Message from the President

Dear Brothers,

At this time, there are several topics to which I'd be justified in devoting this full page of The Shield, e.g., the coming Grand Arch Council (29 July - 2 August, 1992 in San Francisco); three successful Regional Leadership Conferences in Districts II and III supported totally by chapter and alumni volunteers; the continuing progress of the national Master Planning effort; the cleaning up of old debts at all levels of the Fraternity; the development of a first-rate Fraternity-wide extension policy; the streamlining of Fraternity Headquarters, including on-going realignment of fund raising; the reality of reduced and balanced national Phi Psi budgets; greatly improved Archonate training and increased participation by Archons in national Fraternity affairs; a truly outstanding 1991 Woodrow Wilson Leadership School; and other actions under consideration but not yet sufficiently developed.

One topic, however, demands our attention above all others as we swing down the home stretch of this biennium of revitalization and restructuring — participation by each alumnus in appropriate activities with his chapter. Not just the few "mainstays" who seem never to tire of helping but all Phi Psi alumni, especially you recent graduates with your chapter's notable experiences fresh in your memories.

The call is COME ON BACK!! Support your chapter:

- Visit your undergraduate brothers.
- Maybe an informal gathering with your chapter's officers — buy them lunch on the campus. Let their competition see you in action.
- Could be your brothers will ask your advice on something or other.
- Your chapter may need fresh assistance in dealing with its host institution.
- Or offer a few tips to senior classmen about the real world out there.

There are certain to be so many, many ways that you may help. And don't forget Phi Kappa Psi's Founders Day, which is, of course, every chapter's Phi Psi HOMECOMING.

Remember, COME ON BACK!

Fraternally, and with much brotherly love,

Robert E. Lazzell

P.S. — Your chapter's Rush Chairman needs lots of help identifying prospective pledges who have done well or are now doing well in high or preparatory school. Every high school has "a few good men" in scholarship, music and band, sports and other wholesome activities. Your chapter needs to know these young men; if not for your chapter, another Phi Psi chapter.

The Toughest Job Prepares for a New World in the '90s

by Paul D. Coverdell, Missouri '59
Peace Corps Director, 1989-1991

It is difficult to capture in a relatively short space what it has been like to direct the Peace Corps of the United States during the revolutionary years of 1989 to 1991. Events of this period have been so extraordinary that the most appropriate description comes not from historians, but from singer/composer Paul Simon in lyrics proclaiming these "days of miracle and wonder."

Even in stodgy newspapers, the headlines have been breathtaking: "The Wall Tumbles;" "Leningrad to Again Become St. Petersburg;" "Walesa Elected President;" "Albania — A Prison Nation Opens Its Gates;" "A New Flag Rises Proudly in Namibia." So rapidly and decidedly has the world changed, however, that the most stirring words fail to capture the drama that has engulfed nations and their peoples.

So too have these been years of dramatic change for Peace Corps. Just three years ago, none of us could have imagined reaching agreements with nations such as Namibia, which were so new that the documents we signed had to be written on plain paper because no official letterhead existed. Nor could we have envisioned sending volunteers to nations such as Hungary, where change came so rapidly that government officials hurriedly scratched through part of the nation's old name, "the People's Republic," on stationery left over from the previous regime.

As the winds of change have blown across the entire face of the world, Peace Corps has responded enthusiastically to requests for assistance. In the first two years of this decade, we have reached out to 25 nations, bringing to nearly 90 the total number of countries in which Peace Corps Volunteers are currently working. In many of these nations, Peace Corps extended our country's first helping hand.

As might be expected, not all events during these tumultuous times have been supportive of our mission. Removing our Volunteers from harm's way — in the Philippines, Liberia, Yemen, Tunisia, Morocco, Pakistan, Mauritania and Tanzania — required us to suspend temporarily our programs in those countries. Fortunately, these rather dramatic and historic evacuations were all handled with no harm coming to any volunteers or staff, and we are now in the process of returning to all of these nations except Liberia. Having just returned from North Africa, I am reminded of the sincere and moving query from a Tunisian woman whose child was in a special education program: "When will the American come back?" I am pleased that our answer is, "Soon."

While Peace Corps has always been charged through its Third Goal to bring knowledge of the world home to America, this goal has acquired new urgency in this, the last decade of the 20th century. Through our World Wise Schools program, which links volunteers serving overseas with elementary and secondary schools in this country, Peace Corps is promoting geographic and international knowledge, as well as a spirit of volunteerism. Likewise, through Fellows/USA, in partnership with public schools, businesses and universities, we are bringing knowledge volunteers gain overseas back to help with tough problems and challenges in this country.

As we look toward the remainder of this decade and this century, we know that the world will continue to change rapidly and dramatically. We know that the majority of people seeking Peace Corps' help will soon live in the world's great urban areas, rather than in the small towns and villages in which our volunteers have served so well. We know that increasing demands for Peace Corps will put strains on our resources. Because we are planning for the future, and because we have implemented a new Integrated Planning and Budget System (IBPS), a new Programming and Training System (PATS), and a new system of Institutional Memory (IM), we hope to be ready for all of these changes.

In summary, getting Peace Corps ready for the 1990s has meant getting ready to respond to an ever increasing number of countries that want to participate in the great Peace Corps partnership. It has meant getting ready for a new century by bringing the knowledge our volunteers gain overseas back to the United States. It has meant keeping the agency shipshape and ready to serve.

Being director of the Peace Corps during these years of revolution has been an exhilarating challenge. It has been a period of reinvigoration and growth — a renaissance of the volunteer spirit. As Peace Corps' 30th anniversary year comes to a close, we look back on the past with pride, but we are focusing our energies on the future — to new challenges at home and abroad; to reaching and passing the 10,000 volunteer goal set by Congress; to making new friends in all corners of the world. After all, that is what Peace Corps has always been about — the future.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 6

I work for the Institute of Foreign Languages in Ulaanbaatar, the capital of Mongolia, teaching English language courses. Today, we were invited to a celebration. The celebration began with a wrestling exhibition — a Mongolian wrestling exhibition, which is a bit different from the wrestling practiced in America. The main objective is to get your opponent on the floor from a stand-up position. Just before a match begins the contestants imitate the flight of an imaginary and legendary bird. Following the match, the winner repeats this "dance."

Mongolia

The celebration ended with a trip to the countryside for traditional Mongolian khorkhog: a mixture of goat meat, water, onions and salt layered alternately with scalding hot rocks in a large metal container — the container functions like a pressure cooker. I found the "barbecue" delicious.

Before we left, we also drank plenty of airag, a drink made from fermented mare's milk. Airag tastes a little like buttermilk champagne — a little.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8

This morning I taught two classes at the Institute. The first class was a group of teachers from Hovsgol, a city in the northwest of Mongolia. Previously, they were Russian language teachers, but now they have been assigned to study English for a year in order to teach English in the secondary schools in Hovsgol next year. My second class was a first-level section of English students who are studying to be English language instructors.

Virtually everyone in this country seems to want to learn English. Sometimes it can be rather difficult to develop meaningful friendships, simply because some Mongolians see Americans and British as keys to English language instruction and perhaps Western currency.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 9

I taught the same classes at the Institute this morning as I did yesterday. Following my classes, I had a meeting with Batnafch, the head of the English Department. The Foreign Language Institute, as such, has existed for only three years. Formerly it was the Russian Language Institute dedicated to Russian language instruction exclusively. Because the English department is so young, curriculum development and departmental objectives have yet to be clearly defined; some fourth and fifth level courses are being taught for the first time this year. Books are a major problem, as barely enough texts are available for the instructors; none are readily available for the students.

Following the meeting, I went shopping for rations. Mongolia is currently on a very rigid rationing of many food-stuffs: meat, flour, butter, sugar, cooking oil, tea, rice and vodka. This time cooking oil and tea were available for the first time in many months. Since I arrived in July, many items have disappeared from store shelves, while other items have suddenly appeared, only to be gone within minutes of being put on the shelves.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10

This afternoon Erdenhoyig came to visit. He was very excited because he had found Mongolian beer in a Mongolian store — a rare find these days — and he wanted to share it with me. Previously, Mongolia had depended on the Soviet Union for spare parts in all of its factories. Now that the Soviet Union is having its own difficulties and ties with that country are changing, many factories, including beer factories, are closing as equipment breaks down. There is some worry that even the heating and electric plants may shut down or reduce output for lack of spare parts — a frightening thought to say the least. Highs in January are supposed to average minus two degrees Fahrenheit.

This evening, Erdenhoyig and I went to the Ulaanbaatar Hotel for dinner. The doorman didn't want to let Erdenhoyig in at the front door, as Mongolians are supposed to enter from a side entrance and dine in a separate facility. Concealing my anger as best as possible, I told the doorman — in Mongolian — that he was my friend, and he was to enter through the same door as I.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11

After classes, I went to check my mail, wandered around a fairly new "mall" and went home for lunch. Usually I eat at the Institute's cafe, but today the power had gone out at the Institute, so I made some soup at my apartment.

My apartment is located in the center of town and has two rooms and a kitchen. So far, the heat and hot water have been regular. Most people in Ulaanbaatar live in apartment blocks; a sizeable minority live in gers on the outskirts of town. A ger is a round felt tent that the Mongolians have used for centuries. Currently, no one owns private homes or apartments, but privatization of housing will supposedly begin soon.

Today was my mother's birthday, so this afternoon I called home for the first time since I've been here. Phoning the States can be a tricky proposition; sometimes connections are terrible, and the wait at the post office for the connection to be made can take hours. Most homes in Mongolia, including mine, have private phones, but telecommunication options in general are quite poor. I reached my parents by phone at about six in the morning, their time. How good it was to hear familiar voices and tell my mother "happy birthday" in person! As I walked home, I realized how much we take for granted in America. Never before have I considered a telephone call a luxury.

If my experience is any indication, a volunteer's life is not always romantic and packed with adventure. Often I spend my days poring over books, planning lessons and shopping. For me, the adventure is simply being here: learning the language, meeting friends, teaching and understanding a new culture — not as a privileged tourist, but as a resident of Mongolia.

Pace Corps — the toughest job you'll ever love drifts through my mind as I wake up with the roosters at 5:30 a.m. on a chilly Honduran morning. I open my wood shutters letting the sun flow into my adobe house and onto my dirt floor. I fire up my kerosene stove to put water to boil — a daily ritual as all water here must be boiled before drinking.

I'm a Peace Corps volunteer serving in a small village in the rugged mountains of southeast Honduras near the El Salvador

Honduran natural resources station in the city. We work closely together as a team — they provide support, and I do the actual field work. We both have the same goal: to stop the devastating slash-and-burn agriculture the campesino farmers practice by providing an alternative, sustainable system with fields protected by soil conservation.

I reach a small outcropping and pause to catch my breath. I look back over the valley and see a fire raging off in the distance. The campesinos burn thousands of acres of precious forests every year. The population pressure doesn't allow the land to regenerate, and hundreds of acres are utterly destroyed and will grow no more corn.

My farmers do not burn their fields anymore.

Together, we've seen the benefits of incorporating the debris from a cleared field. By doing so, we add nutrients and compost to the soil, which improves their corn yields. But most importantly, we dig hundreds of feet of trenches to contain the water flow down the mountain, which keeps the soil and nutrients in place. Some of my farmers are growing corn and sorghum on slopes of more than 50 percent.

I reach the thatched-roof mud hut of my friend Don Francisco, and I whistle quickly to get his attention from within. There are no doorbells and sometimes no doors, and whistling is a way of announcing yourself.

"Hola," he says, stepping out and donning his straw hat. "Que vamos a hacer hoy?"

"We're going to plant zacate limon today," I answer in Spanish. Before my service, Peace Corps trained me in language and culture. I came in with very little Spanish ability; now I can carry on extended conversations with anyone. My class today will be in Spanish because no one here in Cofradia speaks English.

We reach the plot, and as everyone arrives, we go about learning live barriers. I usually start off by asking a few questions to get the ball rolling. Then for a half hour or so, they talk and come to conclusions on their own. We decide where we want the barrier and how it is used. I explain that it is used just like a dead barrier — fallen logs, rock walls, etc. — except that it doesn't have to be built up periodically like dead barriers when soil runoff reaches the top of the structure. The plants continue to grow higher than the piling up soil, and eventually we have a flat spot like a terrace behind the row of plants.

Then we spend several hours in the hot tropical sun planting the seeds along the contour of the hillside with crude wooden tools. By 3:00, it's time for me to head home as it's a long walk and I'm already tired. Don Francisco walks part of the way with me, and we talk of Honduras, the way it used to be and about things I don't know yet.

Peace Corps is a two way street — I learn just as much from my service here as I hope they do from me. I've only been here a year, but I feel as if it is part of my home. I'm only one person in a small cluster of communities — not much impact on a national level. I doubt I'll make the evening news tonight, but as I eat a hearty meal of beans and tortillas and eggs and sit down at my table to write a letter or two before bed, I feel satisfied. I will have made a difference in this small corner of the world, and I will have made friends for life. And when I go back, I'll be able to share my experiences with people here so they can better appreciate and understand the diversity and lifestyles of other countries and cultures.

Honduras

border. Honduras is the poorest country in Central America with an average yearly income of $200 U.S. Even though this is the tropics, I'm up more than 6,400 feet, so it's windy and cold in the mornings and blistering hot during the day. It's September now, the dry season is almost over, and soon the rains will come. Everyone is waiting for the rains so they can plant their corn and beans for another year's food. I'm waiting for the rains as well; I'm a hillside Agriculture Extensionist, and my job is basically soil conservation and organic soil improvements.

Today, I'm heading to Cofradia, a small, isolated community of less than 100 people even higher in the mountains. After a bowl of lumpy oatmeal and hard corn bread, I start up the winding trail. I'll be meeting with a small group I've formed there, and we'll be talking about barreras vivas (live barriers) today. I carry a small bag of the seeds with me that I got from Recursos Naturales, the

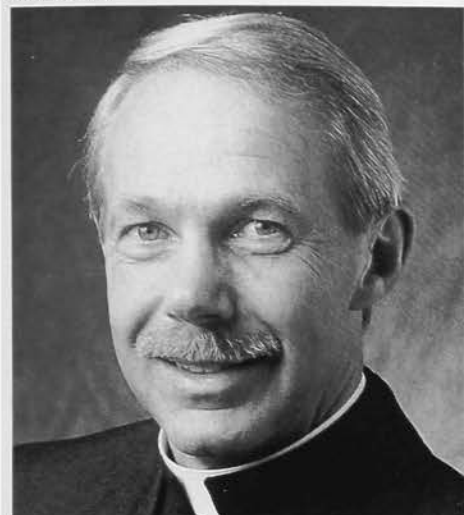

The training group tours an already-established Soil Conservation Project. The tall rows are live barriers to hold back the soil and prevent erosion.

Stechschulte's home, like most in Honduras, is made of adobe bricks and baked clay roof tiles.

Schlegel takes the helm at University of San Francisco

Even as the Fraternity prepares to converge on San Francisco for the 66th Grand Arch Council this summer, that city has accepted one of our own to lead students into the future.

Phi Kappa Psi is certainly proud of her Bay Area leader in higher education — John P. Schlegel, S.J., Creighton '79, new president of the University of San Francisco.

An expert in international and comparative politics, the Oxford-educated Schlegel has served in both faculty and administrative positions at John Carroll University of Cleveland, Ohio, and three other Jesuit universities — Creighton, Rockhurst and Marquette. He is a career teacher and scholar, equally at home in the classroom or conducting field research. He has published two books and numerous articles on international relations and third-world development.

Schlegel replaced the Rev. John Lo Schiavo, USF's president for the past 14 years.

As president, Schlegel sets his number one goal on "continuing USF's progress toward becoming a model Jesuit urban educational experience — a truly global institution that takes full advantage of San Francisco's position as gateway to the Pacific Rim.

"I plan to concentrate on the business of education," he said, and leave the fund raising to other able hands.

Melvin Swig, chairman of the University of San Francisco Board of Trustees, said, "We are extremely excited about Father Schlegel's appointment. He's a proven leader, a highly-regarded academician and the strong administrator USF needs to help lead us into the 1990s."

In its 1992 guide to American colleges, U.S. News & World Report describes the challenges facing Schlegel and other leaders in higher education.

"This is not the most opportune moment to be an American college president," the article stated. "In fact, so encyclopedic are the financial, ethical, legal, governmental, political, public relations and, on occasion, the personal problems distracting the leaders of higher education that the contents of their in-baskets could be mistaken for casebooks in Advanced Crisis Management."

"You spend so much time putting out fires or dealing with rumors that you lose both your perspective and concentration on the big issues," lamented Robert Corrigan, president of San Francisco State University; the controversy over "intellectual intimidation" by those who fancy themselves "politically correct"; the federation legislation that requires colleges and universities to compile and make public data on campus crime and graduation rates of student-athletes; and the complaints that professors devote too much time to research and too little time to their classrooms.

Broader challenges facing the leaders in higher education include balancing spiraling operating costs with lower revenues by raising tuition; answering the demands for diversity, both in the student body and in the faculty; attracting outstanding faculty to a profession that is more and more losing its gilded edge; and anticipating the future to prepare students for that which will be.

In keeping with national trends, Schlegel said enhancing faculty-administration relations and further diversifying USF's student body are his initial priorities.

The University of San Francisco's hill-top campus is on Fulton Street between Parker and Masonic near Golden Gate Park.

Academic representatives from more than 225 national and international universities, including Oxford University where Schlegel received his doctorate, attended his inauguration on October 26.

Attendees included the Most Reverend John R. Quinn, Archbishop of San Francisco and the Most Reverend Carlos Sevilla, S.J., Auxiliary Bishop; the Very Reverend Paul Belcher, S.J., provincial of the Jesuits in California; Rabbi Mark Schifman, associate rabbi of Temple Emanu-El; and former San Francisco Mayor Art Agnos.

Schlegel has served Phi Kappa Psi as the Executive Council's Coordinator of Faculty Advisors and on the Executive Board Nominating Committee.

"We are extremely excited about Father Schlegel's appointment. He's a proven leader, a highly-regarded academician and the strong administrator USF needs to help lead us into the 1990s."

Melvin Swig, chairman of the University of San Francisco Board of Trustees

University in the article.

The article further cited several such fires that occupy administrator's attention — the Justice Department's antitrust investigation of 57 elite colleges and universities; a scandal involving overcharging the federal government by several

Archons Bring Undergraduate Perspective to Executive Council

The Archons for 1991-93 are: Daniel J. Isaac, District II; Brian S. Crow, District V; Christopher R. Partin, District IV; Robert H. Sostman, District VI; and Joseph S. Lockett, District III. Not pictured is Jeffrey H. Morgan, Archon of District I.

Phi Kappa Psi's government is unique in the interfraternity world in that undergraduates hold a majority among voting members of the Executive Council. This may not seem remarkable at first blush, but when one considers the responsibility that is placed in their hands, it is clear that Phi Kappa Psi places great trust in the hands of her undergraduates.

Since 1886, Archons have represented the several Districts of the Fraternity. The Archons for 1991-1993 are:

JEFFREY H. MORGAN, Rhode Island '91, represents District I. Jeff is a junior at URI, majoring in secondary education with an eye toward eventually attending law school or entering government service. A member of the newly reorganized Rhode Island Beta Chapter, Jeff has served as alumni relations chairman, fraternity educator and vice president as well as being involved in the URI Blood Drive and orchestrating the chapter's Bounce-a-Thon philanthropy.

"I see my role as an Archon involving my skills as a good communicator and motivator. I have studied the Fraternity and believe I have good ideas on chapter management, extension and risk management, among other topics. Really, the best talent I bring to the job is my organizational skill."

District I comprises 16 chapters and one colony ranging from Massachusetts south to Pennsylvania.

DANIEL J. ISAAC, Akron '87, is Archon of District II, which comprises 17 chapters and one colony centered around the birthplace of Phi Psi in Western Pennsylvania. Dan is a fifth-year senior majoring in secondary education with his eye on attending law school and entering politics. Dan has served Ohio Iota as president, fraternity educator and as chairman of the social, philanthropy and alumni/PR committees. He also has been involved with IFC as chief justice of the judicial board and with student government. Dan's brother, Matthew, is a 1990 initiate of Ohio Iota.

"I feel it is my job to be educated on the issues of our Fraternity and the interfraternity world. I feel that I bring an objective view of the undergraduate position. I also bring a strong desire to advance Phi Kappa Psi to the greatest heights possible."

JOSEPH S. LOCKETT, Miami '90, represents District III. Joe is a junior at Miami University majoring in finance and decision sciences. Upon graduation, he hopes to enter a sales position, eventually obtaining a position as a stockbroker. For Ohio Lambda, Joe has served as rush chairman, assistant treasurer, housing corporation representative and house manager. On campus, he is involved in fund raising for the Greek Week Committee.

"I hope to bring clear, unbiased judgment to the Executive Council. When making decisions, I will attempt to represent the views of undergraduates and those chapters in my district in all discussions."

Joe represents the 18 chapters and two colonies of District III, which spans the Midwest.

CHRISTOPHER R. PARTIN, Tennessee '91, is Archon of District IV, which comprises 14 chapters and one colony across the Southeast. Chris is a junior at the University of Tennessee majoring in political science and English. He plans to study law and later enter the realm of international law and politics. Chris has served Tennessee Epsilon as vice president, alumni relations chairman and governing committee chairman. On campus, he has been involved with student government on the Freshman Council and the Traffic Committee, as an IFC representative and as a founder of the local Junior IFC.

"I see my job as one of representing the interests of District IV and the entire Fraternity. I will do my utmost to conduct our Fraternity's business while including as many undergraduates' and alumni's views as possible. I want to increase communication on all levels of Phi Psi."

BRIAN S. CROW, Texas '90, is Archon of the newly-redrawn District V, which covers the Great Plains from Texas to Minnesota comprising 15 chapters. Brian is a senior at Texas majoring in electrical engineering and plans on pursuing a career in the design and development of computer software and hardware. An active member of Texas Alpha, Brian has served as treasurer, recording secretary, finance chairman and scholarship chairman.

"I see my role on the Executive Council as a caretaker. The Archons and the Executive Board are responsible for maintaining and improving the state of the Fraternity. I bring to the EC experience in financial management and a solemn commitment to fiscal responsibility."

ROBERT H. SOSTMAN, Cal State Northridge '87, rounds out the new crew as Archon of District VI. Robby is a junior at Cal State Northridge majoring in political science. Career plans involve becoming an Educational Leadership Consultant for the Fraternity and then entering education. He is a second-term president of Cal Theta and has also served as vice president, fraternity educator and rush chairman, among other offices. On campus, Robby has served the IFC as parliamentarian.

"I see my role on the EC as an advocate for my District and for the national Fraternity. I want to represent the 'small chapter' perspective when dealing with Fraternity issues."

District VI comprises 13 chapters in the far West.

JAMES D. FELLERS, Oklahoma '32, received the Distinguished Service as a Lawyer Award from the Oklahoma Bar Association at its annual meeting in November 1991 for distinguishing himself as a lawyer and professional through volunteer service and numerous legal groups and law school councils. He has served as president of the American Bar Association and the Oklahoma Bar Association, and was named the third most influential attorney in the United States during his tenure with the ABA.

ROBERT LUHRSEN, Beliot '37, may well be the most decorated Phi Psi in all our 50 states. His name recently appeared in the Turner Publishing book, The Legacy of the Purple Heart. The Rock Island (Ill.) Arsenal Museum indicates he is entered in the Book of Honor in the Hall of Patriots as receiving four medals for valor, perhaps the highest known. He has received the Soldiers Medal, Bronze Star Medal with "V" device, Bronze Star (2), Silver Star Draft Citation, Purple Heart Medal (4), Infantry Combat Badge with "V" device, Good Conduct Medal, Hall of Fame for "Valorous Conduct," U.S. Navy Commendation, Commemorative War Cross, U.S. Presidential Citation, Philippine Presidential Citation, Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Medal with four Battle Stars and many other honors.

CRAIG L. TRIBKEN, Arizona State '72, won a runoff election to retain his seat on the Phoenix, Arizona City Council. Tribken, who was appointed to the council in 1990 and has been a strong advocate of neighborhoods, won with over 56 percent of the vote. CHARLES E. STOLL, Syracuse '75, took some ideas that originated at the New York Beta Chapter and put them into words. His book, Hanging in the Balance, can be obtained by writing to Aegina Press, Inc., 59 Oak Lane, Spring Valley, Huntington, WV 25704.

J. FRENCH HILL, Vanderbilt '76, was appointed by President Bush to serve as his Special Assistant and Executive Secretary to the President's Economic Policy Council. A former president of the Tennessee Delta Chapter and Archon of District IV, Hill lives in Washington, D.C., with his wife, Martha.

A. HARRISON GASQUE, South Carolina '78, has been in radio for ten years, currently appearing as Steve Harrison on Sunny 100 WSCQ-FM in Columbia, SC, and has received numerous awards. Most recently: Who's Who in Entertainment 1992-1993, Who's Who Among Young Professionals 1992-1993, Who's Who in the World 1991-1992, Who's Who in the South and Southwest 1991-1992. He was also named to the Board of Directors of the Richland County Gamecock Club.

EVAN H. FARR, Pennsylvania '81, has recently opened his own office for the general practice of law at 4085 Chain Bridge Road, Suite 403, Fairfax, VA 22030. Farr, formerly with the Fairfax law firm of Kidwell, Kent & Sullivan, is a 1987 graduate of the Marshall-Wythe School of Law at the College of William and Mary.

DAVID J. SHAFER, Georgia '83, is the executive director of the Georgia Republican party and has the added distinction of being the youngest man in the country to hold such a post. Shafer is a former Archon of District IV and remains an active volunteer for the National Fraternity, serving this biennium as Phi Psi's Director of Extension.

NICHOLAS MILLS EDGERTON, Brown '84, has recently published a novella titled Vivit Sesh. The publisher, University Editions of Huntington, WV, describes it as a faintly veiled assault on many schools of literary criticism, cloaked as a New York City murder investigation. Edgerton is chairman of the Literature Department and a language training tutor at the Kildonan School, a boarding and day school for dyslexic children.

THOMAS H. KERR, Arizona State '88, former president of the Arizona Beta Chapter, is writing a screenplay based on the life of Heisman Trophy winner Nile Kinnick, Iowa '38. Kerr has spent time in Iowa researching and talking to the Kinnick family.

The Phi Psi from Lockerbie Street

A Story that Hasn't Ended

by Nick Frenzel, Pennsylvania '51

The great Hoosier poet, James Whitcomb Riley, penned the words in the poem below in the summer of 1880. His inspiration was, of course, the lovely little street in Indianapolis. Perhaps it is by design that our national headquarters is on this very street, right next door to the beautiful Victorian preservation that was Mr. Riley's home from 1893 until his death in 1916. You see, James Whitcomb Riley, who gave America such treasures as When the Frost is on the Punkin, Little Orphant Annie and The Raggedy Man, was a member of Phi Kappa Psi. He was inducted as an honorary member of the Indiana Alpha Chapter at DePauw University (then called Asbury College) on March 3, 1883. In fact, a handsome plaque commemorating his membership is on display in his Lockerbie Street home.

This would be an interesting story if it ended here, but there is more. Today, there exists a remarkable connection between Mr. Riley and the Fraternity, a connection that goes far beyond the fact that we are neighbors on Lockerbie Street.

On the evening of July 22, 1916, James Whitcomb Riley died in the Lockerbie Street home that he loved so. It was a Saturday, and his funeral was held the following Tuesday. He was only a poet; he held no office; yet, such was the affection in which he was held that his body lay in state in the rotunda of the Indiana Capitol, and over 30,000 people filed past to say farewell. Just after the services, a group of his friends and admirers met to decide upon a fitting memorial to him. They discussed several alternatives — statues, arches and obelisks — but, fortunately, decided that Riley's memorial ought to be more than another roost for the pigeons. Then, someone at those early meetings reminded the others that James Whitcomb Riley had composed some of the most compelling and enduring poetry for children ever written. And it was the realization that led his friends and admirers to the decision to build, as his memorial, a hospital for children. They officially organized themselves as the James Whitcomb Riley Memorial Association on April 9, 1921. The Association raised the money, almost $2 million initially, in a state-wide campaign; built the hospital; and dedicated it on October 7, 1924, the 75th anniversary of Riley's birth. Since that day almost 70 years ago, the Riley Memorial Association has continued to raise funds (over $100 million) to support the hospital's growth and development. Today, the James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for Children is one of the nation's leading centers for advanced pediatric medicine in the fields of clinical care, education and research. The hospital has pioneered numerous advances in pediatrics and is the only children's hospital in America that operates entirely on a referral basis, treating children whose illnesses and injuries are too serious for local care.

The Association also operates Camp James Whitcomb Riley for Youth with Physical Disabilities. Opened in 1955 on 2,300 acres of woods and lakes, it is today the country's largest and most advanced outdoor camp for the disabled.

Finally, the Association owns and maintains the house at 528 Lockerbie Street.

Now, here's the clincher...

You see, a Phi Psi, yours truly, has, since 1975, been privileged to serve as president of the Riley Memorial Association, the third person to hold this office since 1921. Thus, our Fraternity, our honorary Brother James Whitcomb Riley, and the great and beneficial memorials to him remain intertwined. Is this all a coincidence? Maybe... and then again, maybe not.

Such a dear little street it is, nestled away
 From the noise of the city and heat of the day,
 In cool shady converts of whispering trees,
 With their leaves lifted up to shake hands with the breeze
 Which in all its wide wanderings never may meet
 With a resting-place fairer than Lockerbie Street!

Chapter Newsletters

Akron

The brothers of Ohio Iota have been very busy improving our alumni and university relations. We held several events this fall with our alumni including the annual Cleveland Browns football road trip and the always mean alumni/active football game.

With the departure of long-time Chapter Advisor Dan Schwitzgable, we have formed a search committee to find his replacement. Thanks to Dan for over eight years of service.

This fall was very eventful for Ohio Iota. We kept busy with IFC football, our "Keep Akron Beautiful" philanthropy, our Halloween bash with Kappa Kappa Gamma, and of course scholarship. We would like to extend congratulations to Dan Isaac who was elected Archon for District II, to our graduating brothers and to Tom Arcoria, who was elected as our Solon E. Summerfield Scholar.

Christopher D. Brown, Correspondent

We're Movin'

The blueprints have been drawn up, and the location of our new house has been picked. Alabama Alpha is going mobile! Our beloved chapter home will take its place among other fraternity houses on University Boulevard in a neo-classical mansion, which will help us grow to new heights. We plan to move into our new quarters by fall 1992.

As always, chapter involvement in Greek affairs on campus is continually improving. Scott Batey and Bart Patrick are active in the SGA with Patrick as co-chairman of the Homecoming Halftime Committee. Kevin Reid coordinated the Homecoming Fun Run, and Ben Boles was elected president of Freshman Forum.

As for community service, so far we have adopted a mile of Paul "Bear" Bryant Drive and have been keeping it as spotless as possible. Jud Bailey is working on a charity Golf Tournament for the spring.

The original plans as announced in our fall newsletter for the Birmingham Alumni Association to host Founders Day in Birmingham have been changed. Founders Day has been rescheduled for March 21 in Tuscaloosa. The location was changed because of the recent announcement by the University of plans to construct a business library in 1992 at the site of our existing chapter house. Assuming these plans materialize, it was felt that our alumni would enjoy one last opportunity to visit the present chapter house. Shannon Price is in charge of planning Founders Day and associated activities on Friday and Saturday. If you have any suggestions, you may contact Shannon at 1-800-535-9054. So mark your calendars for March 20-21!

August brought the following new initiates: Thomas Bird, Overland Park, KS; James Reed and John Smiles, Huntsville; Bart Patrick, Tallassee; and Ryan Taylor, Houston, TX.

Our fall pledges are: James Taylor, Houston, TX; Benjamin Boles, Chad Hamner and Brooks Barksdale, Tuscaloosa; Scott Bullington and Russell Ware, Mobile; James Morris and Michael Stebbins, Huntsville; Mark Carlisle and Timothy Jefferson, Franklin, TN; Michael Hayes, Birmingham; Jeffrey Adams, Decatur; and Jonathan Koon, Atlanta, GA.

Allegheny

We are hot at Allegheny! Homecoming on the weekend of October 5 was a big success, as Allegheny's Trustees (a great many of whom are Phi Psis) were on hand for the ground breaking of Allegheny's revolutionary new Science Complex. Paul Lockwood anchored the defense of the Allegheny football team, which held Earlham scoreless in a 75-0 rout. Under the guidance of David Thomas, we funded the installation of new carpet in the chapter room out of our own pockets. There is a renewed enthusiasm about Phi Psi, and it manifests itself in the way we are pursuing alumni relations.

With the view that we are Phi Psis for life, we are seeking to revamp a newsletter that has been dormant for too long. Allegheny Phi Psi went out of print a few years ago due to the financial problems encountered by the chapter. Now, as Chris Latham ends his term as GP, the chapter has its feet back on the ground, and the newsletter will once more circulate.

Realizing the danger of subjecting the newsletter to shocks in fraternity finance, we are seeking to remedy the problem permanently by creating a self-sustaining newsletter. Comcoa, Inc. is a company in Corvallis, Oregon that specializes in fraternity mailings. The president of Comcoa is Hal Dick, Bowling Green '55, who is working with us on resurrecting Allegheny Phi Psi.

We are also pleased to announce the initiation of Steven Michael Dail of Erie, and Jonathan Hood Currier of Sparta, NJ, into the secrets of Phi Kappa Psi. Congratulations!

Arizona

Greetings from the brothers of Arizona Alpha. The desert is still hot, and our chapter is hot to match.

We hope that all of our alumni received our recent newsletter, High Phive. It is our hope that you enjoyed our new and updated attempt to let you know what is going on with Arizona Alpha. If you or someone you know did not receive a copy of High Phive, please drop us a line to let us know how to get you a copy.

In the letters that we have received, many of the brothers would like to hear from some of the men with whom they spent their college years. I would encourage all brothers to respond to the "Phi Psi Notes..." section of our new newsletter. Drop us a note telling us how you are so that we may put it in the next edition.

In other news the Phi Psi intramural teams in football and basketball have both made it to the playoffs. The Delta Gamma Anchor Splash was a real blast for all the brothers who participated.

Our chapter has also been graced with five new initiates: Candido Pinto, Brazil; Maurice Patrykus, Tucson; Phil Nevez, San Jose, CA; Garret Holm, Norman, OK; Darren Begley, Phoenix.

A special word of thanks to Steven Fowler, Arizona '77, and Dud Daniel, Arizona '47, for all of their help with our alumni efforts.

Mark Doty, Correspondent

Arizona State

The men of Arizona Beta were welcomed back to the fall semester with many needed renovations to our chapter house. After the paint dried, the carpets were laid and the air conditioners were installed, there remained a new sense of pride that we now have for our beloved chapter house.

After jumping in front of 10 other fraternities in the scholastic standings, we are proud of what we accomplished, and we are confident that we can improve to even greater heights under the leadership of Scholastic Chairman Matt Christensen. We are also looking to improve on last year's second place finish in intramurals. With excellent showings from all three of our flag football teams, Arizona Beta has established itself as one of the most competitive fraternities in ASU intramurals.

Congratulations are in order for our new initiates: Chris Mannis, Duxbury, MA; Karl Gant, Brooksville, FL; William Foster, Charlotte, NC; Rusty Pool, Yuma; and Matt Fisher, Denton, TX. We are also excited about the eight fine men we pledged last semester.

With Arizona Beta's 30-year anniversary coming in 1992, we are looking forward to this year's Founders Day. As Founders Day approaches, we will be sending out a newsletter to our alumni to inform them about this year's events. We also extend a warm invitation to all Phi Psi alumni living in the Valley of the Sun to stop by our renovated house and meet the proud men of Arizona Beta.

In conclusion, we thank our illustrious Archon, Robert Sostman, and his Cal Theta brothers and the Cal Deltans for their hospitality they gave to some of our brothers during the ASU-USC football game. As for our brothers down at Arizona Alpha, we anticipate the renewal of the Arizona Alpha vs. Arizona Beta Turkey Bowl.

Ashland

Once again the Brothers of Ohio Theta are back stronger than ever. After a long and restful summer we returned to a highly productive and very busy semester.

The condition of the house has greatly improved this year. Special thanks goes out to Todd Van Scoy, our house manager. The house looks better than ever.

Our fall rush got off to a good start this year. We are trying out many new ideas and more brothers are getting involved in the process. We feel very confident that our freshman rush in the spring will be our most successful.

Our annual Halloween Date party was as fun as ever thanks to the use of Brother Kowatch's barn.

Homecoming '91 was a great success. Many brothers came back after being gone for up to 10 years. We hope the alumni had fun reliving their Phi Psi memories. We look forward to seeing all of you in the spring on alumni weekend.

Our philanthropic activities included three dances for the United Way, a canned food drive for the needy of the area and our annual Halloween party for the children at the Dale-Roy school for the handicapped.

We welcome our fall upperclass pledges: Ajay Dudani, Ashland; Rob Vavra, Palos Park, IL; and Dan Starcher, Creston.

Joseph P. Callahan, Correspondent

Beloit

Hard work and hard play have characterized this term for us. We raised our chapter GPA, ranking third among Greeks on campus. We hope that with a concerted effort we can do even better this term.

Two brothers who played hard in another sense are GP Rob Ulaszek and Josh Murphy, who helped the Beloit Buccaneers achieve a 9-0 record and finish first in the division in football. The Phi Psi intramural teams did well also. Our volleyball team took first place; football did well; and we have high hopes for soccer and hockey.

We had an extremely successful term in regards to alumni relations with a large turnout for Homecoming and a reorganization of our alumni association and housing corporation that promises to work wonders for our chapter. We sent mailings to all alumni with good addresses — well over two hundred. The responses are still coming in, though we'd like to see more.

The chapter presented Kevin Stevens, Beloit '84, with an outstanding alumni award for his invaluable support and advice.

Our service committee has been active as well with food drives for the community, working for Harbor for the Homeless (we built a house!) and volunteering at the Merrill Center, a local shelter for children.

All in all, we had a strong term, and we're looking forward to continuing this momentum into the spring.

Bowling Green Half Way There!

In September, we had our annual philanthropy — the Bath Tub Races; proceeds going to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. In October, we sponsored a haunted house combined with Kappa Kappa Gamma. Area children came through the haunted house and then proceeded to go trick-or-treating through our houses. We also went to an area church where we served the under-privileged and homeless dinner. Come October, we had our ninth annual Alumni Golf Outing. This year's champions were Brian Fischer, Bowling Green '82, and Robbie First, Bowling Green '84. Next came Homecoming — thank you to all alumni who came. Speaking to all Phi Psi alumni, none of us could survive if it weren't for your support. Sometime in the near future, we are asking for alumni to visit a chapter. It need not be your alma mater — we're all brothers; just pay a visit to the nearest chapter.

We send out congratulations to the Ohio Lambda Chapter at Miami University. Again, they did an excellent job on the Leadership Council. The eight guys from our chapter had a great time and learned a lot. Terry Harper, Bob Goldman, Colonel Bob Lazzell, Kent Owen and Dr. Shriver all were very excellent speakers.

We added nine new men in fall rush who wish to become Phi Psis. These men are: Kevin Baldrige, Findley; Craig Ball, Centerville; Scott Paskoff, Massillon; John Seitz, Perrysburg; Brian Shaffer and Joe Woods, Brunswick; Patrick Turner, Toledo; Ben Urbanek, Cincinnati; and Robert Whaley, Newcomers Town.

We added another new program to the chapter, Brothers Against Drunk Driving (BADD). Each brother is assigned a weekend evening where he must stay in and be ready to pick up brothers who are too intoxicated to drive home.

Chad C. Luckner, Correspondent

Brandeis

In her first semester of existence as a chapter, Mass Beta has taken many strides toward building a solid foundation for future generations of Phi Psis at Brandeis. We began with a strong rush, recruiting six proud pledges — Robert Epstein, Michael Floribello, David Harrison, George Limberis, Alex Nimeroff, Dax Scharfstein — and sowing the seeds for 10 to 15 pledges this spring. With 15 brothers graduating this May, increasing our membership is at the forefront of our priorities.

We have begun to explore other aspects of brotherhood with which we were only acquainted before. Our Philanthropic Chairman, Jay Kim, has excited a drive within us to help others like never seen before in Mass Beta. In the Third Annual Boston City Year Serve-A-Thon, the chapter raised over $1,500 for Boston's urban peace corps, City Year. Working at Breakheart Reservation, we cleared and marked trails, chopped down trees and helped beautify a city park. Then, just five days later, we participated in Halloween for the Hungry, collecting canned foods for the homeless while trick-or-treating. And, we are just now beginning a new project with the Salvation Army, supplying manpower for a lunchtime soup kitchen here in Waltham.

Without the goal of our charter still looming overhead, our energies are now being focused upon growth, depth and just having some fun. Mass Beta earned our charter last April, and we are determined to leave a lasting impression on the annals of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

Brown

Locked Out

The russet leaves of southern New England found the brothers of Rhode Island Alpha busy with medical school applications, the search for fooseball perfection and the standard hokum of collegiate perseverance. Yet a certain spirit of community is noticeably lacking this semester. The most vitally social of the chapter's rooms have been dead bolted out of use because of fire hazard guidelines by Providence authorities. This calamitous turn of events has left the greater part of the brotherhood wandering aimlessly through the house, cast adrift upon the sea of social intercourse.

While solutions to code violations are explored, the loss of our most sacred spaces has inspired several reactions. The most productive involved reproducing the oldest surviving chapter relic, a mural painted in 1959 on the wall of one such forbidden room, on the back of a T-shirt. An offer made to alumni to purchase the shirt provoked an overwhelming response, with many graduated brothers embellishing orders for five or six shirts with stories and reflections about the famed mural. Their interest has been greatly appreciated.

The most concentrated efforts of RI Alpha this fall have been in educating our 22 sophomore pledges. These fine men are: Andrew C. Baker, New York, NY; Brian C. Bernhardt, Charlotte, NC; Daniel M. Buroker, Des Moines, IA; Matthew A. Carvalho, Issaquah, WA; Landy M. Cook, Columbia, MD; Matthew W. Crowe, Boston, MA; Michael V. Decesaris, Lincoln; Guy B. Foulks, Durham, NC; Erik J. Franklin, Bethesda, MD; Ari J. Glazer, Birmingham, AL; Nathaniel L. Hight, Bethesda, MD; Andrew D. Hoppin, Brookline, MA; Joshua L. Kanner, Pittsfield, MA; James Kim, Scarsdale, NY; Jeremy S. Kovacs, Andover, MA; S. Andres Piedrahita, Medellin, Colombia; Kevin C. Reed, Bethel Park, PA; Jonathan M. Richter, Elkins Park, PA; Kevin A. Ruby, Omaha, NE; Alan M. Shusterman, Cherry Hill, NJ; Jim K. Tung, Washington, IA; and J. Alex Tyrrel, Canandaigua, NY.

Bucknell

A New Beginning

Our initiation, held on October 25, inducted 19 new members into the brotherhood. It was followed by a black-tie dinner to celebrate our first initiates in four years. The dinner was attended by members of the Pennsylvania Gamma alumni as well as undergraduate brothers from surrounding chapters and colonies.

The chapter house, now owned by the University, is expected to be ready for occupancy soon. While the house was originally scheduled for completion by the middle of October, the addition of a fire sprinkler system caused the delay. We greatly anticipate moving into the newly renovated building as it will open up new aspects of our already strong brotherhood.

We are now a brotherhood of a few good men that shall become one of many in the near future, starting with our initiation of at least two new brothers as early as Founders Day.

New initiation are: Ankush Agarwal, New Delhi, India; Joseph Agnello, South Hackensack, NJ; Michael Berman, Pittsburgh; Brian Bontempo, Barrington, IL; Brett Claffee, Gwynedd; Jeffrey Dische, Unionville; James Foy and Matthew Gauthier, East Granby, CT; Elliot Frank, Shaker Heights, OH; Karl Gimpel, Bowdoin, ME; Gene Greiner, Lewisburg; Joel Guarna, Elysburg; Brandon Lindley, Seal Beach, CA; Evan Maloney, Greenwich, CT; David Murray, Wilton, CT; Gregory Parks, Ridgefield, CT; Scott Stortz, Allentown; Robert Teeter, Greensburg; and Matthew Young, Muncy. Our pledges are Burrell Shaw or Owensboro, KY, and Gregory Smith of Cranford, NJ.

Butler

Into the Streets

The nation, Butler University and Phi Kappa Psi moved "Into the Streets" on November 1 to help our fellow citizens. IN Zeta led the way as the campus and community became aware of poverty, homelessness, pollution and the disadvantaged. This was a national program that our chapter adopted as a community service project.

Over the summer, some of us thought we would be thrown into the streets as our house went through some remodeling. Things are now back in order, and the house hasn't looked as good in many years. The chapter house is always open as Mark Newman, Alumni PR Chairman, has worked hard toward improving relations with our alumni.

This year, we are paired with the women of Pi Beta Phi in Geneva Stunts. Our IM football season was topped with a final second win over Lambda Chi Alpha, while cross-country season ended with a 1,2 finish from Pat Klem and Jerry Perron.

We have looked into the future, seen changes around the corner — such as deferred rush — and have begun preparing for them. With the new men we've acquired, our future looks promising.

Our new initiates are Scott Woodard of Beech Grove, and Steve Bodenberg of Osgood. Our new pledges are: Matthew Burden, Plymouth; Jeremy Derucki, Valparaiso; Michael Hostetler, LaGrange; Marshall Jones, LaFontaine; Scotty Kennedy, Sullivan; Brent Losier, Nashville; Bryan Mays, Ft. Wayne; Gregory Osborne, Greenfield; Craig Pederson, Princeton; Trent Tipple, Wabash; Matthew Ulsas, Indianapolis; Randal Bailey, Plainfield, IL; Patrick Klem, Chicago, IL; Eric Smies, Homewood, IL; and David Birkhead, New Wilmington, PA.

Troy Weldy, Correspondent

UC-Davis

Between open books, coffee and late night study sessions, the brothers of Cal Iota have found time to keep our chapter energized and going strong.

Due to the energy and participation from both alumni and undergrads, our alumni weekend was a success. Friday was our annual casino night; Saturday, our alumni held a banquet, which was followed by football, volleyball and a spaghetti dinner prepared by the undergrads. To end the weekend, Sunday was a day of golf and relaxation. Our next alumni event will be our Founders Day formal, February 22, held at the Firehouse Restaurant in Old Sacramento.

The undergrads at Cal Iota thank all alumni who were able to attend our fall weekend. A special "thank you" goes out to our Housing Corporation for its guidance and support. We would also like to recognize our chapter advisor, Dick Ong, Oregon State '55, for attending our chapter and pledge meetings and for his personal contacts with members of our chapter.

Lastly, we welcome our five newest brothers: Mike Kretzmann (transfer from Indiana Epsilon), David Lupien (transfer from Pennsylvania Iota), Paul Tysinger, Enrico Gomez and Reggio Hearn (legacy).

Glenn Anderson, Correspondent

UC-Irvine

The sun was bright, and the day warm as I plodded across the dirt field marked off with red tape. I had spent the better part of the day in Songfest Executive Committee, and I needed to go home and study. But nothing in the world could keep me away from the day's events — nothing. Finally, after weaving through throngs of Greek lettered students, I found the Phi Psi booth. Beneath the Phi Psi banner stood the very distinguished Robert Meserve, Stanford '34, past president of the Fraternity.

"It's good to see you, Mr. Meserve," I said, extending my hand in brotherhood.

"When is the groundbreaking ceremony going to begin?" he inquired.

"In a few minutes," I replied.

"I'm very pleased that we can finally bring Greek housing to U.C.I."

I smiled in agreement. Now, finally, Phi Psi would have a permanent house on campus ensuring the longevity of the chapter for generations.

Once again, I would like to express our gratitude toward our diligent alumni. Without you, this never would have been possible.

UCLA

The California Epsilon Chapter has undergone some dramatic changes in the last six months. Capping off another fine year of athletic performance, Phi Psi won the Intramural All Sports trophy for the second time in the last three years. In addition, spring quarter saw the annual Wolfe Kirson Memorial Slam Dunk Contest back in action. This event, a joint venture with the Santa Monica Boys Club, consisted of a full day of various basketball skills and contests.

Following these successful activities, California Epsilon consented to a one year suspension effective fall 1991. This suspension came as a result of various problems that occurred during The Rage, a year-end party. As a result of the university action, the chapter underwent a membership review overseen by Cal Ep alumni and the Fraternity Headquarters staff. The purpose of this process was to educate the students on the values of the Fraternity, while giving California Epsilon a new, more organized internal structure.

As of October 1991, the current undergraduate membership of Cal Ep stands at 71. All undergraduate arrears stand at zero, and the new system of governing, in which every brother serves on two committees, has taken shape.

At this time, the plans for the renovation of the house have been placed on hold. But the chapter is moving ahead, combining the changes in its internal structure with a new emphasis on improved university, alumni and public relations. A Thanksgiving clothing and toy drive benefitted the organization Para los Ninos, and we held an exchange with local alumni. Rush is conducted on a continual, "revolving bid" level; and a leadership council retreat was held on the first weekend in November.

Overall, the California Epsilon Chapter is heading in a new direction. While maintaining its previously high degree of brotherhood and athletic performance, the chapter is seeking to improve its weak points — alumni and university relations. Hopefully, as the new improvement in government are solidified, the chapter will complete the terms of its suspension and work toward the renovation of the chapter house.

Cal Poly

The Tradition Continues

Winter has returned, and the Phi Psis of Cal Eta couldn't be more fired up.

We began the year with some renovations on the house. The city codes have been cracking down on fraternity living conditions this year, but with the help of our esteemed Chapter Advisor George Rosenberger, the brothers have come through to match the standards that have been set.

In other news, the emphasis here at Cal Eta has been on community, neighbor and police relations. Chapter President Terry Madge rode with the local police this summer, and it has greatly improved our status in their eyes. Another great idea has been Bruce Farrell's The Women of S.L.O. calendar, which began selling in November and whose proceeds will benefit Big Brothers and abused children in the local area.

Winding up, the brothers at Cal Eta once again thank the backbone of our chapter, alumni Gary Fowler and George Rosenberger. Without them, Cal Eta would have a tough task to survive. We would also like to wish all of the Phi Psi chapters an exciting yet safe year.

UC-Santa Barbara

Striving for Idealism

For us at California Zeta, 1991 proved to be a year of dramatic transition. Our efforts toward obtaining a new chapter house were finally rewarded in spring 1991. The acquisition of a new chapter house has not only brought us closer to the Greek community, it has increased our visibility in local society. With this new found devotion we find ourselves returning to the grass root idealism of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

Philanthropy became a main focus for the 1991-92 school year at California Zeta. Events included a fund raiser for the fight against leukemia, a blood drive and a promotion for the university's Rape Crisis Center. Jesse Blyth served as IFC vice president, which has aided in our encouragement of all Greek activities and strengthened campus involvement. Our correspondence with the university has also increased through recent alumnus Dan Oh's employment in the Office of Relations with Schools.

Last years turnout for our Founders Day celebration was phenomenal, and if the present motivation within the chapter bears any reflection, it promises once again to be a fantastic occasion. The festivities will take place at the Miramar Hotel on February 22, 1992. Any inquiries may be directed to Chris Veje at (805) 968-8953. Come celebrate the Fraternity's 140th anniversary with us!

We also extend our sincere thanks to Bob Fatch, Chapter Advisor, Phil Smith, Housing Corporation, and all others involved for their efforts towards the acquisition of our new chapter house.

Michael D. Powell, Correspondent

Cal State Northridge

Many great changes occurred throughout the fall semester. Our president, Robert H. Sostman, was elected Archon of District VI. We are all very proud of him and are honored to have him represent not only District VI but also Cal Theta.

The fall semester also included the selection of new officers: GP Ronald Cammarata, VGP Scott Onderdonk, AG Jesus F. Siordia, BG Kevin Erlandson, SG William McDermott, P Eric J. Palmstrom, Hod Ricardo Reyes, Phu Ron L. Snider, and Hi Robert H. Sostman.

We were able to pledge six great men. They, along with the undergraduate initiates and alumni, made it a successful pledge program.

Our football season was also quite successful. We made it to the playoffs and finished third in our division.

With our brotherhood growing even strong and with the help of our alumni, Cal Theta can look forward to yet another terrific semester.

