pledges were also treated to their first road trip with the Chapter. As usual, the trip was too short and everyone enjoyed the mixer with the three sororities. New pledges this semester are: Mark Bahr, Racine, WI; Bill Cato, Richardson; Shawn Christopher, Beeville; Garry Harris, Dallas; Chris Hoopes, Lubbock; John Meroney, Midland; Bob Reister, Sherman; Mike Simpson, Lubbock; and David Webb, Lubbock.

Since last year's Sports program garnered almost twice as many blanket points than the previous year, the Phi Psi's eagerly awaited the arrival of football. Under the guidance of 'Coach' Tim Stephens the "Mean Green" cruised to a 3-3 season. This marked the first time since 1974 that the Phi Psi's posted a winning football record. Steve Bohny, Chip Davidson, Randy Park (the only senior on the team), Brad Carse, Doug McCartney, Steve "Beak" Yandell, and pledge Gary Harris paced the offense and defense. Soccer will be starting soon and the "Mean Green" has lost only one starter from last year's 3-3 squad.

Homecoming is scheduled for Nov. 15, after the SMU victory, and there will be a reception for all alumni and Brothers. Following the Campaign Reception there will be the usual celebration out at Sir Williams with Junior's Farm providing the entertainment. Phi Psi's are working with Sigma Kappa's for the building of a Homecoming float which will undoubtedly win first place.

Officers for this semester include: Steve Purser, GP; Randy Park, VGP; Barry Hendricks, AG; Jerry Simmons, P; Steve McNaughton, BG; Matt Harrell, SG; Steve Park, Phu; Wendell Peacock, Hi; and Steve Yandell, Hod. Brian Barkley is Pledge Trainer, Darryl Sanders, Faculty Advisor, and Mike Chappell is Chapter Advisor. Founders Day is set for Thursday February 19th. A dinner meeting is planned for Alumni and Brothers. Good luck to all Phi

Psi's. Till next year

Toledo 30th Anniversary

The Ohio Eta Chapter celebrated its 30th anniversary October 21, 1980. The real celebration will be held at our Founder's Day Dinner, so we would like to see all of our alumni there. It promises to be something special.

We started the year with a successful rush, chaired by Sung Chul-Kim. Our new pledges are: Mike Hamman, Dave Hummel, J. Steve McCormack, Dave Sargeant, Jim Schaloske, Dan Stroh, and Dave Tough.

Rush led right into the Homecoming festivities, which were topped off with a great float built with the women of Chi Omega.

Also with the Chi-O's, we are sponsoring a party for all Greek pledges to meet each other. This has never been tried before and looks very promising.

The Chapter would like to congratulate our graduates of Spring 1980: Mark T. Tappen and J. Keith Toothaker. Also, congratulations to Winter 1979 graduate Steven Allen, who somehow got missed before. All three are past officers.

It is now my pleasure to announce the newly elected officers of the Ohio Eta chapter: Scott K. Williams, GP; Bernard J. Nawrocki, VGP; Nicholas J. Daudelin, P; Wesley W. Schaub, AG; Brian J. Coughlin, BG; Mark J. Bohnsack, Hod; Steven W. Hartsell, Phu; and K. William Swonger, Hi.

We wish all Chapters the best of luck this year and all that follow . . . hope to see all the alumni at Founder's Day!

Valparaiso Champs Twice

Under the leadership of this year's officers: Rick Bucher, GP; Bob Reuter, VGP; Bob Kramer, AG; Hans Lichtfuss, BG; Tom Bolgert, P; Leon DeBolt, Hi; Doug Jacques, Hod; Al Rose, Phu, Indiana Epsilon has continued its growth and has become one of the more respected Chapters on campus.

A significant accomplishment this fall was the attainment of our first major intramural sports championship since the complete reorganization of the Chapter three years ago. Phi Psi emerged as the "dark horse" in the intramural football league and enroute to the championship, a climatic semiinal overtime victory was witnessed by the Brothers, as well as a pulsating one point win in the finals against last year's incumbent champions. The soccer team performed admirably as well, losing to the eventual tournament victors after three hard fought overtime periods in semifinal playoffs.

With the impending graduation of thirty seniors, an important responsibility has been placed in the hands of Mike Moore our rush chairman. A large pledge class is desirable in order to maintain the Chapter's strength. Nearly twice as many freshmen are attending rush functions this year as opposed to previous years so the aforementioned goal appears to be feasible.

This year's house manager, Ron Rapp, has spear-headed several successful attempts to upgrade the Chapter's living quarters. An underground sprinkler system was installed in the completely relandscaped front lawn (last year's project) and just recently the bar room floor was retiled.

Our community service project this fall consisted of partnering with the Phi Beta Chi sorority and visiting a nearby nursing home in order to sing familiar tunes to the elderly. Then we spent a little bit of time talking to them and it seemed to make them feel as though someone still cared. We are also sponsoring a needy child from Guatemala in the program, "Compassion," where in our case eighteen dollars a month is sent to a young girl in order to help provide the essentials required in her upbringing.

Finally, for the second straight year, we were again victorious in the contest for "best float" in the annual homecoming parade. With the help of the Chi Sigma Xi sorority during the actual construction of the float, a winning tradition has now been established at the Indiana Epsilon Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi.

Robert D. Kramer, Correspondent

Continued Success

Thus far this fall semester has been nothing less than outstanding for Tennessee Delta. Beginning with a promising Upperclassman rush early this fall, the Chapter has attained one accomplishment after another. Fall pledges include Joseph Renzo Basili, Jeffery Todd Cook, Mark Lee Corbett, and Richard Warren Flowers.

The second annual Phi Psi "500" was again a great success. Fifty teams participated, including all major fraternities and sororities, freshman halls and faculty groups. Under the leadership of Brett Combs, the Chapter was again able to benefit the American Diabetes Association.

Following in the great Phi Psi athletic tradition, our soccer team is now entering the playoffs, finishing the regular season in second place with a 7-1-1 record. Basketball promises to follow last year's championship with another strong showing.

Fall Chapter officers, elected last April, have provided superior leadership over the semester. They include: Gary Steier, GP; Rob Ayerst, VGP; David Stolle, P; Jim Decker, House Manager; Charlie Davison, Pledge Educator; and Joe Estes, AG.

Even in the area of academics, Tennessee Delta is filling its roll of excellence. Following the lead of Scholarship Chairman Don Ellsworth, the Phi Psi Scholarship team placed high on the University fraternity grade point average ranking. How about those book worms.

Homecoming was also a great success. The Phi Kappa Psi Alumni Club held its annual pre-game brunch as well as a dinner later that evening. Special thanks to those alumni Brothers that spent the weekend with us. Unfortunately, we were unable to provide a Commodore victory. Nonetheless, the loss did little to dampen the festivities of the weekend.

All points considered, the Chapter looks to an even more successful Spring semester. We invite all Tennessee Deltans, past and present, to come share it with us.

Always Improving

The beginning of school at Wabash College brought Indiana Gamma a very successful rush. Setting a goal of sixteen pledges we closed rush with nineteen fine men: John Albright and Greg Britton, Highland; Joe Baily, Franklin; Tom Cooper, Jeff Dziacko, Bill Keeling, Denis Kelly, and Eric Roth, Indianapolis; Nick D'Angelo, Hammond; Kevin Hartman, Bainbridge; Ed Hibshman, Elkhart; James Kwiecien, LaPorte; Dave Lazarek, Michigan City; Merlin Nice, Wabash; Cyril Oake, Rolling Prairie; Scott Pierce, Danville; Greg Kajfez, Carmel; Tim Thobe, Cincinnati; Page Wiggins, Poseyville. These young men are already involved in many Chapter and school activities.

Homecoming 1980 was October 18th and a number of Alumni returned for a visit. Among them were Brothers Dick Regnier, Robert Mouser, and Jim Purdy who each received twenty-five year recognition pins. The highlight of the weekend came when our new house library was named, The Dr. Robert W. Mouser library. Bro. Mouser accepted a plaque commemorating the occasion after Bro's Greene, Cooper, Clymer, and Stephens gave speeches outlining his many achievements.

New officers were elected for the 1980 fall semester. They are J. James Cooper, G.P.; John Clymer, V.G.P.; Kenneth Didat, A.G.; Keven Hibner, B.G.; John VanNuys, S.G.; Mark McCabe, Hod.; Fredrick Roetter, Phu.; and John Gunnum, Hi. These officers have been doing a fine job of leading and setting examples for the rest of the chapter to follow.

Indiana Gamma has Brothers in almost every club and organization at Wabash. There are ten Brothers and four Pledges on the Student newspaper, the Bachelor. Bro Clymer is the vice-president of the student senate and three other Brothers in the senate. We have nine Brothers in the famous Chewing Tobacco Club. The Wabash Glee Club has six brothers and one pledge among its ranks.

The house received some fixing-up over the summer, thanks to donations and hard work from a number of Brothers, who came back for a summer work-weekend. The house has a new library, a redecorated recreation room and fresh paint in our dining room. A number of ideas are being considered as we go about improving Phi Kappa Psi's Indiana Gamma Chapter.

Kenneth Didat, Correspondent

Bro. Robert W. Mouser '49 received two honors in recent months for his dedication and loyal service to Phi Kappa Psi. Mouser was presented with the Edward H. Knight Award for Alumni Service to the Fraternity at the 1980 Grand Arch Council, and was honored at a ceremony on Oct. 18 dedicating Indiana Gamma's new Chapter library in his name. Well over 100 people crowded into the Wabash Chapter's Great Hall to hear rousing speeches and watch Brother Mouser accept a plaque commemorating the occasion.

Dr. Mouser's Phi Psi work includes serving as president of the Indianapolis Alumni Association, assistance in planning for the Fraternity Headquarters, aiding the Indiana Zeta Chapter, co-chairing the 1980 GAC, as well as serving Indiana Gamma as House Corporation president.

The Indiana Gamma Chapter is proud of Dr. Mouser's many achievements and remain eternally grateful for his support and guidance throughout his years in Phi Kappa Psi.

A Chapter on the move best describes the tight knit group of men that reside at Washington Alpha this fall. The membership is smaller (46) than in recent years and is led by a core of dedicated officers: Tim McCourt, GP; Dan Crayne, V.G.P.; Kurt LaForest, AG; Jim Schnelz, P; Chris Browne, BG; John Welch, SG; Indy King, HOD; Blaine Davis, Hi; and Jim McDonough, PHU.

One of the reasons for an obvious increase in involvement is the enthusiasm found in the new pledges. Mark Crisler and Steve Fawthrop, our rush chairmen, recruited during the summer and placed under the guidance of pledge trainer Bryan Byles, our pledges: John Bigley Renton (Renton); Eric Hipke, Bellevue (Interlake); Doug Hora, Scappose, OR. (Scappose); Dwight Johnson, Seattle (O'Dea); Tom Kennedy, Bellevue (Bellevue); Sam Loss, Glendale, AR. (Woodway); Joe Pruss, Bellevue (Samamish); Chris Simons, Bothell (Inglemoor); Mark Stevens, Kent (Kent-Meridian); Matt Ohlinger, Seattle (Queen Anne); Ed Taylor, Vancouver (Evergreen); Tom Vanourek, Othello (Gonzaga Prep); Mike Williams, Kent (Kentridge); and Mark Wood, Spokane (University Heights). Pledge Loss is the grandson of Alvin Dorkin of Ohio Wesleyan (Ohio Alpha) and Pledge Taylor is the son of Lavar Taylor of the University of Oregon (Oregon Alpha).

This year Washington Alpha is expanding into several student activities. In sports, sophomores Greg Olson and Mark Crisler are both on crew, junior Steve Spring is kicking for the football team, sophomore Jim Stampalia has returned to golf, sophomore Chris Hall is swimming, and Pledge Hipke is playing hockey. Up in the main part of campus, pledge Dwight Johnson is working as the administrative aide to the ASUW president, junior Steve Fawthrop is a member of the Student Public Relationship Society and several members are in ROTC. Special congratulations goes to senior Blaine Davis who was voted executive vice-president to the Interfraternity Council on October 28th, and Tim McCourt serves as chairman of the IFC Judicial committee.

In honors, senior Tim McCourt, GP, has been named winner of the Solon E. Summerfield Scholarship, juniors Fawthrop and Craig Wittenberg have been named winners of Pi Omicron Sigma for outstanding Greeks at UW, and pledge Johnson is one of ten finalists in the Northwest competition for the $20,000 Truman Scholarship.

Founders Day has been tentatively set for Thursday, February 19th, at the College Club. Confirmation notes will be sent in December. One last note, we'll be glad to see the Brothers of California Epsilon when we go down to win the Rose Bowl. Tequila!

Greetings from Va. Beta!

A new year has arrived and the hard work necessary to maintain Va. Beta's strong reputation as a leader at W&L is proceeding unendingly.

The brothers' most important duty this fall was the overhaul of the Chapter house and preparation for Rush. President Tony Ierardi and Brother Joe Paletta organized the general house clean-up, including the repainting of the dining and living rooms, a monumental task. Brothers Willie Mackie and Denny Cancelmo took charge of the Rush procedures enabling us to conduct a smooth and extremely successful recruitment of new brothers. Twelve freshmen pledges now consider themselves future brothers and the screening for more worthy candidates continues with uninterrupted diligence. Va. Beta hopes to find at least eight more qualified pledges before January's initiation.

The Chapter is proud to announce an overhaul of its entire cooking staff with the exception of Houseman Fred Jackson. Meals are now delicious and the complaining of old is no longer heard among brothers. Treasurer Craig Burns has done an outstanding job managing the complex financial responsibilities of Va. Beta. Thanks in part to Brother Burns careful control of house finances, and brothers Bruce Sammis and Brad Scholtz dedication to our social schedule, fall parties will never be remembered.

Several brothers have contributed to the success of the intercollegiate sports teams. The football team is 5-4 with one game left this season while the soccer team finished its season at 9-4. Brother Jon Kelafant has done an outstanding job for the cross-country team.

Va. Beta has an intensive party schedule for the cold and dreary winter months. The Brothers welcome all Phi Psi's, past and present, any time.

West Virginia Growing Even Stronger

We the Brothers of West Virginia Alpha are in the midst of another fine year. With consecutive successful rushes and increased brother participation in chapter functions, our Chapter continues to grow even stronger.

The fall semester officers are: Dave Hanna, GP; Dave Strait, VGP; Paul Schulte, P; Steve Talbott, AG; Phil Compton, BG; Mark Vasilko and Bill Barkley, SG; John Yochum, Hod; Bob Burkhardt, Phu; and Vince Nowell, Hi. Under the leadership of these officers, West Virginia Alpha has maintained its excellent standing on campus.

On September 20, eleven pledges from the spring 1980 joined the Brotherhood. These men are William Smallwood, Morgantown; Anthony Finamore, Fairmont; Brian Brawdy and Michael Sullivan, Milton; Chris Gilette, Weirton; Theodore Pauls, Bethany; Nicholas Lash, West Mifflin, PA; Crosby Healy, Timonium, MD; John Bowyer, Green Bank; Hugh O'Donnell, Scottsdale, AZ; and Timothy McGinnis, Beverly, NJ. These new initiates have already begun their hard work as active Brothers.

Several Brothers have assumed positions of leadership on campus this year. Cam Siegrist was promoted to the rank of Battalion Commander for the W. Va. University ROTC, Jeff Hohman is on the homecoming steering committee, Bob Burkhardt and Phil Stevens were chosen for the Mountain, outstanding men's honorary, and Zach Mendelson is student assistant and sports promoter for the head basketball coach.

Fall rush was very successful. With Greg Jewell and Paul Hornor as rush chairmen, we obtained a fine pledge class of twenty-six, by far one of the best on campus. Fraternity Educator John Yochum has charge over the following Brothers-to-be: Larry J. Cavallo, John W. Hornor, Michael W. Robinson, Patrick R. Parill, John T. Miesner, Timothy W. Dyer, Thomas G. Dyer, R. Todd Furbee, Jeffrey Douglas and Thomas C. Kennedy, Clarksburg; Robert Maiolo, Kevin S. Massie, Thomas Johns, and W. David Vazquez, Morgantown; Charles Shelton, Huntington; Timothy R. Hoffman, Mt. Lebanon, PA; Steven Hamer, Kenova; Edward R. Stike, Ripley; Brett A. Pritt, and Dean E. Dawson, Charleston; Kent Muscaro, Weirton; Douglas Carl, Wheeling; G. Edward Harrah, Newport News, VA; Donald G. Klinestiver and Craig A. Clark, Milton; and Thomas C. Giovanelli, Reisterstown, MD. These pledges are working hard in anticipation of their Founder's Day initiation.

During the fall, our Chapter was involved in a Red Cross blood drive. The semi-annual event is also sponsored by Alpha Xi Delta Sorority and Scabbord and Blade, ROTC honorary. During the fall 122 pints of blood were donated, a significant gain from last year.

We are looking forward to a good alumni turnout for our annual Founders Day celebration and initiation to be held on February 21.

Wittenberg New Pledge Program

A very important year is at hand for the Brothers of Ohio Beta. In recent years, we have been faced with increasing financial difficulties and decreasing membership. To devise plans to combat these and other problems, a reorganizational conference was held June 28, 1980, on the Wittenberg campus. Present on this retreat were Todd Millard, GP; Mike Dowds, VGP; Jim Lentz, P; Rico Beynon, Asst. P; Dan Walker, AG; Paul Billman, BG; Jamie Draper, House Manager; Harry Cashy, GAC Delegate; and Doug Smith, Vice-President of IFC. Alumni in attendance were Terry Kilgore, Dick Bittner, Gene Simone, Dave Rudoy, Bob McGonigle, Dr. Robert Remsberg and Kenneth Benne. Representatives from the Phi Kappa Psi National Office included Lou Hoffman, Senior Chapter Consultant; Don Durbin, Chapter Consultant; and Mark Ricketts, District III Archon.

Perhaps the single most important issue stressed at our conference dealt with Pledge-ship. A brand new Pledge program was devised by the Brothers over the summer and has been successfully implemented this term. It is the only Pledge program on campus that is based on the individuality of each of the pledges, rather than upon the traditional concept of treating the pledges as a group and ignoring the unique personalities of the men involved. Under the leadership of Tim Griffen, a successful Fall Rush program—our first in many years—has been completed and our Winter program is progressing very nicely. We would like to welcome 3 new pledges to the ranks of Ohio Beta—Chris Kunkle, Pittsburgh; George Smith, Allentown, Pa.; and Dave Strongosky, Richfield. Dave Keefer is our new Pledge Advisor and Todd Millard is our Pledge Educator. Both men have been working hard to insure that Pledgeship moves smoothly this term and that a positive pledging experience is had by all who pass into our Brotherhood.

House improvements is another area which is taking top priority on our list of goals and future plans. New carpet was laid throughout the entire House during the last academic year. Repairs have recently been made to the second and third floor bathrooms as well as to the ceiling on the first floor. Our next project will be to repair the parapets.

Homecoming was a big success this year. The cocktail party and buffet at the House were both fun and we would all like to sincerely thank all Brothers—alumni and undergraduate—for attending the reunion. We must reiterate, however, our need for alumni support in the future. Our Chapter is undergoing monumental changes in all areas. We are all dedicated to our new goals and to the future we hope is in store for Ohio Beta, but we do need your help. We would welcome contact with all of our alumni for any suggestions you might have.

As a final note, we would like to congratulate Jim Lentz, who is to be married May 16, and to Bill Miller, who is to be married June 27. Also, hello to Bucky, who is cruising for adventure on an around-the-world cruise.

The Arizona Alumni Association of Phi Kappa Psi announces Founders Day plans*** Saturday, February 21, 1981, at the chapter house on the Arizona State University campus, 418 Adelphi Drive, Tempe, "cocktails" at 7:00 PM and Arizona style barbecue at 8:00 PM. We will be contacting you again***

During the past year the alumni association purchased $2500 worth of furniture for the chapter house at ASU. Smart buying on the Chapter's part stretched those dollars into handsome additions to the house.

Joanna and Sandy Chamberlain hosted the Chapter and the alumni at their home prior to the ASU—Houston game on September 13. Old friendships were renewed and new friendships made.

Several of us attended the Arizona Beta Chapter's fall reception for ASU administrators and fraternity and sorority presidents on September 19. This outstanding annual event puts Phi Kappa Psi on everyone's list of favorite places. Consider copying the idea. Arizona Beta, I'm sure, will be happy to share their ideas with you.

Lastly, the alumni association funded the production and distribution of a membership directory for Arizona Beta.

For those who will be visiting the Valley of the Sun at Founders Day time, come join us. Either call Rudy Jarolim at 965-8604 or Don Nordlund at 946-8026.

Donald E. Nordlund, Correspondent

Birmingham

Founders Day activities for area alumni and the Alabama and Auburn chapters will be held on Sunday, February 15. Activities will include a 1:00 PM social hour and 2:00 PM luncheon at the Sheraton Motor Inn Downtown, 300 10th Street North. Reservations may be made by contacting Fred Stakes at 205-879-4346.

Alumni Association members have recently attended several functions centered around the revitalization of the chapter at the University of Alabama and are much encouraged by the progress seen. Present at a recent formal pledging ceremony were brothers Sam Harris, Tommy Gunter, Dennis Cameron, Ben Dennis, Drew Peterson, Fred Stakes, Fred Clay, and Bill Banks.

Several events are now being planned and the Association looks forward to increased activity.

Northern California

We are looking forward to another fantastic Founders Day celebration. At the time of this writing, we have not made definite plans for Founders Day. However, we plan to have a dinner on Thursday, February 19th. We are looking forward to seeing you and your Phi Psi Lady this year. Last year over 100 Phi Psi's and Ladies attended the dinner at the Maya Azteca Restaurant in Oakland. We enjoyed a fine dinner and it was nice to have the Phi Psi Ladies present at this traditional celebration. We hope to have a fun time again this year, so please mark your calendars now! If you are on the Northern California Alumni Association mailing list, you will be receiving all of the details soon. If you would like to attend the Founders Day Dinner, please call Denny Jones (phone # 415-798-2970) or Guy Minardi (phone # 415-689-1804) for all the details.

At the time of writing this newsletter we are looking forward to another great Big Game Lunch. For those Phi Psis in the Bay area who have not attended this traditional lunch, we encourage you to join us next year. The lunch is on the Friday before the Cal-Stanford football game at the University Club, which is located at the corner of Powell and California streets in San Francisco. You just might meet a longest pledge Brother or an executive officer of the Fraternity.

For your information Cal Gamma Chapter has moved to 2430 Piedmont Avenue; Berkeley, Cal. 94704. The new chapter house is located at the southwest corner of Haste and Piedmont Avenue in Berkeley. Please stop by and say hello to the Brothers.

The alumni association is trying to promote more activities during the year and we encourage you to attend the Founders Day Dinner and the Big Game Lunch. If you have any suggestions for activities, please contact me.

Chicago

The Founder's Day Banquet, sponsored by your Chicago Alumni Association will be held on Friday evening, February 20, 1981. Plan to join us at the Union League Club of Chicago on this important date. A regular flyer with all the details will go out to the membership early. Send your name and address to Thomas Whiting, Treasurer, 2245 Drury Lane, Northfield, Illinois 60093, and you will be sure to be notified.

Our 19th Annual Closed Invitational Golf Outing was held at Itasca Country Club on August 18th. You may recall that there was plenty of rain last summer and the course was so wet that no electric carts were permitted and only a few putts ran true. Low Gross winner was Tom McCaysland, Wisconsin Gamma and Low Net winner was Bob Reed, Indiana Delta. Because of the humidity, we were quite tired and wet at the 18th hole. Other winners were Tom McCausland, Longest Drive on the fairway; Kent Yowell, Colorado Alpha, Closest to the Pin on #4; Bill Novak, Illinois Alpha, Closest to the Pin on #17, and Bill Novak, High Gross.

Your Association was represented at the G.A.C. by Greg Knapp, Frank Whiting and Paul Coulis. Since it was held in Indianapolis, all of us had a chance to visit the fraternity headquarters. The display case that was built with your contributions was finished. The Chicago Alumni Association section attractively displayed the MacIntyre Golf Trophy (now retired), programs of our former Founder's Day banquets and a badge presented by Bob Showers, Iowa Alpha, among other items. All contributors and their chapters are listed in colorful, Old English script and will be permanently displayed there. The Association has paid in $1,981.00 on a pledge of $2,000.00, so if you wish to take part, please hurry.

Herb Jones, Illinois Delta, was nominated by the Association for the Eddie Knight award, as the alum who had done much for his chapter. At the G.A.C., the undergraduates expressed displeasure with the actions of the Executive Council in economizing during the past two years. Although the mandate to balance the budget from the previous G.A.C. was clear, the steps taken were painful. The undergraduates exercised their majority control to elect two of the National Officers and a Trustee of the Endowment Fund in the place of the men who would have otherwise been chosen.

As we approach Founder's Day, think back to your initiation. If it was more than 25 years ago, you are probably eligible for the Silver Council. These awards will be made at the Banquet, so let us know so we can have yours crafted.

Frank S. Whiting, Jr., Correspondent

Cleveland

Cleveland Alumni gathered on September 11 for our first golf outing in two years. It was held at the exclusive Shaker Country Club in Shaker Heights, Ohio.

The day's highlights were led by Bill Carran, Colgate, who took home the low gross trophy with an 84. Bruce Jackson, Case Western Reserve, finished with a respectable 74 low net to win the award. Wade Helms, Ohio Wesleyan, ended the day closest to the pin; while Mark Bixby threw some heavy hip action into the ball to win the longest drive award. A special thanks goes out to Walt Illingworth and Bruce Jackson for organizing the festivity and making it a success.

In October, we wished good luck and farewell to our faithful treasurer, Bruce Jackson, who moved to Madrid, Spain. Muchas gracias, Bruce, for your services and companionship.

This year, Founders Day is going to be very special. The Cleveland Alumni Association and the Brotherhood of Case Western Reserve University will combine forces to celebrate Ohio Epsilon's 75th Anniversary on Founders Day weekend. The festivities will begin Friday, February 20 and continue Saturday, and will include a dinner with guest speaker Fraternity President John R. Donnell, Jr. We are looking forward to a good turnout and a nice time. For hotel reservations and other information, please contact the Brotherhood of Ohio Epsilon at (216) 421-0814.

We hope to see some new faces at our monthly luncheons. They take place the first Monday of each month at the Mid-Day Club in Downtown Cleveland. Any Brothers moving into the Cleveland Area, who want to get involved in the Cleveland Alumni Association, please contact Walt Illingworth (216) 283-1270 or Dave Arter (216) 951-5306.

Detroit

The Detroit Alumni Association Officers and the Board of Directors recently welcomed Jacques Cousteau's Calypso and crew as it traveled up the Detroit River on its journey through the Great Lakes. This honor was shared when the Phi Psi's held their Annual Summer Sailing Celebration.

Aboard the Asamara, Skipper and Brother Quentin Sickels along with Brothers Bob Colter, Jack Klein, John Rexford, Ralph Sandt, and Jef Farland toasted the courageous Calypso as it sailed towards Lake St. Clair. The weather, wind and sail were perfect and all ended with an enjoyable dinner at the Bayview Yacht Club.

At the time of this writing the arrangements for the annual Phi Psi Holiday Cocktail Party were being finalized. The celebration is to be hosted by Brother Hyatt Eby on Sunday, December 7th, at his home in Birmingham. Based on past performances we are looking forward to another joyous time.

The Detroit Alumni Association has chosen the University Club in Detroit to again be the site of the upcoming Founder's Day. This year's celebration will be held on Wednesday, February 18th at 6:30 p.m. For reservations and further information, please contact Robert Riess at 474-0342.

Phi Psi Luncheons are continually held the second Monday of each month at noon at The Rafter's, Stouffer's at Northland Center. Please contact John Rexford for further information at 649-1700.

Phi Psi Alumni from all chapters, please come and join us!

We are in the process of trying to reestablish an alumni group in the Wichita area.

Thanks to Paul Brooker's fine help we have had several initial meetings to get organized.

At the present time we are planning our Founders Day Banquet for February 20th at the Wichita Country Club.

Several other social activities are planned for the months to come.

Central New York

The return of Syracuse football to the Carrier Dome made for the biggest and best Homecoming in years for New York Beta. Approximately 150 alumni, wives, and friends returned to enjoy the comforts of the new domed stadium. The only thing missing was a victory, as Syracuse suffered a disappointing defeat to Pittsburgh.

A new Homecoming feature for 1980 was a formal dinner at the University Club following the game. It was felt that the dinner would be a good opportunity for the alumni and undergraduate Brothers to get to know one another better, and this proved to be the case. It will now be an annual event.

The weekend also served as the kickoff for the Phi Kappa Psi Contingency Fund. The fund will be used for major repairs and improvements to the Chapter House, which is now almost ninety years old. The need for such a fund was apparent to everyone, and we are looking forward to a solid addition to the financial base of the Chapter.

On a sadder note, all New York Betas will mourn the loss of Brother Roy O. Sykes, class of 1913, who passed away recently. Roy was a familiar face at Founders' Day, the monthly luncheon, and many other Fraternity and University events. He will be missed greatly.

Orlando

Fall is here, and our Brothers are enjoying some beautiful Central Florida days. Tom Sells, Bucknell, spends lots of time watching his son play soccer. Paul Porter, Iowa State, was recently immersed in the activities of the Sanford art show. Barry Smith, Ohio State, is kept busy by AT&T, working on their special project here in Orlando. Jim Lormann, Florida, is up to his ears in the appraisal business. Jack Campbell, Ohio State, has been seeing Gene Cawood, Ohio Wesleyan from time to time and, of course, is trying to keep Gene on the right track. Jack also reports a very pleasant surprise visit recently from Phil Wagner, also Ohio State. Your correspondent, Errol Greene, Florida State keeps real busy trying to keep up with SHIELD deadlines. Best wishes to all for a very happy 1981

Errol L. Greene, Correspondent

Portland

Plans are currently underway by Mike Garvey and Bill Bloodworth for the 1981 Founders' Day celebration. The upcoming event will be held Saturday, February 21, 1981 at the Oswego Lake Country Club in Lake Oswego, Oregon and will be attended by both Oregon and Oregon State University actives and alumni from all Chapters and their dates/wives.

A considerable number of Oregon Alpha alumni spent September 27th watching the University of Oregon football team "manhandle" the University of Washington Huskies in Seattle. It was a long time coming and earmarks what should be a very good football season at the U of O.

Very encouraging reports are coming out of both chapter houses concerning their rush activities. Once again, the motto of "quality" not "quantity" has proven to be a successful ingredient in the Phi Kappa Psi rush program. All alumni are encouraged to visit their chapter houses and see "firsthand" how intense these undergraduates are at remaining "#1" on campus.

Michael J. Garvey, President

Rhode Island

The year began for the R.I.A.A. on February 22, when we held our annual meeting at our Founder's Day Dinner. The results of our elections that night saw the slate of: Steve Carter Pres., John Wagner V. Pres., John Spagnolo Treas. Tom Dacey Social Chairman, and Secretary Carl DiSanto elected. Reported membership for the year reached 165. An improvement over last year, we are also searching for other Phi Psi's in Little Rhody. If you live in R.I. and are a Phi Psi from elsewhere we're looking to get you together with the rest of the alumni.

Our social events were again diversified so as to please all the grads. We started out in March with a volleyball match against the u-grads; Alumni/Senior Night at the chapter house; softball v. the U-grads in Sept. and the most successful Homecoming festivities to date on Oct. 4th. It was the biggest turnout yet! Thanks are in order for all the alumni who helped to make Homecoming the outstanding event it was. Some of the other social events that took place were our annual Pop-Top Open Golf Tourney; and a trip up to Schaffer Stadium to see the N.E. Patriots v. the L.A. Rams, on Nov. 16th. Any Phi Psi in the area is more than welcome. We're eager to meet any Penn Lambda's or N.Y. Alpha's who are living in R.I. The person to contact for information is Carl DiSanto, 55 Edgeworth Ave., Prov., R.I. 02904.

At this time we would like to acknowledge the Brothers from America's heartland in Kansas for the bestowal of their annual alumni award upon the Rhode Island Alumni Association. We hope that in the years to follow the R.I.A.A. will uphold this great honor.

In closing we would like to invite any Phi Psi who is going to be in the area to our annual Founder's Day Dinner to be held at Rhode Island College in Providence. The person to contact is Steve Carter, 10 Roffee St., Barrington, R.I. tel. 245-1234. The Dinner will be held Friday, February 20th starting at 6:00 pm. in the formal dining room of the Student Union Bldg. We hope to see and hear from you all in the coming year.

St. Louis

The St. Louis Alumni Association continues an active schedule of new and exciting events. Since Founder's Day we have helped with the Missouri Alpha Rush effort, had representation at the G.A.C. in Indianapolis, hosted Phi Psi night at the Baseball Cardinal game and have attended a dinner theater for our Christmas Party 1980.

We continue to look forward into 1981 for more of the same. The first event of the new year will be a St. Louis Steamer Indoor Soccer League game. This will be January 23rd. Please contact Rick Curtis at 394-6412 for more information.

Founder's Day will be held on February 20th at a local establishment. Plans are now being firmed up for the location. For more information please contact Steve O'Rourke at 781-9500 (work) or 521-1949 (home). You may also contact Jim Naylor at 225-6499.

We continue to see new faces at the events and wish to see more. If you have been inactive or have recently moved to the area please call us at 225-6499 and have fun with the area Phi Psi's. Remember to set the date for Founder's Day aside. See you February 20th.

South Carolina

Despite busy careers and hectic family lives, the Phi Psi Alumni in Columbia are always ready to party. Every month the Association meets for Happy Hour to keep in contact. Periodic officers' meetings are also held to plan activities.

Since the last newsletter, the Association has held several parties. Connor Harrison hosted a Rush Party that the Alumni held to assist the Chapter. Phil and Karen Harkey invited the Alumni into their home for a cover dish dinner. Because tickets to the annual Carolina-Clemson Game are difficult to get, the Phi Psi Alumni rallied at the home of A. C. and Marilyn Flora to listen to the game, drink beer, and roast a pig.

One of the highlights of the Summer was a bachelor's party for Frank McGwier. Frank has always taken an active role in planning and hosting such events. Although Frank was transferred to Ohio last year and was unable to attend his own party, the Association held it anyway.

In addition to Brother McGwier, several other Brothers have "bit the dust." David Steele was married this Summer and has now returned to live in Columbia. Joe Morris has also tied the knot. The Official Rumor Mill has informed us that Al Donaldson was married in Maryland. Rick Jones announced that he is scheduled to be done in next Spring.

Homecoming '80 was another grand event. This weekend started with dinner at A. J.'s. Early Saturday morning, the Alumni rallied for a tail-gate party. The Association secured a travel van with complete facilities. It was a welcome sight to all Phi Psis partying before and after the game. Later that night, the Brothers attended the IFC Beach Music Party.

Early the next morning, a Bloody Mary Breakfast was held at the home of Tommy and Mimi Dail. With a variety of goodies available, everyone enjoyed a relaxing morning. This function adjourned to allow the Brothers to attend the Annual Meeting of the Housing Corporation.

Four members of the Association were present and took an active role at the 1980 GAC. Smith Harrison served as the Association Delegate. Rick Jones was the Alternate. Flynn Brantley was selected as the Alumni Delegate from S. C. Alpha. Tim Heup was Chairman of the State of the Fraternity Committee. With the leadership of the Atlanta A. A., the S. C. Association co-hosted a very popular hospitality suite.

During the GAC, it was announced that our association was the First Runner-up in the Top Alumni Association Award. We see this as an honor and as a challenge to win in 1982. If you are interested in having a good time and helping us win this award, please call A. C. Flora (791-1120) or Smith Harrison (748-2369). Another big weekend is planned for Founders' Day. If you did not get a letter, please call Brother Flora or Brother Harrison.

Central Texas

Central Texas alumni have been meeting regularly during the Summer, despite the 100° temperature, and have enjoyed several joint affairs with members of Texas Alpha chapter.

We meet on the first Wednesday of the month at Scholz Garten and invite all Phi Psis to join us. In May we had a golf party at Lost Creek C.C. hosted by Col. Bob Pugh. Thirty-two Brothers dubbed through 18 holes, but had fun. Afterward, Phi Psi wives joined at a party hosted by Robert Johnson. It was quite a lovely affair for 40 couples.

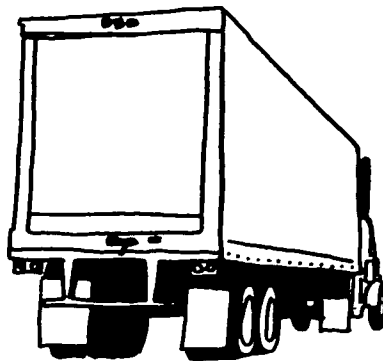

On August 25th a rush party was hosted by Larry Latour and was attended by 150 alumni, undergraduates and rushees. The next day Russ Pruitt was the gracious host of a party attended by over 100. In July a rush party was held at Doug Danforth's ranch where 80 guests had a delightful outing.

Rhett Stone, our President, urges all Phi Psis in our Central Texas area to become active in our Alumni group and enjoy the companionship of these fine and friendly Brothers.

Don't forget Founders Day at the Chapter House, 2401 Longview, Austin, Texas 78705. Call Mark Snell and tell him you'll be there!!

Editor's Note:

The Executive Council has met once since the last issue of THE SHIELD, on November 8, 1980, at the Fraternity's Indianapolis Headquarters. Space limitations do not allow printing the 13 pages of minutes from that meeting, but they are available to any Phi Psi through the Headquarters, at a cost of $3.50 to help defray costs of copying and postage.

