Gary A. Riopelle '53

Gary Alfred Gene Riopelle died Sept. 14, 2021. He was born in Argyle, MN and his family moved to Long Beach, where he would live the rest of his life — residing more than 60 years in Bixby Knolls with his beloved wife Signe, who pre-deceased him. He was the youngest of three children born to Edwin and Ethel Riopelle. His sister Shirley Riopelle Budnick and brother James Riopelle also pre-deceased him. After graduating from Long Beach Polytechnic High School in 1952, Gary attended UCLA on an ROTC scholarship, and he remained a loyal alumnus and fan of UCLA sports for the rest of his life. Immediately after graduating from UCLA, Gary married his high school sweetheart Signe Gissberg. Gary joined the Army after graduating from college, and was stationed at Fort Knox, where he rose to the rank of First Lieutenant. Gary saw great success in his career. He was promoted to President of the Bell Brand Foods Company at age 35, and shortly thereafter became Controller over the Western United States for the Sunshine Biscuit Company, a division of American Brands. Later, he served as Treasurer and then President of the Kirkhill Hardware Manufacturing Company. In lieu of flowers, we encourage everyone to donate to the Long Beach YMCA (lbymca.org) or to LUFA World (LUFWorld.com), a charity devoted to the cause of animals or to a charity that supports your local community, wherever you are. William A. Burns '50

William Burns, 91, of Manchester, RI, passed away April 16, 2022. Born and raised in Hanover, NH, Bill was the youngest of three children of Ethel and Ralph Burns. He grew up to marry his high school sweetheart and the love of his life, Susan Sperry.

CHAPTER ETERNAL

After 74 years as a couple, it's comforting to think they are together again now and forever. Bill and Sue raised two children, Margo lives in Manchester and is a third-generation educator. Steve lives in York, Maine, with his wife Deb, who have two adult children, Cas of Medford, Massachusetts, and Courtney and her boyfriend Brandon of Wellington, New Zealand. Mr. Burns was the principal of Manchester High School Central from 1967 to 1993. He was a graduate of Dartmouth College (1953) and Tufts University (1956) with degrees in History and Education. He attended Dartmouth in the Navy ROTC and upon graduation received a commission in the United States Navy. He served two years of active duty late in the Korean War and felt fortunate to have been assigned to duty in the Atlantic. He was the anti-submarine warfare officer aboard the destroyer escort USS J. Douglas Blackwood. After he left active service, he used benefits under the GI Bill to put himself through graduate school. He always downplayed his service, though it benefited him greatly. How he served in the Navy Reserve while living in Island Pond, Vermont remains a mystery to this day! In lieu of flowers, Bill would want donations to the Central Pride Foundation, 207 Lowell St., Manchester, NH 03104.