Jesus F. Siordia, Correspondent

Case Western Reserve

Generally, any thoughts of brotherhood and fraternity are intertwined with thoughts of college life. Recently however, a group of very interested and active alumni have shown us that the brotherhood of Phi Kappa Psi only begins in college. Our alumni have helped us with rush, Mike Kertes organized an alumni sponsored Brown's game as a rush event, and for the past several years Bruce Jackson has provided us with tickets to hold a rush event at Cedar Point. Two recent graduates, Thomas Halter and Thomas Zak, have been very active at all types of events, always ready to lend a hand or helpful advice. To take advantage of our many interested alumni and relieve some of the burden on Charles Brandman, our overworked advisor, we are in the process of creating an Alumni Advisory Committee. Also, we would like to thank the Cleveland Alumni Association for hosting Founders Day this year.

Our scholarship is continuing to improve steadily. Our most recent pledges had the highest GPA of any pledge group on campus, and the chapter average is just a few hundredths short of a 3.0.

We have begun the year well and hope to continue our success throughout the spring.

Darren Pierre, Correspondent

Chicago

Fantastic in the Fall

Autumn quarter in Chicago is always an exciting time, but this year it was truly spectacular. We involved ourselves in all facets of fraternity life and maintained a 3.0 GPA for the third quarter in a row! In addition to a fantastic fall rush and some highly enjoyable social events, Illinois Beta applied itself to philanthropies and alumni relations with unforeseen fervor, guided by chapter officers intent on positive change.

This past quarter, our Philanthropy Committee ran a successful "Phi Psi Trick or Treat for Unicef" booth for a second Halloween in a row, as well as the yearly "Stuff Our Turkey" fund raiser for a local soup kitchen. We've also started our long-range planning for the Phi Psi 500 Wheelchair Race to be held in spring. The Alumni Relations Committee has devised some brand new plans for establishing contacts with estranged alumni. Watch for upcoming news on gatherings this quarter and for Interfraternity Council Sing to be held in early June!

Congratulations to new initiate Richard C. Muligan. A true asset to the brotherhood, we expect great things of Rick, a third-year student from Carpenterville.

Colorado

Investing in our Future

Colorado Alpha recorded a very successful semester in fall of 1991. Areas of notable accomplishment for our chapter include a strong dedication to informal rush and new vigor in developing alumni relations.

The rush committee, headed by Tom Fry, further established our informal rush program begun last year. Impressive participation was contributed by the chapter members. The chapter's much needed growth has been, and will hopefully continue to be, bolstered by this.

An important new step for our alumni relations has come with the re-establishment of the Rocky Mountain Alumni Association. Colorado Alpha alumni Jifi Jacob and Alex Montoya are directing this important revitalization. Annual activities being initiated are Founders Day, a summer event and Homecoming. This is designed to provide increased contact among alumni and between alumni and our undergraduate members. In addition, a biannual newsletter will strengthen alumni awareness and communication.

Colorado Alpha's first fall pledge class was initiated on October 18, 1991. Our newly initiated men are: Adam Fasani, Palo Alto, CA; Joey Lastufka, Anchorage, AK; Kevin McNerney, Oakland, NJ; Dan Nemura, Easton, PA; and Brett Walker, E. Peoria, IL.

We at Colorado Alpha, through our present efforts, express genuinely founded hope in our future.

Todd J. Walker, Correspondent

Cornell

Greetings from New York Alpha. As the days here at Cornell grow colder, our chapter grows stronger. With increasing visibility and voice on campus, Phi Psi is once again returning to the outstanding leadership position it once held.

Our contention for the intramural All-Sports trophy has never been stronger with outstanding efforts in football, cross-country and soccer. Phi Psi also boasts four team captains and 35 participants in such varsity sports as swimming, tennis, baseball, football, ice hockey, track and basketball. Johnny Wu has made his presence felt on the lightweight football team; Doug Jacobstein has moved to the number two seed on the tennis team; and Mike Bunning is just several inches from Cornell's all-time pole vaulting record. Also, Trevor Schumm has signed a contract with the California Angels and will begin training soon.

The strong alumni support was never seen so clearly than at our last Homecoming weekend. Over 100 New York Alpha alumni returned to their alma mater. With an extensive addition planned for our chapter house, alumni support and donations have been increasingly influential.

Phi Psis have also joined new activities. Dave DiSunno is head of the Greek Judiciary Committee and is working closely with the head of Greek Life to develop new social programs. Doug Tabish is in charge of the Social Responsibility Committee, which oversees these new programs. Ron Ciotoli and Bill Ehrlich have become certified T.A.s. for the ever-popular fluids class, and Steve Urish is working with National Semi-Conductor

Creighton

Forward Progress

Here at Nebraska Beta, the semester has been marked by a renewed effort toward our alumni. In a conscious effort to recognize alumni, our chapter set up the first alumni versus undergraduates football game. The alumni won the hotly contested game despite some controversy. However, more important than the game itself was the warm feeling of brotherhood and camaraderie at the post game barbecue. At the barbecue, we spoke of our fraternal experiences and told captivating stories. Overall, the game and barbecue were activities that both alumni and undergraduates wish to make a tradition.

At Creighton, Phi Psi athletics again dominates the scene. During the softball season, the top Phi Psi team was ranked in the top 10 during the whole season, while the other two fraternity teams were close in contention. Currently, the Fraternity's favorite sport, football, is in full swing. The Phi Psi I team is showing signs of again returning to the final eight of the whole University. Meanwhile, the feared Death Squad has been pummeling opponents into the turf. The other Phi Psi teams have showed constant improvement despite their rigorous schedule.

This fall has also brought our chapter some fine pledges: Chad Beck, Waukesha, WI; James Hansen, Brookfield, WI; Matt Knoblauch, Omaha; Jon Meier, Stillwater, MN; Dave Sampson, Kansas City, MO; and Tim Sullivan, Manhattan Beach, CA.

Brent Blume, Correspondent

Delaware

Fall 1991 has come and gone, and we here at Delaware Alpha are looking to 1992 with optimism and enthusiasm. We have arranged a plan with the National Fraternity to eliminate our outstanding payables and will soon be in the clear. We are also examining our rush and recruiting methods with a critical eye. We hope to develop an on-going program of membership to gather more quality men under the banner of Phi Kappa Psi. More men will, of course, assist us in another major goal — securing group housing. Any suggestions from either undergraduates or alumni would be most welcome.

Our plans for Founders Day are in the works. We welcome area alumni of all chapters to contact us for details. You may contact Chapter President Christopher Ulp at Phi Kappa Psi, 401 Academy, University of Delaware, Newark, DE 19711, or call (302) 453-0720.

Max Borenstein, Correspondent

DePauw

Continued Success

The 1991 rush for Indiana Alpha was a tremendous success. We pledged 26 fine young men from many locations across the United States. With the addition of our three spring pledges, this brings our pledge total to 29. It was a great rush, and we congratulate our rush chairmen Lath Keller, Chris Taylor and Brad Smith.

Our 26 new pledges are: Chris Benne, Springfield, OH; Jerry Block, Salt Lake City, UT; Scott Carter, Fairfield, CT; Tyson Cornell, Lincolnshire, IL; Mike Cornell, Evanston, IL; Erik Elsea and Ryan Meyer, Newburgh; John Harmann (legacy) and Colin Warren, Cincinnati, OH; Derek Hedin, Mt. Vernon, IL; Brent Johnson, Gatlinburg, TN; Bob Kannaka, St. Charles, IL; Van Kendall, Dallas, TX; Matt Kreutz, Lake Forest, IL; Denny Lee, Tulsa, OK; Todd Mazzier, Evansville; Daniel McConnell, Hendersonville, TN (legacy); Chris Oler, Richmond; Ted Refkin, Munster; Sam Schaefer, Marion, MA; Steve Sentany and Michael Wallace, Indianapolis; Brad Spencer, Kirkwood, MO; David Sternfield, Sylvania, OH; and Andy Ward, Glen Carbon, IL.

During DePauw's alumni weekend, many alumni returned for the festivities, and Phi Psi had a great symposium thanks to Greg Brubaker. Alumni, undergrads and pledges had a chance to catch up on old times and to talk of great times to come.

Michael McConnell, Correspondent

Dickinson

At this year's very successful Homecoming weekend, Penn Zeta alumni had the opportunity to see a new look as we have moved to a new house on 448 West High Street. The turnout of alumni was tremendous. Brothers from as far back as the 1950s came back to a reception held at the house, where they had a chance to see old friends on reminisce about good times. Thanks goes out Ken DeGroot, Derek Hopper, Scott Mackey, Douglas Berlin, Walter Stanton and Peter Hilton-Kingdon for their donations to the chapter. We also extend thanks to Brothers Doernbach and Price for continued support as chapter advisors.

The brothers have been busy with many school-related and extracurricular activities. We cleaned a Carlisle soup kitchen and raised over $100 for Pop Warner Football with a raffle of the Homecoming football.

Our chapter is thriving in athletics as well with four varsity lacrosse players and varsity volleyball player. Three brothers are continuing their studies abroad: David Lashway is in Italy, and Andrew Shea and John Barbee are in Russia.

We are proud to announce our new initiates: Mark Anthony, Pittsburgh; James Burnett, Westchester; Chad Chirico, Webster, NY; Shannon Dolte, Huntingdon; Allen Eastlack, Woodbury, NJ; James Hixson, East Lansing, MI; Brent Houle, Minneapolis, MN; Philip McClellan, York; William Shepard, Princeton, NJ; and Robert Wallace, Altoona.

Duke

North Carolina Alpha has had a great fall semester of brotherhood.

President Harry Weller and Vice President Mike Fritz steered a steady path for us, guiding us to a successful semester all around. Rush went well, as rush chairmen John Wry, Eric Levitan and Mike Lessick motivated the rest of the brothers to go out and find the few good men that would make welcome additions to our Fraternity. This year's group could be our best yet.

On October 26, a few brothers made the trip down to the coast to be present as the Eastern Carolina University Phi Kappa Psi colony became North Carolina Beta. Those that went were impressed with the ceremony and had a great time as well.

Homecoming November 1 was enjoyed by all, as we were happy to see many of the alumni back to relive their old Duke Phi Kappa Psi days. Undergraduates learned that perhaps there was life after college and that the ties to the fraternity don't end after graduation.

Our fraternity has continued its commitment to community involvement in Durham by sending brothers to a local elementary school to tutor and play with the kids, a project headed by Andrew Cooper. We also put on a Halloween party for Durham kids where it was actually difficult to tell whether it was the kids or the brothers who were having more fun.

East Carolina

Long Strange Trip

A long strange trip it was, and are we glad to have made it! With the installation of our chapter, North Carolina Beta is looking to dispel the myth that a new chapter experiences let downs after the struggle to earn a charter. With the installation behind us, we can now concentrate on continuing our progress.

Study hall and tutorial programs have made it easy to attain the highest GPA among the fraternities on our campus. We also established an award for achievement in academics in honor of our late colony brother, Kamal H. Patel, who passed away in September.

The brothers of Pennsylvania Xi at Edinboro gather together after an all-day car wash fund raiser.

Intramurally, we have had a great year reaching the play-offs in football, volleyball, basketball, bowling and softball.

We would like to thank the brothers of Virginia Zeta, New York Beta, Pennsylvania Pi, New York Eta, Kentucky Beta, Illinois Delta, Pennsylvania Lambda and Tennessee Epsilon for all the great times and hospitality last semester.

With the sunset on a wonderful semester, we all look forward to this semester — our first full semester as a chapter of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity — and to upholding the proud tradition.

Mike Kennedy, Correspondent

Eastern New Mexico

Fall was been a busy semester for all the brothers here at New Mexico Alpha. We began the semester by landscaping the front yard and renovating our living room. Our "Phi Psi Fiesta" rush party was a tremendous success, and we received many compliments on the house. We initiated five new brothers into our growing chapter last semester. We then focused our attention on philanthropies, which included Pick-Up Portales, Project Literacy U.S., The Community as an Extended Family Program and the Baptist Children's Home. Intramurals were a success as we made the playoffs in soccer and volleyball. For the third consecutive year, the Phi Psi float won "most beautiful" in the Homecoming parade.

We appreciate the donations made by Larry Bell, Ray Vincent and Jim Dyke. Our retreat in Santa Fe with the New Mexico Alumni Association was terrific, thanks to all who attended.

We are very proud of our new pledges. What they lack in number, they more than make up for in quality. They are Chad Church, Plymouth; Rick Green, Martha's Vineyard, MA; Scott Serra, Rocky Point, NY; Vince Marin, Albuquerque; Ryan Lynch, Los Alamos; Chad Merrick, Clouderoft; and Khalid Al-Ahmad, Rhiyad, Saudi Arabia.

Russell E. Baker, Correspondent

Edinboro

The brothers of Penn Xi are glad to report that our rebuilding is well under way. Although we are losing eight brothers to graduation this year, they will not be forgotten.

This spring looks good for us. We may finally have a house for '92-'93 if we can just get our foot in the door this spring. We have also been very involved across the board this semester. We are helping to revise the IFC constitution, we helped with the building of Billings Park playground, campus clean up and the blood drive. Now we are involved in intramural football with Tim Boyd as captain leading a three and four record.

On to other things. Last year's Founders Day was a success. This year's is in the planning and yet T.B.A. Rush was also successful. We have five promising men. Homecoming also went well. The theme was Children's Toys, and we placed fifth of 14 floats with our G.I. Joe tank.

In closing, we would like to give a big THANK YOU to Mike Sita, Edinboro '84, for all of his help and support this semester. Also, brothers of Penn XI, keep in touch. We want to hear from you!

New Brothers: Paul A. Trani, Craig A Miller and Dennis E. Waldinger.

Daniel Murawski, Correspondent

Florida State

Florida Alpha has been working to create a closer relationship with our alumni. Alumni Relations Chairman Tom Baran held a '50s style dance and date function. His committee has also worked hard on creating a newsletter for Florida Alpha alumni. We are in the process of creating a more extensive and better organized mailing list to keep our alumni better informed of future events. We have been very pleased by the brothers who have returned to visit us this semester. During the weekend of the Florida State-Michigan football game numerous alumni joined us at our house to cheer on the 'Noles. A week later we also had a strong showing of alumni for the FSU-Syracuse game. We are very pleased by the hearty interest recent graduates are showing in their chapter.

This fall, we have 24 good men pledged: Brian Anderson, Boise, ID; Taylor Benson, Loxahatchee; William Catoggio, Malden, MA; Leonard Chapman II, Virginia Beach, VA; Jeffrey Cole, Irving, TX; Terry Crowder and Robert

Michael, Naples; Todd Deus, Indian Harbor; Gentry Fry, Rodolfo Garcia, Wilfredo Gil and Adel Gomez, Miami; Benjamin Grizzle, Grange City; Michael Hatmaker, Safety Harbor; Derek Kurnitsky, West Palm Beach; John Kutch II, Clearwater; William Mauldin and Christopher Sullivan, Jacksonville; James Page, Vero Beach; Jason Palmer, Tallahassee; Keith Weber, Martinez, GA; Neil Folgate and Steve Ochocki, West Palm Beach; Dennis deZeeuw, Altamonte Springs.

Jason Joseph, Correspondent

Franklin & Marshall

Penn Eta has moved! Over the summer, several brothers got together, packed up the composites and relocated to our new place at 535 West Frederick. We extend an invitation to any Phi Psis who would like to visit the new place. In other news, Nils Gokemeijer has been named president of the crew team, Bill Whymark is the vice president of the RHA and Dan Hoff has returned from his semester study in Scotland.

Phi Psi is making its presence known on campus. Bill Whymark is a Resident Assistant, and Marc Chalpin and T.J. Maccagnan are Academic Assistants. Dan Kessler and Todd Thorsen are editors of the College Reporter. Nils Gokemeijer, Ray Weicker and Rick Rivers are on the crew team. Jon Gilman is the defending individual archery champion, and Phi Psi won intramural track last year.

Penn Eta is still looking for a permanent home. Recently, the old Phi Sigma Kappa house was put up for sale. Due to lack of interest by the Lancaster community, this house can be purchased very cheaply. Any alumni interested should contact Ray Weicker at (717) 295-9801.

Finally, we offer congratulations to our brothers at Bucknell. We enjoyed participating in their initiation in October.

Marc Chalpin, Correspondent

George Washington

Fall 1991 marked the one year anniversary of our return to George Washington University as a chapter of Phi Kappa Psi. We continue to grow here in the nation's capital with the recruitment of nine pledges. Also, we continue to work with the University and the IFC to develop and implement a campus-wide risk management policy.

All alumni in the DC area are encouraged to contact us for information on Founders Day. Please contact Chapter President Paul Hegerty at (202) 994-9592 or write to Phi Kappa Psi, Marvin Center Box 2, George Washington University, Washington, DC 20052.

Josh Nordstrom, Correspondent

Georgia

Looking Forward

The summer months saw the safe and welcome return of Chris Gilbert, Georgia '89, and Scott Coulter, Georgia '83, from the Persian Gulf. It also brought zest to the chapter. A successful fall rush brought seven good men into pledgeship at the chapter: Jason Means, Jonathan Spencer, Nick Triandos, Max Couch, Robert MacAfee, Chris

SAN FRANCISCO

SUMMER '92

Dear Bob,

I just got the word on the Phi Psi convention in San Francisco and immediately thought of you. Let's get together  in San Francisco for the Grand Arch Council!

San Francisco is a great spot for a vacation in itself, but the GAC offers the opportunity  to meet Phi Psis from all over and to renew our ties to our Fraternity. Mull it over; talk to your wife. You can either leave the kids or pack them up and bring them along. It's early enough — there's still time to plan. Anyway, think about it and get back to me. Hope to see you in San Francisco!

Amici,

Dave...
Dave Anderson

Final Session and Closing Gavel

SAN FRANCISCO wears her past like medals of honor. Reminders are everywhere — in the four-foot thick adobe walls of Mission Dolores, in the fortifications of the Presidio on the southern shore of the Golden Gate, in the hitching post at California and Leidesdorff Streets, and in the bronze plaque marking the original shoreline at Market and First Streets.

The first California Gold Rush was in 1849, and now there's another rush in 1992. And Phi Psi's biennial conference is taking it to the edge, to the waterfront — The Embarcadero.

Chinatown — Explore the labyrinth of exotic shops under the benevolent gaze of gilded dragons and stone lions. Following lunch in the Plaza Restaurant overlooking Union Square, wend your way back to the hotel via some of the finest shoppes — Macy's, Saks Fifth Avenue, Nieman Marcus, Gucci, Nordstrom and others.

Phi Psi and Family Fun

The Horn Blower — White linens and gleaming brass. Blue water and golden horizon. Fine friends and fellowship. As the sun sets on the water, Phi Kappa Psi will just be starting. The welcome reception will be held, fittingly, afloat on the bay, surrounded by fresh sea air and beautiful views of the city.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES FOR GUESTS

SPOUSES, CHILDREN and FRIENDS have the added opportunity to enjoy the activities planned by natives of the Bay Area. Local alumni have selected favorite sites and organized fun, casual, relaxing activities to get the most out of your stay in California's grand city, San Francisco. Special thanks to the Host Committee for its work in planning the Guest Program.

Chinatown
Union Square
Trolley Tours
Sausalito
Ghiradelli Square
Twin Peaks
Fisherman's Wharf
Wine Country

The Wine Country — Experience the tastes, sights and sounds of America's premier wine country. In recent years, California has adapted the best of French wines and cuisines to its own vintage tastes. It has been argued that both the Napa Valley and Sonoma's Valley of the Moon have surpassed the south of France as the world's leading producers of quality wines.

Order of S.C. — The Marines' Memorial Club is host to the 36th meeting of the Ancient Order of S.C. With its proximity to the Presidio, the Club sponsors many formal banquets for military organizations each year and will be a most suitable host.

66th Grand Arch Council

Delegates

Each chapter should immediately elect three Grand Arch Council delegates — two undergraduates and one alumnus. Alumni Associations in good standing are entitled to three GAC delegates. Credential forms for delegates will be mailed to each group in the spring and should be filed at the Fraternity Headquarters.

Committees

Brothers attending the Grand Arch Council are encouraged to take an active role in the work of a committee for it is here that the Fraternity's agenda for the next two years is developed. Please be sure to note your committee preference on the registration form. The several committees are: State of the Fraternity, Constitution, Finance, Extension, Membership, Scholarship, Alumni Affairs, Fraternity Education and Publications.

Registration Fee

The registration fee is $130 for undergraduates and $150 for alumni. The fees increase by $20 for those register after June 30. The fee is non-refundable, but it is transferable to another attendee.

Guests Program

There is no set registration fee for the Guests Program — individual activities are priced separately. Consider it a buffet from which you may pick and choose the events in which you wish to participate. Many thanks to Dick Ong, co-chairman of the GAC Host Committee, for his diligent efforts in the making the 66th GAC a success.

Hotel Reservations

Reservations for the Grand Arch Council may be placed by calling 1-800-233-1234 or (415) 788-1234. Be sure to identify yourself as a member of Phi Kappa Psi and to specify the Hyatt Regency at Embarcadero Center.

Room rates are $120 per night for a single or double and $130 per night for a triple or quad. This is a savings of more than 50 percent off the normal rates!

Transportation

United Airlines is providing special discounts to our members and guests attending the GAC. Arrangements for these fares may be made through Sycamore Travel by calling 1-800-423-7622. Again, be sure to identify yourself as a Phi Psi heading for San Francisco.

If you prefer trains to planes, Wisconsin Alpha Colony Advisor Mike McCoy has arranged rail transportation to San Francisco via the California Zephyr. Roundtrip coach fare is $248, which will drop if the group exceeds 15. Departure is from Chicago's Union Station on Monday, July 27 at 3:55 pm, and return departure is scheduled for Sunday, August 2 at 10:05 am. For more information, write to: Mike McCoy, One Hiawatha Circle, Madison, WI 53711.

Morgan and Greg Chambers. Two men were also initiated: Stephen Edwards and Ken Smith.

The brothers of Georgia Alpha would like to thank Brother Coulter for his $500 donation to our chapter. All other Georgia Alphans are challenged to meet this generous gift. We also extend our gratitude to Scott's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Dwight B. Coulter, for the furniture they donated to the chapter this past summer.

With a new, streamlined membership, Georgia Alpha looks forward to a prosperous future, which will be just reward for the dedication and hard work of all chapter members.

Gettysburg

The Pennsylvania Epsilon Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi is proud to have hosted a successful alumni weekend for Homecoming. It was a great turnout by alumni of all ages, ranging from the 1940s through the 1990s. We got a chance to talk about how things used to be and how things are now. One thing we all learned is the chapter is much stronger when the alumni and undergraduates work together for the continued existence of Pennsylvania Epsilon at a college that has a questionable future planned for the Greek system.

On the athletic scene, Phi Psi is well represented in a variety of sports this fall. Bob Keltie, Jason Smith and Jamie Grubb are all active players on the rugby team. Tim Walsh, Buff Keillor, Stu Bereton, T.J. Kozelka and Mike Bieda are in training for the upcoming swim season, and Trip Scott and Jake Blackford have started wrestling season. Our lone lacrosse player, Ross Park, played fall ball to prepare for this season. Finally, Jeff Rees plays on the varsity soccer team, which has an outstanding record this year.

To all those alumni who made it back this year, it was good to meet and talk with you. To all those who did not, we look forward to seeing you next year or whenever you are in the neighborhood. The brotherhood of Pennsylvania Epsilon welcomes you anytime.

Illinois

Continued Success

The fall semester began with our annual Chapter conclave. The day-long retreat featured small group discussions on a variety of topics and guest speakers from the university. The afternoon was capped off with the initiation of 14 new brothers.

Dave Buetow and John Schleiter work with the university as Student Ambassadors, Matt Pensinger and Brian Von Bergen are sports writers for the Daily Illini; Hans Bjorkman is involved with Volunteer Illini Football Recruiting; and Mike Gill and Adam Klauder are members of the lacrosse team.

Congratulations are in order to our hard-working officers for the fall semester. They are: Dave Buetow, GP; Matt Pensinger, VGP; Derek Andersen, External-VGP; Bill Chepell, P; Steve Flattery, AG; Tim Hogan, BG; Brian Roraff, SG; Rod O'Connor, Hod; Dan Baroni, Phu Mike Gill, Hi; Tony Nowak, Fraternity Educator. Congratulations are also in order for our newly initiated brothers: Ed Shurna and Chris Varias, Oak Park; Jim Sullivan, LaGrange; Joe Reese, Willowbrook; Dan Asnis and Al Morales, Chicago; Kevin Bastuga, Downers Grove; Jim Chittaro, Kildeer; Geof Flury, Naperville; Rob Federighi, Addison; Don Gorr, Arlington Heights; Kevin Harding, Inverness; Russ Rediker, Wayside, NJ; and Rob Richardson, Aurora. We also welcome our fall pledges: Jim Abbott, St. Charles; Joe Buckley, Riverside; Chris Burroughs and Krys Kling, Aurora; Gino Campanelli, Jamie Krzeminski and Tim Petrbock, Addison; Dan Emrich, Flagstaff, AZ; Marc Erpenbeck, Edgewood, KY; Scott Gifford, Long Grove; Dan Kelly, St. Charles; Mark Kiley, LaGrange Park; Jeff Laurinaitis, Oak Lawn; Tim Meana, Wayne; Joe Mulcrone, Berwyn; Eric Olrickson, Long Grove; Mike Petros, River Forest; Jon Pivoney, Matteson; Mark Rath, Tinley Park; Dmitry Shapiro, Buffalo Grove; Victor Teran, Burr Ridge; Magnus Weitekammer, Lincolnshire; Charlie Zosel, Hawthorn Woods.

Illinois State

Building a Strong Future

This academic year began with a new perspective for Illinois Epsilon. With the assistance of our housing corporation, we moved to a new location overlooking the south central area of campus. Construction workers completed extensive renovations resulting in a beautiful new chapter room complete with a fireplace. The hallways are newly recarpeted and freshly painted, and the living areas are targeted for a facelift in the upcoming year. We have also set up an alumni fund to ensure that Illinois Epsilon will be able to build and own our house sometime in the near future. In addition to the dramatic changes in our housing, we have made similar changes academically. We posted the third highest GPA of all fraternities, moving up from seventeenth, and we are maintaining the fifth highest cumulative GPA on campus.

As with academics, rush has always been a major topic of discussion in our chapter and on our campus. Our IFC is looking to restructure the rush format, and what better way to do it than with the help of Mark Kadetsky, Trenton State '90, who is the newly-elected IFC rush chairman. Mark is currently attending Illinois State through the National Student Exchange program and is a welcomed addition to our membership.

Timothy P. Curtin, Correspondent

Indiana

Continuing Tradition

The Brothers of Indiana Beta are continuing the tradition of excellence on campus. This year's Homecoming Court included one Phi Psi, Chris Proctor. Chris was crowned King and received a $1,000 scholarship for his achievement. Jim Hunnicut recently received the Pullman Scholarship from The Indianapolis Star.

On campus, Phi Psi has increased its already strong involvement in many activities. Currently serving are: Kevin Daley, V.P. of Academic Affairs, Chad Gretzma, Director of Special Events, and Justin Rickard, Director of Media, all on the Student Alumni Council. Steve Letke serves on Indiana University Student Foundation's steering committee. Philanthropy Chairman Andy Meeks and his committee have also contributed to our community through raising money for a band that promotes drug free youth locally and nationally. The philanthropy committee is currently gearing up for the 7th Annual Greek Cup soccer tournament.

On the intramural front, all volleyball teams remain undefeated. Ric Huffman has paddled his way to the finals in the ping-pong tournament. Dave Jolly has rolled over many opponents in the billiards tournament.

Many enthusiastic alumni were on hand for Homecoming. The third edition of The Beta Gazette, Indiana Beta's alumni newsletter, was sent out to update alumni on chapter activities.

Our fall pledges are: Joe Alberts, St. Joseph, MI; Jim Bridenstine and Steve Trautman, Carmel; John Brosnan, Shorewood, IL; Pete Catalano, Glen Ellyn, IL; Scott Glickson, Highland Park, IL; Allan Hansen, Chesterfield, MO; Travis Hart, New Albany; Jay Hoy, Elkhart; Carl Kahlfeldt, Niles, IL; Marcus Mak, Singapore; Mike Martin, Indianapolis; Dan Morrison, Grand Rapids, MI; Chip Norcross, Macomb, IL; Matt Pavledakes, N. Andover, MA; Chris Roberts, Lake Zurich, IL; Ken Roedel, Brookfield, WI; legacy Dave Schmelzer, Prospect, KY; Dave Slachta and Rob Twitchell, Ft. Wayne; Mike Talierno, Rochester Hills, MI; Gregg Thompson, Green Oaks, IL; Dave Vance, Columbus, OH.

Indiana-Pennsylvania

Back On Top

This semester is off to a great start for the brothers of Pa Nu. We once again have obtained the highest overall GPA among the fraternities on campus. Our overall GPA was even higher than the all male average. Phil Matson is back after serving in the Persian Gulf. We are all glad that he is back safe.

Homecoming this year was a great success. We had 37 alumni in attendance, and great time was enjoyed by all. With the help of Tri-Sigma Sorority, we placed ninth with our Winnie the Pooh float. It has been eight years since we have placed at Homecoming.

By standing on campus with buckets, in one week we have raised $525 for the Alice Paul House, a shelter for battered women.

We are writing the history of Pa Nu. Bert Smith, Nebraska '39, past chapter advisor for 20 years, is writing his recollections of Pa Nu. Anyone with information on Pa Nu's history, please send it.

Five men were initiated into the mysteries of our fraternity. They are: John Hallam, Cumberland, MD; Greg Herczeg, Allentown; Ed Rieland, Pittsburgh; Rob Thumm, Washington; and Sergio Sfakianikis, Athens, Greece. Eight men have pledged this fall. They are: Brian Croup, Wexford; Robert Chester III, Bensalem; Todd Jasziz, Broomall; John Kelly, Royersford; Richard Ramsey, Ebensburg; Eric Rothhoff, Pittsburgh; Jeff Shay, Pottsville; and Chris Wolf, Lititz.

Indiana State

Since Indiana Eta became a chapter in 1987, it has not yet focused enough time and effort toward alumni relations. These past two years as Indiana Eta concentrated on building a stronger brotherhood, more emphasis was placed on alumni relations. Mark Fisher, a prominent alumnus of Indiana Eta, is our elected spokesman to the alumni in the surrounding area of Indiana. Along with Mark, there is a newsletter sent periodically to the alumni informing them of the chapter's status and upcoming events. This year the alumni were an inspiration in showing us their support in the one special event that happened with the pairing of Gamma Phi Beta, Theta Chi and Phi Psi, which won first place in Homecoming Sweepstakes at Indiana State University. As Indiana Eta becomes stronger in the '90s, communication is going to play an important part with our alumni.

William J. Hayes, Correspondent

Iowa

I would like to begin this letter with a hello and thank you to all of the alumni who returned to Iowa Alpha for Homecoming this year. Your support helped make the week one of the most successful Homecomings of recent memory. The festivities included a pig roast, tailgater and a victory celebration with a sorority and their alumnae after the Hawks beat the Illini. But nothing could have capped the event quite like having Kyle Carstensen win the Homecoming talents competition with his stirring rendition of the James Brown classic, It's a Man's World.

Iowa Alpha is proud to welcome new initiate Tyler Penniman. This fall also saw the pledging of Thomas Lonning, John Grimm, Chad DeLaria, Matthew K. Howell, A. Kemler Wood, Todd Robertson, Corydon Coppola and William Annexstad of Des Moines; Douglas Zimmerman of Atlanta; Bill Barnes and Nathan Swanson of Cedar Rapids; Michael Barinek of Park Ridge; J.J. Herd of Muscatine; Frank Sackett of Okoboji; and Michael Ketelsen of Ames.

Last semester saw many achievements, including first place finishes in golf and soccer tournaments and once again reaching the playoffs in football. This year's recipients of the Solon E. Summerfield Award and the Brotherhood and Service Award are Owen Kloster and Michael Downing, respectively. Congratulations to both; we wish all of you the best of luck in '92.

Iowa State

Alumni Make a Strong Comeback

At Iowa Beta, we are rebuilding. One important step in this process is getting our alumni involved in the chapter again. We have gotten the Cyclone Phi Psi, our alumni newsletter, back in circulation. This was made possible through the hard work of Tom Blyth, corporation board president, Burns Davison III and Brad Chapulis. We had a strong turnout at our Homecoming. Approximately 50 alumni and their families showed up for a pregame tailgate and post-game barbecue. We feel that this year's Homecoming was a positive step in getting our alumni reinvolved here at Iowa Beta. We thank Brother Blyth and the rest of the corporation board for all their help and support.

In keeping with Iowa Beta tradition, our Founders Day celebration will be a pizza party on February 19; all alumni are welcome. Please contact the chapter for more details. Iowa Beta welcomes our new pledges: John Allen, Marshalltown; John Fairbairn, Northbrook, IL; Chris Kuzmenko, Park Ridge, IL; Steve Langon, Ryan Rikkels and Craig Schmadeke, Waterloo; Carl Makerer, Princeton, NJ; Kevin Mally, Chicago, IL; Matt Mayberry (legacy), Brookfield, WI; Jesse Reynolds, Muscatine; Jason Rice, Omaha, NE; Matt Thomason, Peoria, IL; and Mike Wallis, Burnsville, MN.

Johns Hopkins

It's Ours Now

The brothers of Maryland Alpha returned in the fall to fill our beloved chapter house. With the mortgage paid off, major house improvements are planned, including new windows and doors. The alumni bought us a new stove, which is now under the command of our new cook. Alumni, come share a meal!

We offer our congratulations to Steven Chong, our latest Summerfield Scholar and bon journo to Chuck Green who is overseas this year.

The 1991 Phi Psi 500 was a tremendous success as we raised $2,000 for Santa Claus Anonymous, a Baltimore charity that helps needy children during the holidays. Phi Psi also performed well during the fall intramural season under the able leadership of Mike Kedansky.

Maryland Alpha overcame provincialism by hosting D.C. Alpha for the 500, initiating Penn Gamma with other area chapters and hosting a mixer with Alpha Gamma Delta of Towson State University together with the brothers of Maryland Beta.

Newly initiated brothers are: William Bock, Larchmont, NY; John Collins, San Pedro, CA; Robert Creager, Walkersville; Scott Eastburn, Clinton, MS; Rotem Elgavish, Hoover, AL; Christopher Hickey, Baltimore; Eric Leonard, Wyckoff, NJ; Sudarshan Narisimhan, Flemington, NJ; Michael Sabadish, Swoyersville, PA; Mark Tramontozzi, Mahwah, NJ; and Geoffry Wise, Bowie.

Kentucky

Continuing the Progress

Several major events are going on at 447 Columbia Avenue this semester. Mike Fitzpatrick and Will Nash are studying abroad in Australia and Europe. We've also recently dedicated our chapter in honor of our eternal Brother Bill Mahan as a tribute to his love and friendship.

The annual March of Dimes Jail-N-Bail was a huge success, raising over $16,000. Brothers participated as bailiffs, drivers, police and clerks, compiling over 280 man-hours. Another major event for the semester is the founding of the Phi Psi Mothers Club. We greatly appreciate these fine ladies and all their help and support. Our annual Haunted House was held on October 30 - 31 and was a great success.

The Phi Psis are just as active on the campus as always. Brother Ingle is a member of CASC and a Student Government Association senator. Brother Elhenicky is also serving as a senator; Brother Gumm serves on the Student Organizations Assembly; and Brother Payne is a writer for the campus newspaper.

Homecoming took place November 2; it was a great time with the alumni and an exciting football game. Parents Day on September 28 was also a huge success. Brothers and pledges worked side by side on October 19 during Rent-A-Phi Psi while raking leaves and cleaning windows. We would like to thank the area alumni for participating, and we personally thank Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Shumate for their generous contribution to the chapter.

New brothers as of August 24 are Matt Wunder, Joe McCord, Reid Yanchar, Kevin Tucker, Terry Netherton, Jason Baber, James Catron, Tristram West and Shea Chaney. Our pledges from fall are: DeWayne Day and Thomas Dennison, Lexington; Todd Raderer and Jonathon Stoyanoff, Louisville; Stephen Hagan, Chris Hamilton and David Wink, Owensboro; Jason Barlow and Brian Mackey, Elizabethtown; Heath Watson, Madisonville; Joseph Robbins, Hardinsburg; Steven Kelsey, Jamestown; Jed Jones, Upton; John Haughton, Ashland; Jeff Davidson, Chris Gagner, Peter Pandilidis Jr. and Brian Willis, Ohio; Mark Lindborg, Illinois; and Jon Slowinski, North Carolina.

Lafayette

This past autumn, our Alumni Relations Committee rejuvenated its efforts to increase the contact between our alumni and undergraduate brotherhood. Led by Chairman George Haines, the committee encouraged brothers to call alumni from their area when they went home for Fall Break. This action was found to be positive as old ties with alumni were renewed.

In the past few years, alumni support and interest in the chapter has increased. This year, the alumni association has helped to redecorate two of the main meeting rooms in the house. The changes were immediately noticed by many visitors. The undergraduates appreciate the association's willingness to assist in the improvement of the house.

On October 12 and 13, we had our Homecoming Weekend where the theme was the 20th anniversary of the moving of the "Old Grey Barn." This was a large success in that not only was the brotherhood able to relish in Lafayette winning an exciting football game, but it was enjoyable to see old faces venture back to the house.

We recently had the third annual scholarship dinner, which recognized brothers from each class for the highest GPA and most improved GPA. The dinner also presented the opportunity for brothers to interact with faculty members outside the typical classroom setting.

Kansas Alpha's Grand Re-Opening

by Jon A. Blongewicz, Kansas '78

John A. Tikwart, Kansas '88

On October 19, 1991, the Kansas Alpha Chapter dedicated its recently renovated and greatly expanded chapter house in Lawrence, Kansas. The dedication ceremony was the culmination of over six years of fund raising, architectural planning and construction.

Hundreds of alumni and family returned to Lawrence for Homecoming and a tour of the beautiful new facility. While renewing old ties, the brothers were amazed at the transformation of the house. In addition to completely redoing the previous chapter house, an additional two-story wing was added, connected to the existing structure by a one-story dining room and gathering hall, which opens onto an enclosed patio.

The completed facility is approximately 32,000 square feet in area and is the largest fraternity structure at the University of Kansas. The house is now home to 88 undergraduates, housed in 44 two-man studying rooms. The goal of the project planners was to end the cramped living of four men per room, in order to provide a better and safer place to live and study.

In addition to the new dining room, the expanded house includes a state of the art kitchen, a computer room and two libraries. In place of the old dining room, now are study rooms for various disciplines such as journalism, art and engineering. The basement remodeling also includes an office for chapter officers, a bicycle storage room, a weight room and laundry room. Other amenities include a University computer connection and telephone connection for each occupant as well as parking for everyone. A complete fire alarm and sprinkler system throughout the house ensures the safety of the men. After spending the past year in University apartments, the undergraduate chapter was thrilled to move into this beautiful facility.

At the dedication ceremony, Larry Winn Jr., Kansas '38, a former United States Congressman and one of the driving forces of the project from its inception, spoke of the incredible effort and generosity that went into completing the fraternity house. Congressman Winn acknowledged the donations or pledges from 430 Kansas Alpha alumni. He singled out for special recognition the outstanding generosity of four special brothers — Clarence W. Coleman, Kansas '29, $500,000, John P. Ward II, Kansas '59, $500,000, Paul K.

The renovated Kansas Alpha Chapter house, the product of over six years of fund raising, houses 88 men in 44 two-man study rooms and is the largest fraternity housing structure at the University of Kansas.

Brooker, Kansas '28, $400,000, and William H. Ellis, Kansas '42, $200,000. In addition to his generosity, John Ward received recognition for his years of fund raising and involvement in the planning and construction as one of the project managers, along with Congressman Winn. Ward, Winn and former national President John K. Boyd III, Kansas '59, spearheaded the years of fund raising necessary to complete this $2.4 million project.

Special recognition was given to Richard A. Davenport, Kansas '56, for his interior design work, which transformed the house into a showcase, and James Kerwin, Iowa '64, a Kansas City restaurateur who assisted in designing the new kitchen. Thanks were also extended to the Kansas Alpha Endowment Association and House Corporation members for their years of work, and the Phi Psi Mothers Club, a valuable organization that contributed time and money to making the project and the dedication ceremony a reality. In attendance was Phi Psi Executive Director Terry Harper, Oklahoma State '85, who called the new chapter house the most beautiful in Phi Psi.

Congressman Winn noted that although Kansas Alpha has reached its goal by providing for the undergraduate members a safe environment, conducive to personal health and scholastic achievement for now and into the 21st century, he stated that the project was not completely done. There remains an outstanding bank loan of $350,000, which was necessary to complete construction and to furnish the new house. Continued and additional financial support from Kansas Alphans is needed. There were many alumni who have not yet been heard from, Winn said. The Kansas Alpha Endowment Association and House Corporation remain dedicated to collecting the unpaid pledges and further raising funds to retire the bank loan and establish a permanent maintenance and scholarship fund to ensure the long term protection of the property and the continuation of the long and illustrious history of Kansas Alpha.

Lehigh

Greetings from Penn Omicron. Last semester was somewhat hard on us. We had to work through some financial problems, which seem to be straightened out now, and we have each had our extra share of work due to our low numbers. Alumni support has been good. Our founder, Bob Lubus, Lehigh '85, has paid a visit or two, and many other alumni have shown up at various times during the semester. Lehigh-Lafayette weekend was the usual blast as we had a fair number of brothers visiting from other chapters.

We are looking forward to the return of Rob Johnson this semester, returning for his last semester after taking the fall off. Last year's graduates are out in the business world now, as none took the option of going to graduate school. Rob Lentini won a national Phi Psi grant for his outstanding achievements when he was here at Lehigh.

We hope to hear from more alumni soon. For any alumni who don't know, our phone number has been changed to 882-0939.

The Excellence Continues

Picking up where we left off last spring, the fall semester started off with a bang at our annual summer retreat. Held at James Bragg's lake house in Ferriday, the retreat was both productive and fun. There we were able to plan our calendar and budget for the upcoming semester while sharing an abundance of brotherhood and good times.

In August, everyone returned to campus and embarked on another successful rush effort. We now have 12 high quality pledges: Gunter Herman,

Above

Alumni donations funded the renovation of the Edgar A. Guest Memorial Library at Michigan Alpha. The chapter held a dedication ceremony at Homecoming, which was attended by alumni and Mrs. Guest.

Chapter President Andrew Fang, Michigan '88, presents John Rexford, Michigan '40, a plaque recognizing his outstanding work in the renovation of the Guest Library.

Estuardo Orantes, Guatemala City, Guatemala; Tim Blackman (legacy), Destrehan; Joe Lucas, Kenneth Kopecky, Metairie; Rob Davenport, LaPlace; Sam Ha, New Orleans; Brandon Goll, Arabi; Dwayne Menard, Broussard; Ryan Booth, Ferriday; Ramin Rastin, Baton Rouge; and Paul Weyant, Black Hawk, CO.

Phi Psi is currently in the process of defending the titles, honors and awards we achieved at LSU last year. On the athletic field we have maintained our dominance. Soon we will begin practice with Delta Delta Delta Sorority as we prepare to defend our first place trophy in Songfest, the annual fraternity-sorority song and dance competition. Plans are also under way to better our third place finish in Homecoming decoration competition.

Louisiana Alpha is very proud of its philanthropic endeavors. Last semester, we sponsored a roller skating party and a Halloween haunted house for underprivileged children. We also caroled with our Songfest partners in a retirement home.

The brothers who attended the Woodrow Wilson Leadership School in August enjoyed the brotherhood and cherish the new friends they made.

Phi Kappa Psi Louisiana Alpha continues to be the measuring rod by which other chapters on campus are measured. We invite all Phi Psis passing through the Baton Rouge area to stop by and visit.

World Champion Twins!

In possibly the greatest World Series ever, the Twins looked awesome and were victorious.

Going from "worst to first" is quite a feat. We at Minnesota Gamma feel the same way about our chapter. Last year, we were low in numbers and were struggling, but this year we are working hard to become larger and better, as we were a couple years ago. Our first step in this process was the recruitment of our seven current pledges. They are: Paul Anderson, Joel Lehman, Jeff Lunde, Tim Randolph, Dave Rothmeyer, Chris Thompson and Dean Thompson.

Homecoming was a blast! For the parade, we teamed up to build a float and had fun with Delta Phi Epsilon. As always, the best part of Homecoming was seeing many alumni again. It was great, and we thank all our alumni who came to Mankato to visit.

Minnesota Gamma has shown that by having the best GPA of all fraternities last quarter and better school, community and Greek relations that it is one the rise. Live ever, die never!

Dale B. Gehring, Correspondent

Maryland, Baltimore County

Last semester brought the brothers of Maryland Beta back to the books from summer's brief respite. We welcomed seven new initiates to our every-growing brotherhood. Our efforts last semester were focused on alumni relations. Baltimore is fertile Phi Psi land, and we set out to do some cultivating. We are proud to announce that our house corporation is up and running, and efforts are continuing to form an alumni association.

Alumni in the Baltimore, we'd love to see you for Founders Day! For information on our plans, please contact Chapter President Brandon Bonanno at Phi Kappa Psi, UMBC University Center, UC

Box 40, 5401 Wilkens Ave., Baltimore, MD 21228.

Is This Place a Zoo?

The agony and ecstasy of Greek Week culminated for the brothers of Ohio Lambda as the puddle pull team dominated the Alpha Delt team to assure an unheard of fourth consecutive Greek Week victory. Brothers Schervish and Hengehold are now the reigning campus tennis doubles champions.

The chapter was represented by nine delegates to the Woodrow Wilson Leadership School, including Brother Kime, who received the Dud Daniel Award for Leadership, and Brother Lockett, the newly-elected Archon of District III. The chapter once again hosted a Phi Psi Regional Workshop on November 9-10.

On campus, Phi Psi is represented by men like Brother Coho, who was selected for membership head of MUSF. The community has benefitted from Ohio Lambda's Downhill Derby, which raised over $2,000 for cystic fibrosis, and the Halloween event with the children of Oxford.

Thanks to all those guys who came back for alumni weekend and showed us how they used to do it. Please remember, the drive for funds is on-going. Parents Weekend also promises to be a good time.

John Priest, Correspondent

Michigan

Returning to campus this fall, the brothers of Michigan Alpha once again saw many renovations around the house. The big story, though, was the renovation of the Edgar A. Guest Memorial Library. Funded by alumni donations, the library was totally redone. A dedication ceremony was held on Homecoming Saturday, attended by both alumni and Mrs. Guest. We would like to thank all who contributed.

Continuing a recently started tradition, we are excited about hosting our alumni and the brothers of Michigan Beta for the banquet on Founders Day. Last year was a big success, and we look forward to another time of sharing stories, songs and good food.

With lots of hard work by philanthropy chairmen Bill Gordon and Darren Schoen, we once again held our annual Haunted House for underprivileged children. In the sports arena, our soccer team finished fifth overall, and our football team moved into the play-offs with an undefeated record. We also had a good showing in track, cross-country and softball.

This fall, our pledge class includes: Gregg Lurcott from Bloomfield; Gary Smith from Cincinnati, OH; Jon Fish from Lexington, MA; Tibor Juhasz from Norwalk, CT; and John McAdow from London, OH. We are looking forward to having them as brothers.

Michigan State

As subarctic winds thunder across our winter stricken campus, the brotherhood of Michigan

Beta remains warm and in high spirits. Unlike our Spartan football team, we are returning from an outstanding fall term that brought about several memorable events.

Under the excellent leadership of GP Mark Anderson and VGP Jay Anderson, we enjoyed much success. Perhaps one of the most successful events was Homecoming. A large turnout of alumni met with undergraduates and indulged in a fine buffet. Much was learned about what our chapter used to be as well as what it is now. We would like to sincerely thank all distinguished alumni for their generous donations and assure them that they will go to good use. Come back any time, brothers.

To share in the holiday spirit, we participated in a canned food drive. Again, success prevailed as large amounts of food were collected for those who needed it.

Fall rush was yet another success as we recruited six fine young gentlemen: Mike Bowman, Troy; Justin Hamer, Novi; Brad Herman, Mt. Clemens; Matt Lurtz, Naperville, IL; Bob Smith, Manistee; and John Todd, Dearborn.

We expect winter term to bring us continued success as we have high expectations for winter rush and a full calendar of events. So long from the brothers of Michigan Beta.

Minnesota

Minnesota Beta invites you to celebrate Founders Day on February 15 at 1609 University Drive SE. A theme, dinner, activities, slide shows, speeches and brotherhood mark the program. If Twin Cities alumni have ideas or want to help, please call 311-7448. Our number one goal for 1992 is improving alumni relations.

We thank brother, friend and Chapter Advisor J.K. Ivey, Texas '80, who left Minnesota to return to Texas. His guidance in chapter affairs is sorely missed. Formal thanks to Neil Anderson, Minnesota '86, and Rhys Parry, Minnesota '86, for their assistance with chapter matters. The National Fraternity has adopted an expanded Chapter Advisory Committee for Phi Psi, and we need local alumni fraternity experts.

Congratulations to our fall initiates: Troy Kalkorf, John Martineau, Jon Bickel, Jeff Kempner and Craig Peterson.

This past fall saw Phi Psi rebound in football to win the intramural class "A" championship. The Phi Psis were led by Marc Hauser, throwing 12 touchdown passes and by a stingy defense, allowing only one touchdown the entire season.

Phi Psi also maintained its dominance in Homecoming by winning awards for house front and athletics.

The fall quarter closed having a philanthropy at the house. Led by Brother Wermus, Phi Psis entertained seven children centers on Halloween along with the help of nine sororities.

Mississippi

Words cannot describe the success of our fall rush. However, the numbers can! We pledged 57 men to our fraternity this semester, representing the most successful rush in years. This success was the result of intense preparation and a tremendous group effort on the part of undergraduates and alumni as well.

As far as alumni are concerned, we have the best! There are those who visit frequently to share old stories and meet new members and then there are those who are not able to be here very much but always take a moment to keep us informed of their endeavors. We pass such information on to others through our Rebel Yell. In the latest edition, we included a 1967 composite and asked alumni to contact us about life after college. The response has been great! Another area in which alumni have been fantastic is in our house renovation project. Our house is in dire need of renovation. Realizing this, alumni have risen to the occasion with generous donations. More and more, renovation is becoming a reality, and without alumni, this would not be possible.

We anticipate a great year ahead. Mississippi Alpha wishes everyone a good new year!

Attaining Excellence

Excitement was in the air as the brothers of the Missouri Alpha Chapter returned to Columbia for the fall semester. Fourteen new brothers were initiated just prior to the semester: Sam Beckman, Hoyt Ogilvie, Mike Coleman, Mike Hanrahan, Grant Guimont, Ian Straub, Steve Velasquez, Andy Knoll, Bill Reiter, Dan Koziatke, J.B. Martin, Mike Cargill, Matt Colton and Eric Bartel.

Thanks to a most generous donation from John Galbraith, Missouri '39, we were able to make several needed repairs to the chapter house. This included the complete renovation of two rooms, recarpeting the first floor of one wing and several other cosmetic improvements.

Our summer rush was an overwhelming success. We welcomed 30 quality men as new pledges. They are: Mike Prather, Russ Talley and Glen Taylor, St. Louis; Matt Brickel, Kirkwood; Brian Rosenkoetter, Manchester; Brad Ozias, Ellisville; Ryan Williams, Chesterfield; Jason Schmelz, St. Peters; Steve Womack, St. Ann; David Garret, Louisiana; Greg Evans, Grover; Jamey Essig, New London; Bill Ellis, Columbia; Matt Smith, Kirksville; Chuck Griswald, Jefferson City; Chuck Lewis, Liberty; Tyler Selby, Kansas City; Kyle Mai and Brian Pratt, Lee's Summit; Vince Imbriani and Sean Schickendeanz, Gladstone; Kevin Enyeart, Blue Springs; legacy Mike Gause, Overland Park, KS; Chris Veilleux, Hunt Valley, MD; John Mummert, Annapolis, MD; Jim Hanke, Granite City, IL; Rich Resa, Alexandria, MN; Brian Egan, Collinsville, IL; Matt Bernsen, Los Angeles, CA; and legacy Chris Erickson, Lansing, MI.

We are still participating in the Blue Ridge Elementary School Volunteer Program. Brothers and pledges donate anywhere from one to six hours per week to the school in classroom and playground duty. We have also adopted a section of highway in the "Adopt a Highway" program through the state of Missouri.