Minnesota Beta, continued from page 3

Individuals of Minnesota Beta have made several contributions to the University as a whole. Tim Tapper and Dennis Dassow made the cheerleading squad for 1980-81. Kurk Halva acted as overall committee chairman of Campus Carnival in the spring of 1980. Rick Sorenson and Jon Wiens are members of the executive committee for Greek Week which is held this winter.

The officers for fall quarter 1980 are: Pete Bennet, GP; Blake Omlie, VGP; Kevin Smith, P; Todd Hilgenkamp, AG; Tom Markert, BG; John Gabos, SG; Dave Hoy, Hod; Rich Hanton, Phu; and Dan Boulay, Hi.

The Brothers of Minnesota Beta are extremely proud of the growth of the chapter since 1974. The new life instilled by the initial rebuilding Brothers of Minnesota Beta local alumni and national help from Gary Angstadt and Mike Wittern have brought together many close friendships. Throughout these rebuilding years the Chapter has grown substantially and is now a strong and influential part of the Greek System and the University. Many goals for growth and participation have now been accomplished and Minnesota Beta expects to continue as a leader of the Greek System for many years to come.

Phi Psi's home at the University of Minnesota decorated in award winning fashion.

The Phi Psi Perspective

by Lou Hoffman
Arizona '77

When I arrived at the Fraternity headquarters for the Chapter Consultant training, I was given a tour of the building. It was impressive, but one item stood out in my mind—the chair that belonged to William Henry Letterman. The chair is roped off. Like any antique, the best way to preserve it is through no use. I spent the summer wanting to sit in the chair, but I never did. I thought sitting in it would activate a greek muse in the form of Brother Letterman's voice. And he would whisper to me the true meaning of Phi Kappa Psi and what makes a successful Chapter Consultant.

I started traveling at the end of August, '79. Countless questions were directed to me, but one particular question was asked consistently. What type of person is a typical Phi Psi? I had trouble answering that question for a long time. Being from Arizona Alpha, I had the misconception that three-fourths of all Phi Psi's were under 5'8". I kept searching for a pattern, but couldn't find one. After visiting 45 chapters and 4 colonies, I realized there is no pattern. A typical Phi Psi can be a marketing major on the basketball team, or a special education major who favors fustball and backgammon. I never walked into a chapter house that didn't have at least three different types of music filling the halls. We are truly a group of diversified individuals.

It's a tribute to our Founders that the ideals of Phi Psi can be coveted by so many people of varied interests. It's only natural that fraternity chapters as a whole have similarities. A person could sit in any fraternity house in the late afternoon and hear the laughter generated from a rerun of "Mash" on television, followed by groans at the dinner table when macaroni is served. Our ideals are what set us apart. It is no coincidence that on many campuses across the country, Phi Psi's are known as gentlemen and a "classy group." I encountered problem areas also, but as a rule, Phi Psi's were well-rounded and a cut above the general student.

People often wonder how I can eat, sleep and breathe (not necessarily in that order) fraternity 24 hours a day when I'm on the road. I admit to times when I thought re-vamping another fraternity-education program would drive me to the mystic asylum, but I never tired of the people. I was treated as a friend the minute I walked past the chapter house door. When it was time to leave, I left as a brother, not a guest.

In addition to the friendships, my chapter visits provided me with many unforgettable moments. An eastern chapter treated me to a variation of the common cook-out. At two in the morning, we drove to a house that had its front yard converted to an open-pit barbeque. A man with a chef's hat appeared moments later, and we placed our order. He coated the chicken and ribs so violently with his special hot sauce, my shirt was speckled with red spots. Another time I needed a bed to sleep in at one of our mid-western chapter houses. A brother offered me his dormitory bed, located in a corner with another bed beside it. News of this temporary arrangement never reached the brother who slept in the bed next to me. I was awakened at three in the morning by a deliriously happy brother jumping on top of me. From what I could make of his shouts, he had an entertaining date.

I've now spent my second summer in the Fraternity headquarters doing office work. My desire is gone to sit in Brother Letterman's chair. There's no need to. I heard his voice thru the hundreds of Phi Psi's I met during the past year. I experienced the common bonds that make friendships in a short period of time possible with people I never saw before. My scope of Phi Psi has gone from a tunnel to a landscape.

As a pledge, I learned two facts that took on significance during my travels. Phi Kappa Psi is a national fraternity and is a lifelong experience. I participated in the Ritual in places ranging from a century old chapter room in Pennsylvania to a Student Union room with the windows papered in Arizona. My feelings were almost identical in both instances. I also met many alumni burning with the same pride they had while in school. It is their dedicated efforts that shape the Phi Psi experience on the college level.

I think if Brothers Letterman and Moore were called on to talk on the state of the Fraternity today, no speech would be written. They would be content to let our actions speak for themselves.

On the cover:

The movie "Animal House" gave renewed interest to toga parties and food fights, but shining through it all was Phi Psi's beautiful Oregon Alpha Chapter home, pictured here. Ours was the "good guy" fraternity house in the movie filmed on the University of Oregon campus in Eugene, home to the Fraternity's award winning 1976 "Most Improved Chapter." In this issue "Animal House Revisited" provides a thoughtful inspection of today's fraternity experience.

100 Years at Beloit

by Ronald H. Vlaskamp, Beloit '78

Editor's Note: The Wisconsin Gamma Chapter proudly celebrates their Centennial this coming November . . . but had not John Lind, Beloit '61, with the help of Dr. Warner Mills, Beloit '78, persuaded the Fraternity that Beloit could once again successfully host Phi Kappa Psi, there would have been no festivities this fall. This Chapter was reorganized by hard working undergraduates, alumni, and Fraternity staff.

Your contributions to Phi Psi's Alumni Support Program help us fund the work needed for success stories like Wisconsin Gamma . . . have you sent in a gift yet this year? We appreciate it!

Wisconsin Gamma is about to complete its first one hundred years. At a November 7 banquet, the undergraduates, alumni, and friends will celebrate a long and unique life into which 1,070 have been initiated.

The installation of Wisconsin Gamma occurred on December 15, 1881, but the idea of the chapter dates to 1879—it was in that year that Beta Theta Pi, which had existed secretly at the Wisconsin college since 1860, was discovered by the faculty. Fraternities were not allowed at Beloit, but when Beta was exposed, the possibility for fraternal organizations gained a new but cautious interest.

Theodore G. Lewis, a freshman at Beloit in 1879, was one of those interested in starting a new fraternity. His cousin, W. H. Lewis was a Phi Psi at Wisconsin Alpha at the University of Wisconsin, and the Fraternity was well-established at area schools: the University of Chicago, Northwestern, and Racine.

But the time was not right, however, for a Chapter of the Fraternity to form at Beloit. The faculty was far from recognizing any fraternity. In a breach of Fraternity rules, Lewis and two friends, W. A. Knapp and Elmer E. Heg, initiated into Wisconsin Alpha's chapter as Beloit College members in January 1880. By spring they claimed eight more men who were initiated into the branch Chapter on May 16 in Beloit.

The Beloiters had much difficulty in securing a charter from the Fraternity, which they had sought since January 1880. There were two reasons for the denial. First, in the eyes of Phi Psi Chapters from large universities, the Beloit men were too few and the college was too small to support a Chapter. The members at Beloit called this outright prejudice. Second, it was considered unwise by the Fraternity to begin sub-rosa Chapters—a Phi Psi Chapter should always be sanctioned by the college, most existing Chapters felt.

After many delays, a charter was finally secured and the members were formally installed by Wisconsin Alpha on December 15, 1881. There were ten of the original eleven founders, plus eleven more, in the chartering group, now officially Wisconsin Gamma, Phi Kappa Psi.

After chartering, Wisconsin Gammans lived together in rented rooms in several locations, but never held one residence for more than five years. In 1889 the membership rented what was the first chapter house at Beloit College, which gave them room to entertain, and other advantages.

Two years later, however, the Chapter was growing and flourishing and the time was right for a new house. The undergraduates and alumni worked together to buy a lot on Chapin Street, a few blocks east of campus, and had a modern three story house built. It was a costly endeavor for the still-young Chapter, but the chance paid off. The house at 1125 Chapin Street became the darling of almost sixty years of Wisconsin Gammans.

In 1903 the Chapter secured its first housemother, thirty-four year old Mrs. Iola Truesdall, affectionately called Ma "T" by two generations of Wisconsin Gammans. Ma T cooked for and counseled members until her death in 1947; her service of 44 years still stands as the longest for any Chapter in the country. Memories of the Chapin Street house and Ma T are virtually synonymous for many alumni.

The Chapter flourished until the coming of World War I, and after one year of low membership due to enlistments, rebounded strongly to enter the 1920's. The twenties were good years for Beloit, and the depression years did not seem to affect the group adversely.

World War II was one of the most difficult times for fraternities across the country, and Wisconsin Gamma was no exception. The 1942-43 school year was that which the war visibly changed the structure and character of Wisconsin Gamma and Beloit College. In that year the war became more than just headlines—the services began calling up its reservists. Even before the final Chapter meeting in April 1943, Phi

THE AMERICAN DREAM

The story of Phi Psi's newest Oscar winner, Steven Tesich, Indiana '62 (Adapted from an Oct. 5, 1980 article in The New York Times.)

This is a scenario that could have been itself fabricated in those celebrated hills of Hollywood . . . a skinny kid born in Yugoslavia, raised in the grit of East Chicago, attending a pleasant midwestern college on a wrestling scholarship, writing about a bicycling hero who likes to pretend he's Italian! Nonsense, you say? Absolute truth, Brother Tesich would respond.

"I was born in the old country but my dreams were born in America. The dream . . . it lives!" The words are from Steve Tesich's play, "Division Street," but are autobiographical.

Stojan "Steve" Tesich was born September 29, 1942, in Titovo Uzica, Yugoslavia, and remembers entertaining his elders as a child with fanciful tales about America. When he and his friends played in the war-torn streets, their favorite toy was an abandoned army truck. "We'd pretend it was an airplane that was taking us someplace" he recalls. "When it was my turn, I always told the other kids we were going to America."

The films he loved best were American—"the Westerns, with those endless prairies and the cowboy heroes"—and he knew that one of his grandfathers had crossed the ocean to hunt for gold. When at last he arrived here as a bewildered teenager with his mother and sister, en route to East Chicago, Indiana, to meet his father—a man separated from his family by war and politics for 14 years—he looked in vain for prairies and buffalo, and stared dubiously at a bowl of something called “cornflakes” sitting next to a strange little wax-covered box that contained, of all things, milk.

In addition to writing for the theater, Steve has also been working on his new film projects. Thanks to “Breaking Away,” a low-budget sleeper that was a perfect blend of writing, casting and directing, Brother Tesich has become one of the most sought after screen writers in the business. He and Peter Yates, who directed “Breaking Away,” teamed up on the mystery film “Eyewitness,” which was completed last fall in New York. Another Tesich screenplay, “Four Friends,” is being filmed in Chicago by Arthur Penn, and Steve is also at work on the screen adaptation of John Irving’s best seller novel, “The World According to Garp.”

Steve still marvels at how moviegoers reacted to “Breaking Away.” “I only write about what I know,” he said. “It was kind of a personal thing from my life and I just didn’t think it would resonate for others. When I saw the final cut and really liked it, I was positive nobody else would. So it was a wonderful shock when we had our first audience and they loved it.”

The hero of “Breaking Away” is Dave, a teenage bicycle racer whose admiration for an Italian championship bicycle team and all things Italian knows no bounds—to the near despair of his parents—until he is abruptly disillusioned. With Indiana University in Bloomington as its setting, and the conflict between fraternity college students and “townies” as its connecting thread, the film was a humorous and affectionate portrait of life in Middle America. It had green lawns and ivy covered campus buildings constructed fortress-like from limestone carved in quarries nearby. It even had an idyllic country swimming hole. Its central character loved his parents and they loved him. And its climactic scene, a bicycle race between the collegians and the outclassed “townies” touched basic emotions in a way that brought even the most jaded moviegoers to their feet cheering and applauding.

The story is based upon Steve’s real life experience at I.U. and Indiana Beta, and in particular, his friendship with a real life Dave, David K. Blase, Indiana ’60. Steve was counseled by his friends in the movie industry that no one would believe an obviously fictitious name like Dave Blase for a bicycle racer!

Why did audiences embrace “Breaking Away?” Brother Tesich now thinks he knows the answer. “People find their own parallels in things they see,” he said. “Everyone’s been some kind of an outsider, like Dave and the other ‘townies.’ And, again like Dave, everyone’s experienced that time in their life when it’s time to move on, and yet painful to break away. I really think that if you’re honest about your own feelings, those feelings will affect others. Mostly we share the same feelings.

“And then there was something about that little town and the family’s life. ‘Breaking Away’ was full of things that a lot of people assumed were part of the past—the family unit, respect for the father, family love. But you don’t have to go back to the Depression and the Waltons to find it. It still goes on. And that swimming hole is there, I didn’t have to make it up or idealize it.”

Steve’s first year in America fell considerably short of his fantasies. “First of all, I couldn’t speak English, so I was the butt of a lot of jokes and was put way back in school. There I was, this idiot who couldn’t say anything. That was kind of hard. Besides, East Chicago was pretty ugly to a kid who’d just come from a European town with a clean river flowing through it, and with mountains and trees on the horizon. Suddenly there I was in this polluted place, with its refineries, factories and smokestacks.

“But as soon as I started learning English, it was almost as though I had a tuning fork in me that could respond to the language and the country. I started looking at the incredible variety of American life, the nationalities, the people who would never be living next door to each other in any other nation, and somehow they were getting along. It was such a unique feeling to see that kind of flexibility in an enormous country, and to watch it function. It got to me, and made me love the place very much.”

“And the English language! I don’t think I ever would have started writing in my own language. Serbo-Croatian was something you spoke, but you never saw it from the outside as a tool. The rhythms of English were exciting. It took a year, but once I learned the language they put me in the right class again. Later I found that being able to speak two languages gave me a special vantage point when I began writing.”

And write he has done, and done so well . . . his plays “The Passing Game,” “The Carpenters,” “Division Street” and his several films all are thoroughly Tesich. And all are closely scrutinized by Steve’s most enthusiastic fan, wife Rebecca, who some consider the real Phi Psi supporter in the family. Be sure and ask Mrs. Tesich to tell the story of their meeting another outstanding talent, Roy Scheider, Franklin and Marshall ’54, and of that moment of amazement when in unison could be heard, “You’re a Phi Psi too!”

So the story of a Serb in Middle America, writing about a Phi Psi Brother who emulates all that is Italian, as the basis for a film that netted Steve a 1980 Oscar for Best Original Screenplay, is all true. Overcoming such unlikely circumstances is second nature to Brother Tesich. Now that he is at home in the theater and film element of New York and Hollywood, what future stage and film successes can’t we expect from him!

From Riley, to Thurber, to Tesich . . . The Phi Psi literary tradition has added yet another notable generation.

My research is done. The facts are in. I've read books, gathered periodicals, tracked down quotes and conducted personal interviews. My conclusion: No American institution has ever been so badly misunderstood as the fraternity.

My study began at the local university library. There the current research on fraternities is located under "Anthropology." The titles were predictable. My personal favorite, The Rites of Passage in a Student Culture, includes such fascinating chapters as "Gross Subsystems of Relationships Among Members of the Fraternity." Further information on fraternities was available under the sub-listing, "See Secret Societies." Here the local Greek house is listed along with the Mafia and the ancient families of Chinese assassins!

It seems that the majority of studies on fraternal life are conducted with all the congeniality of an autopsy. Researchers tend to view the fraternity as one would view a tribal culture. This is obviously an inadequate perspective; by its nature the fraternity is an exclusive group that cannot be adequately understood from the outside alone. Perhaps this oversight has been a contributor to our misunderstandings.

I left the "Anthropology" section of the library and moved to "History." Has the fraternity always been so widely scrutinized and so badly misunderstood?

Most fraternities were not destroyed by the persecution; they simply continued to practice their "pranks, mysticism and diversions" underground. They began to surface and gain acceptance again in the mid-1880s.

Administrators had not totally lost their suspicions; they were simply forced to admit, by this time, that fraternities were here to stay.

Some of the strongest misunderstandings of fraternities are surfacing today, and not all are without reason. Fraternity initiation ceremonies include "hazing" practices that have on occasion become so severe that they have resulted in the deaths of pledges. Though these situations have been rare, they have become more frequent in recent years. Perhaps it is in this context that the fraternity has earned its classification with the Chinese assassins. At best, these practices allow the misunderstandings of the overall fraternity system to continue.

Despite these misunderstandings, fraternities are now in the midst of a virtual Renaissance. In 1978, more than three million college men belonged to 406 national fraternities in the United States, almost a 20% increase in the last 10 years.<sup>1</sup> This fall, approximately a million men will pledge. Why the rush to become a Greek?

"The fraternity has given me a larger circle of friends on campus," says Bill Holl, a former president of Sigma Chi at the University of Southern California. "And it's given me a chance to assume leadership, to prepare myself for outside the school."

John Labinski, fraternity member at the 43,000-student University of Texas, centered on the need to belong. "In the '60s there was unity in protest. Now students need a group to associate with, and Greek organizations provide a social base."

Rise of the Greeks

The first fraternity, Phi Beta Kappa, was founded at William and Mary College in Virginia in 1776. The idea quickly spread and was originally well received by faculty and administrations. But with reports of increasing "pranks, mysticism and diversions," the college establishment began to take a dim view of social organizations.

In 1855, Princeton University required all entering freshmen to sign a pledge promising not to join any fraternity under penalty of dismissal. In 1875, a photo was discovered of several men wearing the equivalent of Gucci loafers; they were summarily suspended from Princeton.

Various other reasons are cited for joining fraternities: better housing, better food, or the urging of parents who were in college during the resurgence of fraternities in the 1950s. The strongest reason may be simply the desire for lasting friendship in an otherwise transient atmosphere. Esquire magazine speculated that "the fraternities and sororities provide the strongest strand of social continuity in an atmosphere of flux and instability. Which may be why 53% of all upper-classmen (at Dartmouth) still belong to them."<sup>2</sup>

Mark Bertram, a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon at Indiana University, adds, "The biggest benefit is the common bond, where you feel obligated to get to know people you might otherwise avoid. It expands you. It's just like the world; you can't always pick your friends."

The fact that men are flocking to fraternities as never before led me to a final question: Do fraternity members themselves understand the fraternity?

Three-dimensional Unity

The most comprehensive and authoritative reference work on the American Greek system is Baird's Manual of American College Fraternities. William Raimond Baird, himself a fraternity man, first published the manual in 1879. Revised, updated and republished almost 20 times in the last century, it remains the recognized authority on American fraternities. In addition to statistics and chapter memberships, the manual also contains information on the founding purpose and philosophy of many modern fraternities, such as Delta Tau Delta: "The primary purpose of the fraternity is to serve as a constructive adjunct to the system of higher education, contributing to moral, spiritual and social development of its members."<sup>3</sup>

The original goal of Kappa Alpha Psi was to "promote the social, intellectual, and moral welfare of its members."<sup>4</sup> The Sigma Chi's were "established upon a broad ideal of manhood and upon the principle that true strength lies in a well-rounded symmetrical development of individual character."<sup>5</sup>

These statements reflect that the earliest fraternities began with a commitment to brotherhood through social, intellectual and spiritual unity. Each element was believed to be vital for true brotherhood to exist. Samuel Eells, founder of Alpha Delta Phi, wrote that the fraternity "must be national and universal in its adaptations so as not merely to cultivate a taste for literature or furnish the mind with knowledge, but with a true philosophical spirit looking to the entire man so as to develop his whole being—moral, social and intellectual."

In the modern fraternity, a strong commitment to brotherhood remains, but the means have become predominantly social, with little attention given to the moral and intellectual.

James Epperson, a professor of English at Dartmouth College, has proposed that the college's board of trustees abolish fraternities from that campus. His stinging charges against the fraternities include "uncivilized behavior" and a social overemphasis that encourages "anti-intellectualism" across campus.<sup>7</sup>

But are fraternities the sole culprit at Dartmouth? Author Andy Merton, in his article, "Hanging on to Tradition at Dartmouth," comments: "But the problems of Dartmouth only begin with the fraternities. There are many who charge that it is not just the Greeks but the entire college that is racist, sexist, hedonistic, anti-intellectual."<sup>8</sup> The introduction to Baird's manual takes the comment one step further: "... It may be seen that one of the real obstacles to fraternity strength is hedonism with the larger society of which fraternities are a part."<sup>9</sup>

Apparently, as modern fraternities become more and more social, they are simply reflecting the superficiality that has become characteristic of our society as a whole. Christopher Lasch, author of the best-seller The Culture of Narcissism, offers a concise diagnosis of our society's value system: "Permissive society is in; guilt and punishment are out. Self-help is in; authority is out. Leisure is in; working is out. Spending is in; saving is out. . . . Therapy is in; religion is out. Superficiality is in; depth is out. Nonbinding relationships are in; commitments are out."<sup>10</sup> Lasch concludes, "The stress is now on the legitimacy of immediate gratification."<sup>11</sup>

Early fraternities were committed to the building of lasting relationships by meeting the needs of the total man—socially, intellectually and spiritually. Because people still have deep needs in each of these areas, a sense of real and enduring brotherhood will elude them until they can relate to one another in each of these areas. Will the fraternity provide this opportunity, or will it continue to follow the rest of society by exchanging lifelong relationships for superficial social bonds?

Perhaps the strongest question for the modern fraternity comes from its own alumni and founding fathers: Can true unity continue when its basic precept of building total men has been denied?

Homecoming Reunion

These Illinois Deltans were all smiling in 1955 because they knew that in 1980 they would gather again for a 25 year reunion. The remnants of today's time-tested group are pictured immediately right.

For over 75 years, Phi Kappa Psi has been a leading fraternity on the University of Illinois campus. This year's Homecoming weekend showed Phi Psis young and old exactly why that statement is true. A revamping of the Alumni Reunion in conjunction with the C. F. "Dab" Williams Scholarship banquet brought over 150 Brothers and their wives to experience homecoming—a tradition started by Illinois Deltan Clarence F. "Dab" Williams in 1917.

The Class of '55, thought to be the largest (33) pledge class (and the best by their own admission), decided to celebrate their 25th anniversary at Homecoming to show the undergraduates what REAL Phi Psi spirit was made of. The effort was organized by Brothers Harlan Burgess, a Chicago envelope manufacturer, and Jim Acheson, current Chapter Advisor, who felt the key to gathering the Brothers was plenty of advance notice. On October 31, 1979, exactly a year to the day before the reunion, they called each of the 27 pledge Brothers they had located to invite them personally to a weekend of fun and Brotherhood.

The strategy paid off, as none could say they were "busy that night" or "we can't get a sitter," a year ahead of time. As the year wore on, the Brothers were contacted by mail to confirm arrangements and reservations. Tom Mayes joined the fray in the spring and those who wavered in the slightest received 3 or 4 phone calls from classmates all over the country. Specially invited to join in were those Brothers who shared old "911" during '55's years on campus, even the tolerated sophomores and pledge boss Herb Jones.

Finally the weekend arrived and so did the alumni—all Friday afternoon.

They came in: 7 from California, 2 from Washington, D.C.; from Wisconsin, Connecticut, Denver, Dallas, Duluth, Davenport, Pittsburgh, Iowa, Indiana, lots from Illinois, and even an "old bird" colonel from Ft. Huachuca, Arizona named Strom. In the evening they gathered in the home of Jill & Jim Acheson, and immediately proceeded to get caught up on lost time, recall college days, and sing the old songs until—well, until it ended. Then came Saturday.

By 11:00 a.m. new arrivals had swelled the crowd to over 150 Brothers for the traditional tailgate before the game. The undergraduate Chapter turned out in strength to host, thus beginning the first real exchange between young and old, and the beginning of a togetherness that would grow as the activities went on. Even a tough loss to the Golden Gophers couldn't dampen the spirits as the Marching Illini were great, the weather was perfect, and Phi Psis, Pi Phis, Sigs and Kappas walked off with first place in the float competition.

— Illinois Delta Style

But it was the banquet Saturday night at the Ramada Inn where the young and old really began a mutual admiration society. The hot shots of the fifties "cleaned up" as well as they could, but couldn't match the confident and friendly groups of "thin-framed" young men in their "3 pieces" who kept joining the crowd. The '55 Jazz Band featuring two Californians; Dr. Dave Bruce, Piano; Jim Gillium, Trumpet; and Chicago Tribune writer Clarence Peterson, Clarinet, were joined by undergraduates Frank Whiting, Base; and Friar Kernen, Drums, entertained during the pre-dinner festivities.

The alumni were "on" first featuring welcomes from brother David D. Henry, President of the University in the fifties and sixties, and Paul Bresee, Illinois Delta's Mr. Phi Psi for years. Next came the usual lies about the good old days, and finally a serenade to the undergraduate chapter as led by basketball star, Johnny Kerr. But the most impressive part of the program was orchestrated by "Dab" Williams Foundation President Jim Neckopulos as he and board members passed out certificates and cash awards to 33 young men who had achieved 4.0 grades or better during the past semester. Finally, everyone was moved as Todd Salen and Bill Acheson presented the first annual Stephen Walter Acheson award to Steve Nieslawski. The alumni realized that these undergraduates were every bit as good—maybe even better—than that great class of the fifties.

Chapter President Chris Nieman, acknowledging that just maybe the Class of '55 was as good as advertised, closed the affair by inviting young and old to the Chapter house to enjoy the new-found Brotherhood that spanned 25 years as if it were yesterday.

Stephen Walter Acheson Award

The C. F. "Dab" Williams foundation was established some years ago for the purpose of encouraging scholarship at the University of Illinois and Illinois Delta of Phi Kappa Psi. Tax deductible contributions have been placed in the general fund with proceeds used primarily to stage a scholarship banquet each semester, honoring those undergraduates who have achieved a 4.0 or better. Much of the work and cost in establishing the foundation was shouldered by Jim Neckopulos, CPA, Illinois '74 and Kent Yowell, a lawyer, Colorado '46.

In March of 1980, tragedy struck Illinois Delta when Stephen Acheson, an initiate of only eight weeks, was killed in an auto accident in Georgia which also involved eleven Phi Psi Brothers. Because Steve had already developed strong ties to the Fraternity, due in part to a family Phi Psi background (brother Bill is a senior in the Chapter and his father, Jim, is Chapter Advisor), the family requested that any memorial donations be made to the "Dab" Williams Foundation.

The response was overwhelming. Over $5,000.00 was received in the next few weeks. The Foundation Board, at a special meeting and with the blessing of Steve's family, decided to establish a Stephen Walter Acheson award to perpetuate the memory of Steve and his dreams for Phi Psi. It was decided that the undergraduate Chapter would select by secret ballot, which were sealed and given to the Foundation Board, he who during the past year had best demonstrated the ideals of our Brotherhood and the University of Illinois. Each year at homecoming the recipient would be announced, his name placed on a plaque in the Chapter House, and he would receive a cash award from the interest accrued in the fund.

This year at the 1980 Homecoming banquet, Steve Nieslawski received a $300.00 check from the Foundation as the winner of the Stephen Walter Acheson Award.

Gifts to the Williams Foundation are welcomed. For further details contact Foundation President, James M. Neckopulos, 848 Washington, Elmhurst, IL 60126.

Phi Psi is in the Heart of the Country!

James P. Zerface was initiated into Phi Kappa Psi by the DePauw University Chapter in 1959. Here he shares with THE SHIELD his personal experience in the more popular than ever industry of Country Music.

I became interested in playing the guitar my sophomore year at DePauw and learned a few chords with the help of Brothers Mike Evans and Fred Roberts. My senior year I organized a rock group called the "Unbelievables," aptly named for the "unbelievability" that anyone would listen to us, let alone pay us for playing. My interest in composing developed as a guitarist with a rock group while working on my doctorate in Counseling Psychology at Indiana University 1965-1968. In 1969 my brother, Bill Zerface, was employed by Indiana University. He had a talent for lyrics, which was my weakness, and, in addition, he was a country music fan, which I was not. Anyway we started working on country songs together and really found it enjoyable. Eventually we deluded ourselves into thinking we were pretty good.

In 1973 I moved to Nashville, Tennessee, where my wife, Tad, began a nurse practitioner program at Vanderbilt University and where I began working as a school psychologist. Playing basketball in 1975 I met Bob Morrison, a writer for Combine Music, and subsequently showed him some of our material. He liked it and suggested that he, Bill and myself try collaborating. That's when things really came together.

Our first collaboration was a tune called "Buckeye Jackson" that didn't hit the charts, but received a lot of air play. Then in 1976 we co-wrote a song, "Angels, Roses, and Rain," that reached number one on the national country music charts. Since that time we've had five other chart songs with "You'd Make an Angel Wanna Cheat" by the Kendalls which reached #5, "Shoulder to Shoulder" by Roy Clark reaching #26, "Last Night Every Night" #30 by Reba McEntire, "All the Sweet" #39 by Mel McDaniels, and currently "She Lifts Me Up to Heaven" by Reba McEntire which was #9 last week and climbing.

Since January I've had songs recorded by nine different country artists and am currently trying to find more time to write. This isn't easy because in addition to my work as a psychologist, I coach Little League baseball and Junior Pro basketball teams. We have two children, Cris, our ten year old son, and Janie aged eight.

Psis realized that there would be no hope of keeping the house open the following fall, although they would make every effort to keep the organization functioning.

With the help of the alumni and Gene W. Vogel, Beloit '39, the first undergraduate to return after the war, Wisconsin Gamma sprung back in the fall of 1946.

The remainder of the 1940's and 1950's were good years for Phi Psi at Beloit. On June 5, 1954, the Chapter moved out of its old house and into a newly-built facility at 815 College Street, on campus. The building was constructed and owned by the College, and the Chapter's House Corporation rented it until 1970.

The middle to late 1960's brought trouble for the Chapter, first from the Fraternity itself, and then, at the end of the decade, from the changes within society.

In the fall of 1967 Wisconsin Gamma pledged an exceptionally good class, including Ernest Gregory George, a top-flight athlete, a superior student, and a black. The GP of one southern Chapter, upon discovering this, visited Beloit under false identity and pretenses to verify Greg's pledging, and without any mention to Wisconsin Gamma, filed a complaint with the Executive Council. The Beloit Chapter was shocked, not so much by external meddling in the affairs of the Chapter, but especially by the deceit with which the complainant went about it.

Fortunately, at the 1968 G.A.C., the Fraternity's concept of the Founders original membership requirements prevailed, and Ernest George was initiated. This is a bit of trailblazing of which the Chapter is proud.

The victory was tremendous, but it could not give the Chapter enough momentum to survive the growing disinterest in fraternities on campus. In the summer of 1970, Phi Kappa Psi at Beloit went the way of many fraternities and folded. For six years the Chapter remained inactive.

In the fall of 1976, several seniors developed a renewed interest in the Fraternity, and the challenge of beginning a new organization seemed a worthy one. After two years of hard work the Colony organized by Fraternity staff established a good reputation and firm standing on campus. In September 1978, the Chapter was officially installed and has continued to grow since.

With a successfully negotiated lease and full house, the Chapter now finds itself in a strong and lasting position as it looks to its Centennial birthday next November. Wisconsin Gamma is proud of its history and its durability. We all look forward to making and sharing history at the celebration.

Chapter Newsletters

Repeated requests and reminders for newsletters don't always elicit response. "Newsletter not received" may indicate copy was not received by the deadline. Please contact the Chapter directly to encourage better participation.

Akron Academic Accomplishments

The Ohio Iota Chapter is proud of its academic accomplishments at The University of Akron. The Chapter had the highest percentage of members on the Deans List than any other Fraternity on campus. Also, the Chapter had the highest grade point average among the smaller chapters. The members of Ohio Iota are proud of this achievement of academic excellence and will continue to strive in their endeavors.

On February 20, 1981, the Chapter had a very successful Founders' Day. This event provides an excellent opportunity for the undergraduate members to become better acquainted with alumni. Dinner was held at Young's Restaurant and was followed by a party at the house.

Through the efforts and donations of undergraduates and alumni, the house has acquired a new look. There has been much work done to the first floor and the basement. In the basement we added a pool table, weight room and a much needed paint job. Also, improvements have been made to the rest of the house.

The Chapter is currently re-establishing its presence on campus by getting involved in many campus activities, including participation in IFC and many intramural events.

Rush for both the Spring and Fall of 1981 looks promising, and we are hoping to increase our membership with good men.

Allegheny Favorable Instability

Greetings from the zipper city! The weather of Meadville continued its traditional path of cold, snow, rain, and fog throughout winter term, but our spirits remained high.

This term at Penn Beta saw the pledging of 13 unique and diversified gentlemen. They include: Robert C. Carlson, Richmond Hts., Ohio; R. Gregory Chiles and David L. Edwards, Pittsburgh; Barry A. Enterline, Erie; Christopher R. Foster, Whitehouse Sta., N.J.; Norman P. Haywood, Pittsburgh; William R. Jahos, Rumson, N.J.; Peter J. Pollard, Harrisburg; Kurt P. Schober, Silver Creek, N.Y.; Theodore A. Socher, Cochran; Michael K. Smullen, Bainbridge, Ohio; Jonathan D. Usdin, Rochester, N.Y.; and Mark I. Weckerley, Shinglehouse.

Our Chapter has been relatively active in campus affairs. We have participated in all interfraternal athletic competitions. Strong finishes were seen in swimming and wrestling. Ten Brothers are currently active in the college radio station. Special recognition for outstanding achievements go to Brothers Brit Hyde and Mike Slotsky, who were honored for their scholastic abilities in the social sciences, Bob Michelini, who is vice-president of the wind symphony, and Tom Guenther, who is the financial controller of Allegheny Student Government.

The new chapter officers include: Brinton L. Hyde, GP; Russell E. Spanard, VGP; Thomas E. Guenther, P; David B. Lasher, AG; Steven E. Morgan, BG; Michael T. Darrell, Hod; Michael B. Fryling, Phu; and Alan H. Redfern, Hi.

On Jan. 31, 1981, the following alumni were inducted into the Allegheny College sports Hall of Fame: Glenn A. Beckert '59, William M. Bishop '52, Dr. Raymond H. Cox '55, Gov. Raymond P. Shafer '35, and James C. Villa '56. Congratulations! Governor Shafer also held the distinct honor of moderating a public affairs program at Allegheny, titled, Islam: Three Perspectives, which will be airing this spring on P.B.S.

Our latest improvement in the house was the painting of the halls by the Brothers and pledges, and the painting of our lobby by the pledges. The committee system is showing definite signs of improvement, and among those most active are scholarship and rush. We have also been working very closely with our faculty advisor, Dr. Steven Lyons.

The Chapter is looking forward to spring term, but will miss those seniors graduating. These include: Edward A. Adatepe, Physics; David L. Allman, Economics; William J. Brennan, Political Science; Mark J. Hollenbeck, Psychology; Timothy P. Loftus, History; David K. Lush, Environmental Resource Management; Charles J. McBride Jr., Computer Science; Benjamin S. Pitkin, English, and Roger O. Wilcox, English. The best of luck to all of them!

Arizona Looking Forward

Beginning the semester with new pledges Brian Ray Kenny of Tucson; Raymond D Herron, II of Denver; Jonathon Michael James of Sierra Vista, AZ; and Joel George

Mona of South Burlington, VT; Arizona Alpha looks for a strong spring.

Spring Fling, the University's annual carnival, is the biggest spring event on campus, and Minsky's—put on by the Phi Psi—is the biggest event of Spring Fling.

Four our burlesque booth this year we are paired with 160 beautiful Kappa Kappa Gammas.

The expansion and improvement of the booth and the addition of new acts promises to make this year's Minsky's the best ever.

If Minsky's is our crowning event of the spring, our "Wine Tasting Tour," "Hayride in Hog-Heaven," and "DaVinci's Delicious Dinner Date" must be considered as part of the royal social procession.

Despite our active social calendar, we have found time to study. We placed second in scholarship.

Also, many Alphans were recognized individually. Pat Duffy was elected to the student senate. Dave Morgenstein was awarded a pilot slot in the Air Force. Francis Bidleman chaired the University Elections Committee. And Jim Engle was accepted by several law schools.

We would like to thank GP Steve Smith and VGP Dave Clair for their contributions as Chapter officers.

And we would again like to thank alumni Dud Daniel, Bob Gibson, Don Gooder, and Dave Sanborne. With their help, the Chapter has made great strides and will make even greater ones in the future.

Arizona State Staying On Top

After a busy and most successful fall semester has drawn to a close, Phi Psi at Arizona State finds itself still on top.

In December we initiated 8 outstanding men: Lance Johnson, Fairfield, Iowa; Curtis Grandia, Oskaloosa, Iowa; Tom Hunts, Phoenix; John Diaz, Caguas, Puerto Rico; Bill Mamola, Orange, CA; Randy Gregg, Nappa, CA; Steve Schulman, Miami, FL; and Cary Glickstein, Philadelphia. The Chapter would also like to welcome Bob Malone, a transfer from Creighton University. He has brought with him many fine ideas which are sure to strengthen our Chapter. With the addition of these fine Brothers, our total chapter role is up to 241.

The Spring officer election results are: GP, Brian Weinberger; VGP, Michael Mongelli; P, Michael Shriver; AG, Carl Geringer; BG, Chuck Tapert; HI, Steve O'Brien, Hod, Art Gross; Phu, John Edmondson; and SG, Tom Hunts. With these officers, Phi Psi will continue to be on top at Arizona State.

During our Winter Formal at the Playboy Club, the following awards were given: Outstanding Actives; Brian Weinberger, and Carl Geringer; Outstanding Pledge, Bill Mamola; and Sweetheart, Laura Kreider.