Maintaining the winning tradition, Greg Mudd was chosen overall winner of Zeta Tau Alpha's philanthropy, "All American Man." Our Phi Psi 500 was one of the most successful yet. We raised a profit of over $2,000, which was given to the Columbia Head Start Program.

Coming this spring, we are planning to host an alumni reunion. We will be sending more information as the time draws near. We will also be participating in the university's Greek Week celebration with the women of Alpha Epsilon Phi.

Roger A. Brallier, Correspondent

Monmouth

Fall semester started on an unsteady foot with the college mandating fraternities defer freshman rush and eliminating pledging in favor of a system wherein neophytes are immediately initiated and then participate in a fraternity education program. We continue to work with the administration to gain a clear understanding of its expectations and to convey the policies and policy bases of the Fraternity.

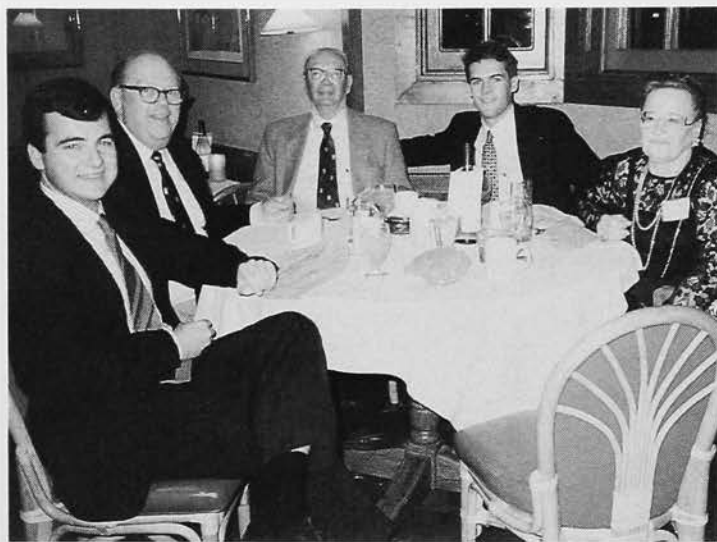

Our philanthropic endeavors last semester include coordinating a volleyball tournament as part of National Collegiate Alcohol Awareness Week, which was a big success.

Our plans for Founders Day are not yet settled, but any interested alumni may contact Chapter President Steven Torrioni at (908) 571-6861 or write to Phi Kappa Psi, Monmouth College Box 58, West Long Branch, NJ 07764, for the details.

Ohio Alpha's fall rededication of its chapter house caused quite a celebration in Delaware, Ohio. Seated here are Ohio Alpha Chapter Advisor Craig Johnson, Ohio Wesleyan '84, national President Robert Lazzell, West Virginia '42, past-SWGP Bob Elliott, Ohio Wesleyan '35, Ohio Alpha President Daniel Smith, Ohio Wesleyan '89, and Lucille Lazzell.

Nebraska

The past semester at Nebraska was an uplifting experience for every brother. We began the school year by moving into a completely renovated house. During the summer, over $250,000 was spent on repairing many of the damages the chapter house has suffered during its 80-year existence. The brothers welcomed the changes and extend our gratitude to all the alumni who helped with the renovation. We also thank Mike Harshman, Nebraska '87, our chapter advisor, for all the guidance he has provided us this fall.

As always, Nebraska Alpha is working hard to maintain our high academic leadership. In the past four semesters, we have been able to maintain our GPA above the all-fraternity average. This can be attributed to the hard work that is exemplified by Martin Nie and Melker Sandberg, who were recently inducted into the Golden Key National Honor Society.

Upholding the tradition of Phi Kappa Psi, we initiated four members into our chapter last fall. They are: Jeff Orlowski, Brooklyn, NJ; Bradley Brooks and Bret Brassfield, Sioux Falls, SD; and Jeff Yostin, Neighly. Our new pledges are: Josh Carpenter, Jeffery Cyr, Joel Brickson, Christopher Kaslon, Mike Maguire, Jason Mimmick, Greg Murdock, Don Ricketts, Kenneth Shimek and Neil Silberstein, Omaha; Brian Drewel, Mark Hess and Matt Niven, Lincoln; Michael Bull and Seth Gschwandegger, Elkhorn; Mike Larson, Minden; Shane Adcock, Ainsworth; Curtus Marti, Falls Church, VA; Josh Vickery, Miami, FL; Mark Keating, Hazard, SC; and Dave Lamar, Honolulu, HI.

Northwestern Moving On

Greetings from Illinois Alpha. The men of Phi Kappa Psi are proud to announce that their renovation project is going full steam ahead. Just this past summer, Northwestern University approved a $750,000 loan to ensure the presence of Phi Kappa Psi on campus for decades to come. In addition to the loan, another $250,000 has been raised through the great efforts of our alumni in just over a year.

For the first time in many years, Parents Weekend and Homecoming Weekend were held on the same weekend, providing for a busy and successful gathering of alumni, friends and family. To start the weekend off, alumni gathered before the football game for a tailgate party, only to be treated later to an old-fashioned and traditional sit-down dinner.

Academically, Illinois Alpha is trying to regain its number one rank in cumulative GPA among the 22 Northwestern fraternities after finishing second this past year.

In September, Illinois Alpha initiated four outstanding men: Joe Bacula, Brad Brouer, Ryan Buxton and Richard Caplan.

In closing, we welcome our new initiates, thank our alumni for their outstanding support and wish the best of luck to all chapters on their continued success. Finally, we at Northwestern ask that all brothers throughout the country keep Ian Cummings in their prayers and wish him a speedy recovery as he was injured in an accident this past fall.

Ohio State

Our chapter experienced an extremely exciting quarter last fall. We began fall quarter fired up with a very strong rush, which led us to an exceptional and successful Homecoming with the ladies of Alpha Xi Delta.

Our alumni have been actively involved with our chapter during rush and chapter meetings. The weekend of October 25, our alumni held a brunch and afternoon meeting at the chapter house. We celebrate Founders Day soon. Ideas for the year include a golf outing and a weekend of reminiscence. It's exciting for the undergraduates to have an active alumni board along with other alumni who take interest in our activities.

We welcome our new initiates: Michael Bayman and Eric Clawson, Tipp City; Melvin Blackburn, Nelsonville; Randall Daub, Joshua Edwards and Joseph Karlich, Columbus; Chad Dorn, Independence; Bradley Fross, Mentor; George Grove, Middletown; Charles Gwin, Fredericksburg; Christopher Hadden, Charlotte, NC; Gregory Howski, Brunswick; Charles Hunsaker, Marietta; Frank Koupiaris, Warren; John Letzelter and William Rundell, Beavercreek; Scott Life, Cincinnati; Christopher Ross, Miami, FL; Nabeel Shirazi, Dayton; Bryan Wakefield, Perrysburg; Scott Wessner, Strongsville; and James Yates, Cuyahoga Falls.

Ohio Wesleyan

130 Years of Excellence

Ohio Alpha began its fall semester with great enthusiasm and determination. With new President Clay Smith, we are confident that we will maintain our tradition of excellence.

Ohio Alpha entered its 130th year with our renovations nearly completed. The foyer, living room, dining hall and living quarters have all be completely renovated and look beautiful. We expect to have renovations completed by early spring.

With the exciting renovations came the honor of a visit from SWGP Robert Lazzell, West Virginia '42, and past SWGP Robert Elliott, Ohio Wesleyan '35, to our fallfest celebrations. Together, they cut the ceremonial ribbon celebrating our renovations, and President Lazzell was presented with a plaque honoring his service to the Fraternity. The celebration was enjoyed by over 500 alumni and friends of Phi Kappa Psi.

Scholarship remains our top priority. With Brian Olson as scholarship chairman, we hope to achieve our goal of having the top GPA among fraternities.

Ohio Alpha has also remained strong in social service with new Philanthropy Chairman Dennis Adams. We have worked closely with Habitat for Humanity and also with a local boys home. We also participated in a crop walk aiding the fight against world hunger.

Ohio Alpha thanks all our alumni and friends for their generous contributions to the renovation campaign and invite everyone to stop in and see us.

John Wilmarth, Correspondent

Oklahoma

This semester at Oklahoma Alpha brought much excitement, but not without significant loss.

We kicked off fall term with a long but productive rush. We took in 16 pledges, bettering last year's total by one.

Oklahoma Alpha also enjoyed a very successful Alumni Reunion at Homecoming. This outstanding get-together was organized by Pete Klentos, Oklahoma '56, and Clayton Farhood, Oklahoma '90. Many stories were swapped and a good time was had by all. Approximately 85 brothers attended.

On a sadder note, OK Alpha mourned the loss of one of its founding fathers. Stanley B. Catlett died Oct. 8, 1991, at age 92. A strong financial supporter of the University of Oklahoma, he was also an integral part of the rebuilding of our house when it burned in 1983.

Moving back into good news, the Phi Psi 500 was very successful. Our charity this year was The National Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

This year's OU/Texas weekend marked another high point, although we lost the game. Brothers from Texas Alpha, Texas Beta, Texas Delta and our chapter participated in a weekend-culminating social in Dallas.

OK Alpha enjoyed a fine semester, and we hope that other Phi Psi chapters and we continue to grow and to improve ourselves through brotherhood.

Chad Catlett, Correspondent

Oregon

Oregon Alpha is riding a wave of success that has catapulted us to the top of the campus. From student government to intercollegiate athletics, Phi Psi is well represented. Ryan Deckert, Raymond Lee, John Goodman and David Henry all hold prominent ASUO (the governing body of the university) positions. Travis Green is the budget director of the Erb Memorial Union, and Kevin Govro, Brian Thompson and Brody Kunz all serve on the Book Store Board of Directors. Also, Jordy Lyden can be seen slam dunking opponents as a starting forward on the University of Oregon basketball team.

Founders Day is always a highlight in the year because it allows the undergraduates to interact with the alumni. Unfortunately, Founders Day is often the only occasion when we see each other. This last fall, we had the privilege of having several alumni from the early '80s stop by the house and share stories about their college days. It was really a great experience for all involved, and we would really like to see more alumni stop by the house.

This year saw a cutback in enrollment at the University of Oregon, but Oregon Alpha set the example by pledging the most men on campus. They are: Marshal Burgess, Sean Carlson, Walter Gintz, Andrew Howell, David Komer, Josh Lebus, Harrison Lynch, Matthew Rappaport and Nathan Reddick, Portland; Brian Leong, Jeffery Monroe and Eric Zehntbauer, Beaverton; Andy Searcy, Salem; Lance Wicklund, North Bend; Christopher Berry, Albany; Chris Baker and Zach Fountain, Seattle, WA; Jeremy Sanchez, Gresham; and Ryan Meurisse, Tigard.

Progress and Growth

Greetings. Once again it is my pleasure to inform you of the accomplishments and activities of the brothers here in Corvallis at Oregon Beta. With the ending of Rush Week and the beginning of classes, it is nice to reflect upon the past few months of fraternity life.

Soon after Rush Week ended, the chapter house received new carpeting along the halls and stairs, and a new floor in the upstairs bathroom. We now have running water fountains.

Alumni flocked back to Oklahoma Alpha for Homecoming last fall. Gathered here are Richard Bower, Oklahoma '56, Pete Klentos, Oklahoma '54, Margaret Ann Pickens, Bobby Coleman, Oklahoma '55, William Pickens, Oklahoma '54, and James Ruth, Oklahoma '54.

Phi Psi placed fifth out of 27 fraternities spring term, and everyone pulled together for first last fall.

We would like to thank Oregon Alpha for hosting us during the Oregon/Oregon State football game in Eugene.

Thanks to the exceptional efforts of the chapter, we are proud to announce the following pledges for fall semester of 1991: Thomas Barnes, Rainier; Jason Cleary, Corvallis; Brandon Cook, Sisters; Eric Helms, Keizer; Larry Hoffman, Sweethome; Doug Jacobsen and Harry Mayfield, Eugene; Anthony Malizio and Nicholas Olberding, Portland; Thomas Scott, Hillsboro; Gregory Smith, Molalla; and Jon Van Dyke, Oakland, CA. Welcome.

Finally, we would like to thank our alumni for all the time and effort they have given us in helping to build Oregon Beta. We offer our best regards to all other chapters.

Pennsylvania

Penn Iota started off the fall term by welcoming two fine men as pledges to our Fraternity. Under the direction of the university administration, the Penn Greek system is taking active steps to improve. Several workshops were held for chapter leaders and neophytes last term, including a presentation by Eileen Stevens, founder of the Committee to Halt Useless Campus Killings, a group that educates fraternities and the public on the dangers of hazing.

Internally, we are working on improving our fraternity education program and on developing a comprehensive membership program that will ensure the presence of quality men at Penn Iota for years to come.

Philadelphia Phi Psis are encouraged to contact us for information on Founders Day 1992. Our phone number is (215) 222-4425, and our address is Phi Kappa Psi, 3934 Spruce St., Philadelphia, PA 19104.

Penn State

As winter sets in on Happy Valley and the ginkgo tree's leaves begin to fall, the men of Pennsylvania Lambda have recovered from finals and look back on an excellent fall semester.

After a very successful fall rush headed by Membership Chairman Tim Grebos, 10 men began the pursuit of brotherhood. Our newest pledges are: Dan Lucas, Pittsburgh; Scott Brown and Dave Miller, Greensburg; Dave Gindhart, Wallingford; Mike Stagg, Hazelton; Scott Turco, Bristol, CT; Bob Fletcher, North Huntingdon; Geoffrey Lund, Masasquan, NJ; Dave Sweet, Mount Lebanon; Scott Thompson, Latrobe.

As the semester moved on so did the intramural sports season. Our softball team won its division and went to the semi-finals. So far, we are undefeated in football and have not yet given up a single point. Also, Dave Gindhart placed third in cross country.

This year, Homecoming was a tremendous success with the help of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority. Our "For the Glory of American Music" theme was a big crowd pleaser. Under the leadership of Jeff Rashap, Lance Nevins and Joby Luff, we placed in the top five in two major categories.

The brothers of Pennsylvania Lambda thank all our alumni who came back for Homecoming weekend. It was great to see all of you, and we hope you had as much fun as we did.

Purdue

The biggest news from West Lafayette is the implementation of a new Greek-wide IFC alcohol policy. We have four brothers who are involved in this policy: James Rischar, IFC vice president of affairs, Paul Oblon, Charles Panchev and Kirk Kroft. We hosted an IFC mock function where the top officers of each chapter on campus attended an IFC funded party to show how the policy should be followed. The National Interfraternity That's Mike Bross, Rhode Island '91, sporting number 67. Mike's pulling guard work helped demolish UMaine at Rhody's Homecoming October 19 in Kingston. Several Rhode Island Beta brothers are on the Ram varsity.

Conference staff was there to videotape the event as a reference for other Greek systems.

We received the external relations portion of the R.B. Stewart Chapter Excellence awards during our Greek Week. We raised over $10,000 for Juvenile Diabetes in the annual Swing-a-Thon with Alpha Gamma Delta. Eric Biggs, IFC vice president of administration, started a Greek wide philanthropy called "A Day of Fasting," which has become an annual event.

Ever since a Homecoming King has been elected, we have had a brother in the top five. This year it was Todd Kortte. In the Purdue Grand Prix, driver Tom Hall and crew took Phi Psi car #17 from 32nd to 5th, for the second year in a row, claiming the Hardcharger Award. For the second year in a row, Phi Psis have swept Beta Theta Pi in the annual Boiler Bouts with Mike Armbrust, Doug Croxall and Matt Savoy all winning in their classes.

We have quite a few members committing their time to Purdue athletics: Craig Davisson, football; Brad Whitlow, lacrosse; Greg Beck, water polo; Chris Brandt, swim team; and Mike Gucciardo, tennis.

There were four men initiated into the brotherhood on September 8: Scott Sawyer, Michael Sacksteder, Roger Welp and Bradley Lindquist. Five more were initiated on September 21: Tim Enright, Ralph Schackart, Patrick Abare, Chris Young and Adam Vanderwielen.

We currently have 17 pledges: Joseph Dupor, Wakegen, IL; Adam Smith, Hammond; Bryan Sorg, Auburn; Travis Whaley, Lafayette; Jonathon Hadley, Anderson; Steve Krusing, Jasper; Dirk Spearing, Orland Park, IL; Willard Brandt, Warsaw; Alexander Poladian, Indianapolis; David Powers, Orlando, FL; David Lindman, Edina, MN; Jay Davenport, Plymouth; Leo Brown, Logansport; James Hoppes, Petersburg;

Alexander Romero, McClain, VA; Michael Gucciardo and Anthony Paesano, Bloomfield Hills, MI.

Rhode Island

This past fall marked the first time in two years that a brother has lived in our chapter house, and we are all proud to be a part of its re-taking. All of us can now realize what a great feeling it is to live with your brothers united under one roof. We'd like to take this opportunity to thank the AHC for giving us the house in such spectacular shape.

Our Philanthropy Committee has been busy. We have been involved in a volleyball tournament to raise money for charity and also a very competitive softball round robin to donate money to the continuing fight against multiple sclerosis. On December 6, we continued a valuable tradition at RI Beta when we took our yearly trek to Providence dribbling a basketball. It is always great fun, and the donations we collect support the American Lung Association.

One of our proudest accomplishments this year has to be because of Jeff Morgan. Jeff was elected Archon of District I this past summer. We are all proud of Jeff and as a chapter are grateful to be bestowed with the honor our first year back.

Rush went very well, and there are 24 fine men pledged to RI Beta. They are: Eric Matteson (son of William Matteson, Rhode Island '66), Michael Dunlap, Andreas Skounakis, Tim Freehan, Matt Cronin, Frank Marini, Walter Ptaszek, Larry Modder, Mark Swistak, George Hahalis, Carmine Intrieri, Anthony Brinson, Kostas Agiomavritis, Matthew Berger, John O'Neil, Jon Cohen, Chris Child, Scott Coleman, Joseph Bischer, Jim Bulger, Kevin Nace, Chris Kenealy, Jason VanAusdale and Lincoln Chapin.

Rider

Greetings from the New Jersey Alpha Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi. The brothers here enjoyed a very successful fall semester.

The semester began with an excellent rush, which was coordinated by Michael Bowe. Considering the importance of rush, we are proud to say that of all the fraternities, our events had the high turnout.

Our B-league football team took the championship, winning us the football trophy that we've been waiting to see for a long time. Five Phi Psis were selected to the Rider All-Greek football team, which competed with the independent squad and won resoundingly.

Toward the end of fall semester, we performed a number of community service projects to benefit the homeless and needy inhabitants of nearby Trenton. Also, we held a faculty dinner that was a great success. The combination of these events made it possible for Phi Kappa Psi to develop our good name both on campus and within the community.

We welcome our newest initiates: G. Haber, M. Rothbart, W. Burke, P. Nordell, J. Reilly, R. McGinley, J. Vanbrunt, M. Ellis, J. Raos, J. Conroy, M. Durkin, J. Cohen, A. Calavita, J. Guerriero, D.

Ginsberg and S. Wineburg. We also welcome our new faculty advisor, Mike Reca.

Rutgers

Greetings, brothers, from NJ Gamma. Things are looking bright for Phi Psi on the banks of the Old Raritan. The acquisition of a chapter house has brought the brotherhood and the alumni closer together by providing a central location to gather on campus. Our Homecoming event sparked the most alumni support with the return of many founding fathers including past GPs and VGPs. We plan to keep in touch with the alumni through our timely newsletters.

Last semester's activities included a car wash for the prevention of child abuse and our annual Christmas party at the children's ward of Robert Wood Johnsons Hospital. Plans are in motion for our first Phi Psi 500. Any advice from chapters already holding this event will be greatly appreciated. We're also planning to sponsor a child through the Save A Child Foundation.

Our officers for this year are: Paul Foulkes, GP; Ed Chao, VGP; Frank Lin, P; John Herzo, AG; Fred Chilkowitz, BG; Rob Martinez, SG; Evan Kurowski, Hod; Brendan Devane, Phu; and Marcus Siebler, Hi.

Our new members are: Andrew Bobe, Rob Garagiola, Dave Hackenburg, Erik Jenssen, Dean Longo, Mike Roedig and Rob Storicks.

South Carolina

Following years of declining undergraduate membership, the South Carolina Alpha Chapter has found itself unable to continue as an active chapter. Chapter Advisor Mark Lee, South Carolina '84, reported the news to the National Fraternity in November 1991.

Phi Kappa Psi is currently engaging in discussions with University of South Carolina administrators in an effort to determine a suitable time for the Fraternity's ninth chapter to return to the Columbia, S.C. campus.

South Carolina Alpha was originally chartered in 1857 and subsequently closed in 1884 in the wake of anti-fraternity laws passed by the state's legislature. The chapter was rechartered following colonization in 1972.

Executive Council action is pending.

Cal Delt Rolls On

As we begin our 64th year of existence here at USC, we have experienced a number of changes here at Cal Delt. Our house underwent an extensive renovation project over the summer, which saw the addition of new carpeting throughout the entire house, the renovation of our game room and the renovation of the chapter room, which looks incredible.

Our alumni have made their presence felt during the first several months of the year. On September 30, Tom Fuelling, Southern California '56,

100 Years at Stanford

by James Grove, Stanford '89

Founded December 18, 1891, in the same year as Stanford University, Cal Beta was colonized by brothers from California Alpha at the University of the Pacific. Unfortunately, the exodus of brothers from the older university signaled the death of the chapter there.

Throughout its 100 year history, Cal Beta has had its ups and downs. In the early 1970s, the Phi Psi house, a huge wooden structure overlooking the Stanford campus, was deeded back to the University due to the chapter's financial and membership problems. Cal Beta was inactive for a short time, then it was revived through the efforts of Carlos Hernandez, Stanford '78, and others.

In light of the chapter's extensive history, it seemed only fitting that the centennial anniversary be marked with all appropriate pomp and ceremony.

Cal Betans Andy Beal '80, Rico Hernandez '78, Harry Johnson '80, Ken Koontz '78 and John Hansen '78 gather to celebrate their chapter's centennial.

the Centennial Dinner Dance would take place that night at the Fairmont Hotel. The next day would begin with a catered tailgater outside Stanford stadium and finally a block of tickets was purchased for the Big Game so a Phi Psi cheering section could be arranged.

A lot of effort went into contacting our alumni and inviting them personally to attend the events, because the chapter centennial was as much their celebration as ours. Therefore, we were very pleased to be able to outshine our brothers from Cal Gamma at the Big Game luncheon, in that we had an entire table of alumni from the 1930s who had returned for the event! We were even able to get the lyrics to some old fraternity songs from them.

The dinner dance was really a spectacle to behold. Among the evening's guests of honor were J. Robert Meserve, Stanford '34, former SWGP, Ralph "Dud" Daniel, Arizona '47, Executive Director Emeritus, and Robert Sostman, Cal State Northridge '87, Archon of District VI. Brothers were in attendance from the California Iota Chapter at UC-Davis, and a special appearance was put in by Greg Blackwood, Stanford '91, who flew in from his overseas studies in Kyoto, Japan, especially for the event.

Chapter Advisor Enrico Hernandez, Stanford '78, was the emcee for the night, doing his best to keep people from eating dinner by hosting a program full of toasts, awards and songs. A special presentation was made to Brother Meserve, who received the first Outstanding Alumnus Award for his contributions to the Fraternity at large. Then, in a surprise presentation, the undergraduates gave Rico Hernandez the Chapter Service Award for all his time and dedication to the chapter.

After dancing until 1:30 a.m., everyone returned home to grab a few hours of sleep before going to the Big Game the following morning. At the tailgater, a barbecue had been prepared by a local restaurant, and alumni from Cal Gamma joined us in a delicious meal. Then, at 12:30, the Big Game began — the first time in decades that both Stanford (#21) and Berkeley (#6) were nationally ranked. It was a hard fought game, but as a perfect ending to the centennial weekend, Stanford triumphed 38-21.

We wish to express our gratitude to the many alumni who returned for the weekend, renewing fraternal bonds and celebrating 100 years of California Beta. Without them, the historical significance of the event would have seemed greatly diminished. And finally, thanks to everyone, brothers from Stanford and across the country, whose blood, sweat and tears have made the Stanford chapter of Phi Kappa Psi the proud and thriving brotherhood that it is now and has been for 100 years.

Happy birthday, Cal Beta!

president of Lawry's Prime Rib, came to speak to the chapter about how his experiences at Phi Psi have helped him in his career. On October 19, alumni returned by the dozens for our annual Homecoming brunch, and everyone enjoyed reminiscing about old times.

After a humiliating eighth place finish in last year's Ironman competition, Phi Psi has climbed into second place to date, only two points behind the leader. This resurgence is due to the outstanding play of the football and volleyball teams, and our first place finish in the swimming relays.

We are hoping to continue this momentum into the spring semester and roll on to the Ironman championship!

Texas Delta Moves In

Can you believe it? We have a new house! Twenty-four brothers, for the first time in Texas Delta history, moved into a house on sorority row, spawning excitement and enthusiasm for the coming year. The university completely renovated a 14-unit apartment complex for the chapter, complete with a 30-yard inner patio to be used for parties and mixers. Along with our new house, the chapter is proud to boast a cumulative 3.258 GPA, placing us first, again, among other campus fraternities.

Texas Deltans have been busy doing service for the community. On September 27, the chapter, along with Alpha Delta Pi Sorority, sponsored and participated in the SMU Annual Oozeball Tournament benefitting the Ronald McDonald House. Twenty-five teams participated in this thrilling event, raising over $1,000 for the charity. We also participated in the Cystic Fibrosis Haunted Maze, accompanied by the Gamma Phi Beta Sorority.

Texas Deltans got together with Phi Psis from Texas, Oklahoma and Texas Tech for the Texas-OU Weekend Football Celebration in downtown Dallas at the Plaza of Americas. This great event is sure to become an annual tradition!

Texas Delta is proud to present its new pledges: Larry Brown, Brownsville; Bobby Cullen, Lewisville; and Geoff Hatch, Wellesley, MA.

Southwest Texas

It was an exciting and full semester here at Texas Gamma. First of all, we are proud to announce Phi Psi's return to the IFC. After a four-year absence, we are all hoping to become a more active part of the Greek community. We would like to welcome our new pledges: Bill Griggs of Belton, and Bryan Northcutt of Houston. Our annual Fandango party was not only a blast, but it was also a success in collecting food for the San Marcos Community Center.

We would also like to give thanks to our alumni who made this year's Homecoming so successful. Along with rejoining IFC, we have moved back into San Marcos and encourage any and all Phi Psis to give us a call at (512) 396-1852. Phi Psi would also like to wish Bill Guthrie and Jay Janaeckz good luck after graduation.

SUNY-Buffalo

NY Eta has more than its share of leaders, most notably John Kanehl. John has had unparalleled success as IGC president. He has implemented many new policies to the university and has been a Phi Psi representative not only to UB, but to the community as a whole. John Hollner has also been named IGC philanthropy chairman and is doing an excellent job.

As individuals and as a whole, NY Eta has been flexing its muscles on the various playing fields. As individuals, brothers can be found contributing to the lacrosse, baseball, hockey, crew and ultimate Frisbee teams.

Phi Psi philanthropy has also been very active. The first day of school, we participated in UNIFEST, and at Halloween, we transformed our chapter house into a haunted house for the neighborhood kids. We also participated in numerous blood drives and the Linda Yalem Memorial 5k Run.

This year, our Founders Day celebration will be held on February 22. All alumni are encouraged to attend — you are the people who make it a success.

In late August, we initiated our new brothers: Brian Meade, Fairport; Gregory Zini, Buffalo; Ryan LaCotte, Williamsville; Munir El-Amin, Rochester; Thomas Capalongo, Ithaca; and Robert Spencer, Grand Island.

Syracuse

Greetings from the brothers of New York Beta. When we arrived at 500 University Place last fall, it seemed as if something was missing. The loss of 30 seniors made the transition to the new school year a bit awkward. We compensated, though, with a lot of anticipation of things to come.

We began the new school year on a real high, coming off our Chancellor's Cup and All-Greek Intramural victories. Phi Psi already grabbed the league title in both football and softball.

Homecoming was again an excellent weekend. It was great to see all of our new and old alumni. A spectacular win for the SU football team over the then #5 Florida Gators aided to the already grand celebration.

We are still making progress, two years later, in the completion of renovation to the new house. Adam Ferris, Syracuse '89, and Greg Sgromo, Syracuse '86, have spent a lot of time and energy making a beautiful new archives room.

The fall was a transition semester for us, but our new leaders have been stellar. Last September, we recruited 10 pledges. They are: Andy Hickey, Jeff Winitsky, Aaron Levin, Keith Palmer, Pete Curtis, Ross Levine, David Boren, Lee Moroz, Chris Spangler and Greg Adelman.

Temple

The brothers of Pennsylvania Pi endured a hectic and transitional fall semester. From being hit hard by graduation to the last minute loss of our house, the semester was one of adjustment and change. Yes, we have felt the effects of losing a large number of brothers to graduation, including the last of our local chapter's founding fathers, but we have not forgotten what ideals this chapter was founded on. And we have made our best efforts to act on these ideals. We continued a Pennsylvania Pi tradition by throwing a huge Halloween party in conjunction with the local community center for a large number of neighborhood children. It was a fun time for all who participated!

We have also continued our strong showings in interfraternity athletics. An undefeated season in volleyball and only having one loss in flag football highlighted the fall semester. We also rallied in soccer to win our last three games to finish with a successful season and remain atop the overall standings for athletics.

Our chapter also takes great pride in one of our founding fathers, Thomas Herdelin, and his successful efforts to help start a chapter at East Carolina University. Pennsylvania Pi wishes our sister chapter, North Carolina Beta, the best of luck!

25 Years of Excellence

This year Tennessee Epsilon celebrates 25 years at UT. To commemorate our brotherhood and our accomplishments, we are planning a celebration this spring, which will call many of our brothers home to Knoxville. We are already making preparations and are very excited about it.

We are very glad to report a productive fall semester. We started off by initiating an exceptional new brother — David Hineline from Knoxville. Shortly afterward, we undertook the chore of beginning renovations to our chapter house. We also found time to compete in campus intramurals as well as Delta Gamma's Anchor Splash. We paired up with Zeta Tau Alpha for an outstanding week of Homecoming events. Philanthropically, we remained leaders by doing work for such worthwhile causes as the Knoxville Rescue Mission and the American Diabetes Association. This spring we are looking forward to our Founders Day Formal at Boone Creek, NC, as well as our first Phi Psi 500.

We would like to recognize our fall pledge class: Zac McCullough, Brad Roberts, Steve Finnegan, Travis Nowell, Chattanooga; Jason Blackburn, Unionville; Scott Moore, Whitwell; Scott Jackson, Johnson City; Steve Haverfield, Atlanta, GA; Jay Coulter, Philadelphia, PA; Bill Zaidel, Radford, NY; Jim Clark, Ft. Lauderdale, FL; Phil Medley, Denver, CO; and Tracy Ferris, South Augusta, SC.

Also, we would like to congratulate the election of our new District IV Archon, Christopher Partin, Tennessee '91.

Texas

Hook 'Em Horns

Texas Alpha is once again looking forward to another Founders Day for 1992. We are very proud of the fact that Founders Day has expanded so rapidly. Only three years ago, we had 20 or so alumni come to our activities, but last year, we had well over 80 alumni attend — and it is only looking better for this year. This increase in participation has benefitted all brothers of Texas Alpha. Our alumni have taken a true interest in the undergraduate brotherhood and the condition of the house. Thanks to their support, we have just completed the renovation of our library facilities and the completion of our new Heritage Hall. We also are indebted to all that our Mothers Club has done for us in the preservation of the house. Texas Alpha would like to extend our sincerest appreciation to all who made this happen.

Texas/OU weekend was better than ever for Phi Psi. Besides the fact that we beat OU for the third consecutive year, the brothers from Texas Alpha, Oklahoma Alpha, Texas Beta and Texas Delta gathered for a post-game celebration to form a stronger brotherhood among us all. We had a terrific time.

In conclusion, Texas Alpha could not be happier with the way things have been going. We have a great fall pledge class, which is counting down the time until initiation. These future brothers are legacy Stephen Durret, Ted Etlinger, Garrick Hatfield, Shashi Kewalramani and Sean Webb from Houston; Drew Lippolt and John Melton from Austin; Wesley Applying from El Campo; Luke Burton from Irving; Chris Campbell from Dripping Springs; Doug Cook from Corpus Christi; Dennis Langoria from Laredo; and Breck McDaniel from Richardson.

Kevin Brown, Correspondent

Texas Tech

Greetings from Texas Beta! We are pleased to inform you of the recent successes of our chapter.

The chapter has been involved in many community service programs. Our pledges tutored underprivileged children for a statewide test. We also participated in the Big Brother program. We took a group of kids out for a day at the park. Texas Beta also supported the Make-a-Wish Foundation by participating in the Delta Delta Delta softball tournament. Finally, we hope to win the Lubbock Food Drive for the third straight year with the help of Alpha Phi Sorority.

Phi Psi continues to excel in intramural sports, where the football team has advanced into the third round of the playoffs. The tennis team has also been successful in reaching the semifinal round. The golf team played excellently in the tournament and received fourth place.

During Homecoming, we sponsored a member of Delta Gamma Sorority for Homecoming Queen. Texas Beta and the South Plains Alumni Association hosted a reception for alumni Brothers and their families. It was great to see all of the alumni who visited the chapter.

The new officers for 1991 are: Jeff Franklin, GP; Jim Lane, VGP; Steve Kauffman, P; Kevin Epps, AG; and Scott Fry, BG. Our fall pledges are Ross Tackett of Austin; Todd Large of Houston; Brandon Sanchez of San Antonio; Sean Jarboe of Arlington; Monte Swanson and Roland Cantu of Anton; and Tim Byrne of Monahans. We are looking forward to a great second semester.

Come see us February 19 at the chapter house for Founders Day! For more information, contact Brian Carr at (806) 791-5720.

Kevin Epps, Correspondent

Toledo

Fall 1991 began with promise, and its promise was fulfilled when we recruited 16 fine men to pledge Phi Kappa Psi. Our efforts last semester focused on the operations of our chapter — developing a membership program that will continue to pay off for Ohio Eta and organizing a functional committee system.

At this time, we offer special thanks to Chapter Advisor Chip Carstensen, Toledo '69, for his work with us. His alumni big brother program is bringing in the alumni guidance that every chapter needs to thrive.

Phi Psis in the Toledo area, please contact Chapter President Matt Finch for information on Founders Day. You may call us at (419) 537-3251 or write to Phi Kappa Psi, 2999 W. Bancroft, Toledo, OH 43606.

Trenton State

Becoming Closer

New Jersey Delta has done a lot of growing this semester. We have completed a number of philanthropy events, including volunteering our help for the showing of the AIDS quilt at Trenton State College. The event was a great success overall, and our volunteers had the experience of a lifetime and witnessed a very touching scene. Also, Mark Kadetsky is on exchange at Illinois State and living at the Illinois Epsilon Chapter house.

We have also had a strong Alumni/Public Relations Committee, which has started sending a regular newsletter out. The chapter held its first alumni event of the semester — a picnic keeping with the College's Homecoming theme.

We ask for every brother's moral support for a very unfortunate incident involving Dan Matthews. As a result of complications from an accident during an intramural soccer game, Dan had to undergo brain surgery and has since been in a coma. He and his family have had our constant support, and he has been making steady progress. Please keep him and his family in your prayers.

A Semester Full of Energy

The spring semester is underway now, and the Indiana Epsilon Chapter's energy is just as strong as it was in August. The energy in the chapter started when the brothers who lived in the house over summer funded and worked on the renovation of the chapter room/T.V. room. We started the school year by raising $1,000 for the American Cancer Society by sponsoring a dance with the Alpha Xi Epsilon Sorority. After the cancer dance, we held a brotherhood retreat to get our goals for the year focused. Homecoming quickly followed, requiring a great deal of preparation. With hard work and dedication by the brothers and the Chi Sigma Xi Sorority, our float won first place in all three categories. This is the third year in a row we have captured first place in the float competition. The chapter is in hot pursuit of the all sports championship, currently being just a few points out of first place.

The brothers are now taking part in the "Adopt A Highway" program in the community. We are responsible for keeping a two mile stretch of highway clean. We are proud to announce that we took fall pledges and welcome 11 new initiates: Mark Bell, Bruce Gaunt, Ari Huostilla, Tim Kingston, Tim Ohltoff, Rob Pavletic, Brad Rhoads, Tim Snoke, Dan Welz, Frank Willmore, and Jim Wissman. Even with all the activities, we are still able to maintain the second highest GPA of 11 fraternities on campus.

This year marks our 40th anniversary as Indiana Epsilon. We will celebrate this momentous occasion in conjunction with Founders Day on February 22. Look for details coming soon in the mail.

Fred Dorman, Correspondent

Vanderbilt

Greetings from the brothers of Tennessee Delta. The fall semester was quite an experience for us here at Vanderbilt. We returned to school in September under Social Probation, placed on us in late spring. Fortunately for us, an Alumni Advisory Board, under the leadership of our new Chapter Advisor Brett Moore, Vanderbilt '85, had been hard at work over the summer developing plans to help us reprogram our chapter.

In other matters, we worked with a local cab company and started a Safe Rides Program, offering free rides home for students who shouldn't get behind the wheel. The annual Little 500 drew 31 teams into competition, and we were able to donate $1,500 to the American Diabetes Association.

We also established a Party Patrol. This consists of six to eight brothers to stay sober during parties to make sure that guests sign in and see that the university's alcohol policy is enforced. Parts of our program have been adopted by the IFC and serve as the model for other Party Patrols.

The biggest event of the fall was the Phi Kappa Psi Mountain Bike Classic, held in Fairview on October 26. This event, co-sponsored with nine businesses, drew 60 entrants, many of them professional riders, from all over the south. Over $3,000 in prizes were awarded to top finishers in four categories.

Over the summer, four of our brothers attended the Woodrow Wilson Leadership School. Rich Morris received the Dud Daniel Leadership Award there for his outstanding participation.

This fall, we recruited five pledges: Peter Gofstein, St. Louis, MO; Mark Lipscomb, Lafayette, CA; James Matthews, Austin, TX; Russell McTyre, Atlanta, GA; and Alexander Pazdan, Chicago, IL.

Virginia

In the fall semester recently concluded, incidents occurred at the University that stressed for us our close ties of friendship and the responsibilities engendered by the institution that created those bonds. As a group desiring to have a positive influence on the lives of those whom it touches, it becomes apparent to us that to accomplish this in today's society, the desire alone is not sufficient to merit the attempt. Of necessity, demonstration of the ability to achieve, at least in part, those goals and their worth must be presented to society for the tolerance of an order's existence.

This demand is well within the reach of the brothers of our chapter. Recently, a tally of grade-point averages among Greek organizations was compiled, and Phi Psi numbered within the top four among some three dozen fraternities. At its conclusion, the fall rush yielded 20 pledges, each of whom is enthusiastic about the new friends and fraternity that will be their experiences for the next few years.

While our soul is strong, physical aspects of the chapter are in need of more than a simple shoring up. Currently providing a focus for our energies is the need for house renovation. Constructed in the late '20s, Virginia Alpha has potential as a beautiful and historic structure but is in a state of disrepair. We are deeply grateful to those alumni who have devoted valuable time to the organization of the restoration. But the task is immense, and we are badly in need of ideas and assistance. Any who have it within their ability to offer help, please contact our alumni relations office, Chad MacDonald at (804) 971-6825.

Virginia Tech

Fifteen Years Strong

Virginia Zeta is working hard with strong bonds of brotherhood and Hokie pride. Our efforts are paying off with solid results. Our house looks better than ever with a sporty new beach volleyball court, a regraded driveway and an energized dance room complete with new black and strobe lights. Major fund raising and financial projects on the horizon include our first Wiffleball Tournament and compiling a financial guidebook, fueled by the input of chapters nationwide.

A new generation of brothers has doubled Virginia Zeta's size in just one year. The high morale and initiative of new initiates is especially encouraging. Bob Wagner, Virginia Tech '76, generously hosted brotherhood retreats at his lake house that were both constructive and unforgettably good times.

As always, we cordially invite alumni and other chapters to visit for some Southwest Virginia hospitality. Alumni support made Homecoming a smashing success, and we welcome you back for our 15th Anniversary Formal on March 28.

Congratulations to our new pledges: Greg Bonner and Chuck Taylor, Dummies; and Jeff Werner, Springfield.

Three cheers and High! High! High! for Phi Kappa Psi!

Wabash

Returning from a well-deserved summer vacation, the brothers of Indiana Gamma could look with pride not only to their fourth consecutive intramural championship, but also on their dramatic leap in campus scholarship standings. Always aware of our need to improve our GPA, the chapter pulled itself up from eighth to fourth place, with last year's freshman class finishing second. And having already won Wabash's Homecoming, prospects look bright for our current pledge class. They are Matthew Brown, James Ray, Kokomo; Theodore Burns, Monticello; Timothy Chambers, Brownsburg; George H. Craig III, Decatur; Joshua Frost, Eric Legg, Indianapolis; Eric Grinnell, Owosso, MI; Richard Hafner, Matthew Parker, Cincinnati, OH; Michael Hesser, Hillsboro; Patrick Lee, Muncie; Mikeal McMillan, Chattanooga, TN; Drew Miller, Omaha, NE; Drew Myer, Jason Strasser, Logansport; John Nguyen, Costa Mesa, CA; William Nink, Grand Rapids, MI; William Retherford, Noblesville; Matthew Stasko, Robert Varga, Cedar Lake; and Douglas Wintz, Batesville. Recently initiated was Douglas Perry, who, after leaving Wabash for a few years following the completion of his pledgeship, has returned to finish his undergraduate work. Athletically, Phi Psis are on the cross country (6), football (2), rugby (4), soccer (3) and swimming (2) squads. James Kerr and Jeffrey Lampert are captains of the cross country team, and Jason Little is captain of the soccer team. In addition, brothers and pledges are involved in Concert Band, Glee Club, theater, the school newspaper, academic honorary societies and college Republican and Democratic organizations. And spending their entire junior year in Scotland are Cortland Caldemeyer, Gregory Jania and Timothy Talbott. Taking a year off from his studies is Bronson Frick, who is teaching English in the Baltic Republic of Estonia. We wish those brothers overseas an enriching experience and a safe return.

Darren L. Hartman, Correspondent

Washington

After a long summer of great rush, this fall will prove to be one of the best for Washington Alpha. We started off the year with a record number of live-in pledges: Aaron Faulk and Mark Roellich, Bellevue; Adam Stretz, Olympia; Mark Anglin and Brady Konya, Kent; Brandon Backlund, Anacortes; Bret Johnson, Puyallup; Jeremy Maxfield and Chris Risdon, Seattle; Chuck Harrington and Isaac Tucker, Yakima; Garry Keike, Snohomish; Gary Wall, Mukilteo; Geoffrey Silva, Wapato; Gregg Brown, Greg McGreevey, Thomas Pak and Janus Sanders, Vancouver; Jeremy Wildhaber, Chehalis; Rich Steffens, Grand Coulee; Scott Under, Wilsonville, OR; and Tom Alessi, Redmond.

These men will soon prove to be great Phi Psis, and the chapter can only get better with such men. Alumni relations kicked off last semester with the Homecoming game against the Sun Devils of Arizona State. We hosted a post-game barbecue. Founders Day is scheduled for February 20 at the College Club. Contact Alumni Chairmen Andrew Ness or Craig Koga for more details at (206) 527-7900.

The chapter leadership is best ever with Brad Phillips as president, Mike Machula as vice president and Cory Coyle as treasurer. Washington Phi Psis are working hard to make this chapter the best on campus!

Andrew Ness, Correspondent

Washington & Jefferson

Greetings from Pa. Alpha. The men of Pennsylvania Alpha began the 1991-1992 year in strong fashion. The newest additions to the W&J chapter include 11 recent initiates: Michael Abramovitz, Jonathan Cohen, Peter Cotgreave, Joseph Donkers, Evan Jenkins, Mark Lesher, Paul McKean, Sean O'Brien, Joseph Oliver, Terry Shaffer and Lon Wright.

Chapter officers for 1991-1992 include: Henry Colyar, GP; Sean O'Brien, VGP; Dennis Kauer, P; Jonathan Cohen, AG; and Paul McKean, BG.

Pennsylvania Alpha continues to thrive in athletic activities at the varsity and intramural levels. Brothers Denuzzio, Donkers, Oliver and Shaffer are key components of the W&J Presidents. The Phi Psi intramural football team finished a strong second, suffering our only loss in the hard fought championship game last fall.

The new year has already been eventful for Pennsylvania Alpha. We successfully participated in Greek Week activities and held our annual Homecoming, Parents Weekend and Halloween celebrations.

As the year progresses, we look forward to a successful rush period and a strong incoming pledge class, while continually striving for excellence and upholding Phi Psi pride.

Washington & Lee

The brothers of Virginia Beta anxiously await the oft-delayed renovation of our chapter house, although university officials assure us that the process will be completed early in the 1992-93 academic year. In the meantime, Phi Psis continue their myriad leadership roles on campus, which include the Head Dorm Counselor, an Executive Committee junior class representative, an Honors Scholar, two members of the a cappella singing group Southern Comfort, and the starting point guard on the basketball team. In addition, we are already well on our way to improving upon the third-place performance that we achieved in intramurals last year. Together with a diverse and talented group of pledges and a loaded social calendar, it is indeed an exciting time here in Lexington.

West Virginia

Greetings from the men on the hill of West Virginia Alpha. As our chapter grows with each year, we try new things to interest our alumni. The alumni are the backbone of every fraternity and a solid relation between the chapter and its alumni is paramount. West Virginia Alpha learned a valuable lesson from Homecoming 1991. Homecoming is a time when a large amount of alumni come back to school to relive their college days and renew old friendships. In previous years it was customary to have a chapter sponsored tent/tailgate, which would cater to the alumni who come in for the weekend. This year, we decided to have a tent/tailgate prior to Homecoming. As a result we did not have enough funds to sponsor a tent/tailgate for Homecoming.

Our correspondence with alumni after that weekend showed the importance of a tent/tailgate for that weekend since so many alumni are in town. As a result we now have a Homecoming steering committee, which is made up of members of both the chapter and the house corporation. This committee will help the chapter plan a full agenda of activities for alumni during future Homecoming weekends.

West Virginia Alpha is happy to announce the pledging of 21 of WVU's finest men. We also extend our congratulations to our new nine brothers who were initiated on September 28: Aris Gruspe, Charleston; Ron Cross, Weirton; Peter Bregman, Fairfax, VA; George Medley, Short Hills, NJ; Richard Capatani, Ridgewood, NJ; Dominic DiCristoforo, Fort Lee, NJ; Samuel Thompson, Baldwin, NY; Daniel Himes, Allentown, PA; and Andrew Rotelli, Cranston, RI.

The Phi Psis of WVU are anxious to incorporate our alumni into our activities. New ideas are always welcomed. If you are an alumnus who has good ideas or even some constructive criticism, send them our way.

Wittenberg

Passing the Torch

A frosty evening at Weaver Chapel marked the return of the Ohio Beta Chapter with the formal pledging of Wittenberg's brightest and finest men to the values of Phi Kappa Psi. Offering the opportunity to join in a fraternity experience unlike any other at Wittenberg today, active student leaders enrolled under the banner of Phi Kappa Psi to become the example for Greek life on campus. Union Board members, residence hall officers and varsity athletes will lead the young chapter.

Fraternity Headquarters staff Doug Pszczolkowski, Allegheny '87, and Jamie Acton, Valparaiso '88, interviewed a number of qualified candidates. Their respective Allegheny and Valparaiso backgrounds helped them understand this top Midwest liberal arts school, and with the help of alumni advisors Craig Richter, Wittenberg '66, and Bill Miller, Wittenberg '78, our success is gathering steam. Special thanks go to Charlie Fry, Ohio State '35, who has graciously assisted by providing the Springfield Polo Club for organizing Ohio Beta. Three Phi Psi legacies make the endeavor all the more rich, and we honor Donald Day, Illinois '58, John Shanks, Indiana '34, and Kenneth Scheidt, Ohio Wesleyan '57, for having a son, grandson and nephew pledge Ohio Beta. An unofficial tally of the group's GPA surpasses 3.0 and all other campus fraternities. Initiation for these men is scheduled for Saturday, February 22, and will include the ceremony conducted in the ancient manner and the fellowship of brothers from many generations. A formal banquet and dance are being planned. For information, write Chapter President Eric Stortz at Wittenberg University Box 2884, P.O. Box 6100, Springfield, OH 45501. Ohio Wesleyan and Miami of Ohio Phi Psi have helped early on with a leadership workshop and a football cookout.

Colonies

DePaul

Greetings from the men of Illinois Zeta. The colony is still going strong with 15 brothers now after recruiting four spring pledges. The new initiates are: Mark Light, St. Louis, MO; Eric Schoefnacker, LaGrange; Matt Guilfoil, Kansas City, MO; and Michael Yock, Orland Park.

Our brothers are quite busy around campus as well with Marc Dumas named president of the Residence Hall Council and Trey Reynolds a hall president in the same organization. Eric Maza is a peer minister in the halls, giving support to all who come knocking, and the rest of us are quite busy with work and school.

The fall brought us back to good old DePaul and rush started off great. We recruited 9 men: Scott Meskin, Bill Hozian and Tom Dzirch, Chicago; Paul Ryan, Janesville, WI; Jeff Levine, Evanston; Mike Elmudesi, Woodstock; Jarvis Hedge, Melrose Park; Scott Mandel, Effingham; and Jaime Hernandez, Sauk Creek. They are a great bunch of men, and we are glad to have them.

Some last things for you to know — we really need some alumni support, especially for directors for an alumni corporation. Also, we just need ideas. If you can help with either, call Marc Dumas at (312) 477-8831 or Nick De Fina at (312) 951-6635, or write to our mailing address. We really hope to hear from you soon.

Marc A. Dumas, Correspondent

Loyola

Greetings from the Crescent City, N' Awlins, and from Loyola University! We here at Louisiana Gamma have proclaimed the academic year 1991-1992 to be the year of Phi Psi. Once again we earned the highest grade point average among the fraternities and placed third among all Greek academic/social groups.

We have started a general roundtable meeting where we meet with our alumni and advisors before our regular meeting and hash out any ideas we might have for the Fraternity.

Some of our successes include having the largest pledge class, getting our first Phi Psi 500 started by going to a meeting of the Louisiana State Special Olympics and getting close to reaching our goals for our charter.

Louisiana Gamma is also proud to announce the four gentlemen who joined the colony in spring of 1991: John C. Vandover, St. Louis, MO; Adam C. Miller, Oxford, MS; Sean Carter, Boston, MA; and Jake Lefferts, Houston, TX. Our fall pledges are: Eric Thomas, Memphis, TN; Christopher Stackpoole, Detroit, MI; James McPartland, Portland, ME; Brian Schulz, Three Rivers, TX; Jason Yarbrough, Pensacola, FL; Jonathan Emerson, Pass Christian, MS; Richard Avila, Houston, TX; Alan Choate, Dallas, TX; and Jose Carillo, Panama City, Panama. We wish every brother good luck in their studies or any endeavor they enter.

Adam Miller, Correspondent

Rochester Institute of Technology

Looking back on the fall semester, the NY Theta Colony at RIT accomplished numerous feats. To begin with, we achieved the highest GPA of all 14 national fraternities on campus with a 2.8. And for the second year, we won the Greek league football championship.

We welcomed eight outstanding men into our colony. They are Jose Cardenas, Seth Funderburk, Tom Jefferson, John Merritt, Toby Metcalf, Matt Morrissett, Shannon Owen and Mark Sanchez. The highlights of PC4 were a serenade of the Zetas, a successful car wash and a community service effort with the RIT Physical Plant.

Jason C. Sloaf, Correspondent

Wisconsin

As the fall semester draws to a close, the Wisconsin Alpha Colony is setting our goals on chartering in the early 1992 semester. We have had some minor problems in accomplishing our goal, but we feel we are finally going to make it happen this year.

On the weekend of October 25, Indiana Beta arrived for our Homecoming game against Indiana. After the game, we went to the Wisconsin Capitals hockey game, and an enjoyable time was had by all.

We wish to thank Mike McCoy, Indiana '58, for his hard work. Mike has spent countless hours talking to the Fraternity Headquarters and to the Wisconsin alumni. Mike serves as recording secretary on our Alumni Interfraternity Council. We are honored to have Mike as our advisor.

We thank the Wisconsin alumni for their support and for the time they spend with us. Special thanks to our faculty advisor, Barb McCarthy, who assists us through academics, athletics and university relations.

We also thank the Executive Council for receiving President Jeff Bland and Alex Soren, who made a presentation on behalf of the colony at the November meeting.

Mike Larson, Correspondent

York

On October 6, 1990, 17 men formed the Pennsylvania Rho Colony of Phi Kappa Psi. A little more than one year later, our colony went before the Greek Council and Student Senate of York College of Pennsylvania. We became the first Greek organization at YCP to obtain permanent status by unanimous vote! To date, our colony has completed all but one of the 10 goals required for chartering. We are required to increase our membership. We hope this final requirement will be satisfied by February with the induction of our spring pledges.

We are proud to say that last semester, our colony had the highest GPA of all male fraternities. The brothers of PA Rho again thank the alumni who have stepped forward to help us with our efforts — Ernie Thompson, Indiana-Pennsylvania '70, David Meckley, Cornell '70, Pete Andrews, Dickinson '56, Bryan Meck, Penn State '87, and Jack Garzillo, Lehigh '85.

This fall, we once again ran a shuttle service to and from the college's formal. Each year, we sponsor the shuttle in the fight against drunk driving. Alcohol Awareness Week, we sponsored mock-tails — mixed drinks that contain no alcohol. Things are going well for the colony. We are working hard to accumulate community service hours and to increase our membership. Several brothers are participating in a college pal program. Jerry Muhly helped coach a youth soccer team in York last fall.

Phi Psis for Life

Chicago

The 31st Annual Closed Invitational Golf Tourney took place at St. Andrews Golf Club on September 18. Herb Jones, Illinois '50, took home the Settergren Low Gross Trophy with a score of 85. Dave Fargo, Northwestern '45, won the Whiting Low Net Trophy. George Hendrick, Chicago '46, had the longest drive and Jack Novak, Northwestern '51, was closest to the pin. Five foursomes enjoyed a beautiful course and the weather was fine until the last four cold holes.

At the supper following, several things were discussed. It was suggested that Founders Day be celebrated in February at a luncheon in Chicago, perhaps at the Como Inn or John Kerr's restaurant or the Union League Club. Our Founders Day program could take place including awards of membership in the Gold and Silver Councils, reports from our undergraduate chapters, election of officers and an up-date on what is happening throughout our National Fraternity. There ought to be time enough for the normal give and take of the occasional reunion and some serious brotherhood. Give it a try this year. Arrange for a long luncheon on Tuesday, February 18. Then pay your dues so that you will get the notices. Finally, let us know if you are eligible for either Gold or Silver Council, call your best buddy and join us. Founders Day contacts are Mike Piscoran, (708) 851-4074 and Frank Whiting, (708) 232-8326.

Central Jersey/Jersey Shore

The Central Jersey/Jersey Shore Alumni Club is proud to announce that it will host a Founders Day brunch this year for all alumni in our locale. We're also inviting the undergraduates from the four New Jersey chapters to join us in the festivities.

The brunch will be held on Sunday, February 16 between the hours of 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. The place is Larry Peroni's on Rt. 29 in Ewing Township, near Trenton. This is a real nice restaurant, well known for its fine food, ambiance and reasonable prices. In fact, we've arranged the whole meal for only $15 per person for alumni and $12 for students, which includes tax and gratuity.

Won't you please join us this February 16 to celebrate the 140th anniversary of our Fraternity, to meet some old friends, and to make some new ones? If you're interested, please call Rick Christ at (908) 577-9653 or Tom Meisner at (718) 852-2200 (work) or (908) 367-6254 (home).

Tom Meisner Sr., Correspondent

Cleveland

The rejuvenated Cleveland Alumni Association continues to gain momentum. During the first eight months, we experienced a tremendous turnout in each of the five major events.

A Founders Day celebration will take place in conjunction with the Ohio Epsilon Chapter on Saturday, February 29. A reception is planned for 7:00 pm with dinner following at 8:00. SWGP Bob Lazzell will be our guest speaker. Ohio Epsilon is planning activities during the afternoon for undergraduates from area chapters. Special thanks to Charles White, Auburn '74, Jim Landry, Bowling Green '70, and Jon Pildis, Case Western Reserve '89, for their work organizing this event.

We held our second "after work get together" on September 11, which provided a great opportunity to socialize and catch up on some old stories. There were over 40 Phi Psis in attendance. The same type of get together is planned again for 5:30 p.m. on January 29, 1992, at the Cleveland Hilton South. We are expecting over 50 brothers to attend this event.

The most recent outing was a December 15 Browns versus Oilers game. A special thank you goes out to Mike Kertes, Case Western Reserve '79, for organizing the outing.

We continue to meet for breakfast on the second Tuesday of each month at the Cleveland Hilton South in Independence. The 7:00 a.m. get together allows everyone to get to work by 8:30. We look forward to seeing some new faces.

For more information, contact Chuck Brandman, 14964 Sherwood Drive, Strongsville, Ohio 44136, or call (216) 826-6226 (office) or (216) 238-6889 (home); or David Arter, 7387 Old Quarry Lane, Brecksville, Ohio 44141, or call (216) 524-0646 (office) or (216) 526-2440 (home).

Columbus

Charlie Fry, Ohio State '35, was master of ceremonies... Rocky Frost '46 did most of the planning and arrangements... Jim Thurber '18 was the featured Phi Psi of the evening through a nostalgic, funny and informative audio-visual presentation by Dave Timmons '49 and Norm Spain '33... all the ingredients necessary for yet another in the successful series of Phi Psi Homecoming celebrations jointly sponsored by the Ohio Delta Company and the Columbus Alumni Association.

You should'a been there! It was great! Once again, close to 100 lively guys and lovely gals, with warmth and fraternity so palpable you could cut it with a knife. Rocky's planning was, as always, impeccable; Charlie (who said poor hearing led him to learn to read lips, but now poor eyesight made even that difficult!) did a great job as master of ceremonies, complete with some new jokes. Fifty-year pins were awarded Alex Meyer '31, Dick Grieser '39, and Bob Cameron '41. The Jim Thurber retrospective included remarks by Harry Postle '79 about some of his dad's experiences with Thurber when they were in school together, and comments by Joe DeVennish (a cousin of Thurber's mother) about Joe's memories of Jim.

Mostly, though, the Thurber material was what he himself had written or drawn, shown visually or read by Brothers Timmons and Spain, who were interrupted frequently by peals (howls? roars?) of laughter. We should note that the meal was excellent, the singing of Amici and Noble Fraternity resonant, the Saturday brunch and visit to the Ohio Delta chapter house were even better than expected and the outcome of the football game highly satisfactory to us Buckeye fans.

Founders Day will be nearly upon us as this appears in print, and we look forward to a fine program under the care of Roger Williams '49, who has arranged as speaker Dick Oman '45, a prominent local attorney, and who plans to provide the opportunity for alumni present to spend some quality time with Ohio Delta undergraduates who will be present. It all takes place Saturday noon, February 15, at the OSU Faculty Club.

We're delighted at reports indicating Ohio Beta may soon be back on campus at nearby Wittenberg. And we congratulate our neighbor, Ohio Alpha at Ohio Wesleyan, on the major capital improvements recently completed there.

A familiar final note — join us, if and when you can, at our weekly Friday lunches...same time and place: 12 noon, main dining room, Fawcett Center for Tomorrow.

Norm Spain, Correspondent

Delaware Valley

Greetings from the newly formed Delaware Valley Alumni Association! The DVAA was organized back in fall of 1990 and began officially on Founders Day 1991. Charter members include Scot Pannepacker, Jay Messenger, Scot Mentzer, Barry Rubin, Andrew McGowen, Frank Caponi, Richard Townsend, A. George Newnham, Nathan Ein, Franco Pettinato, David Christoff, R. Scott Bill, James Murphy, Michael Kaitz and Dennis McMahon, all Temple '87; Felix Raimondo, Jeffrey Burdick, Joseph Kim and Albert Oswald, all Temple '88; and Anthony Phillips, Eastern New Mexico '82. First year officers are Pannepacker, president; Oswald, vice president; Messenger, secretary; and Kim, treasurer.

Our first event, the 1991 Founders Day Semi-Formal was a smashing success. Held at the Holiday Inn Center City in Philadelphia, we had a large turnout of local alumni. All in attendance had a fabulous time and enjoyed catching up with brothers and meeting their beautiful ladies. Looking forward to this Founders Day, our event will once again be held at the HICC on February 22. All those interested in celebrating with us, please contact Al Oswald at (215) 482-9151.

The DVAA holds its monthly social gathering — the Phi Psi Alumni Fridays — every third Friday of the month at the Irish Pub at 2007 Walnut Street in Philadelphia starting at 8 p.m. Interested alumni are encouraged to stop by and join us for a hearty "High, high high!"

Jay N. Messenger, Correspondent

Greater Orange County

First, I wish to notify you that Lester A. Holmes has recently accepted the position of president of the Phi Kappa Psi Alumni Association of Greater

Orange County. Brother Holmes' first challenge is to reach all Phi Psis living in the Orange County of Southern California and solicit $25 association dues. His second challenge is to put together a Founders Day gathering in February 1992 and to assure one will be held annually. Both efforts will take help, and all brothers wishing to be a part of the association's program should send their checks and their indication to help to: Lester A. Holmes, c/o Lester Holmes Associates, 5 Curl Drive, Corona del Mar, CA 92625, or call (714) 644-8546.

All Phi Psis living in Southern California are invited to celebrate Founders Day with us at the Hyatt Regency, 17900 Jamboree Boulevard, Irvine, Calif. Festivities start at 6:30 p.m. Invitations will be sent out to the brothers in the Greater Orange County area for whom we have current addresses. Any brothers wishing to receive an invitation should send his name, address and phone number to: Phi Kappa Psi Alumni Association, P.O. Box 3593, Huntington Beach, CA 92605.

Lester A. Holmes, Correspondent

Indianapolis

As we start a new year, the Indianapolis Alumni Association is between its two big events — the Thanksgiving Eve dinner and Founders Day. Thanks to all who came to the dinner and made the evening enjoyable.

For 1992, the board is looking to increase membership and participation by adding new, smaller activities, such as happy hours, to our schedule. We continue to meet the first Tuesday of every month at noon at the Athenaeum Turners Restaurant downtown. Please contact any member of the board with any new ideas: President Mac McLaughlin, Vice President Jim Rogers, Treasurer Dave Taylor and Secretary Steve Dierckes.

We will be holding Founders Day on February 15, beginning at 11:00 a.m. Chapters are invited to have their initiations coincide with this weekend and join us for the celebration. The place (tentative) is the Columbia Club in Indianapolis. Call Steve at (317) 844-1924 for further details. Local members will receive a mailed invitation. Hope to see many of you there.

Steve Dierckes, Correspondent

Little Rock

The members of the Little Rock Alumni Association send their best wishes for a happy and prosperous new year to the other brothers around the country. The alumni association is going stronger than ever with 13 new members since our last report.

Seven alumni attended the final Southwest Conference game between Arkansas and Texas. For those of you who did not attend, you blew it. Arkansas won 14-13 to remain undefeated in conference. We will plan on doing this again next year with one of the better games against our new Southeastern Conference opponents. Plan on attending.

Our alumni association is still meeting the first Friday of each month at noon for lunch at Wayout Willies. We are currently planning the 1992

One of the celebrities at Rhode Island Beta's Homecoming was Larry Girouard, Rhode Island '66, of Newport, RI. Larry holds consecutive badge number 002 at Rhode Island and stopped by for the festivities for the first time in years. That's the chapter's pep banner in the background.

Founders Day Celebration. It will be February 22 at the Holiday Inn West in Little Rock. Plan on being there at noon and joining in the festivities.

If there are any brothers in the area who are not currently receiving our newsletter and would like to, please send us your address. Or if there are any Arkansas Alpha alumni who are not getting our newsletter, it is because we don't have your address.

We are looking forward to seeing everyone at Founders Day.

New Mexico

The second annual Golf Tournament was held on July 13 at the Santa Fe Country Club. The tournament was followed by a dinner at the Old House restaurant in downtown Santa Fe. We had 11 people attending these events.

Congratulations to William Nordyke, Purdue '43, of Albuquerque for being recognized as New Mexico's Outstanding Volunteer by the National Society of Fund Raising Executives. The association will be holding our traditional Founders Day dinner in Albuquerque on February 19. For details and reservations, please contact Bob Sutton at 823-1700, or Jim Dyke at 984-3036.

Jim Dyke, Correspondent

Oklahoma City

Oklahoma Alpha's Reunion 1991 was a huge success! Brothers came from far away places such as Nevada, Arizona, Virginia, Indiana, Illinois, Minnesota, Ohio, Colorado, Arkansas and Louisiana, as well as Texas and Oklahoma. The festivities began with an Open House on Friday, September 27, and continued through Saturday, September 28, with food, drinks and fellowship for all. Thanks to Alumni Chairman Clayton Farhood and the undergraduates, Housemother Pat Woods, and Hack Miller, Oklahoma '53, and Stan Hopper, Oklahoma '47, for hosting an outstanding event.

It was discussed and decided that an active alumni group will be formed as the result of this reunion. In order for our chapter to thrive, we need to have an alumni group, especially in the Oklahoma City area. We also need a strong housing committee that will take charge and aid in decorating and refurbishing the house. The majority of the funds to accomplish this project will have to come from the alumni. We need a Chapter Advisor or committee to aid and guide the undergraduates. When I was at OU, we had this support from the alumni and, I might add, we were one of the top fraternities on the campus. Oklahoma Alpha received its charter in October of 1920, and we now have over 71 years of Phi Psi tradition. I do not want to see it end, and with our efforts and the fine active group we now have, it will not.

Our next function will be Founders Day, which will be held in Oklahoma City. I hope to see you there. I also urge you to begin to make plans for Reunion 1992 to be held next fall during Homecoming.

Pete J. Klentos, Correspondent

Rhode Island

Rhode Island Beta alums were talking post-season after Rhody's Homecoming thrashing of Yankee Conference rival Maine. But the Rams should have saved a few of the 50-plus points they ran up against the Bears, because a week later, the Boston University Terriers brought us back to earth.

That can't change the Homecoming memories at the chapter house, though. The undergrads thrilled us right from the get-go with a lawn display reminiscent of the days when Phi Psi ruled supreme in URI's annual contest. The Alumni House Corporation elected a new board, and the Alumni Association passed two bylaw changes, making governing easier. There followed a buffet breakfast, a break for the game and an apres-game sit-down dinner and dance. All this, in a chapter house filled with undergraduates for the first time in three years! Estimates varied, but more than 200 brothers were thought to have stopped by during a long and exhilarating day.

Included in that group were Carl Stone and Larry Girouard, our respective consecutive numbers one and two, who hadn't seen each other in some time.

They successfully broke Paul (007) Ingraham's hammerlock on the unofficial title of lowest consecutive number present. Pleased as we were to see the old hands, it pleased us even more to see so many young alumni faces — a significant departure from the recent past.

Alumni Association Secretary Rick Booth is still trying to update the mailing list for our newsletter, The Link. Please send address changes for yourself or other brothers to him at 232 Washington St., Norwood, MA 02062.

Nota Bene: our annual Founders Day dinner will be held February 21 at the URI University Club on Upper College Road on the Kingston campus — not in downtown Providence. For reservations and details, call Rick at (617) 762-8371 evenings, 223-8521 weekdays, or by FAX 223-8523 anytime.

Rick Booth, Correspondent

Sacramento

Our vision is to reinvolve Sacramento-based alumni in Phi Kappa Psi through a loosely-based affiliation centered around prospective semi-annual events such as Founders Day luncheons and golf tournaments. Sacramento alumni will get a chance to network with each other and to enjoy the company of area Phi Psis. This is an opportune time for this given the upcoming San Francisco Grand Arch Council. By establishing this network, we hope to identify area alumni who have a desire to become involved in Phi Kappa Psi once again, which could entail aiding Cal Iota since we are the only area chapter. Perhaps from this potential pool of brothers, we can discover the possible future investment support and real estate expertise needed to realize our goal of attaining permanent housing for Cal Iota.

In the short term, it is our goal to establish a core group of Sacramento alumni to push the SAA into being through identifying potential members and promoting some ground-breaking events, which would hopefully grow into a long term entity.

It is our hope to have the infrastructure of the organization established within the next six months in order to peak interest in prospective events before the San Francisco GAC.

Interested??? All ideas and energy are more than welcome in making this a reality. If you would like to help or are just interested in being a member, please contact Dick Ong or Mark Kohnen.

Dick Ong, Correspondent

Southern Arizona

Winter is upon us in the Old Pueblo. I hope all of you winter visiting Phi Psis can join us in sharing stories, good times and brotherhood. When will we all get together? Why, Founders Day, of course. The exact date and time are not yet available, but please call Bryan Foulk at 742-3123 or the Arizona Alpha Chapter at 792-1852 for more information. There are also monthly alumni meetings; again, please call for information.

I wish to especially thank all brothers involved with helping Arizona Alpha in its goal to finally get a house. Steve Fowler, Tom Oxnham, Lou Hoffman and Chauncey Hill, all Arizona '77, for putting together the High Phive. Dick Nicky for donating money every year, and Jack Murphy for heading the fund raising efforts. If you can help in any way please let us know. This is a major undertaking for Arizona and all Phi Psis.

Bryan Foulk, Correspondent

South Plains

SPAA Marches Ahead

The first year of the revitalized SPAA finds the organization reaching out to broaden the ranks of alumni from Texas Beta as well as all Phi Psis in the area. Homecoming 1991 proved to be even better than 1990 and was marked by an excellent celebration thanks to the support of Harold Arnett, Texas Tech '78, Mike Foerster, Texas Tech '76, and Brian Carr, Texas Tech '78. The Phi Psi Rag has grown in subscriptions so that the last issue was received by all Texas Beta alumni in Texas. While The Shield provides updates on the national front only the Rag gives unedited reporting on issues of concern to Texas Beta.

Quarterly meetings have been initiated this year for SPAA members with a luncheon business meeting held at Fuddrucker's. Areas of concern voiced at that meeting reflect a continued interest in improving fiscal monitoring at all levels of the fraternity as well as assisting the local chapter in its efforts to remove past debts owed by the closed chapter.

For any member of the Fraternity who would like to receive the Rag, please contact Dr. Brian Carr at 4002A 22nd Street, Lubbock, Texas 79410. If you would like to contribute an opinion to this publication, it would be welcome. Marching to a West Texas drumbeat, the SPAA will continue to pursue excellence and fulfill opportunity. Join SPAA today!

Brian Carr, Correspondent

Tulsa

The Tulsa Alumni Club beat its chest over our good luncheon deal at the Tulsa Press Club in the last Shield, so now the Press Club seems to be wallowing in financial problems, and our group is out of a home for the moment.

Luncheons are still planned for the third Monday of the month, and there will be a Founders Day celebration somewhere.

The summer rush party was magnificent with 40 top-flight boys attending. Stafford Davis, Northwestern '42, did it all — served barbecue, etc.

There have been Oklahoma Alpha and Kansas Alpha house activities this autumn, which kept several of us racing down the road. Kansas Alpha's William H. Ellis, Kansas '42, Head of Farley Candy, set a good example for us all with a new wife and a second $100,000 contribution to the expanded Kansas Alpha house. Larry Winn Jr., Kansas '62, former Congressman, served as head of this highly successful project.

To supplement the 30 members of our Club, we have a mailing list of other brothers in northeast Oklahoma to ask to join.

Dean Sims, Correspondent

Wisconsin

The Wisconsin Alumni Association is preparing to celebrate its fifth Founders Day on February 22, and after last year's success, we are again planning both a luncheon and a formal dinner. John Kandenburg will be organizing an afternoon lunch at Mader's in Milwaukee and a formal banquet in Beloit later that evening. Times and the location in Beloit are still to be determined, so watch your mail for all the latest news.

We have been busy edging Wisconsin Alpha toward its chartering goals. Most recently we organized a retreat at the UW Memorial Union where we discussed rush activities and problem solving strategies.

We were also well represented at the latest Woodrow Wilson Leadership School in Indianapolis. Mike McCoy, Indiana '58, and Scott Murphy, Beloit '88, made the trek to Indiana on our behalf.

The Wisconsin Alumni Association wants to wish Rich Weiler, this past spring's Alumni Golf Champion, well as he moves on to a new job in Indiana. We would also like to welcome back Kevin Stevens, Beloit '84, who has returned to Wisconsin after seeking his fortune in the Detroit area.

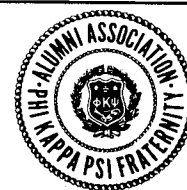

Finally, if you are interested in becoming involved with either the Alumni Association or Wisconsin Alpha's re-chartering efforts, please contact us. You can write Mike McCoy, 1 Hiawatha Circle, Madison, Wisconsin 53711, or call (608) 274-1638. The commitment is small, and the men can use all the alumni support we can muster.

Karl Curtis, Correspondent

York

As contact person of the York Area Phi Psi Alumni Club, I would like to welcome all local Phi Psis from the area to join in the excitement. As our group is just in the beginning stages, this will be a great way for local alumni to get involved with both old and new brothers on the ground floor. Our first meeting will be in conjunction with Founders Day and the York College Phi Kappa Psi Colony in February. All local brothers are invited to contact either me at (717) 852-0982, or Michael J. Carey of Pennsylvania Rho at (717) 852-7370. This organization, even though just in the beginning stages, is planning future greatness, leading eventually to an alumni association charter. It will also serve as a way for local Phi Psis to get together and bond, all for the same cause.

Bryan Meck, Correspondent

Loyal Alumni

As you gather together at Founders Day and elect new officers for your local Alumni Associations and Clubs, please report your new officers to the national Director of Alumni Relations and the Editor of The Shield. Thank you!

1991 Ralph D. Daniel Leadership Award

This $4,000 award is made in honor of Mr. Phi Psi, Dud Daniel, who has faithfully served this Fraternity since his initiation at the University of Arizona in 1947. The grant is made to an undergraduate brother who has displayed outstanding leadership skills in his Phi Psi chapter, on his campus and in his community.

The 1991 winner is Scott S. Brown, Oregon '88. Scott is an architecture major and plans to graduate this spring.

He has served Oregon Alpha as president, correspondent, house manager and as chairman of the public relations, alumni relations and philanthropy committees. While at the University of Oregon, he has served on the Bookstore and Erb Memorial Student Union boards of directors and was coordinator of the Centurion Awards selection committee. Also, he is a founder and co-chairman of Greek 101, a workshop for new members in the Greek system, and a founder of Oregon's club hockey team.

1991 Maurice J. Warnock Scholarship

This grant honors Maurice J. Warnock, Oregon '23, the former chairman of Armstrong World Industries and a trustee of the Endowment Fund from 1970 to 1976. The $1,000 grant is awarded to a member of the Oregon Alpha Chapter based on financial need, academic excellence, leadership skills and high character.

The 1991 winner is Jason S. Ashley, Oregon '88. An accounting major, Jason graduated from Oregon in December 1991. While at Oregon Alpha, he served the chapter as kitchen steward and as chairman of the alumni relations, intramural, social and Greek Week committees and additionally served on the scholarship and finance committees. His leadership contributions to the University include IFC Social Issues chairman, Greek Advisory Board and AIDS Education Task Force. Also, served as an organizer of the COLORS Program and Greeks for Earth Day, as an assistant coach in the Kidsport Program and as an assistant scoutmaster for the local Boy Scouts troop.

Annual Meeting Notice

Notice is hereby given that the biennial meeting of the Endowment Fund of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Friday, July 31, 1992, during the 66th Grand Arch Council at the Hyatt Regency at Embarcadero Center in San Francisco, California. The purpose of the meeting is to elect a trustee to serve a six-year term and to transact the business of the foundation as required by the Articles of Incorporation. — John F. Buck, Secretary

Phi Kappa Psi Badge Replica

Adopted in 1914, the Badge of Phi Kappa Psi symbolizes the ideals we have sworn to uphold.

This replica of the standard badge of the Fraternity is hand-crafted from white oak and is made available to Phi Psi chapters only through The Shield. Ideally suited for use in formal chapter functions, the enlargement allows easier attention to its details by a larger number of people.

Add the Finishing Touch to Your Chapter Room Today.

ADVISOR PROFILE

by John V. Ciccarelli, Cal State Northridge '72
Coordinator of Chapter and Faculty Advisors

JAMES R. BLAZER II

Chapter Advisor, Ohio Delta at The Ohio State University

Background: Jim Blazer, Ohio State '79, is president and owner of an insurance agency based in Columbus, Ohio. The agency specializes in life, health and disability insurance to individuals and corporations that are members of trade and professional associations. Jim and his wife, Barbara, live in Columbus and are expecting their first child in January.

Jim Blazer: "Entering my sixth year as chapter advisor, it really does not seem possible that the time has gone by."

"Helping the chapter bring itself into the guidelines of the FIPG policy has been difficult to say the least. But, this year our chapter taken on the challenge given to them and broken out of the stereotypical mold that affects all of us as members of a fraternity. I am proud that Ohio Delta has led the Greek system into full compliance with the FIPG policy."

BRUCE M. TAVARES

Chapter Advisor, Rhode Island Beta at the University of Rhode Island

Background: Bruce M. Tavares, Rhode Island '74, served as VGP, SG and BG as well at the committee level as an undergraduate. He and his wife, Anne-Marie, and their children, Benjamin and Laura, live in southern Rhode Island and run a day care center out of their home. Bruce is a Senior Programmer Analyst at the headquarters of Brooks Drugs. He is an active member of the house corporation and chairman of the Chapter Advisory Committee.

Bruce Tavares: "Life as a chapter advisor has been challenging, rewarding, fun, a lot of work and then some. The formation of the Chapter Advisory Committee has been extremely helpful."

"Concerns about alcohol, drugs, date rape and the rising cost of education are daily concerns that our undergraduate brothers and pledges face. By the time our young men make a commitment to our beloved Fraternity, their morals and social attitudes have been formed. Since we are a part of all that we meet, my hope is that their experience in Phi Psi will expand their horizons."

STEPHEN R. O'ROURKE

Chapter Advisor, Missouri Alpha Chapter at the University of Missouri

Background: Steve O'Rourke, Missouri '74, is employed by AEP Industries as area manager of the mid-west region in their specialty products division. Steve is single and currently lives in Columbia, MO.

Steve O'Rourke: "I believe my role as chapter advisor is not to lead these young men down the path of brotherhood, but rather to guide them, to show them the way. To allow them to fail, not too much or too hard, but enough to allow them to realize that brotherhood is something worth striving for and that four years isn't enough time to claim it."

"Missouri Alpha is very fortunate to have a number of volunteers who seem to realize this and who readily take up the opportunity to practice this — Bill Scheidker, John Gillis, Charlie Allis, Bill Cockeair, Curt Williams and Wynn Wiegand, all winners of Mo. Alpha's Man of the Year Award and current members of our Advisor Committee and House Corporation; also Terry Nichols, editor of the Mo. Alphan, along with Rick Bien, Steve Lochmoeller and Jeff McHenry, current members of the board. Finally, I would be remiss if I didn't mention Ken Thorpe and Bob Underhill for their past work. These brothers, in word and deed know that, "The crest and crowning of all good, life's final star, is brotherhood."

East Carolina Chartering

by Mike Kennedy, East Carolina '91

On October 26, 1991, the culmination of two and a half years of hard work and determination came to an end as the men of North Carolina Beta received their charter and became part of the proud heritage of Phi Kappa Psi.

The History of East Carolina University

East Carolina University, North Carolina's third largest institution of higher learning, was founded in 1907 as a state supported teacher training school before becoming a liberal arts college in 1941. More than 16,500 students at East Carolina have a total of 104 program tracks that offer bachelor's degrees, 87 in master's degrees, six in doctoral work in basic medical science and one doctoral program in the School of Education. With 85 buildings on a 460-acre campus, the school has physical assets over $350 million.

The History of North Carolina Beta

The history of North Carolina Beta is one that reads like a success story. It all began in February 1989, when a group of men came together to form a fraternity. A name for this fraternity was not yet known, until one of the members noticed an advertisement in the school newspaper that asked for men interested in starting a Phi Kappa Psi chapter at East Carolina University. Transfer student Thomas Herdelin, Temple '87, who placed the advertisement, was contacted by the group of men, and so began the making of North Carolina Beta at East Carolina.

Our colony status was obtained on April 12, 1989, and we were recognized as a fraternity on campus. The original 17 members set out to make themselves known among their peers.

While other Greek organizations settled down from member recruitment, North Carolina Beta Colony continued to bring in strong members throughout the school year. For four consecutive semesters, we have maintained the highest GPA on campus for a Greek organization. We have contributed to various charity organizations through car washes and our annual "Kool Aid" party, which marks our Founders Day.

A Weekend To Be Remembered!

On October 24, 36 candidates for initiation were given the national colony exam. The test was administered by Executive Director Terry Harper, Oklahoma State '85, Director of Chapter Services Ron Richard, Minnesota '84, and Director of Publications John Mead, Tennessee '87.

The next afternoon, the colony received the national officers and guests in the university student center. With honored guests such as Fraternity President Robert Lazzell, West Virginia '42, and Mrs. Lazzell, Vice President J. Smith Harrison Jr., South Carolina '73, Mystagogue Kent Owen, Indiana '58, "Mr. Phi Psi" Dud Daniel, Arizona '47, Assistant Chaplain Bob Bird, West Virginia '73, and Director of Planning John D. Watt III, Duke '75, a festive time was had by all. Also joining us were Chapter Advisor Larry Osborne, Duke '73, and Faculty Don Guy, Chicago '58.

The following morning, 36 men arrived in black tie for the installation ceremony at Jarvis Memorial Church. We offer special thanks to the brothers who travelled far to participate in the ceremony: Thomas Colony Founder Tom Herdelin, also a charter member of Pennsylvania Pi, accepts the charter on behalf of the North Carolina Beta Chapter.

Kramer, Duke '89, John Sartor, Duke '89, Ron Sciandri, Duke '91, Doug Shoemaker, Duke '89, Mark VandeKerkhoff, Bowling Green '86, Matthew Eakin, Bowling Green '86 (son of the ECU Chancellor), Tad Derenberger, Temple '90, Mike Morrow, Temple '87, James Edwards, Temple '89, and Jon Herskovitz, Temple '87.

Following the ECU gridiron victory over Pitt, the brothers gathered to hear from Dud Daniel on how to run a proper chapter meeting. We also were treated to many stories from Mystagogue Owen, who instilled in us just what it means to be a member of Phi Kappa Psi. That night, we gathered at the Hilton Inn for our installation banquet. After a wonderful meal, Symposiarch Daniel introduced our honored guests, followed by a most inspiring speech by Keynote Speaker Owen. Terry Harper next presented various gifts to the chapter. A special note of thanks to all who gave gifts in honor of our installation. To close our banquet, President Lazzell offered words of wisdom that I hope will guide this chapter to be the best on the campus of the East Carolina University.

This past semester, our brotherhood has seen how close we can be with the festive occasion of our installation as well as with the death of a colony member. With these experiences behind us, we now know what it truly means to be able to call each other brother.

The new brothers of North Carolina Beta gather with their guests outside the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church following the installation. Undergraduate brothers from Duke and Temple assisted in the ceremony as did representatives from the Atlanta Alumni Association.

Ralph D. Daniel
Leadership Award Winner

Message from the President

Dear Brothers,

It has been a genuine pleasure for me to have worked side by side with so many brothers and other helpers on such a healthy group of projects and tasks. Included, of course, were the new initiatives for which you expressed a positive desire during the last Grand Arch Council and at subsequent meetings and events of this biennium.

The Phi Kappa Psi volunteers have been wonderful in their willingness to step forward in increasing numbers to assume and carry some of the Fraternity's load. The Fraternity Headquarters staff has increased its workload while reducing its size. Yes, some improvements have not yet begun and, perhaps, only increases in income and additional paid workers in new roles will provide those needs. A primary example is a national computer-based management information system with all our organizational parts plugged in and equipped to give and get timely data. Also, our membership needs a seasoned Headquarters staff member who not only understands the "care and nourishment" of Phi Psi alumni but who is well trained and experienced in assisting alumni in their Phi Psi interests, particularly in house corporation, chapter advisor, fund raising, chapter finances, and related affairs.

Finally, the long-awaited planning summit is scheduled and funded. It should have produced a much-needed and meaningful Fraternity plan by the time you read this. This Phi Psi planning document is meant to state our goals and their priorities, to support our programs, to steer our budgeting, and to permit us to measure and critique progress.

The capital funding campaign at last got its start as this issue of The Shield goes to press. Its initial success primarily is to aid chapters, college students, house corporations and to provide that much-needed intra-Phi Psi communications network.

I believe that the quality of the undergraduate experience is the payback to the individual member and the Fraternity through enthusiasm or guilt. High quality fraternity image demands high standards of student performance coupled with the resources to provide leadership training and suitable incentive rewards. These must motivate young brothers to achieve their greatest potential as scholars and leaders while in school and later in their life's work and in society, thus serving the needs of all members of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

We are off to a good start in getting ready for the 21st century, and we still have a long, tough road ahead. It can be a fun experience for all if we but continue willingly to meet the challenges.

Fraternally, and with much brotherly love,

Bob ...

Final Session and Closing Gavel

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. — A world class city like San Francisco is a great place to call home. Phi Psi alumni from nearly every chapter live in and around the Bay Area. On July 29, the national convention will begin, and Bay Area brothers can meet their young chapter brothers and hear the campus news from their alma maters.

Undergraduate delegations from all 92 chapters are gathering at the Hyatt Regency at Embarcadero Center to enjoy San Francisco in fraternal fellowship. The GAC Host Committee believes the GAC is an excellent opportunity for area alumni to meet the Phi Psi students currently at their chapters.

University of Illinois Phi Psis are getting organized early. Tom Murphy and Rob Jeret will be on hand to welcome Illini students and visiting alumni. Having never been to the West Coast, Hans Bjorkman, current Illinois Delta president and an economics and speech communications student, is looking forward to the GAC and California.

Deputy Attorney General Greg Knapp, Illinois '71, enjoys the opportunity to socialize with both the older and younger members of his chapter. "We always grab up the Illinois Delta undergraduates and alumni and go out for a night on the town. We do this at every GAC — it's a great chance to kick back and have some fun."

Bay Area resident Jon Groesbeck, Illinois '74, agrees, adding that the Grand Arch Council allows him to hook up with his chapter despite the distance separating them. "I generally get back once a year — sometimes once every other year. But at the GAC, we alumni get together with the undergraduates at least once. Really the best thing is to meet the undergraduates to see what they are doing. It seems like you ask them more questions than they ask you. It's really good to sort of feed off their energy."

Arizona Alpha plans to take advantage of the Grand Arch Council to celebrate a pair of anniversaries. Founded in 1947 and rechartered in 1977, the chapter will observe both its 45th and 15th anniversaries on Friday, July 31, with a cookout at the home of Lou Hoffman, Arizona '77.

Check your schedule and make time for Phi Psi! Details on all activities will be available at the Registration Desk.

Reunion of '50s Phi Psis Proves There Is Much to Life After College

by James M. Rogers, Indiana '53

What was life like back in the '50s? Bobby sox, Mr. B. collars, cashmere sweaters and light gray flannel suits.

Frankie (Laine or Sinatra), 3-D movies, Ike and Mamie, geodesic domes, drive-ins, big bands, Jack Kerouac, Senator McCarthy, Elvis, the Crew Cuts, Steve Allen, Marlon Brando and aluminum foil Christmas trees. Sputnik, Inchon, Spike Jones, Marilyn (the real dual Hollywoods?), Milton Berle and Your Hit Parade. Yes, it really was the Fabulous Fifties, but we just didn't know it at the time. To the younger generation, it's like the Roarin' '20s used to be to us.

It had been so long since most of us who were in college together during this time had seen each other (over 40 years for some). We'd attracted 30 or so to an early '50s reunion six or seven years ago. Since I've spent a career planning special events, I got a crazy impulse one day to stage a reunion of brothers from all the '50s. I was sure that if I just sent out a nice announcement, the brothers would follow. Sound like Field of Dreams? Well, that's almost how it happened. We "built" it, and they came.

It was a two-night weekend last August. With a lot of help on arrangements from Vern Young, '55, and Joe Schaub, '56, we literally staged a very lively and heartwarming Phi Psi reunion that attracted 64 slightly weathered and well-seasoned contemporary brethren and their ladies. Or do we have to say "women" now?

From California to Maine, Wisconsin to Texas, they came from 18 states. What a treat to shake those hands again — slip the old-time friendly grip — and, yes, give big bear hugs to each other after our post-college days had allowed us to survive the minefields of life. We all agree, though, that never since college had any of us been so carefree and laid back.

It was the first-ever reunion of a full decade of Phi Psis from the Indiana Beta Chapter (maybe anywhere). Initiates or graduates from that decade were invited. Included were 13 initiation classes (though not a soul from '47) who gathered at the FourWinds Resort on Lake Monroe on the outskirts of Bloomington.

The men and their spouses or spousal equivalents (who were having at least as much fun as we) began pouring in on Friday afternoon, and, as old friends recognized each other, they quickly dispersed to their rooms or to the bar for quick catch-up group therapy. Two '54 classmates, Carey Spicer and Tom Dusthimer passed out invitations to a hospitality suite at a nearby lake condo.

By 7:00 p.m., two-thirds of the registrants had arrived. Some were taking turns on a party boat cruise at dusk, others partied on shore. Then they gathered into smaller classmate clusters over drinks and dinner on-the-town.

More arrivals on Saturday morning as breakfast in the hotel dining room became one of the enduring, impromptu socializers of the entire weekend. Table-hopping for casual chats about wives in the work force, fraternity tales, retirement plans, golfing lies, grandkids, misspent youth and parenting woes and/or high achiever offspring. No doubt the ears were burning, too, of those, who for good or dubious reasons, weren't present to defend themselves.

One of the big disappointments was that some of the popular living legends of fraternity house lore didn't come. Some for good reason, while others were alleged to have intellectually surpassed such "tinker toys and Hardy Boys" activities. Everyone appreciated hearing from those who sent warm wishes and personal regrets.

Instant recognition was not always possible — time and gravity had reshaped most of us to varying degrees — but that didn't change us inside. Here were men and women who had been apart for 30 to 40 plus years, taking up where they'd left off and proving once again, there are no friends like old friends.

Saturday was a busy one. A motor coach tour of the campus — with stopovers at the IU Assembly Hall, better known as Bobby Knight's battleground, the old house on Third Street (well preserved as a university office building) and the current chapter house, where local alumni hosted a reception and state-of-the-chapter update. With dismay, there we learned that the 40-year Arabian Nights dance tradition had been hit by a "scud missile." Out of touch with the times, they said. Alas, modern history has vanquished the enchantment of romantic Persian nights or the likes of Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves. But it's been replaced with the "Dance of the Barbary Corsairs." Just wait until the Algerian Pirates Rights Movement gets hold of this one....

Oh well, they can never take the memories of our Dance of the Golden Veil away, despite Saddam or the Ayatollah or any other modern day tyrant in the land of sand and scimitars and samovars.

Following the campus tour, it was off to a pizza lunch at Nick's Olde English Hut, a landmark campus hangout that we'd "founded." It just gets better every year. Following a short sweatshirt shopping spree on the strip, it was back to reunion central for a quick nap before the main event — the reception/dinner on Saturday night.

Prior to dinner, a group photo of deMille proportions was staged to prove it was not just a dream. The after-dinner program was emceed by Jim Hollenbeck, '52, who introduced five brothers (Jerry Chamberlain, '48. LaMar Gaston, '50, Tom Tiegler, '53. Tom Walker, '55, and Tom Bigley, '59) to give personal reminiscences for their part of the decade.

Then I read choice entries from the actual chapter meeting minute book, which Instant recognition was not always possible — time and gravity had reshaped most of us to varying degrees — but that didn't change us inside. Here were men and women who had been apart for 30 to 40 plus years, taking up where they'd left off and proving once again, there are no friends like old friends.

revealed for inquiring minds the earth-shattering concerns, distresses and annoying personal habits of brothers that often caused lengthy deliberations and lost study time. The lines were filled with incidents of dorm snoring, infrequent bathing, bad table manners, date scamming, impromptu sorority serenades, dorm pillows at Brown County picnics, indiscretions of the fraternity dog at a sorority exchange dinner and much worse! It was written evidence of our youthful value system, which no doubt has eroded greatly in recent years. Or could it?

Sunday came too soon. What a weekend. What a new Phi Psi memory to savor. And what fun to start planning the next one, which the majority of all post-event questionnaires indicate should be in three or four years.

Judging from their comments and compliments during the weekend and on questionnaires returned afterward, we'll be doing it again in three or four years.

Now more than ever, our national Fraternity needs to stimulate alumni spirit and support. What better way to rekindle the flames of brotherhood again than by bringing all the guys together from one whole era like we did during this magic weekend. We've all been regularly hit up for contributions to Phi Psi on different levels. Perhaps the touch would be a little softer if such nostalgic events would be held at chapters everywhere to remind us of those special days in our lives.

New York Theta RIT Enrolls in Phi Psi

by Jim Garvey, Rochester Institute of Technology '92

On April 25, New York Theta Colony at the Rochester Institute of Technology graciously accepted Phi Kappa Psi's greatest honor, the granting of the Fraternity's charter. Two years of hard work and dedication culminated with the initiation of 56 new Phi Psi brothers who will wear the badge of the Fraternity with reverence and dignity.

The installation weekend began on Thursday, April 23, with Director of Chapter Services Ron Richard, Minnesota '84, administering the national colony examination. The colony as a whole displayed its confidence and excitement by performing exceptionally well on the exam.

Friday marked the arrival of distinguished guests from the National Fraternity as well as parents, alumni and faculty. All of the guests met at a reception in the Fireside Lounge in the Student-Alumni Union Building. It was enjoyable to meet all of the distinguished officers of the Fraternity and talk with them on a more personal level.

The long-awaited day finally came on Saturday, April 25. The Brighton Presbyterian Church graciously offered its facilities to accommodate the initiation ceremony. All of the brothers were awed by the Ritual, in which we have waited so long to take part. It was gratifying finally to be a part of the traditions of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

That evening, the celebration began. The Installation Banquet was held at the Holidome in Henrietta. The presence of Fraternity President Robert E. Lazzell, West Virginia '42; Secretary David L. Woodrum, West Virginia '61; Mystagogue Kent C. Owen, Indiana '58; and Executive Director Emeritus Dud Daniel, Arizona '47, was the highlight of the evening as the brothers met the men who uphold the beloved traditions of Phi Kappa Psi.

The entire weekend was a success, but we could have made it this far without the help and support from the many people New York Theta has come in contact with over the past two years. Dorothy Brown, RIT's Coordinator of Greek Affairs, has supported us to prosper on the campus and helped us become one of the most respected fraternities at RIT. Education Leadership Consultants James Acton, Valparaiso '88, Doug Pszczolkowski, Allegheny '87, and S. Michael Wallen, Wabash '87, have guided us to strengthen our weaknesses in the pursuit of being a strong, well-rounded chapter. Our faculty advisors, Dr. Timothy Engstrom and Dr. John Helmuth, have inspired our intellect, helping us to have one of the highest grade point averages of all Greek organizations on campus. Finally, not enough praise can be given for the support, inspiration and dedication that Chapter Advisor Chet Osadchey, Cornell '85, has offered to the chapter. We would like to give a very well earned thank you to all who have supported New York Theta throughout its quest to attain its charter.

The History of Rochester Institute of Technology

RIT was founded in 1829 as the Athenaeum by such revered men as the founder of the city, Nathaniel Rochester. It was started by area businessmen, looking to spur cultural activity in the city. The Athenaeum was a growing association, merging with several other organizations, including the Mechanics Institute. The Mechanics Institute was started by Henry Lomb (of the Bausch & Lomb optical company) in 1885 to fill the void for technical education and to attract many prominent men to the growing city.

In 1891, the two organizations merged to form the Rochester Athenaeum and Mechanics Institute. The school's success continued to build with land and money donations from such wealthy area businessmen as George Eastman of Eastman-Kodak.

Today, Rochester Institute of Technology occupies 1,300 acres in suburban Rochester, the third largest city in New York. The Institute offers over 200 different programs for 11,000 undergraduate and 1,500 graduate students. RIT also houses programs for the School of American Craftsmen and The National Technical Institute for the Deaf.

The co-operative education program is the fourth oldest and fifth largest in the world that offers work experience for more than 3,000 students with over 1,300 firms coast to coast and abroad.

RIT has provided quality, career-oriented programs for over 160 years. It is a university held in high esteem for graduating men and women that make an extremely positive impact on society in many ways.

SWGP Robert Lazzell, West Virginia '42, presents the chapter charter for New York Theta to President Nate King, Rochester Institute of Technology '92. The chapter, born out of a local society called the League of Knights, was installed on April 25, 1992.

History of the New York Theta Colony

On March 17, 1990, Phi Kappa Psi established a colony of dedicated men whose goal was to become the New York Theta Chapter at RIT. However, this goal was not a new concept for these men. Instead, the idea had been conceived a year and a half prior to the colonization in the form of a small social group called the League of Knights.

The League of Knights was founded primarily to satisfy the needs of these men that could not be met by the fraternities already on the RIT campus. They were in search of a fraternity that would uphold their morals and ideals, allow them to maintain their high academic standards, be socially and athletically active, and to be philanthropically involved in the Rochester community. The League of Knights began to interview several national fraternities in January 1990. The group was unanimous in its choice of Phi Kappa Psi because of its reputation as a gentleman's fraternity and its espousal of high ideals similar to those of the League of Knights. The L.O.K. became a colony of Phi Kappa Psi in the spring of 1990, but to the new colony, this was only one step toward the ultimate goal.

During the next two years, the colony took the RIT campus with vigor and enthusiasm. The group prospered, and Phi Kappa Psi recruited its first pledges in the fall of 1990 and has been pledging diversely talented men ever since. The academic standards have never fallen as Phi Kappa Psi remains at the top scholastically. The Rochester community has been affected by the Fraternity's active social work repeatedly in the past. Phi Kappa Psi has taken an active part of the RIT campus and is well known by the independents as well as the Greeks.

Early in 1992, the colony began to take its last steps toward becoming a chapter. An ad hoc committee was appointed, and the petition was written and sent to the Fraternity Headquarters. On March 28, 1992, the Executive Council voted unanimously that New York Theta would be the newest addition to the Fraternity's 140-year tradition of excellence. As we look ahead to the future, the brothers see many challenges that are ready to be met with the same vigor that has brought them where they are today.

Newly-initiated members of New York Theta sign the chapter charter and a duplicate of the charter. Duplicates are made for display so the original document can be protected.

JAMES L. McDOWELL, Colorado '27, urges his fellow brothers to pitch in for Colorado Alpha. He recently donated the funds for the chapter to purchase chairs for the dining room. He says the undergraduates are fine Phi Psis and that they "need all the help they can get in rebuilding."

JOHN DOUGLAS MOTTRAM, Stanford '33, penned a poem titled "Taxes, Pain!" to be included in The Best Poets of the '90s. The anthology is published by the National Library of Poetry in Owings Mills, Md., and was due out in May 1992.

MAJ. GEN. FRANKLIN A. NICHOLS (ret.), Washington & Lee '33, was invited to participate in the pre-game activities for the John Hancock Bowl and Sun Carnival in El Paso, Texas. The theme was "Proud to Be an American" — quite fitting since Nichols is possibly Phi Psi's only flying ace from World War II, credited with downing nine enemy aircraft and one freighter.

ROBERT H. LUHRSEN, Beloit '35, traveled from Naples, Fla. to join the members of Wisconsin Gamma in their Founders Day observance this year. The featured speaker, he spoke not only of his exploits in World War II, which earned him the nickname "One May Army Luhrsen" from General MacArthur's staff, but also of his undergraduate days. Both his parents died while he was in college, but the Phi Psis rallied to his aid each time, donating blood after his mother contracted leukemia and his father was shot in a robbery.

WILLIAM L. STEARMAN, Indiana '41, has been coaching basketball for quite some time. The Hall of Fame coach for Columbus (Ind.) North High School racked up his 1,000th game in December 1991 and posts a record making him the winningest active coach and fifth all-time on the Indiana high school ledger. Stearman said he learns something from every game.

DON M. NEWMAN, Purdue '42, was appointed by President Bush in April 1990 as U.S. Minister to the International Civil Aviation Organization. As such, he acts as the U.S. representative to the ICAO Council under the aegis of the Department of State. He previously served as acting secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services from January to April of 1989.

EDWARD R. WOOD, Cornell '47, is a professor in the department of aeronautics and astronautics at the U.S. Naval Post Graduate School in Monterey, Calif. His specialty is helicopters, and he has developed a device that reduces vibrations, increases speed and lowers fuel cost, making the helicopter more accurate for use as a gunship. His father, Frederic, preceded him at New York Alpha in 1920.

FREDERICK E. LEUSCHNER, Penn State '49, has been elected to the Public Relations Society of America's College of Fellows. He is one of 57 fellows chosen from a national membership of 15,357. To qualify for consideration, members must have practiced public relations for 20 years or more, have demonstrated high personal and professional achievement and be recommended by four accredited peers. Leuschner is public relations counselor and senior lecturer at Harrisburg (Pa.) Area Community College and is treasurer of the Pennsylvania Lambda Educational Foundation.

HAL W. HENDRICK, Ohio Wesleyan '51, professor of Human Factors at the University of Southern California, has been elected president of the International Ergonomics Association.

A physicist at Stanford Research Institute, he has served on the faculty at the University of Wisconsin and as a research scientist with the Ballistic Research Laboratory in Aberdeen, Md. He is the son of Carlton Crosley, Iowa '33.

RONALD D. WINNEY, Westminster '61, received the 1992 Alumni Achievement Award presented by Westminster College. Winney is treasurer of Ralston Purina Company in St. Louis and was recognized for outstanding achievement in his field. As treasurer, he oversees the corporate finance, cash management, risk management, payroll, payroll tax and worldwide treasury and financing activities that cover the 160 countries in which Ralston does business.

WILLIAM S. BAILEY, Oregon '67, was named Trial Lawyer of the Year by the Washington State Trial Lawyers Association at their 1991 convention. He has written a number of articles in national legal publications and is working on a trial practice book that discusses the adaptation of film and television methods to the trial of civil cases. Bailey comes from a long line of Phi Psis: grandfather, Robert W. Bailey, Purdue '09; father, Robert Jr., Purdue '32; uncles Jack, Purdue '36, and Albert, Indiana '39; and brother, Robert III, Oregon '65.

TRACY STAFFORD, Florida '67, currently serving in the Florida House of Representatives, has announced his re-election bid. The Fort Lauderdale-based legislator and former Archon of District IV is the vice chairman of the Criminal Justice Committee. All alumni in the South Florida area are welcome to contact either Rep. Stafford or his legislative aide, Gene Wilk, Cal State Northridge '90, at the campaign headquarters at (305) 462-7589.

KIRK S. ELLIOTT, Southern California '68, was recently featured in The Orange County Register for his work with the family-owned Elliott Corp., a general contracting firm in Newport Beach, Calif. The company was highlighted for its ability to stay ahead of the recession by excelling in business development and providing outstanding service.

RICHARD A. HOUCEK, Missouri '70, has started Soar With Eagles, Atlanta, specializing in self-improvement, personal motivation and corporate training programs. He spent 18 years in advertising, most recently as president of Ross Roy Advertising, Atlanta, has been elected to Who's Who Among U.S. Executives, Who's Who in Georgia, and is a member of the National Speakers Association and the Georgia Speakers Association.

RICHARD N. BIEN, Missouri '76, received the Public Service Award from the Lawyers Association of Kansas City. He was selected because of his noteworthy commitment to both lawyer and community related public service projects. He is a partner with Swanson, Midgley, Gangwere, Clarke & Kitchin and is director of the American Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division Affiliate Outreach Project, a program dedicated to involving young lawyers in public service projects.

ROBERT L. MERRIAM JR., Vanderbilt '78, a former Peace Corps volunteer, founded Micro Development Corps, which is directed by former volunteers and international development professionals with extensive experience in Africa. Based in Brattleboro, Vt., the organization establishes, supports, reports and evaluates activities to address rural poverty and resources in developing countries, concentrating on projects in geographic areas that have been neglected or abandoned by other organizations.