Our Founders' Day celebration held at the Chapter house was a most successful and enjoyable event. Special thanks to Rudy Jarolim, Sandy Chamberlain, and Don Nordlund for putting the whole thing together. And special thanks to all of the alumni who showed, from as far away as Honolulu, to help celebrate Phi Psi. Their constant support year after year gives us all another reason to say that "we're proud to be a Phi Psi!"

The second annual Phi Psi Calendar is now in print. It contains pictures of 12 lovely sorority girls and ads from alumni such as Rob Brunswick, Les Ksieski, William Swanson, and Richard Rogers. To these and other alumni who helped us out, thank you. Also, thanks to all of the undergraduate Brothers, whose constant help and support made it possible.

As Spring is upon us, many exciting honors have been given to our Brothers. Brian Weinberger has been selected as a Devils Advocate, and Robert Carrillo as an alternate. Devils Advocates is a top honorary group here at Arizona State. Also, Robert Carrillo was selected to the Student Foundation, another honorary group.

Greek Sing and Greek Games are now upon us. We have selected the women of Delta Delta Delta, and the men of Sigma Chi to be our partners in sing. It is a fantastic show, to be performed March 31, and we are all eagerly awaiting it, especially Brother Carrillo's solo. As for Greek Games, the team of Phi Psi, Delta Gamma, and FIJI is certain to be the powerhouse and winner.

In intramurals, special note goes to our strong wrestling team which captured third overall, and to Howard Scheuner for his second place in one-on-one basketball. Also, best wishes to our softball, track, golf, and tennis teams which are preparing to capture a berth in the playoffs, and hopefully the championship.

Our house is always open for any Brothers passing by, and to our alumni who haven't stopped in recently, come on by and see "your" house.

May the bonds of Brotherhood grow ever stronger.

Arkansas Running Smoothly

Spring has finally made its presence known here at the University of Arkansas, and the Phi Psi's of Arkansas Alpha meet it with no regrets. We have just initiated eleven fine men—Scott Scribeur, Greg Burgess, Bill Doshier, Kevin Daily, Richard Waddell, Casey Shell, Jon Gregory, Gary Thorton, Bobby James, Mike Sparks, and Bob Shores—into the "Secrets of Phi Kappa Psi," and have another thirteen men as pledges.

Elections have come and gone, and we were left with a great group of new officers: Gregg Fisher, GP; Grant Downer, VGP; Brian Campbell, P; Virgil Holloway, AG; Greg Garland, SG; Timothy Hogue, BG; Timothy Scott, HI; Kenneth Harper, HOD; and Shannon Hodges, PHU. We hope these men lead us well.

The parties have turned great this semester, the more memorable ones being, a "Little Kid's" party with Kappa Alpha Theta, and a "Suppressed Desire" function with Alpha Delta Pi.

An unusual idea evolved this semester, that being the Chapter's decision to cut down on our parties in April, so we could start with the planning and construction of a combination T.G.I.F. and Barbeque site, called the "Piazza Del Phi Psi." The plans look great and we will begin work immediately. It should help the looks of our adopted Phi Psi house tremendously.

Ah, but let's not forget our future project, the "Phi Psi Fall Festival." We are still looking forward with intense anticipation to next October when that long sought after dream finally becomes a reality.

So, overall, this Spring has been going smoothly and we are all looking forward to a bright future for the men of Arkansas Alpha.

Ashland Initiates and Pledges

The spring semester for the Brothers of Ohio Theta was a great one; we started it off by initiating six Brothers from the fall rush. Larry Schuman, Jay Billy, Tom Spatafora, Bob DiDonato, Sam Miranda, and Payam Raouf, all became active Brothers this semester.

This year our numbers will increase after a fantastic spring Freshman Rush. Pinned to Ohio Theta are Dan Monacelli, Bob Houska, Bill Pucciani, J.R. Milligan, Dave Morell, Jack Leonti, Tom Himes, Bob Petrino, Gil Holmes, Scott Bontempo, Bob Zak, Steve Keller, Eric Monchecourt, Mike Burkholder, Dave McNally, Jimmy Hague, Ron Bajorek, and Dave Ferguson. These 18 future Phi Psis are under the direction of Fraternity Educators Bob Schneider, Bob Black and Geoff Mills.

Earlier this semester the Brothers elected new officers with Tad Rose receiving the honor and duties as the new GP; VGP, Mike Cunningham; Frank Fraas, AG; Keith Connors, P; Dick Smith, BG; Bob Schneider, SG; Frank Mancini, PHU; John Heffernan, HOD; and Abdul Holderman as the HI.

Philanthropy on the hilltop included helping the Ashland College television station, WRDL, with their annual auction. Projects to benefit the community included planting a living memorial of trees and bushes for the city. Collecting canned food for the needy at Easter time took place, as did the Annual Easter party for the Head Start Children of Ashland.

Athletics, and participation by the Phi Psis, are stronger than ever. Brothers Tommy Johnston, Scott Heimstra, John Heffernan, Jay Billy and Pledges Morell, Leonti, and Houska led the Eagle grapplers to an outstanding 15-0 season and a national ranking of sixth in Division II. Unfortunately the season had a damper when Brother Heimstra suffered a knee injury, but he is recovering from surgery nicely. On the bright side, Brother Billy placed third in the Mid-East regionals.

The Ashland lacrosse team was led by Phi Psi captains Frank Mancini and Kevin Rose. Other members of the team included Mark Wyland, Rick Sorkow, and new comer to the sport John Dorsey. The AC stickers will also have the services of pledges Ferguson, Hague, McNally.

Joe Bettura, and pledges Monacelli and Houska will lead the Eagle hard ballers on the diamond, while Bob DiDonato will lead the tennis team.

The rest of the Brothers of Ohio Theta would like to send our congratulations and best wishes to all our graduating seniors.

Our congratulations also go out to Brothers Mills, Carroll, and Connors for being chosen as Outstanding Greek Men on the Ashland College campus.

Jay Billy, Ashland '81 placed third in Mid-East Division II Regional Wrestling.

The Shield of Phi Kappa Psi

Finally, our Chapter turned a ripe old 15 years on April 16th. We would like to send our best to our Alumni across the nation . . . by the way, drop us a line, we would love to hear from you.

Auburn

Scholastic Excellence Continues

For the fourth straight quarter the Chapter has ranked among the top three fraternities on campus in scholarship. Last winters efforts placed the Chapter number one and this past fall the Chapter fell only to number two.

The associate member class of fall quarter continued to exhibit themselves as fine all around gentlemen, taking the number one ranking in scholarship among fraternity pledge classes. Six of these men were initiated into the Chapter on our birthday, January 26, 1981. They were John Evans, Chip Clark, Tony Barber, Robert Makofske, Keith Bolen, and Stan Henderson.

Winter quarter saw the Chapter continue to grow with the addition of three associate members. They are Dixon Allen Land of Pensacola, Florida, Waylon Robert Thompson of Russellville, and Gary William Storie of Birmingham.

The Chapter is presently at the stable-number we are so used to of 26. The house is full and shows no signs of having a vacancy in the near future. Everything is great except that there are still more things to do than we seem to have money for. Most of the things can wait, however, two cannot. The fire department is requiring installation of a completely new fire alarm system in the house. Also, the pile of whatever in the back yard which we acquired with the house must now be removed at our expense. I think the request has been made before so I'll keep it simple this time. Help!!

Spring quarter the Chapter hopes to see everyone at A-day on May 9 and then the following weekend, May 16, we will all be recuperating in Pensacola.

Finally, I must sadly inform you of the death of charter member Joseph Anthony Amaro, Jr. Brother Amaro died of cancer on January 7, 1981.

Beloit

100 Years and More

With the beginning of the new year, Wisconsin Gamma initiated twelve outstanding new members. This new class consists of: Dirk W. Damrau, Random Lake; John B. Stone, Sterling, IL; David A. Bizzaro, South Bend, IN; Lincoln A. German, Fairfax, VA; Douglas M. Weiss, Glastonbury, CT; Stephen T. Creden, Niles, MI; Joseph A. Coyne, Flint, MI; Greg R. Powell, Palatine, IL; Holman D. Pettibone III, Glenbrook, NV; Gary B. Diamond, Bethesda, MD; Kenneth J. H. Matheis Jr., Drayton Plains, MI; and Courtney Ellis, Arlington, VA. Each new member is happy and eager to go to work for the chapter . . . needless to say we are eagerly looking forward to their new ideas and spirit.

Athletically, Phi Psi has a lot to contribute to the winter and spring scenes. One of the most promising of our athletes is Holman (Chip) Pettibone who is dominant in the swimming pool. So much so that when asked what event Chip swims, most people say any event that has to be won. Pat Esposito, Pete Kozelka, and Steve Creden add a very dynamic effect to Beloit's hockey team. The Baseball team, organized this spring, consists of Guy Oberwise, Blaine Kloeckner, Mark Underwood, and Lincoln German. These men form the back bone of the team. Last, but certainly not least, are the Phi Psi runners; the track team members are Bob Symonds, Jamie Hollensteiner and Terry Jones.

Phi Psi has athletic prowess as well as academic excellence as our better than 3.0 house average for the fall term of 1980 attests. Scholarship Chairman Dan McKee reports that about 40% of the house made the Dean's list last term. Way to go PHI PSI!

In the social lives of the Beloit Phi Psis there is never a dull moment; this is due in part to the hard work of our Social Chairman, Guy Oberwise, who has provided us with a great variety of entertainment from parties to swing bands. Let us not say, however, that any Phi Psi would have to take on such a burden without any help from his Brothers. Steward Lyle Kula did his part by sponsoring several study breaks and one of Phi Psi's best formal dinners yet. Leading up the Public Service end of our social lives is Andy Schumacher, Social Service Chairman, whose pet project this spring is to help in the sponsorship of a marathon race through downtown Beloit, all proceeds going towards the city's Community fund. The highlight of the 1981 social agenda is our Centennial Celebration. Much credit should be given to: John W. Lind, Plato Leeson, Bill Korst, Terry Jones, Mark Lee, and Jay Byers, the members of the Centennial Committee. They have worked very hard in preparation for the big bash, our Centennial Banquet, which will be held Nov. 7, 1981 at the Holiday Inn, in Beloit. A very special thanks is given to all those who have made this possible through donations, hard work, and returning our Alumni Census Forms. Phi Psi has always thrived because of the genuine concern its members have given her, and I am happy to say this has not changed. Despite the increase of book prices and other academic expenses our GP, Ron Vlaskamp, still expects a 100% participation rate among donations made by undergraduate members.

And so as this year comes to a close, Wisconsin Gamma can remain confident in its future and its members. Here's to another ONE HUNDRED years of Phi Psi at Beloit!

Edmund G. Lowrie Correspondent

Bowling Green

Much to Celebrate

As Winter Quarter draws to an end, the Bowling Green Phi Psis reflect on a terrific quarter. During the quarter we initiated six new Brothers and four new Pledges. The new Brothers include Dan Dessum, a transfer from Ohio Eta; Steve Dentzer, Akron; Jim Dartt, Perrysburg; Matt Shanahan, Fremont; and Dave Ribet and Eric Geissler, both from Marion. Included in this winter's pledge class are Keith Ritterhouse, Urbana; Scott Hedden, Arcadia; John Fischer, Toledo; and Brian Rock, Bowling Green.

This quarter's leadership has come from the outstanding officers elected Nov. 18: Keith Reinke, GP; Steve Curliss, VGP; Mike Bennett, P; Jeff Rowley, AG; Greg Moyer, BG; Reiner Mueller, SG; Dick Smith, Hod; Chip Camiscione, Phu; and Ray Farley, Hi. Credit is also due to the hard working committee chairman.

During the Founders' Day celebration the Chapter initiated two new chapter awards. The "Scott David Morrison Award" and the "Outstanding Alumni Award." The first award was named in honor of one of our seniors, Scott Morrison, and is awarded yearly to the Brother that best exemplifies the ideals of our Fraternity. The second award is given to an outstanding alumnus who gives unselfish work towards our Chapter to realize goals at Ohio Zeta. This year's recipient is our own Chapter Advisor, John Ulrich. Congratulations Scott and John!

In conclusion a special congratulations goes to Brad Hanson for being selected as the new Captain Phi Psi, replacing senior Chris Geib. Chris created this green-caped crusader as a spirit booster for many of our activities.

Bucknell

50 Year Old House

This second semester brought with it thirteen strong pledges: George Billings, Norrisburg; Tom Gertsner, Liverpool, N.Y.; Kerry Johnson, Wayne, Pa.; Dave Kenzie, Baltimore, Md.; Pete Mattoon, Radnor, Pa.; Mike Scalzone, Millstone, N.J.; Craig Toland, Timonium, Md.; Mike Walmark, Westport, Ct.; Craig Waters, Carmel, N.Y. We are looking forward to what they promise will be a good Shipwreck.

At the end of last semester we were in the lead for the Pangburn Intramural Trophy by a small margin. Only one month into this semester that lead has been strengthened considerably with a strong showing in basketball.

The social scene is in full swing with Friday cocktail parties and the upcoming Formals, Roman Orgy and Shipwreck. House Party promises to be the usual good time with the Phi Psi "500", band parties, and a cook-out. House Party is the weekend of May 8 & 9 and all alumni are welcome.

Officers elected for this semester are Rob Mathai, President; Steve McFarland, Vice President; Doug Rotatori, Treasurer; Eddie Wannamaker, Corresponding Secretary. These officers along with those from last semester met with the Founder's last Feb. 16 and the meeting brought many forthcoming improvements to the house. The major improvements are in the form of new chairs for the dining room, new furniture for the living room and paint for the outside trim . . . all of which were badly needed and greatly appreciated on this the 50th anniversary of the house.

We are looking forward to a great spring semester and as always, alumni are welcome.

Butler Housing Project Rolling

The beginning of the semester saw the men of Indiana Zeta welcome fourteen new members into the Chapter. They are Robert Bailey, Plainville, CT.; Peter Brady, Indianapolis; John Brand, New Haven; J. Anthony Bushnell, Evansville; Stuart Jerris, New York; Paul Martin, Elk Grove Village, IL.; Darren Matthias and Charles Oei, Indianapolis; Kevin O'Shanghnessy, Pekin, IL.; Bruce Phillips, Sunbury, OH.; Brian Strautman, Aurora; James Sweeney, Cincinnati; Tim Tobias, Crown Point; and Darryl Wells, Bellbrook, OH. Pledge Trainer Jon Strautman led the ceremony in the Brothers Only Room at the National Headquarters.

The Brothers are very excited with the prospects of getting a new house (see boxed insert below). Presently we are organizing several fund raisers, shopping for furniture, and finalizing the house design.

Socially, we have had at least one party with every Butler sorority. We have also begun the now famous, invitation only "kicker" socials. Future events include a social with the women's dorm and a pledge dance.

Our philanthropy efforts have proved to be very rewarding. The Chapter hosted over fifty adoptive children, using the Butler gym for games and then treating them to dinner. We also won campus competitions for a blood drive and a canned-food drive.

Scholarship continues to be a chapter strong point. Four members received a 4.0 g.p.a. Brian Lundeen was voted as the Chapter's nomination for outstanding student at Butler.

In closing, Indiana Zeta would like to thank all of the alumni who have helped us this past year, especially with regard to our prospective new house. We also extend best wishes for a great 1981 to all the Brothers nationwide.

Ralph W. Blessing Correspondent

California Moving Up

Having settled into our new house, we at California Gamma are eagerly awaiting spring quarter. We move into spring with six new Brothers: Craig Mickelson, Sunnyvale; Dave Shevick, Riverside; Todd Hirsch, Alamo; Jon Rosso, Berkeley; Jim Orr, San Diego; and Sean Collins, Walnut Creek. These most recent initiates are a very energetic and active part of Cal Gamma. As pledges these men compiled the third best grade point average of the 38 fraternities on campus. The Chapter as a whole was ranked an impressive fifth, with a commitment to try to improve.

Athletically we hope to do as well in spring as we did in fall and winter. Cal Gamma enters the IFC Basketball Tournament ranked the number one fraternity team on campus. We are also gearing up to defend our swimming title, and establish competitive volleyball and softball teams.

Founders' Day was a tremendous success for California Gamma. With over 150

Ten years after receiving their charter, the men of Indiana Zeta are beginning construction on a permanent Chapter house in early April. The house will be built due in large part to a loan from Butler University. Move-in should be completed prior to the fall '81 semester.

Throughout the past ten years the Brothers of Indiana Zeta have moved from a small, ramshackle house to the men's dorm and then to a ten-man university owned lodge. Although numerous attempts have been made to build in the past, none had provided adequate funding to complete these endeavors.

The new Chapter house will hold 38 Chapter members and a graduate assistant. The house will be two stories tall with a semi-completed third floor and will be located next to the Alpha Phi Sorority.

We would appreciate any suggestion, questions or support from undergraduates or alumni concerning the new house. Address all inquiries c/o Housing Chairman, Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity, Box 9, Butler University, Indianapolis, Indiana 46208.

Brothers attending things were bound to turn out well. We would like to give special thanks to Ralph "Dud" Daniel for attending. His speech made our banquet all the more festive.

Founders' Day was a tremendous celebration, but it does not mark the end of California's social calendar. After having our most successful social quarter in recent years, Cal Gamma looks ahead to an equally exciting spring quarter. Numerous exchanges and parties are planned including our always amazing Luau, which features an in house waterfall and several tons of sand.

The officers elected to keep things rolling in the spring are GP, Jeff Polsky; VGP, Joe Jackson; P, Don Larson; AG, Mike Loscavio; BG, Rich Stanaro; SG, Brandon Baum; Hod, Mike Ward; Phu, Bob Gerstenberger; and Hi, Jeff Schrager.

We would like to take this time to thank our alumni for all their support and enthusiasm. Through hard work and alumni support we have been able to make much needed house improvements. We extend an open invitation to all alumni (and all other Brothers for that matter) to drop by any time. Cal Gamma alumni are reminded to keep an eye out for our alumni newsletter. We will attempt to keep you informed of what is going on in the house, and highlight important dates to look for, such as the undergraduate-alumni softball game.

With a revitalized committee system and rush program we look forward to a very exciting spring and fall. We would like to thank Gary Goldstein for his help as Chapter Advisor and his continued support and encouragement.

California, Davis Growth Continues

February 27th the Brothers of Cal Iota gathered formally at the elegant "Olympic Club" below San Francisco for our annual Winter formal. We celebrated the January initiation of 10 gentlemen, the pledging of 6 in February and the recent election of new officers.

Our fine group of new brothers includes Mike Begovich, Josh Charlat, Alan Flandez, Bernard Flandez, Greg Franco, Steve Garrett, Charlie Greer, Storm Jenkins, John-Paul Kozicki, and Barry Schaeffer. By the time this is printed we will have added February pledges Jim English, Tom Healy, Drew Peterson, John Schneider, Doug Smith, and Greg Stone to our membership roster.

The 1981-82 chapter officers: Brett Holt, GP; Alan Flandez, VGP; John-Paul Kozicki, P; Josh Charlat, Asst. P; Doug Adamson, AG; Charlie Greer, Hi; and Storm Jenkins, Phu, got the ball rolling soon after the election. Our new president, Brett Holt led the Brothers enthusiastically through an ambitious Spring rush program, including a couple of cocktail parties, an Hawaiian bash with band, keg baseball, a champagne brunch, and a potluck. The rush results are not in at this time, but we feel very confident that our efforts will be rewarded with the pledging of many quality gentlemen.

Plans for the Summer and next Fall include finding a house, working on establishing a local alumni organization, and running a rigorous Fall rush program.

The Cal Iota Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi is now more vital than ever and our future looks Jacqueminot rosie!

California, Los Angeles Celebration and Leadership

California Epsilon would once again like to take this opportunity to give our warmest regards to all in the Phi Psi family. The quarter began in celebration. On January 31, we were honored by the presence of Brothers representing fifty years of tradition. Some of our most respected Brothers were present at our 50th anniversary celebration.

We began our celebration early that day at the Chapter house. Alumni mingled with undergraduates as they recalled many memories on their tours. Later that evening, the party moved to the Riviera Country Club where we enjoyed an evening of dining, dancing and speeches.

The speeches were inspiring not only for the undergraduates, who received a firsthand history of the Chapter, but also for the alumni, who traveled back to their college day, recalling friendships and precious experiences. Especially touching was the speech by Bob Kerr, a charter member of the Chapter. In his speech he explained the foundation on which Cal Ep grew. The speeches continued with one speaker from each of Cal Ep's five decades. The evening was highlighted by an emotional round of "Come Back to Phi Psi", sung by the undergraduates.

ates, after our current president, Jeff Lewis, spoke.

Saturday night was a dual celebration; as we welcomed back alumni, we also welcomed a newly initiated group of Brothers. The previous evening eleven pledges were initiated into the halls of Phi Kappa Psi. Our new members are: Eric Bernd, San Diego; Don Bohay, Fountain Valley; George Brenseke, Thousand Oaks; Vincent Cameron, Gardena; Scott Delaplane, Beverly Hills; Joseph Huhn, Coronado; Laird Perkins, Rolling Hills; Robert Wallan, San Dimas; Kevin Wardrop, Torrance; and John Wasley, Orinda.

On January 12, the Chapter held its bi-annual election. The newly elected officers are: Jeff Lewis, GP; Peter Pellizzon, VGP; John Fenady, AG; Thomas Reineke, BG; Thomas Middleton, P; Biff Hallin, SG; Kevin Clarke, HOD; Dave Byrd, PHU, and Craig Harison, HI.

In keeping with the Phi Psi tradition of leadership, we are happy to say that Peter Reikes is among the top ranking school leaders. Peter, Chief Justice of the Interfraternity Council and Judicial Board, recognized not only in the house but on campus, is an important source of inspiration to the younger Brothers.

Another leader is Brian Ten who was spearheaded a major UCLA community service program—the Special Olympics for the mentally retarded. The Special Olympics is a nationwide effort to raise money to help mentally handicapped youths. Brian's selfless devotion has been constructive to the character building of our men.

Another of our leaders is Mark Byrne. Mark was the chairman of UCLA's Greek Week. Mark and his committee raised well over ten thousand dollars for the American Heart and Lung Association.

Another Phi Psi extrascholastic activity is intramurals. Phi Psi is presently ranked number one in UCLA's intramural competition. We participated in football, raquetball, and squash, and are now engaged in soccer, rugby and basketball. Spring sports will consist of waterpolo, baseball and track. The chapter also has members participating in varsity sports. Louis Averill is on the gymnastics team, and Andy Center is UCLA's starting pitcher.

Another constructive activity we participate in is Mardi Gras. Mardi Gras is an annual carnival on the grounds of UCLA. It is a major fund raiser for Uni-Camp. Phil Schneider has already put in many hard hours of work organizing the building of our "House of Horrors". In the past our booth has been among the top ranking money raisers. Mardi Gras is a time when the entire Brotherhood pulls together and works side by side—realizing that this is our opportunity to give what we can in thanks for what we have. Mardi Gras will be held on May 8, 9, 10, and is always a fun time. If any one is in Los Angeles, please come by and join in the festivities.

California Poly Great Group of Pledges

Greetings from sunny California. The gentlemen we installed as pledges on October 8, 1980, are now Brothers. Athletically, for the Cal Etans, things are going as usual. The football season saw us reach the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year. We ended our basketball season undefeated, and are waiting for the playoffs to start.

Spring quarter elections proved quite rewarding. Jim Tracy advanced from VGP to GP. Succeeding him is Lane Curtis, our past P. Rounding out the cabinet are: P, Jeff Marrs; AG, Doug Morrissey; BG, John Hansen; HI, Kevin Fox; HOD, John Swanson; PHU, Teo Zeolla; Social, Chuck Hall; and Pledge Educator to the 31st National, Jim Field.

Installed as pledges, on March 4, 1981, making up the 31st National Pledge Class were: David Henry Baugher, Douglas Lee Blankenship, Peter Jonathon Bowman, Michael Robert Boyer, Mark Alan Chase, Timothy Brian Gill, Steven Wayne Goby, Roger Greggs, Reid Gordon Goldenstein, Gregory Martin Heiss, Jonathon Mathew Hermle, Craig Anthony Janzen, Jay Stewart Johnson, Robert Alan Layne, Stuart Mills Lee, Johathon Sebald Monfort, Jeffrey Paul Murdy, Richard James Regan, Mark Alan Troth, William Howard Wayne, Gregory Ansel Wolff, and Jeffrey John Zoria. ## Cal State Northridge Moving Forward

As we begin our spring semester, we look back on one of our most successful and eventful semesters in Cal Theta's history. Twenty-one men were initiated in November: James Aamoth, Michael Alcalay, Howard Borenstein, Tim Bower, Paul Cohen, Kirby Furlong, Joseph Gonzales, Damon Grate, Robert Haney, Mark Kap-pico, Myles Koplow, Jeffery Maltzman, David Mann, Joseph Pavone, Michael Reek, Danny Rosen, David Smith, Michael Springer, Gary Stark, Michael Uberstine, and Dean Woo. Also a great deal of credit should be given to Michael Epler for his tremendous efforts as Fall Fundraising Chairman. Over $1600 was raised this Fall.

Our Spring semester has already started out with a lot of excitement. Under the new leadership of GP Ken Kottenbach and VGP John Tostado, we installed fifteen pledges (our largest ever for a Spring pledge class). Our athletic program has been greatly improved with the addition of our new initiates and the Spring pledge class.

This semester a new pastime has come to Cal Theta . . . billiards. On almost any night a small group can be seen in our garage huddled around watching Cal Theta's greatest "pool sharks" battle it out on the felt.

Coming up this semester will be our 14th annual Phi Psi "500" to be held on April 10th. All of the proceeds from our "500" will be donated to the American Diabetes Association. This will be the first time the "500" will be held at our new location. Many new and unusual obstacles are being added to the race track.

In conclusion, our Chapter appears to be one of the fastest growing on campus. After just one year, we have almost doubled our undergraduate membership. Our theme for this year is "The One in Eighty-One", which means we intend to shoot for the number one position on campus.

Case Western Reserve 75th Anniversary

Winter's wicked winds subside to surliness; snarling skies are subdued to slate-gray silence. Snow becomes slush, and suddenly a glimmer of green whispers the promise of renewed life.

Spring semester seems the proper time to begin a pledge class; the mood of the season is hopeful and full of expectation. As seeds are planted with thoughts of the harvest, so men are called to accept the challenge of becoming Brothers of Phi Kappa Psi. Though seedlings may struggle against the elements, they grow and flourish if tended well. Carefully nurtured, pledges overcome many obstacles as they progress towards Brotherhood. This spring's pledge class is under the care of pledgemaster Monte Nagy and pledge educator Mark Peters, and consists of: Jeff Bierce, Marion; Greg Blanck, Baldwin, N.Y.; Mark Glogowski, Mansfield; Tom Duchar (Secretary), West Mifflin, PA; Dana Mehnert (President), Alliance; Bob Oswald, Mount Orab; Gary Powers, Glenview, IL; Dave Samuels, Newton, MA; Mike Shatz, Canton, MA; Gregg Sheldon, Golen Rock, NJ; Chip Shew, Massillon; Dave Steppan, Lawrence, NY; Dennis Youn, Grosse Pointe Woods, MI; and Jeff Vekony, Toledo. These fourteen men possess a spirit and enthusiasm that is refreshing and promising indeed.

The spirit of several Brothers will be felt this spring as they move into positions of leadership within the Chapter. Ohio Epsilon's new officers are: Bob Antenucci, GP; Jim Csonka, VGP; Mark Peters, BG; Dave Gondek, Hod; Jae Cho, Phu; Howard Aube, Hi; and Jeff Riskin, SG.

Phi Psis have done well in CWRU intramurals this semester. Eric Bright and Marc Pinotti emerged from racquetball competition with second place in doubles; third place in bowling tournament play was taken by the Phi Psi team. The Chapter looks forward to intramural softball and especially to Greek Week as the Cleveland climate thaws.

As in the past, the Chapter is involved in volunteer work at Margaret Wagner House of University Hospitals; this semester, the pledges will be participating for their community service project.

Congratulations are in order for Barrett J. Fuhrmann, '77, and the former Rhonda Jean Riffle, who wed on March twenty-first. May Barry and Rhonda enjoy many happy years together!

The banquet celebrating Founders' Day and Ohio Epsilon's seventy-fifth anniversary was held in Crawford Auto-Aviation Museum on February twenty-first. Put on by the Chapter and the Cleveland Alumni Association, the event was truly memorable. Superb dining amid vintage automobiles and with excellent company—including distinguished guests John R. Donnell and John R. Donnell, Jr.—made the evening a grand occasion. Hearty thanks are extended to all who attended to share our Brotherhood.

This semester marks the passage of eight Brothers from undergraduate to alumnus status in Phi Kappa Psi; Eric Bright, Jerry Drda, Gerry Hallahan, Alejandro Jiminez, Joe Kang (outstanding senior), Bernie McCafferty, Keith Smith, and Andy Steurer (outstanding senior) will graduate from CWRU this May. Although the years and miles may separate us from Ohio Epsilon Chapter, our Brotherhood in Phi Kappa Psi will remain . . . our strong band can ne'er be broken, formed in old Phi Psi. HI! HI! HI!

Colgate "5 Days of Phi Psi"

Spring semester has been an active one for New York Epsilon during January Special Studies period. The Brotherhood was a leader in campus activities. One of the successful events sponsored by the Brotherhood under the new regime of President Jon Shames, was our campus-wide charity function "Five Days of Phi Psi." Under the guidance of charity function chairmen Chuck Gary, '83, Burnie Resnick, '83 and Joe Chadditz, '82 the Five Days of Phi Psi completed many activities resulting in a sizeable donation to local charities.

Opening the Five Day celebration was a bond fire rally proceeding a crucial Colgate-Dartmouth basketball game. Incidentally, New York Epsilon boasts Colgate 6'10" center Chuck Gary. One of the most popular events was a casino night held in Bartons Hall under the leadership of Chip Henson, '81 and Pete Easton, '81.

Despite heavy snow fall which threatened cancellation, a semi-formal dance under the direction of Joe Dipola, '83 and Chris Bergmann, '83 was a great success. Music was provided by a band from Syracuse. House manager Jeff Hatcher, '83 did a great job in getting the house whipped into shape.

The spirit at Phi Psi grows daily with active participation in a broad range of campus activities. Paul Nuti will be leaving early for varsity baseball practice in Virginia during Spring break. Other areas of participation include varsity basketball, wrestling and soccer, the Colgate News, the Maroon, the Colgate Harlequin, debate, the Student Pub, and the Senate.

Needless to say rush went as well as expected and a sophomore pledge has already been initiated due to extenuating circumstances. The Governing Board of New York Epsilon: Jon Shames, Chris Bergmann, Jeff Hatcher and Mick Costellanos send their best Fraternal regards to all Phi Psis nationwide. We hope the alumni will be able to attend the upcoming May Jam festival in late April.

Colorado Spring Thaw

After a surprisingly mild winter, the brothers of Colorado Alpha again prepare for Springtime in the Rockies. The highlight of our winter activities had to be Founders' Day, celebrated at Rolling Hills Country Club, Golden Colorado. It was the largest local gathering of Phi Psi undergraduates and alumni in recent years. Alumni Director "Biff" Baldry, Colorado '59, deserves a special thanks for his part in this year's festivities.

Colorado Alpha is proud to announce that three new pledges have begun the arduous but rewarding Pledge Training program. They are: Christopher Butler, New York City; Mark Butler, Syracuse, NY; and Mike White, Los Angeles, CA. We welcome these young men to the Brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi.

As usual, our early Spring social calendar has been a crowded one, capped by a campus wide "Mad Hatter" party that has promise of becoming an annual Colorado Alpha tradition.

On the sports front, our Basketball team, league champs last season, has fallen in its first two games but the season is a long one and Coach Hogle has promised we will show up for every game.

With a full house and a vigorous schedule under GP Phil Odell, Colorado '79, Spring gives promise of following in the Colorado Alpha and Phi Kappa Psi tradition of excellence as a way of life.

Columbia Big Plans for Spring

All the Brothers here at New York Gamma send out a hale and hearty "Hello!" to our fellow Phi Psis. We're happy to report that Chapter alumni generously contributed $950 in our last fundraiser towards our goal of $40,000. That was the figure cited by a contractor as an estimate of the cost of re-wiring, and of repairing the plumbing. We thank those who were able to help out and encourage other New York Gamma alumni to follow their lead. These repairs are desperately needed!

All the Brothers hope to put in a good showing at the upcoming Spring Block Party '81. A good time was had by all at last year's party, which is part of tradition of fraternity-sponsored block parties here at Columbia.

Social Chairman Brian Doherty is organizing the Chapter's booth at the upcoming campus crafts fair. As Gamma has a long and proud tradition of artistic ability amongst its members, all involved are very optimistic about the prospect of a highly successful Gamma exhibit.

Cornell Alive and Kicking

Through the relentless efforts of Rush Chairman Doug Kirk, New York Alpha began its spring semester with 22 outstanding new pledges. They are: Sophomores Gregory Chapkowski, Edison, NJ; Scott Dowdell, Olean; David Hicks, Port Jervis; Angel Milanes, West New York, NJ; John Skinner, Willingboro, NJ; and freshmen Robert Stiles, Providence, RI; Craig Clickenger, Springfield, NJ; Joseph Culler, West Hartford, CN; Gregory DiLisio, Chester, VT; Stephen Gesell, North Caldwell, NJ; Joseph Kabel, State College, PA; David Kaptein, Clifton, NJ; Thomas Knight, Bethlehem, PA; Robert Keeshock, Clifton, NJ; Daniel Mahoney, Schenectady; Philip Seaman, Crown Point, IN; Peter Shalvoy, Ridgewood, NJ; William Sherbon, Lansing; James Taschetta, Wakefield, MA; M. Brooks Turkel, Yardley, PA; John Wasserbauer, Lakewood, OH; and Marc Weinstein, Pittsburgh, PA. Pledgemaster David Winterling has done an admirable job of uniting the pledges in such activities as Frankel Cup Sports (pledges vs. the Brotherhood) and various big brother-little brother projects. A fall initiation is planned.

Duncan Scott, GP, has brought enthusiastic progress to the Chapter this semester, ably aided by Dave Pace, VGP; Steve Spokane, P; Hans Bauer, AG; Jim Gast, BG; Dave Winterling, SG; Steve Hammer, Hod; Ed Kleppe, Phu; and Scott Heiser, Hi.

As is said and substantiated every year, this year's Phi Psi "500" promises to be the most exciting and successful ever. Under the direction of "500" Chairman Scott Heiser, the Chapter hopes to raise over $10,000 for the Special Children's Center, which serves many handicapped children in the Ithaca area. The race is planned for Saturday, May 9, to be followed by the "500 Party," featuring "Dakota," later that evening in Barton Hall. The rain date is May 10.

Ken Johnson, House Manager, has kept the house in excellent condition all semester. Improvements have included a new dining room floor, reupholstered living room furniture, and storm windows and new door frames for the entire house.

The social calendar has always been busy, with Jim Latshaw and Mike Feit at the helm. A pajama party with Kappa Delta, our annual "Purple Passion" party with Pi Phi, and a formal gathering at the Ithaca College Towers highlighted a semester of date nights, theme parties, happy hours, and "Fluids."

With Hank Camuso as Intramural Chairman, New York Alpha is again right in the thick of things in the race for the coveted All-Sports Trophy. Valuable points have yet to be awarded in bowling, track, volleyball, softball, and lacrosse, all very strong sports for Phi Psi. In an extramural event in February, Dave Clark, Ron Rejda, Keith Wilson, Dave Pace, Paul Tomiczek, and Doug Kirk took sixth place in the annual 24-mile Yukon Jack Snowshoe Race, edging out Delta Tau Delta and Sigma Nu to place second among Cornell teams.

As always, Phi Kappa Psi is alive and kicking at Cornell.

Anticipating Little "500"

As spring begins to peek through the ominous clouds in Indiana, we here at Indiana Alpha reflect upon an exciting past year.

The highlight, as all Brothers know, was the initiation of 15 new Brothers on February 14. Initiated were Rob Britigan, Kalamazoo, MI; Andy Burns, West Lafayette; Paul Geyer, Oklahoma City, OK; Tom Gibson, Cincinnati, OH; Scott Kuiper, Louisville, KY; Jack Letts, Shawnee Mission, KA; Pat Moody, Hobart; Rick Mott, Minnetonka, MN; Tom Noonan, Springfield, IL; Dave Reidy, Lake Bluff, IL; Joe Rohs, Springfield, IL; Mike Wallace, Warsaw; Steve Walters, North Olmsted, OH; Jeff Westhoven, Naples, FL; and Kurt Voigt, West Lafayette. The presence of many of our alumni Brothers enhanced that fine day.

The Phi Psis of DePauw have also been very active in sports. In addition to having several Brothers on varsity teams we are currently in first place in intramurals.

In addition to sports, our scholastics have been outstanding. We placed second in scholarship for all fraternities on campus last semester. Four Brothers were also initiated into the esteemed order of Phi Beta Kappa. These were seniors Jeff Conner, Jeff Flynn and Randy Pavlick, plus junior Tom Dugan. Jeff Flynn was also honored with the chapter's Solon E. Summerfield award.

Indiana Alpha recently partook in a Chaplain's Living Unit Council work project. This consisted of an overnight at Pine Creek Church Camp in northern Indiana. The work mainly involved lumberjacking and was a very big success.

We've recently thrown some very successful house parties. The largest was our Christmas Formal where the pledges spent over 400 man hours decorating the house. Working together to build a beautiful waterfall down the front stairs and a fish pond with a fountain, they managed to build some strong Fraternal ties which will never be broken. We also threw a New Orleans party in which senior Eric Hynden and his date won an all expense paid trip to New Orleans. We are presently anticipating our famous "Little 500" week coming in April which should prove to be a great success. Twelve members of Indiana Alpha recently attended the annual Founders' Day dinner in Indianapolis. We got together with our other Indiana brothers and enjoyed a very memorable evening.

Subsequent to the initiation of our 15 new Brothers was the election of our new officers. The position alterations include Todd Roberson, GP; Frank Roberts, VGP; Erik Hafkey, P; Rick Mott, AG; Jeff Westhoven, BG; Andy Burns, SG; Pat Moody, Hod; Duarte DaSilveira, Phu; and Paul Geyer, Hi. In addition to our Chapter elections, Rick Mott was recently elected to the student senate.

Our alumni have continued to show outstanding financial and leadership support for our Chapter. In addition to our Home Corp. making much needed repairs on the "ol' Rock Pile" our Parents Club recently bought us a foosball table.

Winter here at Indiana Alpha has been very memorable and we eagerly anticipate an exciting Spring. Good luck, brothers, in all your endeavors.

Rick Mott Correspondent

Dickinson Cooperation

Greetings, once again, from all the brothers at Penn Zeta. I should mention that we are following a modified pledge program reached in agreement with the Interfraternity Council and the administrators of Dickinson College. This is just one example which proves that resolutions can be reached between fraternities and the administration. This year, it can be said that Penn Zeta has become significantly involved with affairs in and around Carlisle and has participated in campus-wide events. Fortunately, the administration of Dickinson College has become increasingly aware of the fact that fraternities here do have a purpose to serve, and Phi Kappa Psi is no exception.

Much of this enthusiasm can be ascribed to the seventeen pledges who are also involved with Fraternity activities. Under the guidance of Bill Schoener, our pledgemaster, the pledges have been able to experience much of the traditional pledge program of Penn Zeta in accord with new regulations. Those pledging are: Philip M. Bleezarde, Williamstown, MA; Andrew J. Bloom, Edison, NJ; Scott H. Colby, Birdsboro; Kevin Conti, Mt. Laurel, NJ; Craig E. Eaton, Mechanicsburg; James B. Edson, Cheshire, CT; William J. Fisher, Rosemont; David B. Frengel, Harrisburg; Thomas H. Gerber, Swarthmore; Kenneth S. Greenblatt, Vineland, NJ; David S. Isaac, Briarcliff Manor, NY; Matthew H. Katz, Potomac, MD; Andrew J. Kressley, Allentown; Frederic I. Lasday, New Castle; William B. Newman, Madison, NJ; Frederick S. Paradise, Parsippany, NJ; and Michael R. Stein, Williamsport. It is worth mentioning that two of the pledges, Craig Eaton and Mike Stein, have older brothers who are members of Penn Zeta. John Newcomer was elected as the Pledge Liaison, a new position that both the Fraternity and college agreed upon to assist the pledges with their academics and Fraternity education.

Just like last year, Founders' Day was celebrated with a beach party, and it was a success. Seven tons of sand, beach chairs and umbrellas, a lighthouse, a pier, and steamed clams turned our social floor into a beach which the Brothers claimed to be as good as Atlantic City's or Miami's.

All of the recently elected officers have been busy at work trying to do their best. The new officers are: Rich Biletta, GP; Jeff Eaton, VGP; Steve Lowry, P; Scott Silverwood, AG; Andy Don, BG; Doug Ewertsen, Phu; Eric Dull, Hod; and Dave Parish, Hi. Working just as hard are Stu Fisher and Doug Ewertsen, the Social Chairmen. Good luck to all of you with your duties.

Phi Psi athletes have played a key role in Dickinson athletics. On the varsity level are Scott McFarland and one of our pledges, Fred Paradise, who had a successful season of basketball. In ice hockey, Penn Zeta boasts Hugh Cox, coach of the team. A cluster of brothers and pledges are also competing in swimming, cross-country, lacrosse, baseball, tennis, and golf. Keep up the hard work, gentlemen.

In conclusion, Penn Zeta would be honored if you could come visit us during the academic year. We offer true hospitality and would like to challenge you to a game of futsal which was recently purchased.

Duke Trial by Jury

The Spring semester began on a positive note for North Carolina Alpha with the addition of seventeen pledges: Ben Bonifant, Silver Spring, MD; Dave Bradley, Minneapolis, MN; Bill Brennock, Gainesville, FL; Will Carrington, Durham; Keith Coleman, Vineland, NJ; Mike Gritton, Louisville, KY; Dan Hipps Nashville, TN; Doug Horner, Charlotte; Bill Hunt, Cambridge, MA; John Janka, Moorestown, NJ; Paul Lohrey, Baltimore, MD; Ed McIver, Atlanta, GA; Scott Oates, Laguna Beach, CA; Doug Peterson, Mequon, WI;

Scott Picker, Kew Gardens, NY; Tod Shur, Silver Spring, MD; and Chip Wendler, Phoenix, MD. Rush Chairmen Bill Haynes and Rob Slade are to be commended for their effort in netting this strong pledge class, which includes a first for the Chapter: Tod Shur is the first man under five feet tall ever to pledge Phi Psi at Duke.

The future of on-campus housing for Fraternities appears uncertain at present. A plan currently under consideration would seek to redistribute selective housing more evenly among the various residential areas. However, under any of the criteria thus far proposed, Phi Kappa Psi would appear likely to retain its excellent location on the Main Quad of West Campus.

The officers serving in the spring semester are: Charles Bobrinskoy, GP; Doug Stanford, VGP; Steve Parman, AG; Bob Beckler, BG; Kurt Uphoff, P; John Tyson, SG; Pete Groth, Hod; Forrest Howse, Hi; and Paul Stillwell, Phu.

Charles Bobrinskoy had the opportunity to preserve and expand the burgeoning Phi Psi tradition of legal expertise in the office of President. In a stirring courtroom performance, Bobrinskoy reached new heights of eloquence and mendacity. Autographed "briefs" are available upon request.

On the athletic scene, IM chairman Wally Mensinger continues to lead the Phi Psi efforts, both by example and by sheer force of intimidation. Of particular note has been the emergence of the "Raging Bulls," Phi Psi's contribution to the sport of boxing at Duke.

Our social calendar this semester is highlighted by a Jack Daniel's Birthday Party, the Pledge Formal at the Villa Teo in Chapel Hill, and of course, the spring trek to Myrtle Beach. Some things never change.

Eastern New Mexico Regaining Strength

New Mexico Alpha has been busily regaining strength.

The Chapter initiated two new pledges on December 6, 1980. Samuel Alpha Wheeler III, of Eureka, California, and Douglas J. Swanson, of Chatsworth, California, were welcomed into our group with badge numbers 134 and 135, respectively. Both are freshmen here at Eastern. Mr. Wheeler is majoring in Marketing and minoring in Military Science, while Mr. Swanson is majoring in Radio/TV Communications.

The results of our semester elections are as follows: Ray Burgess, GP; Gary Oty, VGP; Doug Swanson, AG; Sam Wheeler, BG; Steve Yardman, P; Doug Swanson, SG; Sam Wheeler, Hod; Al Hill, Phu; and Gary Oty, Hi.

We are proud to announce the results of our spring rush. Roger Kilgore, of Eureka, California, and Robert Baran, of Los Alamos have chosen to pledge Phi Kappa Psi. We congratulate them, and we know they will be fine additions to our group.

The annual Phi Psi Free-Lei was held February 6th. For this annual event, the house was decorated hawaiian style with ferns, flowers, and tropical fruit. A very unusual fruit punch was served to the crowd, who were all dressed in beach-going attire. It turned out to be a very enjoyable evening.

Our Founders' Day celebration was held February 21st. An enjoyable evening of dinner, drinks, and dancing was had by all. We regret that more of our alumni were not with us to enjoy this special night.

The Phi Psi Student League Bowling team is continuing its winning ways, as is our Racquetball team. We find that, despite our small size, we can compete very well against chapters many times larger than ourselves.

We would like to congratulate Brothers Gary Oty and Al Hill on their acceptance into the Phi Kappa Phi Scholastic Honor Society.

Unfortunately for our Chapter, we are losing many fine members to graduation. Ronald Darling graduated last semester, and Gary Oty will be leaving us this spring. Both of these Brothers will be sorely missed. We wish them well.

As we pass the half way point in this crucial semester at New Mexico Alpha, we would once again like to thank some of our alumni who have been especially helpful to us. Robert Keller, U.C.L.A. '45, Dr. Jack Secor, E.N.M.U. '69, and Al Hill, E.N.M.U. '72; all the Brothers here at New Mexico thank you very much for all your assistance.

There are several events left to go before we all take off for the summer. Our Bacchanalia (toga party) will be held in March, followed by Phandango and a Chapter road trip later in the semester.

All of us are very proud of the growth our Chapter has shown this semester.

As we look forward with anticipation, we look back on a very happy and productive year.

D. Swanson Correspondent

Florida Espirit de Corps

Winter quarter, a notorious time for poor rushing, proved to be very successful for Florida Beta. With the rush events planned by Jeffery Spitzer, and a helping hand by all the Brothers, we were able to pledge more men than the majority of other fraternities on campus. Our smokers included Bourbon Street, games nite, and a Snowed Inn party. We are proud to welcome the following men to the '81 winter pledge class: David Beringer, Hollywood; Ian Jones, Seminole; John Sabin, Clearwater; Irvin Smith, Orlando; and Mike Turner, Sarasota. They are under the guidance of Pledge Educator Joseph Russo, and they are working hard to complete their requirements before spring vacation.

The brothers of Florida Beta wish to congratulate our six high-spirited initiates. They are: Wesley Dunn, Ormond Beach; David Branch, Merritt Island; Joseph Nordmann, Daytona Beach; Thomas Harris, Delray Beach; Scott Morgan, Plantation; and Scott Clinton, North Palm Beach. They have proved to be tremendous assets to the Chapter, and we are confident that they will uphold the high values of Phi Kappa Psi.

Our annual retreat, arranged by Brothers Wood and Elzey, rekindled Brotherhood among old and new members. Firecracker raids, football games, pledge skits, and spaghetti fights helped to release academic tensions; as well as, a little pledge/Brother rivalry. The retreat also served as a time for the organization of the chapter's calendar for the winter months. We were glad to resume classes so that we could rest up from our weekend.

The winter pledges have amazed the Brothers with the pledge dinner cuisine. Never before have so many, been so disgusted, by so much, cooked by so few. Although the meals were close to unpalatable, we recognize their efforts and commend them on their wholehearted attempt.

This year's Founders' Day symbolized the pride that we hold in Phi Kappa Psi. Our weekend began on Friday with a casual barbecue, where we entertained parents and alumni. Saturday's events were highlighted by our formal celebration of Founders' Day. Dr. Goodale, Dean of Student Affairs at the University of Florida, gave an impressive speech on Brotherhood at the banquet. The weekend closed with an Open House for all family and friends. We wish to congratulate Phi Psi for another birthday, and thank the alumni that shared this festive time with us.

The dauntless men of our soccer team have viciously subdued all their opponents, and now face the finals in intramural competition. With the splendid goal-keeping of Glen Winograd and the fleetness of James Wood, we have proven ourselves to be champions of the Blue Division in intramural sports. The tradition of a strong Phi Psi soccer team grows yearly as we continue to defeat our rivals.

Thomas Harris has accepted the vital role of Rush Chairman for the spring quarter. Another Bourbon Street night, Jimmy Buffett, and raw bar nite have been chosen as possible themes for rush week. Excitement grows daily as spring nears, an excitement we hope to share with spring rushees.

To date, our social calendar includes socials and happy hours with Sigma Kappa, Phi Mu, and Kappa Delta. Brother Gates is doing an excellent job in maintaining Florida Beta as a social contender.

Bruce Field is finishing the final preparations for this year's rendition of the Phi Psi "500". We expect some 50 teams to compete in our scooter race. The "500" has become a major service function at the U. of F. and this year's turnout is expected to be greater than ever.

We urgently request assistance from our Brothers. During the last weekend in February, we journeyed to the beach, and our Brothers and pledges have acquired painful cases of sunburn. Any home remedies are much appreciated.

The officers of Florida Beta are: GP, John Creswell; VGP, Craig Braun; P, Christopher Carey; AG, Andrew Houtz; BG, James Wood; SG, Jeffrey Spitzer; Hod, David Hines; Phu, Bruce Field; and Hi, Joseph Russo.

Special recognition goes to our winner of the Solon E. Summerfield award—Steven Birchett.

Franklin and Marshall On The Move

As spring moves closer here at F&M, so does the initiation of our fall 1980 pledge class. The four pledges are: Scott Christern, Alpine, NJ; Geof Dunham, Melville, NJ; Bill Farrand, Long Valley, NJ; and Robert Gryce, Montclair, NJ. All of us look forward to accepting these fine pledges into our Chapter.

Leading us into our spring semester are our newly elected officers: John Brown, GP; Lew Bryson, VGP; Skip Soulier, P; Larry Tighe, AG; David Abernethy, BG; Scott Fasnacht, SG; Tom Curtin, Hod; John Franzese, Phu; Scott Russell, Hi; and Eric Noll, Rush.

Since the livelihood of any Chapter rests on the involvement of its alumni, we have made an effort to reach out to our alumni through our newsletter, THE RECORD. Written by Brothers Brown, Fasnacht, and Russell, THE RECORD contains information about our Chapter, our alumni, and our college. So far, we have gotten a positive response from those Brothers that have received the newsletter, and we are looking forward to hearing from the rest.

Another project, involving alumni, was the forming of a Housing Corporation under the assistance of Grover Holder, '41. Brothers Brown, Cunningham, and Russell were present when the corporation was signed into existence. Now we can direct our efforts towards obtaining the necessary funds for a new Penn Eta home!

With the steady growth that we have experienced over the last year we go into this spring looking for several good pledges. Under our Rush Chairman, Eric Noll, it looks as if we shall meet our expectation. For the spring, but only through hard work.

With impending initiation, our four pledges will be participating in the traditional Brothers/Pledges football game. This year's game should prove to be the Brotherhood's best in years, for with the passing of L. Tighe, the receiving of S. Fasnacht, the blocking of J. Franzese, and of course, the running of E. Harris, the pledges won't have a chance! Several other activities such as, Big Brother/Pledge basketball game, a semi-formal, and several road trips have tentatively been scheduled for late spring.

Our congratulations go out to Lew Bryson, our Summerfield award winner. It just goes to show that anything is possible! Also, we would like to wish our graduating Brothers the best of luck and happiness in the future. These Brothers are: John Brown, Lewis Bryson, Robin Cochrane, Richard Gessner, and David Nalle. Thank you Brothers!

In closing, we at Penn Eta wish to thank our alumni for their support this past year and we are looking forward to their support in the future.

Gettysburg Captures Sports Trophies

Pennsylvania Epsilon is very proud to report the retiring of both the All Sports and Major Sports intramural trophies. The last time a Gettysburg Chapter won the All Sports trophy was in 1959. Both trophies have never been won in the same year by Phi Psi at Gettysburg. We competed against ten other fraternities and several other independent teams.

Officers elected for second semester are: Richard Kunkle, GP; Andrew Katz, VGP; Robert Neducsin, P; Harlan Daubert, AG; Michael Winter, BG; Richard Chambers, SG; Joseph Brown, Hod; Tom O'Rourke, Phu; and Andrew Patton, Hi.

We also have completed a very successful rush program under the co-chairmanship of Edward Partenope and James Blodgett. Nineteen freshmen took on the title of pledge. They are: Louis Chiarlanza, Elkins Park; Joseph Conti, Hawthorne, NJ; David Crandall, Jr., Darien, CT; Andrew Dickinson, Avon, CT; James Erickson, Northbrook, IL; Christopher Finn, Bronxville, NY; Todd Klafehn, Hamlin, NY; John Lauri, Commack, NY; Dane Lynn, Stamford, CT; John Maney, Albany, NY; James Marino, Dix Hills, NY; Kirk O'Connell, Blue Bell; Charles John Poliero, Haddonfield, NJ; John Regan, Montville, NJ; David Sautter, Jr., Newtown Square; Ray Scott Schoner, Maplewood, NJ; Joseph Silhavy, Easton, CT; Roger Thoet, Garden City, NY; James Watts, Colts Neck, NJ.

In 1980 74.4% of the freshmen pledged fraternities at Gettysburg, however, this year only 63.0% of the freshmen pledged. We are not certain of the reasons for the decline, but surmise that a change in rush rules may have been the reason.

Our philathropy committee is presently working on plans for a community spaghetti dinner to be held at the house. We have also looked into the possibility of starting a Phi Psi "500" here at Gettysburg. Any suggestions from Chapters with the "500" would be appreciated. Upcoming social events include a Sweetheart pledge formal in April.

Alumni news includes the 126th Anniversary Alumni Weekend on April 25-27. The Brothers are also looking forward to and preparing for the 100th Anniversary celebration of the building of Miller Hall in the spring of 1982. This will be held in conjunction with the 150th Anniversary of Gettysburg College. We are very proud of Miller Hall and invite all Brothers to come and see this Phi Psi monument. Any brother will be happy to give you a tour. The building is important to the Fraternity and is a very worthwhile visit.

Finally, the Brotherhood of Penn Epsilon wish our Brothers everywhere a happy and successful semester.

Illinois

The '80's Belong to Phi Psis

There's a saying here at the U of I that the '80's belong to the Illini. Well, it's designed for our improved football and great basketball teams, but Illinois Delta thinks it holds true for us as well.

The semester's initiation put our Chapter roll over 1300. Our 13 new Brothers are Bill Schuler, Olympia Fields; Tom Broeren, Champaign; Dan Kelley, Glenview; Jeff Kenyon, Villa Park; Jeff Keck, O'Fallon; Jack O'Donnel, Glenview; Joe Ruggiero, Evergreen Park; Bill Hamrick, Champaign; Mark Picchiotti, Park Ridge; Mike Hanratty, Champaign; Larry Smith, Quincy; Brian Wexler, Skokie; and Ted Breckenfelder, Elmhurst. These men are a fine addition to our Brotherhood thanks to the fine work of Pledge Trainer Joe Scarpelli.

The Chapter has run smoothly thanks to the leadership of our fine house officers: Steve Nielslawski, GP; Bill Corry, VGP; Nick Kokoris, External VGP; Ron Davies, P; Dave Wesolowski, AG; Drew Bernabie, BG; Paul Kilgallon, SG; Joe Hudgins, Hod; John Picchiotti, Hi; and Dave Nettleton, Phu.

Here at Illinois, we believe our Chapter has added a new dimension to the words social fraternity. When Jim McNichols was elected Social Chairman we expected something different . . . a lot of fun, but different. So far, we've been Iranian Hostages with Phi Mu's, International spies with Alpha Chi Omega, and The Love Boat crew with Alpha Delta Pi. Our last exchange is with Alpha Gamma Delta. What's next? Who knows? We finished last semester with a psuedo-barn dance in exciting Philo, IL; and our 1984 Pledge Class had their pledge dance 'Middle Earth'—it was a riot, but we're not going to make a Hobbit of it. This semester we had our infamous PJ party with Jimmy Jones killer punch and a new twist, a champagne breakfast. Still to come is our entising Spring Formal which is always great fun.

Our Spring Pledge Class of '84 currently has 9 members: Tom Bahn, Staunton; Mike Blueher, Villa Park; Mark Ebbeling, Aurora; Dan Hartnett, Chicago; Tom Kay, Oak Park; Andy Mansel, Chicago; Dan Rudd, Deerfield; Reid Tennant, Rockford; and Steve King, Bloomington. These pledges have proven themselves so far, and under Pledge Trainer Randy Conte's guidance they should hopefully make great Brothers.

At the eight week mark of the semester the Chapter initiated the following six Brothers: Dave Baecklandt, Chicago; Andy Corcoran, Hinsdale; Dean Dalesandro, Addison; Brian Kernan, Park Ridge; Bob Kane, Palantine; and Paul Raymond, Barrington. The Chapter is proud to welcome these fine men to our Brotherhood.

Sports are an intricate part of Illinois Delta and of course we have our share of winners—more, lately, than usual. Our water-polo team captured the Fraternity Blue Division championship. Our 5' 9" and under and our Fraternity Blue 'B' basketball teams are both doing very well. The seasons are still ahead for soccer, softball and football—and we should do great!

Phi Psi Authors

If you've written a book, the Fraternity Headquarters would be honored to receive a copy, autographed if possible, for inclusion in the Woodrow Wilson Library of Heritage Hall. Our library of books by and about Phi Psis can only grow with your help.

In rush and on campus the Chapter is known for its diversity and yet, it is one of the strongest Brotherhoods around. We have Brothers involved in all facets of the University. As varsity athletes we have Kevin Bontemps, basketball; Randy Conte and Bill Hamrick, baseball; and Jim McNichols and Paul Kilgallon, waterpolo. Chip Cirillo is the Daily Illini's assistant sports editor; Pete Bulgarelli is president and Ryk Holden is treasurer of Tau Beta Pi Engineering Honors Fraternity; Dan Tynan is president and Joe Hudgins is secretary of Alpha Epsilon Delta Pre-Med/Pre-Dent Fraternity; Romain Cluet is president of the Marketing Assoc.; Rob Jaret is IFC Rush Chairman; Mike Jacobs is Mid-American Interfraternity Vice-President; Henry French is performing in the play "The Princess Bride"; and Dave Wesolowski is in the University Bands. We also have Brothers involved in Ad Club, A.S.M.E., Commerce Council, Daily Illini staff writers, Engineering Open House, Insurance Society, Interfraternity Council, James Scholars, Knights of St. Patricks, Navigators, U of I : Illini Greek, lifeguard and Taekwon-do Club; and many Brothers are YMCA Community Service Volunteers.

As the Brothers scatter all over the country for Spring Break, we wish all Chapters the best and have a great semester!

On January 24th Indiana Beta initiated nineteen new pledges: Steve Trick, Indianapolis; John Karich, Champaign, IL; Dave Rowland, Kokomo; Greg Davis, W. Lafayette; Dave Autry, Indianapolis; Vint Moore, Indianapolis; Douglas Prange, Indianapolis; David Wilhelm, New Castle; Douglas Mohr, Kokomo; James Morton, Indianapolis; Edwin Meyer, Indianapolis; Barry Brisben, Columbus; Tom McKaig, Marion; David Bowker, W. We currently rank fourth in intramural sports. Winning was a part of the basketball season with six teams finishing with a nineteen win, nine loss, overall record. Brothers Jeff Brisben and Mark Richards are advancing in handball doubles. Shelly Zieger and Dave Autry finished strong in racquetball doubles.

The 1981 Little "500" team has been training hard for the race. The race will be covered by Wide World of Sports. Team members include: Paul Berg, Sr., Riders Council Chairman; Scott Everroad, Sr.; Lou Plumlee, Sr.; Joe Gehris, Jr.; Greg Gilles, Jr.; and Brad Beaman, Soph.; An announcement will be made at the race as to whether last year's rider Doug Moody will be inducted into the riders hall of fame, the highest individual honor in Little "500" racing. After the race there will be a party with Kappa Alpha Theta. The band late show will perform at the party.

Indiana University, Pennsylvania Busy Spring

The brothers of Pa. Nu are looking forward to a relaxing summer, after a very busy spring semester.

One of the highlights of the term was the initiation of eight new Brothers under the guiding hand of Pledge Trainer Mike Herlich. The new Brothers are: Bill Cook, Avalon; Bill Firestone, Harrisburg; James Jenkins, Glenshaw; Randy Krakoff, Pittsburgh; Ray Kraus, Erie; George Novak, Johnstown; Jim Quick, Rushville; and Scott Rosbaugh, Coopersburg. We are sure they will all contribute to the progress of Penn Nu.

Prior to the start of the spring semester, several Brothers returned early to renovate our basement. The additions include a new ceiling, new light system and a fresh coat of paint.

The Brothers of Penn Nu, along with the Residence Hall Association, sponsored the second annual Superdance. Under the direction of Brothers Maurice Small and Ernie Soter, $2,000 was raised for the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Other community service projects planned for this semester include a collection in the Indiana area for IUP's New University Museum. A 24 hour basketball marathon is also planned for later in the semester, which will benefit an area drug and alcohol crisis intervention center. The climax of the year will be our annual Phi Psi "500," which benefits the American Leukemia Society.

The Brothers of Penn Nu are very proud to have the highest GPA of all fraternities at IUP. After a one semester absence, we are sure this position can be maintained.

Some of the campus leaders from our brotherhood include: Smitty Boros, Student Government Association president; Tim Steinour and Gary Beswick, starters on IUP's varsity baseball team; Gary Lesnick and Rod Bullman, varsity track; Dave Mason and Bill Cook, varsity swim team; and Mark Wescoat, varsity volleyball.

In intramural competition, Penn Nu is currently fourth in the fraternity standings and tenth overall. Despite intense competition from other fraternities and athletic clubs, we feel our standing will rise because our strong sports are approaching.

On the social scene, the Brothers of Penn Nu have enjoyed many special events, along with our weekly Friday night Happy Hours. Highlights include the spring formal, the rush date party and several mixers with sororities and residence halls.

As the spring semester draws to a close, the Brothers of Penn Nu would like to wish the best of luck to all graduating Phi Psis. And to all the undergrads, we hope you have a relaxing summer and return in the fall ready to work.

Iowa

Three in a row

The men of Iowa Alpha started off the second semester with the election of their new Chapter officers. The new officers include: Steve Flood, GP; Jeffrey Niemann, VGP; David Lind, P; Bart Halverson, BG; Gregg Erwood, AG; and Scott O'Neill, SG.

On January, 1981, Iowa Alpha took ten new men into our Brotherhood. The new initiates are: Randy Ross, Sioux City; Bryan Harlan, Green Bay, WI; John Falb, West Union; Kurt Osmundson, Rock Island, IL; Bart Halverson, Grinnell; Troy Blodgett, Mason City; Paul Hibbs, West Des Moines; Mark Melbostad, West Des Moines; Steve Fleagle, De Witt; and Pete Vorhes, Clear Lake.

Rush chairmen Kurt Knutson and Chris Porter began working on our next pledge class with the pledging of Tom Glavan from Joliet, IL. Tom's older brother Lou transferred to Iowa Alpha from the Nebraska Beta chapter at Creighton. We are all very sure Kurt and Chris will continue to work hard and will produce a fine pledge class for '81."

For the third semester in a row, the Chapter earned the number one ranking in grades among fraternities at the University of Iowa and we are trying hard for number four. We are also proud to announce the acceptance of Gregory Kline into dental school, and several other Brothers who are awaiting word from the medical and law schools. We are all sure our Brothers will do well in their professional school years.

Another first place was claimed by our swim team, which cruised to an all-university championship as well as captured first place at the annual Delta Gamma Anchor Splash swim meet. This marks the Phi Psi's third consecutive victory, which entitles us to make the Anchor Splash trophy a permanent addition to our trophy cabinet. Once again Steve Flood and Dave Ekland have put forth an outstanding effort in racquetball as they are now preparing to compete in the all-university finals in racquetball doubles. Chairmen Bob Harris and Dave Ekland are planning our fourth annual Phi Psi golf tournament, which is expected to be bigger and better than ever.

Finally, the men of Iowa Alpha would like to wish all our Brothers the best of luck in the future.

Iowa State

An Ascending Trek

Iowa Beta celebrated the beginning of Winter quarter welcoming fourteen new Brothers to the mysteries. The new initiates include: Stephen Frank, Mark Scherer, Tyler Nagle, Doug Stearns, Bob DeGowin, Mike Kelley, Brad Benson, Rob

Hermesmeier, Kevin Bussard, Miles Moore, Kim Peters, Kevin Thornton, John Lesh, and Ron Pelton. Brother Tyler Nagle held the honors of most outstanding pledge with a 3.5 GPA and scores of 100% on all his pledge tests. Iowa Beta would also like to acknowledge the fine work of Spring and Summer Rush Chairman, Scott Wiggins, in the pledging of two fine young gentlemen, John Sandez and Joel Seaton, both of Wheaton, IL.

Our officers for Spring '81 are: GP, Jim Hill; VGP, Craig Marr; AG, Burns Davison; BG, Rob Hermesmeier; SG, Kevin Roberts; P, Tom Fischer; AP, Mark Wilson; Hod, Kevin Thornton; Phu, Bob DeGowin; and Hi, Tyler Nagle.

Greek Week at Iowa State is marching to the tune of Phi Psi as 6 brothers are diligently involved. Brothers Mark Kilmer, Scott Reichert, Burns Davison, Craig Ringstad, Randy Maakestad and Tom Fischer have helped Iowa Beta become the best represented fraternity on the Greek Week Committee.

Iowa Beta has also made its mark in intramurals. The Phi Psi Flyers took the Class-B hockey championship by storm. The players include: Steve Rodgers, Scott Reichert, Burns Davison, Randy Maakestad, Scott Wiggins, Kim Peters, Lee Batchelder, and Scott Pfeifer.

Our Spring calendar includes Greek Week, which we are doing with the Gamma Phi's, and VEISHEA, which we are doing with the A O Pi's. Iowa Beta would like to invite all the Brothers to Ames for Iowa State's VEISHEA parade and our celebration afterwards commonly referred to as May Daze (that's Sat. May 9, 1981 and with 50 kegs and a band, DAZED is the name of the game!).

With the recent heat wave, Iowa Beta is anticipating the early opening of Beaver Lake, our infamous pool!

Johns Hopkins Expanding Horizons

Maryland Alpha is expanding, not only in size but in character. Rush '81, led by chairmen Tom Cox and Mark Lahner, brought amazing results: the new pledge class, 26 in all, is the largest any of us can remember. But quantity did not compromise quality; there is surprising diversity in interests and aptitudes among the pledges, which contrasts their relatively homogeneous regional representation. And now, the pledges: Daniel Lavery, Roxbury, CT; Mark Lazarus, Parsippany, NJ; Paul Rubery, Palmyra, NY; Gary Shuman, Farmingham, MA; Douglas Ende, Princeton, NJ; Sean Hunkler, Slippery Rock, PA; John Steers, Westminster; Michael Schechter, Melville, NY; David Forester, Fairfax, VA; David Franchina, Plainview, NY; Andy Kierstead, Portland, OR; Dennis Chien, Brooklyn, NY; Kush Handa, Singapore; Jack Strauss, Rockaway, NJ; Spencer Liu, Charleston, SC; Paul Murphy, Bethesda; Gary Kao, Colonial Heights, VA; Eric Strauch, Bethesda; Seth Kaye, New York, NY; Anthony Fiore, Bethany Beach, DE; Robert Mamet, Chicago, IL; Dean Murphy, Sykesville; Eric Mentzell, Severna Park; Scott Hirschman, Brooklyn, NY; Brendan Conroy, Allegheny, NY; Theodore Hill, Skokie, IL.

The social scene, under the chairmanship of John Dudek, '82, has kept up its good reputation, with the resumption of road-tripping to out-of-the-way places, and spontaneous social visits to other Chapters. The second annual Beach Party (dubbed "Son of a Beach") has cemented another Chapter tradition and contributed immensely to the success of Rush. The rest of the semester will bring a renewal of our traditional post-lacrosse-game barbecues, coming to a blazing finish with the Initiation Semiformal in May. A note of interest: John Dudek will be expanding his social horizons and those of the University as well, in replacing Ernie Breiteringer, '81 as Student Council Social Director in the fall. (Another Chapter tradition is keeping things in the family).

The Chapter has been maintaining its athletic reputation, too, ranking second in intramural sports at the start of this semester. Contributing to this high status are Walter Cook, '82, winner of the bicycle race; the soccer team, featuring selfless defense by Greg Urban, '82, Ernie Breiteringer, and pledge David Forester; and the footballers, whose names and attributes, other than Phil Newell, '81 (speedy, if not skillful, quarterback), are too numerous to mention. We look for further success in lacrosse (our specialty), which is soon to begin.

This year has been a good one for medical school hopefuls, with 100% acceptance among the 9 senior pre-meds. Of these, special mention goes to Laszlo Trazkovich, '81, winner of this year's Solon Summerfield Scholar Award. Laszlo will begin his studies at the University of Maryland in the fall.

One final note: legal proceedings for the purchase of the house have been showing steady progress, and we look forward to a favorable outcome at the approaching court date in April. If all goes well, we can expect further growth and expansion for Maryland Alpha in the years to come.

Kansas The Year for Kansas Alpha

We here at Kansas Alpha are having one of our most productive semesters ever. The newly elected officers this spring are: GP, Mark Faber; VGP, Sam Stuckey; P, Steve Steimer; AG, Tim Cadden; BG, Andy Flynn; SG, Tim Burke; Hi, Russ Munyan; Phu, Bob Bennett; and Hod, Bill Doering.

On February 7, fifteen men were initiated into the mysteries of Phi Kappa Psi: Phil Andre, Overland Park; Keith Cutler, Papillion, NB; Derek Davenport, Wichita; Mike Doering, Mission Hills; Herb Feilds, Kansas City; Stacey Harding, Wellington; Doug Huber, Paola; Brook Neinstedt, Kansas City; Bob Paden, Overland Park; John Petree, Overland Park; Matt Rester, Overland Park; David Shapiro, Clayton, MO; Tracey Smith, Kansas City; Brad Stanley, Kansas City; and Matt Warman, Kansas City.

Our Rush Chairmen, Kyle Eldred and Ellis Rainey, pledged four new men: Scott Carbon, Pattenburg, NJ; Mike Greenberg, Omaha, NB; John Keightley, St. Louis, MO; and Paul Tremonte, Overland Park.

Currently, Kyle and Ellis are arranging Rush parties for March and April. We just held a Casino party where 35 rushees attended. Both Rush Chairmen are expecting even larger turnouts in the future.

This year's Intramural basketball team, while compiling the league's only undefeated record, won the University of Kansas intramural basketball league. Jess Arbuckle, Mike Dick, Dave Dunmire, Keven Murray, Steve Steimer, along with help from the pines by Bill Meyer and Greg Sims, defeated the Phi Beta Sigmas in the finals, enabling us to claim the hill championship. At K.U.'s largest basketball tournament we dropped a quarter finals game to the eventual winners, but we went on to finish fourth and win the consolation bracket. Jess Arbuckle finished the tournament with over a 20 pts. per game average, and was voted the number one player to the all tournament team. Our softball team is also expected to better it's second place finish from last year.

Under the direction of Dante Gliniecki, the Brothers teamed up with the Alpha Gamma Deltas to reach the finals of the Rock Chalk Review. All the Brothers have been working non-stop on set and prop construction. Over 20 Brothers practice 5 hours a day in order to learn their parts by the March 6 and 7 performances. We were able to sell the most tickets for both shows, allowing us to get the best seats for our parents and alumni.

On April 25, the Brothers will host the annual Phi Psi "500." According to chairmen John Knightly and Kevin Mebust, this year's "500" promises to be the largest and most exciting ever. Not only has the event been enlarged to an all campus party at night, but Kevin and John have also traveled throughout Kansas in order to attract other campus chapters to participate.

Social Chairman Carl Frenkel has our social calendar filled for the entire semester. On February 7, we held our Initiation party, followed by an Alpha Chi Omega 50's function a few weeks later. Coming up we have a Heaven and Hell function with the Chi Omegas, and on April 3, our Spring Formal will be held at the Granada Royal in Kansas City.

We would like to congratulate Brother Bert Coleman on his election to the office of student body president here at K.U. Herb Feilds was named to the K.U. baseball team, and Bill Darè was named to the K.U. golf team. We would also like to congratulate Brother Ralph Miller, the basketball coach at Oregon State, on his No. 1 ranking in the basketball polls. Brother Jay Donohue still holds the office of District V Archon.

On February 13, we held our annual Phi Psi Founder's Day along with the Brothers of Missouri Alpha. Both Chapters are looking very strong.

Finally, we would like to thank Brother Lester M. Combs, class of '36, for his financial contribution. The support from all the alumni is greatly appreciated. Thanks again to all the contributors.

Lafayette Helpful Alumni

The Penn Theta Chapter burst out of the frigid winter prepared for a spring season of fun and charity. Our final rush netted eighteen pledges; ten from N.J., four from CT., two from MD., and two from PA. These eighteen pledges have a tough path to follow. In essence, they are replacing nineteen seniors who have become the backbone of our Chapter. We will miss them but are well prepared to continue on and improve. Brothers Prevoznak and Walko share the honors of being pledgemasters.

Our winter and spring IM Teams provided formidable competition in pool, darts, volleyball, basketball and softball. One team noting special mention are the Barbarians hoop team. Bros. Trout, Page, Walko, Prevoznak, Barnett and Panas thrill the crowd while terrorizing the opposition and the refs.

March 28 was our annual Cherry Alley Weekend where alumni come back to the Old Gray Barn to reminisce. Cook Paul Cherney prepared a wonderful six course meal and Bros. Harrington and Wilson kept the spirits flowing all evening. As usual, stories were swapped back and forth while sides ached upon hearing old Phi Psi lore. It was great to see all of the alumni who made the Chapter what it is today. We hope to see even more next year.

Thanks to Brothers Wilson and Prevoznak, we are holding our first Phi Psi 500 on April 25. This has proved to be a difficult task but the rewards should be well worth it.

A special thanks goes out to Brother Craig, '59, for donating his time and guidance for the last three years as Alumni President. We wish him the best of luck with his new job in Florida. Also, a special thanks to Brother Fayer, '44, for helping us to obtain eighteen new dining chairs which were badly needed.