ROBERT F. MARCHESANI JR., Indiana-Pennsylvania '79, was awarded the Interfraternal Award at the annual meeting of the National Interfraternity Conference and the Association of Fraternity Advisors. In January 1991, Bob was charged with the great task and opportunity to deliver the premier Greek resource book, Baird's Manual of American College Fraternities. Bob exemplifies dedication to the fraternity and sorority community through his editing of the manual. This eagerly awaited publication is now available for use through Bob's hard work and perseverance. A former Archon, Bob now serves Phi Psi as Director of Alumni Relations and as chapter advisor to Indiana Zeta.

DOUGLAS J. SWANSON, Eastern New Mexico '80, is pursuing a doctorate in communications at the University of Oklahoma, where he is a member of the Oklahoma Alpha Chapter Advisory Committee. Swanson owns a Norman marketing and publication firm. He writes on business topics for several national and regional magazines and has written a multi-volume work, The Publicity Kit for Penny-Pinchers: Guidebooks for Promoting Your Small Business Products, Services, and Ideas in Oklahoma. The publication is available from Image Management Media Press, 2115 Melrose Drive, Norman, OK 73069.

EUGENE R. THIEM, DePauw '83, is the new regional personnel representative for pharmaceutical manufacturer Eli Lilly in the Dallas regional office. He is responsible for overseeing and recruiting sales representatives in Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi. Gene was named Summerfield Scholar in 1986 by Indiana Alpha.

DENNIS R. McMAHON, Temple '87, is among the many Phi Psis volunteering with the Peace Corps. He is stationed in Mali in Western Africa training the residents to dig wells and to make more efficient use of the scant water resources.

JOHN F. BUCK

Chapter Advisor, Indiana Beta at Indiana University

Background: John Buck, Indiana '75, A graduate of Virginia Tech, he moved to Indiana University as assistant director of the Administrative Computing Center in 1969 and joined the faculty of the Computer Science Department. In his second year, he coached the Phi Psi intramural wrestling team. No doubt one of the older initiates of the fraternity at age 47, he was initiated in 1975. It was not long until they pressed him into service as their Chapter Advisor.

John Buck: "My relationship with the chapter has grown with the years. I have learned to trust the judgement of the men of the chapter even when I think they are wrong. I am not hesitant, however, to forcefully make my feelings known, and I think they appreciate the fact that they always know my opinion even though they may not agree with it. It keeps you active, thinking young, and brings new challenges daily to stimulate your life and warm your heart.

"For twenty years Kent Owen, Indiana '58, and I have worked together as either Faculty or Chapter Advisor, often switching roles for periods of time. Now we have adopted the Advisory Committee approach, and Kent serves as one of the counselors along with Daniel Meyer, Cornell '84, a graduate student in I.U.'s School of Law."

JAMES E. HAGLER

Chapter Advisor, Tennessee Epsilon at the University of Tennessee

Background: Jim Hagler, Vanderbilt '58, earned his degree in civil engineering from the University of Tennessee and subsequently spent 10 years as senior engineer in Project Management for Shell Oil Company. He then returned to the family farm partnership where he manages over 3,900 acres of timber, beef, hay and grain. He and his wife, Jean, are proud of their three daughters, Patti, Julie and Heidi, all members of Zeta Tau Alpha from the University of Tennessee.

Jim Hagler: "Working with the chapter gives me an avenue to associate closely with those who are one generation younger than me. They give me a different perspective on many ideas than my own peer group, and that is one of the most beneficial aspects of being a chapter advisor. The associations I have made allow me to look at other things differently.

"I think I offer a bit of experience in situations these guys haven't faced. Together, we can head off problems before they arise or diffuse them once they do. The advisory committee is quite beneficial. John Templeton, Tennessee '86, and Bernie Martin, Tennessee '86, provide some more focused attention to the special interest committees, like finance and fraternity education, that one advisor cannot do."

RICHARD E. ONG

Chapter Advisor, California Iota at the University of California, Davis

Background: Dick Ong, Oregon State '55, retired from the U.S. Navy with the rank of captain in 1987 and is currently vice president of CFP Incorporated, an organization that assists military personnel approaching retirement in financial planning. Dick and his wife, Joane, live in Citrus Heights, a suburb of Sacramento, California.

Dick Ong: "I see my role as chapter advisor to be just that — an advisor. I am there to help the chapter, when asked, in any manner that I can. The undergraduates must run their own chapter and learn to work together as brothers and to communicate effectively with alumni, other campus organizations, other Phi Psi chapters and the community. Chapter Advisors can help a great deal in this process by providing advice and counsel when requested, or when problems arise. The recently established Cal Iota Chapter Advisory Committee will provide even more support and alumni participation. Mark Castellucci, UC-Davis '79, serves as finance counselor, and Steve Ghio, UC-Davis '86, serves as membership counselor. Cal Iota is also very fortunate to have an active and enthusiastic house corporation composed of Sloan Rausser, UC-Davis '85, Mike Toner, UC-Davis '85, Kevin Crowe, UC-Davis '85, Steve Ghio, and Rico Hernandez, Stanford '78, all young alumni who meet monthly, and who are working closely with the chapter to increase alumni participation."

In the winter issue of THE SHIELD, Eric B. French, UC-Berkeley '87, and Arlin Pearson, Mississippi '88, were incorrectly listed among the Chapter Eternal. We regret the error and any misunderstanding arising from it.

PHILIP S. BROOKE, Stanford '11, Spokane, Wash., Dec. 4, 1991. After receiving his law degree from Stanford, he practiced in Spokane, building his firm — Paine Hamblen Coffin Brooke & Miller — into one of the largest in the city. Active in public affairs, he served for decades on the board of trustees of St. Luke's Memorial Hospital and was chancellor of the Episcopal Church Diocese.

PERCY E. WAGNER, Chicago '15, Chicago, Ill., April 7, 1992. A developer and banker, he was instrumental in building the Civic Center building in Flossmoor and acquiring land for Governors State University. He built hundreds of South Side and south suburban homes with his brother during the 1920s. He was a past president of the Chicago Real Estate Board, a past chairman of the Flossmoor Zoning Board and a lifetime honorary member of the board of directors of the Alumni Association for Governors State.

PAUL R. WINEMAN, Allegheny '18, San Juan Capistrano, Calif., December 1991. After graduating from Allegheny, He joined the B.F. Goodrich Rubber Company in Akron, Ohio, as a chemist. From 1934 to 1960, he worked in industrial products sales for the company in Kansas City, Los Angeles and Seattle. His son, Paul, enrolled in Phi Kappa Psi at the University of Washington in 1955.

ROBERT O. VOLKENING, Cornell '21, Hightstown, N.J., March 15, 1992. After graduating from Cornell, he earned his master's degree from Harvard Business School. He spent 25 years as a partner in the Wall Street firm Burton, Dana & Co. and then associated with Shearson Lehman Brothers, where he remained as financial consultant until he was 83.

GEORGE A. LIMBOCKER, Ohio State '23, St. Petersburg, Fla., Dec. 16, 1991. He was chief engineer for Bayfront Medical Center until he retired in 1968 and was a member of St. Peter's Episcopal Cathedral. His son, George, followed in his father's footsteps, joining Phi Kappa Psi at the University of Mississippi in 1967.

LESTER FOREST BECK, Beloit '24, Maitland, Fla., Nov. 15, 1991. Elected into Phi Beta Kappa at Beloit, he was a private corporate attorney in Battle Creek, Mich. prior to his retirement. He was a charter member of the Life Underwriters Association and served as president of Kiwanis Club of Winter Park.

CHARLES JOSEPH HARRIS, Chicago '25, Austin, Texas, Nov. 22, 1991. He spent his working years as a publisher in New York, Chicago and Detroit. He founded and published the Directory of Business and Industry as well as many educational and tourist guides for the city of Detroit. Since his retirement in 1973, he shared his love of music and dancing with the Wednesday Morning Club of Austin, The Waltz Club and The Tuesday Nighters Dance Club. He also served the Central Texas Alumni Association of Phi Kappa Psi as correspondent for several years.

DR. SAMUEL R. FRYER, Oklahoma '28, Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 30, 1991. During World War II, he served as a flight surgeon in the Army Air Corps. In 1953, he became medical director for O.G. & E., specializing in general surgery and industrial medicine.

JAMES C. OLSON, Wittenberg '28, New York, N.Y., April 1, 1992. An early leader in the field of management consulting, he started with Booz Allen & Hamilton in Chicago in 1936. While in Chicago, he became acquainted with other Phi Psi fledgling business leaders, including Rud Lawrence, Washington '33, Dale McKnight, Washington '32, and Mundy Peale, Chicago '26. Olson helped make the firm's Manhattan office the hub of its operations and to expand the firm into a worldwide company and a leader in its field. He served on the faculty at Wittenberg, as an administrator and as a trustee. He was a driving force behind the construction of the former Ohio Beta Chapter house and supported the chapter in many ways.

CHARLES D. HUGHES, Pennsylvania '29, Dayton, Ohio, Sept. 18, 1991. A U.S. Navy Commander, he retired in 1971. He was a member of Westminster Presbyterian Church and the Mask & Wig Club of Pennsylvania.

RAYMOND L. BYWATER, Iowa '30, Iowa City, Iowa, Nov. 25, 1991. Featured in the last issue of The Shield as a successful businessman and loyal alumnus of both Phi Kappa Psi and the University of Iowa, he has received additional recognition for his years of service. He and his wife were awarded the 1992 Distinguished Alumni Award in the Service category by the University of Iowa Alumni Association. The award was given to Brother Bywater posthumously on May 30, 1992.

ARTHUR BRIGGS DeVENNISH, Ohio State '30, Bexley, Ohio, March 19, 1992. An Army World War II veteran, he was co-owner and president of Carter Hardware. His legacy to Phi Kappa Psi includes his brother, Joseph, Ohio State '36, and his sons Edward, Ohio State '70, and John, Ohio State '70, as well as nine other relatives. Furthermore, in 1940 his grandmother was chosen sweetheart of Ohio Delta at age 90 in recognition of her contributions to the Columbus chapter.

THOMAS JACKSON MILIKIN, Wittenberg '30, Chico, Calif., Jan. 30, 1992. He served in the Navy on Midway Island and aboard the destroyer USS Baldwin during World War II. He made a career in newspaper advertising, working in Adrian, Mich., Evansville, Ind., Visalia, Calif., Vallejo, Calif., and Chico. In Martinez, Calif., he was the publisher of the paper. He was joined in Phi Kappa Psi by his brother, Robert, Wittenberg '37, and sons Stephen, Oregon '59, and Michael, Oregon '61.

The Rite of Committal

Presiding Officer

Brothers and Friends, we have come here to honor our late brother, _____, and to bring whatever comfort we can to his family. Although our own grief is great, our reverence and our gratitude are greater. Let us pray.

Chaplain or Alumnus

Almighty God, our Creator, we call on Thee in a time of sorrow. We come together to mourn the death of our brother in Phi Kappa Psi, _____. We give thanks for the life that was his, a life that he lived honorably and well. We give thanks for the blessing that his life has been to us who are his brothers, for the bonds of fraternity that unite us in fellowship and service. Grant, we pray, consolation to his family; comfort them with the knowledge that his life expressed a noble purpose, which death cannot defeat. Sustain them with the assurance that the enduring principles that moved his life and work will be carried on by his brothers in this generation and in the generations to come. We pray that Thou will impress the example of his life upon us and invest us with the will to know, as did he, the great joy of serving others. Give us the grace to be ever faithful to Thee and to every teaching of truth, compassion, and love. Help us so to live that in life we shall accomplish honorable works, and at death we shall enter Thy presence. Amen

Presiding Officer

Although death has taken our Brother from us, our lamp of brotherly love can never be extinguished. Like his own spirit, its bright clear flame can never die. By its very light we gather here to affirm the integrity of the life of _____, to console one another in our mutual loss, and to illuminate our own lives with his memory. May the lamp of brotherly love ever illuminate the altar of Phi Kappa Psi.

(Members of the Fraternity come forward to strew rose petals on the coffin.)

Presiding Officer

May peace and harmony ever be with us and our Great Ruler in Heaven ever guide us.

All members of the Fraternity clasp arms, if fitting encircle the grave, and sing "Amici usque ad aras."

This rite of committal was first conducted by the Indiana Beta chapter of Phi Kappa Psi at the burial of Eugene Lundy, Indiana '45, in Bloomfield, Indiana on January 30, 1982.

GORDON E. OLVEY, Indiana '30, Noblesville, Ind., Feb. 12, 1992. He had been a deputy chief examiner and a field examiner for the Indiana State Board of Accountants, retiring in 1971. Previously, he had worked nine years for O.L. Hayes & Co. Certified Public Accountants.

JOHN W. THOMPSON, Cornell '30, Brunswick, Ga., Nov. 30, 1991. He was a forestry consultant for various companies, managing land in southern states. Earlier, he was a managing forester for Johns Manville Forest Products as well as a soil conservationist and surveyor for the U.S. Forest Service.

PETER BOYD WELLS JR., Texas '33, Beaumont, Texas, Sept. 16, 1991. He graduated from Texas in 1936 and from Harvard Law School in 1940. He was a decorated veteran of World War II, reaching the rank of major in the Army. Afterwards, he practiced law in Beaumont where he formed and headed a prominent and highly respected firm. Widely travelled, he was very active in legal, civic and historical organizations. His brothers Tom and John and several cousins were also initiates of Texas Alpha.

EARL F. ARNETT, Texas '34, Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 14, 1992. He was retired from the General Electric Co. and the Department of Aging for the State of Ohio. He was active in the Columbus Alumni Association and was a member of the Indianola Presbyterian Church.

PAUL K. BRESEE, Illinois '34, Champaign, Ill., April 21, 1992. A longtime business leader and supporter of both the University of Illinois and the Illinois Delta Chapter, he and his brother were known as the "Voice of the Illini" during their 40 years as public address announcers for football and basketball games. He was instrumental in establishing Illinois Delta's C.F. "Dab" Williams Fund and was active in house corporation activities. Also, he served Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity as national president, having joined the organization when it was an agricultural honor society, before it became a general fraternity.

JOHN W. DREYER, Wittenberg '35, Fort Collins, Colo., Dec. 3, 1991. He was a chief petty officer in the Navy during World War II, serving in the Solomon Islands. After attending the University of Illinois, he taught social studies in Elgin, Ill., until his retirement in 1976.

EDWARD C. STRIEBICH JR., Allegheny '36, Daphne, Ala., Dec. 20, 1991. He graduated from Allegheny College in 1939. He lived in Daphne since his retirement from Chevron Oil Corp. in 1976.

ELLIS A. WUNSCH, Michigan '37, Traverse City, Mich., Dec. 25, 1991. He was a co-founder of Northwestern Michigan College in 1951. In 1962, he earned his doctorate in English literature from the University of Michigan. He was an associate professor at Michigan when he retired in 1980.

L. GORDON LEECH JR., Washington & Jefferson '38, Mayo, Md., Nov. 8, 1991. A Presbyterian minister, he served churches throughout Indiana for 35 years, including 15 years at First Meridian Heights Presbyterian Church in Indianapolis. Upon his retirement, he served as minister of visitation for First Presbyterian Church in Annapolis, Md.

C. SAMUEL DALEY, Gettysburg '40, Beverly Hills, Fla., Nov. 21, 1991. He retired from the American Water Works Service Corporation in Florida after 38 years of service as a financial advisor and certified public accountant. He was an active member of several community groups, including the Masons, the Elks and the Rotary Club.

FRANK EDWIN SIMS, Kansas '42, Tulsa, Okla., Jan. 19, 1992. He was president of Ortiz Mines, Inc., a New Mexico gold mining operation, and a former B-17 pilot in World War II. He was a noted petroleum engineer with expertise in secondary recovery of crude oil, working throughout the U.S. and in South America. He and his wife of 42 years, Lois Anne, a member of Delta Delta Delta and Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Tulsa, were killed instantly when their car struck a concrete pillar beneath an expressway overpass.

CHARLES E. WILLIAMS, Northwestern '44, Houston, Texas, Dec. 12, 1991. He was a retired grocer and restaurateur. He was a veteran of World War II in the Navy, a member of the Masonic Lodge, Terre Haute Scottish Rite and the Bloomfield VFW.

WALTER F. TITUS, Amherst '46, Schenectady, N.Y., June 5, 1991. After earning his doctorate in physics from Harvard, he worked as a physicist for the National Bureau of Standards and taught the same subject at Dartmouth College and Union College, where he chaired the physics department from 1980 to 1984. He also dabbled in restoring bikes and in building model railroads.

JAMES I. MICHAEL, Lafayette '47, Houston, Texas, Jan. 31, 1992. He was a graduate of Lafayette College and the University of Colorado School of Law. He worked with Shell Oil Company for over 30 years. He was a combat veteran of World War II, earning the Bronze Star and the Combat Infantry Badge.

THOMAS W. LYMAN JR., Illinois '48, Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 6, 1992. Achieving fame as a model in the 1950s and 1960s as the epitome of a gentleman with his debonair deportment, he was frequently featured in advertisements in magazines such as Playboy. But his true calling was in art. After receiving his doctorate from Chicago, he joined the faculty at Emory University in Atlanta. In his 25 years at Emory, he taught thousands of students and took hundreds of them to Europe to study.

ROBERT W. THEOBALD, Purdue '48, Sarasota, Fla., April 2, 1992. He owned Theobald Manufacturing Co. in Naperville, Ill., and Automated Systems in Sarasota. He retired from Dow Chemical and retired as president of Fairmont Chemical in Newark, N.J. He volunteered as a counselor to inmates at Rahway State Prison in New Jersey and was a deacon of the Presbyterian Church in Westfield.

TED J. MARRIOTT, Missouri '50, Gadsden, Ala., Nov. 6, 1991. During his 35-year career, he served as personnel manager for TRW, Kellwood, Chesebrough Ponds and Health-Tex. He was a veteran, having served during the Korean conflict.

ROBERT P. ASHLOCK, Missouri '55, Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 27, 1992. He was president and CEO of Assurex International and a member of the Upper Arlington Lutheran Church.

RONALD F. ESCHENBURG, Michigan '55, Grosse Pointe Park, Mich., Jan. 20, 1992. He worked for 20 years with Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co. in Detroit, where he was senior regional pension director. # Ohio Lambda Hosts Leadership Conferences

The old adage states that if you build a better mousetrap, the world will beat a path to your door. As the Ohio Lambda Chapter has discovered, if you sponsor a regional leadership workshop, the same thing will happen.

On February 22, 1992, the Ohio Lambda Chapter at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, hosted Phi Psi chapters from Districts II and III for a weekend of leadership development. The workshop was the fourth such undertaking the chapter has hosted in the past two years.

Chapter Advisor Bob Goldman, Miami '72, says the purpose of the workshop is to fill a perceived need of today's undergraduate leaders — the need to be able to cope with the complexities of operating a fraternity chapter and to share information informally among groups in similar situations.

"We needed to develop our leaders every year rather than every other year," Goldman said. "The Woodrow Wilson Leadership School meets every two years — this is often the only time our undergraduates are privy to learning leadership skills and how to deal with the problems they may face.

"The regional conference allows undergraduates to meet and exchange ideas on a semesterly basis and gives the leaders of these chapters some positive feedback to improve their operations. I wish we had 100 strong chapters, but we don't. The particular makeup of the conference allows the stronger chapters to help the weaker ones through interaction and idea sharing."

Another strength, according to Goldman, is the low cost. The $10-$12 registration fee covers materials and lunch on Saturday. Participants are encouraged to bring sleeping bags and bedding to take advantage of the floor space of the Ohio Lambda Chapter house. "Or they can rent a hotel room if they wish," Goldman adds.

According to attendees and planners alike, the major benefit of low cost is that more representatives from a single chapter are able to attend, and therefore, more students are returning to their chapters with new ideas and new energy to improve their operations and programming.

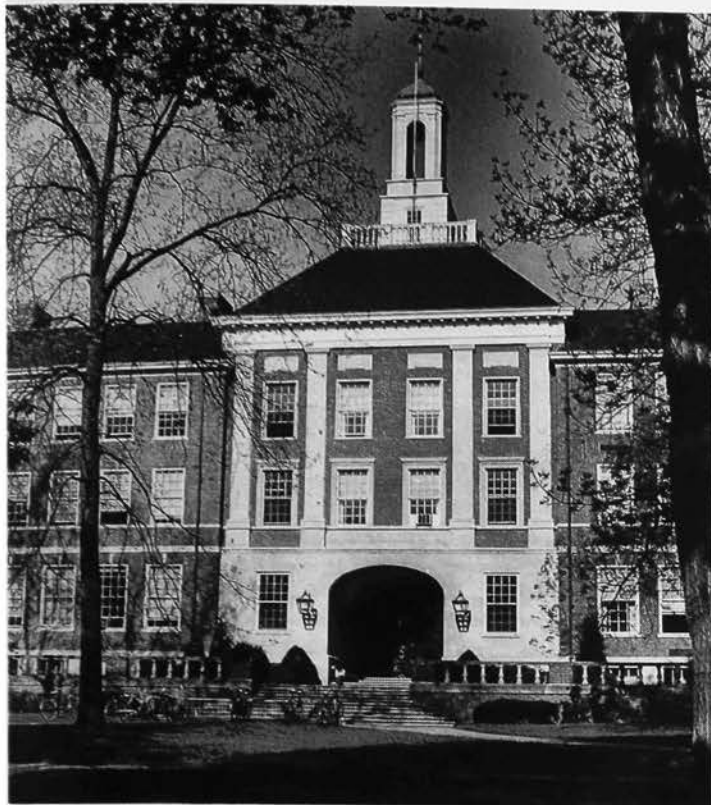

With attendance topping 100 undergraduates and special workshops for chapter advisors, the Ohio Lambda Chapter has tapped into fertile territory, indeed. In fact, Goldman plans on continuing the workshops for Districts II and III at Miami and to add regional workshops next fall for Districts I and IV. District VI is also planning a workshop for the fall, to be held on October 10 on the campus of Cal State Northridge.

Each workshop is a joint effort between Goldman and two undergraduate planning chairmen. Jim Kessler, Miami '91, and Rob Evans, Miami '91, served as the local point men for the February conference. Goldman also credits input from the Archons of Districts II and III, Dan Isaac, Akron '87, and Joe Lockett, Miami '90.

According to Kessler, planning started at the end of November and ran to February. He and Evans were responsible for contacting and inviting chapters in Districts and for contacting speakers.

Speakers at the conferences have included Goldman, Executive Director Terry Harper, Fraternity President Bob Lazzell, Coordinator of Chapter and Faculty Advisors John Ciccarelli, Ohio Zeta Chapter Advisor Dallas Horvath, Director of Chapter Services Ron Richard and Ohio Lambda alumni. Special guest speakers at the February conference were John Green, executive director of Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity, who spoke on the Future of the Greek System, and Randy Walker, head football coach at Miami University, who spoke on motivation.

Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, is the ideal location for a Greek leadership conference. Additionally, Oxford hosts the national headquarters of Beta Theta Pi, Phi Delta Theta and Phi Kappa Tau fraternities and Delta Zeta Sorority.

"I think the entire project is worthwhile if each person takes back one idea to strengthen both his chapter and Phi Psi as a whole," Kessler said. "I think in helping to plan this conference I gained a certain amount of personal development. It was great to have guys from different chapters come and exchange ideas and meet different brothers."

Topics run the range of chapter concerns and operations, including rush, fraternity education, alumni relations, risk management and motivation. "We take the hands-on approach," Goldman said, "no script, and we offer real world experience."

Mike Carey, York '92, gave the conference high marks, despite the 8-hour drive. Eight members from this southeastern Pennsylvania school travelled over 400 miles to attend the conference.

"It was certainly worth the trip, particularly from the view of a colony," Carey said. "I think the smaller regional workshop is a good idea. Its low cost allows for high attendance by individual chapters and provides great exposure to the bigger picture of Phi Psi as a national organization."

"We learned practical knowledge on risk management, real concrete information. The alumni relations and brotherhood seminars were also good for ideas."

Undergraduates or alumni interested in attending the fall conference at Ohio Lambda on October 31 or in organizing a leadership conference in his region can contact either the chapter at 122 South Campus Ave., Oxford, OH 45056 or Bob Goldman at P.O. Box 1558, Altamonte Springs, FL 32701 for more information. For more information on the plans for District VI, contact Archon Robbie Sostman at 18116 Nordhoff St., Northridge, CA 91325.

Tennessee Epsilon Celebrates Quarter Century

In 1967, a group of young men came together on the University of Tennessee's campus in Knoxville to create a new fraternity. Guided in their formation by colonizers Art McHaffie, Ohio Wesleyan '65, and Peter Taillie, Ohio Wesleyan '65, the fledgling colony earned its chapter charter in one year — a record accomplishment at the time.

Although drawn from various areas of the country and from different backgrounds, it is certain that the founding fathers of Tennessee Epsilon had least one thing in common — they all fostered ideals similar to those of our Founders from 1852, Messrs. Letterman and Moore. These men were willing to work together to form a brotherhood in their college home that would work for the betterment of the world around them. As a small group struggling to grow in an era in which fraternities were not popular, they surely had no idea what the future would bring.

On April 4, 1992, the Tennessee Epsilon Chapter celebrated 25 years on UT's campus. Recapping our joys, triumphs and the many struggles that we have faced, it was truly a joyous occasion.

Having invited alumni and families of our brothers, we entertained around 100 guests for the weekend's festivities, which included lunch with a brief program, an open house reception and a night out in Knoxville's Old Town section. After the leisurely afternoon luncheon, Executive Director Emeritus Dud Daniel, Arizona '47, (who, incidentally, was present at the chapter installation in 1967), gave the keynote address. He offered us great words of strength, hope and courage for the future of our chapter. We were also honored by the presence of national Treasurer Fred Clay, Alabama '67, and his wife, Ruth Ann, and Executive Director Terry Harper, Oklahoma State '85.

Also at the banquet, we were presented with a copy of our original charter for our chapter house. Our chapter advisor, Jim Hagler, Vanderbilt '58, was recognized for his dedication and service to our chapter.

Most surprising at the event was the chartering of the Smoky Mountain Alumni Association. It was exciting to see the numerous alumni involved and to listen to their plans for upcoming activities. We thank them immensely for all of their efforts and look forward to working with them in the future to strengthen the foothold of Phi Kappa Psi in East Tennessee. This new alumni association marks another milestone for our chapter and reaffirms our sense of brotherhood.

We would like to thank all of our special guests who attended the celebration and those who sent gifts and kind words to Tennessee Epsilon. It certainly was wonderful to see the familiar faces, and we hope everyone who comes to root for the Volunteers will stop by the house, slip the grip and spend some time with us.

Once again, we continue forth and set new goals.

From Fraternity Colony to Advertising Empire

At his graduation in 1967, Jack Balousek, Creighton '65, was awarded the Spirit of Creighton Award, which is presented to the senior best showing the ideals of Creighton in his life. Twenty-five years later, sitting atop an advertising empire, he credits the values of fraternity membership with his success.

Balousek is president and chief operating officer of Foote, Cone & Belding, the sixth largest advertising agency in the world, responsible for accounts as varied as Lifesavers, Kraft, Coors, the California Dancing Raisins, Levi's and Pillsbury. Like an American success story, he worked his way to the top, spending seven years in brand management for Procter & Gamble. He later joined Foote, Cone & Belding/San Francisco on the Clorox account, and his accomplishments in the advertising agency industry began.

In 1986, he became executive vice president and general manager of the San Francisco office. He was elected a member of the Board of Directors of FCB Communications, Inc. in 1989, and in 1990, he was named president of FCB/West. Balousek was appointed to his current position as president and chief operating officer of FCB Communications, Inc. in 1991.

But before the raisins ever "doo-wopped" across the screen, Balousek developed a steady foundation for his later success as a Founding Father of the Nebraska Beta Chapter. "There's no question that my Phi Psi experience has aided me in my business career," Balousek says, "however, not in a traditional 'networking' sense. Instead the Fraternity gave me much more valuable and lasting gifts.

"As an undergraduate, I was going away from home for the first time, on my own in a grown-up world, and I needed some kind of anchor for myself. Phi Psi turned out to be the perfect anchor.

"I sensed that I needed a support system in all of the traditional campus areas — social, academic, political, athletic. The Nebraska Beta Chapter was very active in each one of these areas, and I knew that I could draw from and contribute to the group in these areas."

As an undergraduate, Balousek served the chapter and the university in many ways, including Homecoming Chairman, Rush Chairman, President of Student Board of Governors, Commander of Army ROTC and Senior Fund Drive Chairman. And he received his share of honors; among them the Summerfield Scholarship, the Spirit of Creighton Award and election to Alpha Sigma Nu Jesuit Honor Society.

But Phi Kappa Psi influenced Balousek's undergraduate and later life in other ways, as well. At Creighton, the Phi Psis lent a helping hand to freshmen during registration.

"I stepped up to help out one particularly perplexed freshman woman," Balousek recalls. "Her name was Kathi, and to make a long story short, we began dating that night, married four years later when she and I had both finished school, and have been married ever since. So, in a way, I am reminded of my wonderful Phi Psi experience every day of my life. And I have the Fraternity to thank for this."

A few years ago, Balousek dropped by the Cal Epsilon Chapter house to do some preliminary inquiring about the UCLA campus housing situation. His son's lottery number for university housing was so high, he had little chance of getting into a residence hall. He asked several of the Cal Ep brothers for advice regarding how to approach the apartment hunting issue. Later, he returned home to San Francisco to find a four-page letter from Dave Junta, UCLA '86, which included street maps, rental rates, addresses, telephone numbers and specific questions to ask landlords in that particular rental market. Perhaps by coincidence, his son, Jon, was initiated into Phi Kappa Psi by California Epsilon in 1988.

Balousek attended his son's initiation, sitting next to him throughout the ceremony. "As I sat there and the initiation unfolded," he recalls, "I realized that not a single word had changed in the 20-some years since I myself had been initiated and had initiated brothers at Creighton who followed me.

"Talk about anchors! Where in our society do we find that kind of consistency and stability these days? The whole experience was one of the most touching in my life, and I'm so grateful to have had it."

Balousek places high value on his Phi Psi membership, not only to Nebraska Beta but to the entire organization. "My plans to attend the Grand Arch Council in San Francisco this summer are reflections of the continuing role that Phi Psi plays in my life."

The Strength of Our Unity

The Ohio Iota Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi relied on its unity this past semester in overcoming a difficult period. The loss of our chapter house, the retirement of our long-time chapter advisor and the graduation of some of the chapter's best leaders were some of the setbacks experienced by this young chapter. But we stuck together as a brotherhood and lived up to the ideals the Fraternity was founded on 140 years ago. The "great joy of serving others" shined through in the campus blood drives with 91 percent and 100 percent of our chapter donating. Philanthropically, Phi Psi became environmentalists with our first Arbor Fest environmental project, "For the Love of Mankind." The chapter sold seedlings and t-shirts with proceeds going to the Keep Akron Beautiful Foundation. The brothers "adopted" a three-year-old boy stricken with cancer. We will take care of Johnny for several hours a week while his mother runs errands. Ohio Iota maintained its strength in IFC also with Michael Eagan as chief justice. The brothers continued the chapter's tradition of sports excellence, finishing near the top in football, volleyball and basketball.

Interfraternally, we sponsored the first Phi Psi Golf Scramble, which brought together alumni, undergraduates and Greeks of all affiliations.

We proudly introduce our newest initiates: Eddie Torres, John Colonna, Tim Panebianco, Lee Mez-zulo, Frankie Zahler and Brent Artman.

Wide Load

By the time you read this newsletter, our chapter home may already be perched atop its new location on University Boulevard. We had been forced to roll the sucker around the corner to make room for a new business library. In the end, we will be better off in the new locale, and fall rush promises to be the best ever!

The following brothers got themselves involved this past spring: Scott Batey — elected president of the Coordinating Council of Student Organizations, appointed to Financial Affairs Committee, Order of Omega, Mortar Board, Anderson Society and Omicron Delta Kappa honoraries; Kevin Reid — vice-chair of SGA Homecoming Committee; Ben Boles — elected SGA senator; and Judson Bailey — Delta Phi Alpha German Honorary.

We would like to thank all our alumni who came over for Founders Day. We hope you enjoyed it as much as we did.

We were delighted to have brothers from Illinois Delta and Mississippi Alpha come visit us last spring.

Our February initiates were: Timothy Jefferson and Mark Carlisle, Franklin, TN; Chad Hamner, Ben Boles and Brooks Barksdale, Tuscaloosa; Russell Ware, Mobile; Michael Stebbins, Huntsville; Jeffrey Adams, Decatur; and Jonathan Koon, Atlanta, GA.

Our spring pledges are: Scott Bullington, Mobile; James Morris, Huntsville; Michael Hayes, Jason Boner and Jason Wheeler, Birmingham; William Merrill, Montgomery; and Bradford Plumley, Lawrence, KS.

Allegheny

Taking an active role in campus and community activities and positions has been a strong point for Penn Beta brothers this year, and we will continue to excel into next year.

Most notable is Richard Titus, who currently holds the positions of president of the AMDA Dining Cooperative, IFC secretary and chapter counselor. He replaces Aaron Joyce as Head Chapter Counselor for all Allegheny fraternities. The Office of Residence Life will be served next year by four Phi Psi Resident Advisors — Doug Semian, James Abraham, Evan Wolf and Derek Svoren, who also serves as the public relations chairman for IFC. Marvin Tubbs, Matt Butryn and Ryan Dickson have definite plans to study abroad in England, Sweden and Costa Rica, respectively. Mike Capsambelis is the president of the Allegheny Rugby Club, and Hayyal Ighneim serves as the club's match secretary. Anthony DeFreece serves as ASG senator. In his spare time, Martin Doperak is a fully active emergency medical technician. Not to mention the fine work done by President Dan Stavnezer and his officers, Joyce, Gilbert Dillon and Paul O'Donnell.

But it is not only the demonstrated presence of Phi Psi upperclassmen, it is also the promise held by the 13 exciting pledges recently initiated into the secrets of Phi Kappa Psi. They are: Victor Pickard, Sewickley; Kevin Bringe, Greensburg; Mike Grasso, DuBois; Ken Hodgkiss, Mt. Lebanon; Robert Hower, Natrona; Bryan King, Evans City; Ian Martin, Wellesley, MA; Kalvan Palmer, Jersey City, NJ; Ralph Miller, Oneonta,

NY; Benjamin Davis and Robert Zuladt, Chardon, OH; Austin Smigel, Savannah, GA; and John Viele, Bainbridge Island, WA.

Arizona

Hello to all from the Brothers of Arizona Alpha. After a great fall semester, our membership was enriched by another highly enthusiastic group of new initiates. Our in-house residency has nearly doubled with new membership. Participation in the Zeta Tau Alpha Big Wheel 500 and the Alpha Omicron Pi Bed Races gave us a few more awards for our trophy case. Our "Rice Krispie Treats" booth at the annual U of A Spring Fling Carnival was a great success, though if we never see another Rice Krispie Treat, it will be too soon!

In philanthropy work, we are sponsoring needy children in third world nations through undergraduate donations. On a more local level, our Neighborhood Beautification Project organizes regular cleanup crews to better our surroundings.

Our Undergraduate-Alumni Correspondence Program continues. Our goal is for each undergraduate to write a different alumnus each week or so, in order to contact all Arizona Alphas eventually. Many alumni have gotten in the spirit and have written some great letters to us.

But the really big news is that we have made an offer on an ideal property on the main row on campus. A permanent house may soon be a reality! If all goes well, we will soon be nomads no more. Donations, both money and material, are greatly needed, especially furniture. For additional information on this special opportunity, please call us at (602) 792-1852.

Finally, we welcome spring pledges Steven Weeks and David Pyle, both of Phoenix.

Arizona State

Greetings from the tannest chapter in the country. Our tan bodies, however, have not hindered us academically as our GPA rose last semester to seventh place out of 27 fraternities. The highlight of spring was our Founders Day formal in Paradise Valley where the brothers had an exceptionally excellent time. The all-brother retreat was an inspirational and goal-setting weekend that set the tone for the rest of the semester. Spring break witnessed the annual Arizona Beta exodus to sunny Mexico with some of ASU's finest Greeks.

When school resumed, the brothers began setting up our Easter philanthropy with Kappa Alpha Theta, benefitting the children of the local Ronald McDonald House. We are excited about the recent news of a brand new kitchen being installed over the summer. "Thank you's" are in order for our housing corporation members Dave Evans, Arizona '77, Lennie Drucker, Arizona State '77, and Mike Collins, Arizona State '90, for their hard work.

Looking forward to next fall, we are anticipating a successful rush week with five men already accepting bids. We are also anticipating the return of Sean McKenzie, who is studying in beautiful Spain. Bueno job, Sean. We hope every Phi Psi has a safe and enjoyable summer, and we look forward to seeing you at GAC.

Ashland

The Brothers of Ohio Theta had another busy but successful spring semester. We sponsored many activities during the spring. We started off with a seminar on alcohol and drug abuse. It was a great success — over 60 people attended the seminar. We also co-sponsored a presentation on date rape, and a seminar on domestic violence. Both of these were also very successful.

Our annual Kit Carson Run, our biggest philanthropy project, was another success. This is the eighth year we have done this, and the total money raised is well over $8,000. We also sponsored two Senior Weekend dances that were held in the house.

Alumni Weekend was a lot of fun! It was good to see many of you come back and visit the house. We are in the process of reestablishing the Alumni Association at Ohio Theta. Thanks to all of you for making Alumni Weekend another great success. Fathers Day Pig Roast was also a lot fun even though we had cold weather. Many of the brothers and their fathers braved the 40 degree temperature and pitched horseshoes all afternoon.

Congratulations to Chris Rowland on being named Outstanding Greek Man of the Year. We were Greek Weekend champions for the third semester in a row. We had another successful intramural season. We were runners up in basketball, and we had a great softball season.

We would like to congratulate our new initiates: Rob Vavra, Palos Park, IL; Dan Starcher, Creston; Ron Koprowski, Parma; Ken Richardson, Westerville; Mitchell Schneider and Brian Kaas, Chagrin Falls; Howard Perlmutter, Pepper Pike; Dave Walls, Grafton; Andy Stewart, Springfield; Ajay Dudani, Bombay, India.

Bowling Green

In philanthropies, we placed first in the Delta Gamma/Phi Delta Theta Anchor Splash, Lambda Chi Alpha Maze Craze, Delta Zeta/Theta Chi Volleyball Tournament, Phi Kappa Tau Knockout and Alpha Omicron Pi Lip Sync. We placed first with individual honors in the Phi Kappa Tau Knockout. We received second place in the Phi Sigma Kappa/Kappa Alpha Psi 3-person basketball tournament. And Matt Gerwin received the Best Male Performance honors during the Greek Week Variety Show.

Outside the chapter, Dean Thompson and Aaron Vaughn served on the Interfraternity Council as secretary and chief administrator, respectively. Mike Sears, Brady Gaskins, Chad Luckner and Matt Polter served on the Undergraduate Student Government Cabinet and in the Senate. Mike Sears and Steve Varricchio were inducted into Mortarboard. Sears also served as chairman of the Ohio Student Association in Columbus. Brothers Gaskins, Luckner, Sears, Paskoff and Parson will be Orientation Leaders for the '92-'93 school year.

And we've welcomed 11 new pledges: Eric Buckingham, Shad Francis, Frank Frostino, Rich Lannon, Matt Lipinski, Rande Lykowski, Chad Moore, Matt Polter, Ken Ratliff, Rob Spencer and Bryan Steinmetz.

The 1991-92 school year has proved to be a very educational year. We've had our eyes opened to many new facets of the Greek system and the liability that all chapters face. Don't try to be the current against the storm. As we can attest, it's better to accept — not blindly — but to accept and go with the change. Through it all, it's been great year, and we plan to make the 1992-1993 year even more prosperous.

Brandeis

April 20 marked our first anniversary as a chapter. Mass Beta has taken many steps in securing a strong and greater future. We would like to congratulate the new leaders of the chapter: Ed Jimenez, president; Eric Lanyard, vice president; Marc Held, corresponding secretary; Dan Fisher, recording secretary; Sam Skura, treasurer.

Thanks to a superb rush, we recruited 14 incredible pledges; Jeff Aizley, Paul Capozzoli, Manny Comras, Josh Felsher, Brian Herman, Dave Hoffman, Eric Kasper, Todd Lefkowitz, Mike Sokoloff, Matt Tai, Dan Wagner, Amir Weiss, Steve Yadegari and Neal Zalvan. With 14 brothers graduated in May, increasing our membership was a priority.

Once again, Mass Beta has experienced other aspects of brotherhood. One of the aspects is putting something back into the community. The Walk for Walden Pond on April 12 was one of our plans that fulfilled this important goal. Our athletic success has reached an all-time high. With a championship in the Inter-Greek Basketball Tournament, a semi-finalist in football intramurals, as well as an anticipated triumphant season in softball, our sports teams continue to shine strong.

As the academic year ends, our brotherhood gives a warm farewell to the many seniors who are graduating. Without their love, support and dedication, the Fraternity that thrives today would not have come to pass. We are sorry to see so many of our founding brothers depart! You have left us a strong foundation upon which to build. We will continue to grow and prosper!

Unlocked

As springtime conjures metaphors of life giving way to birth, Rhode Island Alpha contributes its own as 23 seniors prepare to leave their source of collegiate fraternity just as 14 new pledges begin to discover it.

The majority of our friends graduating this year will soon attend graduate school. Four seniors have already been accepted into medical school, while another four have plans to apply. Law school has attracted three others, engineering finds one and creative writing another. Every senior seeking admission into graduate school was accepted into at least one program, which unfortunately cannot be said for those seeking employment.

Rush season was marked by declining turnout all across Brown this past spring. Nonetheless we look forward to educating our newest pledge class, confident they have the propensity to become Phi Psis. These most recent pledges are: Charles Blake, Columbia, SC; Jose DeValenzuela, Bogota, Colombia; Curtis Goettel, Virginia Beach, VA; Ehab Innab, Brooklyn, NY; Eric Karpinski, Rockville, MD; Fred Kraus, Framingham, MA; Phillip Lai, Lincon; Brian Lawson, Prospect Heights, IL; James Lee, Franklin Square, NY; Dan Lifland, Bridgewater, NJ; Jed Lippard, (brother of Adam Lippard, Syracuse '90) and Jason Pastorious, Pittsburgh, PA; Ed Maierhofer (son of Howard Maierhofer, Penn State '57), Hillsborough, CA; and Kevin Robinowitz, Dallas, TX.

The chapter breathed a sigh of relief early in the semester when the university, which had threatened to dismantle our bar room, approved renovation plans. The crux of these renovations involved converting the bar structure into a game board structure.

A Year of Firsts

Pennsylvania Gamma is back on its feet. After the initiation of 19 men last October, it was only a short while before Penn Gamma was recognized on campus and an integral member of Bucknell's Greek community. In the chapter house, renovations are nearly complete, leaving only the kitchen facilities to be finished. We completed landscaping the house's exterior this spring in cooperation with the university. The official dedication of the house was held on Parents Weekend, April 25. Many Penn Gamma alumni turned out for our pig roast to see their chapter house in its full glory again.

One important first was the 500 that we held in April where teams from campus organizations came out for a scavenger hunt and counted the number of seats in the stadium and such things for local charity.

We would like to present our five newest brothers: Burrell Shaw II, Owensboro, KY; Gregory Smith, Cranford, NJ; and James Staley Jr., Stowe, MA, initiated in February, and Corey Detar, Greensburg; and Mark Breithaupt, Middletown, NJ, initiated in May. Penn Gamma also congratulates our Summerfield Scholar Gene Greiner.

Although we have had a strong beginning, we are not content to let our efforts stop at that. We are planning intensively and look forward to recruiting a large pledge class of good and honorable men next fall. We shall strive to return the Pennsylvania Gamma Chapter to the respected institution that it once was.

The Indiana Zeta Chapter continues to lead the Butler campus scholastically. Yet again, the chapter surpassed the all-men's and the all-campus grade point averages. In other news, the chapter has adopted the Lutherwood Home for its main philanthropy. The home is a shelter for children who are emotionally or physically troubled, and the chapter adopted a "big brother" system of support.

UC-Davis

Despite the sunshine and spring fever rampant at UC-Davis, the Phi Psis at Cal Iota continued their trend of enthusiasm and commitment. This quarter saw a successful philanthropy and social calendar, including the Adopt-a-Highway program, Friday Night Live lock-in, Anchor Splash (sponsored by Delta Gamma Sorority), participation in IFC Greek Week and, of course, Founders Day Formal. This event was a tremendous success, with 28 couples attending, including eight alumni. Held at

All-American Black

University of Kansas

A photograph captures more than a moment. Its image is a crisp recollection. Its subject tells a vivid story. Kansas Alpha's proud history is now told through a photo gallery researched and documented by John Alden Tikwart. A contemporary American history major, Tikwart applied the skills he learned as a KU library assistant archivist to reconstruct Phi Psi's heritage.

Kansas Alpha claims an astounding 89 varsity athletes. Getting your "K" customarily garnered a letter sweater photo portrait, so today the chapter's Paul King Brooker Library, packed with these pictures, is affectionately called the "K" Room. Five All-Americans are depicted including '69 swimmer Bob Hines and '42, '43, '46, '47 basketball player Charles B. Black. KU retired Black's jersey this year, and he generously gave Phi Psi his varsity senior's blanket. Four past chapter houses are framed along with eight campus buildings named for Phi Psis like the (Phog) Allen Field House and the Fred B. Anschutz Library. Tikwart, who credits alumni support for the project, discovered chapter composites from 1883 and 1890 at a Kansas City flea market. He feels that people and personalities built the Jayhawk Phi Psi chapter. If only these walls could talk? They do at Kansas Alpha.

Sacramento's elegant Fire House Restaurant, the formal was an appropriate setting to extend honors and awards to such alumni as our Chapter Advisor, Dick Ong, Oregon State '55, Mark Kohnen, UC-Davis '86, and our most recent alumnus, Mark Wong, UC-Davis '88.

Hard work during winter rush paid off when five new brothers were initiated this spring. Andrew Meyers, James Sato, David Wong, Matt Bullock and Kieth Lett now wear the badge with pride as the chapter continues to grow. Lessons learned during winter rush were helpful when devising spring rush tactics, especially as informal rush gains importance and potential.

UC-Irvine

Things are really movin' and shakin' at Cal Kappa. Not only are we getting closer to our monetary goal for our house in the UCI group (Greek) housing project, but we have also enjoyed many campus-wide honors, which assure our name to be in good standing among our fellow Greeks. A team of Phi Psis and Tri-Delts took second place in the All-Greek Songfest with its rendition of Evita. Congratulations are extended to all who sacrificed their time to perpetuate the Cal Kappa commitment to excellence. Way to go team on winning the philanthropy award associated with Songfest! Congratulations also to Rick Ruby, who took first place in the Delta Gamma "Mr. Anchorsplash" contest.

After all the serious works was done, the Phi Psis here at UC-Irvine did a little "wasting away in Margaritaville...." Although Jimmy Buffet was unable to attend, the brothers did manage to have a blast in San Felipe, Mexico, over the past spring break.

Many things are still in the works, such as the aforementioned housing project, as well as plans to have a philanthropic Phi Psi 500. Headed up by Eric Norquist, this Phi Psi 500 will feature as the main attraction a bed race among other crazy events that are guaranteed to keep our commitment to excellence alive and well and envied by other fraternities.

UCLA

With the help of the Fraternity Headquarters and a zealous group of local alumni, the California Epsilon Chapter has restructured and seemed poised to become a prominent force in the UCLA community. Fall quarter saw a philanthropy to benefit Skid Row, a can collection for the UCLA medical center, a brotherhood retreat and all the workings necessary to produce a great year.

After an outstanding winter rush, which garnered 19 new pledges, we felt we finally adapted to life without a house. This euphoria lasted until the publication of the unofficial 1989 chapter songbook by the campus daily newspaper and a feminist newspaper on campus. The songbook incident was quickly picked up by local and national news.

On campus, the issue exploded in a flurry of anti-Greek editorials and letters. The university responded by declaring that Cal Ep had violated the spirit of the existing document and warranted another year of disaffiliation with an extended probation. GP Chris Lee and alumni advisors Terry Thompson and Chris Gleiter refused to sign the amended document, which was seen as predominantly punitive rather than the hoped-for educational programming.

The chapter saw a number of members leave in search of more stable grounds. The carefully-built chapter seemed precariously close to disaster. The true meaning of brotherhood survived, though, in the guise of 55 firmly committed brothers who sought to re-establish Phi Kappa Psi in its position atop the UCLA community.

Following the punitive measures against the brothers responsible for the distribution of the songbook, the chapter sought to move forward. A rape awareness seminar with Pi Beta Phi and a new member forum on gender sensitivity were some of the long range measures taken to educate members. The chapter continues to work toward completion of the original reaffiliation document signed in the spring of 1991.

Cal Poly

Greetings from sunny San Luis Obispo. We here at Cal Eta would like to wish all brothers a relaxing and enjoyable summer. Our spring started out on a high note with five new pledges: Robert Blankmeyer of Yorba Linda; Tom Cserep of Eureka; Daniel Healy of Santa Ana; Phil Saglimbeni of San Jose; and Brian Walby of Diamond Bar; comprised our '92 pledge class. A special thanks to Dave Kennedy for his hard work as Rush Chairman. Cal Eta's involvement within the community continued to be strong with another successful Easter Egg Hunt for the children of San Luis Obispo. In addition, more than 20 brothers took part in this year's March of Dimes Walk-A-Thon.

Congratulations to Brian Ish, who exemplified Phi Psi's leadership tradition by beginning his quest for a spot on the city council of San Luis Obispo. At the same time, Brother Ish became a member of the IFC executive board for the upcoming school year.

We were sorry to see 15 brothers leave Cal Eta as a result of graduation in the 1991-1992 school year. Thanks for all of the memories and contributions you gave throughout the years. Good luck and best wishes!

UC-Santa Barbara

Reaching New Heights

As hoped for, the acquisition of a new chapter house has elevated California Zeta to new heights. Spring rush exceeded all expectations and inspired enthusiasm among all undergraduate members. This enthusiasm has spread to our alumni through the many events spring quarter brings, such as our annual Pirates extravaganza and Mexico adventure as well as our first house boating adventure to Lake Mead.

Spring also bore witness to the election of new officers, which has inspired motivation within the chapter. As a result, we have restructured our fraternity education program, redesigned our committee structure and set precedents in officer transition procedures.

By winning the Greek league football championship, we have increased Phi Psi recognition throughout the Greek community. The chapter also commends Carlos Gutierrez for receiving top honors for his excellent performance on UC-Santa Barbara's lacrosse team. We also began an annual all-Greek basketball tournament.

As we look forward to the GAC in San Francisco, we are continuing to strive toward new heights. Because the GAC is taking place so close to home, we expect a large turnout from California Zeta undergraduates and alumni.

New initiates are: John Pernin, Mike Holmes, Eric Swindeman, Andrew Hessick, Bryan Coan, Paul Souza, Jeff Ezeir, Paul Norton, Troy Brandt, Aaron Delucia, Bret Bellew, Tony Adelini, Kevin Rockmael and Todd Butterbaugh.

We would also like to welcome our spring pledges: Bill Barry, Marc Couillard, Troy Faris, Ian Frank, Pat Hagler, Jason Hansen, Jason Jones, John Lua, Sean McKenna, David Ritter, Sean Robertson, Scott Ruzyllo, Ivan Sherman, Kyle Soladay, James Stutz, John Thorne and Brett Winslow.

Michael D. Powell, Correspondent

Cal State Northridge

Things are looking great at Cal Theta. With the election of new officers, we are going to year around rush and implementing a new fraternity education program. We are preparing for our Phi Psi 500 this fall and participated in the Mr. Fraternity contest last spring.

We are looking forward to our 25th anniversary this summer. It will be held at the Sheraton Universal on June 20. There will be several activities planned for the entire weekend. We hope to see many old as well as new members attend and see how we have grown. All are welcome.

Congratulations go to the new officers for fall: Ronald Cammarata — GP; Robert Sostman — VGP; Matt Van Holten — AG; Ryan Fitzpatrick — BG; Eric J. Palmstrom — P; Martin Silva — SG; Robert Avila — Hod; Ron Snider — Phu; Steve Bell — Hi; Scott Onderdonk — fraternity educator. This fall semester should be even better than the spring.