Finally, for all of our Volkmann competitors, may the luckiest? man win! All of us would like to wish the Chapters a restful summer and the graduating seniors a hearty congratulations.

Michael Sutka Correspondent

Louisiana State Progress

Louisiana Alpha kicked off the spring semester with the initiation of two new Brothers: Randy Little, New Orleans; and Joey Dinapolis, Chalmette. A "pajama" party introduced potential pledges to the Fraternity just before the rush season.

Pledge trainer Charlie Salvaggio is doing a great job with the new group of first-class pledges: Peter Vettters (pledge president), Jude Cambise, Mike Hunnicutt, Chalmette; and Kirk Andrews, Ruston; while four fine holdover pledges: Chris Randazzo, Todd Laudun, New Orleans; Scott Blanchard, Chalmette; and Charles Suter, Bellvue, NB, await initiation. The pledges plan to hold "A Night at the Movies" as their project to raise money for the Chapter.

Chapter officers for 1981 are: Keith Lapuyade, GP and Hi; Charles Salvaggio, VGP (rush); Matt Dell, VGP (admin.); Joe Quartararo, P; Joey Dinapolis, AG; Randy Little, BG; Mike Bell, SG; Dave Smith, Hod; and Keith Matulich, Phu. And once again our Chapter had the highest GPA of all fraternities on campus.

Our FOUNDERS DAY festivities were celebrated with the roasting of an 80 pound pig. Brothers stayed awake through the night slaving over burning coals in order for members, alumni, pledges and friends to compliment them on their superb culinary skills. The presence of a keg enhanced their dedication.

A "Mardi Gras Eve" party, complete with king cakes, was held at Brother Bell's house in New Orleans. Everyone arrived early in order to grab a drink before dashing off to one of the many parades held during the pre-Lenten season. After the parade, the party resumed in full swing.

A softball game against Louisiana Beta was held at Southwestern in mid February. The Beta Brothers greeted us with a keg and then just barely defeated us in the semi-annual match. Being good sportsmen, they challenged us to a rematch to be held later in the semester; only this time we're going to practice! Our visit climaxed when the Beta's composite was found mysteriously hidden in the car belonging to one of the Alpha's. Truly the work of the supernatural!

Brothers Dinapolis and Vettters hosted a "Bermuda" party for LSU Phi Psi's and friends to end the week of midterms and begin the spring season.

Mankato State Struggling Upward

With newly strengthened Brotherhood and strong alumni support we are moving again after the recent campus consolidation in 1979-80.

At the end of winter quarter, thanks to Dan Young's striving effort as Rush Chairman, we initiated two fine men: John Hinrichs, Rapid City; Nacho Plata, Panama. In addition to initiation newly elected officers for this year are: Steve Dubbs, GP; Jeff Oelfke, VGP; Dean Fulmer, P; John Hinrichs, ag, bg; Doug Dahlke, SG; Dan Young, Phu; Nacho Plata, Hod; and Greg Hanson, Hi.

Thanks go to alumni Brothers Abrams, '69, McKinney, '70, Wheatly, '71, and Krammer, '75 for both the financial and physical help in remodeling of the bathrooms and kitchen ceiling. Thanks also to Jeff Oelfke for the donation of the pool table.

Since this spring's graduation will decrease the Chapter to a mere hand full, Dean Fulmer, Pledge Trainer, and Wade Wallen, Rush Chairman, are working very hard with alumni towards a strong spring and summer rush.

Activities for spring quarter are our Founder's Day Celebration, Charity Carnival, and the initiation of the upcoming pledge class. We would like to encourage as much alumni support as possible in our surge upward.

Picking Up Where We Left Off!

After one and a half years of having to make adjustments around our new home, I think we can safely say that Ohio Lambda is finally settled in! Although there are always adjustments and improvements to make, we have made the essential ones resulting in an excellent Fraternity house, one of which we are all proud to call "our home forever."

Our winter rush this year was a great success! Having moved from 205 E. Vine which was off the beaten path, we again, this year, were right in the mainstream of traffic hosting over 600 men to the first two nights of rush. As the two week ordeal came to a close, we knew we had come out of it with great success as we took twenty-seven outstanding men. They are: Russ Ackerman and Mark Hermiller, Hudson; Brad Brogan, Maumee; David Cash, Pomona, CA; John DeTar, Traverse City; James Dietz, Valley City; John Dunkas, Chicago; Joe Fischer, Wilmington; Tom Goss and Brian Smith, Indianapolis; James Jones, Westerville; Steve Yarcusko and John Kinsley, Rocky River; Todd Knouse and Tim Sullivan, Columbus; Steve Leonard, Dan Willman, and John Schafer, Cincinnati; Scot McArtor, Springfield; Lee Miner, Westfield; Robert Norwick, Chargin Falls; Andy Oliver, Brookfield, WI; Ray Schnur, Louisville; John Shepherd, Stow; Ron Strauss, Marietta; Joe Tanner, Winchester; and James Wood, New Concord.

This pledge class finished second in points and first overall in the Third Annual Alpha Phi Icicle Antics competition for fraternity pledge classes. After three months of a positive and anti-hazing pledge program, one can be reassured that these fine young men will be a big benefit to Phi Psi and proud bearers of the badge.

The Pledges also took the Brothers by surprise February 27, as they began kidnapping for a well-planned walkout. Everyone had a great time and we all extend our thanks to the Brothers of Illinois Delta for being especially good hosts to us! Also Kevin Hake and Derek Lenington deserve a lot of credit for being the pledge trainers, and they did a fine job of installing the beliefs and values that comes with being a Brother of Phi Kappa Psi!

After a long year of devoted leadership, Tim Patrick handed over the presidential gavel to William Voegelé, our former social chairman, after our February elections. In the last three months Will has done an excellent job of leading our Chapter and in helping us maintain our reputation as one of Miami's finest fraternities! Other newly elected officers who will be working with Will are: Jeff Stone, VGP; William Putnam, P; Dave Lewis, AG; Scott Edson, BG; Mark Ricketts, SG; Shawn MacRitchie, Hod; Alan Kmiecik, Phu; and Patrick Kenney Hi. The former officers Chip Weiant, Andy Kratt, Kevin Parker, Mike Murray, Ben Sutton, Rick Slovenic, Doug Stewart, and Jeff Windhal, respectively, deserve our thanks for a job well done!

This semester, we also saw Brother Alan Kmiecik take 1st place in the annual Delta Gamma "Anchor Splash Beauty Contest." Along with this, coach Barry Goldstein put together the Fraternity swim team this year and they finished second out of twenty fraternities. Congratulations are in order for all those who contributed to Anchor Splash this year!

As second semester started, we continued an excellent social pace with a Pi Phi "Lock-in" party and a Kappa Kappa Gamma "ERA" party. We are also looking forward to the Alpha Phi pajama party, a "Wrong" party with the Gamma Phi Betas and a square dance with the Alpha Chi's. We are planning our formal this year to be on April 10. This year's theme is "Love Boat," which seems appropriate since it is on a riverboat on the Ohio River. It should be adventurous for all of us "Mark Twains" at heart and an affair to which all alumni are invited!

In athletics this semester, we saw our basketball team, coached by Tom Bath, finish its season with a perfect 5-0 record, good enough for first place in our division. This record enabled us to compete in the campus tournament which saw us end up rated third in the overall fraternity division while finishing fourth in the overall campus division. Our hockey team finished with a 5-3 record to finish fifth in the league and good enough to place us against the Sigma Nu's in the first round of the tournament which we lost 7-3, but a hard fought game! Also Phi Psi's have been training for this year's 20/20 bike race, an event which Phi Psi won last year. Phi Psi's have a tradition of having more teams qualifying to compete in the event than any other fraternity on campus. This year seems to be no different since we want the trophy to stay at the Phi Psi house!

Despite all the confusion of our move and renovation, we moved to fifth place in scholastic rankings among the fraternities last semester and we are also planning a new philanthropy to take place in October. It will be a "soapbox derby" event and the money raised will go to a charitable organization. Also planned is our upcoming 10 year anniversary and Founder's Day celebration, which will take place next spring.

Ohio Lambda also continued its tradition of campus leadership with Pete Darin being victorious in his bid for vice-president of business affairs in the recent A.S.G. elections. Also congratulations are in order for Brothers Phil Holdrieth, Mike Kelly, Jerry Beigel, and Steve Kassebaum for their induction into Miami University Student Foundation.

Our living room this semester had a "facelift" as we wallpapered and added new furniture, thanks to the contributions of our Parent's club. It looks beautiful and we hope to take one room at a time and do the same thing.

Congratulations are in order for Brother's Kevin Parker and Mark Dunlap who were recently accepted to Kent's School of Law and Chase Law School, respectively; Bill Ball for being accepted to University of Illinois Graduate School of Business; and to Jim Greiner for being accepted to Case Western Reserve Dental School.

Finally, as the semester comes to a close, we wish all our Ohio Lambda seniors the best of luck as they enter a new and exciting part of their lives. Remember, as you joined Phi Psi, it was just a dream, but as you leave, it has become a reality!

Michigan State Getting Prepped

The Brothers at Michigan Beta returned to East Lansing after a very relaxing break to the important tasks of rush and elections. Winter term rush chairman Stephen Ezop organized the week that resulted in the pledging and initiation of one of our finest pledge classes: John Bogdiewicz and Victor Cavataio, Grosse Point Woods; James H. Wardlaw III, Dowagiac; and Mark Miller, Plymouth. Jim is not new to Phi Kappa Psi as his father, grandfather, and uncle are all Phi Psis. These new Brothers were very active as pledges and will continue to do so as Brothers. We would also like to welcome fall pledges Al Swartzmiller and Paul Highfield to our ranks as they were initiated at the end of fall term. Paul is already showing his leadership abilities by being elected Hod and by serving on the publications committee of Greek Week.

In sports we were in a tie for third place in our division at the start of winter term. However, by not placing in basketball and volleyball we are sure to drop a few places. We also competed in the Delta Gamma's Anchor Splash contest; an annual event with the proceeds from admissions going to the Michigan School for the Blind. All the Brothers enjoyed themselves and also managed to keep their eyes off of the sorority women long enough to make a second place finish in the synchronized swim event.

This year the Brothers at Michigan Beta showed up in force for the Founders Day celebration in Detroit. This year it was held at Vladimirs dining hall. This is one of the best events of the year and we would like to thank the Detroit Alumni Association for having us.

This term elections went well. Jonathan Moran replaced Edward Sadilek as GP. Jon is well qualified having served as BG and VGP. The other new officers are: Gary Pearce, VGP; Stephen Swartzbeck, BG; Thomas Drainville, SG; Paul Highfield, Hod; Stephen Ezop, Phu; and Dave Barry, Hi.

Michigan Beta is now getting prepared for spring and next term's rush. Neil G. Sikora was selected as our new rush chairman. Previous to Neil's initiation last winter term he served on the student judiciary and was president of his resident hall. Since his membership he has been active on the finance and membership committees, serving as chairman of membership. This has been an area in which we have been very weak for the last few years; we hope Neil can turn this around for us. We urge Brothers who know students here to let them know about us and us about them.

We are now getting keyed for Greek Week. This year we have three Brothers on Greek Week committees: Jon Moran and Paul Highfield, publications; and Eric Foss, advertising. Song master Gary Peare is working hard on our program for this year's songfest. This year's theme is "Fun in the Sun." We will be teaming up with the Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority. We hope to better our third place finish from last year.

We would like to thank our Corporation board for their continued support. We would also like to invite all Brothers who might be in the area to drop in

Minnesota

Look Out; Here We Come Again!

After wrapping up two of the finest quarters that Minnesota Beta has encountered in the past few years, we are on the move again, eagerly looking forward to the spring and summer functions that await us.

While growing stronger with each rush period, we shall start out our new term with six new pledges: Dave Arnason, Stillwater; Marty Basset, Mankato; Joe Gilly Pearson, St. Paul; Joe Hayes, Edina; Tom Nieves, Duluth and Tom Venable, Edina. Surely they will be of great value to the continuing growth and success of the Chapter. They have already shown great enthusiasm and expressed ideas to benefit the whole of Minnesota Beta.

Founders Day celebrations took place at the Minneapolis Athletic Club this past February. A rather large turnout proved to be very encouraging and beneficial to all that attended. Both undergraduates and alumni felt the true meaning of Brotherhood as they came together to share stories and advice pertaining to the future of the Chapter. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves, and the undergraduate Brothers are eager to participate in alumni and undergraduate functions later this Spring.

The big event in the Greek System this next quarter is Campus Carnival; a local fund raiser in which all fraternities and sororities take part. After finishing on top last year, bringing home five trophies, a feat never accomplished before, and being paired with last year's second place sorority, Kappa Kappa Gamma, we look towards repeating our previous performance.

Already in the planning stages, Summer Rush '81 hopefully will prove to be as successful as those that we have experienced the past two years; each acquiring 20 pledges or more. There shall be many get-togethers for all Chapter Brothers and rushees to attend, and we anticipate good turnouts from both.

The following Brothers have been elected to fulfill the Spring quarter offices: Dennis Dassow, GP; Hugh Kennedy, VGP; Micheal Schroeder, P; Paul Mason, AG; George Crawford, BG; Joe Blauert, SG; Bill Sharpe, Hod; Brad Boisen, Phu; and Rogers Donnelly, Hi. They so far have done fine jobs and promise to continue following and expand the guidelines set down by the former administrations that really brought the, "High, high, high . . .," back to Minnesota Beta.

Once again, the halls of Minnesota Beta are full of the love, pride, and enthusiasm characteristic to Phi Psi chapters abroad. This rekindled spirit is due to the strong and rapid growth, and we have seemed to dominate among the other 25 fraternities here at the U of M. We are a leader here at Minnesota, and that leadership is always growing stronger due to that Fraternal spirit, born by Lettermen and Moore, that is known only to the loved Brother of Phi Kappa Psi.

Successful Year

We began our Spring semester at Mississippi Alpha with our Initiation-Alumni Appreciation Banquet held Jan. 24, 1981. We are proud of our new initiates who are as follows: Kirk Brown, Jody Bruscatto, Mark Carroll, Ronnie Henderson, Andrew Ketchings, Lance Line, Rob Malone, Darrel Oliver, David Stout, Lee White, and Scott Willhite. Brother Lee White received the scholarship pledge award and Brother Andrew Ketchings received the model pledge award. The Solon E. Summerfield Award was presented to our Chapter president Shaw.

Our annual spring formal was March 21, 1981 in Memphis at the Ramada Inn Downtown. We have a big rush weekend scheduled for our annual Ole Miss Red & Blue Spring game April 11. The activities will begin on Thursday night with a band and campus-wide party. On Friday afternoon, we will attend the annual shrimp boil at Lake Sardis. Friday night brings our theme party entitled "South of the Border." Saturday starts with a brunch before the game and a bar-b-q chicken party afterwards. Brother Les Kerr, an alumnus, will play the guitar and sing that afternoon after the game. Saturday night brings with it another band and campus wide party. This is our biggest rush event to be held during the spring semester and we hope for great success.

We are proud to have Brothers Robert Shaw and Mike Sullivan accepted into Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities. Brother Brad Mallow received an honorable mention for Who's Who. The officers for the 1981 Spring Semester are as follows: Robert Shaw, GP; Rush Mosby, VGP; Mike Sullivan, AG; John Dodd, BG; Martin Dunagin, P; Richard Wadsworth, VP; Jack Hill, SG; Cliff Smith, Hod; Jeff Skinner, Hi; and Bill Ward, Phu. We are looking forward to a successful semester. We are still working with our House Corporation on our addition and renovation plans for the chapter house.

In the area of Campus Politics, Phi Psi is very active. Brother Mike Sullivan is serving out his term as Student Body Vice President. Brother Rush Mosby is serving as Corresponding Secretary for the Interfraternity Council. Brother Brad Mallow is serving as a Mortar Board officer and Brothers Rick Coogler and Ben Williams have recently been selected as Mortar Board members.

In the area of sports, it looks like our basketball team is headed for the play-offs. Our Soccer Team, who won the 1980 overall fraternity soccer championship, is striving for that title again this year. Our softball team will begin competition soon.

Mississippi Alpha was pleased to have Don Durbin, Chapter Consultant, visit our Chapter this semester. Don met individually with each Chapter officer and committee chairman. His visit was very beneficial to our Chapter.

Mississippi Alpha is having an active semester on the Ole Miss Campus and we will continue to strive for excellence in the future!

Housing Renovations

Returning from Christmas vacation, the Brothers of Missouri Alpha initiated the following fourteen men: Scott Diener, Arcadia, CA; Mike Sawicki, Littleton, CO; Mark McDonald, Marshall; Mike Mann, St. Louis; Kevin Kohler, Tim Rogers, and Richard Nixon, Pleasant Hill; Tom Brown, Grandview; Greg Griffle and Howard Wolfgang, Independence; Mike Ellenberger, Festus; Clayton Mowry, Raytown; Gregg Archambault, Arcadia; and Scott Gilmore, St. Louis.

Two new pledges, Dave Dunn, Manchester; and Mike Smiley, Ballwin; were the results of the rush effort under the direction of John Bowman and Jeff Bruens. We are currently gearing up for another summer of parties and events, which will hopefully include outings with the St. Louis Alumni Association.

Officers for the spring semester were: Bill Nachtsheim, GP; Tim Mankus, VGP; Ted Barr, AG; Kyle Chadwick, P; Scott Wade, BG; John Bowman, SG; Rick Hahn, Hod; Kevin Powell, Phu; Craig Trautman, Hi; and Dave Case, Pledge Trainer.

Brothers and pledges of Missouri Alpha traveled to Kansas City on February 13, to participate in Founders Day with the KC Alumni Association and the Brothers of Kansas Alpha. After taking the scholarship award, we were soundly thrashed in the song competition by Kansas Alpha.

Other spring activities included Mom's Weekend, a formal at Rock Harbor Resort at the Lake of the Ozarks, and Greek Week which included performing a skit on Russia with the Alpha Phi Sorority. "Cabaret," our largest and best rush party of the school year, was held March 14. The theme of the party was "That's Entertainment!"

As the spring temperatures gradually rose, so did Missouri Alpha's standing in intramural competition. Keith Dobbins paced the swimming team with high placings in several events. Soccer promises to be exciting, as we have defeated several teams, including last year's second place team in pre-season games.

On campus, Steve Spadarotto was selected to be on the Greek Week steering committee for the second straight year. He also earned a place on the Alumni Association Student Board. Gary Pender was assistant sports editor for a campus newspaper. Ted Barr was selected to be a Summer Welcome Orientation Leader, a program in which incoming freshmen students receive an introduction to life at Mizzou. Scott Debandt was a member of Student Foundation and Scott Wade landed a part in Stephen College's production of Leonard Bernstein's MASS.

Much needed renovations to the house are on the drawing board and we are looking forward to seeing the funds made available for the project.

With seven home football games this fall, we encourage all alumni to stop by and visit.

Nebraska Looking Good

We here at Nebraska Alpha are proud to announce the initiation of 13 new Brothers into the ranks of Phi Kappa Psi. They are: Wayne Reinwald, Brad Eaton, Dan Zariski, Steve Corder, Doug DeBolt, Chuck Synder, Tim Kuhn, Joe Casey, Jim Mount, Kurt Williamson, Jeff Johnson, Mike Guenther and Scott Williamson. We're glad to have them joining the great tradition here at Nebraska Alpha.

In university intramural sports, our teams have again been placing very well. Our "A" football team placed first in Greeks, beating the Sig Alphas in the finals. Our "B" football team finished the season second in the Greek "B" league. Both our "A" and "B" volleyball teams placed first in their respective leagues, our "A" team going to the All University finals before finally bowing out.

A lot of work has been done to the Chapter house in the past few months. We've cleaned out the basement, repainted the walls and tiled the floor. All of the halls and bathrooms are now sporting a new coat of paint. Remodeling the first floor is now in the plans, and will hopefully be done very soon. We owe a big thank-you to our Alumni Association for the great deal of time and effort in the work being done.

At our recent initiation banquet we presented some of our annual awards. Our Pledge of the Year for 80-81 is Kurt, "Wilber," Williamson of Arapahoe. Our Active of the Year award is this year presented to Dave Eskra of Beatrice. The award in memory of our late Brother Tim Martin was given to Kirk Hovendick of Beatrice. We're glad to have these Brothers honored for the work and effort they've put into the Chapter this year.

Once again, we're looking forward to this summer's rush activities. We have many good prospects from across the state, and are already getting our rush program into gear. If any alumni have ideas or suggestions about rush, please contact our rush chairman.

Our undergraduate membership is very excited about the things going on and would like to have our alumni stop by and see what's happening. We are looking forward to our well deserved vacation, and are hoping everyone concerned has a great summer.

Ohio Wesleyan

Getting Bigger Every Year

Greetings from Ohio Alpha! Things have been hectic since the last letter, and we are most pleased to announce the addition of six more pledges, bringing our total number of pledges to our anticipated goal of twenty-five. They are: Robert W. Macnamara, MA; Terrence B. Pendergast, RI; Micheal G. Phelan, CT; Timothy B. Dill, CT; Robert F. Armington, OH; James D. Austin, PA.

Our latest two initiates are Michael Oliver, and David McHugh. This brings the current membership to over 1520 Brothers.

As spring rapidly approaches, several of the Brothers lead nationally ranked sports teams into Division III competition. Brothers Gower and Borcina, with pledges White and Pendergast lead the O.W.U. lacrosse squad into what they expect to be their best season ever. Brother Norm Lewis and pledge Dick Spybey begin their golf season with a team trip to sunny North Carolina. Brother William Crisp is Co-captain of the tennis team, and this year Brothers Huddle, Craig and Crisp (John) will be lending him a hand.

Brothers Tall and Lewis are co-chairmen of the social committee for the Interfraternity Council. They are busily preparing for the Greek Weekend coming up in April. This event will mark the first time in recent years that every fraternity will participate in a joint social occasion.

Mark your calendars for the Cannon Banquet which will be held on May 1-3. A specific date has not yet been settled upon for the "500," but it will be about the middle of May.

We wish to extend our condolences to the wife and family of Brother Lonnis Denison, '12, who passed away on March 5, 1981.

If you haven't received a copy of "The Alphan," then please drop us a line, or give us a call, and we would be most happy to inform you of the latest happenings around the Chapter.

If you're in the neighborhood, please don't hesitate to drop in and say hello. The undergraduates relish the opportunity to meet and talk with the alumni.

Oklahoma

Thank You, Alumni!

This has been an exciting year for the Brothers at Oklahoma Alpha! Perhaps one of the greatest accomplishments for us has been the union of Brothers, past and present. We have heard from Brothers across the world from Thailand to our own backyard, Norman. The tremendous support from our 60th Anniversary in October was followed by an equally tremendous Founder's Day Celebration in February under the direction of Stanley Hopper, Oklahoma '47, the Oklahoma City Alumni Association, and Brother Alan Wright, Alumni and Public Relations Chairman. We have found that our alumni are true Brothers with a great sense of humor, and we will be forever grateful for everything that they have done for us.

Another important accomplishment has been the visibility of the Phi Psis in intramurals. After a slow start in the first semester, we have stunned the campus with our victories in the second! Our president, Mike Eckert, led the way with an overwhelming victory as campus bowling champion. And, after marathon weight losing efforts by our brothers, the Phi Psis entered a strong wrestling team with entrants in nearly every category. Brother Juergen Daniel, after losing 20 agonizing pounds, decisively won the championship at 134 pounds. We were proud to hold first and second place at 118 pounds as Brother Kevin Peterson and Brother Joe Troncoso fought it out for the championship. Kevin emerged as the victor, but both fought a hard battle. Our team placed second overall.

Oklahoma Alpha's specialty sport, softball, is at its usual degree of excellence. Under the direction of Brothers Scott Stephenson and Ted Hopper, our team has not faced defeat. They are the early favorites for the softball championship at OU.

We are extremely proud to have initiated 18 new men as Brothers. They are: Tom Ruggerio, Sherard Manning, Mike Joyce, Alan Wright, Rick Waters, David LeBlanc, Kevin Peterson, Jess Sims, John Cuaderes, Grant Hawkins, Pat Eisel, Ted Hopper, Mark Scholfield, Rhodes Bolton, Lee Purvis, Scott Stephenson, Brooks Smith, and Andy Shidell. They proved to be an excellent pledge class that is sure to be equally excellent Brothers.

We have had some great parties, also. After several sorority functions and dinners with the Kappas and Thetas, we held our own private party at the Skirvin Plaza in Oklahoma City on Valentine's Day. We had an eighteen piece jazz band to supply the music, and it proved to be the best party of the year!

This has been our most prosperous year in a long time at the University of Oklahoma. We really have a house and brotherhood to be proud of, and hope that as many of you as possible can give us a visit. We are looking forward to meeting you.

Mark Davis Correspondent

Oklahoma State On the Move

The spring semester for Oklahoma Beta has proven to be very promising with the initiation of 7 new Brothers: Don Wheeler, Okla. City; Mike Meredith, Ryan Moore, and Ted Coatney, of Tulsa; Tim Laughlin, Collinsville; Eddie Kyle and Joe Hopkins of Vinita. They have already proven to be an asset to the Chapter.

This spring we also have the largest spring pledge class we've had in several years. These nine men who fill our rolls are: Danny Bellamy, Okla. City; Steve Montee, Steve Ray, and Mitch Maurer of Tulsa; Rick Schuhr, Ft. Myers, FL; Steve Plaster, Bartlesville; Scott McGarry, Edmond; Phil Vasquez, Midwest City; and Ronnie Smith of Big Cabin. Membership is higher than it has been in several years.

The spring semester was highlighted with a Founder's Day celebration on February 19, this year held outside on the annex veranda due to unseasonably warm weather. This was followed by the annual Founder's Day Formal held here in Stillwater on February 21.

The following week was the initiation of 7 new Brothers on February 28. Many alumni attended this semester's initiation and celebration afterward. We would like to thank them for coming. We all had a great time welcoming in our new Brothers to Phi Kappa Psi.

The spring semester officers are: Steve Cooper, GP; Jamie Dulaney, VGP; Kent Appleman, P; David Draper, AG; Jeff Stewart, BG; A. J. Bisson, SG; Allen Staples, Hod; John Steen, Phu; and Scott French, Hi.

In intramurals basketball B-team made playoffs and expectations are great for our softball team, former All-Greek champs.

Big plans are now being made for summer rush. An alternative rush system is in the works here at O.S.U. and for us at Phi Psi too. Plans are being made for a whole renovation in our rush system. With a good summer rush our Chapter will be bigger than it's ever been.

Socially this has been an active semester. Functions with the Tri-Deltas, Zetas, and women of Drummond Hall have all turned out well. A "Mash" party and other theme parties are on the agenda for this spring.

Scholastically, Phi Psis rate in the upper half in the Greek System here at O.S.U. We pride ourselves on our scholastics and are constantly striving to do better.

Here at Oklahoma Beta we are not only looking back at a great spring semester but forward to an even better fall semester.

Oregon Continued Strength

Oregon Alpha Chapter has maintained its strong showing on campus by continuing its high leadership qualities.

We will be initiating our largest pledge class since the Chapter reorganized in 1974. Those going through initiation will be: Brad Attig, Darren Carr, Brett Graboyes, Steve Kokes, Bob Komin, Larry Kubes, Dean Larson, Howard Lees, Greg Mitchell, John Murakami, Mike O'Connell, Fred Paintner, Dave Rabbitt, Jim Richards, Allen Scarce, Gary Semling, Don Stelle, Ron Webb, Brad Wilson, Todd Woodruff, and Tim Zweber.

Barney Siri is our first spring pledge.

Gradewise, we have continued to be first on campus and have also been active in student government. Dave Eaton is presently student body president while Mark Hallquist is Interfraternity Council president. Hallquist, along with Jay Altenhofen, were co-winners of the Sturgeon award for most outstanding senior. This award was presented at our Founder's Day banquet which had 200 Brothers present, possibly the largest turnout in the country.

Our fundraising activities have been extremely successful this last term. The second annual Phi Kappa Psi boxing smoker, organized by George Glass and Tom Louris, grossed over $2,000. Over $800 of this went to Multiple Sclerosis. Brothers Matt Presjak and Mike Maples came in first and second in their respective weight classes.

We are also planning our first Phi Psi "500," which is being organized by Brother Mark Walker.

Oregon Alpha also is the proud host of the Educational Leadership Conference for district VI.

Above all, Brother Fred Poust, along with alums Bob Danielson, '61, and Roger Rutan, '66, is beginning a major fundraising drive to remodel the house. This year, over $1,500 has been spent on refurbishing the living room.

This is just the beginning in our efforts to raise over $100,000 for the house.

Oregon State Still Growing and Improving

Oregon Beta Chapter has had a very productive year so far. Much has happened since the last SHIELD article, so let me take this opportunity to fill you in.

Activities began with O.S.U.'s Homecoming on Nov. 15, 1980. The pledge class put forth a great deal of effort and constructed a sign for the annual homecoming sign contest. After the O.S.U. vs. U. of O. football game, the chapter put on a dinner party for all of the alumni who attended the activities. As always the Brothers found talking to the alumni both enjoyable and informative. Thanks to all of the alumni who came and showed their interest and support.

The chapter had a Christmas party on the Friday between dead and finals week. All the Brothers exchanged gifts and had a great time. It was an excellent way to start off finals week.

On January 10, 1981 ten new members were initiated. Beginning with badge number 444 the new initiates were: Dave Prater, Gresham; Philip Allen, Los Angeles; Erick Heath, The Dalles; Mike Skrip, Klamath Falls; Andy Rux, Hillsboro; Paul Jones, Klamath Falls; Brad Willcox, The Dalles; Greg Edens and Mike Whitmarsh, Lake Oswego; and Shawn Dryden, Woodburn.

Shortly after initiation, elections for Chapter officers were held and the new members wasted no time in getting involved in their work. The new officers are as follows: GP, Ray Peters; VGP, Bart Macomber; P, Mike Skrip; AG, Paul Jones; BG, Shawn Dryden; SG, Mike Whitmarsh; Hod, Phil Allen; Phu, Doug Bratz; Hi, Dave Schmidt.

The Chapter had its annual retreat at Camp Rilea, in Seaside. Much was accomplished and the ideas which were brought back have helped to strengthen our Chapter and bring the Brothers closer together.

Our informal rush chairman Dave Anderson has brought us three outstanding pledges: Dave Burger, Salem; Casey Leach, Lake Oswego; and Mike Pierson, The Dalles. They are a welcome addition to our Brotherhood. Dave Burger and Dave Prater were elected co-rush chairmen for next year. The two Daves have already started the rush process and have assured us that next year we will once again have a fantastic pledge class.

With a change of officers also came a change of scholarship policy. Study hours have been extended and the atmosphere for studying has been improved. This Chapter owes much to Bob Zochert, who is trying to help us become number one in grades on campus this term. With a lot of hard work the goal is within our reach.

February 21, was Dads Weekend here at Oregon State University. It's hard to say who had a better time, the Brothers or the dads. Our sister house, the Alpha Xi Deltas, and their dads joined us for a barbecue. After dinner we had a casino night in the basement. We hope all the dads will come and join us again next year.

Our intramural program is as strong as ever. The football team gave an all out effort but was defeated in the playoffs. Both the A and B basketball teams made it to the playoffs, and although they gave it their best effort, both were defeated. The A team only losing by two points. Everyone is extremely proud of all the teams and hope that we will be number one next year. Great job guys!

Every year our Chapter raises money for cystic fibrosis research, by dribbling a basketball from Corvallis to Portland. This year the Chi Omega sorority has agreed to help us in this worthwhile event. We have already raised three hundred and fifty dollars for the cause by selling "Gifts of Love" certificates on Valentine's Day. The Dribble is scheduled for sometime early in spring term.

The Oregon Founder's Day Celebration was held at the Oswego Lake Country Club, in Portland. At the banquet, Steve Tedesco, '77-#388, received the Kenneth A. Schwartz Award for outstanding service to Oregon Beta Chapter. The Edward T. Sturgeon Award went to two outstanding seniors, John Scanlon, '79-#415, and Dan Briscoe, '78-#401. The Don McNiel Scholarship Award went to Dave Schmidt, '80-#425, and Bob Zochert, '80-#426. Steve Finn, '77-#390, was chosen as alumnus of the year. We would like to thank Byron Schriever for 10 years of service on the Oregon Beta Corporation Board and congratulate John Seal, our new board member. Over 200 people attended this year's event making it one of the largest in the nation.

Other activities included a Valentine dance and ski weekend. Much thanks to Erick Rathe for doing such a great job as social chairman. The IFC sing competition is coming up soon and we are looking forward to taking first place again.

As always we would like to invite all Phi Psis in the area to stop by and visit anytime.

Pennsylvania Five Miler

This spring will, it seems, produce a Penn Iota first—a Phi Psi Five Miler. This event will differ from the ever popular 500's in that it will be a five mile road race around the Penn campus. We think this innovation will prove quite successful. The race is scheduled for April 5, and is expected to raise a good sum for the American Leukemia Society.

As a result of the efforts of Chuck Gumas, Rush Chairman, and Jeff Bittner, Pledge Educator, we warmly invited five new men into our Brotherhood this February. They are: Michael Viland, Phoenix; Eli Zinner and Martin Gelfand, Philadelphia; Robert Mostel, Stamford, CT; and Richard Brandwein, Bayside, NY. We were all privileged to have Walter Lee Sheppard, Jr., Cornell '29, at this initiation, who made it a more significant ceremony for all present.

Our fall semester officers elected in November were as follows: Raghu Rangachar, GP; Michael Goldman, VGP; Neil Harris, P; Joseph Neglia, AG; Joel Steinberg, BG; Jeff Brenner, SG; Chuck Gumas, Phu; Andrew Weiss, Hod; and Andrew Mamrol, Hi. Leading us this semester are: Neil Harris, GP; Chuck Gumas, VGP; Michael Goldman, P; Jeffery Bittner, AG; Joel Steinberg, BG; Raghu Rangachar, SG; Andrew Mamrol, Phu; Eli Zinner, Hod, and Michael Viland, Hi.

We were all pleasantly surprised to return this fall to find that a $20,000 bequest to our Chapter had been made by Livingston Smith, Pennsylvania '99. This is to be a permanent memorial fund, with the interest generated to be used by the undergraduate Chapter. Much posthumous thanks to Brother Smith.

This fall we purchased a new set of furniture for our chapter room, and are considering a possible doubling in the size of our house. More will be forthcoming on this as details are worked out.

Thanks to the efforts of Joel Steinberg, Pennsylvania Iota is looking forward to having a meal plan next year. We expect that eating together will strengthen our Fraternal spirit here, in addition to strengthening our rush, as rushees will now be able to dine occasionally with us.

Penn Iota was easily the most represented Chapter at the Founder's Day dinner in Philadelphia this year. In addition to our alumni, undergraduates Neil Harris, Joseph Neglia, Raghu Rangachar, Randall Ringer, and Jordan Wetstone participated in the festivities.

In other University events, Brothers Andrew Feigenberg and Tod Nassar have been named President and Vice-President, respectively, of the Pi Mu Epsilon mathematics honor society. Numerous other Brothers are members. In addition, Tod, Andy, and Martin Gelfand will comprise Penn's entire Putnam math team, competing for honors for the University as well as the Fraternity.

Michael Goldman has been successfully competing on the forensics team here, and has been appointed its captain for next year.

We will be bidding farewell to two seniors this year who have distinguished themselves commendably. Randy Ringer has been active as a member of the Student Activities Council Steering Committee, and President of the Transfer Students' Association. He has recently been named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Dave Penzias is on the Undergraduate Assembly, and was named to the Tau Beta Pi engineering honor society.

Our Chapter Advisor, Carl Sheppard, Pennsylvania '68, who has been putting as much effort into our Chapter as any undergraduate, was unfortunately in an auto accident this February. Carl and his family are in good condition, however, and we are wishing them a speedy recovery.

Penn State Looking Forward

Pennsylvania Lambda is looking forward to a promising spring term in Happy Valley with the start of a new pledge class: Andy Cutler, Oil City; Dan Martone, Fox Chapel; Doug Moyer, Reading and Bob Teitt, Butler. These young men display the qualities necessary to live up to the ideals of Phi Kappa Psi and will make a fine addition to the Brotherhood.

Fall rush chairman Charlie Dent, after building an 11 man pledge class this past winter, will take on the responsibility again this term. His enthusiasm and dedication will help ensure a fine fall pledge class.

Under the guidance of winter pledge trainer Paul Martin, Penn Lambda welcomes 11 new initiates to the Chapter: Steve Richard, Allentown; Mike Hallinan Mt. Lebanon; Joe Mikita, Pittston; Fred Kelly, Oil City; Scott Gardiner, Falls Church Virginia; Steve Blumenthal State College; Tom Aichele, Lancaster; Mike Smoyer, Allentown; Carl Suffredini Santa Ana, CA; Tim Zillifro, Oil City and Chris Thomson, Butler. These men are already involved in many chapter activities and will prove to be valuable assets to the chapter.

Elections were held recently and guiding Penn Lambda throughout the remainder of the school year will be: Douglas Laderer, GP; John DeSanti, VGP; Robert Meves, P; Thomas Thompson, AG; Mark McSteen, BG; William Kesack, Jr., Phu; Clark Murphy, Hod; David Dixon, Hi and J. Randall Repcheck, SG.

Once again our winter sports teams finished with very impressive records. Phi Psi's Bowlers reached the semi-finals after easily capturing the section title for the second year in a row. The basketball and volleyball teams along with the swimmers all finished competition with winning records. Softball, track, soccer, golf and tennis are the upcoming spring intramural sports and the Phi Psis are gearing up for a strong finish.