Case Western Reserve

Undoubtedly, the biggest and best thing that happened to Ohio Epsilon last semester was the acquisition of a new house. We will move into the old Phi Kappa Tau house in fall 1992. Jonathan Pildis should be congratulated for all his hard work and effort in obtaining the new house. Congratulations also go to David Pieczkiewicz for receiving the Warren L. Morris Scholarship and to Richard Pancost for his election to the Order of Omega and Who's Who Among American College Students.

Last semester, we started working with Habitat for Humanity. Almost all of the chapter members gave of their time and energy on a Saturday afternoon to help build some houses. Matthew Crouch was responsible for getting us involved with Habitat. We hope to do even more with Habitat in the future.

In intramural sports, Ohio Epsilon did very well. Out of the 18 fraternities on campus, we finished in ninth place overall, far better than any fraternity of similar size. We also had some participation in varsity sports. Matthew Crouch was a pitcher on the baseball team, and Daniel Slicker played shortstop.

We thank the following alumni — Ronald W. Teeple '61 for his monetary contribution, and James M. Biggar '47, retired chairman of Nestle, for speaking at Founders Day.

We had an excellent spring rush, adding seven new pledges. These great men were initiated on April 12. They are: Adam Connor and David Henning, Troy, MI; Scott Fullerton, Omaha, NE; Timothy Streit, Louisville, KY; Jerry Tapp Jr., Chillicothe; and Lee Wiegman, Painesville. We expect great things from these fine young men.

Dan Slicker, Correspondent

Chicago

Winter and spring quarters in Chicago saw Illinois Beta take part in diverse activities, while still maintaining a 3.0 GPA. Over the year, we have developed plans for re-establishing contacts with alumni, and our letter writing campaign has already yielded success! We thank Philip Strick, Chicago '39, Norman Sher, Chicago '53, and Martin Gouterman, Chicago '53, for their responses, and we look forward to hearing from more alumni in the future. We would like to express our gratitude to Fraternity Secretary David Woodrum, West Virginia '61, for his continued help and support in this area.

Winter saw the initiation of three new brothers: Yusuf Nahmiyas, Istanbul, Turkey; Rob Rokita, Mount Clemens, MI; and Tony Tallarico, Tinley Park. We would like to congratulate them and also Ken Gong, our Summerfield Award winner.

With spring came our philanthropy committee's annual Phi Psi 500 Wheelchair Race. We succeeded again both in having fun and in raising money for The Chicago Variety Club, a local children's charity. Also in spring, the chapter took part in the school's annual Interfraternity Sing, afterwards hosting a reception for our alumni. Thanks to all alumni for their support.

Another successful year was brought to a close here at Chicago, one in which we concentrated on rush, social, alumni and philanthropy events with renewed dedication and spirit of brotherhood.

Colorado

Without any hesitation, I can confidently state that the 1991-1992 school year has been one of the most successful in Colorado Alpha history. Coming into the fall semester, we were faced with a myriad of problems, from financial to membership and everything in between. In the short span of a mere eight academic months, we have been able to more than double our number of brothers, repeat as IFC hockey and basketball champions and adopt a local, scenic mountain highway, which we keep litter free. Needless to say, we've been extremely busy. Instead of the brotherhood feeling tired, we can't wait for the fall to come so we can do it all again.

In conclusion, we at Colorado Alpha would like to welcome the following gentlemen into the brotherhood: Andy Brown, Atlanta, GA; Sean Driscoll, Carol Stream, IL; Adam Fasani, Palo Alto, CA; Jerrod Iverson, Truckee, CA; Eric Klett and Mike Hilgers, Lakewood; Joe Lastufka, Anchorage, AK; Adam Lechner, Lafayette, CA; Dan Nemura, Easton, PA; Todd Quinlan, Antonio; Eric Ranta, Tucson, AZ; Kirk Stuart, Littleton; Brett Walker, Peoria, IL; Shawn Jordan, Marina del Ray, CA; Brook Phillips, Grand Junction; Derik Wagner, Evergreen; Aaron Andersen, Kit Carson; and John Bianco, Brooklyn, NY.

Cornell

As the sunshine of summer finally enters Ithaca, the men of New York Alpha are proud to report a bright finish to the spring. This past year has been a successful one for the inhabitants of 525 Stewart, aided by the tremendous support of our alumni. We invite all alumni to come visit or drop us a note in the mail to see what is new up on the Hill.

This year's Phi Psi 500 was a huge success as the brothers entertained the elementary school students of the greater Ithaca area to a fantastic field day. A great portion of the Ithaca community joined with Phi Psi to make the day a great one for everyone involved. Kudos to Matt McLaughlin for his leadership in this event.

As always the Black Wave was a force to be reckoned with in the Intramural All-Sports fight. Earning points in everything from bowling to football, the Black Wave needed a strong finish in the spring to take the crown. Unfortunately, our hopes

Cornell University

The Cornell Phi Psis took an old standard and made it better. Phi Psi's well-known 500 event is now synonymous with kids, games and elementary schools. With the goal of contributing 500 hours of volunteer time in a single day, chairman Matt McLaughlin and his brothers orchestrated a Phi Psi 500 Field Day for children of the local school district that included a tire pull, soccer kick, softball throw, hockey shoot and obstacle course. "We thought spending time with the kids did a lot more than just giving money to someone," says McLaughlin, a civil engineering student from Tewksbury, MA.

The grade school children were chosen as beneficiaries of the chapter's volunteer work "since Cornell is an educational institution," and elementary schools are an integral part of the Ithaca community. Although hesitant at first, the superintendent of schools gave Phi Psi the green light to host the event. Brothers gave teachers informational fliers that were sent home via backpacks to the parents. A public park made the 500 accessible to willing participants.

Next year, the Phi Psis plan to involve the entire Greek system in the 500 Field Day. McLaughlin recommends other chapters to "start planning in the fall" for a spring event of this size. Community service characterizes New York Alpha. A local library book sale and children's tours of a nearby nature center already mark the annual calendar. Recently, the Phi Psis were the only campus fraternity honored by Habitat for Humanity for building trusses and committing significantly to the organization. Phi Kappa Psi is Cornell's recipient of the Outstanding Chapter Award.

for a sixth straight hockey championship were dashed by a goalie who turned out to be illegal.

On a philanthropic note, we were proud to accept an award from the head of Habitat for Humanity, an organization for whom we performed several tasks. Mike Bunning did a great job organizing all our philanthropy activities.

At the close of the summer, we will look forward to returning to Ithaca to initiate 23 fine men. New pledges to our Fraternity include Matt Beers, Endicott; Chris Beinlich, North Canton, OH; Rob Bellmar, Plainview; Mike Boffa, Roslyn; Brian Byrne, Saratoge; Jason Cavalier, Albany; Reed

Creighton

The Nebraska Beta Chapter has reached a turning point in its existence. Following repeated violations of the university code of conduct while already on probation, the chapter was suspended from activity by the Creighton administration through the fall semester of 1992.

In order to regain university recognition, the chapter must be placed under the control of an alumni advisory board through the spring of 1993. Nebraska Beta must also accomplish several other requirements as well. The Fraternity has identified several local alumni who have expressed willingness to serve on such a committee.

In support of the university's action, the Executive Council of Phi Kappa Psi suspended the chapter's charter for the same period of time.

Only through the active guidance and direction provided by local alumni will Nebraska Beta succeed. Any Omaha alumnus who wishes to assist the committee should contact David Dare, 516 S. 56th Street, Omaha, NE 68106, (402) 556-8914 (H), or (402) 391-1697 (O).

Delaware

With around 12 men remaining in the chapter, Delaware Alpha has fallen upon hard times. The IFC has granted the chapter permission to conduct continuous membership recruitment, which enables the men to meet and get to know potential members free from the artificial restrictions of a structured rush period. Chapter alumni and alumni in the Newark area are encouraged to contact Chapter President Max Bornstein at (302) 368-7765.

DePauw

It is Indiana Alpha's proud tradition to remain on top amid the change on our campus throughout the years. The 1991-92 school year has been no different as Phi Psi has had many opportunities to accentuate its strengths and solidify its position on top.

We worked hard on our fraternity education program, which culminated with the initiation of 25 excellent men on March 7. This group of men is already having a great impact on the DePauw Greek environment as they are setting the example with campus involvement, intramural excellence and scholastic achievement. We are also proud to announce the success of our Parents Weekend auction on February 29, which produced funds for many house improvements.

Our long standing dedication to intramurals is again paying off. We have climbed into a position from which we can attain the elusive overall IM trophy. In other news, we spent many long hours applying for the prestigious President's Awards. Though the announcements are pending, all of us are confident that, through our campus involvement, outstanding fraternity education program, improved community service, scholastic turnaround and strong relations with the administration and also our alumni, we will have good news to report at the Grand Arch Council in July.

Finally, we thank all of our alumni for their time and effort in maintaining the high standards of

Dickinson

No newsletter was received from this chapter.

After weeks of discussion and planning between the Interfraternity Council and the Office of Student Activities, Dickinson College has adopted a policy permitting BYO functions to be sponsored by campus organizations. This relieves a tremendous strain on Pennsylvania Zeta because Fraternity policy does not allow the chapter to purchase alcohol, and the college did not allow functions where individuals supplied their own alcohol.

Alumni are strongly encouraged to contact the chapter at HUB Box 1570, Dickinson College, Carlisle, PA 17013.

Duke

NC Alpha had another stellar year overall.

Some of the fall highlights included the annual Celebrity Auction, which was again a tremendous success in raising money for the Duke Children's Cancer Foundation.

The spring semester took up where the fall semester ended. We welcomed 21 new pledges, who were initiated April 15. They are outstanding men and should make a huge contribution to NC Alpha for the next few years. They are: Jason Ament, Aurora, MO; Jared Cantor, Woodcliff Lake, NJ; Brian Crane, Tampa, FL; Marshall Foley, Asheville; David Genova, Rye Brook, NY; Mark Greenblatt, Potomac, MD; Scott Halpern, Springfield, NJ; Chris Hammond, Lexington, KY; Nate Jesse, Sheperdstown, WV; Kris Karson, Medina, OH; Garth Lagerway, Elmhurst, IL; Joseph Landau, Chevy Chase, MD; Justin Lapatine, Chappaqua, NY; Mike Layish, Great Neck, NY; Matt Leavitt, Beachwood, OH; Eric Manoff, New City, NY; Bill Maschke, Woodbury, NJ; Philippe Maggio, Ft. Lauderdale, FL; Robert Principe, Rosalyn Heights, NY; Scott Scharer, Middletown, NJ; and Mark Wear, Pigeon Forge, TN.

Lastly, the brothers were caught up in the celebration of Duke's second consecutive national championship in basketball. The campus was absolutely crazy after the victory, and we are all savoring the special event.

East Carolina

Chartered in October, the chapter held its annual philanthropic project, Cool Aid, which supported the United Way. Also, the chapter observed Founders Day in conjunction with Tennessee Epsilon with a formal at Banner Elk, NC.

Alumni in the Coastal Carolina region are encouraged to contact the fledgling chapter in care of Phi Kappa Psi, 209 Whichard Bldg., East Carolina University, Greenville, NC 27858.

Eastern New Mexico

Greetings from New Mexico Alpha. As the year winds down, New Mexico Alphans are proud of what we've accomplished this semester.

Phi Psi Phandango was a success with all proceeds going to Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Roosevelt/Curry County. We are also having a skit performed for local junior high schools. The skit, "Sex, Drugs, Rock and Drop," shows how the effects of sex, drugs and alcohol can ruin a young person.

New Mexico Alpha is anxiously awaiting GAC in San Francisco. We selected Lewis B. Bejcek and Alex Romero as our undergraduate delegates and Chapter Advisor Charles Abbott, Eastern New Mexico '75, as our alumnus delegate. This is Brother Abbott's tenth GAC.

Greek Week came and went with Phi Psi making it six years out of six. All Phi Psis had an enjoyable time. All the fraternities and sororities this year stressed Greek unity, and it was very successful.

The semester ended with our annual Rose Cotillion Spring Formal. Thanks to all alumni who attended, especially James Dyke, Eastern New Mexico '72, and Dan Hornaday, Eastern New Mexico '86. Congratulations to Brother Dyke for being named Distinguished Alumnus of New Mexico Alpha!

A special thanks to Executive Director Terry Harper and the Executive Council for helping New Mexico Alpha begin to solve some of our problems. All your suggestions and advice have been very helpful.

Welcome our newest initiated members: Jeffery J. Boyer, Helena, MT; Shannon Wood, Clovis; Ryan Lynch, Los Alamos; and R. Vince Marin, Albuquerque.

Alex Romero, Correspondent

Edinboro

The Reconstruction Continues

Greetings from the Boro! Things have been going well for us this past year, and we're looking forward to an even more successful fall. Don Trohoske led his team to first place in intramural soccer. We placed fifth overall in Greek Week this spring, and Disability Awareness Week culminated in a wheelchair rally for able bodied students won by our very own Mark Fellows.

A huge thank you goes out to all of our alumni for their help and support. We had a great time on Founders Day — hope you did too. Anyone who couldn't make it, we missed you. Anyone not receiving an invitation, it wasn't intentional and we apologize. Our mailing list is badly in need of updating. Please, send us a current address. For future reference, Founders Day will be held every third Saturday of March. Also, Homecoming will be Saturday, Oct. 3. Look us up, we'd love to hear from you. A special thank you goes out to Mike Sita, Edinboro '84, who moved to South Carolina. We could not possibly have made it through the past two years without your help and guidance.

Last but not least, congratulations go out to our new initiates Jon Sierota, Don Trohoske and Rob Treiber, Erie; Chris Myers, Warren; Brian Riddle, Franklin; Andy DuBois, Pensacola, FL; Ron Dance, Cleveland, OH; and Ben Ansel, Buffalo, NY.

Florida State

The brothers of Florida Alpha have had a tremendous year of improvement in all aspects of campus life. Brothers' efforts to better our chapter were rewarded when we were presented with the Arthur A. Rich Award for the most improved fraternity in Florida State University's IFC. The award was given out to the fraternity that showed the most improvement in every form of campus and community activity. Involvement on campus is one area where we have striven to improve this year. Phi Psi held many leadership positions in many organizations. Steve Berkoff and Brian Forrester were Student Body Comptroller and Student Body Auditor and were control of millions of dollars of campus activities' budgets. Carl Caramana became secretary of our Interfraternity Council and, along with Glen Goodman, was inducted into the Order of Omega. Brother Goodman was also chairman of the Council of Presidents and a student senator. Two other brothers were also student senators — Glenn Hill and Chris Forster, and both were inducted into the Seminole Ambassadors. Three other brothers became Seminole Ambassadors; they were Steve Madden, Tyler Harkness and Al Lettieri.

This spring, Florida Alpha pledged and initiated 15 men: Charles Berger, Huntington, NY; Matthew Binkley, Lima, OH; Jason Chiabotti, Alfred Lettieri and Kevin Stine, Coral Springs; Paul Egan, Melbourne; John Hennessey, Bradenton; Richard Hieber, Rome, Italy; Nicholas Hrkman, Pittsburgh, PA; Todd Lotozinski, Dewitt, MI; Jason Mart, Naples; Matthew McNinch, Beaumont, TX; David Rodriguez, Jacksonville; Charles Viggiano, Sunrise; Jeffrey Zeisloft, Bloomberg, PA.

Florida State University

"I enjoy getting people to learn," says Florida Alpha VGP Jason Joseph, "and I'm going to have another one the fall." Joseph, who plans to be science teacher, orchestrated a transition retreat for his fellow officers so they wouldn't be "fumbling around in the dark." Inheriting little instruction and all the duties as the official chapter correspondent one year ago, Joseph worked with past GP Glenn Goodman to create an environment that would foster the exchange of practical information and ideas in 1992.

Newly elected chairmen and officers journeyed 30 minutes into the North Florida woods to Joseph's grandmother's house to review goals and to chart a plan for Florida Alpha. As recipients of the IFC Most Improved Chapter Award, the retreat can springboard Phi Psi into even greater prominence. With each leader keeping a notebook, Florida Alpha avoids reinventing the wheel and creatively enhances activities. General direction and goals still originate from the entire chapter membership. On goal-setting, Joseph recommends ownership among all members. Choosing general priorities "should be the chapter as a whole." Florida State Phi Psis have worked behind the scenes and built support.

Franklin & Marshall

Coming Out of the Dark

After four years of derecognition, Pennsylvania Eta has proven that Phi Kappa Psi will remain a viable part of the Franklin and Marshall community. In response to financial and membership problems that have arisen since derecognition, we have restructured our rush program to adapt more efficiently to our unique situation with the guidance of the Fraternity Headquarters. Although we will continue to remain solvent, our financial difficulties remain a persistent problem that the brotherhood is trying to correct. Our goal is not only to survive but to flourish!

Community service has always been an integral part of Pennsylvania Eta, and we were proud to participate in the Big Brothers/Big Sisters Bowl for Charity held on March 28.

Following the traditions of academic excellence, Marc Chalpin, Todd Thorsen and Edward Kay have been accepted to the government honor society, Pi Sigma Alpha. Todd Thorsen also has been accepted into the history honor society, Phi Alpha Theta. Congratulations to Bruce Seltzer for being elected president of Hillel House.

We welcome our new brothers, Christopher Martinez, Corpus Christi, TX, and Richard Quinlan, Rumford, RI. We are happy to announce three new pledges — Brett Adams, Brick, NJ; Eric Levy, Bethlehem; and David Seldin, Lutherville, MD.

As always, we love to hear from alumni and any Phi Psis in the area, so drop us a line or call at (717) 396-7724.

George Washington

Hail to the Redskins!

Greetings from the home of the World Champion Redskins and the equally successful D.C.

Alpha Chapter! The 1991-'92 school year saw us involved in a whirlwind of activities and exciting changes. Most importantly, congratulations to the next generation of D.C. Alpha, our new initiates. They are: Mark Lilback, Orange, TX; Andrew Duggan, Hillsdale, NJ; Daniel Luippold, Greenfield, VT; Ronald Veith II, New Jersey; Andrew Thorn, Duxbury, MA; Jason Mara, Surrey, England; Geoffrey Williams, Arnold, MD; Douglas Spangler, York, PA; and Kevin Riendeau, Vermont.

We have been quite active in community events this year, starting with our fall blood drive, which raised over 90 pints in one day. This semester, we cosponsored our annual Big Brother/Little Brother gathering by organizing a bowling tournament for them. We will also be sponsoring them as our charity in our bid to regain the Greek Week Champions title. In March, we received honorable mention for our anti-drug video during Drug Awareness Week on campus.

We had our first official celebration for Founders Day this year, a small gathering with a few alumni whom we can't thank enough for dropping by. Special thanks to Charles Casper, Indiana '62, and William H. Johnson, Purdue '56, for their attendance. They and others who have contacted us since the last edition of The Shield have helped spark interest in restarting a Greater D.C. Alumni Association. Anyone interested in helping out or needs to contact us for any reason, please call us at (202) 965-3668. See you in San Francisco!

Another Successful Year

The chapter has welcomed four promising new gentlemen into the ranks of brotherhood — Kelley Fain, Alex Hertz, Scott Andreasen and Vince Ray. We have also welcomed three of our alumni back into the undergraduate ranks — Terry Hobbs, Ryan Starks and Stephen Edwards.

Most significant to Georgia Alphans this year has been the importance of the hard work and self-sacrifice of our alumni organization for the chapter. These honorable men have donated many valuable hours of time and effort toward the success of Georgia Alpha through the Phoenix Society and other financial contributions, aid toward successful membership drives, and management of our house corporation. The chapter could not hope for success without their efforts. To this end, Georgia Alpha extends its heartfelt gratitude and appreciation.

Gettysburg

Once again the Pennsylvania Epsilon Chapter has experienced a very busy yet exciting semester. The improvements to the house that were started during the summer of '91 have continued throughout the spring semester and are expected to be completed over the summer break.

Our philanthropic efforts have again been an enormous success. Over $2,500 was raised through the silver anniversary spaghetti dinner. This money is being used to send five underprivileged inner-city youths from Philadelphia to a summer camp in Gettysburg. The brothers are hoping it will be a great experience for these kids.

The spring semester was extremely competitive for the athletes from the chapter. The five members from the swim team, Stuart Brereton, Timothy Walsh, Ronald Keillor, Thomas Kozelka and Michael Bieda, made large contributions to the team's success in bringing home the Mid-Atlantic Conference Championship. Brothers on the track and field team, Greg Kavanagh and Patrick Morris, had an outstanding season, and Kavanagh qualified for nationals. Trip Scott was able to overcome a middle of the season shoulder injury and finish with a 16-5 record as a leader of the wrestling team.

Illinois

We Live and Flourish

The brothers of Illinois Delta migrated back to ole 911 with a sense of anticipation and excitement for the spring semester. The house received many new window fixtures and bookshelves, renovation to much of the interior woodwork, improvements to the Alumni Room, and also new felt for the billiards table. These enhancements, along with plans for new landscaping, not only make the chapter house appealing for brothers but also for parents and alumni.

The chapter is working hand in hand with university officials through Student Ambassadors, of which John Schleiter is president and Dan Kelly a new member. Matt Pensinger and Brian Von Bergen are editors of the Daily Illini newspaper sports section and have been joined at the publication by Mark Kiley and Victor Teran.

Jon Pivoney was recently named Outstanding Freshman on the rugby team. Mike Gill recently shattered the Big Ten single game scoring record with seven goals in lacrosse. Geoff Flury won the men's singles championship in a recent regional tennis tournament.

Moms Weekend was also a great success. The weekend was capped off with the Phi Psi/Alpha Chi Omega 5k Run. This philanthropy smashed all attendance and monetary records from the year before.

We have just completed a banner academic semester. Dave Buetow's name was added to the Bronze Tablet, signifying him as the top student in his graduating class.

Our newly initiated brothers are: Daniel M. Kelly, Daniel J. Emrich, James E. Abbott, Michael

A. Petros, Joseph E. Mulcrone, Jonathan E. Pivoney, Christopher J. Burroughs, Charles E. Zosel, Krystian J. Kling, Timothy C. Meana, Joseph F. Buckley, Mark M. Kiley, James R. Krzeminski, Scott C. Gifford, Dmitry A. Shapiro, Timothy R. Petbok, Magnus Weitekemper, Victor A. Teran and Gino R. Campanelli.

Our spring pledges are: Dave Czech, Ben Falcone, Matt Hammel, Craig Howard, Bill Metes, Jon Mueller, Doug Richards, Chris Stori and Mike Wagner.

Illinois State

The Illinois Epsilon Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi maintained its leading role on campus this past spring. Now that our new location feels like home, we are confident that with an alumni fund in place, a solid future at Illinois State is ahead. Our scholarship chairman, Mark Kadetsky, Trenton State '90, has offered many scholastic ideas to move our chapter GPA to the second or first place position. For the second semester in a row, we held third place out of 22 fraternities on campus. Dave Collins and Rick O'Rourke were initiated into Order of Omega.

Yet it wasn't all work and no play for the men of Illinois Epsilon. Tim Curtin took third in Delta Zeta Dream Man, Jim Pattermann took second in Alpha Delta Pi-Guy and Phi Psi won third place in Chi Omega March Madness, a choreographed routine competition. The highlight of our semester was the 8th Annual Phi Psi 500 go-kart race on April 11. The week of racing benefitted the Arthritis Foundation, and we raised over $3,000. We also hosted Phi Psis from Wabash, Chicago and DePaul the weekend of the 500.

Congratulations to our newly initiated members: Michael Yndestad, Naperville; and Timothy Quinn, Hoffman Estates. We are proud to welcome six outstanding men to our chapter. The Rho pledge class is William Borre, Wilmette; Jeffrey Broeker, Moline; Marc Bulandr, Bloomington; legacy Chris Mertins and Matthew Randle, Crystal Lake; and Brandon Peacy, Waukegan.

Indiana

The past year has been a great success for the men of Indiana Beta. While academics at Indiana Beta have always been important, we found ourselves slipping the past few semesters. That trend was halted last semester as we improved our campus rank by nine spots.

Also, we greatly strengthened our reputation as campus leaders as many brothers gained positions on campus. Beginning the semester, Wade Garard was selected Union Board president while Jim Hunnicut was elected Union Board concerts chairman. In Student Alumni Council, Chad Gretzema was elected president, Justin Rickard was elected vice president of university relations and Reid Trego and Brian Laychak both received directorships. Also, Jordan Kass received a directorship for IFC, while C.J. McClannahan and Tom Auer joined Mortar Board and Order of Omega, respectively. Finally, Kevin Daley, Jay Schmelzer, Tom Auer and Doug Roberts are all in the running for Steering Committee and Senior Chairmanships on the IU Student Foundation.

The Phi Psi Little 500 team, still overall points leader after 41 years, consisted of veterans Scott Kauffman and Dan Funk and rookies Craig Hixson, Nathan Snyder and Dave Adler. Also, we placed third with Delta Zeta in IU Sing.

Finally, our rush system has never been better! The spring pledges are: Kevin Mulligan, Glen Ellyn; Matt Filer, Westfield Center, OH; Mike Clark, Birmingham, MI; Jonathan Niernac, Trenton, NJ; Matt Glarner, Park Ridge, IL; John Wetzel, Muncie; Matthew Hanaghan, Dayton, OH; Brett Richter, Brookfield, WI; Joel Parker, Portland, OR; Jeff Culbertson, South Bend; Tony Forte, Angola; Jason Copestick, Chesterfield, MO; Mike Serenco, Memphis, TN; Aaron Coyler and Jim Rosenketter, Indianapolis; Jamie Martin, Evansville; Jerry Barsz, Libertyville, IL; Chris Roll, Itasca, IL; Danny Goodman, Beachwood, OH; Seth Turner, Edinburgh; Drew Barnholtz, St. Louis, MO; Jason Rahimzadeh, Buffalo Grove, IL; John Rowan, Pittsburgh, PA; and Jose Torres, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Indiana-Pennsylvania

The brothers of Pennsylvania Nu once again continued the tradition of excellence in community service in the spring semester. On March 28, we sponsored our second annual "Rock Against Rape" Battle of the Bands Contest to benefit the Alice Paul House, a shelter for battered women. Over 600 people attended this event and saw four area bands battle it out. Although the event provided a festive atmosphere, "Rock Against Rape" helped raised awareness for rape victims.

Academically, PA Nu continues to be above average. By placing second for initiates among 18 fraternities on campus for the last semester, we continue to be among the best. We hope to defend our Scholarship Award and our Dean's Cup Award, which we won last year for the most outstanding fraternity on campus.

Three men were initiated into our fraternity in the spring semester. They are: Brian Croup, Wexford; Eric Rotthoff, Pittsburgh; and Jeff Shay, Pottsville. Our spring pledges are: William Michalak, Springsdale; Matt Miller, Jersey Shore; Andy Pursel, Danville; Chris Serafini, Pittsburgh; John Sheeler, Alexandria; and John Smith, Tyronne.

Striding Ahead

This year has proved to be a great one in Indiana Eta history. After completing two very successful semesters of rush, we have increased our overall membership to almost 30 men on campus. We have also had a very good year with involvement with campus events. After being part of the winning pair in the annual Homecoming activities, we came back and had a very successful showing this spring in the annual Tandem race, where our pairing finished second. We had also made a good showing in intramurals this year taking champion-

Louisiana State University

"We won the crowd over," says Louisiana Alpha President Harold C. "Buster" Lyons Jr., as he recounts LSU's Songfest. "Everybody said they loved our show." For nearly 70 years, the campus has been entertaining faculty and parents with their own home-grown version of a variety show. Lyons, who studies environmental engineering, never thought he'd be doing anything musical and compares his talent to that of a chair. Songfest is all in fun, and after his first experience, Lyons volunteered two more years.

Selecting the Age of Aquarius as this year's theme to appeal to many of their parents and LSU faculty, Phi Psi Songfest chairmen Lindsey Smith and W. Houston "Tex" Chapman tapped the talent in the chapter to form a live band of guitars, drums and piano. Paired with the ladies of Delta Delta Delta, the Phi Psis performed Let the Sun Shine In, Hair and, of course, The Age of Aquarius to enthusiastic applause and garnered the third place trophy. Smith, an electrical engineering student, and Chapman, a music major and Tiger Band member who hopes to play tuba for the U.S. Army Band, enjoyed the preparation for Songfest as much as the final performance. Weeks and weeks of making costumes, building props and practicing songs and dances transformed the chapter house into a vortex of activity. On working jointly with a sorority on this project, President Lyons gives high marks. "We would never have met the Tri-Delts, or the Pi Phis last year without Songfest." Pi Beta Phi teamed with Phi Psi for a Country Revival theme in 1991. "We really got to know them. It was social and there was no alcohol involved."

Most parents buy tickets through TicketMaster and make the drive into Baton Rouge for the show. The master of ceremonies is usually a member of the faculty, and there's always a lot of excitement. Although officially a campuswide event, this spirit-oriented affair remains primarily the work of the students who are fraternity and sorority members. Songfest is "definitely" a Phi Psi favorite.

ships in volleyball, bowling, weight lifting and softball. We also finished very well in many other events.

In the spring, the men of Indiana Eta celebrated five years of being a chapter of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity in grand fashion. We had a wonderful alumni turn-out at our formal banquet, and the night was enjoyed by everyone who attended. We would like to thank all our alumni who attended, and to those who could not make it back, we missed you.

Iowa

The familiar shout of study hours, the sound of word processors and typewriters, study lamps burning until the early hours of morning, and the serious look on the brothers' faces have passed as the year drew to an end. Instead of entering academic quicksand, we all persevered the occasional distractions, namely the mild weather of spring, that can daunt our studies. By a hair's breadth we took second place last semester in academics. Though well above the all-university and all-Greek average, we still are frustrated and determined to resume the pole position we more often than not have held.

With the warmer weather, most new projects were focused outdoors. The spring project included a new basketball hoop as well as an overhaul of the volleyball pit. Without a doubt our new members will be in "cahoots" with the more athletic members of the chapter. Tim Fess and Saul Penniman began the tedious undertaking of reseeded the front yard, pillaged by a gopher. In other endeavors to improve the aesthetic value of the house, credit must be given to Joel Jackman for replacing the railing surrounding the balcony. Other ventures are in the planning with the Nile Kinnick Restoration Fund.

Looking Forward to Rush

Iowa Beta is looking forward to a strong rush in the summer and fall of 1992. Dave Moody and Matt Mayberry, our rush chairmen, are going into the season at full force. The Phi Psis signed seven men informally for our spring pledge class. They are: Greg Allen, Des Moines; Darin Cox, Perry; Eric Lukes, Washburn; Mark Lilibridge, Cedar Rapids; Brian March, Omaha, NE; Kenneth Minn, Wheeling, IL; and Paul Quatmann, St. Louis, MO.

Dave and Matt have many summer rush functions in the makings for the brothers to attend.

Iowa Beta just finished the 1992 Greek Week with the women of Alpha Delta Pi and the Men of Phi Gamma Delta and Sigma Pi. Although the team didn't win the week-long competition, we had a very strong showing.

The men of Iowa Beta welcome our newest initiates: Mike Wallis, Burnsville, MN; Matt Thomason, Peoria, IL; Craig Smedeke, Steve Langon, Ryan Rikkeis, Waterloo; Matt Mayberry (legacy), Milwaukee, WI; Kevin Malley, Hinsdale, IL; Jesse Reynolds, Muscatine; Carl Mackerer, Pennington, NJ; Kenneth Minn, Wheeling, IL; John Fairbairn, Northbrook, IL; Brian March, Jason Rice, Omaha, NE; Darin Cox, Perry; Paul Quatmann, St. Louis, MO; and Chris Kuzmenko, Park Ridge, IL.

Johns Hopkins

As the year came to a close, the Maryland Alpha Phi Psis reflected back. The major changes came to the face of the house with new windows and doors. It was also a very successful year for the 500, which raised over $2,000 for charity under the able leadership of Steve Bierer and Odin Bazeley. We also qualified for a housing exemption offered by Johns Hopkins that allows sophomores to live in the chapter house rather than university housing.

We offer congratulations to our latest Summerfield Scholar, Alex Gomelsky, and to Les Williams, the next Phi Psi Resident Advisor.

Penn Omicron Surrenders Charter

Following years of struggling undergraduate membership and a lack of formal recognition by Lehigh University or the Interfraternity Council, the Pennsylvania Omicron Chapter voted early in the year to surrender its charter, with the students seeking discharge of their undergraduate obligations. The Executive Council reluctantly accepted the chapter charter on March 29, 1992.

Founded in 1985 as the 118th chapter, Penn Omicron initiated 66 men during its brief history. Until the climate for fraternities is positive and receptive, plans to reorganize are on indefinite hold.

New officers for next year are: Eric Leonard, GP; Mike Kedansky, VGP; Odin Bazeley, P; Steve Uss, Hi; Bill Bock, BG; Matt Richards, BG; Alex Gomelsky, Phu; Jim Lavelle, Hod; and Roger Chang, SG.

Maryland Alpha seemed to be a magnet second semester, attracting visits from Phi Psi chapters at East Carolina, Virginia, Brandeis, Delaware, Md.-Baltimore County, Franklin & Marshall, George Washington, Rutgers and Florida State. We returned the favor by assisting in the initiation of Penn Rho and are looking forward to meeting more brothers at this year's GAC in San Francisco.

New brothers are: David Campbell, Rochester, NY; Roger Chang, Short Hills, NJ; John Finnie, St. Louis, MO; Alexander Kowalski (legacy), Union, NJ; Nirvana Kundu, Park Ridge, NJ; James Lavelle, Godfrey, IL; Sean O'Donnell, Buffalo, NY; Matthew Richards, Wilmette, IL; Brian Schupper, Yorktown Heights, NY; Jon Strasser, Suffern, NY; and Jan Vandenberg, Cumberland.

Kansas

Greetings from Kansas Alpha. All is well in Rockchalk Jayhawk land and running along schedule. We made it through the first year in our new house, and we invite all to come and see our humble domicile. Once again, thanks to all of our alumni who contributed to the renovation and building of our new chapter house.

Our Founders Day dinner with Missouri Alpha was a real success. We would like to congratulate John Ward, Kansas '59, as Kansas Alpha's Man of the Year.

Even though we, the brothers of Kansas Alpha, did not have an act in Rockchalk Revue, the event proved to be an honor. We, in conjunction with the women of Alpha Chi Omega, walked away with the award of Most Charitable.

Looking to the near future, we are gearing up for our Phi Psi 500 race. However, a new twist this year will take place. The traditional bike race at Clinton Lake Park has been changed this year to a mountain bike race on the Kaw.

Please welcome our spring pledges: Matt Wachter, Chicago, IL; Adam Walcott, Marysville; P.J. Doherty, Salina; and Drew Rust, Denver, CO.

Kentucky

As the academic year came to a close, the Kentucky Beta Chapter had many things to celebrate. In November, the chapter selected Dr. James Stone, Vanderbilt '76, to serve as its Faculty Advisor. We also welcomed Mike Fitzpatrick and Wil Nash back from their studies in Australia and Italy. The Kentucky Beta Mothers Club has gotten underway and, with the help of Linda Wunder, hosted an outstanding Mothers Weekend at the chapter house.

One of the greatest pleasures of the spring semester was the Phi Kappa Psi joint formal with Phi Gamma Delta, proving that the age-old tradition of the Jefferson Duo still has its worth.

Kentucky Beta took two awards in the Big Blue Homecoming. We were the runner-up in the fraternity division of Wildcat Roar and, with the help of the sisters of Alpha Delta Pi, took home the trophy for having the Favorite Float in the Homecoming Parade. Also, Kentucky Beta and Kappa Kappa Gamma stole the show at UK's Greek Night at the Oscars.

For the second year running, we sang the song of triumph after winning the Chi Omega/Kappa Alpha Greek Sing Contest in Greek Week. Our philanthropic events included the Phi Psi/Sigma Kappa Chariot Races, the annual Phi Psi/Alpha Gamma Delta Haunted House and the March of Dimes Jail and Bail.

Lafayette

Pennsylvania Theta has just completed another successful year climaxing with the graduation of 13 outstanding adults. Various house renovations and procedural changes have created a constantly improving chapter organization. Phi Psi still remains one of the top academic fraternities at Lafayette. Not only was our GPA in the upper echelon, but individual academic awards continue to be received. Recently, Jonathan Kopcsik was inducted into the Phi Alpha Theta History Honor Society. New inductees to the Tau Beta Pi Engineering Honor Society are Bob Winters and Keith Ogelsby. The Mechanical Engineering Honor Society of Pi Tau Sigma invited George Haines, Carl Leshock and Keith Ogelsby.

The brotherhood now has the new responsibility of keeping a two-mile stretch of Route 78 litter-free in accordance with the Adopt-A-Highway Program. Signs have been erected recognizing that Phi Psi has taken on these duties on behalf of the community. During our first clean-up day, we took great satisfaction in our efforts and heard many car horns beeping on behalf of our efforts.

The revitalized Cherry Alley is now in its third year. In years past, numerous alumni from many different eras have come back to the Old Grey Barn to relive past good times at Lafayette. This year's banquet and reception were successful as ever!

We are pleased to introduce our 10 new initiates: James Affleck, Gladwyne; Jesse Anderson, Tucson, AZ; Alvaro Ferreira, Canary Islands; Mark Gaines, Mendham, NJ; Glenn Hubler, Landsdale; Christopher Jones, McClean, VA; John Pineda, Little Rock, AR; Vincent Taddonio, Staten Island, NY; Edward Vitale, Greenwich, CT; and Matthew White, Havertown.

G. Charles Finn, Correspondent

Louisiana State

This year was good for Louisiana Alpha and included several individual honors as well as those for the whole brotherhood. Group honors included a third place Songfest victory with Tri-Delta and third place for Homecoming decorations.

This year, we were pleased to initiate five men into the Fraternity. They are: Mark Miller, Min-don; Tim Blackman (legacy), Destrehan; Ramin Rastin, Baton Rouge; Gunter Herman, Guatemala City, Guatemala; and Brandon Goll, Arabi.

Right now, we have five pledges we are hoping to initiate at the beginning of next year. They are: Estuardo Orantes, Guatemala City, Guatemala;

Kenny Kopecky, Metairie; Dwayne Menard, Broussard; Alan Stone, Baton Rouge; and Bernie Kendrick, New Orleans.

The following brothers brought honor to the Fraternity with individual endeavors: Keith Lee, Steve Calhoun, James Bragg, Rob Foster and Bill Lewis were on the Deans List; Ian Allred was elected president of the General College Honor Society; Tex Chapman, Sean Carter and Buster Lyons were inducted into the Order of Omega; Brother Carter was also inducted into ODK; Tim Blackman was on the Charity Marathon committee, of which Brother Lyons was overall chairman; Brother Lyons was also elected as IFC treasurer and was in the Greek Who's Who; Benjie Balser was IFAC president; and Jeff Blackman was voted "Sexiest Man of LSU."

Other highlights were our Jaqueminot Rose Formal and a bus trip to New Orleans.

Mankato State

It was another great year here at Minnesota Gamma. As always, spring quarter brought out the brotherhood, and school was a blast!

We had a great time in Okoboji, Iowa, again this year, which is the 22nd consecutive year that we've made our Memorial Day weekend assault on the place we call "Boji."

This marks the years of our first "Where's Nacho?" campaign. We are reopening the files on our long lost alumnus, Nacho Plata, Mankato State '80. We have no idea where our 135th brother is, and we'd like to find him, as well as some records he compiled as historian in 1982. In connection with this campaign, we are also looking for William Quant, Mankato State '75, who was last seen on our 1978 composite. This campaign is only a small part of our even greater goal of the further completion of our records and organization of our alumni. If you have any information on the whereabouts of Nacho or Willy, please contact Ed Souba at (507) 388-7672. Only serious inquiries please.

Maryland-Baltimore County

The spring semester capped off a tremendously successful year for the brothers of Maryland Beta. Under the leadership of President Brandon Bonanno, Vice President Benjamin Standig and Treasurer Richard Miller, Maryland Beta achieved numerous goals that were needed for a successful campaign and to lay down the foundation for an even brighter future.

Under the direction of philanthropy chairman Jerry Chen, the brothers of Maryland Beta co-sponsored a highly successful AIDS benefit concert held at UMBC that showcased local bands and promoted awareness of the disease with all proceeds going to local organizations.

A major event in the Baltimore area this spring was the opening of the new home for the Baltimore Orioles, Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Jason Henderson and John Stokes organized a fund raiser in which the chapter sells concessions at the stadium throughout the entire season.

Forst

Miami University

Scholarship is a personal thing. At least that is the perspective of Mark Forst, who finds Ohio Lambda's academic success somewhat indescribable. Capturing Miami's top fraternity GPA with 3.14, Phi Psi has set a high standard that is rumored to be one of the highest in recent history. Forst, serving as scholarship chairman, credits his chapter brothers for creating an attitude that prioritized personal achievement and got every member "into studying."

Ohio Lambda's reputation in intramural sports, campus events and rush is unmatched. The leadership identified top GPA as a challenging chapter goal. VGP Mark Ehlert took a personal interest and led his brothers with creative tactics. In chapter, Ehlert gave each member a notecard and asked him to write down what grades he expected to get. Then he asked each to write down what he could get if he worked for it. A team competition among roommates fueled the fire. Four teams, including the winning team, lived out of the chapter house. Since some lived in the Scholar Hall for honor students, they were formidable opponents.

Forrest says the single greatest factor was identifying a specific goal of 3.0. "We didn't agree to just do better. Everybody aimed for a 3.0." More brothers earned 3.0 GPAs than ever before.

Founders Day was also a great success for Maryland Beta this semester, headed by the efforts of Alumni Chairman Drew Nix. The entire chapter would like to thank all of our alumni who attended. As our alumni numbers grow, we expect to have additional alumni events in the near future.

Our newest initiates include: Patrick Buckler, Myersville; David Carroll, Sherwood Forest; Greg Hitchcock, Royersford, PA; Ken Metzbower, Owings Mills; Paul O'Hara III, Frederick; and Scott Sherry, New Castle, DE. Pledges for the fall semester include: Victor Aulestia, Westminster; Edwin Bergen II, Lexington Park; Theodore Merilla and Keith Nelson, Linthicum; Kenneth Lin, Frederick; Thomas Pereschuk, Hagerstown; Charles Rist III, Jarrettsville; Micah Stauffer, Salisbury; and Scott Walstrum, Forest Hill.

Miami

Along Those Lines

The 1991-1992 year proved to be a very prosperous one for the brothers of Ohio Lambda. The highlight of the fall semester was an unprecedented fourth consecutive Greek Week victory for Phi Psi. Hard work and commitment paid off for Ohio Lambda as the chapter achieved a GPA of 3.147, the highest ever among fraternities at Miami. Fifty-two brothers attained averages above a 3.0, including Brothers Cseri, Evans, McMurray, Pendry, Ruffer, Schervish, Vockell and Wilcox, who each achieved a 4.0.

The house looks great, having recently gone through extensive remodeling of the kitchen and chapter room complete with new floor tiling, wall painting and ceiling lighting. Studying abroad this year were Brothers Conrad, Herlihy, Jones and Rucker.

We want to welcome our new officers for the 1992 term: Jeff Ramsey, GP; Rusty Snow, VGP; Jim Kessler, VGP; and Joe Lockett, P. Ohio Lambda is represented in major position on campus, including Dave Coho, membership chairman of MUSF; Chris Vockell, president of Glee Club; John Priest, executive officer of NROTC; Jon Snyder, IFC finance chairman; and Bruce Comiskey, co-chairman of points for Greek Week. Recognized for their outstanding chapter leadership this year were Brothers Deegan, Ehlert, Evans and Lockett.

Ohio Lambda is proud to welcome its new initiates from the spring. They are: James E. Armstrong, Chardon; Chad E. Baldwin, Adrian, MI; Todd W. Becker, Glenview, IL; A. James Bonahoom, Grosse Pointe Farms, MI; Daniel J. Brandt, Beavercreek; Jason C. Brewer, Atlanta, GA; Michael B. Currie, Grand Rapids, MI; David B. Dreyfus and Daniel E. Sundt Jr., Wilmette, IL; Rod Elliot, North Olmsted; Anthony F. Fata, Myrtle Beach, FL; David E. Fleck, Fort Wayne, IN; Mark N. Fluchel, David W. Ortals and Nguyen X. Violette, St. Louis, MO; Gregory R. Hart, Wiloughby; Christopher J. Head, Milwaukee, WI; David M. Herlihy, Chillicothe; Christopher S. Knight, Englewood; David E. Lambert, Naperville, IL; Douglas E. Leister, Champaign, IL; C. Scott McNew, Indianapolis, IN; Jason A. Perry, Toledo; Scott E. Seiple, Cortland; Craig R. Shisler, Dayton; J. Robert Sunderland, Anaheim, CA; Jonas W. Vredevelde, Cincinnati; and Todd P. Worthington, Worthington.

Michigan

The brothers of Michigan Alpha enjoyed a very successful term this winter, which started with the initiation of six new brothers: Gary Smith, John McAdow, Tibor Juhasz, Joshua Nardo, Jon Fish and Gregg Lurcott.

As defending Greek Week champions, the chapter finished in fifth place overall in this year's competition. We were paired with Alpha Chi Omega and Delta Sigma Phi and captured first place in the Phi Psi 500. Philippe Paez also came in second place in Mr. Greek Week, a male beauty contest for charity.

The chapter had a successful year in intramural sports, reaching the playoffs in many sports and winning the championship in B volleyball. Overall, the chapter is quite a few spots higher in the standings than in years past.

Philanthropically, the chapter has been very active. In addition to all of the money that we raised for charity in the Phi Psi 500, we continued to support our orphan in Colombia, Viviana.

We have 10 excellent pledges this term. They are Vince Roldan, Adam Gam, Mike Navanjo, Mark Libkman, Tim Bergland, Brent Campbell, Blake Martin, Paul Antony, Steve Stoddard and Raj Singh.

Some renovations will be done around the house this summer, including new paint and carpeting, and the brothers are eagerly anticipating the beginning of the next school year.

Kevin Banks, Correspondent

Michigan State

As another year comes to a close, we are revelling in our achievements of the months past and looking forward to another successful year next fall. We had several successful philanthropies this year, including our "Apples for AIDS" drive and a two-day car wash for the Muscular Dystrophy Association. As a result of these activities, we raised over $1,200 for these causes.

Alumni were pleased to learn that we had reinstated the spring alumni golf outing at the Groesbeck Gold Club. It was a great experience for both the young and young-at-heart; many old friendships were rekindled and many more begun. The response was tremendous, and we will continue it next year to give the alumni another opportunity to "strut their stuff" on the course.

Alumni were also very pleased at the rebirth of the Spartan Phi Psi newsletter; hopefully, this will bring us all closer together and improve relations in all activities to come.

Congratulations are order for recent graduates Bill Ranta and Mike Crudder. Bill will attend Harvard Law School in the fall, and Mike will depart for Papua, New Guinea, as a proud new member of the Peace Corps.

Congratulations to our winter initiates, Arthur Jones and Doug Friedel, and to our latest pledge class — Craig Wiles, Stephen Rau, Daniel Cichowski and Bryan Brown.

Eric M. Acker, Correspondent

Minnesota

Minnesota Beta kicked off this past quarter with Founders Day. Again this year, Founders Day was held at the chapter house. After dinner, the past year's activities were narrated in a slide show by Marc Hauser. Then the alumni and members gave speeches about the house. Easily, Founders Day was a great success, as the alumni and current members relations were greatly enhanced.

We would like to welcome our new brothers: Rick Rychlicki, Steve Borg, Chris Golden, Dan Youngquist and Keo Sengsavang. Since we are talking about new members, our rushing for fall quarter has begun under the supervision of Mike Weiland and Dave Wermus. We are also active in school government as Dave Wermus ran for student vice president, and John Bickel ran for the student senate.

Minnesota Beta is looking forward to the upcoming school year since our chapter house, the oldest house on campus, will be turning 85 years old, and we will be as strong as ever.

John Bickel, Correspondent

Mississippi

Mississippi Alpha has experienced another great year. Membership increased by 26 percent, we won the 1992 Greek Games and we excelled in several honorary organizations. Jonathan Adkins was inducted into the Golden Key National Honor Society while Dow Canup, Michael Crane and Tommy Ward were initiated into the Order of Omega, a Greek leadership honorary. Ward was also voted Model Active, and both Scholar Pledge and Model Pledge awards went to Patrick Wiggins. Greg Lawson won two scholarships for the best grades in the chapter as well as the highest grades of the brothers living in the house. Congratulations!

Mississippi Alpha initiated the following 22 men into our beloved Fraternity on February 2: Ronnie Bagwell Jr. and Isaac M. Robertson, Pearl; Robert W. Davis Jr., Baldwin; Kevin W. McLeod, Ackerman; Brett L. Mehalic, Clinton; Jimmy R. Woods Jr., Stewart; James C. Daniel and Ronald E. Ferrell, Murfreesboro, TN; Thomas F. Norman III, Collierville, TN; John M. Samples, Bartlett, TN; Patrick T. Wiggins, Dyersburg, TN; David B. Yelverton, Memphis, TN; Eric J. Enchelmayer, Jonesboro, AR; William B. Douglass, Dallas, TX; Mark C. Lingo, St. Louis, MO; Daren K. Todd, Kennett, MO; William P. Waldron, Ballwin, MO; Jason W. West, Alexandria, VA; Casy A. Hixson, Bowling Green, KY; Tobias A. Ward, Covington, LA; Jonathan C. Cushman, Western Springs, IL; and Jason E. Snell, Granville, IL.

We are also happy to announce our pledges from spring semester: Eric S. Brady, Lititz, PA; Michael W. Brewer II, Memphis, TN; Charles W. Jackson III, Greenville; Bradley H. Kuykendall, Belmont; Warner L. Lowrey; Michael L. Mitchell, Starkville; Aaron J. Nielson, Houston, TX; Henry A. Nobsey, Union City, TN; Billy M. Sanders, Brandon; John M. Sowards, Allentown; Jayson S. Spring, Louisville; and John P. Thompson, Ripley, TN.

Our second Founders Day marked the beginning of a new scholarship. Jack Speed, Mississippi '68, attended the festivities and donated $1,000 to endow a scholarship for out-of-state brothers. Known as the Jack F. Speed Jr. Scholarship, it will honor the out-of-state brother with the highest GPA each semester. Special thanks to Brother Speed for his generosity and to all who attended Founders Day. If you couldn't make it this year, we hope to see you next year.

Until GAC, best wishes!

Missouri

During the past year, the men of Missouri Alpha have been very busy. Philanthropies have been one of our primary concerns. We won Kappa Delta Manhunt, placed second in Alpha Chi Omega's Greek Superbowl, third in Alpha Omicron Pi's Greek Physique and second in Alpha Epsilon Phi's Fool's Legs.

In April, we finished a successful Greek Week with the women of Alpha Epsilon Phi. We made it to the finals of the talent competition, beating out 11 other paired fraternities and sororities.

We also welcomed eight new pledges. They are: Ryan Ahern, Brian Benoist, Chris Degan, Robert Denton, Chuck Kuhlman, Craig Leabig, Eric Means and Jace Rogiers.

We are looking forward to another prosperous semester in the fall of 1992 where we will welcome 30 new pledges to Missouri Alpha.

Monmouth

The New Jersey Beta Chapter faces difficult times following what was described as a "fraternity prank." Cited for violating the college's anti-hazing policy while already on probation, the college administration withdrew recognition of the chapter until May 1993. This sanction prohibits the chapter from participating in any official programs or from using any college facilities. While supporting the actions of the college, the National Fraternity is still considering what actions, if any, to take in order to assure the redevelopment of New Jersey Beta.

New Jersey Beta needs guidance from alumni in the Long Branch area to survive the next year outside the walls of the college. Any alumnus who wishes to assist the chapter should contact Chapter President Craig Weisbecker, Phi Kappa Phi Fraternity, Monmouth College, Box 58, West Long Branch, NJ 07746, (908) 531-8993.

Nebraska

Nebraska Alpha has embarked on the search for a new housemother. After years of dedicated service, Catherine has decided to leave the fraternity house behind and retire. The house itself is undergoing a facelift. The outside is being repainted, and the kitchen and housemother's suite are being renovated.

Northwestern

Adjusting to Change

Last quarter marked the beginning of our chapter house's renovation project. All brothers who were previously living in the house were forced to relocate. The project is expected to be completed by Labor Day of this year, just before classes resume in the fall. We would like to thank Edwin Bosler, Northwestern '56, James Wall, Northwestern '49, Lawrence Smith, Northwestern '52, Roger Sharpe, Northwestern '49, and George Good, Northwestern '76, for their efforts toward the successful renovation of the house.