Social chairman Pat Naughton has organized a very exciting social calendar for the upcoming weeks. Sorority socials with Delta Gamma, Alpha Chi Omega and Pi Beta Phi along with cookouts, happy hours and dual parties with other fraternities are just a few of the items on the agenda for spring.

The Brothers are looking forward to the traditional Mother's Day weekend, the 13th annual Phi Psi "500" and the Spring Formal as highlights of a very busy spring term.

Alex Bell, chairman of this year's Phi Psi "500," has been hard at work for months coordinating all the plans for the charity event, and gives the checkered flag for the April 25th race. With an excellent response from out-of-town participants, our goal of 1800 runners should be easily obtainable.

We are looking forward to another large alumni turnout on April 25th, since this year's race promises to be a memorable event.

We send a hearty tri-high to two of our Brothers who are studying abroad this term. Paul Martin is attending the University of Manchester, England while Tom Aichele is studying in Cologne, Germany. The Brotherhood wishes them much success during their travels.

Phi Psi's own Dave Dixon was recently elected Interfraternity Council president. Dave's decisive victory in the election exemplifies Phi Psi's leadership among the 50 fraternities at Penn State.

Around the lodge special appreciation should be extended to Bob Dayton for working hard in the kitchen this winter term. Also, after a year's absence from school, Kevin Stahl has returned to the lodge, lifting the Brotherhood's spirit during the long winter months.

We would like to extend an invitation to all Phi Psi's to visit our house whenever in Nittany Lion country. We always have a great time kicking back with Brothers from other Chapters and exchanging Phi Psi stories.

Penn Lambda is recognized as a top chapter on campus and a leader in academics, sports and activities. Our strong Brotherhood strives to exemplify the high ideals of Phi Kappa Psi as we continue our studies here at Penn State University.

Purdue Take a Short Break

Spring break finally arrived and it has given us a chance to look back over the busy winter and ahead to a hectic spring.

Our semi-annual Phi Psi Dribble ended on the day of the Purdue vs. Indiana basketball game, with our efforts raising over $3000 for Purdue Cancer Research. We secretly transported our fall pledge class to Indianapolis on February 16th and initiated them at National Headquarters. Congratulations are extended to our new Brothers. Our Chapter will continue to grow due to the outstanding efforts of Rush Chairman Mike Pelligra, as we will be pledging ten new men this spring.

Drivers and crews have eagerly begun work on the spring's big event, the Purdue Grand Prix. We will be entering two karts again this year, and we must thank alumni Al Leewood and Gregg Newell for their generous financial help. . . it would not be possible without you. We wish all our race team members the best of luck as that important day draws near.

R. Todd Riley Correspondent

Rhode Island $2,100 Raised for Cancer

The 10th annual "Bounce-a-thon," held February 7, started off a successful Spring Semester for R.I. Beta. Brothers and pledges bounced basketballs along the 40-mile route from Kingston to Providence, where donations were collected for the American Cancer Society. Along the way stops were made in Warwick and Cranston where Mayor Joseph Walsh and Mayor Edward DiPrete awarded proclamations declaring February 7 "Phi Psi Bounce-a-thon Day," throughout the state of Rhode Island. Behind the organization of Vinny Prattico, $2,100 was collected.

New officers for the spring semester are: Vincent Prattico, GP; Joseph Conely, VGP; Martin Hering, AG; John Peterson, BG; Tony Johnson, P; Jim Miller, Phu; Curt Rapp, Hod; Dean Wilson, Hi; and Larry Bernhart, SG.

The spring pledge class consisting of Bob Hayes, Martin Hering, Emile Poisson, John Vellano, and Dave Laska were initiated January 31. Bob Hayes was tragically killed in a car accident during the winter break and was initiated posthumously.

This semester had a successful rush led by Chris Conti and Pete Boggs, where 22 were pledged.

Phi Psi is well represented in the Student Senate this year with Brothers Mike Pfeiffer and Pete Laprade. Bill Guglietta, also a member of the Senate, is running for the office of president.

On the athletic scene, first baseman Tom Healy, pro prospect and All-American candidate is looking forward to another outstanding season on the varsity baseball team. Meanwhile Rich Brown was named intramural wrestling champion in the heavyweight class. The Phi Psi A volleyball team also captured first place in their league. At the present time three teams have a good chance at winning the crown in the basketball and waterpolo tournament.

We wish all the seniors the best of everything in their future endeavors. Those graduating are: Tom Healey, Erik Viens, Mike Durkin, Vinny Prattico, Dick Stott, Steve Cancellieri, Scott Masterson and Kevin Delaney.

Rider Healthy Membership

New Jersey Alpha is at present, enjoying it's largest membership in recent years, with 50 active Brothers.

In late November, the Interfraternity Council elections were held with two Phi Psi's being elected to office. Sean Looney was elected president and Stephen Saxton was elected vice president in charge of rush.

Our own Chapter elections were held in early December with these results: Sean Looney, GP; William Kolatac, VGP; Michale Falzone, P; Thomas Comer, AG; Richard Black, BG; Donald Petroski, SG; Rayfield Dobbins, Hod; Matthew Bradley, Phu; and William Bowman, Hi.

Also in early December, a bus trip to Atlantic City went over very well. Approximately 40 Brothers and alumni attended. Unfortunately there were no big winners at the casinos.

On January 27th, a campus wide dart tournament was won by the Phi Psi team of William Kolatac and Louis Wisnowski.

A Chapter foosball tournament was held on February 25th. It was great fun, and was won by Rayfield Dobbins and Michael Gensinger.

March 5th was the date of our "new wave" party with Delta Zeta Sorority. We will be paired with Delta Zeta in the greek week activities as we defend our championship.

The dated rush was held on March 6th and it was a huge success. Many potential pledges attended.

Congratulations are due to Douglas Zucker who achieved the highest grade point average in the chapter with a 3.8.

A Chapter fishing trip has been scheduled for mid April. Also in April, a series of softball games will take place between ourselves and New Jersey Beta.

South Carolina Getting Solid

As usual, spring has come early to South Carolina, and we are enjoying it to the fullest.

The spring semester also brought about one of the most productive rushes in S.C. Alpha's history, as twelve fine men pledged our Chapter. These are: Kim Bradley, Easley; Scott Burden, Rock Hill; Mike Davis, Greenville; Jim Delk, Summerville; Dean Foster, Greenville; Pat McCormick, Columbia; Dean Salabury, Sumter; Jay Spateholts, Charleston; Kevin Thomas, Laurens; Dave Tolston, Charlottesville, VA; Steve Eure, Portsmouth, VA; and Jim Cottier, Geneva, IL. This pledge class brings the membership of S.C. Alpha to over 30, which is an increase of 100% from last year. Much of the credit for this rise goes to Chapter Consultant Don Durbin, who spearheaded rush for us this spring, and did a super job. Thanks Don.

Founder's Day 1981, was one of the best anyone could remember, as Brothers, pledges, and alumni, gathered to honor our Founders. Some alumni, who had not been back since their college days, were on hand, and the Brothers delighted at finally meeting, "the faces on the composites." At the awards ceremony following dinner, the following Brothers were honored: Gene Nelson, Summerfield Award; Bob Knudsen, Outstanding Alumnus Award; John Steinberger, and Ken Sterns, top pledges for the last two semesters.

The evening was enhanced by the presence of Brother James W. Scott, Cornell '45, S.C. Alpha's first alumni advisor, and the man for whom our Outstanding Alumnus award is named. Brother Scott was an intricate part of S.C. Alpha from our start, and we are very pleased to have him back with us. Brother Scott also made a donation of $500 to the Chapter, which we are very thankful for, and will be a great help for Chapter house improvement.

The semester is going along right well, as the Brothers are just getting over midterm exams, and we are happy to report, no one perished from the strain. The hard scholastic work payed off, as the Fraternity rose, from an unaccustomed 12th place, to 4th highest GPA on the quad, and look forward to challenging for the top spot this semester.

The social scene this and every spring is the same; THE BEACH! These weekends at Myrtle Beach are mixed in with theme parties, like our "Toga Party," with ΠΒΦ, as the last vestigial of Animal House were kept alive a while longer by the Brothers. While our Pajama Party, with ΚΚΓ, gave us the chance to show off the latest styles in late evening attire.

The spring also means one other thing, SOFTBALL. The terrible ten are looking forward to the season, as all the vets from last year are returning, as well as some promising rookies. In our first game, the Brothers stung ΑΦΑ, 9-2, and shouts of softball champs could be heard.

One more vote of thanks, before we close, goes out to our alumni, whose invaluable services to us got us over a rough part of our history. If any S.C. alumnus is not receiving the newsletter, please drop us a line at U.S.C. Box 85118, Columbia, S.C. 29225, and we will get you on the mailing list. Also the phone number in the lounge has changed, we can now be reached at 803-777-1403.

That's about all the news from S.C. As always, any Phi Psis in the area are invited to drop by the lounge and enjoy a little southern hospitality from the Brothers of S.C. Alpha.

Southwest Texas Record Year

The spring semester has been an enthusiastic one here in San Marcos with active membership for Texas Gamma at an all time high of over forty men.

We began the semester with fifteen new initiates: Greg Flinn, Alan Barron, Mike Toomey, Steve Schoelman, Larry Head, and David Terrell, Houston; Randall Jenkinson and Lee Kainer, San Antonio; Robert Slavic and John Slavic, Fort Worth; Joe Dunn, Aspermont; Doug Peterman, Dallas; James Skinner, Humble; Brett Montgomery, Missouri City, and Jim Ellis, Galveston.

Rush chairman Steve Pierce organized a very successful spring rush which produced a pledge class of thirteen men, the largest pledge class on campus. They are: Pat Brooks, San Marcos; Roy Ribelin, Dallas; Richard Raley, Jasper; Richard Brown, Houston; Mike Chapman, El Paso; Craig Steele, Houston; Brad Moore, Austin; Kevin Pillsbury, Missouri City; Joe Saye, Grand Prairie; Billy Ray Robbins, Marlin; Mike Williams, Heidelberg, West Germany; Tim Gigliotti, Amherst, OH; Randy Hornmuth, Bettendorf, IO.

The semester was highlighted by our Second Annual Phi Psi Fandango All-College Party held February 5th at Hays County Civic Center. The party was successful largely due to the hard work of Ben Franklin, the organizer of the event. Following the party we held the Second Annual Phi Psi Invitational Basketball Tournament. The sixteen team, double elimination tournament included fraternity teams from the University of Texas, Texas A&M, and Southwest Texas State, as well as independent teams from central Texas.

Our Founder's Day festivities were held February 21 beginning with an outdoor barbecue at University Camp and climaxing with an open bar party in the evening. With the help of Bobby Santos, a good time was had by all.

Phi Psis are becoming more and more involved in areas of campus leadership. Two of our brothers, Danny McClung and David Miller were recently chosen to become members of the Student Foundation. David Miller was also selected to join the national greek honor society, the Order of Omega. We are also proud of John Haecker who was elected to a seat on the Associated Student Senate.

All of us here in San Marcos are looking forward to a successful end to the spring semester, as we attempt to win our third straight fraternity championship in intramural basketball, and also to an even more successful fall.

Southwestern Louisiana Compromise

The Brothers of Louisiana Beta have been quite involved with activities since the start of the spring semester. To begin with, the Louisiana Alpha chapter from Baton Rouge surprised us and kidnapped our 1981 composite. A week later we were still unaware of who stole it and we were suspicious of the other greeks on campus. Finally we received a letter in the mail from Baton Rouge which contained a ransom note asking us for a social and beer.

With this note, Beta decided that we would have to take action and get the composite back. The Brothers then decided that a trip to Baton Rouge was necessary. We arrived at the apartment of the president of Alpha and found our composite. Alpha then grouped a large number of their members and together we hit the night life of Baton Rouge. Through a series of events and misfortune, Alpha stole the composite back and escaped into other parts of the campus of Baton Rouge. Although they still had the composite we had one of their undergraduate members that happened to live with their president. We took him back and contemplated the idea of taking him with us back to the campus of U.S.L. Instead we borrowed their phone and returned to U.S.L. That Sunday following the adventures, Alpha came to U.S.L. and we played a softball game. We won and after the game the negotiations began. Alpha got back their phone and we put our composite back on our wall.

Founder's day was a lot of fun for us this year. The Chapter had a chicken barbecue at the house and relaxed while drinking our favorite beverage. It was a great gathering for all of the Brothers and pledges. We were even treated by a visit from a few alumni.

Our formal is in the planning and the date of March 28, 1981 has been chosen. The spring formal this year will be held in Lafayette and all of the Brothers are getting ready.

The second annual Florida extravaganza is in the planning and arrangements are presently being made. By the way, the four pledges for the spring semester are doing fine and it looks as if they will become proud future Brothers of Phi Psi.

Louisiana Beta would like to wish to all the other Chapters luck of the Mid-Terms ahead and on the final exams which follow soon after.

George W. Lamperez Correspondent

Stanford Spring Arriving on the Farm

Finals are upon the proud and vigorous members of Cal Beta. Following late winter rains, Lake Lagunita is filling and the sun is once again parching our backs. Sunbathing and studying for exams weren't meant to coincide, but such signs of an early California Spring tempt our otherwise unyielding souls.

This Winter four Autumn initiates were elected to offices: Andrew Beal, GP; Craig Henry, VGP; Mahesh Mankani, P; and Andrew Johanos, AG and BG. Not owning a Chapter house, our group is a unique fraternity on campus. We must make special efforts to make ourselves known and keep the group growing. After an informal Winter rush, two fine pledges joined our ranks: Kenneth Chu, Los Angeles; and Jeffrey Shaw, Encino.

Winter activities included broom hockey with Alpha Phi sorority at the local ice rink, a weekend retreat to Santa Cruz, and a brunch honoring four seniors who are graduating early. Kirk Henry, Ken Kesslin, Ken Koontz and Bill Shirley played an important role in keeping our group together in its younger days. Their devotion will be missed.

With numerous members graduating this Spring, Cal Beta plans an active rush in hopes of an unusually large pledge class. In addition to the traditional daiquiri parties and beer/softball games, we're scheduling at least one beach trip and a day at the races. If everything Rico says does come from the horse's mouth (some horse!), we might take home enough to cover our Spring dues!

Syracuse Lonergan Award

Founder's Day and Casino Phi Psi for muscular dystrophy highlighted the spring semester's activities at New York Beta.

Two new awards were presented at this year's Founder's Day dinner in addition to the presentation of the coveted Founder's Cup. The first Clarence A. "Pops" Lonergan award for outstanding alumni participation in the Chapter was given posthumously to Burr Blodgett. Brother Blodgett had been active in the Chapter's alumni association as well as community youth projects until his death in 1980.

The Neophyte Scholarship award for maintaining the best scholastic average during the pledge period was presented to Brother Joseph Chesky, who had a 3.8 GPA during his pledge period last fall.

Solon E. Summerfield winner Nelson C. Tears received this year's Founder's Cup award, given to the Brother who best embodies the qualities of a Phi Psi.

All New York Betans worked hard with Alpha Xi Delta sorority on our ninth annual Casino to raise money for the muscular dystrophy dance marathon. The four nights of casino were organized by Brothers Dave Finkelstein, Chip Holmes, Bob Ficks, Paul Kenworthy and Mark Alexander. Last year's Casino Phi Psi raised over $2500 for MDA.

Our slate of officers, elected last December, is headed by GP Michael C. Nedder. Other officers include John Steinkraus, VGP; Christopher Casazza, BG; John S. Healey, SG; Joseph Chesky, Hod; William Bornstein, Phu; and Michael Mojo, Hi. Brothers James Grace, P, and Paul Coleman, AG, continue in their one year positions.

Fraternity Educator Leonard Walczyk is working hard with his twelve pledges: Philip Caporusso, Smithtown; Jonathan Cohen, Camp Hill, PA; Gary Halpern, Wynnewood, PA; Daniel Leyden, Holmdel, NJ; Eric Mandelbaum, Mansey; Stephen Mercer, Troy; Ross Posner, Wantaugh; Scott Price, Glyndon, MD; Peter Roberts, Bristol, RI; Gordon Smith, Auburn; Ben Waters, Hanover, NH; and George Wolke, East Meadow.

We also received a transfer from Ohio Alpha, Michael Stern.

As of the SHIELD deadline, New York Beta has forty-four undergraduate Brothers, with 1429 Brothers initiated since our Chapter's charter was granted in 1884. Next fall's rush chairman, Howard Saslow and Charles Bantis, anticipate a successful rush as the Greek system on the Syracuse University campus is getting stronger.

Tennessee New Initiates

Winter Quarter is coming to a close here at Tennessee Epsilon and we are anxiously awaiting Spring with eagerness and anticipation.

This quarter we initiated six new Brothers: Samuel M. Stickney, Asheville NC; Dennis J. Voulopos, Lancaster PA; D. Ryne Johnson, Richmond, VA; John Curry, MD; and Stanley R. Boyd and Joel R. Johnson, from Knoxville. We gladly welcome these men confident that they will contribute both their knowledge and good spirits to our beloved Fraternity.

The Brothers of Tennessee Epsilon.

Our Founders Day celebration turned out to be the best one in years. We had several alumni join us for the festivities including Robert Clark, '67, the first Chapter GP. We wish to thank them all for their time and enthusiasm.

Spring Quarter always proves to be the most exciting at Tennessee Epsilon and this year will be no exception. We have a variety of social events planned such as the annual Pajama Party, the Scavenger Hunt and the biggest of them all, the Spring Orgy. We invite all our Brothers across the nation to stop by and take part in this major campus event.

As always, we urge all our Brothers nationwide to come and visit us if they wander this way and celebrate the glory of ole' Phi Psi.

Texas

Psi-Dogs: Ahead of the Pack

With the initiation of 32 Fall pledges and a welcoming of 10 Spring pledges, Tx. Alpha can now boast of a 90-man Chapter, abundant with spirit and drive.

Our athletic endeavors have placed us in the UT spotlight; we took 3rd place in the 2nd Annual A E Pi Olympiad benefitting Muscular Dystrophy; we have 4 Basketball teams, one of which has a chance at the Intramural Playoffs, and; Softball season is upon us—we warmed our arms up at the Southwest Texas State Kappa Alpha Invitational Softball Tournament in San Marcos.

More emphasis has been placed on our Scholarship program headed by Bro. Mark Leyendecker. The pledges have a tight grip on their study hours and the Brothers are benefitting from this attitude, too.

Once again, Phi Psi is active in the Philanthropy Dept.; we are hosting the Spring Campus-wide Blood Drive at the house, assisted by the girls of Zeta Tau Alpha, and sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, the service organization. The pledges are assisting the Multiple Sclerosis Society by selling restaurant coupon books on campus to raise money for the Society.

Our morale-boosting Social program has entailed mixers with our neighbors, the SDTs, an all-weekend party with the Chi-Os from NTSU, and planned mixers with KD, AXΩ, ADPi, and ZTA. We blasted out Feb. 14 with our Annual St. Valentine's Day Massacre Party attended by gangsters and molls from the '20s. Also in the planning stages are our Round-Up activities—Round-Up is the kick-off for our Summer Rush program. The Bermuda Formal, Casino Party and a trip to Mexico are also on the slates.

Our new Officers, elected in Nov., are Douglas A. Throckmorton, GP; Thomas A. Dewree, VGP; Charles Williams, AG; Grant Specia, BG; Mark Snell, SG; David Roberts, P; Mike O'Neill, Phu; Jay Reed, Hod; and David Rowlett, Hi.

Our Founders' Day celebration inspired the Brothers immensely, with Bro. Joel Smith giving the address. But our spirits dropped the next week with the sad news of the death of Bro. Donnell Michael Rhody, '74. Bro. Rhody was a much respected man with many ties to Phi Psi.

We finally got a new stove for the Phi Psi kitchen and are in the purchasing stages of a new microwave oven and many utensils for Annie, our cook. The pledges (now Brothers) gave the house a gift of 3 new couches for the "Library" to brighten the common areas of the house. Bro. Ken Sandoval will be doing a bit of repair work on the ceiling due to his foot coming through it while he was working on repairing the heating duct in the attic.

Love has struck the Phi Psi house and we have three engaged Brothers: Bill Cheney is engaged to Chrissy Groves; John "Brownie" Bryant is engaged to Camille Mason, Alpha Phi; and Bennett Roberts slipped a ring on Noel Duvic, KD.

With many thanks to Treasurers and Financial Advisors past and present, the Chapter is totally debt-free and owes no one a back balance.

Recent changes in our House Corporation find Bro. Floyd Saxon replacing Mike McKinney as President and Gary Rodgers replacing Doug Danforth as Treasurer and Financial Advisor. Also, Bro. Bryan Muecke was appointed to the Board as Advisor. Thanks and Congratulations are in order for our outgoing and incoming Board members.

Texas Alpha is looking ahead to the forthcoming Summer and Fall for a great rush and outstanding internal and external support.

Charles S. Williams, Jr. Correspondent

Texas Tech Future Thoughts

Hello Brothers once again from Texas Beta. With the coming of the Spring semester of 1981 there has been the excitement of our own Phi Psi Phandango, the basketball season and rush. Yet there is more to come like softball, volleyball, and Sing Song along with the annual Food Drive and Dinner Dance.

Phi Psi Phandango, in its illustrious 5th year, enjoyed three live bands and 3000 spectators. Lone Star was a sponsor and there were fantastic ski give-aways and armadillo races. Founders' Day was held at the Lubbock Women's Club and attended by twenty alumni. Rush also turned out eight new Phi Psi prospects: Gerald Caldwell, Abilene; Glenn Carnell, Irving; Doug Cowie, Houston; Tom Dykes, Midland; Richard Giese, Fondulac, WI; Greg Hansen, Richardson; Greg Hodgkinson, Richardson; and Chris Walther, Houston. The new spring initiates are: Mark Bahr, Racine, WI; Bill Cato, Richardson; Shawn Christopher, Beeville; Mark Ramsey, Lubbock; Bob Reister, Sherman; and David Webb, Lubbock.

Texas Beta is excelling not only socially but also athletically. The Chapter has already mixed with the Gamma Phis and also Sigma Kappas with Chi O and Alpha Phi mixers yet to come. The 'A' basketball team finished 2-2 with resounding victories over Sigma Nu (71-7) and ATO (55-38). The softball teams (A and B) are prepared and the volleyball team which went to the playoffs a year ago returns with five starters.

Sing Song, long a pride of Texas Beta is doing "The Best Little Whore House in Texas" with the Gamma Phi Betas. Needless to say there has been no lack of participation. Food Drive, sponsored annually by the Chapter, has excellent support campus wide.

Finally, congratulations to alumni Joe Stanley, Bill Collins, Bill Whiteside, Jim Ratliff, Darryle Sanders, Alan Henry and Tony Whittington, who were honored at Founders Day, for 10 or more years service to the Fraternity. We appreciate the support of alumni as we continue the struggle for land on Greek Circle . . .

Toledo Mortgage Burning

February 20 was a big day for Ohio Eta. This date marked the burning of our mortgage. After 13 years, our house is paid off.

On February 15 we initiated 4 new Brothers. They are Michael J. Hamann, from Toledo; J. Steve McCormack and David J. Tough, from Sylvania; and James L. Schalaske, from Parma. And on March 1, we took 4 new pledges. They are Matthew Krushenski and Todd M. Shealy, from Toledo; Mark P. Phillips, from Defiance; and Timothy W. Smith, from Fayette. Congratulations, gentlemen.

In sports, Phi Psi took 1st in swimming. Dhuey M. Cronk and Nicholas J. Daudelin are both members of the Varsity Volleyball team. Daudelin is also on the Varsity Swimming team. He was the holder of the best time for the 50 ft. Freestyle in the M.A.C., but, due to a foot injury, he may not be able to defend his title.

Ohio Etans have also obtained other positions on campus. This year, two Brothers are involved with the Freshman Advising and Registration Program, F.A.R.P. They are Daniel R. Morrison, who is co-director, and Wesley W. Schaub. They also hold offices in I.F.C. Morrison is secretary and Schaub is Rush chairman.

We are also happy to announce that Larry C. Brack, Mike C. Smith, and Scott K. Williams are new members of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, and Morrison has been tapped into Blue Key. Blue Key is an honorary fraternity for people who excel in leadership, academics, and community service.

Good luck to all Colonies, Chapters, and Alumni Associations.

The largest pledge class on campus includes the following respectable young men: Tom Ehrhardt, Kokomo; Mitch Johnson, Duluth; Steve Thompson, Rockton; Steve Schroeder, Zionsville; John Strege, St. Louis; Todd Walker, Milwaukee; Mike Van Bortel, Neenah; Matt Stiles, East Aurora; Bob Schlak, Bradley; John Ruhe, Wethersfield; Daryl Caneva, Lockport; Jeff Swinehart, Goshen; Joe Schmidt, Traverse City; Mark Schroeder, Normal; Mike Specca, Chicago Hts.; Paul Schnorr, Altoona; Larry Groenewald, South Holland; Mark Vander Ploeg, Chicago; Andy Herbach, Hobart; Jim Boerger, Racine; Dave Brege, St. Clair Shores; Mark Schmidt, Hawthorn Woods; Steve Rickus, Birmingham; Steve Nichols, Girard; Jay Schaefer, Oak Creek; Chris Thielo, Fairview Pk.; Scott Gabrys, Griffith; Kevin Wallace, LaGrange; Craig Johnson, St. Louis; Brian Robinson, Germantown; Doug Ragoni, Iron Mountain; This Spring, Phi Psi is making its first bid at the "all sports" intramural trophy with strong showings in all categories, especially bowling and ping-pong. Victories here, along with last fall's football championship, have helped to establish Phi Psi athletically. An equal balance between work and play is indicated as the Brothers boast the second best grade point average of all the fraternities on campus.

A camping trip is planned for the Brothers sometime in the near future, although the site for the excursion has not yet been determined. This appears to be a worthwhile attempt to increase Brotherly unity, which in our case is important since next year we will have the largest fraternal membership at Valparaiso.

Finally, some of the Brothers found time to attend two Founder's Day banquets, both

Chicago and Indianapolis. It was a good experience for those who participated and we hope to have a large turn out for both banquets next year.

Vanderbilt Successful Rush

Tennessee Delta entered its 80th year with unprecedented enthusiasm and excellence. Rush proved successful with the pledging of 23 fine men. These pledges include: David Allen, Gallatin; David Atkinson, Northfield, IL; Ken Berry, Cincinnati, OH; Bob Boone, Basking Ridge, NJ; Brian Brakke, St. Petersburg, FL; George Brown, Winston-Salem, NC; Paul Cushing, Vineland, NJ; Steve Dix, Manchester; Scott Draper, Virginia Beach, VA; Michael Duncan, Louisville, KY; John Ford, St. Louis, MO; David Kleinfelter, Knoxville; Matt Lowe, Columbus, GA; Jim Maher, Westfield, NJ; Andy Mindlin, Prairie Village, KY; Roy Perrin III, Metairie, LA; Andy Rosenman, Annapolis, MD; Tom Sheedy, Dunwoody, GA; Barry Sorrells, Little Rock, AR; Chris Temme, Madison, WI; Al Thrasher, Griffin, GA; Kevin Troy, New Canaan, CT; and Scott Winne, Andrews AFB, MD.

The tradition of excellence in intramural athletics remained strong. The basketball team provided us with another winning season (5-3), and the baseball team is expected to continue in its role as a perennial power.

Under the guidance of Service committee chairman Jon Utterback, planning for another Phi Psi "500" has begun. Our third annual Phi Psi "500" will be held next fall to benefit the American Diabetes Association. This has now grown into a campus wide event.

Spring semester officers are: Charlie Davison, GP; Byron Norfleet, VGP; Dan Barrett, P; Brian Grove, AG; Peter Bolvig, Pledge Educator; Jim Decker, House Manager; Doug Reighart, BG; Jon Utterback, SG; Howell Russ, Phu; Sam Harman, Hod; and Don Ellsworth, Hi.

Phi Psi also has many campus leaders. Ted Parris is Secretary of the Inter-fraternity Council, David Allen is Drum Major of the band, Chris Temme is Sports Editor of the university newspaper, and Chris Hageman is a member of the Vanderbilt football team.

The highlight of this semester's activities was our Founders' Day celebration. It began Friday night with a Roman feast put on by our pledges. Saturday night, pledges, undergraduates, and alumni enjoyed an excellent band party. Then our traditional Founder's Day Luncheon was held Sunday morning in conjunction with The Nashville Alumni Club. Brother Kent Owen, The Fraternity Mystagogue, was our honored guest and speaker. Brother Bob Carnahan was this year's winner of the H. Fort Flowers outstanding alumnus award.

Tennessee Delta continues to set campus trends. Recently the administration began a campaign to improve the physical appearance of Fraternity row. Phi Psi was the first to respond with a new fence and landscaping.

Tennessee Delta continues to grow and improve. Next year we will initiate our 1,000th Brother. We invite all of our alumni and other interested Phi Psi's to join us on this momentous occasion when we will become members of a truly select group.

Virginia Active Spring

Another fall rush season came and went with the addition of a diverse and fine group of pledges. Although the number of pledges was down from the previous year, we feel this group will continue in maintaining Va. Alpha's reputation as one of the finest fraternities on the grounds. The new pledges are: Greg Coyle, Doug Felker, Eric Landau, John Madden, Jerry Marcus, Jeff Mester, Chris Meukow, and Andrew Whisnant.

The Brothers at Phi Psi were involved in a number of activities. Brothers Bill Rolle, Bob Horan, and Don Ashburn, danced for two days to raise money for Madison House, a local charitable organization. Brother Mike Culp starred in a university play, and Brother Brad Felker was among a select group to be chosen as a senior resident assistant.

Two of the Brothers, Mike Marsh and Mark Alliston, have formed a band that is getting increasingly popular in the Charlottesville area. At a recent Phi Psi party, the band drew a packed house, and kept the crowd dancing till the end of the night.

Phi Psi is planning for their best Easters ever. Easters is a University-wide party in the spring. Thus far, two bands have been booked for the weekend. We have also collaborated with four other fraternities to obtain the services of the hottest band in town on Sunday afternoon. All Phi Psi's are welcome.

Academically, the Fraternity continues to excel. Several Brothers received Intermediate Honors rewarding their academic achievement during their first two years of undergraduate study. In addition, many Brothers have been accepted to graduate school, including Brother Clurman to medical school.

The Intramural season has been one the most successful for the Chapter. We are currently heading towards a third straight basketball championship, a feat never before accomplished.

During a recent weekend, we were honored with the presence of Mr. Henry Davidson, a 1950 initiate. We also received visits from former brothers Egan, Cook, McCarty, Scher, Skelly, Spadafore, and Speer.

New officers were elected recently. The new officers are: Greg Case, GP; Chris Rodgers, VGP; Christopher Meyer, BG; Robert Wold, AG; Mike Meaney, Social Chairman; and John Baldwin, Rush Chairman.

The Chapter's future looks as promising as ever. Our diversified plans for the spring semester reflect this confidence. In addition, we hope to initiate a Phi Psi "500" here at U. Va.

I would like to end this newsletter with a personal note to a Phi Psi at New Jersey Beta, Monmouth College, and a hometown friend: Craig Glickstein, keep that house on the beach. Robert Wold Correspondent

Virginia Tech Service

Virginia Zeta is finishing up an exciting Winter Quarter with six fine pledges: Kenneth Cole, Wayne Crawford, Russel Hillsley, Shane Moses, Chris Roper, Robert Sismour. These men have brought a valuable new excitement to our Chapter. They have already shown us the major asset that they will be in the future.

During this past quarter, our Chapter performed its third annual Dribble-a-thon. This is our major service project of the year. We bounce a basketball for approximately forty miles along back roads from Roanoke to Blacksburg. The money collected for this project is given to a local charity. For the past two years the local Easter Seals center has been chosen for this charity. In order to get the children of the center directly involved, a small party was given for them along with the donation.

Dribbling a basketball for the past three years has finally paid off for our local Chapter. We increased our record of straight loses in the intramural basketball matches to a grand fifty—fifty record. This poor basketball record does not imply our Chapter is non-athletic. Our President, Jerry Kane, won the Virginia Tech Pentathlon.

Our Chapter continues looking for a house to call its own. We have rented for the past few years, but we would like to own a house. We have had several possibilities this past year but none seem to work out.

Brothers James Schuh and Bob Wendt represented Virginia Zeta and Virginia Tech at Western Tennessee State regional fustball championships. Jim and Bob are finalists in the State of Virginia. Brother Barney Roger is the managing editor of the Virginia Tech Greek newspaper, Greek Exchange. He is also in the running to become IFC President.

And finally, alumnus Robert Wagner is now our Chapter Advisor.

Wabash Busy Spring

Spring semester at Wabash College has been a busy one for Indiana Gamma. To start things off, Founders' Day '81 served as the initiation day for seventeen new Brothers. They are: John Albright and Greg Britton, Highland; Joe Baily, Franklin; Tom Cooper, Jeff Dziako, Bill Keeling, Denis Kelly, and Eric Roth, Indianapolis; Nick D'Angelo, Hammond; Kevin Hartman, Bainbridge; Ed Hibshman, Elkhart; Dave Lazarek, Michigan City; Merlin Nice, Wabash; Cyril Oake, Rolling Prairie; Greg Kajfez, Carmel; Tim Thobe, Cincinnati; and Page Wiggins, Poseyville. Following the initiation ceremony fifty-seven Brothers made their way to the Founders Day banquet in Indianapolis. We placed second in the song competition behind Indiana Zeta, but we'll get them next year.

In December the Chapter decided who would lead the Chapter for the spring semester. John Clymer was elected GP; Doug Fraser, VGP; David Soper, BG; Clyde Dawson, P; Craig Yoder, Hod; Gerald Myers, Phu; and Timothy Guiden, Hi.

Wabash College is known for it's tough comprehensive exams, and seniors are required to pass these exams before they are allowed to graduate. Some of our seniors did quite well and received a Distinction citation for their efforts. Those hard working seniors are: H. Marshall Greene, Econ.; Mark McGrady and Steve Riggs, Poly. Sci.; and Douglas Coplen, Chem.

The Chapter received an award for raising the most money at a dance-a-thon recently. The event sponsored by the Circle K Club, a service organization, also gave Doug Fraser the award for the top individual money raiser. Doug Haywood, president of the club, told us the money was raised to combat Cerebral Palsy.

Since the beginning of the semester, the Phi Psi's have moved up five places in the intramural standings. The basketball and bowling teams contributed to this by placing second against ten other teams. Activities Chairman Walt Olgy attributed the success to hard work and great enthusiasm.

In closing, Indiana Gamma would like to wish everyone a successful spring and an even better summer.

Washington New Faces

With the presence of spring fast approaching, the Brothers of Washington Alpha are taking off their winter coats and getting down to business at Washington.

New officers were elected for winter and spring quarters: Steve Fawthrop, GP; Kent Leyde, VGP; Jim Snelz, P; James McDonough, AG; Sam Loss, BG; Chris Wiklof, SG; Mark Crisler, Hod; Ed Taylor, Phu; and Steve Spring, Hi.

Dale Linder has been elected as the new rush chairman for spring and summer. Dale is currently a senior, and graduated from Friendly High School in Fort Washington, MD. He has just been accepted into the School of Architecture. He is forming plans for this summer and would appreciate any input for his program. The phone number for Washington Alpha is (206) 527-7900.

The Brotherhood welcomed six new pledges into our house this winter: Steve Blackstone, Kirkland (Juanita); Robert Estes, Bellevue (Interlake); Dave Miller, Tacoma (Clover Park); Glenn Olarte, Tacoma (Lakes); Dave Olling, Jr., Seattle (Shorewood); and Alex Veress, Seattle (Roosevelt).

Ten new members were initiated into the mysteries of Phi Kappa Psi in January: Joseph Pruss, Douglas Hora, Edward Taylor, Matthew Ohlinger, Sam Loss, Mark Wood, Eric Hipke, and Mark Stevens. On Founders' Day, Thomas Vanourek was initiated, bringing the total number initiated at Washington Alpha to 1,213 Brothers.

Founders' Day came, bringing with it a revitalized spirit to the Brotherhood. The day turned out to be a great success. We started with the assembling of the Brothers together to sing "Amici" in the cold, Seattle rain. The dinner, later that night, was held at the College Club in downtown Seattle. One hundred sixty persons showed. The guest speaker was Joseph Taller, Washington '58, the new budget director for Governor Spellman.

The annual Fire Dance was held Feb. 28 and was a blazing success. This dance commemorates the 51st anniversary of the Chapter house burning to the ground on November 29, 1929.

Washington Alpha would like to recognize the following:

Dwight Johnson on his election to the Board of Control Position Number Five in the Student government at the University of Washington. Dwight was by far the most qualified candidate for his position and was endorsed by the Greeks and Dorms.

James McDonough for winning the Individual Drill with Arms division at the annual NROTC H.D. Powell Northwest Navy Competition at Moscow, Idaho.

Steve Fawthrop for being appointed to the IFC Finance and Budget Committee.

Other activities this year have been the annual Toilet Bowl football game between Brothers and pledges. This hard fought game was won by the Brothers 28-21. Brother Steve Spring won the Tidy Bowl Trophy as the MVP.

The Spring Formal was on April 18 at the Seattle Aquarium.

Greek Week is scheduled for May 3-May 9. The men at Phi Psi are getting psyched to soak all competition off the field in the funnelator contest.