Even though we were spread all over campus, we were still able to conduct normal chapter activities during spring quarter. All brothers met weekly at the Student Union for dinner and our chapter meetings.

For spring rush, events were held in a student dormitory lounge since we were unable to do them at the chapter house. Despite this strange circumstance, we were still able to get four outstanding pledges.

Instead of holding social events at the house, we had exchanges and date parties at Wrigley Field and various clubs throughout Chicago.

Once again, we continued to excel in intramurals and finished the quarter ranked third in grade point average among all the fraternities on campus.

University of Missouri

Chapter Day is becoming a stronger tradition at Missouri Alpha. Mizzou senior Roger Brallier and freshman Kevin Enyeart bolstered this spring event with creativity and style. Applying the lessons he learned as a member of the university's Alumni Association Student Board, Brallier realized that alumni are "just as scared as the students," when it comes to meeting one another. His Student Board experience taught him that alumni are generally receptive to students and are usually anxious to share stories about college life.

As chapter alumni relations chairmen, Brallier and Enyeart decided to showcase their alma mater's new alumni center on guided campus tours and to celebrate Phi Kappa Psi with some special touches. Alumni were asked to write down their favorite memories and post them on a memory board. This ignited the conversation. During a luncheon, alumni viewed video tapes recorded by the house mom over the past year, searched through the old volumes of the college annual, The Savitar, and checked the "Lost Brother List." In conjunction with the yearly Black & Gold intersquad football game, Chapter Day made use of the university calendar. Promotions were described by alumnus Steve Scheidker as the "classiest" and "most timely" ever. Brallier, who is a varsity cheerleader and carries a double major in political science and psychology, made certain there was no request for money. "We did receive donations, but that wasn't the point." An opinion poll is being sent to attendees so young brother Enyeart can help to improve Chapter Day next year.

Life Ball has enhanced our image of generosity within the community. Efforts are now being coordinated with the Special Wish Foundation to participate in one of their annual fund raising events next year.

Our congratulations to the 15 gentlemen who were enlightened to the mysteries of our Fraternity at the end of winter quarter — Dave Cicatiello, Mark Cunningham, Rich Healy, Andrew Herron, Jim Hinton, Mike Jagodzinski, Jeff Karlich, Rob Lewis, Vince Maite, Doug Potter, Matt Ramagli, Bobby Romell, Todd Stadler, Andrew Wehr and Brad Woolledge.

We currently have seven pledges who have been extremely active in participation and fraternity education. They are: Dante Badia, Clinton; Michael Barhorst, Tipp City; Brad Buelow and Jay Gorsuch, Columbus; Christopher Nowak, Strongsville; Robert Reardon III, Austintown; and Todd Newton, Independence.

Ohio Wesleyan

Our semester started off with a spectacular spring rush culminating in the school's largest pledge class. The members of our recently initiated pledge class are: Luis Aguilar, Guatemala City, Guatemala; Marcus Andronici, Medford, NJ; Tyler Baker, Delaware; Noah Benz, Adrian, MI; Peter Fradkin, Scarsdale, NY; Edward Franz, Hamburg, NY; Thomas Fraser, Port Washington, NY; Kevin Henderson, Lexington, KY; Steven Goodheart, Heath; Kenneth Greenwald, Dublin; John Howard, Lynnewood, PA; Scott Humphrey, St. Louis, MO; David Kovar, Greeley, CO; William McManus, New Canaan, CT; Aaron Mall, Toledo; Alberto Mendez, Dayton; Christopher O'Dell, Newark; Jeffery Pireu, Canton; Marcello Reale, East Hampton, NY; Timothy Shafer, Rochester, NY; Scott Songer, Tracy's Landing, MD; and Kevin Zeigler, Hilton Head, SC.

Another highlight was our Founders Day celebration with Ohio Delta. Meeting our fellow brothers from Ohio State was a great experience. We met up with other Phi Psis at the Regional Conference at Miami weeks later.

Community service and scholarship remained a top priority at Ohio Alpha. We succeeded in performing 500 hours of community service and fund raising for St. Vincent's Children's Home in Columbus to coincide with the annual Phi Psi 500. The chapter improved tremendously academically as well from last year as a number of brothers garnered scholastic awards and entrance into distinguished honoraries.

Many members continued to strive toward excellence in the campus community. GP Reed Welch and Clay Smith captained the men's soccer team to the national championship for a second straight year. Likewise, Mark Serfilippi captained the Bishops football team to another spectacular season. Off the field, Senior Class President Brendan McCarthy and VGP Dennis Adams, who received the IFC Outstanding Community Service Award, demonstrated the strength and pride of Phi Psi at Ohio Wesleyan.

Oklahoma

It has been another productive year at Oklahoma Alpha that has been marked by alumni involvement. In September, we hosted a reunion weekend on Homecoming with over 80 alumni in attendance. In February, we held a Founders Day reception at Twin Hills Country Club in Oklahoma City. The evening was highlighted by a speech from John Houchin, Oklahoma '28, former president and CEO of Phillips Petroleum.

Also in February, we initiated nine fine young men: Eric Moon, Chris Stearman and Matt Holyfield, Edmond; Sam Houston Jackson IV, Tucson, AZ; Sam Russell, New Orleans, LA; Andrew Marcus, Bronx, NY; Josh Douglas, Oklahoma City; Bill Long, Stamford, CT; and Bong Kang, Tulsa. We also pledged four men for spring: Stace Porter, Ardmore; Ryan Sykes, New Castle; Tony Arnold, Hominy; and Eric Leslie, Midwest City.

Athletics and activities are also alive and well at Phi Psi. Our softball team made the playoffs for the third straight year, and we took first place in an all-campus volleyball tournament. We also had a great time participating in Sooner Scandals, an all-Greek song and dance show, with Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority. We also hosted several workshops, including sexual awareness and risk management workshops.

Oregon

Buckhalter from Hillsboro; Scott Drew from Santa Barbara, CA; and Rob Lake from Sacramento, CA.

The spring Parents Club auction was a great success for the second year in a row. It raised a lot of money, which will pay for a secondary exit from the dance floor. The Parents Club spring clean-up was another great success and much was accomplished in improving the fraternity house.

Once again many Phi Psis participated on the Interfraternity Council, and Jeff Weiler was elected to the position of philanthropy chairman.

Phi Psi brothers were very active in the Student Senate, Bookstore Board of Directors and the Associated Students of the University of Oregon, which is the governing body of the University.

Founders Day was held in Eugene this year and again was a great time for the undergraduate brothers to hear stories of the "old school."

Brian M. Gulka, Correspondent

Oregon State

The year started here at Oregon State with a shot of new blood in the form of 14 new pledges. These men came into Oregon Beta with enthusiasm, and the year has been spectacular because of it.

Fall term was highlighted by our winning football season and our placing second in grades out of the 27 fraternities on campus. Winter was also exciting because of our basketball team reaching the semi-finals of the all-university intramural tournament and our continued success in grades at the sixth position.

In spring, we all worked for our philanthropy in cooperation with Gamma Phi Beta to benefit Cystic Fibrosis. With the help of a local radio station we collected, compiled and broadcast Oregon State students' top 40 favorite songs. Because of Brother Kaiser's organizational abilities in putting together this event, the Student Activity Center chose to use his procedures as a recommended model for all future philanthropies on campus.

Hope to see all brothers in San Francisco!

Pennsylvania

No newsletter was received from this chapter.

Chapter Advisor Bill Staples is to be applauded for his efforts on behalf of Penn Iota. He has been active in working with the chapter as well as the university in various campus advisor symposia. Penn Iota has also spent some time renovating areas of the chapter house.

Penn State

Once again, the brothers of Penn Lambda can look back on an enjoyable and successful semester of fraternity life. Spring in Happy Valley means the inevitable renewal of the Phi Psi 500. This year, the 500 pitted participants in 50-yard sprints to try to claim the title of Fastest Man and Fastest Woman at Penn State. Turnout was even greater than expected for the new format, and along with Kappa Kappa Gamma, we successfully raised $8,500 for the Association for Retarded Citizens.

We then turned all of our attention to Penn State's annual Spring Week. The combination of Zeta Tau Alpha and our "Spring for the Gold" theme amounted to successful placement in all competitions and, more importantly, a week full of fun.

The brothers of Penn Lambda continued to excel in the classroom, in campus activities and on the athletic field. We made our presence felt in IFC with nine men being appointed to various committees, ranging from Membership to Community Relations. We also maintained our strong intramural tradition this semester with solid performances in volleyball, swimming and track and another top 10 finish among Penn State's 52 fraternities.

Despite low overall rush numbers this semester, our spring rush was a great success. As a result, we are pleased to introduce our newest pledges: Scott Henjes, Greenwich, CT; John Bickel, Richland; Chris Norton, Richmond, VA (son of Cliff Norton, Penn State '65); Ryan Snee, Washington; Mike Sabo, Allentown; Sam Bergman, North Wales; Mark Muller, State College; Craig Clarke, Glenmore; Scott Hess, Shippensburg; and Steve Foerster, Harrisburg (brother of Mike Foerster, Penn State '91).

Purdue

Adding to the History

The men of Indiana Delta are preparing to add another chapter to the great history of Phi Psi at Purdue with a major house renovation to be completed this summer. The renovation will include a complete reconditioning of the interior and an exterior addition. We extend special thanks to our alumni housing board for its support and hard work. All the excitement of house improvement seems to have inspired the brotherhood scholastically with our GPA rising by .15.

We are continuing Phi Psi excellence on the sporting field as well. The intramural softball and basketball teams both experienced success last semester, finishing third in the all-campus league. Several brothers also committed their time to varsity athletics. Brad Whitlow started on Purdue's 12-1 lacrosse team, and Craig Davison just completed his career as member of the football team. Mike Gucciardo and Bill Crooks were on the tennis team, Chris Brandt was on the swim team, and Greg Beck was on the water polo team. The Grand Prix team went through a rebuilding year with new driver Adam Vanderwielen and expects to develop over the next year. Brother Vanderwielen will also be the newest Purdue Pete, Purdue's mascot.

Art Carlson left for the Peace Corps and will be located in the Philippines. We wish him the best of luck.

Sixteen fine young men were initiated on this spring: John Bottorff, Mike Fendley, Alex Sobolevski and Brian Nagurski on January 12; Byan Sorg, David Lindman, Vujo Duper, Mike Gucciardo, Dirk Spearing, Tony Paesano, Alex Romero, David Powers, Willard Brandt, Jay Davenport, Justin Brown and Adam Smith on February 15.

Ten men pledged themselves to Phi Psi: Brian Lopez, Cleveland OH; Jason Hasenour, Ferdinand; Mark Fulton and Todd Fulton, Santa Claus; Matt Stewart, Floyds Knobs; Nick Hill, Lafayette; Bill Crooks, Grand Rapids, MI; Ben Hasenour, Jasper; Ashish Parikh, Waukegan, IL; and John Cassidy, Kentland.

Rhode Island

Respect

Rhode Island Beta, in our second time participating in Greek Week, took first place as an individual chapter. Long before anyone thought we could, RI Beta has become one of the strongest fraternities on campus. At the awards ceremony, we were called upon to receive three trophies, one for the first place finish, a second for placing second as a team and the final one for our strong third place showing at Greek Sing. Phi Psi has once again gained respect at URI. The pride is back in Kingston.

We thank the Alumni House Corporation and all of the alumni for generously allocating $4,000 for some badly needed re-constructive landscaping. We added dozens of new trees, bushes and plants. The lawn looks great, and we invite all alumni to drop by and take a look.

Once again last semester, we undertook several philanthropic projects. They included Project Sunrise, which helps local elderly people by cleaning up their lawns and replacing windows, and Habitat for Humanity, a group that builds low cost housing for needy families. We also held an extensive canned food drive for the Johnny Care Center and raised $650 for charity in a Dance-A-Thon. Next semester, we are planning two big philanthropic events — the traditional Bounce-A-Thon and a raffle for Easter Seals.

We welcome our new pledges: Don Sullivan, Brian Lombardi, Rob Aldrich, Noah Dunn, George Tung, Jake Donovan, Tim Morgan and Hedi Travares. Also, we welcome our new initiates: Keith Turnock, Joseph Bischer, James Bulger, Matthew Berger, Mark Swistak, Chris Kneally, Matthew Cronnin, Andrew O'Neil, Christopher Childs, Lincoln Chapin, Walter Ptasek, Larry Modder, Scott Coleman, Mike Dunlap, Carmine Intnieri and Frank Marini.

New Jersey Alpha has spent both time and money this past year working to improve its chapter house. The entire entry hall was re-done as well as several other areas of the house. Alumni are encouraged to contact the chapter at 2083 Lawrence Road, Rider College, Lawrenceville, NJ 08648.

Rochester Institute of Technology

This past year has been perhaps the most exciting one for New York Theta. Our petition was completed and the colony has been granted its charter. The installation was April 25 (see page 60 for details).

The year started out with a tremendous football season. Our team went undefeated and took the championship trophy with a dramatic overtime win over TKE. This winter, our hockey team was also impressive thanks to solid contributions from Brothers Kay and Guanzon.

University of Southern California

Career outlook. Lifestyle planning. These are monstrous subjects for any speaker. It's not all that formal at the California Delta Chapter, but the Phi Psi alumni talks are certainly influential to the undergraduate brothers at USC as they contemplate their futures. Last November Tom Fuelling, president of Lawry's Foods, and in February Bill Keane, senior vice president of Prudential Securities, shared their thoughts on business, personal priorities and success. Both men are 1956 initiates of the chapter.

International Relations student and past chapter president Paul Miller is sold on Phi Psi alumni filling this important role in chapter life. Men like Fuelling and Keane walk into the chapter house with tremendous clout. USC senior Peter McCormick, a business finance major, says Cal Delta tries to schedule "a successful business person each semester." He feels that the students, especially the seniors, appreciate the candid remarks of the alumni and the insight they offer. Tom Fuelling outlined three things he wanted out of his future when he graduated: family, career and health. He wanted to find a way to balance things like coaching his son's football team with his job. Bill Keane's message also addressed choices. He warned that compensation doesn't always come right away, but if you're doing what you want to do... it will come.

Chapter Advisor John McManus is impressed with the initiative members take to invite speakers. USC past president Jack Hubbard, ΔKE, WWII pilot and former Ambassador to India, has also shared a few words with the Phi Kappa Psis. Apparently, "show and tell" is more than an excellent exercise for school children; it's a winning forum for curious young adults at Phi Psi.

Rush Chairman Dwayne Snow implemented two successful rush programs, and membership has increased to 56 brothers. This winter's pledge class was our largest yet with nine quality men: John Amschler, Bryan Beauregard, Bill Bernhard, Adam Brody, Seth Gitner, Troy Kincade, Ron Kobielski, Chris Maciolek and Mark Stevens.

New York Theta has also spent time contributing to the Rochester community. Several brothers have helped a woman with several children renovate their house after a fire destroyed much of the home. We have also been involved with needy children and alcohol awareness dances on campus.

Another one of the accomplishments we are very proud of is the colony's GPA. Brothers Farchione, Dawson and Parada all posted 4.0 GPAs this past winter. As a whole, the colony consistently ranks highest among fraternities at RIT.

Rutgers

Greetings brothers, from NJ Gamma! Phi Psi is growing stronger than ever in its fifth year on the banks of the Old Raritan. Entering our second year of having a chapter house has proven to be valuable, in recognition on campus as well as a central location for our chapter's functions.

Our philanthropy projects include several food drives for the area soup kitchen, collecting toiletries for the homeless and sponsoring a child through the Save a Child Foundation. Socially, we held a Founders Day celebration, which was a blast. Many of our alumni were in attendance. In addition, we held a Spring Fling semi-formal, which was enjoyed by brothers as well as alumni. We would also like to thank all those alumni who have given us support in the past year with special thanks to Robert Lecky, Allegheny '58, for his help in getting our chapter incorporated.

Our officers for this year are: Rob Sentie, GP; John Prokap, VGP; Fred Chilkowitz, P; Robert Garagiola, AG; Robert Storicks, BG; Robert Martinez, SG; Markus Siebler, Hod; Joe Moroney, Phu; and Frank Lin, Hi. We also have a new chapter advisor, Kent Diamond, Rutgers '89.

Robert Garagiola, Correspondent

Southern California

Greetings, brothers, from the California Delta Chapter. The brothers here enjoyed one of our busiest semesters this spring.

The semester began with an excellent rush, which was coordinated by Rush Chairmen Tony Chargin, Joe Maggio and Mark Schulman. It was a small spring rush, but we managed to pledge a good number of quality young men who will carry on the proud tradition here at California Delta.

This semester, we were visited by William Keane, Southern California '56, who is the vice president of investments at Prudential Securities. He came to the chapter and told some of his college stories and gave advice to the many graduating seniors who will be entering the business world soon. (See p. 87 — Ed.)

Many of the brothers participated in Founders Day activities, which took place in Irvine this year. There were brothers from all over the area there to partake in the festivities.

At the end of the semester, we held our annual philanthropy event, the Phi Psi 500. This is a fund raising event in which all the USC sororities competed in a grueling obstacle course. All the proceeds from the event went to the Foundation for the Junior Blind.

We welcome our newest initiates: Chuck Forsch, Mike Pavento, Yariv Schutzer, Ryan Eastman, Brad Hinman, Mike Shekoyan, Ed Pira, Dean Camaras and Kelly Hook. We also welcome our new faculty advisor, Dennis Mulhaupt.

Sean Wolfson, Correspondent

South Carolina Charter Suspended

Following years of declining undergraduate membership, the South Carolina Alpha Chapter found itself unable to continue as an active chapter. The Executive Council formally suspended the chapter at the request of local alumni on March 28, 1992. Plans to reorganize the chapter are set for fall of 1994. The Fraternity will use the 1994 Grand Arch Council in Charleston as the official kick-off for alumni recruiting, with the goal being to have a complete slate of advisors and counselors ready to work with the new undergraduates.

Originally chartered as the ninth chapter of Phi Kappa Psi in 1857, the chapter enjoyed periods of success but was inactive from 1892 to 1972. Membership stands at 296.

Southern Methodist

Howdy from the men of Texas Delta. Phi Psi is certainly making its presence felt at SMU. In February, Texas Deltans celebrated Founders Day with the brothers of the North Texas Alumni Association and other Phi Psis from across the U.S. The following weekend, the chapter captured second place in the annual Delta Gamma Anchor Splash.

Also in February, the brothers teamed up with Alpha Delta Pi and performed excerpts from the musical Hair in SMU's annual Sing Song competition. The judges awarded the team with the coveted Director's Award in recognition of their performance.

In April, years of waiting finally came to an end as the first Phi Psi 500 Bed Race was held at SMU. The event was a smash, and the proceeds were donated to Children's Hospital here in Dallas. Texas Deltans also participated in Community Service Day, doing work at Equest Therapeutic Riding Stables for the mentally and physically challenged.

The chapter excelled in other areas also. Texas Delta maintained its campus GPA and ranked first out of 15 fraternities for the fifth semester in a row. In sports, the chapter captured second in all-school volleyball.

The brothers of Texas Delta would like to extend a hearty welcome to our new initiates: Philip Aponte, Overland Park, KS; Michael Lamb, Papillion, NE; Eric Mentz, Littleton, CO; Chad Moon, Richardson; David Spence, Beaumont; and Jon Stiles, Coalgate, OK.

Larry W. Brown, Correspondent

Southwest Texas

No newsletter was received from this chapter.

Within the past year, the Texas Gamma Chapter has acquired a house that is only one block away from campus. This is certainly an improvement over the previous residence, which lay on the outskirts of San Marcos. In other news, the chapter continues its endeavors to attain full membership on the Interfraternity Council. Interested alumni can contact the chapter at 918 N. LBJ, San Marcos, TX 78666.

Stanford

Greetings, brothers of Phi Psi! The high point of our year was the celebration of the centennial anniversary of our chapter with a formal in San Francisco with many of our alumni and friends from Cal Iota. We are eagerly anticipating another century of Phi Psi excellence here at Stanford!

Our other activities have been as varied as always: Raphe Beck has completed his illustrious career with Ram's Head theatrical society; Sean Bennet has announced that his rock band will be playing at clubs in the city this summer. Our athletes continue in excellence: Morgan McCarroll on the polo team, Peter Chang on the cycling team, Arnold Colunga on the lacrosse team, and Ben Wu and Glenn Voyles as a coaching a little league team in the community. We have helped with the Walk for AIDS, manned a booth at the Bing Carnival and spent time at the Stanford Children's Hospital.

We are happy to announce our 17 new pledges: Richard Barnett, Sacramento; Christopher O'Brien, Lake Forest, IL; Andrew Leventis, Vancouver, WA; Joshua Mogin, Los Altos Hills; Christopher Hondl, Edina, MN; Richard Sutton, Wichita Falls, TX; Daniel Goldman, Boulder, CO; Nawwar Kasrawi, Great Falls, VA; Anthony Frutos, Bakersfield; Brian McBeth, Spring Lake, MI; Marc Oppenheimer, Olympia Fields, IL; Todd Russell, San Juan Capistrano; Rafael Ulate, Sunnyvale; Michael Favero, Kokiak, AK; Michael White, Lahabra Heights; Gabriel Lucas, San Francisco; and Ryan Kaltman, Sherman Oaks.

Derrick Carpenter, Correspondent

SUNY-Buffalo

Greetings from N.Y. Eta. We send out our sincerest congratulations to Marc Bruffet, Phi Psi's newest Educational Leadership Consultant. Marc will be greatly missed in Buffalo but will continue his hard work for Phi Psi. Thank you to Colonel Lazell for stopping by our chapter house; the story hour was entertaining. Please stop back anytime. We would like to welcome our newest brothers at N.Y. Theta. Gentlemen, please call on us at any time. Finally, congratulations to Neils Gothgen and John Hollner for their acceptance to U.B.'s chapter of Order of Omega. We look forward to seeing all of you in San Francisco.

Joe Pellegrino, Correspondent

Syracuse

The 1992 spring semester was both fruitful and exciting. Highlighting the events was our first Phi Psi Street Hockey Tournament. Sixteen teams were "in it to win it." The Phi Psi squad made it to the finals before losing to a better team from the area. Around $400 was raised for charity, and everyone involved had an awesome time.

February's Founders Day dinner was excellent as always. We would like to congratulate Chris Delorenzo for winning the Founders Day Cup as our chapter's Most Outstanding Brother. Speaking of awards, Phi Psi did pretty well at the 1992 Greek Awards Banquet. We won an award in conjunction with alumni relations.

Syracuse University's Block Party Weekend was again rainy, but it didn't stop 20 alumni and 65 undergraduates from having an excellent time. It was great to see everyone.

Finally, congratulations to our new brothers: Glen Caplin, Dave Pasch, Marc Litofsky, Dave Miller, Joe Forget, Josh Poper, Marc Meyer and Dave Swartz. Also, our new GP is Jason Mittleman, VGP is Jon Sheiman and P is Al Mettera.

Adam Lippard, Correspondent

Temple

As summer begins, the brothers at Pennsylvania Pi reflect on what has been a productive semester.

Stan Cherian, Christopher Darby and Paul Jenkins were accepted into law school. Tony Grigas, in his third year as an undergraduate, will be accepted into the highly competitive graduate program of physical therapy here at Temple University.

As for athletics, we have continued to be successful. Going undefeated in both volleyball and basketball will help us in capturing the A.U.C. trophy. Greek Week kicks off with Greek Sing. We anticipate as strong of a performance as we had last year when we placed first.

Another high point was our sixth annual Phi Psi 500. Despite the unpredictable weather this year's 500 went on flawlessly.

Last semester, Penn Pi was able to return the stability we lost with the changing of our house and the large graduating class of spring '91. The brothers are looking forward to next year and the continued growth of our beloved fraternity. Pennsylvania Pi wishes all Phi Psi chapters continual success.

Marc S. McKinney, Correspondent

Tennessee Spring Fever

Spring in Knoxville always brings good things. This spring was no exception. First of all, our house is really starting to shape up with the addition of a new ceiling for our living room and basement and also some new furniture for our parlor. We also have a new basketball goal for the backyard so we can practice for intramurals.

Shaking off the cold winter weather made us pretty active. Everyone worked really hard to pull up grades for the semester. Philanthropically, we did some work for the Special Olympics, sponsored an Easter egg hunt for elementary school children and raised money for various charities around the community.

Founders Day Formal this year was a blast. We went up to Banner Elk, NC, to a ski resort for the banquet and dance. We were very happy to receive new brothers from the NC Beta Chapter. Also, on April 4, we celebrated 25 years on UT's campus. Dud Daniel, Arizona '47, made a gracious appearance to give his keynote address. We were all very surprised to learn of the chartering of the Smoky Mountain Alumni Association. These brothers have already begun to help our chapter immensely, and we greatly appreciate it.

As always, brotherhood abounds.

Del R. Zimmerman, Correspondent

Texas The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You

I am very happy to report that 1991-1992 was a very productive year for Texas Alpha. We accomplished fantastic amounts of recognition on the campus of the University of Texas and within the Greek community. After a lengthy absence, we were registered with the university in the fall and are once again recognized as an on-campus student organization. All of the brothers, both undergraduates and alumni, worked a tremendous amount to see that we attained this goal. We are also ecstatic about the tremendous amount of effort put forth by our House Corporation in the continued renovation of the chapter house throughout the year. Many of our Phi Psi brothers were fortunate enough to see the renovations during our Founders Day weekend. This year's event brought out well over 100 alumni, which made for an outstanding weekend of events. As a result of our continued effort to gain further alumni support and interaction, we were recognized in the spring by

University of Texas

Fun. Friendship. Frivolity. These words color an unofficial Texas Alpha Chapter alumni organization known for their fraternal spirit and commitment to staying together, the Tacky's. For nearly 10 years, these young alumni have met in cities around the country — St. Louis, Dallas and Chicago, just to spend time together. "You don't see that camaraderie anywhere else than fraternities and sororities," remarks Tom Pennington, who circulates mailing labels to the group's 16 members to make communication simple. "Fraternity is more than hanging out for four years," adds Pennington.

The Men of St. Tacky gather for the first home game of the Texas Longhorns, the Texas-Oklahoma rivalry at the Cotton Bowl and for one summer weekend. Weddings, babies and outings keep the calendar and letters full. All pursuing different interests, this brotherhood within the brotherhood includes a television sportscaster, an airline executive, a corporate sales rep, an IRS officer, a restaurateur, and the head of an oil company. Scott Noble, David Kessler, Gary Jones, Pennington and the others cannot be accused of merely "playing fraternity."

When asked for advice to give other close-knit groups of Phi Psi contemporaries, Pennington is straight-forward: "Pick up the phone, use the Grand Catalogue." He feels there is always sometime during the year for each chapter that is a natural gathering opportunity for alumni: homecoming, big game day, Founders Day or Memorial Day weekend. Only a college fraternity could have drawn these men together and given them the passion to continue their friendship all these years. The name? Well, figure it out... St. Louis, Texas And Chicago Yahoos! The K is secret.

the Greek community and the university as having the Most Outstanding Alumni Program out of the more than 44 Greek chapters on campus.

As the spring came to an end, we had five very sharp young men who are a now a fine addition to Texas Alpha. They are: Robert Baird, Waco; Robert Jones, Dallas; Chad Louis, Belton; Matt Niemann, Carrollton; and Neeraj Hingorani. All are looking forward to initiation.

Kevin L. Brown, Correspondent

Texas Tech

The brothers of Texas Beta had a great spring semester and are pleased to share some of our accomplishments.

In February, the chapter hosted the annual Founders Day banquet at a local restaurant. We ate dinner, presented awards to both alumni and undergraduates and set our chapter's goals for the future. Texas Beta is also working hard on our new alumni newsletter, which should go to our alumni sometime this summer.

The Phi Psis are striving to improve on our already impressive academic rank of fifth out of the 23 fraternities on campus. Another bright spot for Texas Beta is our athletic talent.

The chapter worked at the Lions Club Pancake Festival by cooking pancakes all morning one day. We are also working on a project for next fall to raise money for multiple sclerosis research.

The officers for the spring of 1992 were: Jeff Franklin, GP; Jim Lane, VGP; Steve Kauffman, P; Kevin Epps, AG; and Robbie Reavis, BG. The spring pledges were Rudy Abrego of Aransas Pass, and Michael McDonald of Pottsboro.

Kevin Epps, Correspondent

Trenton State's Phi Psi band, The Deed, performs at the Dan-A-Thon, a concert/dance party to benefit the Dan Matthews Fund. Dan was injured during an intramural soccer match.

Toledo

The past year has put Phi Psi up another rung on the ladder at the University of Toledo. Fall gave us another quality pledge class as well as a successful Homecoming for our alumni, who have been invaluable to our chapter. Between philanthropy projects and float building with Kappa Delta, we managed to squeeze in a ski trip to Boyne, MI. Our annual Founders Day banquet was again a great time for the undergraduates to converse with the alumni and look back on all of our tradition.

We had our second annual Phi Psi 500 for the March of Dimes this spring. The event has blossomed in just one year. Many campus organizations participated in the fun and festivities, and at the same time we collected a substantial amount for the March of Dimes. The brothers were also very excited to have our first formal in many years, held in Windsor, Canada.

Finally, the Ohio Eta Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi would like to congratulate Chip Carstensen, Toledo '69, our chapter advisor, on receiving the prestigious Edward C. Schmakel Alumnus of the Year Award and would again like to thank him for all his efforts.

Andre E. Ament, Correspondent

Phi Psi Pride

We would like to express thanks to chapters that donated to our Dan Matthews Fund. "Dan-A-Thon," our benefit concert/dance party held on Valentine's Day, raised over $11,000 for his medical expenses. Dan appeared at the benefit, and since then, his condition has dramatically improved. His spirit is stronger, and with continued therapy and support he can fully recover.

A victory with Omega Psi sorority for TSC's Homecoming competition was a tremendous boost to the Fraternity's image and morale. In addition, the chapter GPA improved to 3.0. Eight brothers were named to Dean's List; Paul Amoroso, Randy Galasso and Christopher Hammer were inducted into academic honor societies; Neil Day and Christopher Hammer were initiated into the Order of Omega; and Paul Amoroso, in addition to being inducted into Order of Omega, was named Greek Man of the Year by the Inter-Greek Council. We also congratulate our new initiates: Benjamin Carr, Hackettstown; Robert Rogers III, Mount Laurel; Kenneth Sainz Jr., Belleville; John Stephenson, Millburn; Christopher Valles, Brick; and Robert Yozzo, Milford.

Our philanthropic pursuits included visiting underprivileged/abused children at Mill Hill House in Trenton. Meanwhile, our fall class volunteered at the Salvation Army of Trenton, and our spring class participated in a wheelchair race for Handicapable Awareness Week at TSC. Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority and Phi Kappa Psi co-sponsored the third annual Walk-A-Thon for the NJ Special Olympics Foundation on April 11.

Best wishes to our pledges: Glenn Booth and A. Thomas Frey III, Stockholm; Matthew Farkas, Ewing; William Kane, Fair Lawn; Patrick Martin and Matthew Myszk, Somerdale; Eric Ouano, Hazlet; Joseph Paparo, Pine Hill; Rocco Petitto III, Sicklerville; and James Schulz Jr., Yardville.

The brothers of Virginia Zeta celebrated 15 years of Phi Psi at Virginia Tech this year. The celebration drew over 130 undergraduates and alumni together to mark the occasion.

Valparaiso

An Active Spring

Greetings from Indiana Epsilon! The 1991-1992 school year is over. It has been a very productive and memorable year for all of the brothers at Valparaiso.

After the renovation of our chapter room last fall, we decided to remodel our study room also. We added a new lighting system, carpet and wallpaper. Fred Dorman and Carl Frey used their woodworking skills to build two desks, which have really been put to use this semester. It will be interesting to see if we improve upon our GPA. Last fall, it was the third highest out of the 11 fraternities on campus.

Spring was filled with many activities. We participated in both "Adopt-A-Highway" and "Christmas in April." For "Adopt-A-Highway," we went out and cleaned up a two-mile stretch of U.S. Highway 30. "Christmas in April" was a large community project wherein 25 brothers fixed up a few of the run-down houses in the Valparaiso community.

At this time, we would like to recognize our 14 new initiates: legacy John Bohlmann, Chesterton; Wyatt Doyle, Steilacoom, WA; Michael Drone, Wheatfield; Greg Elser, Laporte; Michael Geiger, Mishawaka; Kevin Krieger, Valparaiso; Paul May, Lafayette; Matthew Moeller, Gladstone, OR; legacy Kristofer Olson, Laona, WI; Kevin Simons, Mason, MI; Andrew Teeple, Fort Wayne; James Wilson, Milwaukee, WI; Matthew Wollin, Carmi, IL; and Christian Zavisca, South Bend.

We are proud to say that the Indiana Epsilon Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi remains a strong chapter on the campus in the community.

The Tennessee Delta Chapter underwent a remarkable turn-around during the past academic year. In late August, the Fraternity Headquarters staff joined with local alumni to conduct a membership review in response to certain membership problems. Throughout the following year, the chapter made improvements in its operations and practices. The efforts paid off. Phi Psi was awarded the Chancellor Heard Cup, which is given to the most outstanding fraternity chapter on campus, at the spring Greek Awards Banquet.

Virginia

Virginia Alpha has enjoyed a productive semester that has been focused on two major projects. The first has been the organization of a renovation committee, which is in the process of devising and carrying out the task of completely restoring our nearly 70-year-old house. Though the challenge is enormous, the renovation is necessary. This semester, in fact we remodeled the chapter room as a project, and the room has once again become a popular hangout. This summer, we plan to finance a great deal of necessary electrical work and the overdue replacement of the roof.

The second major project of the semester has been the improvement of public relations in light of all the recent negative publicity borne by the Greek system at the University of Virginia. The chapter participated in sexual and alcohol and drug abuse seminars and, perhaps most notably, donated its services to a preschool for underprivileged children called "Bright Beginnings." The brothers spent one weekend rebuilding a playground, and we plan to continue our services to them by maintaining and adding to it as well as becoming involved in a major fund raiser for its benefit. You can expect to hear only positive things from Virginia Alpha.

A Year to Remember

Over 130 people, including 37 alumni, celebrated Virginia Zeta's fifteenth anniversary with a sensational formal banquet. Speaking for the undergraduates, it was our pleasure to host you, and we cordially invite you back for Homecoming weekend, Oct. 16-18!

A record number of brothers received academic honors this year. Five brothers made Dean's List: Dave Ewens, Marcel Jemio, Gary Fagan, Matt Zurad and Brother-of-the-Year Brian Clark. Dave Pearson and Jason Bergener each received academic scholarships. And Mark Lewin was elected to the Golden Key National Honor Society.

The good news doesn't stop here! Team Captain Justin Kerns kicked his way to the university soccer championship.

In just one year, chapter membership has snowballed from 24 to over 40. Congratulations to Virginia Zeta's newest brothers: Jerome Diskin, Columbia, MD; Matt Hederstrom, Virginia Beach; Dennis Mauler, Chesterfield; Bill York, Springfield; and Sean Gallant, Fairfax.

Finally, best wishes to our outstanding pledges: Greg Moral, Salem; Brent Ingebreetsen, Woodbridge; Bob Sebulna, Springfield; Brad Rutherford, Winchester; and Mike Saltisiak, Virginia Beach.

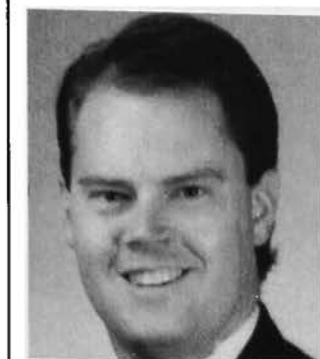

Don't miss out, visit Virginia Zeta!

Wabash

This past semester was monumental in the life of Wabash College. Since its founding in 1832, Wabash has admitted males only. But roughly two years ago, a campus-wide committee began to study whether or not Wabash should admit women. Finally, after much discussion and anticipation, the college trustees reaffirmed the single-sex status of the institution on March 22, 1992. And even though this was the highlight of the semester, there was much activity at Indiana Gamma. After initiating our 18 fall pledges, we recruited a spring pledge — Frank Moldonado of Hammond has already made a sizable contribution to our chapter and is surely one of the finest pledges we have had in recent years.

In varsity athletics, Andy Luckey swam for Wabash at the NCAA Division III championships in Buffalo, NY. At the Division III cross country championships in Newport News, VA, Jim Kerr, Jeff Lampert, Jim Ray and Jon Sturgill made up four of Wabash's seven-man squad. Four graduated brothers were four-year lettermen, in-

University of Washington

"It's been stunning," says Jim Boyle, past Archon of District VI who served this spring as alumnus Fraternity Education Counselor to Washington Alpha. The chapter has mastered a financial turn-around. Our Husky Phi Psi's recent history, plagued with high accounts receivable among its members, surpassed $10,000 in the red. "Brothers would move away and not pay. There were usually 2 or 3 gross offenders," adds Boyle.

Washington Alpha Chapter Treasurer Cory Coyle, a business and accounting student, made a big difference by taking a "more professional approach." Coyle implemented signed contracts with members who live out of the chapter house as well as those who live in. House bills had not been increased for three years, so they were bumped up twice over a two-year period and yet still remain in the lower third on campus. With 23 pledges living in the house last September, occupancy totaled 61 men, which was "a little bit crowded." The chapter house had been under capacity so the change in revenue was significant. Chapter leaders examined previously unchecked kitchen and social expenses. "We just spent the money," explains Boyle. Budgets were not prepared or reviewed. Today, the cook has guidelines, and the social chairman proposes expenses for planned activities. The chapter did not have fund raisers, but concentrated on management. The brothers turned the place around. Increasing membership was an important factor. Getting house bills more in line with actual costs made a difference. "I think any chapter can put forth the effort," says Boyle, "if it's not just a few people, each member is willing to do his part." Coyle has been recruited to serve as financial advisor after his graduation from the University.

cluding Jim Kerr and Jeff Lampert (cross-country, track), Jason Little (soccer) and Scott Perkins (football). Phi Psi graduated 18 brothers this spring, two of whom (Mike Lowes and Steve Scherer) are soon to be married. Best of luck to all of these men as they face the world outside.

Commitment to Excellence

This year continues to be a highly eventful one for Washington Alpha. Every aspect of the chapter is continually improving.

For starters, Phi Psi celebrated the New Year with a Husky win over Michigan at their second consecutive Rose Bowl.

The Phi Psi name is always improving throughout the Greek system. Todd King holds the IFC Vice President for Rush position, a very sought-after spot in the Interfraternity Council.

Our annual Red Rose Ball was held this year on the top floor of the Columbia Tower, being the first fraternity ever to have a dance in Seattle's tallest building, the highest honor any fraternity could possibly receive.

And if the Walk-A-Thon that we had fall quarter (that produced $5,000 for the Children's Orthopedic Hospital) wasn't enough, our philanthropy is constantly on the move with our Adopt-A-Highway program, where we are responsible for keeping a two-mile stretch of Interstate 5 litter free.

Our Founders Day was an amazing success this February, with a record number of Phi Psis attending. We are very proud of our alumni and hope to see them on more regular basis.

The Washington Alpha Chapter house is one the oldest on campus, and the members are constantly trying to improve it, and maintain the image of having the "Cleanest House on Campus."

We wholeheartedly welcome our five newest initiates, bringing the chapter roll up to 1429. They are Gary Wall, Rich Steffens, Geoffrey Silva, Shaun White and Gregg Brown. We also offer a formal welcome to our two new pledges — Kristofor Simensen and Taber Smith.

Andrew Ness, Correspondent

Washington & Jefferson

Greetings from the Mother Chapter. The men of Pennsylvania Alpha have endured a difficult and transitional spring semester at Washington and Jefferson. The campus has been greatly affected by new rules and procedures implemented by the administration on the Greek community. Our chapter officers were strongly involved with the deliberation and negotiations concerning these changes.

We are pleased to announce the revitalization of our alumni relations program. We held our first Phi Psi Golf Outing, our traditional Biennial Dinner Dance and Carnival Weekend festivities this spring. All events were greatly successful, and alumni attendance was good.

Phi Psi continues to strive for success both academically and athletically at Washington and Jefferson. The chapter's GPA is solid, as brothers excel in a wide variety of disciplines. Phi Psi finished the intramural season with strong finishes in volleyball, basketball and softball. Denis Kauer won first place in the wrestling tournament. Mike Abramovitz, Jonathan Cohen and Evan Jenkins were key members of the W&J Tennis Team.

PA Alpha is proud and pleased to announce the addition of our newest brother. Anthony J. Mandrola of Windsor Locks, CT, is looking forward to a fall initiation.

Our chapter extends our thanks and gratitude to James M. Acton, Educational Leadership Consultant. Jamie visited us this past spring and was very helpful in advising our chapter. He left us many fine ideas and plans for the future to help us in our rebuilding process. Also any suggestions for rush, fund raising, or other chapter activities from any brother or alumnus nationwide would be greatly appreciated.

Jonathan P. Cohen, Correspondent

Washington & Lee

The Virginia Beta Chapter has had another great year at Washington and Lee, although it has been difficult not having a house. It is currently being renovated and will be ready by the beginning of next year. The chapter has been well-represented on campus this year, with Josh MacFarland being elected president of the school, Curt Smith being elected to the IFC and several brothers being chosen as dorm counselors. The chapter is also represented on the football, basketball, baseball, lacrosse, soccer, track and rugby teams. We are also doing well both academically and in intramurals. Our chapter president for next year is Jay Cross, and we would also like to thank Steven M. Allocca for his outstanding contribution to the chapter over the past year and hope that Joonie will soon return.

Our new initiates are: Temple Cone, Richmond; Alex Cross and Pete Tapley, Baltimore, MD; Drew Denbo, San Francisco, CA; Ted Dimitry, Houston, TX; Ian Falk, Flemington, NJ; Tom Garber, Waynesboro; Quinn Kiley, Rumson, NJ; Matt London, Springboro, OH; and Steve Wakefield, Austin, TX.

Richard C. Miyamoto, Correspondent

West Virginia

Last semester, Dave Sargus and Ken Schaffer went to England to study in a program sponsored by the University. They chose to study at a small international college called Richmond. We all hope they had a great experience and can't wait to hear about their trip upon their return.

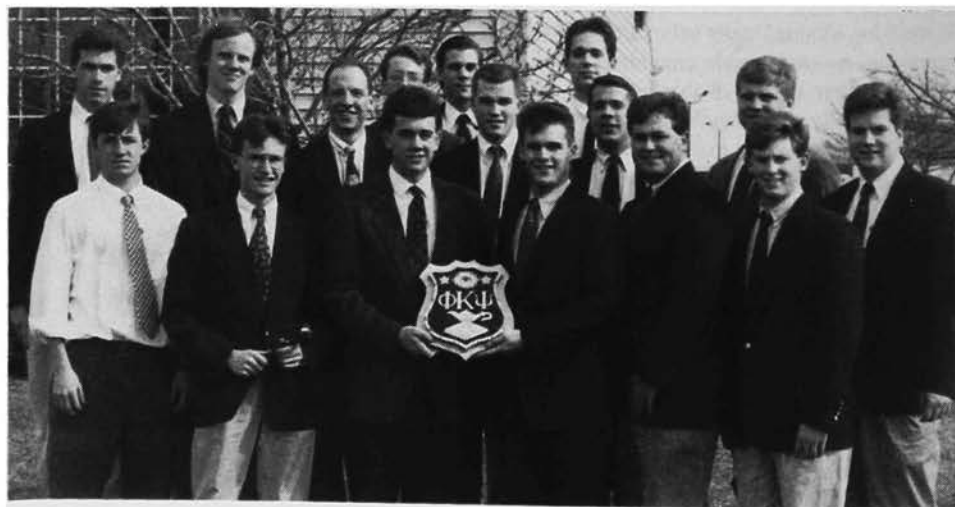

Congratulations Brian Freed for his admission into Order of Omega, an honorary fraternity at WVU. Steve Raptis, a member of Order of Omega since 1991, should also be commended for his appointment as vice president of this academic organization.

We also congratulate Toby Carlin, who was elected as our new chapter advisor, and Aaron Peck, who was elected as our new faculty advisor.

Phi Psis participated in numerous community activities over the past year. Some of which included raising money for local senior citizens, the American Heart Association and the Salvation Army. Phi Psis also participated in WVU's annual Festival of Fun, which gave area children a chance to play games and generally have fun with WVU Greek members.

Three generations of Phi Psis participated in the reorganization of Ohio Beta: John Shanks, Indiana '34, Andrew Shanks, Wittenberg '92, and David Shanks, Cornell '58.

Delegates from Ohio Alpha present the Ohio Beta undergraduates with a replica of the Badge and a gavel. The men traveled from Ohio Wesleyan to participate in the initiation ceremony at Wittenberg with Springfield area alumni and the Fraternity staff.

Phi Psi would also like to announce the initiation of some of WVU's finest men into West Virginia Alpha: Eric Hays, Aliquippa, PA; Jarrod Rudo, Randallstown, MD; Matthew Russ, Great Falls, VA; Craig Fields, Charleston; Brian Elliott, Baltimore, MD; Aaron Bunting, Pottstown, PA; Jerry Horseman, West Chester, PA; Ryan Hetrick, Millersville, MD; Todd Ebelein, Salisbury, MD; David Haywood, Hatfield, PA; Daniel Moore, Matewan; and Leonard Magargee, Rosemont, PA.

John T. Heath, Correspondent

Wittenberg

Ohio Beta has definitely taken off. Our first 19 initiates pledged 12 of Wittenberg's finest men during winter term. These men were initiated on April 25, just before the brothers took another group of six pledges for spring rush. Obviously, our numbers are growing rapidly, and within a year Phi Psi has already made a lasting impact on our Greek community. Current members are involved with over 30 student organizations while maintaining a GPA higher than that of independents or any other fraternity.

Ohio Beta had a hectic year — attending both regional conferences held by Ohio Lambda, showing well during Witt's Greek Week, having a couple successful philanthropies and a spring formal.

For all of the guidance and support throughout this first year, Ohio Beta thanks our chapter advisors — Craig Richter, Wittenberg '66, and Bill Miller, Wittenberg '78 — as well as Ohio Alpha, Indiana Zeta and West Virginia Alpha. The brothers also recognize all of our alumni who have been in contact with us to offer their support. We hope to see many of you back for Homecoming. All correspondence to Ohio Beta can now be sent to our AG at Wittenberg University Box 3610, P.O. Box 6100, Springfield, OH 45501-6100.

Congratulations to our new initiates: Kevin Culp, Bellefontaine; William Dawson, Washington; Matthew Doughtie, Hilton Head Island, SC; Tyler Dunlap (son of Jerry Dunlap, Ashland '66) and Anup Patel, Ashland; Brandon Brant and Steven Hofmann, Van Wert; Vladimir Kouznastasy, Russia; Niklas Lerner, Sweden; John Pentecost, Greenville, MI; and Dennis Weed, Columbus.

Steve Pearson, Correspondent

York

We did it! A year and a half after our induction as a colony, we received our chapter charter on May 2. We would like to thank all who helped us achieve our number one goal and also the Executive Council for approving our petition.

With the initiation of our spring '92 pledge class, Pa. Rho tied for highest GPA of all 10 fraternities here at York. Many of the brothers are active on campus: Craig Lytle, Student Senator, IFC Secretary; John Cirillo, IFC Treasurer; Dave Molendyk, Student Senator; Brad Jewitt, Community Relations Director; Terence Peavy, Assistant Athletic Director; Jeff Siegel, Campus Activity Board member, Greek Judicial Council, president of Forensics. And Leon Thornton won the Mr. York College for the 1992 school year!

Brad Jewitt has been hard at work on his Adopt-a-Block program. In an effort to improve community relations, Brad started this program with the city. Four times a year, organizations, along with the community, clean the block to which they are assigned. This program has gained a terrific response from both the city and the college.

We have worked hard the past year and a half toward our main goal of receiving a charter. And now, we must direct our efforts elsewhere. Our new goal is to be the strongest chapter we can and to uphold the tradition of Phi Psi.

DePaul

Greetings from Chicago. We have been quite busy with eight brothers traveling to Ohio Lambda's Regional Leadership Conference and Marc Dumas representing DePaul at the 1992 MIFCA/MAPCA conference. Currently, Marc Dumas is running for Director of Greek Council, and Mark Light is running for Coordinator of Fraternity Rush. If either of them win, it will be the first time that a member of a colony sits on the Executive Board of Greek Council.

We are foreseeing an October date for Illinois Zeta to submit its petition for a charter. We are rapidly approaching all our goals with enthusiasm. Membership is at 23 and seven pledges, who are quite energetic about learning the ways of Phi Psi.

We have no housing at DePaul for the Greek system, but the colony sits on a committee to petition DePaul to allow us use of University-owned townhomes — our chances look quite good.

One of our greatest challenges to date has been alumni support. There are quite a few alumni in the area, but we have not had the resources available to contact them until of late.

If there are any questions, advice or concerns, do not hesitate to call either Marc Dumas at (312) 477-8831 or President Robert Narrajos at (312) 929-0804.

Marc Dumas, Correspondent

Loyola

Greetings from Louisiana Gamma! We say a special hello to brothers we saw at Mardi Gras! We met brothers from PA Eta, WI Gamma, TX Delta, TX Alpha, TN Delta and many others. We will be mailing all chapters and colonies an information packet in the fall so you can contact us early about accommodations or where we can all meet to celebrate.

We are happy to have had a successful semester with our philanthropic efforts. We assisted Special Olympics by selling autographed New Orleans Saints jerseys and working at the annual Million Dollar Hole-in-One Golf Tournament. The most worthwhile event of the semester was planning and participating in a basketball tournament for Special Olympic Children. We also participated in competitive softball and raised funds for Loyola's Annual Fund phone-a-thon. Many brothers become involved with SGA (congress members, cabinet members, committee appointees). Gerry Blaker won Greek Senior Male of the Year and IFC Vice President Adam Miller attended SEIFC and was appointed State Director for Louisiana.

We close this letter by announcing that we initiated two new gentlemen into our brotherhood: Jorge Marquina, Guaynabo, PR; and Paul Thibodeaux, Metairie.

Farewell until summer at GAC!

Chicago

Founder's Day Luncheon, held at Red Kerr's, Illinois '53, restaurant in Chicago allowed your Association to invite Mendel Hart, Illinois '42, into the Golden Council of Phi Kappa Psi. Invited into the Silver Council were Roger Sharpe, Northwestern '49, and John Green, Illinois '53. Officers elected for 1992 include Mike Piscoran, Creighton '81, Fred Lindstrom, Northwestern '48, Ron Beisler, Beloit '53, Pat Kirby, Minnesota '62, and Frank Whiting, Illinois '43. If these names seem familiar it is because they did such a good job last year that they were re-elected. There are two vice president slots open for volunteers.

Now, get ready for the 32nd Annual Closed Invitational Golf Outing. Defending champion Herb Jones, Illinois '50, has decided upon St. Andrews Golf Club in West Chicago as the place where he will defend his title. The date of the contest will be included in the invitation that all dues-paying members will receive. So send your $10 1992 dues to Pat Kirby, Treasurer, P.O. Box 957981, Hoffman Estates, Illinois 60195-7981.

Kent Yowell, Colorado '46, has checked out the hotel accommodations in San Francisco where our G.A.C. will take place in July. He feels that they are most suitable. As the numbers of alumni grow, so should their participation in the governing of our fraternity. So plan on attending and taking part.

Cleveland

The Cleveland Alumni Association celebrated Founders Day with the brotherhood of Ohio Epsilon at the Beachwood Marriott. The dinner party was attended by over 80 Phi Psis and spouses and featured speaker James Biggar, Case Western Reserve '47, former CEO of Nestle USA and the current chairman of Cleveland's "Gateway" stadium project. Biggar delivered an inspirational speech about the Indians' new baseball stadium and the comeback of downtown Cleveland.