Washington and Jefferson Unity and Diversity

The mother Chapter of Phi Psi at W & J remains the most respected Chapter on campus. Our domination here is long-sighted and the future looks only better. Twenty-five new initiates were welcomed into the Fraternity this year. The October ceremony included: Barry Cuneo, Connellsville; John Kelly, Allison Park; Timothy Bracken, Corry; Richard Finoli, Greensburg; John Glusica, Uniontown; Thomas Krahe, Pleasant Hills; Chris Dunn, Girard; Michael Patrick, Connellsville; Peter Soom, Uniontown; Ernest deLeon, Pleasant Hills; Robert Geary, Latrobe; and Paul Schofield, Aliquippa. The Founders' Day ceremony included: Jeffery Mills, Ligonier; Bradford Warden, Morgantown; Bradford Warden, Morgantown, WV; Christopher King, Mt. Pleasant; Theodore Zierden, Coraopolis; Michael Sisk, Center Twp.; Michael Thomas, Pleasant Hills; Michael Barbour, Rochester; Thomas West- enberger, Boonton, NJ; Clayton Hardon, Fox Chapel; Scott Petri, Downington; Max Regula, Latrobe; David Beveridge, Erie; and Kenneth Jaynes, Connellsville.

Chapter elections were held in February. The results were as follows: William T. Dymond Jr., GP; Theodore W. Zierden, VGP; Dominic R. Papalia Jr., P; John T. Kelly, AG; John M. Barry, BG; Jeffery A. Mills, SG; Edward N. Welte, Hod; Thomas P. Krahe, Phu; Ernest P. deLeon, Hi.

The spring 1981 pledge class is very promising, and there can be no doubt as to their worthiness. Each is a talented individual and will carry on our fine tradition here at W & J. The pledges are: James J. Lomeo, McKeesport; Howard C. Storer Jr., Boonton, NJ; Joel K. White, Melcroft; Louis M. Dayich, Waynesburg; Thomas E. Noble,

The Phi Psi's at W & J have traditionally dominated both intercollegiate and intramural athletics. In Varsity Football Brothers Daniel F. Doyle, a senior captain from Pittsburgh and Michael F. Barbour from Rochester, were selected as Honorable Mention All-Americans. All Presidents Athletic Conference honors went to Brothers Lance P. Mondock and Max A. Regula along with Doyle and Barbour. Second team All-PAC honors went to Brothers Franklin H. Yoho (captain), Joseph C. Calvini and David A. Herchko.

In Varsity Wrestling David M. Krivus, placed second in the Division III Wrestling Championships held at John Carroll University and pledge John Lundgren placed seventh in the same. Both received All-American status and Krivus will compete in the Division I Championships in Princeton, NJ., held March 13, 14. Thomas P. Morrell placed first in PAC competition and John R. Walton along with Krivus and Lundgren placed second in PAC competition.

Phi Psi domination of intramural sports was apparent again this year. We won football and tennis and placed second in volleyball and basketball. We have a good chance of winning the Intramural Trophy again this year.

Our Chapter is also well represented on student government committees: William T. Dymond, Educational Planning Committee; Barry Cuneo and John Bucciarelli, Student Activities Advisory Board; Lance P. Mondock, Paul Lomeo, and Peter M. Matgouranis, Judicial Board. Matgouranis is also Interfraternity Council President.

Four Brothers were selected into the Who's Who Among American College and University Students: Max A. Regula, William T. Dymond, Peter M. Matgouranis, and David A. Beveridge.

Pennsylvania Alpha again took first place at the Annual Greek Sing here in Washington. We also took first place for all Greek Week activities.

Carnival Weekend, the biggest celebration of the year is set for April 24-25. Senior Brother Mike George will attempt to win the pie eating contest for the fourth consecutive year. This will be the first time in W & J's history that anyone has done this. Any area Brothers or alumni are enthusiastically invited to visit!

A number of Brothers attended the Pittsburgh Area Founders' Day Banquet at the Press Club. Among the many prestigious alumni was Fraternity Treasurer John Burke.

The Brotherhood here at W & J is currently planning our Biennial Dinner to be held at the Meadowlands Hilton on April 4.

Washington and Lee 125th Anniversary

Spring at Washington and Lee is probably the students favorite time of the year. This holds especially true for Virginia Beta. The Chapter has fourteen pledges so far who add to the high quality of members of Phi Psi.

They are: Pledge President, Eric Campbell; Paul Chapman, William Foster, Jay Hoyt, Richard Jones, Glenn Kirschner, James Koenig, Mark Lukes, Joseph Mamo, Marcus Martinez, Sean McNulty, Donald Richardson, Ray Scerrecia, and Eric Storey. Virginia Beta is looking forward to having these men join its Brotherhood.

A major event taking place this spring is Fraternity Alumni Weekend. Our Chapter is even more enthusiastic about this because we will be celebrating our 125th Anniversary. We are truly looking forward to hosting our Brothers from past classes. Alumni Weekend will take place May 7, 8, and 9. Virginia Beta invites all members for a very festive and proud occasion.

As in past years, Virginia Beta is again excelling in all areas of college life. In academics, the Chapter completed its first term with a 2.5+ grade point average. One of our top students, Lonnie Nunley, received an NCAA Post Graduate Scholarship for his excellence both in academics and athletics.

In sports, the Chapter has many varsity athletes including Mike Fogarty, a football standout. Mike was chosen First Team All Old Dominion Athletic conference at tight end. He is also a captain on next year's squad. Other standouts are Ken Robinson and Don Kellerman in football, Herb Gresens, swim team captain, Mike Lewers and Jim Knudson in lacrosse, and Frank Brower and Charles Harris in baseball.

Virginia Beta is also proud of its many leaders on campus. Lonnie Nunley and William Mackey are members of the Interfraternity Council, and Frank Brower is a member of the Executive Committee. Also, 9 out of 27 dormitory councilors are members of Virginia Beta, and recently four more were chosen to hold positions next year. These are Mark Anderson, Steve Corbeille, Anthony Ieradi, and David Stevens.

Recently the Chapter played a very important role in a Muscular Dystrophy Dance Marathon where almost all members actively participated. Also James Hemby and Frank Brower were chairman and co-chairman of the marathon, respectively.

With quality leaders and involvement in worthy causes like the latter mentioned, Virginia Beta has been able to uphold its high quality and status at the University, and it is apparent with the talent of our new pledge class, that it will continue to do so.

West Virginia Keeping Busy

As another school year comes to a close, the Brothers of West Virginia Alpha are busy with our many activities of the spring semester. Under the superior leadership of Zach Mendelson, GP, a great many improvements have been made within the Chapter. Among these are increased alumni support in the Morgantown area which had been dwindling for the past few years. Our alumni have really pulled together at a time when we need their support. Other improvements are a more structured committee system for such functions as Founder's Day and our civic projects.

Founder's Day was celebrated on February 14 this year for our Chapter and was highlighted by a good alumni turnout. Herschel H. Rose, '32, was the principal speaker for the banquet held at the Morgantown Holiday Inn; George Daugherty, '51, served as Symposiarch. Among the award recipients that day: Zach Mendelson was presented with the Harlan B. Selby Award for the most enduring contribution by a senior; Cam Siegrist received the Solon E. Summerfield Award for scholastic excellence; Abe Key was presented with the Jeffrey C. Carmichael Award for the greatest contribution to intramural sports; Tom Dyer received the Corson-Brashear Award for scholarship within the newly initiated pledge class; Eddie Harrah was given the Best Pledge Award; and Brad Williams was presented with the first annual Most Active Phi Psi Award. We'd like to congratulate these Brothers for their outstanding accomplishments.

Another highlight of our recent Founder's Day Celebration was the initiation of these 24 men: Thomas G. Dyer, Larry J. Cavallo, Thomas C. Kennedy, Timothy W. Dyer, Patrick R. Parrill, John W. Hornor, John T. Miesner, Michael W. Robinson, and J. Todd Furbie, Clarksburg; Donald G. Klinestiver and Craig A. Clark, Milton; Robert N. Maiolo, W. David Vazquez, and Kevin S. Massie, Morgantown; Dean E. Dawson, and Brett A. Pritt, Charleston; Timothy R. Hoffman, Mt. Lebanon, PA; Charles I. Shelton, Jr., Huntington; Kent Muscaro, Weirton; Edward R. Stike, Ripley; Stephen A. Hamer, Kenova; Thomas C. Giovanelli, Reistertown, MD; G. Edwin Harrah, II, Newport News, VA; and David

A. Finamore, Fairmont. These new initiatives, which put us in the 1500 club, have a great deal of leadership potential. We are confident they will carry on the longstanding traditions of which West Virginia Alpha is so proud.

The Brothers are currently busy planning the fifth annual leukemia Radiothon scheduled for April 4 and 5. The fund-raiser was initiated in 1977 after Brother C. B. Shingleton, '75, died of leukemia at the age of twenty. Since then, we have raised over $60,000 for Leukemia Research. Last year, our total of $22,000 was good enough to earn us recognition for raising more money per capita than any other Radiothon in the country. We are looking to better that amount this year with the addition of a 10 kilometer distance race with the proceeds going to Leukemia. The addition of the race will also increase the participation within the Chapter in the raising of money by getting all the Brothers involved by either running, or planning and setting up for the race. Other money raising events include a dance and an all Greek night at a local bar with all the proceeds going to Leukemia Research. All the Brothers are excited about this year's Radiothon and race and are working hard to make it the best ever!

Another service project which we co-sponsor each semester is a blood drive in conjunction with the Red Cross. The most recent drive was held in February. The amount of blood donated has consistently increased with each drive. Co-sponsors in addition to our chapter are Alpha Xi Delta Sorority and Scabbard and Blade, ROTC honorary.

Cam Siegrist was recently named outstanding Greek on campus, an award which reflects on his many accomplishments.

As the Spring semester comes to a close, such activities as spring formal and parents' day as well as our quest for the intramural championship should keep us more than busy.

Stephen B. Talbott Correspondent

Wittenberg Making Progress

As winter term begins, the major concern of the Brothers of Ohio Beta turns toward rush. Under the splendid leadership of Rush Chairman Tim Griffen, winter rush turned out to be a tremendous success. We would like to welcome 17 new pledges to the ranks of Ohio Beta: Brian Jose, Pittsburgh; Bob Newton, John Scatterday, Scott Taylor, and Derek McKelvey, Rochester, NY; Dave Rhudy, Morgantown, WV; Dan McNichol, Philadelphia; Steven Pendergast, Paoli, PA; Greg Billstone, Warren, PA; Bruce Cliffe, Saganaw, MI; John Dicke, Lima, OH; Steve Trinter, Vermilion, OH; Mark McHugh, Newark, NY; Jay Ferguson, Plain City, OH; Chuck Jenkins, Lake Forest, IL; Steve Steele, Geneva, NY; Chris Entler, South Vienna, OH. The new pledges have been placed under the guidance of Pledge Trainer Dave Keefer and the Pledge Educators Doug Smith, Mike Dowds and Todd Millard. These four men have worked diligently to assure the success of our new pledge program.

New officers were elected in January and have thus far provided the Chapter with the motivational leadership it needs. The new officers are—Tim Griffen, GP; Carl Murray, VGP; Paul Billman, P; Bill Gaddis, Asst. P; Jim Cantrell, AG; Jep Bloor, BG; Tom Grabowski, SG; George Smith, Hod; Harry Cashy, Phu; and Dave Keefer, Hi.

Throughout the year many house improvements were made. The most opulent is the newly refurbished pool room. Brothers Dave Conklin and Chris Kunkle replaced the old paneling with new and painted the wall behind the bar. Brother Jim Lesko laid the carpet down and installed new light fixtures. Brother Chris Campbell added his own personal touch to the pool table itself. Thanks to these people, the house has a central place of activity where Brothers can congregate and discuss the many Fraternal matters of the day. Other house improvements include the creation of a T.V. lounge on the first floor, repairs to the ceiling on the first floor and repairs to the first and second floor bathrooms.

Many Ohio Betans excelled in sports at Wittenberg. Most notably was Mike Dowds, co-captain on this year's football team and named to the Kodak All-American Team. All Ohio Betans are proud of this accomplishment. Doug Brandewie finished an outstanding four year career as a member of the Wittenberg basketball team. Doug is a four year letterman and was also co-captain of this year's squad. Pledge Jay Ferguson was also a member of the varsity basketball team. Doug Smith and Pete Flint also capped off their soccer careers this year. Both are four year lettermen and both were named to the conference All-Star team. Dough was also a co-captain of this year's team. Other Phi Psi's who competed on the Tiger soccer team are Kirk Duncan, Fabian Kusminski, Jim Cantrell, Bill Gaddis and pledges Brian Jose, Dan McNichol, Bob Newton and Chuck Jenkins. Carl Murray is also a member of this year's varsity track team.

Congratulations are in order for Jim Lentz who is this year's winner of the Solon E. Summerfield Award and finally, the Brothers here wish to say "Hi" to Brother Kirk Duncan who is at this moment exploring the Swiss Alps.

"... and a fine time was had by all."

The Arizona Alumni Association had the pleasure of being hosted by the Arizona Beta Chapter for the 1981 Founder's Day celebration. A cocktail hour (or two) at the house was followed by a steak dinner. Our thanks to those who put on the evening and to those who attended.

The Arizona Alumni Association invites all Arizona Betans and all Phi Psi's presently in Arizona to partake in the activities now being planned in support of the local Chapter. Included will be events which will allow all to renew old contacts and enjoy some Phi Psi camaraderie.

Southern California

The Southern California Alumni Association enjoyed a fine turnout of area Phi Psi at its 1981 Founder's Day dinner at the University Club in downtown Los Angeles.

The program included Twenty-Five and Fifty year pin presentations to loyal Phi Psi Brothers. The key note speaker Brother Stuart Russel, Southern California '65, gave an interesting account of his experiences as a former hostage on the U.S.S. Pueblo during the Korean crisis in 1968.

District VI Archon Jack P. Eckley reviewed upcoming District plans and re-colonization efforts at Calif Zeta, U.C. Santa Barbara this fall.

Officers for 1981-1982 elected at Founder's Day include President John Nootbar, 1st Vice President James Eddy, 2nd Vice President Homer Griffith, Secretary John Ciccarelli, and Treasurer George Humphries.

Special thanks are in order for outgoing President George Humphries for his tireless efforts to promote the Southern California Alumni Association and its activities.

Monthly cocktail gatherings are being planned for the last Thursday of the month at the brand new Verdugo Club, Glendale, Calif. For any information concerning Alumni activities please contact George Humphries at his office number (213) 245-5551 or 246-8371.

Chicago

Founder's Day was observed at a banquet at the Union League Club of Chicago through the courtesy of Bob Halliday, our vice president. The assembled brothers were pleased to hear from Gary Angstadt, Phi Psi's Executive Director, and Ben Polk, Majority Whip of the Illinois House of Representatives. The undergraduate Chapters at Beloit, Northwestern, Illinois and Valparaiso sent representatives who shared a few minutes of campus experience with us. Silver Council memberships were awarded to Bud White, Michigan, Dick Telander, Illinois, Phil Leekley Northwestern, and Bill Stocking, Illinois. Our treasurer reported a positive bank balance of over two hundred dollars. A proposal to replace the Alumni Association banner which was stolen at the GAC at the Edgewater Beach Hotel was made. It seems as though our new pennant should hang among the others when we convene the GAC in Atlanta in 1982. Your ideas are solicited insofar as colors, design, size and cost. Call Frank Whiting at 726-1300.

The following were elected as officers for the 1981-1982 year:

President—Joseph Quilici
1st V.P.—Jim Novak
2nd V.P.—Bob Halliday
Chaplain—Kent Yowell

3rd V.P.—Pat Kirby
4th V.P.—Jim Humphrey
Treasurer—Tom Whiting
5th V.P.—Paul Coulis
6th V.P.—Jerry Piper
Secretary—Frank Whiting Jr.

Dues of $3.00 are now payable to the treasurer, Thomas Whiting. His address is 2245 Drury Lane, Northfield, Ill. 60093. The important part of dues is that it keeps you on the mailing list and lets you know when the events occur. That way you will have a fair chance to take part in the Closed Invitational Golf Tourney this summer. Defending champion Tom McCausland is in the process of selecting the place for this classic right now.

Cleveland

The Cleveland Alumni Association held its annual Founders' Day Dinner on February 21st at the Crawford Aviation Museum. This year's event was extra special, since we celebrated Ohio Epsilon's (Case Western Reserve) 75th anniversary. The festivity included excellent food and company along with guest speaker, Phi Psi President John Donnell, Jr. A special thanks goes out to Eli Seagle and John Ciolek for a well done job in planning the event.

Election of officers followed the dinner. The new officers for 1981 are Jerry Newmark, President; Walt Illingworth, Vice President; Bruce Jackson, Treasurer; Dave Arter, Secretary. Congratulations and good luck gentlemen!

This summer we will hold our annual Phi Psi Alumni Golf Outing. A definite date and location have not yet been set, but information will be sent to Cleveland Area Alumni as soon as plans are made.

If anyone has suggestions for future events or wants to get involved in the Cleveland Alumni Association, contact Dave Arter, Jr. (216) 951-5306 or Walt Illingworth (216) 283-1270.

The meeting featured a full buffet dinner, song contest and elections for the Indianapolis A. A. All six of Indiana's undergraduate chapters were represented at the meeting and a spokesman from each Chapter reported commendable scholarship, intramural and campus accomplishments.

Gary Angstadt, Indiana '70, Executive Director of Phi Kappa Psi spoke to the assembled Brothers, reminding all of the great foundation upon which the Fraternity has been built. The Butler University Brothers rated first prize in the traditional song contest with tough competition coming from the Wabash College Chapter. Indianapolis Alumni Association officers for 1981-1982 were elected as follows:

Bob Fanning, Indiana '70, President
Brad Osborne, Miami '76, Vice-President
Dave Showalter, Indiana '45, Secretary-Treasurer

All central Indiana alumni and undergraduate members are reminded of the Indianapolis Alumni Association monthly luncheon. The luncheons are held at Noon on the first Wednesday of each month in the main floor dining room of the downtown Indianapolis Hilton. Please plan to attend and enjoy these monthly opportunities to see old friends and meet other brothers.

Michiana

Eleven Phi Psi Brothers of the Michiana Phi Psi Club celebrated Founders' Day at a supper gathering, February 11, at the University Club on the Notre Dame Campus, Notre Dame, Indiana. An attitude adjustment period preceded the meal, which allowed the Brothers to get their stories together so that not too many tall tales were retold. W. H. "Mose" Bruner, Indiana, '19, filled the younger one's minds full of yarns as to "how it was in the old days." He found an attentive audience in Frank S. LaPierre, Indiana '77; Craig A. Taelman, Indiana '73; William J. Lee, DePauw '62; and Jon M. Templin, Wabash '58. Meanwhile, outgoing club President, Bruce J. BonDurant, DePauw '62, encouraged the Brothers assembled to attend the regular Tuesday noon (Phi Psi lunch) gathering at the Loft Restaurant in downtown South Bend. His plea fell mostly on the ears of James H. Pankow, Purdue '43; Alan E. Nelson, Purdue '45; Robert E. Dunbar, Indiana '53, and David C. Olson, Wabash '59. In the meantime, William Fox, Indiana '40, was busy taking photographs of the Brothers individually as they talked, listened, and drank. After an enjoyable supper the mention of an election came up and rather hurriedly it was agreed by mutual consent that since the 1980-81 officers had done such an outstanding job that they be allowed to continue (where they originally "took-up"), thus, Brother BonDurant continues as President, Brother Taelman as Secretary/Treasurer and Brother Fox as Corresponding Secretary. A Treasurer's report was delayed until Brother Taelman could locate the bank book (possibly next year).

It was noted, with some degree of regret, that several Brothers had made reservations but the cold and icy weather (-5 degrees accompanied with hazardous road condition warnings), as well as "cold and flu season" being upon us, their absence could be condoned. Brothers Roland Obenchair, Indiana '34; Theodore A. Blake, Pennsylvania '20; Louis S. LaPierre III, Michigan '45; William E. Voor III, Indiana '72 and Harry E. Gates, Indiana '46, were among those so excused.

Brothers Nelson and Dunbar announced that they would host a "Co-educational gathering" (preferably the Brother's own wife or girlfriend) at their condominium at New London Lake this summer. The date of June 25 was set, and a committee will be appointed and get to work on the details in the very near future.

Upon the urging of the staff and management of the University Club, it was agreed that we adjourn early and dispense with all of the normal group singing, since all wished to get home early (and safely).

Western New York

On Friday, February 20th, 1981, our 27th annual "Founders' Day Dinner" was held at the Three Coins Restaurant in Buffalo. It was a gala affair for the many Brothers that attended. There was fine food, super spirits, a productive meeting, door prizes—farthest Brother: G. Zilliox and youngest Brother (again): Dr. S. Pecoraro, and entertainment—a representative of the film industry previewed some new, exciting films of the 80's. Thank you, Brother J. Sansone!

New officers elected are: President, Carl Millerschoen; Vice President, Art Helfenstein; Treasurer, John Sansone; Corresponding Secretary, J. R. Rich; Sargent-at-Arms, George Zilliox; Chaplin, Mike Blontnik; and Messenger, Greg Sommers.

Many thanks go out to past president Pete Longo for his fine service—and good luck at your new eating establishment, Peter's Pub.

Once again (3rd annual Pilgrimage), the Alumni Brothers went to their "Condo" in West Palm Beach (Fla.). It was a super 4-day holiday in the sun!

For the 5th year in-a-row, the Buffalo Alumni will be going to Las Vegas on another gambling junket (April '80)—hope ya "break a leg."

A "Hello" goes out to Brother Prince in Austin, Texas—we missed ya!

We're talking proud!

Omaha

A crowd of about one hundred Brothers gathered for cocktails and dinner at the Venice Inn on Friday, February 20th to honor our Founders. A fine large representation was there from Nebraska U. to honor Gene Conley, our outgoing president. Another good group was present from Creighton to honor the new president, Mark Weber.

Neil Cahill, S.J., Creighton, opened the banquet with a stirring invocation. This was followed by the usual toasts. Chapter reports by Nebraska U. and Creighton representatives were given that outlined a successful rush at both chapters this year and other activities these strong Chapters have engaged in. The alumni seemed impressed with the quality of the programs at both schools. Dick Hauser, S.J., Creighton, gave a short memorial service for those of both Chapters involved in a tragic accident in rural Nebraska. It makes one proud to see how Phi Psis react as a group to personal tragedy of individuals in our bond.

Attorney General Paul LaPuzza, before he introduced the main speaker, announced that Creighton Phi Psi alumni would soon be contacted by close friends or pledge brothers, for a fund drive was being initiated to put the Lodge in decent operating shape. Paul then introduced Vice President John Boyd who spoke on the uniqueness of our Fraternity and how it relates to campus life today. John was afforded a fine ovation for an impressive speech. John Crane, Penn State, introduced the slate of officers with comments concerning the necessity of future planning of goals for our association. John's nominees were all elected. They included: Mark Weber, Creighton, President; Dallas Foucht III, Iowa State, Vice President; Bud Rohr, Creighton, Treasurer; and Ted Urban, Northwestern, Secretary. Councilors selected were Greg Jahn, Sam Amato, Dr. Jim Gerner, John Herdzina, Jeff Modica, Paul LaPuzza—Creighton; and Dave Batchelder and Ted Foster—Iowa State. Pins for 10 years (bronze) in Phi Psi were presented to Dr. Jim Gerner, Creighton, and Jeffrey E. Jackson, Kansas. The evening ended with our traditional songs and a return to private conversation with old and new friends.

It is fortunate Paul LaPuzza announced the fund drive for Creighton's Chapter because within the week a furnace blew in the Lodge, a bill for structural work was received and a house committee has assessed a need for new plumbing, wiring, etc.! All this and the place looking better than ever particularly upstairs where the Memorial Room has added much class to the house! So please, men of Nebraska Beta, be generous and quick with your response because a serious crossroad has been reached at this Chapter as to whether we can keep up a presentable Lodge without alumni participation.

Our Association has been active in trying to keep in contact with the undergraduate Chapters. Some of us attended a retreat at Nebraska concerning house management. This was a fine seminar. At Creighton, meetings have been held, too. Some because of Lodge needs and many to respond to chapters' needs because of the tragic deaths of Peter Phelan and Christopher Harris that occurred after a party. Also, David Bomkamp died of cancer this fall, so the Phi Psi burial Ritual was used often. Current Brothers and the alumni were drawn together because of our deep feelings for each other during this moving Ritual.

In civic affairs, Phi Psi's are very active, too. Gene Conley, Nebraska, helped raise $6.8 million for our area by running the United Way of the Midlands drive. Paul Strawhecker, Creighton, and Ted Urban were chairmen of the drive for Boys Town and Creighton U. respectively. Before this group, Ted Foster and John Crane had held high positions in this civic endeavor. Area short bits:

John Herdzina is married! Bud Rohr won a free trip to Jamaica. Dr. John Gerner and Dr. John Seminara have new beautiful baby daughters. Dick Shugrue, Nebraska, has appeared on local TV with law and election commentaries. Dr. Dennis Monnig, Creighton, opened a dental practice in Omaha. Steve Olsen, Nebraska, is the Board of Trustee attorney for the famous Omaha Community Playhouse. Jack Savage, Nebraska, received an Alumni Distinguished Scholar Award at Nebraska U. Jack Evans, Iowa State, is on the Metropolitan Area Planning Agency Board coordinating developmental planning throughout our area. Dr. Walter Key, Nebraska, was honored for 50 years of service at Creighton's Dental School reunion.

Orlando

After reading the last issue of THE SHIELD, Bob Goldman, Washington & Jefferson, called and said he lives in the Orlando area. He is in financial planning, with an office in Winter Park. He is keeping himself trim by playing plenty of racquetball.

Ron Pease, Gettysburg, is Dean of Student Affairs at Rollins College in Winter Park. He is especially enthusiastic over the prospects of a get-together for Phi Psis in the Central Florida area some time soon.

Barry Smith, Ohio State, is kept busy by his employer running from Orlando to D.C. He recently called and reported that he is occupied maintaining three children at three different colleges, and enjoying quiet walks near his home in Windermere.

Those of you who read the article from time to time, please keep calling, and soon Orlando will have a Phi Psi get-together.

Portland

A total of 205 Brothers and wives/dates attended our annual Founders' Day celebration at Oswego Lake Country Club February 28, 1981 and were treated to a great meal and enlightening dinner program. In addition to Chapter and corporation officer reports, numerous awards were presented to outstanding undergraduates and alumni. Brother Bill Bloodworth, Oregon '46, representing his class at the University of Oregon, presented the Oregon Chapter house with a new set of institutional pots, pans and mixing bowls. The undergraduate members from our Oregon Beta Chapter provided a presentation of songs after dinner as a warm-up for their annual IFC Sing competition at Oregon State.

In addition to Oregon Alpha and Oregon Beta Chapters, attending alumni represented such chapters as Missouri Alpha, Minnesota Beta and Ohio Zeta. All attendees were very enthusiastic about the continued growth of Phi Kappa Psi at the two Oregon schools and are already looking forward to next year's gathering in Eugene. As a final note, all best wishes were extended to the nation's #1 basketball team, the Oregon State Beavers, as they continue to build their unbeaten record and attempt to capture the NCAA championship.

Rockford

The Rockford Alumni Association has had another fine year. A summer party was held in August at the home of Bob Ross-Shannon, DePauw '47, on the banks of the mighty Rock. A similar gathering is now scheduled for this summer.

Founders' Day saw the men of the Rockford Alumni Association gathered with representatives of the Beloit College Chapter at the University Club in Rockford. The evening provided all present to reflect on the merits of our Fraternity and also to appreciate the growing bond between the Rockford Alumni Association and Beloit College.

Our Founders' Day dinner was also the last hurrah, for the moment, of Rick Bushnell, Iowa State '71, who has been our esteemed president for the past two years. He's done a marvelous job in that capacity. The Founders' Day attendance prize was taken by the Brothers from Indiana Alpha.

Bruce Ross-Shannon Correspondent

South Carolina

Founders' Day '81 was an exciting weekend in South Carolina. Once again, the Alumni Association joined the S. C. Alpha Chapter in this annual event.

A dinner was held for all Brothers, pledges, and Phi Psi ladies at Swain's Restaurant. During the dinner, a glowing report on the progress of the Chapter was given. Following the dinner, a disco party was held.

A special highlight of the evening was the presentation of the James W. Scott Outstanding Alumnus Award to Robert W. Knudsen, Jr. for efforts on behalf of the Chapter and the Housing Corporation. The award was presented to Bob by Jim Scott, N. Y. Alpha '45. Brother Scott served as Alumni Advisor to S. C. Alpha when it was a Colony and also during the first few years as a Chapter.

During his comments on the Chapter, Brother Scott made a surprise announcement. In recognition of the growth that has taken place in the Chapter, Jim made a sizable donation to the Housing Corporation. He then challenged the Chapter and Alumni Association to raise an equal amount for the Housing Corporation. If the fund raising is successful, Jim Scott will double his donation. On behalf of all of the S. C. Alpha Phi Psis, a special thanks goes out to Jim Scott. Not just for the donation, but his constant support and encouragement!

After such an exciting night, the Alumni met at the home of Karen and Phil Harkey for a Bloody Mary Breakfast. Following this delightful brunch, the Winter Meeting of the Housing Corporation was held.

During the many activities of Founders' Day Weekend, the Association annual business meeting was held. Elected to office were Phil Harkey, President; Tommy Dail, Vice President; Connor Harrison, Secretary; and A. C. Flora, Treasurer. Smith Harrison was reappointed as Correspondent for THE SHIELD.

An active social calendar is planned for 1981. The events scheduled are: Casino Night in May, A Cardinal Baseball Game (the Bullpen Room) on Friday, June 12, A Summer Rush/Picnic, A Steamer's Soccer Game in January, and Founders' Day on Friday February 19, 1982. Other events are being considered and we welcome any suggestions and ideas.

Founders' Day was held at Schneithorst's Hofamberg Inn on Friday, February 20. Our guest speaker was Jack Dolen who discussed effective communications. Twenty-five year pins were awarded to Ken Thorpe Missouri '55, William Spencer, Purdue '51, and John Barnes, Purdue '52. We also awarded two Fifty year pins. The recipients were Alfred Stover, Purdue '18, and Sam Greenland, Michigan '31. Congratulations to all for the many great years of service!! The Second Annual President's Award was presented to Sam Greenland for outstanding service during the past year. "Bottle Awards" were presented to Bryan Foulk (most distant chapter-Arizona Alpha) and Alfred Stover (oldest in attendance-initiated 1918). Based on an outstanding "track record" Eric Ruegg was named "Keeper of the Taps" for the coming year. Elections for new officers were held. The new officers are: Rick Curtis, President, Greg Abbott, Vice-President, and Steve O'Rourke, Treasurer. New Governing Board Members are: Patrick O'Brien, John Warakowski, Rand Hale, Wayne Naro, and Glen Buttrey. The final award of the evening was the Traditional Gavel presented to Jim Naylor in appreciation for two outstanding years as Association President.

The St. Louis Alumni Association wishes to extend special congratulations to Timm Supranowich and his wife Donna on the birth of Timothy Joseph, February 26. Looks like another Tiger Linebacker—(8lbs 7oz.).

We are looking for more St. Louis Phi Psi to take an active role in our Association. Area Brothers and Undergraduates home for the summer contact us and get involved.

WE'LL GUARANTEE A GREAT TIME!!!!

Central Texas

More and more Brothers are attending the monthly meetings at Scholz Garten. Last month 17 Brothers enjoyed beer and nachos while the nominating committee prepared its recommendations for the election of the Association's new officers.

Prior to the Founders' Day celebration at the Texas Alpha house, the following were elected:

President, John Meadows

Vice-President, Bryan Muecke

Secretary, Charles Harris

Treasurer, Robert Pugh

Floyd Saxon was elected president of TxA Educational Foundation.

A cocktail hour preceded the Founders' Day luncheon which was attended by over 100 undergraduates, pledges and alumni. Joel Smith, Texas, was our speaker, and a good one, too. Joel shared some of his experiences as a lobbyist at the State Legislature, proving that politics can be very interesting and rewarding. Perhaps more Phi Psis should get involved in State politics.

Plans are being made for several social events in the next few months, including rush parties, golf and tennis.

Tucson

Many Tucson Phi Psi Alumni and Undergraduates get together regularly. Other Phi Psis (new or old residents, or summer or winter visitors) in Tucson are always welcome. We meet in the historic Arizona Inn at 5:00 P.M. on the first Monday of every month. Mark your calendars for June 1, July 6, August 3 and September 7. Plan to attend. No reservations required, but call (602) 742-1418 if you would like further information.

DR. GOETHE LINK, Indiana '96, died on December 31, 1980. Brother Link received a special award at the 1980 GAC in Indianapolis in tribute to his 84 years of active Phi Psi service. His life's work is best recapped in the following editorial from the January 5, 1981 Indianapolis Star:

Dr. Goethe Link's life was a gift of exceptional merit to mankind.

He was surgeon, astronomer, ballonist, student of bird life and other close-at-hand wonders of nature, floriculturist. That spark of curiosity, love of learning that is one of humankind's prisms for sharing in the divine, stayed with him long into his very advanced years.

The heavenly visions, glimpses of immortality available from his observatory in Morgan County, he chose to make available to the young and others for many decades in the future, by donating the observatory years ago to Indiana University.

For he was teacher, too.

A reporter, fortunate enough to help in Dr. Link's successful battle to prevent a routing of new Ind. 67 so close to the observatory that its usefulness would be stunted, got the bonus of having his children meet the physician, then in his 80s, on a summer excursion to the splendid woods of that area in the 1960s.

Dr. Link extended not only the hospitality of his home and gardens but also an impromptu life-laboratory lesson on hummingbird metabolism to the wide-eyed youngsters, there among the feeders and the dozens of darting, multi-colored, miraculous wisps on wings. He still was observing, learning, teaching, living to the full of his powers.

The lesson of his person was the more powerful one. Goodbye, Doctor, and thank you for the lifelong splendor that shines as an astral beacon. Brother Link is survived by his wife, sons William Hall Link, DePauw '36 and Goethe S. Link, Jr., Indiana '61, and a sister and daughter.

Limited Edition Serigraph, commissioned by Phi Kappa Psi and signed by the artist, William Albert Ware, is photographed here in tones similar to the finished work. The 16" x 24" parchment print is available for purchase on a first come, first served basis, at a cost of $19.75 each, which includes $1.75 postage and insurance fee. The print arrives suitable for framing.

The artist's works include covers or illustrations in publications such as the Saturday Evening Post, Sports Illustrated, Time and Newsweek. Mr. Ware's serigraphs normally sell in the $150 price range, but the Fraternity was fortunate to utilize his talents when the oil portraits of Founders Letterman and Moore were commissioned for the new Fraternity Headquarters, Heritage Hall. When Mr. Ware helped display the portraits in Heritage Hall, the concept of a serigraph combining the Founders' portraits and Heritage Hall came forward and the significantly reduced price resulted. Each print purchased will contribute financially to the Fraternity.

RUSH:

A Renewable Resource

by: John V. Ciccarelli
 Director of Fraternity Membership
 California State, Northridge '72

A basic salesmanship rule of thumb that is applicable to Fraternity RUSH is that the person who contacts a prospective buyer first—all things being equal—will be the one who makes the sale. In a recent survey of Phi Psi Chapter RUSH from across the country, a high percentage of individuals pledged were first introduced to Phi Kappa Psi through a friend who was an active member in the Chapter. It is not uncommon to meet several members of various Chapters who pledged and were initiated into Phi Psi without ever looking at another fraternity. This fact should not be taken lightly, for the earlier a Chapter can contact prospective members, the better are the chances of that person eventually becoming a pledge of the Chapter. While traditional RUSH week activities satisfy the membership goals of some Chapters, there exists throughout the remaining year a tremendous untapped resource of potential rushees and new members. Too many Chapters limit their membership opportunities and concentrate all their efforts on RUSH week solely.

In the past couple of years Phi Kappa Psi has enjoyed remarkable growth.

Nationwide the average Chapter membership, not including pledges, has grown from approximately 35 members to now nearly 50. It is important, however, to point out that in the near future, certain social and economic factors will affect our current membership standing—as well as the rest of the Greek community. In the 1980's, prospective pledges will not be stampeding to our doorways to pledge. Declining college attendance due to smaller high school enrollment, higher tuition costs,

"Too many Chapters limit their membership opportunities and concentrate all their efforts on RUSH week solely."

etc., will increase competition for potential members. In view of future trends, Chapters should plan ahead and place new emphasis on more effective methods of membership recruitment. Year round RUSH is not a new concept; rather, it is one that requires good planning and effective application. The intent of this article is to focus attention to various RUSH opportunities that exist throughout the year. Chapters that stop rushing after RUSH week and do not encourage one-to-one contact during open RUSH miss their best opportunity to build a healthy and strong membership. Regardless of how successful a Chapter may be in RUSH, it can discover how it can be just as effective with less expense.

Informal RUSH during the school year is one of the most natural forms of rushing. There are many opportunities for meeting prospective members. Classes, dormitories, clubs, athletic events and a host of other activities are a natural part of an undergraduate's daily life. Whether the conversation of Fraternity membership takes place over lunch, library study, intramural games, or whatever, the personalized one-to-one contact has proven to be very effective in presenting the benefits of Fraternity membership. The data on RUSH strongly supports the fact that individuals are best recruited by individuals. In reality, the Traditional "RUSH event" is probably the most ineffective way to present what fraternities are all about—friendship. The membership recruitment program of each Chapter should place a stronger emphasis on personalized, individual recruitment.

Throughout the calendar year there exists various opportunities to locate and RUSH good men. Starting in the spring, unless RUSH activities are restricted by the Interfraternity Council or University policy, RUSH planning should include an aggressive follow-up on students who expressed an interest in fraternities during fall RUSH; as well as contacting college transfers and high school seniors.

"Throughout the calendar year there exists various opportunities to locate and RUSH good men."

---

Many Chapters make a concentrated effort to invite high school seniors to visit the college for a weekend in the spring as guests of Phi Kappa Psi. Having high school seniors visit your Chapter is one of the best ways of getting them interested in Phi Psi and solidifying their interest in your college or university. With the proper follow-up, a Chapter will enjoy great success in recruiting new members. Spring is also an excellent time for alumni involvement in RUSH. It can be a positive element in any Chapter's recruitment efforts.

Alumni RUSH recommendations are a good and reliable source of RUSH leads. If a Chapter wishes to obtain good results in receiving RUSH recommendations, it must do its solicitation in a professional and organized fashion. The best time for securing RUSH recommendations is in the spring as alumni are usually more aware of good incoming students at the time of high school graduation. It is important to emphasize that all alumni RUSH recommendations should be promptly acknowledged without delay. This courtesy will bring attention to the fact that the Chapter needs and appreciates its alumni RUSH support. It also helps guarantee future alumni recommendations! Alumni recommendations are increasingly important in today's one-to-one approach in rushing. Creating that important initial and personal contact with a rushee is much easier if you can mention to the prospective member that he was recommended by a friend.

Summer RUSH is really just a continuation of spring RUSH activities. Because of the nature of summer RUSH, organization by the membership chairman and committee is vital. Special attention should be given to keeping in close contact with all members during the summer. An effective way to RUSH during the summer is during freshman summer orientation; it is a great chance to meet potential rushees. By having Brothers volunteer to assist in orientation sessions, many good contacts can in turn become a great source of summer RUSH leads. Summer RUSH is also very important in its relationship to fall RUSH week. The "momentum" of RUSH activity created during the summer can help get the ball rolling for the fall. Those freshmen who accept their bids in summer and become involved with Phi Kappa Psi and Chapter activities early, can be invaluable in getting other freshmen interested in joining. From my own RUSHING experience I have often wondered why for example it is easier in many cases to pledge the last five members of a ten man pledge class than the first five individuals. While the question raised has several possible conclusions, the underlying reason is simple and to the point: individuals are more inclined to pledge when they see other people accept their bid and become involved. The enthusiasm and excitement is contagious! The earlier the "RUSH momentum" is created, the better. Successful Chapters will testify that the amount of success it has during RUSH week is directly related to the amount of work done before RUSH week.

Fall RUSH and the traditional RUSH week activities can either be regarded as a painstaking chore with little results or an enjoyable and productive experience. The difference between success and failure lies in the manner in which the Chapter approaches the membership drive. In many cases traditional RUSH events are created to become entertainment for the Brothers rather than to meet and get to know who the Chapter is rushing. The emphasis seems to be one of only creating events which draw large numbers of people to the Chapter house. That part of RUSH strategy is fine, but once the prospective members come by, we—in all too many cases—using a salesman's analogy, "fail to close the sale." The contact we do make is too superficial, and amounts to little more than an exchange of names and a handshake. Our RUSH activities should be natural ones that are enjoyable and enable us to meet and get to know our guests.

"It is time for Chapters to re-examine their RUSH program and take advantage of a year-round resource with a year-round program."

---

From my own experience in evaluating RUSH programs of various Chapters, one of the major stumbling blocks to successful membership recruiting—whether it be in the spring, summer or fall—lies in the fact that we simply do not contact enough people. A basic rule of thumb regarding the size of your pledge class, is that for every five men personally contacted by the Chapter, on the average, we will pledge one. Using this as a guide, a 20-man pledge class will require the names and contact of 100 men. When you come right down to basics, the only reason a spring pledge class is smaller on the average is directly related to the smaller amount of men contacted. By increasing the number of contacts, the Chapter equally increases its number of bids extended and ultimately accepted.

In order to improve our chances for rushing success it is important that every member of the Chapter participate and get involved in the RUSH process. All too often it is very easy for a member of a Chapter to neglect his RUSH responsibilities and rely on the Chapter RUSH chairman and membership committee. RUSH requires the total commitment and involvement of the entire Chapter. Proper follow-up after the Chapter function is necessary. If possible, try to get a commitment from the rushee to meet him again before he leaves. If this is not possible, follow-up with a phone call or visit a few days after. A rushee wants to know where he stands after he has attended one of your functions. Effective follow-up can help in his forming a very positive impression.

Rushing is another form of selling. Our customer is the rushee and our product is an intangible known as BROTHERHOOD. As in all selling, the more we believe in our product and our willingness to share its benefits with others, the greater will be our ultimate success.

Over the past 129 years, RUSH has changed in style and dimension, but the purpose and need remain the same; that is the making of friends and the invitation to join the membership of Phi Kappa Psi. It is time for your Chapter to re-examine its RUSH program and take advantage of a year-round resource with a year-round program. The need for small group association is as real today as it was at the time of our founding.

The future of Phi Kappa Psi depends on each Chapter's ability to recruit high quality men each year. The participation of both undergraduates and alumni in conjunction with a RUSH program based on sincerity and integrity will keep our Fraternity strong and viable for the next 129 years.

Annual Report

"Once upon a time, joining a fraternity was one of the extra luxuries that went toward making college life pleasant. Today I believe a college man should look at fraternity life as a vital part of his education—a part the college does not officially have time for, but a part more necessary than ever before if he is to take his place in modern professional or industrial life armed with all the required tools."

—President Ronald Reagan

The President of the United States, himself a member of the Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity, knows of what he speaks, and the undergraduates and alumni of Phi Kappa Psi have shown their consent . . . evidence abounds that Phi Psi enjoyed a productive and successful membership year in review, March 1, 1980—February 28, 1981. The Alumni Support program, following the membership year, is reported as ending February 28, 1981.

This 129th rendering of the annual report is overall "good news." The Fraternity is healthy and experiencing development within its Chapters, and again this year finds itself in a strong financial position (audited reports for the financial year ending May 31, 1981, were not available for this issue, and will be highlighted in the next SHIELD).

Certainly Phi Psi's most outstanding achievement for the year was the dramatic increase of total initiates, nearly 200 more than last year, up 17%. Coupled with a 6% increase in numbers of men pledged, the Fraternity is poised for a successful school year upcoming.

Problems? We have them. There are Chapters in need of additional alumni guidance . . . there are Chapter homes whose years of service are beginning to show in unfortunate but predictable ways . . . there are Chapters whose number of members are not as large as to be considered competitive. But for every "problem" in Phi Kappa Psi, we have many times as many superior performances.

If we noted a trend this year, it was in Universities' bent to establish "minimum standards" for their Greek system. We applaud those institutions who are truly programming to help and assist Chapters in need. However, we regret to report that some schools are designing a mechanism to search and destroy Chapters whose main offense is being small in number. Nearly all Chapters of every college fraternity have experienced feast, and famine, years. To go about ridding a campus of small Chapters is the easier approach to the situation . . . programming a successful rebuilding effort is more difficult, and preferable in our opinion.

On one campus where Phi Psi has enjoyed its experience continuously for 121 years, the current college administration has decided that, each year, it will issue permission to operate the campus fraternity chapters for one more year. The stated purpose of the annual review brings with it notification that failure to gain permission to operate results in loss of College recognition; in other words, the College only commits its support for a 12 month period, and the conclusion is that one bad year results in loss of recognition. The problem is compounded when we recognize that returning to a campus to re-establish a Chapter is often difficult in seeking IFC or institution permission, staffing a recruiting effort, securing competitive housing, motivating alumni participation—all are hurdles to overcome.

While we hesitate to label this additional observation a trend, we have noted in more than one instance House Corporations and Chapters evaluating a return of the Housemother, more popularly called now House Director. Physical plants built originally to house them, kitchen operations in need of more direct supervision, and inadequate house maintenance all are considerations some groups are making for the return of the House Director after absences of 10-15 years or more. Both undergraduate and alumni leadership who put a careful measure to the costs of a House Director vs. the savings and superior product of today's in-house Phi Psi experience are likely to find the right House Director to be quite a value.

The decade of the 80's has a strong start in Phi Kappa Psi. With continued and improved support from all of us, undergraduate and alumnus alike, "We shall live and we shall flourish!"

Membership

Membership

The year in review broke a ten year record of new initiates, reporting 1,397 new Brothers, up from 1,199 placed on the Grand Membership Roll last year. The Chapters pledged an average of 20 men per Chapter, initiating on the average 17 of them.

The 1,679 men pledged this year increased from last year's 1,582 recruits.

In addition, we're pleased to have back on our rolls nearly 1,500 men whose addresses had become "lost" over the years. We thank the many Brothers who helped track down their Chaptermates!

Colonies

The Fraternity operated one Colony this past year, at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, for the purpose of regaining the Michigan Alpha Chapter. This outstanding Chapter was a powerhouse in Phi Kappa Psi, initiating 1,096 men from 1876 to 1972.

No Loss of Chapters

During the year under review, no Chapter charters were revoked or suspended.

Numbers in Chapters

For the third year in a row, Nebraska Beta at Creighton University, with 118 members, led all other Chapters in undergraduate strength at February 28, 1981. Ohio Alpha at Ohio Wesleyan University, 107 Brothers, was second, with West Virginia Alpha's 105 man Chapter at West Virginia University third in size. The Illinois Delta 99-man Chapter at the University of Illinois was next, followed by 95 Brothers in Rhode Island Beta at the University of Rhode Island. Both Tennessee Delta at Vanderbilt University and Texas Alpha at the University of Texas listed 90 men on the roll. Only the Pennsylvania Gamma Chapter, Bucknell University, listed membership in the 80s with their 80-man roster.

Nine Chapters reported membership in the 70s: Ohio Delta, Ohio State (76); Indiana Gamma, Wabash (75); Oregon Alpha, Oregon (75); California Delta, USC (74); Kansas Alpha, Kansas (73); Ohio Lambda, Miami University (73); Indiana Alpha, DePauw (72); Indiana Epsilon, Valparaiso (72); and Indiana Beta, Indiana (70).

Twelve Chapters recorded membership in the 60s: Pennsylvania Zeta, Dickinson (67); Indiana Delta, Purdue (66); Iowa Alpha, Iowa (65); Iowa Beta, Iowa State (65); California Epsilon, UCLA (65); Mississippi Alpha, Ole Miss (64); North Carolina Alpha, Duke (64); Nebraska Alpha, Nebraska (64); Virginia Beta, Washington & Lee (61); Missouri Alpha, Missouri (61); Minnesota Beta, Minnesota (60); and Pennsylvania Nu, Indiana-Pennsylvania (60).

There were three Chapters reporting 50-59 members, and 17 Chapters had 40-49 Brothers recorded. Five Chapters had less than ten members. Please see page 00 for complete statistics on the membership of each Chapter and Colony.

District III Has Largest Chapters

For the third straight year, District III's 15 Chapters had the largest average size, with 54.93 men per Chapter, just barely edging out District II's 14 Chapter average 54.15. District V posted a 50.21 man average for 14 Chapters. The 13 Chapters in District VI each listed 46.46 men on average, followed by District I's 37.08 men for the 12 chapter. District IV reported an average of 36.78 men for its 14 chapters.

1000 Club

There were no new additions this year to the 1000 Club, made up of Chapters with 1,000 to 1,499 members. The club roster includes 30 active Chapters and the Michigan Alpha Colony. It is interesting to note that nearly one half of Phi Psi's current Chapter roster has initiated more than 1,000 men.

Initiates

As reported above, the Chapters initiated or transferred 1,397 men during the 1980-1981 period, up 198 from last year. The West Virginia Alpha Chapter at West Virginia University recorded the largest number of initiates with 69, followed by the Nebraska Alpha Chapter at the University of Nebraska with 45. Mississippi Alpha at Ole' Miss reported 43 initiates while Kansas Alpha at the University of Kansas and Nebraska Beta at Creighton University tied with 37 new Brothers each.

Pledges

This year, the Fraternity's 82 Chapters pledged a total of 1,679 men, compared to 1,582 last year. Two years ago, 1,419 men pledged, and the year before that, 1,378. Fraternity law provides that pledgeship terminates: 1) upon initiation into the Fraternity; or, 2) upon expiration of two semesters or three quarters grade reporting periods from date of pledging.

Housing

The California Gamma Chapter at the University of California, Berkeley purchased a home new to them this report year, their first permanent housing since re-chartering in 1978. And, for the first time in 18 years, a Phi Psi House Corporation is building a brand new home for its Chapter, Indiana Zeta at Butler University. The new home will be Indiana Zeta's first permanent house since chartering in 1971, and is being financed through the University's discretionary funds.

This brings to a total of 50 Chapters whose homes are owned by Phi Psi House Corporations. Fifteen Chapters occupy houses owned by the college or university, 15 rent houses privately, two are provided dormitory sections, and two occupy lodges.

Fraternity Headquarters

Phi Psi's Headquarters marked its third anniversary in Historic Lockerbie Square on June 1, 1981. Our Indianapolis home at 510 Lockerbie Street continues to provide an outstanding facility from which to operate. In an area where property values have doubled and tripled, the Fraternity is fortunate to have a permanent Headquarters facility with operating costs increasing at a rate far less than rented space would offer. Heritage Hall has welcomed over 3,900 Phi Psis and friends from across the country since opening, including over 400 visitors during the 1980 GAC held in Indianapolis August 6-10.

Chapter Visits

During the 1980-81 academic year, the Fraternity's two Chapter Consultants conducted 89 visits to Chapters and the Colony. In addition, extensive reorganization was undertaken at Alabama Alpha and Tennessee

Staff Appointments

Phi Psi has been very fortunate to attract outstanding young men to the ranks of Chapter Consultant, and this past year was no exception. Chapter Consultant

Louis M. Hoffman, Arizona '77, retired in May, having served since July 16, 1979. Consultant Donald H. Durbin, Jr., Miami '78, likewise left the field staff, ending duty begun on June 16, 1980.

But as we congratulate and thank Lou and Don for their outstanding work on behalf of the Red and Green, we welcome new Chapter Consultants Timothy P. McCourt, Washington '78, and Gary M. Goldstein, California '78. Tim reported for Field staff training on June 22, and Gary joined us July 6.

Meetings

In the year under review, the 1980 Phi Psi at the Crossroads Grand Arch Council met in Indianapolis, at the Hyatt Regency, August 6-10, with President Robert W. Chamberlain presiding. Please refer to the January, 1981 SHIELD for further details. The 60th GAC, with 446 participants, was the largest since the Centennial GAC in 1952 in Pittsburgh. The 61st GAC will be held in Atlanta, August 11-15, 1982 at the Omni International Hotel.

The Executive Board of the Fraternity composed of the four senior officers—the President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary, did not meet separately from the full Executive Council during the report year.

The Executive Council, composed of the four alumnus Executive Board members and six undergraduate Archons, serves as the chief governing body of the Fraternity between meetings of the Grand Arch Council. The EC had two meetings, immediately preceding the 1980 GAC on August 6 and immediately following the 1980 GAC on August 10. The August 10 meeting was held in the Fraternity's Headquarters, Heritage Hall, and the August 6 meeting was conducted in the GAC hotel, the Hyatt Regency Indianapolis.

As always, minutes of Executive Council meetings are available to any Phi Psi, through the Fraternity Headquarters, for a charge of $3.50 to cover photocopying and postage. Minutes of the 1980 GAC are available at a charge of $25.00.

1980 Alumni Support Program

Recognizing Gifts received March 1, 1980—February 28, 1981

Thank you!

For the eighth year in a row, Phi Psi's generous alumni have broken the year's previous giving record. The final roster listed 4,400 gifts from 4,338 alumni (we thank especially those Brothers who gave twice!), totalling $123,835. The average gift received was $28.14, up considerably from the $24.76 reported last year. Every Phi Psi on our Honor Roll of Contributors is to be thanked for his participation in last year's program, and special thanks goes to those 26 Brothers who founded our "Order for the 80's" giving club, recognizing donations of $250 or more!

The 1981 Alumni Support program currently underway runs from March 1, 1981 through February 28, 1982.

The Fraternity has asked for voluntary alumni contributions for 30 years. And for most years, alumni response has been steadily increasing. The overall grand total of contributions received through the support program stands at $1,256,498.25.

Alumni Support Vital

The Fraternity's finances operate to minimize the expense borne by our undergraduate Brothers. For even though most of Phi Psi's resources are plowed back into services rendered to Chapters and Colonies, the undergraduates fund less than half of the Fraternity's operating budget . . . this is in large part thanks to the high level of alumni participation in making dollar gifts to the Fraternity. In the fiscal year ending May 31, 1981, the Alumni Support program provided a full 24% of our funds! Alumni Support money sustains such ongoing programs as Chapter Consultant work with the undergraduates, Fraternity publications, and undergraduate seminars such as the Woodrow Wilson Leadership School.

Announcing . . . Letters to the Editor

Over the normal course of our Phi Psi communications, we often get letters from Brothers whose comments and questions are of interest to the general readership of THE SHIELD. When the issue is timely and appropriate, with the permission of the Brother involved, and when printing space permits, we would like to print a "Letters to the Editor" column sharing the observations via THE SHIELD. This new feature is being ushered in by a letter from Peter B. Spivak, Ohio Wesleyan '53, circuit judge for the Third Judicial Circuit of Michigan in Detroit. We thank Brother Spivak for his remarks.

But just as we don't call a Phi Psi badge a "pin," and we and we don't label the Coat-of-Arms the "crest," we can't have our "Letters to the Editor" column running about so unornamented! So a contest is in order.

THE SHIELD is mailed to 47,000 households, colleges, and universities. For both of you readers who are still following along with rapt attention, please consider submitting titles for this column. Other fraternities affix diamonds and stardust and moonglow and sunburn to their similar columns . . . I'm not certain Phi Psi has reached that point yet. But, we would like to clever heading (accompanying art work will be considered) for the new SHIELD column. Please submit suggestions to: Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity, 510 Lockerbie St., Indianapolis, IN 46202. (Our zip code is still 46202 by the way, although we did get our "voluntary" additional dash and four digits from the post office the other day. In fact, we got two! And they're not even close—there's a difference of 6285 between the two, and believe me, there are not that many mailboxes in our neighborhood. The mail gets here anyway.)

Brother Spivak's well stated letter follows. We hope this will be the first of many letters from interested Brothers.

Dear Brother Angstadt:

I am in receipt of my January 1981 copy of THE SHIELD. I am pleased with the magazine as I usually am. But I want to write expressing particular pleasure at the editorial on "hazing" which appears on page 16. My own experience at Ohio Wesleyan was not an unpleasant one. We were deprived of sleep (something wisely mentioned in your editorial) that was for the purpose of painting the interior of the Fraternity House not for any of the other rather ugly manifestations of relationships that so frequently characterize "hazing."

I am aware that in the 1950's at least and at other times our Fraternity and others have received extremely bad publicity in certain sections of the country for actions which seemed associated with "hazing." The editorial makes some mention of the fact that some believe "that fear will somehow make them (the pledges) disciplined and mature." Well whatever it may make the pledges in somebody else's mind it certainly does not make the person putting the pledges through these things "mature." There are in fact, some very unhealth psychological aspects to the attitudes of those who would inflict "discipline" or some far less attractive things on pledges.

As one who regretted deeply the decline of fraternities during the 1960's and 1970's and as one who is very happy to see the resurgence of them in the late 70's and 1980's I would hate to see this kind of wrong ridiculous conduct return to plague us.

Thank you for speaking out as you have.

From the Archives . . .

The Fraternity is pleased to be the recipient of gifts related directly to Phi Psi, or art and furnishings of the founding era. The Fraternity's Headquarters, Heritage Hall, provides a setting designed to appropriately display these items related in some way to the Fraternity or to society circa 1852.

We are pleased to share with you here details of a handsome pocket watch donated by Ivan C. "Ike" Uland, Purdue '26, of Louisville, Kentucky. Ike, who the undergraduates of Indiana Delta know to be one of their most loyal alumni, informed us when he made the gift that the Coat-of-Arms was painted on the face of the watch by an older gentleman using a brush with a single hair. Ike remembers the artist as a familiar figure at the Chapter occasionally, making his living by traveling from campus to campus, fraternity house to fraternity house, custom working as called upon on different items.

A talented artisan he was indeed, and we are indebted to the craftsman for his work in the 1920's, and to Brother Ike Uland for making the gift.

By the way . . . a color photograph of the watch would show artistic license, as the coat-of-arms colors mysteriously were painted in Purdue's colors of black and gold!

Honor Roll of Contributors—March 1, 1980—February 28, 1981

Each year, the names of those who participated in the preceeding year's Alumni Support Program are published in THE SHIELD. This year's Honor Roll is led off by our newest giving Club, the "Order for the 80's," honoring Phi Psis who have contributed $250 or more to the Fraternity between March 1, 1980 and February 28, 1981. We congratulate the founding members of this loyal group!

The current 1981 Program is still open for contributions, until February 28, 1982, and all alumni and undergraduates are invited to participate. Those desiring to give may forward their contributions to the Fraternity Headquarters in Indianapolis . . . give now to reserve your proper place in the 1981 Honor Roll of Contributors in next year's annual report.

The new record set by the 1980 Alumni Support program was due to larger gifts than received in the '79 support year since the total number of participants was 68 fewer. More than one contribution was received from 62 brothers, and 188 Phi Psis contributed $100 or more. The "Order of the Golden Shield" Club, honoring gifts of $50-99, grew to 587 donors this year.

Phi Psi Authors

If you've written a book, the Fraternity Headquarters would be honored to receive a copy, autographed if possible, for inclusion in the Woodrow Wilson Library of Heritage Hall. Our library of books by and about Phi Psis can only grow with your help.

Also, we would like to include from time to time a SHIELD column devoted to Phi Psi authors and their recent work. Titles, author and publication information, and brief reviews of 100 words or less will be printed. Submissions may be made to the Fraternity Headquarters.

Founders Fellows

Founders Fellows

Twenty-two Phi Psi seniors competed for the 1981 Founders Fellowships, and five of their number were awarded $2,000 prizes for graduate or professional study. For the first time in the four-year-old program all applicants were considered in open competition without regard to specific categories. As it happens, the decision to drop the restrictions came just at the right time, because four of this year's Founders Fellows are medical students (and chemistry majors) and the fifth a business student. Nonetheless, the prizes will continue to bear the names of the illustrious Phi Psis of yore, although which prize goes to whom may occasionally seem rather arbitrary.

This year the winners of the Founders Fellowships and of the Outstanding Summerfield Scholar awards were selected by the Endowment Fund's scholarship advisory committee: Louis D. Corson, West Virginia '34; David F. Hull, Jr., Louisiana State '66; and Theodore J. Urban, Northwestern '46, chairman. Their recommendations were subsequently confirmed by the trustees of the Endowment Fund: Ruddick C. Lawrence, Washington '31, chairman; Philip M. Cornelius, Indiana '25; and Ralph D. Daniel, Arizona '47, secretary-treasurer.

The Sion Bass Smith Prize

Douglas Edward Coplen, Indiana Gamma. Brother Coplen of Fort Wayne, Indiana, majored in chemistry at Wabash College, winning most of the department's major awards. He served Indiana Gamma as president, treasurer, rush chairman, and chaplain and led the chapter's delegation to the student alumni board. On campus he played in intramural sports and was for two years general manager of the Wabash Glee Club. An honors scholar with a nearly straight-A grade-point average, Brother Coplen will enroll in the Indiana University School of Medicine in Indianapolis with the intention of pursuing a career in medical research.

The William Henry Letterman Prize

Mark William Elliott, Indiana Zeta. Brother Elliott of Clarksville, Indiana, graduated from Butler University with a degree in chemistry and will enter the Vanderbilt University School of Medicine in Nashville, Tennessee. At Indiana Zeta he served as president and chaplain as well as chairman of the chapterhouse fundraising campaign. In addition to numerous academic awards, his accomplishments at Butler include membership in Phi Kappa Phi, Mortar Board, and Sphinx, and he participated in several musical, religious, and civic organizations.

James Allyn Engle of Arizona Alpha. Brother Engle is from Phoenix and graduated in general studies from the University of Arizona near the top of his class. He served Arizona Alpha as president, vice-president, corresponding secretary, rush chairman, and as chairman of several major committees. Among his academic honors is his membership in both Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. At Arizona he was active in Blue Key, the University's service honoraries, the yearbook, and other campus organizations. Brother Engle will enter the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania and later intends to study law.

The C. F. "Dab" Williams Prize

Kirk Luther Jacobson, Wisconsin Gamma. Brother Jacobson of Milwaukee, a graduate in chemistry of Beloit College, will enter the University of Wisconsin Medical School at Madison. A member of Phi Beta Kappa, he served Wisconsin Gamma as president, treasurer, and corresponding secretary. He was the captain and most valuable player of Beloit's track and field team, and he served in the college-community senate as well as on the Interfraternity Council. Brother Jacobson was instrumental in the rechartering of Wisconsin Gamma.

The W. Grant Shockley Prize

Michael John Oechsel, California Delta. Brother Oechsel of North Hollywood, California, graduated in chemistry from the University of Southern California and will enroll in the Georgetown University School of Medicine in Washington, D.C. Initiated into Phi Beta Kappa as a junior, he was active in Alpha Epsilon Delta (the pre-medical honorary) and in the university health center's student advisory committee. At California Delta he served as recording secretary and was a leading member of the rush, social, and athletic committees. Brother Oechsel also served as an emergency room and children's camp volunteer.

Tutors in Residence

For the 1981-82 academic year the trustees of the Endowment Fund have decided to expand the Tutors-in-Residence program. Ever since its introduction a few years ago Phi Psi graduate and professional students have made their good counsel available to undergraduate chapters throughout the country. The result, by any standard of measurement, has been a resounding success, enabling the chapters to gain the benefit of different, more experienced perspectives on fraternity affairs.

Whatever the overall condition of a chapter, strong, fair-to-middling, or struggling, the Tutor-in-Residence is in an excellent position to encourage higher standards of academic achievement, to strengthen chapter operations, and to stimulate individual members and the chapter as a whole to fulfill their best potentialities. Each tutor receives substantial support from the Endowment Fund toward the costs of tuition and academic fees, and the house corporation board of each chapter usually if possible provides room and board.

This year for the first time the newly appointed Tutors met in Indianapolis at the Fraternity Headquarters to confer with executive director Gary B. Angstadt, chapter consultants Gary Goldstein and Tim McCourt, and several other Fraternity worthies. The overnight session provided intensive training for the Tutors before they set off to take up their new posts on Phi Psi's frontiers. Once again the meeting was underwritten in part by a grant from the Endowment Fund.

The 1981-82 Tutors-in-Residence

Charles L. Abbott, New Mexico Alpha, will return to his chapter and alma mater, Eastern New Mexico University, to undertake a masters of business administration degree. For the last two years Brother Abbott has taught vocational distributive education courses at West Mesa High School in Albuquerque. He has remained greatly involved in the affairs of New Mexico

Alpha, where he had served as president, treasurer, and fraternity educator as well as in other positions of leadership.

John Alan Dille of Tennessee Delta is going to Pennsylvania Iota and to the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business, where he will study for a masters of business administration degree in health care management. Brother Dille graduated from Vanderbilt in 1980 with a major in molecular biology and a minor in mathematics and then worked last year at St. Thomas Hospital in Nashville. A former Summerfield Scholar, he was chairman of Tennessee Delta's governing board and an active participant in a wide range of academic, service, and honorary activities at Vanderbilt.

Enrico Angel Hernandez of California Beta is moving northward to California Gamma and the University of California's business school. A Stanford economics graduate, Brother Hernandez was a leader in the reorganization of Cal Beta, serving as president, vice-president, and fraternity educator. Apart from his travels abroad, he has also journeyed far and wide to the G.A.C. and to several Woodrow Wilson Leadership Schools, always with his enthusiasm and good humor intact.

Jeffrey John Horner of Tennessee Delta, now in his second year at the University of Virginia School of Law, will be taking on the rare duty and privilege of Tutor at Virginia Alpha. A former Founders Fellow, he was a summa cum laude graduate in history of Vanderbilt University and a Phi Beta Kappa to boot. He served Tennessee Delta as president and scholarship chairman and was a spirited intramurals jock. Brother Horner has kept up his extra-curricular activities record at Virginia, participating in the Legal Assistance Society, the Post-Conviction Assistance program, and the Student Legal Forum.

The winner of the 1981 Outstanding Summerfield Scholar competition is Camden Paul Siegrist, West Virginia Alpha. Brother Siegrist of Clarksburg, West Virginia, graduated in accounting from West Virginia University and will enter the University's School of Law. The recipient of numerous scholarships and academic awards, he is a member of Beta Gamma Sigma, Sphinx, and other university honoraries. His contributions to West Virginia Alpha include terms as treasurer and recording secretary, and leadership in rush, intramurals, and community service projects. An outstanding R.O.T.C. student, Brother Siegrist was chosen as battalion commander at West Virginia and was decorated on several occasions for his high achievements.

Among his activities at the university was his participation in the student-administration research and development committee. His award is $3,000.

Second-prize winner in the Outstanding Summerfield Scholar competition is Brian Edward Lundeen, Indiana Zeta. Brother Lundeen of Elgin, Illinois, will study for a fifth year at Butler University in an unusual pre-medical course, majoring in both chemistry and economics, and then will enter medical school one year from now. He served as president and treasurer of Indiana Zeta, chaired the social and intramurals committees, and represented the chapter in many all-campus events. A member of Phi Kappa Phi, he was the recipient ent of several major scholarships. At Butler Brother Lundeen was president of the Y.M.C.A. and chairman of the all-campus student judicial board; he also served on the IFC, the student union committee, and several other university-wide committees. He is a member of Mortar Board, Sphinx, and local honoraries. His award is $2,000.

Third-prize winner in the Outstanding Summerfield Scholar competition is Michael Lee Richards, Iowa Alpha. Brother Richards of Omaha graduated in accounting from the University of Iowa and will enter the University of Nebraska School of Law. His record of activities at Iowa Alpha includes terms as president, treasurer, fraternity educator, and corresponding sec-

Editor's Note:

The Executive Council has met once since the last issue of THE SHIELD, on May 9, 1981, at the Fraternity's Indianapolis Headquarters. Space limitations do not allow printing the several pages of minutes from that meeting, but they are available to any Phi Psi through the Headquarters, at a cost of $3.50 to help defray costs of copying and postage.

"A Guide to Historic Galveston"; DOUGLAS R. ZWIENER, Texas '39, was written for the Galveston visitor who wishes to tour the city and see the historic homes, buildings and sites which still exist. The places listed here are still standing although only a few are open to the public. This guide includes a map giving a detailed tour route with numbers corresponding to the name and address of each place. Using this map, visitors may see fifty-two of the locations which are consecutively numbered on this route. Copyrighted by Zwiener & Darst.

The Amazing J. Z. Briggs; ROBERT Q. BARR, Washington & Jefferson '39, is a biography on Dr. Janet Zaph Briggs, a metallurgist. Dr. Briggs devoted long hours to her chosen profession, possessing a rare quality that enabled her to extract that elusive last ounce of pleasure and knowledge from every experience. Her technical accomplishments, her writing and her stature in the metallurgical community are undeniable facts. This book's objective is to document a most interesting and unusual human life, published by Climax Molybdenum Co.

Astro-cycles & Speculative Markets; L. J. JENSEN, Washington & Jefferson '19, is a major contribution to scholarship in the field of economic forecasting. The chaff of vague theory is eliminated. It is not a formula book of simple data, but procedures coordinating several key factors with explanatory examples. Here the hit-or-miss, random walk world of business and finance trends become secondary to the trend timing stimuli of Natural Law often rejected because they never are so precisely revealed in such an array of historical applications included in this work. Published by Lambert-Gann Publishing Company, Inc.

Bibliography of Tennessee Speleology; LARRY E. MATTHEWS, Vanderbilt '65, was written to make more readily available information of reference value to persons studying Tennessee caves. The Tennessee Cave Survey as an Internal Organization of the National Speleological Society. The Tennessee Cave Survey compiles data concerning Tennessee caves and is dedicated to the study and preservation of Tennessee caves and karst, published by the Tennessee Cave Survey.

Descriptions of Tennessee Caves; LARRY E. MATTHEWS, Vanderbilt '65, compiles information on all Tennessee caves that have been discovered since 1959, when Dr. Thomas C. Barr ended the field work on his Caves of Tennessee. The writer hopes that this work will stimulate other states to reactivate their cave surveys and keep their published information current with occasional supplements of this type. Another goal has been to encourage all Tennessee cave explorers to contribute their finds by acknowledging under each new cave the source of the information. This book is provided by the State of Tennessee Department of Conservation.

Farm Broadcasting: The First Sixty Years; JOHN C. BAKER, Purdue '27, is the first book dealing with radio and television programs for farmers nationwide. The panorama of farm broadcasting begins in 1920 with the first radio programs for farmers and unfolds through the 1970s. Baker profiles the people who have most influenced the art of farm broadcasting through the years and gives his peers an account of their heritage. Farm Broadcasting: The First Sixty Years continues with a discussion of the National Association of Farm Broadcasters and concludes with suggestions for young people who are considering a career in contemporary farm broadcasting. Published by the Iowa State University Press.

For the Love of Man; JAMES C. NOONAN, Missouri '47, presents a layman's commentary on the Old Testament Book of Ruth. The Book of Ruth tells a story about ordinary people—but it also imparts a lesson of greater significance. Through perceptive insights and fascinating details exploring the story's historical and religious background, the author demonstrates that the Book of Ruth really articulates the story of Christ Jesus and his redemption of mankind. The Book of Ruth is the only book in the Bible which links the Kinsman and redeemer concepts. The story of Ruth also demonstrates that true happiness can only be found within God's plan. Published by Dorrance & Co.

Full Circle; TIM GILLIN, Kansas '69, is a collection of his thoughts in poetic form, published by Flying Gypsy Press.

In God We Should Trust; R. THOMAS DICKMAN, Missouri '61, is a book which probes the eternal questions: "Why are we born?" "Why are we living?" "What can we expect in the Hereafter?" And, says the author, what emerges from such a discussion is a greater awareness of the Divine Principles of Grace and Justice; and how each comes, at some point, to shape our perspective and resulting activities in a cosmic fulfillment of the Golden Rule. Other, more secular questions are also probed. Why, for example, in politics, the conservative thinks as he does; or the liberal; or the radical. The author then offers a cogent statement on what both America and the world needs now. Published by Libra Publishers, Inc.

The Irish Terrier; GEORGE KIDD, Indiana '24, is a book which attempts to illumine the traits of Irish Terriers. Included is history of the breed, guidelines for selecting a puppy, the personality of the Irish Terrier and an assortment of photographs and illustrations for the reader. Published by Denlinger's Publishers, Ltd.

Lincoln Center: The Building of an Institution; EDGAR B. YOUNG, DePauw '27, brings the story of the creation of Lincoln Center to life. The institutional aspects of this history involve the formation of a federation of autonomous artistic and educational organizations as well as the creation of new nonprofit corporation to plan, finance and build the center and to coordinate its continuing operation. The story of urban renewal and of collaboration between the leaders of a private, nonprofit organization and the officials of city, state and federal government reveal actions vital to the creation of the center. The strategies used in raising the 80 percent in voluntary grants and gifts constitute a case study in philanthropy. This book is about the remarkable group who never wavered from their objective to foster the arts of live performance and to enlarge the public enjoyment of those arts, published by New York University Press.

The Little Engineer That Could; RALPH E. HERSEY, Beloit '16, is an autobiography using information extracted from his personal papers by his wife, Beatrice, and brought to the attention of one of his four sons, Paul Hersey, Beloit '52. Published by the Center for Leadership Studies.

1927—Summer of Eagles; JACK HUTTIG, Kansas '37, is a special achievement in re-creating the excitement that surrounded the early flights, bringing to life the brief but shining time when a small group of airmen became the world's heroes. It was a unique period in history when a few air pioneers with comparatively little financial backing risked everything on a dramatic bid for world fame. The reader can retrieve a glimpse of the undying glory of that magic summer's epic flights; vicariously share in moments of victory, defeat, and despair; and comprehend both the environment and the personal drives which made these airmen among the most famous legends and martyrs of aviation history. Published by Nelson-Hall, Inc.

Pierre Samuel Du Pont de Nemours; AMBROSE SARICKS, Bucknell '36, is a book about the first Du Pont de Nemours, and about his relationship to some of the major events of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries. When Eleuthère Irénée du Pont established his first power mills on the Brandywine in 1802, he could not know that he was laying the foundation for one of the modern world's industrial marvels and for one of America's most famous families. Because his strenuous and diligent labor did lay such foundations, the story of the company and the family has often been told. Published by University of Kansas Press.

JANSON, Purdue '50, presents business-tested systems and techniques to achieve profitable purchasing by translating theoretical concepts into practical aspects for immediate implementation by purchasing through better buying, superior organization, and effective design of systems and procedures. This desk book provides methodology of the modern technique in purchasing for profit in a manner that can be used by both the advance practitioner and the neophyte buyer. It explains the construction of the basic saddle, describes the different saddle types, and explains how they have been altered to meet the changing needs of riders down through the centuries. Saddles covers virtually every aspect of saddlery, saddle measurement, selection, and care, plus tips from a knowledgeable horseman on the intricacies of fitting horse, rider, and saddle into a dynamic whole. One of the author's underlying purposes has been to enhance interest in the few surviving old saddles as collectors' items and as artifacts of American history. For, as he says, "Much of that history was made on horseback." Published by University of Oklahoma Press, Norman.