The Founders Day event also marked the induction of new officers for 1992: President Charles White, Auburn '74, Vice President David Arter, Ashland '79, Secretary Tom Halter, Case Western Reserve '88, and Treasurer Michael Kertes, Case Western Reserve '79. Several outings are planned. Upcoming events include a Cleveland Indians baseball game in June, a family

Columbus

Another terrific Founders Day celebration highlighted the month of February with the addition of a large and enthusiastic delegation of undergraduates from nearby Ohio Wesleyan making the occasion even better than usual. The crowd of nearly 170 taxed the capacity of the Faculty Club dining room and enjoyed the fellowship that all began with Brothers Letterman and Moore so many years ago. The message of speaker Dick Oman, Ohio State '45, stressed the importance of community service; undergraduates from both Ohio Alpha and Ohio Delta reported briefly on their activities; songs and the traditional "High, High, High" rang throughout the building. All this was carefully planned and coordinated by Columbus Alumni Association President Roger Williams, Ohio State '49, with help from both chapters and their advisors Craig Johnson, Ohio Wesleyan '84, and Jim Blazer, Ohio State '79.

But February offered us yet another highlight...a visit to Columbus by none other than SWGP Bob Lazzell, West Virginia '42, who, in addition to calling on some chapters in central Ohio, found time to join a small group of alumni for an informal luncheon on February 24.

Upcoming on our schedule is a Special Luncheon featuring Dick Bull, Ohio State '43, recently retired V.P. of Nationwide Insurance as speaker. Then on June 27, the 1992 Phi Psi Golf Outing will take place at Shamrock Golf Club, where new records undoubtedly will be set — just what kinds of records is hard to say.

Last, but by no means least...join us for lunch most any Friday noon at the Fawcett Center for Tomorrow main dining room, 2400 Olentangy River Road. We always have room for one more!

Delaware Valley

Though we are still in our infancy, the Delaware Valley Alumni Association is beginning to establish itself. As we have become more organized, so too are our sponsored events and participation within the Fraternity.

Our second annual Founders Day banquet was another success with 49 brothers and guests attending. Tony Phillips, Eastern New Mexico '82, and Scot Mentzer, Temple '87, were honored for their continued dedication to our undergraduate chapter, Pennsylvania Pi.

We sponsored several events this spring. In April, we held the second annual Phi Psi Open, a gold tournament co-sponsored by DVAA and Penn Pi. In May, we held Dad Vail Regatta Tailgate on the pristine banks of the Schuylkill River. Coming up, this summer there will be a beach party down at the Jersey shore and our always successful alumni weekend during Temple's Homecoming.

Currently, we are on a drive to increase membership. Alumni living in the Delaware Valley who are interested in joining should contact either Scot Pannepacker at (215) 321-7178 or me at (215) 277-6872 or attend a monthly meeting, held on the third Friday of each month at the Diamond Club on Temple University's main campus.

Steven K. Suranie, Correspondent

Indianapolis

This spring has been a busy and successful period for the Indianapolis Alumni Association. Over 170 people attended our Founders Day celebration in February. Our guest speaker was Paul Helmke, Indiana '67, the mayor of Fort Wayne, Ind. Congratulations go to Indiana Zeta at Butler University, who won the day's song contest.

On April 1, a group of brothers attended the Indiana Pacers game versus the Atlanta Hawks — a big win for the Pacers. We are planning more informal functions, including an Indianapolis Indians baseball game this summer. Alumni should contact the officers for more details.

We are continuing our monthly luncheons on the first Tuesday of every month. Fire and renovations at previous sites necessitated a change to The Cooker Restaurant at Keystone at the Crossing. We will continue to meet there for the next few months. Please note the time has changed from noon to 12:30.

Steve Dierckes, Correspondent

Kansas City

The brothers of the Kansas City Alumni Association gathered for our Annual Founders Day Banquet on February 21. The newly renovated and remodeled Saddle & Sirloin Club played host to our evening with special guest speaker Dean Vogelaar, Vice President of Public Relations for the Kansas City Royals as our entertainment. Over 100 brothers took part in our celebration, rekindling the spirit of Phi Kappa Psi. The big topic of conversation at this year's Founders Day was the renovation and remodeling of Kansas Alpha as well as the proposed remodeling of Missouri Alpha. Those brothers planning to travel through the area this summer vacation are encouraged to stop and see the magnificent showcase at Kansas Alpha. Several functions are on the drawing board for the summer for the Kansas City Alumni Association. Watch your mail for the return of Phi Psi Night at the Races and a Phi Psi Night at the Kansas City Royals. We encourage anyone who is contemplating a change of address or knows a brother who isn't receiving our mailing to please contact the Fraternity Headquarters and update our computer listing. We wish all our brothers a safe and prosperous summer.

David W. Atchley, President

Little Rock

Greetings to all brothers across this great country of ours from the land of your next Democratic presidential nominee.

As we look back on our Founders Day celebration, all in attendance agree it was one of the best in Arkansas Phi Psi history. We especially thank Tony Malczyk, Arkansas '79, for making the trip down from Chicago to serve as the keynote speaker. His talk on what the Fraternity stands for and what it means to him was both informative and entertaining. Following the banquet, there was a party at Greg Garland's house where all the brothers had a chance to get together and talk about old times. The following morning was the First Little Rock Alumni Association Golf Tournament. Despite the late night, 12 brothers turned out to play the two-man scramble tournament. Brothers Gaston and Garland won and promised to buy the trophies for next year's tournament winners.

We are planning more gatherings so brothers have more chances to get together. We held a fishing tournament and fish fry on May 23. We are also securing block seating for the Arkansas versus Alabama football game this fall in Little Rock. We may even try to squeeze in a golf weekend in late summer. If you would like more information or have any ideas, contact any alumni association member.

As usual, the we meet at noon the first Friday of each month at Wayout Willies for lunch. If you haven't paid your $25 annual dues, they are now due.

Metro-Detroit

On February 18, the Metro-Detroit Alumni Association met at Vassel's Hall in Southfield to celebrate the founding of our beloved Fraternity. Brothers representing Michigan State, Michigan, Chicago and newcomers from Butler and South-west Louisiana all had an enjoyable evening.

We are in the process of rebuilding our association with new members as well as re-establishing the acquaintances from years past. If you were unable to attend Founders Day, please give us a call. We are literally rebuilding from scratch, as all previous association records are lost.

Plans for a great year are underway! A July "Evening by the Pool" is being finalized. All brothers and their spouses or significant others are invited to enjoy a barbecue and lots of fun! Further details are soon to be released — all we need is the pool!

Details are also being worked out for the First (in a long time) Phi Psi Golf Outing. The Beech Woods Golf Course in Southfield will be host to our September 13 event. Activities will include breakfast, lunch, awards and golf for those who are interested. Our '92 association mailing will highlight all events and will be mailed soon.

John Rexford, Michigan '40, is still our host for the monthly luncheons. The group meets on the second Tuesday of every month at noon at Foxy's in Troy. Call John at (313) 661-5808 for more information.

Congratulations are in order for the new officers: President Jef Farland, Michigan State '70; Vice President Dave Bretz, Michigan State '73; Secretary Mark Miller, Michigan State '82; and Treasurer Gary Diehl, Michigan State '72.

We are looking forward to a great year. If you have not yet been involved, give Jef Farland a call at (313) 559-9305.

Jef Farland, Correspondent

Northern California

Phi Psis throughout California are looking forward to the 66th Grand Arch Council to be held this summer in San Francisco. As the host Alumni Association of the GAC, NorCal has taken an active role in helping to organize what promises to be the best GAC ever!

Phi Psis in the San Francisco Bay Area and throughout Northern California, especially those who have never attended a GAC, are encouraged to attend. As for you "Out-of-Towners," local Phi Psis are rolling out the red carpet, starting with a Welcome Reception Cruise on the Hornblower Yacht.

On April 8, Phi Psis gathered at the Hyatt Embarcadero, San Francisco's GAC headquarters, to hear Executive Director Terry Harper, Oklahoma State '85, and Dick Ong, Oregon State '55, present the exciting GAC plans. Any brothers interested in assisting in putting this special event together should contact Dick at (916) 965-3165 (and if you're a piano player who can pound out Phi Psi tunes at the Welcome Cruise, call collect!).

The 8th Annual Spring Golf Hackfest was held April 11 at the Alameda Golf Club. Hackmaster Al Brown, SUNY-Buffalo '61, again coordinated this colorful event. Fabulous prizes were awarded to the 24 enthusiastic participants, while Dave Sandusky, UC-Berkeley '82, entertained fellow hackers with an unscheduled synchronized swimming display in a water hazard.

We'll see you in San Francisco for the GAC!

North Texas

The North Texas Alumni Association has finished another active year and sends its appreciation to all Dallas/Ft. Worth area alumni who have participated in and contributed toward success.

Last spring found the Association officers working with the Texas Delta Housing Corporation and the Texas Delta Chapter to secure housing for the group. At long last that dream has been realized, mostly through the hard work and responsible example of the undergraduates.

In the fall, the NTAA helped to organize an all-Phi Psi event for the evening of the annual Texas-Oklahoma football game in the Cotton Bowl. The game proved more than exciting, and the evening was a gala celebration with undergraduates from Texas, Oklahoma and even SMU and Texas Tech (playing in town that weekend as well)! Though alumni turnout was low on this busy weekend, a great time was had by all who attended. Look for another opportunity for alumni and undergraduates to get together next year!

Our Founders Day banquet hosted over 75 alumni and undergraduates gathering at the Radisson for a more formal agenda than previous years. An excellent happy hour and meal set the stage for the re-election of all officers. Taking the reigns for the second year are President Mike Chadima, Indiana '76; Vice President Kevin McSpadden, Southern Methodist '88; Treasurer Shawn Wells, Texas '84; and Secretary Tom Pennington, Texas '80. Speaker for the evening was Wilton Stone, Texas '52, who gave a presentation on the recently settled Seeberger case and its effect on Texas Phi Psis.

All in all, a busy year and we look forward to another. Any alumni interested in helping out should contact Tom Pennington at (214) 692-4400 or 824-1475.

Oklahoma City

The Oklahoma Alpha Founders Day Dinner was held on February 21, 1992 at the Twin Hills Country Club in Oklahoma City. John Houchin '28, former chairman of the board of Phillips Petroleum, was our keynote speaker.

Brother Houchin spoke on the role that Phi Psi played during his college years at OU and the experiences he shared with us were very heartwarming. Hack Miller '53 was the organizer of this event, and he was assisted by Richard Bower '56 and Stan Hopper '47.

A bus load of undergraduates from Oklahoma Alpha were led by Chapter President Britt Spencer '89 and Alumni Chairman Clayton Farhood '90.

Alumni attending were Don Barnes '43, former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Oklahoma, Tony Say '75, president of Clinton Gas Transmission, Allen Wright '80, who has a great future in Oklahoma politics, William Edwards '49, Streeter Flynn '50, Ken McKinzey '52, Larry Ewing '52, Stan Hopper, Ted Hopper '80, John Powell '56, Scott Schaffer, Stanford '87, Brian Leech, Oklahoma State '89, John Barnett, Dr. Morris Curry '57, Vincent Farhood '88, Richard Bower, Pete Klentos '54, and Hack Miller.

The following day, the Oklahoma Alpha House Corporation met with the officers of the chapter. It was agreed that the OAHK will consist of 12 alumni who will meet regularly with the undergraduates and that Stan Hopper will serve as liaison officer between the chapter and the house corporation.

Reunion 1992 will be held during the Homecoming Weekend of October 2-4. Please make plans to attend, especially the brothers who made last year's festivities — we need to continue where we left off. As for the brothers who were not present last year, it is not too late to join the ongoing party this fall.

Special recognition needs to be extended to Hack Miller, Stan Hopper, Richard Bower and Tony Say for their continued support of our chapter.

Omaha

The Alumni Association held its annual Founders Day celebration on February 21 at the Venice Inn. The well-attended event provided the usual opportunity to reminisce with brothers about college days gone by. The Founders Day celebration featured a viewing of the limited edition highlight film of Creighton's highly successful trip to the College World Series in 1991. The Founders Day dinner was followed by a Casino Night at the lodge, sponsored by the Nebraska Beta Chapter.

Unfortunately, the exuberance of Founders Day was quickly followed by the disappointment of Beta's disciplinary problems with Creighton University. A one-semester suspension has been imposed, and a group of Beta alumni is being formed to work through these difficulties with the chapter and the university. Your support and assistance are welcomed.

Alumni Association officers for this year are: President Jim Dennell, Nebraska '76; Vice President Bob Hogan, Creighton '79; Secretary Steve Bruckner, Creighton '76; and Treasurer Jeff Modica, Creighton '75. We hope our out-of-town alumni will let us know when they plan to be in Omaha so that impromptu gatherings may be arranged. The Alumni Association's luncheon continues to be held at Trovato's Italian Restaurant, 50th and Underwood at noon on the third Tuesday of each month.

Rhode Island

Like the rest of the University of Rhode Island community, alumni of Rhode Island Beta are celebrating the university's 100th year. Meeting in early March at the University Club on campus, the Rhode Island Alumni Association elected a new slate of officers, bidding an official adieu to President Dave DiSano and Treasurer Mike Chmura. Our new leadership consists of President Tom Costello, Vice President Don Hourahan, Secretary Rick Booth, Treasurer Joe Jarocki, Social Chairman Andy Marcoux and Member-at-large Rick Daucunas. Each brings unique qualities to the board.

At this writing, we are preparing for our second most popular event, the Pop Top Open golf tourney. Many alumni are also expected to attend a Parents Appreciation Day at the chapter house in Kingston.

The Association's most crucial project is its membership drive. Though no firm plans have been made to follow up on Founders Day when about 50 alumni paid their Association dues, it will be the first order of business for the foreseeable future.

Chris Hughes of Middleboro, MA, is a corrections officer with the Plymouth County Sheriff's Department and deserves special recognition. As supervisor of the department's printing training facility at the corrections center, Chris has played a key role in the continuing improvement of The Link, our newsletter.

Anyone wishing to pay his dues should contact Joe Jarocki at (401) 246-1210; anyone with questions about The Link, contacting other brothers or other, non-financial information should contact Rick Booth at (401) 762-8371.

Rockford

The Rockford (Ill.) Area Alumni Association celebrated Founders Day by honoring Messrs. Leterman and Moore, singing some of the Phi Psi

Attending the Rockford (Ill.) Alumni Association Founders Day celebrations were: (front) Bob Ross-Shannon, DePauw '43; Charles Bradley, Illinois '37; Chet Otis, Beloit '50; Plato Leeson, Beloit '49; (back) Dave Marth, Iowa State '48; John Whitehead, Northwestern '42; Roger Erkert, Northwestern '50; Bill Shold, Illinois '43; Ken Griswold, Beloit '59; Tom Kerr, Illinois '73; Bruce Ross-Shannon, DePauw '70; and Rich Bushnell, Iowa State '73.

songs and sharing stories from our undergraduate days. Dr. Ken Griswold, Beloit '59, was re-elected president, Tom Kerr, Illinois '73, was elected vice president (president elect) and Dr. Bill Shold, Illinois '73, was elected treasurer. Griswold will also assume the duties of corresponding secretary. The next planned activity will be a summer social. The organization welcomes all Phi Psis now living in the Rockford area. Contact person is: Ken Griswold, 3901 Spring Creek Road, Rockford, IL 61111.

Ken Griswold, President

Seattle

Our Founders Day was one of the most successful in recent history with 129 brothers in attendance. Paul Wineman, Washington '55, was our guest speaker. Dave Kentala, Washington '68, was recognized by the undergraduates at Washington Alpha for his service to the chapter. Todd King, Washington '90, received the Alumni Brotherhood Award from the alumni association.

Mark Coker, Washington '82, and Kevin McCourt, Washington '83, were re-elected president and vice president of the alumni association. The post of secretary-treasurer is open. If you are interested in getting involved, please contact one of the officers. New members to the house corporation are Mark Pearson, Washington '83, Mark Medzegian, Washington '90, and Bill Serr, Washington '55. Joe Pruss, Washington '81, is stepping down after five years of loyal service to the house corporation. Thank you, Joe!

We are pleased to announce eight new lifetime members of the Seattle Alumni Association. They are: Bruce Goldmann, Washington '66; Tom Moquin, Washington '70; Tom Pugh, Washington '70; Mark Medzegian; Cal Jewell, Washington '84; Mark Coker; Stan Kohagen, Washington '55; and Tom Malone, Washington '65.

Don't forget, our alumni association meetings are still held at the Washington Alpha house on the second Tuesday of each month.

Smoky Mountain

Well, it's finally happened. There is now an alumni association in East Tennessee — the Smoky Mountain Alumni Association. So what do I say in this, the first newsletter. Well, how about this, "Join!" If you are an alumnus of Tennessee Epsilon or if you're a Phi Psi alumnus in the Knoxville area, join us and extend the benefits that you once received while active with your chapter. We would love to include you.

It's hard to say what will happen, but I assure you that you will be welcomed with arms wide open. We are looking down the road, and all we see is success. Although we are not limiting ourselves, it is only natural that we assume the task of doing all that is possible to better facilitate Tennessee Epsilon (the nearest chapter). At the same time, we will be enjoying ourselves simply as a group of alumni from all over the nation.

If you are interested in joining or if you simply would like to know what will be on our agenda, please feel free to call me at (615) 637-3881 or drop me a line. Please send mail to the Smoky Mountain Alumni Association, c/o Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity, 1817 Melrose Avenue, Knoxville, TN 37916. You may also gain information by contacting President Tim Curry at (615) 637-1042.

Twin Cities

Sporting events in the Twin Cities area over the last year provided us with a chance to gather and watch the Stanley Cup playoffs, the World Series, the Superbowl and the NCAA Final Four. These events were a great opportunity for all the old boys to do together what everyone would have done anyway — watch sports on TV and drink beer. This way we got to mix in a few tall tales besides.

The arrival of the summer season brings with it a relative calm though TCAA has scheduled a number of events. We have laid plans with the local undergraduate chapter to sponsor two major rush events with the first to take place in July. Ken Zylstra, Minnesota '83, and John Bristol, Minnesota '80, have each volunteered their houses for an event.

As in years past, we will be having our Alumni Golf Tournament in August. TCAA looks forward to the continued wide participation of area alumni in its events.

Those wishing further information on alumni events or to join TCAA are encouraged to contact Rhys Parry, Minnesota '86, at 290-9708.

Summerfield

The Summerfield Scholar program was created through a trust bequest by the late Solon E. Summerfield, Kansas 1899. At the time, Brother Summerfield's donation was the largest ever made to an American college fraternity.

Summerfield was the founder and former head of the Gotham Gold Stripe Hosiery Company of New York. An enthusiastic supporter of the University of Kansas, of Kansas Alpha and of the Fraternity, he established the Solon E. Summerfield Foundation; its income shared by many charitable and educational institutions, among them the Endowment Fund of Phi Kappa Psi.

Each of the Fraternity's chapter and colonies is given the opportunity to select one brother who, through his daily life, best exemplifies scholarship and leadership. The brothers pictured here are the 1992 Summerfield Scholars as selected by their chapters. In addition to the honor of being selected by their peers, Summerfield Scholars receive a $100 grant and a certificate from the Endowment Fund.

All Phi Psis are encouraged to support the Fraternity through annual gifts to the Alumni Support Program and the Endowment Fund through long-term, planned gifts. Tax-deductible gifts and bequests allow Phi Kappa Psi to recognize and develop outstanding scholarship and leadership among its members.

Phi Kappa Psi Alumni Support Program

MARCH 1, 1991 — FEBRUARY 29, 1992

We gratefully acknowledge the following brothers who have made a contribution to the Fraternity through the Endowment Fund's Alumni Support Program and to the Endowment Fund itself during the giving year.

Brothers whose cumulative generosity have qualified them for one of the special giving clubs are recognized at the level attained by the current year's gift. All other donors are listed on the Honor Roll of Contributors.

Remember, contributions to the Alumni Support Program help strengthen our chapters, provide leadership training for undergraduate brothers and provide financial support for the Fraternity.

Hearty thanks and appreciation to all!

Endowment Fund Scholarships

1992 Ralph D. Daniel Leadership Award

This $4,000 award is made in honor of Mr. Phi Psi, Dud Daniel, who has faithfully served the Fraternity since his initiation at the University of Arizona in 1947. A charter member of Arizona Alpha, Brother Daniel was recruited right out of college to join the Fraternity Executive Offices as assistant to Phi Psi's first executive, Dab Williams, Illinois '06. He went on to become the second executive director, the editor of

The Shield and a trustee of the Endowment Fund. Beyond Phi Psi, Brother Daniel has served in all offices, including president, of the Fraternity Executives Association and other interfraternal organizations.

Brother Daniel's theory of fraternity is simple: "Let us be what we say we are — a fraternity, not a club; run by men, not boys; and based on ideals, not expediency."

The grant is made through the generosity of an anonymous donor who values the leadership skills he developed through opportunities in the Fraternity. The grant is made to an undergraduate brother who has displayed outstanding leadership skills in his Phi Psi chapter, on his campus and in his community.

The 1992 recipient of the Ralph D. Daniel Leadership Award is M.A. Williams, Texas '89. An honors program major, Williams graduated from the University of Texas this spring and plans to attend medical school in the fall.

He served the Texas Alpha Chapter as president, vice president, IFC representative and finance committee chairman. He represented Phi Kappa Psi to the larger campus community by serving on the Student Involvement Committee, the IFC Judicial Board and the programming committee of the Greek Leadership Conference. Williams also worked with third graders as a tutor and performed volunteer work for the Brackenridge City Hospital.

During his tenure as an officer of Texas Alpha, Williams worked diligently with other chapter officers to return the chapter to fiscal health, reducing its outstanding debt by over $40,000. Also, he worked closely with the university administration to regain recognition for Texas Alpha as a student organization.

1992 Maurice J. Warnock Scholarship

This grant honors Maurice J. Warnock, Oregon '23, the former chairman of Armstrong World Industries. A charter member of the Oregon Alpha Chapter, he started with what was then called the Armstrong Cork Company in sales after graduation and rose through the ranks.

Brother Warnock has also displayed his commitment to higher education. He served as a Trustee of the Endowment Fund from 1970 to 1976 and has lent his assistance to the University of Oregon, Denison University and Franklin and Marshall College. In 1968, he was the first man designated a Distinguished Alumnus of the University of Oregon.

When named Phi Psi's Outstanding Alumnus at the 1986 Grand Arch Council, Brother Warnock attributed the vibrance of the Fraternity to the commitment of its members. "The reason Phi Psi has flourished for so long and remains the great fraternity it is today is that for 134 years, each generation of brothers has not only passed on to their brothers of the next generation their devotion to Phi Psi's ideals and objectives but has also made a life-long commitment to continue their own active interest and support."

The $1,500 grant is made possible through Brother Warnock's gifts to the Endowment Fund and is awarded to a member of the Oregon Alpha Chapter based on financial need, academic achievement, leadership skills and high character.

The 1992 winner is John Michael Goodman, Oregon '90. A political science major, John expects to graduate in 1993, after which he plans to enter law school. He has been active in both student government and the Interfraternity Council and has volunteered for the marine biology annual Whale Watch, the Christmas Basket Delivery and the Adopt-a-Family Christmas Charity. He has served Oregon Alpha as house manager, fraternity education chairman, rush chairman and on the public relations and governing committees.

Building a Solid Foundation York College Installation

by Michael J. Carey, York '92
Glenn Keller, York '92

Throughout the 140-year history of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity, 131 charters have been granted to undergraduates at institutions of higher education across the country. Each installation is a cause for celebration — a celebration of the birth of a new legacy and a celebration of the perpetuation of the ideals of Founders Moore and Letterman.

Phi Kappa Psi was first introduced to York College because of Brad Jewitt's friendship with a brother from Pennsylvania Pi, Brian Conallen, Temple '88. After being disgruntled with the Greek system at York, he spoke to Brian about Phi Psi and was inspired to start a Colony. Within a short time, Brad had recruited 16 men.

On October 6, 1990, the Pennsylvania Rho Colony was born. Brothers from the Pennsylvania Eta Chapter at Franklin and Marshall College in nearby Lancaster assisted with the colony initiation ceremonies. Ironically, the 17th chapter of Phi Kappa Psi in its mother state blossomed from an original 17 men. Within a little more than a year, all of the colony requirements for a charter were met. Our leather-bound petition, dubbed The Rhoan History, was delivered to and accepted by the Executive Council in late March 1992.

The newly-initiated brothers of Pennsylvania Rho gather in front of St. Paul's Lutheran Church with members of the installation team. This young chapter at York College in the state of Phi Psi's birth has benefitted greatly from advice and interaction with other chapters, including Pennsylvania Eta, Pennsylvania Pi, Pennsylvania Epsilon and Maryland Beta to name just a few. Pennsylvania Rho was organized as a local fraternity, affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi as a colony and, on May 2, 1992, installed as the 131st chapter of the Fraternity.

York College of Pennsylvania History
York College traces its institutional lineage to the York Academy (founded in 1787) and the York Collegiate Institute (founded in 1873). In 1941, these two institutions became York Junior College. Then, in 1968, it became York College of Pennsylvania. Currently, the college hosts 4,500 students and has 19 Greek-letter organizations. There are now five national fraternities, five local fraternities, six national sororities and three local sororities at York.

Installation

The installation of a colony is a three-day process, following months of planning and preparation. Ours began on April 30 with the arrival of Executive Director Terry Harper, Oklahoma State '85, and Director of Chapter Services Ron Richard, Minnesota '84, to administer the colony exam.

The chartering celebration began on May 1 with a welcoming reception hosted by the colony. Brothers came from all around — our advisor, Ernie Thompson, Indiana-Pennsylvania '70, and his wife, Barbara; Brian Meck, Penn State '87, president of the York Area Alumni Club; Bill Hazlett, Johns Hopkins '33; Mystagogue Emeritus Walter Lee Sheppard Jr., Cornell '29; SWGP Bob Lazzell, West Virginia '42, and his lovely wife, Lucille; Executive Director Emeritus Dud Daniel, member of Sigma Chi Fraternity from Cornell), Dean of Student Affairs Joseph Merkle, Director of Student Activities Laurie Reed and Colony Faculty Advisor Mary Graham.

With everyone casually acquainted from the reception, Penn Rho was ready for initiation into the greater whole of the Fraternity. The ceremony took place in the beautiful St. Paul's Lutheran Church, located across the way from the college president's home. It began at 8:00 a.m., and by 1:00 p.m. the secrets of the Fraternity had been laid before us, and we were within the bonds of Phi Kappa Psi. Then we moved from the nave to the chapel for an explanation of the Ritual by Brother Sheppard and the signing of the Bible and charter.

The newly-initiated brothers of Penn Rho convened at Marriott's Hunt Valley Inn for the installation banquet. Symposiarch Dud Daniel gave the opening remarks. Next came the toasts and then dinner. Craig Lytle, Penn Rho president, spoke about the accomplishments of the chapter. Ernie Thompson gave an inspiring speech on the unconditional love of brotherhood. Rex Melato, York's Director of Physical Plant and Personnel, made remarks on our accomplishments in campus service.

Following the presentation of the gifts from brothers, chapters and alumni associations, President Lazzell gave a speech on what it will take to survive as a baby chapter in this day and age, which spoke to the heart of the chapter. The remainder of the night was filled with dancing and socializing. It was a celebration that will not soon be forgotten.

Thanks

We would like to thank several chapters, alumni associations and individuals for either presenting gifts or participating in the installation: National Vice President Smitty Harrison, South Carolina '72; Director of Extension David Shafer, Georgia '83; Assistant Chaplain Tim Walsh, Mississippi '80; Coordinator of Chapter and Faculty Advisors John Ciccarella, Cal State Northridge '72; Rhode Island Beta; Maryland Alpha; Maryland Beta; Pennsylvania Gamma; Pennsylvania Epsilon; Pennsylvania Eta; Pennsylvania Lambda; Pennsylvania Pi; West Virginia Alpha; the Indianapolis Alumni Association; and the West Virginia Alumni Association.

We are greatly touched by the welcome we have recieved into the Fraternity and only hope that we can live up to the legacy that Phi Kappa Psi has created in the 140 years since her birth in the hills of Pennsylvania.

FIPG Risk Management Policy

The Risk Management Policy of the Fraternity Insurance Purchasing Group includes the provisions that follow and shall apply to all fraternity entities and all levels of fraternity membership.

Alcohol And Drugs

The possession, use and/or consumption of ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES, while on Chapter premises, during an official fraternity event, or in any situation sponsored or endorsed by the chapter, must be in compliance with any and all applicable laws of the state, province, county, city and university.

No alcoholic beverages may be purchased through the chapter treasury nor may the purchase of same for members or guests be undertaken or coordinated by any member in the name of or on behalf of the chapter. The purchase and/or use of a bulk quantity of such alcoholic beverage, e.g., kegs, is prohibited.

No chapter members, collectively or individually, shall purchase for, serve to, or sell alcoholic beverages to any minor (i.e. those under legal "drinking age").

The possession, sale and/or use of any illegal drugs or controlled substances at any chapter house, sponsored event or at any event that an observer would associate with the fraternity, is strictly prohibited.

No chapter may co-sponsor an event with an alcohol distributor, charitable organization or tavern (tavern defined as an establishment generating more than half of annual gross sales from alcohol) where alcohol is given away, sold or otherwise provided to those present.

No chapter may co-sponsor or co-finance a function where alcohol is purchased by any of the host chapters, groups or organizations. All rush activities associated with any chapter will be dry rush functions.

Open parties where alcohol is present, meaning those with unrestricted access by non-members of the fraternity, without specific invitation, shall be prohibited.

No member shall permit, tolerate, encourage or participate in "drinking games."

No alcohol shall be present at any pledge/associate member/novice program or activity of the chapter.

Hazing

No chapter shall conduct hazing activities. Hazing activities are defined as:

"Any action taken or situation created, intentionally, whether on or off fraternity premises, to produce mental or physical discomfort, embarrassment, harassment or ridicule. Such activities may include but are not limited to the following: use of alcohol; paddling in any form; creation of excessive fatigue; physical and psychological shocks; quests, treasure hunts, scavenger hunts, road trips or any other such activities carried on outside or inside of the confines of the chapter house; wearing of public apparel which is conspicuous and not normally in good taste; engaging in public stunts and buffoonery; morally degrading or humiliating games and activities; and any other activities which are not consistent with fraternal law, ritual or policy or the regulations and policies of the educational institution."

Sexual Abuse:

The Fraternity will not tolerate or condone any form of sexually abusive behavior on the part of its members, whether physical, mental or emotional. This is to include any actions that are demeaning to women, including but not limited to date rape, gang rape or verbal harassment.

Fire, Health And Safety

All chapter houses shall, prior to, during and following occupancy, meet all local fire and health codes and standards.

All chapters must have emergency numbers for fire, police and ambulance posted by common phones. Also, all chapters must have evacuation routes from chapter house common areas posted in these areas and on the back of the door of each sleeping room.

All chapters shall comply with engineering recommendations as reported by the insurance company.

The possession and/or use of firearms or explosive devices of any kind within the confines and premises of the chapter house is expressly forbidden.

Education

Each student member, associate member and pledge shall be instructed annually on the Risk Management Policy of the Fraternity Insurance Purchasing Group.

Introduction

Last year, Phi Kappa Psi was introspective, looking within to identify strengths and move forward toward the 21st century. Now, in 1992, we are taking some bold strides in that direction, securing the future of our beloved Fraternity.

Under the leadership of the Executive Council, Phi Kappa Psi conducted a major planning summit earlier this year, bringing together nearly 50 of Phi Psi's best and brightest minds, both undergraduate and alumnus, to take a good, hard look at where we are and how we should position ourselves to be the premier American college fraternity. Other sessions are in the works with smaller focus groups.

Another major step forward was the Executive Council's launching of a $7 million capital campaign on behalf of the Endowment Fund to financially support such exciting programs as the building and renovation of chapter houses, the continuation of leadership and scholarship awards, and the development a state-of-the-art Phi Psi computer network. At the 1992 Grand Arch Council in San Francisco, Campaign Chairman W. Robert Goldman, Jr., Miami '72 (Washington & Jefferson '64) introduced the campaign to the general membership with the news that $3.8 million had already been pledged! You'll be hearing a lot more about this campaign throughout the next year.

This annual report is different than those you have seen in the past. The decision was made this year to begin tallying membership data according to the Fraternity's fiscal year, June 1 through May 31, rather than Founders Day to Founders Day. In this transitional report, therefore, you will be reviewing 15 months' worth of data. Please bear that in mind as you read.

You'll also be pleased to see the consolidated financial statements of the Fraternity and the Endowment Fund with prior year comparisons. Both corporations are financially sound and stable. In fact, both organizations posted impressive gains as of May 31, 1992.

Phi Kappa Psi is a fraternity on the move. Don't stand by and watch; get in the game! You can start by visiting your chapter this fall for homecoming; the dates are listed on the back cover. 1993 and beyond holds great promise for our "Noble Fraternity!"

Chapter Services

"What does the National Fraternity do for me?" It's an interesting question heard from many undergraduate members of our Fraternity. The most visible form of aid from Phi Kappa Psi to its chapters is the Educational Leadership Consultant program. Recent graduates are professionally trained to serve Phi Psi chapters and colonies as on-site facilitators, presenters, fraternity experts, and peer-counselors.

Typical visits include meetings with undergraduate officers and committees, as well as chapter advisors, university administrators, interfraternity leaders, and house corporation officers. Over the past year, Phi Kappa Psi provided each undergraduate chapter with at least one three-night visit and each colony with at least two three-night visits. During the 15-month reporting period, there were 128 chapter visits and 11 colony visits provided by the Fraternity staff. Additionally, the chapter services department spent a total of ten weeks recruiting and reorganizing two chapters.

Phi Kappa Psi remains committed to providing quality service to its chapters and colonies, alumni advisors, and alumni organizations. This commitment begins, however, with developing the leadership skills of our undergraduate members.

Undergraduate Membership

Phi Kappa Psi realized an overall gain in its average chapter size during the reporting year. An "average" Phi Psi chapter now has 53 members; chapters and colonies generally pledge 21 men and initiate 20 of them. These statistics are skewed by the longer reporting period and by the Fraternity staff's efforts to reconcile the Grand Membership Roll with chapter rolls. Fraternity records rely upon the undergraduate chapter reports which have fallen behind over time. The Fraternity has also welcomed a larger number of new chapters during this reporting period and a number of smaller chapters have closed in these 15 months.

Our chapters at Cal State Northridge, Butler, and Allegheny all ranked first among the fraternities on their campuses

Chapter Installations

The Executive Council granted five chapter charters during the preceding 15 months, and all five campuses are new to the rolls of Phi Kappa Psi. The California Kappa Chapter at the University of California at Irvine and the Massachusetts Beta Chapter at Brandeis University were reported in the 1990-91 Annual Report.

The fall semester of 1991 brought the initiation of 36 East Carolina University students into the mysteries of Phi Kappa Psi. A transfer student from Temple University began the North Carolina Beta Colony in February, 1989. The chapter received its charter on October 26, 1991.

A local fraternity at the Rochester Institute of Technology, the League of Knights, chose to affiliate with Phi Psi during the spring of 1990 as the Fraternity's New York Theta Colony. Two years later, 56 eager gentlemen were initiated into Phi Kappa Psi as the New York Theta Chapter assumed its place as the 130th chapter on the Fraternity's roll.

Seventeen men began the Pennsylvania Rho Colony at York College in the fall of 1990. After the Executive Council perused their impressive petition, titled Rhoan History, our youngest chapter was granted its charter and 37 new initiates received the badge.

Revived Chapters

The Pennsylvania Gamma chapter returned to Bucknell University with the initiation of 19 men. The chapter now occupies the completely refurbished Georgian Manor, now owned by the university.

Although another grand piece of Phi Psi property was sold there, the Ohio Beta Chapter is back in full force at Wittenberg University. Ohio Beta now has 38 undergraduate members and is occupying the former Alpha Xi Delta chapter house.

Scholarship

Phi Kappa Psi stresses academic achievement by requiring each chapter to beat the higher of the campus all-men's average or 2.5 on a 4.0 scale. Additionally, each chapter and colony officer is required to set an example within the organization by personally achieving that average. Our chapters at Cal State Northridge, Butler, and Allegheny ranked first among the fraternities on their campuses.

Expansion

Phi Kappa Psi adopted a new Expansion Policy during the report year. These guidelines for establishing new chapters outlines criteria by which potential campuses and interest groups will be selected. There are currently two colonies of Phi Kappa Psi.

The Louisiana Gamma Colony began in the spring of 1990 with a recruitment effort by Fraternity staff members at Loyola University in New Orleans. Twenty-five men were inducted into the colony.

Our youngest group is at DePaul University in Chicago. A local interest group became the Illinois Zeta Colony in April of 1991. These men are earnestly working toward a Phi Kappa Psi charter.

Phi Kappa Psi has been selected to recruit and organize a new chapter at San Diego State University during the 1993 academic year. We have been contacted by a local fraternity at Dartmouth and expansion proposals have been sent to Duquesne University, Boston University, the University of New Hampshire, and Old Dominion University. The Eastern Oklahoma Alumni Association is investigating expansion possibilities at the University of Tulsa.

Alumni Relations

"Lifetime commitment? What does that mean?" With 95 undergraduate chapters and colonies, Phi Kappa Psi relies heavily upon its alumni members to guide today's students. Last year's annual report introduced the Chapter Advisory Committee concept. This year, Phi Psi boasts such groups at Alabama, Arizona State, Bowling Green, Butler, UC Davis, UCLA, Cal State Northridge, Colorado, Creighton, DePaul, DePauw, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana State, Kansas, Missouri, Rhode Island, Southern Methodist, Stanford, Tennessee, Toledo, Trenton State, Valparaiso, Vanderbilt, Washington, West Virginia, and Wittenberg.

These chapters enjoy contact with several alumni counselors who provide guidance in such areas as fraternity education, rush, finance, and scholarship. The days of jack-of-all-trades advisors are ending as a team of advisors, expert in specific areas of chapter operations, replace them. Six chapters, however, are without any advisors: Akron, Allegheny, Cornell, Michigan, Minnesota, and Oregon.

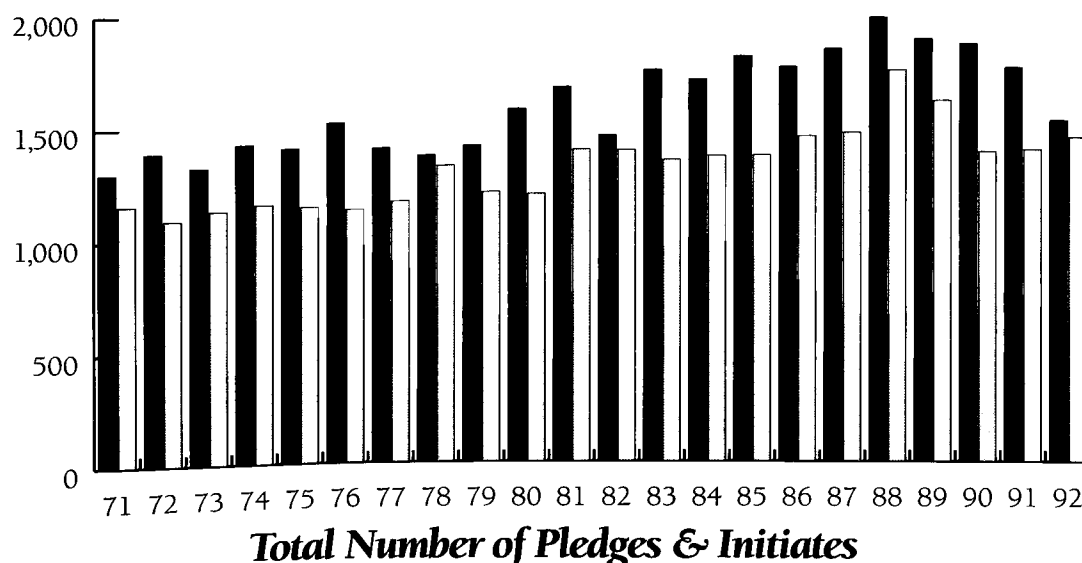

The national Chapter Advisor Steering Committee has been working diligently to draft a resource guide for all advisors. This loose-leaf publication will contain job descriptions, workshop outlines, news articles, and other resources for advisors and counselors to use with their chapters and colonies. Coordinator of Chapter and Faculty Advisors John Ciccarelli organized two more and executed very successful Advisors' Seminars at the Woodrow Wilson Leadership School and the 66th Grand Arch Council. In addition to the seminars and The Roundtable, a new publication for advisors, the Executive Council has authorized the hiring of a new Fraternity staff member who will work with alumni relations, house corporations, and the insurance program. Through these methods, and others, the Fraternity is making significant commitments to its alumni.

Phi Kappa Psi also provides other ways to be involved as an alumnus. There is a house corporation board for each chapter, and several such boards are in need of assistance. Management of chapter assets and direction of long-term maintenance projects require dedicated, caring alumni directors. Several chapter houses have been remodeled this report year; Arizona State, Bucknell, Gettysburg, Iowa State, Johns Hopkins, Kansas, Lafayette, Miami, Nebraska, Northwestern, Ohio Wesleyan, Purdue, and Valparaiso have completed major renovations or are near completion. UCLA, Illinois, Indiana, and Washington are planning future renovations and Alabama is picking up and moving its house across and down the street!

New homes were acquired during the reporting period for Akron, Case

The rejuvenation of existing alumni associations that now lie dormant is a primary goal of Phi Kappa Psi...

Western, Illinois State, Southern Methodist, Temple, and Toledo while Florida State and Louisiana State hope to purchase their homes soon. Finally, UC-Davis and Wittenberg plan to build new homes in the near future. Thirteen chapters currently have no organized house corporation boards, and there are plenty of other projects that rely upon alumni involvement as well.

Four new alumni associations were added to Phi Psi's roll this year. Hearty welcomes were extended to the Golden Circle Alumni Association, the Sacramento Alumni Association, the Smokey Mountain Alumni Association, and the Southern Michigan Alumni Association.

The creation of new alumni associations, and rejuvenation of existing associations that now lie dormant, is a primary goal of Phi Kappa Psi during the next biennium.

Publications

The Fraternity continues to believe that communication with all its members is of the highest priority. As the issues facing Phi Psi become more complex, however, we need more specialized publications to best meet the needs of our various constituencies. The Shield of Phi Kappa Psi remains the Fraternity's primary vehicle of communication with alumni, but it continues to be supplemented with additional publications focusing specifically on the concerns of chapter officers, the ramifications of risk management, and the importance of chapter and faculty advisors, among others.

Publication of The Shield changed from quarterly to three-times-a-year and then changed back again during the reporting period, resulting in issues being mailed in the summer and fall of 1991 and winter of 1992 with no spring 1992 issue. We are now back on a four-times-a-year schedule, beginning with the most-recent summer issue. We have also chosen official vendors of fraternity sportswear and other paraphernalia. Look for ads from those groups in upcoming mailings.

This year promises much action on the publications front as many long-outdated resources are reviewed and recreated. Chapters have requested more pre-prepared materials for rush, fraternity education, and philanthropic events, and we plan to oblige. We will also continue our push to make each of the Fraternity's many publications more consistent and immediately identifiable, while at the same time increasing readability and style.

Fraternity Headquarters

Phi Psi's Headquarters and Museum has been located at 510 Lockerbie Street in downtown Indianapolis since June, 1978. Prior to that, the Fraternity was headquartered in Cleveland, Ohio. We established a central office in 1930.

The Fraternity manages its information with an IBM System/36 minicomputer. While the hardware itself is not state-of-the-art, the system adequately provides for all of Phi Psi's data processing and information management needs. The software is quickly and easily modified to accommodate changing requirements.

Behind the scenes, a dedicated staff of professionals keeps the Fraternity on course. Terry Harper, Oklahoma State '85, is beginning his third year as Phi Psi's Executive Director. Terry has served on the Fraternity staff for six years, spending two years on the road as an Educational Leadership Consultant and one-year stints each as Director of Publications and Director of Chapter Services and Risk Management. Serving with the Executive Director has been Ron Richard, Minnesota '84. Ron also travelled for Phi Psi as an ELC during the 1986-1988 biennium before rejoining the staff in 1990. John Mead, Tennessee '87, completed his third year on staff as Director of Publications. Joining the staff in mid-April was Sandi Leddy, a graduate of Purdue University, as the Fraternity's Staff Accountant.

Serving Phi Psi's chapters and colonies during the 1991-92 academic year were Douglas Pszczolkowski, Allegheny '87, completing his second year, and first-year man Jamie Acton, Valparaiso '88.

The support staff of Ellen King, Mary Ellen Agee, Joy Bump, Susan Moriarty, and Edward Hale round out the Headquarters team.

The staff changed again after May 31 as Ron Richard and John Mead departed to pursue other careers. Douglas Pszczolkowski was named Director of Chapter Services on August 1, while David Murray, Bucknell '91, began as Director of Publications on August 10. Joining Jamie Acton as Educational Leadership Consultants for 1992-93 are Marc Bruffett, Buffalo '89, and Jim Boyle, Washington '88.

As mentioned earlier, the Executive Council approved the creation of a new staff position to address the needs of alumni and house corporations. A target date of December 1 has been set to fill the new post. Interested brothers can find out more about the position by sending a résumé to the Executive Director by November 1.

Finances

Financially speaking, fiscal year 1992 was a banner year for Phi Kappa Psi. Although the Fraternity's income was down 5% from 1991 to $1,445,510, the Fraternity's asset base increased by more than 6% to $3,348,264. The decrease in income was due primarily to a reduction in the grant the Fraternity receives from the Endowment Fund for educational programs and a one-time contribution from the Endowment Fund in 1991 in connection with the purchase of certain real estate from the Fraternity. Overall, though, the Fraternity's financial outlook is healthy and strong.

---

General Fund

General Fund revenues exceeded expenses by $98,257 in 1991-92. General Fund revenues were down nearly 18% primarily because of the aforementioned reduction in the Endowment Fund grant and the out-of-the-ordinary contribution of the Endowment Fund in 1991. Likewise, General Fund expenses were reduced 32% from the prior year. Revenue from undergraduate sources accounted for nearly two-thirds of total General Fund revenue for 1992.

Permanent Fund

The assets of the Permanent, Scholastic, Educational, Charitable, and Fraternal Fund, better known simply as "The Permanent Fund," consist of investments in marketable securities and some fixed assets.

Investment income from the Permanent Fund is used to supplement the educational programs of the Fraternity. These include the Educational Leadership Consultant program and the Woodrow Wilson Leadership School, to name but a few. The Permanent Fund's investment account balance grew 4% after expenses and grants to the Fraternity.

Harris Investment Management of Chicago, Illinois, has professionally managed the investments of the Permanent Fund since July 1, 1938. The Board of Trustees of the Permanent Fund carefully monitors the performance of the investment manager and reports to the Executive Council. The Trustees are three Phi Psi alumni appointed by the President to oversee the investments of the Permanent Fund. These alumni generously give of their time and professional expertise to assist the Fraternity in achieving its financial goals and objectives. Currently serving as Trustees are John R. Donnell Jr., Case Western Reserve '59, W. M. Batten, Ohio State '29, and Dr. John W. Oswald, DePauw '35.

Total assets of the Permanent Fund at May 31, 1992, increased to $2,289,732 from $2,199,659 last year.

Insurance Fund

The Insurance Fund was created by the Executive Council to account for the insurance and risk management programs of the Fraternity. Excess insurance revenues over expenses are designated to fund risk management programs at the Woodrow Wilson Leadership School, a portion of the Educational Leadership Consultant program, self-insured retentions (deductibles), chapter house safety inspections and general program administration.

Insurance program revenues for the year ending May 31, 1992, were $590,172, a 13.2% increase over 1991. The fund had an operating surplus of $125,371 during the year under review, increasing the Insurance Fund balance to $268,675. The purpose of the fund balance is to set aside adequate funds to cover our deductible amount and offset any sudden and dramatic premium increases.

Insurance and Risk Management

Phi Kappa Psi was the very first fraternity to create a national insurance program in the early 1980s. The goal of the national insurance and risk management program is to prevent losses from occurring and reduce the risk associated with running a chapter. The health and safety of our members is of the utmost importance. The program also protects the loyal volunteers supporting the Fraternity and its undergraduate chapters while they are acting within the scope of their duties.

Participation in the insurance program is mandatory for all chapters and house corporations. Only through 100% participation can we guarantee the best coverage at the lowest cost. Currently, the property program insures over $30 million of Phi Kappa Psi-owned land, improvements, and belongings.

Some highlights of the 1991-92 program include:

- Liability coverage was provided through Mt. Hawley Insurance Company, a subsidiary of RLI Corp.
- Available were liability limits of $1 million per location per year and excess coverage of $1 million per location per year.
- For the first time in Fraternity history, we self-insured the main policy's $100,000 per year deductible.
- Liability premiums paid by undergraduates remained at $75 per man per year, last year's rate.
- Property coverage was underwritten by Aetna Life and Casualty.
- Each housed chapter received a combined property and liability inspection this spring with recommendations for improvement currently being implemented.
- Risk management seminars were presented to chapters and colonies during each Educational Leadership Consultant visit.
- Phi Psi's risk management newsletter, The Sentry, was published for the second year. It was hailed by the Greek community as an outstanding risk management resource.

Phi Kappa Psi remains a member of the Fraternity Insurance Purchasing Group (FIPG), a consortium of 35 men's and women's fraternities whose primary goal now is risk management education and policy enforcement at the chapter level.

Conclusions

All these facts and figures point to one thing: Phi Kappa Psi is vibrant, healthy, and charting a bold course for the future. Our new Executive Board and enthusiastic Headquarters staff will strive together to ensure a year of innovation and improvement as we serve both the Fraternity-at-large and each individual chapter.

At the most basic level, however, it is those individual chapters whose future determines the future of the Fraternity... which is precisely why we urge you to become involved. Go to homecoming if you can, sit in on a local chapter meeting, offer your talents and services to the undergraduate brothers in your area. We'll all be glad you did.

Endowment Fund

HARPER
Oklahoma State '85

Brothers helping Brothers: The philosophy of the Endowment Fund of Phi Kappa Psi, Inc. since its inception in 1914 and its incorporation in the state of Illinois in 1922. The Endowment Fund was established and continues to exist for the benefit of the Fraternity by promoting academic excellence, leadership, and moral responsibility among our members.

The assets of the Endowment Fund now total $1,109,915. They are primarily cash, marketable securities, and real estate. The Endowment Fund is the owner of Heritage Hall, the Fraternity's Headquarters and Museum, and collects rent from the Fraternity which occupies the office space within.

Fund Management

The affairs of the Endowment Fund are managed by three Trustees, each serving a six-year term. One Trustee is elected at the biennial meeting of the Endowment Fund held concurrently with each Grand Arch Council. James W. Emison III, DePauw '49, is Chairman. His term runs through 1998. Jerry Nelson, UCLA '48, is Vice Chairman and serves through 1996. John F. Buck, Indiana '75, is Secretary/Treasurer and serves through 1994. Like the Permanent Fund Trustees, these alumni generously donate their time and talents for the betterment of the Fraternity.

During the first half of the year under review, the Endowment Fund employed a professional staff led by Kent H. Buell, Northwestern '54. In January, the Trustees decided to contract instead with the Fraternity for administrative and support services.

Fund Allocation

Over the years, the Endowment Fund has used its income to make student loans, provide scholarships and grants to deserving students, and make grants to chapters for the purchase of computers for educational purposes. The Endowment Fund also supplements the Fraternity's educational programs by making a grant to the Fraternity each year in support of those activities.

Gifts to the Endowment Fund are currently deductible to the extent that the law permits for those filing a U. S. tax return. The Endowment Fund is recognized under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization that operates exclusively for charitable and educational purposes.

In 1952, the Fraternity's centennial year, Phi Kappa Psi began the Alumni Support Program to provide alumni the opportunity to continue their support of the Fraternity beyond their college days. In 1988, the program came under the auspices of the Endowment Fund to allow donors the opportunity to take tax deductions for their gifts. Giving trends remained fairly stable through the 1950s and gradually began to increase in the early 1970s. 1977 saw the first six-figure giving year and, in 1984, the program topped $200,000! Numbers have been down slightly in recent years due to the recession, among other things.

During the 1991 giving year that ended February 29, 1992, 3,677 gifts totalling $170,908 were made to the Endowment Fund through the Alumni Support Program. The names of those generous benefactors were listed in the Summer 1992 issue of The Shield.

1991-92 was a year of improvement for the Endowment Fund. Net assets (assets minus liabilities) improved slightly over last year to $1,089,563. This includes $386,840 held in funds the income of which is restricted by the donor for specific uses.

The Endowment Fund's Balance Sheet and Income Statement can be found on the following pages.
